<sup>43</sup>And that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced. For God had made them rejoice with great joy. And the wives and the sons rejoiced, so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off. <sup>44</sup>And at that time some were chosen over the rooms for the treasuries, for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather to them out of the fields of the cities the portions of the law for the priests and Levites. For Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites who waited. <sup>45</sup>And both the singers and the gatekeepers kept the charge of their God, and the charge of the cleansing, according to the command of David and of Solomon his son. <sup>46</sup>For in the days of David and Asaph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God. <sup>47</sup>And all Israel gave the portions of the singers and the gatekeepers, every day its portion, in the days of Zerubbabel and in the days of Nehemiah. And they set the holy things apart for the Levites, and the Levites set them apart for the sons of Aaron.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>On that day they read in the book of Moses in the ears of the people. And in it was found written that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God forever, <sup>2</sup>because they did not meet the sons of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them so that he should curse them. But our God turned the curse into a blessing. <sup>3</sup>And it happened when they had heard the law, they separated all the mixed multitude from Israel. <sup>4</sup>And before this, Eliashib the priest, who was set over the rooms of the house of our God, and who was related to Tobiah — <sup>5</sup>and he had prepared for himself a large room where they had in days of old laid the food offering, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the offerings of the priests.

<sup>6</sup>But in all this time I was not at Jerusalem. For in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon, I came to the king. And after some days I was given permission to leave the king. <sup>7</sup>And I came to Jerusalem, and understood the evil which Eliashib did for Tobiah in preparing him a room in the courts of the house of God. <sup>8</sup>And it grieved me very much. And I threw all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the room. <sup>9</sup>Then I commanded, and they purified the rooms. And I brought there again the vessels of the house of God, with the food offering and the frankincense. <sup>10</sup>And I saw that the portions of the Levites had not been given to them; for the Levites and the singers, who did the work, had fled each one to his field. <sup>11</sup>And I contended with the rulers and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together and set them in their place. <sup>12</sup>And all Judah brought the tithe of the grain and the new wine and the oil into the treasuries. <sup>13</sup>And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah. And next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah. For they were counted faithful, and their office was to distribute to their brothers. <sup>14</sup>Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my good deeds which I have done for the house of my God, and for the offices of it.

<sup>15</sup>In those days I saw in Judah some treading winepresses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and loading asses and also wine, grapes, and figs, and all kinds of burdens which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. And I testified against them in the day in which they sold food. <sup>16</sup>And men of Tyre lived in it, who brought fish and all kinds of goods, and sold on the Sabbath to the sons of Judah and in Jerusalem. <sup>17</sup>And I contended with the nobles of Judah and said to them, What evil thing is this that you do, and defile the Sabbath day? <sup>18</sup>Did not your fathers do this, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us and upon this city? Yet you bring more wrath upon Israel by defiling the Sabbath. <sup>19</sup>And it happened when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the Sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and commanded that they should not be opened until after the Sabbath. And I set some of my servants at the gates, so that there should be no burden brought in on the Sabbath day. <sup>20</sup>And the merchants and sellers of all kinds of goods stayed the night outside Jerusalem once or twice. <sup>21</sup>And I testified against them, and said to them, Why do you stay around the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time on they did not come on the Sabbath. <sup>22</sup>And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of Your mercy.

<sup>23</sup>In those days I also saw Jews who lived with women from Ashdod, from Ammon, and from Moab. <sup>24</sup>And their sons spoke half Ashdod's speech, and there was no caring to speak Jewish, but according to the language of each people. <sup>25</sup>And I contended with them, and cursed them, and struck certain of them, and plucked off their hair. And I made them swear by the name of God, saying, You shall not give your daughters to their sons, or take their daughters to your sons, or for yourselves. <sup>26</sup>Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? Yet among many nations there was no king like him, who was beloved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel. But women from other lands caused even him to sin. <sup>27</sup>Shall we then listen to you, to do all this great evil, to sin against our God in living with foreign women? <sup>28</sup>And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite; and I chased him from me. <sup>29</sup>Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood and of the Levites. <sup>30</sup>So I cleansed them from all strangers, and appointed charges to the priests and the Levites, every one in his business, <sup>31</sup>and for the wood offering, at chosen times, and for the firstfruits. Remember me, O my God, for good!

THE BOOK OF ESTHER

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>And it happened in the days of Ahasuerus (this is the Ahasuerus who reigned from India even to Ethiopia, over a hundred and twenty-seven provinces) — <sup>2</sup>in those days, when king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom in Shushan the palace, <sup>3</sup>in the third year of his reign, he made a feast to all his princes and his servants. The power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, were before him. <sup>4</sup>And he showed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honor of his excellent majesty many days, a hundred and eighty days. <sup>5</sup>And when these days had expired, the king made a feast to all the people who were present in Shushan the palace, both to great and small, for seven days in the court of the garden of the king's palace. <sup>6</sup>White, green, and blue hangings were fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble. The beds were of gold and silver, on a pavement of red and blue and white and black marble. <sup>7</sup>And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, the vessels being different from one another, and royal wine in abundance, according to the hand of the king. <sup>8</sup>And the drinking was according to the law, no one compelling, for so the king had commanded every chief of his house that they should do according to every man's pleasure. <sup>9</sup>Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

<sup>10</sup>On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven eunuchs who served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, <sup>11</sup>to bring Vashti the queen before the king with the royal crown, in order to show the people and the princes her beauty, for she was beautiful to look on. <sup>12</sup>But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command by his eunuchs. And the king was very angry, and his anger burned within him. <sup>13</sup>And the king said to the wise men who knew the times (for so was the king's manner toward all who knew law and judgment; <sup>14</sup>and the next to him were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media who saw the king's face, who sat first in the kingdom), <sup>15</sup>What shall we do with queen Vashti according to law, because she has not done the command of the king Ahasuerus by the eunuchs? <sup>16</sup>And Memucan answered before the king and princes, Vashti the queen has not only done wrong to the king, but also to all the princes, and to all the people who are in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus. <sup>17</sup>For the matter of the queen shall go out to all women, so that their husbands shall be despised in their eyes, and it shall be reported that king Ahasuerus commanded to bring Vashti the queen in before him, but she did not come. <sup>18</sup>And this day the princesses of Persia and Media shall say the same to all the king's princes who have heard of the deed of the queen. And there will be contempt and strife.

<sup>19</sup>If it please the king, let there be a royal command from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, so that it may not be changed, that Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus. And let the king give her royal state to another who is better than she is. <sup>20</sup>And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire (for it is great), all the wives shall give their husbands honor, both the great and small. <sup>21</sup>And the saying pleased the king and the princes. And the king did according to the word of Memucan. <sup>22</sup>For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to the writing of it, and to every people in their language, so that every man should bear rule in his own house, and that it should be published according to the language of every people.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>After these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus had calmed down, he remembered Vashti and what she had done, and what was decreed against her. <sup>2</sup>And the king's servants who served him said, Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king. <sup>3</sup>And let the king choose officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, so that they may gather together all the beautiful young virgins to Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, to the hand of Hegai the king's officer, keeper of the women. And let their ointments be given. <sup>4</sup>And let the young woman who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king, and he did so.

<sup>5</sup>In Shushan the palace there was a certain Jew whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite <sup>6</sup>who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away. <sup>7</sup>And he brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter. For she had neither father nor mother, and the young woman was fair and beautiful, whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter. <sup>8</sup>And it happened when the king's command and his order was heard, and when many young women had been gathered to Shushan the palace, into the hand of Hegai, Esther was also brought to the king's house, into the hand of Hegai, keeper of the women. <sup>9</sup>And the young woman pleased him, and she received kindness from him. And he quickly gave her the ointments for herself, with such things as were set aside to her, and seven young women who were fit to be given her, out of the king's house. And he moved her and her maids to the best place in the house of the women. <sup>10</sup>Esther had not revealed her people nor her kindred, for Mordecai had commanded her that she should not show it.

<sup>11</sup>And Mordecai walked every day in front of the court of the women's house in order to know how Esther did and what was to become of her. <sup>12</sup>And when the turn of each young woman had come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after she had been twelve months, according to the law of the women (for so the days of their anointing were done, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odors, and with the perfumes of the women). <sup>13</sup>And in this way the young woman came to the king. Whatever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women to the king's house. <sup>14</sup>She went in the evening, and on the next day she returned to the second house of the women, into the hand of Shaashgaz, the king's officer who kept the concubines. She did not come in to the king any more, unless the king delighted in her, and she was called by name. <sup>15</sup>And when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai who had taken her for his daughter, had come to go in to the king, she asked nothing but what was chosen by Hegai the king's officer, the keeper of the women. And Esther had favor in the sight of all who looked on her. <sup>16</sup>And Esther was taken to king Ahasuerus into his royal house in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign. <sup>17</sup>And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she rose in grace and favor in his sight more than all the virgins. And he set the royal crown on her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti. <sup>18</sup>And the king made a great feast to all his princes and his servants, Esther's feast. And he ordered a release for the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king. <sup>19</sup>And when the virgins were gathered the second time, then Mordecai sat in the king's gate. <sup>20</sup>Esther had not yet revealed her kindred nor her people, as Mordecai had commanded her. For Esther obeyed the command of Mordecai as she did when she was brought up with him.

<sup>21</sup>In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's eunuchs, Bigthan and Teresh, of those who kept the door, were angry and tried to lay a hand on king Ahasuerus. <sup>22</sup>And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told Esther the queen. And Esther told the king in Mordecai's name. <sup>23</sup>And when the matter was searched into, it was found out, and the two of them were hanged on a tree. And it was written in the Book of the Matters of the Days before the king.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>After these things king Ahasuerus promoted Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes who were with him. <sup>2</sup>And all the king's servants in the king's gate bowed and worshiped Haman, for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai did not bow nor worship. <sup>3</sup>And the king's servants in the king's gate said to Mordecai, Why do you transgress the king's command? <sup>4</sup>And it happened when they spoke daily to him, and when he did not listen to them, they told Haman, to see if Mordecai's matters would stand. For he had told them that he was a Jew. <sup>5</sup>And when Haman saw that Mordecai did not bow nor worship him, then Haman was full of wrath. <sup>6</sup>And he scorned to lay hands only on Mordecai, for they had revealed to him the people of Mordecai. And Haman sought to destroy all the Jews throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, the people of Mordecai. <sup>7</sup>In the first month, that is, the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, the month Adar. <sup>8</sup>And Haman said to king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people, in all the provinces of your kingdom. And their laws are different from all people, neither do they keep the king's laws. And it is not for the king's gain to allow them to live. <sup>9</sup>If it pleases the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed. And I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those who have charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries. <sup>10</sup>And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it to Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy. <sup>11</sup>And the king said to Haman, The silver is given to you, the people also, to do with them as seems good to you. <sup>12</sup>Then the king's scribes were called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded to the king's lieutenants, and to the governors who were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province, according to the writing of it, and to every people according to their language. It was written in the name of king Ahasuerus and sealed with the king's ring. <sup>13</sup>And the letters were sent by postal riders into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, on the thirteenth of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take what they owned for a prize. <sup>14</sup>The copy of the writing, for a command to be given in every province, was published to all people, that they should be ready for that day. <sup>15</sup>The posts went out, being hurried by the king's command, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city Shushan was perplexed.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>And Mordecai understood all that was done, and Mordecai tore his clothes and put on sackcloth with ashes and went out into the middle of the city, and cried with a loud and bitter cry. <sup>2</sup>And he even came before the king's gate for none might enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth. <sup>3</sup>And in every province, wherever the king's command and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping and wailing. And many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

<sup>4</sup>And Esther's maids and her officers came and told her. And the queen was exceedingly grieved, and she sent clothing to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him. But he did not receive it. <sup>5</sup>And Esther called for Hatach, one of the king's eunuchs whom he had appointed to attend on her, and gave him a command to Mordecai to know what it was and why it was. <sup>6</sup>And Hatach went forth to Mordecai, to the street of the city in front of the king's gate. <sup>7</sup>And Mordecai told him of all that had happened to him, and of the sum of the money which Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews in order to destroy them. <sup>8</sup>Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree which was given at Shushan in order to destroy them, to show it to Esther and to declare it to her, and to command her that she should go in to the king to make supplication to him, and to seek help for her people. <sup>9</sup>And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai. <sup>10</sup>Again Esther spoke to Hatach, and gave him command to Mordecai. <sup>11</sup>And the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that whoever, whether man or woman, shall come to the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law of his, execution, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden scepter so that he may live. But I have not been called to come in to the king these thirty days.

<sup>12</sup>And they told Mordecai Esther's words. <sup>13</sup>And Mordecai commanded them to answer Esther, Do not think within yourself that you shall escape in the king's house more than all the Jews. <sup>14</sup>For if you are completely silent at this time, relief and deliverance shall arise to the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house shall be destroyed. And who knows whether you have come to the kingdom for a time like this? <sup>15</sup>And Esther said to return to Mordecai this answer, <sup>16</sup>Go, gather all the Jews who are present in Shushan, and fast for me, and do not eat nor drink three days, night or day. My maidens and I will also fast in the same way. And so I will go in to the king, which is not according to the law. And if I perish, I perish. <sup>17</sup>And Mordecai passed over and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>And it happened on the third day, Esther put on royal clothing, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, across from the king's house. And the king sat on his royal throne in the royal house, across from the gate of the house. <sup>2</sup>And it happened when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, she received favor in his sight. And the king held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand. And Esther drew near and touched the top of the scepter. <sup>3</sup>And the king said to her, What do you desire, queen Esther? And what is your wish? It shall be given to you even to half of the kingdom. <sup>4</sup>And Esther answered, If it is good to the king, let the king and Haman come today to the banquet which I have prepared for him. <sup>5</sup>And the king said, Cause Haman to hurry so that he may do as Esther has said. And the king and Haman came to the banquet which Esther had prepared.

<sup>6</sup>And the king said to Esther at the banquet of wine, What is your petition that it shall be granted to you? And what is your request? It shall be performed even to half of the kingdom. <sup>7</sup>And Esther answered and said, As to my petition and my request, <sup>8</sup>if I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet which I shall prepare for them, and I will do tomorrow as the king has said. <sup>9</sup>And Haman went forth that day joyful and with a glad heart. But when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he did not stand up nor move for him, he was full of fury against Mordecai. <sup>10</sup>But Haman held himself in. And when he came home, he sent and called for his friends and Zeresh his wife. <sup>11</sup>And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and his many sons, and all to which the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king. <sup>12</sup>And Haman said, Yes, Esther the queen let no man but me come in with the king to the banquet that she had prepared. And also tomorrow I am invited to her banquet, with the king. <sup>13</sup>Yet all this avails me nothing as long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate. <sup>14</sup>And Zeresh his wife and all his friends said to him, Make a wooden gallows, fifty cubits high and tomorrow speak to the king that Mordecai may be hanged on it. Then go in merrily with the king to the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman, and he caused the wooden gallows to be made.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>On that night the king could not sleep, and he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles. And they were read before the king. <sup>2</sup>And it was found written that Mordecai had told of Bighana and Teresh, two of the king's officers, the keepers of the door who tried to lay a hand on king Ahasuerus. <sup>3</sup>And the king said, What honor and dignity has been done to Mordecai for this? And the king's servants who served him said, Nothing has been done for him. <sup>4</sup>And the king said, Who is in the court? And Haman had come into the outer court of the king's house to speak to the king to hang Mordecai on the wooden gallows which he had prepared for him. <sup>5</sup>And the king's servants said to him, Behold, Haman stands in the court. And the king said, Let him come in. <sup>6</sup>So Haman came in. And the king said to him, What shall be done to the man whom the king delights to honor? And Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honor more than to myself? <sup>7</sup>And Haman answered the king, For the man whom the king delights to honor, <sup>8</sup>let the royal clothing be brought, which the king wears, and the horse that the king rides on, and the royal crown which is set on his head. <sup>9</sup>And let this clothing and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes so that they may dress the man whom the king delights to honor, and bring him on horseback through the streets of the city, and proclaim before him, This is what shall be done to the man whom the king delights to honor. <sup>10</sup>And the king said to Haman, Make haste! Take the clothing and the horse, as you have said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king's gate. Do not fail to do any of all the things you have spoken. <sup>11</sup>And Haman took the clothing and the horse and dressed Mordecai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, This is what shall be done to the man whom the king delights to honor!

<sup>12</sup>And Mordecai came again to the king's gate. But Haman hurried to his house mourning, and having his head covered. <sup>13</sup>And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had happened to him. Then his wise men and Zeresh his wife said to him, If Mordecai is of the seed of the Jews, before whom you have begun to fall, you shall not prevail against him but shall surely fall before him. <sup>14</sup>And while they were still talking with him, the king's eunuchs came. And they hurried to bring Haman to the banquet which Esther had prepared.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>And the king and Haman came to the banquet of Esther the queen. <sup>2</sup>And the king said again to Esther on the second day of the banquet of wine, What is your petition, queen Esther, that it may be granted you? And what is your request? And it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom. <sup>3</sup>And Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favor in your sight, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request. <sup>4</sup>For we are sold, my people and I, to be destroyed, to be killed, and to perish. But if we had been sold for men-slaves and women-slaves, I would have held my tongue, although the enemy could not make up for the king's damage. <sup>5</sup>And king Ahasuerus answered and said to Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is the one who dares presume in his heart to do so? <sup>6</sup>And Esther said, The man who is our adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. And Haman was afraid before the king and the queen. <sup>7</sup>And the king, arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath, went into the palace garden. And Haman stood up to beg for his life from Esther the queen, for he saw that evil was determined against him by the king. <sup>8</sup>And the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine. And Haman had fallen on the bed on which Esther was. And the king said, Will he also force the queen before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face. <sup>9</sup>And Harbonah, one of the eunuchs, said before the king, Also look! the wooden gallows fifty cubits high which Haman made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, stands in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him on it! <sup>10</sup>And they hanged Haman on the wooden gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. And the king's wrath lay down.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>On that day king Ahasuerus gave the house of Haman, the Jews' enemy, to Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king, for Esther had told what he was to her. <sup>2</sup>And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman. <sup>3</sup>And Esther spoke yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and begged him with tears to put away the evil of Haman the Agagite, and his plot which he had plotted against the Jews. <sup>4</sup>Then the king held out the golden scepter toward Esther. And Esther arose and stood before the king, <sup>5</sup>and said, If it please the king, and if I have found favor in his sight, and if the thing is right before the king, and if I am pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to bring back the documents — a sly plan by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite — which he wrote to destroy the Jews in all the king's provinces. <sup>6</sup>For how can I bear to see the evil that shall come on my people? Or how can I endure to see the slaughter of my kindred? <sup>7</sup>And king Ahasuerus said to Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and have hanged him on the wooden gallows, because he laid his hand on the Jews. <sup>8</sup>And you write for the Jews as it pleases you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring. For the writing which is written in the king's name and sealed with the king's ring, no man may turn back. <sup>9</sup>Then the king's scribes were called at that time in the third month, the month Sivan, on the twenty-third of it. And it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded to the Jews, and to the lieutenants and the governors and rulers of the provinces from India to Ethiopia, a hundred and twenty-seven provinces, to every province according to the writing of it, and to every people in their writing and according to their language. <sup>10</sup>And he wrote in the name of king Ahasuerus and sealed it with the king's ring. And he sent letters by riders on horseback, riders on royal steeds, stallions, even sons of mares. <sup>11</sup>In them the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to kill and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province who desired to attack them, little ones and women, and to take what they owned for a prize, <sup>12</sup>on one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, on the thirteenth of the twelfth month, is the month Adar. <sup>13</sup>The copy of the writing for a command to be given in every province was announced to all people, even that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies. <sup>14</sup>The runners, riders on stallions, royal steeds, went out, being hurried and pressed on by the king's command. And the order was given at Shushan the palace. <sup>15</sup>And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal clothing of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple. And the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad. <sup>16</sup>The Jews had light and gladness and joy and honor. <sup>17</sup>And in every province, and in every city where the king's command and his order came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews, for the fear of the Jews fell on them.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>And in the twelfth month, the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's command and his order came to be done, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them — though it was turned around, so that the Jews had rule over the ones who hated them. <sup>2</sup>The Jews gathered themselves in their cities throughout all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, in order to lay hand on any who sought their harm. And no man could withstand them, for the fear of them fell on all people. <sup>3</sup>And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants and the governors and officers of the king helped the Jews, because the fear of Mordecai fell on them. <sup>4</sup>For Mordecai was great in the house of the king, and his fame went throughout all the provinces. For this man Mordecai was going on and growing greater. <sup>5</sup>And the Jews struck all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would to those who hated them. <sup>6</sup>And in Shushan the palace the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men. <sup>7</sup>And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha, <sup>8</sup>and Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha, <sup>9</sup>and Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha, <sup>10</sup>they killed the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews. But they did not lay their hands on the spoil.

<sup>11</sup>On that day the number of those who were killed in Shushan the palace was brought before the king. <sup>12</sup>And the king said to Esther the queen, The Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman. What have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? And what is your petition, that it may be granted you? Or what further request do you have? And it shall be done. <sup>13</sup>Then Esther said, If it pleases the king, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Shushan to do tomorrow also according to this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged on the wooden gallows. <sup>14</sup>And the king commanded it to be done. And the order was given at Shushan, and they hanged Haman's ten sons. <sup>15</sup>For the Jews in Shushan gathered themselves on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and killed three hundred men at Shushan. But they did not lay their hands on the spoil. <sup>16</sup>But the rest of the Jews in the king's provinces gathered themselves and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and killed seventy-five thousand of their foes. But they did not lay their hands on the spoil. <sup>17</sup>And on the thirteenth day of the month Adar, and on the fourteenth day of the same, they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness. <sup>18</sup>But the Jews at Shushan gathered on the thirteenth of it and on the fourteenth of it. And on the fifteenth of the same, they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness. <sup>19</sup>Therefore the Jews of the villages, who lived in the unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and a day of sending portions to one another.

<sup>20</sup>And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters to all the Jews in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, near and far, <sup>21</sup>to establish among them that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly, <sup>22</sup>as the days in which the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned to them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions to one another, and gifts to the poor. <sup>23</sup>And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written to them <sup>24</sup>because Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, the lot, to finish them and to destroy them. <sup>25</sup>But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked plot which he had plotted against the Jews should return on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the wooden gallows. <sup>26</sup>Therefore, they called these days Purim after the name of Pur. Therefore, for all the words of this letter, and which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come to them, <sup>27</sup>the Jews ordained, and took on them and on their seed, and on all such as joined themselves to them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their time every year <sup>28</sup>and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city and these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed.

<sup>29</sup>And Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority to confirm this second letter of Purim. <sup>30</sup>And he sent the letters to all the Jews, to the hundred and twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth, <sup>31</sup>in order to confirm these days of Purim in their set times, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had ordered them, and as they had decreed for themselves and for their seed the matters of the fastings and of their cry. <sup>32</sup>And the order of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim. And it was written in the book.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>And king Ahasuerus laid a tax on the land and on the isles of the sea. <sup>2</sup>And all the acts of his power and of might, and the declaration of the greatness of Mordecai, with which the king made him great, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia? <sup>3</sup>For Mordecai the Jew was next to king Ahasuerus and great among the Jews, and pleasing to the multitude of his brothers, seeking the wealth of his people and speaking peace to all his seed.

THE BOOK OF JOB

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job. And that man was perfect and upright, and one who feared God and turned aside from evil. <sup>2</sup>And there were born to him seven sons and three daughters. <sup>3</sup>And his possessions were seven thousand sheep and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and a very great household so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east.

<sup>4</sup>And his sons went and feasted in the house of each one on his day. And they sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. <sup>5</sup>And when they had gone around the days of feasting, Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all. For Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned and cursed God in their hearts. So Job did always.

<sup>6</sup>And a day came when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD. And Satan also came among them. <sup>7</sup>And the LORD said to Satan, From where do you come? Then Satan answered the LORD and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. <sup>8</sup>And the LORD said to Satan, Have you set your heart against My servant Job, because there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and upright man, one who fears God and turns away from evil? <sup>9</sup>And Satan answered the LORD and said, Does Job fear God for nothing? <sup>10</sup>Have You not made a hedge around him, and around his house, and around all that he has on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land. <sup>11</sup>But put forth Your hand now, and touch all that he has, and he will curse You to Your face. <sup>12</sup>And the LORD said to Satan, Behold, all that he has is in your power. Only do not lay your hand upon him. And Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>And a day came when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house. <sup>14</sup>And there came a messenger to Job and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them. <sup>15</sup>And the Sabeans fell on and took them away. Yea, they have killed the servants with the edge of the sword. And I only have escaped alone to tell you. <sup>16</sup>While he was still speaking, there also came another and said, The fire of God has fallen from the heavens and has burned up the sheep and the servants, and destroyed them. And I only have escaped alone to tell you. <sup>17</sup>While he was still speaking, there also came another and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands and swooped down upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and have killed the servants with the edge of the sword. And I only have escaped alone to tell you. <sup>18</sup>While he was still speaking, there also came another and said, Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house. <sup>19</sup>And, behold, a great wind came from the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead. And I only have escaped alone to tell you. <sup>20</sup>And Job arose, and tore his robe, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground and worshiped. <sup>21</sup>And he said, I came naked out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return there. The LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away. Blessed be the name of the LORD. <sup>22</sup>In all this Job did not sin, nor charge God foolishly.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>After this a day came when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD. And Satan also came among them to present himself before the LORD. <sup>2</sup>And the LORD said to Satan, From where do you come? And Satan answered the LORD and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. <sup>3</sup>And the LORD said unto Satan, Have you set your heart on My servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one who fears God and turns away from evil? And still he is keeping hold of his integrity, although you moved Me against him to destroy him without cause. <sup>4</sup>And Satan answered the LORD and said, Skin for skin yea, all that a man has he will give for his life. <sup>5</sup>Put forth Your hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse You to Your face. <sup>6</sup>And the LORD said to Satan, Behold, he is in your hand, but save his life. <sup>7</sup>And Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD and struck Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot to the top of his head. <sup>8</sup>And he took a broken piece of pottery to scrape himself with. And he sat down among the ashes. <sup>9</sup>And his wife said to him, Do you still hold to your integrity? Curse God and die! <sup>10</sup>But he said to her, You speak as one of the foolish women speaks. What? Shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

<sup>11</sup>And Job's three friends heard of all this evil that had come upon him, and they each one came from his own place: Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. For they had met together to come to mourn with him and to comfort him. <sup>12</sup>And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and did not know him, they lifted up their voice and wept. And each one tore his robe, and they sprinkled dust upon their heads toward Heaven. <sup>13</sup>And they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights. And no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his grief was very great.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>After this Job opened his mouth and cursed his day. <sup>2</sup>And Job spoke and said, <sup>3</sup>Let the day perish in which I was born, and the night which said, A man-child is conceived. <sup>4</sup>Let that day be darkness. Let not God look upon it from above, neither let the light shine upon it. <sup>5</sup>Let darkness and the shadow of death claim it. Let a cloud dwell upon it; Let the blackness of the day terrify it. <sup>6</sup>As for that night, let darkness seize upon it. Let it not rejoice among the days of the year, Let it not come into the number of the months. <sup>7</sup>Lo, let that night be silent; let no joyful voice come in it. <sup>8</sup>Let those curse it who curse the day, who are ready to stir up Leviathan. <sup>9</sup>Let the stars of its twilight be dark; let it look for light, but have none. Let it not see the eyelids of the dawn. <sup>10</sup>For it did not shut up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hide sorrow from my eyes. <sup>11</sup>Why did I not die from the womb, come from the womb and expire? <sup>12</sup>Why did the knees go before me; or why the breasts, that I should suck? <sup>13</sup>For now I should have lain still and been quiet; I should have slept. Then I would have been at rest <sup>14</sup>with kings and wise men of the earth, who built ruins for themselves, <sup>15</sup>or with princes who had gold, who filled their houses with silver; <sup>16</sup>or as a hidden untimely birth I would not have been, like infants who did not see light. <sup>17</sup>There the wicked cease from troubling, and there the weary are at rest; <sup>18</sup>the prisoners are at rest together; they hear not the voice of the slave driver. <sup>19</sup>The small and the great are there, and the slave is free from his master.

<sup>20</sup>Why is light given to one who is in misery, and life to the bitter in soul, <sup>21</sup>who is waiting for death, but it comes not; and dig for it more than for treasures? <sup>22</sup>They are rejoicing to exultation. They are glad when they can find the grave. <sup>23</sup>To a man whose way is hidden, God has made a hedge about him. <sup>24</sup>For my sighing comes before I eat, and my groanings are poured out like the waters. <sup>25</sup>For the thing which I greatly feared has come upon me, and that which I was afraid of has come to me. <sup>26</sup>I was not in safety, nor did I have rest, nor was I quiet; yet trouble comes.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>And Eliphaz the Temanite answered: <sup>2</sup>Shall one try a word with you, you who are weary? But who can hold back with words? <sup>3</sup>Behold, you have instructed many, and you have made the weak hands strong. <sup>4</sup>Your words have upheld him who was falling, and you have made strong the feeble knees. <sup>5</sup>But now it has come upon you, and you faint. It touches you, and you are troubled. <sup>6</sup>Is not your reverence your hope? Is not your hope the uprightness of your ways? <sup>7</sup>Remember, please, who ever perished, being innocent? Or where were the righteous cut off? <sup>8</sup>As I have seen, the ones who plow iniquity and sow wickedness reap the same. <sup>9</sup>By the blast of God they perish, and by the breath of His nostrils they are destroyed. <sup>10</sup>The roar of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the young lions, are broken. <sup>11</sup>The strong lion perishes for lack of prey, and the strong lion's cubs are scattered abroad.

<sup>12</sup>And a word was secretly brought to me, and my ear received a little of it. <sup>13</sup>In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falls upon men, <sup>14</sup>fear came upon me, and trembling, which made all my bones shake. <sup>15</sup>And a spirit passed before my face; the hair of my flesh stood up. <sup>16</sup>It stood still, but I could not tell the form of it. An image was before my eyes; silence; then I heard a voice, <sup>17</sup>Shall mortal man be more just than God? Shall a man be more pure than his Maker? <sup>18</sup>Behold, He puts no trust in His servants, and His angels He charges with folly! <sup>19</sup>How much less in those who live in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, who are crushed before the moth? <sup>20</sup>They are destroyed from morning till evening; they perish forever without anyone caring. <sup>21</sup>Is not their cord pulled within them? They die, but not with wisdom.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>Call now, is there anyone who will answer you? And to which of the saints will you turn? <sup>2</sup>For vexation kills the fool, and envy slays the simple one. <sup>3</sup>I have seen the fool taking root, but suddenly I cursed his dwelling place. <sup>4</sup>His children are far from safety, and they are crushed in the gate, nor is there any to deliver them. <sup>5</sup>Their harvest the hungry eats, and takes it even out of the thorns; and the snare swallows up their wealth. <sup>6</sup>For affliction does not come forth from the dust, nor does trouble spring up out of the ground; <sup>7</sup>but man is born to trouble, as the sparks fly upward.

<sup>8</sup>Truly, I would seek to God, and to God I would commit my cause <sup>9</sup>to God who does things great and beyond search; marvelous things without number, <sup>10</sup>who gives rain on the earth and sends waters on the field, <sup>11</sup>to set on high those who are low, so that those who mourn may be lifted up to safety; <sup>12</sup>frustrating the plans of the crafty, nor did their hands do wisely. <sup>13</sup>He takes the wise in their own craftiness; and the counsel of the wily is carried headlong. <sup>14</sup>They meet with darkness in the day time, and grope in the noonday as in the night. <sup>15</sup>But He saves the poor from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty. <sup>16</sup>And there is hope for the weak, and injustice shuts her mouth.

<sup>17</sup>Behold, blessed is the man whom God corrects. Therefore do not despise the chastening of the Almighty. <sup>18</sup>For He makes sore, and binds up; He wounds, and His hands make whole. <sup>19</sup>He will deliver you in six troubles; yea, in seven no evil shall touch you. <sup>20</sup>In famine He shall redeem you from death; and in war from the power of the sword. <sup>21</sup>You shall be hidden from the whip of the tongue; neither shall you be afraid of robbery when it comes. <sup>22</sup>At destruction and famine you shall laugh; neither shall you be afraid of the beasts of the earth. <sup>23</sup>For you shall be in covenant with the stones of the field; and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with you. <sup>24</sup>And you shall know that your tent is in peace; and you shall visit your fold, and shall miss nothing. <sup>25</sup>And you shall know that your seed will be numerous, and your offspring as the grass of the earth. <sup>26</sup>You shall come to your grave in a full age, like a shock of grain comes in its season. <sup>27</sup>Behold this: we have searched it; it is so. Hear it and know for yourself.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>And Job answered and said, <sup>2</sup>Oh that my grief were but weighed, and my ruin laid in the balances together! <sup>3</sup>For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea; therefore my words have been rash. <sup>4</sup>For the arrows of the Almighty are within me, their fury is drinking my spirit; the terrors of God are set against me. <sup>5</sup>Does the wild ass bray when he has grass? Or does the ox low over his fodder? <sup>6</sup>Can that which has no taste be eaten without salt? Or is there taste in the white of an egg? <sup>7</sup>My soul refuses to touch them; they are sickening food to me. <sup>8</sup>Oh that I might have my desire, and that God would grant the thing that I long for! <sup>9</sup>Even that it would please God to destroy me; that He would loose His hand and cut me off! <sup>10</sup>And it is yet my comfort; yea, I would rejoice in pain, though He did not spare me; for I have not hidden the words of the Holy One. <sup>11</sup>What is my strength, that I should hope? And what is my end, that I should be patient? <sup>12</sup>Is my strength the strength of stones? Or is my flesh bronze? <sup>13</sup>Is not my help in me? And is wisdom fully driven away from me?

<sup>14</sup>To him who is afflicted, pity is due from his friend, but he forsakes the fear of the Almighty. <sup>15</sup>My brothers have dealt deceitfully as a brook, as the streams of brooks they pass away; <sup>16</sup>brooks which are black because of the ice, in which the snow is hidden. <sup>17</sup>When they become warm, they go away; when it is hot, they vanish out of their place. <sup>18</sup>The paths of their way are turned aside; they go to nothing and are lost. <sup>19</sup>The troops of Tema looked; the companies of Sheba hoped for them. <sup>20</sup>They were ashamed because they had hoped; they came there and were ashamed. <sup>21</sup>Surely now you are like them; you see me casting down, and are afraid. <sup>22</sup>Did I say, Give to me? or, Offer a bribe to me from your wealth; <sup>23</sup>or, Deliver me from the enemy's hand; or, Redeem me from the hand of the mighty? <sup>24</sup>Teach me, and I will be silent; and cause me to understand where I have gone astray. <sup>25</sup>Right words are powerful, but what does your arguing argue? <sup>26</sup>Do you intend to criticize words, and the speeches of one who is hopeless, that are as wind? <sup>27</sup>Yea, you cause anger to fall on the fatherless, and you dig a pit for your friend. <sup>28</sup>And now, please look on me; for if I lie, it is before your face. <sup>29</sup>Turn back, please let there be no sin; yea, return again, my righteousness is in this matter. <sup>30</sup>Is there wrong in my tongue? Cannot my taste discern desirable things?

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>Is there not a warfare to man on earth? Are not his days also like the days of a hireling? <sup>2</sup>As a servant earnestly desires the shadow, and as a hireling looks for his wages, <sup>3</sup>so I am made to possess months of vanity, and weary nights are appointed to me. <sup>4</sup>When I lie down, I say, When shall I rise? But the night is long, and I am full of tossing to and fro until the dawning of the day. <sup>5</sup>My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust; my skin is broken and has run afresh. <sup>6</sup>My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are ended without hope. <sup>7</sup>Remember that my life is a breath; my eye shall no more see good. <sup>8</sup>The eye of him who has seen me shall see me no more; Your eyes are on me, and I am gone. <sup>9</sup>As the cloud falls and vanishes away, so he who goes down to the grave shall come up no more. <sup>10</sup>He shall return no more to his house, nor shall his place know him any more.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore I will not hold my mouth; I will speak in the trouble of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul. <sup>12</sup>Am I like the sea, or a whale, that You set a watch over me? <sup>13</sup>When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint, <sup>14</sup>then You scare me with dreams, and terrify me with visions; <sup>15</sup>so that my soul chooses strangling, death rather than my life. <sup>16</sup>I despise them; I would not live always; let me alone, for my days are vanity. <sup>17</sup>What is man, that You should magnify him, and that You should set Your heart on him, <sup>18</sup>and visit him every morning, trying him every moment? <sup>19</sup>Until when will You look away from me, nor let me alone until I swallow down my spittle? <sup>20</sup>I have sinned. What shall I do to You, O Watcher of men? Why have You set me as a target for You, so that I am a burden to myself? <sup>21</sup>And why do You not pardon my transgression, and take away my iniquity? For now I shall sleep in the dust, and You shall seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>And Bildad the Shuhite answered and said, <sup>2</sup>How long will you speak these things, since the words of your mouth are like a strong wind? <sup>3</sup>Does God pervert judgment? Or does the Almighty pervert justice? <sup>4</sup>If your children have sinned against Him, and if He has cast them away for their transgression, <sup>5</sup>if you would seek earnestly to God and make your prayer to the Almighty; <sup>6</sup>if you were pure and upright, surely now He would awake for you, and make the dwelling-place of your righteousness blessed. <sup>7</sup>And if your beginning was small, yet your end would greatly increase. <sup>8</sup>For please ask of the former age, and prepare yourself to the search of their fathers, <sup>9</sup>for we are but of yesterday and know nothing, because our days on earth are a shadow. <sup>10</sup>Shall they not teach you, and tell you, and speak words out of their heart? <sup>11</sup>Can the rush grow up without mire? Can the reed-grass grow without water? <sup>12</sup>While it is yet in its greenness, and not cut down, it dries out before any other herb. <sup>13</sup>So are the paths of all who forget God; and the hope of the ungodly shall perish. <sup>14</sup>His hope shall be cut off, and his trust shall be in a spider's web. <sup>15</sup>He shall lean on his house, but it shall not stand; he shall hold fast to it, but it shall not endure. <sup>16</sup>He is moist before the sun, and his branches shoot forth in his garden. <sup>17</sup>His roots are wrapped around the heap, and he sees the place of stones. <sup>18</sup>If he is destroyed from his place, then it shall deny him: I have not seen you. <sup>19</sup>Behold, this is the joy of his way, and out of the earth shall others grow. <sup>20</sup>Behold, God will not cast away the innocent, nor will He help the evildoers, <sup>21</sup>until He fills your mouth with laughter, and your lips with rejoicing. <sup>22</sup>Those who hate you shall be clothed with shame; and the tent of the wicked shall be no more.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>And Job answered and said, <sup>2</sup>Truly I know it is so, but how can man be just with God? <sup>3</sup>If he will argue with Him, he cannot answer Him one of a thousand. <sup>4</sup>He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength. Who has hardened himself against Him and been blessed; <sup>5</sup>or He who removes the mountains, and they know it not, when He overturns them in His anger; <sup>6</sup>He who shakes the earth out of its place, and the pillars of it tremble; <sup>7</sup>He who commands the sun, and it does not rise; and seals up the stars; <sup>8</sup>who alone stretches out the heavens, and walks on the waves of the sea; <sup>9</sup>who made the Bear, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south; <sup>10</sup>who is doing great things past finding out; yea, marvelous things without number?

<sup>11</sup>Behold! He goes by me, and I do not see Him; He passes on also, but I do not perceive Him. <sup>12</sup>Behold, He takes away; who can turn Him back? Who will say to Him, What are You doing? <sup>13</sup>God will not withdraw His anger; the helpers of pride stoop under Him. <sup>14</sup>How much less shall I answer Him, and choose my arguments with Him? <sup>15</sup>Whom, though I were righteous, yet I would not answer; I seek mercy for my judgment. <sup>16</sup>If I had called and He had answered me, yet would I not believe that He had listened to my voice; <sup>17</sup>He who breaks me with a tempest, and multiplies my wounds without cause; <sup>18</sup>who will not allow me to take my breath, but fills me with bitterness. <sup>19</sup>If I speak of strength, lo, He is mighty! And if of judgment, who shall set me a time? <sup>20</sup>If I justify myself, my own mouth shall condemn me; though I am perfect, He shall declare me perverse. <sup>21</sup>Though I were perfect, yet I would not know my soul. I would despise my life. <sup>22</sup>It is One, therefore I said, He is consuming the perfect and the wicked. <sup>23</sup>If the whip kills suddenly, He will mock at the calamity of the innocent. <sup>24</sup>The earth is given into the hand of the wicked; He covers the faces of its judges; if it is not He, then who is it?

<sup>25</sup>Now my days are swifter than a runner; they flee away, they see no good. <sup>26</sup>They have passed away like the swift ships; like the eagle who swoops on the prey. <sup>27</sup>If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will depart from my heaviness and be of good cheer, <sup>28</sup>I am afraid of all my sorrows; I know that You will not hold me innocent. <sup>29</sup>I have been condemned; why then should I labor in vain? <sup>30</sup>If I wash myself with snow water, and make my hands ever so clean, <sup>31</sup>yet You will plunge me into the ditch and my own clothes shall despise me. <sup>32</sup>For He is not a man, as I am, that I should answer Him, that we should come together in judgment; <sup>33</sup>there is no mediator between us, who might lay his hand on us both. <sup>34</sup>Let Him take His rod away from me, and let not His fear make me afraid; <sup>35</sup>then would I speak and not fear Him; for it is not so with me.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>My soul is weary of my life; I will leave my complaint on my self; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul. <sup>2</sup>I will say to God, Do not condemn me; make me know why You contend with me. <sup>3</sup>Is it good to You that You should press down, that You should despise the work of Your hands, and shine on the counsel of the wicked? <sup>4</sup>Have You eyes of flesh? Or do You see as a man sees? <sup>5</sup>Are Your days like the days of man? Are Your years like man's days, <sup>6</sup>that You seek out my iniquity, and search for my sin? <sup>7</sup>You know that I am not wicked; and there is none who can deliver out of Your hand. <sup>8</sup>Your hands have made me and shaped me, together all around; yet You destroy me. <sup>9</sup>Remember, I beseech You, that You have formed me as the clay; and will You bring me into the dust again? <sup>10</sup>Have You not poured me out like milk, and curdled me like cheese? <sup>11</sup>You have clothed me with skin and flesh, and have fenced me with bones and sinews. <sup>12</sup>You have granted me life and favor, and Your providence has preserved my spirit. <sup>13</sup>And these have You hidden in Your heart; I know that this was with You. <sup>14</sup>If I sin, when You mark me, and You will not acquit me from my iniquity. <sup>15</sup>If I am wicked, woe to me; and I am righteous, I will not lift up my head being filled with shame, and looking on my affliction. <sup>16</sup>For it increases! You hunt me as a fierce lion; and again You show Yourself marvelous on me. <sup>17</sup>You renew Your witnesses against me, and increase Your anger on me; changes and warfare are against me. <sup>18</sup>Why then have You brought me from the womb? Oh that I had given up the spirit, and no eye had seen me! <sup>19</sup>I should have been as though I had not been; I would have been carried from the womb to the grave. <sup>20</sup>Are not my days few? Cease then, and let me alone, that I may take comfort a little, <sup>21</sup>before I go, and I shall not return, even to the land of darkness and the shadow of death; <sup>22</sup>a land of thick darkness, as darkness itself, a land of the shadow of death, without any order, and the light is as darkness.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>And Zophar the Naamathite answered and said, <sup>2</sup>Should not the multitude of words be answered? And should a man full of talk be justified? <sup>3</sup>Should your lies make men silent? And will you mock, shall no one make you ashamed? <sup>4</sup>For you have said, My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in Your eyes. <sup>5</sup>But who will grant that God would speak, and open His lips against you, <sup>6</sup>and would tell you the secrets of His wisdom, that sound wisdom is manifold? Know therefore that God forgets for you some of your iniquity. <sup>7</sup>Can you by searching find out God? Can you perfectly find out the Almighty? <sup>8</sup>Heights of the heavens! What can you do? It is deeper than hell, what can you know? <sup>9</sup>The measure of it is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea. <sup>10</sup>If He passes through and shuts up, or gathers together, then who can turn Him back? <sup>11</sup>For He knows vain men; and when He sees wickedness, will He not search it? <sup>12</sup>For foolish man would be wise, and man is born a wild ass's colt. <sup>13</sup>If you prepare your heart and stretch out your hands toward Him; <sup>14</sup>if iniquity is in your hand, put it far away, and do not let wickedness dwell in your tents; <sup>15</sup>surely then you shall lift up your face without spot; yea, you shall be steadfast and shall not fear; <sup>16</sup>for you shall forget your misery, and you shall remember it as waters that pass away. <sup>17</sup>And your lifetime shall be clearer than the noonday; though there be darkness, you shall be as the morning. <sup>18</sup>And you shall be safe, because there is hope; yea, you shall look around you, and you shall take your rest in safety. <sup>19</sup>You shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid. Yea, many shall seek your favor. <sup>20</sup>But the eyes of the wicked shall fail, and they shall have no escape, and their hope shall be like the giving up of the spirit.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>And Job answered and said, <sup>2</sup>For truly you are the people, and wisdom will die with you. <sup>3</sup>But I have understanding as well as you; I do not fall short of you; yea, who does not know such things as these? <sup>4</sup>I am a laughing-stock to his friends — who calls on God, and He answers him — the just, the upright one is laughed to scorn; <sup>5</sup>a flaming brand despised in the thoughts of him who feels secure; it is ready for those with slipping feet. <sup>6</sup>The tents of robbers are at peace, and those who provoke God are sure, in whatever God brings to their hand. <sup>7</sup>But now ask the animals, and they shall teach you; and the birds of the air, and they shall tell you; <sup>8</sup>or speak to the earth, and it shall teach you; and the fish of the sea shall declare it to you; <sup>9</sup>who of all these does not know that the hand of the LORD has done this? <sup>10</sup>In whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all flesh of man? <sup>11</sup>Does not the ear try words? And does not the mouth taste its food? <sup>12</sup>With the aged is wisdom, and understanding in length of days. <sup>13</sup>With Him is wisdom and strength; He has wisdom and understanding. <sup>14</sup>Behold, He breaks down, and it can not be built up again; He shuts up a man, and there can be no opening. <sup>15</sup>Behold, He withholds the waters, and they dry up; also He sends them out, and they overturn the earth. <sup>16</sup>With Him is strength and sound wisdom; the deceived and the deceiver are His. <sup>17</sup>He leads wise men away stripped, and makes the judges fools. <sup>18</sup>He cuts away the bonds of kings, and binds their loins with a girdle. <sup>19</sup>He leads priests away stripped, and overthrows the mighty. <sup>20</sup>He removes the speech of the men of trust, and takes away the understanding of the aged. <sup>21</sup>He pours scorn on princes, and unties the belt of the mighty. <sup>22</sup>He discovers deep things out of darkness, and brings the shadow of death to light. <sup>23</sup>He gives greatness to the nations, and destroys them. He spreads out the nations, and leads them away. <sup>24</sup>He takes away the heart of the chief of the people of the land, and causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no path. <sup>25</sup>They grope in the dark without light, and He makes them to stagger like a drunkard.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>Lo, my eye has seen all this, my ear has heard and understood it. <sup>2</sup>What you know, I know also I do not fall short of you. <sup>3</sup>Surely I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to argue my case before God. <sup>4</sup>But you are makers of lies; you are all worthless healers. <sup>5</sup>Oh that you would stop speaking entirely! And it would be your wisdom. <sup>6</sup>Hear now my reasoning, and listen to the pleadings of my lips. <sup>7</sup>Would you speak unrighteously for God, and talk deceitfully for Him? <sup>8</sup>Will you lift up His person, or contend for God? <sup>9</sup>Is it good that He should search you out? Or as one man mocks another, do you mock Him? <sup>10</sup>He will surely blame you, if you secretly lift up persons. <sup>11</sup>Shall not His highness make you afraid, and his dread fall on you? <sup>12</sup>Your remembered sayings are like ashes, your bodies like bodies of clay. <sup>13</sup>Be quiet. Let me alone so that I may speak, and let come on me what may. <sup>14</sup>Why do I take my flesh in my teeth and put my life in my hand? <sup>15</sup>Though he slay me, yet will I trust in Him, but I will maintain my own ways before Him. <sup>16</sup>He also is my salvation, that an ungodly one shall not come before Him. <sup>17</sup>Listen carefully to my words, and let what I say be in your ears. <sup>18</sup>Behold now, I have set my cause in order; I know that I shall be justified. <sup>19</sup>Who is he that will plead for me, for now, if I hold my tongue, I shall give up the spirit.

<sup>20</sup>Only do not do two things to me; then I will not hide myself from You. <sup>21</sup>Withdraw Your hand far from me, and let not Your fear make me afraid. <sup>22</sup>Then call, and I will answer; or let me speak, and answer You me. <sup>23</sup>How many are my iniquities and sins? Make known my transgressions and my sin. <sup>24</sup>Why do You hide Your face, and hold me for Your enemy? <sup>25</sup>Will You terrify a leaf driven to and fro? Will You pursue the dry stubble? <sup>26</sup>For You write bitter things against me, and make me to possess the sins of my youth. <sup>27</sup>You put my feet also in the stocks, and look closely to all my paths; You set a limit for the soles of my feet. <sup>28</sup>And he wears out like a rotten thing, like a garment that a moth eats.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>Man born of woman is of few days, and full of trouble. <sup>2</sup>He comes forth like a flower, and withers; he also flees as a shadow, and does not stay. <sup>3</sup>And You open Your eyes on such a one, and bring me into judgment with You. <sup>4</sup>Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? No one! <sup>5</sup>For his days are fixed, the number of his months is with You, and You have set his bounds so that he cannot pass; <sup>6</sup>look away from him, so that he may rest until he shall finish his day, as a hireling.

<sup>7</sup>For there is hope of a tree, if it is cut down, that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch of it will not cease. <sup>8</sup>Though its root becomes old in the earth, and its stump dies in the dust; <sup>9</sup>yet at the scent of water it will bud and bring forth branches like a plant. <sup>10</sup>But man dies and is cut off; and man expires, and where is he? <sup>11</sup>As the waters fail from the sea, and a river falls away and dries up, <sup>12</sup>so man lies down and does not rise. Till the heavens are no more, they shall not awake, nor be awakened out of their sleep.

<sup>13</sup>Who will grant that You would hide me in the grave, that You would keep me secret, until Your wrath is past, that You would set me a fixed time and remember me? <sup>14</sup>If a man die, shall he revive? All the days of my warfare I will wait, until my change comes. <sup>15</sup>You shall call, and I will answer You; You shall have a desire to the work of Your hands. <sup>16</sup>For now You number my steps; do You not watch over my sin? <sup>17</sup>My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and You cover over my iniquity. <sup>18</sup>And surely a falling mountain crumbles away, and the rock moved out of its place. <sup>19</sup>The waters wear the stones; its outpouring wash the dust of the earth; and You cause the hope of man to perish. <sup>20</sup>You overpower him forever, and he passes; You change his face, and send him away. <sup>21</sup>His sons come to honor, and he knows it not; they fall, but he does not mark it. <sup>22</sup>But his flesh is pained within him; and his soul mourns over him.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>And Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said, <sup>2</sup>Should a wise man answer with windy knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind? <sup>3</sup>Should he reason with talk that is not useful, or with speeches which have no profit? <sup>4</sup>Yea, you do away with fear, and take away prayer before God. <sup>5</sup>For your iniquity teaches your mouth, and you choose the tongue of the crafty. <sup>6</sup>Your own mouth condemns you, and not I; yes, your own lips testify against you. <sup>7</sup>Were you the first man born? Or were you made before the hills? <sup>8</sup>Have you heard the secret counsel of God? And do you limit wisdom to yourself? <sup>9</sup>What do you know that we do not know, or understand that is not with us? <sup>10</sup>With us are both the gray-headed and aged, mightier than your father as to days. <sup>11</sup>Are the comforts of God small with you, and a word dealing gently with you? <sup>12</sup>Why does your heart carry you away? And what do your eyes wink at, <sup>13</sup>that you turn your spirit against God, and let such words go out of your mouth? <sup>14</sup>What is man, that he should be clean? And what is he born of a woman that he should be righteous? <sup>15</sup>Behold, He puts no trust in His saints; yea, the heavens are not clean in His sight. <sup>16</sup>How much more hateful and filthy is man, who drinks iniquity like water?

<sup>17</sup>I will show you; hear me; and that which I have seen I will declare, <sup>18</sup>that which wise men have told, and have not hidden from their fathers; <sup>19</sup>to them alone the earth was given, and no stranger passed among them. <sup>20</sup>The wicked man labors in pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden for the ruthless one. <sup>21</sup>A fearful sound is in his ears; in peace the destroyer shall come on him. <sup>22</sup>He does not believe that he shall come back out of darkness; he is awaited by the sword. <sup>23</sup>He wanders for bread, saying, Where is it? He knows that the day of darkness is ready at hand. <sup>24</sup>Trouble and pain shall terrify him; they shall overpower him, as a king ready for the battle; <sup>25</sup>because he stretches out his hand against God, and sets himself against the Almighty. <sup>26</sup>He runs at him, with a stiff neck, with the thick layers of his shields, <sup>27</sup>because he has covered his face with fat; he has put fat on his loins. <sup>28</sup>And he lives in ruined cities, in houses where not any lives, which are ready to become heaps. <sup>29</sup>He shall not be rich, nor shall his wealth hold out, nor shall he stretch out his gain on the earth. <sup>30</sup>He shall not escape from darkness; the flame shall dry up his branches, and at the breath of his mouth he shall turn away. <sup>31</sup>Let not he being deceived trust in vanity; for vanity shall be his reward. <sup>32</sup>It shall be done before his time, and his branch shall not be green. <sup>33</sup>He shall shake off its unripe grape, as the vine; and shall cast off his flower like the olive. <sup>34</sup>For the company of the ungodly shall be barren, and fire shall devour the tents of bribery. <sup>35</sup>They conceive mischief, and bring forth evil, and their belly prepares deceit.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>And Job answered and said, <sup>2</sup>I have heard many such things. You are all miserable comforters. <sup>3</sup>Shall words of wind have an end? Or what provokes you that you should answer? <sup>4</sup>I also could speak as you do; if your soul were in my soul's place. I could heap up words against you, and shake my head at you. <sup>5</sup>I might make you strong with my mouth, and the moving of my lips would spare you. <sup>6</sup>Though I speak, my pain is not held back, and though I forbear, in what way am I eased? <sup>7</sup>But now He has made me weary; You have made all my company desolate. <sup>8</sup>And you have snatched me away; for it is a witness against me; and my failure rises up against me, and it answers to my face. <sup>9</sup>His anger has torn and hated me; He gnashes on me with His teeth; my enemy sharpens His eyes at me;

<sup>10</sup>They have gaped on me with their mouth; and have scornfully beaten me on the cheek; they gather themselves against me. <sup>11</sup>God has delivered me to the perverse; and turned me over into the hands of the wicked. <sup>12</sup>I was at ease, but He has broken me in pieces; yea, He has also taken me by my neck and shaken me to pieces and set me up for His mark. <sup>13</sup>His archers hem me in; He splits my inward parts, and does not spare; He pours out my gall on the ground. <sup>14</sup>He breaks me with break on break; He runs on me like a giant. <sup>15</sup>I have sewed sackcloth on my skin and thrust my horn in the dust. <sup>16</sup>My face is reddened from weeping, and on my eyelids is the shadow of death; <sup>17</sup>though no violence is in my hand, and my prayer is pure.

<sup>18</sup>Oh earth, do not cover my blood, and let not my cry have a place. <sup>19</sup>Also now, behold, my Witness is in Heaven, and He who testifies of me is on high. <sup>20</sup>My friends scorn me; my eye pours out tears to God. <sup>21</sup>Oh that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleads for his neighbor! <sup>22</sup>For the years that are few will come, and I shall go the way from where I shall not return.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>1</sup>My spirit is broken, my days are ended, the graves are ready for me. <sup>2</sup>Are not mockeries with me? Yea, my eye rests on their insults. <sup>3</sup>Please lay down a pledge for me with Yourself; who is he who will strike hands with me? <sup>4</sup>For You have hidden their heart from understanding; therefore You shall not lift them up. <sup>5</sup>He who for a share speaks flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children shall fail.

<sup>6</sup>He has made me also a byword of the peoples; and I have become one in whose face they spit. <sup>7</sup>My eye also is dim from grief; and all my members are like a shadow. <sup>8</sup>Upright ones shall be amazed at this, and the innocent shall stir himself up against the ungodly. <sup>9</sup>The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he who has clean hands adds strength.

<sup>10</sup>And now all of them, go back, and please come again; and I shall not find among you a wise man <sup>11</sup>My days are past, my purposes are broken off, the desires of my heart. <sup>12</sup>They set night for day; the light is near in the face of darkness. <sup>13</sup>If I wait for the grave as my home; I have made my bed in the darkness; <sup>14</sup>I have said to corruption, You are my father; to the worm, My mother and my sister! <sup>15</sup>And where then is my hope? And as for my hope, who shall see it? <sup>16</sup>They shall go down to the bars of the pit, when our descent together is in the dust.

CHAPTER 18

<sup>1</sup>And Bildad the Shuhite answered and said, <sup>2</sup>Until when will you set a snare for words? Understand, and afterwards we will speak. <sup>3</sup>Why are we counted as cattle, or seem stupid in your sight? <sup>4</sup>He tears himself in his anger; shall the earth be forsaken for you? And shall the rock be moved out of its place? <sup>5</sup>Yes, the light of the wicked shall be put out, and the spark of his fire shall not shine. <sup>6</sup>The light shall be dark in his tent, and his candle shall be put out with him. <sup>7</sup>The steps of his strength shall be hampered, and his own plans shall throw him down. <sup>8</sup>For he is thrown into a net by his own feet, and he walks on a net. <sup>9</sup>The trap shall take him by the heel, and the robber shall hold sway against him. <sup>10</sup>The noose is laid for him in the ground, and a trap for him in the way. <sup>11</sup>Terrors shall make him afraid on every side, and shall scatter him at his feet. <sup>12</sup>His strength shall be hunger-bitten, and trouble shall be ready at his side. <sup>13</sup>It shall devour the strength of his skin; even the firstborn of death shall devour his strength. <sup>14</sup>His hope shall be rooted out of his tent, and you marched to the king of terrors. <sup>15</sup>What is not his shall dwell in his tent; brimstone shall be scattered on his home. <sup>16</sup>His roots shall be dried up beneath, and his branch shall wither above. <sup>17</sup>His memory shall perish from the earth, and there is no name to him on the face of the street. <sup>18</sup>They drive him from light to darkness, and they make him flee from the world. <sup>19</sup>He shall have neither son nor kinsman among his people, nor any remaining in his dwellings. <sup>20</sup>Those after him shall be amazed at his day; and those before were seized with horror. <sup>21</sup>Surely these are the dwellings of the perverse, and this the place that has not known God.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>1</sup>And Job answered and said, <sup>2</sup>How long will you torment my soul and break me in pieces with words? <sup>3</sup>This ten times you have blamed me; you are not ashamed that you have wronged me. <sup>4</sup>And if indeed I have erred, my error remains with me. <sup>5</sup>If indeed you magnify yourself against me, and plead against me my misery, <sup>6</sup>know now that God has overthrown me, and His net has closed on me. <sup>7</sup>Behold, I cry out, Violence! And I am not answered. I cry aloud, but there is no justice. <sup>8</sup>He has fenced up my way so that I cannot pass, and He has set darkness in my paths. <sup>9</sup>He has stripped me of my glory, and has taken the crown from my head. <sup>10</sup>He has broken me on every side, and I am gone, and He has uprooted my hope like a tree. <sup>11</sup>He has also kindled His wrath against me, and to Himself He counts me as one of His enemies. <sup>12</sup>His troops come together and raise up their way against me, and camp around my tent.

<sup>13</sup>He has put my brothers far from me, and my friends have truly turned away from me. <sup>14</sup>My people have fallen away, and my familiar friends have forgotten me. <sup>15</sup>Those who dwell in my house, and my maids, count me as a stranger; I am a foreigner in their sight. <sup>16</sup>I called my servant, and he gave no answer; I must beg him with my mouth. <sup>17</sup>My breath is hated by my wife, and I must beg to the sons of my mother's womb. <sup>18</sup>Even young children despise me; I arose, and they spoke against me. <sup>19</sup>All my close friends turned away from me; and those whom I loved have turned against me. <sup>20</sup>My bone clings to my skin and to my flesh, and I have escaped with the skin of my teeth. <sup>21</sup>Have pity on me! Have pity on me, my friends! For the hand of God has touched me. <sup>22</sup>Why do you, like God, persecute me and why are you not satisfied with my flesh? <sup>23</sup>Oh that my words were now written! Oh that they were engraved in a book! <sup>24</sup>Oh that they were cut with an iron pen and lead in the rock forever! <sup>25</sup>For I know that my Redeemer lives, and He shall rise on the earth at the last; <sup>26</sup>and even after they corrupt my skin, yet this: in my flesh I shall see God, <sup>27</sup>whom I shall see for myself, and my eyes shall behold, and not a stranger's; though My heart be exhausted in my bosom.

<sup>28</sup>For you ought to say, Why do we persecute him, since the root of the matter is found in me? <sup>29</sup>Fear for yourselves because of the sword; for wrath brings the punishments of the sword, so that you may know there is a judgment.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>1</sup>And Zophar the Naamathite answered and said, <sup>2</sup>Therefore my thoughts cause me to answer, even because of my haste in me. <sup>3</sup>I have heard the rebuke meant to shame me, and the spirit of my understanding causes me to answer. <sup>4</sup>Do you know this from days of old, from the setting of man on earth, <sup>5</sup>that the exulting of the wicked is short, and the joy of the ungodly is only for a moment? <sup>6</sup>Though his honor mounts up to the heavens, and his head reaches to the clouds, <sup>7</sup>he shall perish forever like his dung; they who see him shall say, Where is he? <sup>8</sup>He flies away like a dream, and shall not be found, and shall be chased away like a vision of the night. <sup>9</sup>An eye glimpsed him, but will not again; yea, his place shall not see him again. <sup>10</sup>His sons shall seek to please the poor, and his hands shall restore his wealth. <sup>11</sup>His bones are full of his youthful vigor, but it lies down with him in the dust. <sup>12</sup>Though wickedness is sweet in his mouth, though he hides it under his tongue; <sup>13</sup>though he spares it and will not leave it; yea, keeps it still in his mouth; <sup>14</sup>yet his food in his belly shall be turned; the gall of asps is within him. <sup>15</sup>He swallows riches, but vomits it; God shall cast them out of his belly. <sup>16</sup>He shall suck the poison of asps; the viper's tongue shall slay him. <sup>17</sup>He shall not see the rivers, the flowings of the brooks of honey and butter, <sup>18</sup>giving back his gain, and he will not eat. As to the wealth of his trading, even he shall not enjoy it. <sup>19</sup>For he pressed down and forsook the poor; he stole a house, but he had not built it. <sup>20</sup>Surely he shall not know quietness in his belly; he will not escape with the things of desire. <sup>21</sup>None of his food shall be left; therefore his good will not last. <sup>22</sup>In the fullness of his plenty he shall be in trouble; every wretched one shall come on him. <sup>23</sup>It shall happen at the filling of his belly, God shall cast the fury of His wrath on him, and He shall rain on him while he is eating. <sup>24</sup>He shall flee from the iron weapon, a bow of bronze shall pierce him. <sup>25</sup>One draws it, and treads it from behind, even lightning from his gall; terror is on him. <sup>26</sup>All darkness shall be hidden in his secret places; a fire not blown shall consume him; those left in his tent shall be broken. <sup>27</sup>The heavens shall reveal his iniquity; and the earth shall rise up against him. <sup>28</sup>The increase of his house shall depart, and shall flow away in the day of his wrath. <sup>29</sup>This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and the inheritance of his word from God.

CHAPTER 21

<sup>1</sup>And Job answered and said, <sup>2</sup>Listen carefully to my speech, and let this be your comfort. <sup>3</sup>Rise with me and I shall speak; and after I have spoken, mock on. <sup>4</sup>As for me, is my complaint to man? And why should my spirit not be troubled? <sup>5</sup>Turn to me and be amazed, and lay your hand on your mouth. <sup>6</sup>And if I remember, I am afraid, and trembling takes hold on my flesh. <sup>7</sup>Why do the wicked live? They grow old and become mighty in power? <sup>8</sup>Their seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes. <sup>9</sup>Their houses are in peace, without fear; nor is the rod of God on them. <sup>10</sup>Their bull mates and does not fail; their cow calves, and does not cast her calf. <sup>11</sup>They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance. <sup>12</sup>They lift up voice at the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the flute. <sup>13</sup>They spend their days in good, and in a moment go down to the grave. <sup>14</sup>And they say to God, Depart from us; for we do not desire the knowledge of your ways — <sup>15</sup>what is the Almighty, that we should serve him? And what profit should we have if we pray to him?

<sup>27</sup>Behold, I know your thoughts, and the plots which you wrongfully hatch against me. <sup>28</sup>For you say, Where is the house of the noble, and where the dwelling-places of the wicked? <sup>29</sup>Did you not ask those who go by the way? And do you not know their signs, <sup>30</sup>that the wicked is kept for the day of calamity? They shall be brought to the day of wrath. <sup>31</sup>Who shall declare his way to his face?

And who shall repay him what he has done? <sup>32</sup>Yet he shall be brought to the grave, and watch shall be kept over his tomb. <sup>33</sup>And the clods of the valley shall be sweet to him and every man shall draw after him, as there is no numbering of those before him. <sup>34</sup>How then do you comfort me in vain, since in your answers remain transgression?

CHAPTER 22

<sup>1</sup>And Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said, <sup>2</sup>Can a man be useful to God, as he who is wise may be useful to himself? <sup>3</sup>Is it any pleasure to the Almighty that you are righteous? Or is it gain to Him that you make your ways perfect? <sup>4</sup>Will He reprove you because of your reverence, or enter into judgment with you? <sup>5</sup>Is not your wickedness great, and your iniquity without measure? <sup>6</sup>For you have taken a pledge from your brother for nothing, and stripped the naked of their clothing. <sup>7</sup>You have not given water to the weary to drink, and you have held back bread from the hungry. <sup>8</sup>But as for the mighty man, he had the earth, and the honored man lived in it. <sup>9</sup>You have sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless have been broken. <sup>10</sup>Therefore snares are all around you, and sudden fear troubles you; <sup>11</sup>or darkness, so that you cannot see; and a flood of waters covers you. <sup>12</sup>Is not God high in Heaven? And behold the leading stars, for they are high. <sup>13</sup>And you say, What does God know? Can He judge through the dark cloud? <sup>14</sup>Clouds are a covering to Him, so that He does not see; and He walks in the circuit of Heaven. <sup>15</sup>Do you keep to the old way which wicked men have walked? <sup>16</sup>They were seized, but there was not time; their foundation was poured out by a flood; <sup>17</sup>who said to God, Depart from us; and, What can the Almighty do to them? <sup>18</sup>Yet He filled their houses with substance; and the wisdom of the wicked is far from me. <sup>19</sup>The righteous see it, and are glad; and the innocent laugh them to scorn. <sup>20</sup>Truly our foe is not cut down, and fire has eaten their wealth.

<sup>21</sup>Now be of service with Him, and be at peace. Good shall come to you by them. <sup>22</sup>Please receive the law from His mouth and lay up His words in your heart. <sup>23</sup>If you return to the Almighty, you shall be built up; you shall put away injustice far from your tents. <sup>24</sup>Then you shall lay up gold like dust, and among the rock of the torrents of Ophir. <sup>25</sup>Yea, the Almighty shall be your gold and silver, strength to you. <sup>26</sup>For then you shall have your delight in the Almighty, and shall lift up your face to God. <sup>27</sup>You shall make your prayer to Him, and He shall hear you, and you shall pay your vows. <sup>28</sup>You shall also order a thing, and it shall be fulfilled to you; and the light shall shine on your ways. <sup>29</sup>For they have humiliated you, and you shall say, Pride! And He shall save the lowly of eyes. <sup>30</sup>He shall deliver one not innocent, and will deliver by the pureness of your hands.

CHAPTER 23

<sup>1</sup>And Job answered and said, <sup>2</sup>Even today is my complaint bitter; my stroke is heavier than my groaning. <sup>3</sup>Oh that I knew where I might find Him! that I might come even to His seat! <sup>4</sup>I would order my cause before Him, and fill my mouth with arguments. <sup>5</sup>I would know the words which He would answer me, and understand what He would say to me. <sup>6</sup>Will He plead against me with His great power? No, surely He would give heed to me. <sup>7</sup>There the righteous might reason with Him; and I would be delivered forever from my Judge. <sup>8</sup>Behold, I go forward, but He is not there; and backward, but I cannot see Him; <sup>9</sup>on the left hand, where He works, but I cannot behold Him. He hides Himself on the right hand, so that I cannot see Him. <sup>10</sup>But He knows the way that I take; when He has tried me, I shall come forth as gold. <sup>11</sup>My foot has held fast in His steps; I have kept His way, and have not fallen away; <sup>12</sup>nor have I gone back from the commandment of His lips; I treasured the words of His mouth more than my portion. <sup>13</sup>But He is in one mind, and who can turn Him? Yea, what His soul desires, He does it. <sup>14</sup>For He fulfilled my lot, and many things like these are with Him. <sup>15</sup>Therefore I am troubled at His presence; when I look, I am afraid of Him. <sup>16</sup>For God makes my heart soft, and the Almighty troubles me; <sup>17</sup>because I was not cut off before the darkness; yea, He covered the darkness from my face.

<sup>1</sup>Since times are not hidden from the Almighty, why do those who know Him not see His days? <sup>2</sup>They remove the landmarks; they seize flocks and feed them. <sup>3</sup>They drive away the ass of the fatherless; they take the widow's ox for a pledge. <sup>4</sup>They turn the needy out of the way; the poor of the earth hide themselves together. <sup>5</sup>Behold, like wild asses in the desert, they go forth to their work, rising early for a prey. The wilderness yields food for them and for their children. <sup>6</sup>They reap his fodder in the field; and they gather the grapes of the wicked. <sup>7</sup>They lodge the naked without clothing, and give no covering in the cold. <sup>8</sup>They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the rock for lack of shelter. <sup>9</sup>They pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge from the poor. <sup>10</sup>They cause him to go naked without clothing, and they take away the sheaves from the hungry. <sup>11</sup>They press out oil between their walls; they tread their winepresses, and still suffer thirst. <sup>12</sup>Men groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wounded cries for help; yet God does not charge foolishness. <sup>13</sup>They are of those who rebel against the light; they know not His ways, nor stay in His paths. <sup>14</sup>The murderer rising with the light kills the poor and needy, and in the night he is a thief. <sup>15</sup>And the eye of the adulterer waits for the twilight, saying, No eye will see me; and he puts a covering on his face. <sup>16</sup>In the dark they dig through houses which they had marked for themselves in the daytime; they do not know the light. <sup>17</sup>For the morning is to them like the shadow of death; for they know the terrors of the shadow of death. <sup>18</sup>He is swift on the waters; their portion is cursed in the earth; he does not behold the way of the vineyards. <sup>19</sup>Drought and heat eat up the snow waters; so does the grave those who have sinned. <sup>20</sup>The womb shall forget him; the worm shall feed sweetly on him; he shall be remembered no more; and injustice shall be broken like a tree. <sup>21</sup>He ill-treats the women who bear no children; and does no good to the widow. <sup>22</sup>He also draws the mighty with his power; he rises up, and no one is sure of life. <sup>23</sup>He gives safety to him, and he rests on it; yet his eyes are on their ways. <sup>24</sup>They are lifted up for a little while, but are gone and brought low; they are gathered in like all others, and are cut off like the heads of the ears of grain. <sup>25</sup>And if it is not so, who will make me a liar, and make my speech worth nothing?

CHAPTER 25

<sup>1</sup>And Bildad the Shuhite answered and said, <sup>2</sup>Rule and fear are with Him; He makes peace in His high places. <sup>3</sup>Is there any number of His armies? And on whom does not His light arise? <sup>4</sup>How then can man be justified with God? Or how can one who is born of a woman be clean? <sup>5</sup>Look even to the moon, and it shines not; yea, the stars are not pure in His sight; <sup>6</sup>how much less man who is a maggot, and the son of man, who is a worm?

CHAPTER 26

<sup>1</sup>But Job answered and said, <sup>2</sup>How have you helped him who is without power? How have you saved the arm that has no strength? <sup>3</sup>How have you advised him who has no wisdom, or fully declared wise plans? <sup>4</sup>To whom have you spoken words? And whose spirit came from you? <sup>5</sup>The departed spirits tremble under the waters, and those who dwell in them. <sup>6</sup>Hell is naked before Him, and the Pit has no covering. <sup>7</sup>He stretches out the north over the empty place, and He hung the earth on nothing. <sup>8</sup>He binds up the waters in His thick clouds; and the cloud is not torn under them. <sup>9</sup>He covers the face of His throne, spreading His cloud on it. <sup>10</sup>He has described a circle with darkness on the surface of the waters to the boundary of light. <sup>11</sup>The pillars of the heavens tremble and are astonished at His rebuke. <sup>12</sup>He quiets the sea with His power, and by His understanding He shatters the proud. <sup>13</sup>By His Spirit the heavens were beautified; His hand pierced the fleeing serpent. <sup>14</sup>Lo, these are the edges of His ways; but what a whisper of a word we hear of Him! And the thunder of His power who can understand?

CHAPTER 27

<sup>1</sup>And Job continued the lifting up of His speech, and said, <sup>2</sup>As God lives, He has taken away my judgment; and the Almighty has made my soul bitter. <sup>3</sup>As long as my breath is in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils; <sup>4</sup>my lips shall not speak wickedness, nor my tongue utter deceit. <sup>5</sup>Far be it from me that I should justify you; until I die I will not retract my integrity from me. <sup>6</sup>I hold fast by my righteousness, and I will not let it go; my heart shall not shame me any of my days. <sup>7</sup>Let my enemy be like the wicked, and he who rises up against me as the perverse. <sup>8</sup>For what is the hope of the ungodly when He cuts off, when God takes away his soul? <sup>9</sup>Will God hear his cry when trouble comes on him? <sup>10</sup>Will he delight himself in the Almighty? Will he always call on God?

<sup>11</sup>I will teach you by the hand of God; that which is with the Almighty I will not hide. <sup>12</sup>Behold, all you have seen it yourselves; why then do you become completely vain? <sup>13</sup>This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the inheritance of cruel men which they shall receive from the Almighty. <sup>14</sup>If his sons are multiplied, the sword is for them; and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread. <sup>15</sup>Those who remain of him shall be buried in death; and his widows shall not weep. <sup>16</sup>Though he heaps up silver like the dust, and prepares clothing like the clay, <sup>17</sup>he may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver. <sup>18</sup>He builds his house like a moth, and like a booth that a watchman makes. <sup>19</sup>The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered. He opens his eyes, and he is not. <sup>20</sup>Terrors overtake him like waters; a tempest steals him away in the night. <sup>21</sup>The east wind lifts him up, and he is gone; for it whirls him out of his place. <sup>22</sup>For it will hurl at him, and will not spare; he will surely flee out of its hand. <sup>23</sup>He shall clap His hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

CHAPTER 28

<sup>1</sup>Surely there is a mine for the silver, and a place where they refine gold. <sup>2</sup>Iron is taken out of the earth, and bronze is melted out of the stone. <sup>3</sup>He sets an end to darkness, and to every extremity He searches out the stones of darkness and the shadow of death. <sup>4</sup>He opens a shaft far from the visitor; they are forgotten by man's foot; they hang far away from men, they swing to and fro. <sup>5</sup>As to the earth, out of it comes bread; and under it, it is turned up like fire. <sup>6</sup>Its stones are the place of sapphires; and it has dust of gold. <sup>7</sup>There is a path which no bird knows, nor has the vulture's eye caught sight of it; the sons of pride have not walked on it, the lion has not passed by. <sup>8</sup>He puts forth His hand on the flinty places; He overturns the mountains by the roots. <sup>9</sup>He cuts out rivers among the rocks; and His eye sees every precious thing. <sup>10</sup>He holds back the floods from overflowing; and the hidden thing; He brings to light.

<sup>12</sup>But where shall wisdom be found? And where is the place of understanding? <sup>13</sup>Man does not know the price of it; nor is it found in the land of the living. <sup>14</sup>The deep says, It is not in me; and the sea says, It is not in me. <sup>15</sup>Pure gold cannot be given in its stead, and silver be weighed as its price. <sup>16</sup>It cannot be weighed against the gold of Ophir, against precious onyx, or sapphire; <sup>17</sup>gold and the crystal cannot equal it, nor can it be exchanged for vessels of fine gold. <sup>18</sup>No mention shall be made of coral, or of pearls; and the price of wisdom is above rubies. <sup>19</sup>The topaz of Ethiopia cannot equal it; it cannot be weighed against pure gold. <sup>20</sup>Where then does wisdom come from, and where is the place of understanding? <sup>21</sup>Yea, it is hidden from the eyes of all living, and hidden from the birds of the heavens. <sup>22</sup>The place of ruin and death say, We have heard the fame of it with our ears. <sup>23</sup>God understands the way of it, and He knows its place. <sup>24</sup>For He looks to the end of the earth, and sees under all the heavens; <sup>25</sup>making a weight for the winds, and measuring out the waters by measure. <sup>26</sup>When He made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning to thunder; <sup>27</sup>then He saw it, and declared it; He prepared it, yea, and searched it out. <sup>28</sup>And to man He said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom! And to depart from evil is understanding!

CHAPTER 29

<sup>1</sup>And Job continued the lifting up of his speech, and said, <sup>2</sup>Oh that I were as in months past, as in the days when God watched over me; <sup>3</sup>when His lamp shone on my head; I walked through darkness by His light — <sup>4</sup>as I was in the days of my harvest, when the secret of God was on my tent; <sup>5</sup>When the Almighty was yet with me, and my children were around me; <sup>6</sup>when I washed my steps with curds, and the rock poured out rivers of oil for me; <sup>7</sup>when I went out to the gate by the city; when I prepared my seat in the street! <sup>8</sup>The young men saw me and hid themselves; and the aged arose and stood up. <sup>9</sup>The rulers held back from talking, and laid their hand on their mouth. <sup>10</sup>The noble's voice was subdued, and their tongue clung to the roof of their mouth.

<sup>11</sup>For the ear heard me and blessed me. And the eye saw me and witnessed to me. <sup>12</sup>For I delivered the poor who cried for help, and the fatherless who had none to help him. <sup>13</sup>The blessing of the perishing came on me; and I caused the widow's heart to sing. <sup>14</sup>I put on righteousness, and it clothed me; my judgment was like a robe and a diadem. <sup>15</sup>I was eyes to the blind and feet to the lame. <sup>16</sup>I was a father to the poor; and the cause which I did not know, I searched out. <sup>17</sup>I broke the fangs of the wicked, and plucked the prey out of his teeth. <sup>18</sup>Then I said, I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days like the sand. <sup>19</sup>My root was open to the waters, and the dew lay all night on my branch. <sup>20</sup>My glory was fresh in me, and my bow was renewed in my hand. <sup>21</sup>They gave ear to me, and waited, and kept silent at my counsel. <sup>22</sup>After my words they did not go on; and my speech dropped on them. <sup>23</sup>And they waited for me like the rain; and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain. <sup>24</sup>I smiled kindly on them when they did not believe it; and they did not make the light of my face fall. <sup>25</sup>I chose out their way, and sat as chief; and I lived like a king in the army, as one who comforts the mourners.

CHAPTER 30

<sup>1</sup>But now those younger than me laugh at me, whose fathers I would have refused to set with the dogs of my flock. <sup>2</sup>Also, what profit for me was the strength of their hands; or full vigor had perished from them? <sup>3</sup>They are dried up with want and famine; they who gnaw the dry ground, which was before waste and ruin, <sup>4</sup>those plucking mallows by the bushes, and broom roots for their food. <sup>5</sup>They are driven forth from the midst; they cried against them as a thief. <sup>6</sup>They dwell in the chasms of the valley, in holes of the earth and in rocks. <sup>7</sup>They bray among the bushes; they huddle together under the nettles; <sup>8</sup>sons of fools, yea, sons without a name; they have been whipped out of the land. <sup>9</sup>And now I am their song; yea,

I am their byword. <sup>10</sup>They despise me, and they flee far from me; they do not spare spit from my face. <sup>11</sup>Because He has loosed His bowstring and afflicted me, they have also thrown off the bridle before me. <sup>12</sup>On my right hand a brood rises; they push away my feet and raise up against me the ways of their ruin. <sup>13</sup>They have broken down my path, they gain by my trouble; they have no helper. <sup>14</sup>As through a wide break they came on; they roll under a ruin. <sup>15</sup>Terrors have turned on me; they pursue my soul like the wind; and my good passes away like a cloud. <sup>16</sup>And now my soul is poured out within me; the days of affliction have taken hold on me. <sup>17</sup>My bones are pierced in me in the night; and my gnawings never lie down. <sup>18</sup>By the great force of my disease my clothing is exposed; it binds me about like the mouth of my coat. <sup>19</sup>He has cast me into the mire, and I have become like dust and ashes.

<sup>20</sup>I cried to You, and You did not hear me; I stood up, and You did not consider me. <sup>21</sup>You changed to be cruel to me; with Your mighty hand You assault me. <sup>22</sup>You lift me up to the wind; You cause me to ride on it; and You melt me in a storm. <sup>23</sup>For I know that You will bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living. <sup>24</sup>Surely He will not stretch out His hand to the ruin-heap, though they cry in their misfortune. <sup>25</sup>Did I not weep for him whose day was hard; and my soul grieved for the poor? <sup>26</sup>When I looked for good, then evil came; and when I waited for light, then darkness came. <sup>27</sup>My bowels boiled, and did not rest; the days of trouble confront me. <sup>28</sup>I go in mourning with no sun; I stood up and I cried out in the congregation. <sup>29</sup>I am a brother to jackals, and a companion of ostriches. <sup>30</sup>My skin is black on me, and my bones are burned with heat. <sup>31</sup>And my harp has turned to mourning, and my flute to the sound of weeping.

CHAPTER 31

<sup>1</sup>I made a covenant with my eyes; how then could I look upon a virgin? <sup>2</sup>For what is the portion from God above? And what is the inheritance from the Almighty on high? <sup>3</sup>Is not disaster to the perverse, and calamity to the workers of iniquity? <sup>4</sup>Does He not see my ways, and count all my steps? <sup>5</sup>If I have walked with vanity, or if my foot has hurried to deceit, <sup>6</sup>let me be weighed in an even balance so that God may know my uprightness. <sup>7</sup>If my step has turned out of the way, or my heart has walked after my eyes, and if any blot has held fast to my hands; <sup>8</sup>then let me sow, and let another eat; and let my harvests be rooted out. <sup>9</sup>If my heart has been enticed by a woman, or if I have laid wait at my neighbor's door, <sup>10</sup>then let my wife grind to another, and let others bow down on her. <sup>11</sup>For that would be an evil purpose; yea, it would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges. <sup>12</sup>For it is a fire that devours to the Place of Ruin, and it would root out all my gain. <sup>13</sup>If I despised the cause of my man servant or of my maidservant, when they argued with me; <sup>14</sup>what then shall I do when God rises up? And when He calls me to account, what shall I answer Him? <sup>15</sup>Did He who made me in the womb not make him? And did not One shape us in the womb?

<sup>16</sup>If I have withheld the poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail, <sup>17</sup>or have eaten my bit alone, and the fatherless has not eaten it — <sup>18</sup>for from my youth he grew up with me, as with a father, and from my mother's womb I guided her — <sup>19</sup>if I have seen any perish for lack of clothing, or there was no covering for the needy; <sup>20</sup>if his loins have not blessed me, and he warmed himself with the fleece of my flock; <sup>21</sup>if I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless when I watched in the gate as my help; <sup>22</sup>then let my arm fall from the shoulder blade, and let my arm be broken from the bone. <sup>23</sup>For trouble from God is a terror to me, and I could not do anything because of His highness. <sup>24</sup>If I have made gold my hope, or have called fine gold my trust! <sup>25</sup>if I rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because my hand had gotten much; <sup>26</sup>if I looked to the light when it shone, or the moon walking in brightness, <sup>27</sup>and my heart has been secretly enticed, or my mouth has kissed my hand; <sup>28</sup>this also were an iniquity for the judges; for I would have denied the God who is above.

<sup>29</sup>If I rejoiced at the ruin of my hater, and I was excited when evil found him — <sup>30</sup>also I have not allowed my mouth to sin by asking his life with a curse — <sup>31</sup>if the men of my camp did not say, Who can find one who has not been satisfied with his meat? — <sup>32</sup>the stranger did not sleep in the street for I opened my doors to the traveler — <sup>33</sup>if I covered my transgressions like Adam, by hiding my iniquity in my bosom, <sup>34</sup>then let me tremble before a great multitude, and be terrified by the scorn of families; and I will be silent and not go out the door. <sup>35</sup>Oh that I had one to hear me! Behold my mark. Let the Almighty answer me, and my Accuser write an indictment. <sup>36</sup>Surely I would carry it on my shoulder, and bind it like crowns to me. <sup>37</sup>I would declare to Him the number of my steps; like a prince I would go near Him. <sup>38</sup>If my lands cry against me, or its furrows weep together; <sup>39</sup>if I have eaten its strength without silver, or have caused its owner to expire, <sup>40</sup>let thorns come forth instead of wheat, and weeds instead of barley.

The words of Job are ended.

CHAPTER 32

<sup>1</sup>And these three men ceased from answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes. <sup>2</sup>And the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, was kindled. His wrath was kindled against Job, because he had justified himself rather than God. <sup>3</sup>Also his wrath was kindled against his three friends, because they had found no answer and had condemned Job. <sup>4</sup>And Elihu had waited beside Job with words, because they were older than he was. <sup>5</sup>When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled. <sup>6</sup>And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am young, and you are very old; therefore I was afraid, and dared not show you my opinion. <sup>7</sup>I said, Days should speak, and the multitude of years should teach wisdom. <sup>8</sup>But a spirit is in man giving them perception, even the breath of the Almighty. <sup>9</sup>It is not the great that are wise, nor the aged who understand judgment. <sup>10</sup>Therefore I say, Listen to me. I also will declare my opinion. <sup>11</sup>Behold, I waited for your words; I listened to your reasons, while you searched out what to say. <sup>12</sup>Yes, I listened to you, and, behold, not one of you proved Job wrong nor answered his words, <sup>13</sup>that you do not say, We have found out wisdom. God has pushed him down, not man. <sup>14</sup>And he has not directed his words against me; and I will not answer him with your words.

<sup>15</sup>They are broken; they answer no more; words have left them. <sup>16</sup>Shall I wait because you do not speak, because they stand still, answering no more? <sup>17</sup>I also will answer my part; I will declare my wisdom. <sup>18</sup>For I am full of words; the spirit within me presses on me. <sup>19</sup>Behold, my breast is as wine which has no vent; it bursts like new wineskins. <sup>20</sup>I will speak so that I may be refreshed; I will open my lips and answer. <sup>21</sup>I will not now lift up the face of a man, nor eulogize any man, <sup>22</sup>For I do not know how to eulogize; else after a little my Maker would take me away.

CHAPTER 33

<sup>1</sup>However, Job, please hear my speeches, and listen to all my words. <sup>2</sup>Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue has spoken in my mouth, <sup>3</sup>my words shall be from my upright heart, and my lips will clearly speak knowledge. <sup>4</sup>The Spirit of God made me, and the breath of the Almighty gives me life. <sup>5</sup>If you can, answer me; set yourself in order before me, stand up. <sup>6</sup>Behold, I am toward God even as you are; I also am formed out of the clay. <sup>7</sup>Behold, my terror shall not make you afraid, and my burden shall not be heavy on you. <sup>8</sup>Surely you have spoken in my ears, and I have heard the sound of your words. <sup>9</sup>You said, I am pure, without transgression; I am innocent, and no iniquity is in me; <sup>10</sup>behold, He finds reasons to be against me, He counts me for His enemy; <sup>11</sup>He puts my feet in the stocks; He marks all my paths.

<sup>12</sup>Behold, in this you are not right; I will answer you, for God is greater than man. <sup>13</sup>Why do you fight against Him? For He does not give account for any of His matters. <sup>14</sup>For God speaks once, yea, twice, but one does not understand it. <sup>15</sup>In a dream, vision of the night, when deep sleep falls on men; while they slumber on the bed; <sup>16</sup>then He opens the ear of men and seals their teaching, <sup>17</sup>so that He may turn man from his act, that He might hide pride from man. <sup>18</sup>He keeps back his soul from the Pit, and his life from perishing by the sword. <sup>19</sup>He is also chastened with pain on his bed, and enduring strife in his bones, <sup>20</sup>so that his life is sick of bread, and his soul desirable food. <sup>21</sup>His flesh wastes away, not seen; and his bones laid bare; they were not seen. <sup>22</sup>Yea, his soul draws near to the Pit, and his life to the dealers of death. <sup>23</sup>If there is a messenger for him, a mediator, one among a thousand, to declare for man his uprightness, <sup>24</sup>then He is gracious to him and says, Deliver him from going down to the Pit; for I have found a ransom. <sup>25</sup>His flesh shall be fresher than in vigor; he shall return to the days of his youth; <sup>26</sup>he shall pray to God, and He will be gracious to Him; and he shall see His face with joy, for He will restore to man his righteousness. <sup>27</sup>He will observe to men, and say, I have sinned and perverted righteousness; and was not equally repaid to me, <sup>28</sup>He has redeemed my soul from passing over into the Pit, and my life shall see the light. <sup>29</sup>Lo, all these things God does two or three times with a man, <sup>30</sup>to bring back his soul from the Pit, to be lighted with the light of the living.

<sup>31</sup>Hear this, Job, listen to me; be silent and I will speak. <sup>32</sup>If you have anything to say, answer me; speak, for I desire to justify you. <sup>33</sup>If not, listen to me; be silent, and I will teach you wisdom.

CHAPTER 34

<sup>1</sup>And Elihu answered and said, <sup>2</sup>Hear my words, wise men; and give ear to me, you who have knowledge; <sup>3</sup>For the ear tries words as the mouth tastes food. <sup>4</sup>Let us choose for ourselves what is right; let us know among ourselves what is good. <sup>5</sup>For Job has said, I am righteous; and God has taken away my right; <sup>6</sup>should I lie against my right? My wound cannot be cured; I am without rebellion. <sup>7</sup>What man is like Job, who drinks up scolding like water; <sup>8</sup>who goes in company with the workers of iniquity, and walks with wicked men? <sup>9</sup>For he has said, It profits a man nothing when he is accepted with God. <sup>10</sup>Therefore listen to me, O man of heart; far be it from God to do wickedness; and from the Almighty, to do wrong. <sup>11</sup>For He repays man's work, and causes him to find according to his ways. <sup>12</sup>Yes, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert justice. <sup>13</sup>Who has given the earth as a deposit with Him? Or who has set the whole world in order? <sup>14</sup>If He sets His heart on man, if He gathers to Himself his spirit and his breath, <sup>15</sup>all flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again to dust.

<sup>16</sup>If now you have understanding, hear this; listen to the sound of my words. <sup>17</sup>Shall one who hates right govern? And will you condemn Him who is just and mighty? <sup>18</sup>Who says to a king, O worthless one; and to nobles, O evil one? <sup>19</sup>He does not accept the face of rulers, nor regard the rich before the poor? For they are the work of His hands. <sup>20</sup>In a moment they die, and a people are shaken at midnight and pass away; and the mighty shall be taken away without a hand. <sup>21</sup>For

His eyes are on the ways of man, and He sees all his steps. <sup>22</sup>There is no darkness, nor shadow of death to hide there the workers of iniquity. <sup>23</sup>For He does set a time to man to go before God in judgment; <sup>24</sup>He shall break in pieces mighty men without number, and set others in their place. <sup>25</sup>Therefore He knows their works, and He overturns in the night, so that they are destroyed.

<sup>26</sup>He strikes them for evil deeds in the place they are watched, <sup>27</sup>because thus they turned from following Him, and they did not consider all His ways; <sup>28</sup>so as to cause the cry of the poor to come to Him, for He hears the cry of the afflicted. <sup>29</sup>And He gives quietness, who then can condemn? And when He hides His face, who can behold Him? And it may be against a nation and a man together; <sup>30</sup>from the reigning of ungodly men, from being snares for the people. <sup>31</sup>For has any said to God, I have taken away; I will not pervert? <sup>32</sup>Besides what I see, You teach me; if I have done iniquity, I will do it no more. <sup>33</sup>Must He repay because you rejected it? For you must choose, and not I; therefore speak what you know. <sup>34</sup>Men of understanding will say to me, and a wise man who hears me will say, <sup>35</sup>Job has spoken without knowledge, and his words were without wisdom. <sup>36</sup>Would that Job may be tried to the end because his answers are like men of iniquity. <sup>37</sup>For he adds rebellion to his sins; he claps his hands among us, and multiplies his words against God.

CHAPTER 35

<sup>1</sup>And Elihu answered and said, <sup>2</sup>Do you think this to be right, you that say, I am more just than God? <sup>3</sup>For you say, What will it benefit you? And, What good shall I have more than if I had sinned? <sup>4</sup>I will answer your words, and your friends with you. <sup>5</sup>Look to the heavens, and see; and behold the clouds; they are higher than you. <sup>6</sup>If you sin, what do you do against Him? Or if your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do to Him? <sup>7</sup>If you are righteous, what do you give Him? Or what does He receive from your hand? <sup>8</sup>Your wickedness may hurt a man as you are; and your righteousness may profit the son of man. <sup>9</sup>From the multitude of tyrannies they cry out; they cry out because of the arm of the many. <sup>10</sup>But none says, Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night; <sup>11</sup>who teaches us more than the animals of the earth, and makes us wiser than the birds of the heavens? <sup>12</sup>There they cry, but He gives no answer, because of the pride of evildoers. <sup>13</sup>Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty look on it. <sup>14</sup>How much less when you do not see Him! Judgment is before Him; you are waiting for Him. <sup>15</sup>And now, because His anger has not visited, and He does not recognize stupidity, <sup>16</sup>even Job opens his mouth in vanity; he multiplies words without knowledge.

CHAPTER 36

<sup>1</sup>Elihu went on and said, <sup>2</sup>Bear with me a little, and I will show you that there are yet words for God. <sup>3</sup>I will bring my knowledge from afar, and I will credit righteousness to my Maker. <sup>4</sup>For truly my words are not false; He who is perfect in knowledge is with you. <sup>5</sup>Behold, God is mighty, and does not despise; He is mighty in strength of heart. <sup>6</sup>He will not keep alive one who is wicked, but gives right to the afflicted. <sup>7</sup>He withdraws not His eyes from the righteous, but they are like kings on the throne; yes, He causes them to sit forever, and they are very high. <sup>8</sup>And if they are bound in chains, and are held in cords of affliction, <sup>9</sup>then He shows them their work, and their sins, that they have behaved themselves proudly. <sup>10</sup>He also opens their ears to teaching, and commands that they return from iniquity. <sup>11</sup>If they obey and serve Him, they shall spend their days in blessedness, and their years in pleasures. <sup>12</sup>But if they do not obey, they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge. <sup>13</sup>But the ungodly in heart heap up wrath; they cry not when He binds them. <sup>14</sup>Their soul dies in youth, and their life ends among the sodomites.

<sup>16</sup>And He also would have removed you from the mouth of distress to a wide place not restrained; and the setting of your table would be full of fatness. <sup>17</sup>But you have fulfilled the judgment of the wicked; judgment and justice take hold; <sup>18</sup>For beware wrath, that He not take you away with His scorn; then a great ransom cannot turn you aside. <sup>19</sup>If your cry for help is set in order, then not in distress, but with all the forces of strength. <sup>20</sup>Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place. <sup>21</sup>Beware, do not turn to iniquity; for this you have chosen rather than affliction.

<sup>22</sup>Behold, God lifts Himself up by His power; who teaches like Him? <sup>23</sup>Who has appointed Him His way; or who can say, You have done wrong? <sup>24</sup>Remember that you magnify His work of which men have sung; <sup>25</sup>every man has seen it; man may see it afar off. <sup>26</sup>Behold, God is great, and we do not know; the number of His years cannot be searched out. <sup>27</sup>For He draws up the drops of water; they distill rain into mist, <sup>28</sup>which the clouds pour down and drop upon man plentifully. <sup>29</sup>Also can any understand the spreading of the clouds, or the crashing of His canopy? <sup>30</sup>Behold, He spreads His light on it, and He covers the bottom of the sea. <sup>31</sup>For by them He judges the people; He gives plenty of food. <sup>32</sup>He covers His hands with the lightning, and commands it to strike the mark; <sup>33</sup>its thunder declares concerning Him, and the cattle, concerning what is coming.

CHAPTER 37

<sup>1</sup>My heart trembles at this also, and it leaps out of its place. <sup>2</sup>Listen carefully to the thunder of His voice, and the rumbling that comes out of His mouth. <sup>3</sup>He loosens it under the whole heavens, and His lightning to the ends of the earth. <sup>4</sup>After it a voice roars; He thunders with the voice of His majesty, and He will not hold them when His voice is heard. <sup>5</sup>God thunders marvelously with His voice; He does great things, and we do not understand. <sup>6</sup>For he says to the snow, Fall on the earth; also to the shower of rain, and to the shower of heavy rains in its strength. <sup>7</sup>He seals up the hand of every man, so that all men may know His work. <sup>8</sup>Then the beast go into its lair, and they remain in their dens. <sup>9</sup>Out of the storeroom comes the tempest; and cold from scattering winds. <sup>10</sup>By the breath of God ice is given; and the expanse of waters is frozen tight. <sup>11</sup>Also he loads the clouds with moisture; He scatters the lightning cloud, <sup>12</sup>and it is turned around by His guidance, so that they may do whatever He commands them on the face of the world in the earth. <sup>13</sup>Whether as a whip, or for His land, or for mercy, He finds it.

<sup>14</sup>Listen to this, Job; stand still, and consider the wonderful works of God. <sup>15</sup>Do you know when God placed them, and caused the lightning of His cloud to shine? <sup>16</sup>Do you know the balancing of the clouds, the wonderful works of Him who is perfect in knowledge? <sup>17</sup>How your clothes are warm when He quiets the earth from the south wind? <sup>18</sup>Have you beat out the expanse with Him, hard like a cast mirror? <sup>19</sup>Teach us what we shall say to Him; for because of darkness we cannot arrange our case. <sup>20</sup>Shall it be told Him that I would speak? If a man speaks, surely he shall be swallowed up. <sup>21</sup>And now men cannot look upon the light; it is in the clouds; but the wind passes and clears them. <sup>22</sup>Golden weather comes out of the north; God is awesome in His majesty. <sup>23</sup>The Almighty, whom we cannot find out, is exalted in power; and to judgment and overflowing righteousness He does no violence. <sup>24</sup>Therefore, men fear Him; He does not respect any who are wise in heart.

CHAPTER 38

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD answered Job out of the tempest, and said, <sup>2</sup>Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge? <sup>3</sup>Now gird up your loins like a man; for I will ask of you, and you teach Me. <sup>4</sup>Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth? Tell if you have understanding! <sup>5</sup>For do you know who has set its measurements? Or who has stretched the line on it? <sup>6</sup>On what are its bases sunk, or who has cast its cornerstone, <sup>7</sup>when the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy? <sup>8</sup>Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it broke forth as it came from the womb? <sup>9</sup>When I made the clouds its robe, and darkness its navel-band, <sup>10</sup>and set My limit on it, and set bars and doors, <sup>11</sup>and I said, You shall come to here, but no further; and here your proud waves shall stop.

<sup>12</sup>Have you commanded the morning from your days, and caused the dawn to know its place, <sup>13</sup>that it might take hold of the ends of the earth; that the wicked might be shaken out of it? <sup>14</sup>It is turned like clay under a seal; and they stand forth like a garment. <sup>15</sup>And from the wicked their light is withheld, and the high arm shall be broken. <sup>16</sup>Have you gone to the springs of the sea? Or have you walked in search of the depths? <sup>17</sup>Have the gates of death been opened to you? Or have you seen the gates of the shadow of death? <sup>18</sup>Have you understood the breadth of the earth? Tell, if you know it all! <sup>19</sup>Where is the way where light dwells? And where is the place of darkness, <sup>20</sup>that you should take it to its bounds, and that you should know the paths to its house? <sup>21</sup>Do you know it, because you were born then? Or because the number of your days is great?

<sup>22</sup>Have you entered into the storehouses of the snow? Or have you seen the storehouses of the hail, <sup>23</sup>which I have kept for the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war? <sup>24</sup>By what way is the light distributed, and by what way does the east wind spread itself on the earth? <sup>25</sup>Who has cut a channel for the flood, or a way for the thunderclaps; <sup>26</sup>to cause rain to fall on the earth where no man is, a wilderness and no man in it; <sup>27</sup>to satisfy the desolate and waste ground, and to cause the source of grass to spring forth? <sup>28</sup>Has the rain a father? Or who has brought forth the drops of dew? <sup>29</sup>Out of whose womb came the ice? And the frost of the heavens, who fathered it? <sup>30</sup>The waters are hidden like stone, and the face of the deep is frozen. <sup>31</sup>Can you bind the bands of the Pleiades, or loosen the cords of Orion? <sup>32</sup>Can you bring the constellations in their season? Or can you guide the Bear with its sons? <sup>33</sup>Do you know the ordinances of the heavens? Can you set up their rulership on the earth? <sup>34</sup>Can you lift up your voice to the clouds, so that floods of waters may cover you? <sup>35</sup>Can you send lightnings, that they may go, and say to you, Here we are? <sup>36</sup>Who has put wisdom in the inward parts? Or who has given understanding to the mind? <sup>37</sup>Who can number the clouds by wisdom; or who can empty out the jars of the heavens, <sup>38</sup>when the dust is melted into hardness, and the clods cling fast together? <sup>39</sup>Will you hunt the prey for the lion, or fill the appetite of the young lions, <sup>40</sup>when they crouch in dens, and sit in the cover of their hiding place? <sup>41</sup>Who provides food for the raven when its young ones cry to God and wander about without food.

CHAPTER 39

<sup>1</sup>Do you know the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth? Or can you observe the calving of deer? <sup>2</sup>Can you number the months that they fulfill? Or do you know the time for their bearing, <sup>3</sup>when they bow down and bring forth; they send out their pangs. <sup>4</sup>Their young ones are strong, they multiply in the open fields; they go forth and do not return to them again. <sup>5</sup>Who has sent out the wild ass free? Or who has untied the bands of the wild ass, <sup>6</sup>to whom have I assigned the wilderness for its home, and the salt land for its dwellings? <sup>7</sup>He scorns the turmoil of the city; he does not hear the driver's shouts. <sup>8</sup>He seeks out mountains for his pasture, and he searches after every green thing. <sup>9</sup>Will the wild ox be willing to serve you, or spend the night by your feed-trough? <sup>10</sup>Can you tie the wild ox in the furrow with his rope? Or will he harrow the valleys for you? <sup>11</sup>Will you trust him because his strength is great? Or will you leave labor to him? <sup>12</sup>Will you trust him, that he will return your seed and bring it to your grain-floor?

<sup>26</sup>Does the hawk soar by your understanding? Will he spread his wings toward the south? <sup>27</sup>Does the eagle mount up at your command and make his nest on high? <sup>28</sup>He lives and stays on the rock, on the crag of the rock and the strong place. <sup>29</sup>From there he seeks food, and his eyes see afar off. <sup>30</sup>And his young brood also sucks up blood; and where the dead are, there he is.

CHAPTER 40

<sup>1</sup>The LORD answered Job and said, <sup>2</sup>Shall a reprover contend with the Almighty? He who reproves God, let him answer it.

<sup>3</sup>And Job answered the LORD and said, <sup>4</sup>Behold, I am vile! What shall I answer You? I will lay my hand on my mouth. <sup>5</sup>Once I have spoken; but I will not answer; yea, twice, but I will go no further.

<sup>6</sup>And the LORD answered Job out of the tempest, and said, <sup>7</sup>Gird up your loins like a man. I will question you, and you teach Me. <sup>8</sup>Will you also set aside My judgment? Will you condemn Me so that you may be justified? <sup>9</sup>And have you an arm like God? Or can you thunder with a voice like His? <sup>10</sup>Adorn yourself now with majesty and honor; and with glory and honor clothe yourself. <sup>11</sup>Pour forth the rage of your wrath; and behold everyone who is proud, and abase him. <sup>12</sup>Look on everyone who is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place. <sup>13</sup>Hide them in the dust together; and bind their faces in darkness. <sup>14</sup>And I also will confess to you that your own right hand can save you.

presses, he does not run away; he feels safe even if Jordan swells up to his mouth.

CHAPTER 41

<sup>1</sup>Can you draw out the leviathan with a hook, or hold down his tongue with a cord? <sup>2</sup>Can you put a reed rope into his nose, or pierce his jaw with a thorn? <sup>3</sup>Will he multiply for help to you? Will he speak soft words to you? <sup>4</sup>Will he make a covenant with you? Will you take him for a servant for ever? <sup>5</sup>Will you play with him as with a bird? Or will you bind him for your maidens? <sup>6</sup>Shall your companions bargain over him? Shall they divide him among the merchants? <sup>7</sup>Can you fill his skin with barbed irons, or his head with fishing spears? <sup>8</sup>Lay your hand on him, think of the battle; you will never do it again. <sup>9</sup>Behold, his hope has been made false; will not one be cast down at the sight of him? <sup>10</sup>None is so fierce as to dare to stir him up; who then is able to stand before Me? <sup>11</sup>Who has gone before Me, that I should repay him? All that is the heavens is Mine. <sup>12</sup>I will not keep silent concerning his limbs, or his mighty strength, or the grace of his frame. <sup>13</sup>Who can take off the surface of his skin; who can come to him with his double bridle? <sup>14</sup>Who can open the doors to his face? Terror is round about his teeth. <sup>15</sup>The rows of His scales are his pride, shut up with a close seal; <sup>16</sup>one is so near to another that no air can come between them; <sup>17</sup>they are joined one to another, they clasp each other so that they can not be separated. <sup>18</sup>His sneezings flash forth light, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the dawn. <sup>19</sup>Out of his mouth go burning torches, sparks of fire leap out. <sup>20</sup>Out of his nostrils goes smoke, as out of a boiling pot and burning reeds. <sup>21</sup>His breast kindles coals, and a flame goes out of his mouth. <sup>22</sup>In his neck remains strength, and terror dances before him. <sup>23</sup>The folds of his flesh are joined together, cast firm on him; he cannot be moved. <sup>24</sup>His heart is cast hard as a stone, even cast hard as a piece of the lower millstone. <sup>25</sup>The mighty are afraid from his rising; they are beside themselves from the crashing. <sup>26</sup>The sword, the spear, the dart and the javelin overtake him, but will not hold. <sup>27</sup>He counts iron as straw, and bronze as rotten wood. <sup>28</sup>An arrow cannot make him flee; slingstones are turned by him into stubble. <sup>29</sup>Darts are counted as straw; he laughs at the shaking of a javelin. <sup>30</sup>Points of potsherds are under him; he spreads sharp pointed marks on the mire. <sup>31</sup>He makes the deep boil like a pot; he makes the sea like a pot of ointment. <sup>32</sup>He makes a path to shine after him; one would think the deep to be gray-headed. <sup>33</sup>On earth there is nothing like him, one made fearless. <sup>34</sup>He beholds all high things; He is a king over all the sons of pride.

CHAPTER 42

<sup>1</sup>And Job answered the LORD and said, <sup>2</sup>I know that You can do all, not any purpose is withheld from You. <sup>3</sup>Who is he who hides counsel without knowledge? Therefore I have spoken what I did not understand; things too wonderful for me; Yea, I did not know. <sup>4</sup>Hear, I beseech You, and I will speak; I will ask You, and You will cause me to know. <sup>5</sup>I have heard of You by the hearing of the ear; but now my eye has seen You. <sup>6</sup>Therefore I despise myself, and repent in dust and ashes.

<sup>7</sup>And it happened after the LORD had spoken these words to Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against you and against your two friends. For you have not spoken of Me what is right, as My servant Job has. <sup>8</sup>And now take to yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, and go to My servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering. And My servant Job will pray for you. Surely I will accept him so as not to do with you according to your foolishness, in that you have not spoken of Me what is right, like My servant Job.

<sup>9</sup>And Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite, went and did as the LORD commanded them. The LORD also accepted the face of Job. <sup>10</sup>And the LORD turned the captivity of Job when he prayed for his friends. Also the LORD added to Job all that had been his, to double. <sup>11</sup>And came to him all his brothers, and all his sisters, and all those who had known him before. And they ate bread with him in his house, and consoled him and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought on him. Every man also gave him a piece of money, and each one a ring of gold.

<sup>12</sup>And the LORD blessed the latter days of Job more than the beginning. For he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses. <sup>13</sup>He also had seven sons and three daughters. <sup>14</sup>And he called the name of the first, Jemima; and the name of the second, Keziah; and the name of the third, Kerenhappuch. <sup>15</sup>And in all the land there was not found women as beautiful as the daughters of Job. And their father gave them inheritance among their brothers.

THE BOOK OF PSALMS

PSALM 1

<sup>1</sup>Blessed is the man who has not walked in the counsel of the ungodly, and has not stood in the way of sinners, and has not sat in the seat of the scornful. <sup>2</sup>But his delight is only in the law of the LORD; and in His law he meditates day and night. <sup>3</sup>And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivulets of water that brings forth its fruit in its seasons; and its leaf shall not wither, and all which he does shall be blessed. <sup>4</sup>The wicked are not so, but are like chaff which the wind drives away. <sup>5</sup>Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous. <sup>6</sup>For the LORD knows the way of the righteous; but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

<sup>7</sup>I will declare the decree of the LORD. He has said to Me, You are My Son; today I have begotten You. <sup>8</sup>Ask of Me, and I shall give the nations for Your inheritance; and the uttermost parts of the earth for Your possession. <sup>9</sup>You shall break them with a rod of iron; You shall dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel. <sup>10</sup>And now be wise, O kings; be instructed, O judges of the earth. <sup>11</sup>Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling. <sup>12</sup>Kiss the Son, lest He be angry, and you perish in the way, when His wrath is kindled in but a little time. Blessed are all who put their trust in Him.

PSALM 3

A Psalm of David, when he fled from his son Absalom.

<sup>1</sup>O Lord, how my foes have increased! Many are the ones who rise up against me. <sup>2</sup>Many are saying of my soul, There is no deliverance for him in God. Selah.

<sup>3</sup>But You, O LORD, are a shield for me; my glory, the One who lifts up my head. <sup>4</sup>I cried to the LORD with my voice, and He heard me out of His holy hill. Selah.

<sup>5</sup>I laid down and slept; I awoke; for the LORD kept me. <sup>6</sup>I am not afraid of ten thousands of people who have set against me round about. <sup>7</sup>Arise, O LORD; save me, O my God; for You have struck all my enemies on the cheekbone. You have broken the teeth of the ungodly.

<sup>8</sup>Salvation belongs to the LORD; Your blessing is on Your people. Selah.

PSALM 4

To the Chief Musician, for stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness; You gave room to me in trouble; have mercy on me, and hear my prayer.

<sup>2</sup>O sons of men, how long will you turn My glory into shame? Will you love vanity and seek after a lie? Selah.

<sup>3</sup>But know that the LORD has set apart the godly for Himself. The LORD hears when I call to Him. <sup>4</sup>Tremble, and sin not; speak within your own heart on your bed and be still. Selah.

<sup>5</sup>Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and trust in the LORD. <sup>6</sup>There are many who say, Who will show us any good? LORD, lift up the light of Your face on us. <sup>7</sup>You have put gladness in my heart, more than in the time that their grain and their wine increased. <sup>8</sup>I will lie down, both in peace and in sleep. For You alone, LORD, make me dwell in safety.

PSALM 5

To the Chief Musician, for flutes. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Give ear to my words, O LORD; consider my meditation. <sup>2</sup>Listen to the voice of my cry, my King and my God; for to You I will pray. <sup>3</sup>My voice You shall hear in the morning, O LORD; in the morning I will direct my prayer to You, and I will look up. <sup>4</sup>For You are not a God that enjoys wickedness; nor shall evil dwell with You. <sup>5</sup>The foolish shall not stand in Your sight; You hate all doers of iniquity. <sup>6</sup>You shall destroy those who speak lies; the LORD will despise the bloody and deceitful man. <sup>7</sup>But I, in the abundance of Your grace, I will come into Your house; I will worship in Your fear toward Your holy temple.

PSALM 6

To the Chief Musician, for eight-stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, rebuke me not in Your anger, nor chasten me in the heat of Your fury. <sup>2</sup>Have mercy on me, O LORD, for I am weak; O LORD, heal me, for my bones are troubled. <sup>3</sup>My soul also is exceedingly troubled; but You, O LORD, how long? <sup>4</sup>Return, O LORD, return; deliver my soul; save me for Your mercy's sake. <sup>5</sup>For in death there is no memory of You; in the grave who shall give You thanks? <sup>6</sup>I am weary in my groaning; all the night I make my bed swim; I melt my couch with my tears. <sup>7</sup>My eye is dim because of grief; it wastes away because of all my enemies.

<sup>8</sup>Depart from me, all workers of iniquity; for the LORD has heard the voice of my weeping. <sup>9</sup>The LORD has heard my cry; the LORD will receive my prayer. <sup>10</sup>Let all my enemies be ashamed and exceedingly troubled; let them turn back and be ashamed in a moment.

PSALM 7

A song of David, which he sang to the LORD, concerning the words of Cush the Benjamite.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD my God, in You I put my trust; save me from all who pursue me, and deliver me, <sup>2</sup>lest he tear my soul like a lion, tearing it in pieces, and there is no one to deliver. <sup>3</sup>O LORD my God, if I have done this; if there is iniquity in my hands; <sup>4</sup>if I have rewarded evil to my friend, or if I have delivered my vexer without cause; <sup>5</sup>let the enemy persecute my soul and take it; yea, let him trample down my life on the earth and lay my honor in the dust. Selah.

<sup>6</sup>Arise, O LORD, in Your anger; lift up Yourself because of the rage of my enemies, and awake for me to the judgment which You have commanded. <sup>7</sup>And shall the congregation of the peoples gather about You; and over it You will return on high. <sup>8</sup>The LORD shall judge the people; judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness, and according to my integrity on me. <sup>9</sup>O let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end, but establish the just. For the righteous God tries the minds and hearts. <sup>10</sup>My defense is from God, who saves the upright in heart.

<sup>11</sup>God judges the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day. <sup>12</sup>If he does not turn, He will whet His sword; He has bent His bow and made it ready. <sup>13</sup>Yes, He has prepared for him the instruments of death; He has made His arrows hot for pursuers. <sup>14</sup>Behold, he labors in pain with iniquity, and he has conceived mischief, and has brought forth falsehood. <sup>15</sup>He dug a pit and bored it, and has fallen into the ditch which he made. <sup>16</sup>His mischief shall return on his own head, and his violence shall come on his own head. <sup>17</sup>I will praise the LORD according to His righteousness, and will sing praise to the name of the LORD most high.

PSALM 8

To the Chief Musician, on the harp. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>O Jehovah our Lord, how excellent is Your name in all the earth! You have set Your glory above the heavens! <sup>2</sup>Out of the mouths of babes and sucklings You have ordained strength, because of Your vexers, to cause the enemy and the avenger to cease. <sup>3</sup>When I look at Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, the moon and the stars which You have established; <sup>4</sup>what is man that You are mindful of him, and the son of man, that You visit him? <sup>5</sup>For You have made him a little lower than the angels, and have crowned him with glory and honor. <sup>6</sup>You made him rule over the works of Your hands; You have put all things under his feet: <sup>7</sup>all sheep and oxen, yes, and the beasts of the field; <sup>8</sup>the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea, and all that passes through the paths of the seas.

PSALM 9

To the Chief Musician. To die for the Son. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I will praise You, O LORD, with my whole heart; I will tell of all Your marvelous works. <sup>2</sup>I will be glad and rejoice in You; I will sing praise to Your name, O Most High. <sup>3</sup>When my enemies have turned back, they shall fall and perish before You. <sup>4</sup>For You have maintained my right and my cause; You sat in the throne judging right. <sup>5</sup>You have rebuked the heathen, You have destroyed the wicked, You have put out their name forever and ever. <sup>6</sup>The desolations of the enemy have come to an end forever, and You have destroyed the cities; their memorial has perished with them. <sup>7</sup>But the LORD shall endure forever; He has prepared His throne for judgment. <sup>8</sup>And He shall judge the world in righteousness; He shall judge the peoples in uprightness.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble. <sup>10</sup>And those who know Your name will put their trust in You; for You, LORD, have not forsaken those who seek You. <sup>11</sup>Sing praises to the LORD, who dwells in Zion; declare among the nations His deeds. <sup>12</sup>For He remembers them, the seekers of bloodshed; He forgets not the cry of the humble.

<sup>13</sup>Have mercy on me, O LORD; see my trouble from those who hate me, You who lift me up from the gates of death, <sup>14</sup>so that I may declare all Your praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion; I will rejoice in Your salvation. <sup>15</sup>The nations have sunk down in the pit that they made; their foot is caught in the net which they hid. <sup>16</sup>The LORD is known. He has executed judgment; the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. A meditation. Selah.

<sup>1</sup>Why do You stand afar off, O LORD? Will You hide in times of trouble? <sup>2</sup>The wicked in his pride persecutes the poor; let them be taken in the plans that they have imagined. <sup>3</sup>For the wicked boasts of his heart's desire, and blesses the covetous whom the LORD despises. <sup>4</sup>The wicked through the pride of his face, will not seek Him; in all his thoughts, There is no God! <sup>5</sup>His ways are always perverted; Your judgments are high, out of his sight. As for all his enemies, he puffs at them. <sup>6</sup>He has said in his heart, I shall not be moved; from generation to generation, never in evil! <sup>7</sup>His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and fraud; under his tongue are mischief and vanity. <sup>8</sup>He sits in the hiding-places of the villages; in the secret places he murders the innocent. His eyes are secretly set against the poor. <sup>9</sup>He lies in wait secretly, like a lion in his den. He lies in wait to catch the poor; he catches the poor when he draws him into his net. <sup>10</sup>He crouches and bows, and the poor have fallen by his might. <sup>11</sup>He has said in his heart, God has forgotten; He hides His face; He will never see! Selah.

<sup>12</sup>Arise, O LORD; O God, lift up Your hand; forget not the humble. <sup>13</sup>Why do the wicked condemn God? He has said in his heart, You will not judge. <sup>14</sup>You have seen it; for You behold mischief and vexation, to repay it with Your hand. The poor commits himself to You; You are the Helper of the fatherless. <sup>15</sup>Break the arm of the wicked and the evil one; seek out his wickedness, until You find none.

<sup>16</sup>The LORD is King forever and ever; the nations have perished out of His land. <sup>17</sup>LORD, You have heard the desire of the humble; You will prepare their heart, You will cause Your ear to hear, <sup>18</sup>to judge the fatherless and the oppressed, so that the man of the earth may no more terrify.

PSALM 11

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

PSALM 12

To the Chief Musician, on eight. A Psalm of David.

PSALM 13

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>How long will You forget me, O LORD? Forever? How long will You hide Your face from me? <sup>2</sup>How long shall I take counsel in my heart having sorrow in my heart daily? How long shall my enemy be lifted up over me? <sup>3</sup>Look! Answer me, O LORD my God; enlighten my eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death, <sup>4</sup>lest my enemy say, I have overcome him, and my foes rejoice when I am shaken. <sup>5</sup>But I have trusted in Your mercy; my heart shall rejoice in Your salvation. <sup>6</sup>I will sing to the LORD, because He has rewarded me.

PSALM 14

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>The fool has said in his heart, There is no God! They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none who does good. <sup>2</sup>The LORD looked down from Heaven on the sons of men, to see if there were any who understood and sought God. <sup>3</sup>They have all gone aside, they have all together become filthy; there is none who does good, no, not one.

<sup>4</sup>Have all the workers of iniquity not known, eating up My people as they eat bread? They have not called on the LORD. <sup>5</sup>There they were in great fear; for God is in the generation of the righteous. <sup>6</sup>You have shamed the counsel of the poor, because the LORD is his refuge. <sup>7</sup>Who will bring the salvation of Israel out of Zion! When the LORD brings back the captivity of His people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM 15

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, who shall dwell in Your tabernacle? Who shall dwell on Your holy hill? <sup>2</sup>He who walks uprightly, and works righteousness, and speaks the truth in his heart; <sup>3</sup>he does not backbite with his tongue, nor do evil to his neighbor, nor take up a reproach against his neighbor; <sup>4</sup>in whose eyes the reprobate is despised, but he honors those who fear the LORD; he has sworn to his hurt, and does not change it; <sup>5</sup>he has not put out his money at interest, nor has he taken a bribe against the innocent. He who does these things shall not be moved forever.

PSALM 16

A Secret Treasure of David.

<sup>1</sup>Watch over me, O God; for in You do I put my trust. <sup>2</sup>You have said to the LORD, You are my Lord; I have no goodness but in You. <sup>3</sup>As to the saints who are in the earth, they are the excellent, in whom is all my delight. <sup>4</sup>Their sorrows shall be multiplied who run after another god. I will not pour out their drink offerings of blood; and I will not take their names on my lips.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD is the portion of my inheritance, and of my cup; You shall uphold my lot. <sup>6</sup>The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places; yea, I have a beautiful inheritance. <sup>7</sup>I will bless the LORD, who has given me wisdom; my heart also instructs me in the nights.

<sup>8</sup>I have set the LORD always before Me; because He is at My right hand, I shall not be moved. <sup>9</sup>Therefore My heart is glad, and My soul rejoices; My flesh also shall rest in hope; <sup>10</sup>For You will not leave My soul in hell; You will not allow Your Holy One to see corruption. <sup>11</sup>You will make Me know the way of life; in Your presence is fullness of joy. At Your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

PSALM 17

A Prayer of David.

<sup>1</sup>Hear the right, O LORD; listen to my cry; Give ear to my prayer, not in lips of deceit. <sup>2</sup>Let my judgment go out from Your presence; let Your eyes behold uprightly. <sup>3</sup>You have proved my heart; You have visited me in the night; You have tried me, and You will find nothing; my mouth does not go beyond my thoughts.

<sup>4</sup>Concerning the works of men, by the words of Your lips, I am kept from the paths of the destroyer. <sup>5</sup>My steps have been held in Your paths, so that my footsteps have not slipped. <sup>6</sup>I have called on You, for You will hear me, O God; bow down Your ear to me; hear my speech. <sup>7</sup>Show Your marvelous loving-kindness, O Savior of those who put their trust in You; by Your right hand, from those who rise up against You. <sup>8</sup>Keep me as the pupil, the daughter of the eye; hide me under the shadow of Your wings, <sup>9</sup>from the wicked who stripped me. My foes go all around me, against my soul. <sup>10</sup>They are enclosed in their own fat; with their mouth they speak proudly, <sup>11</sup>They have now hemmed in our steps. They have set their eyes to bow me to the earth, <sup>12</sup>Their likeness is like a lion who longs to tear, and like a young lion lurking in secret places.

<sup>13</sup>Arise, O LORD, disappoint him, bow him down; deliver my soul from the wicked by Your sword, <sup>14</sup>from men by Your hand, O LORD, from men of the world whose portion is in this life, and whose belly You fill with Your treasure. They are satisfied with sons, and will leave their riches to their babes. <sup>15</sup>As for me, I will behold Your face in righteousness; when I awake, I shall be satisfied with Your image.

PSALM 18

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD, who spoke to the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul; and he said:

<sup>1</sup>I love You, O LORD, my strength. <sup>2</sup>The LORD is my strength, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my rock — I will trust in Him; He is my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower. <sup>3</sup>I will call on the LORD, who is worthy to be praised; so shall I be saved from my enemies.

<sup>4</sup>The sorrows of death hemmed me in, and the floods of ungodly men made me afraid. <sup>5</sup>The sorrows of hell surrounded me; the snares of death confronted me. <sup>6</sup>In my distress I called on the LORD, and I cried to my God; He heard my voice out of His temple, and my cry came before Him, into His ears. <sup>7</sup>Then the earth shook and trembled; and the foundations of the hills moved and were shaken, because He was angry. <sup>8</sup>A smoke went up out of His nostrils, and fire devoured out of His mouth; coals were kindled by it. <sup>9</sup>He also bowed the heavens, and came down; and darkness was under His feet. <sup>10</sup>And He rode on a cherub, and flew; yea, He soared on the wings of the wind. <sup>11</sup>He made darkness His secret place, His pavilion around Him, darkness of waters, thick clouds of the skies. <sup>12</sup>At the brightness before Him, hailstones and coals of fire passed through His thick clouds. <sup>13</sup>The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave forth His voice; hailstones and coals of fire. <sup>14</sup>Yea, He sent out His arrows and scattered them; and He shot out lightnings and crushed them. <sup>15</sup>Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were uncovered, at Your rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of Your nostrils.

<sup>16</sup>He sent from above, He took me, He drew me out of many waters. <sup>17</sup>He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from those who hated me; for they were too strong for me. <sup>18</sup>They went before me in the day of my calamity; but the LORD was my stay. <sup>19</sup>He brought me forth also into a large place; He delivered me because He delighted in me. <sup>20</sup>The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands He has repaid me. <sup>21</sup>For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God. <sup>22</sup>For all His judgments were before me, and I did not put away His statutes from me. <sup>23</sup>I was also upright before Him, and I kept myself from my iniquity. <sup>24</sup>And the LORD has returned to me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in His eyes.

<sup>25</sup>With the merciful You will show Yourself merciful; with an upright man You will show Yourself upright; <sup>26</sup>with the pure You will show Yourself pure; and with the crooked You will show Yourself perverse. <sup>27</sup>For You will save the afflicted people, but will bring down high looks. <sup>28</sup>For You will light my candle; the LORD my God will make my darkness light. <sup>29</sup>For by You I have run through a troop; and by my God I have leaped over a wall. <sup>30</sup>As for God, His way is perfect; the word of the LORD is tried; He is a shield to all those who trust in Him.

<sup>31</sup>For who is God besides Jehovah? Or, who is a Rock except our God? <sup>32</sup>It is God who girds me with strength, and makes my way perfect. <sup>33</sup>He makes my feet like hinds' feet, and sets me on my high places. <sup>34</sup>He teaches my hands to war, so that a bow of bronze is bent by my arms. <sup>35</sup>You have also given me the shield of Your salvation; and Your right hand has held me up, and Your gentleness has made me great. <sup>36</sup>You have given a wide place for my steps under me, so that my feet have not stumbled. <sup>37</sup>I have pursued my enemies and overtaken them; nor did I turn again until they were destroyed. <sup>38</sup>I have shattered them, and they cannot rise again; they have fallen under my feet. <sup>39</sup>For You have girded me with strength for the battle; You have humbled under me those who rose up against me. <sup>40</sup>You have also given me the neck of my enemies; so that I might destroy those who hate me. <sup>41</sup>They cried, but there was none to save; even to the LORD, but He did not answer them. <sup>42</sup>Then I beat them small as the dust before the wind; I cast them out like the dirt in the streets.

<sup>43</sup>You have delivered Me from the strivings of the people; You have made Me the head of the nations; a people whom I have not known shall serve Me. <sup>44</sup>As soon as they hear of Me, they shall obey Me; the sons of strangers shall bow down to Me. <sup>45</sup>The sons of strangers shall fade away, and be afraid out of their strongholds.

<sup>46</sup>The LORD lives; and blessed be my rock, and let the God of my salvation be praised. <sup>47</sup>It is God who avenges me, and humbles the people under me. <sup>48</sup>He delivers me from my enemies; yea, You lift me up above those who rise up against me; You have delivered me from the violent man. <sup>49</sup>Therefore I will give thanks to You, O LORD, among the nations, and sing praises to Your name, <sup>50</sup>magnifying the salvations to His king, and working mercy to His anointed, to David, and to his seed forevermore.

PSALM 19

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>The heavens declare the glory of God; and the expanse inscribes His handiwork. <sup>2</sup>Day by day they pour forth speech, and night to night reveals knowledge. <sup>3</sup>There is no speech nor are there words where their voice is not heard. <sup>4</sup>Their line has gone out through all the earth and their words to the end of the world. In them He has set a tabernacle for the sun, <sup>5</sup>and he comes forth as a bridegroom from his canopy; he rejoices as a strong man to run a race, <sup>6</sup>going forth from the end of the heavens, and its course is to their ends. And there is nothing hid from its heat.

PSALM 20

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>May the LORD hear you in the day of trouble, the name of the God of Jacob set you on high; <sup>2</sup>sending you help from the sanctuary, and upholding you out of Zion. <sup>3</sup>He will remember all your offerings, and accept your burnt sacrifice. Selah.

<sup>4</sup>May He grant you according to your own heart, and fulfill all your plans. <sup>5</sup>We will rejoice in Your salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up banners; may the LORD fulfill all your prayers.

<sup>6</sup>Now I know that the LORD saves His anointed; He will hear him from His holy Heaven with the saving strengths of His right hand. <sup>7</sup>Some trust in chariots, and some in horses; but we will remember the name of the LORD our God. <sup>8</sup>They have bowed down and fallen; but we have risen and stand upright.

<sup>9</sup>Save, O LORD; let the King hear us when we call.

PSALM 21

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

<sup>3</sup>For You go before him with the blessings of goodness; You set a crown of pure gold on his head. <sup>4</sup>He asked life from You; You give to him length of days forever and ever. <sup>5</sup>His glory is great in Your salvation; honor and majesty You have laid on him. <sup>6</sup>For You have made him most blessed forever; You have rejoiced him in the gladness in Your holy face. <sup>7</sup>For the king trusts in the LORD, and in the mercy of the Most High; he shall not be moved. <sup>8</sup>Your hand shall find out all Your enemies; Your right hand shall find out those who hate You. <sup>9</sup>You shall make them as a fiery oven in the time of Your presence; the LORD will swallow them up in His wrath, and the fire shall devour them. <sup>10</sup>Their fruit shall You destroy from the earth, and their seed from among the sons of men. <sup>11</sup>For they intended evil against You; they imagined a wicked thing; they are not able to prevail. <sup>12</sup>For You shall make them turn the back; You shall make ready Your arrows on Your strings against their faces.

<sup>13</sup>Be exalted, O LORD, in Your strength; we will sing, and praise Your power.

PSALM 22

To the Chief Musician, on the deer of the dawn. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>My God, my God, why have You forsaken me, and are far from my deliverance, and from the words of my groaning? <sup>2</sup>O my God, I cry in the daytime, but You do not answer; and in the night, and am not silent. <sup>3</sup>But You are holy, enthroned on the praises of Israel. <sup>4</sup>Our fathers trusted in You; they trusted, and You delivered them. <sup>5</sup>They cried to You, and were delivered; they trusted in You, and were not ashamed. <sup>6</sup>But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised by the people. <sup>7</sup>All who see me laugh me to scorn; they shoot out the lip; they shake the head, saying, <sup>8</sup>He trusted on the LORD; let Him deliver him; let Him rescue him, since He delights in him!

<sup>9</sup>For You are He who took me out of the womb, causing me to trust when I was on my mother's breasts. <sup>10</sup>I was cast on You from the womb; You are my God from my mother's belly. <sup>11</sup>Be not far from me; for trouble is near, for there is none to help. <sup>12</sup>Many bulls have circled around me; strong bulls of Bashan have surrounded me. <sup>13</sup>They opened wide their mouths on me, like a ripping and a roaring lion. <sup>14</sup>I am poured out like water, and all my bones are spread apart; my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels. <sup>15</sup>My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue clings to my jaws; <sup>16</sup>and You have brought me into the dust of death. For dogs have circled around me; the band of spoilers have hemmed me in, piercers of my hands and my feet. <sup>17</sup>I can count all my bones; they look and stare at me. <sup>18</sup>They divide my garments among them and cast lots for my clothing. <sup>19</sup>But You, O LORD, be far from me; O my strength, hurry to help me! <sup>20</sup>Deliver my soul from the sword, my only one from the dog's hand. <sup>21</sup>Save me from the lion's mouth; from the wild oxen's hand. You have answered me.

<sup>22</sup>I will declare Your name to my brothers; in the midst of the congregation I will praise You. <sup>23</sup>You who fear the LORD, praise Him; all of you, the seed of Jacob, glorify Him; and fear Him all the seed of Israel. <sup>24</sup>For He has not despised nor hated the affliction of the afflicted; and He has not hidden His face from him, but when he cried to Him, He heard. <sup>25</sup>My praise shall be of You in the great congregation; I will pay my vows before the ones who fear Him. <sup>26</sup>The meek shall eat and be satisfied; those who seek the LORD shall praise Him; your heart shall live forever. <sup>27</sup>All the ends of the world shall remember and turn to the LORD; and all the families of the nations shall worship before You. <sup>28</sup>For the kingdom is the LORD's; and He is the ruler among the nations. <sup>29</sup>All the fat ones on the earth shall eat and worship; all those who go down to the dust shall bow before Him; and none can keep alive his own soul. <sup>30</sup>A seed shall serve Him; it shall be spoken of the LORD to the coming generation. <sup>31</sup>They shall come, and shall declare His righteousness to a people that shall yet be born, that He has done this.

PSALM 23

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>The LORD is my Shepherd; I shall not want. <sup>2</sup>He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters. <sup>3</sup>He restores my soul; He leads me in paths of righteousness for His name's sake. <sup>4</sup>Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. <sup>5</sup>You prepare a table for me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil; my cup runs over. <sup>6</sup>Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

PSALM 24

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>The earth is the LORD's, and the fullness of it; the world, and those who dwell in it. <sup>2</sup>For He has founded it on the seas, and established it on the rivers. <sup>3</sup>Who shall go up into the hill of the LORD? Or who shall stand in His holy place? <sup>4</sup>He who has clean hands and a pure heart; who has not lifted up his soul to vanity, and has not sworn deceitfully. <sup>5</sup>He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of his salvation. <sup>6</sup>This is the generation of those who seek Him, who seek Your face, O God of Jacob. Selah.

<sup>7</sup>Lift up your heads, O gates; and be lifted up, O everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. <sup>8</sup>Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle. <sup>9</sup>Lift up your heads, O gates; even lift up, O everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. <sup>10</sup>Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, He is the King of glory. Selah.

PSALM 25

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>To You, O LORD, I lift up my soul. <sup>2</sup>O my God, I trust in You; do not let me be ashamed, let not my enemies triumph over me. <sup>3</sup>Yea, let none who wait on You be ashamed; let them be ashamed who sin without cause. <sup>4</sup>Make me know Your ways, O LORD; teach me Your paths. <sup>5</sup>Lead me in Your truth, and teach me; for You are the God of my salvation; on You I wait all the day long. <sup>6</sup>Remember, O LORD, Your tender mercies and Your loving-kindnesses; for they are from eternity. <sup>7</sup>Do not remember the sins of my youth, or my rebellings; according to Your mercy remember me for Your goodness' sake, O LORD. <sup>8</sup>Good and upright is the LORD; therefore He will teach sinners in the way. <sup>9</sup>The meek He will guide in judgment; and the meek He will teach His way. <sup>10</sup>All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth to those who keep His covenant and His testimonies. <sup>11</sup>For Your name's sake, O LORD, pardon my iniquity; for it is great.

<sup>12</sup>What man is he who fears the LORD? He shall teach him in the way that he shall choose. <sup>13</sup>His soul shall dwell at ease; and his seed shall inherit the earth. <sup>14</sup>The secret of the LORD is with those who fear Him; and He will show them His covenant. <sup>15</sup>My eyes are ever toward the LORD; for He shall pluck my feet out of the net. <sup>16</sup>Turn to me, and have mercy on me, for I am wasted and afflicted. <sup>17</sup>The troubles of my heart are enlarged; bring me out of my distresses. <sup>18</sup>Look on my affliction and my pain, and forgive all my sins. <sup>19</sup>Look on my enemies; for they are many; and they hate me with cruel hatred. <sup>20</sup>Keep my soul, and deliver me; let me not be ashamed, for I put my trust in You. <sup>21</sup>Let purity and uprightness keep me; for I wait on You. <sup>22</sup>Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.

PSALM 26

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Judge me, O LORD; for I have walked in my truthfulness. I have trusted also in the LORD; I shall not slide. <sup>2</sup>Examine me, O LORD, and prove me; try, my heart and my mind. <sup>3</sup>For Your loving-kindness is before my eyes; and I have walked in Your truth. <sup>4</sup>I have not sat with lying men, neither will I go in with hypocrites. <sup>5</sup>I have hated the congregation of evil-doers, and will not sit with the wicked. <sup>6</sup>I will wash my hands in innocency; so I will go around Your altar, O LORD, <sup>7</sup>so that I may cry out with the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all Your wonderful works. <sup>8</sup>LORD, I have loved the dwelling place of Your house, and the place where Your honor dwells. <sup>9</sup>Do not take away my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloody men <sup>10</sup>in whose hands is a plot, and their right hand is full of a bribe. <sup>11</sup>But I will walk in my truthfulness; redeem me and be merciful to me. <sup>12</sup>My foot stands in an even place; in the congregations I will bless the LORD.

PSALM 27

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? <sup>2</sup>When the wicked, my enemies and my foes, came on me to eat my flesh, they stumbled and fell. <sup>3</sup>Though an army should camp against me, my heart shall not fear; though war should rise against me, I still will have faith. <sup>4</sup>One thing I have desired from the LORD, that I will seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to pray in His temple. <sup>5</sup>For in the time of trouble He shall hide me in His shelter, in the secrecy of His tabernacle He shall hide me; He shall set me up on a rock. <sup>6</sup>And now my head shall be lifted up above my enemies, my encirclers; and I will offer sacrifices of joy in His tabernacle. I will sing; yea, I will sing praises to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice; and have mercy on me, and answer me. <sup>8</sup>My heart says to You, Seek my face; Your face, O LORD, I will seek; <sup>9</sup>Hide not Your face from me. Turn not Your servant away in anger; You have been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation. <sup>10</sup>When my father and my mother forsake me, then the LORD will take me up. <sup>11</sup>Teach me Your way, O LORD, and lead me in a plain path, because of my enemies. <sup>12</sup>Deliver me not over to the will of my enemies; for false witnesses have risen up against me, and he that breathes out cruelty. <sup>13</sup>I would have fainted unless I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.

<sup>14</sup>Hope in the LORD; be of good courage, and He shall make your heart strong; yea, hope in the LORD.

PSALM 28

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I will cry to You, O LORD; my Rock, do not be deaf to me, lest, if You be silent to me, I become like those who go down into the pit. <sup>2</sup>Hear the voice of my prayers, when I cry to You, when I lift up my hands toward Your Holy Place. <sup>3</sup>Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity, who speak peace to their neighbors, yet evil is in their hearts. <sup>4</sup>Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their practices, give them according to the work of their hands; give them what they deserve. <sup>5</sup>Because they do not pay attention to the works of the LORD and to the work of His hands, He shall destroy them and never build them up.

<sup>6</sup>Blessed be the LORD, because He has heard the voice of my prayers. <sup>7</sup>The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in Him, and I am helped; therefore my heart greatly rejoices; and with my song I will praise Him. <sup>8</sup>The LORD is a strength to them, and He is the saving strength of His anointed. <sup>9</sup>Save Your people, and bless Your inheritance; feed them also, and lift them up forever.

PSALM 29

A Psalm of David.

and Sirion like a young wild ox. <sup>7</sup>The voice of the LORD goes through flames of fire. <sup>8</sup>The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness; the LORD shakes the wilderness of Kadesh. <sup>9</sup>The voice of the LORD makes the does to calve, and uncovers the forests; and in His temple all of it is saying, Glory!

<sup>10</sup>The LORD sits on the flood; yea, the LORD sits as King forever. <sup>11</sup>The LORD will give strength to His people; the LORD will bless His people with peace.

PSALM 30

A Psalm and Song at the dedication of the House of David.

<sup>1</sup>I will praise You, O LORD; for You have lifted me up, and have not allowed my foes to rejoice over me. <sup>2</sup>O LORD my God, I cried to You, and You have healed me. <sup>3</sup>O LORD, You have brought up my soul from the grave; You have kept me alive, so that I should not go down to the Pit. <sup>4</sup>Sing praises to the LORD, O you saints of His, and give thanks at the memory of His holiness. <sup>5</sup>For His anger is only a moment; in His favor is life. Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning. <sup>6</sup>And in my blessedness I shall say, I shall never be moved. <sup>7</sup>O LORD, by Your favor You have made my mountain to stand strong; You hid Your face, and I was troubled. <sup>8</sup>I will cry to You, O LORD; and I will pray to the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>What profit is in my blood, in going down to the pit? Shall the dust praise You? Shall it tell of Your truth? <sup>10</sup>Hear, O LORD, and have mercy on me; LORD; be my helper. <sup>11</sup>You have turned my mourning into dancing for me; You have torn off my sackcloth, and have clothed me with gladness. <sup>12</sup>so that my glory may sing praise to You, and not be silent. O LORD my God, I will give thanks to You forever.

PSALM 31

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>In You, O LORD, I put my trust; let me never be ashamed; deliver me in Your righteousness. <sup>2</sup>Bow down Your ear to me; deliver me quickly; be my strong rock, a fortress to save me. <sup>3</sup>For You are my rock and my fortress; and for Your name's sake lead me and guide me. <sup>4</sup>Bring me out of the net that they hid for me, for You are my strength. <sup>5</sup>Into Your hand I commit my spirit; You have redeemed me, O LORD God of truth. <sup>6</sup>I have hated those who take heed to lying vanities; but I trust in the LORD. <sup>7</sup>I will be glad and rejoice in Your mercy; for You have looked on my affliction; You have known my soul in troubles; <sup>8</sup>and have not shut me up into the hand of the enemy; You have set my feet in a broad place.

<sup>9</sup>Have mercy on me, O LORD, for I am in trouble; my eye has become old with grief, my soul and my belly. <sup>10</sup>For my life is ending with grief, and my years with sighing; my strength fails because of my iniquity, and my bones have wasted away. <sup>11</sup>I was a reproach among all my foes, but especially among my neighbors, and a fear to my friends; those who saw me outside fled from me. <sup>12</sup>I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind; I am like a broken vessel. <sup>13</sup>For I have heard the slander of many; fear is on every side; because of their plottings together against me, they planned to take away my life. <sup>14</sup>But I trusted in You, O LORD; I said, You are my God. <sup>15</sup>My times are in Your hand; deliver me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me. <sup>16</sup>Make Your face to shine on Your servant; save me for Your sake of Your mercy. <sup>17</sup>Let me not be ashamed, O LORD; for I have called on You; Let the wicked be ashamed; let them be silent in the grave. <sup>18</sup>Let the lying lips be put to silence; the lips which speak proudly against the righteous, with pride and scorn.

<sup>19</sup>How great is Your goodness, which You have laid up for those who fear You; You have worked for those who trust in You before the sons of men! <sup>20</sup>You shall hide them in the secrecy of Your presence from the pride of man; You shall hide them in a shelter away from the strife of tongues. <sup>21</sup>Blessed be the LORD; for He has worked His mercy wondrously in a besieged city. <sup>22</sup>For I said in my haste, I am cut off from before Your eyes; surely You heard the voice of my cries, when I cried to You.

<sup>23</sup>O love the LORD, all you saints of His; the LORD preserves the faithful, and plentifully rewards the proud doer. <sup>24</sup>Be strong, and He will make your heart stronger, all you who hope in the LORD.

PSALM 32

A Psalm of David. A Contemplation.

<sup>5</sup>I confessed my sin to You, and my iniquity I have not hidden. I said, I will confess my transgression to the LORD; and You forgave the iniquity of my sin. Selah.

<sup>6</sup>For this let every godly one pray to You, in a time when You may be found; surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come near him. <sup>7</sup>You are my hiding place; You shall preserve me from trouble; You shall circle me with songs of deliverance. Selah.

<sup>8</sup>I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you should go; I will counsel you, with my eye on you. <sup>9</sup>Be not like the horse, or like the mule, who have no understanding, whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, so that they do not come near you. <sup>10</sup>The wicked has many sorrows, but mercy goes all around him who trusts in the LORD. <sup>11</sup>Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, you righteous; and shout for joy, all you upright in heart.

His mercy; <sup>19</sup>to deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine. <sup>20</sup>Our soul waits for the LORD; He is our help and our shield.

<sup>21</sup>For our heart shall rejoice in Him, because we trust in His holy name. <sup>22</sup>Let Your mercy, O LORD, be on us, according as we hope in You.

PSALM 34

A Psalm of David, when he changed his behavior before Abimelech; who drove him away, and he departed.

<sup>1</sup>I will bless the LORD at all times; His praise always shall be in my mouth. <sup>2</sup>My soul shall make its boast in the LORD; the humble shall hear and be glad. <sup>3</sup>O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt His name together. <sup>4</sup>I sought the LORD, and He heard me, and delivered me from all my fears. <sup>5</sup>They looked to Him, and were filled with light; and their faces were not ashamed. <sup>6</sup>This poor man cried, and the LORD heard, and saved him out of all his troubles. <sup>7</sup>The Angel of the LORD camps round about those who fear Him, and delivers them. <sup>8</sup>Taste and see that the LORD is good; blessed is the man who trusts in Him. <sup>9</sup>O fear the LORD, His holy ones; for there is nothing lacking to those who fear Him. <sup>10</sup>The young lions lack, and suffer hunger; but those who seek the LORD shall not lack any good thing.

<sup>11</sup>Come, listen to me, you children; I will teach you the fear of the LORD. <sup>12</sup>Who is the man that desires life, and loves days, that he may see good? <sup>13</sup>Keep your tongue from evil and your lips from speaking guile. <sup>14</sup>Depart from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it. <sup>15</sup>The eyes of the LORD are on the righteous, and His ears are open to their cry. <sup>16</sup>The face of the LORD is against those who do evil, to cut off the memory of them from the earth. <sup>17</sup>The righteous cry, and the LORD hears, and delivers them out of all their troubles. <sup>18</sup>The LORD is near to the broken-hearted; and saves those who are of a contrite spirit. <sup>19</sup>Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the LORD delivers him out of them all. <sup>20</sup>He keeps all his bones; not one of them is broken. <sup>21</sup>Evil shall slay the wicked; and those who hate the righteous shall be held guilty. <sup>22</sup>The LORD redeems the soul of His servants; and none of them who trust in Him shall be guilty.

PSALM 35

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Strive, O LORD, with those who strive with me; fight against those who fight against me. <sup>2</sup>Take hold of a shield and buckler, and stand up for my help. <sup>3</sup>Also draw out the spear and the lance against those who pursue me; say to my soul, I am your salvation. <sup>4</sup>Let them be humbled and put to shame, those who seek after my soul; let them be turned back and be brought to blushing, those who plot evil to me. <sup>5</sup>Let them be as chaff before the wind; and let the Angel of the LORD drive them away. <sup>6</sup>Let their way be dark and slippery; and let the Angel of the LORD pursue them. <sup>7</sup>For without cause they have spread their net for me in a pit-net; without cause they have dug for my soul. <sup>8</sup>Let ruin come on him; and let his net which he has hidden catch himself; let him fall in it, into ruin. <sup>9</sup>And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD; it shall rejoice in His salvation. <sup>10</sup>All my bones shall say, O LORD, who is like You, who delivers the poor from those stronger than he; yea, the poor and the needy from him who plunders him?

<sup>11</sup>Cruel witnesses rose up; they asked of me that which I never knew. <sup>12</sup>They rewarded me evil for good; bereaving my soul. <sup>13</sup>But when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth; I humbled my soul with fastings; and my prayer returned into my own bosom. <sup>14</sup>As a friend, as to my brother, I walked; as one who mourns for a mother, I was bowed down, mourning. <sup>15</sup>But in my stumbling they rejoiced, and gathered themselves; the defamers gathered themselves against me, and I knew not; they tore and were not silent, <sup>16</sup>with the hypocrites, mockers, they gnashed on me with their teeth. <sup>17</sup>O LORD, how long will You look on? Rescue my soul from their ravages, my only one from the lions.

<sup>18</sup>I will give You thanks in the great congregation; I will praise You among a mighty people. <sup>19</sup>Let not those who are my lying enemies rejoice over me, those who hate me without cause wink with the eye. <sup>20</sup>For they do not speak peace; but they think deceitful things against those who are quiet in the land. <sup>21</sup>And they open their mouth wide against me; and said, Aha, aha! Our eyes have seen. <sup>22</sup>You have seen, O LORD; do not keep silence, O LORD; O LORD, do not be far from me. <sup>23</sup>Stir up Yourself and awaken to my judgment, to my cause, my God and my Lord. <sup>24</sup>Judge me, O LORD my God, according to Your righteousness; and do not let them rejoice over me. <sup>25</sup>Let them not say in their hearts, Aha! Our Soul! Let them not say, We have swallowed him up. <sup>26</sup>Let them be ashamed and brought to shame together, those who rejoice at my evil; let them be clothed with shame and dishonor those who magnify themselves against me. <sup>27</sup>Let those who delight in my justification shout and rejoice; and they shall say without ceasing, The Lord be magnified, delighting in the peace of His servant. <sup>28</sup>And my tongue shall speak of Your righteousness, of Your praise all the day long.

PSALM 36

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD.

<sup>1</sup>The oracle of transgression within my heart utters of the wicked, There is no fear of God before his eyes. <sup>2</sup>For he flatters himself in his own eyes, so that his iniquity cannot be found out and hated. <sup>3</sup>The words of his mouth are evil and deceit; he has stopped acting wise and doing good. <sup>4</sup>He plots evil on his bed; he sets himself in a way that is not good; he does not hate evil.

<sup>5</sup>Your mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens; Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds. <sup>6</sup>Your righteousness is like the great mountains; Your judgments are a great deep; O LORD, You keep man and beast. <sup>7</sup>How precious is Your loving-kindness, O God! And the sons of men put their trust under the shadow of Your wing. <sup>8</sup>They shall be satisfied with the fatness of Your house; and You shall make them drink of the river of Your pleasures. <sup>9</sup>For with You is the fountain of life; in Your light we shall see light. <sup>10</sup>O continue Your loving-kindness to those who know You, and Your righteousness to the upright in heart. <sup>11</sup>Do not let the foot of pride come against me, and do not let the hand of the wicked move me. <sup>12</sup>There the evil-doers have fallen; they are cast down, and cannot rise.

PSALM 37

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Do not fret yourself with evil doers; and do not be envious against the workers of iniquity. <sup>2</sup>For they shall soon wither like the grass; and fade as the green herb. <sup>3</sup>Trust in the LORD, and do good; you shall dwell in the land, and you shall be fed on truth. <sup>4</sup>Delight yourself also in the LORD, and He shall give you the desires of your heart. <sup>5</sup>Roll your way on the LORD; trust also in Him, and He will work. <sup>6</sup>And He shall bring forth your righteousness like the light, and your judgment like the noonday. <sup>7</sup>Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for Him; do not fret yourself because of him who prospers in his way, because of him who practices wickedness. <sup>8</sup>Cease from anger, and forsake wrath; do not fret yourself to do evil. <sup>9</sup>For evildoers shall be cut off; but those who wait on the LORD, they shall inherit the earth. <sup>10</sup>It is but a little while, and the wicked shall not be; yea, you shall search his place, and he shall not be. <sup>11</sup>But the meek shall inherit the earth, and shall delight themselves in the overflowings of peace.

PSALM 38

A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, do not rebuke me in Your wrath; neither chasten me in Your fury. <sup>2</sup>For Your arrows stick fast in me, and Your hand presses heavily on me. <sup>3</sup>There is no soundness in my flesh because of Your anger; nor rest in my bones because of my sin. <sup>4</sup>For my iniquities have gone over my head; like a heavy burden they are too heavy for me. <sup>5</sup>My wounds have putrefied and rotted, because of my foolishness. <sup>6</sup>I am troubled; I am bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long. <sup>7</sup>For my loins are filled with a burning; and there is no soundness in my flesh. <sup>8</sup>I am feeble and painfully broken; I have roared because of the groanings of my heart. <sup>9</sup>My Lord, all my desire is before You; and my sighing is not hidden from You. <sup>10</sup>My heart pants; my strength fails me; as for the light of my eyes, it also is gone from me. <sup>11</sup>My lovers and my friends stand apart from my plague; and my neighbors stand far off. <sup>12</sup>And those who seek my life lay snares for me; and those who seek my hurt speak sly things, and utter deceits all the day long. <sup>13</sup>But like a deaf one, I do not hear; and I am like a dumb one who opens not his mouth. <sup>14</sup>And

I am as a man who hears not, and in whose mouth are no reproofs. <sup>15</sup>For in You, O LORD, do I hope; You will hear, O LORD my God. <sup>16</sup>For I said, Hear me, lest they rejoice over me; when my foot slips, they magnify themselves against me. <sup>17</sup>For I am ready to fall, and my pain is always before me. <sup>18</sup>For I will declare my iniquity; I am anxious from my sin. <sup>19</sup>And my enemies are lively; they are strong; and my haters increase by deception. <sup>20</sup>And those who give evil for good oppose me, because I follow good.

<sup>21</sup>Forsake me not, O LORD; O my God, be not far from me. <sup>22</sup>Make haste to help me, O my LORD, my salvation.

PSALM 39

To the Chief Musician, to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I said, I will take heed to my ways so that I do not sin with my tongue; I will keep my mouth with a bridle while the wicked are before me. <sup>2</sup>I became dumb, keeping still; I was silent, from good; and my pain was stirred. <sup>3</sup>My heart was hot within me; while I was musing, the fire burned; I spoke with my tongue: <sup>4</sup>O LORD, make me to know my end, and the measure of my days, what it is; I know how frail I am. <sup>5</sup>Behold, You have made my days as a handbreadth, and my age is as nothing before You. Surely every man standing is altogether vanity. Selah.

<sup>6</sup>Surely a man walks about like a shadow! Surely they are in an uproar in vain. He heaps up, and does not know who shall gather them. <sup>7</sup>And now, Lord, what do I wait for? My hope is in You. <sup>8</sup>Deliver me from all my transgressions; make me not the reproach of the fool. <sup>9</sup>I was dumb, I did not open my mouth; because You have done it. <sup>10</sup>Remove Your stroke away from me; I am destroyed by the blow of Your hand. <sup>11</sup>You correct a man for iniquity with rebukes, and you make his desires vanish away like a moth. Surely every man is vanity. Selah.

<sup>12</sup>Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear to my cry. Do not be silent at my tears; for I am a stranger with You, a pilgrim, as all my fathers were. <sup>13</sup>Look away from me, and I will smile before I go away and be no more.

PSALM 40

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I waited patiently for the LORD; and He bowed down to me, and heard my cry. <sup>2</sup>He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet on a rock, and gave sureness to my steps. <sup>3</sup>And He has put a new song in my mouth, praise to our God; many shall see it and fear, and shall trust in the LORD. <sup>4</sup>Blessed is the man who makes the LORD his trust and does not turn to the proud, nor to those who turn aside to lies. <sup>5</sup>O LORD my God, many things You have done, Your wonderful works and Your thoughts which are toward us; they cannot be set in order to You; I will declare and speak, for they are more than can be numbered. <sup>6</sup>Sacrifice and offering You did not desire; My ears You have opened; burnt offering and sin offering You have not asked. <sup>7</sup>Then I said, Lo, I come, in the volume of the Book it is written of Me; <sup>8</sup>I delight to do Your will, O My God; and Your law is within My heart. <sup>9</sup>I have preached righteousness in the great congregation; lo, I have not kept back my lips, O LORD, You know. <sup>10</sup>I have not hidden Your righteousness within my heart; I have declared Your faithfulness and Your salvation; I have not hidden Your loving-kindness and Your truth from the great congregation. <sup>11</sup>Do not withhold Your tender mercies from me, O LORD; let Your loving-kindness and Your truth always watch over me. <sup>12</sup>For evils without number have hemmed me in; my sins have taken hold on me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of my head, and my heart fails me. <sup>13</sup>Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me; O LORD, make haste to help me. <sup>14</sup>Let them be ashamed and humbled together, those who seek after my soul to destroy it; let them be driven backward and put to shame, those who wish me evil. <sup>15</sup>Let them be desolate as a reward for their shame, those who say to me, Aha, aha! <sup>16</sup>Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You, and the ones loving your salvation always say, Let the LORD be magnified. <sup>17</sup>But I am poor and needy; the LORD will care for me; You are my help and my deliverer; O my God, do not wait.

PSALM 41

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Blessed is he who acts wisely toward the poor; the LORD will deliver him in time of trouble. <sup>2</sup>The LORD will watch over him and keep him alive; and he shall be blessed on the earth; and You will not deliver him to the soul of his enemies. <sup>3</sup>The LORD will hold him up on the bed of sickness; You will change all his bed in his illness. <sup>4</sup>I said, LORD, be merciful to me; heal my soul; for I have sinned against You. <sup>5</sup>My enemies speak evil of me, saying, When will he die, and his name perish? <sup>6</sup>And when he comes to see me, he speaks vanity; his heart gathers iniquity to itself; he goes out and speaks of it. <sup>7</sup>All who hate me whisper together against me; they plot evil to me. <sup>8</sup>They say, a wicked thing is poured out on him, and he who lies down shall rise no more.

<sup>9</sup>Even a man, my friend, in whom I trusted, who ate of my bread, has lifted up his heel against me. <sup>10</sup>But You, O LORD, be merciful to me, and raise me up, so that I may repay them. <sup>11</sup>By this I know that You delight in me, because my enemy does not triumph over me. <sup>12</sup>And I, in my integrity You uphold me; and You set me before Your face forever.

<sup>13</sup>Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, from everlasting, and to everlasting. Amen and Amen!

PSALM 42

To the Chief Musician. A contemplation; for the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>As the hart pants after the water brooks, so my soul pants after You, O God. <sup>2</sup>My soul thirsts for God, for the living God; when shall I come and appear before God? <sup>3</sup>My tears have been my food day and night, while they say to me all the day, Where is your God? <sup>4</sup>When I remember these things, I pour out my soul on me; for I had gone with the multitude; I went with them to the house of God with the voice of joy and praise; a multitude keeping the feast.

<sup>5</sup>Why are you cast down, O my soul, and moan within me? Hope in God; for I shall praise Him for the salvation of His face. <sup>6</sup>O my God, my soul is cast down within me; therefore I will remember You from the land of Jordan, and of the Hermons, from mount Mizar.

<sup>7</sup>Deep calls to deep at the noise of Your waterfalls; all Your waves and Your billows have gone over me. <sup>8</sup>The LORD will command His loving-kindness in the daytime, and in the night His song shall be with me, my prayer to the God of my life. <sup>9</sup>I will say to God my rock, Why have You forgotten me? Why do I go mourning because of the cruelty of the enemy? <sup>10</sup>As with a sword in my bones, my enemies shame me; while they say daily to me, Where is your God? <sup>11</sup>Why are you cast down, O my soul? And why do you moan within me? Hope in God; for I still praise Him, the salvation of my face, and my God.

PSALM 43

<sup>1</sup>Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation. Oh deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man. <sup>2</sup>For You are the God of my strength; why do You cast me off? Why do I go mourning under the affliction of the enemy?

<sup>3</sup>Oh send out Your light and Your truth; let them lead me; let them bring me to Your holy hill, and to Your tabernacles. <sup>4</sup>Then I will go to the altar of God, to God my exceeding joy; yea, on the harp I will praise You, O God, my God. <sup>5</sup>Why are you cast down, O my soul? And why do you moan within me? Hope in God; for I still praise Him, the salvation of my face, and my God.

PSALM 44

To the Chief Musician. For the sons of Korah, a contemplation.

<sup>1</sup>We have heard with our ears, O God; our fathers have told us the work which You did in their days, in the days of old. <sup>2</sup>You drove out the nations with Your hand, and planted them; You brought evil on peoples and cast them out. <sup>3</sup>For they did not get the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them; but it was Your right hand, and Your arm, and the light of Your face, because You favored them. <sup>4</sup>You are my king, O God; command victories for Jacob. <sup>5</sup>Through You we will push our enemies; through Your name we will trample those who rise up against us. <sup>6</sup>For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me. <sup>7</sup>But You have saved us from our enemies, and have put them to shame, those who hated us. <sup>8</sup>In God we boast all the day long, and praise Your name forever. Selah.

<sup>9</sup>Now You have cast us off, and have shamed us, and You do not go forth with our armies. <sup>10</sup>You make us turn back from the adversary; and our haters plunder for themselves. <sup>11</sup>You have given us like sheep for food, and have scattered us among the nations. <sup>12</sup>You have sold Your people for nothing, and You did not increase by their price. <sup>13</sup>You make us a curse to our neighbors, a scorn and a mockery to those who are round about us. <sup>14</sup>You make us a byword among the nations, a shaking of the head among the people. <sup>15</sup>My shame is always before me, and the shame of my face has covered me: <sup>16</sup>because of the slanderer and the blasphemer; before the enemy and avenger. <sup>17</sup>All this has come on us; yet we have not forgotten You nor dealt falsely in Your covenant. <sup>18</sup>Our heart is not turned back, nor have our steps turned aside from Your way, <sup>19</sup>though You have crushed us in the place of jackals and covered us with the shadow of death.

<sup>20</sup>If we have forgotten the name of our God, or stretched out our hands to a strange god, <sup>21</sup>shall not God search this out? For He knows the secrets of the heart. <sup>22</sup>Yea, for Your sake we are put to death all the day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter. <sup>23</sup>Awaken! Why do You sleep, O LORD? Arise! Do not cast us off forever. <sup>24</sup>Why do You hide Your face, and forget our affliction and distress? <sup>25</sup>For our soul is bowed down to the dust; our belly holds fast to the earth. <sup>26</sup>Arise for our help, and redeem us for the sake of Your mercy.

PSALM 45

To the Chief Musician. Concerning the Lilies, for the sons of Korah, a contemplation; A Song of Loves.

<sup>1</sup>My heart is overflowing with a good matter; I speak of my works to the King; my tongue is the pen of a ready writer. <sup>2</sup>You are the fairest of the sons of men; grace is poured into Your lips; therefore God has blessed You forever. <sup>3</sup>Gird Your sword on Your thigh, O mighty one, with Your glory and Your majesty. <sup>4</sup>And ride prosperously in Your majesty, ride on, because of truth and meekness and righteousness; and Your right hand shall teach You fearful things. <sup>5</sup>Your arrows are sharp in the heart of the King's enemies; the people fall under You.

<sup>6</sup>Your throne, O God, is forever and ever; the staff of Your kingdom is a staff of righteousness. <sup>7</sup>You love righteousness, and hate wickedness; therefore God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of gladness above Your fellows. <sup>8</sup>All

Your garments smell of myrrh, and aloes and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, by which they have made You glad. <sup>9</sup>Kings' daughters are among Your precious ones; on Your right stands the queen in gold of Ophir. <sup>10</sup>Listen, O daughter, and look; and bow down your ear; and forget your own people and your father's house. <sup>11</sup>And cause the King greatly to desire your beauty for He is your Lord; and you shall worship Him. <sup>12</sup>And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift; even the rich among the peoples shall stroke your face. <sup>13</sup>The king's daughter is all glorious within; her clothing is trimmed with gold. <sup>14</sup>She shall be brought to the king in clothing of needlework; the virgins, her companions after her, shall be brought to You. <sup>15</sup>They shall be led with joy and gladness; they shall enter into the King's palace. <sup>16</sup>Your sons shall be in the place of your fathers; you will make them princes in all the land. <sup>17</sup>I will make Your name to be remembered in all generations; therefore the people shall praise You forever and ever.

PSALM 46

To the Chief Musician. For the sons of Korah. A Song "For the Virgins."

<sup>1</sup>God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. <sup>2</sup>Therefore we will not fear when the earth changes, and when mountains are slipping into the heart of the seas. <sup>3</sup>Let its waters roar and foam; let the mountains shake with the swelling of it. Selah.

<sup>4</sup>There is a river, the streams of which make the city of God glad, the holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High. <sup>5</sup>God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved; God shall help her at the turning of the morning. <sup>6</sup>The nations raged, the kingdoms were shaken; He uttered His voice, the earth melted. <sup>7</sup>The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

<sup>8</sup>Come, behold the works of the LORD, who makes ruins on the earth; <sup>9</sup>who makes wars to cease to the ends of the earth; He breaks the bow, and cuts the spear in two; He burns the chariot in the fire. <sup>10</sup>Be still, and know that I am God! I will be praised among the nations, I will be praised in the earth. <sup>11</sup>The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

PSALM 47

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

PSALM 48

A Song and Psalm for the Sons of Korah.

<sup>7</sup>You break the ships of Tarshish with an east wind; <sup>8</sup>as we have heard, so we have seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God. God will establish it forever. Selah.

<sup>9</sup>We have thought of Your loving-kindness, O God, in the midst of Your temple. <sup>10</sup>According to Your name, O God, so is Your praise to the ends of the earth. Your right hand is full of righteousness; let mount Zion rejoice! <sup>11</sup>Let the daughters of Judah shout for joy because of Your judgments! <sup>12</sup>Walk around Zion, and go all around it; count the towers of it, <sup>13</sup>Set your heart on its ramparts, pass between its strongholds; so that you may tell it to the coming generation. <sup>14</sup>For this God is our God forever and ever; He will be our guide even to death.

PSALM 49

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>Hear this, all you peoples; give ear, all inhabitants of the world; <sup>2</sup>both sons of mankind, and sons of man, rich and poor together; <sup>3</sup>my mouth shall speak of wisdom; and the thoughts of my heart shall be of understanding. <sup>4</sup>I will bow down my ear to a parable; I will open my dark saying on the harp. <sup>5</sup>Why should I fear in the days of evil, when the perversity of my ambushers will surround me? <sup>6</sup>Those who trust in their wealth, and their many riches, boast themselves. <sup>7</sup>A man cannot at all redeem a brother, nor give to God a ransom for him, <sup>8</sup>for the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceases forever, <sup>9</sup>for he shall yet live forever; he shall never see corruption. <sup>10</sup>For he sees wise men die; likewise the fool and the animal-like ones perish, and leave their wealth to others. <sup>11</sup>Their inward thought is that their houses shall go on forever, and their dwelling-places to all generations; they call their lands after their own names. <sup>12</sup>But man, though high in honor, does not remain; he is like the animals that perish. <sup>13</sup>This way of theirs is their foolishness; yet their followers delight in their sayings. Selah.

<sup>14</sup>Like sheep they are appointed to the grave; death shall reign for them; and the upright shall have the rule over them in the morning; and their form is for rotting; the grave is their home. <sup>15</sup>But God will redeem my soul from the hand of the grave; for He will take me. Selah.

PSALM 50

A Psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>The mighty God, the LORD, has spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun to its going down. <sup>2</sup>Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God has shone. <sup>3</sup>Our God comes, and He is not silent; a fire shall devour before Him, and it shall be very stormy all around Him. <sup>4</sup>He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, so that He may judge His people. <sup>5</sup>Gather My saints to Me; and those who cut My covenant by sacrifice. <sup>6</sup>And the heavens shall declare His righteousness; for God Himself is judge. Selah.

<sup>7</sup>Hear, My people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify against you; I am your God. <sup>8</sup>I will not reprove you for your sacrifices; yea, your burnt offerings are continually before Me. <sup>9</sup>I will take no bull out of your house, nor he-goats out of your folds. <sup>10</sup>For every beast of the forest is Mine, and the cattle on a thousand hills. <sup>11</sup>I know all the birds of the mountains; and the wild beasts of the field are Mine. <sup>12</sup>If I were hungry, I would not tell you, for the world is Mine, and the fullness of it. <sup>13</sup>Will I eat the flesh of the mighty, or drink the blood of goats? <sup>14</sup>Offer to God thanksgiving; and pay your vows to the Most High; <sup>15</sup>and call on Me in the day of trouble; and I will deliver you, and you shall glorify Me. <sup>16</sup>But to the wicked, God says, What is it to you, to declare My statutes, and you take My covenant in your mouth? <sup>17</sup>Yea, you hate to be taught, and you toss My words behind you. <sup>18</sup>When you saw a thief, then you were pleased to be with him, and you have taken part with adulterers. <sup>19</sup>You give your mouth to evil, and your tongue frames deceit. <sup>20</sup>You sit and speak against your brother; you slander your own mother's son. <sup>21</sup>These things you have done, and I kept silence; you thought that I was like yourself, but I will reprove you, and set in order before your eyes.

<sup>22</sup>Now think of this, you who forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver. <sup>23</sup>Whoever offers praise glorifies Me; and I show the salvation of God to him who prepares a way.

PSALM 51

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

<sup>1</sup>Have mercy on me, O God, according to Your loving-kindness; according to the multitude of Your tender mercies, blot out my transgressions. <sup>2</sup>Wash me completely from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin. <sup>3</sup>For I confess my transgressions; and my sin is ever before me. <sup>4</sup>Against You, You only, have I sinned, and done evil in Your sight; that You might be justified when You speak, and be clear when You judge. <sup>5</sup>Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me. <sup>6</sup>Behold, You desire truth in the inward parts; and in the hidden part You shall make me to know wisdom. <sup>7</sup>Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. <sup>8</sup>Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which You have broken may rejoice. <sup>9</sup>Hide Your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities. <sup>10</sup>Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me. <sup>11</sup>Cast me not away from Your presence, and take not Your Holy Spirit from me. <sup>12</sup>Restore to me the joy of Your salvation, and uphold me with a willing spirit. <sup>13</sup>Then I will teach transgressors Your way, and sinners shall be converted to You. <sup>14</sup>Deliver me from the guilt of shedding blood, O God, O God of my salvation, and my tongue shall sing aloud of Your righteousness.

<sup>15</sup>O LORD, open my lips, and my mouth shall show forth Your praise. <sup>16</sup>For You do not desire sacrifice; or else I would give it; You do not delight in burnt offering. <sup>17</sup>The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and an contrite heart, O God, You will not despise.

<sup>18</sup>Do good in Your good pleasure to Zion; build the walls of Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>Then shall You be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering; then they shall offer bulls on Your altar.

PSALM 52

To the Chief Musician. A contemplation. A Psalm of David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said to him, David has come to the house of Ahimelech.

<sup>1</sup>Why do you boast yourself in evil, O mighty man? The mercy of God endures forever. <sup>2</sup>Your tongue devises evil, like a sharp razor, working deceitfully. <sup>3</sup>You love evil more than good, and lying more than to speak righteousness. Selah.

<sup>4</sup>You love all devouring words, O deceitful tongue. <sup>5</sup>God will likewise destroy you forever; He shall take you away, and pluck you out of your tent, and root you out of the land of the living. Selah.

<sup>6</sup>And the righteous shall see, and fear, and shall laugh at him, saying, <sup>7</sup>Behold, the man who did not make God his strength, but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and made himself strong in his wickedness.

<sup>8</sup>But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God; I trust in the mercy of God forever and ever. <sup>9</sup>I will praise You forever, because You have done it; and I will wait on Your name; for it is good before Your saints.

PSALM 53

To the Chief Musician on Mahalath. A contemplation. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>The fool has said in his heart, There is no God. They acted corruptly, and have worked out abominable wickedness; there is not one doing good. <sup>2</sup>God looked down from Heaven on the sons of mankind to see if any were discerning, who was seeking God. <sup>3</sup>Every one has turned away; they have altogether become filthy; not one is doing good, no, not even one. <sup>4</sup>Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge? They eat up my people as they eat bread; they have not called on God. <sup>5</sup>There they feared with dread, where no dread was; for God has scattered the bones of him who camps against you; you have put them to shame because God rejects them. <sup>6</sup>Who will give from Zion the salvation of Israel? When God brings back the captivity of His people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM 54

To the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A contemplation. A Psalm of David, when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, Does not David hide himself among us?

<sup>1</sup>Save me, O God, by Your name, and judge me by Your strength. <sup>2</sup>Hear my prayer, O God; give ear to the words of my mouth. <sup>3</sup>For strangers have risen up against me, and cruel men seek after my soul; they have not set God before them. Selah.

<sup>4</sup>Behold, God is my helper; the LORD is with those who uphold my soul. <sup>5</sup>He shall reward evil to my enemies; cut them off in Your truth. <sup>6</sup>I will freely sacrifice to You; I will praise Your name, O LORD, for it is good. <sup>7</sup>For He has delivered me out of all trouble; and my eye has seen its desire on my enemies.

PSALM 55

To the Chief Musician. For stringed instruments. A contemplation. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Give ear to my prayer, O God; and hide not Yourself from my cry. <sup>2</sup>Attend to me, and hear me; I wander and I moan in my complaint, <sup>3</sup>from the voice of the enemy, from the oppression of the wicked; for they shake iniquity over me, and in wrath they hate me. <sup>4</sup>My heart is pained within me; and the terrors of death have fallen on me. <sup>5</sup>Fear and trembling have come on me, and horror has covered me. <sup>6</sup>And I said, Who will give to me wings like a dove! I would fly away and be at rest. <sup>7</sup>Lo, I would wander far off; I would lodge in the desert. Selah.

<sup>15</sup>Let desolation take hold on them, and let them go down alive into hell; for evils are among them in their dwellings. <sup>16</sup>I will call to God; and the LORD will save me. <sup>17</sup>Evening and morning, and at noon, I will pray and cry aloud; and He shall hear my voice. <sup>18</sup>He has delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me; for there were many with me. <sup>19</sup>God shall hear and answer them, even He who is enthroned of old. Selah. Because they have no changes, therefore they do not fear God. <sup>20</sup>He has put forth his hands against those who were at peace with him; he has broken his covenant. <sup>21</sup>The words of his mouth were smooth, but war was in his heart; his words were softer than oil, yet they were drawn swords.

<sup>22</sup>Cast your burden on the LORD, and He will keep you; He will never allow the righteous to waver. <sup>23</sup>But You, O God, will bring them down into the pit of ruin; bloody and deceitful men shall not live half their days; but I will trust in You.

PSALM 56

To the Chief Musician. Concerning the silent dove — those far off. Of David, a secret treasure — when the Philistines took him in Gath.

<sup>1</sup>Be merciful to me, O God, for man would swallow me up; fighting daily, he presses me down. <sup>2</sup>My watchers daily panted for me; for many are they who proudly fight against me. <sup>3</sup>When I am afraid I will trust in You. <sup>4</sup>In God I will praise His word; in God I have put my trust; I will not fear what flesh can do to me. <sup>5</sup>All day long they pervert my words; all their thoughts are against me for evil. <sup>6</sup>They stir up strife; they hide themselves; they watch my steps as they wait for my soul. <sup>7</sup>Shall they escape by iniquity? In anger cast down the peoples, O God.

<sup>8</sup>You number my wandering; O put my tears into Your bottle; are they not in Your Book? <sup>9</sup>When I cry, then my enemies will be turned back. This I know, for God is with me. <sup>10</sup>In God I will praise His word; in the LORD will I praise His word. <sup>11</sup>In God I have put my trust; I will not be afraid of what man can do to me. <sup>12</sup>Your vows are on me, O God; I will give praises to You. <sup>13</sup>For You have delivered my soul from death; have You not delivered my feet from falling, so that I may walk before God in the light of the living?

PSALM 57

To the Chief Musician. Do not destroy. A secret treasure of David, when he fled from Saul in the cave.

<sup>1</sup>Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me; for my soul trusts in You; yea, in the shadow of Your wings I will make my hiding-place, until these great troubles pass by. <sup>2</sup>I will cry to God most high, to God who does all things for me. <sup>3</sup>He shall send from Heaven, and save me from the scorn of him who would swallow me up. Selah. God shall send forth His mercy and His truth. <sup>4</sup>My soul is among lions; I lie among those who are set on fire, the sons of men whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword. <sup>5</sup>Be praised above the heavens, O God; let Your glory be above all the earth.

<sup>6</sup>They have prepared a net for my steps; my soul is bowed down; they have dug a pit before me, in the middle of which they have fallen. Selah. <sup>7</sup>My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise. <sup>8</sup>Wake up, my soul! Wake up, harp and lyre! I will awake early. <sup>9</sup>I will praise You, O LORD, among the peoples; I will sing to You among the nations. <sup>10</sup>For Your mercy is great to the heavens, and Your truth to the clouds. <sup>11</sup>Be exalted above the heavens, O God; let Your glory be above all the earth.

PSALM 58

To the Chief Musician. Do not destroy. A secret treasure of David.

<sup>1</sup>Will you indeed speak righteousness in silence? Do you judge uprightly, O sons of men? <sup>2</sup>Yes, in heart you work the evil of your hands in the land. <sup>3</sup>The wicked are estranged from the womb; they go astray from the womb, speaking lies. <sup>4</sup>Their poison is like the poison of a snake; like the deaf adder, he stops his ear, <sup>5</sup>which will not listen to the charmer's voice, a skillful caster of spells. <sup>6</sup>O God, break their teeth in their mouth; break out the big teeth of the young lions, O LORD. <sup>7</sup>Let them melt away like waters; they run off to them; he bends his arrows, let them be as though they were cut off. <sup>8</sup>As a snail goes into melting; as a miscarriage of a woman, they do not see the sun. <sup>9</sup>Before your pots can feel the thorns, whether green or glowing, He shall sweep it away. <sup>10</sup>The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the vengeance; he shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked. <sup>11</sup>And man shall say, Truly, there is a reward for the righteous; truly, there is a God judging in the earth.

PSALM 59

To the Chief Musician. Do not destroy. A secret treasure of David, when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

<sup>5</sup>And You, O LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, awake to visit all the nations; do not be merciful to any plotting evil. Selah. <sup>6</sup>They return at evening; they make a noise like a dog, and go around the city. <sup>7</sup>Behold, they bellow out with their mouth; swords are in their lips; for they say, Who hears? <sup>8</sup>But You, O LORD, shall laugh at them; You will mock at all the nations. <sup>9</sup>O my Strength, to You let me watch; for God is my strong tower.

<sup>10</sup>The God of my mercy shall go before me; God shall let me see my desire on my enemies. <sup>11</sup>Do not kill them, lest my people forget; scatter them by Your power; and bring them down, O LORD our shield. <sup>12</sup>For the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips, let them even be taken in their pride; and for cursing and lying which they speak. <sup>13</sup>Consume them in wrath; consume, so that they may not be; and let them know that God rules in Jacob to the ends of the earth. Selah.

<sup>14</sup>And at evening they shall return; let them howl like a dog, and go around the city. <sup>15</sup>Let them wander up and down for food, and growl if they are not satisfied. <sup>16</sup>But I will sing of Your power; yes, I will sing aloud of Your mercy in the morning; for You have been my strong tower and hiding-place in the day of my trouble. <sup>17</sup>To You, O my strength, I will sing; for God is my strong tower and the God of my mercy.

PSALM 60

To the Chief Musician. On the Lily of Testimony. A secret treasure of David, to teach; when he struggled with Aram-naharaim and with Aram of Zobah, when Joab returned and struck twelve thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt.

<sup>1</sup>O God, You have cast us off, You have scattered us, You were angry; take us back. <sup>2</sup>You made the earth tremble; You tore it; heal the breaks of it, for it is shaking. <sup>3</sup>You have shown Your people hard things; You have made us to drink the wine of trembling. <sup>4</sup>You have given a banner to those who fear You, to lift it up because of the truth. Selah.

<sup>5</sup>Save with Your right hand and answer me, that Your beloved may be delivered. <sup>6</sup>God has spoken in His holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem and measure out the valley of Succoth. <sup>7</sup>Gilead is Mine, and Manasseh is Mine; and Ephraim is the strength of My head, Judah is My lawgiver; <sup>8</sup>Moab is My washpot; over Edom I will cast out My shoe; over Philistia I cry in triumph. <sup>9</sup>Who will bring me into the strong city? Who will lead me into Edom? <sup>10</sup>Have not You, O God, cast us off? And will You, O God, not go out with our armies? <sup>11</sup>Give us help against our foe; for vain is the help of man. <sup>12</sup>Through God we shall do great things; for it is He who shall trample our enemies.

PSALM 61

To the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Hear my cry, O God; attend to my prayer. <sup>2</sup>From the end of the earth I cry to You when my heart is faint; Lead me to the Rock higher than I. <sup>3</sup>For You have been a shelter for me, a strong tower before the enemy. <sup>4</sup>I will dwell in Your tabernacle forever; I will trust in the hiding place of Your wings. Selah.

<sup>5</sup>For You, O God, have heard my vows; You have given an inheritance to those who fear Your name. <sup>6</sup>You will add to the days of the king's life; his years will be for many generations. <sup>7</sup>He shall sit before God forever; prepare mercy and truth to preserve him. <sup>8</sup>So I will sing praise to Your name forever, so that I may daily pay my vows.

PSALM 62

To the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Only to God is my soul in silence; from Him comes my salvation. <sup>2</sup>He only is my rock and my salvation; He is my tower; I shall not be greatly moved. <sup>3</sup>How long will you imagine mischief against a man? You will shatter him, all of you; you shall be like a bowing wall and a tottering fence. <sup>4</sup>Surely they have plotted to cast him down from his great height; they delight in lies; they bless with their mouth, but they curse in their heart. Selah.

<sup>5</sup>My soul, be silent only to God; for my hope is from Him. <sup>6</sup>He only is my rock and my salvation; He is my strong tower; I shall not be moved. <sup>7</sup>In God is my salvation and my glory; the rock of my strength; my hiding-place is in God. <sup>8</sup>Trust in Him at all times; you people, pour out your heart before Him; God is a hiding-place for us. Selah.

<sup>9</sup>Surely the sons of men are vanity; the sons of men are a lie; they go up in the scales; they are altogether lighter than vanity. <sup>10</sup>Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery; if riches increase, do not set your heart on them. <sup>11</sup>God has spoken once; twice I have heard this, that power belongs to God. <sup>12</sup>Also to You, O LORD, belongs mercy; for You give to every man according to his work.

PSALM 63

A Psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

<sup>1</sup>O God, You are my God; I will seek You earnestly; my soul thirsts for You; my flesh longs for You, as in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is; <sup>2</sup>so I have seen You in the holy place, seeing Your power and Your glory. <sup>3</sup>Because Your loving-kindness is better than life, my lips shall praise You. <sup>4</sup>So I will bless You while I live; I will lift up my hands in Your name. <sup>5</sup>My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise You with joyful lips, <sup>6</sup>when I remember You on my bed and think of You in the night watches. <sup>7</sup>Because You have been my help, therefore in the shadow of Your wings I will rejoice. <sup>8</sup>My soul follows hard after You; Your right hand upholds me. <sup>9</sup>But those who seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the depths of the earth. <sup>10</sup>They shall fall by the sword; they shall be a serving for jackals. <sup>11</sup>But the king shall rejoice in God; everyone who swears by Him shall glory; but the mouth of those who speak lies shall be stopped.

PSALM 64

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Hear my voice, O God, in my complaint; guard my life from fear of the enemy. <sup>2</sup>Hide me from the secret plans of the wicked, from the rebelling of the workers of iniquity, <sup>3</sup>who sharpen their tongue like a sword, and aim their arrows, even poisoned words, <sup>4</sup>so that they may shoot at the blameless one from a lurking place; suddenly they shoot at him, and fear not. <sup>5</sup>They encourage themselves in an evil plan; they talk of laying snares secretly; they say, Who shall see them? <sup>6</sup>They search out injustice, saying, We have finished hiding a hidden plot. And the inward part of man and the heart are deep. <sup>7</sup>But God shall shoot at them with an arrow; suddenly they shall be wounded. <sup>8</sup>So they shall be confounded; their tongue falls on themselves; everyone seeing them shall flee. <sup>9</sup>And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God; for they shall in wisdom think of His doing. <sup>10</sup>The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and shall trust in Him; and all the upright in heart shall glory.

PSALM 65

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm and Song of David.

<sup>1</sup>To You silence is praise, O God, in Zion; and to You is a vow paid. <sup>2</sup>To You who hears prayer, all flesh comes. <sup>3</sup>Things of iniquity are mightier than I; as for our transgressions, You shall purge them away. <sup>4</sup>Blessed is the one whom You choose, and cause to come near You. He shall dwell in Your courts; we shall be satisfied with the goodness of Your house, of Your holy temple. <sup>5</sup>By awesome things in righteousness You will answer us, O God of our salvation; who are the hope of all the ends of the earth and the sea, of those far away. <sup>6</sup>By Your strength sets fast the mountains, banded together with might; <sup>7</sup>who stills the noise of the sea, the roar of their waves, and the uproar of the people. <sup>8</sup>And the inhabitants of the furthestmost places are afraid of Your signs; You make the beginning of the morning and the evening rejoice. <sup>9</sup>You visit the earth and water it; You greatly enrich it with the river of God, which is full of water; You provide their grain, for in this way You have prepared it. <sup>10</sup>You fill its terraces with water; You deepen its furrows; You make it soft with showers; You bless the sprouting of it. <sup>11</sup>You crown the year with Your goodness, and Your paths drop fatness. <sup>12</sup>They drop on the pastures of the wilderness; and the little hills gird themselves with joy. <sup>13</sup>The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with grain; they shout for joy and sing.

PSALM 66

To the Chief Musician. A Song. A Psalm.

<sup>5</sup>Come and see the works of God; He is awesome in His deeds toward the sons of men. <sup>6</sup>He turns the sea into dry land; they went through the flood on foot; there we rejoiced in Him. <sup>7</sup>He rules by His power forever; His eyes behold the nations; let not the rebels lift themselves up. Selah.

<sup>8</sup>O bless our God, O peoples, and make the voice of His praise to be heard; <sup>9</sup>who holds our soul in life, and does not allow our feet to be moved. <sup>10</sup>For, O God, You have proved us; You have tested us, as silver is refined. <sup>11</sup>You have brought us into the net; You have laid affliction on our loins. <sup>12</sup>You have caused men to ride at our heads; we went through fire and through water; but You bring us out to plenty. <sup>13</sup>I will go into Your house with burnt offerings; I will pay You my vows, <sup>14</sup>which my lips have uttered, and in my trouble my mouth has spoken. <sup>15</sup>I will offer to You burnt sacrifices of fatlings, with the incense of rams; I will offer bulls with goats. Selah.

<sup>16</sup>Come and hear, all you who fear God, and I will declare what He has done for my soul. <sup>17</sup>I cried to Him with my mouth, and exaltations were under my tongue. <sup>18</sup>If I regard iniquity in my heart, the LORD will not hear; <sup>19</sup>Surely God has heard; He has attended to the voice of my prayer. <sup>20</sup>Blessed be God, who has not turned away my prayer, nor His mercy from me.

PSALM 67

To the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A Psalm. A Song.

<sup>1</sup>May God be merciful to us, and bless us, and cause His face to shine on us. Selah. <sup>2</sup>So that Your way may be known on earth, Your salvation among all nations. <sup>3</sup>Let the people praise You, O God let all the people thank You. <sup>4</sup>O let the nations be glad and sing for joy; for You shall judge the people righteously and govern the peoples on earth. Selah.

<sup>5</sup>Let the people give thanks to You, O God; let all the peoples praise You. <sup>6</sup>The earth shall yield its increase; and God, our own God, shall bless us. <sup>7</sup>God shall bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear Him.

PSALM 68

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. A Song.

<sup>1</sup>Let God arise, let His enemies be scattered; also let those who hate Him flee before Him. <sup>2</sup>As smoke is driven away, You drive them away; as wax melts before the fire let the wicked perish in the presence of God. <sup>3</sup>But the righteous are glad; they rejoice before God. Yes, let them exceedingly rejoice. <sup>4</sup>Sing to God, sing praises to His name; praise Him who rides on the heavens by His name JEHOVAH, and rejoice before Him. <sup>5</sup>God is the father of the fatherless, and the judge of the widows, in His holy dwelling. <sup>6</sup>God causes the lonely to live at home; He brings out those who are bound with chains; but the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

<sup>7</sup>O God, when You marched before Your people, when You walked through the wilderness; Selah. <sup>8</sup>The earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the presence of God; Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel. <sup>9</sup>You, O God, sent a plentiful rain, by which You uphold Your inheritance when it was weary. <sup>10</sup>Your flock has dwelt in it; You, O God, have prepared in Your goodness for the poor.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord gave the word; those who bore it were a great army. <sup>12</sup>Kings of armies fled away; and she who stayed at home divided the plunder. <sup>13</sup>When you lie among the sheepfolds, the wings of a dove are covered with silver, and its pinions with the shimmer of gold. <sup>14</sup>When the Almighty scatters kings in it, it snows on mount Salmon. <sup>15</sup>The mountain of Bashan is God's mountain; the Bashan range is a mountain of peaks. <sup>16</sup>Why do you gaze in envy, O mountain range at the mountain God has chosen for His resting place? Yes, the LORD will dwell in it forever. <sup>17</sup>The chariots of God are myriads; the Lord among them, in Sinai, in the holy place. <sup>18</sup>You have gone up on high; You have led captive captive;

You have received gifts for men, yes, for the rebellious also, that the LORD God might dwell among them. <sup>19</sup>Blessed be the LORD; He daily bears burdens for us, the God of our salvation. Selah.

<sup>20</sup>Our God is the God of salvation; and to the LORD are the issues of death. <sup>21</sup>Yea, God shall wound the head of His enemies, and the hairy crown of those who go on still in his guilt. <sup>22</sup>The Lord said, I will bring again from Bashan; I will bring back My people from the depths of the sea; <sup>23</sup>so that your foot may be dipped in the blood of your enemies, and the tongue of your dogs in it. <sup>24</sup>They have seen Your goings, O God; the goings of my God, my king, in the holy place. <sup>25</sup>The singers went before, then the musicians came; among them were the virgins playing the timbrels. <sup>26</sup>O bless God in the congregations, the LORD, from the fountain of Israel. <sup>27</sup>There is little Benjamin with their ruler, the princes of Judah and their multitude, the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali.

<sup>28</sup>Your God has commanded your strength; O God, be strong in that which You have worked out for us. <sup>29</sup>Because of Your temple in Jerusalem, kings shall bring a present to You. <sup>30</sup>Rebuke the wild beasts of the reeds, the herd of bulls, with the calves of the peoples, trampling down with the pieces of silver. He scatters the people who delight in war. <sup>31</sup>Princes shall come out of Egypt; Ethiopia shall stretch out her hands to God. <sup>32</sup>Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth; O sing praises to the Lord. Selah.

<sup>33</sup>To Him who rides on the heaven of heavens of old; lo, He sends out His voice, a mighty voice. <sup>34</sup>Give strength to God over Israel; His majesty and His strength in the skies. <sup>35</sup>O God, You are overwhelming out of Your holy places; the God of Israel is He who gives strength and powers to the people. Blessed be God.

PSALM 69

To the Chief Musician. Concerning the Lilies. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Save me, O God! for the waters have come in on my soul. <sup>2</sup>I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing; I have come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me. <sup>3</sup>I am weary from my crying; my throat is dried; my eyes fail while I wait for my God. <sup>4</sup>They who hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head; they who would destroy me are mighty, my lying enemies. Then I restored what I did not take away.

<sup>5</sup>O God, You know my foolishness; and my guiltiness is not hidden from You. <sup>6</sup>Do not let those who wait on You, O LORD God of hosts, be ashamed for my sake; let not the ones who seek You be ashamed for my sake, O God of Israel, <sup>7</sup>because I have borne reproach for Your sake, shame has covered my face. <sup>8</sup>I have become a stranger to my brothers, and a foreigner to my mother's children. <sup>9</sup>For the zeal of Your house has eaten me up; and the reproaches of those who reproached You have fallen on me. <sup>10</sup>When I humbled my soul with fasting, it turned to my reproach. <sup>11</sup>I also made sackcloth my clothing, and I became a proverb to them. <sup>12</sup>They who sit in the gate speak against me; and I was the song of the drunkards. <sup>13</sup>But as for me, my prayer is to You, O LORD, in a pleasing time; O God, in the multitude of Your mercy hear me, in the truth of Your salvation. <sup>14</sup>Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink; let me be delivered from those who hate me, and out of the deep waters. <sup>15</sup>Do not let the flood of waters overflow me, nor let the deep swallow me up, and let not the pit shut its mouth on me.

<sup>16</sup>Hear me, O LORD, for Your loving-kindness is good; turn to me according to the multitude of Your tender mercies. <sup>17</sup>And hide not Your face from Your servant; for I am in trouble; hear me quickly. <sup>18</sup>Draw near my soul, and redeem it; deliver me because of my enemies. <sup>19</sup>You have known my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonor; my enemies are all before You. <sup>20</sup>Reproach has broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness; and I looked for some to mourn with me, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none. <sup>21</sup>They also gave me gall for my food; and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink. <sup>22</sup>Let their table become a snare before them; and to those at ease a trap. <sup>23</sup>Let their eyes be darkened, so that they do not see; and make their loins shake without ceasing. <sup>24</sup>Pour out Your wrath on them, and let the glow of Your anger take hold of them. <sup>25</sup>Let their dwelling be wasted; let none dwell in their tents. <sup>26</sup>For they persecute him whom You have stricken, and they talk to the grief of those You pierced. <sup>27</sup>Add iniquity to their iniquity; and let them not come into Your righteousness. <sup>28</sup>Let them be blotted out of the Book of Life, and not be written with the righteous.

<sup>29</sup>But I am poor and sorrowful; let Your salvation, O God, set me up on high. <sup>30</sup>I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify Him with thanksgiving. <sup>31</sup>This also shall please the LORD better than an ox, or a bull that has horns and hoofs. <sup>32</sup>The humble shall see and be glad; and your heart shall live, you who seek God. <sup>33</sup>For the LORD hears the needy, and does not despise His prisoners. <sup>34</sup>Let the heavens and earth praise Him, the seas, and everything that moves in them. <sup>35</sup>For God will save Zion, and will build the cities of Judah; so that they may dwell there, and possess it. <sup>36</sup>And the seed of His servants shall inherit it, and they who love His name shall dwell in it.

PSALM 70

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

<sup>1</sup>Make haste, O God, to deliver me; make haste to help me, O LORD. <sup>2</sup>Let them be ashamed and turned pale, those who seek after my soul; let them be turned backward and blush, those who desire my hurt. <sup>3</sup>Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame, those who say, Aha, aha! <sup>4</sup>Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You; and let those who love Your salvation say without ending, Let God be magnified. <sup>5</sup>But I am poor and needy; make haste to me, O God; You are my help and my deliverer; O LORD, wait no longer!

PSALM 71

<sup>1</sup>In You, O LORD, I put my trust; let me never be put to shame. <sup>2</sup>Deliver me in Your righteousness, and cause me to escape; bow down Your ear to me, and save me. <sup>3</sup>Be a rock of refuge for me, to which I may always go; You have commanded to save me; for You are my Rock and my Fortress. <sup>4</sup>Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man. <sup>5</sup>For You are my hope, O Lord God, my trust from my youth. <sup>6</sup>On You I have rested from the womb; You are He who took me out of my mother's bowels; my praise always shall be of You. <sup>7</sup>I am like a wonder to many, but You are my strong tower. <sup>8</sup>Let my mouth be filled with Your praise, and with Your honor all the day.

<sup>9</sup>Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength fails. <sup>10</sup>For my enemies speak against me; and those who watch for my soul plot together, <sup>11</sup>saying, God has forsaken him; pursue and take him, for there is none to deliver him. <sup>12</sup>O God, be not far from me; O my God, make haste for my help. <sup>13</sup>Let them be ashamed; let those who are enemies of my soul be consumed; let them be covered with reproach and dishonor, those who seek my hurt. <sup>14</sup>But I will always hope, and will yet praise You more and more. <sup>15</sup>My mouth shall show forth Your righteousness, Your salvation all the day; for I do not know how many they are. <sup>16</sup>I will go in the strength of the Lord GOD; I will speak of Your righteousness, of Yours alone. <sup>17</sup>O God, You have taught me from my youth; and before now I have declared Your wonderful works. <sup>18</sup>And now when I am old and gray-headed, O God, do not leave me; until I have declared Your strength to this generation, and Your power to everyone who is to come.

<sup>19</sup>And Your righteousness, O God, is very high, who have done great things. O God, who is like You, <sup>20</sup>who have shown me great and evil troubles. You will turn me. You will make me live. You will turn me from the depths of the earth; You will bring me up. <sup>21</sup>You will increase my greatness and comfort me on every side. <sup>22</sup>I will also praise You with a harp. O my God, I will sing Your truth, to You I will sing with the lyre, O Holy One of Israel. <sup>23</sup>My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing to You, and my soul, which You have redeemed. <sup>24</sup>My tongue also shall muse on Your righteousness all the day long; for those who seek my evil have turned pale, they are brought to shame.

A Psalm of Solomon.

<sup>1</sup>Give the king Your judgments, O God, and Your righteousness to the king's son. <sup>2</sup>He will judge Your people in righteousness, and Your poor with judgment. <sup>3</sup>The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills by righteousness. <sup>4</sup>He shall judge the poor of the people; He shall save the children of the needy, and shall crush in pieces the cruel one. <sup>5</sup>They shall fear You as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations. <sup>6</sup>He shall come down like rain on the mown grass, like showers that water the earth. <sup>7</sup>In His days the righteous shall flourish; and abundance of peace, until the moon is not. <sup>8</sup>He shall also have the rule from sea to sea, and from the river to the ends of the earth. <sup>9</sup>Those who dwell in the wilderness shall bow before Him; and His enemies shall lick the dust. <sup>10</sup>The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents; the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts. <sup>11</sup>Yes, all kings shall fall down before Him; all nations shall serve Him. <sup>12</sup>For He shall deliver the needy when he cries; and the poor with no helper. <sup>13</sup>He shall have pity on the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy. <sup>14</sup>He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence; and their blood shall be precious in His sight.

<sup>15</sup>And He shall live, and to Him shall be given the gold of Sheba; and prayer shall always be made for Him; He shall bless Him all the day long. <sup>16</sup>There shall be a fullness of grain in the earth on the top of the mountains; its fruit shall shake like Lebanon; and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth. <sup>17</sup>His name shall endure forever; His name shall be continued as long as the sun; and men shall be blessed in Him; all nations shall call Him blessed.

<sup>18</sup>Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel, who alone does wonderful things. <sup>19</sup>And blessed be His glorious name forever; and all the earth is filled with His glory! Amen and amen.

A Psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>Truly God is good to Israel, to the pure of heart. <sup>2</sup>And I, my foot had almost stumbled; my steps had nearly slipped. <sup>3</sup>For I was jealous of the proud, when I saw the peace of the wicked. <sup>4</sup>For there are no bands in their death; but their strength is fat. <sup>5</sup>They are not in trouble like other men; neither are they plagued like other men. <sup>6</sup>Therefore pride enchains them; violence covers them like a robe. <sup>7</sup>Their eyes stand out with fatness; they have more than the heart could imagine. <sup>8</sup>They scoff and speak in malice of cruelty; from on high they speak. <sup>9</sup>They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walks through the earth.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore His people return here, and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them. <sup>11</sup>And they say, How does God know? And is there knowledge in the Most High? <sup>12</sup>Behold, these are the ungodly, who are at ease in the world; they increase in riches.

<sup>13</sup>Surely I have made my heart pure in vain, and washed my hands in innocence. <sup>14</sup>For all the day long I have been plagued, and chastened every morning. <sup>15</sup>If I say, I will speak thus; behold, I would deceive a generation of Your sons. <sup>16</sup>When I thought deeply in order to understand this, it was too painful for me, <sup>17</sup>until I went into the sanctuary of God; then I understood their end. <sup>18</sup>Surely You set them in slippery places; You cast them down into ruin. <sup>19</sup>How have they been brought into grief, as in a moment! They are fully eaten up with terrors, <sup>20</sup>like a dream when one awakens; so, O LORD, when You awake, You shall despise their image. <sup>21</sup>For my heart was grieved and I was pricked in my heart. <sup>22</sup>So foolish was I, and I did not know; I was like a beast before You. <sup>23</sup>But I am always with You; You have held me by my right hand. <sup>24</sup>You shall lead me with Your counsel, and afterward receive me to glory. <sup>25</sup>Whom have I in Heaven? And besides You I desire none on earth. <sup>26</sup>My flesh and my heart fail; but God is the strength of my heart, and my part forever. <sup>27</sup>For lo, those who are far from You shall perish; You have destroyed all who go lusting away from You. <sup>28</sup>And I, it is good for me to draw near to God; I have put my trust in the LORD God, to declare all Your works.

An Instruction of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>O God, have You cast us off forever? Will Your anger smoke against the sheep of Your pasture? <sup>2</sup>Remember Your congregation, which You have purchased of old, the rod of Your inheritance which You have redeemed; this mount Zion in which You have dwelt. <sup>3</sup>Lift up Your feet to the never-ending ruins; even all that the enemy has done wickedly in the sanctuary. <sup>4</sup>Your enemies roar in the midst of Your congregation; they set up their own banners for signs. <sup>5</sup>He is known as one bringing axes on high, on the thick trees. <sup>6</sup>And now all its carvings too, they break down with axes and hammers. <sup>7</sup>They have cast fire into Your sanctuary; they have defiled the dwelling-place of Your name to the ground. <sup>8</sup>They said in their hearts, Suppress them together; they have burned up all God's meeting-places in the land. <sup>9</sup>We did not see our signs; there is no prophet any more; neither is there among us, any who knows how long. <sup>10</sup>O God, how long shall the enemy speak evil? Shall the enemy blaspheme Your name forever? <sup>11</sup>Why do You withdraw Your hand, even Your right hand? Draw it out of Your bosom.

<sup>12</sup>For God is my king of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth, <sup>13</sup>You divide the sea by Your strength; You break the heads of the whales in the waters. <sup>14</sup>You break the heads of leviathan in pieces, and gave him to be food to the people living in the wilderness. <sup>15</sup>You divide the fountain and the flood; You dry up mighty rivers. <sup>16</sup>The day is Yours, the night also is Yours; You have prepared the light and the sun. <sup>17</sup>You have set all the borders of the earth; You have made summer and winter. <sup>18</sup>Remember this, the enemy has cursed, O LORD, and the foolish people have blasphemed Your name. <sup>19</sup>Do not deliver the soul of Your turtle dove to the multitude; forget not the congregation of Your poor forever. <sup>20</sup>Look to the covenant; for the dark places of the earth are full of the houses of evil. <sup>21</sup>Oh let not the ill-treated ones return ashamed; let the poor and needy praise Your name. <sup>22</sup>Arise, O God, plead Your own cause; remember how the foolish man curses

You daily. <sup>23</sup>Forget not the voice of Your enemies; the noise of those who rise up against You keeps on increasing.

PSALM 75

To the Chief Musician. Do not destroy. A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

<sup>1</sup>To You, O God, we give thanks, to You we give thanks; for Your name is near, Your wonderful works declared. <sup>2</sup>When I take the appointed time, I will judge uprightly. <sup>3</sup>The earth and all its people are melting away; I hold up its pillars. Selah.

PSALM 76

To the Chief Musician. For stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

<sup>4</sup>You are more glorious and excellent than the mountains of prey. <sup>5</sup>The stouthearted have been stripped; they slept their sleep; and none of the men of might have found their hands. <sup>6</sup>By Your rebuke, O God of Jacob, both the horse and the chariot have sunk into a sleep. <sup>7</sup>You, even You, are terrifying, and who can stand when once You are angry? <sup>8</sup>You cause judgment to be heard from Heaven; the earth feared and was still, <sup>9</sup>when God arose to judgment, to save all the meek of the earth. Selah.

<sup>10</sup>Surely the wrath of man shall praise You; the wrath that is left, You shall bind up. <sup>11</sup>Vow, and pay to the LORD your God; let all that are around Him bring presents to the Fearful One. <sup>12</sup>He shall cut off the spirit in princes; He is feared by the kings of the earth.

PSALM 77

To the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>I cried to God with my voice, to God is my voice; and He gave ear to me. <sup>2</sup>In the day of my trouble I sought the LORD; my hand was poured in the night, and ceased not; my soul refused to be comforted. <sup>3</sup>I remembered God, and was troubled; I complained, and my spirit fainted. Selah.

<sup>4</sup>You keep my eyes awake; I am troubled and I cannot speak. <sup>5</sup>I have thought on the days of old, the years of ages past. <sup>6</sup>I remember my song in the night; I speak with my own heart, and my spirit carefully searches. <sup>7</sup>Will the Lord cast off forever? And will He be favorable no more? <sup>8</sup>Is His mercy gone forever? Has His anger failed for all generations? <sup>9</sup>Has God forgotten to be gracious? Has He in anger shut up His tender mercies? Selah.

<sup>10</sup>And I said, This is my weakness, the years of the right hand of the Most High. <sup>11</sup>I will remember the works of the LORD; surely I will remember Your wonders of old. <sup>12</sup>I will also think on all Your work, and talk of Your doings. <sup>13</sup>Your way, O God, is in holiness; who is so great a God as our God? <sup>14</sup>You are the God who does wonders; You have declared Your strength among the people. <sup>15</sup>You have with Your arm redeemed Your people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.

<sup>16</sup>The waters saw You, O God, the waters saw You; they were afraid; the depths also were troubled. <sup>17</sup>The clouds poured out water; the skies sent out a sound; Your arrows also flew here and there. <sup>18</sup>The voice of Your thunder was in the sky; the lightnings lit up the world; the earth trembled and shook. <sup>19</sup>Your way is in the sea, and Your path in the great waters, and Your footsteps are not known. <sup>20</sup>You lead Your people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

An instruction of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>Give ear, O my people, to my law; bow down your ears to the words of my mouth. <sup>2</sup>I will open my mouth in a parable; I will speak dark sayings of old, <sup>3</sup>which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us. <sup>4</sup>We will not hide them from their sons, showing to the generations to come the praises of the LORD, and His strength, and His wonderful works that He has done. <sup>5</sup>For He set up a testimony in Jacob, and ordered a law in Israel, which He commanded our fathers, that they should teach them to their sons; <sup>6</sup>so that the generation to come might know; sons shall be born, and they shall arise and tell their sons, <sup>7</sup>so that they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep His commandments; <sup>8</sup>and might not be like their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation that did not set their heart aright, and whose spirit was not faithful with God. <sup>9</sup>The sons of Ephraim were bowmen, yet they turned back in the day of battle. <sup>10</sup>They did not keep the covenant of God, and refused to walk in His law. <sup>11</sup>And they forgot His works and His wonders which He had shown them. <sup>12</sup>He did marvelous things in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.

<sup>13</sup>He divided the sea and caused them to pass through; and He made the waters to stand in a heap. <sup>14</sup>And in the daytime He led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire. <sup>15</sup>He split the rocks in the wilderness, and let them drink, as from the great depths. <sup>16</sup>He brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers. <sup>17</sup>And they sinned still more against Him, by provoking the Most High in the wilderness. <sup>18</sup>And they tempted God in their heart by asking food for their lust. <sup>19</sup>And they spoke against God; they said, Can God set a table in the wilderness? <sup>20</sup>Behold! He struck the rock so that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed. Can He also give bread? Can He provide flesh for His people? <sup>21</sup>Therefore the LORD heard, and was angry; so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel, <sup>22</sup>because they did not believe in God, and did not trust in His salvation; <sup>23</sup>though He had commanded the clouds from above, and had opened the doors of the heavens; <sup>24</sup>and had rained down manna on them to eat, and had given them of the grain of the heavens. <sup>25</sup>Man ate the food of the mighty; He sent them meat to the full. <sup>26</sup>He caused an east wind to blow in the sky; and by His power He brought in the south wind. <sup>27</sup>He also rained flesh on them like dust, and feathered birds like the sand of the sea; <sup>28</sup>and He let it fall in the middle of their camp, all around their dwelling-places. <sup>29</sup>So they ate, and were filled to the full; for He gave them their own desire. <sup>30</sup>They were not turned away from their lust, but while their food was still in their mouths, <sup>31</sup>the wrath of God came on them and killed the fattest of them, and struck down the chosen of Israel.

<sup>32</sup>For all this they still sinned, and did not believe because of His wonderful works. <sup>33</sup>Therefore He ended their days in vanity and their years in trouble. <sup>34</sup>When He killed them, then they looked for Him; and they turned back and sought after God.<sup>35</sup> And they remembered that God was their rock, and the Most High God was their redeemer.<sup>36</sup> But they flattered Him with their mouths, and they lied to Him with their tongues.<sup>37</sup> For their heart was not right with Him, neither were they faithful in His covenant.<sup>38</sup> But He, full of pity, forgave their iniquity, and did not destroy them; yea, many times He turned His anger away, and did not stir up all His wrath.<sup>39</sup> For He remembered that they were but flesh, a wind that passes away and does not come again.

A Psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>O God, the nations have come into Your inheritance; they have defiled Your holy temple; they have laid Jerusalem in heaps. <sup>2</sup>They have given the dead bodies of Your servants as food for the birds of the heavens, the flesh of Your saints to the beasts of the earth. <sup>3</sup>They have shed their blood like water round about Jerusalem; and none to bury. <sup>4</sup>We have become a shame to our neighbors, a scorn and mockery to those who are around us. <sup>5</sup>How long, O LORD? Will You be angry forever? Shall Your jealousy burn like fire? <sup>6</sup>Pour out Your wrath on the nations who have not known You, and on the kingdoms who have not called on Your name. <sup>7</sup>For they have eaten up Jacob, and wasted his dwelling-place. <sup>8</sup>O do not remember against us our former sins; let Your tender mercies meet us quickly; for we are brought very low. <sup>9</sup>Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of Your name; and deliver us, and atone for our sins, for Your name's sake.

<sup>10</sup>Why should the nations say, Where is their God? Let Him be known among the nations before our eyes by the revenging of the blood of Your servants which is shed. <sup>11</sup>Let the groaning of the prisoner come before You; according to the greatness of Your power, leave a remnant of those who are to die, <sup>12</sup>and give to our neighbors their curse sevenfold into their bosom, the curse with which they have cursed You, O Lord. <sup>13</sup>Then we, Your people and sheep of Your pasture, will give You thanks forever; we will show forth Your praise to all generations.

PSALM 80

To the Chief Musician. A Testimony Concerning the Lilies. A Psalm of Asaph.

<sup>8</sup>You have brought a vine out of Egypt; You have cast out the nations and planted it. <sup>9</sup>You cleared before it, and caused it to take deep root; and it filled the land. <sup>10</sup>The hills were covered with its shadow, and its boughs were as the beautiful cedars. <sup>11</sup>It sent out its boughs to the sea, and its branches to the river. <sup>12</sup>Why have You broken down its hedges, so that all those who pass by the way pluck it? <sup>13</sup>The boar out of the wood wastes it, and the wild beast of the field eats it. <sup>14</sup>Return, we beg You, O God of hosts; look down from Heaven, and behold, and visit this vine, <sup>15</sup>and the vineyard which Your right hand has planted, and the branch that You make strong for Yourself. <sup>16</sup>It is burned with fire, and cut down; they perish at the rebuke of Your holy face. <sup>17</sup>Let Your hand be on the Man of Your right hand, on the Son of man whom You have made strong for Yourself. <sup>18</sup>So we will not go back from You; make us live, and we will call on Your name.

<sup>19</sup>Turn us again, O LORD God of Hosts; cause Your face to shine, and we shall be saved.

PSALM 81

To the Chief Musician. On Gittith, A Psalm of Asaph.

<sup>8</sup>Hear, O My people, and I will testify to you; O Israel, if you will listen to Me, <sup>9</sup>there shall be no strange god in you; nor shall you worship any strange god. <sup>10</sup>I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt; open your mouth wide, and I will fill it. <sup>11</sup>But My people would not listen to My voice; and Israel would have none of Me. <sup>12</sup>So I gave them up to the stubbornness of their own hearts; and they walked in their own purposes. <sup>13</sup>Oh that My people had listened to Me, and Israel had walked in My ways! <sup>14</sup>I would soon have humbled their enemies, and would have turned My hand against their foes. <sup>15</sup>The haters of the LORD would have been found liars to Him, and their time would have lasted forever. <sup>16</sup>And He would have fed them also with the finest of the wheat; and with honey out of the rock I would have satisfied you.

PSALM 82

A Psalm of Asaph.

PSALM 83

A Song. A Psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>Keep not silence, O God; do not be speechless, and be not still, O God. <sup>2</sup>For lo, Your enemies roar; and those who hate You have lifted up their head. <sup>3</sup>They take shrewd counsel against Your people, and plot against Your hidden ones. <sup>4</sup>They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation, so that the name Israel may be remembered no more. <sup>5</sup>For with one heart they have plotted together; they have made a covenant against You — <sup>6</sup>the tents of Edom, and the Ishmaelites; of Moab, and the Hagarites; <sup>7</sup>Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; the Philistines with the people of Tyre; <sup>8</sup>and Assyria has joined with them; they have helped the sons of Lot. Selah.

PSALM 84

To the Chief Musician. On Gittith. A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>How lovely are Your tabernacles, O LORD of hosts! <sup>2</sup>My soul longs, yea, even faints for the courts of the LORD; my heart and my flesh shout for joy to the living God. <sup>3</sup>Even the sparrow has found a house, and the swallow a nest for herself where she may lay her young, Your altars, O LORD of hosts, my king and my God. <sup>4</sup>Blessed are they who dwell in Your house; they will still praise You. Selah.

<sup>9</sup>Behold, O God, our shield, and look on the face of Your anointed. <sup>10</sup>For a day in Your courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than dwell in the tents of wickedness. <sup>11</sup>For the LORD God is a sun and shield; the LORD will give grace and glory; no good thing will He withhold from those who walk uprightly. <sup>12</sup>O LORD of hosts, blessed is the man who trusts in You.

PSALM 85

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, You have been gracious to Your land; You have brought back the captivity of Jacob. <sup>2</sup>You have forgiven the iniquity of Your people; You have covered all their sins. Selah.

<sup>3</sup>You have taken away all Your wrath; You have turned from the heat of Your anger. <sup>4</sup>Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause Your anger toward us to cease. <sup>5</sup>Will You be angry with us forever? Will You draw out Your anger to all generations? <sup>6</sup>Will You not give us life again, so that Your people may rejoice in You? <sup>7</sup>Show us Your mercy, O LORD, and grant us Your salvation.

<sup>8</sup>I will hear what God the LORD will speak; for He will speak peace to His people, and to His saints; but let them not turn again to folly. <sup>9</sup>Surely His salvation is near those that fear Him, so that glory may dwell in our land. <sup>10</sup>Mercy and truth have met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other. <sup>11</sup>Truth shall spring out of the earth; and righteousness shall look down from Heaven. <sup>12</sup>Yea, the LORD shall give good; and our land shall yield its increase. <sup>13</sup>Righteousness shall go before Him, and shall set us in the way of His steps.

PSALM 86

A Prayer of David.

<sup>1</sup>Bow down Your ear, O LORD, hear me; for I am poor and needy. <sup>2</sup>Preserve my soul; for I am holy; O You my God, save Your servant who trusts in You. <sup>3</sup>Be merciful to me, O Lord; for I cry to You daily. <sup>4</sup>Give joy to the soul of Your servant; for to You, O Lord, I lift up my soul. <sup>5</sup>For You, Lord, are good and ready to forgive; and rich in mercy to all those who call on You. <sup>6</sup>Give ear, O LORD, to my prayer; and attend to the voice of my prayers. <sup>7</sup>In the day of my trouble I will call on You; for You will answer me. <sup>8</sup>Among the gods there is none like You, O Lord; nor like Your works. <sup>9</sup>All nations whom You have made shall come and worship before You, O Lord, and shall glorify Your name. <sup>10</sup>For You are great, and do wonderful things; You alone are God.

<sup>11</sup>Teach me Your way, O LORD; I will walk in Your truth; my heart rejoices to fear Your name. <sup>12</sup>I will praise You, O Lord my God, with all my heart, and I will glorify Your name forevermore. <sup>13</sup>For great is Your mercy toward me; and You have delivered my soul from the lowest hell. <sup>14</sup>O God, the proud have risen against me, and the company of violent men have sought after my life, and have not set You before them. <sup>15</sup>But You, O God, are a God full of pity, and gracious, long-suffering, and rich in mercy and truth. <sup>16</sup>Oh turn to me, and have mercy on me; give Your strength to Your servant, and save the son of Your handmaid. <sup>17</sup>Show me a token for good, so that they who hate me may see and be ashamed; because You, LORD, have helped me and comforted me.

PSALM 87

<sup>4</sup>I will mention of Rahab and Babylon to those who know me; behold, Philistia and Tyre, with Ethiopia; this man was born there. <sup>5</sup>And to Zion it shall be said, This man and that man was born in her; and the Highest shall establish her. <sup>6</sup>The LORD shall count, in recording the peoples, that this man was born there. Selah.

<sup>7</sup>And the singers, the players of the pipe; all my springs are in You!

PSALM 88

A Song. A Psalm for the sons of Korah. To the Chief Musician. On Mahalath, to make humble. A Poem of Heman the Ezrahite.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD God of my salvation, I have cried day and night before You. <sup>2</sup>Let my prayer come before You; bow down Your ear to my cry. <sup>3</sup>For my soul is full of troubles; and my life draws near the grave. <sup>4</sup>I am counted with those who go down to the Pit; I am like a feeble man; <sup>5</sup>free among the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave, whom You remember no more; and by Your hand they are cut off. <sup>6</sup>You have laid me in the lowest pit, in darkness, in the deeps. <sup>7</sup>Your wrath lies hard on me, and You have afflicted me with all Your waves. Selah.

<sup>8</sup>You have taken my friends away from me; You have made me a hateful thing to them. I am shut up, and I cannot go out. <sup>9</sup>My eye mourns because of affliction; O LORD, I have called daily on You; I have stretched out my hands to You. <sup>10</sup>For will You do wonders to the dead? Shall the dead rise and praise You? Selah.

<sup>11</sup>Shall Your loving-kindness be declared in the grave? Or Your faithfulness in ruin? <sup>12</sup>Shall Your wonders be known in the dark, and Your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness? <sup>13</sup>But to You I have cried, O LORD; and in the morning my prayer shall go before You. <sup>14</sup>O LORD, why do You cast off my soul? Why do You hide Your face from me? <sup>15</sup>I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up; while I suffer Your terrors, I pine away. <sup>16</sup>Your fierce wrath goes over me; Your terrors have cut me off. <sup>17</sup>They surrounded me like waters all the day long; they have come together around me. <sup>18</sup>You have taken lover and friend far from me, and those who know me into darkness.

PSALM 89

A Poem of Ethan the Ezrahite.

<sup>1</sup>I will sing of the mercies of the LORD forever; with my mouth I will make known Your faithfulness to all generations. <sup>2</sup>For I have said, Mercy shall be built up forever; You shall establish Your faithfulness in the heavens. <sup>3</sup>I have cut a covenant with My chosen; I have sworn to David My servant, <sup>4</sup>Your seed will I establish forever, and build up your throne to all generations. Selah.

<sup>5</sup>And the heavens shall praise Your wonders, O LORD, Your faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints. <sup>6</sup>For who in the sky can be compared to the LORD? Who among the sons of the mighty can be compared to the LORD? <sup>7</sup>God is greatly to be feared in the congregation of the saints, and to be adored by all around Him. <sup>8</sup>O LORD God of hosts, who is a strong LORD like You? And Your faithfulness is round about You? <sup>9</sup>You rule the raging of the sea; when its waves arise, You still them. <sup>10</sup>You have broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain; You have scattered Your enemies with Your strong arm. <sup>11</sup>The heavens are Yours, the earth also is Yours; You have founded the world and its fullness. <sup>12</sup>The north and the south, You have created them; Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in Your name. <sup>13</sup>You have a mighty arm; Your hand is strong, and Your right hand is high. <sup>14</sup>Justice and judgment are the foundation of Your throne; mercy and truth shall go before Your face. <sup>15</sup>Blessed is the people that knows the joyful sound; they shall walk, O LORD, in the light of Your face. <sup>16</sup>In Your name they shall rejoice all the day; and in Your righteousness they shall be lifted up. <sup>17</sup>For You are the glory of their strength; and in Your favor our horn shall be lifted up. <sup>18</sup>For the LORD is our shield and our king is the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>19</sup>Then You spoke in a vision to Your holy one, and You said, I have laid help on a mighty one; I have lifted up a chosen one out of the people. <sup>20</sup>I have found David, My servant; with My holy oil I have anointed him. <sup>21</sup>My hand shall be always with him; My arm also shall make him strong. <sup>22</sup>The enemy shall not use force on him, nor the son of wickedness afflict him. <sup>23</sup>And I will beat down his foes before his face, and plague those who hate him. <sup>24</sup>But My faithfulness and My mercy shall be with him; and in My name his horn shall be lifted up. <sup>25</sup>I will set his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers. <sup>26</sup>He shall cry to Me, You are my God, and the rock of my salvation. <sup>27</sup>And I will make him My first-born, higher than the kings of the earth. <sup>28</sup>I will keep My mercy for him forever, and My covenant shall stand fast with him. <sup>29</sup>Also I have set his seed forever, and his throne as the days of the heavens. <sup>30</sup>If his children forsake My law, and do not walk in My judgments; <sup>31</sup>if they profane My statutes, and do not keep My commandments; <sup>32</sup>then I will visit their wickedness with the rod, and their sin with stripes. <sup>33</sup>But I will not completely take My loving-kindness from him, and I will not be false in My faithfulness. <sup>34</sup>I will not break My covenant, nor change the thing that has gone out of My lips. <sup>35</sup>Once I have sworn by My holiness that I will not lie to David. <sup>36</sup>His seed shall endure forever, and his throne as the sun before Me. <sup>37</sup>It shall be established forever like the moon, and like a faithful witness in the heavens. Selah.

<sup>38</sup>But You have cast us off and turned away; You have been angry with Your anointed. <sup>39</sup>You have turned away from the covenant of Your servant; You have defiled his crown to the ground. <sup>40</sup>You have broken down all his hedges; You have brought his strongholds to ruin. <sup>41</sup>All who pass by the way plunder him; he is a curse to his neighbors. <sup>42</sup>You have set up the right hand of his enemies; You have made all his enemies rejoice. <sup>43</sup>You also have turned back the edge of his sword and have not made him stand in the battle. <sup>44</sup>You have made his glory to cease, and have thrown his throne down to the ground. <sup>45</sup>The days of his youth You have shortened; You have covered him with shame. Selah.

<sup>46</sup>How long, LORD? Will You hide Yourself forever? Shall Your wrath burn like fire? <sup>47</sup>Remember how short my time is; why have You made all men in vain? <sup>48</sup>What man lives and never sees death? Shall he deliver his soul from the hand of the grave? Selah.

<sup>49</sup>O Lord, where are Your former loving-kindnesses which You swore to David in Your truth? <sup>50</sup>Remember, Lord, the scorn of Your servants; how I bear in my bosom the insult of all the mighty people, <sup>51</sup>with which Your enemies have cursed, O LORD; with which they have cursed the footsteps of Your anointed.

<sup>52</sup>Blessed be the LORD forevermore. Amen and Amen.

PSALM 90

A Prayer of Moses, the man of God.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, You have been our dwelling-place in all generations. <sup>2</sup>Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever You had formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting You are God. <sup>3</sup>You turn man to lowliness, and say, Return, sons of men. <sup>4</sup>For a thousand years in Your sight are as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night. <sup>5</sup>You carry them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep; in the morning they are like grass which grows up. <sup>6</sup>In the morning it sprouts and shoots up; in the evening it is cut down, and dries up. <sup>7</sup>For we are burned up by Your anger, and by Your wrath we are troubled. <sup>8</sup>You have set our iniquities before You, our secret sins in the light of Your face. <sup>9</sup>For all our days pass away in Your wrath; we finish our years as a murmur. <sup>10</sup>The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by strength they are fourscore years, yet their pride is labor and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away. <sup>11</sup>Who knows the power of Your anger? And as Your fear is, so is Your wrath. <sup>12</sup>So teach us to number our days, so that we may bring a heart of wisdom. <sup>13</sup>Return, O LORD! How long? And give pity to Your servants. <sup>14</sup>Satisfy us early with Your mercy, so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. <sup>15</sup>Make us glad according to the days of our affliction, the years in which we have seen evil. <sup>16</sup>Let Your work appear to Your servants, and Your glory to their sons. <sup>17</sup>And let the beauty of the LORD our God be on us; and establish the work of our hands on us; yea, the work of our hands, establish it.

PSALM 91

<sup>1</sup>He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall rest under the shadow of the Almighty. <sup>2</sup>I will say of the LORD, my refuge and my fortress; my God; in Him I will trust. <sup>3</sup>Surely He will deliver you from the fowler's trap and from the destroying plague. <sup>4</sup>He shall cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you shall trust. His truth shall be your shield, and buckler. <sup>5</sup>You shall not fear the terror by night; nor because of the arrow that flies by day; <sup>6</sup>nor for the plague that walks in darkness, of the plague that lays waste at noonday. <sup>7</sup>A thousand shall fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand; it shall not come near you. <sup>8</sup>Only with your eyes you shall look and see the reward of the wicked.

<sup>9</sup>Because You, O LORD, are my refuge, You have made the Most High Your dwelling-place; <sup>10</sup>no evil shall befall You, nor shall any plague come near Your dwelling. <sup>11</sup>For He shall give His angels charge over You, to keep you in all Your ways. <sup>12</sup>They shall bear You up in their hands, lest You dash your foot against a stone. <sup>13</sup>You shall tread on the lion and adder; the young lion and the jackal You shall trample underfoot. <sup>14</sup>Because He has set His love on Me, therefore I will deliver him; I will set Him on high, because He has known My name. <sup>15</sup>He shall call on Me, and I will answer Him; I will be with Him in trouble; I will deliver Him, and honor Him. <sup>16</sup>With long life I will satisfy Him, and show Him My salvation.

PSALM 92

A Psalm or Song for the sabbath day.

<sup>1</sup>It is a good thing to give thanks to the LORD, and to sing praises to Your name, O Most High; <sup>2</sup>to show forth Your loving-kindness in the morning, and Your faithfulness every night; <sup>3</sup>on an instrument of ten strings, and on the harp, on the harp with deep thought. <sup>4</sup>For You, LORD, have made Me glad with Your work; I will triumph in the works of Your hands. <sup>5</sup>O LORD, Your purposes are very deep. How great are Your works! <sup>6</sup>A beastly man does not know; nor does a fool understand this. <sup>7</sup>When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity blossom, it is that they shall be destroyed forever; <sup>8</sup>but You, LORD, are high forever. <sup>9</sup>For, lo, Your enemies, O LORD; for lo, Your enemies shall perish; all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered. <sup>10</sup>But You shall lift up my horn as the wild ox; and I shall be anointed with fresh oil. <sup>11</sup>Also my eye shall see my desire on my enemies, and my ears shall hear the wicked who rise up against me. <sup>12</sup>The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree; he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon. <sup>13</sup>Those that are planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God. <sup>14</sup>They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flowering; <sup>15</sup>to show that the LORD is upright; He is my rock, and no unrighteousness is in Him.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD knows the thoughts of man, that they are vain. <sup>12</sup>Blessed is the man whom You chasten, O LORD, to teach him out of Your law; <sup>13</sup>that You may give him rest from the days of trouble, until the pit is dug for the wicked. <sup>14</sup>For the LORD will not cast off His people, nor will He forsake His inheritance. <sup>15</sup>But judgment shall return to righteousness; and all the upright in heart shall follow it. <sup>16</sup>Who will rise up for me against the evil-doers? Who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity? <sup>17</sup>Unless the LORD had been my help, my soul had almost dwelt in silence. <sup>18</sup>When I said, My foot slips; Your mercy, O LORD, held me up. <sup>19</sup>In the multitude of my thoughts within me Your comforts delight my soul. <sup>20</sup>Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with You, which frames mischief by a law? <sup>21</sup>They gather themselves against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood. <sup>22</sup>But the LORD is my defense; and my God is the rock of my refuge. <sup>23</sup>And He will bring on them their own iniquity, and He will cut them off in their evil. The LORD our God shall cut them off.

PSALM 95

they have not known My ways; <sup>11</sup>to whom I swore in My wrath that they should not enter into My rest.

<sup>1</sup>Oh sing to the LORD a new song; sing to the LORD, all the earth. <sup>2</sup>Sing to the LORD, bless His name; show forth His salvation from day to day. <sup>3</sup>Declare His glory among the nations, His wonders among all people. <sup>4</sup>For the LORD is great, and greatly to be praised; He is to be feared above all gods. <sup>5</sup>For all the gods of the nations are idols; but the LORD made the heavens. <sup>6</sup>Honor and majesty are before Him; strength and beauty are in His sanctuary. <sup>7</sup>Give to the LORD, O families of the people; give to the LORD glory and strength. <sup>8</sup>Give to the LORD the glory due to His name; bring an offering, and come into His courts. <sup>9</sup>O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness; fear before Him, all the earth. <sup>10</sup>Say among the nations, the LORD reigns; and the world shall be established; it shall not be moved; He shall judge the peoples in uprightness. <sup>11</sup>Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fullness of it. <sup>12</sup>Let the field be joyful, and all that is in it; then shall all the trees of the forest rejoice <sup>13</sup>before the LORD; for He comes, for He comes to judge the earth; He shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with His truth.

<sup>1</sup>The LORD reigns; let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of islands be glad. <sup>2</sup>Clouds and darkness are round about Him; righteousness and judgment are the foundation of His throne. <sup>3</sup>A fire goes before Him and burns up His enemies round about. <sup>4</sup>His lightnings lit up the world; the earth saw and trembled. <sup>5</sup>The hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD, at the presence of the LORD of the whole earth. <sup>6</sup>The heavens declare His righteousness, and all the people see His glory. <sup>7</sup>All those who serve graven images are ashamed, those who boast themselves in idols; all gods bow down before Him. <sup>8</sup>Zion heard and was glad; and the daughters of Judah rejoiced because of Your judgments, O LORD. <sup>9</sup>For You, LORD, are high above all the earth; You are lifted on high far above all gods. <sup>10</sup>You who love the LORD, hate evil; He keeps the souls of His saints; He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked. <sup>11</sup>Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart. <sup>12</sup>Rejoice in the LORD, righteous ones; and give thanks at the memory of His holiness.

PSALMS 98

A Psalm.

<sup>1</sup>O sing to the LORD a new song; for He has done marvelous things; His right hand, and His holy arm, has saved for Him. <sup>2</sup>The LORD has made known His salvation; His righteousness He has unveiled to the eyes of the nations. <sup>3</sup>He has remembered His mercy and His truth toward the house of Israel; all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our GOD. <sup>4</sup>Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth; breakout, and rejoice, and sing praise. <sup>5</sup>Sing to the LORD with the harp; with the harp, and the voice of a psalm. <sup>6</sup>With trumpets and sound of a horn make a joyful noise before the LORD, the King. <sup>7</sup>Let the sea roar, and the fullness of it; the world, and those who live in it. <sup>8</sup>Let the floods clap their hands; let the hills be joyful together <sup>9</sup>before the LORD; for He comes to judge the earth; with righteousness He shall judge the world, and the people in uprightness.

<sup>3</sup>Let them praise Your great and fearful name; it is holy. <sup>4</sup>The king's strength also loved judgment; You established uprightness, judgment and righteousness in Jacob. <sup>5</sup>Praise the LORD our God, and worship at His footstool; He is holy.

<sup>6</sup>Moses and Aaron were among His priests, and Samuel among those who called on His name; they called on the LORD, and He answered them. <sup>7</sup>He spoke to them in the cloudy pillar; they kept His testimonies and the ordinance that He gave them. <sup>8</sup>You answered them, O LORD our God; You were a God who forgave them, though You take vengeance for their deeds. <sup>9</sup>Praise the LORD our God, and worship at His holy hill; for the LORD our God is holy.

A Psalm of praise.

<sup>1</sup>Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all you lands. <sup>2</sup>Worship the LORD with gladness; come before His presence with singing. <sup>3</sup>Know that the LORD, He is God. He has made us, and not we ourselves; we are His people, and the sheep of His pasture. <sup>4</sup>Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise; be thankful to Him, and bless His name. <sup>5</sup>For the LORD is good; His mercy is everlasting; and His truth endures to all generations.

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I will sing of mercy and judgment; to You, O LORD, I will sing praise. <sup>2</sup>I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way. O when will You come to me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart. <sup>3</sup>I will set no wicked thing before my eyes. I have hated the work of those who turn aside; it shall not hold on to me. <sup>4</sup>A wicked heart shall depart from me; I will not know the wicked. <sup>5</sup>Whoever secretly slanders his neighbor, I will cut him off; him who has a high look and a proud heart, I will not allow. <sup>6</sup>My eyes shall be on the faithful of the land, so that they may dwell with me; he who walks in a perfect way, he shall serve Me. <sup>7</sup>He who works falsely shall not dwell within my house; he who tells lies shall not stay in my sight. <sup>8</sup>I will early destroy all the wicked of the land, so that I may cut off all wicked doers from the city of the LORD.

PSALM 102

A prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed and pours out his complaint before the LORD.

<sup>1</sup>Hear my prayer, O LORD, and let my cry come to You. <sup>2</sup>Hide not Your face from me in the day when I am in trouble; bow down Your ear to me; in the day I call, answer me quickly. <sup>3</sup>For my days go up like smoke, and my bones glow like a firebrand. <sup>4</sup>My heart is stricken, and dried like grass, so that I forget to eat my bread. <sup>5</sup>Because of the voice of my groaning, my bones hold fast to my skin. <sup>6</sup>I am like a pelican of the wilderness; I am like an owl of the desert. <sup>7</sup>I watch, and am as a sparrow alone on the house top. <sup>8</sup>My enemies curse me all the day; and they who are mad against me are sworn against me. <sup>9</sup>For I have eaten ashes like bread, and have mixed my drink with weeping, <sup>10</sup>because of Your anger and Your wrath; for You have lifted me up and cast me down. <sup>11</sup>My days are like a shadow stretched out; and I wither like grass.

<sup>12</sup>But You, O LORD, shall endure forever; and Your memory to all generations. <sup>13</sup>You shall arise, and have mercy on Zion; for the time to pity her, yea, the set time, has come. <sup>14</sup>For Your servants take pleasure in its stones, and pity its dust. <sup>15</sup>So the nations shall fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth Your glory. <sup>16</sup>When the LORD shall build up Zion, He shall appear in His glory. <sup>17</sup>He will turn to the prayer of the forsaken and not despise their prayer. <sup>18</sup>This shall be written for the generation to come; and the people who shall be created shall praise the LORD. <sup>19</sup>For He has looked down from the height of His sanctuary; from Heaven the LORD beheld the earth; <sup>20</sup>to hear the groaning of the prisoner, to set free the sons of death; <sup>21</sup>to declare the name of the LORD in Zion, and His praise in Jerusalem; <sup>22</sup>when the peoples and the kingdoms have gathered together to serve the LORD.

<sup>23</sup>He weakened my strength in the way; He shortened my days. <sup>24</sup>I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days; Your years are through the generation of generations. <sup>25</sup>Of old You have laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the work of Your hands. <sup>26</sup>They shall perish, but You shall endure; yea, all of them shall become old like a garment; like a robe You shall change them, and they shall be changed; <sup>27</sup>but You are the same, and Your years shall have no end. <sup>28</sup>The sons of Your servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before You.

A Psalm of David.

<sup>6</sup>The LORD works righteousness and judgment for all who are pressed down. <sup>7</sup>He made known His ways to Moses, His acts to the sons of Israel. <sup>8</sup>The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and rich in mercy. <sup>9</sup>He will not always chasten, nor will He keep His anger forever. <sup>10</sup>He has not dealt with us according to our sins, nor rewarded us according to our iniquities. <sup>11</sup>For as the heavens are high above the earth, so is His mercy toward those who fear Him. <sup>12</sup>As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us. <sup>13</sup>As a father pities his children, so the LORD pities those who fear Him. <sup>14</sup>For He knows how we are made; He remembers that we are dust. <sup>15</sup>As for man, his days are as grass; as a flower of the field, so he flourishes. <sup>16</sup>For the wind passes over it, and it is gone; and its place shall know it no more. <sup>17</sup>But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear Him, and His righteousness is to sons of sons; <sup>18</sup>to those who keep His covenant, and to those who remember to do His commandments.

<sup>1</sup>Bless the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, You are very great; You have put on honor and majesty, <sup>2</sup>covering Yourself with light as with a robe; and stretching out the heavens like a curtain; <sup>3</sup>He lays the beams of His upper rooms in the waters. He sets the clouds as His chariots; He walks on the wings of the wind; <sup>4</sup>He makes His angels spirits, His ministers a flaming fire. <sup>5</sup>He laid the earth on its foundations; it shall not be shaken forever. <sup>6</sup>You cover it with the deep as with a robe; the waters stood above the mountains. <sup>7</sup>At Your rebuke they flee; at the voice of Your thunder they hurry away. <sup>8</sup>They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys to the place which You have founded for them. <sup>9</sup>You have set a bound that they may not pass over, so that they do not turn again to cover the earth. <sup>10</sup>He sends the springs into the valleys; they flow between the hills. <sup>11</sup>They give drink to every beast of the field; the wild asses break their thirst. <sup>12</sup>By them the birds of the heavens will have their place of rest; they sing among the branches. <sup>13</sup>He waters the hills from His upper rooms; the earth is satisfied with the fruit of Your works. <sup>14</sup>He causes the grass to grow for the cattle, and plants for the service of man, to bring forth food out of the earth, <sup>15</sup>and wine cheers the heart of man, and oil makes his face shine, and bread sustains the heart of man. <sup>16</sup>The trees of the LORD are full, the cedars of Lebanon which He has planted; <sup>17</sup>where the birds make their nests; the fir trees are the house of the stork. <sup>18</sup>The high hills are for the wild goats, and the rocks are a refuge for the badgers. <sup>19</sup>He appointed the moon for seasons; the sun knows its going down. <sup>20</sup>You make darkness, and it is night, in which all the beasts of the forest creep forth. <sup>21</sup>The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their food from God. <sup>22</sup>The sun rises; they are gathered, and go to their dens to lie down. <sup>23</sup>Man goes out to his work and to his labor until the evening.

<sup>24</sup>O LORD, how many are Your works! In wisdom You have made them all; the earth is full of Your riches. <sup>25</sup>This is the great and wide sea, in which are creeping things without number, both small and great animals. <sup>26</sup>There the ships go; You made this great sea animal to play in it. <sup>27</sup>These all wait on You, that You may give them their food in due season. <sup>28</sup>You give to them, they gather; You open Your hand; they are filled with good. <sup>29</sup>You hide Your face, they are troubled; You take away their breath, they die and return to their dust. <sup>30</sup>You send forth Your Spirit, they are created; and You renew the face of the earth. <sup>31</sup>The glory of the LORD shall endure forever; the LORD shall rejoice in His works. <sup>32</sup>He looks on the earth, and it trembles; He touches the hills, and they smoke. <sup>33</sup>I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while I have my being. <sup>34</sup>My thoughts of Him shall be sweet; I will be glad in the LORD. <sup>35</sup>Let the sinners perish from the earth, and let the wicked be no more. Bless the LORD, O my soul. Praise the LORD!

<sup>16</sup>And He called for a famine on the land; He broke the whole staff of bread. <sup>17</sup>He sent a man before them, Joseph, who was sold for a servant; <sup>18</sup>whose feet they hurt with chains; he was laid in iron, <sup>19</sup>until the time that his word came true; the word of the LORD tried him. <sup>20</sup>The king sent and set him free; the ruler of the people, and let him go free. <sup>21</sup>He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all he owned, <sup>22</sup>to chain his leaders at his pleasure, and teach his elders wisdom.

<sup>23</sup>Israel also came into Egypt, and Jacob resided in the land of Ham. <sup>24</sup>And He increased His people and made them stronger than their enemies. <sup>25</sup>He turned their heart to hate His people, to deal craftily with His servants. <sup>26</sup>He sent Moses His servant, and Aaron whom He had chosen. <sup>27</sup>They showed His signs among them, and wonders in the land of Ham. <sup>28</sup>He sent darkness, and made it dark; and they did not rebel against His word. <sup>29</sup>He turned their waters into blood, and killed their fish. <sup>30</sup>The land swarmed with frogs in the rooms of their kings. <sup>31</sup>He spoke, and there came different kinds of flies and lice in all their borders. <sup>32</sup>He gave them hail for rain and flaming fire in their land. <sup>33</sup>He struck their vines also and their fig trees, and broke the trees of their borders. <sup>34</sup>He spoke, and locusts came, and larvae without number; <sup>35</sup>and they ate up all the plants in their land, and ate the fruit of their ground. <sup>36</sup>He also struck all the first-born in their land, the chief of all their strength.

<sup>37</sup>He also brought them out with silver and gold; and there was not one feeble person among their tribes. <sup>38</sup>Egypt was glad when they departed; for the fear of them had fallen on them. <sup>39</sup>He spread a cloud for a covering, and fire to give light in the night. <sup>40</sup>He asked, and He brought quail, and satisfied them with the food of heaven. <sup>41</sup>He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like a river. <sup>42</sup>For He remembered His holy promise and Abraham His servant. <sup>43</sup>And He brought forth His people with joy, and His chosen with gladness, <sup>44</sup>and gave them the lands of the nations; and they inherited the labor of the people, <sup>45</sup>so that they might take heed to His statutes and keep His laws. Praise the LORD!

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD. O give thanks to the LORD; for He is good; for His mercy endures forever. <sup>2</sup>Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD, or cause all His praise to be heard? <sup>3</sup>Blessed are those who keep judgment, he who does righteousness at all times. <sup>4</sup>Remember me, O LORD, with the favor of Your people; O visit me with Your salvation, <sup>5</sup>that I may see the good of Your chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of Your nation, that I may glory with Your inheritance.

<sup>6</sup>We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly. <sup>7</sup>Our fathers did not understand Your wonders in Egypt; they did not remember the multitude of Your mercies, but provoked You at the sea, even at the Red Sea. <sup>8</sup>But He saved them for His name's sake, that He might make His mighty power to be known. <sup>9</sup>And He rebuked the Red Sea, and it was dried up; so He led them through the depths, as through the wilderness. <sup>10</sup>And He saved them from the hand of the hater, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy. <sup>11</sup>And the waters covered their enemies; there was not one of them left. <sup>12</sup>Then they believed His words; they sang His praise. <sup>13</sup>They hurried and forgot His works; they did not wait for His counsel; <sup>14</sup>but they lusted greedily in the wilderness, and tested God in the desert. <sup>15</sup>And He gave them what they asked; but sent leanness into their soul. <sup>16</sup>And they were jealous of Moses in the camp, and Aaron the saint of the LORD. <sup>17</sup>The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram. <sup>18</sup>And a fire was kindled in their company; the flame burned up the wicked.

<sup>19</sup>They made a calf in Horeb, and worshiped the melted image. <sup>20</sup>And they changed their Glory into the likeness of an ox that eats grass. <sup>21</sup>They forgot God their Deliverer, who had done great things in Egypt; <sup>22</sup>wonderful works in the land of Ham, fearful things by the Red Sea. <sup>23</sup>And He said that He would destroy them, if Moses His chosen had not stood before Him in the breach, to turn away His wrath, so that He should not destroy them. <sup>24</sup>And they despised the pleasant land; they did not believe His word, <sup>25</sup>but murmured in their tents, and did not listen to the voice of the LORD.

<sup>32</sup>And they angered Him at the waters of strife so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes; <sup>33</sup>because they provoked his spirit so that he spoke unwisely with his lips. <sup>34</sup>They did not destroy the nations concerning whom the LORD commanded them; <sup>35</sup>but were mixed among the nations, and learned their works. <sup>36</sup>And they served their idols, which were a snare to them. <sup>37</sup>Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters to devils, <sup>38</sup>and shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan; and the land was defiled with blood. <sup>39</sup>And they were defiled with their works, and went lusting in their doings. <sup>40</sup>And the wrath of the LORD was kindled against His people, and He detested His inheritance. <sup>41</sup>And He gave them into the hand of the nations; and those who hated them ruled over them. <sup>42</sup>And their enemies oppressed them, and they were humbled under their hand.

<sup>43</sup>Many times He delivered them, but they rebelled in their counsel and sank in their iniquities. <sup>44</sup>And He looked on their affliction when He heard their cry; <sup>45</sup>and He remembered His covenant for them, and was moved to pity, according to the multitude of His mercies. <sup>46</sup>And He gave them blessings of tender mercies before the face of all their captors.

<sup>47</sup>Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the nations, to give thanks to Your holy name and to triumph in Your praise. <sup>48</sup>Blessed is the LORD God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting; and let all the people say, Amen. Praise the LORD!

PSALM 107

<sup>1</sup>O give thanks to the LORD, for He is good; for His mercy endures forever. <sup>2</sup>Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom He has redeemed from the hand of the enemy, <sup>3</sup>and gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south.

<sup>33</sup>He sets rivers in a wilderness and water-springs to dry ground; <sup>34</sup>a fruitful land to a salty desert, because of the wickedness of those who dwell in it. <sup>35</sup>He turns the wilderness into a water-pond, and dry ground into water-springs. <sup>36</sup>And He makes the hungry dwell there, so that they may prepare a city to live in; <sup>37</sup>and sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may yield fruits of increase. <sup>38</sup>He also blesses them, so that they are multiplied greatly; and does not allow their cattle to become few. <sup>39</sup>Again, they have become few, and have been brought low through harshness, affliction, and sorrow. <sup>40</sup>He pours scorn on nobles, and causes them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no path. <sup>41</sup>But He raises up the poor from affliction and sets families like a flock. <sup>42</sup>The upright shall see and rejoice; and all iniquity shall stop its mouth. <sup>43</sup>Whoever is wise, and will observe to do these things, they shall understand the mercies of the LORD.

PSALM 108

A Song or Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>O God, my heart is fixed; I will sing and I will give praise, even with my glory. <sup>2</sup>Awake, harp and lyre; I will awake early. <sup>3</sup>I will praise You, O LORD, among the people; and I will sing praises to You among the nations. <sup>4</sup>For Your mercy is great above the heavens; and Your truth reaches to the clouds. <sup>5</sup>Be lifted up, O God, above the heavens; and Your glory above all the earth; so that Your beloved may be delivered; save with Your right hand, and answer me.

<sup>7</sup>God has spoken in His holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and I will measure out the valley of Succoth. <sup>8</sup>Gilead is Mine; Manasseh is Mine and Ephraim is the strength of My head; Judah is My lawgiver; <sup>9</sup>Moab is My washpot; I will cast out My shoe over Edom; I will triumph over Philistia. <sup>10</sup>Who will bring me into the strong city? Who will lead me into Edom? <sup>11</sup>O God, have you not cast us off? And, O God, will You not go out with our armies? <sup>12</sup>Give us help from trouble; for vain is the deliverance of man. <sup>13</sup>Through God we shall do mighty things; for He shall trample our enemies.

PSALM 109

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

tongue. <sup>3</sup>And they surrounded me with words of hatred; and fought against me without a cause. <sup>4</sup>For my love they are my foes; but I am in prayer. <sup>5</sup>And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love. <sup>6</sup>Set a wicked man over him; and let Satan stand at his right hand, <sup>7</sup>when he is judged, let him be condemned; and let his prayer become sin. <sup>8</sup>Let his days be few; let another take his office. <sup>9</sup>Let his sons be fatherless, and his wife a widow. <sup>10</sup>Let his sons always beg and be vagabonds, and seek food out of their ruins. <sup>11</sup>Let the money-lender lay a snare for all that is his; and let strangers take the fruit of his labor. <sup>12</sup>Let there be none to give mercy to him; nor any to favor his fatherless children. <sup>13</sup>Let his posterity be cut off; and in the generation following let their name be blotted out. <sup>14</sup>Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered to the LORD; and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out. <sup>15</sup>Let them be always before the LORD, that He may cut off their memory from the earth, <sup>16</sup>because he did not remember to do mercy, but persecuted the poor and needy man, and sought to kill the broken-hearted. <sup>17</sup>Yea, he loved cursing, so let it come to him; he delighted not in blessing, and it was far from him. <sup>18</sup>As he clothed himself with cursing, as with his robe, so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones. <sup>19</sup>Let it be to him as the robe which covers him, and for a girdle with which he is always clothed.

<sup>20</sup>This is the reward of my foes from the LORD, and of them who speak evil against my soul. <sup>21</sup>But You, Lord Jehovah, deal kindly with me for Your name's sake; because Your mercy is good, deliver me. <sup>22</sup>For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me. <sup>23</sup>As a shadow when it is stretched out, I am gone; I am tossed up and down like the locust. <sup>24</sup>My knees stumble from fasting; and my flesh is losing its fatness. <sup>25</sup>And I became a shame to them; they looked on me, they shook their heads. <sup>26</sup>Help me, O LORD my God; save me according to Your mercy; <sup>27</sup>and they will know that this is Your hand; that You, LORD, have done it. <sup>28</sup>They will curse, but You will bless; they arise, and are ashamed; but let Your servant rejoice. <sup>29</sup>Let my foes be clothed with shame, and let them cover themselves with their own shame, as with a cloak. <sup>30</sup>I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth; yea, I will praise Him among the multitude. <sup>31</sup>For He shall stand at the right hand of the poor, to save him from those who condemn his soul.

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said to my Lord, Sit at My right hand until I place Your enemies as Your footstool. <sup>2</sup>The LORD shall send the rod of Your strength out of Zion; rule in the midst of Your enemies. <sup>3</sup>Your people shall be willing in the day of Your power, in the beauty of holiness from the womb of the morning: You have the dew of Your youth. <sup>4</sup>The LORD has sworn, and will not repent, You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek. <sup>5</sup>The Lord at Your right hand shall strike through kings in the day of His wrath. <sup>6</sup>He shall judge among the nations, He shall fill them with dead bodies; He shall shatter heads over much of the earth. <sup>7</sup>He shall drink of the brook in the way; therefore He shall lift up the head.

true, <sup>8</sup>standing fast forever and ever; they are done in truth and uprightness. <sup>9</sup>He sent redemption to His people; He has commanded His covenant forever; holy and awesome is His name. <sup>10</sup>The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; all practicing them have understanding; His praise stands forever.

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD! Blessed is the man who fears the LORD, who delights greatly in His commandments. <sup>2</sup>His seed shall be mighty on earth; the generation of the upright shall be blessed. <sup>3</sup>Wealth and riches shall be in his house, and his righteousness stands forever. <sup>4</sup>To the upright there arises light in the darkness; he is gracious and full of pity and righteousness. <sup>5</sup>A good man shows favor, and lends; he will guide his business with fairness. <sup>6</sup>Surely he shall not be moved forever; the righteous shall be remembered forever. <sup>7</sup>He shall not be afraid of bad news; his heart is fixed, trusting in the LORD. <sup>8</sup>His heart is sure; he shall not be afraid though he sees his oppressors. <sup>9</sup>He has scattered abroad; he has given to the poor; his righteousness endures forever; his horn shall be lifted up with honor. <sup>10</sup>The wicked shall see and be vexed; he shall gnash with his teeth and melt away; the desire of the wicked shall perish.

<sup>1</sup>When Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of strange language, <sup>2</sup>Judah was His sanctuary, and Israel was His kingdom. <sup>3</sup>The sea saw it and fled; Jordan was driven back. <sup>4</sup>The mountains skipped like rams, and the little hills like lambs. <sup>5</sup>What ailed you, O sea, that you fled? O Jordan, that you turned back, <sup>6</sup>O mountains that skipped like rams, O little hills like lambs? <sup>7</sup>Earth, tremble at the presence of the LORD, at the presence of the God of Jacob, <sup>8</sup>who turned the rock into a pool of water, the flint into a fountain of waters.

<sup>1</sup>Not to us, O LORD, not to us, but to Your name give glory, for Your mercy and for Your truth's sake. <sup>2</sup>Why should the nations say, Where now is their God? <sup>3</sup>But our God is in Heaven; He has done whatever He has pleased. <sup>4</sup>Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands. <sup>5</sup>They have mouths, but they do not speak; they have eyes, but they do not see; <sup>6</sup>they have ears, but they do not hear; they have noses, but they do not smell; <sup>7</sup>they have hands, but they do not handle; they have feet, but they do not walk; they do not mutter through their throat. <sup>8</sup>The ones who make them are like them, and everyone who trusts in them.

<sup>9</sup>O Israel, trust in the LORD; He is their help and their shield. <sup>10</sup>O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD; He is their help and their shield. <sup>11</sup>You who fear the LORD, trust in the LORD; He is their help and their shield. <sup>12</sup>The LORD has been mindful of us; He will bless us; He will bless the house of Israel; He will bless the house of Aaron. <sup>13</sup>He will bless those who fear the LORD, both small and great. <sup>14</sup>The LORD shall increase you and your sons more and more. <sup>15</sup>You are blessed of the LORD who made the heavens and the earth. <sup>16</sup>The heavens, even the heavens, are the LORD's; but the earth He has given to the sons of men. <sup>17</sup>The dead do not praise the LORD, nor do any who go down into silence. <sup>18</sup>But we will bless the LORD from this time forth and forevermore. Praise the LORD!

PSALM 116

<sup>1</sup>I love the LORD, because He hears my voice and my prayers. <sup>2</sup>Because He has bowed down His ear to me, therefore I will call on Him as long as I live. <sup>3</sup>The sorrows of death hemmed me in, and the pains of hell took hold on me; I found trouble and sorrow. <sup>4</sup>Then I called on the name of the LORD; O LORD, I beseech You, deliver my soul. <sup>5</sup>Gracious is the LORD, and righteous; yea, our God is merciful. <sup>6</sup>The LORD keeps the simple; I was brought low, and He helped me. <sup>7</sup>Return to your rest, O my soul; for the LORD has dealt bountifully with you. <sup>8</sup>For You have delivered my soul from death, my eyes from tears, my feet from falling. <sup>9</sup>I will walk before the LORD in the land of the living. <sup>10</sup>I believed, therefore I have spoken; I was greatly afflicted; <sup>11</sup>I said in my haste, All men are liars. <sup>12</sup>What shall I give to the LORD for all His benefits toward me? <sup>13</sup>I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the LORD. <sup>14</sup>I will pay my vows to the LORD now in the presence of all His people.

<sup>15</sup>Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of His saints. <sup>16</sup>O LORD, truly I am Your servant; I am Your servant, and the son of Your handmaid; You have loosed my bonds. <sup>17</sup>I will offer to You the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call on the name of the LORD. <sup>18</sup>I will pay my vows to the LORD now in the presence of all His people, <sup>19</sup>in the courts of the LORD's house, in the midst of you, O Jerusalem. Praise the LORD!

<sup>1</sup>O praise the LORD, all nations; praise Him, all peoples. <sup>2</sup>For His merciful kindness is great toward us; and the truth of the LORD endures forever. Praise the LORD!

<sup>13</sup>You have thrust hard at me so that I might fall; but the LORD helped me. <sup>14</sup>The LORD is my strength and song, and He is my salvation. <sup>15</sup>The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacle of the righteous; the right hand of the LORD does mighty things. <sup>16</sup>The right hand of the LORD is lifted up; the right hand of the LORD does mighty things. <sup>17</sup>I shall not die, but live and declare the works of the LORD. <sup>18</sup>The LORD has sorely chastened me; but He has not given me over to death. <sup>19</sup>Open to me the gates of righteousness; I will go into them, and I will praise the LORD, <sup>20</sup>this is the gate of the LORD into which the righteous shall enter. <sup>21</sup>I will praise You; for You have heard me, and are my salvation.

<sup>22</sup>The Stone which the builders refused has become the Head of the corner. <sup>23</sup>This is from the LORD; it is marvelous in our eyes. <sup>24</sup>This is the day which the LORD has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it. <sup>25</sup>Save now, I beseech You, O LORD; cause us to prosper now. <sup>26</sup>Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD; we have blessed you out of the house of the LORD. <sup>27</sup>God is the LORD, who gives light to us. Tie the sacrifice with cords to the horns of the altar. <sup>28</sup>You are my God, and I will exalt You; You are my God, I will praise You. <sup>29</sup>Oh give thanks to the LORD; for He is good; for His mercy endures forever.

ALEPH

BETH

<sup>9</sup>With what shall a young man cleanse his way? By taking heed according to Your word. <sup>10</sup>With my all my heart I have sought You; do not let me wander from Your commandments. <sup>11</sup>I have hidden Your word in my heart, so that I might not sin against You. <sup>12</sup>Blessed are You, O LORD; teach me Your statutes. <sup>13</sup>With my lips I have declared all the judgments of Your mouth. <sup>14</sup>I have rejoiced in the way of Your testimonies, as much as in all riches. <sup>15</sup>I will think on Your commandments and have respect to Your ways. <sup>16</sup>I will delight myself in Your statutes; I will not forget Your word.

GIMEL

<sup>17</sup>Deal bountifully with Your servant, that I may live and keep Your word. <sup>18</sup>Open my eyes, so that I may behold wonderful things out of Your law. <sup>19</sup>I am a stranger in the earth; do not hide Your commandments from me. <sup>20</sup>My soul breaks for the longing that it has to Your judgments at all times. <sup>21</sup>You have rebuked the proud who are cursed, who go astray from Your commandments. <sup>22</sup>Remove cursing and scorn from me; for I have kept Your testimonies. <sup>23</sup>Princes also sat and spoke against me; but Your servant thought on Your statutes. <sup>24</sup>Your testimonies also are my delight and my advisers.

DALETH

<sup>25</sup>My soul clings to the dust; give me life according to Your word. <sup>26</sup>I have declared my ways, and You hear me; teach me Your statutes. <sup>27</sup>Make me to understand the way of Your commandments, and I shall talk of Your wonderful works. <sup>28</sup>My soul weeps itself away for grief; strengthen me according to Your word. <sup>29</sup>Remove from me the way of lying; and grant me Your law graciously. <sup>30</sup>I have chosen the way of truth; I have laid Your judgments before me. <sup>31</sup>I have stuck to Your testimonies; O LORD, do not put me to shame. <sup>32</sup>I will run the way of Your commandments, when You shall enlarge my heart.

HE

<sup>33</sup>O LORD, teach me the way of Your statutes, and I shall keep it to the end. <sup>34</sup>Give me understanding, and I shall keep Your law; yea, I shall observe it with all my heart. <sup>35</sup>Cause me to walk in the path of Your commandments; for I delight in them. <sup>36</sup>Bow my heart to Your testimonies, and not to unjust gain. <sup>37</sup>Turn away my eyes from seeing vanity; in Your way give me life. <sup>38</sup>Make Your word sure to Your servant, who is devoted to Your fear. <sup>39</sup>Turn away my shame which I fear; for Your judgments are good. <sup>40</sup>Behold, I have longed after Your commandments; in Your righteousness give me life.

VAU

<sup>41</sup>Let Your mercies come to me, O LORD, even according to Your salvation, according to Your word. <sup>42</sup>And I shall have something to answer him who mocks me; for I trust in Your word. <sup>43</sup>And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth; for I have hoped in Your judgments. <sup>44</sup>And I shall keep Your law continually forever and ever. <sup>45</sup>And I will always walk in a broad place; for I seek Your commandments. <sup>46</sup>I will speak of Your testimonies also before kings, and will not be ashamed. <sup>47</sup>And I will delight myself in Your commandments, which I have loved. <sup>48</sup>And I will lift up my hands to Your commandments which I have loved; and I will think on Your statutes.

ZAYIN

<sup>49</sup>Remember the word to Your servant, on which You have caused me to hope. <sup>50</sup>This is my comfort in my affliction; for Your word has given me life. <sup>51</sup>The proud have utterly scorned me; yet I have not turned aside from Your law. <sup>52</sup>I remembered Your judgments of old, O LORD, and have comforted myself. <sup>53</sup>Horror has taken hold on me because of the wicked who forsake Your law. <sup>54</sup>Your statutes have been my songs in the house of my pilgrimage. <sup>55</sup>I have remembered Your name, O LORD, in the night, and have kept Your law. <sup>56</sup>This I had, because I kept Your commandments.

CHETH

<sup>57</sup>You are my portion, O LORD; I have said that I would keep Your words. <sup>58</sup>I looked for Your favor with all my heart; be merciful to me according to Your word. <sup>59</sup>I thought on my ways, and turned my feet to Your testimonies. <sup>60</sup>I made haste and did not delay to keep Your commandments. <sup>61</sup>The bands of the wicked have robbed me; but I have not forgotten Your law. <sup>62</sup>At midnight I will rise to give thanks to You because of Your righteous judgments. <sup>63</sup>I am a companion of all who fear You, and of those who keep Your commandments. <sup>64</sup>O LORD, the earth is full of Your mercy; teach me Your statutes.

TETH

JOD

<sup>73</sup>Your hands have made me and formed me; give me understanding so that I may learn Your commandments. <sup>74</sup>They who fear You will be glad when they see me; because I have hoped in Your word. <sup>75</sup>I know, O LORD, that Your judgments are right, and that You have afflicted me in faithfulness. <sup>76</sup>I beseech You, let Your merciful kindness be for my comfort, according to Your word to Your servant. <sup>77</sup>Let Your tender mercies come to me so that I may live; for Your law is my delight. <sup>78</sup>Let the proud be ashamed; for they perverted my cause with lying; I will think on Your commandments. <sup>79</sup>Let those who fear You turn to me, and those who have known Your testimonies. <sup>80</sup>Let my heart be sound in Your statutes, so that I may not be ashamed.

KAPH

<sup>81</sup>My soul faints for Your salvation; I hope in Your word. <sup>82</sup>My eyes fail for Your word, saying, When will You comfort me? <sup>83</sup>For I am like a wineskin in the smoke; I do not forget Your statutes. <sup>84</sup>How many are the days of Your servant? When will You carry out judgment on my persecutors me? <sup>85</sup>The proud have dug pits for me, which are not according to Your law. <sup>86</sup>All Your commandments are faithful; they persecute me with lying; help me. <sup>87</sup>They had almost finished me on earth; but I did not forsake Your commandments. <sup>88</sup>According to Your loving-kindness give me life; so shall I keep the testimony of Your mouth.

LAMED

<sup>89</sup>Forever, O LORD, Your word is settled in Heaven. <sup>90</sup>Your faithfulness is to all generations; You have founded the earth, and it remains. <sup>91</sup>They stand to this day according to Your ordinances; for all are Your servants. <sup>92</sup>Unless Your law had been my delight, I should then have perished in my affliction. <sup>93</sup>I will never forget Your commandments; for with them You have given me life. <sup>94</sup>I am Yours, save me; for I have sought Your commandments. <sup>95</sup>The wicked have waited for me to destroy me; but I will think on Your testimonies. <sup>96</sup>I have seen an end to all perfection; Your commandment is exceedingly broad.

MEM

<sup>97</sup>Oh how I love Your law! It is my meditation all the day. <sup>98</sup>Through Your commandments You make me wiser than my enemies, for they are ever with me. <sup>99</sup>I have more understanding than all my teachers; for Your testimonies are my prayer. <sup>100</sup>I understand more than the old men, because I keep Your commandments. <sup>101</sup>I have kept my feet from every evil way, so that I might keep Your word. <sup>102</sup>I have not departed from Your judgments; for You have taught me. <sup>103</sup>How sweet are Your words to my taste! More than honey to my mouth! <sup>104</sup>Through Your commandments I get understanding; therefore I hate every false way.

NUN

<sup>105</sup>Your word is a lamp to my feet, and a light to my path. <sup>106</sup>I have sworn, and I will do it, that I will keep Your righteous judgments. <sup>107</sup>I am afflicted very much; O LORD, give me life according to Your word. <sup>108</sup>I pray You, take the free-will offerings of my mouth, O LORD, and teach me Your judgments. <sup>109</sup>My life is in my hand daily; yet I do not forget Your law. <sup>110</sup>The wicked have laid a snare for me; yet I do not go astray from Your commandments. <sup>111</sup>I have taken Your testimonies as an inheritance forever; for they are the rejoicing of my heart. <sup>112</sup>I have bowed down my heart always to do Your statutes to the end.

SAMECH

<sup>113</sup>I hate doubting thoughts; but Your law do I love. <sup>114</sup>You are my hiding-place and my shield; I hope in Your word. <sup>115</sup>Depart from me; you evil-doers; for I will keep the commandments of my God. <sup>116</sup>Uphold me according to Your word, that I may live; and let me not be ashamed of my hope. <sup>117</sup>Hold me up, and I shall be safe; and I will always have respect to Your statutes. <sup>118</sup>You have trampled all those who go astray from Your statutes; for their deceit is falsehood. <sup>119</sup>You put away all the wicked of the earth like waste; therefore I love Your testimonies. <sup>120</sup>My flesh trembles in fear of You; and I am afraid of Your judgments.

AYIN

<sup>121</sup>I have done judgments and justice; leave me not to those who crush me. <sup>122</sup>Be surety for Your servant; let not the proud press me down. <sup>123</sup>My eyes fail for Your salvation, and for the word of Your righteousness. <sup>124</sup>Deal with Your servant according to Your mercy, and teach me Your statutes. <sup>125</sup>I am Your servant; give me understanding, that I may know Your testimonies. <sup>126</sup>It is time for the LORD to work; for they have broken Your law. <sup>127</sup>Therefore I love Your commandments above gold; yea, above fine gold. <sup>128</sup>Therefore I count all Your commandments concerning all things to be right; I hate every false way.

PE

<sup>129</sup>Your testimonies are wonderful; therefore my soul keeps them. <sup>130</sup>The entrance of Your words gives light; it gives understanding to the simple. <sup>131</sup>I opened my mouth and panted; for I longed for Your commandments. <sup>132</sup>Look on me, and be merciful to me, as You usually do to those who love Your name. <sup>133</sup>Order my steps in Your word; and do not let any iniquity rule over me. <sup>134</sup>Deliver me from the harshness of man; and I will keep Your commandments. <sup>135</sup>Make Your face shine on Your servant; and teach me Your statutes. <sup>136</sup>Rivers of water run down my eyes, because they do not keep Your law.

TZADDI

<sup>137</sup>You are righteous, O LORD, and Your judgments are right. <sup>138</sup>You have commanded Your testimonies as very faithful. <sup>139</sup>My zeal has eaten me up, because my enemies have forgotten Your words. <sup>140</sup>Your word is very pure; therefore Your servant loves it. <sup>141</sup>I am small and despised; yet I do not forget Your commandments. <sup>142</sup>Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and Your law is the truth. <sup>143</sup>Trouble and anguish have taken hold on me; yet Your commandments are my delight. <sup>144</sup>The righteousness of Your testimonies is everlasting; give me understanding, and I shall live.

QOPH

<sup>145</sup>I cried with my whole heart; hear me, O LORD; I will keep Your statutes. <sup>146</sup>I cried to You; save me, and I shall keep Your testimonies. <sup>147</sup>I went before the dawning of the morning and cried; I hoped in Your word. <sup>148</sup>My eyes go before the night watches, so that I might think on Your word. <sup>149</sup>Hear my voice according to Your loving-kindness; O LORD, according to Your judgment give me life. <sup>150</sup>They draw near, those who follow after wickedness; they are far from Your law. <sup>151</sup>You are near, O LORD, and all Your commandments are truth. <sup>152</sup>Concerning Your testimonies, I have known of old that You have founded them forever.

RESH

<sup>153</sup>Look on my affliction, and deliver me; for I do not forget Your law. <sup>154</sup>Plead my cause, and deliver me; according to Your word give me life. <sup>155</sup>Salvation is far from the wicked, for they do not seek Your statutes. <sup>156</sup>Great are Your tender mercies, O LORD; according to Your judgments give me life. <sup>157</sup>Many are my persecutors and my enemies, yet I do not turn aside from Your testimonies. <sup>158</sup>I saw the traitors, and was grieved because they did not keep Your word. <sup>159</sup>See how I love Your commandments; O LORD, according to Your loving-kindness give me life. <sup>160</sup>Your word is true from the beginning; and every one of Your righteous judgments endures forever.

SHIN

<sup>161</sup>Princes have persecuted me without a cause, but my heart stands in fear of Your word. <sup>162</sup>I rejoice at Your word, as one who finds great spoil. <sup>163</sup>I hate and despise lying; but I love Your law. <sup>164</sup>I praise You seven times a day because of Your righteous judgments. <sup>165</sup>They have great peace, those who have Your law; and nothing shall offend them. <sup>166</sup>LORD, I have hoped for Your salvation, and have done Your commandments. <sup>167</sup>My soul has kept Your testimonies; and I love them very much. <sup>168</sup>I have kept Your commandments and Your testimonies; for all my ways are before You.

TAU

<sup>169</sup>Let my cry come near to You, O LORD; give me wisdom according to Your word. <sup>170</sup>Let my prayer come before You; deliver me according to Your word. <sup>171</sup>My lips shall utter praise, when You have taught me Your statutes. <sup>172</sup>My tongue shall speak Your word; for all Your commandments are righteousness. <sup>173</sup>Let Your hand help me; for I have chosen Your precepts. <sup>174</sup>I have longed for Your salvation, O LORD; and Your law is my delight. <sup>175</sup>Let my soul live, and it shall praise You; and let Your judgments help me. <sup>176</sup>I have gone astray like a lost sheep; seek Your servant; for I do not forget Your commandments.

PSALM 120

A Song of degrees.

<sup>1</sup>In my trouble I cried to the LORD, and He heard me. <sup>2</sup>Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips, from a deceitful tongue. <sup>3</sup>What shall be given to you? Or what shall be done to you, O false tongue? <sup>4</sup>Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of broom.

<sup>5</sup>Woe is me, that I live in Mesech, I dwell in the tents of Kedar! <sup>6</sup>My soul has long dwelt with a hater of peace. <sup>7</sup>I am for peace; but when I speak, they are for war.

PSALM 121

A Song of degrees.

<sup>1</sup>I will lift up my eyes to the hills. Where shall my help come from? <sup>2</sup>My help comes from the LORD, who made Heaven and earth. <sup>3</sup>He will not allow your foot to be moved; He who keeps you will not slumber. <sup>4</sup>Behold, He who keeps Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. <sup>5</sup>The LORD is your keeper; the LORD is your shade on your right hand. <sup>6</sup>The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night. <sup>7</sup>The LORD shall keep you from all evil; He shall keep your soul. <sup>8</sup>The LORD shall keep your going out and your coming in from this time forth, and even forevermore.

PSALM 122

A Song of degrees; of David.

PSALM 123

A Song of degrees.

<sup>1</sup>To You I lift up my eyes, O Dweller in Heaven. <sup>2</sup>Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their masters; as the eyes of a maiden to the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait on the LORD our God, until He shall have mercy on us. <sup>3</sup>Have mercy on us, O LORD, have mercy on us; for we are exceedingly filled with scorn. <sup>4</sup>Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those who are at ease, and with the scorn of the proud.

PSALM 124

A Song of degrees; of David.

<sup>1</sup>Except that it was the LORD who was for us, O may Israel say; <sup>2</sup>Except that it was the LORD who was for us when men rose up against us, <sup>3</sup>then they would have swallowed us up alive, when their wrath was kindled against us; <sup>4</sup>then the waters would have flowed over us, the stream would have gone over our soul; <sup>5</sup>then the proud waters would have gone over our soul. <sup>6</sup>Blessed be the LORD, who has not given us as a prey to their teeth. <sup>7</sup>Our soul has escaped like a bird out of the snare of the fowlers; the snare is broken, and we have escaped. <sup>8</sup>Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made Heaven and earth.

PSALM 125

A Song of degrees.

A Song of degrees.

<sup>1</sup>When the LORD turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like those who dream. <sup>2</sup>Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing; then they said among the nations, The LORD has done great things with them. <sup>3</sup>The LORD has done great things to work with us; we are glad. <sup>4</sup>Turn again our captivity, O LORD, as the streams in the south. <sup>5</sup>Those who sow in tears shall reap in joy. <sup>6</sup>He who goes forth and weeps, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

A Song of degrees for Solomon.

PSALM 128

A Song of degrees.

<sup>1</sup>Blessed is everyone who fears the LORD, who walks in His ways. <sup>2</sup>For you shall surely eat the labor of your hands; you shall be happy, and all is well with you. <sup>3</sup>Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine by the sides of your house; your sons shall be like olive plants around your table. <sup>4</sup>Behold! So shall the man be blessed who fears the LORD. <sup>5</sup>The LORD shall bless you out of Zion; and you shall see the good of Jerusalem all the days of your life. <sup>6</sup>Yea, you shall see the sons of your sons. Peace be on Israel.

PSALM 129

A Song of degrees.

<sup>1</sup>Many times they have afflicted me from my youth, Israel may now say; <sup>2</sup>many times they have afflicted me from my youth; yet they have not prevailed over me. <sup>3</sup>The plowers plowed on my back; they made their furrows long. <sup>4</sup>The LORD is righteous; He cuts the cords of the wicked in two. <sup>5</sup>Let them all be ashamed and turned back, those who hate Zion. <sup>6</sup>Let them be like the grass on the housetops, which dries up before it grows up, <sup>7</sup>with which the reaper does not fill his hand, nor the binder of sheaves his bosom.

<sup>8</sup>And those who pass by have never said, The blessing of the LORD be on you; we bless you in the name of the LORD.

PSALM 130

A Song of degrees.

<sup>1</sup>Out of the depths I have cried to You, O LORD. <sup>2</sup>Lord, hear my voice; and let Your ears listen to the voice of My prayers. <sup>3</sup>O LORD, if iniquities were marked by You, O Lord, who could stand? <sup>4</sup>But there is forgiveness with You, that You may be feared. <sup>5</sup>I wait for the LORD, my soul waits, and in His word I hope. <sup>6</sup>My soul waits for the LORD more than morning-watchers who are watching for the morning. <sup>7</sup>Let Israel hope in the LORD; for with the LORD there is mercy, and with Him is plentiful redemption. <sup>8</sup>And He shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

PSALM 131

A Song of degrees; of David.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, my heart is not proud, nor my eyes lofty; nor have I walked in great things, nor in things too wondrous for me. <sup>2</sup>Surely I have behaved and have quieted my soul, as one weaned by its mother; my soul on me is like one weaned. <sup>3</sup>Let Israel hope in the LORD from this moment and forever.

PSALM 132

A Song of degrees.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, remember David and all his afflictions, <sup>2</sup>how he swore to the LORD; he vowed to the mighty One of Jacob. <sup>3</sup>Surely I will not come into the tent of my house, nor go up into my bed; <sup>4</sup>I will not give sleep to my eyes, or slumber to my eyelids, <sup>5</sup>until I find out a place for the LORD, a dwelling-place for the mighty One of Jacob. <sup>6</sup>Lo, we heard of it at Ephratah; we found it in the fields of the wood. <sup>7</sup>We will go into His dwellings; we will worship at His footstool. <sup>8</sup>Arise, O LORD, into Your rest; You, and the ark of Your strength. <sup>9</sup>Let Your priests be clothed with righteousness, and Your saints shout for joy. <sup>10</sup>For Your servant David's sake, turn not away the face of Your anointed. <sup>11</sup>The LORD has sworn to David in truth; He will not turn from it; Of the fruit of your body I will set on your throne. <sup>12</sup>If your sons will keep My covenant and My testimonies that I shall teach them, their sons shall also sit on your throne forever.

<sup>13</sup>The LORD has chosen Zion; He has desired it for His dwelling-place. <sup>14</sup>This is My rest forever; here I will dwell; for I have desired it. <sup>15</sup>I will greatly bless her food; I will satisfy her poor with bread. <sup>16</sup>I also will clothe her priests with salvation; and her saints shall shout aloud for joy. <sup>17</sup>There I will make the horn of David to bud; I have prepared a lamp for My anointed. <sup>18</sup>I will clothe his enemies with shame; but his crown shall shine on him.

PSALM 133

A Song of degrees; of David.

<sup>1</sup>Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to dwell together in unity! <sup>2</sup>It is like the precious ointment on the head, that ran down on the beard, even Aaron's beard; that went down to the skirts of his garments; <sup>3</sup>like the dew of Hermon and like the dew that came down on the mountains of Zion; for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life forevermore.

PSALM 134

A Song of degrees.

<sup>1</sup>Behold, bless the LORD, all servants of the LORD, who stand by night in the house of the LORD. <sup>2</sup>Lift up your hands in the sanctuary, and bless the LORD. <sup>3</sup>May the LORD, who made Heaven and earth, bless you out of Zion.

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD! Praise the name of the LORD; praise Him, servants of the LORD. <sup>2</sup>Those who stand in the house of the LORD, in the courts of the house of our God, <sup>3</sup>praise the LORD; for the LORD is good; sing praises to His name, for it is full of delight. <sup>4</sup>For the LORD has chosen Jacob to Himself, and Israel for His peculiar treasure. <sup>5</sup>For I know that the LORD is great, and that our LORD is above all gods. <sup>6</sup>Everything the LORD pleased, that He did in the heavens and in earth, and in the seas and all deep places. <sup>7</sup>He causes the vapors to rise from the end of the earth; He makes lightnings for the rain; He brings wind out of His treasures. <sup>8</sup>He who struck the first-born of Egypt, both of man and animal; <sup>9</sup>who sent signs and wonders into your midst, O Egypt, on Pharaoh and on all his servants; <sup>10</sup>who struck great nations and killed mighty kings, <sup>11</sup>Sihon king of the Amorites, and Og king of Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Canaan, <sup>12</sup>and gave their land as an inheritance, an inheritance to Israel His people. <sup>13</sup>Your name, O LORD, endures forever, and Your memorial, O LORD, throughout all generations. <sup>14</sup>For the LORD will judge His people, and He will pity His servants.

<sup>15</sup>The idols of the nations are silver and gold, the work of men's hands. <sup>16</sup>They have mouths, but they do not speak; they have eyes, but they do not see; <sup>17</sup>they have ears, but they do not hear; nor is there any breath in their mouths. <sup>18</sup>Those who make them are like them; so is everyone who trusts in them. <sup>19</sup>Bless the LORD, O house of Israel; bless the LORD, O house of Aaron; <sup>20</sup>bless the LORD, O house of Levi; you who fear the LORD, bless the LORD. <sup>21</sup>Blessed be the LORD out of Zion, who dwells at Jerusalem. Praise the LORD!

Pharaoh and his army in the Red Sea; for His mercy endures forever. <sup>16</sup>To Him who led His people through the wilderness; for His mercy endures forever. <sup>17</sup>To Him who struck great kings; for His mercy endures forever; <sup>18</sup>and killed famous kings; for His mercy endures forever: <sup>19</sup>Sihon king of the Amorites; for His mercy endures forever; <sup>20</sup>and Og the king of Bashan; for His mercy endures forever; <sup>21</sup>and gave their land for an inheritance; for His mercy endures forever; <sup>22</sup>even an inheritance to Israel His servant; for His mercy endures forever. <sup>23</sup>Who remembered us in our low estate; for His mercy endures forever; <sup>24</sup>and has redeemed us from our enemies; for His mercy endures forever. <sup>25</sup>Who gives food to all flesh; for His mercy endures forever. <sup>26</sup>Oh give thanks to the God of Heaven; for His mercy endures forever.

PSALM 137

<sup>1</sup>We sat down by the rivers of Babylon; also, we wept when we remembered Zion. <sup>2</sup>We hung our lyres on the willows in its midst. <sup>3</sup>For there our captors demanded a song from us; and our plunderers demanded gladness, saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zion. <sup>4</sup>How shall we sing the LORD's song in a foreign land? <sup>5</sup>If I forget you, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget. <sup>6</sup>If I do not remember you, let my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth; if I do not prefer Jerusalem above my chief joy. <sup>7</sup>Remember, O LORD, the sons of Edom in the day of Jerusalem; who said, Make it bare! Make it bare, even to the foundation of it! <sup>8</sup>O daughter of Babylon, O destroyed one! Blessed is he who will repay to you your reward which you rewarded to us. <sup>9</sup>Blessed is he who seizes and dashes your little ones against the stones.

PSALM 138

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I will praise You with my whole heart; before the gods I will sing praise to You. <sup>2</sup>I will worship toward Your holy temple, and praise Your name for Your loving-kindness and for Your truth's sake; for You have magnified Your word above all Your name. <sup>3</sup>In the day when I cried You answered me and made me bold with strength in my soul. <sup>4</sup>All the kings of the earth shall praise You, O LORD, when they hear the words of Your mouth. <sup>5</sup>Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the LORD; for great is the glory of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>Though the LORD is high, yet He has respect to the lowly; but the proud He knows afar off. <sup>7</sup>If I walk in the midst of trouble, You will give me life; You shall stretch forth Your hand against the wrath of my enemies, and Your right hand shall save me. <sup>8</sup>The LORD will perfect His work in me; Your mercy, O LORD, endures forever; do not forsake the work of Your own hands.

To the Chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, You have searched me and have known me. <sup>2</sup>You know my sitting down and my rising up; You understand my thought afar off. <sup>3</sup>You search my path and my lying down, and are acquainted with all my ways. <sup>4</sup>For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, You know it altogether. <sup>5</sup>You have closed me in behind and in front, and laid Your hand on me. <sup>6</sup>Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot go up to it. <sup>7</sup>Where shall I go from Your Spirit? Or where shall I flee from Your presence? <sup>8</sup>If I go up into Heaven, You are there; if I make my bed in hell, behold, You are there. <sup>9</sup>If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the furthest parts of the sea; <sup>10</sup>even there shall Your hand lead me, and Your right hand shall hold me. <sup>11</sup>If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me, even the night shall be light around me. <sup>12</sup>Yea, the darkness does not hide from

You; but the night shines as the day; as is the darkness, so is the light to You. <sup>13</sup>For You have possessed my inward parts; You have covered me in my mother's womb. <sup>14</sup>I will praise You; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; Your works are marvelous and my soul knows it very well. <sup>15</sup>My bones were not hidden from You when I was made in secret and skillfully formed in the lowest parts of the earth. <sup>16</sup>Your eyes saw my unformed bones; and in Your book all my members were written, the days they were formed, and none was among them.

<sup>17</sup>How precious also are Your thoughts to me, O God! How great is the sum of them! <sup>18</sup>If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand; when I awake, I am still with You. <sup>19</sup>Surely You will slay the wicked, O God; and bloody men, depart from me. <sup>20</sup>Who will speak against You maliciously? Your enemies are lifted up with vanity. <sup>21</sup>O LORD, do I not hate those who hate You? And am I not grieved with those who rise up against You? <sup>22</sup>I hate them with perfect hatred; I count them my enemies.

<sup>23</sup>Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts, <sup>24</sup>and see if any wicked way is in me; and lead me in the way everlasting.

PSALM 140

To the Chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

<sup>4</sup>O LORD, keep me from the hands of the wicked; keep me from the violent man; these have purposed to overthrow my steps. <sup>5</sup>The proud have hidden cords and a trap for me; they have spread a net by the wayside; they have set snares for me. Selah.

<sup>6</sup>I said to the LORD, You are my God; O LORD, hear the voice of my prayers. <sup>7</sup>O Lord Jehovah, the strength of my salvation, You have covered my head in the day of battle. <sup>8</sup>O LORD, do not grant the desires of the wicked; do not help his wicked plans, lest they praise themselves. Selah.

<sup>9</sup>As for the head of those around me, let the evil of their own lips cover them. <sup>10</sup>Let burning coals fall on them; let them be cast into the fire; into deep pits, so that they do not rise up again. <sup>11</sup>Do not let an evil speaker be established in the earth; evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him. <sup>12</sup>I know that the LORD will maintain the cause of the afflicted and the right of the poor. <sup>13</sup>Surely the righteous shall give thanks to Your name; the upright shall dwell in Your presence.

PSALM 141

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, I cry to You; make haste to me, give ear to my voice when I cry to You. <sup>2</sup>Let my prayer be set forth before You as incense, and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice. <sup>3</sup>Set a watch, O LORD, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips. <sup>4</sup>Let not my heart turn aside to any evil thing, to practice wicked works with men who work iniquity; and let me not eat of their delights. <sup>5</sup>Let the righteous strike me; it shall be a kindness; and let him correct me; let not my head refuse such excellent oil; for still my prayer also shall be because of their wickedness. <sup>6</sup>When their judges are overthrown in stony places, they shall hear my words; for they are sweet. <sup>7</sup>Our bones are scattered at the grave's mouth, as when one cuts and splits wood on the earth.

<sup>8</sup>But my eyes are on You, O Lord Jehovah; in You I take refuge, do not leave my soul naked. <sup>9</sup>Keep me from the snares which they have laid for me, and the snares of the workers of evil. <sup>10</sup>Let the wicked fall into their own nets, while I escape.

PSALM 142

An Instruction of David; A Prayer when he was in the cave.

<sup>1</sup>I cried to the LORD with my voice; with my voice I prayed to the LORD. <sup>2</sup>I poured out my prayer before Him; I declared my trouble before Him. <sup>3</sup>When my spirit became weak within me, then You know my path. In the way in which I walked they have secretly laid a snare for me. <sup>4</sup>I looked on my right hand, and I watched, but there was no man who would know me; escape was lost to me; no man cared for my soul. <sup>5</sup>I cried to You, O LORD; I said, You are my refuge and my portion in the land of the living.

<sup>6</sup>Hear my cry; for I am brought very low; deliver me from my pursuers; for they are stronger than I. <sup>7</sup>Bring my soul out of prison that I may praise Your name; the righteous shall gather around me; for You shall reward me.

PSALM 143

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Hear my prayers O LORD; give ear to my prayers; in Your faithfulness and in Your righteousness answer me. <sup>2</sup>And do not enter into judgment with Your servant, for in Your sight no man living shall be justified. <sup>3</sup>For the enemy has pursued my soul; he has beaten my life down to the ground; he has made me dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead. <sup>4</sup>And my spirit has become weak within me; my heart has become weary within me. <sup>5</sup>I remember the days of old; I think on all Your works; I would speak on the work of Your hands. <sup>6</sup>I stretch forth my hands to You; my soul thirsts after You like a thirsty land. Selah.

<sup>7</sup>Hear me quickly, O LORD; my spirit fails; do not hide Your face from me, lest I be like those who go down into the Pit. <sup>8</sup>Cause me to hear Your loving-kindness in the morning; for I do trust in You; cause me to know the way in which I should walk; for I lift up my soul to You. <sup>9</sup>Deliver me, O LORD, from my enemies; I flee to You to hide me. <sup>10</sup>Teach me to do Your will; for You are my God; Your Spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness. <sup>11</sup>O LORD, for Your name's sake make me live; for Your righteousness' sake, bring my soul out of trouble. <sup>12</sup>And out of Your mercy cut off my enemies, and destroy all those who afflict my soul; for I am Your servant.

PSALM 144

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Blessed be the LORD my strength, who teaches My hands for war, my fingers to battle. <sup>2</sup>He is my goodness and my fortress; my high tower and my deliverer; my shield and He in whom I trust; who humbles my people under me. <sup>3</sup>O LORD, what is man that You take knowledge of him! Or the son of man, that You esteem him? <sup>4</sup>Man is like vanity; his days are like a shadow that passes away. <sup>5</sup>Bow down Your heavens, O LORD, and come down; touch the mountains, and they shall smoke. <sup>6</sup>Cast forth lightning and scatter them; shoot out Your arrows and destroy them. <sup>7</sup>Send Your hand from above; rescue me, and deliver me out of great waters, from the hand of strange children; <sup>8</sup>because their mouth has spoken vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of lies. <sup>9</sup>I will sing a new song to You, O God; on a harp of ten strings I will sing praises to You. <sup>10</sup>It is You who gives salvation to kings; who delivers David His servant from the hurtful sword. <sup>11</sup>Rescue me, and deliver me from the hand of foreigner's sons, because their mouth has spoken vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood; <sup>12</sup>so that our sons may be like plants grown up in their youth; and our daughters may be like corner-stones, polished like a palace building; <sup>13</sup>and our storehouses may be full, furnishing kind to kind; and our flocks may breed thousands and ten thousands outside; <sup>14</sup>and our oxen may be loaded; strong to labor; so that there is no break in nor going out; and no crying in our streets. <sup>15</sup>Blessed is that people who is so; blessed is that people whose God is the LORD.

PSALM 145

<sup>1</sup>I will lift You up, my God, O King; and I will bless Your name forever and ever. <sup>2</sup>Every day I will bless You; and I will praise Your name forever and ever. <sup>3</sup>Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and there is no searching out His greatness. <sup>4</sup>One generation shall praise Your works to another, and shall declare Your mighty acts. <sup>5</sup>I will speak of the glorious honor of Your majesty, and of Your wonderful works. <sup>6</sup>And men shall speak of the might of Your fearful acts; and I will declare Your greatness. <sup>7</sup>They shall pour forth the memory of Your great goodness, and shall sing of Your righteousness. <sup>8</sup>The LORD is gracious and full of pity; slow to anger, and of great mercy. <sup>9</sup>The LORD is good to all; and His tender mercies are over all His works. <sup>10</sup>All Your works shall praise You, O LORD; and Your saints shall bless You. <sup>11</sup>They shall speak of the glory of Your kingdom and talk of Your power, <sup>12</sup>to make known to the sons of men His mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of His kingdom. <sup>13</sup>Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and Your rule endures throughout all generations. <sup>14</sup>The LORD upholds all who fall, and raises up all those who are bowed down. <sup>15</sup>The eyes of all wait on You; and You give them their food in due season. <sup>16</sup>You open Your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing. <sup>17</sup>The LORD is righteous in all His ways and holy in all His works. <sup>18</sup>The LORD is near all those who call on Him, all those who call on Him in truth. <sup>19</sup>He will fulfill the desire of those who fear Him; He also will hear their cry, and will save them. <sup>20</sup>The LORD preserves all those who love Him; but all the wicked He will destroy. <sup>21</sup>My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD; and let all flesh bless His holy name forever and ever.

PSALM 146

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD. Praise the LORD, O my soul. <sup>2</sup>While I live I will praise the LORD; I will sing praises to my God while I have any being. <sup>3</sup>Do not put your trust in princes, nor in the son of man in whom there is no help. <sup>4</sup>His breath goes forth; he returns to the earth; in that very day his thoughts perish. <sup>5</sup>Blessed is he who has the God of Jacob for his help, whose help is in the LORD his God, <sup>6</sup>who made heaven and earth, the sea and all that is in it; who keeps truth forever; <sup>7</sup>who carries out judgment for the mistreated; who gives food to the hungry. The LORD lets the prisoners loose; <sup>8</sup>the Lord opens the eyes of the blind; the LORD raises those who are bowed down; the LORD loves the righteous; <sup>9</sup>the LORD preserves the strangers; He relieves the orphan and widow; but the way of the wicked He turns upside down.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD shall reign forever, even your God, O Zion, to all generations. Praise the LORD!

PSALM 147

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD; for it is good to sing praises to our God; for praise is delightful and becoming. <sup>2</sup>The LORD builds up Jerusalem; He gathers together the outcasts of Israel. <sup>3</sup>He heals the broken-hearted, and binds up their wounds. <sup>4</sup>He appoints the number of the stars; He calls them all by their names. <sup>5</sup>Great is our LORD, and of great power; His understanding cannot be told. <sup>6</sup>The LORD lifts up the meek; He throws the wicked down to the ground. <sup>7</sup>Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving; sing praise on the harp to our God, <sup>8</sup>who covers the heavens with clouds, who prepares rain for the earth, who makes grass to grow on the mountains. <sup>9</sup>He gives the beast its food, and to the young ravens which cry. <sup>10</sup>He

delights not in the strength of the horse; He takes no pleasure in the legs of a man. <sup>11</sup>The LORD takes pleasure in those who fear Him, who hope in His mercy. <sup>12</sup>Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem; praise your God, O Zion. <sup>13</sup>For He has made the bars of your gates strong; He has blessed your sons within you. <sup>14</sup>He makes peace in your borders and fills you with the finest of the wheat. <sup>15</sup>He sends forth His commandment on earth; His word runs very swiftly. <sup>16</sup>He gives snow like wool; He scatters the hoar-frost like ashes. <sup>17</sup>He casts forth His ice like crumbs; who can stand before His cold? <sup>18</sup>He sends out His word and melts them; He causes His wind to blow, and the waters flow. <sup>19</sup>He shows His word to Jacob, His statutes and His judgments to Israel. <sup>20</sup>He has not done so with any nation; and they have not known His judgments. Praise the LORD!

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD! Praise the LORD from the heavens; praise Him in the heights. <sup>2</sup>Praise Him, all His angels; praise Him, all His hosts. <sup>3</sup>Praise Him, sun and moon; praise Him, all you stars of light. <sup>4</sup>Praise Him, heavens of heavens, and waters that are above the heavens. <sup>5</sup>Let them praise the name of the LORD; for He commanded, and they were created. <sup>6</sup>He has also settled them forever and ever; He has made a decree which shall not pass away. <sup>7</sup>Praise the LORD from the earth you sea-monsters, and all deeps; <sup>8</sup>fire and hail, snow and vapor, stormy wind fulfilling His word, <sup>9</sup>mountains and all hills, fruitful trees and all cedars, <sup>10</sup>beasts and all cattle, creeping things and birds of the wing, <sup>11</sup>kings of the earth and all people, princes and all judges of the earth, <sup>12</sup>both young men and maidens, old men and children; <sup>13</sup>let them praise the name of the LORD; for His name alone is excellent; His glory is above the earth and heavens. <sup>14</sup>He also lifts up the horn of His people, the praise of all His saints, even of the sons of Israel, a people near to Him. Praise the LORD!

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD! Sing to the LORD a new song, and His praise in the congregation of saints. <sup>2</sup>Let Israel rejoice in Him who made him; let the sons of Zion be joyful in their king. <sup>3</sup>Let them praise His name in the dance; let them sing praises to Him with the timbrel and harp. <sup>4</sup>For the LORD takes pleasure in His people; He will beautify the meek with salvation. <sup>5</sup>Let the saints be joyful in glory; let them sing aloud on their beds. <sup>6</sup>Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand, <sup>7</sup>to carry out vengeance on the nations and punishments on the peoples, <sup>8</sup>to bind their kings with chains and their nobles with iron-bands, <sup>9</sup>to carry out on them the judgment written; this is an honor for all His saints. Praise the LORD!

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD. Praise God in His sanctuary; praise Him in the expanse of His power. <sup>2</sup>Praise Him for His mighty acts; praise Him according to His excellent greatness. <sup>3</sup>Praise Him with the sound of the trumpet; praise Him with the harp and lyre. <sup>4</sup>Praise Him with the timbrel and dance; praise Him with stringed instruments and pipes. <sup>5</sup>Praise Him on the sounding cymbals; praise Him with the resounding cymbals. <sup>6</sup>Let everything that breathes praise the LORD. Praise the LORD!

THE BOOK OF PROVERBS

<sup>7</sup>The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge; but fools despise wisdom and instruction. <sup>8</sup>My son, hear the instruction of your father, and forsake not the law of your mother; <sup>9</sup>for they shall be an ornament of grace to your head and chains around your neck.

<sup>10</sup>My son, if sinners lure you, do not be willing. <sup>11</sup>If they say, Come with us, let us lie in wait for blood, we will watch secretly for the innocent without cause; <sup>12</sup>let us swallow them up alive as the grave, and whole, as those who go down into the pit; <sup>13</sup>we shall find all precious goods; we shall fill our houses with plunder; <sup>14</sup>cast in your lot among us, and let us have one purse. <sup>15</sup>My son, do not walk in the way with them! Keep back your foot from their path, <sup>16</sup>for their feet run to evil and make haste to shed blood. <sup>17</sup>Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird, <sup>18</sup>And they lie in wait for their own blood; they watch secretly for their own lives. <sup>19</sup>So are the ways of everyone who gains unjust gain; it takes away its owners' life.

<sup>20</sup>Wisdom cries outside; she utters her voice in the streets; <sup>21</sup>she cries in the chief place of gathering, in the openings of the gates; in the city she utters her words, saying, <sup>22</sup>How long will you love simplicity, simple ones? And how long will scorners delight in their scorning? And will fools hate knowledge? <sup>23</sup>Turn at my warning; behold, I will pour out my Spirit to you; I will make my words known to you. <sup>24</sup>Because I have called, and you have refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no one paid attention; <sup>25</sup>but you have despised all my advice, and would have none of my warning. <sup>26</sup>I also will laugh at your trouble; I will mock when your fear comes; <sup>27</sup>when your fear comes as a wasting away, and your ruin comes like a whirlwind; when trouble and pain come upon you. <sup>28</sup>Then they shall call upon me, and I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me; <sup>29</sup>instead they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the LORD. <sup>30</sup>They would have none of my counsel; they despised all my correction, <sup>31</sup>and they shall eat the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own desires. <sup>32</sup>For the turning away of the simple kills them, and the ease of fools destroys them. <sup>33</sup>But whoever listens to me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>My son, if you will receive My words and hide My commandments with you, <sup>2</sup>so that you attend to wisdom, you shall extend your heart to understanding; <sup>3</sup>yea, if you cry after knowledge and lift up your voice for understanding; <sup>4</sup>if you seek her as silver, and search for her as for hidden treasures, <sup>5</sup>then you shall understand the fear of the LORD and find the knowledge of God. <sup>6</sup>For the LORD gives wisdom; out of His mouth come knowledge and understanding. <sup>7</sup>He lays up sound wisdom for the righteous; He is a shield to those who walk uprightly. <sup>8</sup>He keeps the paths of judgment, and guards the way of His saints. <sup>9</sup>Then you shall understand righteousness and judgment and honesty, every good path. <sup>10</sup>When wisdom enters into your heart, and knowledge is pleasing to your soul; <sup>11</sup>judgment shall keep you, understanding shall keep you, <sup>12</sup>to deliver you from the way of the evil man, from the man who speaks wicked things; <sup>13</sup>those who leave the paths of uprightness to walk in the ways of darkness, <sup>14</sup>who rejoice to do evil and delight in the sinfulness of the wicked; <sup>15</sup>whose ways are crooked, and are devious in their paths. <sup>16</sup>They will deliver you from the strange woman, the stranger who flatters with her words, <sup>17</sup>who forsakes the guide of her youth and forgets the covenant of her God. <sup>18</sup>For her house bows down to death, and her paths to the dead. <sup>19</sup>All who go in to her do not return again, nor do they take hold of the paths of life, <sup>20</sup>in order that you may walk in the way of good and keep the paths of the righteous. <sup>21</sup>For the upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it. <sup>22</sup>But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be rooted out of it.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>My son, forget not My law; but let your heart keep My commandments; <sup>2</sup>for they shall add length of days, and long life, and peace, to you. <sup>3</sup>Let not mercy and truth forsake you; tie them around your neck; write them upon the tablet of your heart; <sup>4</sup>and you shall find favor and good understanding in the sight of God and man. <sup>5</sup>Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and lean not to your own understanding. <sup>6</sup>In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths. <sup>7</sup>Do not be wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD and depart from evil. <sup>8</sup>Healing shall he to your navel and marrow to your bones. <sup>9</sup>Honor the LORD with your substance, and with the first-fruits of all your increase; <sup>10</sup>and your barns shall be filled with plenty, and your presses shall burst with new wine. <sup>11</sup>My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD; nor be weary with His correction; <sup>12</sup>for whom the LORD loves He corrects, even as a father corrects the son in whom he delights.

<sup>13</sup>Blessed is the man who finds wisdom, and the man who gets understanding. <sup>14</sup>For the gain from it is better than the gain from silver, and the gain from it more than fine gold; <sup>15</sup>she is more precious than rubies; and all the things you can desire are not to be compared with her. <sup>16</sup>Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand, riches and honor. <sup>17</sup>Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace. <sup>18</sup>She is a tree of life to those who lay hold upon her; and happy is everyone who keeps her. <sup>19</sup>The LORD has founded the earth by wisdom; by understanding He has founded the heavens. <sup>20</sup>By His knowledge the depths are broken up, and the clouds drop down the dew. <sup>21</sup>My son, do not let them depart from your eyes; keep sound wisdom and judgment; <sup>22</sup>and they shall be life to your soul and grace to your neck. <sup>23</sup>Then you shall walk in your way safely, and your foot shall not stumble. <sup>24</sup>When you lie down, you shall not be afraid; yea, you shall lie down, and your sleep shall be sweet. <sup>25</sup>Do not be afraid of sudden fear, nor of the destroying of the wicked, when it comes. <sup>26</sup>For the LORD shall be your hope, and shall keep your foot from being taken.

<sup>27</sup>Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in the power of your hand to do it. <sup>28</sup>Do not say to your neighbor, Go and come back again, and tomorrow I will give; when you have it beside you: <sup>29</sup>Do not plan evil against your neighbor, since he dwells trustingly by you. <sup>30</sup>Do not strive with a man without cause, if he has done you no harm. <sup>31</sup>Do not envy the cruel man, and choose none of his ways. <sup>32</sup>For the crooked man is hateful to the LORD, but His secret is with the righteous. <sup>33</sup>The curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked; but He blesses the home of the just. <sup>34</sup>Surely He scorns the scorners; but He gives grace to the lowly. <sup>35</sup>The wise shall inherit glory; but shame shall be the promotion of fools.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>Children, hear the instruction of a father, and listen in order to know understanding. <sup>2</sup>For I give you good teaching; do not forsake my law. <sup>3</sup>For I was my father's son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother. <sup>4</sup>He also taught me, and said to me, Let your heart hold fast my words, keep my commandments and live. <sup>5</sup>Get wisdom, get understanding; forget not; nor turn away from the words of my mouth. <sup>6</sup>Do not forsake her, and she shall keep you; love her, and she shall keep you. <sup>7</sup>Wisdom is the main thing; get wisdom; and with all your getting get understanding. <sup>8</sup>Prize her, and she shall lift you up; she shall bring you to honor when you embrace her. <sup>9</sup>She shall give to your hand an ornament of grace; a crown of glory she shall deliver to you.

<sup>10</sup>Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; and the years of your life shall be many. <sup>11</sup>I have taught you in the way of wisdom; I have led you in the right paths. <sup>12</sup>When you go, your steps shall not be narrowed; and when you run, you shall not stumble. <sup>13</sup>Take fast hold of instruction; do not let go; keep her; for she is your life. <sup>14</sup>Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not into the way of evil. <sup>15</sup>Avoid it; do not pass by it; turn from it, and pass on! <sup>16</sup>For they do not sleep, except when they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away unless they cause some to fall. <sup>17</sup>For they eat the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence. <sup>18</sup>But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shines more and more to the perfect day. <sup>19</sup>The way of the wicked is as darkness; they know not at what they stumble. <sup>20</sup>My son, listen to my words; bow down your ear to my sayings. <sup>21</sup>Let them not depart from your eyes; keep them in the midst of your heart. <sup>22</sup>For they are life to those who find them, and health to all his flesh.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>My son, listen to my wisdom; bow your ear to my understanding; <sup>2</sup>in order to keep discretion, that your lips may keep knowledge. <sup>3</sup>For the lips of a strange woman drip honey, and her palate is sweeter than oil; <sup>4</sup>but afterward she is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword. <sup>5</sup>Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on hell, <sup>6</sup>lest you should meditate on the path of life, her paths are movable; you cannot know them.

<sup>7</sup>And now hear me, O sons, and do not depart from the words of my mouth. <sup>8</sup>Remove your ways far from her, and do not come near the door of her house, <sup>9</sup>lest you give your honor to others and your years to the cruel; <sup>10</sup>that strangers not be filled with your strength, and your labors be in the house of a stranger; <sup>11</sup>and you moan when your end comes, when your flesh and muscle are eaten away, <sup>12</sup>and say, How I have hated instruction, and my heart despised correction; <sup>13</sup>and I have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor bowed down my ears to those who taught me! <sup>14</sup>I was almost in all evil in the midst of the congregation and assembly.

with her love. <sup>20</sup>And why will you, my son, be ravished with a strange woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger? <sup>21</sup>For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD, and He watches all his paths. <sup>22</sup>His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be held with the cords of his sin. <sup>23</sup>He shall die without instruction; and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>My son, if you are surety for your friend, if you struck your palms with a stranger, <sup>2</sup>you are snared with the words of your mouth, you are taken with the words of your mouth. <sup>3</sup>My son, do this now, and deliver yourself when you have come into the hand of your friend; go, humble yourself and make your friend sure. <sup>4</sup>Do not give sleep to your eyes nor slumber to your eyelids. <sup>5</sup>Deliver yourself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler.

<sup>6</sup>Go to the ant, sluggard; consider her ways and be wise; <sup>7</sup>who, having no guide, overseer, or ruler, <sup>8</sup>provides her food in the summer and gathers her food in the harvest. <sup>9</sup>How long will you sleep, O sluggard? When will you arise out of your sleep? <sup>10</sup>A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to lie down; <sup>11</sup>so shall your poverty come as one who travels, and your need like an armed man. <sup>12</sup>A worthless person, a wicked man walks with a crooked mouth, <sup>13</sup>winking with his eyes, speaking with his feet, teaching with his fingers; <sup>14</sup>perversity is in his heart; he is always planning mischief; he causes fighting. <sup>15</sup>Therefore his calamity shall come suddenly; he is quickly broken, and there is no healing. <sup>16</sup>These six the LORD hates; yea, seven are hateful to Him: <sup>17</sup>a proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, <sup>18</sup>a heart that plots wicked plans, feet hurrying to run to evil; <sup>19</sup>a false witness who speaks lies, and he who causes fighting among brothers.

<sup>20</sup>My son, keep your father's commandments, and do not forsake the law of your mother; <sup>21</sup>bind them upon your heart forever, tie them around your neck. <sup>22</sup>When you go, it shall lead you; when you sleep, it shall keep you; and when you awake, it shall talk with you. <sup>23</sup>For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life; <sup>24</sup>to keep you from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman. <sup>25</sup>Do not lust after her beauty in your heart; nor let her take you with her eyelids. <sup>26</sup>For by means of a harlot a man comes to a piece of bread; and another man's wife will hunt for the precious life. <sup>27</sup>Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned? <sup>28</sup>Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burned? <sup>29</sup>So is he who goes in to his neighbor's wife; whoever touches her shall not be innocent.

<sup>30</sup>They do not despise a thief, if he steals to satisfy his soul when he is hungry; <sup>31</sup>but if he is found, he shall restore sevenfold; he shall give all the goods of his house. <sup>32</sup>Whoever commits adultery with a woman lacks understanding; he who does it destroys his own soul. <sup>33</sup>He shall get a wound and dishonor; and his shame shall not be wiped away. <sup>34</sup>For jealousy is the rage of a man; therefore he will not spare in the day of judgment. <sup>35</sup>He will not take any ransom; nor will he be willing if you multiply the gifts.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>My son, keep my words and store up my commandments within you. <sup>2</sup>Keep my commandments and live; and keep my law as the apple of your eye. <sup>3</sup>Bind them upon your fingers; write them upon the tablets of your heart. <sup>4</sup>Say to wisdom, You are my sister; and call understanding your friend, <sup>5</sup>so that they may keep you from the strange woman, from the stranger who flatters with her words. <sup>6</sup>For at the window of my house I looked through my lattice, <sup>7</sup>and I saw among the simple ones, among the youths, a young man with no understanding, <sup>8</sup>passing through the street near her corner. And he went the way to her house, <sup>9</sup>in the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night. <sup>10</sup>And, behold, there a woman met him, with the dress of a harlot and a guarded heart. <sup>11</sup>She is loud and stubborn; her feet do not stay in her house; <sup>12</sup>now she is outside, now in the streets, and lies in wait at every corner. <sup>13</sup>And she caught him and kissed him, and with a hard face she said to him, <sup>14</sup>I have peace offerings with me; today I have paid my vows. <sup>15</sup>so I came out to meet you, earnestly to seek your face, and I have found you. <sup>16</sup>I have decked my beds with coverings, with striped cloths of Egyptian linen. <sup>17</sup>I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon. <sup>18</sup>Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning; let us delight ourselves with caresses. <sup>19</sup>For my husband is not at home, he has gone on a long journey; <sup>20</sup>he has taken a bag of money with him and will come home at the day of the full moon. <sup>21</sup>With her much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattering of her lips she forced him. <sup>22</sup>He goes after her immediately, like an ox goes to the slaughter, or like a fool to the correction of the stocks; <sup>23</sup>until a dart strikes through his liver; as a bird hastens to the snare and does not know that it is for his soul.

<sup>24</sup>And now listen to me, sons, and attend to the words of my mouth. <sup>25</sup>Do not let your heart turn aside to her ways, do not go astray in her paths. <sup>26</sup>For she has cast down many wounded; yea, many strong men have been slain by her. <sup>27</sup>Her house is the way to hell, going down to the rooms of death.

<sup>12</sup>I, wisdom, dwell with sense, and find out knowledge of wise things. <sup>13</sup>The fear of the LORD is to hate evil; I hate pride, and the love of self, and the evil way, and the wicked mouth. <sup>14</sup>Counsel and sound wisdom are Mine; I am understanding; I have strength. <sup>15</sup>By Me kings reign and princes decree justice. <sup>16</sup>Princes rule by Me, and nobles, all the judges of the earth. <sup>17</sup>I love those who love Me; and those who seek Me early shall find Me. <sup>18</sup>Riches and honor are with Me; enduring riches and righteousness. <sup>19</sup>My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; and what I give is better than choice silver. <sup>20</sup>I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment; <sup>21</sup>I may cause those who love Me to inherit riches; and I will fill their treasuries.

the waters should not pass His command; when He appointed the foundations of the earth; <sup>30</sup>and I was a workman at His side; and I was daily His delight, rejoicing always before Him; <sup>31</sup>rejoicing in the world, His earth; and My delight was with the sons of men.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>Wisdom has built her house; she has carved out her seven pillars; <sup>2</sup>she has killed her beasts; she has mixed her wine; she has also set her table. <sup>3</sup>She has sent out her young women; she cries upon the highest places of the city, <sup>4</sup>The simple one, let him turn in here. To one lacking heart, she says to him, <sup>5</sup>Come, eat of my bread and drink of the wine I have mixed. <sup>6</sup>Forsake the foolish and live; and go in the way of understanding. <sup>7</sup>He who reproves a scorner gets shame to himself; and he who rebukes a wicked man gets himself a blot. <sup>8</sup>Do not reprove a scorner, lest he hate you; give to a wise man, and he will love you. <sup>9</sup>Give to a wise one, and he will be still wiser; teach a just one, and he will increase in learning.

<sup>10</sup>The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; and the knowledge of the holy is understanding. <sup>11</sup>For by Me your days shall be multiplied, and the years of your life shall be increased. <sup>12</sup>If you are wise, you shall be wise for yourself; but if you scorn, you alone shall bear it. <sup>13</sup>A foolish woman is noisy; she is simple and knows nothing. <sup>14</sup>For she sits at the door of her house, in a seat in the high places of the city, <sup>15</sup>to call those who pass by, who are going straight on their ways; <sup>16</sup>The simple one, let him turn in here. And to one lacking heart, she says to him, <sup>17</sup>Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant. <sup>18</sup>But he does not know that the dead are there; her guests are in the depths of hell.

<sup>1</sup>The proverbs of Solomon. A wise son makes a glad father; but a foolish son is the sorrow of his mother. <sup>2</sup>Treasures of wickedness profit nothing; but righteousness delivers from death. <sup>3</sup>The LORD will not allow the soul of the righteous to go hungry; but He casts away the desire of the wicked. <sup>4</sup>He who deals with a lazy hand becomes poor; but the hand of the hard worker makes rich. <sup>5</sup>He who gathers in summer is a wise son; but he who sleeps in harvest is a son who causes shame. <sup>6</sup>Blessings are on the head of the just; but violence covers the mouth of the wicked. <sup>7</sup>The memory of the just is blessed; but the name of the wicked shall rot. <sup>8</sup>The wise in heart will receive commandments; but a babbling fool shall fall. <sup>9</sup>He who walks uprightly walks surely; but he who twists his way shall be known. <sup>10</sup>He who winks with the eye causes sorrow; but a babbling fool shall fall. <sup>11</sup>The mouth of a righteous one is a well of life; but violence covers the mouth of the wicked. <sup>12</sup>Hatred stirs up fights; but love covers all sins. <sup>13</sup>In the lips of him who has understanding, wisdom is found; but a rod is for the back of him who is without understanding. <sup>14</sup>Wise ones store up knowledge; but the mouth of the foolish is near ruin. <sup>15</sup>The rich man's wealth is his strong city; the ruin of the poor is their poverty. <sup>16</sup>The labor of the righteous tends to life; the fruit of the wicked tends to sin. <sup>17</sup>He who keeps instruction is in the way of life; but he who refuses reproof goes astray. <sup>18</sup>He who hides hatred with lying lips, and he who speaks a slander, is a fool. <sup>19</sup>In the multitude of words, sin is not lacking; but he who holds back his lips is wise. <sup>20</sup>The tongue of the just is choice silver; the heart of the wicked is worth little. <sup>21</sup>The lips of the righteous feed many; but fools die for lack of wisdom. <sup>22</sup>The blessing of the LORD itself makes rich, and He adds no sorrow with it. <sup>23</sup>To work out evil devises is as laughter to a fool; so wisdom is to a man of understanding. <sup>24</sup>What the wicked fears shall come upon him; but the desire of the righteous shall be granted. <sup>25</sup>As the storm passes, so the wicked is no more; but the righteous is an everlasting foundation. <sup>26</sup>Like vinegar to the teeth, and like smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to those who send him. <sup>27</sup>The fear of the LORD prolongs days; but the years of the wicked shall be shortened. <sup>28</sup>The hope of the righteous is gladness; but the hope of the wicked shall perish. <sup>29</sup>The way of the LORD is strength to the upright; but ruin is to the workers of iniquity. <sup>30</sup>The righteous shall never be moved; and the wicked shall not live in the earth. <sup>31</sup>The mouth of the just brings forth wisdom; but the perverse tongue shall be cut out. <sup>32</sup>The lips of the righteous know what is pleasing; but the mouth of the wicked what is contrary.

<sup>1</sup>Whoever loves instruction loves knowledge; but he who hates correction is like an animal. <sup>2</sup>The good gets grace from the LORD; but He will condemn a man of wicked thoughts. <sup>3</sup>A man shall not be established by wickedness; but the root of the righteous shall not be moved. <sup>4</sup>A woman of virtue is a crown to her husband; but she who causes shame is like rotteness in his bones. <sup>5</sup>The thoughts of the righteous are right; the counsels of the wicked are deceit. <sup>6</sup>The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood; but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them. <sup>7</sup>The wicked are overthrown, and are gone; but the house of the righteous shall stand. <sup>8</sup>A man shall be praised according to his wisdom; but he who is of a crooked heart shall be despised. <sup>9</sup>Better is a despised one, and having a servant, than he being honored and lacks bread. <sup>10</sup>A righteous one understands the soul of his animal; but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel. <sup>11</sup>He who tills his land shall be satisfied with bread; but he who follows vain persons is without understanding. <sup>12</sup>The wicked desires the net of evil men; but the root of the righteous yields fruit. <sup>13</sup>The wicked is snared by the transgression of his lips; but the just shall come out of trouble. <sup>14</sup>A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth; and the reward of a man's hands shall be given to him. <sup>15</sup>The way of a fool is right in his own eyes; but he who listens to advice is wise. <sup>16</sup>A fool's vexation is known in a day; but the astute one covers shame. <sup>17</sup>He who breathes truth shows forth righteousness; but a false witness deceit. <sup>18</sup>There are those who speak like the thrusts of a sword, but the tongue of the wise heals. <sup>19</sup>The lips of truth shall be established forever; but only while I wink is a lying tongue. <sup>20</sup>Deceit is in the heart of those who imagine evil; but to counselors of peace there is joy. <sup>21</sup>No evil shall happen to the just; but the wicked shall be filled with mischief. <sup>22</sup>Lying lips are hateful to the LORD; but those who deal truly are His delight. <sup>23</sup>A wise man conceals knowledge; but the heart of fools cries out foolishness. <sup>24</sup>The hand of the hard worker shall bear rule, but the lazy shall be under service. <sup>25</sup>Heaviness in the heart of man makes it stoop; but a good word makes it glad. <sup>26</sup>The righteous is more excellent than his neighbor; but the way of the wicked seduces them. <sup>27</sup>The lazy one does not start after his game; but the wealth of a hard worker is precious. <sup>28</sup>In the way of righteousness is life; and in that pathway there is no death.

messenger falls into mischief; but a faithful ambassador is health. <sup>18</sup>Poverty and shame shall be to him who refuses instruction; but he who listens to correction shall be honored. <sup>19</sup>The desire fulfilled is sweet to the soul; but it is hateful to fools to turn from evil. <sup>20</sup>He who walks with the wise shall be wise; but a companion of fools shall be destroyed. <sup>21</sup>Evil pursues sinners; but to the righteous good shall be repaid. <sup>22</sup>A good man leaves an inheritance to his sons' sons; and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just. <sup>23</sup>Much food is in the plowed ground of the poor; but there are those who are destroyed for lack of judgment. <sup>24</sup>He who spares his rod hates his son; but he who loves him chastens him early. <sup>25</sup>The righteous eats to the satisfying of his soul; but the belly of the wicked shall lack.

<sup>1</sup>A wise woman builds her house; but the foolish plucks it down with her hands. <sup>2</sup>He who walks in his uprightness fears the LORD; but he who is perverse in his ways despises Him. <sup>3</sup>In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride; but the lips of the wise shall keep them. <sup>4</sup>Where no oxen are, the crib is empty; but much gain is by the strength of the ox. <sup>5</sup>A faithful witness will not lie; but a false witness will speak lies. <sup>6</sup>A scorner seeks wisdom, and does not find it; but knowledge is easy to him who understands. <sup>7</sup>Go from the presence of a foolish man when you do not see in him the lips of knowledge. <sup>8</sup>The wisdom of the wise is to understand his way; but the folly of fools is deceit. <sup>9</sup>Fools laugh at sin; but among the righteous there is favor. <sup>10</sup>The heart knows its own bitterness; and a stranger does not share in its joy. <sup>11</sup>The house of the wicked shall be overthrown; but the tent of the upright shall be blessed. <sup>12</sup>There is a way which seems right to a man, but the end of it are the ways of death. <sup>13</sup>Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful; and the end of that joy is heaviness. <sup>14</sup>The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways; and a good man shall be satisfied from himself. <sup>15</sup>The simple believes every word; but the wise man watches his step. <sup>16</sup>A wise one fears and departs from evil; but the fool rages and is sure. <sup>17</sup>He who is soon angry deals foolishly; and a man of wicked thoughts is hated. <sup>18</sup>The simple inherit folly; but the wise are crowned with knowledge. <sup>19</sup>The evil bow before the good, and the wicked at the gates of the righteous. <sup>20</sup>The poor is hated even by his own neighbor; but the rich has many friends. <sup>21</sup>He who despises his neighbor sins; but he who has mercy on the poor, happy is he. <sup>22</sup>Do not those who think evil go astray? But mercy and truth shall be to those who think of good. <sup>23</sup>In all labor there is gain; but the talk of the lips tends only to poverty. <sup>24</sup>The crown of the wise is their riches of wisdom; but the foolishness of fools is folly. <sup>25</sup>A true witness delivers souls; but a deceitful witness speaks lies. <sup>26</sup>In the fear of the LORD is strong hope; and His sons shall have a place of refuge. <sup>27</sup>The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life to turn aside from the snares of death. <sup>28</sup>In the multitude of people is the king's honor; but in the lack of people is the ruin of the prince. <sup>29</sup>He who is slow to wrath is of great understanding; but he who is hasty of spirit exalts folly. <sup>30</sup>A sound heart is the life of the flesh; but envy the rottenness of the bones. <sup>31</sup>He who presses the poor curses his Maker; but he who honors Him has mercy upon the poor. <sup>32</sup>The wicked is driven away in his wickedness; but the righteous has hope in his death. <sup>33</sup>Wisdom rests in the heart of him who has understanding; and among fools it is made known. <sup>34</sup>Righteousness lifts up a nation; but sin is a shame to any people. <sup>35</sup>The king's favor is toward a wise servant; but his wrath is against him who causes shame.

<sup>1</sup>The ordering of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the LORD. <sup>2</sup>All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; but the LORD weighs the spirits. <sup>3</sup>Roll your works upon the LORD, and your thoughts shall be blessed. <sup>4</sup>The LORD has made all things for Himself; yea, even the wicked for the day of evil. <sup>5</sup>Everyone proud in heart is hateful to the LORD; though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished. <sup>6</sup>By mercy and truth, iniquity is purged; and by the fear of the LORD men turn away from evil. <sup>7</sup>When a man's ways please the LORD, He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him. <sup>8</sup>Better is a little with righteousness than great gain without right. <sup>9</sup>A man's heart plans his way; but the LORD directs his steps. <sup>10</sup>A divine sentence is in the lips of the king; his mouth does not transgress in judgment. <sup>11</sup>A just weight and balance are the LORD'S; all the weights of the bag are His work. <sup>12</sup>It is a hateful thing for kings to commit wickedness; for the throne is established by righteousness. <sup>13</sup>Righteous lips are the delight of kings; and they love him who speaks right. <sup>14</sup>The wrath of a king is as messengers of death; but a wise man will quiet it. <sup>15</sup>In the light of the king's face is life; and his favor is like a cloud of the latter rain. <sup>16</sup>How much better it is to get wisdom than gold! And to get understanding is rather to be chosen than silver! <sup>17</sup>The way of the upright is to turn away from evil; he who keeps his way guards his soul. <sup>18</sup>Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall. <sup>19</sup>It is better to be of an humble spirit with the lowly than to divide the spoil with the proud. <sup>20</sup>He who handles a matter wisely shall find good; and whoever trusts in the LORD, happy is he. <sup>21</sup>The wise in heart shall be called prudent; and the sweetness of the lips increases learning. <sup>22</sup>Understanding is a fountain of life to him who has it; but the instruction of fools is folly. <sup>23</sup>The heart of the wise teaches his mouth, and adds learning to his lips. <sup>24</sup>Pleasant words are like a honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones. <sup>25</sup>There is a way that seems right to a man, but the end of it are the ways of death. <sup>26</sup>He who labors works for himself; for his mouth craves it from him. <sup>27</sup>An ungodly man plots evil; and his lips are like a burning fire. <sup>28</sup>A perverse man causes fighting; and a whisperer separates chief friends. <sup>29</sup>A violent man lures his neighbor and leads him into the way that is not good. <sup>30</sup>He shuts his eyes to think of crooked things; moving his lips, he brings evil to pass. <sup>31</sup>The gray head is a crown of glory, if it is found in the way of righteousness. <sup>32</sup>He who is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he who rules his spirit is better than he who takes a city. <sup>33</sup>The lot is cast into the lap; but the whole ordering of it is from the LORD.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>1</sup>Better is a dry piece of bread, and quietness with it, than a house full of sacrifices with fighting. <sup>2</sup>A wise servant shall have rule over a son who causes shame, and shall have part of the inheritance among the brothers. <sup>3</sup>The refining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold; but the LORD tries the hearts. <sup>4</sup>A wicked doer gives heed to false lips; and a liar gives ear to an evil tongue. <sup>5</sup>Whoever scorns the poor reviles his Maker; he who is glad at calamities shall not be unpunished. <sup>6</sup>Sons's sons are the crown of old men; and the glory of sons are their fathers. <sup>7</sup>An excellent lip is not fitting for a fool; much less are lying lips fitting for a prince. <sup>8</sup>A bribe is like a precious stone in the eyes of him who has it; wherever it turns, it prospers. <sup>9</sup>He who covers a transgression seeks love; but he who repeats a matter separates friends. <sup>10</sup>A reproof enters more into a wise man than a thousand stripes into a fool. <sup>11</sup>An evil one seeks only rebellion; so a cruel messenger shall be sent against him. <sup>12</sup>Let a bear robbed of her cubs meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly. <sup>13</sup>Whoever rewards evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house. <sup>14</sup>The beginning of strife is like letting out water; therefore leave off fighting, before it is meddled with. <sup>15</sup>He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the just, even both of them are hateful to the LORD. <sup>16</sup>Why is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, since he has no heart for it? <sup>17</sup>A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for the time of trouble. <sup>18</sup>A man lacking heart strikes hands; he pledges in the presence of his friend. <sup>19</sup>He who loves fighting loves transgression; he who makes his gate high seeks ruin. <sup>20</sup>He who has a crooked heart finds no good; and he who has a crooked tongue falls into mischief. <sup>21</sup>He who fathers a fool does it to his sorrow; and the father of a fool has no joy. <sup>22</sup>A merry heart does good like a medicine; but a broken spirit dries the bones. <sup>23</sup>A wicked man takes a bribe out of the bosom to pervert the ways of judgment. <sup>24</sup>Wisdom is before him who has understanding; but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth. <sup>25</sup>A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her who bore him. <sup>26</sup>And it is not good to punish the just, nor to strike princes for uprightness. <sup>27</sup>He who has knowledge uses few words; a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit. <sup>28</sup>Even a fool, when he holds his peace, is counted wise; and he who shuts his lips is counted a man of understanding.

CHAPTER 18

<sup>1</sup>He that separates himself seeks his own desire; he breaks out against all sound wisdom. <sup>2</sup>A fool has no delight in understanding, but only that his heart may lay itself bare. <sup>3</sup>When the wicked comes, scorn also comes, and with shame comes reproach. <sup>4</sup>The words of a man's mouth are like deep waters; the fountain of wisdom is like a flowing brook. <sup>5</sup>It is not good to favor the person of the wicked, nor to overthrow the righteous in judgment. <sup>6</sup>A fool's lips enter into argument, and his mouth calls for strokes. <sup>7</sup>A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul. <sup>8</sup>The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly. <sup>9</sup>Also he who is slack in his work is brother to a great destroyer. <sup>10</sup>The name of the LORD is a strong tower; the righteous man runs into it and is safe. <sup>11</sup>The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as a high wall in his own mind. <sup>12</sup>Before ruin, the heart of man is proud, and before honor is humility. <sup>13</sup>If one answers a matter before he hears it, it is folly and shame to him. <sup>14</sup>The spirit of a man will nourish his sickness; but a wounded spirit who can bear? <sup>15</sup>The heart of the prudent gets knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeks knowledge. <sup>16</sup>A man's bribe makes room for him, and brings him before great men. <sup>17</sup>He who is first in his cause seems just; but his neighbor comes and searches him. <sup>18</sup>The lot causes arguments to cease, and divides between the mighty. <sup>19</sup>A brother offended is like a strong city; and their disagreements are like the bars of a castle. <sup>20</sup>A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; he shall be satisfied with the product of his lips. <sup>21</sup>Death and life are in the power of the tongue; and those who love it shall eat the fruit of it. <sup>22</sup>Whoever finds a wife finds good and gets favor from the LORD. <sup>23</sup>The poor speaks humble requests, but the rich answers roughly. <sup>24</sup>A man who has friends must show himself friendly; and there is a Lover who sticks closer than a brother.

<sup>1</sup>Better is the poor who walks in his honesty than he who is perverse in his lips, and is a fool. <sup>2</sup>Also without knowledge the soul is not good; and he who hurries with his feet sins. <sup>3</sup>The foolishness of man overturns his way; and his heart frets against the LORD. <sup>4</sup>Wealth makes many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbor. <sup>5</sup>A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he who speaks lies shall not escape. <sup>6</sup>Many will beg the favor of a ruler; and all are friends to a man who gives gifts. <sup>7</sup>All the brothers of the poor man hate him; how much more do his friends go far from him? He pursues them with words, yet they are lacking. <sup>8</sup>He who gets wisdom loves his own soul; he who keeps understanding shall find good. <sup>9</sup>A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he who speaks lies shall perish. <sup>10</sup>Luxury is not becoming for a fool; much less for a servant to have rule over princes. <sup>11</sup>The judgment of a man puts off his anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression. <sup>12</sup>The king's wrath is like the roaring of a lion; but his favor is like dew on the grass. <sup>13</sup>A foolish son is ruin to his father; and the quarreling of a wife is a never-ending dripping. <sup>14</sup>Houses and riches are the inheritance of fathers; and a prudent wife is from the LORD. <sup>15</sup>Laziness throws one into a deep sleep; and an idle soul shall suffer hunger. <sup>16</sup>He who keeps the commandment keeps his own soul; he who despises His ways shall die. <sup>17</sup>He who has pity upon the poor lends to the LORD; and He will reward his dealing to him. <sup>18</sup>Chasten your son while there is hope, and do not let your soul spare for his crying. <sup>19</sup>A man of great wrath shall suffer punishment; for if you deliver him yet you must do it again. <sup>20</sup>Hear advice, and receive instruction, so that you may be wise in your later days. <sup>21</sup>There are many purposes in a man's heart; but the counsel of the LORD shall stand. <sup>22</sup>The charm of a man is his kindness; and a poor man is better than a liar. <sup>23</sup>The fear of the LORD tends to life, and he rests satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil. <sup>24</sup>A lazy one puts his hand in a dish, and he will not return it to his mouth. <sup>25</sup>Strike a scorner, and the simple will beware; reprove one who has understanding, and he will understand knowledge. <sup>26</sup>He who assaults his father and chases away his mother is a son who causes shame and brings reproach. <sup>27</sup>My son, cease to hear the instruction, only to stray from the words of knowledge. <sup>28</sup>An ungodly witness scorns judgment; and the mouth of the wicked devours iniquity. <sup>29</sup>Judgments are prepared for scorners, and stripes for the back of fools.

<sup>1</sup>Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whoever is deceived by it is not wise. <sup>2</sup>The fear of a king is as the roaring of a lion; whoever stirs him up to anger sins against his own soul. <sup>3</sup>It is an honor for a man to cease from strife; but every fool will be meddling. <sup>4</sup>The lazy one will not plow; after the autumn he shall beg in harvest and have nothing. <sup>5</sup>Wisdom in the heart of man is like deep water; but a man of understanding will draw it out. <sup>6</sup>Most men will proclaim each his own goodness; but a faithful man who can find? <sup>7</sup>The just man walks in his purity; his sons are blessed after him. <sup>8</sup>A king who sits in the throne of judgment scatters away all evil with his eyes. <sup>9</sup>Who can say, I have made my heart clean; I am pure from my sin? <sup>10</sup>Different kinds of weights, different kinds of measures, both are hateful to the LORD. <sup>11</sup>Even a child is known by his own doings, whether his work is pure and whether it is right. <sup>12</sup>The hearing ear and the seeing eye, the LORD has made both of them. <sup>13</sup>Do not love sleep, lest you come to poverty; open your eyes and you shall be satisfied with bread. <sup>14</sup>It is bad! Bad, says the buyer; but when he has gone his way, then he boasts. <sup>15</sup>There is gold and a multitude of rubies; but the lips of knowledge are a rare jewel. <sup>16</sup>Take the garment of him who is surety for a stranger; and take a pledge from him for a strange woman. <sup>17</sup>Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel. <sup>18</sup>Purposes are established by counsel; and with good advice make war. <sup>19</sup>A gossip is a revealer of secrets; so do not mix with him who flatters with his lips. <sup>20</sup>Whoever curses his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in deep darkness. <sup>21</sup>An inheritance gotten hastily in the beginning, even the end of it shall not be blessed. <sup>22</sup>Do not say, I will repay evil; wait on the LORD, and He will save you. <sup>23</sup>Different kinds of weights are hateful to the LORD, and a false balance is not good. <sup>24</sup>Man's steps are of the LORD; how can a man then understand his own way? <sup>25</sup>It is a snare to a man to say rashly, A holy thing, and afterward vows to ask about it. <sup>26</sup>A wise king scatters the wicked and brings the wheel over them. <sup>27</sup>The spirit of man is the lamp of the LORD, searching all the inward parts of the belly. <sup>28</sup>Mercy and truth preserve the king; and his throne is upheld by mercy. <sup>29</sup>The glory of young men is their strength; and the beauty of old men is the gray head. <sup>30</sup>The stripes of a wound cleanses away evil; and strokes the inward parts of the belly.

wicked desires evil; his neighbor finds no favor in his eyes. <sup>11</sup>When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise; and when the wise is instructed, he receives knowledge. <sup>12</sup>The righteous wisely considers the house of the wicked; but God overthrows the wicked for their wickedness. <sup>13</sup>Whoever stops his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard. <sup>14</sup>A gift in secret quiets anger; and a bribe in the bosom quiets strong wrath. <sup>15</sup>It is joy to the just to do judgment; but terror shall be to the workers of iniquity. <sup>16</sup>The man who wanders out of the way of understanding shall rest in the assembly of departed spirits. <sup>17</sup>He who loves pleasure shall be a poor man; he who loves wine and oil shall not be rich. <sup>18</sup>The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright. <sup>19</sup>It is better to dwell in the wilderness than with a quarrelsome and angry woman. <sup>20</sup>There is treasure to be desired, and oil, and the dwelling of the wise; but a foolish man swallows it up. <sup>21</sup>He who follows after righteousness and mercy finds life, righteousness, and honor. <sup>22</sup>A wise one scales the city of the mighty and brings down the strength of its hope. <sup>23</sup>Whoever keeps his mouth and his tongue keeps his soul from troubles. <sup>24</sup>Proud, haughty scorner is his name, he who deals in proud wrath. <sup>25</sup>The desire of the lazy man kills him, for his hands have refused to work. <sup>26</sup>He covets greedily all the day long; but the righteous gives and spares not. <sup>27</sup>The sacrifice of the wicked is hateful to God; how much more when he brings it with a wicked mind? <sup>28</sup>A false witness shall perish; but the man who hears speaks on and on. <sup>29</sup>A wicked man hardens his face; but as for the upright, he directs his way. <sup>30</sup>There is no wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel against the LORD. <sup>31</sup>The horse is prepared for the day of battle; but safety is from the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>Bow down your ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply your heart to my knowledge. <sup>18</sup>For it is a pleasant thing if you keep them within you; they shall all be fitted in your lips, <sup>19</sup>so that your trust may be in the LORD, I have made known to you this day, even to you. <sup>20</sup>Have I not written to you excellent things in counsel and knowledge, <sup>21</sup>that I might make you know the sureness of the words of truth; that you might answer the words of truth to those who send to you? <sup>22</sup>Do not rob the poor, because he is poor; nor press down the afflicted in the gate; <sup>23</sup>for the LORD will plead their cause, and strip the soul of those who plunder them. <sup>24</sup>Make no friendship with an angry man; and you shall not go up with a man of fury, <sup>25</sup>lest you learn his ways and get a snare to your soul. <sup>26</sup>Be not one of those who strike hands. or of those who are sureties for debts. <sup>27</sup>If you have nothing to pay, why should he take away your bed from under you? <sup>28</sup>Do not remove the old landmark which your fathers have set. <sup>29</sup>Do you see a man diligent in his business? He shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before unknown men.

<sup>1</sup>When you sit down to eat with a ruler, look carefully at what is before you; <sup>2</sup>and put a knife to your throat, if you are a man given to appetite. <sup>3</sup>Do not desire his dainties, for they are deceitful food. <sup>4</sup>Do not labor to be rich; cease from your own understanding. <sup>5</sup>Will your eyes fly on it? And it is gone! For surely it makes wings for itself; it flies into the heavens like an eagle. <sup>6</sup>Do not eat the bread of him who has an evil eye, nor desire his dainty foods; <sup>7</sup>for as he thinks in his heart, so is he; Eat and drink, he says to you; but his heart is not with you. <sup>8</sup>The piece which you have eaten, you shall vomit up, and lose your sweet words. <sup>9</sup>Do not speak in the ears of a fool; for he will despise the wisdom of your words. <sup>10</sup>Do not remove the old landmarks; and do not enter into the fields of the fatherless; <sup>11</sup>for their Redeemer is mighty; He shall plead their cause with you. <sup>12</sup>Apply your heart to instruction and your ears to the words of knowledge. <sup>13</sup>Do not withhold correction from the child, for if you beat him with the rod, he will not die. <sup>14</sup>You shall beat him with the rod, and shall deliver his soul from hell. <sup>15</sup>My son, if your heart is wise, my heart shall rejoice, even mine. <sup>16</sup>Yea, my heart shall rejoice when your lips speak right things. <sup>17</sup>Do not let your heart envy sinners; but be in the fear of the LORD all the day long. <sup>18</sup>For surely there is an end; and your hope shall not be cut off. <sup>19</sup>My son, hear and be wise, and guide your heart in the way. <sup>20</sup>Do not be among those who drink much wine; among those who eat too much, <sup>21</sup>for the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty; and sleepiness shall clothe a man with rags. <sup>22</sup>Listen to your father who fathered you, and do not despise your mother when she is old. <sup>23</sup>Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding. <sup>24</sup>The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice; and he who fathers a wise child shall have joy from him. <sup>25</sup>Your father and your mother shall be glad, and she who bore you shall rejoice. <sup>26</sup>My son, give Me your heart, and let your eyes watch My ways. <sup>27</sup>For a harlot is a deep ditch, and a strange woman is a narrow pit. <sup>28</sup>She also lies in wait as for a prey, and increases the treacherous among men. <sup>29</sup>Who has woe? Who has sorrow? Who has fighting? Who has babbling? Who has wounds without cause? Who has redness of eyes? <sup>30</sup>Those who stay long at the wine; those who go to seek mixed wine. <sup>31</sup>Do not look upon the wine when it is red, when it gives its color in the cup, when it goes down smoothly <sup>32</sup>At the last it bites like an asp and stings like an adder. <sup>33</sup>Your eyes shall look upon strange women and your heart shall speak perverse things. <sup>34</sup>Yes, you shall be as he who lies down in the middle of the sea, or as he who lies upon the top of a mast, <sup>35</sup>saying, They struck me; I was not sick; they have beaten me, I did not feel it. When I awake, I will still go after it again.

of wicked thoughts. <sup>9</sup>The thought of foolishness is sin; and the scorner is hateful to men. <sup>10</sup>If you faint in the day of trial, your strength is small. <sup>11</sup>If you hold back from delivering those who are drawn to death, and those who are ready to be killed; <sup>12</sup>if you say, Behold, we did not know; does not He who searches the heart see? And He who keeps your soul, does He not know? And shall He not give back to every man according to his works?

<sup>13</sup>My son, eat honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet to your taste; <sup>14</sup>so shall the knowledge of wisdom be to your soul; when you have found it, then there shall be a reward, and your hope shall not be cut off. <sup>15</sup>Wicked one, do not lie in ambush at the dwelling of the righteous; do not spoil his resting place; <sup>16</sup>for a just man falls seven times, and rises up again; but the wicked shall fall into evil. <sup>17</sup>Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, and do not let your heart be glad when he stumbles; <sup>18</sup>lest the LORD see, and it displease Him, and He turn away His wrath from him. <sup>19</sup>Do not fret yourself because of evil ones, nor be jealous of the wicked; <sup>20</sup>for there shall be no reward to the evil one; the lamp of the wicked shall be put out. <sup>21</sup>My son, fear the LORD and the king; and do not fellowship with those who are given to change; <sup>22</sup>for their trouble shall rise suddenly, and who knows the ruin of them both?

<sup>23</sup>These are for the wise: To have respect of persons in judgment is not good. <sup>24</sup>He who says to the wicked, You are righteous; the people shall curse him, and nations shall despise him. <sup>25</sup>But to those who rebuke him, it shall be a delight, and a good blessing shall come upon them. <sup>26</sup>He shall kiss the lips that returns right words. <sup>27</sup>Prepare your work outside, and make it fit for yourself in the field; and afterwards build your house. <sup>28</sup>Do not be a witness against your neighbor without cause, or deceive with your lips. <sup>29</sup>Do not say, I will do so to him as he has done to me; I will give to the man according to his work. <sup>30</sup>I went by the field of the lazy man, and by the vineyard of the man without understanding; <sup>31</sup>and, lo, it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face of it, and its stone wall was broken down. <sup>32</sup>Then I saw; I set my heart on it; I looked and I received instruction. <sup>33</sup>A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep; <sup>34</sup>so shall your poverty come as one who travels; and your want like an armed man.

CHAPTER 25

<sup>1</sup>These are also proverbs of Solomon which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out. <sup>2</sup>The glory of God is to hide a thing; but the honor of kings is to search out a matter. <sup>3</sup>The heavens for height, and the earth for depth, but the heart of kings cannot be searched. <sup>4</sup>Take away the dross from the silver, and there shall come forth a vessel for the refiner. <sup>5</sup>Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be founded in righteousness. <sup>6</sup>Do not put yourself forth in the presence of the king, and do not stand in the place of the great; <sup>7</sup>for it is better that it should be said to you, Come up here, than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince whom your eyes have seen. <sup>8</sup>Do not go forth quickly to fight, lest you know not what to do in the end of it, when your neighbor has put you to shame. <sup>9</sup>Debate your cause with your neighbor; and do not uncover a secret to another, <sup>10</sup>lest he who hears it put you to shame, and your evil report turn not away. <sup>11</sup>A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver. <sup>12</sup>As a ring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reprover upon a hearing ear. <sup>13</sup>Like the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to those who send him; for he refreshes his master's soul. <sup>14</sup>Whoever boasts himself of a false gift is like clouds and wind without rain. <sup>15</sup>In being slow to anger a ruler is won over, and a soft tongue breaks the bone. <sup>16</sup>Have you found honey? Eat only as much as is enough for you, lest you be filled with it and vomit it. <sup>17</sup>Withdraw your foot from your neighbor's house, lest he be weary of you and hate you. <sup>18</sup>A man who bears false witness against his neighbor is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow. <sup>19</sup>Trust in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint. <sup>20</sup>As he who takes away a garment in cold weather, as vinegar upon niter, so is he who sings songs to a heavy heart. <sup>21</sup>If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink, <sup>22</sup>for you shall heap coals of fire upon his head, and the LORD shall reward you. <sup>23</sup>The north wind drives away rain; so does an angry face a backbiting tongue. <sup>24</sup>It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop than with a quarreling woman in a wide house. <sup>25</sup>Like cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country. <sup>26</sup>A righteous man falling down before the wicked is like a troubled fountain and a rotten spring. <sup>27</sup>It is not good to eat much honey; so for men to search their own glory is not glory. <sup>28</sup>He who has no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down without a wall.

CHAPTER 26

<sup>1</sup>As snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honor is not becoming for a fool. <sup>2</sup>As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying, so the curse without cause shall not come. <sup>3</sup>A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and a rod for the fool's back. <sup>4</sup>Do not answer a fool according to his foolishness, lest you also be like him. <sup>5</sup>Answer a fool according to his foolishness, so that he may not be wise in his own eyes. <sup>6</sup>He who sends a message by the hand of a fool cuts off the feet and drinks down damage. <sup>7</sup>The legs of the lame are not equal; so is a parable in the mouth of fools. <sup>8</sup>As he who binds a stone in a sling, so is he who gives honor to a fool. <sup>9</sup>As a thorn goes up into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools. <sup>10</sup>Great is the Former of all, but he who hires a fool is like one who hires one passing by. <sup>11</sup>As a dog returns to its vomit, so a fool returns to his folly. <sup>12</sup>Do you see a man wise in his own eyes? There is more hope for a fool than for him. <sup>13</sup>The lazy man says, There is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets. <sup>14</sup>As the door turns upon its hinges, so does the lazy man turn upon his bed. <sup>15</sup>The lazy man hides his hand in his bosom; it grieves him to bring it again to his mouth. <sup>16</sup>The sluggard is wiser in his own eyes than seven men who can give a reason.

<sup>17</sup>He who passes by enraging himself over strife not his own is like one who takes a dog by the ears. <sup>18</sup>As a madman who throws firebrands, arrows, and death, <sup>19</sup>so is the man who deceives his neighbor and says, I am only joking. <sup>20</sup>Where there is no wood, the fire goes out; and where there is no talebearer, the fighting ceases. <sup>21</sup>As coals to burning coals, and wood to fire, so is a quarrelsome man to kindle fighting. <sup>22</sup>The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly. <sup>23</sup>Burning lips and a wicked heart are like a broken piece of pottery with silver waste. <sup>24</sup>He who hates pretends with his lips and stores up deceit within him. <sup>25</sup>When he makes his voice gracious, do not believe him; for seven hateful things are in his heart. <sup>26</sup>He whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be shown before the whole congregation. <sup>27</sup>Whoever digs a pit shall fall into it; and he who rolls a stone, it will return on him. <sup>28</sup>A lying tongue hates those who are afflicted by it; and a flattering mouth works ruin.

CHAPTER 27

<sup>1</sup>Do not boast yourself of tomorrow; for you do not know what a day may bring forth. <sup>2</sup>Let another man praise you, and not your mouth; a stranger, and not your lips. <sup>3</sup>A stone is heavy, and sand is heavy; but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both. <sup>4</sup>Wrath is cruel, and anger is overwhelming; but who is able to stand before envy? <sup>5</sup>Open rebuke is better than secret love. <sup>6</sup>Faithful are the wounds of a friend;

but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful. <sup>7</sup>The full soul despises a honeycomb; but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet. <sup>8</sup>As a bird that wanders from her nest, so is a man who wanders from his place. <sup>9</sup>Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart; so does the sweetness of one's friend by advice from the heart. <sup>10</sup>Your own friend, and your father's friend, do not forsake them; nor go to your brother's house in the day of your trouble; better is a neighbor that is near than a brother far off. <sup>11</sup>My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, so that I may answer him who shames me. <sup>12</sup>A sensible one foresees the evil and hides himself, but the simple pass on and are punished. <sup>13</sup>Take his robe that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge from him for a strange woman. <sup>14</sup>He who blesses his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him. <sup>15</sup>A never-ending dropping in a very rainy day and a quarrelsome woman are alike. <sup>16</sup>Whoever hides her hides the wind, and his right hand encounters slippery oil. <sup>17</sup>Iron sharpens iron; so a man sharpens the face of his friend. <sup>18</sup>Whoever keeps the fig tree shall eat its fruit; so he who waits on his master shall be honored. <sup>19</sup>As in water face answers to face, so the heart of man answers to man. <sup>20</sup>Hell and destruction are never full; so the eyes of man are never satisfied. <sup>21</sup>As the refining pot for silver and the furnace for gold; so is a man to his praise. <sup>22</sup>Though you should pound a fool in a bowl with a bar in the midst of wheat, his foolishness will not depart from him. <sup>23</sup>Be diligent to know the state of your flocks; watch over your herds. <sup>24</sup>For riches are not forever; nor the crown from generation to generation? <sup>25</sup>When the hay is removed, and the tender grass is seen, and mountain-plants are gathered, <sup>26</sup>the lambs are for your clothing, and the goats are the price of the field. <sup>27</sup>And you shall have goats' milk enough for your food, for the food of your household, and a living for your young women.

<sup>12</sup>When the righteous rejoice, there is great glory; but when the wicked rise, a man is hidden. <sup>13</sup>He who covers his sins shall not be blessed; but whoever confesses and leaves them shall have mercy. <sup>14</sup>Blessed is the man dreading God; but he who hardens his heart shall fall into mischief. <sup>15</sup>Like a roaring lion and a ranging bear, so is a wicked ruler over the poor people. <sup>16</sup>A ruler lacking understanding even adds oppressions; but he who hates unjust gain shall prolong his days. <sup>17</sup>A man who is pressed down with the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; do not let them uphold him. <sup>18</sup>Whoever walks uprightly shall be saved; but he who is perverse in his ways shall fall at once. <sup>19</sup>He who tills his land shall have plenty of bread; but he pursuing vanities shall have poverty enough. <sup>20</sup>A faithful man shall overflow with blessings; but he who makes haste to be rich shall not be innocent. <sup>21</sup>To have respect of persons is not good; because that man will sin for a piece of bread. <sup>22</sup>He who hastens to be rich has an evil eye, and does not know that poverty will come upon him. <sup>23</sup>He who rebukes a man shall afterwards find more favor than he who flatters with the tongue. <sup>24</sup>Whoever robs his father or his mother and says, It is no sin; the same is the companion of a destroyer. <sup>25</sup>He who is of a proud heart stirs up fighting; but he who puts his trust in the LORD shall be made fat. <sup>26</sup>He who trusts in his own heart is a fool; but whoever walks wisely, he shall be delivered. <sup>27</sup>He who gives to the poor shall not lack; but he who hides his eyes shall have many a curse. <sup>28</sup>When the wicked rise, men hide themselves; but when they perish, the righteous increase.

CHAPTER 29

<sup>1</sup>A man who hardens his neck when reprov'd shall be suddenly broken, and there will be no healing. <sup>2</sup>When the righteous are in great number, the people rejoice; but when the wicked bear rule, the people mourn. <sup>3</sup>Whoever loves wisdom rejoices his father; but a companion of harlots wastes wealth. <sup>4</sup>The king establishes the land by judgment; but he taking bribes tears it down. <sup>5</sup>A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet. <sup>6</sup>In the sin of an evil man there is a snare; but the righteous sings and rejoices. <sup>7</sup>The righteous takes note of the plea of the poor; but the wicked cares not to know it. <sup>8</sup>Scornful men bring a city into a snare; but wise men turn away wrath. <sup>9</sup>If a wise man contends with a foolish man, whether he rages or laughs, there is no rest. <sup>10</sup>Men of blood hate the upright; but the just seek his soul. <sup>11</sup>A fool speaks all his mind; but a wise one keeps it in until afterwards. <sup>12</sup>If a ruler listens to lies, all his servants are wicked. <sup>13</sup>The poor and the deceitful man meet together; the LORD gives light to both their eyes. <sup>14</sup>A king who judges the weak, his throne shall be fixed forever. <sup>15</sup>The rod and rebuke give wisdom; but a child left to himself brings his mother to shame. <sup>16</sup>When the wicked are multiplied, sin increases; but the righteous shall see their fall. <sup>17</sup>Correct your son, and he shall give you rest; yea, he shall give delight to your soul. <sup>18</sup>Where there is no wisdom, the people perish; but he who keeps the law, he is blessed. <sup>19</sup>A servant will not be corrected by words, for though he understands, he will not answer. <sup>20</sup>Do you see a man hasty in his words? There is more hope for a fool than for him. <sup>21</sup>He pampering his servant from a child, he shall afterwards be his successor. <sup>22</sup>An angry man stirs up fighting, and a furious man abounds in sin. <sup>23</sup>A man's pride shall bring him low; but honor shall uphold the humble in spirit. <sup>24</sup>He who shares with a thief hates his own soul; he hears cursing and does not tell. <sup>25</sup>The fear of man brings a snare; but whoever puts his trust in the LORD shall be safe. <sup>26</sup>Many seek the ruler's favor; but each man's judgment comes from the LORD. <sup>27</sup>An unjust man is a hateful thing to the just; and he who is upright in the way is hateful to the wicked.

CHAPTER 30

<sup>1</sup>The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, the prophecy: The man spoke to Ithiel, to Ithiel and Ucal, saying, <sup>2</sup>Surely I am more like an animal than any man, and do not have the understanding of a man. <sup>3</sup>I have not learned wisdom, nor the knowledge of the holy. <sup>4</sup>Who has gone up to Heaven and has come down? <sup>5</sup>Who has gathered the wind in His fists? Who has bound the waters in His garments? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is His name, and what is His Son's name, if you can tell?

me; <sup>9</sup>lest I be full and deny You, and say, Who is the LORD? Or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.

<sup>15</sup>The leech has two daughters, crying, Give, give! There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things never say, Enough! <sup>16</sup>The grave; and the barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire that never says, Enough. <sup>17</sup>The eye that mocks at his father and despises to obey his mother, the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it. <sup>18</sup>Three things are too wonderful for me, yea, four which I do not know <sup>19</sup>the way of an eagle in the air; the way of a snake on a rock; the way of a ship in the middle of the sea; and the way of a man with a maiden. <sup>20</sup>Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eats, and wipes her mouth, and says, I have done no evil. <sup>21</sup>For three things the earth quakes, and for four which it cannot bear: <sup>22</sup>for a servant when he reigns; and a fool when he is filled with food; <sup>23</sup>for a hateful woman when she is married; and a servant girl that is heir to her mistress. <sup>24</sup>Four things are little on the earth, but they are exceedingly wise: <sup>25</sup>the ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their food in the summer; <sup>26</sup>the conies are but a feeble folk, yet they make their houses in the rocks; <sup>27</sup>the locusts have no king, yet they all of them go forth by bands; <sup>28</sup>the spider takes hold with her hands, and is in king's palaces. <sup>29</sup>There are three things which go well, yea, four which are stately in going: <sup>30</sup>a lion is strongest among beasts and does not turn away for any; <sup>31</sup>a greyhound; and a he-goat; and a king against whom there is no rising up.

<sup>32</sup>If you have done foolishly in lifting yourself up, or if you have thought evil, lay your hand on your mouth. <sup>33</sup>Surely the churning of milk brings forth butter, and the wringing of the nose brings forth blood; so the forcing of wrath brings forth fighting.

CHAPTER 31

her candle does not go out by night. <sup>19</sup>She lays her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff. <sup>20</sup>She stretches out her hand to the poor; yea, she reaches forth her hands to the needy. <sup>21</sup>She is not afraid of the snow for her household; for all her household are clothed with scarlet. <sup>22</sup>She makes herself coverings; her clothing is silk and purple. <sup>23</sup>Her husband is known in the gates, when he sits among the elders of the land. <sup>24</sup>She makes fine linen and sells it, and delivers girdles to the merchants. <sup>25</sup>Strength and honor are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come. <sup>26</sup>She opens her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness. <sup>27</sup>She looks well to the ways of her household, and does not eat the bread of idleness. <sup>28</sup>Her sons rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her. <sup>29</sup>Many daughters have done well, but you excel them all.

THE BOOK OF ECCLESIASTES

<sup>12</sup>I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all which is done under the heavens. It is a sad task God has given to the sons of man to be humbled by it. <sup>14</sup>I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit. <sup>15</sup>What is crooked cannot be made straight; and that lacking cannot be numbered. <sup>16</sup>I spoke within my own heart, saying, Lo, I have become great and have gathered more wisdom than all that have been before me in Jerusalem; yea, my heart had great experience of wisdom and knowledge. <sup>17</sup>And I gave my heart to know wisdom and to know madness and folly; I know that this also is vexation of spirit. <sup>18</sup>For in much wisdom is much grief; and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>I said in my heart, Come now, I will test you with mirth; therefore consider and behold goodness; this also is vanity. <sup>2</sup>I said of laughter, It is madness; and of mirth, What does it do? <sup>3</sup>I sought in my heart to drag my flesh with wine, yet leading my heart with wisdom; and to lay hold on folly, until I might see where the good for the sons of men might be, what they should do under the heavens all the days of their life. <sup>4</sup>I made my works great; I built houses for myself. I planted vineyards for myself. <sup>5</sup>I made gardens and orchards for myself, And I planted trees in them, of all fruit. <sup>6</sup>I made pools of water for myself, to water the forest shooting forth trees. <sup>7</sup>I got slaves and slavegirls, and had slaves born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me. <sup>8</sup>I also gathered silver and gold to myself, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces. I got men singers and women singers for myself, and the delights of the sons of men, a wife and very many wives. <sup>9</sup>I was great and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem; also my wisdom remained with me. <sup>10</sup>And whatever my eyes desired I did not keep from them; I did not withhold my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labor, and this was my part of all my labor. <sup>11</sup>Then I looked on all the works that my hands had done, and on the labor that I had labored to do; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit; and there is no profit under the sun.

that wisdom excels folly, as far as light excels darkness. <sup>14</sup>The wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walks in darkness; and I also knew that one event happens to all of them. <sup>15</sup>Then I said in my heart, As it happens to the fool, so it happens even to me; and why was I then more wise? And I said in my heart that this also is vanity. <sup>16</sup>For there is no memory of the wise more than of the fool forever, since that which is now shall all be forgotten in the days to come. And how does the wise die above the fool! <sup>17</sup>Therefore I hated life; because the work that is done under the sun is sad to me; for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

<sup>18</sup>Yes, I hated all my labor which I had done under the sun; that I must leave it to the man who shall be after me. <sup>19</sup>And who knows whether he shall be wise or a fool? Yet he shall have rule over all my labor in which I have labored, and acted wisely under the sun. This is also vanity. <sup>20</sup>And I turned to cause my heart to despair over all the labor which I did under the sun. <sup>21</sup>When there is a man whose labor is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and with success; yet to a man who has not labored in it, he shall leave it for his share. This also is vanity and a great evil. <sup>22</sup>For what has man from all his labor, and from the troubling of his heart, in which he has labored under the sun? <sup>23</sup>For all his days are sorrows, and his labor sadness; yea, his heart does not take rest in the night. This is also vanity. <sup>24</sup>Is it not good that he should eat and drink and make his soul see good in his labor? This I also saw, that it was from the hand of God. <sup>25</sup>For who can eat, or who can enjoy, apart from me? <sup>26</sup>For God gives wisdom, and knowledge, and joy to a man who is good in His sight. But to the sinner He gives labor, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him who is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>To every thing there is a season, and a time for every purpose under the heavens: <sup>2</sup>a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pull up what is planted; <sup>3</sup>a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; <sup>4</sup>a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; <sup>5</sup>a time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; <sup>6</sup>a time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to throw away; <sup>7</sup>a time to tear, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; <sup>8</sup>a time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

<sup>9</sup>What profit does he have who works in that in which he labors? <sup>10</sup>I have seen the task which God has given to the sons of men to be humbled by it. <sup>11</sup>He has made everything beautiful in His time; also He has set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God makes from the beginning to the end. <sup>12</sup>I know that there is no good in them, but to rejoice and to do good in his life. <sup>13</sup>And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labor, it is the gift of God. <sup>14</sup>I know that whatever God does, it shall be forever; nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; and God does it so that they fear before Him. <sup>15</sup>That which has been is now; and that which is to be has already been; and God requires that which is past.

<sup>16</sup>And again I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there. <sup>17</sup>I said in my heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked; for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work. <sup>18</sup>I said in my heart concerning the sons of men, that God might reveal them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts. <sup>19</sup>For that which happens to the sons of men also happens to beasts; even one thing happens to them. As this one dies, so that one dies; yea, they all have one breath; so that a man has no advantage over a beast; for all is vanity. <sup>20</sup>All go to one place; all are of the dust, and all return to dust again. <sup>21</sup>Who knows the spirit of man that goes upward, and the spirit of the beast that goes downward? <sup>22</sup>Therefore I have seen that there is nothing better than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for that is his portion; for who can bring him to see what shall be after him?

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>So I returned, and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun. And behold the tears of those who were oppressed, and they had no comforter! And on the side of those who oppressed them there was power, but they had no comforter. <sup>2</sup>And I commended the dead who already have died, more than the living who are living now. <sup>3</sup>Yea, better than both is he who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun. <sup>4</sup>Again, I considered all labor, and every right work, that for this a man is envied by his neighbor. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit. <sup>5</sup>The fool folds his hands together, and eats his own flesh. <sup>6</sup>Better is a hand filled with rest than two fists with travail and vexation of spirit.

<sup>7</sup>And I returned and saw vanity under the sun. <sup>8</sup>There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he has neither child nor brother; yet there is no end to all his labor; and his eyes are not satisfied with riches; and he says, For whom do I labor and take good from my soul? This is also vanity. Yes, it is an evil business. <sup>9</sup>Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labor. <sup>10</sup>For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow; but woe to him who is alone when he falls, for he does not have another to help him. <sup>11</sup>Again, if two lie together, then they have warmth; but how can one be warm alone? <sup>12</sup>And if one overthrows him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken. <sup>13</sup>A poor and a wise child is better than an old and foolish king, who will not be warned any more. <sup>14</sup>For out of prison he comes to reign; although in his kingdom he was poor. <sup>15</sup>I saw all the living who walk under the sun, with the second child who shall stand up in his place. <sup>16</sup>There is no end of all the people, even of all who have been before them; they also who come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>Guard your steps when you go to the house of God, and be more ready to hear than to give the sacrifice of fools. For they do not know that they are doing evil. <sup>2</sup>Do not be rash with your mouth, and do not let your heart be hasty to say a word before God. For God is in Heaven, and you are on earth; therefore let your words be few. <sup>3</sup>For a dream comes through the multitude of business; and a fool's voice is known by multitude of words. <sup>4</sup>When you vow a vow to God, do not wait to pay it. For He has no pleasure in fools. Pay that which you have vowed. <sup>5</sup>It is better that you should not vow, than that you should vow and not pay. <sup>6</sup>Do not allow your mouth to cause your flesh to sin; do not say before the messenger of God that it was an error. Why should God be angry at your voice and destroy the work of your hands? <sup>7</sup>For in the multitude of dreams, both words and vanities abound. But you should fear God. <sup>8</sup>If you see the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, do not marvel at the matter. For He who is higher than the highest watches; and there are some higher than they.

<sup>9</sup>And the advantage of a land, it is for all; even a king has a field being tilled. <sup>10</sup>He who loves silver shall not be satisfied with silver, nor he who loves plenty with increase. This is also vanity. <sup>11</sup>When goods multiply, those who eat them multiply; then what good is it to its owners, except to see them with their eyes?

<sup>12</sup>The sleep of a laboring man is sweet, whether he eats little or much; but the abundance of the rich will not allow him to sleep. <sup>13</sup>There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for their owners to their hurt. <sup>14</sup>But those riches perish by evil use. And he brings forth a son, and nothing is in his hand. <sup>15</sup>As he came forth from his mother's womb naked, he shall return to go as he came. And from his labor he may not carry anything that may go in his hand. <sup>16</sup>And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go; and what profit does he have who has labored for the wind? <sup>17</sup>Also all his days he eats in darkness, and he has much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.

<sup>18</sup>Behold that which I have seen. It is good and right for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labor that he takes under the sun all the days of his life, which God gives him; for it is his portion. <sup>19</sup>Also every man to whom God has given riches and wealth, and has given him power to eat of it and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labor, this is the gift of God. <sup>20</sup>For he shall not much remember the days of his life, because God answers him in the joy of his heart.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is great among men: <sup>2</sup>a man to whom God has given riches, wealth, and honor, so that he lacks nothing for his soul of all that he desires, yet God does not give him power to eat of it, but a stranger eats it. This is vanity, and it is an evil disease. <sup>3</sup>If a man fathers a hundred, and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, and his soul is not filled with good, and also is for him no burial; I say, a miscarriage is better than he. <sup>4</sup>For he comes in with vanity and goes out in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness. <sup>5</sup>Also he has not seen the sun, nor known anything. This one has more rest than the other. <sup>6</sup>Yea, though he live twice a thousand years, yet he has seen no good. Do not all go to one place? <sup>7</sup>All the labor of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled. <sup>8</sup>For what has the wise more than the fool? What gain has the poor who knows how to walk before the living? <sup>9</sup>Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit. <sup>10</sup>That which has been is named already, and it is known that he is man. And he is not able to contend with Him who is mightier than he.

<sup>11</sup>For there are many things that increase vanity, and what is man the better?

<sup>12</sup>For who knows what is good for man in this life, all the days of his vain life which he spends as a shadow? For who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>A good name is better than precious ointment, and the day of death than the day of one's birth. <sup>2</sup>It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting; for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart. <sup>3</sup>Sorrow is better than laughter; for by the sadness of the face the heart is made better. <sup>4</sup>The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of laughter. <sup>5</sup>It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise than for a man to hear the song of fools. <sup>6</sup>For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool; this also is vanity. <sup>7</sup>Surely oppression makes a wise man mad; and a bribe destroys the heart. <sup>8</sup>Better is the end of a thing than the beginning of it; and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. <sup>9</sup>Do not be hasty in your spirit to be angry; for anger rests in the bosom of fools. <sup>10</sup>Do not say, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? For you do not ask wisely in regard to this. <sup>11</sup>Wisdom is good with an inheritance; but it is gain to those who see the sun. <sup>12</sup>For wisdom is a defense, and money is a defense; but the excellency of knowledge is that wisdom gives life to those who have it.

<sup>13</sup>Consider the work of God; for who can make straight what He has made crooked? <sup>14</sup>In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity take note that God also has set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him. <sup>15</sup>All things I have seen in the days of my vanity; there is a just one who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked one who prolongs life in his wickedness.

<sup>16</sup>Do not be righteous overmuch, neither make yourself overwise; why destroy yourself? <sup>17</sup>Do not be very wicked, and do not be a fool; why should you die before your time? <sup>18</sup>It is good that you should take hold of this; yea, also from this do not withdraw your hand; for he who fears God shall come forth from all of them. <sup>19</sup>Wisdom makes the wise stronger than ten mighty ones who are in the city. <sup>20</sup>For there is not a just man on earth who does good and does not sin. <sup>21</sup>Also do not listen to all words that are spoken; lest you hear your servant curse you. <sup>22</sup>For also your own heart knows that you yourself have also cursed others. <sup>23</sup>All this I have proved by wisdom; I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me. <sup>24</sup>That which is far off and exceedingly deep, who can find it out? <sup>25</sup>I set my heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness; <sup>26</sup>and I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands like bands. Whoever pleases God shall escape from her, but the sinner shall be taken by her. <sup>27</sup>Behold, this I have found, says the Preacher, counting one by one, to find out the sum; <sup>28</sup>which my soul still sought, but I find not: one man among a thousand I have found, but a woman among all those I have not found. <sup>29</sup>Lo, this only I have found, that God has made man upright, but they have sought out many inventions.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>Who is as the wise? And who knows the meaning of a thing? A man's wisdom makes his face to shine, and the boldness of his face shall be changed. <sup>2</sup>I say, keep the king's word, and that because of the oath of God. <sup>3</sup>Do not be hasty to leave his presence. Do not take a stand in an evil thing; for he does whatever pleases him. <sup>4</sup>Where the word of a king is, there is power; and who may say to him, What are you doing? <sup>5</sup>Whoever keeps the command shall feel no evil thing; and a wise man's heart knows both time and judgment. <sup>6</sup>Because to every purpose there is time and judgment, therefore the misery of man is great on him. <sup>7</sup>For he does not know what shall be; for who can tell him when it shall be? <sup>8</sup>There is no man who has power over the spirit to keep the spirit; nor power in the day of death; and there is no discharge in that war; nor shall wickedness deliver those who are given to it.

<sup>9</sup>All this I have seen, and I gave my heart to every work that is done under the sun. There is a time in which one man rules over another to his own hurt. <sup>10</sup>And so I saw the wicked buried, and they came and went from the holy place. And they were forgotten in the city, these things that they had done. This is also vanity. <sup>11</sup>Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

<sup>12</sup>Though a sinner does evil a hundred times, and his days be made longer, yet surely I know that it shall be well with those who fear God, who fear before Him. <sup>13</sup>But it shall not be well with the wicked, nor shall he make his days longer like a shadow; because he does not fear before God. <sup>14</sup>There is a vanity which is done on the earth: There are just ones to whom it happens according to the work of the wicked; again, there are wicked ones to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity. <sup>15</sup>Then I praised gladness, because a man has no better thing under the sun than to eat, and to drink and to be glad; for that shall go with him of his labor for the days of his life which God gives him under the sun.

<sup>16</sup>When I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done on the earth — for neither day nor night do men see sleep with their eyes — <sup>17</sup>then I looked at all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun; because though a man labors to seek it out, yet he shall not find it. Yea, further, though a wise one speaks of knowing, yet he shall not be able to find it.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>For all this I took to heart, even to make all this clear, that the righteous and the wise and their works are in the hand of God. No man knows either love or hatred by all that is before them. <sup>2</sup>All happens alike to all; there is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him who sacrifices, and to him who does not sacrifice. As is the good man, so is the sinner. He who swears is as he who fears an oath. <sup>3</sup>This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event to all. Yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. <sup>4</sup>For to him who is joined to all the living there is hope, for a living dog is better than a dead lion. <sup>5</sup>For the living know that they shall die; but the dead do not know anything, nor do they have any more a reward; for their memory is forgotten. <sup>6</sup>Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; nor do they any longer have a part forever in all that is done under the sun.

<sup>17</sup>The words of the wise are heard in quiet more than the cry of him who rules among fools. <sup>18</sup>Wisdom is better than weapons of war; but one sinner destroys much good.

<sup>7</sup>Foolishness is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place. <sup>7</sup>I have seen servants on horses and princes walking as servants on the earth. <sup>8</sup>He who digs a pit shall fall into it; and whoever breaks a hedge, a snake shall bite him. <sup>9</sup>Whoever removes stones shall be hurt with them. He who cuts wood shall be endangered by it. <sup>10</sup>If the iron is blunt, and he does not whet the edge, then he must put more strength to it. But wisdom is profitable to direct. <sup>11</sup>Surely the snake will bite without enchantment; and a babbler is no better. <sup>12</sup>The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow him. <sup>13</sup>The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness; and the end of his talk is wicked madness. <sup>14</sup>A fool also makes many words; a man knows not what they shall be; and what shall be after him, who can tell him? <sup>15</sup>The labor of the foolish wearies him, because he does not know how to go to the city.

<sup>16</sup>Woe to you, O land, when your king is a child and your leaders feast in the morning. <sup>17</sup>Blessed are you, O land, when your king is the son of nobles, and your leaders eat in due time, for strength, and not for drunkenness! <sup>18</sup>By slothfulness the building decays; and through lowering of the hands the house leaks. <sup>19</sup>A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes merry; but money answers all things. <sup>20</sup>Do not curse a king, no, not in your thought; and do not curse the rich in your bedroom; for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which has wings shall tell the matter.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>Cast your bread on the waters; for you shall find it after many days. <sup>2</sup>Give a share to seven, and also to eight; for you know not what evil shall be on the earth. <sup>3</sup>If the clouds are full of rain, they empty on the earth; and if the tree falls toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falls, there it shall be. <sup>4</sup>He who watches the wind shall not sow; and he who pays attention to the clouds shall not reap. <sup>5</sup>As you do not know what is the way of the spirit, as how the bones grow in the pregnant woman's womb; even so you do not know the works of God who makes all. <sup>6</sup>In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening do not withhold your hand; for you do not know what shall be blessed, either this or that, or whether they both shall be fruitful in the same way.

<sup>7</sup>Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun; <sup>8</sup>but if a man lives many years, and rejoices in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that comes is vanity. <sup>9</sup>Rejoice, in your youth, young man; and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth, and walk in the ways of your heart, and in the sight of your eyes; but know that for all these things God will bring you into judgment. <sup>10</sup>Therefore remove vexation from your heart, and put away evil from your flesh; for childhood and prime of life are vanity.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>Remember now your Creator in the days of your youth, while the evil days do not come, nor the years draw near, when you shall say, I have no pleasure in them. <sup>2</sup>Before the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, are darkened, or the clouds return after the rain; <sup>3</sup>in the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because there are few, and those who look out of the windows are darkened, <sup>4</sup>and the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and you shall rise up at the voice of a bird, and all the daughters of music are silenced; <sup>5</sup>also they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall blossom, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail; because man goes to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets; <sup>6</sup>or ever the silver cord is not loosed, or the golden bowl is broken, or the pitcher is broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern; <sup>7</sup>then the dust shall return to the earth as it was; and the spirit shall return to God who gave it.

<sup>8</sup>Vanity of vanities, says the preacher; all is vanity. <sup>9</sup>And more than that, the preacher was wise; he still taught the people knowledge. Yes, he listened, and looked, and set in order many proverbs. <sup>10</sup>The preacher sought to find out pleasing words; and words of truth written by the upright. <sup>11</sup>The words of the wise are like goads; yes, their collected words are like nails driven home; they are given from one Shepherd. <sup>12</sup>And further, by these, my son, be warned: The making of many books has no end, and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

<sup>13</sup>Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter. Fear God, and keep His commandments. For this is the whole duty of man. <sup>14</sup>For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it is good, or whether evil.

THE SONG OF SONGS

<sup>2</sup>Let Him kiss me with the kisses of His mouth; for Your loves are better than wine. <sup>3</sup>For Your ointments have a lovely fragrance; Your name is as oil poured out; therefore the virgins love You. <sup>4</sup>Draw me, we will run after You, The king has brought me into his chambers; we will be glad and rejoice in You, we will remember Your love more than wine; the upright love You. <sup>5</sup>I am black, but comely, O daughters of Jerusalem, like the tents of Kedar, like the curtains of Solomon. <sup>6</sup>Do not look on me, that I am black, that the sun has looked on me. My mother's sons were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards; but my vineyard I have not kept. <sup>7</sup>Tell me, You whom my soul loves, where do You feed, where do You lie down at noon? For why should I be as one who is veiled beside the flocks of Your companions?

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>I am the rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys. <sup>2</sup>As the lily among thorns, so is My love among the daughters. <sup>3</sup>As the apple among the trees of the wood, so is my Beloved among the sons. I sat down under His shadow with great delight, and His fruit was sweet to my taste. <sup>4</sup>He brought me to the banqueting house, and His banner over me was love. <sup>5</sup>Feed me with raisin cakes, comfort me with apples, for I am sick with love. <sup>6</sup>His left hand is under my head, and His right hand embraces me. <sup>7</sup>I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, do not stir up or awake my Love until He please.

<sup>8</sup>The voice of my Beloved! Behold, He comes leaping on the mountains, skipping on the hills. <sup>9</sup>My Beloved is like a roe or a young hart. Behold, He stands behind our wall, He looks forth at the windows, showing Himself through the lattice. <sup>10</sup>My Beloved spoke, and said to me, Rise up, My love, My beautiful one, and come away. <sup>11</sup>For lo, the winter is past, the rain is over; it goes to itself. <sup>12</sup>The flowers appear on the earth; the time of singing has come, and the voice of the turtle-dove is heard in our land; <sup>13</sup>the fig tree puts forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Arise, My love, My beautiful one, and come away. <sup>14</sup>O My dove, in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let Me see your face, let Me hear your voice; for your voice is sweet, and your face is beautiful. <sup>15</sup>Take us the foxes, the little foxes that spoil the vines; for our vines have tender grapes. <sup>16</sup>My Beloved is mine, and I am His; He feeds among the lilies. <sup>17</sup>Until when does the day blow, and the shadows flee away? Turn, my Beloved, and be like a gazelle, or a young deer, the stag, on the mountains of Bether.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>By night on my bed I sought Him whom my soul loved; I sought Him, but I did not find Him. <sup>2</sup>I will rise now and go about the city, in the streets and in the broad ways; I will seek Him whom my soul loves. I sought Him, but I did not find Him. <sup>3</sup>The watchmen who go about the city found me. I said, Have you seen Him whom my soul loves? <sup>4</sup>But a little while after I passed from them, I found Him whom my soul loves. I held Him and would not let Him go, until I had brought Him into my mother's house, and into the room of her who conceived me. <sup>5</sup>I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the gazelles, and by the does of the field, do not stir up nor awake my love until it pleases.

<sup>6</sup>Who is this coming up out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, from all the merchant's powders? <sup>7</sup>Behold his bed, which is Solomon's! Sixty strong men are around it, of Israel's mighty men. <sup>8</sup>They all hold swords, instructed in war; each man has his sword on his thigh because of fear in the night. <sup>9</sup>King Solomon made himself a litter-bed of Lebanon's trees. <sup>10</sup>He made its poles of silver, its back gold, its seat of purple, its middle was paved with love by the daughters of Jerusalem. <sup>11</sup>Go forth, O daughters of Zion, and behold King Solomon with the crown with which his mother crowned him on his wedding day, and in the day of the gladness of his heart.

CHAPTER 4

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>I have come into My garden, My sister, My spouse; I have gathered My myrrh with My spice; I have eaten My honeycomb with My honey; I have drunk My wine with My milk. Eat, O friends; drink, yea, drink abundantly, O Beloved. <sup>2</sup>I sleep, but my heart is awake. It is the sound of my Beloved that knocks, saying, Open to Me, My sister, My love, My dove, My undefiled; for My head is filled with dew, My locks with the drops of the night. <sup>3</sup>I have put off My coat; How shall I put it on? I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them? <sup>4</sup>My Beloved put in His hand by the hole of the door, and my heart was moved for Him. <sup>5</sup>I rose up to open to my Beloved; and my hands dripped with myrrh, and my fingers flowing with myrrh on the handles of the bolt. <sup>6</sup>I opened to my Beloved, but my Beloved had left. He passed on. My soul went out when He spoke; I sought Him, but I could not find Him. I called Him, but He did not answer me. <sup>7</sup>The watchmen who went about the city found me and struck me; they wounded me. The keepers of the wall lifted my veil from me. <sup>8</sup>I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if you find my Beloved, what do you tell Him? That I am sick with love.

<sup>9</sup>What is your Beloved more than another beloved, most beautiful among women? What is your Beloved more than another beloved, that you adjure us so? <sup>10</sup>My Beloved is bright and ruddy, standing out among ten thousand. <sup>11</sup>His head is like refined gold; His locks are bushy, black as a raven. <sup>12</sup>His eyes are as doves' eyes on the rivers of waters, washed with milk, sitting on a setting. <sup>13</sup>His cheeks are like a bed of spices, a raised bed of aromatic herbs. His lips are as lilies dropping flowing myrrh. <sup>14</sup>His hands are like rings of gold filled with jewels; His body an ivory plate overlaid with sapphires. <sup>15</sup>His legs are like pillars of marble set on sockets of fine gold; His face is like Lebanon, excellent as the cedars. <sup>16</sup>His mouth is most sweet; yes, He is altogether lovely. This is my Beloved, and this is my Friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>Where has your Beloved gone, most beautiful among women? Where has your Beloved turned? For we seek Him along with you. <sup>2</sup>My Beloved has gone down to His garden, to the beds of spices, to feed in the gardens and to gather lilies. <sup>3</sup>I am my Beloved's, and my Beloved is mine; He feeds among the lilies.

<sup>4</sup>O my love, you are as beautiful as Tirzah, as lovely as Jerusalem, as inspiring as an army with banners. <sup>5</sup>Turn away your eyes from Me, for they have overcome Me; your hair is like a flock of goats that appears from Gilead. <sup>6</sup>Your teeth are like a flock of ewes which go up from the washing, bearing twins, and barrenness; not one is barren among them. <sup>7</sup>Your temples behind your veil are like a piece of pomegranate. <sup>8</sup>There are sixty queens, and eighty concubines, and virgins without number. <sup>9</sup>But My dove, My undefiled is one alone. She is the only one of her mother. She is the choice of her who bore her. The daughters saw her and blessed her; the queens and the concubines saw her, and they praised her. <sup>10</sup>Who is she who looks forth like the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun and as inspiring as an army with banners?

<sup>11</sup>I went down into the garden of nuts to see the fruits of the valley, to see whether the vine flowered and the pomegranates budded. <sup>12</sup>I did not know, but my soul set me on the chariots of my princely people. <sup>13</sup>Return, return, O Shulamite! Return, return, that we may look on you. What will you see in the Shulamite? As it were the dance of two camps.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>How beautiful are your feet in sandals, O prince's daughter! The curves of your thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a skillful workman. <sup>2</sup>Your navel is like a round goblet, which never lacks mixed wine; your belly is like a heap of wheat set about with lilies. <sup>3</sup>Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle. <sup>4</sup>Your neck is like a tower of ivory; your eyes like the fish-pools in Heshbon, by the gate of Beth-rabbim; your nose is like the tower of Lebanon which looks toward Damascus. <sup>5</sup>Your head on you is like Carmel, and the hair of your head like purple; the King is held captive in its tresses. <sup>6</sup>How beautiful and how pleasant you are, O love, for delights! <sup>7</sup>Your stature is like a palm tree, and your breasts are like clusters of grapes. <sup>8</sup>I said, I will go up in the palm tree, I will take hold of its stalk. And please let your breasts be like clusters of the vine, and the smell of your nose like apples; <sup>9</sup>and the roof of your mouth like the best wine for my Beloved, that goes down smoothly for My Beloved, flowing softly over the lips of sleeping ones. <sup>10</sup>I am my Beloved's, and His desire is toward me. <sup>11</sup>Come, my Beloved, let us go out into the field; let us stay in the villages. <sup>12</sup>Let us rise up early to the vineyards; let us see if the vine flowers, whether the tender grape appears, and the pomegranates bud forth; there I will give You my loves. <sup>13</sup>The love-apples give a scent, and over our doors are all pleasant fruits, new and old, which I have laid up for You, O my Beloved.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>Who could give You to me as my brother, who sucked my mother's breasts? When I find You outside, I would kiss You; yea, they would not despise me. <sup>2</sup>I would lead You, and bring You into my mother's house. You would instruct me; I would cause You to drink spiced wine of the juice of my pomegranate. <sup>3</sup>His left hand would be under my head, and His right embrace me. <sup>4</sup>I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, why should you stir up or awaken my Love until it pleases? <sup>5</sup>Who is this coming up from the wilderness, leaning on her Beloved? I awakened you under the apple tree; there your mother travailed with you; there she travailed and bore you.

<sup>6</sup>Set me as a seal on Your heart, as a seal on Your arm; for love is strong as death. Jealousy is cruel as the grave; its flames are flames of fire, a flame of Jehovah. <sup>7</sup>Many waters cannot quench love, nor will the rivers overflow it. If a man would give all the wealth of his house for love, it would be scorned.

<sup>8</sup>We have a little sister, and she has no breasts; what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for? <sup>9</sup>If she is a wall, we will build on her a palace of silver; and if she is a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar. <sup>10</sup>I was a wall, and my breasts like towers; then I was in His eyes as one finding peace.

<sup>11</sup>Solomon had a vineyard in Baal-hamon; he let out the vineyard to keepers; everyone for its fruit was to bring a thousand of silver. <sup>12</sup>My vineyard, which is mine, is before me; you, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and for the keepers of its fruit, two hundred. <sup>13</sup>You who dwell in the gardens, the companions listen to your voice; cause me to hear. <sup>14</sup>Hurry, my Beloved, and be like a gazelle, or a young deer, the stag, on the mountains of spices.

THE BOOK OF ISAIAH

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah. <sup>2</sup>Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth; for the LORD has spoken, I have nursed and brought up sons, and they have rebelled against Me. <sup>3</sup>The ox knows his owner, and the ass his master's crib; but Israel does not know; My people do not understand. <sup>4</sup>Woe, sinful nation, a people heavy with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, sons who make others rotten! They have forsaken the LORD; they have provoked the Holy One of Israel to anger; they have gone away backward. <sup>5</sup>Why should you be stricken any more? You will revolt more and more; the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. <sup>6</sup>From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrefying sores; they have not been closed, nor bound up, nor soothed with oil. <sup>7</sup>Your land is wasted, your cities burned with fire. Strangers devour your land right before your eyes, and it is wasted, as overthrown by strangers. <sup>8</sup>And the daughter of Zion is left a booth in a vineyard, like a hut in a garden of cucumbers, like a besieged city. <sup>9</sup>Except the LORD of hosts had left us a very small remnant, we would have been as Sodom, and we would have been like Gomorrah.

<sup>10</sup>Hear the word of the LORD, rulers of Sodom; give ear to the law of our God, people of Gomorrah. <sup>11</sup>To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices to Me? says the LORD; I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I do not delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs, or of he-goats. <sup>12</sup>When you come to appear before Me, who has required this at your hand, to trample My courts? <sup>13</sup>Bring no more vain sacrifice; incense is an abomination to Me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of meetings, I cannot endure. It is iniquity, even the solemn meeting! <sup>14</sup>Your new moons and your appointed feasts My soul hates; they are a trouble to Me; I am weary to bear them. <sup>15</sup>And when you spread out your hands, I will hide My eyes from you; yea, when you make many prayers, I will not hear; your hands are full of blood. <sup>16</sup>Wash yourselves, make yourselves clean; put away the evil of your doings from before My eyes; cease to do evil; <sup>17</sup>learn to do good; seek judgment, reprove the oppressor. Judge the orphan, plead for the widow.

<sup>18</sup>Come now, and let us reason together, says the LORD; though your sins are as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall be like wool. <sup>19</sup>If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land; <sup>20</sup>but if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured with the sword; for the mouth of the LORD has spoken. <sup>21</sup>How has the faithful city become a harlot? It was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it — but now murderers. <sup>22</sup>Your silver has become dross, your wine mixed with water; <sup>23</sup>your rulers are rebellious, and companions of thieves; everyone loves bribes, and is pursuing rewards; they do not judge the orphan, nor does the cause of the widow come to them. <sup>24</sup>And the Lord, Jehovah of Hosts, the mighty One of Israel, says, Alas! I will ease Myself of My foes, and avenge Myself of My enemies. <sup>25</sup>And I will turn back My hand on you, and purge away your dross as with lye, and take away all your alloy. <sup>26</sup>And I will restore your judges as at first, and your counselors as at the beginning; afterwards you shall be called the city of righteousness, the faithful city. <sup>27</sup>Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her returning ones with righteousness. <sup>28</sup>And the downfall of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together; and those who forsake the LORD shall be consumed. <sup>29</sup>For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which you have desired, and you shall be ashamed for the gardens which you have chosen. <sup>30</sup>For you shall be like an oak whose leaf fades, and like a garden that has no water. <sup>31</sup>And the strong shall be like tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall put them out.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>And it shall be, in the last days the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow into it. <sup>3</sup>And many people shall go and say, Come, and let us go to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob. And He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths. For out of Zion shall go out the Law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>And He shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks. Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. <sup>5</sup>O house of Jacob, come and let us walk in the light of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>For You have forsaken Your people the house of Jacob, because they have become full from the east, and are fortune-tellers like the Philistines. And they clap their hands with the children of strangers. <sup>7</sup>And their land is full of silver and gold. There is no end of their treasures and their land is full of horses; nor an end of their chariots. <sup>8</sup>And their land is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made. <sup>9</sup>And the man bowed down, and man was humbled, but You do not lift them up. <sup>10</sup>Enter into the rock and hide in the dust for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of His majesty. <sup>11</sup>The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the pride of men shall be bowed down, and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day. <sup>12</sup>For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be on every proud and lofty one, and on every lifted up one; and he shall be brought low, <sup>13</sup>And it shall be on all the high and lifted up cedars of Lebanon, and on all the oaks of Bashan, <sup>14</sup>and on all the high mountains, and on all the lifted up hills; <sup>15</sup>and on every high tower, and on every fenced wall; <sup>16</sup>and on all the ships of Tarshish, and on all pleasurable craft. <sup>17</sup>And the pride of man shall be bowed down, and the loftiness of men shall be made low; and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day. <sup>18</sup>And the idols shall completely vanish. <sup>19</sup>And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth for fear of the LORD and for the glory of His majesty, when He arises to shake the earth terribly. <sup>20</sup>In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which they made for him to worship, to the moles and to the bats; <sup>21</sup>to go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for fear of the LORD and for the glory of His majesty, when He arises to shake the earth terribly. <sup>22</sup>Cease from man, whose breath is in his nostril; for in what is he to be esteemed?

CHAPTER 3.

<sup>1</sup>For behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, takes away from Jerusalem and from Judah the stay and the staff, the whole stay of bread and the whole stay of water, <sup>2</sup>the mighty man, and the man of war, the judge, and the prophet, and the prudent, and the ancient, <sup>3</sup>the captain of fifty, and the honorable man, and the adviser, and the skilled worker, and the expert charmer. <sup>4</sup>And I will give young boys to be their rulers, and caprices shall rule over them. <sup>5</sup>And the people shall be crushed, every man by another, and every man by his neighbor; the boy shall act proudly against the old man, and the low against the honorable. <sup>6</sup>When a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, saying, You have clothing, you be our ruler, and let this ruin be under your hand; <sup>7</sup>in that day he shall swear, saying, I will not be a healer; there is no bread nor a cloak in my house. You shall not make me a ruler of the people. <sup>6</sup>For Jerusalem is ruined and Judah has fallen; because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to provoke the eyes of His glory. <sup>9</sup>The look of their faces witnesses against them; and they declare their sin like Sodom. They do not hide it! Woe to their soul! For they have rewarded evil to themselves.

<sup>10</sup>Say to the righteous that it is well; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings. <sup>11</sup>Woe to the wicked! It shall go evil with him; for the reward of his hands shall be given him. <sup>12</sup>As for my people, children are their taskmasters, and women rule over them. Oh my people, they who lead you cause you to go astray and destroy the way of your paths. <sup>13</sup>The LORD stands up to plead His case, and stands up to judge the people. <sup>14</sup>The LORD will enter into judgment with the elders of His people, and their kings; for you have eaten up the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses. <sup>15</sup>What do you mean? You crush My people and grind the faces of the poor? says the Lord, Jehovah of hosts. <sup>16</sup>And the LORD says, Because the daughters of Zion are proud, and have walked with stretched out necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet; <sup>17</sup>therefore the LORD will strike with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will make their secret parts naked. <sup>18</sup>In that day the Lord will take away the beauty of ankle-bracelets, and the headbands, and the crescents, <sup>19</sup>the pendants, and the bracelets, and the veils; <sup>20</sup>the headdresses, and the leg ornaments, and the sashes, and the houses of the soul, and the amulets; <sup>21</sup>the rings and nose jewels; <sup>22</sup>the festal apparel and the outer garments; and the mantles, and the purses; <sup>23</sup>the mirrors and the fine linen; and the turbans and the veils. <sup>24</sup>And it shall be, instead of sweet smell, there shall be an odor of decay; and instead of a sash, a rope; and instead of well-set hair, baldness; and instead of a rich robe, a wrapping of sackcloth; burning instead of beauty. <sup>25</sup>Your men shall fall by the sword, and your mighty in the war. <sup>26</sup>And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she shall sit deserted on the ground.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, we will eat our own bread and wear our own clothing; only let us be called by your name, to take away our shame. <sup>2</sup>In that day shall the branch of the LORD be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth excellent and comely for those who have escaped from Israel. <sup>3</sup>And it shall be, he who is left in Zion, and he who remains in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even everyone who is written among the living in Jerusalem; <sup>4</sup>when the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from its midst by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning. <sup>5</sup>And the LORD will create over every dwelling place of Mount Zion, and on her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night; for on all the glory shall be a defense. <sup>6</sup>And there shall be a covering for a shade in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a hiding place from storm and from rain.

CHAPTER 5

vineyard; I will take away its hedge, and it shall be eaten up; and break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down; <sup>6</sup>and I will lay it waste; it shall not be pruned nor dug; but briars and thorns shall come up. And I will command the clouds that they rain no rain on it. <sup>7</sup>For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah His pleasant plant; and He looked for justice, but behold bloody iniquity; for righteousness, but behold a cry!

<sup>8</sup>Woe to those who join house to house, laying field to field, until the end of space, and you are made to dwell alone in the middle of the land! <sup>9</sup>The LORD of hosts swore in my ears, Truly many houses shall be deserted, big and fair, without inhabitant. <sup>10</sup>Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of a homer shall yield an ephah. <sup>11</sup>Woe to those who rise up early in the morning to go after strong drink; tarrying in the twilight while wine inflames them! <sup>12</sup>And the lyre, and the harp, the timbrel, and pipe, and wine, are at their feasts; but they do not see the work of the LORD. Yea, they do not see the work of His hands. <sup>13</sup>For this My people go into exile without knowledge, and their honorable men into famine, and their multitude is dried up with thirst. <sup>14</sup>So hell has enlarged itself, and opened its mouth without measure; and their glory, and their multitude, and their pride, and he who rejoices in her, shall go down into it. <sup>15</sup>And man is bowed down, and man is humbled and the eyes of the lofty are humbled. <sup>16</sup>But the LORD of hosts is exalted in judgment, and God the holy One is sanctified in righteousness. <sup>17</sup>Then shall the lambs feed in their way, and the waste places of the fat ones shall strangers eat.

<sup>18</sup>Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin with cart ropes; <sup>19</sup>who say, Let Him hurry and hasten His work, so that we may see it; and let the purpose of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come, so that we may know! <sup>20</sup>Woe to those who call evil good and good evil; who put darkness for light and light for darkness; who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter! <sup>21</sup>Woe to those wise in their own eyes, and bright in their own sight! <sup>22</sup>Woe to those mighty to drink wine, and brave men to mix strong drink; <sup>23</sup>who justify the wicked for a bribe, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him! <sup>24</sup>So, as the fire devours the stubble, and the flame burns up the chaff; their root shall be like rottenness, and their blossom shall go up like dust, because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel. <sup>25</sup>Therefore the anger of the LORD is kindled on His people, and He has stretched out His hand against them, and has stricken them; and the hills trembled, and their dead bodies were as filth in the midst of the streets. In all this His anger is not turned away, but His hand is stretched out still.

<sup>26</sup>And He will lift up a banner to distant nations, and will hiss to them from the ends of the earth; and behold, they shall come with speed swiftly. <sup>27</sup>None shall be weary nor stumble among them; none shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the waistcoat of their loins be loosened, nor the thong of their sandals be broken; <sup>28</sup>whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent; their horses' hoofs seem like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind. <sup>29</sup>Their roaring shall be like a lion; they shall roar like young lions; for, they shall roar and lay hold of the prey, and carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it. <sup>30</sup>And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea; and one looks to the land, behold darkness, and lo, darkness! Distress! And the light shall be darkened by its clouds.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>In the year that king Uzziah died I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up, and His train filled the temple. <sup>2</sup>Above it stood the seraphs; each one had six wings; with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and

with two he flew. <sup>3</sup>And one cried to another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth full of His glory. <sup>4</sup>And the doorposts moved at the voice of the one who cried, and the house was filled with smoke. <sup>5</sup>Then I said, Woe is me! For I am undone; for I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, Jehovah. <sup>6</sup>Then one of the seraphs flew to me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar. <sup>7</sup>And he laid it on my mouth and said, Lo, this has touched your lips; and your iniquity is taken away, and your sin purged. <sup>8</sup>And I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then I said, Here am I; send me! <sup>9</sup>And He said, Go, and tell this people, You hear indeed, but do not understand; and seeing you see, but do not know. <sup>10</sup>Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their hearts, and be converted, and be healed. <sup>11</sup>Then I said, Lord, how long? And He answered, Until the cities are wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land laid waste, a desolation, <sup>12</sup>and until the LORD has moved men far away, and the desolation in the midst of the land is great. <sup>13</sup>But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return and be consumed like the terebinth and like the oak being felled, yet has its stump — the holy seed is its stump.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>And it happened in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not overcome it. <sup>2</sup>And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is allied with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the woods are moved by the wind. <sup>3</sup>Then the LORD said to Isaiah, Go out now to meet Ahaz, you and Shear-jashub your son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the Fuller's Field. <sup>4</sup>And say to him, Be careful and be quiet. Do not fear, nor be timid of heart because of the two tails of these smoking firebrands, because of the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria, and of the son of Remaliah; <sup>5</sup>because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah have plotted against you, saying, <sup>6</sup>Let us go up against Judah and trouble it, and break her for ourselves, and set a king in the midst of it, the son of Tabeal. <sup>7</sup>So says the Lord God, It shall not stand, nor shall it come to pass. <sup>8</sup>For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within sixty-five years Ephraim shall be broken so that it shall not be a people. <sup>9</sup>And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If you will not believe, surely you shall not be established.

<sup>10</sup>And the LORD spoke again to Ahaz, saying, <sup>11</sup>Ask a sign of the LORD your God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above. <sup>12</sup>But Ahaz said, I will not ask, nor will I tempt the LORD. <sup>13</sup>And he said, Hear now, O house of David; is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will you weary my God also? <sup>14</sup>So, the Lord Himself shall give you a sign. Behold, the virgin shall be with child and shall bring out a son, and they shall call His name Immanuel. <sup>15</sup>Butter and honey he shall eat until he knows to refuse the evil and choose the good. <sup>16</sup>For before the child shall know to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land by which you are vexed shall be forsaken before both its kings. <sup>17</sup>The LORD shall bring on you, and on your people, and on your father's house, days that have not come, since the days that Ephraim departed from Judah, the king of Assyria. <sup>18</sup>And it shall be, in that day the LORD shall hiss for the fly at the end of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. <sup>19</sup>And they shall come and all of them shall rest in the desert valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and on all thorns, and on all bushes. <sup>20</sup>In the same day the LORD shall shave with a razor that is hired, namely, by those Beyond the River, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet; and it shall also sweep away the beard. <sup>21</sup>And it shall be, in that day a man shall keep alive a young cow and two sheep; <sup>22</sup>and it will be, from the plentiful supply of milk they shall give, he shall eat butter; for butter and honey shall everyone eat who is left in the land. <sup>23</sup>And it shall be, in that day every place where there were a thousand vines, worth a thousand pieces of silver, it shall even be for briars and thorns. <sup>24</sup>With arrows and with the bow men shall come there, because all the land shall become briars and thorns. <sup>25</sup>And all hills which were hoed with the hoe, you shall not come there for fear of briars and thorns; but it shall be for the sending out of the ox, and for the trampling of sheep.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD said to me, Take a great scroll and write in it with a man's pen: Make Haste to Plunder! Hasten to the Prey! <sup>2</sup>And I took to myself faithful witnesses to record, Uriah the priest and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah. <sup>3</sup>And I went to the prophetess. And she conceived and bore a son. Then the LORD said to me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz [Make Haste to Plunder]. <sup>4</sup>For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and, My mother, the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD also spoke to me again saying, <sup>6</sup>Because this people has refused the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son; <sup>7</sup>And therefore, behold, the Lord brings on them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria, and all his glory. And he shall come up over all his channels and go over all his banks. <sup>8</sup>And he shall pass through Judah. He shall overflow and go over; he shall reach to the neck. And the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of your land, O Immanuel. <sup>9</sup>Suffer evil, O people, and be broken! And give ear, all from the far places of the earth. Gird yourselves and be broken. Gird yourselves and be broken! <sup>10</sup>Counsel a counsel, and it is frustrated. Speak a word, and it shall not stand; for God is with us. <sup>11</sup>For so the LORD spoke to me with a strong hand, and warned me against walking in the way of this people, saying, <sup>12</sup>Do not say, A conspiracy! to everything of which this people says, A conspiracy! And do not fear their fear, nor be afraid. <sup>13</sup>Sanctify the LORD of hosts Himself, and let Him be your fear, and let Him be your dread. <sup>14</sup>And He shall be a sanctuary for you, but for a stone of stumbling, and for a rock of falling to both the houses of Israel, for a trap and for a snare to the people of Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>And many among them shall stumble and fall and be broken, and be snared, and be taken. <sup>16</sup>Bind up the testimony, seal the law among My disciples. <sup>17</sup>And I will wait on the LORD, who hides His face from the house of Jacob; and I will look for Him. <sup>18</sup>Behold, I and the children whom the LORD has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, who dwells in Mount Zion. <sup>19</sup>And when they shall say to you, Seek to the mediums and to wizards who peep and mutter; should not a people seek to their God, than for the living to the dead? <sup>20</sup>To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. <sup>21</sup>And they shall pass through it, hard-pressed and hungry; and it shall be, they shall be hungry; They shall rave and curse their king and their God, and look upward. <sup>22</sup>And they shall look to the land; and behold, trouble and darkness and gloom of anguish! And they are driven away into deep darkness.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>Yet there will be no gloom for her who was in anguish, as in the former time. He degraded the land of Zebulun, and the land of Naphtali, so afterwards He will glorify the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the nations. <sup>2</sup>The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; they who dwell in the land of the shadow of death, on them the light has shined. <sup>3</sup>You have multiplied the nation. You have not increased the joy. They rejoice before You according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil. <sup>4</sup>For You have broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his taskmaster, as in the day of Midian. <sup>5</sup>For every boot of the warrior is with commotion, and the coat rolled in blood shall be burning fuel for the fire. <sup>6</sup>For to us a Child is born, to us a Son is given; and the government shall be on His shoulder; and His name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. <sup>7</sup>There is no end of the increase of His government and peace on the throne of David, and on His kingdom, to order it and to establish it with judgment and with justice from now on, even forever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

<sup>8</sup>The Lord sent a word to Jacob, and it has fallen on Israel. <sup>9</sup>And all the people shall know, Ephraim and the people of Samaria, who say in pride and hardness of heart, <sup>10</sup>The bricks have fallen down, but we will build with cut stones; the sycamores are cut down, but we use cedars instead. <sup>11</sup>And the LORD shall set up the foes of Rezin against him, and spur on his enemies; <sup>12</sup>Syria in front and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel with open mouth. For all this His anger is not turned away, but His hand is stretched out still. <sup>13</sup>For the people do not turn to Him who strikes them, nor do they seek the LORD of hosts. <sup>14</sup>And the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush, in one day. <sup>15</sup>The elder and honorable, he is the head; and the prophet who teaches lies, he is the tail. <sup>16</sup>For the leaders of this people led them astray; and their guided ones are swallowed up. <sup>17</sup>For this the Lord shall not rejoice over their young men, nor shall He have mercy on their orphans and widows; for everyone is a hypocrite and an evil-doer, and every mouth speaks foolishness. In all this His anger is not turned away, but His hand is stretched out still.

<sup>18</sup>For wickedness burns like the fire; it shall devour the briars and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest, and they shall roll upwards like the lifting up of smoke. <sup>19</sup>Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts is the land scorched, and the people shall be as the fuel of the fire; no man shall have pity on his brother. <sup>20</sup>And he shall cut off on the right hand and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left, and they shall not be satisfied. Each man shall eat the flesh of his own arm; <sup>21</sup>Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh; and they together shall be against Judah. In all this His anger is not turned away, but His hand is stretched out still.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>Woe to those who decree unrighteous decrees, and to the scribes who write toil; <sup>2</sup>to turn aside the needy from judgment, and to steal the right from the poor of My people, that widows may be their prey, and they rob the orphans! <sup>3</sup>And what will you do in the day of judgment and in destruction? It comes from afar? To whom will you flee for help? And where will you leave your glory? <sup>4</sup>Surely they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. In all this His hand is not turned away, but His hand is stretched out still.

<sup>5</sup>Woe to Assyria, the rod of My anger! And the staff in their hand is My fury. <sup>6</sup>I will send him against an ungodly nation, and against the people of My wrath.

I will command him to take the plunder, and to strip off the spoil, and to trample them like the mud of the streets. <sup>7</sup>Yet he does not plan this, nor does his heart think so. For it is in his heart to destroy and cut off many nations. <sup>8</sup>For he says, Are not my commanders all like kings? <sup>9</sup>Is not Calno like Carchemish? Is not Hamath like Arpad? Is not Samaria like Damascus? <sup>10</sup>As my hand has reached to the kingdoms of the idols, and their graven images more than Jerusalem's and Samaria's — <sup>11</sup>shall I not do to Jerusalem and her idols as I have done to Samaria and her idols? <sup>12</sup>And it will be, when the Lord has broken off all His work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the proud heart of the king of Assyria and the glory of his high looks. <sup>13</sup>For he says, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am wise. And I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the people like a strong man. <sup>14</sup>And my hand has found as a nest the riches of the people; and as one gathers eggs that are left, I have gathered all the earth; and there was none who moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped.

<sup>15</sup>Shall the axe boast itself against him who chops with it? Shall the saw magnify itself against him who moves it? As if the rod could wave those who lift it up! As if a staff could raise what is not wood! <sup>16</sup>Therefore the Lord, Jehovah of hosts, shall send leanness among his fat ones; and under his glory He shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire. <sup>17</sup>And the light of Israel shall be as a fire, and His holy One as a flame; and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briars in one day. <sup>18</sup>And it shall burn up the glory of his forest and of his fruitful field, both soul and body; and they shall be as when a standard-bearer faints. <sup>19</sup>And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be few, so that a child might write them.

<sup>20</sup>And it shall be in that day, the remnant of Israel, and those who have escaped from the house of Jacob, shall never again lean on him who struck them; but truly lean on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel. <sup>21</sup>The remnant shall return, the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God. <sup>22</sup>For though Your people Israel are like the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return; the full end which is decreed shall overflow with righteousness. <sup>23</sup>For the Lord Jehovah of hosts shall make a full end, as ordained, in the midst of all the land. <sup>24</sup>Therefore so says the Lord Jehovah of hosts, O my people who dwell in Zion, do not fear Assyria. He shall strike you with a rod, and shall lift up his staff against you, in the way of Egypt. <sup>25</sup>But yet a little while, and the fury shall cease, and My anger shall be in their ruin. <sup>26</sup>And the LORD of hosts shall stir up a whip for Himself according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb; and as His rod was on the sea, so shall He lift it up in the way of Egypt. <sup>27</sup>And it shall be, in that day his burden shall be taken away from off your shoulder, and his yoke from off your neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing. <sup>28</sup>He has come to Aiath, he has passed to Migron; at Michmash he has stored his baggage; <sup>29</sup>they have gone over the passage; they have bedded down at Geba; Ramah is afraid, Gibeah of Saul has fled.

<sup>30</sup>Lift up your voice, daughter of heaps; shriek with your voice; bow Laishah, afflicted of Anathoth. <sup>31</sup>Madmenah wanders; the people of Gebim take refuge. <sup>32</sup>Yet he shall remain in Nob today; he shall shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem. <sup>33</sup>Behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, shall lop the bough with terror; and the lofty ones shall be cut down, and the proud shall be humbled. <sup>34</sup>And he shall cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one.

<sup>1</sup>And a Shoot goes out from the stump of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots. <sup>2</sup>And the Spirit of the LORD shall rest on Him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD. <sup>3</sup>And He is made to breathe in the fear of the LORD. And He shall not judge according to the sight of His eyes, nor decide by the hearing of His ears. <sup>4</sup>But with righteousness He shall judge the poor, and shall decide with uprightness for the meek of the earth. And He shall strike the earth with the rod of His mouth, and with the breath of His lips He shall slay the wicked. <sup>5</sup>And righteousness shall be the girdle of His loins, and faithfulness the girdle of His heart. <sup>6</sup>Also the wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them. <sup>7</sup>And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. <sup>8</sup>And the suckling child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the adder's den. <sup>9</sup>They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain; for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

<sup>10</sup>And in that day there shall be the Root of Jesse standing for a banner of the people; to Him the nations shall seek; and His resting place shall be glorious. <sup>11</sup>And it shall be in that day, the Lord shall again set His hand to recover the remnant of His people that remains, from Assyria and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Ethiopia, and from Persia, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the coasts of the sea. <sup>12</sup>And He shall lift up a banner for the nations, and shall gather the outcasts of Israel and gather together the scattered ones of Judah from the four corners of the earth. <sup>13</sup>And the envy of Ephraim shall depart, and the foes of Judah shall be cut off; Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not trouble Ephraim. <sup>14</sup>But they shall fly on the shoulders of the Philistines to the west; they shall spoil the sons of the east together; they shall lay their hand on Edom and Moab; and the sons of Ammon shall obey them. <sup>15</sup>And the LORD shall utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with His scorching wind He shall shake His hand over the River, and shall strike it into seven streams, and make one tread it with shoes. <sup>16</sup>And there shall be a highway for the remnant of His people, those left from Assyria; as it was to Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>And in that day you shall say, O LORD, I will praise You; though You were angry with me, turn away Your anger, and You shall comfort me. <sup>2</sup>Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust and not be afraid for the LORD JEHOVAH is my strength and my song; He also has become my salvation. <sup>3</sup>And with joy you shall draw water out of the wells of salvation. <sup>4</sup>And in that day you shall say, Praise the LORD! Call on His name; declare His doings among the people, make mention that His name is exalted. <sup>5</sup>Sing to the LORD; for He has done excellent things; this is known in all the earth. <sup>6</sup>Cry out and shout, O dweller of Zion; for great is the Holy One of Israel in your midst.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw: <sup>2</sup>Lift up a banner on a bare mountain, exalt the voice to them, shake the hand, so that they may go into the gates of the nobles. <sup>3</sup>I have commanded My holy ones, I have also called My mighty ones for anger, those who rejoice in My highness. <sup>4</sup>The noise of a multitude in the mountains, as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together; the LORD of hosts gathers an army for the battle. <sup>5</sup>They come from a far country, from the end of the heavens, the LORD and the weapons of His indignation, to destroy all land. <sup>6</sup>How! For the day of the LORD is at hand; it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty. <sup>7</sup>Therefore all hands shall be faint, and every man's heart shall melt; <sup>8</sup>and they shall be afraid. Pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them. They shall be in pain like a woman who travails. They shall be amazed at one another, their faces like flames. <sup>9</sup>Behold, the day of the LORD comes, cruel and with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land waste; and He shall destroy its sinners out of it. <sup>10</sup>For the stars of the heavens and their constellations shall not give light; the sun shall be darkened in its going forth, and the moon shall not reflect its light. <sup>11</sup>And I will visit evil on the world, and their iniquity on the wicked. And I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease, and will lay low the pride of tyrants.

<sup>12</sup>I will make a man more precious than gold; even a man than the fine gold of Ophir. <sup>13</sup>So I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall move out of its place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of His fierce anger. <sup>14</sup>And it shall be as a driven gazelle, and as a sheep that no man takes up; each man shall look to his own people, and each one flee into his own land. <sup>15</sup>Everyone who is found shall be thrust through; and everyone who is joined to them shall fall by the sword. <sup>16</sup>And their children shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be robbed, and their wives raped. <sup>17</sup>Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, who shall not value silver; and they shall not delight in gold. <sup>18</sup>And bows shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not pity sons. <sup>19</sup>And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the majestic beauty of the Chaldees, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. <sup>20</sup>It shall never be inhabited forever, nor shall it be lived in from generation to generation; nor shall the Arabian pitch his tent there; nor shall the shepherds make their flocks there. <sup>21</sup>But the wild beasts of the desert shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of howling creatures; and ostriches shall dwell there, and he-goats shall dance there. <sup>22</sup>And hyenas shall cry along with his widows, and jackals in palaces of delight. Yea, her time is coming near, and her days shall not be prolonged.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>For the LORD will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel and set them in their own land; and the stranger shall be joined with them, and they shall cling to the house of Jacob. <sup>2</sup>And the peoples shall take them and bring them to their place; and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the LORD for slaves and slave girls. And they shall be captives of their captors; and they shall rule over their oppressors. <sup>3</sup>And it shall be in the day that the LORD shall give you rest from your sorrow, and from your fear, and from the hard bondage which was pressed on you, <sup>4</sup>you shall take up this song against the king of Babylon and say, How the exactor, the gold gatherer has ceased! <sup>5</sup>The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of the rulers <sup>6</sup>who struck peoples in wrath, a blow without turning away, ruling the nations in anger, a persecution without restraint. <sup>7</sup>All the earth is at rest and is quiet; they break out into singing. <sup>8</sup>Yea, the fir trees rejoice at you, the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since you have fallen, no woodcutter will come up against us.

<sup>9</sup>Hell from below is moved for you, to meet you at your coming. It stirs up the dead for you, all the he-goats of the earth. It has raised from their thrones all the kings of the nations. <sup>10</sup>All of them shall speak and say to you, Are you also as weak as we? Are you like us? <sup>11</sup>Your pride is brought down to the grave, and the noise of your harps. The maggot is spread under you, and the worms cover you. <sup>12</sup>How you are fallen from the heavens, O shining star, son of the morning! How you are cut down to the ground, you who weakened the nations! <sup>13</sup>For you have said in your heart, I will go up to the heavens, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will also sit on the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north. <sup>14</sup>I will go up above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the Most High. <sup>15</sup>Yet you shall be brought down to hell, to the sides of the Pit. <sup>16</sup>Those who see you shall stare and closely watch you, saying, Is this the man who made the earth to tremble; who shook kingdoms; who made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed its cities; who did not open the house for his prisoners? <sup>18</sup>All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, every one in his own house. <sup>19</sup>But you are cast out of your grave like a hateful branch, and like the clothing of those who are slain, thrust through with a sword, that go down to the stones of the pit; like a dead body trampled under foot. <sup>20</sup>You shall not be joined with them in burial, because you ruined your land and killed your people; the seed of evildoers shall never be famous. <sup>21</sup>Prepare slaughter for his sons, because of the iniquity of their fathers, so that they do not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities. <sup>22</sup>For I will rise up against them, says the LORD of hosts, and cut off from Babylon the name and remnant, and son, and grandson, says the LORD. <sup>23</sup>I will also make it a possession of the hedgehog, and pools of water; and I will sweep it with the broom of ruin, says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>24</sup>The LORD of hosts has sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so it shall come to pass; and as I have purposed, it shall stand; <sup>25</sup>to break Assyria in My land and on My mountains trample him under foot. Then his yoke shall be removed from them, and his burden shall be taken off their shoulders. <sup>26</sup>This is the purpose that is purposed on all the earth; and this is the hand that is stretched out on all the nations. <sup>27</sup>For the LORD of hosts has purposed, and who shall reverse it? And this His hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?

<sup>28</sup>This burden was in the year that king Ahaz died: <sup>29</sup>Rejoice not, O Philistia, all of you, that the rod of your striking is broken. For a viper comes forth from the root of a snake, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent. <sup>30</sup>And the first-born of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety; and I will kill your root with famine, and he shall slay your remnant. <sup>31</sup>Howl, O gate! Cry, O city! O Philistia, all of you, are melted away; for from the north a smoke comes, and no straggler in his ranks. <sup>32</sup>What shall one then answer the messengers of the nation? That the LORD has founded Zion, and the poor of His people shall trust in it.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>The burden of Moab. Because Ar of Moab is laid waste; it is cut off; because in a night Kir of Moab is laid waste; it is cut off. <sup>2</sup>One has gone up to the house, even to Dibon, the high places, to weep. Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba; baldness shall be on all their heads, every beard cut off. <sup>3</sup>In the streets they shall clothe themselves with sackcloth; on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, everyone shall howl, melting in tears. <sup>4</sup>And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh; their voice shall be heard as far as Jahaz. So the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; his life is broken to him. <sup>5</sup>My heart shall cry to Moab; his fugitives flee to Zoar, a heifer of three years. He goes up the ascent to Luhith with weeping; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of ruin. <sup>6</sup>For the waters of Nimrim are desolation; for the hay has dried up and the grass fails, there is no green thing. <sup>7</sup>Therefore one made up the remainder and their store; over the torrent of the willows they shall carry them. <sup>8</sup>For the cry has gone around the border of Moab, its howling even to Eglaim; yea, its howling even to Beer-elim.

<sup>9</sup>For the waters of Dimon are full of blood; for I will put on Dimon more things for the escaped ones of Moab — a lion, even for the remnant of the land.

<sup>6</sup>We have heard of the pride of Moab; very proud; even of his vanity, and his pride, and his rage; not so are his babblings. <sup>7</sup>So Moab shall howl for Moab, everyone shall howl. You shall mourn for the raisin-cakes of Kir-hareseth; surely they are stricken. <sup>8</sup>For Heshbon's fields droop, the vine of Sibmah. The lords of the nations have crushed its choice plants, they have come to Jazer, they wander in the desert; her branches are stretched out, they have crossed the sea. <sup>9</sup>Therefore the vine of Sibmah will weep with the weeping of Jazer. I will water you with my tears, O Heshbon and Elealeh; for the shouting has fallen on your fruit and on your harvest. <sup>10</sup>And gladness and joy are gathered out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there is no singing and no shouting. The treader shall tread out no wine in the presses; I have made their shouting to cease. <sup>11</sup>Therefore my belly shall sound like a harp for Moab, and my bowels for Kir-haresh. <sup>12</sup>And it shall be when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, he shall come to his sacred place to pray; but he shall not be able. <sup>13</sup>This is the word that the LORD has spoken to Moab since that time. <sup>14</sup>But now the LORD has spoken, saying, Within three years, as the years of a hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be abased with all that great host and the remnant few; small, not mighty.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>1</sup>The burden against Damascus: Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a heap of ruins. <sup>2</sup>The cities of Aroer are forsaken; now they are for flocks; they shall lie down, and no one terrifies them. <sup>3</sup>And the fortress shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the rest of Syria. They shall be as the glory of the sons of Israel, says the LORD of hosts. <sup>4</sup>And it shall be in that day, the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh shall become lean. <sup>5</sup>And it shall be as reaping of the harvest grain, and his arm reaps the ears. And it shall be as he who gathers ears in the Valley of the Giants. <sup>6</sup>Yet gleaning grapes shall be left in it, as the shaking of an olive tree, two or three ripe olives in the top of the uppermost branch, four or five in the fruit-tree branches of it, says the LORD God of hosts. <sup>7</sup>In that day a man shall look to his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel. <sup>8</sup>And he shall not look to the altars, the work of his hands, nor respect that which his fingers have made, either the Asherim or the images. <sup>9</sup>In that day his strong cities shall be like a forsaken branch, and an uppermost branch, which they left because of the sons of Israel; <sup>10</sup>and there shall be ruin. Because you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have not been mindful of the Rock of your strength, therefore you shall plant pleasant plants and shall sow it a fresh shoot. <sup>11</sup>In the day of your planting you fence it in; and in the morning you make your seed sprout. But the harvest shall be a heap in that day of grief and dying pain. <sup>12</sup>Woe to the multitude of many people, who make a noise like the noise of the seas; and to the rushing of nations who make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters! <sup>13</sup>The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters; but God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased like the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like a rolling thing before the whirlwind. <sup>14</sup>At evening time, behold, terror! Before the morning, he is not! This is the lot of those who plunder us, and the lot of those who rob us.

CHAPTER 18

<sup>1</sup>Woe to the land of whirring of wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia, <sup>2</sup>which sends ambassadors by the sea, even in ships of papyrus on the waters, saying, Go, swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth, to a people terrible from their beginnings and onward; a nation measured out and trampled down, whose land the rivers have spoiled! <sup>3</sup>All people of the world and dwellers on the earth, you will see as one lifts up a banner on the peaks. And you will hear as the blowing of a trumpet. <sup>4</sup>For so the LORD said to me, I will take My rest, and I will look on in My dwelling place, like a clear heat in the sunshine, like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest. <sup>5</sup>For before the harvest, when the bud is perfect, and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, then He will cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, and take away and cut down the branches. <sup>6</sup>They shall be left together to the birds of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth; and the birds shall summer on them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter on them. <sup>7</sup>In that time shall be brought to the LORD of hosts the present of a dreadful people from a tall and smooth, from it and onward; a mighty and trampling nation whose land the rivers have divided, to the place of the name of the LORD of hosts, Mount Zion.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>1</sup>The burden against Egypt: Behold, the LORD rides on a swift cloud and comes into Egypt. And the idols of Egypt shall tremble at His presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in its midst. <sup>2</sup>And I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians; and they shall fight each man against his brother, and each against his neighbor; city against city, kingdom against kingdom. <sup>3</sup>And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst of it, and I will destroy its wisdom. And they shall seek to idols, and to the enchanters, and to the mediums, and to the future-tellers. <sup>4</sup>And I will shut up Egypt into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, says the Lord, The LORD of hosts. <sup>5</sup>And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall fail and dry up. <sup>6</sup>And rivers shall be fouled; the Nile of Egypt will languish and dry up; the reed and the rush shall decay. <sup>7</sup>Bare places shall be at the Nile, by the mouth of the Nile, and everything sown by the Nile shall dry up, driven away, and be no more. <sup>8</sup>The fishermen also shall mourn, and all who drop a hook into the Nile shall wail, and those who spread nets on the waters shall droop. <sup>9</sup>And the workers in fine flax, and the weavers of white cloth shall be ashamed. <sup>10</sup>And her foundations shall be broken, and all who make wages shall be sad of soul. <sup>11</sup>Surely the rulers of Zoan are fools, the counsel of the wise counselors of Pharaoh has become brutish. How do you say to Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings? <sup>12</sup>Where are they? Where are your wise men? And let them tell you now, and let them know what the LORD of hosts has planned against Egypt. <sup>13</sup>The rulers of Zoan have become fools, the rulers of Noph are deceived; they have also caused Egypt to go astray, the chief of her tribes. <sup>14</sup>The LORD has mixed a perverse spirit in its midst; and they have caused Egypt to go astray in all its work, like a drunken man staggers in his vomit. <sup>15</sup>And Egypt shall have no work that the head or tail, branch or rush, may do. <sup>16</sup>In that day Egypt shall be like women; and it shall be afraid and fear because of the shaking of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which He shakes over it. <sup>17</sup>And the land of Judah shall be a terror to Egypt; everyone mentions it shall be afraid within himself, because of the purpose of the LORD of hosts, which He has purposed against it. <sup>18</sup>In that day five cities in the land of Egypt shall speak the language of Canaan and swear to the LORD of hosts; one shall be called the City of Ruin. <sup>19</sup>In that day there shall be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar at its border to the LORD. <sup>20</sup>And it shall be for a sign and for a witness to the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt. For they shall cry to the LORD because of the oppressors, and He shall send them a deliverer, and a great one, and will deliver them.

<sup>21</sup>And the LORD shall be known to Egypt, and Egypt shall know the LORD in that day, and shall offer sacrifice and offering; and vow a vow to the LORD, and repay. <sup>22</sup>And the LORD shall strike Egypt; He shall strike and heal; and they shall return to the LORD, and He shall hear them and shall heal them. <sup>23</sup>In that day there shall be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and Assyria shall come into Egypt, and Egypt into Assyria, and Egypt shall serve Assyria. <sup>24</sup>In that day Israel shall be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the land; <sup>25</sup>whom the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying, Blessed be My people Egypt, and Assyria the work of My hands, and Israel My inheritance.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>1</sup>In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and fought against Ashdod and took it; <sup>2</sup>at that time the LORD spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go and take the sackcloth off your loins, and take your shoe off your foot. And he did so, walking naked and barefoot. <sup>3</sup>And the LORD said, Just as My servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years — a sign and wonder on Egypt and on Ethiopia — <sup>4</sup>so shall the king of Assyria lead away Egypt's prisoners, and the Ethiopian exiles, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with uncovered buttocks, to the shame of Egypt. <sup>5</sup>And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their hope, and of Egypt their glory. <sup>6</sup>And he who lives in this coast shall say in that day, Behold, this has become of our hope to which we fled for help there, to be delivered from before the king of Assyria; and, How shall we escape?

CHAPTER 21

<sup>1</sup>The burden against the desert of the sea: As tempests in the south pass, it comes from the desert, from a terrible land. <sup>2</sup>A harsh vision is revealed to me; the deceiver deceives, and the plunderer plunders. Go up, O Elam; besiege, O Media! I have caused all her sighing to cease. <sup>3</sup>Therefore my loins are filled with pain; pangs have taken hold on me like the pangs of a woman who travails; I was bowed down from hearing; I was troubled from seeing. <sup>4</sup>My heart wanders, terror overwhelms me; He has turned the twilight of my pleasure into trembling. <sup>5</sup>Prepare the table, watch in the watchtower, eat, drink; arise, rulers. Anoint the shield. <sup>6</sup>For so the LORD has said to me, Go, set a watchman, let him declare what he sees. <sup>7</sup>And he saw a chariot with a pair of horsemen, a chariot of an ass, and a chariot of a camel. And he listened closely, very attentively. <sup>8</sup>And he cried, A lion! My lord, without ceasing, I stand on the watchtower by day, and I am stationed at my post all the nights. <sup>9</sup>And, behold, here comes a chariot of a man, a pair of horsemen. And he answered and said, Babylon has fallen, has fallen! And all the graven images of her gods He has smashed to the ground. <sup>10</sup>O my threshing, and the grain of my floor! That which I have heard of the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, I have declared to you.

<sup>11</sup>The burden against Dumah: He calls to me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night? <sup>12</sup>The watchman said, The morning comes, and also the night; if you will inquire, inquire, and come again.

<sup>13</sup>The burden against Arabia: You shall stay in the forest of Arabia, O traveling companies of Dedanites. <sup>14</sup>The people of the land of Tema brought water to him who was thirsty; they went before him who fled with their bread. <sup>15</sup>For they fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the press of war. <sup>16</sup>For so has the LORD said to me, Within a year, according to the years of a hireling, all the glory of Kedar shall fail; <sup>17</sup>and the rest of the number of archers, the mighty men of the sons of Kedar, shall be cut down; for the LORD God of Israel has spoken.

CHAPTER 22

<sup>1</sup>The burden against the valley of vision. What ails you now, that you have gone up to the housetops? <sup>2</sup>Crashings fill the noisy city, the joyous city Your slain ones are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle. <sup>3</sup>All your rulers fled together; they were bound without the bow; all found in you are bound together; they have fled from afar. <sup>4</sup>Therefore I said, Look away from me; I will weep bitterly; do not hurry to comfort me because of the ruin of the daughter of my people. <sup>5</sup>For it is a day of trouble, and of trampling down, and of doubt by the LORD God of hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains. <sup>6</sup>And Persia carried the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir uncovered the shield. <sup>7</sup>And it happened, your choicest valleys were full of chariots; and the horsemen surely set in order at the gate. <sup>8</sup>And he removed Judah's covering, and you looked in that day to the armor of the house of the forest. <sup>9</sup>You have seen also the breaks in the city of David, that they are many; and you gathered the waters of the lower pool. <sup>10</sup>And you have counted the houses of Jerusalem, and you have broken down the houses to fortify the wall. <sup>11</sup>You also made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool; but you have not looked to its Maker, nor had respect to Him who formed it long ago. <sup>12</sup>And in that day the LORD of hosts called to weeping and mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth. <sup>13</sup>Then, lo, joy and gladness, slaying oxen and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine, saying, Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die! <sup>14</sup>And it was revealed in my ears by the LORD of hosts, Surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you until you die, says the Lord Jehovah of hosts.

<sup>15</sup>So says the Lord, Jehovah of hosts, Go, go up to this treasurer, to Shebna who is over the house. Say, <sup>16</sup>What is to you here? And who is here to you, that you have carved out a tomb for yourself here, as one who cuts himself out a tomb on high, who cuts out a home for himself in a rock? <sup>17</sup>Behold, the LORD will hurl you with a hurling, O man, and grasp you with a grasping. <sup>18</sup>Whirling, He will whirl you like a ball into a large country; there you shall die, and there are the chariots of your glory, the shame of your lord's house. <sup>19</sup>And I will drive you from your position, and he will pull you from your station. <sup>20</sup>And in that day it shall be, even I will call My servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah. <sup>21</sup>and I will clothe him with your robe, and will fasten your girdle on him, and I will give your authority into his hand. And he shall be a father to the people of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. <sup>22</sup>And the key of the house of David I will lay on his shoulder; so he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open. <sup>23</sup>And I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a glorious throne to his father's house. <sup>24</sup>And they shall hang on him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the offshoots, all small vessels, from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of jars. <sup>25</sup>In that day, says the LORD of hosts, the nail that is fastened in the sure place shall be removed, and be cut down, and fall. And the burden that was on it shall be cut off. The LORD has spoken.

CHAPTER 23

<sup>1</sup>The burden against Tyre: Howl, ships of Tarshish! For it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in. From the land of Chittim it is revealed to them. <sup>2</sup>Be still, inhabitants of the coast, merchant of Sidon, who pass over the sea. They have filled you. <sup>3</sup>And by great waters, the seed of Sihor and the harvest of the river Nile was her revenue; and she a mart of nations. <sup>4</sup>Be ashamed, O Sidon; for the sea has spoken, the strength of the sea, saying, I have not traveled nor brought forth. I have not nourished young men nor raised up virgins. <sup>5</sup>As the report comes to Egypt, so they shall be grieved at the report of Tyre. <sup>6</sup>Pass over Tarshish. Howl, inhabitants of the coast! <sup>7</sup>Is this your joyous city from days of her old age? Her own feet carry it afar off to stay. <sup>8</sup>Who has purposed this against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are the weighty of the earth? <sup>9</sup>The LORD of hosts has purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory and to bring into contempt all the weighty of the earth.

<sup>10</sup>Pass through your land like a river, O daughter of Tarshish; there is no more strength. <sup>11</sup>He stretched out His hand over the sea; He shook kingdoms. The LORD has made a decree against the merchant city, to destroy its forts. <sup>12</sup>And He said, You shall rejoice no more, O crushed one, virgin daughter of Sidon. Arise, pass over to Chittim; also there you shall have no rest. <sup>13</sup>Behold the land of the Chaldeans! This people did not exist. Assyria founded it for those who live in the desert. They set up their siege-towers; they stripped its palaces. They made it a ruin. <sup>14</sup>Howl, ships of Tarshish! For your strength is laid waste. <sup>15</sup>And in that day Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king. At the end of seventy years, it will be as the son of a harlot to Tyre. <sup>16</sup>Take a harp, go about the city, O harlot who has been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs so that you may be remembered. <sup>17</sup>And it will be, after the end of seventy years the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world on the face of the earth. <sup>18</sup>And her goods and her wages shall be holiness to the LORD. It shall not be treasured nor laid up, for her goods shall be for those who dwell before the LORD, to eat enough, and for a choice covering.

CHAPTER 24

<sup>1</sup>Behold, the LORD empties the land and makes it bare, and distorts its face, and scatters its inhabitants. <sup>2</sup>And as it is with the people, so it shall be with the priest; as with the servant, so with the master; as with the handmaid, so it with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seiler; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the creditor, so with the debtor. <sup>3</sup>The land shall be completely emptied, and utterly stripped; for the LORD has spoken this word.

<sup>4</sup>The earth mourns and languishes; the world droops and languishes; the proud people of the earth droop. <sup>5</sup>And the land is defiled under its people; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, and have broken the everlasting covenant. <sup>6</sup>Therefore the curse has devoured the earth, and they who dwell in it are deserted; therefore the people of the earth are burned, and few men left. <sup>7</sup>The new wine mourns, the vine droops, all the merry-hearted sigh. <sup>8</sup>The gladness of tabrets ceases, the noise of those who rejoice ends; the joy of the harp ceases.

may come in. <sup>11</sup>A crying for wine is in the streets; all joy is darkened, the gladness in the land has gone. <sup>12</sup>In the city is left desolation, and the gate is stricken with ruin. <sup>13</sup>For so it is in the midst of the land among the people, it shall be like the shaking of an olive tree and as gleanings when the grape harvest is completed. <sup>14</sup>They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the majesty of the LORD, they shall cry aloud from the sea. <sup>15</sup>Therefore glorify the LORD in the east, the name of the Lord Jehovah of Israel in the coasts of the sea. <sup>16</sup>From the ends of the earth we have heard songs, glory to the righteous. But I said, Leanness to me! Leanness to me! Woe to me! Deceivers deceive, even perfidy. Deceivers deceive!

<sup>17</sup>Dread, and the pit, and the snare are on you, O dweller of the earth. <sup>18</sup>And it shall be, he who flees from the sound of dread shall fall into the pit. And he who comes up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare. For the windows from on high are opened, and the foundations of the earth quake. <sup>19</sup>The earth is breaking, breaking! The earth is crashing, crashing! The earth is tottering, tottering! <sup>20</sup>Like a drunkard the earth is staggering, staggering! And it rocks to and fro like a tree-but! And its sins heavy on it; and it shall fall and not rise again. <sup>21</sup>And it shall be in that day, the LORD shall punish the host of the high place on high, and on the kings of the earth on the earth. <sup>22</sup>And they shall be gathered, as prisoners are gathered in a dungeon. And they shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days they shall be judged. <sup>23</sup>Then the moon shall blush, and the sun shall be ashamed, when the LORD of hosts shall reign in Mount Zion, in Jerusalem, and gloriously before His elders.

CHAPTER 25

<sup>1</sup>O LORD, You are my God; I will exalt You, I will praise Your name; for You have done a wonder; Counsels from afar; faithful faithfulness. <sup>2</sup>For You have made a heap from a city; a fortified city into a ruin; a citadel of foreigners to be no city; it shall never be built. <sup>3</sup>Therefore the strong people glorify You, the city of the fearful nations shall fear You. <sup>4</sup>For You are a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the fearful ones is like a storm against the wall. <sup>5</sup>You shalt bring down the noise of foreigners, as the heat in a dry place; even the heat with the shadow of cloud. The shouting of the terrifying ones shall be brought low. <sup>6</sup>And in this mountain the LORD of hosts shall make a feast of fat things for all the people, a feast of wine on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of refined wine on the lees. <sup>7</sup>And He will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering which covers all people, and the veil that is woven over all nations. <sup>8</sup>He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord Jehovah will wipe away tears from all faces. And He shall take away from all the earth the rebuke of His people. For the LORD has spoken. <sup>9</sup>And one shall say in that day, Lo, this is our God. We have waited for Him, and He will save us. This is the LORD; we have waited for Him, we will be glad and rejoice in His salvation. <sup>10</sup>For the hand of the LORD shall rest in this mountain, and Moab shall be trampled under Him, even as straw is trampled in the water of a dung pit. <sup>11</sup>And He shall spread out His hands in their midst, as he who swims strokes to swim. And He shall bring down their pride together with the skill of His hands. <sup>12</sup>And the fortress of the high fort of your walls He will lay low, bring to the ground, to the dust.

CHAPTER 26

<sup>1</sup>In that day this song shall be sung in the land of Judah: We have a strong city; He sets up salvation as our walls and banks. <sup>2</sup>Open the gates, and the righteous nation shall enter in, keeping faithfulness. <sup>3</sup>You will keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on You; because he trusts in You. <sup>4</sup>Trust in the LORD forever; for in the LORD JEHOVAH is everlasting strength. <sup>5</sup>For He brings down those who dwell on high; He lays low the lofty city; He lays it low, even to the ground; He brings it to the dust. <sup>6</sup>The foot shall trample it down, even the feet of the poor and the steps of the needy. <sup>7</sup>The way of the just is uprightness; O Upright One, weigh the path of the just. <sup>8</sup>Yea, in the way of Your judgments, O LORD, we awaited You; for Your name and for Your memory is the desire of our soul. <sup>9</sup>With my soul I desired You in the night; yea, with my spirit within me I will seek You early; for when Your judgments are in the earth, the people of the world learn righteousness.

<sup>10</sup>Let favor be shown to the wicked, yet he will not learn righteousness; in the land of uprightness he will deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the LORD. <sup>11</sup>LORD, Your hand is lifted up, they will not see; but they shall see and be ashamed for their envy toward Your people. Yes, the fire of Your enemies shall devour them. <sup>12</sup>LORD, You will ordain peace for us; for You also have worked all our works in us. <sup>13</sup>O LORD our God, lords besides You have had the rule over us; but by You only will we make mention of Your name. <sup>14</sup>Dead ones do not live; departed spirits do not rise. Therefore You have visited and destroyed them, and made all memory of them to perish. <sup>15</sup>You have increased the nation, O LORD, You have increased the nation; You are glorified; You have extended all the ends of the land. <sup>16</sup>LORD, in trouble they have visited You; they poured out a prayer; Your chastening was on them. <sup>17</sup>As a woman with child draws near to bear, she is in pain and cries out in her pangs; so have we been in Your sight, O LORD. <sup>18</sup>We conceived; we have been in pain, we have as it were brought out wind. We have not brought about any salvation in the earth; nor have the people of the world fallen. <sup>19</sup>Your dead ones shall live, together with my dead body they shall arise. Awake and sing, you who dwell in the dust; for your dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead. <sup>20</sup>Come, my people, enter into your rooms and shut your doors around you; hide yourself as it were for a little moment, until the fury has passed by. <sup>21</sup>For behold, the LORD comes out of His place to punish the people of the earth for their iniquity; the earth also shall reveal her blood, and shall no more cover her dead.

CHAPTER 27

<sup>1</sup>In that day the LORD with His great and grievous and strong sword shall punish the sea-monster, the darting serpent, the sea-monster, that twisting serpent; and He shall kill the monster that is in the sea. <sup>2</sup>In that day sing to her, a delightful vineyard. <sup>3</sup>I the LORD keep it; I will water it every moment; lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day. <sup>4</sup>Fury is not in Me; who would set the briers and thorns against Me in battle? I would go through them; I would burn them together. <sup>5</sup>Or let them take hold of My strength, that he may make peace with Me; and he shall make peace with Me. <sup>6</sup>He shall cause those who come from Jacob to take root; Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit. <sup>7</sup>Has He stricken him, as He struck those who struck Him? Is He slain according to the slaughter of those who are slain by Him? <sup>8</sup>In measure by measure, when sending her away, You punished her. He takes away by His rough wind, in the day of the east wind. <sup>9</sup>By this therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged; and this is all the fruit to take away his sin; when he makes all the stones of the altar as chalk-stones that are beaten in pieces, the Asherahs and sun-pillars shall not stand up. <sup>10</sup>Yet the fortified city shall be wasted, and the dwelling forsaken and left like a wilderness; there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down and eat up its branches. <sup>11</sup>When its branches are dried up, they shall be broken off; the women come and set them on fire; for it is a people of no understanding. Therefore He who made them will not have mercy on them, and He who formed them will show them no favor. <sup>12</sup>And it shall be, in that day the LORD shall beat off His fruit from the stream of the river Euphrates to the brook of Egypt, and you shall be gathered one by one, O sons of Israel. <sup>13</sup>And it shall be, in that day the great trumpet shall be blown, and those who were ready to perish in the land of Assyria shall come, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt shall come and shall worship the LORD in the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 28

<sup>1</sup>Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty is a fading flower which is on the head of the fat valleys of those who are overcome with wine! <sup>2</sup>Behold, the Lord is a mighty and strong one, like a hailstorm, a destroying storm; like a flood of mighty waters overflowing, He casts down to the earth with the hand. <sup>3</sup>The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trampled under foot; <sup>4</sup>and the glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be a fading flower, and as the first-ripe fruit before the summer; which the beholder of it swallows up while it is yet in his hand. <sup>5</sup>In that day the LORD of hosts shall be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, to the rest of His people, <sup>6</sup>and for a spirit of judgment to him who sits in judgment, and for strength to those who turn back the battle to the gate. <sup>7</sup>But they also have sinned through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way. The priest and the prophet have sinned through drink; they are swallowed up by wine; they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment. <sup>8</sup>For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness; no place is clean.

<sup>9</sup>Whom shall He teach knowledge? And whom shall He make to understand doctrine? Those weaned from the milk and drawn from the breasts. <sup>10</sup>For precept must be on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little; <sup>11</sup>for with stammering lips and another tongue He will speak to this people. <sup>12</sup>To whom He said, This is the rest with which you may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing. Yet they were not willing to hear. <sup>13</sup>But the word of the LORD was to them precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken and snared and taken. <sup>14</sup>Therefore hear the word of the LORD, scornful men who rule this people in Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>Because you have said, We have made a covenant with death, and we have an agreement with hell; when the overwhelming rod shall pass through, it shall not come to us; for we have made lies our refuge, and we have hidden ourselves under falsehood, <sup>16</sup>therefore so says the Lord Jehovah, Behold, I place in Zion a Stone for a foundation, a tried Stone, a precious Cornerstone, a sure Foundation; he who believes shall not flee away. <sup>17</sup>Also I will lay judgment to the line, and righteousness to the plummet; and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place. <sup>18</sup>And your covenant with death shall be wiped out, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overwhelming rod shall pass through, then you shall be beaten down by it. <sup>19</sup>From the time that it goes out it shall take you; for morning by morning it shall pass over, by day and by night; and it shall be nothing less than a terror to give ear to the message. <sup>20</sup>For the bed is shorter than one can stretch himself on, and the cover is narrower than one can wrap himself in. <sup>21</sup>For the LORD shall rise up as in Mount Perazim; He shall be angry as in the valley of Gibeon, so that He may do His work, His strange work; and bring to pass His act, His strange act. <sup>22</sup>So then do not be mockers, lest your bands be made strong; for I have heard from the Lord Jehovah of hosts that a full end is decreed on all the earth.

<sup>23</sup>Give ear and hear my voice; listen, and hear my speech. <sup>24</sup>Does the plowman plow all day to sow? Does he open and break the clods of his ground? <sup>25</sup>When he has made the face of it level, does he not cast out the dill and scatter the cummin, and throw in the choice wheat and the chosen barley and the spelt in its border? <sup>26</sup>For his God instructs him to do right; his God teaches him. <sup>27</sup>For the dill is not threshed with a threshing instrument, nor is a cart wheel turned about on the cummin; but the dill is beaten out with a staff and the cummin with a rod. <sup>28</sup>Bread grain is crushed, but not always does one thresh it with threshing. And he drives the wheel of his cart; and his horses do not beat it small. <sup>29</sup>This also comes out from the LORD of hosts, who is wonderful in wisdom, making sound wisdom great.

CHAPTER 29

<sup>1</sup>Woe to Ariel, to Ariel, the city where David dwelt! Add year to year; let them kill their sacrifices. <sup>2</sup>Then I will distress Ariel, and there shall be heaviness and sorrow; and it shall be to me as Ariel. <sup>3</sup>And I will camp against you all around, and will lay siege against you with a mount, and I will raise forts against you. <sup>4</sup>And you shall be brought down; you shall speak out of the ground, and your speech shall be low out of the dust, and your voice shall be like a spiritist, out of the ground, and your speech shall whisper out of the dust. <sup>5</sup>And the multitude of your strangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones shall be as chaff that passes away; yea, it shall be at an instant, suddenly. <sup>6</sup>You shall be visited by the LORD of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake and great noise, with storm and whirlwind, and the flame of devouring fire. <sup>7</sup>And the multitude of all the nations who fight against Ariel, even all who fight against her and her stronghold, and who distress her, shall be like a dream of a night vision. <sup>8</sup>It shall even be as when a hungry one dreams, and behold, he eats; but he wakes and his soul is empty; or as when a thirsty man dreams, and behold, he drinks; but he awakes, and behold, he is faint and his soul is longing. So shall it be with the multitude of all the nations who fight against mount Zion.

<sup>9</sup>Stand still and wonder! Blind your eyes and be blind! They are drunk, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. <sup>10</sup>For the LORD has poured out on you the spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes; He has covered the prophets and your heads, the seers. <sup>11</sup>And the vision of all has become to you like the words of a book that is sealed, which they deliver to one who knows books saying, Please read this; and he says, I cannot, for it is sealed. <sup>12</sup>And the book is delivered to him who does not know books, saying, Please read this; and he says, I do not know books. <sup>13</sup>And the LORD said, Because this people draw near Me with their mouth, and with their lips honor Me, but have removed their heart far from Me, and their fear toward Me is taught by the command of men; <sup>14</sup>therefore, behold, I will go on doing an amazing work among this people, even a marvelous work and a wonder. For the wisdom of their wise ones shall perish, and the understanding of their intelligent ones shall be hidden. <sup>15</sup>Woe to those who go deep to hide their purpose from the LORD! And their works are in the dark, and they say, Who sees us? And who knows us? <sup>16</sup>O your perversity! Shall the Former be counted as the potter's clay; for shall the work say of him who made it, He did not make me? Or shall the thing formed say to him who formed it, He had no understanding? <sup>17</sup>Is it not yet a very little while, and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be counted as a forest?

<sup>18</sup>And in that day the deaf shall hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of their gloom and darkness. <sup>19</sup>And the meek shall increase joy in the LORD, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

CHAPTER 30

<sup>1</sup>Woe to the rebellious sons, says the LORD, who take advice, but not of Me; and who cover with a covering, but not of My Spirit, that they add sin to sin; <sup>2</sup>those who set out to go down to Egypt and have not asked at My mouth; to make themselves strong in the strength of Pharaoh and to trust in the shadow of Egypt! <sup>3</sup>Therefore the strength of Pharaoh shall be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt shall be your curse. <sup>4</sup>For his rulers were at Zoan, and his ambassadors came to Hanes. <sup>5</sup>They were all ashamed of a people who could not profit them, nor be a help nor gain, but a shame and also a reproach.

<sup>6</sup>The burden concerning the beasts of the south. Into the land of trouble and woe. The lioness and the lion are from them; the viper, and the fiery flying serpent. They carry their riches on the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures on the humps of camels, to a people that cannot profit. <sup>7</sup>For Egypt help vainly, and worthless. So I have cried concerning this, Their strength is to sit still.

<sup>8</sup>Now go, write it before them in a tablet, and note it in a book, so that it may be for the time to come forever and ever, <sup>9</sup>that this is a rebellious people, lying sons. They are sons who will not hear the law of the LORD; <sup>10</sup>who say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Do not prophesy to us right things, speak to us smooth things, prophesy falsehood; <sup>11</sup>go out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us. <sup>12</sup>Therefore so says the Holy One of Israel, Because you have despised this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and rest on them; <sup>13</sup>therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a branch ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking comes suddenly in an instant. <sup>14</sup>And He shall break it as the breaking of the potters' vessel that is broken in pieces. He shall have no pity, so that there shall not be found in the breaking of it a piece to take fire from the hearth, or to take water out of the pit. <sup>15</sup>For so says the Lord Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel, In returning and rest you shall be saved; and in quietness and hope shall be your strength. And you would not do so. <sup>16</sup>But you said, No; for we will flee on horses. Therefore you shall flee. And you said, We will ride on the swift; therefore those who pursue you shall be swift. <sup>17</sup>One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five you shall flee, until you are left as a pole on the top of a mountain, and as a sign on a hill. <sup>18</sup>And so the LORD waits to be gracious to you. And therefore He is exalted, that He may have mercy on you. For the LORD is a God of judgment; blessed are all those who wait for Him. <sup>19</sup>For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem; you shall weep no more; He will be very gracious to you at the voice of your cry. When He hears it, He will answer you. <sup>20</sup>And the LORD gives you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction; yet your teachers shall not be removed into a corner any more, but your eyes shall see your teachers. <sup>21</sup>And your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, This is the way, walk in it, when you turn to the right hand and when you turn to the left. <sup>22</sup>You shall also defile the covering of your graven images of silver, and the ornament of your molten images of gold. You shall cast them away like a menstruous cloth. You shall say to it, Get away from here. <sup>23</sup>Then He shall give the rain for your seed, with which you sow the ground. And the bread of the produce of the earth also shall be fat and plentiful. In that day your cattle shall feed in large pastures. <sup>24</sup>Also the oxen and the young asses that plow the ground shall eat clean fodder, which has been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan. <sup>25</sup>And there shall be on every high mountain, and on every high hill, rivers, streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall. <sup>26</sup>And the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD binds up the break of His people and heals the stroke of their wound.

<sup>27</sup>Behold, the name of the LORD comes from far, burning with His anger, and the burden is heavy; His lips are full of fury, and His tongue like a devouring fire. <sup>28</sup>And like an overflowing stream, His breath shall reach to the middle of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity. And a bridle will be in the jaws of the people, causing them to go astray. <sup>29</sup>You shall have a song, as in the keeping of a holy feast night; and gladness of heart, as when one goes with a pipe to come into the mountain of the LORD, to the mighty One of Israel. <sup>30</sup>And the LORD shall cause His glorious voice to be heard, and the bringing down of His arm shall be seen with raging and flame of a devouring fire, with scattering and storm and hailstones. <sup>31</sup>For through the voice of the LORD the Assyrian shall be beaten down, who struck with a rod. <sup>32</sup>And in every place which the ordained staff shall pass, which the LORD shall lay on him, it shall be with tabrets and harps; in battles of shaking He will fight with them. <sup>33</sup>For Tophet is ordained of old; yea, for the king it is prepared. He has made it deep and large. He makes great with fire and wood. The breath of the LORD kindles it, like a torrent of brimstone.

CHAPTER 31

<sup>1</sup>Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help; and lean on horses and trust in chariots, because it is great; and in horsemen, because they are so very strong, but they do not look to the Holy One of Israel, nor do they seek the LORD! <sup>2</sup>Yet He also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not call back His words, but will arise against the house of the evil-doers and against the help of those who work iniquity. <sup>3</sup>And Egypt is a man, and not God; and their horses are flesh, and not Spirit. When the LORD shall stretch out His hand, both he who helps shall fall, and he who is helped shall fall down, and they shall all cease together. <sup>4</sup>For so has the LORD spoken to me: As the lion roars, even the young lion on his prey when a multitude of shepherds are gathered against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor fret himself because of their noise. So the LORD of hosts shall come down to fight for Mount Zion, and on its hill. <sup>5</sup>As birds flying, so the LORD of hosts will defend Jerusalem; also defending, He will deliver it; and passing over He will preserve it.

<sup>6</sup>Turn to Him from whom the sons of Israel have deeply revolted. <sup>7</sup>For in that day every man shall cast away his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your hands have made for you — a sin. <sup>8</sup>Then Assyria shall fall with the sword, not of a great man; and the sword, not of a lowly man, shall devour him. For he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall be put to slavery. <sup>9</sup>And he shall pass over to his stronghold for fear, and his rulers shall be afraid of the banner, says the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and His furnace in Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 32

<sup>1</sup>Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and rulers shall rule in judgment. <sup>2</sup>And a man shall be as a hiding place from the wind, and a shelter from the tempest, like streams of water in a dry place, like the shadow of a great rock in a weary land. <sup>3</sup>And the eyes of those who see shall not be dim, and the ears of those who hear shall listen. <sup>4</sup>And the heart of the rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of those who stutter shall be ready to speak plainly. <sup>5</sup>The fool shall no more be called noble, nor the miser said to be bountiful. <sup>6</sup>For the fool will speak evil, and his heart will work iniquity, to practice hypocrisy and to speak misleading things against the LORD, to make the soul of the hungry empty, and he will take away the drink of the thirsty. <sup>7</sup>Also the weapons of the fool are evil; he thinks of wicked ways to destroy the poor with lying words, even when the needy speaks right. <sup>8</sup>But the noble thinks noble things; and by noble things he shall stand.

<sup>9</sup>Rise up, women who are at ease; hear my voice, careless daughters; listen to my speech. <sup>10</sup>Many days and years you shall be troubled, careless women; for the vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come. <sup>11</sup>Tremble, women at ease; be troubled, careless ones; strip yourselves and make yourselves bare, and put sackcloth on your loins. <sup>12</sup>They shall mourn for the breasts, for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine. <sup>13</sup>On the land of my people shall come up thorns and briars; yea, on all the houses of joy in the joyous city; <sup>14</sup>because the palaces shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city shall be left; the forts and towers shall be for dens forever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks <sup>15</sup>until the Spirit is poured on us from on high, and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field, and the fruitful field is thought to be a forest. <sup>16</sup>Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field. <sup>17</sup>And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the work of righteousness shall be quietness and hope forever. <sup>18</sup>And my people shall dwell in a peaceable home, and in secure dwellings and quiet resting places <sup>19</sup>even when it shall hail, coming down on the forest; and the city shall be low in a low place. <sup>20</sup>Blessed are you who sow beside all waters, who send out the feet of the ox and the ass there.

CHAPTER 33

<sup>1</sup>Woe to the destroyer, and you who have not been destroyed; and to you traitor whom they have not betrayed! When you stop plundering, you shall be plundered. When you stop being a traitor, they shall betray you. <sup>2</sup>O LORD, be gracious to us; we have waited for You; be their arm in the mornings; our salvation also in the time of trouble. <sup>3</sup>At the noise of the tumult the people fled; at the lifting up of Yourself the nations were scattered. <sup>4</sup>And your spoil shall be gathered as the stripping locust gathers; as the running to and fro of locusts he shall run on them. <sup>5</sup>The LORD is exalted; for He dwells on high. He has filled Zion with judgment and righteousness. <sup>6</sup>And He will be the security of your times, and strength of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge; the fear of the LORD is his treasure. <sup>7</sup>Behold, their mighty ones shall cry outside; the messengers of peace shall weep bitterly. <sup>8</sup>The highways lie waste, the traveler ceases. He has broken the covenant. He has despised the cities. He cared for no man. <sup>9</sup>The earth mourns and droops. Lebanon is ashamed; Sharon withers like a wilderness; Bashan and Carmel are shaken out. <sup>10</sup>Now I will rise, says the LORD; now I will be exalted; now I will lift up Myself. <sup>11</sup>You shall conceive chaff, you shall bring out stubble; your breath, like fire, shall devour you. <sup>12</sup>And the people shall be like the burnings of lime; like thorns cut up, they shall be burned in the fire. <sup>13</sup>You who are far off, hear what I have done; and you near ones, know My might.

<sup>14</sup>The sinners in Zion are afraid; terror has surprised the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? Who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings? <sup>15</sup>He who walks righteously and speaks uprightly; he who despises the gain of oppressions, who shakes his hands free from holding bribes, who stops his ears from hearing of blood, and shuts his eyes from seeing evil; <sup>16</sup>He shall dwell on high; his refuge shall be the strongholds of rocks; bread shall be given him; his waters shall be sure. <sup>17</sup>Your eyes shall see the king in his beauty; they shall behold the land that is very far off. <sup>18</sup>Your heart shall dwell on terror. Where is the scribe? Where is the weigher? Where is he who counted the towers? <sup>19</sup>You shall not see a fierce people, a people of a deeper speech than you can understand; of a tongue that no one understands. <sup>20</sup>Look on Zion, the city of our holy meetings; your eyes shall see Jerusalem a quiet home, a tabernacle that shall not be taken down; not one of its stakes shall ever be removed, nor shall any of its cords be broken. <sup>21</sup>But there the glorious LORD will be to us a place of broad rivers and streams, in which no galley with oars shall go, nor shall mighty ship pass by it. <sup>22</sup>For the LORD is our judge, the LORD is our lawgiver, the LORD is our king; He will save us. <sup>23</sup>Your ropes are loosened, they do not hold the base of the mast; they could not spread the sail. Then the prey of a great spoil shall be divided; the lame take the prey. <sup>24</sup>And an inhabitant, the people who live in it shall not say, I am sick; iniquity is taken away.

CHAPTER 34

<sup>1</sup>Come near, nations, to hear; and, you people, listen; let the earth hear, and its fullness; the world, and its offspring. <sup>2</sup>For the anger of the LORD is on all nations, and His fury on all their armies. He has completely destroyed them, He has delivered them to the slaughter. <sup>3</sup>Also their dead shall be thrown out, and their stink shall come up out of their dead bodies, and the mountains shall be melted with their blood. <sup>4</sup>And all the host of the heavens shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled like a scroll; and all their host shall droop, as a leaf falls off from the vine, and as the falling from the fig-tree. <sup>5</sup>For my sword bathed in the heavens. Behold, it shall come down on Edom, and on the people of my curse for judgment. <sup>6</sup>The sword of the LORD is filled with blood; it is made fat with fatness, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams; for the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Edom. <sup>7</sup>And the wild oxen shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls; and their land shall be soaked with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness. <sup>8</sup>For it is the day of the LORD's vengeance, the year to repay for the fighting against Zion. <sup>9</sup>And its streams shall be turned into pitch, and its dust to brimstone, and its land shall become burning pitch. <sup>10</sup>It shall not be put out night or day; its smoke shall go up forever. From generation to generation it shall lie waste; none passes through it forever. <sup>11</sup>But the pelican and the bittern shall possess it; the owl also, and the raven, shall dwell in it. And He shall stretch out on it the line of shame, and the stones of emptiness. <sup>12</sup>They shall call its nobles to the kingdom, but none shall be there, and all her rulers shall be nothing. <sup>13</sup>And thorns shall come up in her palaces, nettles and thistles in its fortresses; and it shall be a home of jackals and a court for ostriches. <sup>14</sup>The wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with the howling beasts; and the shaggy goat shall cry to his fellow. The screech owl also shall rest there, and find for herself a place of rest. <sup>15</sup>There the snake shall nest, and lay, and hatch, and gather under her shadow; there shall the vultures also be gathered, every one with her mate. <sup>16</sup>Seek out of the book of the LORD, and read; not one of these shall fail, none shall lack its mate; for My mouth has commanded, and His Spirit has gathered them. <sup>17</sup>And He has cast the lot for them, and His hand has divided it to them by line; they shall possess it forever, from generation to generation they shall dwell in it.

CHAPTER 35

with joy and singing; the glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, the honor of Carmel and Sharon, they shall see the glory of the LORD and the majesty of our God. <sup>3</sup>Make the weak hands strong and make the feeble knees sure. <sup>4</sup>Say to those of a hasty heart, Be strong, fear not; behold, your God will come with vengeance, with the full dealing of God. He will come and save you. <sup>5</sup>Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. <sup>6</sup>Then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the dumb shall sing; for in the wilderness waters shall break out, and streams in the desert. <sup>7</sup>And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land shall become springs of water in the home of jackals, in its lair, and a place for the reed and rush. <sup>8</sup>And a highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called, The Way of Holiness. The unclean shall not pass over it. But He shall be with them; the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err in it. <sup>9</sup>No lion shall be there, nor any beast of prey shall go up on it; it shall not be found there; but the redeemed shall walk there. <sup>10</sup>And the ransomed of the LORD shall return and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy on their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

CHAPTER 36

<sup>1</sup>And it happened in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and took them. <sup>2</sup>And the king of Assyria sent the chief of the cupbearers from Lachish to Jerusalem, to king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the Fuller's Field. <sup>3</sup>Then Eliakim, Hilkiyah's son, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Asaph's son Joah, the recorder, came out to him. <sup>4</sup>And the chief of the cupbearers said to them, Say now to Hezekiah, So says the great king, the king of Assyria, What hope is this in which you trust? <sup>5</sup>I say, Are only words of the lips wisdom and strength for war? Now, in whom do you trust, that you rebel against me? <sup>6</sup>Lo, you trust in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; on which, if a man lean, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him. <sup>7</sup>But if you say to me, We trust in Jehovah our God; is it not He whose high places and altars Hezekiah has taken away, and said to Judah and Jerusalem, You shall worship before this altar? <sup>8</sup>Now then, please exchange pledges with my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses if you are able on your part to set riders on them. <sup>9</sup>How then will you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? <sup>10</sup>Have I now come up without Jehovah against this land to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land and destroy it. <sup>11</sup>And Eliakim and Shebna and Joah said to the chief of the cupbearers, Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it. But do not speak to us in Jewish in the ears of the people on the wall. <sup>12</sup>But the chief of the cupbearers said, Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall? that they may eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you? <sup>13</sup>Then the chief of the cupbearers stood and cried with a loud voice in Jewish, and said, Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria. <sup>14</sup>So says the king, Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he shall not be able to deliver you. <sup>15</sup>Nor let Hezekiah make you trust in Jehovah, saying, Jehovah will surely deliver us; this city shall not be delivered into the hands of the king of Assyria. <sup>16</sup>Do not listen to Hezekiah; for so says the king of Assyria, Make a blessing with me by a present, and come out to me; and let everyone eat of his vine, and everyone of his fig tree, and everyone drink the waters of his own cistern, <sup>17</sup>until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards. <sup>18</sup>Let not Hezekiah persuade you, saying, Jehovah will deliver us. Has any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? <sup>19</sup>Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? And when have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? <sup>20</sup>Who among all the gods of these lands that have delivered their land out of my hand, that Jehovah should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand? <sup>21</sup>But they were silent and did not answer him a word, for the king's command, saying, Do not answer him. <sup>22</sup>Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn and told him the words of the chief of the cupbearers.

CHAPTER 37

<sup>1</sup>And it happened when king Hezekiah heard, he tore his clothes and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD. <sup>2</sup>And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. <sup>3</sup>And they said to him, So says Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of blasphemy! For the sons have come to the birth, and no strength to bring out. <sup>4</sup>It may be the LORD your God will hear the words of the chief of the cupbearers, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD your God has heard. And you shall lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.

<sup>5</sup>So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. <sup>6</sup>And Isaiah said to them, So you shall say to your master, So says the LORD, Do not be afraid of the words which you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me. <sup>7</sup>Behold, I will send a blast on him, and he shall hear a rumor and return to his own land. And I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land. <sup>8</sup>So the chief of the cupbearers returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah. For he had heard that he had departed from Lachish. <sup>9</sup>And he heard concerning Tirhakeh king of Ethiopia, He has come out to war with you. And he heard and sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, <sup>10</sup>So you shall say to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Do not let your God, in whom you trust, deceive you, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. <sup>11</sup>Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by completely destroying them. And shall you be delivered? <sup>12</sup>Have the gods of the nations delivered those whom my fathers have destroyed: Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the sons of Eden who were in Telassar? <sup>13</sup>Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?

<sup>14</sup>And Hezekiah received the letter from the courier's hand, and read it. And Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD and spread it before the LORD. <sup>15</sup>And Hezekiah prayed to the Lord, saying, <sup>16</sup>O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, who dwells between the cherubs, You are He, God, You alone to all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made the heavens and the earth. <sup>17</sup>Bow down Your ear, O LORD, and hear; open Your eyes, O LORD, and see; and hear all the words of Sennacherib which he has sent to mock the living God. <sup>18</sup>Truly, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations and their land, <sup>19</sup>and have cast their gods into the fire — for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone — so they have destroyed them. <sup>20</sup>And now, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You are the LORD, You alone.

<sup>21</sup>And Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, So says the LORD God of Israel, Because you have prayed to Me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, <sup>22</sup>this is the word which the LORD has spoken concerning him: The virgin, the daughter of Zion, has despised you and laughed you to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. <sup>23</sup>Whom have you mocked and blasphemed? And against whom have you raised your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? Even against the Holy One of Israel. <sup>24</sup>By your servants you have mocked the LORD and have said, I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall cedars of it, and its choice fir trees; and I will go to its greatest height, the forest of its Carmel. <sup>25</sup>I have dug and drunk water; and with the sole of my feet I have dried up all the streams of Egypt. <sup>26</sup>Have you not heard from afar? I made it from days of old, even I have formed it? Now I have brought it to pass that you should be able to lay waste fortified cities into heaps, ruins. <sup>27</sup>And their inhabitants were short of hand; they were dismayed and ashamed. They were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, even grain blasted before it has risen. <sup>28</sup>But I know your sitting down, and your going out, and your coming in, and your rage against Me. <sup>29</sup>Because of your raging against Me, and your arrogance has come up into My ears, therefore I will put My hook in your nose, and My bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way which you came.

<sup>30</sup>And this shall be a sign to you: You shall eat self-sown grain this year; and the second year that which springs of the same; and in the third year you shall sow, and reap, and plant vineyards and eat the fruit of them. <sup>31</sup>The remnant that has escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward and bear fruit upward; <sup>32</sup>for out of Jerusalem shall go out a remnant, and those who escape out of Mount Zion; the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this. <sup>33</sup>So the LORD says this concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it. <sup>34</sup>By the way that he came, by the same he shall return, and shall not come into this city, says the LORD. <sup>35</sup>For I will defend this city to save it, for My own sake and for My servant David's sake.

<sup>36</sup>Then the angel of the LORD went out and struck a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp of Assyria. And they rose early in the morning, and behold, they were all dead corpses. <sup>37</sup>And Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and lived at Nineveh. <sup>38</sup>And it happened as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons struck him with the sword. And they escaped into the land of Ararat; and Esar-haddan his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 38

<sup>1</sup>In those days Hezekiah was sick to death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came to him and said to him, So says the LORD, Set your house in order, for you shall die and not live. <sup>2</sup>Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed to the LORD, <sup>3</sup>and said, Remember now, O LORD, I beseech You, how I have walked before You in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done the good in Your sight. And Hezekiah wept with a great weeping. <sup>4</sup>Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying, <sup>5</sup>Go and say to Hezekiah: So says the LORD, the God of David your father, I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; behold, I will add to your days fifteen years. <sup>6</sup>And I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria. And I will defend this city. <sup>7</sup>And this shall be a sign to you from the LORD that the LORD will do this thing that He has spoken: <sup>8</sup>behold, I will bring again the shadow of the steps, which has gone down in the sun dial of Ahaz, ten steps backward. So the sun returned ten steps, by which steps it had gone down.

<sup>9</sup>The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick and had recovered from his sickness: <sup>10</sup>I said in the cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave; I have numbered the rest of my years. <sup>11</sup>I said, I shall not see Jah, Jehovah, in the land of the living; I shall look on man no more with the people of the world. <sup>12</sup>My generation is departed and removed from me like a shepherd's tent; I have cut off my life like a weaver; He will cut me off with pining sickness; from day even to night You will make an end of me. <sup>13</sup>I place Him before me until morning, that, as a lion, so He will break all my bones; from day even until night You will make an end of me. <sup>14</sup>Like a twittering swallow, so I chatter; I mourn as a dove; my eyes look weakly to the heights. O LORD, I am pressed down; be surety for me.

<sup>15</sup>What shall I say? He has spoken to me, and He Himself has acted; I shall go softly all my years in the bitterness of my soul. <sup>16</sup>O LORD, by these things men live, and in all these is the life of my spirit; so You will recover me, and make me to live. <sup>17</sup>Behold, I had great bitterness for peace; but You loved my soul from the pit of destruction. You have cast all my sins behind Your back. <sup>18</sup>For the grave cannot praise You, death can not rejoice in You; they who go down into the pit cannot hope for Your truth. <sup>19</sup>The living, the living, he shall praise You, as I do this day; the father shall make Your truth known to the children. <sup>20</sup>For the LORD is for my salvation; and we will sing my songs on the stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the LORD. <sup>21</sup>For Isaiah had said, Let them take a cake of figs and rub it on the ulcer; and he will live. <sup>22</sup>And Hezekiah said, What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?

CHAPTER 39

<sup>1</sup>At that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he had heard that he had been sick, and had recovered. <sup>2</sup>And Hezekiah rejoiced over them, and showed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his kingdom that Hezekiah did not show them. <sup>3</sup>Then Isaiah the prophet came to king Hezekiah, and said to him, What did you say to these men? And where did they come from to you? And Hezekiah said, They have come from a far country to me, from Babylon. <sup>4</sup>Then he said, What have they seen in your house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in my house they have seen; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them. <sup>5</sup>Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts: <sup>6</sup>Behold, the days come when all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon. Nothing shall be left, says the LORD. <sup>7</sup>And of your sons which shall issue from you, which you shall bring out, they shall take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. <sup>8</sup>Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which you have spoken. And he said, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

CHAPTER 40

<sup>1</sup>Comfort, O comfort my people, says your God. <sup>2</sup>Speak lovingly to the heart of Jerusalem, and cry to her that her warfare is done, that her iniquity is pardoned; for she has received of the LORD's hand double for all her sins. <sup>3</sup>The voice of him who cries in the wilderness, Prepare the way of the LORD, make straight a highway in the desert for our God. <sup>4</sup>Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low; and the crooked places shall be made level, and the rough places smooth; <sup>5</sup>and the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of the LORD has spoken. <sup>6</sup>The voice said, Cry! And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the beauty of it is as the flower of the field. <sup>7</sup>The grass withers, the flower fades; because the Spirit of the LORD blows on it; surely the people is grass. <sup>8</sup>The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God shall stand forever.

<sup>9</sup>You who bring good tidings to Zion, get up into the mountain. Lift up your voice with strength, O you who bring good tidings to Jerusalem; lift up, do not be afraid. Say to the cities of Judah, Behold your God! <sup>10</sup>Behold, the Lord Jehovah will come with a strong hand, and His aim shall rule for Him; behold, His reward is with Him, and His work before Him. <sup>11</sup>He shall feed His flock like a shepherd; He shall gather the lambs with His arm, and carry them in His bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young. <sup>12</sup>Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and measured out the heavens with a span? And who has shut up the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance? <sup>13</sup>Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD, and what man taught Him counsel? <sup>14</sup>With whom did He take counsel, and who instructed Him and taught Him in the path of judgment, and taught Him knowledge, and showed the way of understanding to Him? <sup>15</sup>Behold, the nations are like a drop in a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the scales; behold, He takes up the coasts as a very little thing. <sup>16</sup>And Lebanon is not enough to burn, nor the beasts of it enough for a burnt offering. <sup>17</sup>All nations before Him are as nothing; and to Him they are thought to be less than nothing, and vanity.

<sup>18</sup>To whom then will you compare God? Or what likeness will you compare to Him? <sup>19</sup>The workman melts a graven image, and the goldsmith spreads it over with gold, and casts silver chains. <sup>20</sup>He too poor for that offering chooses a tree that will not rot; he looks for a skillful workman to prepare a graven image that shall not be moved. <sup>21</sup>Have you not known? Have you not heard? Has it not been told you from the beginning? Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth? <sup>22</sup>It is He who sits on the circle of the earth, and its people are like grasshoppers; who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them out like a tent to dwell in; <sup>23</sup>who brings the rulers to nothing; He makes the judges of the earth as vanity. <sup>24</sup>Yes, they shall not be planted; yes, they shall not be sown. Yes, their stump shall not take root in the earth. And He shall also blow on them, and they shall wither, and the tempest shall take them away like stubble. <sup>25</sup>To whom then will you compare Me, or am I equaled? says the Holy One. <sup>26</sup>Lift up your eyes on high, and behold, who has created these, who brings out their host by number? He calls them all by names by the greatness of His might, for He is strong in power; not one is lacking. <sup>27</sup>Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel, My way is hidden from the LORD and my judgment has passed over from my God? <sup>28</sup>Have you not known? Have you not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, does not grow weak nor weary? There is no searching of His understanding. <sup>29</sup>He gives power to the weary; and to him with no vigor; He increases strength. <sup>30</sup>Even the young shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall; <sup>31</sup>but those who wait on the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint.

CHAPTER 41

<sup>1</sup>Keep silence before Me, O coasts; and peoples shall renew strength; let them come near; then let them speak; let us come near together for judgment. <sup>2</sup>Who raised up the righteous one from the east, called him to His foot, gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? He gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow. <sup>3</sup>He pursued them; he passed on in peace. He does not go by the way of his feet. <sup>4</sup>Who has planned and done it, calling forth the generations from the beginning? I the LORD am the first and the last; I am He. <sup>5</sup>The coasts saw and feared; the ends of the earth were afraid, and drew near, and came. <sup>6</sup>They each one helped his neighbor, and said to his brother, Be strong. <sup>7</sup>So the artisan strengthens the refiner, and he smoothing with the hammer, him who struck the anvil, saying of soldering, It is good. And he made it strong with nails; it will not be moved.

<sup>8</sup>But you, Israel, are My servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham, My friend; <sup>9</sup>whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called you from its sides. And I said to you, You are My servant; I have chosen you, and not cast you away. <sup>10</sup>Do not fear; for I am with you; be not dismayed; for I am your God. I will make you strong; yes, I will help you; yes, I will uphold you with the right hand of My righteousness. <sup>11</sup>Behold, all those who were angered against you shall be ashamed and confounded; they shall be as nothing. And those who fight with you shall perish. <sup>12</sup>You shall seek them, and shall not find them, even those who fought with you; men warring against you shall be as nothing, and as a worthless thing. <sup>13</sup>For I, the LORD your God, will hold your right hand, saying to you, Do not fear; I will help you. <sup>14</sup>Do not fear, worm of Jacob and men of Israel; I will help you, says the LORD, and your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel. <sup>15</sup>Behold, I make you a new sharp threshing instrument with teeth; you shall thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shall make the hills like chaff. <sup>16</sup>You shall fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and a tempest shall scatter them. And you shall rejoice in the LORD and shall glory in the Holy One of Israel. <sup>17</sup>The poor and needy seek water, and there is none; their tongue fails for thirst, I the LORD will hear them, I the God of Israel will not leave them. <sup>18</sup>I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys; I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water. <sup>19</sup>I will plant the cedar in the wilderness, the acacia tree, and the myrtle, and the oil tree. I will set the fir tree in the desert, and the pine, and the box tree together; <sup>20</sup>so that they may see, and know, and look on, and understand together, that the hand of the LORD has done this, and the Holy One of Israel has created it.

<sup>21</sup>Bring near your cause, says the LORD; bring out your strong reasons, says the King of Jacob. <sup>22</sup>Let them bring them out, and show us what shall happen; let them show the former things, what they are, that we may look on them and know the final end of them; or declare to us things to come. <sup>23</sup>Show the things that will happen in the future, so that we may know that you are gods. Yes, do good, or do evil, so that we may be amazed and see together. <sup>24</sup>Behold, you are of nothing, and your work of nothing. He who chooses you is an abomination. <sup>25</sup>I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come from the sunrise; he will call on My name. And he shall come on rulers as on mortar, and as the potter tramples clay. <sup>26</sup>Who has declared from the beginning, that we may know? And beforetime, that we may say, He is righteous? Yea, no one declares; yea, no one proclaims; yea, no one hears your words. <sup>27</sup>I first shall say to Zion, Behold! Behold them! and I will give to Jerusalem one who brings good news. <sup>28</sup>For I looked, and there was no man; and of these no counselor was, that I might ask and they could answer. <sup>29</sup>Behold, they are all evil; their works are nothing; their images are wind and vanity.

CHAPTER 42

<sup>1</sup>Behold My Servant, whom I uphold; My Elect, in whom My soul delights. I have put My Spirit on Him; He shall bring out judgment to the nations. <sup>2</sup>He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause His voice to be heard in the street.<sup>3</sup> A bruised reed He shall not break, and a smoking wick He shall not quench; He shall bring out judgment to truth.<sup>4</sup> He shall not fail nor be discouraged until He has set judgment in the earth; and the coasts shall wait for His law.<sup>5</sup> So says Jehovah God, He who created the heavens and stretched them out, spreading out the earth and its offspring; He who gives breath to the people on it and spirit to those who walk in it.<sup>6</sup> I the LORD have called You in righteousness, and will hold Your hand, and will keep You, and give You for a covenant of the people, for a Light of the nations;<sup>7</sup> to open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and those who sit in darkness out of the prison house.<sup>8</sup> I am the LORD; that is My name; and My glory I will not give to another, nor My praise to graven images.<sup>9</sup> Behold, the former things have come to pass, and new things I declare; before they happen, I tell you of them.

<sup>10</sup>Sing to the LORD a new song; His praise from the end of the earth, you who go down to the sea, and its fullness; coasts and their peoples.<sup>11</sup> Let the wilderness and its cities lift up their voice, the villages where Kedar dwells. Let the dwellers of the rock sing, let them shout from the mountain tops.<sup>12</sup> Give glory to the LORD and declare His praise in the coasts.<sup>13</sup> The LORD goes out as a warrior, He stirs up zeal like a man of wars; He cries, yea, roar; He overcomes His enemies.<sup>14</sup> I have kept silence from forever; I have been still and refrained. Now I will cry like a woman in pangs of labor, I will pant and gasp at once.<sup>15</sup> I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their plants. And I will make the rivers coastlands, and I will dry up the pools.<sup>16</sup> And I will bring the blind by a way they knew not; I will lead them in paths they have not known; I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. I will do these things to them, and not forsake them.<sup>17</sup> They are turned back, they are greatly ashamed, those who trust in graven images and who say to the images, You are our gods.<sup>18</sup> Hear, deaf ones; and blind ones look to see.<sup>19</sup> Who is blind but My servant? Or deaf, as My messenger whom I sent? Who is blind as he who is perfect, and blind as the LORD's servant?<sup>20</sup> You see many things, but do not pay attention. You open the ears, but do not hear.<sup>21</sup> The LORD is well pleased for His righteousness sake; He will magnify the Law and make it honorable.

<sup>22</sup>But this is a people robbed and spoiled; all of them snared in holes, and they are hidden in prison-houses; they have been taken, and none delivers them; a prize, and none says, Give back.<sup>23</sup> Who among you will hear this? He will listen and hear for the time to come?<sup>24</sup> Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to robbers? Did not the LORD, against whom we have sinned? For they would not walk in His ways, nor did they obey His law.<sup>25</sup> So He has poured on him the fury of His anger, and the strength of battle. And it has set him on fire all around, yet he did not know; and it burned him, yet he did not lay it to heart.

CHAPTER 43

<sup>1</sup>But now so says the LORD who created you, O Jacob, and He who formed you, O Israel; Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by your name; you are Mine.<sup>2</sup> When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow you. When you walk through the fire, you shall not be burned; nor shall the flame kindle on you.<sup>3</sup> For I am the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Saviour; I gave Egypt for your ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for you.<sup>4</sup> Since you were precious in My sight, you have been honored, and I have loved you; therefore I will give men for you, and people for your life.<sup>5</sup> Fear not; for I am with you. I will bring your seed from the east, and gather you from the west.<sup>6</sup> I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Do not keep back;

bring My sons from far and My daughters from the ends of the earth; <sup>7</sup>everyone who is called by My name; for I have created him for My glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him.

<sup>8</sup>Bring out the blind people who have eyes, and the deaf who have ears. <sup>9</sup>Let all the nations be brought together, and let the people be gathered; who among them can declare this and show us former things? Let them bring out their witnesses, that they may be justified; or let them hear, and say, It is true. <sup>10</sup>You are My witnesses, says the LORD, and My servant whom I have chosen; that you may know and believe Me, and understand that I am He. Before Me no God was formed, nor shall there be after Me. <sup>11</sup>Even I, am the LORD; and there is none to save besides Me. <sup>12</sup>I have declared, and have saved, and I have shown, when there was no strange god among you; therefore you are My witnesses, says the LORD, that I am God. <sup>13</sup>Yea, before the day was, I am He; and no one delivers out of My hand; I will work, and who will reverse it?

<sup>14</sup>So says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their nobles and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships. <sup>15</sup>I am the LORD, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King. <sup>16</sup>So says the LORD, who makes a way in the sea and a path in the mighty waters; <sup>17</sup>who brings out the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise; they are put out, they are snuffed out like a wick. <sup>18</sup>Do not remember the former things, nor consider the things of old. <sup>19</sup>Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall sprout; shall you not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, rivers in the desert. <sup>20</sup>The beasts of the field shall honor Me, the jackals and the ostriches; because I give waters in the wilderness and rivers in the desert, to give drink to My people, My chosen. <sup>21</sup>This people that I formed for Myself; they shall declare My praise. <sup>22</sup>But you have not called on Me, O Jacob; but you have been weary of Me, O Israel. <sup>23</sup>You have not brought Me the lamb of your burnt offerings; nor have you honored Me with your sacrifices. I have not caused you to serve with an offering, nor wearied you with incense. <sup>24</sup>You have bought Me no sweet cane with money, nor have you filled Me with the fat of your sacrifices; but you have burdened Me with your sins; you have wearied Me with your iniquities. <sup>25</sup>I am He who blots out your sins for My own sake, and will not remember your sins. <sup>26</sup>Cause Me to remember; let us enter into judgment; declare yourself, that you may be justified. <sup>27</sup>Your first father has sinned, and your teachers have sinned against Me. <sup>28</sup>And I will defile rulers of the sanctuary, and will give Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches.

CHAPTER 44

<sup>1</sup>Yet now hear, O Jacob My servant, and Israel whom I have chosen; <sup>2</sup>So says the LORD who made you, and formed you from the womb, who will help you; Fear not, O Jacob My servant, and you, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen. <sup>3</sup>For I will pour water on him who is thirsty, and floods on the dry ground. I will pour My spirit on your seed, and My blessing on your offspring; <sup>4</sup>and they shall spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water-courses. <sup>5</sup>One shall say, I am the LORD's; and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall write with his hand, For the LORD, and be named by the name of Israel.

<sup>6</sup>So says the LORD, the King of Israel, and His redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and besides Me there is no God. <sup>7</sup>And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it and set it in order for Me, since I placed the people of old? And the things that are coming, and shall come, let them show to them. <sup>8</sup>Fear not, nor be afraid; have I not told you since then? So you are My witnesses. Is there a God besides Me? Yea, there is no God; I do not know any.

<sup>9</sup>Those who make a graven image are all of them vanity; and the things in which they delight shall not help; and they are their own witnesses. They do not see nor know, that they may be ashamed. <sup>10</sup>Who has formed a god, or melted a graven image that is good for nothing? <sup>11</sup>Behold, all his companions shall be ashamed; and the craftsmen; they are from men. They shall assemble; all of them shall stand; they shall dread; they shall be ashamed together. <sup>12</sup>He engraves iron with a tool. He works in the coals, and forms it with hammers, and works it with the strength of his arms. Yes, he is hungry, and his strength fails; he drinks no water, and is weak. <sup>13</sup>He fashions wood, and stretches a line; he marks it out with a pencil; he shapes it with carving tools, and he marks it out with the compass, and makes it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man, to sit in the house. <sup>14</sup>He cuts down cedars, and takes cypress and oak, which he brings up for himself among the trees of the forest; he plants an ash, and the rain makes it great. <sup>15</sup>And it shall be for a man to burn; for he will take some of it, and warm himself. Yes, he kindles it and bakes bread; yes, he makes a god and worships; he makes it a graven image and falls down to it. <sup>16</sup>He burns part of it in the fire; with part of it he eats flesh; he roasts roast and is satisfied; yea, he warms himself, and says, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire. <sup>17</sup>And the rest of it he makes into a god, his graven image; he falls down to it and worships, and prays to it, and says, Deliver me! for you are my god.

<sup>18</sup>They have not known nor understood; for He has shut their eyes so that they cannot see; and their hearts so that they cannot understand. <sup>19</sup>And none thinks within his heart, nor is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread on the coals of it; I have roasted flesh and eaten; and shall I make the rest of it an abomination? Shall I fall down to the stock of a tree? <sup>20</sup>He feeds on ashes; a deceived heart has turned him aside, so that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?

<sup>21</sup>Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for you are My servant; I have formed you; you are My servant; O Israel, you shall not be forgotten by Me. <sup>22</sup>I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, your transgressions, and, as a cloud, your sins; return to Me; for I have redeemed you. <sup>23</sup>Sing, O heavens; for the LORD has done it. Shout, lower parts of the earth. Break out into singing, O mountains, O forest, and every tree in it. For the LORD has redeemed Jacob, and glorified Himself in Israel. <sup>24</sup>So says the LORD, your Redeemer, and your Former from the womb, I am the LORD who makes all things; who stretches out the heavens alone; who spreads out the earth; <sup>25</sup>who brings to nothing the signs of the liars, and makes diviners mad; who turns wise men backward, and makes their knowledge foolish; <sup>26</sup>who makes the word of His servant sure, and makes good the counsel of His messengers; who says to Jerusalem, She shall have people; and to the cities of Judah, You shall be built, and I will raise up the waste places of it; <sup>27</sup>who says to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up your rivers; <sup>28</sup>who says of Cyrus, He is My shepherd, and shall do all My pleasure; even saying to Jerusalem, You shall be built; and to the temple, Your foundation shall be laid.

CHAPTER 45

<sup>1</sup>So says the LORD to His anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have made strong in order to humble nations before him. And I will loosen the loins of kings, to open before him the two-leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut. <sup>2</sup>I will go before you, and make hills level. I will break in pieces the bronze gates, and cut the iron bars in two. <sup>3</sup>And I will give you the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that you may know that I am the LORD, who calls you by your name, the God of Israel. <sup>4</sup>For Jacob My servant's sake, and Israel My elect,

I have even called you by your name; I have named you, though you have not known me. <sup>3</sup>I am the LORD, and there is none else; there is no God besides Me; I clothed you, though you have not known Me; <sup>4</sup>that they may know from the rising of the sun, and to the sunset, that there is none besides Me. I am the LORD, and there is none else; <sup>7</sup>forming the light and creating darkness; making peace and creating evil. I the LORD do all these things.

<sup>8</sup>Drop down from above, O heavens, and let the clouds pour down righteousness. Let the earth open, and let salvation bear fruit; and let righteousness spring up together. I the LORD have created it. <sup>9</sup>Woe to him who fights with his Former, a potsherd among the potsherds of the earth! Shall the clay say to its former, What are you making? Or your work, He has no hands? <sup>10</sup>Woe to him who says to his father, What are you fathering? Or to the woman, What are you laboring over?

<sup>11</sup>So says the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and his Former, Do you ask Me of things to come? Do you give command to Me about My sons, and about the work of My hands? <sup>12</sup>I have made the earth, and created man on it; I with My hands have stretched out the heavens; and all their host have I commanded. <sup>13</sup>I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will direct all his ways; he shall build My city, and he shall let My captives go, not for price nor reward, says the LORD of hosts. <sup>14</sup>So says the LORD, The labor of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia, and of the Sabceans, men of stature, shall come to you, and they shall be yours. They shall come after you in chains; and they shall cross in chains and they shall fall down to you. They shall plead to you, saying, Surely God is in you; and none else, no other God. <sup>15</sup>Truly You are a God who hides Yourself, O God of Israel, the Saviour. <sup>16</sup>They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them; they who are makers of idols shall go into disgrace together. <sup>17</sup>But Israel shall be saved in the LORD with an everlasting salvation. You shall not be ashamed nor blush to the forevers of eternity. <sup>18</sup>For so says the LORD the Creator of the heavens, He is God, forming the earth and making it; He makes it stand, not creating it empty, but forming it to be inhabited. I am the LORD, and there is no other. <sup>19</sup>I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth. I did not say to the seed of Jacob, Seek me in vain. I the LORD speak righteousness, I declare things that are right. <sup>20</sup>Gather yourselves and come; draw near together, escaped ones of the nations; those who set up the wood of their graven image, and those that pray to a god that cannot save. They know nothing. <sup>21</sup>Declare and bring near; yea, let them take counsel together. Who has declared this of old? Who has told it from then? Is it not I, the LORD? And there is no other God besides Me; a just God and a Saviour; there is none besides Me. <sup>22</sup>Turn to Me, and be saved, all the ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is no other. <sup>23</sup>I have sworn by Myself, the word has gone out of My mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, that to Me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear. <sup>24</sup>He says, Only in the LORD do I have righteousness and strength; even to Him he comes. And they are ashamed, all who are angry with Him. <sup>25</sup>In the LORD shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

CHAPTER 46

made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you. <sup>5</sup>To whom will you compare Me, and make Me equal, that we may be alike? <sup>6</sup>They pour gold out of the bag, and weigh silver out of the scales, and hire a goldsmith; and he makes it a god; they fall down, yea, they bow down. <sup>7</sup>They carry it on the shoulder, they carry it and set it in its place, and it stands; it shall not move from its place. Yes, one shall cry to it, yet it cannot answer, nor save him out of his trouble. <sup>8</sup>Remember this, and be a man; return it on your heart, O sinners. <sup>9</sup>Remember former things from forever; for I am God, and there is no other. I am God, even none like Me, <sup>10</sup>declaring the end from the beginning, and from the past the things what was not done, saying, My purpose shall stand, and I will do all My pleasure; <sup>11</sup>calling a bird of prey from the east, the man of my purpose from a far country. Yes, I have spoken, I will also cause it to come; I have formed; yes, I will do it.

<sup>12</sup>Listen to me, stubborn-hearted who are far from righteousness; <sup>13</sup>I bring near My righteousness. It shall not be far off, and My salvation shall not wait; and I will place salvation in Zion, My glory for Israel.

CHAPTER 47

<sup>1</sup>Come down, and sit on the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground. There is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans. For you shall no more be called tender and delicate. <sup>2</sup>Take the millstones and grind meal. Push back your veil, draw up your skirt, uncover your leg, pass over the rivers. <sup>3</sup>Your nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, your shame shall be seen; I will take vengeance and I will not meet you as a man. <sup>4</sup>Our Redeemer, the LORD of hosts is His name, the Holy One of Israel. <sup>5</sup>Sit silent, and go into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans; for you shall no more be called the mistress of kingdoms.

<sup>6</sup>I was angry with My people, I have polluted My inheritance, and given them into your hand. You showed them no mercy; you have very heavily laid your yoke on the aged. <sup>7</sup>And you said, I shall be a mistress forever; so you did not lay these things to your heart, nor remembered the latter end of it. <sup>8</sup>Now then hear this, O pleasure seeker, who lives carelessly; who says in her heart, I am, and none else is; I shall not sit as a widow, nor shall I know the loss of children. <sup>9</sup>But these two things shall come to you in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood. They shall come on you in their fullness for the multitude of your sorceries, and for the great power of your enchantments. <sup>10</sup>For you have trusted in your wickedness; you have said, No one sees me. Your wisdom and your knowledge, it has perverted you; and you have said in your heart, I am, and there is no one else. <sup>11</sup>But evil shall come on you; you shall not know where it comes from. And mischief shall fall on you; you shall not be able to put it off. And desolation shall come on you suddenly, you shall not know. <sup>12</sup>Stand now with your spells, and with the multitude of your sorceries, in which you have wearied yourself since your youth. Perhaps you will be able to profit; perhaps you may bring terror. <sup>13</sup>You are exhausted by your many plans; now let the astrologers, the stargazers, making known what is coming on you into the new moons. <sup>14</sup>Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame; there shall not be a coal to warm them; nor fire, to sit before it. <sup>15</sup>So they are to you with whom you labored, your merchants from your youth. Each one wanders to his own way; none shall save you.

CHAPTER 48

<sup>1</sup>Hear this, O house of Jacob, who are called by the name of Israel, and have come out of the waters of Judah; who swear by the name of the LORD and make mention of the God of Israel (but not in truth nor in righteousness). <sup>2</sup>For they call themselves of the holy city, and rest themselves on the God of Israel; the LORD of hosts is His name. <sup>3</sup>I have foretold the former things from the beginning; and they went out of My mouth; and I made them hear; I acted suddenly; and they came about. <sup>4</sup>Because I knew that you are obstinate, and your neck is an iron sinew and your brow bronze. <sup>5</sup>And I declared it to you from the beginning. Before it happened I revealed it to you; lest you should say, My idol has done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, has commanded them. <sup>6</sup>You heard; see it all; and will you not declare? I have shown you new things from this time, even hidden things, and you did not know them. <sup>7</sup>They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when you did not hear them; lest you should say, Behold, I knew them. <sup>8</sup>Yea, you did not hear; yea, you did not know; yea, from the time that your ear was not opened; for I surely know that you will betray and trespass; from the womb it was called to you. <sup>9</sup>For My name's sake I will put off My anger, and for My praise I will hold back for you, that I do not cut you off. <sup>10</sup>Behold, I have refined you, but not with silver; I have chosen you in the furnace of affliction. <sup>11</sup>For my own sake, even for My own sake, I will do it; for why should My name be defiled? And I will not give My glory to another.

<sup>12</sup>Listen to me, O Jacob and Israel, My called; I am He; I am the first, I also am the last. <sup>13</sup>My hand also has laid the foundation of the earth, and My right hand has stretched out the heavens. I called; they stood up together. <sup>14</sup>Let all of you gather and hear; who among them has declared these things? The LORD has loved him; He will do His pleasure on Babylon, and His arm shall be on the Chaldeans. <sup>15</sup>I, even I, have spoken; yea, I have called him; and you shall bless his way. <sup>16</sup>Come near to me, hear this; I have not spoken in secret from the beginning. From its being, I was there; and now the Lord Jehovah, and His Spirit, has sent me. <sup>17</sup>So says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel, I am the LORD your God who teaches you to profit, who leads you by the way that you should go. <sup>18</sup>Oh that you had listened to My commandments! Then your peace would have been like a river, and your righteousness like the waves of the sea. <sup>19</sup>And your seed would have been like the sand, and the offspring of your bowels like its grains; his name would not have been cut off nor destroyed from before Me. <sup>20</sup>Go out of Babylon; flee from the Chaldeans. Tell it with a voice of singing, let it go out to the end of the earth; say, The LORD has redeemed His servant Jacob. <sup>21</sup>And they did not thirst when He led them through the deserts; He caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them; He cut open the rock also, and the waters gushed out. <sup>22</sup>There is no peace, says the LORD, to the wicked.

CHAPTER 49

<sup>1</sup>Listen, O coasts, to Me; and listen, lend your ear, peoples from afar; the LORD has called Me from the womb; He has made mention of My name from the bowels of My mother. <sup>2</sup>And He has made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of His hand He has hidden Me, and made Me a polished shaft. He has hidden Me in His quiver, <sup>3</sup>and said to Me, You are My servant, O Israel, in whom I will be glorified. <sup>4</sup>Then I said, I have labored in vain; I have spent My strength for nothing, and in vain; yet surely My judgment is with the LORD, and My work is with My God. <sup>5</sup>And now, says the LORD who formed Me from the womb to be His servant, to bring Jacob again to Him, Though Israel is not gathered, yet I shall be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and My God shall be My strength. <sup>6</sup>And He said, It is but a little thing that you should be My servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to bring back the preserved ones of Israel; I will also give You for a light to the nations, to be My salvation to the end of the earth. <sup>7</sup>So says the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, His Holy One, to Him whom man despises, to Him whom the nation hates, the servant of rulers: Kings shall see and arise, rulers also shall worship, because of the LORD who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel, and He shall choose You.

<sup>8</sup>So says the LORD, in a favorable time I replied to You, and in a day of salvation I have helped You; and I will preserve You, and give You for a covenant of the people, to establish the earth, to cause them to inherit the wasted inheritances; <sup>9</sup>that You may say to the prisoners, Go out! To those who are in darkness, Show yourselves! They shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places. <sup>10</sup>They shall not hunger nor thirst; nor shall the heat nor sun strike them; for He who has mercy on them shall lead them; even by the springs of water He shall guide them. <sup>11</sup>And I will make all My mountains a way, and My highways shall be set on high. <sup>12</sup>Behold, these shall come from far; and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim.

<sup>13</sup>Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break out into singing, O mountains; for the Lord has comforted His people, and will have mercy on His afflicted. <sup>14</sup>But Zion said, The LORD has forsaken me, and my LORD has forgotten me. <sup>15</sup>Can a woman forget her suckling child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? Yes, they may forget, yet I will not forget you. <sup>16</sup>Behold, I have carved you on the palms of My hands; your walls are forever before Me. <sup>17</sup>Your sons shall make haste; those destroying you and ruining you shall go out from you. <sup>18</sup>Lift up your eyes all around and see; they all gather and come to you. As I live, says the LORD, you shall surely wear them as an ornament, and bind them on as a bride. <sup>19</sup>For your waste and your deserted places, and your land of ruins, shall even now be too narrow for you who dwell there, and they who swallowed you up shall be far away. <sup>20</sup>The sons of your bereavement shall yet say in your ears, The place is too narrow for me; come near to me so that I may dwell. <sup>21</sup>Then you shall say in your heart, Who has borne me these, since I have lost my sons, and was unfruitful, a captive, and one put away? And who has brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where were they? <sup>22</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah, Behold, I will lift up My hand to the nations, and have set up My banner to the people; and they shall bring your sons in their arms, and your daughters shall be carried on their shoulders. <sup>23</sup>And kings shall be your nursing fathers, and their queens your nurses. They shall bow to you, faces to the earth, and lick up the dust of your feet; and you shall know that I am the LORD; for they shall not be ashamed who wait for Me. <sup>24</sup>Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered? <sup>25</sup>But so says the LORD, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the fearful ones shall escape. For I will contend with him who contends with you, and I will save your sons. <sup>26</sup>And I will feed those who oppress you with their own flesh; and they shall be drunk with their own blood, as with sweet wine; and all flesh shall know that I the LORD am your Saviour and your Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.

CHAPTER 50

<sup>1</sup>So says the LORD, Where is your mother's bill of divorce, whom I have put away? Or to which of My creditors have I sold you? Behold, you have sold yourself for your iniquities, and your mother is put away for your sins. <sup>2</sup>Who knows why I have come, and no one is here? Is My hand shortened at all so that it cannot redeem? Or have I no power to deliver? Behold, at My rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness; their fish stink, because there is no water, and die for thirst. <sup>3</sup>I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering. <sup>4</sup>The Lord Jehovah has given Me the tongue of the learned, to help the weary with a word. He wakens morning by morning, He wakens the ear to hear as the learned. <sup>5</sup>The Lord Jehovah has opened My ear, and I was not rebellious, nor turned away. <sup>6</sup>I gave My back to the strikers, and My cheeks to those who plucked off the hair; I did not hide My face from shame and spitting. <sup>7</sup>For the Lord Jehovah will help Me; therefore I have not been ashamed. On account of this I have set My face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed. <sup>8</sup>He is near who justifies Me; who will contend with Me? Let us stand together; who is My foe? Let him come near Me. <sup>9</sup>Behold, the Lord Jehovah will help Me; who is he who shall condemn Me? Lo, they all shall wear out like a garment; the moth shall eat them.

<sup>10</sup>Who among you fears the LORD, who obeys the voice of His servant, who walks in darkness and has no light? Let him trust in the name of the LORD and rest on his God. <sup>11</sup>Behold, all you who kindle a fire, who are surrounded with sparks; walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks which you have kindled. This you shall have of My hand; you shall lie down in sorrow.

CHAPTER 51

<sup>1</sup>Listen to me, pursuers of righteousness; seekers of the LORD: Look to the rock from which you were cut, and to the hole of the pit from which you were dug. <sup>2</sup>Look to Abraham your father, and to Sarah who bore you; for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him. <sup>3</sup>For the LORD shall comfort Zion; He will comfort all her waste places; and He will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD. Joy and gladness shall be found in it, thanksgiving and the voice of melody. <sup>4</sup>Listen to Me, My people; and give ear to Me, O My nation; for a law shall go out from Me, and I will make My judgment to rest for a light of the people. <sup>5</sup>My righteousness is near; My salvation has gone out, and My arms shall judge the people; the coasts shall wait on Me, and on My arm they shall trust. <sup>6</sup>Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look on the earth beneath; for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall become old like a garment, — and those who dwell in it shall die in the same way. But My salvation shall be forever, and My righteousness shall not be broken. <sup>7</sup>Listen to me, you who know righteousness, the people in whose heart is My law; do not fear the reproach of men, nor be afraid of their revelings. <sup>8</sup>For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool; but My righteousness shall be forever, and My salvation from generation to generation. <sup>9</sup>Awake! awake! put on strength, O arm of the LORD. Awake! as in the days of old, in the generations of old. Was it not You who cut Rahab into pieces, piercing the sea-monster? <sup>10</sup>Was it not You who dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep; who made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over? <sup>11</sup>Therefore the redeemed of the LORD shall return and come with singing into Zion; and everlasting joy shall be on their head. Gladness and joy shall overtake them; sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

<sup>12</sup>I, even I, am He who comforts you. Who are you, that you should fear a man. He shall die, or from the son of man? He shall be made as grass? <sup>13</sup>And you forget the LORD your Maker, who has stretched out the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth. And you dread continually, every day, because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy. And where is the fury of the oppressor? <sup>14</sup>Bowed he hurries to be freed, and not that he should die in the pit, nor that he lack his bread. <sup>15</sup>But I am the LORD your God, who divided the sea, and its waves roared; the LORD of hosts is His name. <sup>16</sup>And I have put My words in your mouth, and I have covered you in the shadow of My hand, that I may plant the heavens and lay the foundations of the earth, and say to Zion, You are My people.

<sup>17</sup>Awake! Awake! Rise up, O Jerusalem, who drank the cup of His fury from the hand of the LORD; you have drunk the cup of trembling to the dregs, and wrung them out. <sup>18</sup>No guide is for her among all the sons she has borne; and none takes her by the hand of all the sons that she made to grow. <sup>19</sup>These two things have come to you, who shall be sorry for you? Desolation, and ruin, and the famine, and the sword. By whom shall I comfort you? <sup>20</sup>Your sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the street like a wild antelope in a net, filled with the fury of the LORD, the rebuke of your God. <sup>21</sup>So now hear this, afflicted one, and drunken, but not with wine. <sup>22</sup>So says your Lord Jehovah, and your God who strives for His people, Behold, I have taken the cup of trembling from your hand, even the dregs of the cup of My fury; you shall never drink it again. <sup>23</sup>But I will put it into the hand of those who afflict you; who have said to your soul, Bow down so that we may go over; and put your back as the ground, even as the street to those who cross.

CHAPTER 52

<sup>1</sup>Awake! Awake! Put on your strength, Zion; put on your beautiful robes, O Jerusalem, the holy city. For never again shall come to you uncircumcised and unclean ones. <sup>2</sup>Shake yourself from the dust; rise up! Sit, Jerusalem! Free yourself from your neckbands, O captive daughter of Zion. <sup>3</sup>For so says the LORD, You have sold yourselves for nothing; and you shall be redeemed without money. <sup>4</sup>For so says the Lord Jehovah, My people went down before into Egypt to stay there; and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause. <sup>5</sup>Now therefore, what have I here, says the LORD, that My people are taken away for nothing? Those who rule over them make them howl, says the LORD; and without ceasing My name is blasphemed every day. <sup>6</sup>Therefore My people shall know My name; So it shall be in that day, for I am He who speaks; behold, it is I.

<sup>7</sup>How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of him who brings good tidings, making peace heard; who brings good news, making salvation heard; who says to Zion, Your God reigns! <sup>8</sup>The voice of Your watchmen shall lift up! They lift up the voice together; they sing aloud. For they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion. <sup>9</sup>Break out into joy, sing together, waste places of Jerusalem; for the LORD has comforted His people; He has redeemed Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>The LORD has bared His holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God. <sup>11</sup>Turn! Turn! Go out from there! Touch not the unclean. Go out of her midst; purify yourself, bearers of the vessels of the LORD. <sup>12</sup>For you shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight; for the LORD will go before you; and the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

<sup>13</sup>Behold, My Servant shall rule well; He shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high. <sup>14</sup>Just as many were astonished at You (so much was the disfigurement from man, His appearance and His form from the sons of mankind); <sup>15</sup>so He sprinkles from many nations; the kings shall shut their mouths at Him; for they will see that which was not told to them; yea, what they had not heard, nor understood.

CHAPTER 53

<sup>1</sup>Who has believed our report? And to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed? <sup>2</sup>For He shall grow up before Him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground; He has no form nor majesty that we should see Him, nor an appearance that we should desire Him. <sup>3</sup>He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief; and as it were a hiding of faces from Him, He being despised, and we esteemed Him not. <sup>4</sup>Surely He has borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed Him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. <sup>5</sup>But He was wounded for our transgressions; He was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was on Him; and with His stripes we are healed. <sup>6</sup>All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned, each one to his own way; and the LORD has laid on Him the iniquity of us all. <sup>7</sup>He was oppressed, and He was afflicted; yet He opened not His mouth. He is brought as a lamb to the slaughter; and as a sheep before its shearers is dumb, so He opened not His mouth. <sup>8</sup>He was taken from prison and from judgment; and who shall declare His generation? For He was cut off out of the land of the living; for the transgression of My people He was stricken. <sup>9</sup>And He put His grave with the wicked, and with a rich one in His death; although He had done no violence, nor was any deceit in His mouth. <sup>10</sup>Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise Him; to grieve Him; that He should put His soul a guilt-offering. He shall see His seed, He shall prolong His days, and the will of the LORD shall prosper in His hand. <sup>11</sup>He shall see the fruit of the travail of His soul. He shall be fully satisfied. By His knowledge shall My righteous Servant justify for many; and He shall bear their iniquities. <sup>12</sup>Therefore I will divide to Him with the great, and He shall divide the spoil with the strong; because He has poured out His soul to death; and He was counted among the transgressors; and He bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

CHAPTER 54

<sup>1</sup>Rejoice, O unfruitful one that never bore; break out a song and shout, you who never travailed. For more are the sons of the desolate than the sons of the married woman, says the LORD. <sup>2</sup>Make the place of your tent larger, and let them stretch out the curtains of your dwellings. Do not spare, lengthen your cords and strengthen your stakes; <sup>3</sup>for you shall break out on the right hand and on the left. And your seed shall inherit the nations, and people will inhabit ruined cities. <sup>4</sup>Do not fear; for you shall not be ashamed, nor shall you blush; for you shall not be put to shame; for you shall forget the shame of your youth, and shall not remember the reproach of your widowhood any more. <sup>5</sup>For your Maker is your husband; the LORD of hosts is His name; and your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel; the God of the whole earth shall He be called. <sup>6</sup>For the LORD has called you as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when you were rejected, says your God. <sup>7</sup>For a little moment I have left you; but with great mercies I will gather you. <sup>8</sup>In a little wrath I hid My face from you for a moment; but with everlasting kindness I will have mercy on you, says the LORD your Redeemer. <sup>9</sup>For this is as the waters of Noah to Me; for as I swore that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth, so I have sworn from being angry with you and from rebuking you. <sup>10</sup>For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but My kindness shall not depart from you, nor shall the covenant of My peace be removed, says the LORD who has mercy on you.

<sup>11</sup>Afflicted one, storm-tossed and not comforted, behold, I will lay your stones among antimony, and lay your foundations with sapphires. <sup>12</sup>And I will make your windows of ruby, and your gates of carbuncles, and all your borders of pleasant stones. <sup>13</sup>And all your sons shall be taught of the LORD; and great shall be the peace of your sons. <sup>14</sup>In righteousness you shall be established; you shall be far from oppression; for you shall not fear; and from terror, for it shall not come near you. <sup>15</sup>Behold, they shall surely gather together, not by Me; whoever shall gather against you shall fall for your sake. <sup>16</sup>Behold, I have created the smith who blows the coals in the fire, and who brings out a tool for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy. <sup>17</sup>No weapon that is formed against you shall be blessed; and every tongue that shall rise against you in judgment, you shall condemn. This is the inheritance of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is from Me, says the LORD.

CHAPTER 55

<sup>1</sup>Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and he who has no money, come, buy and eat. Yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. <sup>2</sup>Why do you weigh silver for that which is not bread? and your labor for that which never satisfies? Listen carefully to Me, and eat that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. <sup>3</sup>Bow down your ear, and come to Me; hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. <sup>4</sup>Behold, I have given Him for a witness to the people, a Leader and Commander of peoples. <sup>5</sup>Behold, You shall call a nation that You do not know; a nation that did not know You shall run to You because of the LORD Your God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for He has glorified You.

<sup>6</sup>Seek the LORD while He may be found; call on Him while He is near. <sup>7</sup>Let the wicked forsake His way, and the unrighteous man His thoughts; and let him return to the LORD, and He will have mercy on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. <sup>8</sup>For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor your ways My ways, says the LORD. <sup>9</sup>For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts. <sup>10</sup>For as the rain comes down, and the snow from the heavens, and does not return there, but waters the earth, and makes it bring out and bud, and give seed to the sower and bread to the eater; <sup>11</sup>so shall My word be, which goes out of My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall certainly do what I sent it to do. <sup>12</sup>For you shall go out with joy, and be led out with peace; the mountains and the hills shall break out before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. <sup>13</sup>Instead of the thorn, the fir tree shall come up; and instead of the brier, the myrtle tree shall come up; and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign which shall not be cut off.

CHAPTER 56

<sup>1</sup>So says the LORD, Keep judgment and do justice; for My salvation is near to come, and My righteousness to be revealed. <sup>2</sup>Blessed is the man who does this, and the son of man who lays hold on it; keeping the sabbath, from defiling it; and keeping his hand from doing any evil. <sup>3</sup>And do not let the son of the stranger, who has joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, the LORD has utterly separated me from His people. And do not let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree. <sup>4</sup>For so says the LORD to the eunuchs who keep My sabbath, and choose the things that please Me, and take hold of My covenant; <sup>5</sup>even to them will I give within My house and within My walls a hand and a name better than of sons and of daughters; I will give them an everlasting name that shall not be cut off. <sup>6</sup>Also the sons of the stranger, who join themselves to the LORD to serve Him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be His servants, everyone who keeps from defiling the sabbath, and takes hold of My covenant; <sup>7</sup>even them I will bring to My holy mountain, and make them joyful in My house of prayer. Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted on My altar; for My house shall be called a house of prayer for all people, <sup>8</sup>says the Lord Jehovah who gathers the outcasts of Israel, Yet I will gather beside him his gathered ones. <sup>9</sup>All beasts of the field, come to devour, all beasts in the forest.

<sup>10</sup>His watchmen are blind; they are all ignorant; they are all dumb dogs who cannot bark, dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber. <sup>11</sup>Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough; and they are shepherds who cannot understand. They all look to their own way, every one for his gain, to his own end. <sup>12</sup>They say, come, and I will bring wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and tomorrow shall be like today, and much more abundant.

<sup>1</sup>The righteous one perishes, and no one lays it to heart, and merciful men are taken away; no one cares that the righteous is taken away from the face of evil. <sup>2</sup>He shall enter into peace; they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness. <sup>3</sup>But draw near here, sons of the sorceress, seed of the adulterer and the harlot. <sup>4</sup>Of whom are you making sport? Against whom do you make a wide mouth and draw out the tongue? Are you not children of transgression, a lying seed, <sup>5</sup>setting yourselves afire with idols under every green tree, killing the little sons in the valleys under the clefts of the rocks? <sup>6</sup>Among the smooth stones of the stream is your portion; they, even they, are your lot; even to them you have poured a drink offering, you have offered a food offering. Should I be consoled over these? <sup>7</sup>On a lofty and high mountain you have set your bed; even there you went up to offer sacrifice. <sup>8</sup>Also behind the door and the post you have set up your image; for you uncovered yourself and went up from Me. You spread your bed and cut a covenant with them; you loved their bed where you looked. <sup>9</sup>And you went to the king with ointment, and increased your perfumes, and sent your messengers far off, and lowered yourself even to hell. <sup>10</sup>You are wearied in the length of your way; you did not say, Despair! You found life in your hand; so you were not weak. <sup>11</sup>And of whom have you been afraid or feared, that you have lied and have not remembered Me, nor laid it to your heart? Have I not been silent, even from forever, and you did not fear Me? <sup>12</sup>I will declare your righteousness, and your works; for they shall not do you any good. <sup>13</sup>When you cry, let your gathering deliver you; but the wind shall carry them all away. Vanity shall take them; but he who puts his trust in Me shall possess the land, and shall inherit My holy mountain. <sup>14</sup>And He shall say, Raise up! Raise up! Clear the way! Make the stumbling-block rise out of the way of My people. <sup>15</sup>For so says the high and lofty One who inhabits eternity; whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, even with him who is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones. <sup>16</sup>For I will not contend forever, nor will I be always angry; for the spirit should fail before Me, and the souls I have made. <sup>17</sup>For the iniquity of his covetousness I was angry and struck him; I hid Myself, and was angry, and he went on turning away in the way of his heart. <sup>18</sup>I have seen his ways, and will heal him. I will also lead him, and restore comforts to him and to his mourners. <sup>19</sup>I create the fruit of the lips; peace, peace, to him far off, and to him near, says the LORD; and I will heal him. <sup>20</sup>But the wicked are like the troubled sea, which cannot rest, and its waters cast up mire and dirt. <sup>21</sup>There is no peace, says my God, to the wicked.

CHAPTER 58

<sup>1</sup>Cry aloud, do not spare, lift up your voice like a trumpet, and show My people their rebellion, and the house of Jacob their sins. <sup>2</sup>Yet they seek Me daily, and delight to know My ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and one who did not forget the ordinance of their God. They ask of Me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in drawing near to God. <sup>3</sup>They say, Why have we fasted, and You do not see? Why have we afflicted our soul, and You take no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast you find pleasure, and crush all your laborers. <sup>4</sup>Behold, you fast for strife and debate, and to strike with the fist of wickedness; you shall not fast as you do today, to make your voice to be heard on high. <sup>5</sup>Is it such a fast that I have chosen? A day for a man to afflict his soul? Is it to bow down his head like a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? Will you call this a fast and a day pleasing to the LORD? <sup>6</sup>Is not this the fast that I have chosen? To loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed ones go free, and that you break every yoke? <sup>7</sup>Is it not to break your bread to the hungry, and that you should bring home the poor that are cast out? When will you see the naked and cover him; and you will not hide yourself from your own flesh? <sup>8</sup>Then shall your light break out as the dawn, and your health shall spring out quickly; and your righteousness shall go before you; the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard. <sup>9</sup>Then you shall call, and the LORD shall answer; you shall cry, and He shall say, Here I am. If you take the yoke away from among you, the pointing of the finger, and speaking vanity; <sup>10</sup>and if you draw out your soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall your light rise in darkness, and your darkness shall be as the noonday. <sup>11</sup>And the LORD shall always guide you and satisfy your soul in dry places, and make your bones fat; and you shall be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water whose waters fail not. <sup>12</sup>And those who come of you shall build the old ruins; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; and you shall be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

<sup>13</sup>If you turn your foot because of the Sabbath, from doing what you please on My holy days; and call the Sabbath a delight, the holy of the LORD, honorable; and shall honor Him, not doing your own ways, nor finding your own pleasure, nor speaking your own words; <sup>14</sup>then you shall delight yourself in the LORD; and I will cause you to ride on the high places of the earth, and feed yourself with the inheritance of Jacob your father. For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

CHAPTER 59

<sup>1</sup>Behold, the LORD's hand is not shortened so that it cannot save; nor is His ear heavy so that it cannot hear. <sup>2</sup>But your iniquities have come between you and your God, and your sins have hidden His face from you, so that He will not hear. <sup>3</sup>For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue has muttered perverseness. <sup>4</sup>None calls for justice, nor does anyone plead for truth; they trust in vanity and speak lies. They conceive mischief and bring out iniquity. <sup>5</sup>They hatch adders' eggs and weave the spider's web; he who eats their eggs dies, and that which is crushed breaks out into a viper. <sup>6</sup>Their webs shall not become clothing, nor shall they cover themselves with their works; their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands. <sup>7</sup>Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood; their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and ruin are in their paths. <sup>8</sup>They did not know the way of peace, and there is no judgment in their paths. They have made crooked paths for themselves; whoever goes in them shall not know peace. <sup>9</sup>Therefore judgment is far from us; nor does justice overtake us. We wait for light, but behold, dimness; for brightness, but we walk in darkness. <sup>10</sup>We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes. We stumble at noonday as in the night; we are in deserted places like dead men. <sup>11</sup>We all roar like bears, and mourn grievously like doves; we look for judgment, but none; for salvation, but it is far off from us. <sup>12</sup>For our transgressions are multiplied before You, and our sins testify against us. For our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them; <sup>13</sup>in transgressing and lying against the LORD, and going away from our God, talking cruelty and revolt, conceiving and speaking from the heart words of falsehood. <sup>14</sup>And justice is driven back, and justice stands afar off; for truth has fallen in the street, and right cannot enter.

<sup>15</sup>Yea, truth fails; and he who departs from evil makes himself a prey. And the LORD saw, and it displeased Him that there was no judgment. <sup>16</sup>And He saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor. Therefore His own arm brought salvation to Him; and His righteousness sustained Him. <sup>17</sup>For He put on righteousness like a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation on His head. And He put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was covered with zeal like a cloak. <sup>18</sup>According to their deeds, accordingly He will repay; fury to His foes, deed for deed to His enemies. He will repay their deeds to the coasts. <sup>19</sup>So they shall fear the name of the LORD from the west, and His glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a banner against him. <sup>20</sup>And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and to those who turn from transgression in Jacob, says the LORD. <sup>21</sup>As for Me, this is My covenant with them, says the LORD; My spirit that is on you, and My words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart out of your mouth, nor out of the mouth of your seed, nor out of the mouth of your seed's seed, says the LORD, from now on and forever.

CHAPTER 60

<sup>1</sup>Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen on you. <sup>2</sup>For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the peoples; but the LORD shall rise on you, and His glory shall be seen on you. <sup>3</sup>And the nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawning. <sup>4</sup>Lift up your eyes all around, and see. All of them gather themselves; they come to you. Your sons shall come from far, and your daughters shall be nursed at your side. <sup>5</sup>Then you shall see and become bright, and your heart shall throb and swell for joy; because the abundance of the sea shall turn to you, the forces of the nations will come to you. <sup>6</sup>A host of camels shall cover you, the camels of Midian and Ephah. All of them from Sheba shall come; they shall bring gold and incense; and they shall proclaim the praises of the LORD. <sup>7</sup>All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together to you; the rams of Nebaioth shall minister to you. They shall come up on My altar pleasing Me, and I will glorify the house of My glory. <sup>8</sup>Who are these who fly like a cloud, and as the doves to their windows? <sup>9</sup>Surely the coasts shall wait for Me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring your sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, to the name of the LORD your God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because He has glorified you.

<sup>10</sup>And the sons of strangers will build up your walls, and their kings will serve you; for in My wrath I struck you, but in My favor I had mercy on you. <sup>11</sup>Therefore your gates will always be open; they will not be shut day nor night, to bring to you the forces of the nations, and their kings may be led. <sup>12</sup>For the nation and kingdom that will not serve you will perish. Yes, those nations will be completely wasted. <sup>13</sup>The glory of Lebanon will come to you, the fir tree, the pine tree, and the box tree together, to beautify the place of My sanctuary; and I will make the place of My feet glorious. <sup>14</sup>Also the sons of your afflictors shall come bowing to you; and all your despisers will bow down at the soles of your feet. And they will call you, The city of the LORD, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel. <sup>15</sup>Instead of being forsaken and hated, so that no one passes through, I will make you for everlasting majesty, a joy of many generations. <sup>16</sup>You will also suck the milk of nations, and suck the breast of kings; and you will know that I the LORD am your Saviour and your Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob. <sup>17</sup>For bronze I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver; and for wood I will bring bronze, and for stones I will bring iron. I will also make your overseers to be peace, and your rulers to be righteousness. <sup>18</sup>Violence will no more be heard in your land, wasting nor ruin within your borders; but you will call your walls Salvation, and your gates Praise. <sup>19</sup>The sun will no more be your light by day; nor the brightness of the moon give light to you; but the LORD will be to you for everlasting light, and your God your glory. <sup>20</sup>Your sun will no more go down, nor your moon withdraw; for the LORD will be your everlasting light, and the days of your mourning will be ended. <sup>21</sup>Your people also will all be righteous; they will inherit the land forever, the branch of My planting, the work of My hands, so that I may be glorified. <sup>22</sup>A little one will become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the LORD will hasten it in its time.

CHAPTER 61

<sup>1</sup>The Spirit of the Lord Jehovah is on Me; because the LORD has anointed Me to preach the Gospel to the poor; He has sent Me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound; to preach the acceptable year of the LORD and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn; <sup>3</sup>to appoint to those who mourn in Zion, to give to them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the mantle of praise for the spirit of heaviness; so that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that He might be glorified. <sup>4</sup>And they will build the old wastes, they will raise up the ruins of former times. And they will repair the waste cities, the ruins of many generations. <sup>5</sup>And strangers will stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the stranger will be your plowmen and your vinedressers. <sup>6</sup>But you will be named the priests of the LORD; it will be said of you, Ministers of our God; you will eat the riches of the nations, and you will revel in their glory. <sup>7</sup>For your shame you will have double; and for disgrace they will rejoice in their portion; therefore in their own land they will possess double; everlasting joy will be theirs. <sup>8</sup>For I the LORD love judgment, I hate robbery for burnt offering; and I will direct their work in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them. <sup>9</sup>And their seed will be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples; all who see them will acknowledge them, that they are the seed the LORD has blessed.

<sup>10</sup>I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul will be joyful in my God; for He has clothed me with the robes of salvation, He covered me with the robe of righteousness like a bridegroom adorns himself with ornaments, and like a bride adorns herself with her jewels. <sup>11</sup>For as the earth brings out its bud, and as the garden causes that which is sown to grow; so the Lord Jehovah will cause righteousness and praise to grow before all the nations.

CHAPTER 62

<sup>1</sup>For Zion's sake I will not be silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until its righteousness goes out as brightness, and her salvation as a burning lamp. <sup>2</sup>And the nations will see your righteousness, and all kings your glory; and you will be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD will name. <sup>3</sup>You also will be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God. <sup>4</sup>You will no more be called Forsaken; nor will your land any more be called Desolate; but you will be called My Delight, and your land, Married; for the LORD delights in you, and your land will be married. <sup>5</sup>For as a young man marries a virgin, so will your sons marry you; and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so will your God rejoice over you.

<sup>6</sup>I have set watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem, who will not always be silent all the day nor all the night; you who remember the LORD, do not be silent. <sup>7</sup>And give Him no rest until He establishes and makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth. <sup>8</sup>The LORD has sworn by His right hand, and by the arm of His strength, Surely

I will no more give your grain to be food for your enemies; and the sons of strangers will not drink your wine for which you have labored. <sup>9</sup>But its gatherers will eat it and praise the LORD; and they who collected it will drink it in My holy courts. <sup>10</sup>Pass! Pass through the gates; prepare the way of the people. Raise up! Raise up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up a banner for the peoples. <sup>11</sup>Behold, the LORD has sent a message to the end of the world, Tell the daughter of Zion, Behold, your salvation comes. Behold, His reward is with Him, and His work before Him. <sup>12</sup>And they will call them, The Holy People, The Redeemed of the LORD; and you will be called, Sought out, a city not forsaken.

CHAPTER 63

<sup>1</sup>Who is this who comes from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah, this One adorned in His clothing, inclining in His great power? I who speak in righteousness, great to save. <sup>2</sup>Why is Your clothing red, and Your garments like one who treads in the winepress? <sup>3</sup>I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the peoples there was no one with Me; for I will tread them in My anger and trample them in My fury; and their blood will be sprinkled on My garments, and I will stain all My clothing. <sup>4</sup>For the day of vengeance is in My heart, and the year of My redeemed has come. <sup>5</sup>And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was no one to uphold; therefore My own arm has saved for Me; and My fury upheld Me. <sup>6</sup>And I will tread down the people in My anger, and make them drunk in My fury, and I will pour their juice to the earth.

<sup>7</sup>I will mention the loving-kindnesses of the LORD, the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD has benefited for us, and the great good to the house of Israel by which He benefited them according to His mercies, and according to the multitude of His loving-kindnesses. <sup>8</sup>For He said, Surely they are My people, sons that will not lie; so He was their Saviour. <sup>9</sup>In all their affliction He was afflicted, and the Angel of His presence saved them; in His love and in His pity He redeemed them; and He bore them, and carried them all the days of old. <sup>10</sup>But they rebelled, and troubled His Holy Spirit; therefore He was turned to be their enemy, and He fought against them. <sup>11</sup>Then He remembered the days of old, Moses and His people, saying, Where is He who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of His flock? Where is He who put His Holy Spirit within him? <sup>12</sup>He led them by the right hand of Moses with His glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make Himself an everlasting name? <sup>13</sup>He led them through the deep, like a horse in the wilderness, so that they would not stumble? <sup>14</sup>As a beast goes down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest. So You led Your people, to make Yourself a glorious name.

<sup>15</sup>Look down from Heaven, and look down from the place of Your holiness and of Your glory; where is Your zeal and Your strength, the multitude of Your tender affections and of Your mercies toward me? Are they withheld? <sup>16</sup>For You are our Father, though Abraham does not know us, and Israel does acknowledge us. You, O LORD, are our Father, our Redeemer; Your name is from everlasting.

<sup>17</sup>O LORD, why have You made us wander from Your ways. You harden our heart from Your fear? For Your servants' sake, return the tribes of Your inheritance. <sup>18</sup>The people of Your holiness have possessed it but a little while; our enemies have trampled Your sanctuary. <sup>19</sup>We are from forever; You never ruled over them; Your name was never called on them.

CHAPTER 64

<sup>1</sup>Oh that You would tear the heavens and come down, that mountains would quake before You, <sup>2</sup>(as the brushwood fire burns, the fire causes water to boil), to make Your name known to Your foes, that the nations may tremble at Your presence! <sup>3</sup>When You did terrible things which we did not look for, You came down, the mountains quaked at Your presence. <sup>4</sup>And from forever they have not heard, nor did they listen. Eye has not seen a God except You, who works for him who waits for Him. <sup>5</sup>You meet him who rejoices and works righteousness, those who remember You in Your ways. Behold, You were angry, for we sinned. In them is eternity, and we will be saved. <sup>6</sup>But we are all as the unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are a filthy cloth. And we all fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away. <sup>7</sup>And there is no one who calls on Your name, who stirs up himself to take hold of You. For You have hidden Your face from us, and have melted us away because of our iniquities.

<sup>8</sup>But now, O LORD, You are our Father; we are the clay, and You are our Former; and we all are the work of Your hand. <sup>9</sup>Do not be grievously angry, O LORD, nor remember iniquity forever. Behold! Look, please; all of us are Your people. <sup>10</sup>Your holy cities are a wilderness; Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem is a ruin. <sup>11</sup>The house of our holiness and our beauty, where our fathers praised You, has become a burning of fire; and all our pleasant things are laid waste. <sup>12</sup>Will You restrain Yourself over these things, O LORD? Will You be silent and sorely afflict us?

CHAPTER 65

<sup>1</sup>I am sought by those who asked not for Me; I am found by those who did not seek Me. I said, Behold Me, behold Me, to a nation not calling on My name. <sup>2</sup>I have spread out My hands all the day to a rebellious people who walk in the way not good, after their own thoughts; <sup>3</sup>a people who without ceasing provoke Me to anger to My face; who sacrifice in gardens, and burn incense on altars of brick; <sup>4</sup>a people who remain among the graves, and sleep in the tombs, who eat swine's flesh, and broth from hateful things is in their vessels; <sup>5</sup>who say, Keep to yourself, do not come near me; for I am holier than you. These are a smoke in My nose, a fire that burns all the day. <sup>6</sup>Behold, it is written before Me; I will not be silent, except I will repay; yea, I will repay into their bosom <sup>7</sup>your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together, says the LORD, they that burned incense on the mountains, and blasphemed Me on the hills. And I will measure their former work into their bosom.

<sup>8</sup>So says the LORD, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one says, Do not destroy it, for a blessing is in it; so I will do to My servants, that I may not destroy them all. <sup>9</sup>And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah one who inherits My mountains; and My elect will inherit it, and My servants will dwell there. <sup>10</sup>And Sharon will be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a resting-place of herds for My people who have sought Me. <sup>11</sup>But you are those who forsake the LORD, who forget My holy mountain, who prepare a table for Fortune, and who furnish the drink offering to Fate. <sup>12</sup>Therefore I will number you to the sword; and you will all bow down to the slaughter; because I called and you did not answer; when I spoke, you did not hear and did evil before My eyes, and chose that in which I did not delight. <sup>13</sup>So the Lord Jehovah says, Behold, My servants will eat, but you will be hungry. Behold, My servants will drink, but you will be thirsty. Behold, My servants will rejoice, but you will be ashamed. <sup>14</sup>Behold, My servants will sing for joy of heart, but you will cry for sorrow of heart, and will howl because of a breaking of spirit. <sup>15</sup>And you will leave your name for a curse to My chosen; for the Lord Jehovah will kill you, and call His servants by another name. <sup>16</sup>He who blesses himself in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth. And he who swears in the earth will swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hidden from My eyes.

<sup>17</sup>For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth. And the things before will not be remembered, nor come to mind. <sup>18</sup>But be glad and rejoice forever in that which I create; for behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy. <sup>19</sup>And I will rejoice in My people; and the voice of weeping will no more be heard in her, nor the voice of crying be heard in her. <sup>20</sup>There will still be an infant, nor an old man that has not filled his days. For the child will die a hundred years old; but the sinner who is a hundred years old will be despised. <sup>21</sup>And they will build houses and live in them; and they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit. <sup>22</sup>They will not build, and another live in them; they will not plant, and another eat. For like the days of a tree are the days of My people, and My elect will long enjoy the work of their hands. <sup>23</sup>They will not labor in vain, nor bring forth for terror. For they are the seed of the beloved of the LORD, and their offspring with them. <sup>24</sup>And it will be, before they call I will answer; and while they are still speaking, I will hear. <sup>25</sup>The wolf and the lamb will feed together, and the lion will eat straw like the ox; and dust will be the food of the snake. They will not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain, says the LORD.

CHAPTER 66

<sup>1</sup>So says the LORD, Heaven is My throne, and earth My footstool. Where, then, is the house that you build for Me? And where is the place of My rest? <sup>2</sup>For all those My hand has made, and all those exist, says the LORD. But to this one I will look, to the afflicted and contrite spirit, and the one who trembles at My word.

<sup>3</sup>He who kills an ox is as if he killed a man; he who sacrifices a lamb, as if he broke a dog's neck; he who offers an offering, as if he offered swine's blood; he who burns incense, as if he blessed an idol. Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delights in their abominations. <sup>4</sup>I also will choose the things that delude them, and I will bring their fears on them, because when I called, no one answered; when I spoke, they did not hear. But they did evil before My eyes and chose that in which I did not delight.

<sup>5</sup>Hear the word of the LORD, you who tremble at His word; your brothers who hated you, who cast you out for My name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified. But He will appear to your joy, and they will be ashamed. <sup>6</sup>A sound of noise from the city, a sound from the temple, a sound of the LORD repaying His enemies. <sup>7</sup>Before she travailed, she gave birth; before her pain came, she delivered a man child. <sup>8</sup>Who has heard a thing like this? Who has seen things like these? Will the earth be brought forth in one day? Or will a nation be born at once? For Zion travailed and also brought forth her sons. <sup>9</sup>Will I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth, says the LORD? Surely I will cause birth restrain, says your God.

<sup>15</sup>For, behold, the LORD will come with fire, and with His chariots like a tempest, to refresh His anger with fury, and His rebuke with flames of fire. <sup>16</sup>For by fire and by His sword the LORD will execute judgment with all flesh; and the slain of the LORD will be many. <sup>17</sup>Those who sanctify themselves, and purify themselves to go into the gardens, behind one tree in the middle, eating swine's flesh, and the hateful thing, and the mouse, will be cut off together, says the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>For I know their works and their thoughts; it comes to gather all the nations and the tongues; and they will come and see My glory. <sup>19</sup>And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those who escape from them to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, drawers of the bow; to Tubal, and Javan, to the far away coasts that have not heard My fame, nor have seen My glory. And they will declare My glory among the nations. <sup>20</sup>And they will bring all your brothers for an offering to the LORD out of all nations on horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and on mules, and on camels, to My holy mountain Jerusalem, says the LORD, as the sons of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD. <sup>21</sup>And I will also take some of them for priests and for Levites, says the LORD. <sup>22</sup>For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make stand before Me, says the LORD, so will your seed and your name stand. <sup>23</sup>And it will be, from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, all flesh will come to worship before Me, says the LORD. <sup>24</sup>And they will go out and see the dead bodies of the men who have sinned against Me; for their worm will not die, nor will their fire be put out; and they will be an object of disgust to all flesh.

THE BOOK OF JEREMIAH

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, <sup>2</sup>to whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. <sup>3</sup>It also came in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month. <sup>4</sup>And it happened, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>5</sup>Before I formed you in the belly I knew you; and before you came forth out of the womb I sanctified you, and I ordained you a prophet to the nations. <sup>6</sup>Then I said, Alas, Lord Jehovah! Behold, I so not know to speak; for I am a boy. <sup>7</sup>But the LORD said to me, Do not say, I am a boy; for you shall go to all that I shall send you, and whatever I command you, you shall speak. <sup>8</sup>Do not be afraid of their faces; for I am with you to deliver you, says the LORD. <sup>9</sup>And the LORD put forth His hand, and touched my mouth. And the LORD said to me, Behold, I have put My words in your mouth. <sup>10</sup>Behold! I have this day set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

<sup>11</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Jeremiah, what do you see? And I said, I see a rod of an almond tree. <sup>12</sup>And the LORD said to me, You have seen well; for I will watch over My word to perform it. <sup>13</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying, What do you see? And I said, I see a boiling pot; and its face is from the face of the north. <sup>14</sup>And the LORD said to me, Out of the north an evil will be set loose on all the inhabitants of the land. <sup>15</sup>For, behold, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, says the LORD. And they shall come, and they shall each one set his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all its wall all around, and against all the cities of Judah. <sup>16</sup>And I will pronounce My judgments against them regarding all their evil, those who have forsaken Me, and burned incense to other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.

<sup>17</sup>And you must gird up your loins, and arise, and speak to them all that I command you. Do not be terrified at their faces, lest I prostrate you before them. <sup>18</sup>For, behold, I have made you a fortified city this day, and an iron pillar, and bronze walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against its rulers, against its priests, and against the people of the land. <sup>19</sup>And they shall fight against you; but they shall not overcome you. For I am with you, says the LORD, to deliver you.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, So says the LORD, I remember you, the kindness of your youth, the love of your betrothals, when you went after Me in the wilderness, in a land not sown. <sup>3</sup>Israel was holiness to the LORD, and the first-fruits of His increase. All that devour him shall offend; evil shall come on them, says the LORD. <sup>4</sup>Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel.

<sup>5</sup>So says the LORD, What injustice have your fathers found in Me, that they have gone far from Me and have walked after vanity, and have become vain? <sup>6</sup>Nor did they say, Where is the LORD who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, who led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of dry places, and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through, and where no man lived? <sup>7</sup>And I brought you into a plentiful country, to eat its fruit and its goodness; but when you entered, you defiled My land and made My inheritance an abomination. <sup>8</sup>The priests did not say, Where is the LORD? And they who handle the law did not know Me; the shepherds also rebelled against Me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things not profitable.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore I will contend with you, says the LORD, and with your son's sons I will enter into judgment. <sup>10</sup>For pass over the isles of Chittim, and see; and send to Kedar, and carefully consider, and see if there is such a thing. <sup>11</sup>Has a nation changed their gods who are yet no gods? But My people have changed their Glory for that which does not profit. <sup>12</sup>Be amazed, O heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid; be completely desolated, says the LORD. <sup>13</sup>For My people have committed two evils; they have forsaken Me, the Fountain of living waters, to hew out cisterns for themselves, broken cisterns that can hold no water.

<sup>14</sup>Is Israel a servant? Or is he a servant of the house? Why has he become a prey? <sup>15</sup>The young lions roared against him; they gave their voice. And they made his land a waste; his cities are burned without inhabitant. <sup>16</sup>Also the sons of Noph and Tahapanes have fed on the crown of your head. <sup>17</sup>Have you not brought this on yourself, in that you have forsaken the LORD your God, when He led you by the way? <sup>18</sup>And now what is for you toward the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? Or what for you toward Assyria, to drink the waters of the River? <sup>19</sup>Your own evil shall correct you, and your backslidings shall reprove you, therefore know and see that it is an evil and bitter thing that you have forsaken the LORD your God, and that My fear is not in you, says the Lord GOD of hosts.

<sup>20</sup>For long ago you broke your yoke and tore up your bonds; and you said, I will not transgress — when on every high hill and under every green tree you lay down like a harlot. <sup>21</sup>Yet I planted you a noble vine, wholly a true seed. How then have you turned into the deteriorating shoots of a strange vine to Me? <sup>22</sup>For though you wash yourself with potash, and multiply soap for yourself, yet your iniquity is marked before Me, says the Lord GOD. <sup>23</sup>How can you say, I am not defiled; I have not gone after the Baals? See your way in the valley, know what you have done! You are a swift camel crossing its ways; <sup>24</sup>a wild ass used to the wilderness; in the desire of her passion she snuffs at the wind; in her time who can turn her away? All those who seek her will not tire themselves; in her month they will find her. <sup>25</sup>Withhold your foot from being bare, and your throat from thirst. But you said, There is no hope; no; for I have loved strangers, and after them I will go. <sup>26</sup>As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their rulers, and their priests, and their prophets; <sup>27</sup>saying to a stock, You are my father; and to a stone, You gave me birth. For they have turned their back to Me, and not their face; but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise and save us! <sup>28</sup>But where are your gods that you have made for yourselves? Let them arise, if they can save you in the time of your trouble; for according to the number of your cities are your gods, O Judah. <sup>29</sup>Why will you plead with Me? You all have sinned against Me, says the LORD. <sup>30</sup>In vain I have stricken your sons; they received no correction. Your own sword has devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

<sup>31</sup>O generation, see the word of the LORD. Have I been a wilderness to Israel, or a land of darkness? Why do My people say, We roam freely; we will come no more to You? <sup>32</sup>Can a virgin forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? Yet My people have forgotten Me days without number. <sup>33</sup>Why did you trim your way to seek love? Therefore you have also taught the evil women your ways. <sup>34</sup>Also in your skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents; I have not found it by secret search, but on all these. <sup>35</sup>Yet you say, Because I am innocent, surely His anger shall turn from me. Behold, I will plead with you, because you say, I have not sinned. <sup>36</sup>Why do you go about so much to change your way? You also shall be ashamed of Egypt, as you were ashamed of Assyria. <sup>37</sup>Yes, you shall go out from this place, and your hands on your head. For the LORD has rejected those in whom you trust, and you will not prosper by them.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>They say, If a man puts away his wife, and she goes from him and will be for another man, will he return to her again? Would not that land be greatly defiled? But you play the harlot with many lovers; yet come back to Me, says the LORD. <sup>2</sup>Lift up your eyes to the high places, and see. Where have you not been lain with? By the highways you have sat for them, like the Arabian in the wilderness; and you have defiled the land with your fornications and with your wickedness. <sup>3</sup>Therefore the showers have been withheld, and there has been no latter rain; and you had a harlot's forehead, you refused to be ashamed. <sup>4</sup>Will you not from this time cry to Me, My father, You are the guide of my youth? <sup>5</sup>Will He keep His anger forever? Will He keep it to the end? Behold, you have spoken and done all the evil things you could do.

<sup>6</sup>The LORD also said to me in the days of Josiah the king, Have you seen that which backsliding Israel has done? She has gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree, and has fornicated there. <sup>7</sup>And I said after she had done all these things, Turn to Me! But she did not return. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it. <sup>8</sup>And I saw, when for all the causes for which backsliding Israel committed adultery, I sent her away and gave a bill of divorce to her. Yet her treacherous sister Judah did not fear, but she went and whored, she also. <sup>9</sup>And it happened, from the folly of her whoredom, she defiled the land and fornicated with stones and stocks. <sup>10</sup>And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah has not turned to Me with her whole heart, but with falsehood, says the LORD. <sup>11</sup>And the LORD said to me, The backsliding Israel has justified herself more than treacherous Judah.

<sup>12</sup>Go and cry these words toward the north, and say, Return, O backsliding Israel, says the LORD; and I will not cause My anger to fall on you; for I am merciful, says the LORD, and I will not keep anger forever. <sup>13</sup>Only acknowledge your iniquity, that you have sinned against the LORD your God and have scattered your ways to the strangers under every green tree, and you have not obeyed My voice, says the LORD. <sup>14</sup>Turn, O backsliding sons, says the LORD; for I am married to you; and I will take you one from a city, and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion. <sup>15</sup>And I will give you shepherds according to My heart, who shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. <sup>16</sup>And when you have multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, says the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD! Nor shall it come to mind; nor shall they remember it; nor shall they visit it; nor shall it be made any more. <sup>17</sup>At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD; and all nations shall be gathered to it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem. Nor shall they walk any more after the imagination of their evil heart. <sup>18</sup>In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given for an inheritance to your fathers. <sup>19</sup>But I said, How shall I put you among the sons, and give you a pleasant land, a beautiful inheritance among the hosts of nations? And I said, You shall call Me, My Father, and shall not turn away from Me.

<sup>20</sup>Surely as a wife treacherously departs from her husband, so you have dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, says the LORD. <sup>21</sup>A voice was heard on the high places weeping, cryings of the sons of Israel; for they have perverted their way, and they have forgotten the LORD their God. <sup>22</sup>Return, O backsliding sons, and I will heal your backslidings. Behold, we come to You; for You are the LORD our God. <sup>23</sup>Truly the high hills have proved to be in vain, the noisy throng on the mountains. Truly in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel. <sup>24</sup>For shame has eaten up the labor of our fathers from our youth, their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters. <sup>25</sup>We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covers us; for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even to this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>If you will return, O Israel, says the LORD, return to Me. And if you will put away your abominations out of your sight, then you shall not be moved. <sup>2</sup>And you shall swear, The LORD lives, in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in Him, and in Him they shall glory. <sup>3</sup>For so says the LORD to Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and do not sow among thorns. <sup>4</sup>Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, men of Judah and people of Jerusalem; lest My fury come forth like fire, and burn so that none can put it out; because of the evil of your doings.

<sup>5</sup>Declare in Judah, and let it be heard in Jerusalem; and say, Blow the trumpet in the land; cry, gather together, and say, Gather yourselves and let us go into the fortified cities. <sup>6</sup>Set up the banner toward Zion; flee for safety and do not wait; for I will bring evil from the north, and a great ruin. <sup>7</sup>The lion has come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the nations has set out; He has left his place to make your land a waste. Your cities will fall into ruins without inhabitant. <sup>8</sup>Put on sackcloth for this, wail and howl; for the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back from us. <sup>9</sup>And it shall be at that day, says the LORD, the king's heart will perish, and the heart of the rulers; and the priests will be amazed, and the prophets will be astounded. <sup>10</sup>Then I said, Ah, Lord GOD! Surely You have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, You shall have peace; but the sword reaches to the soul. <sup>11</sup>At that time it shall be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A dry wind from the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of My people, not to sift nor to cleanse. <sup>12</sup>A wind more full than these shall come for Me. Now also I will utter judgments against them. <sup>13</sup>Behold, he shall come up like clouds, and his chariots like a tempest. His horses are swifter than eagles. Woe to us, for we are plundered!

<sup>14</sup>O Jerusalem, cleanse your heart from evil so that you may be saved. How long shall your vain thoughts lodge within you? <sup>15</sup>For a voice declares from Dan, and makes known affliction from mount Ephraim. <sup>16</sup>Tell it to the nations; Behold! proclaim against Jerusalem! Besiegers are going to come from a distant land; and they will set their voice against the cities of Judah. <sup>17</sup>Like watchmen of a field, they are against her all around; because she rebelled against Me, says the LORD. <sup>18</sup>Your way and your doings have brought these things on you; this is your evil, because it is bitter, because it reaches to your heart.

<sup>19</sup>My bowels, my bowels! I convulse in pain. O walls of my heart! My heart is restless within me; I cannot be silent because you have heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war. <sup>20</sup>Ruin on ruin is cried; for the whole land is laid waste. Suddenly my tents are laid waste, my curtains in a moment. <sup>21</sup>How long shall I see the banner and hear the sound of the trumpet? <sup>22</sup>For My people are foolish; they have not known Me; they are stupid sons, and they have no understanding. They are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge. <sup>23</sup>I looked on the earth, and, lo, it was without form and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. <sup>24</sup>I looked on the mountains, and, lo, they quaked; and all the hills were shaken. <sup>25</sup>I looked, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens had fled. <sup>26</sup>I looked, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all its cities were broken down before the face of the LORD, before His fierce anger. <sup>27</sup>For so the LORD has said, The whole land shall be desolate, yet I will not make a full end.

<sup>28</sup>The earth shall mourn for this, and the heavens above shall be black; because I have spoken, I have purposed, and will not repent; nor will I turn back from it. <sup>29</sup>Every city shall flee from the sound of the horsemen and bowmen. They shall go into thickets and climb up among the rocks. All the city is abandoned, and not a man shall live in them. <sup>30</sup>And you, O desolate one, what will you do? Though you dress with crimson; though you put on ornaments of gold; though you make your eyes large with paint; you shall make yourself beautiful in vain; your lovers will despise you; they will seek your life. <sup>31</sup>For I have heard a voice as of a woman in labor, the anguish as one bearing her first child, the voice of Zion's daughter, gasping and spreading her hands, saying, Woe to me now! For my soul faints because of murderers.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>Run to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in her open places, if you can find a man, if there is one who does justice, who seeks the truth; and I will pardon her. <sup>2</sup>And though they say, As the LORD lives; surely they swear falsely. <sup>3</sup>O LORD, are not Your eyes on the truth? You have stricken them, but they have not grieved; You have destroyed them, but they have refused to receive correction; they have made their faces harder than rock; they have refused to return. <sup>4</sup>So I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish; for they do not know the way of the LORD, nor the judgment of their God. <sup>5</sup>I will go up for myself to the great men, and will speak to them; for they have known the way of the LORD and the judgment of their God. But these have broken the yoke together and have torn off the bonds! <sup>6</sup>Therefore a lion out of the forest shall kill them, and a wolf of the deserts shall rob them; a leopard shall watch over their cities. Everyone who goes out from them shall be torn in pieces, because their sins are many and their backslidings are multiplied.

<sup>7</sup>Why shall I pardon you for this? Your sons have forsaken Me, and have sworn by No-gods. When I adjured them, they committed adultery, and gathered themselves by troops in a harlot's house. <sup>8</sup>They were like lusty, well-fed horses in the morning; every one neighing after his neighbor's wife. <sup>9</sup>Shall I not judge for these things? says the LORD. And shall not My soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

<sup>10</sup>Go up on her vine-rows and destroy; but do not make a full end; take away her branches, for they are not the LORD's. <sup>11</sup>For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very deceitfully against Me, says the LORD. <sup>12</sup>They have lied against the LORD and said, It is not He; neither shall evil come on us; nor shall we see sword nor famine. <sup>13</sup>And the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them; so it shall be done to them. <sup>14</sup>Therefore so says the LORD God of hosts, Because you spoke this word, behold, I will make My words in your mouth fire, and will make this people wood, and it shall devour them. <sup>15</sup>Lo, I will bring a nation on you from afar, O house of Israel, says the LORD. It is an enduring nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you do not know, nor understand what they say. <sup>16</sup>Their quiver is as an open grave; they are all mighty men. <sup>17</sup>And they shall eat up your harvest, and your bread. They will devour your sons and your daughters. They shall eat up your flocks and your herds; they shall eat up your vines and your fig-trees. One shall beat down your fortified cities with the sword, those in which you trust. <sup>18</sup>But even in those days, says the LORD, I will not make a complete end with you.

<sup>19</sup>And it will be, when you shall say, Why does the LORD our God do all these things to us? Then You shall answer them, Just as you have forsaken Me and served foreign gods in your land, so you shall serve strangers in a land that is not yours. <sup>20</sup>Declare this in the house of Jacob, and cry it in Judah, saying, <sup>21</sup>Now hear this, O foolish people and without heart; who have eyes and see not; who have ears and hear not; <sup>22</sup>Do you not fear Me? says the LORD. Will you not tremble at My presence, I who have placed the sand for the boundary of the sea by a never-ending decree, so that it cannot pass it? And though they toss themselves, yet they cannot prevail; though they roar, yet they cannot pass over it? <sup>23</sup>But this people has a revolting and a rebellious heart; they have revolted and are gone. <sup>24</sup>And they do not say in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, who gives both the former and the latter rain in its season; He reserves to us the appointed weeks of the harvest.

<sup>25</sup>Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withheld good things from you. <sup>26</sup>For among My people are found wicked ones; they lie in wait, as one who sets snares; they set a trap, they catch men. <sup>27</sup>Like a cage full of birds, so their houses are full of deceit; therefore they have become great and grown rich. <sup>28</sup>They have become fat, they shine. Yes, they go past the deeds of the wicked; they do not judge the cause, the cause of the fatherless, that they may get rich; and they do not judge the right of the needy. <sup>29</sup>Shall I not visit for these things? says the LORD. Shall not My soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

<sup>30</sup>An astounding and horrible thing has happened in the land. <sup>31</sup>The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so, and what will you do at the end of it?

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>O sons of Benjamin, take refuge out of the midst of Jerusalem. And blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and set up a signal-fire over Beth-haccerem; for evil appears out of the north, and great ruin. <sup>2</sup>I will destroy the daughter of Zion, the beautiful and tender one. <sup>3</sup>The shepherds with their flocks shall come to her; they shall pitch tents on her all around; they shall feed each one in his hand. <sup>4</sup>Prepare war against her; arise and let us go up at noon. Woe to us! For the day goes away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out. <sup>5</sup>Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces.

<sup>6</sup>For so has the LORD of hosts said, Cut down trees and cast a mound against Jerusalem! She is the city to be visited; there is nothing but oppression in her midst. <sup>7</sup>As a fountain keeps fresh her waters, so she keeps fresh her evil; violence and spoil is heard in her; always before Me are grief and wounds. <sup>8</sup>O Jerusalem, you must be instructed, lest My soul depart from you; lest I make you desolate, a land without people.

<sup>9</sup>So says the LORD of hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel like a vine; turn back your hand as a grape gatherer into the baskets. <sup>10</sup>To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? Behold, their ear is not circumcised, and they cannot listen. Behold, the word of the LORD is to them a reproach; they have no delight in it. <sup>11</sup>Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am weary with holding in; I will pour it out on the children in the street, and on the circle of young men together. For even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him who is full of days. <sup>12</sup>And their houses shall be turned to others, together with their fields and wives; for I will stretch out My hand on the people of the land, says the LORD. <sup>13</sup>For everyone from the least of them even to the greatest of them cuts off a profit; and from the prophet even to the priest everyone deals falsely. <sup>14</sup>They have also healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. <sup>15</sup>Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? No, they were not at all ashamed, nor could they blush; therefore they shall fall among those who fall. At the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, says the LORD. <sup>16</sup>So says the LORD, Stand in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths where the good way is, and walk in it, and you shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk in it. <sup>17</sup>Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Listen to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not listen.

<sup>18</sup>Therefore hear, nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them. <sup>19</sup>Hear, O earth; behold, I will bring evil on this people, the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not listened to My words, nor to My law, but have rejected it. <sup>20</sup>Why does there come frankincense to me from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? Your burnt offerings are not pleasing, nor your sacrifices sweet to Me. <sup>21</sup>Therefore so says the LORD, Behold, I will lay stumbling-blocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall on them; the neighbor and his friend shall perish. <sup>22</sup>So says the LORD, Behold, a people comes from the north country, and a great nation shall be stirred from the sides of the earth. <sup>23</sup>They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel and have no mercy; their voice roars like the sea; and they ride on horses, set in order like a man for war against you, O daughter of Zion. <sup>24</sup>We have heard the rumor of it; our hands become feeble; anguish has taken hold of us, and pain, like a woman in labor. <sup>25</sup>Do not go out into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear are on every side.

<sup>26</sup>O daughter of my people, put on sackcloth, and wallow in ashes; make mourning for yourself, as for an only son, most bitter weeping; for the ravager shall suddenly come on us. <sup>27</sup>I have set you up as an assayer and an examiner among My people, that you may know and try their way. <sup>28</sup>They are all grievous revolvers, walking with slanders; they are bronze and iron; they are all corrupters. <sup>29</sup>The bellows are burned, the lead is melted by the fire; the refiner melts in vain; for the wicked are not plucked away. <sup>30</sup>Reprobate silver they call them, because the LORD has rejected them.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, <sup>2</sup>Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, and declare there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah, who enter in at these gates to worship the LORD. <sup>3</sup>So says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Make your ways and your doings good, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. <sup>4</sup>Do not trust in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD are these. <sup>5</sup>For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if you completely do judgment between a man and his neighbor; <sup>6</sup>if you do not oppress the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place, nor walk after other gods to your hurt; <sup>7</sup>then I will cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, forever and ever.

<sup>8</sup>Behold, you trust in lying words that cannot do any good. <sup>9</sup>Will you steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense to Baal, and walk after other gods whom you do not know; <sup>10</sup>and then come and stand before Me in this house which is called by My name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations? <sup>11</sup>Has this house, which is called by My name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, I also have seen it, says the LORD. <sup>12</sup>But go now to My place which was in Shiloh, where I set My name at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of My people Israel. <sup>13</sup>And now, because you have done all these works, says the LORD, and I spoke to you, rising up early and speaking, but you did not hear; and I called you, but you did not answer; <sup>14</sup>therefore I will do to this house, which is called by My name, in which you trust, and to the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh. <sup>15</sup>And I will cast you out of My sight, as I have cast out all your brothers, the whole seed of Ephraim. <sup>16</sup>Therefore do not pray for this people, nor lift up cry nor prayer for them, nor make intercession to Me; for I will not hear you.

<sup>17</sup>Do you not see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? <sup>18</sup>The sons gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven and to pour out drink offerings to other gods, that they may provoke Me to anger. <sup>19</sup>Do they provoke Me to anger? says the LORD. Do they not provoke themselves to the shame of their own faces? <sup>20</sup>Therefore so says the Lord GOD; Behold, My anger and My fury shall be poured out on this place, on man, and on animal, and on the trees of the field, and on the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be put out.

<sup>21</sup>So says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Put your burnt offerings to your sacrifices, and eat flesh. <sup>22</sup>For I did not speak to your fathers, nor command them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices. <sup>23</sup>But I commanded them this thing, saying, Obey My voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be My people; and walk in all the ways that I have commanded you, so that it may be well with you. <sup>24</sup>But they did not listen, nor bow their ear, but walked in the plans and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward and not forward. <sup>25</sup>Since the day that your fathers came out of the land of Egypt until this day I have even sent to you all My servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending. <sup>26</sup>Yet they did not listen to Me, nor bow down their ear, but hardened their neck. They did worse than their fathers. <sup>27</sup>So you shall speak all these words to them, but they will not listen to you; you shall also call to them, but they will not answer you. <sup>28</sup>But you shall say to them, This is a nation which does not obey the voice of the LORD their God, nor receives instruction; truth has perished, and is cut off from their mouth.

<sup>29</sup>O Jerusalem, cut off your hair and throw it away, and take up a weeping on the high places. For the LORD has rejected and forsaken the generation of His wrath. <sup>30</sup>For the sons of Judah have done evil in My sight, says the LORD. They have set their abominations in the house which is called by My name, in order to defile it. <sup>31</sup>They have built the high places of Tophet, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I did not command them, nor did it come into My heart.

<sup>32</sup>So, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter. For they shall bury in Tophet, until there is no place. <sup>33</sup>And the bodies of this people shall be food for the birds of the heavens, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall frighten them away. <sup>34</sup>Then I will cause the voice of gladness to cease from the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem; and the voice of joy, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride. For the land shall be desolate.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>At that time, says the LORD, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of its rulers, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the people of Jerusalem, out of their graves. <sup>2</sup>And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of the heavens, whom they have loved and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshiped. They shall not be gathered nor buried; they shall be as dung on the face of the earth. <sup>3</sup>And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the rest of those who remain of this evil family, who remain in all the places where I have driven them, says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>4</sup>And you shall say to them, So says the LORD; shall they fall and not arise? Shall he turn away and not return? <sup>5</sup>Why has this people of Jerusalem slid back by a never-ending backsliding? They hold fast to deceit; they refuse to return. <sup>6</sup>I listened and heard, but they did not speak right; no man repented of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? Everyone turned to his own way, like the horse rushes into the battle. <sup>7</sup>Yea, the stork in the heavens knows her seasons; and the turtle and the crane and the swallow watch the time of their coming; but my people do not know the judgment of the LORD. <sup>8</sup>How do you say, We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us? Lo, certainly the lying pen of the scribes has written falsely. <sup>9</sup>The wise are ashamed, they are terrified, and are captured. Lo, they have turned away from the word of the LORD; and what wisdom is in them? <sup>10</sup>Therefore I will give their wives to others, and their fields to those who shall inherit them, for everyone from the least even to the greatest cuts off a profit. From the prophet even to the priest everyone deals falsely. <sup>11</sup>For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of My people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. <sup>12</sup>Were they ashamed when they had done an abomination? No, they were not at all ashamed, nor could they blush; therefore they shall fall among those who fall; in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, says the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>I will utterly consume them, says the LORD; there shall be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them. <sup>14</sup>Why do we sit still? Gather yourselves, and let us enter into the fortified cities, and let us be silent there. For the LORD our God has put us to silence, and has given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD. <sup>15</sup>We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of health, but behold, trouble! <sup>16</sup>The snorting of his horses was heard from Dan; the whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones. For they have come, and have devoured the land, and all that is in it; the city, and those who live in it. <sup>17</sup>For, behold, I will send serpents and adders among you, which will not be charmed; and they shall bite you, says the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>When I would comfort myself against sorrow, my heart is faint within me. <sup>19</sup>Behold the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people, because of those who dwell in a far country. Is not the LORD in Zion? Is not her King in her? Why have they provoked Me to anger with their graven images and with strange vanities? <sup>20</sup>The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved. <sup>21</sup>For the breaking of the daughter of my people I am broken; I am in gloom; horror has seized me. <sup>22</sup>Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then has the healing of my people not come?

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>Oh that my head were waters, and my eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people! <sup>2</sup>Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place for traveling men, that I might leave my people and go away from them! For they are all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men. <sup>3</sup>And they bend their tongues like their bow for lies. But they are not mighty for the truth on the earth; for they go from evil to evil, and they do not know Me, says the LORD. <sup>4</sup>Everyone beware of his neighbor, and do not trust any brother! For every brother will supplant his neighbor, and will walk with slanders. <sup>5</sup>And everyone will deceive his neighbor, and will not speak the truth; they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and they weary themselves to commit iniquity. <sup>6</sup>Your habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know Me, says the LORD. <sup>7</sup>Therefore so says the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will melt them and try them; for what else can I do for the daughter of My people? <sup>8</sup>Their tongue is a slaughtering arrow; it speaks deceit; one speaks peaceably to his neighbor with his mouth, but in heart he lies in ambush.

<sup>9</sup>Shall I not visit them for these things? says the LORD; shall not My soul be avenged on such a nation as this? <sup>10</sup>I will take up a weeping and a wailing for the mountains, and a mourning for the homes of the wilderness; because they are burned up, so that none can pass through them; nor can men hear the voice of the cattle. Both the birds of the heavens and the beast have fled; they are gone. <sup>11</sup>And I will make Jerusalem ruins, a den of jackals; and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without a living soul.

<sup>12</sup>Who is the wise man who may understand this? And who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD has spoken, that he may declare it? For why does the land perish and burn up like a wilderness, so that none passes through? <sup>13</sup>And the LORD says, Because they have forsaken My law which I set before them, and have not obeyed My voice. Nor have they walked in it; <sup>14</sup>but they have walked after the imagination of their own heart, and after the Baals, which their fathers taught them. <sup>15</sup>Therefore so says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and will give them water of gall to drink. <sup>16</sup>I will also scatter them among the nations, whom they nor their fathers have known. And I will send a sword after them until I have consumed them.

<sup>17</sup>So says the LORD of hosts, Think carefully, and call for the wailers, that they may come. And send for the wise women, that they may come; <sup>18</sup>and let them make haste and take up a weeping for us, so that our eyes may run down with tears, and waters flow from our eyelids. <sup>19</sup>For a voice of weeping is heard out of Zion. How are we plundered! We are greatly ashamed, because we have forsaken the land, because they have thrown down our tents. <sup>20</sup>Yet hear the word of the LORD, O women, and let your ear receive the word of His mouth, and teach your daughters to weep, and each one teach her neighbor to mourn. <sup>21</sup>For death has come up into our windows, and has entered into our houses, to cut off the children from outside and the young men from the streets. <sup>22</sup>Speak, So says the LORD, Even the bodies of men shall fall as dung on the open field, and as the fallen grain after the reaper; and none shall gather them.

<sup>23</sup>So says the LORD, Do not let the wise glory in his wisdom, nor let the mighty glory in his might; do not let the rich glory in his riches; <sup>24</sup>but let him who glories glory in this, that he understands and knows Me, that I am the LORD, doing kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth; for in these things I delight, says the LORD.

<sup>25</sup>Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will punish all the circumcised with foreskin; <sup>26</sup>Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the sons of Ammon, and Moab, and all who are in the outermost corners, who dwell in the wilderness. For all these nations are not circumcised, and all the house of Israel — those not circumcised in heart.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>Hear the word which the LORD speaks to you, O house of Israel. <sup>2</sup>So says the LORD, Do not learn the way of the nations, and do not be terrified at the signs of the heavens; for the nations are terrified at them. <sup>3</sup>For the customs of the people are vain; for one cuts a tree out of the forest with the axe, the work of the hands of the workman. <sup>4</sup>They adorn it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and hammers, so that it will not wobble. <sup>5</sup>They are like a rounded post, and they cannot speak. They must surely be lifted, because they cannot walk. Do not be afraid of them; for they cannot do evil nor good, for it is not in them. <sup>6</sup>There is none like You, O LORD; You are great, and Your name is great in might. <sup>7</sup>Who would not fear You, O King of nations? For fear belongs to You, because among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like You. <sup>8</sup>But they are all at once foolish and animal-like; the tree is an example of vanities.

<sup>9</sup>Silver beaten into plates is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the goldsmith. Violet and purple is their clothing; they are all the work of skillful ones. <sup>10</sup>But the LORD is the true God, He is the living God, and the everlasting King. At His wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to stand His fury. <sup>11</sup>So you shall say to them, The gods who have not made the heavens and the earth, they shall perish from the earth and from under these heavens. <sup>12</sup>He has made the earth by His power; He has established the world by His wisdom, and has stretched out the heavens by His judgment. <sup>13</sup>When He utters His voice, there is a noise of many waters in the heavens. He causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth; He makes lightnings with rain, and brings forth the wind out of His treasures. <sup>14</sup>Every man is stupid for lack of knowledge; every refiner is put to shame by the graven image; for his molten image is a lie, and no breath is in them. <sup>15</sup>They are vanity the work of delusion; in the time of their judgment they shall perish. <sup>16</sup>The Portion of Jacob is not like them; for He is the Maker of all things; and Israel is the rod of His inheritance. The LORD of hosts is His name.

<sup>17</sup>Gather up your bundle from the ground, you who live under the siege. <sup>18</sup>For so says the LORD, Behold, I will sling out the people of the land at this time, and will distress them, so that they may feel it.

<sup>19</sup>Woe to me for my breaking! My wound is grievous; but I said, Truly this is a malady, and I must bear it. <sup>20</sup>My tabernacle is ravaged, and all my cords are broken; My sons went away from me, and they are not. There is none to stretch out My tabernacle any more, and to set up My curtains. <sup>21</sup>For the pastors have become stupid, and have not sought the LORD, therefore they shall not be blessed, and all their flocks shall be scattered. <sup>22</sup>Behold, the noise of the rumor has come, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah a desolation, a den of jackals.

<sup>23</sup>O LORD, I know that the way of man does not belong to man; it is not in man who walks to direct his steps. <sup>24</sup>O LORD, correct me, but with judgment; not in Your anger, lest You bring me to nothing. <sup>25</sup>Pour out Your fury on the nations who do not know You, and on the families who do not call on Your name; for they have eaten up Jacob and have devoured him, and have destroyed him, and have made his dwelling desolate.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD saying, <sup>2</sup>Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah and to the people of Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>And say to them, So says the LORD God of Israel, Cursed is the man who does not obey the words of this covenant, <sup>4</sup>which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Obey My voice and do them according to all that I command you; so you shall be My people, and I will be your God; <sup>5</sup>so that I may fulfil the oath which I have sworn to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then I answered and said, Amen, O LORD. <sup>6</sup>Then the LORD said to me, Declare all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear the words of this covenant, and do them. <sup>7</sup>For I earnestly testified to your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even to this day, rising early and testifying, saying, Obey My voice. <sup>8</sup>Yet they did not obey nor bow down their ear, but walked each one in the imagination of his evil heart. So I will bring on them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do; but they did not do them. <sup>9</sup>And the LORD said to me, A plot is found among the men of Judah, and among the people of Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>They have turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, who refused to hear My words. And they went after other gods to serve them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken My covenant which I made with their fathers.

<sup>11</sup>So the LORD says this: Behold, I will bring evil on them, which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry to Me, I will not listen to them. <sup>12</sup>Then shall the cities of Judah and the people of Jerusalem go and cry to the gods to whom they offer incense. But they shall not save them at all in the time of their trouble. <sup>13</sup>For according to the number of your cities were your gods, O Judah. And according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem you have set up altars to that shameful thing, altars to burn incense to Baal. <sup>14</sup>And you, do not pray for this people, nor lift up a cry or prayer for them. For I will not hear them in the time they cry to Me for their trouble. <sup>15</sup>What is to My beloved in My house, since she has committed her many evils? And has the holy flesh caused your evil to pass from you? How then do you exult? <sup>16</sup>The LORD called your name, a green olive tree, fair, with fine fruit. With the sound of a great storm He has set fire to it, and its branches are worthless. <sup>17</sup>And the LORD of hosts who planted you has spoken evil against you, for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done to themselves to provoke Me to anger by offering incense to Baal.

<sup>18</sup>And the LORD made me know, and I knew. Then You showed me their doings. <sup>19</sup>But I was like a docile lamb being brought to the slaughter. And I did not know that they had plotted evils against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, so that his name may be remembered no more. <sup>20</sup>But, O LORD of hosts who judges rightly, who tries the heart and the mind, let me see Your vengeance on them. For to You I have revealed my cause. <sup>21</sup>Therefore so says the LORD of the men of Anathoth, who seek your life, saying, Do not prophesy in the name of the LORD, that you do not die by our hand. <sup>22</sup>So says LORD of hosts, Behold, I will punish them. The young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine; <sup>23</sup>and there shall be no remnant of them. For I will bring evil on the men of Anathoth, the year of their judgment.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>Righteous are You, O LORD, that I might contend; yet let me speak with You about Your judgments. Why does the way of the wicked prosper? Why are all those happy who deal treacherously? <sup>2</sup>You have planted them; yea, they take root. They grow, yea, they make fruit. You are near in their mouth and far from their reins. <sup>3</sup>But You, O LORD, know me. You have seen me and tried my heart toward You. Pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and devote them for the day of slaughter. <sup>4</sup>How long shall the land mourn, and the grass of every field wither from the evil of those who dwell in it? The beasts and the birds have been destroyed, because they said, He shall not see our last end.

<sup>5</sup>If you have run with footmen, and they wore you out, then how can you compete with horses? And if you feel secure in the land of peace, then how will you do in the swelling of Jordan? <sup>6</sup>For even your brothers and the house of your father, even they have dealt treacherously with you. Yea, they have called a multitude after you. Do not believe them, though they speak good things to you.

<sup>7</sup>I have forsaken My house; I have left My inheritance. I have given the dearly beloved of My soul into the hand of her enemies. <sup>8</sup>My inheritance is to Me as a lion in the forest; it cries out against Me; therefore I have hated it. <sup>9</sup>My inheritance is like a speckled bird to Me; the birds all around are against her. Come, gather all the beasts of the field, come to devour. <sup>10</sup>Many shepherds have destroyed My vineyard; they have trampled My portion under foot; they have made My pleasant portion a desolate wilderness. <sup>11</sup>One has made it desolate, it mourns to Me. The whole land is made desolate because no man lays it to heart. <sup>12</sup>The ravagers have come on all high places through the wilderness; for the sword of the LORD shall devour from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land. No flesh shall have peace. <sup>13</sup>They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns. They are worn out, but they do not profit. And they shall be ashamed of your harvests because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>So says the LORD against all my evil neighbors who touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit: Behold, I will pluck them out of their land, and pluck out the house of Judah from among them. <sup>15</sup>And after I have plucked them out, I will return and have pity on them, and will bring them again, each man to his inheritance and each man to his land. <sup>16</sup>And if they will carefully learn the ways of My people, to swear by My name, As the LORD lives; as they taught the people to swear by Baal; then they shall be built in the midst of My people. <sup>17</sup>But if they will not obey, I will uproot and destroy that nation, says the LORD.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>So says the LORD to me, Go and buy for yourself a linen girdle, and put it on your loins, and do not put it in water. <sup>2</sup>So I bought a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins. <sup>3</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me a second time, saying, <sup>4</sup>Take the girdle that you bought, which is on your loins, and arise. Go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock. <sup>5</sup>So I went and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me. <sup>6</sup>And it happened at the end of many days the LORD said to me, Arise, go to Euphrates and take the girdle from there, which I commanded you to hide there. <sup>7</sup>Then I went to Euphrates and dug, and took the girdle from the place where I had hidden it. And, behold, the girdle has rotted; it was not good for anything. <sup>8</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>9</sup>So says the LORD, In this way I will spoil the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>This evil people, who refuse to hear My words, who walk in the imagination of their heart and walk after other gods to serve them and to worship them, shall even be like this girdle, which is good for nothing. <sup>11</sup>For as the girdle holds fast to the loins of a man, so I have caused the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah to cling to Me, says the LORD; so that they might be to Me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory; but they would not hear.

<sup>12</sup>So you will speak to them this word: So says the LORD God of Israel, Every skin shall be filled with wine. And they shall say to you, Do we not surely know that every skin shall be filled with wine? <sup>13</sup>Then you shall say to them, So says the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the people of this land, even the kings that sit on David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. <sup>14</sup>And I will smash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, says the LORD. I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, to keep them from their destruction.

<sup>15</sup>Hear and give ear; do not be proud; for the LORD has spoken. <sup>16</sup>Give glory to the LORD your God, before He causes darkness, and before your feet stumble on the dark mountains, and, while you look for light, He turns it into the shadow of death, setting up deep gloom. <sup>17</sup>But if you will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride. And my eye shall weep sore and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock was captured. <sup>18</sup>Say to the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down; for your greatness shall come down, even the crown of your glory. <sup>19</sup>The cities of the south have been shut up, and none are opening; Judah has been exiled, all of it has been peacefully exiled.

<sup>20</sup>Lift up your eyes and behold those who come from the north. Where is the flock that was given to you, your beautiful flock? <sup>21</sup>What will you say when he comes to punish you? For you have taught them to be rulers over you for a head. Do not pangs seize you, like a woman in travail? <sup>22</sup>And if you say in your heart, Why do these things come on me? It is because of the greatness of your iniquity; your skirts are bared, and your heels suffer violence. <sup>23</sup>Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard its spots? Then you also may do good, who are accustomed to doing evil. <sup>24</sup>And I will scatter them as the stubble that passes away by the wind of the wilderness. <sup>25</sup>This is your lot, the share I have measured to you, says the LORD, because you have forgotten Me and trusted in falsehood. <sup>26</sup>So I also have stripped off your skirts over your face, that your shame may appear. <sup>27</sup>I have seen your adulteries, and your neighings, the wickedness of your fornication, and your abominations on the hills in the fields. Woe to you, O Jerusalem! Will you not be made clean? How long will it still be?

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the matter of droughts. <sup>2</sup>Judah mourns, and its gates droop. They are black to the ground, and the cry of Jerusalem has gone up. <sup>3</sup>And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters; they came to the cisterns, and found no water. They returned with their vessels empty; they were ashamed and confounded, and covered their heads. <sup>4</sup>Because the ground was cracked, for there was no rain in the earth, the plowmen were ashamed; they covered their heads. <sup>5</sup>Yea, the doe also calved in the field and forsook it, because there was no grass. <sup>6</sup>And the wild asses stood in the high places; they snuffed up the wind like jackals; their eyes failed because there was no grass.

<sup>7</sup>O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us, act for Your name's sake; for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against You. <sup>8</sup>O the Hope of Israel, its Saviour in time of trouble, why should You be as a stranger in the land, and as a traveler turning in to lodge? <sup>9</sup>Why should You be as a man stunned, as one mighty, yet save? Yet You, O LORD, are in our midst, and we are called by Your name. Do not leave us!

<sup>10</sup>So says the LORD to this people; So they have loved to wander; they have not refrained their feet; therefore the LORD does not accept them. He will now remember their iniquity and visit their sins. <sup>11</sup>Then the LORD said to me, Do not pray for this people for good. <sup>12</sup>When they fast, I will not hear their cry, and when they offer burnt offering and a grain offering, I will not accept them. But I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the plague.

<sup>13</sup>Then I said, Ah, O Lord Jehovah! Behold, the prophets are saying to them, You shall not see the sword, nor shall you have famine; but I will give you true peace in this place. <sup>14</sup>And the LORD said to me, The prophets prophesy lies in My name; I did not send them, nor have I commanded them, nor did I speak to them. They prophesy to you a false vision and a worthless divination, and a thing of no value, and the deceit of their heart. <sup>15</sup>So the LORD says this concerning the prophets who prophesy in My name, and I did not send them; yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; by sword and famine those prophets shall be consumed. <sup>16</sup>And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them, neither them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters. For I will pour their evil on them.

<sup>17</sup>And you shall speak this word to them: Let my eyes run down with tears night and day, and do not let them cease. For the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great break, with a very grievous blow. <sup>18</sup>If I go out into the field, then I see those killed with the sword! And if I enter into the city, then I see those who are sick with famine! Yes, both the prophet and the priest have gone up into a land that they do not know. <sup>19</sup>Have You utterly rejected Judah? Or has Your soul hated Zion? Why have You stricken us, and there is no healing for us? We looked for peace, but no good came; and for the time of healing, and behold trouble! <sup>20</sup>We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, the iniquity of our fathers; for we have sinned against You. <sup>21</sup>Do not abhor us for Your name's sake, do not disgrace the throne of Your glory; remember, do not break Your covenant with us. <sup>22</sup>Are there any among the vanities of the nations who make rain fall? Or can the heavens give showers? Is it not You, O LORD our God? Then we will wait on You; for You do all these things.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before Me, My soul could not be toward this people. Send them out of My sight, and let them go out. <sup>2</sup>And it will be, if they say to you, Where shall we go? Then you shall tell them, So says the LORD: Those who are for death, go to death; and those for the sword, to the sword; and those for the famine, to the famine; and those for the captivity, to the captivity. <sup>3</sup>And I will set over them four kinds, says the LORD; the sword to kill, and the dogs to tear, and the birds of the heaven and the beasts of the earth to devour and destroy. <sup>4</sup>And I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for what he did in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>For who shall have pity on you, O Jerusalem? Or who shall weep over you? Or who shall turn aside to ask your welfare? <sup>6</sup>You have forsaken Me, says the LORD; you have gone backward; therefore I will stretch out My hand against you, and destroy you; I am weary with repenting. <sup>7</sup>And I will winnow them with a fork in the gates of the land; I will bereave them of sons; I will destroy My people, since they do not return from their ways. <sup>8</sup>Their widows are more numerous about Me than the sand of the seas; I have brought on them a ravager at noonday against the mother of a young man; I have caused anguish and terror to fall on her suddenly. <sup>9</sup>She who bore seven languishes; she has breathed out her life; her sun has gone down while it was yet day. She has been ashamed and humiliated; and I will deliver the rest of them to the sword before their enemies, says the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>Woe is me, my mother, that you have borne me, a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have not loaned, nor have men loaned to me; yet every one of them curses me. <sup>11</sup>The LORD said, Truly I will free you for good. Truly I will cause the enemy to entreat you in the time of evil and in the time of affliction. <sup>12</sup>Can one break iron, iron or bronze from the north? <sup>13</sup>Your wealth and your treasures I will give for prey, not for price, but for all your sins, even in all your borders. <sup>14</sup>And I will make you pass with your enemies into a land which you do not know. For a fire has been kindled in My anger; it shall burn against you.

<sup>15</sup>O LORD, You know; remember me and visit me, and take vengeance for me on those who seek to hurt me. Do not take me away in Your long-suffering; know that for Your sake I have suffered rebuke. <sup>16</sup>Your words were found, and I ate them; and Your word was to me the joy and gladness of my heart; for I am called by Your name, O LORD God of hosts. <sup>17</sup>I did not sit in the circle of mockers, nor rejoice; I sat alone because of Your hand; for You have filled me with indignation. <sup>18</sup>Why has my pain been without end, and why is my wound incurable, refusing to be healed? You surely are to me like a deceitful brook whose waters cannot be trusted.

<sup>19</sup>Therefore so says the LORD, If you turn back, then I will bring you again; you shall stand before Me. And if you take the precious from the worthless, you shall be as My mouth. Let them turn back to you, but do not return to them. <sup>20</sup>And I will make you to this people a fortified wall of bronze; and they shall fight against you, but they shall not overcome you; for I am with you to save you and to deliver you, says the LORD. <sup>21</sup>And I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem you out of the hand of the evil ones.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD was to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>You shall not take a wife for yourself, nor shall you have sons or daughters in this place. <sup>3</sup>For so says the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them, and concerning their fathers who fathered them in this land: <sup>4</sup>They shall die from deaths of diseases; they shall not be mourned, nor shall they be buried. But they shall be as dung on the face of the earth. And they shall be destroyed by the sword and by famine; and their bodies shall be food for the birds of the heavens and for the beasts of the earth. <sup>5</sup>For so says the LORD, Do not enter into the house of mourning; do not go to weep nor moan over them. For I have taken away My peace from this people, says the LORD, even loving-kindness and mercies. <sup>6</sup>Both the great and the small shall die in this land. They shall not be buried, nor shall men mourn for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them. <sup>7</sup>Nor shall men tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead. Nor shall men give them the cup of comfort to drink for their father or for their mother. <sup>8</sup>Also you shall not go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink. <sup>9</sup>For so says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will cause the voice of mirth to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, and the voice of gladness, and the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.

<sup>10</sup>And it shall be, when you declare to this people all these words, and they shall say to you, Why has the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us?

Or what is our iniquity, or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God? <sup>11</sup>Then you shall say to them, Because your fathers have forsaken Me, says the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshiped them, and have forsaken Me, and have not kept My law. <sup>12</sup>And you have done worse than your fathers; for, behold, you walk each one after the imagination of his evil heart, without listening to Me; <sup>13</sup>even I will cast you out of this land into a land that you do not know, neither you nor your fathers; and there you shall serve other gods day and night; where I will not grant you favor.

<sup>14</sup>So, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that it shall no more be said, As the LORD lives, who brought up the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt; <sup>15</sup>but, As the LORD lives, who brought up the sons of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands where He had driven them. And I will bring them again into their lands that I gave to their fathers.

<sup>16</sup>Behold, I will send for many fishermen, says the LORD, and they will fish them. And afterwards I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them from every mountain and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks. <sup>17</sup>For My eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from My face, nor is their iniquity hidden from My eyes. <sup>18</sup>And first I will twice repay their iniquity and their sin, because they have defiled My land, they have filled My inheritance with the dead bodies of their abominable things. <sup>19</sup>O LORD, my strength and my fortress, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the nations shall come to You from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things in which there is no profit. <sup>20</sup>Shall a man make gods to himself, and they are no gods? <sup>21</sup>Therefore, behold, this once I will make them know My power; I will cause them to know My hand and My might; and they shall know that My name is Jehovah.

<sup>5</sup>So says the LORD, Cursed is the man who trusts in man, and makes flesh his arm, and whose heart departs from the LORD. <sup>6</sup>For he shall be like a juniper in the desert, and shall not see when good comes. But he shall live in the parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land that is not inhabited. <sup>7</sup>Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, and Jehovah is his trust. <sup>8</sup>For he shall be like a tree planted by the waters; it sends out its roots by the river, and shall not fear when the heat comes, but its foliage shall be green; and he is not worried in the year of drought, nor will it cease from yielding fruit.

<sup>9</sup>The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked; who can know it? <sup>10</sup>I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, even to give to each man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his doings. <sup>11</sup>The quail sits on eggs and does not hatch them; in the same way he who gets riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the middle of his days, and in his end he shall be a fool.

<sup>12</sup>A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary. <sup>13</sup>O LORD, the Hope of Israel, all who forsake You shall be ashamed. Those who depart from Me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the Fountain of living waters. <sup>14</sup>Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed, save me, and I shall be saved; for You are my praise.

<sup>15</sup>Behold, they say to me, Where is the word of the LORD? Let it come now! <sup>16</sup>As for me, I have not hurried away from shepherding after You; nor have I desired the woeful day; You surely know the going forth of my lips before Your face. <sup>17</sup>Do not be a terror to me; You are my hope in the day of evil. <sup>18</sup>Let those who persecute me be ashamed, but do not let me be ashamed; let them be afraid, but do not let me be afraid. Bring on them the day of evil, and destroy them with double breaking.

<sup>19</sup>So the LORD said to me: Go and stand in the gates of the sons of the people, by which the kings of Judah come in, and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup>And say to them, Hear the word of the LORD, kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the people of Jerusalem who enter in by these gates! <sup>21</sup>So says the LORD, Take heed to yourselves, and carry no burden on the Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem. <sup>22</sup>Nor carry out a burden from your houses on the Sabbath day, nor do any work, but keep the Sabbath day holy, as I commanded your fathers. <sup>23</sup>But they did not obey, nor bowed down their ear, but made their neck stiff, so that they might not hear nor receive instruction. <sup>24</sup>And it shall be, if you carefully listen to Me, says the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but keep the Sabbath day holy, to do no work in it; <sup>25</sup>then kings and rulers sitting on the throne of David shall enter into the gates of this city, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their rulers, the men of Judah, and the people of Jerusalem. And this city shall remain forever. <sup>26</sup>And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the plain, and from the mountains, and from the south, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and grain offerings, and incense, and bringing sacrifices of praise to the house of the LORD. <sup>27</sup>But if you will not listen to me to keep the Sabbath day holy, and not to carry a burden, even entering in at the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day; then I will kindle a fire in its gates, and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it will not be put out.

CHAPTER 18

<sup>1</sup>The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, <sup>2</sup>Arise and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear My words. <sup>3</sup>Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he was working a work on the wheel. <sup>4</sup>And the vessel that he made in clay was ruined in the hand of the potter; so he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it. <sup>5</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>6</sup>O house of Israel, can I not do with you as this potter? says the LORD. Behold, As the clay in the potter's hands, so are you in My hand, O house of Israel. <sup>7</sup>The instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck it up and to pull it down, and to destroy it; <sup>8</sup>if that nation, against whom I have spoken, will turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do to them. <sup>9</sup>And the instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build it and to plant it; <sup>10</sup>if it does evil in My sight, that it does not obey My voice, then I will repent of the good with which I said I would do them good.

<sup>11</sup>Now then come, speak to the men of Judah, and to the people of Jerusalem, saying, So says the LORD: Behold, I am forming evil against you, and devising a plan against you. Return now, each one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good. <sup>12</sup>And they said, There is no hope; but we will walk after our own ways, and we will each one do according to the stubbornness of his evil heart. <sup>13</sup>Therefore so says the LORD, Ask now among the nations; who has heard the like of this? The virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing. <sup>14</sup>Does the snow of Lebanon forsake the rock of the field? Or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken? <sup>15</sup>Because My people have forgotten Me, they have burned incense to vanity, and they have caused themselves to stumble in their ways from the old paths, to walk in by-paths, not in the highway, <sup>16</sup>to make their land desolate and a hissing forever. Everyone who passes by will be amazed, and will wag his head. <sup>17</sup>I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will show them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.

<sup>18</sup>Then they said, Come and let us plot schemes against Jeremiah. For the law shall not perish from the priest, nor wisdom from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come and let us strike him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words. <sup>19</sup>Give heed to me; O LORD, and listen to the voice of my foes. <sup>20</sup>Should evil be repaid for good? For they have dug a pit for my soul. Remember that I stood before You to do good for them, and to turn away Your wrath from them. <sup>21</sup>Therefore deliver up their sons to the famine, and give them over to the hand of the sword. And let their wives be bereaved, and widows. And let their men be slain of death; let their young men be struck by the sword in battle. <sup>22</sup>Let a cry be heard from their houses, when You suddenly bring a raiding party on them. For they have dug a pit to take me, and have hidden snares for my feet. <sup>23</sup>Yet, LORD, You know all their counsel against me to kill me. Do not forgive their iniquity, nor blot out their sin from Your sight, but let them be overthrown before You; deal with them in the time of Your anger.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>1</sup>So says the LORD, Go and get a potter's earthen jar, and assemble from the elders of the people and of the elders of the priests. <sup>2</sup>And go out to the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of Potsherd Gate. And there declare the words that I shall tell you. <sup>3</sup>And say, Hear the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, and people of Jerusalem. So says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring evil on this place, which shall cause the ears of him who hears it to tingle. <sup>4</sup>Because they have forsaken Me, and have made this place estranged and have burned incense in it to other gods whom nor they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with the blood of innocents. <sup>5</sup>They have also built the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings to Baal, which I never commanded nor spoke, nor did it come into My mind. <sup>6</sup>Therefore, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that this place shall no more be called Tophet, nor the valley of the son of Hinnom, but, The Valley of Slaughter. <sup>7</sup>And I will make the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem come to nothing in this place, and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of those who seek their lives. And I will give their dead bodies to be food for the birds of the heavens, and for the animals of the earth. <sup>8</sup>And I will make this city a waste and a hissing. Everyone who passes by shall be amazed and shall hiss because of all its plagues. <sup>9</sup>And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall each one eat the flesh of his friend in the siege and distress, with which their enemies and those who seek their lives shall distress them.

<sup>10</sup>Then you shall break the jar before the eyes of the men who go with you, <sup>11</sup>and shall say to them, So says the LORD of hosts, Even so I will break this people of this city, as one breaks a potter's vessel that cannot be made whole again. And they shall bury them in Tophet until there is no place left to bury. <sup>12</sup>I will do this to this place, says the LORD, and to its people, and make this city as Tophet.<sup>13</sup> And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be as defiled as the place of Tophet, because of all the houses on whose roofs they have burned incense to all the host of heaven, and have poured out drink offerings to other gods.

<sup>14</sup>Then Jeremiah came from Tophet, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy. And he stood in the court of the LORD's house, and said to all the people, <sup>15</sup>So says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring on this city and on all its towns all the evil that I have spoken against it, because they have hardened their necks so that they might not hear My words.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>1</sup>When Pashur the son of Immer the priest — he also was chief officer in the house of the LORD — heard Jeremiah prophesying these things, <sup>2</sup>then Pashur struck Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the upper Benjamin Gate, which was by the house of the LORD. <sup>3</sup>And it happened on the next day, Pashur brought Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, The LORD has not called your name Pashur, but Terror from All Around. <sup>4</sup>For so says the LORD, Behold, I will make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends. And they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes shall behold it. And I will give all Judah into the king of Babylon's hand, and he will exile them into Babylon, and kill them with the sword. <sup>5</sup>And I will give all the wealth of this city, and its produce, and all its precious things, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah, even I will give into the hand of their enemies; who will strip them and take them, and bring them to Babylon. <sup>6</sup>And you, Pashur, and all who dwell in your house, shall go into captivity. And you shall come to Babylon, and you shall die there, and shall be buried there; you and all your friends to whom you have prophesied lies.

<sup>7</sup>O LORD, You have deceived me, and I was deceived. You are stronger than I, and You have prevailed. I am in derision all the day; everyone laughs at me. <sup>8</sup>For whenever I speak, I cry out, I cry violence and ruin; for the word of the LORD has been a reproach and a cause of mocking to me all day. <sup>9</sup>Then I said, I will not mention Him, nor speak in His name any more. But His word was in my heart like a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with holding in, and I could not stop. <sup>10</sup>For I heard the slanders of many, terror is all around! Expose! Yea, let us expose him! Every man of my peace is watching for my fall, saying, Perhaps he will be lured away, and we shall prevail over him, and we shall take our revenge on him. <sup>11</sup>But the LORD is with me like a mighty, awesome one. Therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not overcome me. They shall be greatly ashamed; for they shall not be blessed. Their everlasting shame shall never be forgotten. <sup>12</sup>But, O LORD of hosts, who tries the righteous and sees the reins and the heart, let me see Your vengeance on them. For I have committed my cause to You. <sup>13</sup>Sing to the LORD, praise the LORD; for He has delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evildoers.

<sup>14</sup>Cursed is the day in which I was born; let not the day in which my mother bore me be blessed. <sup>15</sup>Cursed is the man who brought news to my father, saying, A man child is born to you; making him very glad. <sup>16</sup>And let that man be as the cities which the LORD overthrew, and repented not; and let him hear the cry in the morning, and the shouting at noontide; <sup>17</sup>because he did not kill me from the womb; or that my mother might have been my grave, and her womb to be always great with me. <sup>18</sup>Why did I come forth from the womb to see labor and sorrow, that my days should be consumed in shame?

CHAPTER 21

<sup>1</sup>The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent to him Pashur the son of Melchiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, saying, <sup>2</sup>Please inquire of the LORD for us. For Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon is warring against us. Ask if the LORD will deal with us according to all His wonderful works, that he may go up from us.

<sup>3</sup>Then Jeremiah said to them, You shall say this to Zedekiah, <sup>4</sup>So says the LORD God of Israel: Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, with which you fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans who besiege you outside the walls. And I will gather them together in the middle of this city. <sup>5</sup>And I Myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath. <sup>6</sup>And I will strike the people of this city, both man and beast. They shall die of a great plague. <sup>7</sup>And afterward, says the LORD, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and those who are left in this city from the plague, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life. And he shall strike them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, nor have pity, nor have mercy.

<sup>8</sup>And to this people you shall say, So says the LORD, Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death. <sup>9</sup>He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the plague. But he who goes out and falls to the Chaldeans who are all around you, he shall live, and his life shall be his prize. <sup>10</sup>For I have set My face against this city for evil, and not for good, says the LORD. It shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.

<sup>11</sup>And concerning the house of the king of Judah, say, Hear the word of the LORD. <sup>12</sup>O house of David, so says the LORD: Do judgment in the morning, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor, lest My fury go out like fire, and burn so that none can put it out, because of the evil of your doings. <sup>13</sup>Behold, I am against you, O dweller of the valley and rock of the plain, says the LORD; those who say, Who shall come down against us? Or who shall enter into our homes? <sup>14</sup>But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, says the LORD; and I will kindle a fire in the forest of it, and it shall devour all things around it.

CHAPTER 22

<sup>1</sup>So says the LORD: Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak this word there. <sup>2</sup>And say, Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, who sits on the throne of David, you and your servants, and your people who enter in by these gates. <sup>3</sup>So says the LORD, Do judgment and righteousness, and deliver him who is robbed out of the oppressors's hand. And do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, or the widow, nor shed innocent blood in this place. <sup>4</sup>For if you do this thing indeed, then there shall enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people. <sup>5</sup>But if you will not hear these words, I swear by Myself, says the LORD, that this house shall become a ruin. <sup>6</sup>For so says the LORD to the king's house of Judah, You are Gilead to Me, and the head of Lebanon. Yet surely I will make you a wilderness and cities with no people. <sup>7</sup>And I will prepare destroyers against you, each one with his weapons. And they shall cut down your choice cedars, and throw them into the fire. <sup>8</sup>And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say each one to his neighbor, Why has the LORD done this to this great city? <sup>9</sup>Then they shall answer, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshiped other gods, and served them.

<sup>10</sup>Weep not for the dead, nor moan for him; but weep bitterly for him who goes away. For he shall return no more, nor see his native country. <sup>11</sup>For so says the LORD concerning Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, who reigned in the place of Josiah his father, who went forth out of this place; he shall not return there any more. <sup>12</sup>But he shall die in the place where they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.

<sup>13</sup>Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness and his upper rooms without justice; who uses his neighbor's servants without pay, and gives him nothing for his work; <sup>14</sup>who says, I will build myself a wide house and large rooms, and cuts out windows for himself; and puts in a cedar ceiling, and paints it with vermilion. <sup>15</sup>Do you reign, because you lust to excel in cedar? Did not your father eat and drink, and do justice and righteousness? Then it was well with him. <sup>16</sup>He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well with him. Was this not to know me? says the LORD. <sup>17</sup>But your eyes and your heart are for nothing but your unjust gain, and to shed innocent blood, and for cruelty, and to do violence. <sup>18</sup>Therefore so says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, They shall not mourn for him, saying, Ah, my brother! or, Ah, sister! They shall not mourn for him, saying, Ah, lord! or, Ah, his glory! <sup>19</sup>He shall be buried with the burial of an ass, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

<sup>20</sup>Go up to Lebanon, and cry. And lift up your voice in Bashan, and cry from the passages; for all your lovers are destroyed. <sup>21</sup>I spoke to you in your ease; but you said, I will not hear. This has been your way from your youth, for you have not obeyed My voice. <sup>22</sup>The wind shall eat up all your shepherds, and your lovers shall go into captivity; surely then you will be ashamed and humiliated for all your wickedness. <sup>23</sup>O dweller in Lebanon, nested in the cedars, how gracious shall you be when pangs come to you, the pain as one giving birth? <sup>24</sup>As I live, says the LORD, though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet on My right hand, yet I would pull you out of there! <sup>25</sup>And I will give you into the hand of those who seek your life, and into the hand of those whose face you fear, even into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans. <sup>26</sup>And I will cast you out, and your mother who bore you, into another country where you were not born. And there you shall die. <sup>27</sup>But to the land to which they desire to return, there they shall not return. <sup>28</sup>Is this man Coniah a despised broken idol? Is he a vessel in which there is no pleasure? Why are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they do not know? <sup>29</sup>O earth, earth, earth! hear the word of the LORD! <sup>30</sup>So says the LORD, Write this man down as childless, a man that shall not be blessed in his days. For no man of his seed shall be blessed, sitting on the throne of David and ruling any more in Judah.

CHAPTER 23

<sup>1</sup>Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of My pasture, says the LORD. <sup>2</sup>Therefore so says the LORD God of Israel against the shepherds who feed My people, You have scattered My flock, and have driven them away, and have not visited them. Behold, I will bring on you the evil of your doings, says the LORD. <sup>3</sup>And I will gather the remnant of My flock out of all countries where I have driven them, and will bring them again to their fold. And they shall be fruitful and multiply. <sup>4</sup>And I will set up shepherds over them who will feed them. And they shall fear no more, nor be afraid; nor shall they lack anything, says the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will raise to David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and act wisely, and shall do judgment and justice in the earth. <sup>6</sup>In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely. And this is His name by which He shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. <sup>7</sup>Therefore, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD lives, who brought the sons of Israel up out of the land of Egypt; <sup>8</sup>but, The LORD lives, who brought up and led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries where I have driven them. And they shall dwell in their own land.

<sup>9</sup>My heart within me is broken because of the prophets; all my bones shake. I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine has overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of His holiness. <sup>10</sup>For the land is full of adulterers. Yes, because of cursing the land mourns; the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their way is evil, and their power is not right. <sup>11</sup>For both prophet and priest are ungodly; yes, in My house I have found their evil, says the LORD. <sup>12</sup>So their way shall be to them as slippery ways in the darkness; they shall be driven on, and fall in them; for I will bring evil on them, even the year of their judgment, says the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>And I have seen frivolity in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied by Baal and caused My people Israel to go astray. <sup>14</sup>I have also seen in the prophets of Jerusalem a horrible thing; they commit adultery and walk in falsehood. They also give power to the hands of evildoers, so that none returns from his evil; they are all of them like Sodom to Me, and its inhabitants like Gomorrah. <sup>15</sup>So the LORD of hosts says this concerning the prophets: Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall; for from the prophets of Jerusalem godliness has gone forth into all the land.

<sup>16</sup>So says the LORD of hosts, Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you. They make you vain; they speak a vision from their own heart, not out of the mouth of the LORD. <sup>17</sup>They still say to those who despise Me, The LORD has said, You shall have peace! And they say to everyone who walks after the imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come on you! <sup>18</sup>For who has stood in the counsel of the LORD, and hears His word? Who has listened to His word and heard it? <sup>19</sup>Behold, the tempest of the LORD has gone forth in fury, a whirling tempest. It shall whirl on the head of the wicked. <sup>20</sup>The anger of the LORD shall not return, until He has done and until He has set up the purposes of His heart; in later days you shall understand it perfectly. <sup>21</sup>I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran; I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied. <sup>22</sup>But if they had stood in My wisdom and had caused My people to hear My words, then they would have turned them from their evil way and from the evil of their doings.

<sup>23</sup>Am I a God near, says the LORD, and not a God afar off? <sup>24</sup>Can anyone hide himself in secret places so that I shall not see him? says the LORD. Do I not fill Heaven and earth? says the LORD. <sup>25</sup>I have heard what the prophets said, who prophesy lies in My name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed. <sup>26</sup>How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies? But they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart, <sup>27</sup>who plot to cause My people to forget My name by their dreams which they tell, each one to his neighbor, as their fathers have forgotten My name for Baal. <sup>28</sup>The prophet who has a dream, let him tell a dream. And he who has My word, let him speak My word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? says the LORD. <sup>29</sup>Is not My word like a fire? says the LORD; and like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces? <sup>30</sup>So the LORD says, Behold, I am against the prophets who steal My words each one from his neighbor. <sup>31</sup>The LORD says, Behold, I am against the prophets who use their tongues and say,

He says. <sup>32</sup>The LORD says, Behold, I am against those who prophesy false dreams and tell them, and cause My people to go astray by their lies and by their lightness. Yet I did not send them nor command them; therefore they shall not profit this people at all, says the LORD.

<sup>33</sup>And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask you, saying, What is the burden of the LORD? You shall then say to them, What burden? I will even forsake you, says the LORD. <sup>34</sup>And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, who shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will even punish that man and his house. <sup>35</sup>So you shall say each one to his neighbor, and each one to his brother, What has the LORD answered? And what has the LORD spoken? <sup>36</sup>And you shall mention the burden of the LORD no more. For every man's word shall be his burden; for you have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God. <sup>37</sup>So you shall say to the prophet, What has the LORD answered you? And what has the LORD spoken? <sup>38</sup>But since you say, The burden of the LORD; therefore so says the LORD, Because you say this word; the burden of the LORD; and I have sent to you saying, You shall not say, The burden of the LORD; <sup>39</sup>therefore, behold, I, even I, will completely forget you, and I will forsake you and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out of My presence. <sup>40</sup>And I will bring an everlasting reproach on you, and a never-ending shame, which shall not be forgotten.

CHAPTER 24

<sup>1</sup>The LORD caused me to see, and behold, two baskets of figs set before the temple of the LORD, after Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the rulers of Judah, with the craftsmen and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. <sup>2</sup>One basket had very good figs, like the first ripe figs. And the other basket had very bad figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad. <sup>3</sup>Then the LORD said to me, What do you see, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs are very good, and the bad are very bad, so that they cannot be eaten, they are so bad.

<sup>4</sup>Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>5</sup>So says the LORD, the God of Israel: Like these good figs, so I will acknowledge the exiles of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good. <sup>6</sup>For I will set My eyes on them for good, and I will bring them again to this land. And I will build them and not pull them down; and I will plant them and not pluck them up. <sup>7</sup>And I will give them a heart to know Me, that I am the LORD; and they shall be My people, and I will be their God. For they shall return to Me with their whole heart.

<sup>8</sup>And like the bad figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so bad; surely so says the LORD, So I will give to Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his rulers, and the rest of Jerusalem who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt; <sup>9</sup>and I will even make them an agitation for evil to all the kingdoms of the earth, for a reproach and a proverb, a gibe and a curse, there in all places where I shall drive them. <sup>10</sup>And I will send the sword, the famine, and the plague among them until they are destroyed from the land that I gave to them and to their fathers.

CHAPTER 25

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah. It was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; <sup>2</sup>the word which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah and to all the people of Jerusalem, saying, <sup>3</sup>From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even to this day, that is the twenty-third year, the word of the LORD has come to me, and I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking. But you have not listened. <sup>4</sup>And the LORD has sent to you all His servants the prophets, rising early and sending them; but you have not listened nor bowed down your ear to hear. <sup>5</sup>They said, Turn again now, each one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD has given to you and to your fathers forever and ever. <sup>6</sup>And do not go after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and do not provoke Me to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no harm. <sup>7</sup>Yet you have not listened to Me, says the LORD, so that you might provoke Me to anger with the works of your hands, for harm to you.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore so says the LORD of hosts, Because you have not heard My words, <sup>9</sup>behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, says the LORD, and Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, My servant; and will bring them against this land, and against its people, and against all these nations all around. And I will completely destroy them, and make them a waste, and a hissing, and everlasting ruins. <sup>10</sup>And I will take from them the voice of rejoicing and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones and the light of the candle. <sup>11</sup>And this whole land shall be a ruin and a waste. And these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

<sup>12</sup>And it shall be, when seventy years are fulfilled I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, and the land of the Chaldeans, says the LORD, for their iniquity, and I will make it an everlasting ruin. <sup>13</sup>And I will bring on that land all My words which I have spoken against it, all that is written in this book which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. <sup>14</sup>For many nations and great kings shall lay service on them also. And I will repay them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands.

<sup>15</sup>For so says the LORD, the God of Israel, to me, Take the wine cup of this wrath at My hand, and cause all the nations to whom I shall send you to drink it. <sup>16</sup>And they shall drink, and be moved, and be maddened, because of the sword that I will send among them. <sup>17</sup>Then I took the cup at the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to whom the LORD had sent me, drink; <sup>18</sup>Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings of them, and their rulers, to make them a ruin and a waste, a hissing, and a curse, (as it is today), <sup>19</sup>Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and his servants, and his rulers, and all his people, <sup>20</sup>and all the mixed people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Azzah, and Ekron, and the rest of Ashdod; <sup>21</sup>Edom, and Moab, and the sons of Ammon, <sup>22</sup>and all the kings of Tyre, and all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the isles which are beyond the sea, <sup>23</sup>Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all that are in the utmost corners, <sup>24</sup>and all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mixed people who dwell in the desert, <sup>25</sup>and all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes, <sup>26</sup>and all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are on the face of the earth; and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.

<sup>27</sup>So you shall say to them, So says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Drink and be drunk, and vomit, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you. <sup>28</sup>And if they refuse to take the cup at your hand to drink, then you shall say to them, So says the LORD of hosts, You shall certainly drink. <sup>29</sup>For, lo, I begin to bring evil on the city which is called by My name; and should you be found entirely without guilt? You shall not be without guilt. For I will call for a sword on all the inhabitants of the earth, says the LORD of hosts. <sup>30</sup>And prophesy against them all these words, and say to them, The LORD shall roar from on high, and utter His voice from His holy habitation. He shall mightily roar over His dwelling place. He shall give a shout, like those who tread out grapes, against all the people of the earth.<sup>31</sup> A noise shall come to the ends of the earth; for the LORD has a controversy with the nations; He will enter into judgment with all flesh. He will give those who are wicked to the sword, says the LORD.<sup>32</sup> So says the LORD of hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great tempest shall be stirred up from the corners of the earth.<sup>33</sup> And the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth; they shall not be mourned, nor gathered, nor buried. They shall be as dung on the ground.

CHAPTER 26

<sup>1</sup>In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came from the LORD, saying, <sup>2</sup>So says the LORD: Stand in the court of the LORD's house and speak to all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, all the words that I command you to speak to them; do not keep back a word.<sup>3</sup> It may be that they will listen, and each man turn from his evil way, that I may repent of the evil which I plan to do to them because of the evil of their doings.<sup>4</sup> And you shall say to them, So says the LORD: If you will not listen to Me, to walk in My law which I have set before you, <sup>5</sup>to listen to the words of My servants the prophets whom I am sending to you (both rising up early and sending them, but you have not listened); <sup>6</sup>then I will make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.<sup>7</sup> So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>And it happened when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, the priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, You shall surely die!<sup>9</sup> Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be wasted, without inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>When the rulers of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house to the house of the LORD, and sat down in the entrance of the new gate of the LORD's house.<sup>11</sup> And the priests and the prophets spoke to the rulers and to all the people, saying, Let a death sentence be for this man, for he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears.

<sup>12</sup>Then Jeremiah spoke to all the rulers and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard.<sup>13</sup> So now make your ways and your doings good, and obey the voice of the LORD your God. And the LORD will repent of the evil that He has spoken against you.<sup>14</sup> As for me, behold, I am in your hand. Do with me as seems good and right to you.<sup>15</sup> But know for certain that if you put me to death you shall surely bring innocent blood on yourselves, and on this city, and on its people. For truly the LORD has sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears.

<sup>16</sup>Then the rulers and all the people said to the priests and to the prophets, There is not a sentence of death for this man; for he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God. <sup>17</sup>Then some of the elders of the land rose up and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying, <sup>18</sup>Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, So says the LORD of hosts: Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house like the high places of a forest. <sup>19</sup>Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah indeed put him to death? Did he not fear the LORD, and pray to the LORD, and the LORD repented of the evil which He had spoken against them? So we are doing great evil against our souls. <sup>20</sup>And there was also a man who prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah. <sup>21</sup>And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the rulers, heard his words, the king tried to put him to death. But when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and fled and went into Egypt. <sup>22</sup>And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt; Elnathan the son of Achbor, and men with him into Egypt. <sup>23</sup>And they brought Urijah out of Egypt and brought him to Jehoiakim the king, who killed him with the sword and threw his dead body into the graves of the common people. <sup>24</sup>But the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

CHAPTER 27

<sup>1</sup>In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, <sup>2</sup>So says the LORD to me, Make bonds and yokes for yourself, and put them on your neck. <sup>3</sup>And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Sidon, by the hand of the messengers who came to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah. <sup>4</sup>And command them to say to their masters, So says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: So you shall say to your masters, <sup>5</sup>I have made the earth, the man, and the animals that are on the face of the earth, by My great power and by My outstretched arm, and have given it to whom it seemed right to Me. <sup>6</sup>And now I have given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, My servant. And I have also given him the beast of the field to serve him. <sup>7</sup>And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the time of his own land comes. And then many nations and great kings shall make him a slave to them. <sup>8</sup>And it shall be, the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation I will punish, says the LORD, with the sword and with the famine, and with the plague, until I have destroyed them by his hand. <sup>9</sup>As for you, do not listen to your prophets, nor to your fortune tellers, nor to your dreams, nor to your conjurers, nor to your sorcerers, who speak to you, saying, You shall not serve the king of Babylon. <sup>10</sup>For they prophesy a lie to you, to remove you far from your land, and that I should drive you out and you should perish. <sup>11</sup>But the nations who bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those I will let remain still in their own land, says the LORD. And they shall work it and dwell in it.

<sup>12</sup>I also spoke to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live. <sup>13</sup>Why will you die, you and your people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the plague, as the LORD has spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? <sup>14</sup>Therefore do not listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you, saying, You shall not serve the king of Babylon. For they prophesy a lie to you. <sup>15</sup>For I have not sent them, says the LORD; yet they prophesy a lie in My name, so that I might drive you out, and that you might perish, you and the prophets who prophesy to you.

<sup>16</sup>Also I spoke to the priests and to all the people, saying, So says the LORD, Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon. For they prophesy a lie to you. <sup>17</sup>Do not listen to them; serve the king of Babylon and live. For why should this city be laid waste? <sup>18</sup>But if they are prophets, and if the word of the LORD is with them, let them now pray to the LORD of hosts that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, may not go to Babylon.

<sup>19</sup>For so says the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the rest of the vessels which remain in this city, <sup>20</sup>which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take when he exiled Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem; <sup>21</sup>yes, so says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem: <sup>22</sup>They shall be carried to Babylon, and they shall be there until the day that I visit them, says the LORD. Then I will bring them up and give them back to this place.

CHAPTER 28

<sup>1</sup>And it happened in that year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, who was of Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying, <sup>2</sup>So says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. <sup>3</sup>Within two full years I will again bring into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place and carried them to Babylon. <sup>4</sup>And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah who went into Babylon, says the LORD. For I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

<sup>5</sup>Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah for the eyes of the priests, and for the eyes of all the people who stood in the house of the LORD, <sup>6</sup>even the prophet Jeremiah said, Amen. May the LORD do so. May the LORD confirm your words which you have prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place. <sup>7</sup>But hear now this word that I speak in your ears and in the ears of all the people: <sup>8</sup>The prophets who have been before me and before you of old prophesied against many countries and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of plague. <sup>9</sup>As for the prophet who prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then the prophet shall be known, that the LORD has truly sent him.

<sup>10</sup>Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck and broke it. <sup>11</sup>And Hananiah spoke for the eyes of all the people, saying, So says the LORD, Even so I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the time of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

<sup>12</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, <sup>13</sup>Go and tell Hananiah, saying, So says the LORD: You have broken the yokes of wood, but you shall make for them yokes of iron. <sup>14</sup>For so says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. And they shall serve him. And I have given him the beasts of the field also. <sup>15</sup>Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah. The LORD has not sent you, but you make this people to trust in a lie. <sup>16</sup>Therefore so says the LORD, Behold, I will drive you from off the face of the earth. You shall die this year, because you have taught rebellion against the LORD. <sup>17</sup>So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

CHAPTER 29

<sup>1</sup>And these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the rest of the elders of the exile, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar exiled from Jerusalem to Babylon. <sup>2</sup>(This was after Jeconiah the king, and the queen, and the eunuchs, the rulers of Judah and Jerusalem, and the craftsmen, and the smiths, had departed from Jerusalem.) <sup>3</sup>The letter came by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiyah, whom Zedekiah the king of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, saying, <sup>4</sup>So says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I caused to be exiled from Jerusalem to Babylon: <sup>5</sup>Build houses and live in them; and plant gardens and eat their fruit. <sup>6</sup>Take wives and father sons and daughters. And take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, so that they may bear sons and daughters, that you may be multiplied there and not become few. <sup>7</sup>And seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be exiled, and pray to the LORD for it. For in its peace you shall have peace.

<sup>8</sup>For so says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Do not let your prophets and your fortune-tellers in your midst deceive you, nor listen to your dreams which you dream. <sup>9</sup>For they prophesy falsely to you in My name; I have not sent them, says the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>For so says the LORD, When according to My word seventy years have been fulfilled for Babylon, I will visit you and confirm My good word to you, to bring you back to this place. <sup>11</sup>For I know the purposes which I am purposing for you, says the LORD; purposes of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope. <sup>12</sup>Then you shall call on Me, and you shall go and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. <sup>13</sup>And you shall seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart. <sup>14</sup>And I will be found by you, says the LORD; and I will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places where I have driven you, says the LORD. And I will bring you again into the place from where I caused you to be exiled.

<sup>15</sup>Because you have said, The LORD has raised us up prophets in Babylon; <sup>16</sup>so says the LORD of the king who sits on the throne of David, and of all the people who dwell in this city, and of your brothers who have not gone out with you into captivity; <sup>17</sup>so says the LORD of hosts: Behold, I will send on them the sword, the famine, and the plague, and will make them like worthless figs which cannot be eaten from badness. <sup>18</sup>And I will pursue them with the sword, with the famine, and with the plague, and will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, and a waste, and a hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations where I have driven them, <sup>19</sup>because they have not listened to My words, says the LORD, which I sent to them by My servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but you would not hear, says the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>And hear the word of the LORD, all you of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon; <sup>21</sup>so says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, about Ahab the son of Kolaiah and of Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie to you in My name: Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall kill them before your eyes. <sup>22</sup>And a curse shall be taken up from them by all the captivity of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, May the LORD make you like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire, <sup>23</sup>because they have committed evil in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives, and have spoken lying words in My name, which I have not commanded them; even I know, and am a witness, says the LORD.

<sup>24</sup>You shall also speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying, <sup>25</sup>So says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because you have sent letters in your name to all the people who are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying, <sup>26</sup>The LORD has made you priest instead of Jehoiada the priest, to be officers in the house of the LORD, over every madman who prophesies, that you should put him into the stocks and into the collar. <sup>27</sup>Now therefore why have you not reproved Jeremiah of Anathoth, who makes himself a prophet to you? <sup>28</sup>For this cause he sent to us in Babylon, saying, This captivity is long. Build houses and live in them, and plant gardens and eat their fruit. <sup>29</sup>And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.

<sup>30</sup>And the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>31</sup>Send to all those of the captivity, saying, So says the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, and I did not send him, and he caused you to trust in a lie, <sup>32</sup>therefore so says the LORD, Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his seed. He shall not have a man to dwell among this people; nor shall he behold the good which I shall do for My people, says the LORD, because he has taught rebellion against the LORD.

CHAPTER 30

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, <sup>2</sup>So speaks the LORD God of Israel, saying, Write all the words that I have spoken to you in a book. <sup>3</sup>For, lo, the days come, says the LORD, that I will bring again the captivity of My people Israel and Judah, says the LORD. And I will cause them to return to the land that I gave their fathers, and they shall possess it.

<sup>4</sup>And these are the words that the LORD spoke concerning Israel and concerning Judah. <sup>5</sup>For so says the LORD, We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace. <sup>6</sup>Ask now, and see whether a man is giving birth? Why do I see every man with his hands on his loins, like a woman in labor, and all faces are turned into paleness? <sup>7</sup>Alas! For that day is great, so that none is like it; it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it. <sup>8</sup>For it shall be in that day, says the LORD of hosts, I will break his yoke from off your neck and will burst your bonds. And strangers shall no longer lay service on him, <sup>9</sup>but they shall serve the LORD their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up to them.

<sup>10</sup>And you, O My servant Jacob, do not fear, says the LORD. Do not be terrified, O Israel. For lo, I will save you from afar, and your seed from the land of their captivity. And Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid. <sup>11</sup>For I am with you, says the LORD, to save you. Though I make a full end of all nations where I have scattered you, yet I will not make a full end of you; but I will correct you in measure, and will not find you entirely without guilt. <sup>12</sup>For so says the LORD, Your break cannot be cured, and your wound is grievous. <sup>13</sup>There is none to plead your cause; for your ulcer there are no healing medicines for you. <sup>14</sup>All your lovers have forgotten you; they do not seek you. For I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the greatness of your iniquity; because your sins are many. <sup>15</sup>Why do you cry over your crushing? Your pain is incurable, for the greatness of your iniquity; because your sins are many, I have done these things to you. <sup>16</sup>So all those who devour you shall be devoured; and all your enemies, every one of them, shall go into captivity. And they who rob you shall be robbed, and all who strip you I will strip. <sup>17</sup>For I will give health back to you, and will heal you of your wounds, says the LORD; because they called you an outcast, saying, This is Zion; no one is seeking for her.

<sup>18</sup>So says the LORD: Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and will have mercy on his dwelling places. And the city shall be built on her own hill, and the palace shall remain in its own place. <sup>19</sup>And out of them shall come thanksgiving, and the voice of those who rejoice. And I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small. <sup>20</sup>Also their sons shall be as they were before, and their congregation shall be established before Me, and I will punish all who ill-treat them. <sup>21</sup>And their rulers shall be of themselves, and their governor shall come from among them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach Me. For who is this who pledged his heart to come near to Me? says the LORD. <sup>22</sup>And you shall be My people, and I will be your God. <sup>23</sup>Behold, the tempest of the LORD goes forth with fury, a never-ending tempest; it shall fall with pain on the head of the wicked. <sup>24</sup>The fierce anger of the LORD shall not return until He has done it, and until He has fulfilled the intentions of His heart. In the latter days you shall understand it.

CHAPTER 31

<sup>1</sup>At that time, says the LORD, I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be My people. <sup>2</sup>So says the LORD, The people who were left of the sword found grace in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went before him to cause him to rest. <sup>3</sup>The LORD has appeared to me from afar, saying, Yea, I have loved you with an everlasting love; therefore with loving-kindness I have drawn you. <sup>4</sup>Again I will build you, and you shall be built, O virgin of Israel. You shall again put on your tambourines, and shall go forth in the dances of those who rejoice. <sup>5</sup>You shall yet plant vines on the mountains of Samaria; the planters shall plant, and shall eat them as common things. <sup>6</sup>For there shall be a day that the watchmen on Mount Ephraim shall cry, Arise and let us go up to Zion to the LORD our God! <sup>7</sup>For so says the LORD, Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations. Cry out, give praise and say, O LORD, save Your people, the remnant of Israel. <sup>8</sup>Behold, I will bring them from the north country and gather them from the corners of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and she who is in labor with child, together; a great company shall return there. <sup>9</sup>They shall come with weeping, and with prayers I will lead them. I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way in which they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is My firstborn.

<sup>10</sup>Hear the word of the LORD, O nations, and declare it in the coasts afar off. And say, He who scattered Israel will gather him and keep him, as a shepherd keeps his flock. <sup>11</sup>For the LORD has redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him from the hand of the one stronger than he. <sup>12</sup>Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow together to the goodness of the LORD, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the sons of the flock and the herd. And their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not pine away any more at all.<sup>13</sup>Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together; for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them and make them rejoice from their affliction.<sup>14</sup>And I will fill the soul of the priests with fatness, and My people shall be satisfied with My goodness, says the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>So says the LORD: A voice was heard in Ramah, wailing and bitter weeping; Rachel weeping for her sons; she refuses to be comforted for her sons, because they are not.<sup>16</sup>So says the LORD: Hold back your voice from weeping and your eyes from tears; for your work shall be rewarded, says the LORD. And they shall come again from the land of the enemy.<sup>17</sup>And there is hope for your future, says the LORD, that your sons shall come again to their own border.

<sup>18</sup>I have surely heard Ephraim mourning to himself, saying, You have chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bull not broken in; turn me, and I shall be turned. For You are the LORD my God.<sup>19</sup>Surely after I was turned, I repented; and after I was taught, I struck on my thigh. I was ashamed, yea, I even blushed, because I bore the disgrace of my youth.<sup>20</sup>Is Ephraim My dear son? Is he a delightful child? For as often as I spoke against him, I earnestly remember him still. Therefore My bowels are troubled for him; I will surely have mercy on him, says the LORD.<sup>21</sup>Set up waymarks, make sign posts for yourself. Set your heart toward the highway, the way you went. Turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these your cities.<sup>22</sup>How long will you turn to and fro, O faithless daughter? For the LORD has created a new thing in the land; a woman shall enclose a man.

<sup>23</sup>So says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Again they shall speak this word in the land of Judah and in its cities, when I shall again bring their captivity; The LORD bless you, O home of justice and mountain of holiness.<sup>24</sup>And farmers, and those who go forth with flocks, shall dwell in Judah itself, and in all the cities of it together.<sup>25</sup>For I satisfy the weary soul, and I have filled every sorrowful soul.<sup>26</sup>On this I awoke and looked up; and my sleep was sweet to me.

<sup>27</sup>Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man and with the seed of animal.<sup>28</sup>And it shall be, as I have watched over them to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so I will watch over them to build, and to plant, says the LORD.<sup>29</sup>In those days they shall not say any more, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the sons's teeth are dull.<sup>30</sup>But every man shall die in his iniquity. Every man who eats the sour grapes, his teeth will be dull.

<sup>31</sup>Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will cut a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah,<sup>32</sup>not according to the covenant that I cut with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which covenant of Mine they broke, although I was a husband to them, says the LORD;<sup>33</sup>but this shall be the covenant that I will cut with the house of Israel: After those days, says the LORD, I will put My law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people.<sup>34</sup>And they shall no more teach each man his neighbor and each man his brother, saying, Know the LORD; for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them, says the LORD. For I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sins no more.

<sup>35</sup>So says the LORD, who gives the sun for a light by day and the laws of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, who divides the sea when its waves roar; the LORD of hosts is His name;<sup>36</sup>if those ordinances depart from Me, says the LORD, the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before Me forever.<sup>37</sup>So says the LORD, If the heavens above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth below can be searched out, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, says the LORD.

<sup>38</sup>Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD from the Tower of Hananeel to the Corner Gate. <sup>39</sup>And the measuring line shall yet go before it to the hill Gareb, and shall go around to Goath. <sup>40</sup>And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields to the brook of Kidron, to the corner of the Horse Gate toward the east, shall be holy to the LORD. It shall not be plucked up nor thrown down any more forever.

CHAPTER 32

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>2</sup>For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem. And Jeremiah the prophet was shut in the court of the guard, which was in the king of Judah's house. <sup>3</sup>For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Why do you prophesy and say, So says the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it, <sup>4</sup>and Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes, <sup>5</sup>and he shall lead Zedekiah into Babylon, and there he shall be until I visit him, says the LORD; though you fight with the Chaldeans, you shall not be blessed.

<sup>6</sup>And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>7</sup>Behold, Hanameel the son of Shallum your uncle shall come to you, saying, Buy my field which is in Anathoth; for the right to redeem it is yours, to buy it. <sup>8</sup>So Hanameel my uncle son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD and said to me, Please buy my field in Anathoth, which is in the land of Benjamin; for the right of inheritance is yours, and the right to redeem is yours. Buy it for yourself. Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD. <sup>9</sup>And I bought the field in Anathoth, of Hanameel my uncle's son, and weighed him the silver, seventeen shekels of silver. <sup>10</sup>And I wrote it in the document, and sealed it, and called witnesses, and weighed the silver in the scales. <sup>11</sup>So I took the document of the purchase, that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and the open copy. <sup>12</sup>And I gave the document of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, before the eyes of Hanameel my uncle's son, and before the eyes of the witnesses who wrote in the the purchase document, before all the Jews who sat in the court of the guard.

<sup>13</sup>And I commanded Baruch before them, saying, <sup>14</sup>So says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Take these books, the purchase document, the one sealed and the open book, and put them in an earthen vessel so that they may stand many days. <sup>15</sup>For so says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards shall be owned again in this land.

<sup>16</sup>And after I gave the purchase document to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD, saying, <sup>17</sup>Ah, Lord Jehovah! You have made the heavens and the earth by Your great power and stretched out arm. Nothing is too great for You. <sup>18</sup>You show loving-kindness to thousands, and repay the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their sons after them. The great, the mighty God, the LORD of hosts, is His name, <sup>19</sup>great in wisdom and mighty in work; for Your eyes are open on all the ways of the sons of men, to give every one according to his ways and according to the fruit of his doings. <sup>20</sup>For You have set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even until this day, and in Israel, and among men; and have made You a name, as at this day; <sup>21</sup>and have brought forth Your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with great terror. <sup>22</sup>And You have given them this land, which You swore to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>23</sup>And they came in and possessed it, but they did not obey Your voice, nor did they walk in Your law. They have done nothing of all that You commanded them to do; therefore You have caused all this evil to come on them. <sup>24</sup>Behold, the siege mounds have come to the city to take it; and the city is given into the hands of the Chaldeans who fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the plague. And what You have spoken has happened; and, behold, You saw it. <sup>25</sup>And You have said to me, O Lord Jehovah, Buy the field for money, and take witnesses; for the city is given into the hands of the Chaldeans.

<sup>26</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>27</sup>Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh. Is there anything too hard for Me? <sup>28</sup>Therefore so says the LORD: Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it. <sup>29</sup>And the Chaldeans who fight against this city shall come up and set this city on fire, and burn it with the houses on whose roofs they have offered incense to Baal, and poured out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke Me to anger. <sup>30</sup>For the sons of Israel and the sons of Judah have only done evil before Me from their youth. For the sons of Israel have only provoked Me to anger with the work of their hands, says the LORD. <sup>31</sup>For this city has been to Me as a cause of My anger and of My fury from the day that they built it even to this day; that I should remove it from before My face <sup>32</sup>because of all the evil of the sons of Israel and of the sons of Judah, which they have done to provoke Me to anger, they, their kings, their rulers, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>33</sup>And they have turned the back to Me, and not the face; though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not listened to receive instruction. <sup>34</sup>But they set their abominations in the house which is called by My name, to defile it. <sup>35</sup>And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire to Molech; which I did not command them, nor did it come into My mind that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

<sup>36</sup>And now therefore, so says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city of which you say, It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the plague: <sup>37</sup>Behold, I will gather them out of all the lands where I have driven them in My anger, and in My fury, and in great wrath. And I will bring them again to this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely. <sup>38</sup>And they shall be My people, and I will be their God. <sup>39</sup>And I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear Me forever, for their good and for the good of their sons after them. <sup>40</sup>And I will cut an everlasting covenant with them that I will not turn away from them, to do them good. But I will put My fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from Me. <sup>41</sup>Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land, and I will truly plant them in this land with My whole heart and with My whole soul. <sup>42</sup>For so says the LORD: As I have brought all this great evil on this people, so I will bring on them all the good that I have promised them. <sup>43</sup>And fields shall be bought in this land of which you say, It is a desert without man or beast; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans. <sup>44</sup>Men shall buy fields for silver, and write it in a book, and seal it, and take witnesses in the land of Benjamin, and in the places around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south. For I will cause their captivity to return, says the LORD.

CHAPTER 33

<sup>1</sup>And the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the second time, while he was still shut up in the court of the guard, saying, <sup>2</sup>So says the LORD the Maker of it, the LORD who formed it in order to establish it; the LORD is His name: <sup>3</sup>Call to Me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things which you do not know. <sup>4</sup>For so says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are broken down to defend against the siege-mounds and against the sword: <sup>5</sup>They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men whom I have slain in My anger and in My fury, and for all whose evil I have hidden My face from this city. <sup>6</sup>Behold, I will bring it health and healing, and I will heal them and will show them the riches of peace and truth. <sup>7</sup>And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first. <sup>8</sup>And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity by which they have sinned against Me; and I will pardon all their iniquities by which they have sinned, and by which they have transgressed against Me.

<sup>9</sup>And it shall be to Me a name of joy, a praise and an honor before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do to them. And they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the riches that I bring to it. <sup>10</sup>So says the LORD: In this place, which you say shall be a desert without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem that are wasted without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast; <sup>11</sup>in this place there shall be heard again the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of those who shall say, Praise the LORD of hosts, for the LORD is good, for His mercy endures forever; and the voice of those who shall bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. For I will cause the captivity of the land to return, as at the first, says the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>So says the LORD of hosts: Again in this place which is a desert without man and without beast, and in all its cities, there shall be a home of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down. <sup>13</sup>In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks pass again under the hands of him who tallies, says the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will establish the good thing which I have spoken to the house of Israel and to the house of Judah. <sup>15</sup>In those days, and at that time, I will cause the Branch of righteousness to grow up to David. And He shall do judgment and righteousness in the land. <sup>16</sup>In those days Judah shall be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely. And this is the name with which she shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. <sup>17</sup>For so says the LORD, David shall never lack a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel, <sup>18</sup>nor shall the priests the Levites lack a man before Me to offer burnt offerings, and to kindle grain offerings, and to do sacrifice forever.

<sup>19</sup>And the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>20</sup>So says the LORD: If you can break My covenant of the day and My covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season, <sup>21</sup>then also may My covenant with David My servant be broken, that he should not have a son to reign on his throne, and My covenant with the Levites the priests, My ministers. <sup>22</sup>As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, nor the sand of the sea measured, so I will multiply the seed of David My servant and the Levites who minister to Me. <sup>23</sup>And the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>24</sup>Do you not consider what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD has chosen, He has even cast them off? So they have despised My people, that they should be no more a nation before them. <sup>25</sup>So says the LORD: If My covenant is not with day and night, and if I have not given the ordinances of Heaven and earth, <sup>26</sup>then I will cast away the seed of Jacob, and David My servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them.

CHAPTER 34

<sup>1</sup>The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth — because his hand rules — and all the peoples, fought against Jerusalem and against all its cities; saying, <sup>2</sup>So says the LORD, the God of Israel: Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah and tell him, So says the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire. <sup>3</sup>And you shall not escape out of his hand, but shall surely be captured and delivered into his hand. And your eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with you mouth to mouth, and you shall go to Babylon. <sup>4</sup>Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah: So says the LORD of you, You shall not die by the sword. <sup>5</sup>You shall die in peace; and as the burnings of spices for your fathers, the former kings which were before you, so they shall burn spices for you. And they will mourn you, saying, Ah, lord! For I have spoken the word, says the LORD. <sup>6</sup>Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, <sup>7</sup>when the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem and against all the remaining cities of Judah; against Lachish, and against Azekah; for these fortified cities remained of the cities of Judah.

<sup>8</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after king Zedekiah had cut a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty to them, <sup>9</sup>that each man should let his male slave, and each man his female slave, if a Hebrew man or a Hebrew woman, to go free, that none should cause them to be slaves to him, to a Jew, his brother. <sup>10</sup>And all the rulers, and all the people who had entered into the covenant allowed them to go free, each man his male slave, and each man his female slave, so that not any should enslave among them any more; and they obeyed and let them go. <sup>11</sup>But afterward they turned and caused the slaves and slavegirls whom they had let go free, to return! And they subjected them for slaves and slavegirls. <sup>12</sup>So the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, <sup>13</sup>So says the LORD, the God of Israel: I cut a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them out from the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, saying, <sup>14</sup>At the end of seven years each man should let go his brother, a Hebrew, and who has been sold to him. And when he has served you six years, you shall let him go free from you. But your fathers did not listen to me, nor bow down their ears. <sup>15</sup>And you had turned today, and had done right in My sight to call for liberty, each man to his neighbor. And you had cut a covenant before Me in the house which is called by My name. <sup>16</sup>But you turned and defiled My name, and each man caused his slave, and each man caused his slavegirl, whom you had set free to do as they pleased, to return. And you brought them into service to be slaves and slavegirls to you. <sup>17</sup>So the LORD says this: You have not listened to Me in call for liberty each man to his brother, and each man to his neighbor! Behold, I call for freedom for you, says the LORD, to the sword, to the plague, and to the famine. And I will cause you to be a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth. <sup>18</sup>And I will give the men who have sinned against My covenant, who have not done the words of the covenant which they cut before Me when they cut the calf in two and passed between its parts; <sup>19</sup>the rulers of Judah, and the rulers of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land who passed between the parts of the calf; <sup>20</sup>I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life. And their dead bodies shall be for food to the birds of the heavens and to the beasts of the earth. <sup>21</sup>And I will give Zedekiah king of Judah, and his rulers, into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, who have withdrawn from you. <sup>22</sup>Behold, I will command, says the LORD, and cause them to return to this city. And they shall fight against it and capture it, and burn it with fire. And I will make the cities of Judah a desert without a soul to live in it.

CHAPTER 35

<sup>1</sup>The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the sons of Josiah king of Judah, saying, <sup>2</sup>Go to the house of the Rechabites and speak to them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the rooms. And give them wine to drink. <sup>3</sup>Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brothers, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites. <sup>4</sup>And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the room of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaliah, a man of God, which was near the room of the rulers, above the room of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the door. <sup>5</sup>And I set pots full of wine, and cups, before the sons of the house of the Rechabites. And I said to them, Drink wine! <sup>6</sup>But they said, We will drink no wine, for Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, You shall drink no wine, you nor your sons forever. <sup>7</sup>Nor shall you build houses, nor sow seed, nor plant a vineyard, nor have anything; but all your days you shall live in tents, so that you may live many days in the land where you are strangers. <sup>8</sup>So we have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he has commanded us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters; <sup>9</sup>nor to build houses for us to live in. Nor do we have vineyard, nor field, nor seed. <sup>10</sup>But we have lived in tents, and have obeyed and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. <sup>11</sup>But it happened when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, we said, Come and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the Chaldean army, and for fear of the Syrian army. So we are living at Jerusalem.

<sup>12</sup>Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>13</sup>So says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Go and tell the men of Judah and the people of Jerusalem, Will you not receive instruction to listen to My words? says the LORD. <sup>14</sup>The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, which he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are done. For to this day they do not drink, but obey their father's commandment. But I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking, but you did not listen to Me. <sup>15</sup>I have also sent to you all My servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return now each man from his evil way, and make your doings good, and do not go after other gods to serve them, and you shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers. But you have not bowed down your ear, nor listened to Me. <sup>16</sup>Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have done the commandment of their father, which He commanded them; but this people has not listened to Me; <sup>17</sup>therefore so says the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring on Judah and on all the people of Jerusalem all the evil that I have spoken against them. Because I have spoken to them, but they have not heard; and I have called to them, but they have not answered.

<sup>18</sup>And Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, So says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Because you have obeyed the command of Jonadab your father, and have kept all his precepts, and have done according to all that he has commanded you; <sup>19</sup>therefore so says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not lack a man to stand before Me forever.

CHAPTER 36

<sup>1</sup>And it happened in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, <sup>2</sup>Take a roll of a book, and write in it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah, even to this day. <sup>3</sup>It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I plan to do to them, that they may each man return from his evil way, so that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin. <sup>4</sup>Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah. And Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which He had spoken to him, on a roll of a book. <sup>5</sup>And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up. I cannot go into the house of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>Therefore you go, and read in the roll which you have written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people on the fasting day. And also you shall read them in the ears of all Judah who come out of their cities. <sup>7</sup>It may be they will present their prayer before the LORD, and will return, each one from his evil way. For great is the anger and the fury that the LORD has spoken against this people. <sup>8</sup>And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book, the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

<sup>9</sup>And it happened in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, they called a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>And Baruch read in the book, the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the room of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court, at the entrance to the new gate of the LORD's house, in the ears of all the people.

<sup>11</sup>When Michaiah, the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, heard all the words of the LORD out of the book, <sup>12</sup>then he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's room. And, lo, all the rulers sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the rulers. <sup>13</sup>Then Michaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people. <sup>14</sup>Therefore all the rulers sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, Take the roll in your hand, the roll in which you have read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand and came to them.

<sup>15</sup>And they said to him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears. <sup>16</sup>And it happened when they had heard all the words, they turned to one another in fear and said to Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words. <sup>17</sup>And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How did you write all these words at his mouth? <sup>18</sup>Then Baruch answered them, He spoke all these words to me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink on the book. <sup>19</sup>And the rulers said to Baruch, Go hide yourselves, you and Jeremiah; and let no man know where you are.

<sup>20</sup>And they went in to the king into the court. But they laid up the roll in the room of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king. <sup>21</sup>So the king sent Jehudi to bring the roll. And he took it out of the room of Elishama the scribe. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the rulers who stood beside the king. <sup>22</sup>And the king sat in the winter house in the ninth month; also with the burning fire-pan before him. <sup>23</sup>And it happened when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the scribe's knife and threw it into the fire in the fire-pan, until all the scroll was burned up in the fire-pan. <sup>24</sup>Yet the king and all his servants were not afraid, nor did they tear their garments. <sup>25</sup>But Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had pleaded with the king that he should not burn the scroll, but he would not hear them. <sup>26</sup>And the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to seize Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet. But the LORD hid them.

<sup>27</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after the king had burned the scroll and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, <sup>28</sup>Take another scroll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first scroll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned. <sup>29</sup>And you shall say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, So says the LORD: You have burned this scroll, saying, Why have you written in it, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause man and beast to cease from there? <sup>30</sup>Therefore so says the LORD of Jehoiakim king of Judah: He shall have no one to sit on the throne of David. And his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost. <sup>31</sup>And I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity. And I will bring on them, and on the people of Jerusalem, and on the men of Judah, all the evils that I have spoken against them; but they did not listen.

<sup>32</sup>Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote in it from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire. And many words like them were added to them.

CHAPTER 37

<sup>1</sup>And king Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. <sup>2</sup>But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, listened to the words of the LORD which He spoke by the prophet Jeremiah. <sup>3</sup>And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now to the LORD our God for us. <sup>4</sup>And Jeremiah came in and went out among the people, for they had not put him into prison. <sup>5</sup>And Pharaoh's army had come out from Egypt. And when the Chaldeans who besieged Jerusalem heard news of them, they departed from Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup>And the word of the LORD came to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, <sup>7</sup>So says the LORD, the God of Israel: You shall say this to the king of Judah, who sent you to Me to inquire of Me: Behold, Pharaoh's army, which has come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land. <sup>8</sup>And the Chaldeans shall come again and fight against this city, and capture it, and burn it with fire. <sup>9</sup>So says the LORD: Do not deceive yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us. For they shall not depart. <sup>10</sup>For though you had stricken the whole army of the Chaldeans who fight against you, and there remained only wounded men among them, they would rise up, each man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

<sup>11</sup>And it happened when the army of Chaldeans was made to go up from Jerusalem because of fear of Pharaoh's army, <sup>12</sup>then Jeremiah went out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to receive a portion from there in the midst of the people. <sup>13</sup>And it happened, he being in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the guard named Irijah was there, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah. And he seized Jeremiah the prophet, saying, You are falling away to the Chaldeans. <sup>14</sup>Then Jeremiah said, A lie! I am not falling away to the Chaldeans. But he did not listen to him; so Irijah took Jeremiah and brought him to the rulers. <sup>15</sup>And the rulers were angry with Jeremiah, and struck him, and put him in prison, the house of Jonathan the scribe. For they had made that the prison.

<sup>16</sup>When Jeremiah had entered into the house of the pit, and into the cells, then Jeremiah remained there many days. <sup>17</sup>And Zedekiah the king sent and took him out. And the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is. For, He said, you shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon. <sup>18</sup>And Jeremiah said to king Zedekiah, What have I offended against you, or against your servants, or against this people, that you have put me in prison? <sup>19</sup>Where now are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you nor against this land? <sup>20</sup>And please hear now, O my lord the king; I beg you, let my cry be pleasing to you, so that you cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there. <sup>21</sup>And Zedekiah the king commanded that they should put Jeremiah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him a piece of bread out of the bakers' street daily, until all the bread in the city was gone. So Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

CHAPTER 38

<sup>1</sup>And Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashur the son of Malchiah, heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken to all the people, saying, <sup>2</sup>So says the LORD, He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the plague. But he who goes out to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have his life as a prize, and shall live. <sup>3</sup>So says the LORD: This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, and he shall capture it. <sup>4</sup>And the rulers said to the king, Please let this man be put to death. For in this way he weakens the hands of the men of war who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words to them. For this man does not seek the good of this people, but the hurt. <sup>5</sup>Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand. For the king cannot do anything against you. <sup>6</sup>And they took Jeremiah and threw him into the pit of Malchiah the son of Hammelech, which was in the court of the prison. And they let Jeremiah down with ropes. And there was no water in the pit, only mud. So Jeremiah sank into the mud.

<sup>7</sup>And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, of the eunuchs in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the pit (the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin), <sup>8</sup>Ebed-melech went out of the king's house and spoke to the king, saying, <sup>9</sup>My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have thrown into the pit. And he is likely to die of hunger in the place where he is, for there is no more bread in the city. <sup>10</sup>Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take thirty men with you from here, and lift Jeremiah the prophet up out of the pit before he dies. <sup>11</sup>So Ebed-melech took the men with him and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took old torn clothes and old rotten rags from there, and let them down by ropes into the pit to Jeremiah. <sup>12</sup>And Ebed-melech, the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, Now put the old torn clothes and rotten rags under your armpits, under the ropes. And Jeremiah did so. <sup>13</sup>So they drew up Jeremiah with ropes and took him up out of the pit. And Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

<sup>14</sup>And Zedekiah the king sent and took Jeremiah the prophet to him, into the third gate that is in the house of the LORD. And the king said to Jeremiah, I will ask you a thing. Do not hide anything from me. <sup>15</sup>Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, If I declare it to you, will you not surely put me to death? And if I give you advice, you will not listen to me. <sup>16</sup>Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD lives, who made us this soul, I will not put you to death, nor will I give you into the hand of these men who seek your life. <sup>17</sup>Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, So says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: If you will surely go forth to the king of Babylon's rulers, then your soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire. And you shall live, and your house. <sup>18</sup>But if you will not go forth to the king of Babylon's rulers, then this city shall be given into the hands of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and you shall not escape out of their hand. <sup>19</sup>And Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews who have fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and lest they hurt me. <sup>20</sup>But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver you. I beg you, obey the voice of the LORD which I speak to you; so it shall be well to you, and your soul shall live. <sup>21</sup>But if you refuse to go out, this is the word that the LORD has shown to me: <sup>22</sup>And, behold, all the women who are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought out to the king of Babylon's rulers, and they shall say, Your friends have urged you on, and have prevailed against you. Your feet have sunk in the mire, and they have turned away. <sup>23</sup>So they shall bring out all your wives and your sons to the Chaldeans. And you shall not escape out of their hand, but shall be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon. And you shall cause this city to be burned with fire.

<sup>24</sup>Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and you shall not die. <sup>25</sup>But if the rulers hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you and say to you, Declare to us now what you have said to the king; do not hide it from us, and we will not put you to death; also what the king said to you; <sup>26</sup>then you shall say to them, I presented my cry before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there. <sup>27</sup>Then all the rulers came to Jeremiah and asked him. And he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they quit speaking with him; for the matter was not known. <sup>28</sup>So Jeremiah stayed in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was captured. And he was there when Jerusalem was captured.

CHAPTER 39

<sup>1</sup>In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, came against Jerusalem. And they besieged it. <sup>2</sup>In the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth of the month, the city was broken up. <sup>3</sup>And all the rulers of the king of Babylon came in and sat in the middle gate: Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, chief of the eunuchs, Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, and all the rest of the rulers of the king of Babylon.

<sup>4</sup>And it happened when Zedekiah, the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, then they fled, and went out from the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate between the two walls. And he went out the way of the plain. <sup>5</sup>But the Chaldean army pursued after them and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. And they took him, and made him go up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgment on him. <sup>6</sup>Then the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes in Riblah. Also the king of Babylon killed all the rulers of Judah. <sup>7</sup>And he blinded Zedekiah's eyes and bound him with chains, to carry him to Babylon.

<sup>8</sup>And the Chaldeans burned the king's houses and the houses of the people, with fire, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>Then Nebu-zaradan the chief of the executioners exiled to Babylon the rest of the people who remained in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to him with the rest of the people that remained. <sup>10</sup>But Nebu-zaradan the chief of the executioners left some of the poor people, who had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields on that day.

<sup>11</sup>And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave command concerning Jeremiah to Nebu-zaradan the chief of the executioners, saying, <sup>12</sup>Take him, and set your eyes on him, and do him no evil. But do with him even as he shall say to you. <sup>13</sup>So Nebu-zaradan the chief of the executioners sent, and Nebu-shasban, Rabsaris, and Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, and all the king of Babylon's rulers, <sup>14</sup>even they sent and took Jeremiah out of the court of the prison, and entrusted him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, to take him to the house. So he lived among the people.

<sup>15</sup>And the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying, <sup>16</sup>Go and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, So says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring My words on this city for evil and not for good. And they shall be done in that day before you. <sup>17</sup>But I will deliver you in that day, says the LORD. And you shall not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid. <sup>18</sup>For I will surely deliver you, and you shall not fall by the sword, but your life shall be as a prize to you, because you have put your trust in Me, says the LORD.

CHAPTER 40

<sup>1</sup>This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after Nebu-zaradan the chief of the executioners had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him, being bound in chains, among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah, who were being exiled to Babylon. <sup>2</sup>And the chief of the executioners took Jeremiah and said to him, The LORD your God has spoken evil against this place. <sup>3</sup>And the LORD has brought it, and has done according as He has said, Because you have sinned against the LORD and have not obeyed His voice, therefore this thing has come on you. <sup>4</sup>And now, behold, I set you free today from the chains on your hand. If it seems good to you to come with me into Babylon, come. And I will keep my eye on you. But if it seems evil to you to come with me into Babylon, stay. Behold, all the land is before you. Wherever it seems good and pleasing for you to go, go there. <sup>5</sup>And while he had not yet gone back, he said, Go back also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and live with him among the people. Or go wherever it seems right to you to go. So the chief of the executioners gave him food and a reward, and let him go. <sup>6</sup>Then Jeremiah went to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam at Mizpah. And he lived with him among the people who were left in the land.

<sup>7</sup>And when all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had entrusted to him men, and women, and children, and many of the poor of the land, of those who were not exiled to Babylon; <sup>8</sup>then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai of Netopha, and Jezaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men. <sup>9</sup>And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan swore to them and to their men, saying, Do not fear to serve the Chaldeans. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. <sup>10</sup>As for me, behold, I will live at Mizpah to serve the Chaldeans, who have come to us. But you go gather wine, and summer fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and live in your cities that you have taken.

<sup>11</sup>Also when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Shaphan; <sup>12</sup>even all the Jews returned out of all places where they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, to Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits in abundance.

<sup>13</sup>And Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah. <sup>14</sup>And they said to him, You certainly know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to kill you. But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam did not believe them. <sup>15</sup>Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Please let me go. And I will kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it. Why should he kill you so that all the Jews who are gathered to you should be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish? <sup>16</sup>But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, You shall not do this thing. For you speak falsely of Ishmael.

CHAPTER 41

<sup>1</sup>And it happened in the seventh month, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and the son of Elishama, of the royal seed, and the rulers of the king, and ten men with him, came to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah. And there they ate bread together in Mizpah. <sup>2</sup>Then Ishmael the son of Nethaniah arose, and the ten men who were with him, and struck Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and killed him whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. <sup>3</sup>Ishmael also killed all the Jews who were with him, with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, the men of war. <sup>4</sup>And it happened the second day after he had killed Gedaliah (and no one knew it), <sup>5</sup>some men from Shechem came from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even eighty men, with their beards shaved, and their clothes torn, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he went along. And it happened as he met them, he said to them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. <sup>7</sup>And it happened when they came into the middle of the city, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah killed them, he and the men with him, and they threw them into the middle of the pit. <sup>8</sup>But ten men were found among them who said to Ishmael, Do not kill us, for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he held back and did not kill them among their brothers. <sup>9</sup>And the pit in which Ishmael had thrown all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had killed because of Gedaliah, was the one which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel. And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with the slain. <sup>10</sup>Then Ishmael exiled all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters and all the people who remained in Mizpah, whom Nebu-zaradan the chief of the executioners had entrusted to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive and left to go over to the Ammonites.

<sup>11</sup>But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, <sup>12</sup>then they took all the men and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah. And they found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon. <sup>13</sup>And it happened when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, then they were glad. <sup>14</sup>So all the people that Ishmael had exiled from Mizpah turned around and came back, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah. <sup>15</sup>But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites. <sup>16</sup>Then Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces with him took all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after he had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. They took mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought again from Gibeon. <sup>17</sup>And they departed and lived in the inn of Chimham, which is by Bethlehem, to go to enter into Egypt <sup>18</sup>because of the Chaldeans. For they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor in the land.

CHAPTER 42

<sup>1</sup>Then came near all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, came near. <sup>2</sup>And they said to Jeremiah the prophet, Please let our cry be pleasing to you, and pray for us to the LORD your God, even for all this remnant, (for we are left but a few of many, as your eyes behold us,) <sup>3</sup>that the LORD your God may show us the way in which we may walk, and the thing that we may do. <sup>4</sup>And Jeremiah the prophet said to them, I have heard. Behold, I will pray to the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall be, all the word the LORD shall answer, I will declare it to you. I will keep nothing back from you. <sup>5</sup>And they said to Jeremiah, Let the LORD be a true and faithful witness between us if we do not do even according to all things for which the LORD your God shall send you to us. <sup>6</sup>Whether it is good, or whether it is evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD your God, to whom we send you; so that it may be well with us when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.

<sup>7</sup>And it happened after ten days, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah. <sup>8</sup>And he called Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest. <sup>9</sup>And he said to them, So says the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your cry before Him: <sup>10</sup>If you will still remain in this land, then I will build you and will not pull you down. And I will plant you and will not pluck you up. For I repent of the evil that I have done to you. <sup>11</sup>Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid. Do not be afraid of him, says the LORD. For I am with you to save you and to deliver you from his hand. <sup>12</sup>And I will show mercies to you, so that he may have mercy on you and cause you to return to your own land.

<sup>13</sup>But if you say, We will not dwell in this land, nor obey the voice of the LORD your God, <sup>14</sup>saying, No, but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger for bread; and there we will dwell; <sup>15</sup>then now hear the word of the LORD, O remnant of Judah. So says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: If you surely set your faces to go into Egypt, and go to live there, <sup>16</sup>then it will happen, the sword which you feared shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt. And the famine of which you were anxious about shall cling to you there in Egypt; and you shall die there. <sup>17</sup>So it shall be to all the men who set their faces to go into Egypt to live there. They shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the plague. And none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring on them. <sup>18</sup>For so says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: As My anger and My fury has been poured forth on the people of Jerusalem, so shall My fury be poured forth on you when you shall enter into Egypt. And you shall be a curse, and a wonder, and a shame, and a reproach; and you shall see this place no more.

<sup>19</sup>The LORD has said concerning you, O remnant of Judah, Do not go into Egypt. Know certainly that I have warned you this day. <sup>20</sup>For you used deceit against your souls when you sent me to the LORD your God, saying, Pray for us to the LORD our God; and according to all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare to us, and we will do it. <sup>21</sup>And I have declared it to you today; but you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, nor anything for which He has sent me to you. <sup>22</sup>And therefore know certainly that you shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the plague, in the place where you desire to go to live.

CHAPTER 43

<sup>1</sup>And it happened when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking to all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, all these words, <sup>2</sup>Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, spoke then, saying to Jeremiah, You speak falsely! The LORD our God has not sent you to say, Do not go to Egypt to live there. <sup>3</sup>But Baruch the son of Neriah sets you against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death and carry us away captives to Babylon. <sup>4</sup>So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, did not obey the voice of the LORD to live in the land of Judah. <sup>5</sup>But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah who had returned from all the nations (where they had been driven) to dwell in the land of Judah; <sup>6</sup>men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebu-zaradan the chief of the executioners had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah. <sup>7</sup>So they came into the land of Egypt, for they did not obey the voice of the LORD. So they came to Tahpanhes.

<sup>8</sup>And the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, <sup>9</sup>Take great stones to your hand, and hide them in the clay in the brick-kiln which is at the entrance to Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah. <sup>10</sup>And say to them, So says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, My servant, and will set his throne on these stones that I have hidden. And he shall spread his royal pavilion over them. <sup>11</sup>And when he comes, he shall strike the land of Egypt. And whoever is for death shall go to death; and whoever is for captivity, into captivity; and whoever is for the sword, to the sword. <sup>12</sup>And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt. And he shall burn them and carry them away captives. And he shall adorn himself with the land of Egypt, like a shepherd puts on his robe; and he shall go out from there in peace. <sup>13</sup>He shall also break the obelisks of The House of the Sun which is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians he shall burn with fire.

CHAPTER 44

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews who live in the land of Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying, <sup>2</sup>So says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: You have seen all the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, and on all the cities of Judah. And, behold, today they are a ruin, and no one lives there <sup>3</sup>because of their evil which they have committed to provoke Me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, to serve other gods whom they knew not, they, you, nor your fathers. <sup>4</sup>But I sent to you all My servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not do this abominable thing which I hate! <sup>5</sup>But they did not listen, nor bow down their ear to turn from their evil, to burn no incense to other gods. <sup>6</sup>Therefore My fury and My anger was poured out, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. And they are wasted, deserted as at this day. <sup>7</sup>And now so says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: Why do you commit this great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and babe, out of Judah, to leave you none to remain; <sup>8</sup>in that you provoke Me to wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt where you have gone to live, that you might cut yourselves off and that you might be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? <sup>9</sup>Have you forgotten the punishments of your fathers, and the evil of the kings of Judah, and the evil of their wives, and your own evil, and the evil of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? <sup>10</sup>They are not humbled even to this day, nor have they feared, nor walked in My law, nor in My statutes which I have set before you and before your fathers.

<sup>11</sup>So the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says this: Behold, I will set My face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah. <sup>12</sup>And I will take the remnant of Judah, who have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to live there; and they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt. They shall be destroyed by the sword and by the famine. They shall die, from the least even to the greatest, by the sword and by the famine; and they shall be a curse, a wonder, and a shame, and a reproach. <sup>13</sup>For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the plague, <sup>14</sup>So that none of the remnant of Judah who has gone into the land of Egypt to live shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah to which they have a desire to return to live there. For none shall return except those who escape.

<sup>15</sup>And all the men who knew that their wives had burned incense to other gods, and all the women who stood by, a great multitude, even all the people who lived in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah. And they said, <sup>16</sup>As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we will not listen to you. <sup>17</sup>But we will certainly do whatever thing goes forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our rulers, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem. For then we had plenty of food, and were well, and saw no evil. <sup>18</sup>But since we stopped burning incense to the queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have lacked all things, and have been devoured by the sword and by the famine. <sup>19</sup>And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make our cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings to her without our men?

<sup>20</sup>And Jeremiah said to all the people to the men and to the women, and to all the people who had given him that answer; <sup>21</sup>The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, you, and your fathers, your kings, and your rulers, and the people of the land; did not the LORD remember them, and did it not come into His mind? <sup>22</sup>Yea, so that the LORD could no longer hold back because of the evil of your doings, because of the abominations which you have committed! So your land is a waste, and a wonder, and a curse, without anyone in it, as it is today. <sup>23</sup>Because you have burned incense, and because you have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in His law, nor in His statutes, nor in His testimonies, therefore this evil has happened to you, as at this day.

<sup>24</sup>And Jeremiah said to all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that is in the land of Egypt. <sup>25</sup>So says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying: You and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hands, saying, We will surely fulfil our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings to her. You will surely fulfil your vows and surely carry out your vows. <sup>26</sup>Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that lives in the land of Egypt. Behold, I have sworn by My great name, says the LORD, that My name will no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord Jehovah lives. <sup>27</sup>Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good. And all the men of Judah in the land of Egypt shall be destroyed by the sword and by the famine, until there is an end of them. <sup>28</sup>Yet the small number that escapes the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah; and all the remnant of Judah (who have gone into the land of Egypt to live there) shall know whose word shall stand, Mine or theirs.

<sup>29</sup>And this shall be a sign to you, says the LORD, that I will punish you in this place so that you may know that My words shall surely stand against you for evil. <sup>30</sup>So says the LORD, Behold, I am giving to Pharaoh-hophra, king of Egypt, into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of those who seek his life, as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, his enemy that sought his life.

CHAPTER 45

<sup>1</sup>The word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying, <sup>2</sup>So says the LORD, the God of Israel, to you, O Baruch: <sup>3</sup>You said, Woe is me now, for the LORD has added grief to my sorrow. I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest. <sup>4</sup>So you shall say to him, The LORD says this: Behold, that which I have built I will break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land. <sup>5</sup>And do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them; for behold, I will bring evil on all flesh, says the LORD. But I will give your life to you as a prize, in all places where you go.

<sup>7</sup>Who is this rising up like the Nile, whose waters are moved like the rivers? <sup>8</sup>Egypt rises up like the Nile, and his waters surge about like the rivers. And he says, I will go up and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city and its people. <sup>9</sup>Come up, horses; and rage chariots! And let the mighty men come forth; the Ethiopians and the Libyans who handle the shield, and the Lydians who handle and bend the bow. <sup>10</sup>For this is the day of the Lord Jehovah of hosts, a day of vengeance, that He may avenge Himself of His foes. And the sword shall devour, and it shall be filled and made drunk with their blood, for the Lord Jehovah of hosts has a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates. <sup>11</sup>Go up into Gilead and take balm, O virgin, the daughter of Egypt. In vain shall you use many medicines, for you shall not be cured. <sup>12</sup>The nations have heard of your shame, and your cry has filled the land. For the mighty man has stumbled against the mighty, and they have both fallen together.

<sup>13</sup>The word spoken by the LORD to Jeremiah the prophet, of the coming of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, to strike the land of Egypt. <sup>14</sup>Declare it in Egypt, and cry it in Migdol, and make it heard in Noph and in Tahpanhes. Say, Stand fast and get ready, the sword shall devour all around you. <sup>15</sup>Why is your mighty one swept away? They did not stand, because the LORD drove them. <sup>16</sup>He made many fall; yea, one fell on another. And they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people and to the land of our birth, away from the oppressing sword. <sup>17</sup>They cried there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is a noise; he has passed the chosen time. <sup>18</sup>As I live, says the King whose name is the LORD of hosts, Surely as Tabor is among the mountains, and as Carmel by the sea, so he shall come. <sup>19</sup>O daughter dwelling in Egypt, get ready to go into captivity. For Noph shall be waste and a desert without inhabitant. <sup>20</sup>Egypt is a beautiful heifer, but a stinger surely comes from the north. <sup>21</sup>Also her hired ones are in her midst like calves of the stall; for they also have turned back, fleeing together. They did not stand, because the day of their calamity had come on them, the time of their visitation. <sup>22</sup>Its sound is like a serpent's going, for they shall go in force and come against her with axes like woodcutters. <sup>23</sup>They shall cut down her forest, says the LORD, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than the locusts and cannot be counted. <sup>24</sup>The daughter of Egypt shall be ashamed. She shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north. <sup>25</sup>The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Behold, I will punish the multitude of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with their gods and their kings; even Pharaoh and all who trust in him; <sup>26</sup>and I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants. And afterward it will be inhabited, as in the days of old, says the LORD.

<sup>27</sup>But do not fear, O My servant Jacob, and be not afraid, O Israel. For, behold, I will save you from afar off, and your seed from the land of their captivity. And Jacob shall return and be in rest and at ease, and none shall make him afraid. <sup>28</sup>Do not fear, O Jacob My servant, says the LORD, for I am with you. For I will make a full end of all the nations where I have driven you. But I will not make a full end of you, but correct you in measure; yet I will not leave you wholly unpunished.

CHAPTER 47

<sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Philistines, before Pharaoh struck Gaza. <sup>2</sup>So says the LORD: Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land and all its fullness; the city and those who dwell in it. And the men shall cry, and all the people of the land shall howl. <sup>3</sup>At the noise of the stamping of the hooves of his strong horses, at the rushing of his chariots, the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers shall not look back to their sons because of feebleness of hands; <sup>4</sup>because of the day that comes to plunder all the Philistines and to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every helper who remains. For the LORD will plunder the Philistines, the rest of the country of Caphtor. <sup>5</sup>Baldness has come on Gaza. Ashkelon is cut off with the rest of their valley. How long will you cut yourself? <sup>4</sup>O sword of the LORD, how long will it be before you are quiet? Put yourself into your sheath; rest and be still. <sup>7</sup>How can it be quiet, since the LORD has given it a command? He has set it there against Ashkelon, and against the seashore.

CHAPTER 48

<sup>1</sup>So says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, against Moab: Woe to Nebo, for it is ravaged! Kiriathaim is shamed and captured. The Fortress is shamed and razed. <sup>2</sup>There shall be no more praise of Moab. In Heshbon they have plotted evil against it, saying, Come and let us cut it off from being a nation. Also you shall be cut down, O madmen; the sword shall pursue you. <sup>3</sup>A voice of crying shall be heard from Horonaim, plundering and great ruin. <sup>4</sup>Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard. <sup>5</sup>For in the going up of Luhith continual weeping shall go up; for in the going down of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of ruin. <sup>6</sup>Flee, save your lives, and be like a naked thing in the wilderness.

<sup>7</sup>For because you have trusted in your works and in your treasures, you shall also be captured. And Chemosh shall go into exile with his priests and his rulers. <sup>8</sup>And the robber shall come on every city, and no city shall escape. Also the valley shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD has spoken. <sup>9</sup>Give wings to Moab so that it may flee and get away; for its cities shall be a desert, without an inhabitant. <sup>10</sup>Cursed is he who does the work of the LORD deceitfully, and cursed is he who keeps back his sword from blood.

<sup>11</sup>Moab has been at ease from his youth, and he has settled on his lees and has not been emptied from vessel to vessel, nor has he gone into exile. Therefore his taste remained in him, and his scent is not changed. <sup>12</sup>Therefore behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will send pourers to him, who shall pour him off, and his vessels shall empty, and shatter their jars. <sup>13</sup>And Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel their hope.

<sup>14</sup>How do you say, We are mighty and strong men for war? <sup>15</sup>Moab is plundered and has come up out of her cities. And his chosen young men have gone down to the slaughter, says the King whose name is the LORD of hosts. <sup>16</sup>The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hurries fast. <sup>17</sup>All you who are around him, mourn him. And all you who know his name, say, How is the strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod! <sup>18</sup>O dweller, daughter of Dibon, come down from your glory and sit in thirst. For the ravager of Moab shall come on you; he shall destroy your strongholds. <sup>19</sup>O dweller of Aroer, stand by the way and watch. Ask him who flees and her who escapes; say, What is happening? <sup>20</sup>Moab is put to shame, for it is broken down. Howl and cry! Tell it in Arnon that Moab is stripped. <sup>21</sup>And judgment has come on the plain country; on Holon, and on Jahazah, and on Mephaath, <sup>22</sup>and on Dibon, and on Nebo, and on Beth-diblahaim, <sup>23</sup>and on Kiriathaim, and on Beth-gamul, and on Beth-meon, <sup>24</sup>and on Kerioth, and on Bozrah, and on all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near. <sup>25</sup>The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken, says the LORD.

<sup>26</sup>Make him drunk, for he magnified himself against the LORD. Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be a mockery. <sup>27</sup>For was not Israel a mockery to you? Was he found among thieves? For ever since you spoke of him, you skipped for joy. <sup>28</sup>O you who dwell in Moab, leave the cities and live in the rock, and be like the dove making her nest in the sides of the mouth of the pit. <sup>29</sup>We have heard the pride of Moab (he is exceedingly proud), his loftiness, and his pride, and his arrogance, and his elevated heart. <sup>30</sup>I know his wrath, says the LORD, it is not so; his boast, but they have not done so. <sup>31</sup>So I will wail for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab, and shall mourn for the men of Kirheres.

<sup>32</sup>O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for you with the weeping of Jazer. Your plants have gone over the sea; they reach to the sea of Jazer. A ravager has fallen on your summer fruits and on your grape crop. <sup>33</sup>And joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab. And I have caused wine to fail from the winepresses; none shall tread the grapes with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting. <sup>34</sup>From the cry of Heshbon to Elealeh, and to Jahaz, they have uttered their voice, from Zoar to Horonaim, like a heifer three years old. For the waters of Nimrim also shall be deserted. <sup>35</sup>And, I will cause him who offers in the high places to cease in Moab, says the LORD, and him who burns incense to his gods. <sup>36</sup>Therefore my heart shall sound for Moab like flutes, and my heart shall sound for the men of Kirheres, because the riches that he has gotten have perished. <sup>37</sup>For every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped. On all the hands shall be cuttings, and on the loins sackcloth. <sup>38</sup>On all the housetops of Moab, and in its streets, there is weeping for all. For I have broken Moab like a vessel in which is no pleasure, says the LORD. <sup>39</sup>They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! How has Moab turned the back with shame! So Moab shall be a cause of scorn, and he shall be a terror to all those around him. <sup>40</sup>For so says the LORD: Behold, he shall fly like an eagle and shall spread his wings over Moab. <sup>41</sup>Kerioth is taken, and the strongholds are surprised; and the mighty men's hearts in Moab shall be at that day like the heart of a woman in her pangs. <sup>42</sup>And Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he has magnified himself against the LORD. <sup>43</sup>Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be on you, O Moabite, says the LORD. <sup>44</sup>He who flees from the terror shall fall into the pit; and he who gets up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare. For I will bring on it, even on Moab, the year of their judgment, says the LORD.

<sup>45</sup>Those who fled stood powerless under the shadow of Heshbon, for a fire shall come out from Heshbon, and a flame out of the midst of Sihon, and shall devour the corner of Moab and the crown of the head of the sons of desolation. <sup>46</sup>Woe to you, O Moab! The people of Chemosh perish; for your sons are taken captives, and your daughters captives. <sup>47</sup>But I will restore the prisoners of Moab in the latter days, says the LORD. So far is the judgment of Moab.

CHAPTER 49

<sup>1</sup>So says the LORD to the sons of Ammon: Has Israel no sons? Has he no heir? Why does their kind inherit Gad, and his people dwell in his cities? <sup>2</sup>So, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will cause a shout of war to be heard in Rabbah of the sons of Ammon. And it shall be a heap of ruins, and her daughters shall be burned with fire. Then Israel shall inherit his inheritance, says the LORD. <sup>3</sup>Wail, O Heshbon; Ai is spoiled! Cry, daughters of Rabbah; clothe yourselves with sackcloth, mourn, and run to and fro by the hedges! For their king shall go into exile; his priests and his rulers together. <sup>4</sup>Why do you glory in your valley, your flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? she trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come to me? <sup>5</sup>Behold, I will bring a fear on you, says the Lord Jehovah of hosts, from all those who are around you. And you shall be driven out, each man straight forward; and there shall be none to gather up the runaways. <sup>6</sup>And afterward I will bring again the exile of the sons of Ammon, says the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>So says the LORD of hosts to Edom: Is wisdom no more in Teman? Has counsel perished from the prudent? Has their wisdom vanished? <sup>8</sup>Flee, turn back, dwell deep, O people of Dedan. For I will bring the calamity of Esau on him in the time that I will visit him. <sup>9</sup>If the gatherers of grapes come to you, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? If thieves come by night, they will destroy until they have enough. <sup>10</sup>But I have made Esau bare; I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself. His seed is ravaged, and his brothers, and his neighbors, and he is gone. <sup>11</sup>Leave your orphans; I will keep them alive; and let your widows trust in Me. <sup>12</sup>For so says the LORD: Behold, those whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have surely drunk. And are you to be entirely acquitted? You shall not be acquitted, but you shall surely drink. <sup>13</sup>For I have sworn by Myself, says the LORD, that Bozrah shall become a ruin, a reproach, a waste, and a curse. And all its cities shall be wastes forever. <sup>14</sup>I have heard a message from the LORD, and a herald is sent to the nations, saying, Gather together and come against her, and rise up to the battle. <sup>15</sup>For lo, I will make you small among the nations, despised among men. <sup>16</sup>Your fearfulness has deceived you, and the pride of your heart, O you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, who hold the height of the hill. Though you should make your nest as high as the eagle, I will bring you down from there, says the LORD. <sup>17</sup>Also Edom shall be a ruin. Everyone who goes by it shall be amazed and shall hiss at all its plagues. <sup>18</sup>As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and its neighbor, says the LORD, no man shall remain there, nor shall a son of man live in it.

<sup>19</sup>Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan against the home of the strong. But I will suddenly make him run away from her. And who is a chosen man whom I may set over her? For who is like Me? And who will appoint Me the time? And who is that shepherd who will stand before Me? <sup>20</sup>So then hear the counsel of the LORD which He has taken against Edom, and His purposes which He has purposed against the people of Teman: Surely the least of the flock shall drag them away. Surely He shall make their homes a ruin over them. <sup>21</sup>The earth is shaken at the noise of their fall; when they cried, its noise was heard in the Red Sea. <sup>22</sup>Behold, he shall come up and fly like the eagle, and spread his wings over Bozrah. And at that day the heart of the mighty men of Edom shall be like the heart of a woman in her pangs.

<sup>23</sup>Concerning Damascus: Hamath and Arpad are put to shame, for they have heard bad news. They are melted; anxiety is in the sea; it cannot be quiet. <sup>24</sup>Damascus has become feeble; she has turned to flee, and trembling has seized her. Anguish and sorrows have taken her like a woman in labor. <sup>25</sup>How is the city of praise not left, the city of my joy! <sup>26</sup>So her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be silenced in that day, says the LORD of hosts. <sup>27</sup>And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall burn up the palaces of Ben-hadad.

<sup>28</sup>So says the LORD concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon shall strike: Arise, go up to Kedar, and strip the men of the east. <sup>29</sup>They shall take away their tents and their flocks. They shall take their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels to themselves. And they shall cry to them, Fear is on every side. <sup>30</sup>Flee, go far away, go deep to dwell; O people of Hazor, says the LORD; for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has taken counsel against you, and has plotted a plan against you. <sup>31</sup>Arise, go up to the wealthy nation that is at ease, says the LORD, which has neither gates nor bars, which dwells alone. <sup>32</sup>And their camels shall be a prize, and the multitude of their cattle a prey. And I will scatter those who are in the utmost corners into all winds. And I will bring their calamity from all sides of it, says the LORD. <sup>33</sup>And Hazor shall be a dwelling for jackals and a ruin forever. No man shall live there, nor any son of man dwell in it.

<sup>34</sup>The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against Elam in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, <sup>35</sup>So says the LORD of hosts: Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might. <sup>36</sup>And I will bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven on Elam, and will scatter them toward all those winds. And there shall be no nation where the outcasts of Elam shall not come. <sup>37</sup>For I will cause Elam to be afraid before their enemies and before those who seek their life. And I will bring evil on them, even My fierce anger, says the LORD. And I will send the sword after them until I have destroyed them; <sup>38</sup>and I will set My throne in Elam, and will destroy the king and the rulers from there, says the LORD. <sup>39</sup>But it shall be in the latter days I will bring again the exile of Elam, says the LORD.

CHAPTER 50

<sup>1</sup>The word that the LORD spoke against Babylon, against the land of the Chaldeans by Jeremiah the prophet. <sup>2</sup>Declare among the nations, and cause them to hear, and lift up a banner. Cause them to hear, do not hide it; say, Babylon is captured, Bel is ashamed, Merodach is broken in pieces; her images are shamed, her idols are broken in pieces. <sup>3</sup>For out of the north a nation comes up against her, which shall make her land a desert, and none shall dwell in it. They shall flee, they shall depart, both man and beast.

<sup>4</sup>In those days, and at that time, says the LORD, the sons of Israel shall come, they and the sons of Judah together, going and weeping. They shall go and seek the LORD their God. <sup>5</sup>They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces there, saying, Come and let us join ourselves to the LORD in an everlasting covenant that shall not be forgotten. <sup>6</sup>My people have been lost sheep; their shepherds have caused them to go astray; they have turned them away on the mountains. They have gone from mountain to hill; they have forgotten their resting place. <sup>7</sup>All who have found them have devoured them. And their enemies said, We do not offend, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of righteousness, even the LORD, the hope of their fathers. <sup>8</sup>Flee from the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he-goats before the flocks.

<sup>9</sup>For, lo, I am stirring up and bringing up a company of great nations from a northern land against Babylon. And they shall set themselves in order against her. She shall be captured there. Their arrows shall be as those of a skillful, mighty man; none shall return in vain. <sup>10</sup>And Chaldea shall be a prize; all who plunder her shall be satisfied, says the LORD. <sup>11</sup>Because you were glad, because you rejoiced, O destroyers of My inheritance; because you have grown fat like the heifer in grass, and bellow like bulls; <sup>12</sup>your mother shall be deeply ashamed; she who bore you shall turn pale. Behold, the last of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert. <sup>13</sup>Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, but it shall be wholly a waste. Everyone who goes by Babylon shall be amazed and hiss at all her plagues. <sup>14</sup>Put yourselves in order against Babylon all around; all you who bend the bow, shoot at her. Hold back no arrows, for she has sinned against the LORD. <sup>15</sup>Shout against her all around. She has given her hand; her foundations have fallen, her walls have been thrown down; for it is the vengeance of the LORD. Take vengeance on her. As she has done, do to her. <sup>16</sup>Cut off the sower from Babylon, and the one who handles the sickle in the time of harvest. For fear of the pressing sword they shall turn, each one to his people; and they shall flee, each one to his own land.

<sup>17</sup>Israel is a scattered sheep, driven away by lions. First the king of Assyria devoured him, and last this Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon crunched his bones. <sup>18</sup>So Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, says this: Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria. <sup>19</sup>And I will again bring Israel to his home, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied on Mount Ephraim and Gilead. <sup>20</sup>In those days, and at that time, says the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and it shall not be found; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found; for I will pardon those whom I keep.

<sup>21</sup>Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it and against the people of Pekod. Waste and destroy after them, says the LORD, and do according to all that I have commanded you. <sup>22</sup>A sound of battle is in the land, and of great ruin. <sup>23</sup>How the hammer of the whole earth is cut off and broken! How Babylon has become a ruin among the nations! <sup>24</sup>I have laid a trap for you, and you are also captured, O Babylon, and you did not know. You were found and also caught, because you have fought against the LORD. <sup>25</sup>The LORD has opened His armory, and has brought forth the weapons of His fury. For this is the work of the Lord Jehovah of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans. <sup>26</sup>Come against her from the border; open her storehouses; cast her up as heaps, and destroy her completely. Let nothing of her be left. <sup>27</sup>Kill all her bulls; let them go down to the slaughter. Woe to them! For their day has come, the time of their judgment. <sup>28</sup>The voice of those who flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of His temple. <sup>29</sup>Make the archers hear against Babylon. All you who tread a bow, camp against it all around; let none of them escape. Repay her according to her work; according to all that she has done, do to her. For she has been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel. <sup>30</sup>So her young men shall fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, says the LORD. <sup>31</sup>Behold, I am against you, O proud ones, says the Lord Jehovah of hosts; for your day has come, the time that I will judge you. <sup>32</sup>And the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up. And I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall burn up everything all around him.

<sup>33</sup>So says the LORD of hosts: The sons of Israel and the sons of Judah were oppressed together. And all who took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go. <sup>34</sup>Their Redeemer is strong; the LORD of hosts is His name. He shall thoroughly plead their cause, so that he may give rest to the land, and give trouble to the people of Babylon. <sup>35</sup>A sword is on the Chaldeans, says the LORD, and on the people of Babylon, and on her rulers, and on her wise men. <sup>36</sup>A sword is on the liars, and they shall become fools. A sword is on her mighty men, and they shall be afraid. <sup>37</sup>A sword is on their horses, and on their chariots, and on all the mixed people who are in her midst; and they shall become as women. A sword is to her treasures, and they shall be robbed. <sup>38</sup>A drought is on her waters; and they shall be dried up. For it is the land of idols, and they boast themselves in idols. <sup>39</sup>So the beasts of the desert shall dwell there with jackals. And the daughters of the ostrich shall dwell in her again. And it shall not again have anyone in it forever; it shall not be lived in until generation and generation. <sup>40</sup>As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbors, says the LORD, no man shall live there; nor shall any son of man live in it.

<sup>41</sup>Behold, a people shall come from the north, even a great nation; and many kings shall be stirred up from the farthest parts of the earth. <sup>42</sup>They lay hold on a bow and spear; they are cruel and will not show mercy. Their voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride on horses arrayed like a man for the battle against you, O daughter of Babylon. <sup>43</sup>The king of Babylon has heard the report of them, and his hands became feeble. Anguish took hold of him, and pangs like those of a woman in labor.

<sup>44</sup>Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan to the home of the strong. But I will make them suddenly run away from her, and who is a chosen one that I may set over her? For who is like Me? And who will set me the time? And who is that shepherd who will stand before Me? <sup>45</sup>Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD that He has taken against Babylon; and His purposes which He has purposed against the land of the Chaldeans. Surely the least of the flock shall drag them away; surely He shall make their pasture a desert with them. <sup>46</sup>At the sound of the capture of Babylon the earth shall tremble, and a cry is heard among the nations.

CHAPTER 51

<sup>1</sup>So says the LORD: Behold, I will raise up a destroying wind against Babylon, and against those dwelling in the heart of My foes. <sup>2</sup>And I will send aliens to Babylon, who shall empty her, and shall empty her land. For in the day of trouble they shall be against her all around. <sup>3</sup>Do not let the treacher fully tread his bow; nor lift himself up in his armor. And do not spare her young men; utterly destroy all her army. <sup>4</sup>So the dead shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans, those thrust through in her streets. <sup>5</sup>For neither Israel nor Judah has been forsaken by his God, by the LORD of hosts, though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel. <sup>6</sup>Flee out of the middle of Babylon, and each man deliver his soul. Be not cut off in her iniquity, for this is the time of the LORD's vengeance; He will give to her a just reward.

<sup>7</sup>Babylon has been a golden cup in the LORD's hand, which made all the earth drunk. The nations have drunk of her wine; therefore the nations are insane. <sup>8</sup>Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed. Wail for her; take balm for her pain, if perhaps she may be healed. <sup>9</sup>We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed. Forsake her and let us go, each one into his own country; for her judgment reaches to Heaven and is lifted up to the skies. <sup>10</sup>The LORD has brought forth our righteousness; come and let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God. <sup>11</sup>Sharpen the arrows; gather the shields; the LORD has raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes. For His plan is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of His temple. <sup>12</sup>Set up the banner on the walls of Babylon; make the watch strong; set up the watchmen; prepare the ambushes. For the LORD has both planned and done that which He spoke against the people of Babylon. <sup>13</sup>O you who live on many waters, rich in treasures, your end has come, and the measure of your unjust gain. <sup>14</sup>The LORD of hosts has sworn by Himself, saying, Surely I will fill you with men as with locusts; and they shall lift up a shout against you.

<sup>15</sup>He has made the earth by His power; He has established the world by His wisdom, and has stretched out the heavens by His understanding. <sup>16</sup>When He utters His voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens; and He causes the mists to ascend from the ends of the earth. He makes lightnings with rain and brings forth the wind out of His treasures. <sup>17</sup>Every man is brutish in knowledge; every refiner is put to shame by idols. For his molded image is a lie, and no breath is in them. <sup>18</sup>They are vanity, the work of errors; in the time of their judgment they shall perish. <sup>19</sup>The Portion of Jacob is not like them; for He is the Former of all things, and Israel is the rod of His inheritance. The LORD of hosts is His name. <sup>20</sup>You are My war-club and weapons of war; for with you I will shatter nations; and with you I will destroy kingdoms. <sup>21</sup>And with you I will shatter the horse and his rider in pieces; and with you I will shatter the chariot and his rider. <sup>22</sup>Also with you I will shatter man and woman in pieces; and with you I will shatter old and young; and with you I will shatter the young man and the girl. <sup>23</sup>I will also shatter the shepherd and his flock with you. And with you I will shatter the farmer and his team; and with you I will shatter heads and rulers.

<sup>24</sup>And I will give to Babylon, and to all the people of Chaldea, all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, says the LORD. <sup>25</sup>Behold, I am against you,

O destroying mountain, says the LORD, who destroys all the earth. And I will stretch out My hand on you and roll you down from the rocks, and will make you a burned mountain. <sup>26</sup>And they shall not take a stone from you for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but you shall be a waste forever, says the LORD. <sup>27</sup>Set up a banner in the land; blow a trumpet among the nations; prepare the nations against her. Call the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz together against her; set a captain against her. Cause the horses to come up as the rough locusts. <sup>28</sup>Consecrate nations against her, with the kings of the Medes, her governors and all her rulers, and all the land of his kingdom. <sup>29</sup>And the land shall tremble and writhe. For every purpose of the LORD shall be done against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desert without inhabitant.

<sup>30</sup>The mighty men of Babylon have stopped fighting; they have remained in strongholds; their might has failed. They became like women; they have burned her houses; her bars are broken. <sup>31</sup>A runner shall run to meet a runner, and a herald to a herald, to announce to the king of Babylon that his city is captured from end to end; <sup>32</sup>and that the fords are stopped. And they have burned the reeds with fire, and the men of war are frightened. <sup>33</sup>For so says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor; it is time to thresh her. Yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come.

<sup>34</sup>Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon has devoured me; he has crushed me; he has made me an empty vessel. He has swallowed me up like a jackal; he has filled his belly with my good things; he has thrown me out; <sup>35</sup>the violence done to me and to my flesh shall be on Babylon; the dweller in Zion shall say. And, My blood shall be on the people of Chaldea, Jerusalem shall say. <sup>36</sup>So the LORD says this: Behold, I will plead your cause and take vengeance for you; and I will dry up her sea and make her springs dry. <sup>37</sup>And Babylon shall become heaps, a home for jackals, a wonder and a hissing, without an inhabitant. <sup>38</sup>They shall roar together like lions; they shall growl like lions' cubs. <sup>39</sup>In their heat I will make their feasts, and I will make them drunk so that they may rejoice and sleep a never-ending sleep, and never awaken, says the LORD. <sup>40</sup>I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he-goats. <sup>41</sup>How Sheshach is captured! And how the praise of the whole earth is surprised! How Babylon has become a wonder among the nations! <sup>42</sup>The sea has come up over Babylon; she is covered with the multitude of its waves. <sup>43</sup>Her cities are a desert, a dry land and a wilderness, a land in which no man dwells, nor does any son of man pass by it. <sup>44</sup>And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he has swallowed up. And the nations shall not flow together any more to him; yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall.

<sup>45</sup>My people, go out of her midst; and let each man deliver his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD. <sup>46</sup>And let not your heart faint, nor fear the rumor that shall be heard in the land. The report shall come in a year. And after that a report shall come in another year; and violence shall be in the land, ruler against ruler. <sup>47</sup>So, behold, the days come that I will punish the idols of Babylon. And all her land shall be put to shame, and all her slain shall fall in her midst. <sup>48</sup>And the heavens and the earth, and all that is in them, shall shout for Babylon; for the plunderers shall come to her from the north, says the LORD. <sup>49</sup>As Babylon has caused the dead of Israel to fall, so at Babylon the dead of all the earth shall fall. <sup>50</sup>You who have escaped the sword, go away; do not stand still. Remember the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind. <sup>51</sup>We have turned pale because we have heard reproach; shame has covered our faces, for foreigners have come into the holy places of the LORD's house. <sup>52</sup>So, behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, that I will punish her idols, and through all her land the wounded shall groan. <sup>53</sup>Though Babylon should mount up to the heavens, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet plunderers shall come to her from Me, says the LORD.

<sup>54</sup>A sound of a cry comes from Babylon, and great ruin from the land of the Chaldeans, <sup>55</sup>because the LORD is stripping Babylon, and the great voice will perish out of her. And her waves will roar like great waters; the noise of their voice is given, <sup>56</sup>because the ravager has come on her, even on Babylon, and her mighty men are captured. Every one of their bows is broken, for the LORD God of vengeance shall surely repay. <sup>57</sup>And I will make her rulers drunk, and her wise ones, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men drunk. And they shall sleep a never-ending sleep and not awaken, says the King whose name is the LORD of hosts. <sup>58</sup>So says the LORD of hosts: The broad walls of Babylon shall be completely broken, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and the people shall labor in vain, and the people shall be in the fire, and they shall be weary.

<sup>59</sup>The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And Seraiah was a quiet prince. <sup>60</sup>So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come on Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon. <sup>61</sup>And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When you come to Babylon, and shall see and shall read all these words, <sup>62</sup>then you shall say, O LORD, You have spoken against this place to cut it off, so that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be a ruin forever. <sup>63</sup>And it shall be, when you have made an end of reading this book, you shall tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of Euphrates. <sup>64</sup>And you shall say, In this way shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring on her. And they shall be weary. So far are the words of Jeremiah.

CHAPTER 52

<sup>1</sup>Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. <sup>2</sup>And he did evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. <sup>3</sup>For it was because of the anger of the LORD in Jerusalem and Judah (until He had cast them out from His presence) that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

<sup>4</sup>And it happened in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it and built forts against it all around. <sup>5</sup>So the city was under attack until the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. <sup>6</sup>And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was very grievous in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. <sup>7</sup>And the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden. (And the Chaldeans were beside the city all around.) And they went by the way of the plain. <sup>8</sup>But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. And all his army was scattered from him.

<sup>9</sup>And they took the king and carried him up to the king of Babylon, to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgment against him. <sup>10</sup>And the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes. He also killed all the rulers of Judah in Riblah. <sup>11</sup>And he blinded the eyes of Zedekiah. And the king of Babylon bound him in chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

<sup>12</sup>And in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, Nebu-zaradan, chief of the executioners, who served the king of Babylon, came into Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>And he burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house. And he burned with fire all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great ones. <sup>14</sup>And all the army of the Chaldeans with the chief of the executioners broke down all Jerusalem's walls all around. <sup>15</sup>And Nebu-zaradan the chief of the executioners exiled some of the poor of the people, and the rest of the people who remained in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude. <sup>16</sup>But Nebu-zaradan the chief of the executioners left some of the poor of the land for vinedressers and for farmers. <sup>17</sup>Also the Chaldeans broke the pillars of bronze that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the bronze sea that was in the house of the LORD, and carried all the bronze of them to Babylon. <sup>18</sup>They also took away the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of bronze with which they served. <sup>19</sup>And the chief of the executioners took away the basins, and the firepans, and the bowls, and the pots, and the lampstands, and the spoons, and the cups — what was gold, in gold; and what was silver, in silver — <sup>20</sup>the two pillars, one sea, and twelve bronze bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the LORD; the bronze of all these vessels was without weight. <sup>21</sup>And the pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits. And a line of twelve cubits went around it, and the thickness of it was four fingers. It was hollow. <sup>22</sup>And a capital of bronze was on it. And the height of one capital was five cubits, with network and pomegranates on the capitals all around, all of bronze. The second pillar also, and the pomegranates, were like these. <sup>23</sup>And there were ninety-six pomegranates on a side; all the pomegranates on the network were a hundred all around.

<sup>24</sup>And the chief of the executioners took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three doorkeepers. <sup>25</sup>He also took out of the city a eunuch who was in charge of the men of war; and seven men from those who were near the king's person, who were found in the city; and the chief scribe of the army, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the middle of the city. <sup>26</sup>And Nebu-zaradan the chief of the executioners took them and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. <sup>27</sup>And the king of Babylon struck them and slaughtered them in Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was exiled out of his own land. <sup>28</sup>This is the people whom Nebuchadnezzar exiled: in the seventh year, three thousand and twenty-three Jews; <sup>29</sup>in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar he exiled from Jerusalem eight hundred and thirty-two persons; <sup>30</sup>in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebu-zaradan the chief of the executioners exiled seven hundred and forty-five persons of the Jews. All the persons were four thousand and six hundred.

<sup>31</sup>And it happened in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the twenty-fifth day of the month, Evil-merodach king of Babylon in the first year of his reign lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him out from prison, <sup>32</sup>and spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon. <sup>33</sup>And he changed his prison garments, and he ate bread before him all the days of his life. <sup>34</sup>And his allowance in continual allowance was given him from the king of Babylon, the matter of a day in its day, until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

THE BOOK OF LAMENTATION

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>How alone sits the city that was full of people! She has become like a widow; great among the nations, a noblewoman among the nations has become a tribute-payer. <sup>2</sup>She bitterly weeps in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks; among all her lovers, she has none to comfort her. All her friends have dealt deceitfully with her; they became her enemies.

<sup>3</sup>Judah went into captivity because of affliction, and from great slavery. She dwells among the nations; she finds no rest; all her pursuers have overtaken her between the narrows. <sup>4</sup>The roads of Zion mourn because without any going to the appointed feasts. All her gates are deserted; her priests sigh; her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness. <sup>5</sup>Her enemies have become as chief; her haters are at ease; for the LORD has afflicted her for the multitude of her sins. Her children have gone, captive before the enemy. <sup>6</sup>And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty has departed; her rulers have become like bucks; they find no pasture, and they have gone without strength before the pursuer. <sup>7</sup>Jerusalem remembered all her desirable things that were from previous days; when her people fell into the hand of the foe; and there is no ally for her. The foes saw her; they laughed at her cessations.

<sup>8</sup>Jerusalem has grievously sinned, therefore she has been removed. All knowing her despise her because they saw her nakedness; yea, she sighs and turns backward. <sup>9</sup>Her uncleanness is in her skirts; she did not remember her end, and has gone down astoundingly. There is no comforter for her. O LORD, behold my affliction, for the enemy has magnified himself. <sup>10</sup>The enemy has spread out his hand upon all her desirable things; for she has seen the nations enter her holy place, whom You commanded that they should not enter into Your congregation. <sup>11</sup>All her people sigh; they seek bread. They have given their desirable things for food to relieve the soul. See, O LORD, and look on me, for I have become vile.

<sup>12</sup>Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by? Behold and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow which is done to me, with which the LORD has afflicted me in the day of His fierce anger. <sup>13</sup>From above He has sent fire into my bones and it has laid them low. He has spread a net for my feet; He has turned me back; He has made me amazed and faint all the day. <sup>14</sup>The yoke of my transgressions is bound by His hand; they are woven together; they rise on my neck. He has made my strength to falter; the LORD has delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up. <sup>15</sup>The LORD has trampled all my mighty ones in my midst; He has called a gathering against me to crush my young men. The LORD has trod the virgin daughter of Judah, as in a winepress. <sup>16</sup>For these I weep; my eye, my eye runs down with water, because the comforter who could refresh my soul is far from me. My sons are deserted because the enemy prevails. <sup>17</sup>Zion spreads forth her hands; none is comforting to me; the LORD has commanded concerning Jacob that his enemies should be all around him; Jerusalem has become as an impure thing among them.

<sup>18</sup>The LORD is righteous, for I have rebelled against His command. I beseech you, all peoples, hear and behold my sorrow. My virgins and my young men went into exile.

<sup>19</sup>I called for my lovers, but they deceived me; my priests and my elders expired in the city while they sought food to bring back their life. <sup>20</sup>Behold, O LORD, for I am in trouble; my inward parts ferment; my heart is turned within me, for I have grievously rebelled. On the outside the sword bereaves; in the house it is as death.

<sup>21</sup>They hear that I sigh; there is none to comfort me. All my enemies have heard my evil; they are glad that You have done it. You will bring the day that You have called, and they shall be like me. <sup>22</sup>Let all their wickedness come before You; and do to them as You have done to me for all my transgressions. For my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>How the Lord has covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in His anger! He cast down the beauty of Israel from the heavens to the earth and remembered not His footstool in the day of His anger. <sup>2</sup>The Lord swallowed up all the dwelling-places of Jacob and has not pitied. In His wrath He has thrown down the strongholds of the daughter of Judah; He has brought them down to the ground. He has defiled the kingdom and its rulers. <sup>3</sup>He has cut off all the horn of Israel in His fierce anger; He has drawn back His right hand from before the enemy, and He burned against Jacob like flaming fire which devours all around. <sup>4</sup>He has bent His bow like an enemy; He stood with His right hand like an adversary, and killed all who were desirable to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion. He poured out His fury like fire. <sup>5</sup>The LORD was like an enemy; He swallowed up Israel; He has swallowed up all her palaces, and destroyed His strongholds. And has increased mourning and weeping in the daughter of Judah. <sup>6</sup>And He violated His booth like a garden, and destroyed His meeting places. The LORD caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and He despised the king and the priest in the fury of His anger. <sup>7</sup>The LORD has cast off His altar; He rejected His sanctuary; He has given up the walls of her palaces into the hater's hand. They gave a noise in the house of the LORD, as a day of meeting. <sup>8</sup>The LORD purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion; He has stretched out a line; He has not withdrawn His hand from swallowing, and He made rampart and wall lament; they languish together. <sup>9</sup>Her gates have sunk in the ground; He has destroyed and broken her bars. Her kings and her rulers are among the nations. The law is no more; her prophets also find no vision from the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground and are silent; they send up dust on their heads; they gird on sackcloths. The virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground. <sup>11</sup>My eyes fail with tears; my inward parts ferment; my liver is poured on the ground for the ruin of the daughter of my people, in that the children and the babies faint in the streets of the city. <sup>12</sup>They say to their mothers, Where are grain and wine? In their fainting they are like the wounded in the streets of the city, in their pouring out their lives to their mothers' bosom. <sup>13</sup>What can I testify for you? What thing shall I compare to you, O daughter of Jerusalem? What shall I equal to you, so that I may comfort you, O virgin daughter of Zion? For your break is great like the sea; who can heal you? <sup>14</sup>Your prophets have seen false and foolish things for you, and they have not uncovered your iniquity, to turn away your captivity; but they have seen false oracles and seductions for you.

<sup>15</sup>All who pass by clap their hands at you; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city which they called the perfection of beauty, the joy of the whole earth? <sup>16</sup>All your enemies have opened their mouth against you; they hiss and gnash the teeth; they say, We have swallowed her up. Certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen. <sup>17</sup>The LORD has done what He has purposed; He has fulfilled His word which He commanded from the days of old. He has thrown down and not pitied. And He caused your hater rejoice over you; He has set up the horn of your foes.

<sup>20</sup>Behold, O LORD, and consider to whom You have done this. Shall the women eat their fruit, children of tender care? Shall the priest and the prophet be killed in the holy place of the Lord? <sup>21</sup>Young and the old lie in the streets; my virgins and my young men have fallen by the sword. You have killed them in the day of Your anger; You have killed and not pitied. <sup>22</sup>You have called as in a solemn day my terrors all around, and here was not an escaped one or a survivor in the day of the LORD's anger. Those whom I have nursed and multiplied, my enemy has consumed.

<sup>2</sup>He has led me and made me go in darkness and not into light. <sup>3</sup>Surely He turned against me; He turns His hand all the day. <sup>4</sup>He has wasted my flesh and my skin; He has broken my bones. <sup>5</sup>He built against me and has circled me with bitterness and hardship. <sup>6</sup>He has made me live in dark places, like the dead of old. <sup>7</sup>He has set a fence around me and I cannot go out; He has made my bronze chain heavy. <sup>8</sup>Also when I cry and shout, He shuts out my prayer. <sup>9</sup>He walled up my ways with cut stone; my paths are crooked. <sup>10</sup>He was a bear lying in wait for me, a lion in secret places. <sup>11</sup>He has turned my ways aside and torn me in pieces. He made me desolate. <sup>12</sup>He has bent His bow and set me as a mark for the arrow.

<sup>13</sup>He has caused the arrows of His quiver to enter into my inward parts. <sup>14</sup>I was a mockery to all my people, their song all the day. <sup>15</sup>He has filled me with bitterness and made me drunk with wormwood. <sup>16</sup>He also broke my teeth with gravel; He has covered me in the ashes. <sup>17</sup>And You cast off my soul from peace; I have forgotten blessedness. <sup>18</sup>And I said. My strength and my hope from the LORD are gone.

<sup>19</sup>Remember my affliction and my wandering, as wormwood and bitterness. <sup>20</sup>My soul vividly remembers and bows down on me. <sup>21</sup>I recall this to my mind; therefore I hope.

<sup>22</sup>It is by of the LORD's kindnesses that we are not destroyed, because His mercies never fail. <sup>23</sup>They are new every morning; great is Your faithfulness. <sup>24</sup>The LORD is my portion, says my soul; therefore I will hope in Him.

<sup>25</sup>The LORD is good to those who wait for Him, to the soul who seeks Him. <sup>26</sup>It is good that one should hope for the salvation of the LORD, even in silence. <sup>27</sup>It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth. <sup>28</sup>He sits alone and keeps silence because He laid it on him. <sup>29</sup>He puts his mouth in the dust, if perhaps there may be hope. <sup>30</sup>He gives his cheek to Him who strikes him; he is filled with reproach. <sup>31</sup>For the LORD will not cast off forever; <sup>32</sup>for though He causes grief, yet He will have pity according to the multitude of His kindnesses. <sup>33</sup>For He does not afflict from His heart, nor does He grieve the sons of men; <sup>34</sup>to crush all the prisoners of the earth under his feet; <sup>35</sup>to turn aside the right of a man before the face of the Most High; <sup>36</sup>to pervert a man in his cause — this the LORD does not see.

<sup>37</sup>Who is this who speaks, and it occurs, when the Lord does not command it? <sup>38</sup>The evil and the good do not come out of the mouth of the Most High? <sup>39</sup>What?

Should mankind complain, a living man, because of his sins? <sup>40</sup>Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD.

<sup>41</sup>Let us lift up our heart and hands to God in Heaven. <sup>42</sup>We have sinned and have rebelled; You have not forgiven. <sup>43</sup>You have wrapped Yourself with anger and pursued us; You have slain; You have not pitied. <sup>44</sup>You have wrapped Yourself with a cloud from any prayer passing through. <sup>45</sup>You have made us as the sweepings and garbage in the midst of the peoples. <sup>46</sup>All our enemies have opened their mouths against us. <sup>47</sup>Fear and a pit have come to us, shame and ruin. <sup>48</sup>Streams of water run down my eye for the ruin of the daughter of my people. <sup>49</sup>My eye flows out and does not cease, from there being no intermission, <sup>50</sup>until the LORD shall look down and behold from Heaven. <sup>51</sup>My eye pains my soul because of all the daughters of my city. <sup>52</sup>My haters have hunted me, like a bird, without cause. <sup>53</sup>They have cut off my life in the pit, and cast stones at me. <sup>54</sup>Waters flowed over my head; then I said, I am cut off.

<sup>55</sup>I called on Your name, O LORD, out of the lowest pit. <sup>56</sup>You have heard my voice; do not hide Your ear at my relief, at my cry for help. <sup>57</sup>You drew near in the day that I called on You; You said, Fear not. <sup>58</sup>O LORD, You strove for the causes of my soul; You redeemed my life. <sup>59</sup>O Lord, You have seen my wrong; judge my cause. <sup>60</sup>You have seen all their vengeance, all their plots against me.

<sup>1</sup>How the gold has become dim; the fine gold has changed! The stones of the sanctuary are poured out at the head of every street. <sup>2</sup>The precious sons of Zion are weighed against pure gold; how they are counted as earthen vessels, the work of a potter's hand! <sup>3</sup>Even the jackals draw out the breast; they suckle their young ones. The daughter of my people is cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness. <sup>4</sup>The suckling's tongue cleaves to his palate in thirst; the young children ask bread; there is no breaking to them. <sup>5</sup>Those who ate delicacies are desolate in the streets; those reared in scarlet embrace dunghills.

<sup>6</sup>And the iniquity of the daughter of my people is heaped more than the sin of Sodom, overthrown as in a moment, and no hands spun on her. <sup>7</sup>Her Nazarites were purer than snow, whiter than milk; they were redder of bone than corals; their cuttings as lapis lazuli, azure blue. <sup>8</sup>Their appearance is blacker than soot; they are not recognized in the streets; their skin has shriveled on their bones; it is dried up; it has become like wood. <sup>9</sup>Better are the ones slain by the sword than the ones slain by hunger; those who pine away, pierced because the fruits of my fields failed. <sup>10</sup>The hands of the pitying women have boiled their own children; they became their food in the ruin of the daughter of my people. <sup>11</sup>The LORD has fulfilled His fury; He has poured out His fierce anger, and has kindled a fire in Zion, and it has devoured its foundations.

<sup>12</sup>The kings of the earth, and all the people of the world, would not have believed that the foe and the hater would go into Jerusalem's gates. <sup>13</sup>For the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests, shedding the blood of the just in her midst, <sup>14</sup>they reeled blind in the streets; they are defiled with blood, so that not any can touch their clothes.

<sup>15</sup>They cried to them, Depart! Unclean! Depart, depart! Touch not! Indeed they fled and reeled; they said among the nations, They will not continue to live there. <sup>16</sup>The face of the LORD has shared them out; He will no longer look on them; they did not respect the persons of the priests; they did not favor the elders.

<sup>17</sup>While we are, our eyes fail, for our help is vain; in our watching we have watched for a nation; it does not save.

<sup>18</sup>They hunted our steps from going in our streets; our end was near, our days were fulfilled, for our end has come. <sup>19</sup>Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles of the heavens; they pursued us on the mountains, they lay in wait for us in the wilderness. <sup>20</sup>The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD, was taken in their pits; of whom we said, In his shadow we shall live among the nations.

<sup>21</sup>Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, who lives in the land of Uz. The cup also shall pass through unto you; you shall be drunken and shall make yourself naked.

<sup>22</sup>The punishment of your iniquity is fulfilled, O daughter of Zion; He will exile you no more. He will visit your iniquity, O daughter of Edom; He will expose your sins.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>Remember, O LORD, what has been to us; look down and see our shame. <sup>2</sup>Our inheritance has turned to aliens, our houses to foreigners. <sup>3</sup>We are orphans and fatherless; our mothers are as widows. <sup>4</sup>We have drunk our water for silver; our wood comes for a price. <sup>5</sup>We are pursued on our necks; we grow weary; rest is not given to us. <sup>6</sup>We have given the hand to Egypt, to Assyria, to be satisfied with bread. <sup>7</sup>Our fathers have sinned and are gone; we have borne their iniquities. <sup>8</sup>Servants rule over us; there is no rescuer out of their hand. <sup>9</sup>We bring in our bread with our souls, because of the sword of the wilderness. <sup>10</sup>Our skin is hot like an oven because of the fever heat of famine. <sup>11</sup>They raped the women in Zion, virgins in the cities of Judah. <sup>12</sup>Rulers were hanged by the hand; the faces of elders were not honored. <sup>13</sup>They took the young men to grind, and the youths stumbled at the wood. <sup>14</sup>The elders have ceased from the gate, the young men from their music. <sup>15</sup>The joy of our heart has ceased; our dance has turned into mourning. <sup>16</sup>The crown has fallen from our head. Woe now to us! For we have sinned. <sup>17</sup>Our heart is faint for this; our eyes are dim for these things. <sup>18</sup>On the mountain of Zion which is laid waste, the foxes walk on it.

<sup>19</sup>You, O LORD, remain forever; Your throne to generation and generation. <sup>20</sup>Why do You forget us forever and forsake us the length of days? <sup>21</sup>Return us to You, O LORD, and we will turn; renew our days as of old, <sup>22</sup>unless You have utterly rejected us; You are very angry against us.

THE BOOK OF EZEKIEL

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>And it happened in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth of the month, as I was among the captives by the river Chebar, the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God. <sup>2</sup>On the fifth of the month, the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity, <sup>3</sup>the word of the LORD coming became the word of the LORD to Ezekiel, the son of Buzi, the priest in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar. And the hand of the LORD was on him there.

<sup>4</sup>And I looked, and behold, a windstorm came out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire flashing itself, and a brightness to it all around, and out of its midst, like the color of polished bronze out of the middle of the fire. <sup>5</sup>Also out of its midst came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was how they looked; they had the likeness of a man. <sup>6</sup>And four faces were to each, and four wings to each. <sup>7</sup>And their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot. And they sparkled like the color of burnished copper. <sup>8</sup>And the hands of a man extended from under their wings on their four sides; and the four of them had their faces and their wings, <sup>9</sup>joining each one to the other by their wings. They did not turn in their going; each one went toward the front of their face. <sup>10</sup>And the likeness of their faces: the face of a man, and the face of a lion, on the right side to the four of them; and the the face of an ox on the left side to the four of them; and the face of an eagle to the four of them. <sup>11</sup>So their faces were. And their wings were stretched upward; to each, the two wings of each one were joined; and two wings covered their bodies. <sup>12</sup>And each went toward the front of their faces. To where the spirit was to go, there they went; they did not turn in their going. <sup>13</sup>And the likeness of the living creatures: they looked like burning coals of fire; like the appearance of torches. It was continually circling among the living creatures. And the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. <sup>14</sup>And the living creatures kept running and returning, like the appearance of a flash of lightning.

<sup>15</sup>And as I looked at the living creatures, behold, one wheel was on the earth by the living creatures, with its four faces. <sup>16</sup>The appearance of the wheels and their workmanship was the color of beryl, and the four of them had one likeness. And their appearance and their workmanship was like a wheel in the middle of a wheel. <sup>17</sup>When they went, they went on their four sides; and they did not turn when they went. <sup>18</sup>And their rims: they were even high; they were even awesome. And their rims were full of eyes all around the four of them. <sup>19</sup>And in the going of the living creatures, the wheels went beside them; and in the lifting up of the living creatures from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. <sup>20</sup>Wherever the spirit was to go, there they went; there the spirit was to go, and the wheels were lifted up along with them. For the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. <sup>21</sup>In their going, these went; and in their standing still, these stood still. And in their lifting up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up along with them. For the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

<sup>22</sup>And there was a likeness over the heads of the living creature; an expanse, like the color of awesome crystal stretched out over their heads from above. <sup>23</sup>And under the expanse their wings were straight, the one toward the other. Each one had two wings covering on this side, and to each two covering on that side of their bodies. <sup>24</sup>And I heard the sound of their wings, like the sound of great waters, like the voice of the Almighty, in their going was the sound of tumult, like the sound of an army. In their standing still, they let down their wings.

<sup>25</sup>And there was a voice from the expanse which was over their heads, in their standing still, and they let down their wings. <sup>26</sup>And from above the expanse that was over their heads was a likeness like a sapphire stone, the likeness of a throne. And on the likeness of the throne was a likeness looking like a man on it from above. <sup>27</sup>And I saw Him looking like the color of polished bronze, looking like fire all around within it. From the likeness of His loins even upward, and from the likeness of His loins even downward, I saw Him, looking like fire, and it had brightness all around. <sup>28</sup>As the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain looks, so the brightness all around looked. This was how the likeness of the glory of the LORD looked. And I saw. And I fell on my face, and I heard a voice of One speaking.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And He said to me, Son of man, stand on your feet, and I will speak to you. <sup>2</sup>And the Spirit entered into me when He spoke to me, and set me on my feet, so that I heard Him who spoke to me. <sup>3</sup>And He said to me, Son of man, I am sending you to the sons of Israel, to the nations, the rebelling ones who have rebelled against Me; they and their fathers have sinned against Me, to this day. <sup>4</sup>And the sons are stiff of face, and hard of heart. I am sending you to them; and you shall say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>5</sup>And they, whether they will hear or whether they will forbear — for they are a rebellious house — yea, they shall know that there has been a prophet among them.

<sup>6</sup>And you, son of man, do not be afraid of them, and of their words, though briars and thorns are with you, and you dwell among scorpions. Do not be afraid of their words, nor frightened by their faces, though they are a rebellious house. <sup>7</sup>And you shall speak My words to them, whether they will hear or whether they will forbear, for they are rebellious.

<sup>8</sup>But you, son of man, hear what I am saying to you. Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house. Open your mouth and eat what I am giving you. <sup>9</sup>And I looked, and behold! A hand was extended to me; and lo, a roll of a book was in it. <sup>10</sup>And He spread it before me; and it was written on the face and the back. And written on it were weepings, and mourning, and woe.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And He said to me, Son of man, eat what you find. Eat this roll, and go speak to the house of Israel. <sup>2</sup>So I opened my mouth, and He caused me to eat that roll. <sup>3</sup>And He said to me, Son of man, cause your belly to eat, and fill your belly with this roll that I give you. Then I ate it; and in my mouth it was like honey for sweetness. <sup>4</sup>And He said to me, Son of man, go! Go up to the house of Israel and speak to them with My words. <sup>5</sup>For you are not sent to a people of a deep lip and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel; <sup>6</sup>not to many people of a deep lip and of a hard language, whose words you cannot hear. Surely, if I had sent you to them, they would have listened to you. <sup>7</sup>But the house of Israel will not listen to you, for they will not listen to Me; for all the house of Israel are strong of forehead and hard of heart. <sup>8</sup>Behold, I have made your face strong against their faces and your forehead strong against their foreheads. <sup>9</sup>I have made your forehead as an adamant harder than flint. Do not be bowed down by their faces, though they are a rebellious house. <sup>10</sup>And He said to me, Son of man, receive all My words which I shall speak to you in your heart, and hear with your ears. <sup>11</sup>And go! Go to those of the captivity, to the sons of your people, and speak to them, and tell them, So says the Lord God; whether they will hear or whether they will forbear. <sup>12</sup>And the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me a sound of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of the LORD from His place. <sup>13</sup>I also heard the sound of the wings of the living creatures touching one another, and the sound of the wheels along with them, and a sound of a great rushing. <sup>14</sup>So the Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the LORD was strong on me.

<sup>15</sup>Then I came to the exiles at Tel-at-abib, who lived by the river Chebar. And I sat where they sat; and I also dwelt seven days, being stricken dumb among them. <sup>16</sup>And it happened at the end of seven days the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>17</sup>Son of man, I have made you a watchman to the house of Israel. Therefore hear the word of My mouth, and give them warning from Me. <sup>18</sup>When I say to the wicked, You shall surely die; and you do not give him warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked one shall die in his iniquity; but I will require his blood at your hand. <sup>19</sup>Yet if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul. <sup>20</sup>And when the righteous turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and when I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall die. Because you have not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he has done shall not be remembered; but his blood I will require at your hand. <sup>21</sup>But if you warn the righteous so that the righteous does not sin, and if he does not sin, he shall surely live because he is warned; also you have delivered your soul.

<sup>22</sup>And the hand of the LORD was on me there. And He said to me, Arise, go out into the plain, and I will talk with you there. <sup>23</sup>Then I arose and went out into the plain; and, behold, the glory of the LORD stood there, like the glory which I saw by the river Chebar. And I fell on my face. <sup>24</sup>And the Spirit entered into me and set me on my feet; and spoke with me, and said to me, Go, shut yourself inside your house! <sup>25</sup>But you, O son of man, behold, they shall put bands on you and shall bind you with them, and you shall not go out among them. <sup>26</sup>And I will make your tongue cling to the roof of your mouth, so that you shall be dumb and shall not be one who warns them. For they are a rebellious house. <sup>27</sup>But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall say to them, So says the Lord God: He who hears, let him hear; and he who stops his ears, let him stop; for they are a rebellious house.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>And you, son of man, take a tile to yourself, and lay it before you, and portray on it the city Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mound against it. Also set the camp against it, and set battering rams against it all around. <sup>3</sup>And take an iron griddle to yourself, and set it for a wall of iron between you and the city. And set your face against it, and it shall be under attack. And you shall set a battle against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel. <sup>4</sup>Also lie on your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel on it; according to the number of days that you shall lie on it, you shall bear their iniquity. <sup>5</sup>For I have laid on you the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days. So you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Israel. <sup>6</sup>And when you have fulfilled them, lie again on your right side, and you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days; a day for a year; a day for a year, I have set for you. <sup>7</sup>And you shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and your arm shall be uncovered, and you shall prophesy against it. <sup>8</sup>And, behold, I will lay bands on you, and you shall not turn yourself from one side to another until you have ended the days of your siege. <sup>9</sup>Take also to yourself wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentils, and millet, and spelt, and put them in one vessel, and make bread of them for yourself. According to the number of the days that you shall lie on your side, three hundred and ninety days, you shall eat of it. <sup>10</sup>And your food which you shall eat shall be by weight twenty shekels a day; from time to time you shall eat it. <sup>11</sup>You shall also drink water by measure, the sixth part of a hin. From time to time you shall drink. <sup>12</sup>And you shall eat it as barley cakes, and you shall bake it with dung that comes out of man, in their sight. <sup>13</sup>And the LORD said, Even so shall the sons of Israel eat their defiled bread among the nations, where I will drive them. <sup>14</sup>Then I said, Ah Lord God! Behold, my soul has not been defiled. For from my youth up, even till now, I have not eaten of that which dies of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither did there come any unclean flesh into my mouth. <sup>15</sup>Then He said to me, Lo, I have given you cow's dung for man's dung, and you shall prepare your bread with it. <sup>16</sup>And He said to me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem. And they shall eat bread by weight, and with care. And they shall drink water by measure, and in silence, <sup>17</sup>so that they may lack bread and water, and be stricken dumb with one another, and waste away in their iniquity.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>And you, son of man, take a sharp sword to yourself, take a barber's razor also, and cause it to pass on your head and on your beard. Then take scales to weigh, and divide the hair. <sup>2</sup>You shall burn a third part with fire in the middle of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled; and you shall take a third part and beat around it with a sword; and you shall scatter a third part in the wind, and I will draw out a sword after them. <sup>3</sup>Also you shall take a few of them in number, and tie them up in your skirts. <sup>4</sup>Then take of them again, and throw them into the middle of the fire, and burn them in the fire; for a fire shall come forth from them into all the house of Israel.

<sup>5</sup>So says the Lord God: This is Jerusalem. I have set it in the middle of the nations, and all around her are the lands. <sup>6</sup>And she has changed My judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and defiled My laws more than the countries that are all around her; for they have rejected My judgments and My laws; they have not walked in them. <sup>7</sup>Therefore so says the Lord God: Because you multiplied more than the nations that are all around you, and have not walked in My laws, neither have kept My judgments, nor have done according to the judgments of the nations all around you; <sup>8</sup>therefore so says the Lord God; Behold, I, even I, am against you, and will carry out judgments in your midst before the nations. <sup>9</sup>And I will do in you that which I have not done, and the like of which I will never do again, because of all your abominations. <sup>10</sup>So the fathers shall eat the sons in your midst, and the sons shall eat their fathers. And I will execute judgments in you, and I will scatter the whole remnant of you into all the winds. <sup>11</sup>Therefore, as I live, says the Lord Jehovah, surely, because you have defiled My sanctuary with all your detestable things, and with all your abominations, therefore I will also withdraw; nor shall My eye spare you, nor will I have any pity.

<sup>12</sup>A third part of you shall die with the plague, and shall be consumed with the famine in your midst. And a third part shall fall by the sword all around you; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after them. <sup>13</sup>So My anger shall be fulfilled, and I will cause My fury to rest on them, and I will be comforted. And they shall know that I the LORD have spoken it in My zeal, when I have fulfilled My fury in them. <sup>14</sup>And I will make you a waste and a curse among the nations that are all around you, in the sight of all who pass by. <sup>15</sup>So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an example and a wonder to the nations which are all around you, when I shall execute judgments against you in anger and in fury and in rebukes. among them. I the LORD have spoken it. <sup>16</sup>When I shall send on them the evil arrows of famine, which shall be for their ruin, which I will send to destroy you; even I will increase the famine on you, and break your staff of bread; <sup>17</sup>yea, I will send on you famine and evil beasts, and you will be bereaved. And pestilence and blood shall pass among you; and I shall bring a sword on you. I the LORD have spoken.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel and prophesy against them. <sup>3</sup>And say, Mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God. So says the Lord Jehovah to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers and to the valleys: Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword on you, and I will destroy your high places. <sup>4</sup>And your altars shall be wasted, and your pillars shall be broken. And I will make fall your slain before your idols. <sup>5</sup>And I will put the dead bodies of the sons of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones around your altars. <sup>6</sup>In all the places where you live, cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be deserted; so that your altars may be laid waste and become guilty, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your pillars may be cut down, and your works wiped out. <sup>7</sup>And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and you shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>Yet I will leave a reminder that may be left to you some who escape the sword among the nations, when you are scattered through the lands. <sup>9</sup>And those of you who escape shall remember Me among the nations where they shall be made captives, because I was broken by their whoring heart which has departed from Me, and with their whoring eyes which go after their idols. And they shall despise themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. <sup>10</sup>And they shall know that I am the LORD, and that I have not said in vain to do this evil to them.

<sup>11</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: Strike with your hand and stamp with your foot, and say, Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! For they shall fall by the sword, and by the famine, and by the plague. <sup>12</sup>He who is afar off shall die of the plague; and he who is near shall fall by the sword; and he who remains and is under siege shall die by the famine. So I will fulfill My fury on them. <sup>13</sup>Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when their dead shall be among their idols all around their altars, on every high hill, in all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every leafy oak, the place where they offered sweet aroma to all their idols. <sup>14</sup>And I will stretch out My hand on them and make the land a waste, even more desolate than the wilderness toward Diblath, in all the places where they live; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>And it happened, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>And you, son of man, so says the Lord Jehovah to the land of Israel: An end! The end has come on the four corners of the land. <sup>3</sup>And the end has come on you, and I will send My anger on you and will judge you according to your ways, and will lay on you all your abominations. <sup>4</sup>And My eye shall not spare you, neither will I have pity. But I will repay your ways on you, and your abominations shall be in your midst; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: An evil: Behold, an only evil has come! <sup>6</sup>An end has come, the end has come. It awakes against you; behold, it has come. <sup>7</sup>The encirclement has come to you, O dwellers of the land. The time has come, the day of tumult is near, and not a shout of the mountains. <sup>8</sup>And I will soon pour out My fury on you, and fulfill My anger on you. And I will judge you according to your ways, and will repay you for all your abominations. <sup>9</sup>And My eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; I will repay you according to your ways and your abominations that are in your midst. And you shall know that I am the LORD who strikes.

<sup>10</sup>Behold the day! Behold, it has come; the encirclement has gone out; the rod has blossomed; pride has budded. <sup>11</sup>Violence has risen up for a rod of wickedness. None of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of any of their riches; nor shall there be weeping for them. <sup>12</sup>The time has come; the day has arrived. Let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn; for wrath is on all her multitude. <sup>13</sup>For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they are still alive; for the vision is to all her multitude, and a man shall not return to his iniquity; his life shall not hold strong. <sup>14</sup>They have blown the trumpet, even to make all ready; but none goes to the battle, for My wrath is on all her multitude. <sup>15</sup>The sword is outside, and the plague and the famine inside. He who is in the field shall die with the sword; and he in the city shall be devoured by famine and plague.

<sup>16</sup>But if their fugitives shall escape, then they shall be like doves of the valleys on the mountains, all of them mourning, each one for his iniquity. <sup>17</sup>All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water. <sup>18</sup>They shall also gird on sackcloth, and trembling shall cover them; and shame shall be on all faces, and baldness on all heads. <sup>19</sup>They shall throw their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be an impure thing. Their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD. They shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels; because their iniquity has become a stumbling-block for them. <sup>20</sup>And the beauty of His ornament, He set it in majesty. But they made the images of their abominations and of their hateful things in it; therefore I have put it to them as an impure thing. <sup>21</sup>And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prize, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall defile it. <sup>22</sup>I will also turn My face from them, and they shall defile My secret place; and violent ones shall enter into it and defile it.

<sup>23</sup>Make a chain; for the land is full of bloody judgments, and the city is full of violence. <sup>24</sup>And I will bring the evil of the nations, and they shall possess their houses. I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease; and their holy places shall be defiled. <sup>25</sup>Ruin comes; and they shall seek peace, but none shall be. <sup>26</sup>Disaster on disaster shall come, and rumor to rumor shall be. And they shall seek a vision from the prophet; but the law shall perish from the priest, and wisdom from the elders. <sup>27</sup>The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with despair, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled. I will do to them according to their way, and according to their judgments I will judge them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>And it was in the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth of the month, I was sitting in my house, and the elders of Judah were sitting before me. And the hand of the Lord Jehovah fell on me there. <sup>2</sup>And I looked, and behold! A likeness as the look of fire; from the appearance of His loins and downward, like fire. And from his loins and upward as the look of brightness, like the color of polished bronze. <sup>3</sup>And He put out the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head. And the Spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heavens, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the opening of the inner gate facing north, where there was a seat of the image of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy. <sup>4</sup>And, behold! The glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain.

<sup>5</sup>And He said to me, Son of man, lift up your eyes now to the way of the north. So I lifted up my eyes the way toward the north, and behold, northward at the gate of the altar the image of jealousy was at the entrance. <sup>6</sup>And He said to me, Son of man, do you see what they do; even the great abominations which the house of Israel is doing here, that I should go far off from My sanctuary? But turn again, and you shall see greater abominations. <sup>7</sup>And He brought me to the opening of the court; and I looked, and behold, a hole in the wall. <sup>8</sup>And He said to me, Son of man, dig in the wall now. And I dug in the wall, and, behold, an opening. <sup>9</sup>And he said to me. Go in and see the evil abominations that they do here. <sup>10</sup>And I went in and saw. And behold, every kind of creeping thing, and hateful beast, and all the idols of the house of Israel, were carved on the wall all around. <sup>11</sup>And seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel, and Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, standing among them, these were before them, and each man with his censor in his hand. And the odor of the cloud of incense was rising. <sup>12</sup>And He said to me, Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, each man in his image room? For they are saying, The LORD does not see us; the LORD has forsaken the earth.

<sup>13</sup>He also said to me, You turn again, and you shall see greater evils that they are doing. <sup>14</sup>And He brought me to the opening of the gate of the LORD's house, toward the north. And behold, women were sitting there, weeping for Tammuz. <sup>15</sup>And He said to me, Have you seen, O son of man? Turn yet again, and you shall see greater evils than these. <sup>16</sup>And He brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house, and behold, at the opening of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men with their backs toward the temple of the LORD and their faces toward the east; and they bowed themselves eastward to the sun. <sup>17</sup>And He said to me, Have you seen, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they do the hateful things which they do here? For they have filled the land with violence and have turned to provoke Me to anger. And lo, they put the branch to their nose. <sup>18</sup>And I will also deal with fury; My eye shall not spare, nor will I have pity. And though they cry in My ears with a loud voice, I will not hear them.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>And He cried in my ears with a loud voice, saying, Let the overseers of the city draw near, even each with his destroying weapon in his hand. <sup>2</sup>And behold, six men came from the way of the Upper Gate which faces north, and each had his shattering weapon in his hand. And one man among them was clothed with linen, and a writer's inkhorn by his side. And they went in and stood beside the bronze altar. <sup>3</sup>And the glory of the God of Israel had gone on from the cherub, where it was on it, to the threshold of the house. And He called to the man clothed in linen, with the writer's inkhorn by his side. <sup>4</sup>And the LORD said to him, Go through in the midst of the city, in the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark on the foreheads of the men who are groaning and are mourning because of all the abominations that are done in her midst. <sup>5</sup>And He said to those in my hearing, Go over in the city after him, and strike. Let not your eye spare, nor have pity. <sup>6</sup>Fully destroy old men, young men and virgins, and little children and women. But do not come near any man on whom is the mark. And begin at My sanctuary. And they began at the old men who were before the house. <sup>7</sup>And He said to them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain. Go out! And they went out and killed in the city.

<sup>8</sup>And it happened as they were slaying them, and I remained, then I fell on my face and cried, and said, Ah Lord Jehovah! Will You destroy all the remnant of Israel in Your pouring out of Your fury on Jerusalem? <sup>9</sup>And He said to me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is great, and the land is full of blood, and the city is full of perversity. For they say, The LORD has forsaken the land; and, the LORD does not see. <sup>10</sup>And even I, My eye shall not spare, nor will I have pity, but I will put their way on their head. <sup>11</sup>And behold, the man clothed with linen, with the inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, I have done as You have commanded me.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>And I looked, and behold! In the expanse over the head of the cherubs appeared the look of the form of a throne, like a sapphire stone, above them. <sup>2</sup>And He spoke to the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in among the wheels, under the cherub, and fill your hands with coals of fire from between the cherubs, and scatter them on the city. And he went in before me. <sup>3</sup>And the cherubs were standing on the right side of the house when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court. <sup>4</sup>And the glory of the LORD rose from the cherub, over the threshold of the house. And the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's glory. <sup>5</sup>And the sound of the cherubs' wings was heard over the outer court, as the voice of the Almighty God when He speaks. <sup>6</sup>And it happened when He had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubs; he went in then and stood beside the wheels. <sup>7</sup>And a cherub stretched out his hand from between the cherubs to the fire that was between the cherubs, and he lifted it and put it into the hands of the one clothed with linen. And he took it and went out.

<sup>8</sup>And the form of a man's hand was seen under the wings of the cherubs. <sup>9</sup>And I looked, and behold, the four wheels were beside the cherubs, one wheel was by one cherub, and another wheel by one cherub; and the wheels looked like the color of a stone of Tarshish. <sup>10</sup>And their appearance was as one, the four of them, as if the wheel were in the midst of the wheel. <sup>11</sup>When they went, they went on their four sides. They did not turn as they went, for to the place where the head faces, after it they went. They did not turn as they went. <sup>12</sup>And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels were full of eyes all around, even their wheels that the four of them had. <sup>13</sup>As for the wheels, it was cried to them in my hearing, Whirling wheel! <sup>14</sup>And four faces were to each one. The first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle. <sup>15</sup>And the cherubs rose up. This is the living creature that I saw by the river of Chebar.

<sup>16</sup>And when the cherubs went, the wheels went beside them; and when the cherubs lifted their wings to soar from the earth, the wheels did not turn from beside them, even they. <sup>17</sup>When they stood still, these stood still, and when they rose up, these lifted up. For the spirit of the living creature was in them. <sup>18</sup>And the glory of the LORD went from the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubs. <sup>19</sup>And the cherubs lifted up their wings and rose up from the earth in my sight. When they went out, the wheels also were beside them. And he stood at the door of the eastern gate of the LORD's house. And the glory of the God of Israel was over them from above. <sup>20</sup>This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river Chebar, and I knew that they were cherubs. <sup>21</sup>Four, even four faces are to each; and four wings to each. And the form of a man's hands was under their wings. <sup>22</sup>And the form of their faces, they are the faces that I saw by the river Chebar, their appearances even theirs. They each went straight forward.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>And the Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the eastern gate of the LORD's house, which faces eastward. And behold, twenty-five men were at the opening of the gate; among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, rulers of the people. <sup>2</sup>And He said to me, Son of man, these are the men who plot evil and give wicked advice in this city; <sup>3</sup>who say, It is not near; let us build houses; this city is the pot, and we are the flesh.

<sup>4</sup>Therefore prophesy against them. Prophesy, O son of man! <sup>5</sup>And the Spirit of the LORD fell on me, and said to me, Speak: So says the LORD: So you have said, O house of Israel. For I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them. <sup>6</sup>You have multiplied your dead in this city, and you have filled its streets with the dead. <sup>7</sup>Therefore so says the Lord Jehovah: Your slain whom you have laid in her midst, they are the flesh, and this city is the pot. But I will bring you out of her midst. <sup>8</sup>You have feared the sword, and I will bring a sword on you, says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>9</sup>And I will bring you out of her midst, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments on you. <sup>10</sup>You shall fall by the sword. I will judge you in the border of Israel, and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>11</sup>This city shall not be your pot, nor shall you be the flesh in her midst. But I will judge you in the border of Israel, <sup>12</sup>and you shall know that I am the LORD. For you have not walked in My statutes, nor have you done My judgments, but have done after the customs of the nations all around you.

<sup>13</sup>And it happened when I prophesied, Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. And I fell on my face and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord Jehovah! Will you make a full end of the remnant of Israel? <sup>14</sup>Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>15</sup>Son of man, your brothers, even your brothers, the men of your redemption, and all the house of Israel, of all that have heard the inhabitants of Jerusalem saying to all of them, Go far away from Jehovah; this land is given to us for a possession. <sup>16</sup>Therefore say, So says the Lord Jehovah: Though I have sent them far off among the nations, and though I scattered them among the lands, yet I will be to them as a little sanctuary in the lands where they had gone. <sup>17</sup>Therefore say, So says the Lord Jehovah: I will even gather you from the people and assemble you out of the lands, in those where you were scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel. <sup>18</sup>And they shall come there, and they shall take away all its hateful things and all its abominations from it. <sup>19</sup>And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you. And I will remove the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh, <sup>20</sup>so that they may walk in My statutes and keep My ordinances, and do them. And they shall be My people, and I will be their God. <sup>21</sup>And as to those whose heart is going after their hateful things, and their heart is going after their disgusting idols, I will give their way on their own heads, says the Lord Jehovah.

<sup>22</sup>And the cherubs lifted up their wings, and the wheels beside them. And the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. <sup>23</sup>And the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city and stood on the mountain which is on the east side of the city. <sup>24</sup>And the Spirit lifted me up and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to the exiles. And the vision that I had seen went up from me. <sup>25</sup>And I spoke to the exiles all the things that the LORD had shown me.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>Son of man, you dwell in the midst of a rebellious house, who have eyes to see and see not. They have ears to hear and hear not, for they are a rebellious house. <sup>3</sup>Therefore, son of man, prepare for yourself vessels for exile, and go into exile by day before their eyes. And you shall be exiled from your place to another place before their eyes. It may be they will consider, though they are a rebellious house. <sup>4</sup>And you shall bring out your vessels, as vessels for exile, by day before their eyes. And you shall go out at evening before their eyes, as those going into exile. <sup>5</sup>Dig through the wall before their eyes, and carry out through it. <sup>6</sup>Before their eyes you shall carry it on your shoulders, and carry it out in the dark. You shall cover your face so that you do not see the ground, for I have set you as a sign to the house of Israel. <sup>7</sup>And I did as I was commanded. I brought out my vessel, as vessels for exile. And in the evening I dug through the wall with my hand. I brought it out in the dark, and I carried it on my shoulder before their eyes.

<sup>8</sup>And in the morning the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>9</sup>Son of man, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, What are you doing? <sup>10</sup>Say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah: This burden concerns the king in Jerusalem and all the house of Israel who are among them. <sup>11</sup>Say, I am your sign: As I have done, so it shall be done to them. They shall go into exile. <sup>12</sup>And the king who is among them shall carry burdens on his shoulder in the dark, and shall go out. They shall dig through the wall to carry out by it. He shall hide his face so that he does not see the ground with his eyes. <sup>13</sup>I will also spread My net on him, and He shall be taken in My snare. And I will bring him to Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans. Yet he shall not see it, though he shall die there. <sup>14</sup>And I will scatter to every wind all who are around him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them. <sup>15</sup>And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall scatter them among the nations and scatter them in the countries. <sup>16</sup>But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the plague, so that they may declare all their abominations among the nations where they come. And they shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>18</sup>Son of man, eat your bread with quaking and drink your water with trembling and anxiety. <sup>19</sup>And say to the people of the land: So says the Lord Jehovah of the people of Jerusalem and of the land of Israel: They shall eat their bread with anxiety and drink their water with horror, so that her land may be desolated of her fullness, because of the violence of all those who dwell in it. <sup>20</sup>And the cities that have people shall be laid waste, and the land shall be desolate. And you shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>21</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>22</sup>Son of man, what is this proverb that you have in the land of Israel, saying, The days will go on and every vision shall fail? <sup>23</sup>Therefore tell them, So says the Lord Jehovah: I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel. But say to them, The days are at hand, and the fulfillment of every vision. <sup>24</sup>For there shall never again be any vain vision nor slippery divination within the house of Israel. <sup>25</sup>For I, the LORD, will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall be done. It shall no more be delayed; for in your days, O rebellious house, I will say the word and will do it, says the Lord Jehovah.

<sup>26</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>27</sup>Son of man, behold, the house of Israel says, The vision that he sees is for many days to come, and he prophesies of the times that are far off. <sup>28</sup>Therefore say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah: There shall none of my words be delayed any more, but the word which I have spoken shall be done, says the Lord Jehovah.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophesy. And say to those who prophesy out of their own hearts, Hear the word of the Lord: <sup>3</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah, Woe to the foolish prophets who follow their own spirit and have seen nothing! <sup>4</sup>O Israel, your prophets are like the foxes in the deserts. <sup>5</sup>You have not gone up into the breaks, nor built the wall for the house of Israel, that it might stand in the battle in the day of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>They have seen vanity and lying divination, saying, The LORD says. And the LORD has not sent them; but they hoped to confirm their word. <sup>7</sup>Did you not see a vain vision, and speak a lying divination? Yet you say, The LORD says; although I have not spoken? <sup>8</sup>Therefore so says the Lord Jehovah: Because you have spoken vanity and seen a lie, therefore, behold, I am against you, says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>9</sup>And My hand shall be against the prophets who see vanity and who divine a lie. They shall not be in the council of My people, nor shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, nor shall they enter into the land of Israel. And you shall know that I am the Lord Jehovah.

<sup>10</sup>Because, even because they made My people go astray, saying, Peace; and there was no peace; and he builds a wall, and lo, others daubed it with lime. <sup>11</sup>Say to those who daub it with lime, yes, it shall fall; there will be a flooding rain; and you, O hailstones, shall fall, and a stormy wind will break. <sup>12</sup>And, behold, when the wall has fallen, shall it not be said to you, Where is the daubing with which you have daubed? <sup>13</sup>Therefore so says the Lord Jehovah: I will even break it with a stormy wind in My fury. And there shall be an flooding rain in My anger, and hailstones in fury to destroy it. <sup>14</sup>And I will break down the wall that you have daubed with lime, and touch it to the ground; yea, I will bare its base. And it shall fall, and you shall be destroyed in her midst; and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>15</sup>And I will fulfill My wrath on the wall and on those who daubed it with lime. And I will say to you, The wall is no more; and, Those who daubed are no more; <sup>16</sup>the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, says the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>And you, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own heart. And prophesy against them, <sup>18</sup>and say, So says the Lord Jehovah: Woe to those sewing bands to all joints of my hands, and make long veils for the head of every man of stature, to hunt souls! Will you hunt the souls of My people, and will you save alive the souls for yourselves? <sup>19</sup>And will you profane Me among My people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to kill the souls that should not die; and to save alive the souls that should not live, by your lying to My people who listen to lies. <sup>20</sup>Therefore so says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I am against your bands with which you are hunting the souls there, to make them fly. And I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, the souls which you are hunting, to make them fly. <sup>21</sup>Also I will tear your long veils and deliver My people out of your hand, and they shall no more be in your hand to be hunted. And you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>22</sup>Because with lies you have saddened the heart of the righteous, whom I have not made sad; and have made the hands of the wicked strong, so that he should not turn from his wicked way, by promising him life; <sup>23</sup>therefore you shall not see vanity, and you shall not divine any divination. and I will deliver My people out of your hands; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>6</sup>Therefore say to the house of Israel, So says the Lord Jehovah: Repent and turn from your idols, and turn away your faces from all your abominations. <sup>7</sup>For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger who lives in Israel, who separates himself from Me and sets up his idols in his heart, and puts the stumbling-block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to a prophet to ask of him concerning Me; I the LORD will answer him Myself. <sup>8</sup>And I will set My face against that man, and I will make him desolate for a sign and for proverbs. And I will cut him off from the midst of My people; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>And the prophet, if he is deceived, and he speaks a word, I the LORD have deceived that prophet. And I will stretch out My hand on him and will destroy him in the midst of My people Israel. <sup>10</sup>And they shall bear their iniquity. As the iniquity of the inquirer, so the iniquity of the prophet shall be. <sup>11</sup>So that the house of Israel may never again go astray from Me, nor be defiled again with all their transgressions, but they are to Me My people, and I will be to them for God, says the Lord Jehovah.

<sup>12</sup>The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, <sup>13</sup>Son of man, when a land sins against Me by traitorous betraying, then I will stretch out My hand on it, and will break the staff of its bread, and will send famine on it, and will cut off man and beast from it. <sup>14</sup>And though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver only their own souls by their righteousness, says the Lord Jehovah.

<sup>15</sup>If I cause destroying beasts to come through the land, and they spoil it so that it is deserted, so that no one may pass through because of the beasts, <sup>16</sup>though these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord Jehovah, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters. They only shall be delivered, but the land shall be deserted.

<sup>17</sup>Or if I bring a sword on that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off man and beast from it; <sup>18</sup>though these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord Jehovah, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only shall be delivered themselves.

<sup>19</sup>Or if I send a plague into that land, and pour out My fury on it in blood, to cut off man and beast from it; <sup>20</sup>though Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live, says the Lord Jehovah, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter. They shall only deliver their own souls by their righteousness.

<sup>21</sup>For so says the Lord Jehovah: How much more when I send My four evil judgments on Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the destroying beast, and the plague, to cut off man and beast from it. <sup>22</sup>Yet, behold, there shall be left a remnant in it that shall be brought out, sons and daughters. Behold, they shall come out to you, and you shall see their way and their doings. And you shall be comforted concerning the evil that I brought on Jerusalem, for all that I have brought on it. <sup>23</sup>And they shall comfort you when you see their way and their doings. And you shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it, says the Lord Jehovah.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>Son of man, how is the vine tree more than any other tree, or than a branch which is among the trees of the forest? <sup>3</sup>Shall wood be taken from it to do work? Or will men take from it for a peg to hang any vessel on it? <sup>4</sup>Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel. The fire devours both its ends, and its middle is charred. Is it fit for any work? <sup>5</sup>Behold, when it was whole, it was not made for work. How much less when the fire has devoured it, and it is charred? Shall it yet be made to work?

<sup>6</sup>Therefore so says the Lord Jehovah, As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so I will give the people of Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup>And I will set My face against them; they shall go out from the fire, and the fire shall devour them. And you shall know that I am the LORD when I set My face against them. <sup>8</sup>And I will make the land to be desolate, because they have committed a treacherous act, says the Lord Jehovah.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations. <sup>3</sup>And say, So says the Lord Jehovah to Jerusalem, Your origin and your birth is of the land of Canaan. Your father was an Amorite, and your mother a Hittite. <sup>4</sup>And as for your birth, in the day you were born your navel was not cut, nor were you washed with water to cleanse you. And you were not salted, nor swaddled at all. <sup>5</sup>No eye pitied you, to do any of these to you, to have compassion on you. But you were thrown out into the open field, because your life was despised in the day that you were born. <sup>6</sup>And when I passed by you and saw you squirming in your blood, I said to you in your blood, Live! Yes, I said to you in your blood, Live!

<sup>7</sup>I have caused you to multiply like the bud of the field, and you are grown, and you are great; and you come in the finest ornaments. Your breasts are formed, and hair is grown, yet you were naked and bare. <sup>8</sup>And I passed by you and looked on you, and, behold, your time was the time of love. And I spread my skirt over you and covered your nakedness. And I swore to you and entered into a covenant with you, says the Lord Jehovah. And you became Mine. <sup>9</sup>And I washed you with water; I washed away your blood from you, and I anointed you with oil. <sup>10</sup>I also clothed you with embroidered work, and I shod you with dugong sandals. And I wrapped you in fine linen, and I covered you with silk. <sup>11</sup>And I adorned you with ornaments, and I put bracelets on your hands and a chain on your neck. <sup>12</sup>And I put a ring on your nose, and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head. <sup>13</sup>And you were adorned with gold and silver; and your clothing was of fine linen and silk and embroidered work. You ate fine flour and honey and oil; and you were exceedingly beautiful. And you advanced to regal estate. <sup>14</sup>And your name went out among the nations, because of your beauty; for it was perfect in My beauty, which I had put on you, says the Lord Jehovah.

<sup>15</sup>But you trusted in your beauty, and played the harlot because of your name, and poured out your fornications on all who passed by; it was his. <sup>16</sup>And you took from your clothes and adorned your high places with different colors, and played the harlot on them, such as had not come, nor shall be. <sup>17</sup>And you have taken beautiful things of My gold and of My silver, which I had given you, and made images of males, and played the harlot with them. <sup>18</sup>And you took your embroidered dresses and covered them, and you have given to their face My oil and My incense. <sup>19</sup>Also My food which I gave you, fine flour and oil and honey with which I fed you, you have given it to their face for a soothing aroma. And it happened, says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>20</sup>And you have taken your sons and your daughters, whom you have borne to Me, and you gave these to them for food. Are your fornications small? <sup>21</sup>You have slaughtered My sons and gave them to cause these to pass through the fire for them.

<sup>22</sup>And in all your hateful deeds and your fornications you have not remembered the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, and squirming in your blood. <sup>23</sup>Woe, woe to you says the Lord Jehovah! For it happened after all your evil, <sup>24</sup>that you have also built yourself a mound, and you have made yourself a high place in every street. <sup>25</sup>You have built your high place at the head of every way, and have made your beauty to be despised, and have opened your feet to everyone who passed by, and have multiplied your fornications. <sup>26</sup>You have also whored with the Egyptians, your neighbors great of flesh, and have multiplied your fornications to provoke Me to anger. <sup>27</sup>And, behold, therefore I have stretched out My hand over you, and drew back your portion. And I gave you to the will of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your wicked way. <sup>28</sup>You have whored with the Assyrians, without your being satisfied; yea, you whored and yet you were not satisfied. <sup>29</sup>And your whoredom is idolatry in the land of Canaan, to the Chaldean, and yet you were not satisfied with this.

<sup>30</sup>How weak is your heart, says the Lord Jehovah, since you do all these, the work of a woman, an overbearing harlot; <sup>31</sup>in that you build your mound at the head of every way, and make your high place in every street. Yet you have not been as a harlot, scorning wages. <sup>32</sup>Like the adulterous wife — instead of her husband, she takes strangers — <sup>33</sup>They give a gift to all harlots, but you give your gifts to all your lovers, and bribe them to come to you from all around, for your fornication. <sup>34</sup>And in you was the opposite from those women in your fornications, since no one whores after you, and in your giving wages, and hire is not given to you. In this you are opposite.

<sup>35</sup>Therefore, O harlot, hear the word of the LORD. <sup>36</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: Because your lewdness was poured out and your nakedness was bared in your fornications with your lovers, and with all the idols of your abominations, and by the blood of your sons whom you gave to them; <sup>37</sup>behold, therefore I will gather all your lovers, with whom you have been pleased, even all whom you loved, with all whom you have hated; I will even gather them against you from all around, and will uncover your nakedness to them, and they will see all your nakedness. <sup>38</sup>And I will judge you with judgments of adulteresses, and with shedders of blood. And I will give you blood and fury and jealousy. <sup>39</sup>And I will also give you into their hand, and they will tear down your mound, and will demolish your high places. They shall also strip you of your clothes, and shall take your beautiful things, and leave you naked and bare. <sup>40</sup>They shall also raise a company against you, and they shall stone you with stones, and cut you with their swords. <sup>41</sup>And they shall burn your houses with fire, and execute judgments on you in the sight of many women. And I will make you stop whoring; and also, you shall not give hire again. <sup>42</sup>And I will make My fury to rest against you, and My jealousy shall depart from you, and I will be quiet and will be angry no more. <sup>43</sup>Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have troubled Me in all these things; so, behold, I will also repay your way on your head, says the Lord Jehovah. And you shall not commit this wickedness above all your abominations.

<sup>44</sup>Behold, all who use proverbs shall use this proverb against you, saying, As the mother, so is her daughter. <sup>45</sup>You are your mother's daughter, who despises her husband and her sons. And you are the sister of your sisters, who despise their husbands and their sons. Your mother was a Hittite, and your father was an Amorite. <sup>46</sup>And your older sister is Samaria, she and her daughters who dwell at your left hand. And your younger sister, who dwells at your right hand, is Sodom and her daughters. <sup>47</sup>Yet you have not walked according to their ways, nor done according to their hateful deeds; but, as if it were a very little thing, you were corrupted more than they were in all your ways. <sup>48</sup>As I live, says the Lord Jehovah, Sodom your sister, she nor her daughters, has not done as you have done, you and your daughters. <sup>49</sup>Behold, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom; pride.

Fullness of bread and abundance of idleness was in her and in her daughters. Nor did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. <sup>50</sup>And they were haughty and did abominable things before Me. So I took them away as I saw fit. <sup>51</sup>Nor has Samaria sinned as much as half your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and have justified your sisters in all your abominations which you have done. <sup>52</sup>You also, who have judged your sisters, bear your own shame for your sins which you have committed more abominable than they. They are more righteous than you! Yes, blush and bear your shame, since you have justified your sisters. <sup>53</sup>When I shall return their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then also the captivity of your captivity in their midst; <sup>54</sup>that you may bear your shame, and blush in all that you have done, since you are a comfort to them. <sup>55</sup>When your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former state, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former state, then you and your daughters shall return to your former state. <sup>56</sup>For your sister Sodom was not mentioned by your mouth in the day of your pride, <sup>57</sup>before your wickedness was uncovered, as at the time of your reproach of the daughters of Syria, and of all her neighbors, the daughters of the Philistines who hated you from all around. <sup>58</sup>You are bearing your wickedness and your abominations, says the LORD. <sup>59</sup>For so says the Lord Jehovah: I will even deal with you as you have done, who have despised the oath in breaking the covenant.

<sup>60</sup>But I will remember My covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish to you an everlasting covenant. <sup>61</sup>And you shall remember your ways and be ashamed, when you shall receive your sisters, your older and your younger. And I will give them to you for daughters, but not by your covenant. <sup>62</sup>And I will establish My covenant with you; and you shall know that I am the LORD; <sup>63</sup>so that you may remember and be ashamed; and never open your mouth any more because of your shame; in that I have received an atonement for all that you have done, says the Lord Jehovah.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>1</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>Son of man, put out a riddle and speak a parable to the house of Israel. <sup>3</sup>And say, So says the Lord Jehovah: A great eagle with great wings, long of pinion, full of feathers, who had different colors, came to Lebanon and took the highest branch of the cedar. <sup>4</sup>He plucked off the top of its young twigs and carried it into a land of traders. He set it in a city of merchants. <sup>5</sup>He also took of the seed of the land and planted it in a fruitful field. He placed it by great waters and set it as a willow tree. <sup>6</sup>And it grew and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him. And its roots were under him. So it became a vine and brought out branches and shot out sprigs. <sup>7</sup>There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers. And behold, this vine bent its roots toward him and shot out its branches toward him, that he might water it, away from the beds of its planting. <sup>8</sup>It was planted in a good soil by great waters, that it might bring out branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a splendid vine. <sup>9</sup>Say, So says the Lord Jehovah: Shall it prosper? Shall he not pull up its roots and cut off its fruit, and wither it? All the leaves of its sprouting shall wither, and not with great arm, nor by many people shall any raise it by its roots. <sup>10</sup>And behold, being planted, shall it prosper? Shall it not utterly wither when the east wind touches it? It shall wither in the beds where it sprouted.

<sup>11</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>12</sup>Say now to the rebellious house: Do you not know what these things mean? Tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon has come to Jerusalem and has taken its king and its rulers, and brings them to himself to Babylon. <sup>13</sup>And he has taken of the king's seed and has made a covenant with him, and has taken an oath from him. He has also taken the mighty of the land, <sup>14</sup>so that the kingdom might be low, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping his covenant it might stand. <sup>15</sup>But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and many people. Shall he be blessed? Shall he who does such things escape? Or shall he break the covenant and be delivered? <sup>16</sup>As I live, says the Lord Jehovah, surely in the place of the king who made him king, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die. <sup>17</sup>Nor shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company work for him in the war, by pouring out siege mounds and building forts, to cut off many persons. <sup>18</sup>And he has despised the oath by breaking the covenant. And, behold, he had given his hand, and has done all these, he shall not escape.

<sup>19</sup>Therefore so says the Lord Jehovah: As I live, surely My oath that he has despised, and My covenant that he has broken, I will even repay it on his own head. <sup>20</sup>And I will spread My net on him, and he shall be taken in My snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and I will judge him there with his sin which he has sinned against Me. <sup>21</sup>And all his fugitives with all his bands shall fall by the sword, and those who remain shall be scattered toward all winds. And you shall know that I the LORD have spoken.

<sup>22</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: I will also take of the highest branch of the highest cedar and will set it; I will crop off from the top of its young twigs a tender one, and will plant it on a high and lofty mountain. <sup>23</sup>In a mountain, in a high place of Israel, I will plant it. And it shall bear boughs, and bear fruit, and be a majestic cedar. And under it shall dwell every bird of every wing; in the shadow of its branches they shall dwell. <sup>24</sup>And all the trees of the field shall know that I the LORD have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish. I the LORD have spoken and acted.

CHAPTER 18

<sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, <sup>2</sup>What is it to you that you use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes and the sons's teeth are dull? <sup>3</sup>As I live, says the Lord Jehovah, to you there is no longer any occasion to use this proverb in Israel. <sup>4</sup>Behold, all souls are Mine. As the soul of the father, also the soul of the son is Mine. The soul that sins, it shall die.

<sup>5</sup>But a man that is just and does what just and right, <sup>6</sup>and has not eaten on the mountains, nor has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, nor has defiled his neighbor's wife, nor has come near a menstruating woman, <sup>7</sup>and has not ill-treated any, but has given the debtor's pledge back to him, has robbed none by violence, has given his bread to the hungry and has covered the naked with a garment; <sup>8</sup>he has not given out on usury, nor has taken any increase, he has withdrawn his hand from iniquity, has done judgment between man and man, <sup>9</sup>has walked in My statutes, and has kept My judgments to deal truly — he shall surely live, says the Lord Jehovah.

<sup>10</sup>And if he fathers a son who is violent, who sheds blood, and who does to a brother any of these; <sup>11</sup>even he does not any of these; but has even eaten on the mountains, and has defiled his neighbor's wife; <sup>12</sup>has ill-treated the poor and needy; thieving, he stole; has not given back the pledge; and has lifted up his eyes to the idols; has committed abomination; <sup>13</sup>has loaned on usury; and has taken increase; shall he then live? He shall not live! He has done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his blood shall be on him.

<sup>14</sup>And, lo, if he fathers a son who sees all his father's sins which he has done, and fears, and does not do like him; <sup>15</sup>who has not eaten on the mountains; nor has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel; has not defiled his neighbor's wife; <sup>16</sup>nor has ill-treated any; has not withheld the pledge; nor has robbed by violence; but has given his bread to the hungry; and has covered the naked with clothes; <sup>17</sup>has withdrawn his hand from the poor; has not received usury nor increase; has done My judgments; has walked in My statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father; he shall surely live. <sup>18</sup>His father, because he extorted, robbed his brother by violence, and did what is not good among his people; lo, even he shall die in his iniquity.

<sup>19</sup>Yet you say, Why? Does not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son has done justice and right, has kept all My statutes, and has done them, he shall surely live. <sup>20</sup>The soul that sins, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, nor shall the father bear the iniquity of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be on him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be on him. <sup>21</sup>But if the wicked will turn from all his sins which he has committed, and keep all My statutes, and do justice and right, he shall surely live; he shall not die. <sup>22</sup>All his transgressions that he has done, they shall not be mentioned to him; in his righteousness that he has done he shall live.

<sup>23</sup>Do I actually desire the death of the wicked? says the Lord Jehovah. Is it not that he should turn from his ways and live? <sup>24</sup>But when the righteous turns from his righteousness and does injustice, and does according to all the abominations that the wicked do, shall he live? All his righteousness that he has done shall not be remembered; in his trespass that he has trespassed, and in his sin that he has sinned, in them he shall die.

<sup>25</sup>Yet you say, The way of the LORD is not fair. Hear now, O house of Israel: Is not My way fair? Are your ways not unfair? <sup>26</sup>When a righteous one turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity and dies in them; for his iniquity that he has done, he shall die. <sup>27</sup>Again, when the wicked turns away from his wickedness that he has committed and does that which is lawful and righteous, he shall save his soul alive. <sup>28</sup>Because he looks carefully, and turns away from all his sins that he has committed, he shall surely live; he shall not die. <sup>29</sup>Yet says the house of Israel: The way of the LORD is not fair. O house of Israel, are not My ways fair? Are not your ways unfair? <sup>30</sup>So I will judge you, O house of Israel, each one of you according to his ways, says the Lord Jehovah. Turn and be made to turn from all your sins; and iniquity shall not be your stumbling-block. <sup>31</sup>Cast away from you all your sins by which you have sinned; and make you a new heart and a new spirit; for why will you die, O house of Israel? <sup>32</sup>For I have no pleasure in the death of him who dies, says the Lord Jehovah. Therefore turn and live.

CHAPTER 19

of his roaring. <sup>8</sup>And the nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net over him. He was taken in their pit. <sup>9</sup>And they put him in a cage in chains, and brought him to the king of Babylon. They brought him into hunting nets, so that his voice should never again be heard on the mountains of Israel.

<sup>10</sup>Your mother is like a vine in your blood, planted by the waters; she was fruitful and full of branches because of many waters. <sup>11</sup>And she had strong rods for the scepters of those who bore rule, and her stature was exalted among the thick branches; and it was seen in her height, with the multitude of her branches. <sup>12</sup>But she was plucked up in fury; she was thrown down to the ground, and the east wind dried up her fruit. Her strong rods were broken and withered; the fire burned them up. <sup>13</sup>And now she is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground. <sup>14</sup>And fire has gone out from a rod of her branches, which has licked up her fruit so that there is no strong rod in her to be a scepter to rule. This is a mourning and shall be for a mourning.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>1</sup>And it happened in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth of the month, some of the elders of Israel came to ask of the LORD, and sat before me. <sup>2</sup>And came the word of the LORD to me, saying, <sup>3</sup>Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah: Have you come to ask of Me? As I live, says the Lord Jehovah, I will not be inquired of by you. <sup>4</sup>Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers.

<sup>5</sup>And say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah: In the day that I chose Israel, and lifted up My hand to the seed of the house of Jacob, and made Myself known to them in the land of Egypt; when I lifted up My hand to them, saying, I am the LORD your God; <sup>6</sup>in the day that I lifted up My hand to them, to bring them out from the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands; <sup>7</sup>then I said to them, Let each man throw away the abominations of his eyes, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am the LORD your God. <sup>8</sup>But they rebelled against Me and would not listen to Me. They did not each man throw away the abominations of their eyes, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt. And I said, I will pour out My fury against them to fulfill My anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup>But I worked for My name's sake, that it should not be profaned before the nations among whom they were, for I made Myself known to them in their eyes, by bringing them out out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup>And I caused them to go out out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. <sup>11</sup>And I gave them My statutes and showed them My judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them. <sup>12</sup>And also I gave them My sabbaths to be a sign between Me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD who sets them apart. <sup>13</sup>But the house of Israel rebelled against Me in the wilderness; they did not walk in My statutes, and they despised My judgments, which if a man does, he shall even live in them. And they greatly profaned My sabbaths. And I said, I will pour out My fury on them in the wilderness to destroy them. <sup>14</sup>But I worked for My name's sake, so that it should not be profaned before the nations in whose sight I brought them out. <sup>15</sup>And also I lifted up My hand to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey; it is the glory of all lands; <sup>16</sup>because they despised My judgments and walked not in My sabbaths; for their heart went after their idols. <sup>17</sup>But My eye spared them from destroying them, nor did I make an end of them in the wilderness. <sup>18</sup>But I said to their sons in the wilderness, Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers, nor observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols. <sup>19</sup>I am the LORD your God. Walk in My statutes, and keep My judgments, and do them, <sup>20</sup>and keep My sabbaths holy; and they shall be a sign between Me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD your God.

<sup>21</sup>But the sons rebelled against Me. They did not walk in My statutes, nor kept My judgments to do them; the judgments which, if a man do, he shall even live in them. And I said I would pour out My fury on them, to fulfill My anger against them in the wilderness. <sup>22</sup>But I withdrew My hand and worked for My name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the eyes of the nations, from whom I brought them out. <sup>23</sup>I also lifted up My hand to them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations and scatter them through the lands, <sup>24</sup>because they had not done My judgments, but had despised My sabbaths and had profaned My sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. <sup>25</sup>Also I gave them statutes not good, and judgments by which they should not live. <sup>26</sup>And I defiled them in their own gifts, in that they caused all that open the womb to pass through the fire, that I might waste them, to the end that they might know that I am the LORD.

<sup>27</sup>Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel and say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah: Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed Me, in that they have committed a sin against Me. <sup>28</sup>When I had brought them into the land for which I lifted up My hand to give it to them, then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered their sacrifices there. And there they offered their provoking gifts. There also they made their sweet aroma, and poured out their drink offerings there. <sup>29</sup>And I said to them, What is the high place to which you go? And the name of it is called High Place to this day. <sup>30</sup>Therefore say to the house of Israel, So says the Lord Jehovah: Are you defiled in the same way as your fathers? And do you go whoring after their abominations? <sup>31</sup>For when you offer your gifts, when you make your sons to pass through the fire, you defile yourselves with all your idols, even to this day. And shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, says the Lord Jehovah, I will not be inquired of by you. <sup>32</sup>And what comes up on your spirit shall not happen at all, that you say, We will be like the nations, like the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.

<sup>33</sup>As I live, says the Lord Jehovah, surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out, I will reign over you. <sup>34</sup>And I will bring you out from the people, and I will gather you out of the lands in which you are scattered, with a mighty hand and with a stretched out arm and with fury poured out. <sup>35</sup>And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there I will enter into judgment with you face to face. <sup>36</sup>Just as I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will enter into judgment with you, says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>37</sup>And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant. <sup>38</sup>And I will purge out from among you the rebels and those who sin against Me. I will bring them out from the land where they reside, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel. And you shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>39</sup>And you, O house of Israel, so says the Lord Jehovah: Every man go and serve his idols, and do so from now on if you will not listen to Me. But never again defile My holy name with your gifts and with your idols. <sup>40</sup>For in My holy mountain, in the mountain height of Israel, says the Lord Jehovah, there all the house of Israel, all of those in the land, shall serve Me. There will I receive them, and there will I ask for your offerings and the first fruits of your offerings, with all your holy things. <sup>41</sup>I will receive you with your sweet aroma when I bring you out from the people and gather you out of the lands into which you have been scattered. And I will be sanctified in you in the eyes of the nations. <sup>42</sup>And you shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the land for which I lifted up My hand, to give it to your fathers. <sup>43</sup>And there you shall remember your ways and all your doings in which you have been defiled. And you shall despise yourselves in your own sight for all your evils which you have committed. <sup>44</sup>And you shall know that I am the LORD when I have worked with you for My name's sake, not according to your wicked ways nor according to your corrupt doings, O house of Israel, says the Lord Jehovah.

<sup>45</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>46</sup>Son of man, set your face toward the south, and drop a word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the south field. <sup>47</sup>And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the LORD. So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I will kindle a fire in you, and it shall burn up every green tree in you, and every dry tree. The flaming flame shall not be put out, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burned in it. <sup>48</sup>And all flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it. It shall not be put out. <sup>49</sup>And I said, Ah Lord Jehovah! They say of me, Does he not speak parables?

CHAPTER 21

<sup>1</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and drop a word toward the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel. <sup>3</sup>And say to the land of Israel, So says the LORD: Behold, I am against you, and will draw out My sword out of its sheath and will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked. <sup>4</sup>Since then I will cut off the righteous and the wicked from you, therefore My sword shall be drawn from its sheath against all flesh from the south to the north, <sup>5</sup>so that all flesh may know that I the LORD have drawn out My sword from its sheath. It shall not return any more. <sup>6</sup>And you, son of man, groan with the breaking of your loins; and grown with bitterness before their eyes. <sup>7</sup>And it will be when they say to you, Why do you groan? You shall answer, Because of the news. Because it is coming; and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water. Behold, it comes, and it shall be, says the Lord Jehovah.

<sup>8</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>9</sup>Son of man, prophesy and say, So says the LORD. Say, A sword, a sword is sharpened and also polished. <sup>10</sup>It is sharpened in order to slaughter; it is polished so that there may be a flash to it. Or shall we rejoice? You are despising the rod of My son, as if it were every tree. <sup>11</sup>And He has given it to be polished, to be taken by the hand. The sword, it is sharpened to give it into the hand of the slayer. <sup>12</sup>Cry and howl, son of man; for it shall be on My people; it shall be on all the rulers of Israel. They are thrown to the sword with My people; Therefore slap your thigh. <sup>13</sup>Because it is a trial, and what if even the despising rod shall not be? says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>14</sup>And you, son of man, prophesy and strike your hands together; and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain. It is the sword of the slain, the great one that surrounds them; <sup>15</sup>so that their heart may melt, and many stumble at all their gates. I have given the threatening sword. Ah! It is made like lightning; it is wrapped for a slaughter. <sup>16</sup>Sharpen yourself on the right! Set yourself on the left, wherever your face is set. <sup>17</sup>And also I, I will also strike My hands together, and I will cause My fury to rest. I the LORD have spoken.

<sup>18</sup>The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, <sup>19</sup>And you, son of man, set for yourself two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come. Both of them shall come out of one land. And create a hand at the head of the way to the city; create it. <sup>20</sup>You shall set a way that the sword may enter into Rabbah of the Ammonites, and into Judah, into fortified Jerusalem. <sup>21</sup>For the king of Babylon shall stand at the parting of the way, at the head of the two highways, to practice divination. He shall shake arrows; he shall ask household idols; he shall look at the liver. <sup>22</sup>At his right shall be the divining for Jerusalem, to set battering-rams, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to set battering-rams against the gates, to pour out and to build a siege wall. <sup>23</sup>And it shall be to them an empty divining before their eyes, those who have sworn oaths to them. But He will remember iniquity, that they may be taken. <sup>24</sup>So the Lord Jehovah says this: Because you have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, in that your sins are revealed in all your deeds; because you have been remembered, you shall be taken with the hand. <sup>25</sup>And you, O slain, wicked king of Israel, of whom has come his day in the time of of iniquity of the end. <sup>26</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: Remove the diadem, and take off the crown. This shall not be as it was. Lift up the low one, and put down the high one. <sup>27</sup>Ruin, ruin, ruin, I will appoint it. Also this shall not be until the coming of Him whose is the right. And I will give it to Him.

<sup>28</sup>And you, son of man, prophesy and say, So says the Lord Jehovah concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their shame. Even say: The sword, the sword is drawn, polished for slaughter to make an end, that it may be like lightning; <sup>29</sup>while they see false visions for you, while they divine a lie to you, to put you on the necks of the slain of the wicked whose day has come in the day of iniquity; it shall have an end. <sup>30</sup>Return it to its sheath. In the place where you were created, in the land of your origin, I will judge you. <sup>31</sup>And I will pour out My disgust on you; with the fire of My wrath I will blow against you, and give you into the hand of burning men, able to destroy. <sup>32</sup>You shall be for food to the fire. Your blood shall be in the midst of the land. You shall be remembered no more; for I the LORD have spoken.

CHAPTER 22

<sup>1</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>And you, son of man, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? And you shall make her know all her abominations. <sup>3</sup>And you shall say, So says the Lord Jehovah: The city sheds blood in her midst that her time may come, and makes idols against herself to defile herself. <sup>4</sup>You are guilty in your blood that you have shed; and you have defiled yourself in your idols which you have made. And your days are brought near, and have come to your years. Therefore I have made you a reproach to the nations, and a mocking to all lands. <sup>5</sup>Those who are near and those far from you shall mock against you, O defiled of name, defiled in tumult. <sup>6</sup>Behold, the rulers of Israel, each man by his might, have been in you to enter and shed blood. <sup>7</sup>In you they have despised father and mother. In your midst they have dealt with the stranger by oppression. In you they oppressed the orphan and the widow. <sup>8</sup>You have despised My holy things, and have profaned My sabbaths. <sup>9</sup>In you are men of slander to shed blood; and in you they eat on the mountains; in your midst they do unchaste acts. <sup>10</sup>In you they have uncovered their fathers' nakedness; in you they have humbled her defiled by impurity. <sup>11</sup>And a man has done abomination with his neighbor's wife; and a man has defiled his daughter-in-law in unchaste acts; and a man has humbled within you his sister, his father's daughter. <sup>12</sup>In you they have taken bribes to shed blood. You have taken usury and increase, and you gained by extortion of your neighbors, and you have forgotten Me, says the Lord Jehovah.

<sup>13</sup>And behold, I have struck My palm against your unjust gain which you have made, and at your blood which has been in your midst. <sup>14</sup>Can your heart stand, or can your hands be strong, in the day that I shall deal with you? I the LORD have spoken, and I will act. <sup>15</sup>And I will scatter you among the nations and disperse you in the lands, and will destroy your uncleanness out of you. <sup>16</sup>And you will be profaned in you before the eyes of the nations, and you shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>18</sup>Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to Me. All of them are bronze, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the middle of the furnace; they are even the dross of silver. <sup>19</sup>Therefore so says the Lord Jehovah: Because you have all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather you into the middle of Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup>As they gather silver, and bronze, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the middle of the furnace, to blow the fire on it to melt it, so I will gather you in My anger and in My fury, and I will leave you there and melt you. <sup>21</sup>And I will gather you and blow on you in the fire of My wrath, and you shall be melted in the middle of it. <sup>22</sup>As silver is melted in the middle of the furnace, so you shall be melted in the middle of it; and you shall know that I the LORD have poured out My fury on you.

<sup>23</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>24</sup>Son of man, say to her: You are a land not being cleansed, nor rained on in the day of disgust. <sup>25</sup>A plot by her prophets is in her midst, like a roaring lion tearing the prey. They have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they multiplied her many widows in her midst. <sup>26</sup>Her priests have broken My law and have defiled My holy things. They have put no difference between the holy and the common, nor have they shown difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hidden their eyes from My sabbaths, and I am defiled among them. <sup>27</sup>Her rulers in her midst are like wolves tearing the prey, to shed blood and to destroy souls, to get unjust gain. <sup>28</sup>And her prophets have daubed themselves with lime, seeing vanity and divining lies to them, saying, So says the Lord Jehovah; when the LORD has not spoken. <sup>29</sup>The people of the land have used oppression and practiced robbery, and they have troubled the poor and needy. Yea, they have oppressed the stranger without right. <sup>30</sup>And I sought for a man among them who should wall up a wall for the land, and stand in the break before me, that I should not destroy it. But I did not find one. <sup>31</sup>Therefore I have poured out My fury on them. I have burned them up with the fire of My wrath. I have given them their own way on their heads, says the Lord Jehovah.

CHAPTER 23

<sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD came again to me, <sup>2</sup>Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother. <sup>3</sup>And they played the harlot in Egypt; they whored in their youth, their breasts were handled, and there their virgin nipples were squeezed. <sup>4</sup>And their names were Aholah, the oldest, and Aholibah, her sister. And they were Mine, and they bore sons and daughters. And their names: Samaria is Aholah, and Jerusalem is Aholibah. <sup>5</sup>And Aholah played the harlot under Me. And she lusted after her lovers, to her Assyrian neighbors, <sup>6</sup>clothed with purple, governors and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding horses. <sup>7</sup>So she bestowed her harlotries on them, the choice sons of Assyria; with all of them, and with all whom she lusted after; she defiled herself with all their idols. <sup>8</sup>Nor did she leave her fornications from Egypt. For in her youth they lay with her, and they squeezed her virgin nipples, and poured their fornications on her. <sup>9</sup>Therefore I have given her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians on whom she lusted. <sup>10</sup>They uncovered her nakedness. They took her sons and her daughters and killed her with the sword. And she became notorious among women, and they executed judgment on her.

<sup>11</sup>And her sister Aholibah saw, she was more corrupt in her lust than she, and her fornications were greater than her sister's. <sup>12</sup>She lusted to the sons of Assyria, governors and rulers clothed most perfectly; horsemen riding horses, all of them desirable young men. <sup>13</sup>And I saw that she was defiled, one way was to both of them. <sup>14</sup>And that she added to her fornications. And she saw men carved on the wall; images of the Chaldeans engraved with vermilion, <sup>15</sup>girded with girdles on their loins, with flowing turbans on their heads, all of them looking like rulers, like the sons of Babylon in Chaldea, the land of their birth; <sup>16</sup>and she lusted after them, to the look of her eyes, and sent messengers to them into Chaldea. <sup>17</sup>And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with fornications. And she was defiled with them, and her mind was alienated from them. <sup>18</sup>So she uncovered her fornications and uncovered her nakedness. And My soul was alienated from her just as My soul was alienated from her sister. <sup>19</sup>Yet she multiplied her fornications to recall the days of her youth, in which she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup>And she lusted on her lovers, whose flesh is like the flesh of asses and whose issue is like the issue of horses. <sup>21</sup>So you longed for the wickedness of your youth, when the Egyptians squeezed your nipples, for the sake of the breasts of your youth.

<sup>22</sup>So, O Aholibah, the Lord Jehovah says this: Behold, I will raise up against you your lovers, from whom your soul is alienated; and I will bring them against you from all around; <sup>23</sup>the Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them; all of them desirable young men, governors and rulers, all of them, third heads and called ones; all of them riding on horses. <sup>24</sup>And they shall come against you with weapons, chariots, and wheels, and with an assembly of peoples; buckler and shield and helmet shall set against you all around. And I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge you by their judgments. <sup>25</sup>And I will set My jealousy against you, and they shall deal with you in fury. They shall take away your nose and your ears, and the rest of you shall fall by the sword. They shall take away your sons and your daughters, and the rest of you shall be devoured by the fire. <sup>26</sup>They shall also strip you of your clothes and take away your beautiful jewels. <sup>27</sup>So I will make your wickedness to cease from you, and your fornication from the land of Egypt. And you shall not lift up your eyes to them, nor shall you remember Egypt any more.

<sup>28</sup>For so says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I will give you into the hand of those whom you hate, into the hand of those from whom your mind was alienated from them. <sup>29</sup>And they shall deal with you in hatred, and shall take away all your labor, and shall leave you naked and bare. And the nakedness of your fornications shall be uncovered, both your wickedness and your fornications. <sup>30</sup>These things will be done to you because you have whored after the nations, and because you are defiled with their idols. <sup>31</sup>You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore I will give her cup into your hand. <sup>32</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: You shall drink of your sister's cup deep and large; you shall be laughed to scorn and mocked; for it holds much. <sup>33</sup>In drunkenness and sorrow you are filled, the cup of horror and ruin, the cup of your sister Samaria. <sup>34</sup>You shall even drink it and empty it. And you shall break its pieces, and tear off your own breasts. For I have spoken, says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>35</sup>So the Lord Jehovah says this: Because you have forgotten Me and cast Me behind your back, therefore bear also your wickedness and your adulteries.

<sup>36</sup>And the LORD said to me: Son of man, will you judge Aholah and Aholibah, and declare to them their abominations, <sup>37</sup>that they have committed adultery, and blood is on their hands? And they have committed adultery with their idols and have also caused their sons whom they bore to Me to pass through the fire to them, to devour them.<sup>38</sup> And yet they have done this to Me: They have defiled My sanctuary in that day, and have profaned My sabbaths.<sup>39</sup> And when they had slain their sons to their idols, then they came into My sanctuary in that day to profane it. And lo, this they have done in the midst of My house.<sup>40</sup> And they have even sent for men to come from far, to whom a messenger was sent. And lo, they came. You washed yourself for them, painted your eyes, and adorned yourself with ornaments,<sup>41</sup> and sat on a stately bed with a table prepared before it, on which you set My incense and My oil.<sup>42</sup> And the sound of a crowd was at ease with her; and drunkards from the wilderness were brought with the men of the host of mankind; and they put bracelets on their hands, and crowns of beauty on their heads.<sup>43</sup> And I said about the one worn in adulteries, Will they now whore with her, and she with them?<sup>44</sup> And they went in to her, as they go in to a woman of harlotry; and they went in to Aholah and to Aholibah, the wicked women.

<sup>45</sup> And as righteous men, they shall judge them with the judgment of adulteresses, and the judgment of women who shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.<sup>46</sup> For so says the Lord Jehovah: I will bring up a company on them, and will give them to be removed and stripped.<sup>47</sup> And the company shall stone them with stones, and cut them down with their swords. They shall kill their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.<sup>48</sup> So I will cause wickedness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to go after your wickedness.<sup>49</sup> And they shall put your wickedness on you, and you shall bear the sins of your idols. And you shall know that I am the Lord Jehovah.

CHAPTER 24

<sup>1</sup> Again in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,<sup>2</sup> Son of man, write the name of the day, even of this same day. The king of Babylon has leaned toward Jerusalem this same day.<sup>3</sup> And speak a parable to the rebellious house, and say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah: Set on a pot; set it on, and also pour water into it.<sup>4</sup> Gather its pieces into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder. Fill it with the choice bones.<sup>5</sup> Take the choice of the flock, and also burn the bones under it; make it boil high, and let them boil its bones in it.

<sup>6</sup> So the Lord Jehovah says this: Woe to the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is in it, and whose scum has not gone out of it! Bring it out piece by piece; let no lot fall on it.<sup>7</sup> For her blood is in her midst; she set it on the top of a rock. She did not pour it on the ground, to cover it with dust,<sup>8</sup> that it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance. I have set her blood on the top of a rock, that it should not be covered.<sup>9</sup> So the Lord Jehovah says this: Woe to the bloody city! I will even heap on the pile.<sup>10</sup> And kindle the fire on wood, consume the flesh, and mix in the spice, and let the bones be burned.<sup>11</sup> And set it empty on its coals, so that its bronze may be hot and may burn, and that its uncleanness may be melted in it, that the scum of it may be gone.<sup>12</sup> She has wearied herself with lies, and her great scum did not go out of her. Her scum shall be in the fire.<sup>13</sup> In your defilement is wickedness. Because I have purged you and you were not purged, you shall not be purged from your defilement any more, until I have caused My fury to cease on you.<sup>14</sup> I the LORD have spoken. It shall come, and I will do it. I will not let go, nor will I spare, nor will I repent. According to your ways, and according to your doings, they shall judge you, says the Lord Jehovah.

<sup>15</sup> And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,<sup>16</sup> Son of man, behold, I take away from you the desire of your eyes with a stroke. Yet neither shall you mourn nor weep, nor shall your tears run down.<sup>17</sup> Be silent; make no mourning for the dead; tie your bonnet on your head, and put your shoes on your feet, and do not cover your lips, and do not eat the bread of men. <sup>18</sup>So I spoke to the people in the morning. And in the evening my wife died, and I did in the morning as I was commanded.

<sup>19</sup>And the people said to me, Will you not tell us what these things mean to us, that you do so? <sup>20</sup>And I answered them, The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>21</sup>Speak to the house of Israel. So says the Lord Jehovah: behold, I will defile My sanctuary, the glory of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pities. And your sons and your daughters whom you have left shall fall by the sword. <sup>22</sup>And you shall do as I have done. You shall not cover your lips nor eat the bread of men. <sup>23</sup>And your bonnets shall be on your heads, and your shoes on your feet. You shall not mourn nor weep; but you shall pine away for your iniquities and mourn to one another. <sup>24</sup>So Ezekiel is a sign to you. According to all that he has done, you shall do. And when this comes, you shall know that I am the Lord Jehovah. <sup>25</sup>Also, son of man, will it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that on which they set their minds, their sons and their daughters, <sup>26</sup>that he who escapes in that day shall come to you to cause you to hear it with your ears? <sup>27</sup>In that day your mouth shall be open to him who has escaped, and you shall speak and be no more dumb. And you shall be a sign to them, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 25

<sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>Son of man, set your face against the Ammonites and prophesy against them. <sup>3</sup>And say to the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord Jehovah. So says the Lord Jehovah: Because you said, Aha, against My sanctuary when it was defiled, and against the land of Israel when it was ruined, and against the house of Judah when they went into captivity; <sup>4</sup>therefore, behold, I will give you to the men of the east for a possession. And they shall set their camp sites among you, and put among you their dwellings. They shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk. <sup>5</sup>And I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the Ammonites a crouching-place for flocks. And you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>6</sup>For so says the Lord Jehovah: Because you have clapped your hands and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced in heart with all your spite against the land of Israel; <sup>7</sup>behold, therefore I will stretch out My hand on you, and will give you as a prize to the nations. And I will cut you off from the people, and I will cause you to perish out of the lands. I will destroy you, and you shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: Because Moab and Seir say, Behold, the house of Judah is like all the nations; <sup>9</sup>therefore, behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities, from his borders, the glory of the land, even Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim, <sup>10</sup>to the men of the east with the Ammonites. And I will give them in possession so that the Ammonites may not be remembered among the nations. <sup>11</sup>And I will execute judgments on Moab; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: Because Edom has dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended and revenged himself on them; <sup>13</sup>therefore so says the Lord Jehovah: I will also stretch out My hand on Edom, and will cut man and beast off from it; and I will make it a waste from Teman, and those of Dedan shall fall by the sword. <sup>14</sup>And I will lay My vengeance on Edom by the hand of My people Israel. And they shall do in Edom according to My anger and according to My fury. And they shall know My vengeance, says the Lord Jehovah.

<sup>15</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: Because the Philistines have taken vengeance; yes, have taken vengeance with spite in their soul, to destroy with never-ending enmity, <sup>16</sup>So the Lord Jehovah says this: Behold, I will stretch out My hand on the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethim, and will destroy the rest of the sea coast. <sup>17</sup>And I will execute great vengeance on them with rebukes; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall lay My vengeance on them.

CHAPTER 26

<sup>1</sup>And it happened in the eleventh year, in the first of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, Aha! She is shattered, the doors of the peoples, she has turned to me; I shall be filled; she is laid waste. <sup>3</sup>So the Lord Jehovah says this: Behold, I am against you, O Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up. <sup>4</sup>And they shall destroy the walls of Tyre and break down her towers. I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rock. <sup>5</sup>It shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the middle of the sea. For I have spoken, says the Lord Jehovah. And it shall become a spoil to the nations. <sup>6</sup>And her daughters who are in the field shall be killed by the sword; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>For so says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I will bring Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon on Tyre, a king of kings from the north, with horses and with chariots and with a company of horsemen, and many people. <sup>8</sup>He shall kill your daughters with the sword in the field. And he shall make siege walls against you, and pour out a siege mound against you, and lift up the shield against you. <sup>9</sup>And he shall set engines of war against your walls, and with his axes he shall break down your towers. <sup>10</sup>Because of his many horses, their dust shall cover you. Your walls shall shake at the sound of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into your gates, as men enter a city that is breached. <sup>11</sup>With the hoofs of his horses he shall trample all your streets. He shall kill your people by the sword, and your pillars of your strength shall go down to the ground. <sup>12</sup>And they shall plunder your riches, and make a prey of your merchandise. And they shall break down your walls and destroy your desirable houses. And they shall lay your stones and your timber and your dust in the midst of the water. <sup>13</sup>And I will cause the noise of your songs to cease; and the sound of your harps shall be heard no more. <sup>14</sup>And I will make you like the top of a rock. You shall be a place to spread nets on; you shall be built no more; for I the LORD have spoken, says the Lord Jehovah.

<sup>15</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah to Tyre: Shall not the coastlands shake at the sound of your fall, when the slain groan, when the slaughter is made in your midst? <sup>16</sup>And all the rulers of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and put off their embroidered garments. They shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit on the ground and tremble at every moment, and be amazed at you. <sup>17</sup>And they shall take up a mourning for you, and say to you, How you who lived by the sea are destroyed, the famous city which was strong in the sea, she and her people who caused their terror to be on all who lived in it! <sup>18</sup>And the coasts shall tremble in the day of your fall; yea, the coasts by the sea shall be troubled at your going. <sup>19</sup>For so says the Lord Jehovah: When I shall make you a ruined city, like the cities that have no inhabitants; when I shall bring up the deep on you, and great waters shall cover you; <sup>20</sup>when I shall bring you down with those who go down into the pit, with the people of old time, and shall set you in the low parts of the earth, in places ruined in days of old, with those who go down to the pit, so that you have no inhabitants — but I gave glory in the land of the living — <sup>21</sup>I will give you terrors, and you will not be. Though you are sought, yet you shall never be found forever says the Lord Jehovah.

CHAPTER 27

<sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>And you, son of man, take up a mourning for Tyre. <sup>3</sup>And say to Tyre, O you who are placed at the entrance of the sea, a merchant of the people for many coastlands, so says the Lord Jehovah: O Tyre, you have said, I am of perfect beauty. <sup>4</sup>Your borders are in the midst of the seas, your builders have perfected your beauty. <sup>5</sup>They have made all your ship boards of fir trees of Senir; they have taken cedars from Lebanon to make masts for you. <sup>6</sup>They have made the oaks of Bashan your oars; the company of the Ashurites have made your benches of ivory from the coasts of Chittim, daughter of Assyria. <sup>7</sup>Your sale was of fine linen with embroidered work from Egypt, an ensign for you; violet and purple from the coasts of Elishah was your covering. <sup>8</sup>The residents of Sidon and Arvad were your seamen. Your wise ones, O Tyre, were in you, they were your sailors. <sup>9</sup>The elders of Gebal and her wise men were with you, reinforcing your seams. All the ships of the sea with their seamen were with you, to exchange your merchandise. <sup>10</sup>Persia and Lud and Lydia were in your army, your men of war. They hung the shield and helmet in you; they set your splendor. <sup>11</sup>The sons of Arvad and your army were on your walls all around, and warriors were in your towers. They hung their shields on your walls all around; they have made your beauty perfect. <sup>12</sup>Tarshish was your merchant because of the multitude of your wealth; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they gave for your wares. <sup>13</sup>Javan, Tubal, and Meshech were your merchants. They traded the souls of men and vessels of bronze for your goods. <sup>14</sup>From the house of Togarmah they gave horses and war-horses and mules for your wares. <sup>15</sup>The sons of Dedan were your merchants; many coastlands were the traffic of your hand. They brought as your gift tusks of ivory and ebony. <sup>16</sup>Syria was your merchant because of the multitude of your works; with emeralds, purple, and embroidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and rubies they gave for your wares. <sup>17</sup>Judah and the land of Israel were your merchants with wheat from Minnith and Pannag, and honey, and oil, and balm, they gave for your goods. <sup>18</sup>Damascus was your merchant in the multitude of your works, from the multitude of all riches, in the wine of Helbon, and white wool. <sup>19</sup>Dan and Javan also, going about, gave for your wares; smooth iron, cassia, and cane were among your goods. <sup>20</sup>Dedan was your merchant in loose cloths for riding. <sup>21</sup>Arabia, and all the rulers of Kedar were traders of your hand, in lambs, and rams, and goats; in them was your trade. <sup>22</sup>The merchants of Sheba and Raamah were your merchants, with the chief of all the spices, and with every precious stone, and gold they gave for your wares. <sup>23</sup>Haran, and Canneh, and Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Asshur, Chilmad were your merchants. <sup>24</sup>They were your merchants in perfect things, in violet cloth, and embroidered work, and in carpets of many colors, with tightly bound cords, and cedars among your merchandise. <sup>25</sup>The ships of Tarshish were the travelers of your goods. And you were filled and made very glorious in the heart of the seas.

<sup>26</sup>Your rowers have made you come into great waters; the east wind has broken you in the heart of the seas. <sup>27</sup>Your riches, and your wares, your goods, your seamen, and your pilots reinforcing your seams, and the traders of your goods, and all your men of war, who are in you, and all your company which is in your midst, shall fall into the heart of the seas in the day of your ruin. <sup>28</sup>At the sound of the cry of your sailors the open lands will shake. <sup>29</sup>And all who handle the oar, the mariners, all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships. They shall stand on the land, <sup>30</sup>and shall cause their voice to be heard against you, and shall cry bitterly, and shall throw dust on their heads. They shall wallow themselves in the ashes. <sup>31</sup>And they will be bald for you, and gird with sackcloth. And they shall weep for you with bitterness of soul, a bitter wailing. <sup>32</sup>And in their wailing they shall lift up a lament for you and weep over you, saying, Who is like Tyre; as she who is quiet in the midst of the sea? <sup>33</sup>When your goods went out from the seas, you filled many people. With the plenty of your riches and your goods you enriched the kings of the earth. <sup>34</sup>At this time you are broken by the seas, in the depths of the waters, your goods and all your company in your midst have fallen. <sup>35</sup>All the residents of the coasts are appalled at you, and their kings are horribly terrified; their faces tremble. <sup>36</sup>The merchants among the peoples hiss at you; you have become terrors. And you shall not be forever.

CHAPTER 28

<sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>Son of man, say to the ruler of Tyre. So says the Lord Jehovah: Because your heart is lifted up, and you have said, I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet you are a man and not God, though you set your heart as the heart of gods; <sup>3</sup>Behold, you are wiser than Daniel; every secret thing is not hidden from you! <sup>4</sup>With your wisdom and with your understanding you have made riches for yourselves, and have worked gold and silver into your treasures. <sup>5</sup>By your great wisdom and by your trade you have multiplied your riches, and your heart is lifted up because of your riches. <sup>6</sup>Therefore so says the Lord Jehovah: Because you have set your heart as the heart of gods, <sup>7</sup>behold, therefore I will bring awesome strangers of the nations. And they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom, and they shall defile your brightness. <sup>8</sup>They shall bring you down to the pit, and you shall die the deaths of those who are slain in the heart of the seas. <sup>9</sup>Will you yet say before him who kills you, I am of the gods? But you are a man, and not God, in the hand of him who kills you. <sup>10</sup>You shall die the deaths of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers. For I have spoken, says the Lord Jehovah.

<sup>11</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>12</sup>Son of man, lift up a lament over the king of Tyre, and say to him, So says the Lord Jehovah: You seal the measure, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. <sup>13</sup>You have been in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was your covering, the ruby, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the turquoise, and the emerald, and gold. The workmanship of your tabrets and of your pipes was prepared in you in the day that you were created. <sup>14</sup>You were the anointed cherub that covers, and I had put you in the holy height of God where you were.; you have walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. <sup>15</sup>You were perfect in your ways from the day that you were created, until iniquity was found in you. <sup>16</sup>By the multitude of your goods they have filled your midst with violence, and you have sinned. So I cast you profaned from the height of God, and I will destroy you, O covering cherub, from among the stones of fire. <sup>17</sup>Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; you have spoiled your wisdom because of your brightness. I will cast you to the ground; I will put you before kings, that they may behold you. <sup>18</sup>By the host of your iniquities, by the iniquity of your trade, you have profaned your holy places; so I brought a fire from your midst; it shall devour you, and I will give you for ashes on the earth, before the eyes of all who see you. <sup>19</sup>All who know you among the peoples shall be astonished at you; you shall be terrors, and you will not be forever.

<sup>20</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>21</sup>Son of man, set your face against Sidon, and prophesy against it. <sup>22</sup>And say, So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I am against you, O Sidon, and I will be glorified in your midst. And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have executed judgments in her and have revealed My holiness in her. <sup>23</sup>For I will send a plague into her, and blood into her streets. And the wounded shall be judged in her midst by the sword on her on every side. And they shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>24</sup>And there will not be a pricking brier, or a painful thorn to the house of Israel any more, from all those who surround them, who hate them. And they shall know that I am the Lord Jehovah. <sup>25</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: When I have gathered the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and have been sanctified in them in the sight of the nations, then they shall dwell in their land that I have given to My servant Jacob. <sup>26</sup>And they shall dwell safely in it, and shall build houses and plant vineyards. Yea, they shall dwell safely when I have executed judgments on all those who despise them all around them; and they shall know that I am the LORD their God.

CHAPTER 29

<sup>1</sup>In the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt. <sup>3</sup>Speak and say, So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon who lies in the midst of his rivers, who has said, My river is mine, and I have made it. <sup>4</sup>But I will put hooks in your jaws, and I will cause the fish of your rivers to stick to your scales, and I will bring you up out of the midst of your rivers, and all the fish of your rivers shall stick to your scales. <sup>5</sup>And I will leave you to the wilderness, you and all the fish of your rivers. You shall fall on the open fields; you shall not be removed nor gathered. I have given you for food to the beasts of the field and to the birds of the heavens. <sup>6</sup>And all the people of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel. <sup>7</sup>When they took you by your hand, you broke and tore off all their shoulder. And when they leaned on you, you shattered and made all their loins stand.

<sup>8</sup>So the Lord Jehovah says this: Behold, I will bring a sword on you, and cut off man and beast from you. <sup>9</sup>And the land of Egypt shall be a desert and waste; and they shall know that I am the LORD, because he has said, The river is mine, and I have made it. <sup>10</sup>Behold, and therefore I am against you and against your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt a complete waste, a ruin, from Migdol to Syene, even to the border of Ethiopia. <sup>11</sup>No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, and you shall not live in it forty years. <sup>12</sup>And I will make the land of Egypt a ruin in the midst of the ruined lands; and her cities shall be deserted forty years among the cities that are laid waste. And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will scatter them through the lands.

<sup>13</sup>Yet so says the Lord Jehovah: At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples where they were scattered. <sup>14</sup>And I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return to the land of Pathros, into their homeland. And they shall be a low kingdom there. <sup>15</sup>It shall be the lowest of the kingdoms, and shall no more exalt itself above the nations. For I will make them so few, that they shall no more rule over the nations. <sup>16</sup>And it shall never again be the hope of the house of Israel, recalling the iniquity of their turning after them. And they shall know that I am the Lord Jehovah.

<sup>17</sup>And it happened in the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, in the first of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>18</sup>Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyre. Every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled. Yet neither he nor his army had any pay for Tyre, for the service that he had served against it. <sup>19</sup>So the Lord Jehovah says this: Behold, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. And he shall take her host, and take her spoil, and seize her plunder. And it shall be the wages for his army. <sup>20</sup>I have given him the land of Egypt for his labor with which he served against it, because they worked for Me, says the Lord Jehovah.

<sup>21</sup>In that day I will cause a horn bud to the house of Israel, and I will give you the opening of the mouth in their midst. And they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 30

<sup>1</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>Son of man, prophesy and say, So says the Lord Jehovah: Howl, Woe is the day! <sup>3</sup>For the day is near, even the day of the LORD is near, a cloudy day. It shall be the time of the nations. <sup>4</sup>And the sword shall come on Egypt, and great pain shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt, and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down. <sup>5</sup>Ethiopia, and Libya, and Lydia, and all the mixed people; and Chub, and the men of the land who are in covenant with them shall fall with them by the sword. <sup>6</sup>So says the LORD: Those who uphold Egypt shall also fall, and the pride of her power shall come down. From Migdol to Syene they shall fall in it by the sword, says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>7</sup>And they shall be ruined in the midst of the lands that are wasted, and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted. <sup>8</sup>And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have set a fire in Egypt and all her helpers shall be destroyed. <sup>9</sup>In that day messengers shall go out from Me in ships to terrify the confident Ethiopians, and anguish shall be on them, as in the day of Egypt; for lo, it is coming.

<sup>10</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. <sup>11</sup>He and his people with them, the fearful of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land. And they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain. <sup>12</sup>And I will make the rivers dry, and sell the land into the hand of the wicked. And I will waste the land, and her fullness, by the hand of strangers. I the LORD have spoken. <sup>13</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause their images to cease out of Noph. And there shall no more be a ruler of the land in Egypt; and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt. <sup>14</sup>And I will make Pathros a ruin, and will set fire in Zoan, and will do judgments in No. <sup>15</sup>And I will pour My fury on Sin, the strength of Egypt. And I will cut off the multitude of No. <sup>16</sup>And I will set fire in Egypt; Sin shall greatly anguish, and No shall be torn in pieces, and Noph shall have daily woes. <sup>17</sup>The young men of Aven and of Pibeseth shall fall by the sword; and these cities shall go into exile. <sup>18</sup>And at Tehaphnehes also the day shall be held back, when I shatter the yokes of Egypt there. And the pride of her strength shall cease in her; as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into exile. <sup>19</sup>So I will do judgments in Egypt; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>And it happened in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>21</sup>Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt. And lo, it shall not lie bound up to give healing, to put a bandage to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword. <sup>22</sup>So the Lord Jehovah says this: Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong one and the broken one. And I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. <sup>22</sup>And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will scatter them through the lands. <sup>24</sup>And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put My sword in his hand. But I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of one who is stabbed. <sup>25</sup>But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down. And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall put My sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it on the land of Egypt. <sup>26</sup>And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and scatter them among the lands. And they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 31

<sup>1</sup>And it happened in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>Son of man, speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his multitude: To whom are you like in your greatness? <sup>3</sup>Behold, Assyria was like a cedar in Lebanon, with fair branches and forest shade, and of great height. And his top was among the thick boughs. <sup>4</sup>The waters made him great; the deep set him up on high with her rivers running all around his plants, and sent out her little channels to all the trees of the field. <sup>5</sup>So his height was lifted up above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long because of the many waters, when he sent out. <sup>6</sup>All the birds of the heavens nested in his boughs, and under his branches all the beasts of the field bore their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations. <sup>7</sup>So he was beautiful in his greatness, in the length of his branches. For his root was by great waters. <sup>8</sup>The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him; the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the chestnut trees were not like his branches. Nor was any tree in the garden of God like him in his beauty. <sup>9</sup>I have made him beautiful by his many branches, so that all the trees of Eden that were in the garden of God envied him.

<sup>10</sup>So the Lord Jehovah says this: Because you have lifted yourself up in height, and he set his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height; <sup>11</sup>so I have given him into the hand of the mighty one of the nations. He shall surely deal with him; I have expelled him for his evil. <sup>12</sup>And strangers have cut him off, the fearful of the nations, and have left him. On the mountains and in all the valleys his branches have fallen, and his boughs have been broken by all the rivers of the land. And all the people of the earth have gone from his shadow, and have left him. <sup>13</sup>On his ruin shall all the birds of the heavens remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be on his branches, <sup>14</sup>to the end that none of all the trees by the waters shall not be exalted in their height, nor give their top among the thick boughs. Nor should their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water. For all of them are given to death, to the lower parts of the earth, in the midst of the sons of men, with those who go down into the pit.

<sup>15</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: In the day when he went down to the grave, I caused a mourning. I covered the deep for him, and I held back its floods, and the great waters were held back. And I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted because of him. <sup>16</sup>I made the nations shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with those who go down in the pit. And all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be comforted in the lower parts of the earth. <sup>17</sup>They also went down into hell with him to those who are slain with the sword, and those who were his arm, who lived under his shadow in the midst of the nations.

<sup>10</sup>To whom are you like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? Yet you shall be brought down with the trees of Eden to the lower parts of the earth. You shall lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Lord Jehovah.

CHAPTER 32

<sup>1</sup>And it happened in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>Son of man, take up a lament for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say to him, You are like a young lion of the nations, but you are like a sea-monster. And you came out with your rivers, and troubled the waters with your feet, and fouled their rivers. <sup>3</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: I will therefore spread out My net over you with an assembly of many peoples; and they shall lift you up in My net. <sup>4</sup>And I will leave you on the land; I will cast you on the face of the field, and cause all the birds of the heavens to remain on you, and I will fill the beasts of all the earth with you. <sup>5</sup>And I will put your flesh on the mountains, and fill the valleys with your height. <sup>6</sup>I will also water with your blood the land in which you swim, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of you. <sup>7</sup>And when I put you out, I will cover the heaven and make its stars dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light. <sup>8</sup>I will make all the bright lights of the heavens dark over you, and will set darkness on your land, says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>9</sup>I will also vex the hearts of many peoples, when I bring your breaking among the nations, into the lands which you have not known. <sup>10</sup>Yea, I will make many people amazed at you, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for you, when I shall brandish My sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, each man for his own life, in the day of your fall.

<sup>11</sup>For so says the Lord Jehovah: The sword of the king of Babylon shall come on you. <sup>12</sup>By the swords of the mighty, I will cause your multitudes to fall, the fearful of the nations, all of them. And they shall spoil the pride of Egypt, and all its multitude shall be destroyed. <sup>13</sup>I will also destroy all its beasts from beside the great waters. Nor shall the foot of man stir them any more, nor shall the hoofs of beasts stir them. <sup>14</sup>And I will make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>15</sup>When I shall make the land of Egypt a ruin, and the land shall be stripped of its fullness; when I shall strike all those who dwell in it; then they shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>16</sup>This is the mourning with which they shall mourn her. The daughters of the nations shall mourn her; they shall mourn for her, for Egypt and for all her multitude, says the Lord Jehovah.

<sup>17</sup>It was also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>18</sup>Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and bring it down, her and the daughters of the majestic nations, to the lower parts of the earth, with those who go down into the pit. <sup>19</sup>Than whom are you more lovely? Go down and be laid with the uncircumcised. <sup>20</sup>They shall fall in the midst of those who are slain by the sword; she is delivered to the sword; they draw her and all her multitudes. <sup>21</sup>The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of hell with those who help him. They have gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword. <sup>22</sup>Assyria is there and all her company. His graves are around him; all of them are slain, fallen by the sword; <sup>23</sup>their graves are set in the sides of the pit, and her company is all around her grave. All of them are slain, fallen by the sword, those who caused terror in the land of the living. <sup>24</sup>There is Elam and her multitude all around her grave. All of them are slain, fallen by the sword, who have gone down uncircumcised into the lower parts of the earth, who caused their terror in the land of the living. Yet they have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit. <sup>25</sup>They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude. Her graves are all around him; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; though their terror was given in the land of the living, yet they have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit. He is put among the slain.

<sup>26</sup>There is Meshech, Tubal, and all her multitude. Her graves are all around him. All of them are uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they gave their terror in the land of the living. <sup>27</sup>And they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncircumcised, who have gone down to hell with their weapons of war. And they have laid their swords under their heads, but their sins shall be on their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living. <sup>28</sup>Yea, you shall be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shall lie with those who are slain with the sword. <sup>29</sup>There is Edom, her kings, and all her rulers, who with their might are laid by those who were slain by the sword. They shall be with the uncircumcised and with those who go down to the pit. <sup>30</sup>There are the rulers of the north, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who have gone down with the slain in their terror. They are ashamed of their might; and they lie uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit. <sup>31</sup>Pharaoh shall see them and shall be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army killed by the sword, says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>32</sup>For I had put his terror in the land of the living. And he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised with those who are slain with the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Lord Jehovah.

CHAPTER 33

<sup>1</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>Son of man, speak to the sons of your people, and say to them: When I bring the sword on it, on a land, and take one man from the people of the land, of their borders, and set him for their watchman; <sup>3</sup>if, when he sees the sword come on the land, he blows the trumpet and warns the people, <sup>4</sup>then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet and does not take warning, if the sword does come and take him away, his blood shall be on his own head. <sup>5</sup>He heard the sound of the trumpet and did not take warning. His blood shall be on himself. But he who takes warning shall deliver his soul. <sup>6</sup>But if the watchman sees the sword coming, and does not blow the trumpet and the people are not warned; if the sword comes and takes any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity. But I will require his blood at the watchman's hand.

<sup>7</sup>And you, son of man, I have set you a watchman to the house of Israel. Therefore you shall hear the word from My mouth, and warn them from Me. <sup>8</sup>When I say to the wicked, O wicked one, you shall surely die; if you do not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked one shall die in his iniquity. But I will require his blood at your hand. <sup>9</sup>But, if you warn the wicked of his way, to turn from it; if he does not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity. But you have delivered your soul. <sup>10</sup>And you, son of man, speak to the house of Israel. So you have spoken, saying, When our transgressions and our sins are on us, and we are wasting away in them, How then shall we live? <sup>11</sup>Say to them: As I live, says the Lord Jehovah, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that the wicked turn from his way and live. Turn, turn from your evil ways; for why will you die, O house of Israel? <sup>12</sup>Therefore, son of man, say to the sons of your people: The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression. As for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall by it in the day he turns from his wickedness. Nor shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sins. <sup>13</sup>When I shall say to the righteous that he shall surely live; if he trusts in his own righteousness and commits iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he has committed, he shall die for it. <sup>14</sup>Again, when I say to the wicked, You shall surely die; if he turns from his sin and does justice and right; <sup>15</sup>if the wicked gives back the pledge, gives again what he had robbed, walks in the statutes of life without committing iniquity, then he shall surely live; he shall not die. <sup>16</sup>None of his sins that he has committed shall be called to his memory. He has done justice and right; he shall surely live. <sup>17</sup>Yet the sons of your people say, The way of the Lord is not fair. But as for them, their way is not fair. <sup>18</sup>When the righteous turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, he shall even die by it. <sup>19</sup>But if the wicked turns from his wickedness and does justice and right, he shall live by it. <sup>20</sup>Yet you say, The way of the Lord is not fair. O house of Israel, I will judge you, each one according to his ways.

<sup>21</sup>And it was in the twelfth year of our exile, in the tenth month, on the fifth of the month, one who escaped out of Jerusalem came to me, saying, The city is stricken. <sup>22</sup>And the LORD's hand was on me in the evening, before he who had escaped came. And He had opened my mouth until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was dumb no more. <sup>23</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>24</sup>Son of man, those who live in those wastes of the land of Israel are speaking, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land. But we are many; the land is given to us for inheritance. <sup>25</sup>So say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah: You eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood; and shall you possess the land? <sup>26</sup>You stand on your sword, you work abomination, each defiling his neighbor's wife. And shall you possess the land? <sup>27</sup>Speak to them in this way, So says the Lord Jehovah: As I live, surely those who are in the ruins shall fall by the sword, and I will give him who is in the open field to the beasts to be eaten up, and those who are in the forts and in the caves shall die of the plague. <sup>28</sup>For I have made the land a ruin, and the pride of her strength has ceased. And the mountains of Israel shall be a waste, so that none shall pass through. <sup>29</sup>And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land a ruin because of all their abominations which they have committed.

<sup>30</sup>And you, son of man, the sons of your people are still talking about you by the walls, and in the doors of the houses, and speaking to one another, each man to his brother, saying, I pray you, come and hear what is the word which comes from the LORD. <sup>31</sup>And they come to you as the people come, and they sit before you as My people, and they hear your words. But they will not do them. For with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goes after their unjust gain. <sup>32</sup>And lo, you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they do not do them. <sup>33</sup>And when this happens; lo, it will come; then they shall know that a prophet has been among them.

CHAPTER 34

<sup>1</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy and say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah to the shepherds: Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the flocks? <sup>3</sup>You eat the fat and clothe yourselves with the wool; you kill those who are fed, but you do not feed the flock. <sup>4</sup>You have not made the weak strong, nor have you healed the sick, nor have you bound up the broken. You have not brought again that which was driven away, nor have you sought that which was lost; but you have ruled them with force and with cruelty. <sup>5</sup>And they were scattered because there is no shepherd. And they became food to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered. <sup>6</sup>My sheep wandered through all the mountains and on every high hill. Yea, My flock was scattered on all the face of the earth, and none searched nor sought for them. <sup>7</sup>Therefore, shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: <sup>8</sup>As I live, says the Lord Jehovah, surely My flock became a prey, and My flock became food to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd. Nor did My shepherds search for My flock, but the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed My flock; <sup>9</sup>therefore, O shepherds, hear the word of the LORD. <sup>10</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will require My flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock. Nor shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver My flock from their mouth, that they may not be food for them.

<sup>11</sup>For so says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I, even I, will both search My sheep and seek them out. <sup>12</sup>As a shepherd seeks out his flock in the day that he is among his scattered sheep, so I will seek out My sheep and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. <sup>13</sup>And I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the lands, and will bring them to their own land and feed them on the mountain of Israel by the rivers, and in all the places of the land where people live. <sup>14</sup>I will feed them in a good pasture, and their fold shall be on the high mountains of Israel. There they shall lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture they shall feed on the mountains of Israel. <sup>15</sup>I will feed My flock, and I will cause them to lie down, says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>16</sup>I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick. But I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment. <sup>17</sup>And you, My flock, says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I judge between lamb and lamb, between rams and he-goats. <sup>18</sup>Is it a small thing to you to have eaten up the good pasture, but you must trample the rest of your pastures with your feet? And to have drunk of the deep waters, but you must foul the rest with your feet? <sup>19</sup>And My flock, they eat what you have trampled with your feet, and they drink that which you have fouled with your feet.

<sup>20</sup>So the Lord Jehovah says this to them: Behold I, even I, will judge between the fat lamb and the lean lamb. <sup>21</sup>Because you have thrust with side and with shoulder, and have pushed all the weak with your horns until you have scattered them; <sup>22</sup>therefore I will save My flock, and they shall no more be a prey. And I will judge between lamb and lamb. <sup>23</sup>And I will set up one Shepherd over them, and He shall feed them, My servant David. He shall feed them, and He shall be their Shepherd. <sup>24</sup>And I the LORD will be their God, and My servant David a ruler among them. I the LORD have spoken. <sup>25</sup>And I will make a covenant of peace with them, and will send the evil beasts out of the land. And they shall dwell safely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods. <sup>26</sup>And I will make them, and the places around My hill, a blessing; and I will bring down the shower in its season. There shall be showers of blessing. <sup>27</sup>And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase. And they shall be safe in their land, and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and have delivered them out of the hands of those who enslaved them. <sup>28</sup>And no more shall they be a prey to the nations, nor shall the beast of the land eat them. But they shall dwell safely, and none shall terrify them. <sup>29</sup>And I will raise up for them a planting place of name; and they shall never again be of those gathered by famine in the land, nor shall they bear the shame of the nations any more. <sup>30</sup>And they shall know that I, the LORD their God, am with them, and they, the house of Israel, are My people, says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>31</sup>And you My flock, the flock of My pasture, are men, and I am your God, says the Lord Jehovah.

CHAPTER 35

<sup>1</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir and prophesy against it. <sup>3</sup>And say to it, So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, O Mount Seir, I am against you, and I will stretch out My hand against you, and I will make you a ruin and a waste. <sup>4</sup>I will raze your cities, and you shall be ruined, and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>5</sup>Because you have had a never-ending hatred, and have shed the blood of the sons of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time that iniquity had an end, <sup>6</sup>therefore, As I live, says the Lord Jehovah, I will yield you up to blood, and blood shall pursue you. Since you have not hated blood, even blood shall pursue you. <sup>7</sup>So I will make mount Seir a ruin, and cut off from it the one passing through, and the one returning. <sup>8</sup>And I will fill his mountains with his dead. In your hills, and in your valleys, and in all your rivers, those who are slain with the sword shall fall. <sup>9</sup>I will make you ruins forever, and your cities shall not return. And you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>10</sup>Because you have said, These two nations and these two lands shall be mine, and we shall possess it; yet the LORD was there; <sup>11</sup>therefore, as I live, says the Lord Jehovah, I will act by your anger and by your envy which you have shown out of your hatred against them. And I will make Myself known among them when I have judged you. <sup>12</sup>And you shall know that I am the LORD, and that I have heard all your blasphemies which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid waste; they are given to us for food. <sup>13</sup>So with your mouth you have boasted against Me, and have multiplied your words against Me. I have heard them. <sup>14</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you a ruin. <sup>15</sup>As you rejoiced at the inheritance of the house of Israel because it was a ruin, so I will do to you. You shall be a ruin, O mount Seir and all Idumea, even all of it. And they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 36

<sup>1</sup>Also, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, Mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD. <sup>2</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: Because the enemy has said against you, Aha! Even the old high places have become ours to possess; <sup>3</sup>therefore prophesy and say, So says the Lord Jehovah: Because of the wasting and crushing of you from all around, that you might be a possession to the rest of the nations, and you were lifted up on the lip of the tongue, and the talking of the people; <sup>4</sup>so, mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord Jehovah. So says the Lord Jehovah to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, to the deserted wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and a mockery to the rest of the nations that are all around. <sup>5</sup>So the Lord Jehovah says this: Surely in the fire of My jealousy I have spoken against the rest of the nations, and against all Idumea, who have given My land to themselves for a possession with all joy of heart, with scorning of soul, that its casting out might be for a prey. <sup>6</sup>So prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and say to the mountains and to the hills, to the rivers and to the valleys, So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I have spoken in My jealousy and in My fury, because you have borne the shame of the nations. <sup>7</sup>Therefore so says the Lord Jehovah: I have lifted up My hand; surely the nations that are around you shall bear their shame.

<sup>8</sup>But you, O mountains of Israel, you shall put out your branches and yield your fruit to My people Israel; for they have drawn near to come. <sup>9</sup>For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn to you, and you shall be tilled and sown. <sup>10</sup>And I will multiply men on you, all the house of Israel, all of it. And the cities shall have people, and the wastes shall be built. <sup>11</sup>And I will multiply man and beast on you, and they shall increase and be fruitful. And I will make you dwell as before, and I will do better to you than at your beginnings. And you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>12</sup>Yea, I will cause men to walk on you, even My people Israel. And they shall possess you, and you shall be their inheritance, and not any more will increase their bereavement. <sup>13</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: Because they say to you, You are a devourer of men, and you have bereaved your nations; <sup>14</sup>so you shall devour men no more, nor shall you bereave your nations any more, says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>15</sup>Nor will I allow you to hear the shame of the nations in you any more, nor shall you bear the shame of the peoples any more, nor shall you cause your nations to fall any more, says the Lord Jehovah.

<sup>16</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying. <sup>17</sup>Son of man, when the house of Israel lived in their own land, they defiled it by their own way and by their doings — as the defilement of woman's impurity, their way was before Me. <sup>18</sup>So I poured My fury on them, because of the blood that they had shed on the land, and for their idols by which they defiled it. <sup>19</sup>And I scattered them among the nations, and they were scattered through the lands. I judged them according to their way and according to their doings. <sup>20</sup>And when they entered the nations where they went, they even profaned My holy name by saying to them, These are the people of the Jehovah, and they are gone out of His land. <sup>21</sup>But I had pity for My holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations where they went.

<sup>22</sup>Therefore say to the house of Israel, So says the Lord Jehovah: I do not do this for your sake, O house of Israel, but for My holy name's sake, which you have profaned among the nations where you went. <sup>23</sup>And I will sanctify My great name, which was profaned among the nations, which you have profaned in their midst. And the nations shall know that I am the LORD, says the Lord Jehovah, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes. <sup>24</sup>For I will take you from among the nations and gather you out of all lands, and will gather you into your own land. <sup>25</sup>And I will sprinkle clean waters on you, and you shall be clean. I will cleanse you from all your filthiness and from your idols. <sup>26</sup>And I will give you a new heart, and I will put a new spirit within you. And I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh. <sup>27</sup>And I will put My Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes, and you shall keep My judgments and do them. <sup>28</sup>And you shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers. And you shall be My people, and I will be your God. <sup>29</sup>I will also save you from all your defilements, and I will call for the grain, and will increase it, and will lay no famine on you. <sup>30</sup>And I will multiply the fruits of the tree and the increase of the field, so that you shall never again receive the curse of famine among the nations. <sup>31</sup>And you shall remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and shall despise yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations. <sup>32</sup>I do not do this for your sake, says the Lord Jehovah, be it known to you. Be ashamed and confounded for your ways, O house of Israel.

<sup>33</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: In the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be built. <sup>34</sup>And the waste land shall be tilled, instead of being a ruin before all passing by. <sup>35</sup>And they shall say, This land that was wasted has become like the garden of Eden. And the wasted, deserted and ruined cities now are fortified and inhabited. <sup>36</sup>And the nations that are left all around you shall know that I the LORD build the ruined places and plant that which was wasted. I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it. <sup>37</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: I will yet for this be inquired by the house of Israel to act for them. I will increase them with men like a flock. <sup>38</sup>As a holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her appointed feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men. And they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 37

<sup>1</sup>The hand of the LORD was on me, and brought me by the Spirit of the LORD, and made me rest in the midst of a valley, and it was full of bones. <sup>2</sup>And He made me pass among them all around. And behold, very many were on the face of the valley. And lo, they were very dry. <sup>3</sup>And he said to me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord Jehovah, You know. <sup>4</sup>Again He said to me, Prophecy to these bones, and say to them, O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. <sup>5</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah to these bones: Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live. <sup>6</sup>And I will lay sinews on you, and will bring up flesh on you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live. And you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>7</sup>So I prophesied as I was commanded. And as I prophesied, there was a noise. And behold, a shaking! And the bones came near, a bone to its bone. <sup>8</sup>And I watched. And behold! The sinews and the flesh came up on them, and the skin covered them above. But there was no breath in them. <sup>9</sup>And He said to me, Prophecy to the breath, prophecy, son of man, and say to the breath, So says the Lord Jehovah: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe on these dead ones so that they may live. <sup>10</sup>So I prophesied as He commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived and stood on their feet, an exceedingly great army.

<sup>11</sup>And He said to me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Behold, they say, Our bones are dried and our hope is lost; we are cut off by ourselves. <sup>12</sup>Therefore prophecy and say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, O My people, I will open your graves and cause you to come up out of your graves, and will bring you into the land of Israel. <sup>13</sup>And you shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O My people, and have brought you up out of your graves. <sup>14</sup>And I shall put My Spirit in you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land. And you shall know that I the LORD have spoken and have done it, says the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>And the word of the LORD came again to me, saying, <sup>16</sup>And you, son of man, take a stick and write on it, For Judah and for his companions, the sons of Israel. And take another stick and write on it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and all the house of Israel, his companions. <sup>17</sup>And join them to one another into one stick. And they shall become one in your hand. <sup>18</sup>And when the sons of your people shall speak to you, saying, Will you not declare to us what these mean to you? <sup>19</sup>Say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel, his companions, and I will put them with him, with the stick of Judah, and will make them one stick, and they shall be one in My hand.

<sup>20</sup>And the sticks on which you write shall be in your hand before their eyes. <sup>21</sup>And say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I will take the sons of Israel from among the nations where they have gone, and will gather them on every side, and will bring them into their own land. <sup>22</sup>And I will make them one nation in the land on the mountains of Israel, and one king shall be king to them all. And they shall never again be two nations, nor shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all. <sup>23</sup>Nor shall they be defiled with their idols, even with their filthy idols, nor with all of their transgressions. But I will save them out of all their dwelling places, in them where they sinned, and will cleanse them. And they shall be to Me for a people, and I will be to them for God. <sup>24</sup>And David My servant shall be king over them. And there shall be one Shepherd to all of them. And they shall walk in My judgments, and obey My laws, and do them. <sup>25</sup>And they shall dwell in the land that I have given to Jacob My servant, the land in which your fathers have lived. And they shall dwell in it, even they and their sons, and their sons's sons for ever. And My servant David shall be their ruler forever. <sup>26</sup>And I will cut a covenant of peace with them. It shall be an everlasting covenant with them. And I will place them, and multiply them, and will set My sanctuary in their midst forever. <sup>27</sup>And My tabernacle shall be with them. Yea, I will be their God, and they shall be My people. <sup>28</sup>And the nations shall know that I the LORD sanctify Israel, when My sanctuary shall be in their midst forever.

CHAPTER 38

<sup>1</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>Son of man, set your face against Gog, the land of Magog, the chief ruler of Meshech, and Tubal, and prophesy against him. <sup>3</sup>And say, So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I am against you, O Gog, the chief ruler of Meshech and Tubal. <sup>4</sup>And I will turn you back, and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you out, and all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed most perfectly, a great assembly with buckler and shield, all of them swordsmen; <sup>5</sup>Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya with them, all of them with shield and helmet; <sup>6</sup>Gomer and all his bands; the house of Togarmah, from the recesses of the north, and all his bands; and many peoples with you. <sup>7</sup>Be prepared; yea, prepare for yourself, you and all your assembly that are assembled to you, and be a guard to them. <sup>8</sup>After many days you will be visited. In the latter years you shall come into the land turned back from the sword, gathered out of many peoples, on the mountains of Israel, which have always been waste. (But he has been brought out of the peoples, and they shall dwell securely, all of them.) <sup>9</sup>And you shall go up, coming like a storm. You shall be like a cloud to cover the land, you and all your bands, and many peoples with you.

<sup>10</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: And it shall be in that day that things shall come into your heart, and you shall devise an evil plan. <sup>11</sup>And you shall say, I will go up to the land of open spaces. I will go to those at rest, who dwell securely, all of them dwelling without walls, and there are no bars nor gates to them, <sup>12</sup>in order to take a spoil, and to steal a prize; to turn your hand on the inhabited waste places, and on the people gathered out of the nations, who have gotten cattle and goods, who dwell in the midst of the land. <sup>13</sup>Sheba and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all their young lions, shall say to you, Have you come to take a spoil? Have you gathered your company to steal a prize, to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil?

<sup>14</sup>So, son of man, prophesy and say to Gog, So says the Lord Jehovah: In that day when My people of Israel dwells securely, shall you not know it? <sup>15</sup>And you shall come from your place out of the recesses of the north, you and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and a mighty army. <sup>16</sup>And you shall come up on My people Israel like a cloud, to cover the land. It shall be in the last days, and I will bring you against My land, so that the nations may know Me when I shall be sanctified in you, O Gog, before their eyes. <sup>17</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: Are you he of whom I have spoken in former days, by the hand of My servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days many years that I would bring you against them? <sup>18</sup>And it shall be on that day, when Gog comes against the land of Israel, says the Lord Jehovah, My fury shall come up in My face. <sup>19</sup>For in My jealousy and in the fire of My wrath I have spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great quaking in the land of Israel, <sup>20</sup>so that the fish of the sea, and the birds of the heavens, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep on the earth, and all the men that are on the face of the earth, shall quake at My presence. And the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. <sup>21</sup>And I will call for a sword against him on all My mountains, says the Lord Jehovah. Each man's sword shall be against his brother. <sup>22</sup>And I will judge him with a plague and with blood. And I will rain on him, and on his bands, and on the many peoples with him, an overflowing shower, and great hailstones, fire and brimstone. <sup>23</sup>So I will magnify Myself and sanctify Myself. And I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 39

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, son of man, prophesy against Gog and say, So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I am against you, O Gog, the chief ruler of Meshech and Tubal. <sup>2</sup>And I will turn you back, and lead you on. And I will bring you on the mountains of Israel. <sup>3</sup>And I will strike your bow out of your left hand, and will cause your arrows to fall out of your right hand. <sup>4</sup>You shall fall on the mountains of Israel, you and all your hands, and the people with you. I will give you for food to the birds of prey of every kind, and to the beasts of the field. <sup>5</sup>You shall fall on the face of the field, for I have spoken, says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>6</sup>And I will send a fire on Magog, and on the secure inhabitants of the coasts. And they shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>7</sup>And I will make My holy name known in the midst of My people Israel. And I will not let them profane My holy name any more. And the nations shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

<sup>8</sup>Behold, it is coming, and it will be done, says the Lord Jehovah. This is the day of which I have spoken. <sup>9</sup>And the inhabitants of the cities of Israel shall go out and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the javelins, and the spears. And they shall burn them with fire seven years, <sup>10</sup>so that they shall take no wood out of the field, nor cut down any out of the forests for they shall burn the weapons for fire. And they shall plunder those who plundered them, and rob those who robbed them, says the Lord Jehovah.

<sup>11</sup>And it will be in that day I will give to Gog a place there, a grave in Israel, the valley of those who pass by, east of the sea. And it shall stop the noses of those who pass by. And there they shall bury Gog and all his multitude. And they shall call it The Valley of the Multitude of Gog. <sup>12</sup>And the house of Israel shall bury them, to cleanse the land, seven months. <sup>13</sup>And all the people of the land shall bury. And it shall be a name to them, the day when I am glorified, says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>14</sup>And men shall separate those who continually pass through the land, burying those who remain on the face of the earth, to cleanse it. At the end of seven months they shall search. <sup>15</sup>And as they pass, those who pass through the land, and any man sees a bone, then he shall build a post beside it, until the buriers have buried it in The Valley of the Multitude of God. <sup>16</sup>And also the name of the city is The Multitude. And they shall cleanse the land.

<sup>17</sup>And you, son of man, So says the Lord Jehovah. Speak to the bird of every wing, and to every beast of the field: Gather yourselves and come; gather yourselves from all around to My sacrifice that I sacrifice for you, a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, so that you may eat flesh and drink blood. <sup>18</sup>You shall eat the flesh of the mighty and drink the blood of the rulers of the earth, of rams, lambs, goats, and bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan. <sup>19</sup>And you shall eat fat until you are full, and drink blood until you are drunk, of My sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. <sup>20</sup>And you shall be filled at My table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, all the men of war, says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>21</sup>And I will set My glory among the nations, and all the nations shall see My judgments which I have done, and My hand that I have laid on them. <sup>22</sup>So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God from that day and forward.

<sup>23</sup>And the nations shall know that the house of Israel was exiled for their iniquity. Because they sinned against Me, therefore I hid My face from them and gave them into the hand of their enemies. So they all fell by the sword. <sup>24</sup>According to their uncleanness and according to their sins I have done to them, and have hidden My face from them. <sup>25</sup>Therefore so says the Lord Jehovah: And I will return the captivity of Jacob, and will have mercy on the whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for My holy name; <sup>26</sup>after they have borne their shame and all their sins by which they have sinned against Me, when they dwell securely in their land and no one terrifies; <sup>27</sup>when I have brought them again from the peoples, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations; <sup>28</sup>then they shall know that I am the LORD their God who exiled them among the nations. But I have gathered them to their own land, and have not left any of them there. <sup>29</sup>Nor will I hide My face from them any more, for I have poured out My Spirit on the house of Israel, says the Lord Jehovah.

CHAPTER 40

<sup>1</sup>In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was stricken, in the same day the hand of the LORD was on me, and brought me there. <sup>2</sup>In the visions of God He brought me into the land of Israel, and made me rest on a very high mountain. And it went up, as the structure of the city on the south. <sup>3</sup>And He brought me there, and behold, a man whose appearance was like the look of bronze, and a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed. And he stood in the gate. <sup>4</sup>And the man said to me, Son of man, behold with your eyes and hear with your ears, and set your heart on all that I shall show you. For you are brought here so that I might show them to you. Declare all that you see to the house of Israel. <sup>5</sup>And behold, a wall on the outside of the house all around, and in the man's hand was a measuring reed, six cubits, with a cubit and a span. And he measured the building's breadth, one reed; and the height, one reed. <sup>6</sup>And he came to the gate which faced eastward, and went up its steps, and measured the threshold of the gate, one reed wide, even the one threshold, one reed wide. <sup>7</sup>And a room one reed long and one reed wide. And between the rooms were five cubits. And the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate from the house, one reed. <sup>8</sup>He also measured the porch of the gate inside, one reed. <sup>9</sup>And he measured the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and its pillars, two cubits; also the porch of the gate from the house. <sup>10</sup>And the gaterooms eastward were three from here, and three from there; one measure to the three of them; and one measure was to the pillars from here and from there. <sup>11</sup>And he measured the breadth of the gate-opening, ten cubits. The length of the gate was thirteen cubits. <sup>12</sup>And the border in front of the rooms was one cubit from here, and the space was one cubit from there. And the room was six cubits from here and six cubits from there. <sup>13</sup>And he measured the gate of the room from the roof to roof, twenty-five cubits wide, door to door. <sup>14</sup>He also made the pillars, sixty cubits, even to the court-pillar, from the gate all around. <sup>15</sup>And on the face of the entrance gate to the face of the porch of the inner gate was fifty cubits; <sup>16</sup>and latticed windows were to the rooms and to their pillars inside the gate all around. And to each pillar were palm trees.

<sup>17</sup>And he brought me into the outer court, and lo, chambers, and a pavement made for the court all around. Thirty rooms were on the pavement. <sup>18</sup>And the pavement by the side of the gates to equal the length of the gates was the lower pavement. <sup>19</sup>And he measured the breadth from the front of the lower gate to the front of the inner court on the outside, a hundred cubits eastward and northward. <sup>20</sup>And the gate which faces the way of the north of the outer court, he measured its length and its breadth. <sup>21</sup>And its rooms were three from here and three from there. And its pillars and its porches were according to the first measure. Its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth, twenty-five cubits. <sup>22</sup>And their windows, and their porches, and their palm trees, were according to the measure of the gate facing the east. And they went up to it by seven steps; and its porches were before them. <sup>23</sup>And the gate of the inner court was across from the gate toward the north and toward the east. And he measured from gate to gate, a hundred cubits. <sup>24</sup>And he led me southward, and behold a gate southward. And he measured its pillars and its porches according to these measures. <sup>25</sup>And there were windows in it and in its porches all around, like those windows. The length was fifty cubits, and the breadth, twenty-five cubits. And there were seven steps to go up to it, and its porches were before them. <sup>26</sup>And it had palm trees, one from here and another from there, on its pillars. <sup>27</sup>And there was a gate in the inner court southward. And he measured from gate to gate southward, a hundred cubits. <sup>28</sup>And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate. And he measured the south gate according to these measures, <sup>29</sup>and its rooms and its pillars and its porches according to these measures. And there were windows in it and in its porches all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. <sup>30</sup>And the porches all around were twenty-five cubits long and five cubits wide. <sup>31</sup>And its porches were toward the outer court; and palm trees on its pillars. And its stairway had eight steps.

<sup>32</sup>And he brought me into the inner court eastward. And he measured the gate according to these measures. <sup>33</sup>And its rooms, and its pillars, and its porches, were measured according to these measures. And there were windows in it and in its porches all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. <sup>34</sup>And its porches were toward the outer court. And palm trees were on its pillars, from here, and from there. And its stairway had eight steps.

<sup>35</sup>And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these measures; <sup>36</sup>its rooms, its pillars, and its porches, and its windows all around. The length was fifty cubits, and the breadth twenty-five cubits. <sup>37</sup>And its pillars were toward the outer court. And palm trees were on its pillars, from here and from there. And its stairway had eight steps. <sup>38</sup>And the chamber and its door were by the pillars of the gates; they washed the burnt offering there. <sup>39</sup>And in the porch of the gate were two tables from here and two tables from there, for the slaughtering of the burnt offering and the sin offering and the trespass offering. <sup>40</sup>And to the side outside, as one goes up to the door of the gate northward were two tables; and on the other side at the porch of the gate, two tables. <sup>41</sup>Four tables were from here, and four tables were from there, by the side of the gate: eight tables; they slaughter on them. <sup>42</sup>And the four tables for burnt offering were of cut stone, a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half wide, and one cubit high. They also rested on them the instruments with which they slaughtered the burnt offering and the sacrifice.

<sup>43</sup>And the double hooks of one span were fastened in the house all around, and on the tables the flesh of the offering. <sup>44</sup>And from the outside to the inner court were the chambers of the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate. And their face was southward: one at the side of the east gate looked the way of the north. <sup>45</sup>And he said to me, This chamber facing southward is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the house. <sup>46</sup>And the chamber facing northward is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the altar. They are the sons of Zadok among the sons of Levi, who come near the LORD to minister to Him. <sup>47</sup>And he measured the court, a square, a hundred cubits long and a hundred cubits wide; and the altar was before the house. <sup>48</sup>And he brought me to the porch of the house and measured each pillar of the porch, five cubits from here and five cubits from there. And the gate was three cubits wide from here and three cubits from there. <sup>49</sup>The porch was twenty cubits long, and eleven cubits wide. And he brought me by the steps by which they went up to it. And columns were by the pillars, one from here and another from there.

CHAPTER 41

<sup>1</sup>And he brought me to the temple and measured the pillars, six cubits wide from here and six cubits wide from there, which was the breadth of the tabernacle. <sup>2</sup>And the breadth of the door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door, five cubits from here, and five cubits from there. And he measured its length, forty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits. <sup>3</sup>And he went inside and measured the pillar of the door, two cubits; and the door was six cubits; and the breadth of the door, seven cubits. <sup>4</sup>And he measured its length, twenty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple. And he said to me, This is the Holy of Holies.

<sup>5</sup>And he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the width of each side room was four cubits, all around the house on every side. <sup>6</sup>And the side chambers were a side chamber over a side chamber, three stories, and thirty times. And they entered the wall of the house for the side chambers all around, that they might be fastened, for they were not fastened to the wall of the house. <sup>7</sup>And there was a widening, and a winding upwards and upwards to the side chambers. For the winding around of the house went upward and upward, all around the house. On account of this the width of the house went upward, and so from the lowest it went up to the highest by the middle story. <sup>8</sup>I also saw the height of the house all around. The foundations of the side rooms were a full reed, six large cubits by joining. <sup>9</sup>The width of the wall, which was for the side chamber to the outside, was five cubits, and what was left between the side chambers that were of the house. <sup>10</sup>And between the chambers was the width of twenty cubits, circling the house all around. <sup>11</sup>And the doors of the side chamber were toward the open space, one door northward and one door southward. And the width of the place of the open space was five cubits all around. <sup>12</sup>And the building that was before the separate place at the end of the way of the west was seventy cubits wide. And the wall of the building was five cubits wide all around, and its length, ninety cubits.

<sup>13</sup>And he measured the house, a hundred cubits long. And the separate place, and the building, and its wall, were a hundred cubits long. <sup>14</sup>And the width of the front of the house and of the separate place eastward was a hundred cubits. <sup>15</sup>And he measured the length of the building to the front of the separate place which was behind it; and its gallery from here and from there, a hundred cubits, with the inner temple and the porches of the court, <sup>16</sup>the thresholds, and the latticed narrow windows, and the galleries all around, their three stories across from the threshold, with wood panelings all around, and from the ground up to the windows; and the windows were covered; <sup>17</sup>to that above the door, even to the inner house, and outside, and by all the wall around inside and outside, by measure. <sup>18</sup>And it was made with cherubs and palm trees, and a palm tree was between cherub and cherub. And each cherub had two faces, <sup>19</sup>the face of a man was toward the palm tree from here, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree from there. It was made through all the house all around. <sup>20</sup>From the ground to above the door were cherubs and palm trees made, and on the wall of the temple. <sup>21</sup>The temple doorposts were squared, and the face of the sanctuary. The looks of the one was like the looks of the other. <sup>22</sup>The altar of wood was three cubits high, and its length two cubits. And its corners, and its length, and its walls, were of wood. And he said to me, This is the table that is before the LORD.<sup>23</sup> And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors.<sup>24</sup> And two doors were to each of the doors, two turning doors, two for the one door, and two for the other door.<sup>25</sup> And on them, on the temple doors, were made cherubs and palm trees like those made on the walls, and thick wood on the face of the porch outside.<sup>26</sup> And latticed windows, and palm trees, were from here and from there, on the sides of the porch, and on the side chambers of the house, and wooden canopies.

CHAPTER 42

<sup>1</sup>And he brought me out into the outer court, the way northward. And he brought me into the chamber that was across from the separate place and which was in front of the building to the north.<sup>2</sup> Before the length of a hundred cubits was the north door, and the width was fifty cubits.<sup>3</sup> Across from the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and across from the pavement which was for the outer court, gallery was on gallery in three stories.<sup>4</sup> And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits width inward, a way of one cubit. And their doors were northward.<sup>5</sup> And the upper chambers were shorter; for the galleries used up more space than the lower and middle ones in the building.<sup>6</sup> For they were in three stories, but there were no columns to them like the columns of the courts. So the third story was made narrower than the lower and the middle stories from the ground.<sup>7</sup> And the wall that was outside near the chambers, toward the outer court on the front of the chambers, its length was fifty cubits.<sup>8</sup> For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits. And lo, in front of the temple was a hundred cubits.<sup>9</sup> And under these chambers was the entrance on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court,<sup>10</sup> in the width of the wall of the court eastward, to the front of the separate area, and to the front of the building were chambers.<sup>11</sup> And the way in front of them looked like the chambers which were northward, as their length, so their width. And all their exits were as their patterns, and as their doors.<sup>12</sup> And as the doors of the chambers that were southward was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly in front of the wall eastward, as one enters them.

<sup>13</sup>And he said to me, The north chambers and the south chambers which are in front of the separate place, they are holy chambers, where the priests who approach to the LORD shall eat the most holy things. There they shall lay the most holy things, and the food offering, and the sin offering, and the guilt offering. For the place is holy.<sup>14</sup> When the priests enter, then they shall not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but they shall lay their clothes there by which they minister in them, for they are holy. And they shall put on other clothes, and shall approach that which is for the people.<sup>15</sup> And he finished measuring the inner house; he brought me out the way of the gate whose view is eastward, and measured all around.<sup>16</sup> He measured the east side with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds with the measuring reed, all around.<sup>17</sup> He measured the north side, five hundred reeds with the measuring reed all around.<sup>18</sup> He measured the south side, five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.<sup>19</sup> He turned to the west side, measuring five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.<sup>20</sup> He measured it by the four sides. It had a wall all around, five hundred long, and five hundred wide, to make a separation between the holy place and the common place.

CHAPTER 43

<sup>1</sup>And he led me to the gate, the gate that faces eastward.<sup>2</sup> And behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east. And His voice was like the sound of many waters. And the earth shone with His glory.<sup>3</sup> And it looked the same as the vision which I saw, even according to the vision which I saw when I came to destroy the city. And the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar. And I fell on my face. <sup>4</sup>And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose view is eastward. <sup>5</sup>And the Spirit took me up and brought me into the inner chamber. And behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house. <sup>6</sup>And I heard Him speaking to me from the house. And standing by me was a Man. <sup>7</sup>And He said to me, Son of man, the house of Israel shall no more defile the place of My throne, and the place of the soles of My feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the sons of Israel forever; neither they, nor their kings, by their fornication, nor by the dead bodies of their kings in their high places. <sup>8</sup>In their setting of their doorstep by My threshold, and their doorpost by My doorpost; and the wall between Me and them, they have even defiled My holy name by their abominations which they have done. And I have consumed them in My anger. <sup>9</sup>Now let them put away their fornication, and the dead bodies of their kings from Me, and I will dwell in their midst forever.

<sup>10</sup>You, son of man, show the house to the house of Israel, so that they may be ashamed of their iniquities. And let them measure its size. <sup>11</sup>And if they are ashamed of all that they have done, the form of the house, and its arrangement, and its exits, and its entrances, and all its forms, and all its statutes, and all its forms, and all its laws, make known to them. And write them before their eyes, so that they may observe all its form, and all its statutes, and do them. <sup>12</sup>This is the law of the house. On the top of the mountain is all its border, all around, most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

<sup>13</sup>And these are the measures of the altar by the cubit. The cubit is a cubit and a span; even the base shall be a cubit, and the width a cubit, and its border by its edge all around shall be a span. And this is the upper part of the altar. <sup>14</sup>And from the base on the ground even to the lower ledge shall be two cubits, and the width one cubit. And from the smaller ledge even to the greater ledge shall be four cubits, and the width one cubit. <sup>15</sup>And the altar hearth shall be four cubits, and from the altar hearth and upward shall be four horns. <sup>16</sup>And the altar hearth shall be twelve cubits long, twelve wide, square in its four sides. <sup>17</sup>And the ledge shall be fourteen long and fourteen wide in its four sides. And the border around it shall be half a cubit, and its base a cubit around. And its steps shall face eastward.

<sup>18</sup>And He said to me, Son of man, so says the Lord Jehovah: These are the statutes of the altar in the day of its being made to offer on it burnt offerings, and to sprinkle blood on it. <sup>19</sup>And you shall give a young bull for a sin offering to the priests the Levites, who are of the seed of Zadok, who approach Me to minister to Me, says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>20</sup>And you shall take of its blood and put it on its four horns, and on the four corners of the ledge, and on the border all around. So you shall cleanse and purge it. <sup>21</sup>You shall also take the bull of the sin offering, and he shall burn it in the appointed place of the house, outside the sanctuary. <sup>22</sup>And on the second day you shall offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin offering. And they shall cleanse the altar as they cleansed it with the bull. <sup>23</sup>And when you have finished cleansing it, you shall offer a young bull without blemish and a ram out of the flock without blemish. <sup>24</sup>And you shall offer them before the LORD, and the priests shall cast salt on them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>25</sup>Every day for seven days you shall prepare a goat for a sin offering. They also shall prepare a young bull, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish. <sup>26</sup>Seven days they shall purge the altar and purify it; and they shall consecrate themselves. <sup>27</sup>And when these days are expired, it shall be that on the eighth day, and forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings before the altar, and your peace offerings. And I will accept you, says the Lord Jehovah.

CHAPTER 44

<sup>1</sup>And he brought me back by the way of the gate of the outer sanctuary which looks eastward. And it was shut. <sup>2</sup>And the LORD said to me, This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it. Because the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut. <sup>3</sup>It is for the ruler; the ruler shall sit in it to eat bread before the LORD. He shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the same way.

<sup>4</sup>And He brought me by the way of the north gate before the house. And I looked, and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD. And I fell on my face. <sup>5</sup>And the LORD said to me, Son of man, note carefully: see with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I say to you concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all its laws. And set your heart to the entrance of the house, with all the exits of the sanctuary. <sup>6</sup>And you shall say to the rebellious, to the house of Israel, This says the Lord Jehovah: O house of Israel, let it be more than enough for you, of all your hateful deeds, <sup>7</sup>that you have brought strangers, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My sanctuary, to profane it, even My house, when you offer My bread, the fat and the blood. And they have broken My covenant because of all your abominations. <sup>8</sup>And you have not kept the charge of My holy things, but you have set keepers of My charge in My sanctuary for themselves.

<sup>9</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: Alien sons, uncircumcised of heart and uncircumcised of flesh, shall not enter into My sanctuary, or any sons of an alien among the sons of Israel. <sup>10</sup>But the Levites who have gone far away from Me, when Israel went astray; those who went astray from Me after their idols; they shall even bear their iniquity. <sup>11</sup>Yet they shall be ministers in My sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house and ministering to the house. They shall kill the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them. <sup>12</sup>Because they ministered to them before their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity, therefore I have lifted up My hand against them, says the Lord Jehovah, and they shall bear their iniquity. <sup>13</sup>And they shall not come near Me, to do the office of a priest to Me, nor to come near any of My holy things, in the most holy place; but they shall bear their shame and their abominations which they have committed. <sup>14</sup>But I will make them keepers of the charge of the house for all its service, and for all that shall be done in it.

<sup>15</sup>But the priests, the Levites, the sons of Zadok, who kept the charge of My sanctuary when the sons of Israel went astray from Me, they shall come near Me to minister to Me, and they shall stand before Me to offer to Me the fat and the blood, says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>16</sup>They shall enter My sanctuary, and they shall come near My table, to minister to Me, and they shall keep My charge.

<sup>17</sup>And when they enter in at the gates of the court, they shall be clothed with linen clothing. And no wool shall come on them while they serve in the gates of the inner court, and inside. <sup>18</sup>Turbans of bleached linen shall be on their heads, and shall have linen breeches on their loins. They shall not clothe themselves with anything that causes sweat. <sup>19</sup>And when they go out into the outer court, even into the outer court of the people, they shall put off their clothes in which they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers. And they shall put on other clothes, so that they shall not sanctify the people with their own clothes. <sup>20</sup>Nor shall they shave their heads nor allow their hair to grow long; they shall only trim their heads. <sup>21</sup>Nor shall any priest drink wine when they enter the inner court. <sup>22</sup>Nor shall they take for their wives a widow nor her who is put away. But they shall take virgins of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow who had a priest before.

<sup>23</sup>And they shall teach My people to discern between the holy and common, and between the unclean and the clean. <sup>24</sup>And in a dispute they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it according to My judgments. And they shall keep My laws and My statutes in all My assemblies, and they shall keep My sabbaths holy. <sup>25</sup>And he shall not come near any dead person to defile himself; but he may defile themselves for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister who has had no husband. <sup>26</sup>And after he is cleansed, they shall count seven days for him. <sup>27</sup>And in the day that he goes into the sanctuary, to the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>28</sup>And it shall be to them for an inheritance. I am their inheritance. And you shall give them no possession in Israel; I am their possession. <sup>29</sup>They shall eat the food offering, and the sin offering, and the guilt offering; and every dedicated thing in Israel shall be theirs. <sup>30</sup>And the first of all the first-fruits of all, and every offering of all, of every kind of your sacrifices, shall be the priest's. You shall also give the priest the first of your dough, so that he may cause the blessing to rest in your house. <sup>31</sup>The priests shall not eat of anything that died of itself, or is torn, whether it is bird or animal.

CHAPTER 45

<sup>1</sup>And, when you make fall the land by lot for inheritance, you shall offer an offering to the LORD, a holy portion of the land. The length shall be twenty-five thousand cubits long, and the width ten thousand. It shall be holy in all its borders all around. <sup>2</sup>Of this there shall be five hundred by five hundred cubits for the sanctuary, square all around; and fifty cubits around shall be for its open space. <sup>3</sup>And from this measure you shall measure the length of twenty-five thousand, and the width of ten thousand. And in it shall be the sanctuary and the most holy place. <sup>4</sup>It is the holy portion of the land for the priests, it shall be for the ministers of the sanctuary who come near to minister to the LORD. And it shall be a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary. <sup>5</sup>And the twenty-five thousand cubits in length, and the ten thousand in width, shall also be for the Levites, the ministers of the house, for themselves for a possession, twenty rooms.

<sup>6</sup>And you shall give the possession of the city, five thousand cubits wide, and twenty-five thousand long, beside the offering of the holy portion. It shall be for the whole house of Israel. <sup>7</sup>And a portion shall be for the ruler from here and from there, for the heave offering of the holy place, and of the possession of the city, in front of the heave offering of the holy place, and to the front of the city's possession, from the west side westward and from the east side eastward. And the length shall be alongside one of the portions, from the west border to the east border. <sup>8</sup>It shall be for a land to him, for a possession in Israel; and My rulers shall never again oppress My people. And they shall give the rest of the land to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

<sup>9</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: Enough for you, O rulers of Israel. Remove violence and spoil, and do judgment and justice. Take away your demands on My people, says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>10</sup>You shall have a just balance, a just ephah and a just bath. <sup>11</sup>The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of a homer, and the ephah the tenth part of a homer. Its measure shall be according to the homer. <sup>12</sup>And the shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, twenty-five shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your maneh. <sup>13</sup>This is the heave offering that you shall offer: the sixth of an ephah of a homer of wheat, and the sixth of an ephah of a homer of barley. <sup>14</sup>And as to the statute of oil, the bath of oil, you shall offer the tenth of a bath out of the cor, which is a homer of ten baths; for ten baths are a homer; <sup>15</sup>and one lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the fat pasture of Israel; for a food offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make atonement for them, says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>16</sup>All the people of the land shall be at the heave offering for the ruler in Israel. <sup>17</sup>And it shall be the ruler's part to give burnt offerings and food offerings and drink offerings, in the feasts, and in the new moons, and in the sabbaths, in all appointed feasts of the house of Israel. He shall prepare the sin offering and the food offering and the burnt offering and the peace offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel.

<sup>18</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: In the first month, in the first of the month, you shall take a perfect bull and cleanse the sanctuary. <sup>19</sup>And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the house, and on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the gateposts of the inner court. <sup>20</sup>And so you shall do on the seventh of the month for each man who goes astray, and for the simple. So you shall atone for the house. <sup>21</sup>In the first month, on the fourteenth of the month, you shall have the Passover, a feast of seven days. Unleavened bread shall be eaten. <sup>22</sup>And on that day the ruler shall prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull for a sin offering. <sup>23</sup>And seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, seven bulls and seven rams, perfect ones, daily for the seven days, and a kid of the goats daily for a sin offering. <sup>24</sup>And he shall prepare a food offering of an ephah for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and a hin of oil for an ephah. <sup>25</sup>In the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month, at the feast he shall prepare like these seven days, according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the food offering, and according to the oil.

CHAPTER 46

<sup>1</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: The gate of the inner court that faces eastward shall be shut the six working days. But on the Sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the new moon it shall be opened. <sup>2</sup>And the ruler shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate outside, and shall stand by the gatepost. And the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate. And he shall go out, but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. <sup>3</sup>And the people of the land shall worship at the door of that gate before the LORD on the sabbaths and in the new moons. <sup>4</sup>And the burnt offering that the ruler shall offer to the LORD in the sabbath day shall be six perfect lambs and a perfect ram. <sup>5</sup>And the food offering shall be an ephah for a ram, and the food offering for the lambs as he shall be able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. <sup>6</sup>And in the day of the new moon it shall be a perfect bull, and six lambs, and a ram. They shall be perfect. <sup>7</sup>And he shall prepare a food offering, an ephah for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs as his hand shall be able to get, and a hin of oil to an ephah. <sup>8</sup>And when the ruler shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and by its way he shall go out. <sup>9</sup>But when the people of the land come before the LORD in the appointed feasts, he who enters by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate. And he who enters by the way of the south gate shall go out by the way of the north gate. He shall not return by the way of the gate by which he came in, but shall leave opposite it.

<sup>10</sup>And the ruler shall go in among them when they go in. And when they go out, he shall go out. <sup>11</sup>And in the feasts and in the appointed feasts the food offering shall be an ephah to a bull, and an ephah to a ram, and to the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah.<sup>12</sup> And when the ruler shall prepare a free-will burnt offering or peace offerings willingly to the LORD, one shall then open to him the gate that faces eastward, and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he did on the Sabbath day. And he shall go out. And after his going out, one shall shut the gate.<sup>13</sup> You shall daily prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, a perfect lamb of the first year. You shall prepare it every morning.<sup>14</sup> And you shall prepare a food offering for it every morning, the sixth of an ephah, and the third of a hin of oil, to make the fine flour moist; a food offering every day by an ordinance forever to the LORD.<sup>15</sup> So they shall prepare the lamb, and the food offering, and the oil, every morning for a burnt offering continually.

<sup>16</sup> So says the Lord Jehovah: If the ruler gives a gift to any of his sons, the inheritance of it shall be his sons'; it shall be their possession by inheritance.<sup>17</sup> But if he gives a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to the year of liberty. Afterwards, it shall return to the ruler, but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them.<sup>18</sup> And the ruler shall not take of the people's inheritance by cruelty, to press them out of their possession. But he shall give his sons their inheritance out of his own possession; so that My people may not be scattered, each man from his possession.

<sup>19</sup> And he brought me through the entry which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, facing north. And behold, there was a place on the two sides westward.<sup>20</sup> And he said to me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the guilt offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the food offering, so that they may not bear them out into the outer court to sanctify the people.<sup>21</sup> And he led me out into the outer court and he made me pass by the four corners of the court. And behold, in every corner of the court there was a court.<sup>22</sup> In the four corners of the court were enclosed courts, forty cubits long and thirty wide, one measure to the four of them.<sup>23</sup> And a row was all around in them, all around the four of them. And boiling water was made under the rows all around.<sup>24</sup> And he said to me, These are the places of those who boil, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

CHAPTER 47

<sup>1</sup> And he led me again to the door of the house. And behold, water came out from under the threshold of the house eastward. For the front of the house is east, and the water came down from under the right side of the house, at the south side of the altar.<sup>2</sup> And he led me out by the way of the north gate, and led me around the way outside to the outer gate, by the way facing the east. And behold, water was trickling out of the right side.

<sup>3</sup> When the man went out eastward, and a line in his hand, he measured a thousand cubits. And he passed me through the water. The water was to the ankles.<sup>4</sup> And he measured a thousand cubits, and passed me through the water, water to the knees. And he measured a thousand, and passed me through water to the loins.<sup>5</sup> And he measured a thousand; and there was a torrent which I was not able to pass; for the water had risen, water to swim in, a torrent that could not be passed.

<sup>6</sup> And he said to me, Son of man, have you seen? And he led me, and caused me to return to the torrent of the edge.<sup>7</sup> And when I returned, then behold, on the edge of the torrent were very many trees, from here and from there.<sup>8</sup> And he said to me, These waters go out toward the eastern circuit, and go down into the Arabah, and go into the sea. They are brought out into the sea, and the waters shall be healed.<sup>9</sup> And it shall be that every living soul which swarms in every place, there where the two torrents go, that soul shall live. And there shall be very many fish, because these waters shall come there. And they shall be healed. And all shall live where the torrent goes. <sup>10</sup>And it will be, the fishermen shall stand on it from En-ge-di even to En-eglaim, a spreading place for nets shall be there. Their fish shall be according to their kinds, like the fish of the Great Sea, very many. <sup>11</sup>Its swamps and its marshes shall not even be healed; they shall be given to salt. <sup>12</sup>And all trees for food shall go up by the torrent, on its bank on this side, and on that side. Its leaf shall not fade, nor its fruit fail. It will bear by its months, because its waters come out from the sanctuary. And its fruit shall be for food, and its leaf for healing.

<sup>13</sup>So says the Lord Jehovah: This shall be the border by which you shall inherit the land according to the twelve tribes of Israel. Joseph shall have two parts. <sup>14</sup>And you shall inherit it, each man like his brother, that I lifted up My hand to give to your fathers; even this land shall fall to you for an inheritance. <sup>15</sup>And this is the border of the land to the north side, from the Great Sea, the way of Hethlon, to the entrance of Zedad; <sup>16</sup>Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazer-hatticon, which is by the border of Hauran. <sup>17</sup>And the border shall be from the sea to Hazer-enan, at the border of Damascus and the north northward, even the border of Hamath. And this is the north side. <sup>18</sup>And you shall measure the east side from between Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and the land of Israel, shall be the Jordan, from the border to the Eastern Sea. And this is the east side. <sup>19</sup>And the south side, southward from Tamar, to the waters of Meriboth-kadesh, the torrent to the Great Sea. And this is the south side southward. <sup>20</sup>And the west side is the Great Sea from the border until one is beside the entrance of Hamath. This is the west side.

<sup>21</sup>And you shall divide this land for yourselves by the tribes of Israel. <sup>22</sup>And it will be, you shall make it fall by lot for an inheritance to yourselves, and to the strangers who live among you, who shall father sons among you. And they shall be to you as native-born among the sons of Israel. They shall be allotted an inheritance among the tribes of Israel. <sup>23</sup>And it shall be, in the tribe in which the stranger resides, there you shall give his inheritance, says the Lord Jehovah.

CHAPTER 48

<sup>1</sup>And these are the names of the tribes. From the north end, at the hand of the way of Hethlon to the entrance of Hamath, Hazer-enon, the border of Damascus northward, at the hand of Hamath. And there shall be to it an east side and a west: one part for Dan. <sup>2</sup>And by the border of Dan, from the east side to the west side, one part for Asher. <sup>3</sup>And by the border of Asher, from the east side even to the west side, one part for Naphtali. <sup>4</sup>And by the border of Naphtali, from the east side to the west side, one part for Manasseh. <sup>5</sup>And by the border of Manasseh, from the east side to the west side, one part for Ephraim. <sup>6</sup>And by the border of Ephraim, from the east side even to the west side, one part for Reuben. <sup>7</sup>And by the border of Reuben from the east side to the west side, one part for Judah. <sup>8</sup>And by the border of Judah, from the east side to the west side, shall be the heave offering which you shall offer: twenty-five thousand cubits wide and long, from the east side to the west side. And the sanctuary shall be in its middle. <sup>9</sup>The heave offering that you shall offer to the LORD shall be twenty-five thousand cubits long, and ten thousand cubits wide. <sup>10</sup>And for these shall be the holy heave offering for the priests; northward, twenty-five thousand; and westward ten thousand wide; and eastward ten thousand wide, and southward twenty-five thousand long. And the sanctuary of the LORD shall be in the middle of it, <sup>11</sup>for the priests who are sanctified, of the sons of Zadek, who have kept My charge, who did not go astray when the sons of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray. <sup>12</sup>And the heave offering shall be theirs, from the heave offering of the land, the holiest of the holy places, by the border of the Levites.

<sup>13</sup>And the Levites shall have alongside the border of the priests twenty-five thousand cubits long, and ten thousand wide. All the length shall be twenty-five thousand, and the width ten thousand. <sup>14</sup>And they shall not sell any of it, nor trade it, nor cause the first-fruits of the land to pass away. For it is holy to the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>And the five thousand that are left in the width in front of the twenty-five thousand shall be common for the city, for dwelling and for open land. And the city shall be in her midst. <sup>16</sup>And these shall be its measures: the north side, four thousand and five hundred; and the south side, four thousand and five hundred; and on the east side, four thousand and five hundred; and the west side, four thousand and five hundred. <sup>17</sup>And the open land of the city shall be northward two hundred and fifty, and southward two hundred and fifty; and eastward, two hundred and fifty; and westward, two hundred and fifty. <sup>18</sup>And the rest in length alongside the heave offering of the holy parts shall be ten thousand eastward and ten thousand westward. And it shall be alongside the heave offering of the holy part. And its produce shall be for bread to those who serve the city. <sup>19</sup>And he who serves the city shall serve it out of all the tribes of Israel. <sup>20</sup>All the heave offering shall be twenty-five thousand by twenty-five thousand, four-square. You shall offer the holy heave offering to the possession of the city. <sup>21</sup>And the rest shall be for the ruler, on this side, and on that side of the holy heave offering, and of the possession of the city, in the front of the twenty-five thousand of the heave offering to the east border, and westward in the front of the twenty-five thousand to the west border, alongside the lots for the ruler. And it shall be the holy heave offering. And the sanctuary of the house shall be in her midst. <sup>22</sup>And to the ruler shall be from the possessions of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, amidst that which is for the ruler; between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the ruler. <sup>23</sup>And the rest of the tribes, from the east side to the west side, Benjamin, one part. <sup>24</sup>And by the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the west side, Simeon, one part. <sup>25</sup>And by the border of Simeon, from the east side to the west side, Issachar, one part. <sup>26</sup>And by the border of Issachar, from the east side to the west side, Zebulun, one part. <sup>27</sup>And by the border of Zebulun, from the east side to the west side, Gad, one part. <sup>28</sup>And by the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar to the waters of Meriboth-kadesh, and to the torrent toward the Great Sea. <sup>29</sup>This is the land which you shall divide by lot to the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their parts, says the Lord Jehovah.

<sup>30</sup>And these are the exits of the city on the north side, four thousand and five hundred measures. <sup>31</sup>And the gates of the city shall be by the names of the tribes of Israel: three gates northward, one gate of Reuben, one gate of Judah, one gate of Levi. <sup>32</sup>And at the east side four thousand and five hundred, and three gates: and one gate of Joseph, one gate of Benjamin, one gate of Dan. <sup>33</sup>And the south side, four thousand and five hundred measures, and three gates: the gate of Simeon, one; the gate of Issachar, one; the gate of Zebulun, one. <sup>34</sup>The west side, four thousand and five hundred, their gates three: the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Asher, one; the gate of Naphtali, one. <sup>35</sup>All around it shall be eighteen thousand cubits. And the name of the city from that day is JEHOVAH IS THERE.

THE BOOK OF DANIEL

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and lay siege to it. <sup>2</sup>And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God, which he carried into the land of Shinar to the house of his god. And he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

<sup>3</sup>And the king spoke to Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs that he should bring some of the sons of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the rulers — <sup>4</sup>sons in whom was no blemish, but who were handsome and skillful in all wisdom; and who had knowledge and understanding, even those who were able to stand in the king's palace, and to whom they might teach the writing and the language of the Chaldeans. <sup>5</sup>And the king gave them the portion of a day in its day from the king's food, and the wine which he drank, even to rear them three years, so that at their end they might stand before the king. <sup>6</sup>And among them were four of the sons of Judah: Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, <sup>7</sup>to whom the ruler of the eunuchs gave names. For he called Daniel, Belteshazzar; and Hananiah, Shadrach; and Mishael, of Meshach; and Azariah, Abednego.

<sup>8</sup>But Daniel laid on his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's food, nor with the wine which he drank. So he asked permission of the chief of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. <sup>9</sup>And God had given Daniel kindness and compassion before the chief of the eunuchs. <sup>10</sup>And the chief of the eunuchs said to Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who has chosen your food and your drink. For why should he see your faces worse looking than the boys who are of your kind? Then you would forfeit my head to the king. <sup>11</sup>And Daniel said to Melzar, whom the chief of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, <sup>12</sup>I beg you, try your servants ten days. And let them give us vegetables to eat and water to drink. <sup>13</sup>Then let our faces be seen before you, our look and the look of the boys who eat of the king's food. And as you see, deal with your servants. <sup>14</sup>So he listened to them in this matter, and tried them for ten days. <sup>15</sup>And at the end of ten days their faces looked fairer and fatter in flesh than all the boys who had eaten the king's food. <sup>16</sup>So Melzar took away their part of the food, and the wine that they were to drink, and gave them vegetables.

<sup>17</sup>As for these four boys, God gave them knowledge and skill in all writing and wisdom. And Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams. <sup>18</sup>And at the end of the days that the king had said he would bring them in, the chief of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>19</sup>And the king talked with them. And among them all were found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. So they stood before the king. <sup>20</sup>And in any matters of wisdom and understanding that the king asked them, he found them ten times better than all the horoscopists and conjurers who were in all his kingdom. <sup>21</sup>And Daniel continued to the first year of king Cyrus.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And in the second year of the reign of king Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, with which his spirit was troubled and his sleep left him. <sup>2</sup>And the king commanded to call the horoscopists, and the conjurers, and to the sorcerers, and to the Chaldeans, to tell to the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king. <sup>3</sup>And the king said to them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream. <sup>4</sup>And the Chaldeans spoke to the king in Aramaic, O king, live forever. Tell your servants the dream, and we will reveal the meaning. <sup>5</sup>The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing has gone from me. If you will not make known to me the dream, with its meaning, you will be made into mere members, and your houses shall be made an outhouse. <sup>6</sup>But if you make known the dream and its meaning, you shall receive gifts and a present and great honor from me. Therefore reveal to me the dream and its meaning. <sup>7</sup>They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will reveal its meaning. <sup>8</sup>The king answered and said, I know that you surely want to gain time, because you see the thing is gone from me. <sup>9</sup>But if you will not make the dream known to me, there is only one judgment for you. For you have prepared lying and deceiving words to speak before me, until the time has changed. Therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can reveal to me its meaning.

<sup>10</sup>The Chaldeans answered before the king and said, There is not a man on the earth who can reveal the king's matter, because not any king, lord, nor ruler has asked such a thing from any horoscopist or conjurer or Chaldean. <sup>11</sup>And it is a rare thing that the king asks, and there is no other who can reveal it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh. <sup>12</sup>For this cause the king was enraged and angered, and commanded all the wise men of Babylon to be destroyed. <sup>13</sup>And the law went out that the wise men should be killed. And they sought Daniel and his fellows to be killed.

<sup>14</sup>Then Daniel answered with counsel and insight to Arioch the chief of the king's executioners, who had gone forth to kill the wise men of Babylon. <sup>15</sup>He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. <sup>16</sup>Then Daniel went in and asked of the king that he would give him time, and that he would make known the meaning to the king. <sup>17</sup>Then Daniel went to his house and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions, that they might pray for the mercies of God in Heaven concerning this secret, <sup>18</sup>that Daniel and his companions should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

<sup>19</sup>Then the secret was revealed to Daniel in a night vision. And Daniel blessed the God of Heaven. <sup>20</sup>Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God forever and ever, for wisdom and might are His. <sup>21</sup>And He changes the times and the seasons; He removes kings and sets up kings. He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding. <sup>22</sup>He reveals the deep and secret things; He knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with Him. <sup>23</sup>I thank You, and praise You, O God of my fathers, who has given me wisdom and might, and have made known to me now what we asked of You. For You have now made known to us the king's matter.

<sup>24</sup>Then Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had chosen to destroy the wise men of Babylon. He went and said this to him; Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon. Bring me in before the king, and I will declare the meaning to the king. <sup>25</sup>Then Arioch quickly brought Daniel in before the king, and said to him I have found a man of the captives of Judah who will make the meaning known to the king. <sup>26</sup>The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and its meaning? <sup>27</sup>Daniel answered before the king and said, The secret which the king has demanded cannot be shown to the king by the wise men, the conjurers, the horoscopists, or the fortune-tellers. <sup>28</sup>But there is a God in Heaven who reveals secrets and makes known to king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head upon your bed were these. <sup>29</sup>As for you, O king, your thoughts came on your bed, what should happen after this. And He who reveals secrets makes known to you what shall happen. <sup>30</sup>But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living man, but so that the meaning might be known to the king, and that you might know the thoughts of your heart.

<sup>31</sup>You, O king, were seeing. And, behold! A great image! That great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before you. And its form was dreadful. <sup>32</sup>This image's head was of fine gold; his breast and his arms were of silver; his belly and his thighs were of bronze; <sup>33</sup>his legs were of iron; his feet were part of iron and part of clay. <sup>34</sup>You watched until a stone was cut out without hands, which struck the image upon its feet which were of iron and clay, and broke them to pieces. <sup>35</sup>Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were broken to pieces together. And they became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors. And the wind carried them away, so that no place was found for them. And the stone that struck the image became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

<sup>36</sup>This is the dream. And we will tell its meaning before the king. <sup>37</sup>You, O king, are a king of kings. For the God of Heaven has given you a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory. <sup>38</sup>And wherever the sons of men, the beasts of the field and the birds of the heavens live, He has given them into your hand, and has made you ruler over them all. You are this head of gold. <sup>39</sup>And after you shall arise another kingdom lower than you, and another third kingdom of bronze, which shall rule over all the earth. <sup>40</sup>And the fourth kingdom shall be as strong as iron. Since iron crushes and smashes all things; and as the iron that shatters all these, it will crush and shatter. <sup>41</sup>And as to that which you saw: the feet and toes, part of potters' clay and part of iron; the kingdom shall be divided. But there shall be in it the strength of the iron, because you saw the iron mixed with miry clay. <sup>42</sup>And as the toes of the feet were part of iron and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong and partly brittle. <sup>43</sup>And as you saw iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mix themselves with the seed of men. But they shall not cling to one another, even as iron is not mixed with clay. <sup>44</sup>And in the days of these kings, the God of Heaven shall set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed. And the kingdom shall not be left to other peoples, but it shall crush and destroy all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever. <sup>45</sup>Because you saw that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it crushes the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold, the great God has made known to the king what shall occur in the future. And the dream is certain, and its meaning is sure.

<sup>46</sup>Then king Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face and worshiped Daniel, and he commanded to offer an offering and incense to him. <sup>47</sup>The king answered Daniel and said, It is true that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, since you could reveal this secret. <sup>48</sup>Then the king made Daniel great, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over all the province of Babylon, and chief of the prefects over all these wise men of Babylon. <sup>49</sup>And Daniel asked the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego over the affairs of the province of Babylon. But Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits, and its breadth six cubits. He set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. <sup>2</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the satraps, the prefects, the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the justices; and all the officials of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. <sup>3</sup>Then were gathered the satraps, the prefects, the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the justices, and all the officials of the of the provinces, to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. And they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. <sup>4</sup>Then a herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, O people, nations, and languages, <sup>5</sup>at the time you hear the sound of the horn, the pipe, zither, the lyre, harp, bagpipe, and all kinds of music, you shall fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king has set up. <sup>6</sup>And whoever does not fall down and worship, at that moment they will be thrown into the middle of a burning fiery furnace. <sup>7</sup>Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the horn, the pipe, zither, the lyre, harp, and all kinds of music, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshiped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

<sup>8</sup>Then at that time certain Chaldeans came near and accused the Jews. <sup>9</sup>They spoke and said to king Nebuchadnezzar, O king, live forever. <sup>10</sup>You, O king, have made a decree that every man who shall hear the sound of the horn, the pipe, zither, the lyre, harp, and the bagpipe, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image. <sup>11</sup>And whoever does not fall down and worship, he should be thrown into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. <sup>12</sup>There are men, Jews, whom you have set over the business of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men, O king, do not heed you. They do not serve your gods nor worship the golden image which you have set up.

<sup>13</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar in anger and wrath commanded them to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Then they brought these men before the king. <sup>14</sup>Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said to them, Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego? Do you not serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? <sup>15</sup>Now if you are ready, at the time you hear the sound of the horn, the pipe, zither, the lyre, harp, and bagpipe, and all kinds of music, fall down and worship the image which I have made. But if you do not worship, in that moment you shall be thrown into the middle of a burning fiery furnace. And who is that god who shall deliver you out of my hand? <sup>16</sup>Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to return a word to you on this matter. <sup>17</sup>If it is so that our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, then He will deliver us out of your hand, O king. <sup>18</sup>But if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods nor worship the golden image which you have set up.

<sup>19</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar was filled with wrath, and the form of his face was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He spoke and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated. <sup>20</sup>And he commanded mighty men who were in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to throw them into the burning fiery furnace. <sup>21</sup>Then these men were tied up in their slippers, their tunics, and their mantles, and their other clothes, and were thrown into the middle of the burning fiery furnace. <sup>22</sup>Then because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceedingly hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. <sup>23</sup>And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. <sup>24</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was amazed. And he rose up in haste and spoke and said to his advisers, Did we not throw three men bound into the middle of the fire? They answered and said to the king, True, O king. <sup>25</sup>He answered and said, Behold! I see four men loose, walking in the middle of the fire, and there is no harm among them. And the form of the fourth is like a son of the gods.

<sup>26</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar came near the door of the burning fiery furnace and spoke. He answered and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the most high God, come forth and come here. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, came forth from the middle of the fire.<sup>27</sup> And the satraps, the prefects, the governors, and the king's advisers gathered and saw these men on whose bodies the fire had no power (and the hair of their head was not scorched, nor were their slippers changed, nor had the smell of fire clung on them).<sup>28</sup> Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent His Angel and has delivered His servants who trusted in Him, and have changed the king's words and has given their bodies that they might not serve nor worship any god except their own God.<sup>29</sup> And a decree is given by me, that every people, nation, and language, who speak anything amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, shall be made into mere members, and his house shall be made an outhouse. Because there is no other God who can deliver in this way.<sup>30</sup> Then the king made Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego prosper in the province of Babylon.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>Nebuchadnezzar the king, to all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you. <sup>2</sup>I thought it good to declare the signs and wonders that the high God has done with me. <sup>3</sup>How great are His signs! And how mighty are His wonders! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and His rule is from generation to generation.

<sup>4</sup>I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house and flourishing in my palace. <sup>5</sup>I saw a dream and it terrified me, and the thoughts on my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. <sup>6</sup>So I made a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the meaning of the dream. <sup>7</sup>Then the horoscopists, the conjurers, the Chaldeans, and the fortune-tellers came in. And I told the dream before them, but they did not make its meaning known to me.

<sup>8</sup>But at last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods. And I told the dream before him, saying, <sup>9</sup>O Belteshazzar, master of the horoscopists, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no secret troubles you, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its meaning. <sup>10</sup>As to the visions of my head on my bed: I saw, and behold a tree in the midst of the earth, and its height was great. <sup>11</sup>The tree grew and was strong, and its height reached to the heavens; and the sight of it reached to the end of all the earth. <sup>12</sup>Its leaves were beautiful, and its fruit plentiful, and in it was food for all, The animals of the field sought shade under it, and the birds of the heavens lived in its boughs, and all flesh was fed by it. <sup>13</sup>I saw in the visions of my head on my bed, and behold, a watcher and a holy one came down from Heaven. <sup>14</sup>He cried aloud and said this, Cut down the tree, and cut off its branches; shake off its leaves and scatter its fruit. Let the animals get away from under it, and the birds from its branches. <sup>15</sup>But leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field. And let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let its portion be with the animals in the grass of the earth. <sup>16</sup>Let his heart be changed from man's, and let the heart of an animal be given to him. And let seven times pass over him. <sup>17</sup>This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones, so that the living may know that the most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever He will, and sets up over it the lowest of men. <sup>18</sup>I, king Nebuchadnezzar, have seen this dream. Now you, O Belteshazzar, declare its meaning, because all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make the meaning known to me. But you are able, for the spirit of the holy gods is in you.

<sup>19</sup>Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was stunned for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spoke and said, Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its meaning trouble you. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream is to those who hate you, and its meaning to your foes. <sup>20</sup>The tree that you saw, which became great and strong, whose height reached to the heavens, and the sight of it to all the earth; <sup>21</sup>whose leaves were fair, and its fruit plentiful, and in it was food for all, under which the animals of the field dwelt, and on whose branches the birds of the heavens had their home; <sup>22</sup>it is you, O king, who has grown and become strong. For your greatness has grown and reaches to the heavens, and your rule to the end of the earth. <sup>23</sup>And as the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from Heaven, and saying, Cut the tree down and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots of it in the earth, even with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the animals of the field, until seven times pass over him — <sup>24</sup>this is the meaning, O king, and this the decree of the Most High, which has come on my lord the king. <sup>25</sup>They shall drive you from men, and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field, and they shall make you eat grass like oxen. And they shall wet you with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over you, until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever He will. <sup>26</sup>And in that they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; your kingdom shall be sure to you after you have known that Heaven rules. <sup>27</sup>Therefore, O king, let my advice be pleasing to you, and break off your sins by righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor, whether there will be duration to your prosperity.

<sup>28</sup>All this came on the king Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>29</sup>At the end of twelve months he walked in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon. <sup>30</sup>The king spoke and said, Is this not great Babylon that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power and for the honor of my majesty? <sup>31</sup>While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from Heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken. The kingdom has departed from you. <sup>32</sup>And they shall drive you from men, and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field. They shall make you eat grass like oxen, and seven times shall pass over you, until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever He will. <sup>33</sup>The same hour the thing was fulfilled on Nebuchadnezzar. And he was driven from men, and ate grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the heavens, until his hair had grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

<sup>34</sup>And at that time the days, I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up my eyes to Heaven, and my understanding returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honored Him who lives forever, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and His rule is from generation to generation. <sup>35</sup>And all the people of the earth are counted as nothing; and He does according to His will in the army of heaven, and among the people of the earth. And none can strike His hand, or say to Him, What are You doing? <sup>36</sup>At that time my reason returned to me. And the glory of my kingdom, my honor and brightness returned to me. And my advisers and my lords came for me, and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added to me. <sup>37</sup>Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and exalt and honor the King of heaven, all whose works are truth and His ways judgment. And those who walk in pride He is able to humble.

bring the golden and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple in Jerusalem, that the king and his rulers, his wives and his concubines, might drink from them. <sup>3</sup>Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God in Jerusalem. And the king, and his rulers, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them. <sup>4</sup>They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, and of bronze, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

<sup>5</sup>At that moment fingers of a man's hand came out and wrote on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace across from the lampstand. And the king saw the part of the hand that wrote. <sup>6</sup>Then the king's face was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosened, and his knees knocked against one another. <sup>7</sup>The king cried aloud to bring in the conjurers, the Chaldeans, and the fortune-tellers. The king spoke and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whoever shall read this writing, and show me its meaning, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold around his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom. <sup>8</sup>Then all the king's wise men came in. But they could not read the writing, nor make the meaning known to the king. <sup>9</sup>Then king Belshazzar was greatly troubled, and his face was changing in him, and his lords were perplexed.

<sup>10</sup>The queen came into the banquet house because of the king's words, and his lords. And the queen spoke and said, O king, live forever. Do not let your thoughts trouble you, nor let your face be changed. <sup>11</sup>There is a man in your kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods. And in the days of your father there was found in him light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods. Your father, king Nebuchadnezzar, your father the king, appointed him master of the horoscopes, conjurers, Chaldeans, and fortune-tellers, <sup>12</sup>because an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, explaining of dreams, and revealing of hard sentences, and the unraveling of knots, were found in this Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will reveal the meaning. <sup>13</sup>Then Daniel was thrust in before the king. The king spoke and said to Daniel, Are you that Daniel who is of the exiled sons of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Judah? <sup>14</sup>I have even heard of you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in you. <sup>15</sup>And now the wise men and the conjurers have been thrust in before me, that they might read this writing and make the meaning known to me. But they could not declare the meaning of the thing. <sup>16</sup>And I have heard of you that you can interpret meanings and unravel knots. Now if you can read the writing, and reveal its meaning to me, you shall be clothed with scarlet and have a chain of gold around your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

<sup>17</sup>Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let your gifts be to yourself, and give your rewards to another. Yet I will read the writing to the king, and make the meaning known to him. <sup>18</sup>O king, the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honor. <sup>19</sup>And for the majesty that He gave him, all people, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him. He killed whom he would, and whom he would he kept alive. And whom he would, he set up; and whom he would, he put down. <sup>20</sup>But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was put down from the throne of his kingdom, and they took his glory from him. <sup>21</sup>And he was driven from the sons of men. And his heart was made like the animals, and his dwelling was with the wild asses. They fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the heavens, until he knew that the most high God rules in the kingdom of men, and that He appoints over it whomever He will. <sup>22</sup>And you his son, O Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this. <sup>23</sup>But you have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven. And they have brought the vessels of His house before you; and you, and your lords, your wives, and your concubines, have drunk wine from them. And you have praised the gods of silver, and gold, or bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which do not see, nor hear, nor know. And you have not glorified the God in whose hand your breath is, and to whom belong all your ways. <sup>24</sup>Then the part of the hand was sent from Him. And this writing was written.

<sup>25</sup>And this is the writing that was written, A MINA, A MINA, A SHEKEL, AND HALF-MINAS. <sup>26</sup>This is the meaning of the thing: A MINA, God has numbered your kingdom and finished it. <sup>27</sup>A SHEKEL, You are weighed in the balances and found wanting. <sup>28</sup>HALF-MINAS, Your kingdom is divided and given to the Medes and Persians. <sup>29</sup>Then Belshazzar commanded, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet and a golden chain around his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

<sup>30</sup>In that night Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans was killed. <sup>31</sup>And Darius the Mede took the kingdom, being a son of sixty-two years old.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom a hundred and twenty satraps, that they might be over the whole kingdom. <sup>2</sup>And over them were three presidents, (Daniel was one of them) so that these satraps might give account to them, and the king should have no loss. <sup>3</sup>Then this Daniel was made overseer of the presidents and satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him. And the king was planning to set him over all the kingdom.

<sup>4</sup>Then the presidents and rulers sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom. But they could find no occasion or fault, because he was faithful. Neither was there any error or fault found in him. <sup>5</sup>Then these men said, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel unless we find it against him concerning the law of his God. <sup>6</sup>Then these presidents and rulers assembled to the king, and said this to him: King Darius, live forever. <sup>7</sup>All the presidents of the kingdom, the prefects, and the satraps, and the officials and governors, have planned together to establish a royal law, and to make a strong ban that whoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, except from you, O king, he shall be thrown into the den of lions. <sup>8</sup>Now, O king, establish the ban and sign the writing, so that it may not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians which cannot be changed. <sup>9</sup>Therefore king Darius signed the writing and the ban.

<sup>10</sup>And when he had learned that the document was signed, Daniel went to his house. And his windows were open in his room toward Jerusalem; and he kneeled on his knees three times a day and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did before. <sup>11</sup>Then these men assembled and found Daniel praying and confessing before his God. <sup>12</sup>Then they came near and spoke before the king concerning the king's ban. Have you not signed a ban that every man who shall ask a petition of any god or man within thirty days, except of you, O king, shall be thrown into the lion's den? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be changed. <sup>13</sup>Then they answered and said before the king, Daniel, who is of the exiled sons of Judah, has not respected you, O king, nor the ban that you have signed, but makes his prayer three times a day. <sup>14</sup>Then the king, when he heard these words, was very much displeased with himself. And he set his heart on Daniel to deliver him. And he labored until sundown to deliver him. <sup>15</sup>Then these men met before the king and said to the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is that no ban nor law which the king establishes may be changed. <sup>16</sup>Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel and threw him into the lions' den. The king answered and said to Daniel, Your God, whom you always serve, will deliver you. <sup>17</sup>And a stone was brought and laid on the mouth of the den. And the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords, that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

<sup>18</sup>Then the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting. And diversions were not brought before him; and his sleep fled from him. <sup>19</sup>Then the king arose very early in the morning and hurried to the lions' den. <sup>20</sup>And when he came to the den, he cried with a grieved voice to Daniel. The king spoke and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is your God whom you always serve able to deliver you from the lions? <sup>21</sup>Then Daniel said to the king, O king, live forever. <sup>22</sup>My God has sent His Angel, and has shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me, because before Him purity was found in me. And also before you, O king, I have done no harm. <sup>23</sup>Then the king was exceedingly glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no kind of hurt was found on him, because he trusted in his God.

<sup>24</sup>And the king commanded, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel, and they threw them into the lions' den; them, their sons, and their wives. And the lions overpowered them and broke all their bones in pieces before they came to the lower part of the den.

<sup>25</sup>Then king Darius wrote to all people, nations, and languages who dwell in all the earth. Peace be multiplied to you. <sup>26</sup>I make a decree that in all the domain of my kingdom men shall tremble and fear before the God of Daniel. For He is the living God, and endures forever, and His kingdom is that which shall not be destroyed, and His rule shall be to the end. <sup>27</sup>He delivers and rescues, and He works signs and wonders in the heavens and in earth, He who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions. <sup>28</sup>And this Daniel was blessed in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head on his bed. Then he wrote the dream and gave the sum of the matters. <sup>2</sup>Daniel spoke and said, In my vision by night I was looking; and behold, the four winds of the heavens were stirring up the Great Sea. <sup>3</sup>And four great beasts came up from the sea, different from one another. <sup>4</sup>The first was like a lion and had eagle's wings. I watched until its wings were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth and made to stand on its feet like a man. And a man's heart was given to it. <sup>5</sup>And behold another beast, a second, like a bear. And it raised itself up on one side, and it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. And they said this to it: Arise, eat up much flesh. <sup>6</sup>After this I saw, and lo, another, like a leopard, which had four wings of a bird on its back. The beast also had four heads; and rulership was given to it. <sup>7</sup>After this I looked in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, fearful and terrible, and very strong. And it had great iron teeth; it devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the rest with its feet. And it was different from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns. <sup>8</sup>I was thinking about the horns, and behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom three of the first horns were pulled up by the roots. And behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a man speaking great things.

<sup>9</sup>I watched until the thrones were put down, and the Ancient of Days sat, whose robe was white as snow, and the hair of His head like the pure wool. His throne was like flames of fire, and His wheels like burning fire. <sup>10</sup>A stream of fire went out and came out from before Him. A thousand thousands served Him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him. The judgment was set, and the books were opened. <sup>11</sup>Then I was looking because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke. I watched until the beast was slain, and his body was destroyed and given to the burning flame. <sup>12</sup>And the rest of the beasts, their dominion was taken away. Yet their lives were made longer for a season and time. <sup>13</sup>I saw in the night visions, and behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of Days, and they brought Him near before Him. <sup>14</sup>And dominion and glory was given Him, and a kingdom, that all peoples, nations and languages, should serve Him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion which shall not pass away, and His kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

<sup>15</sup>I Daniel was distressed in My spirit in its sheath, body, and the visions of my head troubled me. <sup>16</sup>And I came near one of those who stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the meaning of the things. <sup>17</sup>These four great beasts are four kings; they shall arise out of the earth. <sup>18</sup>But the saints of the Most High shall take the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever. <sup>19</sup>Then I wanted to know the truth of the fourth beast, which was different from all the others, very frightening, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of bronze; who devoured, broke in pieces, and stamped the rest with his feet; <sup>20</sup>and of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell — even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth speaking very great things, whose look was greater than his fellows. <sup>21</sup>I watched, and that horn made war with the saints and overcame them <sup>22</sup>until the Ancient of Days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the Most High. And the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom. <sup>23</sup>And he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom on earth, which shall be different from all kingdoms and shall devour the whole earth, and shall trample it and crush it. <sup>24</sup>And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise. And another shall arise after them. And he shall be different from the first, and he shall humble three kings. <sup>25</sup>And he shall speak great words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High, and plot to change times and laws. And they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and one-half time. <sup>26</sup>But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his rulership, to cut off and to destroy it until the end. <sup>27</sup>And the kingdom and rulership, and the greatness of the kingdom under all the heavens, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom. And all kingdoms shall serve and obey Him. <sup>28</sup>Here is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my thoughts troubled me much, and my face changed on me. But I kept the matter in my heart.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, Daniel, after that which appeared to me at the first. <sup>2</sup>And I looked in a vision. And it happened when I looked, I was at Shushan the palace, which is in the province of Elam. And in a vision I looked, and I was by the river of Ulai. <sup>3</sup>Then I lifted up my eyes, and looked. And behold, a ram with two horns stood before the river. And the two horns were high, but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. <sup>4</sup>I saw the ram pushing westward and northward and southward; so that no beasts could stand before him, nor any that could deliver out of his hand. But he did according to his will, and became great. <sup>5</sup>And as I was watching, behold, a he-goat came from the west, over the face of the all the earth, and did not touch the ground. And the goat had an outstanding horn between his eyes. <sup>6</sup>And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran to him in the fury of his power. <sup>7</sup>And I saw him come close beside the ram, and he was moved with anger against him, and struck the ram and shattered his two horns. And there was no power in the ram to stand before him. But he threw him down to the ground and stamped on him. And there was none who could deliver the ram out of his hand.

<sup>8</sup>Then the he-goat became very great. And when he was strong, the great horn was broken. And in its place came up four outstanding ones towards the four winds of the heavens. <sup>9</sup>And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which became very great, toward the south and toward the east and toward the bountiful land. <sup>10</sup>And it became great, even to the host of heaven. And it made fall some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and trampled them. <sup>11</sup>Yea, he magnified himself, even to the ruler of the host, and the daily sacrifice was taken away by him, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. <sup>12</sup>And an army was given to him against the daily sacrifice because of transgression, and it cast the truth down to the ground. And it worked and succeeded.

<sup>13</sup>Then I heard a certain holy one speaking, and another holy one said to that one who spoke, Until when shall the vision last, concerning the daily sacrifice and the transgression that astounds, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trampled under foot? <sup>14</sup>And he said to me, For two thousand, three hundred days. Then the sanctuary shall be vindicated.

<sup>15</sup>And it happened when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me the form of a man. <sup>16</sup>And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called and said, Gabriel, make this one understand the vision. <sup>17</sup>So he came near where I stood. And when he came, I was afraid and fell on my face. But he said to me, Understand, O son of man, for the vision is for the time of the end. <sup>18</sup>And as he was speaking with me, I was stunned, on my face toward the ground. But he touched me and set me upright. <sup>19</sup>And he said, Behold, I will make you know what shall happen in the last end of the indignation. For it is for the time appointed for the end. <sup>20</sup>The ram which you saw having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia. <sup>21</sup>And the shaggy goat is the king of Greece. And the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. <sup>22</sup>And as for that being broken, and four stood up in its place; four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in its power. <sup>23</sup>And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors have come to the full, a king, fierce of face, and who understands hidden things, shall stand up. <sup>24</sup>And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power. And he shall destroy marvelously, and shall prosper and work, and destroy the mighty and the holy people. <sup>25</sup>And also through his understanding, he shall cause deceit to succeed in his hand. And he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many. He also shall stand up against the Ruler of rulers. But he shall be broken without a hand. <sup>26</sup>And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true. But you shall shut up the vision; for it shall be for many days. <sup>27</sup>And I Daniel fainted, and was sick for days. Afterward I rose up, and did the king's business. And I was amazed at the vision, but there was no understanding.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans, <sup>2</sup>in the first year of his reign, I,

Daniel, understood the number of the years by books, the time of which the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>And I set my face toward the Lord God, to seek by prayer and holy desires, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes. <sup>4</sup>And I prayed to the LORD my God, and made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and awesome God, keeping the covenant and mercy to those who love Him, and to those who keep His commandments — <sup>5</sup>we have sinned and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from Your commandments and from Your judgments. <sup>6</sup>Neither have we listened to Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your name to our kings, our rulers, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. <sup>7</sup>O Lord, righteousness belongs to You, but to us the shame of our faces, as it is today to the men of Judah and to the people of Jerusalem, and to all Israel who are near and who are afar off, through all the countries where You have driven them because of their sin which they have sinned against You. <sup>8</sup>O Lord, shame of face belongs to us, to our kings, to our rulers, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against You. <sup>9</sup>To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against Him. <sup>10</sup>We have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in His laws which He set before us by His servants the prophets. <sup>11</sup>Yea, all Israel has transgressed Your law, and turned aside, that they might not obey Your voice. Therefore the curse has been poured out on us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against Him. <sup>12</sup>And He has confirmed His words which He spoke against us and against our judges who judged us, by bringing on us a great evil. For under all the heavens it has not been done as it has been done to Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil has come on us. Yet we did not make our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand Your truth. <sup>14</sup>Therefore the LORD has watched over the evil, and has brought it on us. For the LORD our God is righteous in all His works which He does; for we did not obey His voice. <sup>15</sup>And now, O Lord our God, who have brought Your people out from the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and have brought fame to Yourself, as it is today, we have sinned, we have done wrong.

<sup>16</sup>O Lord, I pray You, according to all Your righteousness let Your anger and Your fury be turned away from Your city Jerusalem, Your holy mountain. Because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and Your people have become a curse to all those who are around us. <sup>17</sup>And now, O our God, hear the prayer of Your servant, and his holy desires, and cause Your face to shine on Your sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake. <sup>18</sup>O my God, bow down Your ear and hear. Open Your eyes and behold our ruins, and the city which is called by Your name. For we do not present our prayers before You on account of our righteousnesses, but because of Your great mercies. <sup>19</sup>O LORD, hear; O LORD, forgive; O LORD, listen and do. Do not delay, for Your own sake, O my God; for Your city and Your people are called by Your name.

<sup>20</sup>And while I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin, and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my cry before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God — <sup>21</sup>yes, while I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, touched me in my severe exhaustion, about the time of the evening sacrifice. <sup>22</sup>And he enlightened me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I have now come out to give you skill and understanding. <sup>23</sup>At the beginning of your prayers the commandment came out, and I have come to show you. For you are greatly beloved; therefore understand the matter, and attend to the vision:

<sup>24</sup>Seventy weeks are divided as to your people and as to your holy city, to finish the transgression and to make an end of sins, and to make atonement for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy. <sup>25</sup>Know therefore and understand, that from the going out of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem, to Messiah the Prince, shall be seven weeks, and sixty-two weeks. The street shall be built again, and the wall, even in times of affliction. <sup>26</sup>And after sixty-two weeks Messiah shall be cut off, but not for Himself. And the people of the ruler who shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary. And the end of it shall be with the flood, and ruins are determined, until the end shall be war. <sup>27</sup>And he shall confirm a covenant with many for one week. And in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the offering to cease, and on a corner of the altar desolating abominations, even until the end. And that which was decreed shall be poured on the desolator.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar. And the thing was true, but the time appointed was long. And he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision. <sup>2</sup>In those days I, Daniel, was mourning three full weeks. <sup>3</sup>I ate no food for delight, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, nor did I anoint myself at all, until three whole weeks were fulfilled.

<sup>4</sup>And in the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Tigris, <sup>5</sup>then I lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, a certain man was clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz. <sup>6</sup>His body also was like the beryl, and his face looked like lightning. And his eyes were like lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet in color were like polished bronze, and the voice of his words like the sound of a multitude. <sup>7</sup>And I, Daniel, alone saw the vision. For the men who were with me did not see the vision; but a great quaking fell on them, so that they fled to hide themselves. <sup>8</sup>Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me. For my beauty was turned within me to corruption, and I kept no strength. <sup>9</sup>Yet I heard the voice of his words. And when I heard the voice of his words, then I was in a deep sleep on my face, and my face was toward the ground.

<sup>10</sup>And behold, a hand touched me, which set me shaking on my knees and the palms of my hands. <sup>11</sup>And he said to me, O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright. For to you I am now sent. And when he had spoken this word to me, I stood trembling. <sup>12</sup>Then he said to me, Do not fear, Daniel; for from the first day that you set your heart to understand and to chasten yourself before your God, your words were heard. And I have come for your words. <sup>13</sup>But the ruler of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days. But lo, Michael, one of the chief rulers, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia. <sup>14</sup>Now I have come to make you understand what shall happen to your people in the latter days. For the vision is yet for many days. <sup>15</sup>And when he had spoken such words to me, I bowed my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

<sup>16</sup>And behold, one looking like the sons of men touched my lips. Then I opened my mouth and spoke and said to him who stood before me, O my lord, my sorrows are turned on me by the vision, and I have kept no strength. <sup>17</sup>For how can the servant of my lord talk with my lord? For as for me, immediately there remained no strength in me, nor is there breath left in me. <sup>18</sup>Then again one like a man in form came and touched me, and he made me stronger <sup>19</sup>and said, O man greatly beloved, do not fear. Peace to you; be strong; yes, be strong. And when he had spoken to me, I was made stronger and said, Let my lord speak; for you have made me stronger. <sup>20</sup>Then he said, Do you know why I come to you? And now I will return to fight with the ruler of Persia. And when I have gone out, lo, the ruler of Greece shall come. <sup>21</sup>But I will show you that which is written in the Scripture of Truth. And there is none who holds strongly with me in these things, but Michael your ruler.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>And I, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I was standing for a supporter and for a fortress for him. <sup>2</sup>And now I will declare to you the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia. And the fourth shall be far richer than all of them. And by his strength, through his riches, he shall stir up all against the kingdom of Greece. <sup>3</sup>And a mighty king shall stand up, one who shall rule with great power and do according to his will. <sup>4</sup>And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken and shall be divided toward the four winds of the heavens. And it shall not be given to his sons, nor according to his power with which he ruled — for his kingdom shall be pulled up, even for others besides these.

<sup>5</sup>And the king of the south shall be strong. And one of his rulers, even he shall overcome him and have power. His kingdom shall be a great kingdom. <sup>6</sup>And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make a treaty. But she shall not keep the power of the arm. Nor shall he stand, nor his arm. But she shall be given up, and those who brought her in, and he whom she bore, and he who made her strong in these times. <sup>7</sup>But out of a branch of her roots, one shall stand up in his place, who shall come with an army and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north. And he shall act against them, and show himself strong. <sup>8</sup>And he shall also carry their gods captives into Egypt, with their rulers and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold. And he shall stand more years than the king of the north. <sup>9</sup>So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land. <sup>10</sup>But his sons shall be stirred up and shall gather a multitude of great forces. And one shall certainly come and overflow, and pass through. Then he shall return and be stirred up, even to his fortress.

<sup>11</sup>And the king of the south shall be moved with anger, and shall come out and fight with him, even with the king of the north. And he shall send out a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand. <sup>12</sup>And when he has taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up. And he shall cast down many ten thousands, but he shall not be made stronger. <sup>13</sup>For the king of the north shall return, and shall send out a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches. <sup>14</sup>And in those times there shall stand up many against the king of the south. Also the robbers of your people shall lift themselves up to establish the vision, but they shall fall. <sup>15</sup>So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a siege mound, and take the most fenced cities. And the arms of the south shall not hold out, nor his chosen people, nor any strength to hold out. <sup>16</sup>But he who comes against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him. And he shall stand in the glorious land, which shall be destroyed by his hand. <sup>17</sup>He also shall set his face to enter with the strength of all his kingdom, and upright ones with him. So he shall do. And he shall give him the daughter of women to him, to destroy it; but she shall not stand, nor be for him.

<sup>18</sup>And he shall turn his face to the coasts, and shall capture many. But a ruler shall make cease his reproach for him, but his reproach will return to him. <sup>19</sup>And he shall turn his face to the fortresses of his land. But he shall stumble and fall, and shall not be found. <sup>20</sup>And one who sends an exactor shall stand in his place, for the glory of the kingdom. But within few days he shall be broken, not in anger nor in battle. <sup>21</sup>And a despised one shall stand up in his place, and they shall not give to him the honor of the king; but he will enter while at ease and seize the kingdom by intrigues. <sup>22</sup>And the forces of the overflow will be swept from before him, and they will be broken, and also the ruler of a covenant. <sup>23</sup>And after they join him, he will practice deceit. For he will come and be strong with a few people. <sup>24</sup>He shall enter safely, even into the rich places of the province. And he shall do what his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers. He shall plunder and scatter goods among them. And he shall devise his plots against the strongholds, even for a time. <sup>25</sup>And he shall stir up his power and his heart against the king of the south with a great army. And the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army, but he shall not stand. For they shall devise plots against him. <sup>26</sup>Yea, those who eat his food shall break him, and his army shall overflow. And many shall fall down slain. <sup>27</sup>And both these kings' hearts shall be to do evil, and they shall speak lies at one table. But it shall not succeed. For the end comes at the time appointed. <sup>28</sup>And he shall return to his land with great riches. And his heart shall be against the holy covenant. And he will act, And he shall return to his land.

<sup>29</sup>At the time appointed he shall return and come against the south. But it shall not be as the former or as the latter. <sup>30</sup>For the ships of Chittim shall come against him. And he shall be grieved and return, and have fury against the holy covenant. So he shall do; he shall even return and give heed to those who forsake the holy covenant. <sup>31</sup>And forces will stand from him, and they will profane the sanctuary, the fortress, and shall remove the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the desolating abomination. <sup>32</sup>And he will ruin by flattery those who do evil against the covenant. But the people who know their God will be strong, and will work. <sup>33</sup>And those who understand among the people shall teach many; yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by exile, and spoil, for days. <sup>34</sup>And when they stumble, they shall be helped with a little help, but many will join them, with hypocrisy. <sup>35</sup>And many of those who understand shall stumble, to refine and purge them, and to make white, to the time of the end. Because it is still for the appointed time. <sup>36</sup>And the king shall do according to his will. And he shall exalt and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvelous things against the God of gods, and shall succeed until the fury is fulfilled. For that which is decreed shall be done. <sup>37</sup>He will not regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god. For he shall magnify himself above all. <sup>38</sup>But in his place he shall honor the god of forces; and a god whom his fathers did not know, he shall honor with gold and silver, and with precious stones and desirable things. <sup>39</sup>So he shall act in the fortresses of the strongholds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge, He shall multiply in glory, and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for a price.

<sup>40</sup>And at the end-time, the king of the south shall push at him. And the king of the north shall come against him like a tempest, with chariots and with horsemen and with many ships.

<sup>41</sup>And he shall enter into the countries and shall overflow and pass over. He shall also enter into the glorious land, and many shall be stumbled. But these shall escape out of his hand: Edom and Moab, and the chief of the sons of Ammon.

<sup>42</sup>And he shall stretch out his hand also on the lands. And the land of Egypt shall not escape. <sup>43</sup>But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt. And the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps. <sup>44</sup>But news out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him. Then he will go out with great fury to destroy, and to devote many to destruction. <sup>45</sup>And he shall plant his palace tents between the seas in the glorious holy mountain. Yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>And at that time Michael shall stand up, the great ruler who stands for the sons of your people. And there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation; until that time. And at that time your people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book. <sup>2</sup>And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. <sup>3</sup>And those who are wise shall shine as the brightness of the sky; and those who turn many to righteousness shall shine as the stars forever and ever. <sup>4</sup>But you, O Daniel, shut up the words and seal the book, even to the time of the end. Many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

<sup>5</sup>Then I Daniel looked, and behold, there stood another two, the one on this side, and the one on that side of the bank of the river. <sup>6</sup>And one said to the man clothed in linen, who was on the waters of the river: Until when shall it be until the end of these wonders? <sup>7</sup>And I heard the man clothed in linen, who was on the waters of the river, when he held up his right and his left hand to Heaven, and swore by Him who lives forever that it shall be for a time, times, and a half. And when they have made an end of scattering the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. <sup>8</sup>And I heard, but I did not understand. Then I said, O my lord, what shall be the end of these things? <sup>9</sup>And He said, Go, Daniel! For the words are closed up and sealed until the end-time. <sup>10</sup>Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried. But the wicked shall do wickedly. And none of the wicked shall understand, but the wise shall understand. <sup>11</sup>And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the desolating abomination set up, a thousand two hundred and ninety days shall occur. <sup>12</sup>Blessed is he who waits and comes to the thousand three hundred and thirty-five days. <sup>13</sup>But you go on to the end, for you shall rest and stand in your lot at the end of the days.

THE BOOK OF HOSEA

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD that came to Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel, <sup>2</sup>The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, Go, take to yourself a wife of adultery and children of adultery. For the land has utterly gone lusting away from the LORD. <sup>3</sup>So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim, who conceived and bore him a son. <sup>4</sup>And the LORD said to him, Call his name God Will Sow. For still in a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel on the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease. <sup>5</sup>And it shall be, at that day I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.

<sup>6</sup>And she conceived again and bore a daughter. And God said to him, Call her name No-Mercy, for I will no more have mercy on the house of Israel. But I will utterly take them away. <sup>7</sup>But I will have mercy on the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

<sup>8</sup>And when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived and bore a son. <sup>9</sup>And He said, Call his name Not-My-People. For you are not My people, and I will not be for you.

<sup>10</sup>Yet the number of the sons of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered. And it shall be, in the place where it was said to them, You are not My people, there it shall be said to them, You are the sons of the living God. <sup>11</sup>Then the sons of Judah and the sons of Israel shall be gathered together, and shall set over themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land. For great shall be the day of Jezreel.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>6</sup>Therefore behold, I will hedge your way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her paths. <sup>7</sup>And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them. She shall seek them, but shall not find them. Then she shall say, I will go and return to my first husband, for then it was better with me than now. <sup>8</sup>For she did not know that I gave her grain, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for Baal. <sup>9</sup>So I will return and take away My grain in its time, and my wine in its season, and will recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness. <sup>10</sup>And now I will uncover her wickedness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of my hand. <sup>11</sup>I will also cause all her joy to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her appointed feasts. <sup>12</sup>And I will destroy her vines and her fig trees, of which she has said, They are my rewards that my lovers have given me. And I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them. <sup>13</sup>And I will visit on her the days of the Baals, in which she burned incense to them, and she adorned herself with her nose-rings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers and forgot Me, says the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, behold, I will lure her and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably to her. <sup>15</sup>And I will give her vineyards to her from there, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope. And she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt. <sup>16</sup>And it shall be at that day, says the LORD, you shall call Me, My Husband, and shall no more call Me, My Baal. <sup>17</sup>For I will take away the names of the Baals out of her mouth, and they will no more be remembered by their name. <sup>18</sup>And in that day I will cut a covenant for them, with the beasts of the field, and with the birds of the heavens, and with the creeping things of the ground. And I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down safely. <sup>19</sup>And I will betroth you to Me forever. Yea, I will betroth you to Me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in loving-kindness, and in mercies. <sup>20</sup>I will even betroth you to Me in faithfulness. And you shall know the LORD. <sup>21</sup>And it will be, in that day I will hear, says the LORD. I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth, <sup>22</sup>and the earth shall hear the grain and the wine and the oil. And they shall hear Jezreel. <sup>23</sup>And I will sow her to Me in the earth. And I will have mercy on No-Mercy. And I will say to Not-My-People, You are My people. And they shall say, My God.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD said to me, Go again. Love a woman beloved by a friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the LORD toward the sons of Israel, who turn to other gods, and love raisin-cakes of grapes. <sup>2</sup>So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, and for a homer of barley and a half homer of barley. <sup>3</sup>And I said to her, You shall abide for me many days. You shall not be a harlot, nor be for a man. And I also will be for you. <sup>4</sup>For the sons of Israel shall live many days with no king, and no ruler, and with no sacrifice, and no pillars, and no ephod, or teraphim. <sup>5</sup>Afterward the sons of Israel shall return and seek the LORD their God and David their king. And they shall fear the LORD and His goodness in the ends of the days.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>Hear the word of the LORD, sons of Israel. For the LORD has a quarrel with the people of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land. <sup>2</sup>There is lying, and swearing, and killing, and stealing, and the committing of adultery; and blood touches blood. <sup>3</sup>Therefore the land shall mourn, and everyone who dwells in it shall droop, with the beasts of the field and with the birds of the heavens. Yes, the fish of the sea shall also be taken away. <sup>4</sup>Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another. For your people are as those who strive with the priest. <sup>5</sup>And you shall stumble in the day, and the prophet also shall stumble with you in the night, and I will cut off your mother.

<sup>6</sup>My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Because you have rejected knowledge, I will also reject you from being priest to Me. Since you have forgotten the law of your God, I will also forget your sons. <sup>7</sup>As they were increased, so they sinned against Me. Therefore I will change their glory into shame. <sup>8</sup>They eat up the sin of My people, and they set their heart on their iniquity. <sup>9</sup>And it has become, Like people, like priest; and I will punish them for their ways, and reward them for their doings. <sup>10</sup>For they shall eat and not have enough. They shall fornicate and not increase, because they have stopped taking heed to the LORD. <sup>11</sup>Fornication and wine and new wine take away the heart.

<sup>12</sup>My people seek advice from their wooden idols, and their rod declares to them. For the spirit of harlotry has caused them to go astray, and they have gone lusting away from under their God. <sup>13</sup>They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains, and burn incense on the hills, under oaks and poplars and elms, because its shade is good. So your daughters shall be harlots, and your brides shall commit adultery. <sup>14</sup>I will not punish your daughters when they fornicate, nor your wives when they commit adultery. For the men themselves go aside with harlots, and they sacrifice with temple prostitutes. The people who do not understand are thrown down.

<sup>15</sup>Though you, Israel, play the harlot, yet do not let Judah become guilty. And do not come to Gilgal, nor go up to Beth-aven, nor swear, As the LORD lives. <sup>16</sup>For Israel slides back like a backsliding heifer. Now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place. <sup>17</sup>Ephraim is joined to idols; let him alone. <sup>18</sup>Their drink is sour; they are continually fornicating; her rulers dearly love shame. <sup>19</sup>The wind has bound her up in her wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>Hear this, O priests, and listen, house of Israel. And give ear, house of the king. For judgment is toward you, because you have been a snare on Mizpah and a net spread on Tabor. <sup>2</sup>And revolters have gone deep in slaughtering, and I chasten all of them. <sup>3</sup>I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hidden from me. For now, O Ephraim, you have fornicated; Israel is defiled. <sup>4</sup>Their doings will not allow them to turn to their God; for the spirit of fornication is in their midst, and they have not known the LORD. <sup>5</sup>And the pride of Israel testifies to his face. So Israel and Ephraim shall fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them. <sup>6</sup>They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall not find Him. He has withdrawn Himself from them. <sup>7</sup>They have acted treacherously against the LORD, for they have brought out strange sons. Now a new moon shall devour them with their portions. <sup>8</sup>Blow the horn in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah; cry aloud at Beth-aven, after you, O Benjamin. <sup>9</sup>Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke. Among the tribes of Israel I have made known that which is confirmed. <sup>10</sup>The rulers of Judah were like removers of a border; I will pour out My wrath on them like water. <sup>11</sup>Ephraim is crushed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after the commandment. <sup>12</sup>Therefore I am as a moth to Ephraim, and to the house of Judah as rottenness. <sup>13</sup>When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then Ephraim went to the Assyrian and sent to king Jareb. Yet he could not heal you nor cure you of your wound. <sup>14</sup>For I will be to Ephraim as a lion, and as a strong lion to the house of Judah. I, even I, will tear and go away. I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

<sup>15</sup>I will go; I will return to My place until they confess their guilt and seek My face; in their affliction they will seek Me diligently.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>Come and let us return to the LORD. For He has torn, and He will heal us; He has stricken, and He will bind us up. <sup>2</sup>After two days He will bring us to life; in the third day He will raise us up, and we shall live in His sight. <sup>3</sup>Then we shall know, if we follow on to know the LORD. His going out is prepared as the morning; and He shall come to us as the rain, as the latter and former rain to the earth.

<sup>4</sup>O Ephraim, what shall I do to you? O Judah, what shall I do to you? For your goodness is like a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goes away. <sup>5</sup>So I have cut them down by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of My mouth. And your judgments were as the light that goes out. <sup>6</sup>For I desired mercy and not sacrifice, and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings. <sup>7</sup>But, like Adam, they have broken the covenant. They have acted like traiters against Me there. <sup>8</sup>Gilead is a city of trouble-makers, slippery with bloodmarks. <sup>9</sup>And as troops of robbers wait for a man, the company of priests murder in the way of Shechem; for they committed wickedness. <sup>10</sup>I have seen a horrible thing in the house of Israel; the harlotry of Ephraim is there; Israel is defiled. <sup>11</sup>Also, O Judah, a harvest is appointed to you, when I return the captivity of My people.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>When I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was uncovered, and the wickedness of Samaria. For they have worked falsehood. And the thief comes in, and the troop of robbers plunders outside. <sup>2</sup>And they do not say within their hearts that I remember all their evil. Now their own doings have hemmed them in; they are before My face. <sup>3</sup>They make the king glad with their evil, and the rulers with their lies. <sup>4</sup>They are all adulterers, like an oven heated by the baker; he stops stirring, from kneading the dough, while it is leavened. <sup>5</sup>In the day of our king, the rulers have sickened themselves with the heat of wine. He stretches out his hand with scorners. <sup>6</sup>For they have brought their heart near like an oven, while they lie in wait. Their baker sleeps at night; in the morning it burns like a flaming fire. <sup>7</sup>They are all hot as an oven, and devour their judges. All their kings have fallen; there is none among them who calls to Me. <sup>8</sup>Ephraim mixed himself among the peoples; Ephraim is a cake not turned. <sup>9</sup>Strangers have eaten up his strength, and he does not know it. Yea, gray hairs are here and there on him, yet he knows it not. <sup>10</sup>And the pride of Israel testifies to his face. And they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek Him in all this.

<sup>11</sup>Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart; they call to Egypt; they go to Assyria. <sup>12</sup>When they go, I will spread My net on them; I will bring them down like the birds of the heavens; I will chastise them, as a report to their congregation. <sup>13</sup>Woe to them! For they have fled from Me. Ruin to them! Because they have sinned against Me. Though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against Me. <sup>14</sup>And they have not cried to Me with their heart, when they howled on their beds; they gather themselves for grain and wine, and they rebel against Me. <sup>15</sup>Though I have bound and strengthened their arms, yet they think evil against Me. <sup>16</sup>They return, but not to the Most High. They are like a deceitful bow; their rulers shall fall by the sword from the rage of their tongue. This shall be their scorn in the land of Egypt.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>Put a trumpet to your mouth. He comes like an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have broken My covenant and have sinned against My law. <sup>2</sup>Israel shall cry to Me, My God, we know You. <sup>3</sup>Israel has thrown off good; the enemy shall pursue him. <sup>4</sup>They have set up kings, but not by Me; they have made rulers, and I knew it not. They have made themselves idols with their silver and their gold, so that they may be cut off.

<sup>5</sup>Your calf, O Samaria, has cast you off. My anger is kindled against them. Until when will they not attain purity? <sup>6</sup>For from Israel it came also. The craftsman made it, but it is not God. For the calf of Samaria shall be splinters. <sup>7</sup>For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind. It has no stalk; the bud shall yield no meal; if it does yield, strangers shall swallow it up. <sup>8</sup>Israel is swallowed up; now they shall be among the nations as a vessel in which there is no pleasure. <sup>9</sup>For they have gone up to Assyria, a wild ass alone by himself. Ephraim has hired lovers. <sup>10</sup>Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now I will gather them.

And they began to be few, from the burden of the king of rulers. <sup>11</sup>Because Ephraim has made many altars to sin, altars shall be to him to sin. <sup>12</sup>I have written to him the great things of My law, but they were counted as a strange thing. <sup>13</sup>They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of My offerings, and eat it; but the LORD does not receive them. Now He will remember their iniquity and punish their sins. They shall return to Egypt. <sup>14</sup>For Israel has forgotten his Maker, and builds temples. And Judah has multiplied cities. But I will send a fire on his cities, and it shall burn up her palaces.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>5</sup>What will you do in the day of meeting, and in the day of the feast of the LORD? <sup>6</sup>For lo, they have left because of destruction. Egypt shall gather them up; Memphis shall bury them. Nettles shall possess the desirable things of their silver; thorns shall be in their tents. <sup>7</sup>The days of her judgment have come; the days of vengeance have come; Israel shall know it. The prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad, because of the greatness of your iniquity and the great hatred. <sup>8</sup>The watchman of Ephraim was with my God. The prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred in the house of his God. <sup>9</sup>They have deeply corrupted, as in days of Gibeah. He will remember their iniquity; He will punish their sins.

<sup>10</sup>I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness. I saw your fathers as the first-fruit in the fig tree at her first time. But they went to Baal-peor and set themselves apart to a shameful thing; and they became abominable like that which they loved. <sup>11</sup>Ephraim is like a bird; their glory shall fly away from birth, and from the womb, and from conception. <sup>12</sup>Though they bring up their sons, yet I will make them childless, without a man. Yea, woe also to them when I depart from them! <sup>13</sup>Ephraim, when I looked toward Tyre, was planted in a pleasant place. But Ephraim shall bring out his sons to the murderer. <sup>14</sup>Give them, O Lord; what will You give? Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts. <sup>15</sup>All their wickedness is in Gilgal, for there I hated them. I will drive them out of My house for the wickedness of their doings. I will love them no more; all their rulers are revolvers. <sup>16</sup>Ephraim is stricken; their root is dried up; they shall bear no fruit. Yea, though they bear, yet I will slay the beloved ones of their womb. <sup>17</sup>My God shall cast them away because they did not listen to Him. And they shall be wanderers among the nations.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>Israel is an luxuriant vine; he brings out fruit to himself. According to the multitude of his fruit, he has increased the altars. They have made beautiful images according to the goodness of his land. <sup>2</sup>Their heart is divided; now they shall be guilty. He shall break down their altars, and He shall spoil their images. <sup>3</sup>For now they shall say, We have no king because we did not fear the LORD; what then should a king do to us? <sup>4</sup>They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant. So judgment springs up like hemlock in the furrows of the field. <sup>5</sup>The people of Samaria shall fear because of the calves of Beth-aven; for its people shall mourn over it, and its priests who rejoiced on it for its glory shall mourn because it has departed from it. <sup>6</sup>It shall also be carried to Assyria for a present to king Jareb. Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel. <sup>7</sup>As for Samaria, her king is cut off as a bough on the water. <sup>8</sup>Also the high places of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed. The thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us, and to the hills, Fall on us.

<sup>9</sup>O Israel, you have sinned from the days of Gibeah. There they stood; the battle against the sons of iniquity did not overtake them in Gibeah. <sup>10</sup>When I desire, I shall bind them; and the peoples shall be gathered against them, when they shall bind themselves to their perversities. <sup>11</sup>And Ephraim is like a trained heifer, trying to tread out. But I passed over on the goodness of her neck. I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods. <sup>12</sup>Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground. For it is time to seek the LORD, until He comes and rains righteousness on you. <sup>13</sup>You have plowed wickedness; you have reaped iniquity; you have eaten the fruit of lies, because you trusted in your way, in the multitude of your mighty men. <sup>14</sup>And an uproar shall arise among your peoples, and all your fortresses shall be spoiled, as the ruin of Beth-arbel in the day of battle. The mother was dashed in pieces on her sons. <sup>15</sup>So He does to you, Bethel, because of your great evil. In a morning the king of Israel shall be utterly cut off.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>When Israel was a child, then I loved him and called My son out of Egypt. <sup>2</sup>As they called them, so they went from them. They sacrifice to the Baals, and burn incense to graven images. <sup>3</sup>I also taught Ephraim to go; He took them on His arm. But they did not know that I healed them. <sup>4</sup>I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love; and I was to them as those who take off the yoke that was on their jaws, and I gently give food to him.

<sup>5</sup>He shall not return to the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused to return. <sup>6</sup>And the sword shall remain on his cities, and shall destroy his branches, and devour them, because of their own counsels. <sup>7</sup>And My people are bent on backsliding from Me. Though they called them to the Most High, none at all would exalt Him. <sup>8</sup>How shall I give you up, Ephraim? How shall I deliver you, Israel? How shall I make you like Admah? How shall I set you as Zeboim? My heart is turned within Me; My compassions are kindled together. <sup>9</sup>I will not carry out the heat of My anger; I will not return to destroy Ephraim. For I am God and not man, the Holy One in your midst; and I will not enter into the city. <sup>10</sup>They shall walk after the LORD; He shall roar like a lion. When He shall roar, then the sons shall tremble from the west. <sup>11</sup>They shall tremble like a bird out of Egypt, and like a dove out of the land of Assyria. And I will place them in their houses, says the LORD. <sup>12</sup>Ephraim circles around Me with lying, and the house of Israel with deceit. But Judah still rules with God, and is faithful with the saints.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>Ephraim feeds on wind and follows after the east wind. He daily multiplies lies and cruelty. And they make a covenant with the Assyrians, and oil is carried into Egypt. <sup>2</sup>The LORD also has a quarrel with Judah and will punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings He will repay him.

<sup>3</sup>He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and by his strength he had power with God. <sup>4</sup>Yes, he wept and cried to Him, and he had power over the Angel and overcame. He found him in Bethel, and there He spoke with us, <sup>5</sup>even the LORD

God of hosts. Jehovah is his memorial. <sup>6</sup>Therefore turn to your God; keep mercy and judgment, and wait on your God forever.

<sup>7</sup>He is a merchant; the scales of deceit are in his hand; he loves to be cruel. <sup>8</sup>And Ephraim said, Yet I have become rich, I have found much wealth for myself. In all my labors they shall find in me no iniquity that is sin. <sup>9</sup>And I the LORD, who have been your God from the land of Egypt, will yet make you to dwell in tents as in the days of the appointed feast. <sup>10</sup>I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions and have used parables, by the ministry of the prophets. <sup>11</sup>Is there iniquity in Gilead? Surely they are vanity; they sacrifice bulls in Gilgal. Yes, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields. <sup>12</sup>And Jacob fled into the country of Syria, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept watch. <sup>13</sup>And by a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet he was kept safe. <sup>14</sup>Ephraim provoked Me to anger most bitterly; therefore he shall leave his blood on him, and his Lord shall turn his reproach to him.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>When Ephraim spoke trembling, he was lifted up in Israel; but when he offended in Baal, he died. <sup>2</sup>And now they sin more and more, and have made themselves molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen. They say of them, Let the men who sacrifice kiss the calves. <sup>3</sup>Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud and as the early dew that passes away, as the chaff storm-driven out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney. <sup>4</sup>Yet I am the LORD your God from the land of Egypt, and you shall know no God but Me. For there is no Saviour besides Me.

<sup>5</sup>I have known you in the wilderness, in the land of great dryness. <sup>6</sup>According to their pasture, so were they filled. They were filled and their heart was lifted up. Therefore they have forgotten Me. <sup>7</sup>Therefore I will be as a lion to them; as a leopard by the way I will watch them. <sup>8</sup>I will meet them like a bereaved bear, and will tear the lining of their heart. And there I will devour them like a lion; the wild beast shall tear them.

<sup>9</sup>O Israel, you have destroyed yourself; but in Me is your help. <sup>10</sup>Where is your king now, that he may save you in all your cities; and your judges of whom you said, Give me a king and rulers? <sup>11</sup>I gave you a king in My anger, and took him away in My wrath. <sup>12</sup>The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin hidden. <sup>13</sup>The pains of a woman in travail shall come to him. He is an unwise son; for he cannot stand still in the time of the breaking forth of sons. <sup>14</sup>I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death. O Death, I will be your plagues; O Grave, I will be your ruin! Repentance shall be hidden from My eyes.

<sup>15</sup>Though he is fruitful among his brothers, an east wind shall come. The wind of the LORD shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall be ashamed, and his fountain shall be dried up. He shall plunder the treasure of all desirable vessels. <sup>16</sup>Samaria shall become a waste, for she has rebelled against her God. They shall fall by the sword. Their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their pregnant women shall be ripped up.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>O Israel, return to the LORD your God, for you have fallen by your iniquity. <sup>2</sup>Take with you words, and turn to the LORD. Say to Him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously, that we may repay with the calves of our lips. <sup>3</sup>Assyria shall not save us; we will not ride on horses. Nor shall we say any more to the work of our hands, You are our gods, for in you the fatherless finds mercy.

<sup>4</sup>I will heal their backslidings; I will love them freely; for My anger has turned away from him. <sup>5</sup>I will be as the dew to Israel; he shall grow as the lily and cast out his roots like Lebanon. <sup>6</sup>His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the olive tree, and his smell as Lebanon. <sup>7</sup>They who dwell under his shadow shall return; they shall show life like the grain, and grow like the vine. Their scent shall be as the wine of Lebanon. <sup>8</sup>Ephraim shall say, What have I to do any more with idols? I have heard him and watched him; I am like a green fir tree. Your fruit is found from Me. <sup>9</sup>Who is wise, and he shall understand these things? Understanding, and he shall know them? For the ways of the LORD are right, and the just shall walk in them; but sinners shall fall in them.

THE BOOK OF JOEL

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD that came to Joel, the son of Pethuel. <sup>2</sup>Hear this, you old men, and give ear, all dwellers of the land. Has this been in your days or even in the days of your fathers? <sup>3</sup>Tell your sons of it, and let your sons tell their sons, and their sons another generation. <sup>4</sup>That which the creeping locust has left, the swarming locust has eaten. And that which the swarming locust has left, the locust larvae has eaten. And that which the locust larvae has left, the stripping locust has eaten. <sup>5</sup>Awake, drunkards, and weep; and howl, all drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth. <sup>6</sup>For a nation has come up on my land, strong and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he has the jaw teeth of a lioness. <sup>7</sup>He has laid my vine waste and splintered my fig tree. He has stripped it and cast it away; its branches grow white.

<sup>14</sup>Set apart a fast; call a solemn gathering; gather the elders and all the people of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry to the Lord, <sup>15</sup>Alas for the day! For the day of the LORD is at hand, and it shall come as a ruin from the Almighty. <sup>16</sup>Is not the food cut off before our eyes, and joy and gladness from the house of our God? <sup>17</sup>The seed is rotten under their clods; the storage bins are laid waste; the barns are broken down, for the grain has dried up. <sup>18</sup>How the beasts groan! The herds of cattle are troubled because they have no pasture. Yes, the flocks of sheep are destroyed. <sup>19</sup>O LORD, to You will I cry; for the fire has burned up the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame has burned all the trees of the field. <sup>20</sup>The beasts of the field also cry to You; for the rivers of water are dried up, and the fire has burned up the pastures of the wilderness.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>Blow a ram's horn in Zion, and sound an alarm in My holy mountain; let all the inhabitants of the land tremble. For the day of the LORD comes, for it is near at hand; <sup>2</sup>a day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread on the mountains; a great people and a strong people; there has not been ever the like, nor shall there ever be again, even to the years of many generations. <sup>3</sup>A fire devours before them, and behind them a flame burns. The land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness. Yes, and nothing shall escape them. <sup>4</sup>They look like horses; and like horsemen, so they shall run. <sup>5</sup>They shall leap like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains, like the noise of a flame of fire that devours the stubble, like a strong people set in battle order. <sup>6</sup>Before their face the people shall be much pained; all faces shall gather blackness. <sup>7</sup>They shall run like mighty men. They shall climb the wall like men of war, and they shall march each one on his way, and they shall not break their ranks. <sup>8</sup>And each one shall not press his brother; they each go in his paths. And if they fall behind their weapons, they shall not be cut off. <sup>9</sup>They shall rush on the city; they shall run on the wall; they shall climb up on the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief. <sup>10</sup>The earth shall tremble before them; the heavens shall shake. The sun and the moon shall grow dark, and the stars shall gather in their light. <sup>11</sup>And the LORD shall utter His voice before His army; for His camp is very great; for strong is He who does His word. For the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and who can stand it?

<sup>12</sup>Yet even now, says the LORD, turn to Me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning. <sup>13</sup>Yes, tear your heart and not your robes, and turn to the LORD your God: for He is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and He pities because of the evil. <sup>14</sup>Who knows if He will return and have pity and leave a blessing behind Him, a food offering and a drink offering to the LORD your God?

<sup>18</sup>Then the LORD will be jealous for His land and pity His people. <sup>19</sup>Yes, the LORD will answer and say to His people, Behold, I will send you grain, and wine, and oil, and you shall be satisfied with it. And I will no more make you a curse among the nations. <sup>20</sup>But I will remove the northern army far from you, and will drive him into a barren and deserted land, with his face toward the eastern sea and his rear toward the western sea. And his stench shall come up, and his ill odor shall come up, because he was doing great things.

<sup>21</sup>Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice. For the LORD will do great things. <sup>22</sup>Do not be afraid, beasts of the field; for the pastures of the wilderness grow green; for the tree bears its fruit, and the fig tree and the vine yield their strength. <sup>23</sup>Be glad then, sons of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God. For He has given you the former rain according to righteousness, and He will cause the rain to come down for you, the former rain and the latter rain in the first month. <sup>24</sup>And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the vats shall overflow with wine and oil. <sup>25</sup>And I will restore to you the years which the swarming locust has eaten, the locust larvae, and the stripping locust, and the cutting locust, My great army which I sent among you. <sup>26</sup>And you shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, who has dealt with you wonderfully; and My people shall never be ashamed. <sup>27</sup>And you shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and no one else; and My people shall never be ashamed.

<sup>28</sup>And it shall be afterward, I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh. And your sons and your daughters shall prophesy; your old men shall dream dreams; your young men shall see visions. <sup>29</sup>And also I will pour out My Spirit on the slaves and on the slavegirls in those days. <sup>30</sup>And I will show wonders in the heavens above, and in the earth, blood and fire and pillars of smoke. <sup>31</sup>The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the coming of the great and terrible day of the LORD. <sup>32</sup>And it shall be, whoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be saved; for salvation shall be in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, as the LORD has said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>For, behold, in those days and in that time, when I will bring again the exiles of Judah and Jerusalem, <sup>2</sup>I will also gather all nations and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat. And I will fight with them there for My people and for My inheritance Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and divided My land. <sup>3</sup>And they have cast lots for My people, and have given a boy for a harlot, and sold a girl for wine, so that they might drink. <sup>4</sup>Yea, and what have you to do with Me, O Tyre and Sidon, and all the borders of Philistia? Will you give Me a reward? And if you reward Me, swiftly and speedily I will turn your reward on your own head, <sup>5</sup>because you have taken My silver and My gold, and have carried My good treasures into your temples. <sup>6</sup>You have also sold the sons of Judah and the sons of Jerusalem to the sons of the Greeks, that you might remove them far from their border. <sup>7</sup>Behold, I will raise them out of the place where you have sold them, and will turn your reward on your own head. <sup>8</sup>And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the sons of Judah, and they shall sell them to the Sabeans, to a people far off; for the LORD has spoken it.

<sup>9</sup>Proclaim this among the nations: Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up. <sup>10</sup>Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning hooks into swords. Let the weak say, I am strong. <sup>11</sup>Gather yourselves and come, all you nations, and gather yourselves together all around; cause Your mighty ones to come down there, O LORD. <sup>12</sup>Let the nations be awakened and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat; for there I will sit to judge all the nations all around. <sup>13</sup>Put in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe. Come, come down; for the press is full; the vats overflow, for their wickedness is great. <sup>14</sup>Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision; for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision! <sup>15</sup>The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall gather in their light. <sup>16</sup>The LORD shall also roar out of Zion and utter His voice from Jerusalem. And the heavens and the earth shall shake. But the LORD will be the hope of His people and the strength of the sons of Israel. <sup>17</sup>So you shall know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zion, My holy mountain. And Jerusalem shall be a holy thing, and no aliens shall pass through her any more.

<sup>18</sup>And it shall be, in that day the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters; and a fountain shall come forth from the house of the LORD, and shall water the valley of Shittim. <sup>19</sup>Egypt shall be a ruin, and Edom shall be a desolate wilderness, from violence done to the sons of Judah, whose innocent blood they poured out in their land. <sup>20</sup>But Judah will dwell forever, and Jerusalem to generation and generation. <sup>21</sup>And I will cleanse their blood which I did not cleanse; and the LORD is dwelling in Zion.

THE BOOK OF AMOS

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>The words of Amos, who was among the herdsmen of Tekoa — the word which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

<sup>2</sup>And he said, The LORD will roar from Zion and utter His voice from Jerusalem; and the pastures of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall dry up. <sup>3</sup>So says the LORD: For three transgressions of Damascus, yea for four, I will not turn away from it; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron. <sup>4</sup>But I will send a fire into the house of Hazeel, which shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad. <sup>5</sup>I will also break the bar of Damascus, and cut off the dweller from the Valley of Aven, and from him who holds the scepter from the house of Eden. And the people of Syria shall go into captivity to Kir, says the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>So says the LORD: For three transgressions of Gaza, yea for four, I will not turn away from it; because they deported as exiles to deliver up a complete population to Edom. <sup>7</sup>But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall devour its palaces. <sup>8</sup>And I will cut off the people from Ashdod, and him who holds the scepter from Ashkelon, and I will turn My hand against Ekron. And the rest of the Philistines shall perish, says the Lord God.

<sup>9</sup>So says the LORD: For three transgressions of Tyre, yea for four, I will not turn away from it. Because they delivered up as exiles a complete population to Edom, and did not remember the brotherly covenant. <sup>10</sup>But I will send a fire upon the wall of Tyre, which shall devour its palaces.

<sup>11</sup>So says the LORD: For three transgressions of Edom, yea for four, I will not turn away from it. Because he pursued his brother with the sword, and cast off all pities, and his anger tore without end, and he kept his wrath forever. <sup>12</sup>But I will send a fire upon Teman, which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.

<sup>13</sup>So says the LORD: For three transgressions of the sons of Ammon, yea for four, I will not turn away from it. Because they have ripped up the pregnant women of Gilead, so that they might make their own border larger. <sup>14</sup>But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it shall devour its palaces with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind. <sup>15</sup>And their king shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, says the LORD.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>So says the LORD: For three transgressions of Moab, yea for four, I will not turn away from it; because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime. <sup>2</sup>But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kerioth. And Moab shall die with great noise, with shouting, with the sound of a trumpet. <sup>3</sup>And I will cut off the judge from its midst, and will kill all its rulers with him, says the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>So says the LORD: For three transgressions of Judah, yea for four, I will not turn away from it; because they have despised the laws of the LORD, and have not kept His commandments. And their lies after which their fathers walked led them astray. <sup>5</sup>But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup>So says the LORD: For three transgressions of Israel, yea for four, I will not turn away from it; because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes; <sup>7</sup>panting after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and turning aside the way of the meek. And a man and his father will go in to the same woman, to defile My holy name. <sup>8</sup>And they will stretch beside every altar on garments taken in pledge, and they drink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god.

<sup>9</sup>Yet I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above and his roots from below. <sup>10</sup>Also I brought you up from the land of Egypt and led you forty years through the wilderness to possess the land of the Amorite. <sup>11</sup>And I raised up prophets from your sons and Nazarites from your young men. Is it not even so, O sons of Israel? says the LORD. <sup>12</sup>But you gave the Nazarites wine to drink, and commanded the prophets, saying, Do not prophesy. <sup>13</sup>Behold, I am pressed under you, as a cart full of sheaves is pressed. <sup>14</sup>And refuge shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his power, nor shall the mighty deliver his life; <sup>15</sup>nor shall he who handles the bow stand. And the swift-footed shall not save; and the horse rider shall not save his life. <sup>16</sup>And the stout-hearted among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, says the LORD.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>Hear this word that the LORD has spoken against you, sons of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying, <sup>2</sup>You only have I known of all the families of the earth; therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities. <sup>3</sup>Can two walk together unless they are agreed? <sup>4</sup>Will a lion roar in the forest when he has no prey? Will a young lion cry out of his den unless he has caught something? <sup>5</sup>Will a bird fall into a trap on the ground, and there is no bait for it? Will a trap spring up from the ground, and nothing at all be caught? <sup>6</sup>If a ram's horn is blown in a city, will the people not also tremble? If there is a calamity in a city, has the LORD not done it? <sup>7</sup>For the Lord Jehovah will do nothing unless He reveals His secret to His servants the prophets. <sup>8</sup>The lion has roared; who will not fear? The Lord Jehovah has spoken; who will not prophesy?

<sup>9</sup>Cry out on the palaces of Ashdod, and on the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say: Gather yourselves on the mountains of Samaria, and behold the great uproars in its midst, and the oppressed in its midst. <sup>10</sup>For they do not know to do right, says the LORD, those who store up violence and robbery in their palaces. <sup>11</sup>So the Lord Jehovah says this: An enemy! And he shall be all around the land; and he shall bring you down from your strength, and your palaces shall be plundered. <sup>12</sup>So says the LORD: As the shepherd takes two legs out of the mouth of the lion, or a piece of an ear; so shall the sons of Israel be taken out, those who dwell in Samaria in the corner of a bed, and in Damascus on a couch. <sup>13</sup>Hear and testify in the house of Jacob, says the Lord Jehovah, the God of hosts, <sup>14</sup>for in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel on him, I will also visit the altars of Bethel. And the horns of the altar shall be cut off and shall fall to the ground. <sup>15</sup>And I will strike the winter house together with the summer house, and the houses of ivory shall perish. And the great houses shall be swept away, says the LORD.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>Hear this word, cows of Bashan who are in the mountain of Samaria; who press down the poor, who crush the needy, who say to their masters, Bring in, that we may drink. <sup>2</sup>The Lord Jehovah has sworn by His holiness that the days shall come on you that He will lift you up with meathooks, and your sons with fishhooks. <sup>3</sup>And you shall go out at the breaches, each one straight before her. And you shall cast down the high place, says the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>Come to Bethel and transgress; to Gilgal and multiply transgressing at Gilgal. And bring your sacrifices for the morning, your tithes for three years; <sup>5</sup>and offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving from that which is leavened, and cry out; call out the voluntary offerings! For so you love to do, O sons of Israel, says the Lord Jehovah.

<sup>6</sup>And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and lack of bread in all your places, and you have not returned to Me, says the LORD. <sup>7</sup>And I have also withheld the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest. And I caused rain to fall on one city and caused it not to rain on another city; one piece was rained on, and the piece on which it did not rain dried up. <sup>8</sup>So two or three cities wandered to one city to drink water, but they were not satisfied; yet you have not returned to Me, says the LORD. <sup>9</sup>I have stricken you with blasting and mildew. When your gardens and your vineyards and your olive trees increased, the creeping locust devoured them; yet you have not returned to Me, says the LORD. <sup>10</sup>I have sent the plague among you in the way of Egypt; I have slain your young men with the sword, and have taken away your horses. And I have made the stench of your camps to come up into your nostrils; yet you have not returned to Me, says the LORD. <sup>11</sup>I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you were like a firebrand plucked out of the burning; yet you have not returned to Me, says the LORD. <sup>12</sup>So I will do this to you, O Israel; and because I will do this to you, prepare to meet your God, O Israel. <sup>13</sup>For lo, He forms the mountains and creates the wind, and declares to man what his thought is. He who makes the morning darkness, and treads on the high places of the earth; the LORD, the God of hosts, is His name.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>Hear this word which I take up against you, a dirge, O house of Israel. <sup>2</sup>The virgin of Israel has fallen; she shall rise no more; she is forsaken on her land. There is none to raise her up. <sup>3</sup>For thus says the Lord Jehovah: The city that went out by a thousand shall leave a hundred, and that which went out by a hundred shall have ten left in the house of Israel.

<sup>4</sup>For so says the LORD to the house of Israel: Seek Me, and you shall live. <sup>5</sup>But do not seek Bethel nor enter into Gilgal, and do not pass to Beer-sheba; for Gilgal shall surely go into exile, and Bethel shall come to nothing. <sup>6</sup>Seek the LORD, and you shall live; lest He break out like a fire in the house of Joseph and devour it, and there be none to put it out in Bethel. <sup>7</sup>You who turn judgment to wormwood and leave off righteousness in the earth, <sup>8</sup>seek Him who makes the Pleiades and Orion, and who turns the shadow of death into the morning and makes the day dark with night. Seek Him who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the face of the earth; the LORD is His name; <sup>9</sup>who causes destruction to flash out against the strong, and destruction comes against the fortress <sup>10</sup>They hate him who rebukes in the gate, and they despise him who speaks uprightly. <sup>11</sup>So, because of your trampling on the poor, and you take tribute of wheat from him; you have built houses of carved stone, but you shall not dwell in them; you have planted desirable vineyards, but you shall not drink wine from them. <sup>12</sup>For I know your many transgressions and your many sins. They afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate. <sup>13</sup>So the understanding ones shall keep silent in that time; for it is an evil time.

<sup>14</sup>Seek good and not evil, that you may live; and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as you have spoken. <sup>15</sup>Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate. It may be that the Lord Jehovah of hosts will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph. <sup>16</sup>So the LORD, the God of hosts, the Master, says this: Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas!

Alas! And they shall call the husbandmen to mourning, and those who are skillful in mourning to wailing. <sup>17</sup>And there shall be wailing in all vineyards; for I will pass through you, says the LORD. <sup>18</sup>Woe to those desiring the day of the LORD! What is this for you? The day of the LORD is darkness and not light; <sup>19</sup>as if a man fled from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house and leaned his hand on the wall, and a snake bit him. <sup>20</sup>Shall not the day of the LORD be darkness and not light? Even very dark, and no brightness in it?

<sup>21</sup>I hate, I despise your feast days, and I will not delight in your solemn assemblies. <sup>22</sup>Though you offer Me burnt offerings and your food offerings, I will not be pleased. Nor will I regard the peace offerings of your fat animals. <sup>23</sup>Take the noise of your songs away from Me; for I will not hear the melody of your stringed instruments. <sup>24</sup>But let judgment roll down like waters, and righteousness like a mighty stream. <sup>25</sup>Have you offered sacrifices and offerings to Me forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel? <sup>26</sup>But you have carried the booth of your king and Kiyyun, your images, the star of your gods which you made for yourselves. <sup>27</sup>So I will cause you to go into exile beyond Damascus, says the LORD, the God of hosts is His name.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountain of Samaria, who are noted as leader of the nations. And the house of Israel came to them. <sup>2</sup>Pass to Calneh, and see; and from there go to Hamath the great. Then go down to Gath of the Philistines. Are they better than these kingdoms, or their border greater than your border? <sup>3</sup>You who put the evil day far away, and cause the seat of violence to come near; <sup>4</sup>who lie on beds of ivory, and those sprawling on their couches, and eat lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall; <sup>5</sup>who chant with the mouth of the harp; they invent instruments of music for themselves, like David; <sup>6</sup>who drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the best of oils; nor do they grieve for the breaking of Joseph!

<sup>7</sup>So now they shall go into exile with the first of the exiles. And the feast of those who stretch themselves shall cease. <sup>8</sup>The Lord Jehovah has sworn by Himself, says the LORD, the God of hosts: I despise the glory of Jacob, and hate his palaces; and I will shut up the city and all its fullness. <sup>9</sup>And it shall be if ten men remain in one house, they shall die. <sup>10</sup>And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he who burns him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say to him left in the recesses of the house, Are any still with you? And he shall say, No. Then he shall say, Hush! For not one shall mention the name of Jehovah. <sup>11</sup>For, behold, the LORD commands, and He will strike the great house into pieces, and the little house into cracks. <sup>12</sup>Shall horses run on the rock? Will one plow there with oxen? For you have turned justice into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into hemlock; <sup>13</sup>you who rejoice in nothing, who say, Have we not taken horns to ourselves by our own strength? <sup>14</sup>But behold, I will raise a nation up against you, O house of Israel, says the Lord, the God of hosts. And they shall oppress you from the entrance to Hamath to the torrent of the Arabah.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>The Lord Jehovah made me see this: And behold, He is forming locusts at the beginning of the coming up of the late grass; even behold, the late grass after the king's mowings. <sup>2</sup>And it happened when it had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord Jehovah, forgive, I pray You. How can Jacob stand? For he is small. <sup>3</sup>The LORD repented for this; it shall not be, says the LORD. <sup>4</sup>The Lord Jehovah made me see this: And behold, the Lord Jehovah was calling to contend by fire. And it consumed the great deep, and it was devouring part of it <sup>5</sup>Then I said, O Lord Jehovah, I pray You, cease. How can Jacob stand? For he is small. <sup>6</sup>The LORD repented for this; this also shall not be, says the Lord Jehovah. <sup>7</sup>He made me see this: And behold, the Lord was standing by the plumb-line-wall, and a plumb-line in His hand. <sup>8</sup>And the LORD said to me, Amos, what do you see? And I said, A plumb-line. Then the Lord said, Behold, I will set a plumb-line in the midst of My people Israel. I will not again pass by them any more. <sup>9</sup>And the high places of Isaac shall be wasted, and the holy places of Israel shall he laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

<sup>10</sup>Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos has plotted against you in the midst of the house of Israel; the land is not able to bear all his words. <sup>11</sup>For so Amos says: Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely go into exile out of his land. <sup>12</sup>And Amaziah said to Amos, O seer, go, flee for yourself into the land of Judah; and eat bread there, and prophesy there. <sup>13</sup>But do not prophesy again anymore at Bethel; for it is the king's temple, and it is the king's royal house. <sup>14</sup>Then Amos answered and said to Amaziah: I was no prophet, nor was I a prophet's son. But I was a herdsman and a gatherer from sycamore trees. <sup>15</sup>And the LORD took me from behind the flock, and the LORD said to me, Go, prophesy to My people Israel.

<sup>16</sup>Now then hear the word of the LORD. You say, Do not prophesy against Israel, and do not drop words against the house of Isaac. <sup>17</sup>So the LORD says this: Your wife shall be a harlot in the city, and your sons and your daughters shall fall by the sword, and your land shall be divided by line. And you shall die in a defiled land; and Israel shall surely go into exile out of his land.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>The Lord Jehovah made me see this: And behold, a basket of summer fruit! <sup>2</sup>And He said, Amos, what do you see? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then the LORD said to me, The end has come to My people Israel: I will never pass by them any more. <sup>3</sup>And the songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, says the Lord Jehovah. The dead bodies shall be many. In every place one shall throw them out, saying, Hush!

<sup>4</sup>Hear this, you who trample the poor, even to make the humble of the land to fail, <sup>5</sup>saying, When will the new moon be gone so that we may sell grain? And the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small and the shekel great, and perverting the balances by deceit; <sup>6</sup>that we may buy the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals; and sell the chaff of the wheat? <sup>7</sup>The LORD has sworn by the Glory of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works. <sup>8</sup>Shall not the land tremble for this, and all who dwell in it mourn? And all of it shall rise up like the light. And it shall overflow and sink like the Nile of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>And it shall be in that day, says the Lord Jehovah, I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the third day. <sup>10</sup>And I will turn your feast into mourning, and all your songs into weeping; and I will bring up sackcloth on all loins, and baldness on every head. And I will make it like the mourning of an only son, and the end of it like a bitter day.

<sup>11</sup>Behold, the days come, says the Lord Jehovah, that I will send a famine in the land; not a famine of bread nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD. <sup>12</sup>And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east; they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it. <sup>13</sup>In that day the beautiful virgins and the young men shall faint for thirst. <sup>14</sup>They who swear by the sin of Samaria and say, As your God lives, O Dan; and, As the way of Beer-sheba lives; even they shall fall and never rise up again.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>I saw the Lord standing by the altar. And He said, Strike the capital of the door, so that the thresholds shall shake; and break them on the head of all of them. And I will kill the last of them with the sword. Not one of them fleeing will flee, and not a fugitive of them will escape. <sup>2</sup>If they dig into hell, there My hand shall take them. And if they go up to the heavens, I will bring them down from there. <sup>3</sup>And if they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out from there. And if they are hidden from My sight in the bottom of the sea, I will command the serpent there, and he shall bite them. <sup>4</sup>And if they go into captivity before their enemies, I will command the sword there, and it shall kill them; and I will set My eyes on them for evil, and not for good. <sup>5</sup>And the Lord Jehovah of hosts is He who touches the land, and it shall melt, and all who dwell in it shall mourn. And all of it shall rise up like the Nile, and sink down like the Nile of Egypt. <sup>6</sup>It is He who builds His staircase in the heavens, and He has founded the firmament on the earth; He who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the face of the earth; the LORD is His name. <sup>7</sup>Are you not like sons of the Ethiopians to Me, O sons of Israel, says the LORD? Have I not brought Israel up out of the land of Egypt? and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir? <sup>8</sup>Behold, the eyes of the Lord Jehovah are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from the face of the earth; except that I will not completely destroy the house of Jacob, says the LORD. <sup>9</sup>For lo, I will command, and I will shake the house of Israel among all the nations, as one shakes with a sieve, yet not a grain shall fall to the earth. <sup>10</sup>All the sinners of My people shall die by the sword, who say, The evil shall not draw near, or come in front about us.

<sup>11</sup>In that day I will raise up the booth of David that has fallen, and close up its breaks; and I will raise up its ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old; <sup>12</sup>so that they may possess the remnant of Edom, and of all the nations on whom My name is called, says the LORD who is doing this.

<sup>13</sup>Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that the plowman and the reaper shall draw near, the treader of grapes, and he who draws along the seed. And the mountains will drip must, and all the hills will be dissolved. <sup>14</sup>And I will turn back the captivity of My people Israel, and they shall build the cities which are desolate, and they shall live in them. And they shall plant vineyards and drink their wine. They shall also make gardens and eat their fruit. <sup>15</sup>And I will plant them on their land, and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, says the LORD your God.

THE BOOK OF OBADIAH

<sup>1</sup>The vision of Obadiah. So says the Lord God concerning Edom: We have heard a message from the LORD, and a messenger is sent among the nations: Rise up, even let us rise up against her for battle. <sup>2</sup>Behold, I have given you to be small among the nations; you are greatly despised.

<sup>3</sup>The pride of your heart has deceived you, dwelling in the clefts of the rocks, his dwelling is lofty; saying in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground? <sup>4</sup>Though you rise high like the eagle, and though you set your nest between the stars, I will bring you down from there, says the LORD. <sup>5</sup>If thieves came to you, if destroyers by night (how you have been cut off!), would they not have stolen until they had enough? If the grape-gatherers came to you, would they not leave gleanings? <sup>6</sup>How Esau is searched out! His hidden things are sought out! <sup>7</sup>All the men of your covenant have dismissed you to the border; the men who were at peace with you have deceived you, and have overcome you. They are setting your bread as a snare under you; there is no understanding in them. <sup>8</sup>Shall I not in that day even destroy the wise out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau, says the LORD? <sup>9</sup>And your mighty ones, O Teman, shall be afraid, so that each man from the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

<sup>10</sup>Shame shall cover you from the violence against your brother Jacob, and you shall be cut off forever. <sup>11</sup>On the day of your standing on the other side, on the day that the strangers were capturing his forces, and foreigners entered his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem, even you were like one of them. <sup>12</sup>But you should not have looked on the day of your brother on the day of his alienation; nor should you have rejoiced over the sons of Judah in the day of their ruin; nor should you have enlarged your mouth in the day of distress. <sup>13</sup>You should not have entered into the gate of My people in the day of their calamity; yea, you should not have looked on his evil in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their possessions in the day of his calamity. Nor should you have sent out against his force in the day of his calamity. <sup>14</sup>Nor should you have stood on the crossways to cut off those of him who escaped; nor should you have shut up his survivors in the day of distress. <sup>15</sup>For the day of the LORD is near on all the nations; as you have done, it shall be done to you. Your reward shall return upon your head. <sup>16</sup>For as you have drunk upon My holy mountain, so all the nations shall drink forever. Yes, they shall drink, and they shall swallow, and they shall be as though they had not been.

<sup>17</sup>But upon Mount Zion shall be those who escaped; and it shall be holy. And the house of Jacob shall possess their own possessions. <sup>18</sup>And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame. And the house of Esau shall be for stubble. And they shall kindle in them and burn them up. And no survivor shall be to the house of Esau; for the LORD has spoken it. <sup>19</sup>And those of the south shall possess the mountain of Esau; and the low country of the Philistines. And they shall possess the fields of Ephraim and the fields of Samaria; and Benjamin shall possess Gilead. <sup>20</sup>And the exiles of this force to the sons of Israel who shall possess the land of the Canaanites to Zarephath; even the exiles of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad shall possess the cities of the south. <sup>21</sup>And deliverers shall go up into the mountain of Zion to judge the mountain of Esau; and the kingdom shall be to the LORD.

THE BOOK OF JONAH

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>And the word of the LORD came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, <sup>2</sup>Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their evil has come up before Me. <sup>3</sup>But Jonah rose up to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. And he went down to Joppa. And he found a ship going to Tarshish. And he gave its fare, and went down into it, in order to go with them to Tarshish, away from the sight of the LORD. <sup>4</sup>But the LORD hurled a great wind into the sea, and there was a great storm in the sea, so that the ship was thought to be broken. <sup>5</sup>Then the seamen were afraid, and each man cried to his god. And they threw out utensils in the ship, into the sea in order to lighten it. But Jonah had gone down into the hold of the ship; and he lay there, and was fast asleep. <sup>6</sup>And the the chief of the seaman came to him and said to him, What is it to you, O sleeper? Arise, call upon your God! It may be that our god will notice us, and we will not perish? <sup>7</sup>And they said, each one to his fellow, Come and let us cast lots, so that we may know who has caused this evil to occur to us. And they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. <sup>8</sup>Then they said to him, Please tell us, for what reason this evil has come on us. What is your business? And where do you come from? Where is your country? And of what people are you? <sup>9</sup>And he said to them, I am a Hebrew; and I fear Jehovah, the God of heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land. <sup>10</sup>Then the men were afraid with a great fear. And they said to him, What is this you have done? For the men knew that he was fleeing from before the face of Jehovah, because he had told them.

<sup>11</sup>Then they said to him, What shall we do to you, that the sea may be calm to us? For the sea was going on and being stormy. <sup>12</sup>And he said to them, Take me up and throw me out into the sea. And the sea shall be calm to you; for I know that this great storm has come on you for my sake. <sup>13</sup>But the men rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they could not, for the sea was going on and being stormy against them. <sup>14</sup>And they cried to the LORD and said, We beg You, O LORD, we beg You, let us not perish for this man's life, and do not lay on us innocent blood. For You, O LORD, have done as it pleased You. <sup>15</sup>And they lifted Jonah up and threw him out into the sea; and the sea ceased from its raging. <sup>16</sup>Then the men feared Jehovah exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice to the LORD, and vowed vows. <sup>17</sup>And the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And Jonah prayed to the LORD his God out of the fish's belly, <sup>2</sup>and he said, I cried to the LORD from my distress. And He answered me. Out of the belly of Sheol I cried for help, and You heard my voice. <sup>3</sup>For You cast me into the depths of the seas, and the current surrounded me. All Your breakers and Your waves passed over me. <sup>4</sup>Then I said, I am cast off from Your eyes, yet I will look again toward Your holy temple. <sup>5</sup>Waters encompassed me, even to the soul; the depth closed around me; the seaweed was bound to my head. <sup>6</sup>I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was around me forever; yet You have brought up my life from the pit, O LORD my God. <sup>7</sup>When my soul fainted within me, I remembered the LORD; and my prayer came in to You, into Your holy temple. <sup>8</sup>They who take heed to lying vanities forsake their kindness; <sup>9</sup>but I will sacrifice to You with the voice of thanksgiving; I will fulfill that which I have vowed. Salvation belongs to the LORD!

<sup>10</sup>And the LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited Jonah out on the dry land.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And the word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time, saying, <sup>2</sup>Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry out to it the proclamation that I am declaring to you. <sup>3</sup>And Jonah arose and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. And Nineveh was a very great city of three days' journey. <sup>4</sup>And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried and said, Yet forty days and Nineveh shall be overthrown!

<sup>5</sup>And the people of Nineveh believed God. And they called a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. <sup>6</sup>For word came to the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne. And he laid his robe from him, and covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. <sup>7</sup>And he cried out and said in Nineveh by the decree of the king and his great ones, saying, Do not let man or beast, herd or flock taste anything; do not let them feed, nor drink water. <sup>8</sup>But let man and animal be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily to God. And let them each one turn from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands. <sup>9</sup>Who knows? He may repent and away from His hot anger, so that we do not perish? <sup>10</sup>And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way. And God was compassionate over the evil that He had said to do to them, and He did not do it.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>But it was a great calamity to Jonah's eye, and it kindled anger in him. <sup>2</sup>And he prayed to the LORD and said, Please, O LORD, was this not my saying when I was still in my land? On account of this I fled before to Tarshish. For I knew that You are a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and One who repents over calamity. <sup>3</sup>And now, O LORD, I beseech You, take my life from me. For better is my death than my life.

<sup>4</sup>And the LORD said, Is anger rightly kindled in you?

<sup>5</sup>And Jonah went out of the city and sat on the east of the city. And he made himself a booth there and sat under it in the shade, until he might see what would happen in the city. <sup>6</sup>And the LORD God prepared a plant, and it came up over Jonah, to be shade over his head, in order to deliver him from his misery. And Jonah rejoiced with great joy over the plant. <sup>7</sup>But God prepared a worm as the morning dawned the next day. And it struck the plant, and it withered. <sup>8</sup>And it happened when the sun shone, God ordained a scorching east wind. And the sun beat on the head of Jonah, so that he fainted. And he asked for his life to die. And he said, Better is my death than my life. <sup>9</sup>And God said to Jonah, Is you anger rightly kindled over the plant? And he said, My anger is rightly kindled, even to death. <sup>10</sup>And the LORD said, You have had pity on the plant, for which you had not labored, nor made it grow — which was a son of a night, and perished the son of a night — <sup>11</sup>And should I not spare Nineveh, that great city, in which are more than a hundred and twenty thousand men who do not know between their right and their left hand, besides much cattle?

THE BOOK OF MICAH

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD that came to Micah the Morasthite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>Hear, all you people; listen, O earth, and its fullness. And let the Lord GOD be witness against you, the Lord from His holy temple. <sup>3</sup>For behold, the LORD is coming out of His place, and will come down and walk on the high places of the earth. <sup>4</sup>And the mountains shall melt under Him, and the valleys shall tear themselves, as wax before the fire, and as waters poured down a steep place. <sup>5</sup>All this is for the transgression of Jacob, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? Is it not Samaria? And what are the high places of Judah? Are they not Jerusalem? <sup>6</sup>And I will make Samaria into ruins of the field, planting places for a vineyard; and I will pour down her stones into the valley, and I will uncover her foundations. <sup>7</sup>And all her graven images shall be beaten to pieces, and all her gifts shall be burned with the fire, and I will destroy all its idols. For she gathered it from the reward of a harlot, and they shall return to the reward of a harlot. <sup>8</sup>Therefore I will wail and howl; I will go stripped and naked; I will make a wailing like the daughters of an ostrich. <sup>9</sup>For her wounds are not curable; for it has come as far as Judah; it has reached to the gate of My people, to Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>Do not declare it in Gath; weep not at all; in the house of Leaphrah roll in the dust. <sup>11</sup>Pass over to them, O dweller of Shaphir, in nakedness of shame. The dweller of Zaanan has not gone out; the mourning of Beth-ezel shall take from you his standing. <sup>12</sup>For be grieved for good, the dweller of Maroth, for evil came down from the LORD to the gate of Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>O inhabitant of Lachish, bind the chariot to the stallion; she is the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion, for the sins of Israel were found in you. <sup>14</sup>Therefore you shall give parting gifts to Moresheth-gath; the houses of Achzib are for a lying thing to the kings of Israel. <sup>15</sup>Yet I will bring an heir to you, O dweller of Maresyah. The glory of Israel shall come to Adullam. <sup>16</sup>Make yourself bald, and cut off your hair for the sons of your delight; make your baldness large like the eagle; for they go into exile from you.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>Woe to those who plot wickedness and prepare evil on their beds! When the morning is light they practice it, because it is in the power of their hand. <sup>2</sup>And they covet fields and seize them; and houses, and take them away. And they oppress a man and his household, even a man and his inheritance. <sup>3</sup>So the LORD says this: Behold, against this family I am plotting an evil from which you shall not remove your necks; nor shall you go proudly, but it is an evil time.

<sup>4</sup>In that day one shall take up a parable against you and mourn a mourning of mournings, saying, We shall be completely laid waste. He has exchanged the share of my people. How He has removed it from me! To the apostate He has divided our fields. <sup>5</sup>Therefore there shall not be for you one casting a line by lot in the congregation of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>Do not drop words as they drop! They shall not drop words about these; they shall not draw back reproaches.

<sup>7</sup>House of Jacob, it is said, The Spirit of the LORD is limited, if these are His doings? Do not My words do good to him who walks uprightly? <sup>8</sup>Even yesterday, My people has risen up like an enemy; you strip off a cloak along with an outer robe, from those who pass by trustingly, those returning from war. <sup>9</sup>You have thrown the wives of My people out from the house of her delight; from their children you have taken away My majesty forever. <sup>10</sup>Arise and depart! For because of destroying uncleanness, even a grievous destruction, this is not your rest. <sup>11</sup>If a man walks with wind and lies falsely, saying, I will drop words to you for wine and for strong drink, he shall even be a dropper of words for this people.

<sup>12</sup>I will surely gather all of you, O Jacob; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel. I will put them together like the sheep of Bozrah, like the flock in the midst of their fold. They shall be in commotion because of men. <sup>13</sup>The breaker has come up before them; they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and have gone out of it. And their king shall pass before them, and the LORD at the head of them.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And I said, Please hear, O heads of Jacob and magistrates of the house of Israel. Is it not for you to know justice? <sup>2</sup>You who hate the good and love the evil; who pull their skin off them, and their flesh from their bones; <sup>3</sup>who also eat the flesh of My people, and strip their skin off them. And they break their bones and chop them in pieces, like those in the middle of the kettle. <sup>4</sup>Then they shall cry to the LORD, but He will not answer them. He will even hide His face from them at that time, as they have done evil in their doings.

<sup>5</sup>So says the LORD concerning the prophets who make My people err, who bite with their teeth and cry, Peace! And whoever does not give for their mouth, they even sanctify a war against him. <sup>6</sup>Therefore a night shall be to you without vision; and darkness without divining. And the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them. <sup>7</sup>And the seers shall be ashamed, and the diviners ashamed; yea, they shall all cover their mustache, for there is no answer from God.

<sup>8</sup>But I am full of power by the Spirit of the LORD, and justice, and might, to declare to Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin. <sup>9</sup>Please hear this, heads of the house of Jacob, and magistrates of the house of Israel, who hate justice and pervert all equity. <sup>10</sup>They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity. <sup>11</sup>Her heads judge for a bribe, and her priests teach for pay, and her prophets divine for silver, yet they will lean on the LORD and say, Is not the LORD among us? No evil can come on us! <sup>12</sup>Therefore, on account of you, Zion shall be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house into high places of the forest.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>But in the last days the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be lifted up above the hills; and people shall flow to it. <sup>2</sup>And many nations shall come and say, Come and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob. And He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths; for the law shall go forth out of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>And He shall judge between many peoples, and will decide for strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, And they shall not still learn war. <sup>4</sup>But they shall sit each one under his vine and under his fig tree; and there shall be no trembling; for the mouth of the LORD of hosts has spoken, <sup>5</sup>For all people will walk, each one in the name of his god; and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God forever and ever. <sup>6</sup>In that day, says the LORD, I will gather the lame, and I will gather the banished, and the one I have afflicted. <sup>7</sup>And

I will make the lame into a remnant, and her who was cast off a strong nation; and the LORD shall reign over them in Mount Zion from now on, even forever.

<sup>8</sup>And you, O tower of the flock, the hill of the daughter of Zion, to you it shall happen. And rulers, the chief ones, shall come, the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>Now why do you cry aloud? Is there no king among you? Has your counselor perished? For pangs have taken you like one giving birth. <sup>10</sup>Be in pain and deliver, daughter of Zion, like one giving birth. For now you shall go out from the city, and you shall dwell in the field; and you shall go to Babylon. There you shall be snatched back; there the LORD shall redeem you from the hand of your enemies.

<sup>11</sup>Now also many nations are gathered against you, who say, Let her be defiled, and let our eyes look on Zion. <sup>12</sup>But they do not know the plans of the LORD, nor do they understand His counsel. For He has gathered them like the sheaf to the floor. <sup>13</sup>Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion; for I will make your horn iron, and I will make your hoofs bronze; and you shall crush many peoples. And I will give their gain to the LORD, and their wealth to the Lord of the all the earth.

<sup>1</sup>Now gather yourself in troops, daughter of a troop; one sets a siege against us; they shall strike the judge of Israel with a rod on the cheek.

<sup>2</sup>And you, Bethlehem Ephratah, you being least among the thousands of Judah, out of you He shall come forth to Me, to become Ruler in Israel, He whose goings forth have been from of old, from the days of eternity. <sup>3</sup>Therefore He will give them over until the time the one giving birth has given birth; then the rest of His brothers shall return to the sons of Israel. <sup>4</sup>And He shall stand and feed in the strength of Jehovah, in the majesty of the name of Jehovah His God. And they shall sit, for now He shall be great to the ends of the earth. <sup>5</sup>And this One shall be peace.

When Assyria shall come into our land; and when he shall walk in our palaces, then we shall raise against him seven shepherds and eight anointed ones from men. <sup>6</sup>And they shall mar the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod at her own entrances. And He shall deliver us from Assyria, when he treads within our border. <sup>7</sup>And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many peoples, as dew from the LORD, as showers on a blade of the grass, which does not wait for man, nor delay for the sons of men.

<sup>8</sup>And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, like a lion among the beasts of the forest, like a young lion among the flocks of sheep — who both tramples and tears in pieces if he goes through — and there is none to snatch back. <sup>9</sup>Your hand shall be high above your foes, and all your enemies shall be cut off. <sup>10</sup>And it shall be in that day, says the LORD, I will cut off your horses out of your midst, and I will destroy your chariots. <sup>11</sup>And I will cut off the cities of your land, and throw down all your strongholds. <sup>12</sup>And I will cut off sorceries out of your hand, and there shall not be fortune-tellers among you. <sup>13</sup>I will also cut off your graven images, and your pillars out of the midst of you; and you shall never again worship the work of your hands. <sup>14</sup>And I will pluck your shrines out of the midst of you; so I will destroy your cities. <sup>15</sup>And I will execute vengeance in anger and fury on the nations, such as they have not heard.

foundations of the earth. For the LORD has a quarrel with His people, and He will plead His case with Israel. <sup>3</sup>O My people, what have I done to you? And in what have I made you weary? Testify against Me! <sup>4</sup>For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of slaves; and I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam before you. <sup>5</sup>O My people, remember now what Balak king of Moab planned, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim to Gilgal, so that you may know the righteousness of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>With what shall I come before the LORD, to bow myself before God the Most High? Shall I come before Him with burnt offerings, with calves of a year old? <sup>7</sup>Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? <sup>8</sup>He has shown you, O man, what is good. And what does the LORD require of you but to do justice and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God? <sup>9</sup>The LORD's voice cries to the city, and it is sound wisdom to fear Your name. Hear the rod and Him who has appointed it.

<sup>10</sup>Are the treasures of wickedness still in the house of the wicked, and the short measure that is hateful? <sup>11</sup>Shall I count those with the wicked scales pure, and those with the bag of deceitful weights? <sup>12</sup>For its rich men are full of violence, and its people have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth. <sup>13</sup>Therefore I also have made you sick by striking you, laying you waste because of your sins. <sup>14</sup>You shall eat, but not be satisfied; and your casting down shall be in the midst of you. And you shall take hold, but shall not deliver; and that which you deliver I will give up to the sword. <sup>15</sup>You shall sow, but you shall not reap; you shall tread the olives, but you shall not anoint yourself with oil; and sweet wine, but shall not drink wine.

<sup>16</sup>For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab, and you walk in their counsels, so that I should make you a ruin and its people a hissing; therefore you shall bear the shame of My people.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>Woe is me! For I am like the gatherings of summer fruits, like the grape-gleanings of the vintage. There is no cluster to eat; my soul desires the first-ripe fruit. <sup>2</sup>The pious has perished from the earth, and there is none upright among men. For they all lie in wait for blood; each one hunts his brother with a net.

<sup>3</sup>They have both hands on that which is evil, to do it well. The ruler asks for a bribe, and the judge also; and the great man speaks the evil desire of his soul. So they weave it together. <sup>4</sup>The best of them is like a briar; the most upright is sharper than a hedge of thorns. The day of your watchmen and your punishment comes; now their shame shall come.

<sup>5</sup>Put no trust in a friend; put no hope in a guide; keep the door of your mouth from her who lies in your bosom. <sup>6</sup>For the son dishonors the father; the daughter rises up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. A man's enemies are the men of his own household. <sup>7</sup>Therefore I will look to the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation. My God will hear me!

<sup>8</sup>Rejoice not against me, my enemy; for if I fall, I shall arise; for if I sit in darkness, the LORD shall be a light to me. <sup>9</sup>I will bear the fury of the LORD, because I have sinned against Him, until He pleads my cause and brings out judgment for me. He will bring me out to the light, and I shall behold His righteousness. <sup>10</sup>Then my enemy shall see it; and shame shall cover her who said to me, Where is the LORD your God? My eyes shall behold her; now she shall be trampled like the mud of the streets. <sup>11</sup>In the day that your walls are to be built, in that day the decree shall be far removed. <sup>12</sup>In that day he shall come even to you from Assyria, and from the fortified cities, and from the fortress even to the river, and from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain. <sup>13</sup>But the land shall be wasted because of those who dwell in it, for the fruit of their doings.

<sup>14</sup>Feed your people with your rod, the flock of your inheritance, who dwell alone in the woods, in the midst of Carmel; let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old. <sup>15</sup>According to the days of your coming out of the land of Egypt I will show to him marvelous things.

<sup>16</sup>The nation shall see and be ashamed at all their might; they shall lay their hand on their mouth; their ears shall be deaf. <sup>17</sup>They shall lick the dust like a snake; they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth. They shall dread the LORD our God, and shall fear because of You. <sup>18</sup>Who is a God like You, who pardons iniquity and passes by the transgression of the remnant of His heritage? He does not keep His anger forever, because He delights in mercy. <sup>19</sup>He will turn again; He will have pity on us. He will trample our iniquities; and You will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea. <sup>20</sup>You will fulfill the faithful promise to Jacob and the mercy to Abraham, which You have sworn to our fathers from the days of old.

THE BOOK OF NAHUM

<sup>2</sup>God is jealous, and the LORD revenges; the LORD revenges and is full of fury. The LORD is avenging, and is a possessor of wrath. The LORD takes vengeance against His foes, and He keeps wrath against His enemies. <sup>3</sup>The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power. And He does not by any means acquit the guilty. The LORD has His way in the tempest and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of His feet. <sup>4</sup>He rebukes the sea and makes it dry, and dries up all the rivers; Bashan and Carmel wither, and the flower of Lebanon withers. <sup>5</sup>The mountains quake from Him, and the hills melt, and the earth is lifted up from before Him; and all who dwell in it. <sup>6</sup>Who can stand before His fury? And who can stand up in the heat of His anger? His fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken down because of Him. <sup>7</sup>The LORD is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and He knows those who trust in Him. <sup>8</sup>But with an overflowing flood He will make an utter end of its place, and darkness shall pursue His enemies.

<sup>9</sup>What are you plotting against the LORD? He will make an utter end; affliction shall not rise up the second time. <sup>10</sup>For as thorns are woven together, and as their drunkards are drunken, they shall be devoured like stubble fully dry. <sup>11</sup>One who devises evil against the LORD has come forth from you, one counseling worthlessness. <sup>12</sup>So says the LORD: Though they are quiet, and likewise many, yet they shall be cut down, and he shall pass away. And though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more. <sup>13</sup>For now I will break his yoke off you, and will burst your bonds apart. <sup>14</sup>And the LORD has commanded concerning you, that no more of your name shall be sown; I will cut off the graven image and the molten image out of the house of your gods. I will make your grave; for you are despised.

<sup>15</sup>Behold upon the mountains the feet of Him who brings good news, making it heard, Peace! O Judah, keep your appointed feasts, fulfill your vows; for the wicked shall pass through you no more; he is completely cut off.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>The scattering one is coming up against your face. Guard the rampart. Watch the way, make your loins strong, firm up your power mightily. <sup>2</sup>For the LORD has turned away the glory of Jacob, as the glory of Israel. For the plunderers have plundered them, and have destroyed their vine branches. <sup>3</sup>The shield of his mighty ones has become red; the mighty men are in scarlet; the chariots flame like iron torches in the day of his preparation. And the cypresses are made to quiver. <sup>4</sup>The chariots race madly in the streets; they shall run to and fro in the streets. Their appearance is like torches; they dart about like lightnings. <sup>5</sup>He shall remember his nobles; they shall stumble in their walking; they shall make haste to its wall, and the covering shall be prepared. <sup>6</sup>The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be melted. <sup>7</sup>And she who stood firm is uncovered and caused to go away. And her slavegirls are moaning like the sound of doves, beating their breast.

<sup>8</sup>But Nineveh is like a pool of water from her days; yet they are fleeing. Halt! Halt! they cry, but none looks back. <sup>9</sup>Seize the silver; seize the gold; for there is no end to the treasures; riches from all precious vessels. <sup>10</sup>She is empty and void and waste; and the heart melts, and the knees knock, and trembling is on all the loins; and all their faces collect heat. <sup>11</sup>Where is the den of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions, where the lion and the lioness walked, and the lion's cub, and no one made them afraid? <sup>12</sup>The lion tears in pieces enough for his cubs, and strangles for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with torn prey. <sup>13</sup>Behold, I am against you, says the LORD of hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour your young lions. I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers shall be heard no more.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>Woe to the bloody city! It is a lie, and full of plunder; the prey is not withdrawn. <sup>2</sup>The sound of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of a wheel, and of a galloping horse, and of a bounding chariot. <sup>3</sup>The horseman lifts up both the bright sword and the lightning of the spear. And many are slain, and there are a mass of dead bodies, and no end of corpses; they stumble on their dead bodies, <sup>4</sup>because of the many harlotries of the well-favored harlot, the mistress of sorceries who sells nations by her harlotries, and families by her sorceries.

<sup>5</sup>Behold, I am against you, says the LORD of hosts; and I will uncover your skirts upon your face. And I will cause the nations to see your nakedness, and the kingdoms your shame. <sup>6</sup>And I will cast filth upon you, and will dishonor you, and will set you as a gazing-stock. <sup>7</sup>And it shall be that all those who look upon you shall flee from you, and say, Nineveh is laid waste; who will weep for her? From where shall I seek comforters for you? <sup>8</sup>Are you better than No Amon, that dwelt among the Nile branches, waters all around her, whose rampart was the sea, the waters her wall? <sup>9</sup>Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, yea, without end. Put and Lubim were among your helpers. <sup>10</sup>Yet she went into exile; she went into captivity, and her young children also were dashed to pieces at the head of all the streets; and they cast lots for her honorable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.

<sup>11</sup>You also shall be drunken; you shall be hidden, you also shall seek strength because of the enemy. <sup>12</sup>All your strongholds shall be like fig trees with the first fruits; if they are shaken, they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater. <sup>13</sup>Behold, your people in your midst are women. The gates of your land shall surely be opened to your enemies; the fire shall devour your bars. <sup>14</sup>Draw waters for the siege; fortify your strongholds; make the clay strong, and tread the mortar; make the brick mold strong. <sup>15</sup>There fire shall devour you; the sword shall cut you off, it shall eat you up like the locust. Make yourself as many as the larvae, multiply yourself like the locusts. <sup>16</sup>You have multiplied your merchants above the stars of heaven; the locust larvae shall strip off and fly away. <sup>17</sup>Your rulers are like the locusts, and your officials are a swarm of locusts that camp in the hedges in the cold day; the sun rises, and they flee, and the place where they are is not known. <sup>18</sup>Your shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria. Your nobles are at rest; your people are scattered upon the mountains, and no one is gathering. <sup>19</sup>There is no healing of your fracture; your wound is grievous; all who hear the news of you shall clap the hands over you; for upon whom has your wickedness not passed continually?

THE BOOK OF HABAKKUK

<sup>2</sup>O LORD, until when shall I cry and You will not save? I cry out to You of violence, and You do not save! <sup>3</sup>Why do You show me evil, and You look on toil? For destruction and violence are before me; and there is strife, and contention rises up. <sup>4</sup>Therefore the law has become helpless, and justice does not always go forth, being perverted. <sup>5</sup>Look among the nations, and behold and wonder marvelously; for I will work a work in your days which you will not believe, not even if it is declared to you. <sup>6</sup>For lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land to possess homes not their own. <sup>7</sup>He is terrible and fearful; his judgment and his glory shall come forth from themselves. <sup>8</sup>His horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves. And their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from afar. They shall fly like the eagle hurrying to eat. <sup>9</sup>All of him shall come for violence; the gathering of their faces is forward; and they gather captives like the sand. <sup>10</sup>And they shall scoff at the kings, and the rulers shall be a scorn to them. They shall laugh at every stronghold, for he shall heap up dust and capture it. <sup>11</sup>Then he sweeps on like a wind, and he transgresses and is guilty, crediting his power to his god.

<sup>12</sup>Are You not from everlasting, O LORD my God, my Holy One? We shall not die. O LORD, You have ordained them for judgment; and, O mighty God, You have established them for correction. <sup>13</sup>You are of purer eyes than to behold evil, and can not look upon vexations. Why do You look upon those who deal deceitfully? Will you be silent when the wicked swallows one more righteous than he? <sup>14</sup>For You make man like the fish of the sea, like creeping things with no ruler over them? <sup>15</sup>He takes up all of them with the hook; he drags them with his net and gathers him with his seine; therefore he rejoices and exults. <sup>16</sup>So he sacrifices to his net and burns incense to his seine; because by them his portion is fat and his food is rich. <sup>17</sup>Shall he then empty his net, and shall he not spare to continually slay nations?

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>I will stand on my watch and set myself on the tower, and will watch to see what He will say to me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved. <sup>2</sup>And the LORD answered me and said, Write the vision, and make it plain on the tablets, that he who reads it may run. <sup>3</sup>For the vision is still for an appointed time, but it pants to the end, and it does not lie. Though it lingers, wait for it; because it will surely come. It will not tarry. <sup>4</sup>Behold, the soul of him is lifted up, and is not upright; but the just shall live by his faith. <sup>5</sup>And also wine betrays a proud man, and he is not content. He widens his soul like Sheol, and he is like death, and is not satisfied, but gathers all nations to himself, and heaps to himself all the peoples. <sup>6</sup>Shall not all these lift up a parable against him, and a mocking riddle to him, and say, Woe to him who increases what is not his! Until when, then shall he load the pledges on himself? <sup>7</sup>Shall not those who strike you rise up suddenly, and those shake you awake, and you become a prize to him? <sup>8</sup>Because you have stripped many nations, all the rest of the people shall strip you; because of men's blood, and the violence of the land, of the city, and of all who dwell in it.

<sup>9</sup>Woe to him who robs evil booty for his house, to set his nest on high, to be delivered from the hand of evil! <sup>10</sup>You have planned shame to your house, to make an end of many people, and are sinning in your soul. <sup>11</sup>For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

<sup>12</sup>Woe to him who builds a town with blood, and establishes a city by iniquity! <sup>13</sup>Behold, is it not for the LORD of hosts that the people labor only for fire; yea, the nations weary themselves only for vanity? <sup>14</sup>For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea. <sup>15</sup>Woe to him who gives his neighbor drink, pouring out your wineskin, and also making him drunk, that you may look on their nakedness! <sup>16</sup>You are filled with shame instead of glory; drink also, and be seen as one uncircumcised! The cup of the LORD's right hand shall turn on you, and disgrace shall be your glory. <sup>17</sup>For the violence of Lebanon shall cover you, and the ruin of beasts shall terrify them because of the blood of man, and the violence of the land, the city, and all those dwelling in it.

<sup>18</sup>What does an image profit, for its maker has carved it; a molten image, and a teacher of lies. For does the maker trust in his work on it, to make dumb idols? <sup>19</sup>Woe to him who says to the wood. Awake! To a dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver, and no breath is in its midst. <sup>20</sup>But the LORD is in His holy temple; let all the earth keep silence before Him.

<sup>1</sup>A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet concerning erring ones:

<sup>2</sup>O LORD, I have heard Your report; I am afraid. O LORD, give new life to Your work in the midst of years; in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy.

<sup>3</sup>God comes from Teman, and the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah. His glory covers the heavens, and His praise fills the earth. <sup>4</sup>And His brightness is as the light; rays from His hand are His, and there was a hiding of His strength. <sup>5</sup>A plague went before Him, and lightning went forth at His feet. <sup>6</sup>He stood and measured the earth; He looked and shook nations, and the everlasting mountains were shattered; the eternal hills bowed down. His ways are everlasting. <sup>7</sup>I saw the tents of Cushan under calamity; the curtains of the land of Midian trembled. <sup>8</sup>Did the LORD burn against rivers? Or was Your anger against the rivers? Or Your wrath against the sea? For You ride on horses, Your chariots of salvation. <sup>9</sup>You make You bow naked, according to the oaths of the rods of Your word. Selah.

You have cut through the earth with rivers. <sup>10</sup>They saw You; mountains trembled. The storm of water passed over; the deep uttered its voice and lifted up its hands on high. <sup>11</sup>The sun and moon stood still in their dwelling. At the light of Your arrows they go, and at the shining of Your gleaming spear. <sup>12</sup>You march into the land in fury; You thresh nations in anger. <sup>13</sup>You went forth for the salvation of Your people, for salvation with Your anointed. You struck the head from the house of the wicked, to bare the foundation to the neck. Selah.

<sup>14</sup>You pierced the head of his warriors with his shafts; they rush to scatter me; their rejoicing is to devour the meek in a secret place. <sup>15</sup>You trod in the the sea with Your horses, the foaming of many waters. <sup>16</sup>I heard and my belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice. Rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself that I might rest in the day of trouble; to come up against the people; he cuts him off. <sup>17</sup>Though the fig tree shall not blossom, and fruit is not on the vines; the labor of the olive fails, and the fields yield no food. The flock is cut off from the fold, and no herd is in the stalls; <sup>18</sup>yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my salvation. <sup>19</sup>Jehovah the Lord is my strength, and He will make my feet like hinds' feet, and He will make me to walk on my high places.

To the chief singer on my stringed instruments.

THE BOOK OF ZEPHANIAH

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD which came to Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hizkiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

<sup>2</sup>I will completely snatch away all from on the face of the ground, says the LORD. <sup>3</sup>I will snatch away man and beast; I will snatch away the birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea, and the stumbling-blocks, even the wicked; and I will cut off man from the face of the land, says the LORD. <sup>4</sup>I will also stretch out My hand on Judah and on all the people of Jerusalem. And I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, the name of the idol-worshippers, with the priests, <sup>5</sup>and those bowing to the host of heaven on the housetops, and those swearing to Jehovah, also swearing by Malcham; <sup>6</sup>and those drawing back from the LORD, and who have not sought the LORD, nor sought for Him.

<sup>7</sup>Be silent before the face of the Lord Jehovah, for the day of the LORD is at hand. For the LORD has appointed a sacrifice; He has consecrated His called ones. <sup>8</sup>And it shall be in the day of the LORD's sacrifice, I will punish the rulers, and the king's sons, and all who are clothed in foreign clothing. <sup>9</sup>And I will punish all those who leap on the threshold in that day, who fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit. <sup>10</sup>And it shall be in that day, says the LORD, the sound of a cry from the Fish Gate, and a howling from the Second, and a great crashing from the hills. <sup>11</sup>Howl, people of Maktesh, for all the people of Canaan are cut down; all those who carry silver are cut off. <sup>12</sup>And it shall be in that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and punish the men who are settled on their lees; who say in their heart, The LORD will not do good, nor will He do evil. <sup>13</sup>And their goods shall become a prize and their houses a waste. They shall also build houses, but not live in them, and they shall plant vineyards, but not drink their wine. <sup>14</sup>The great day of the LORD is near; it is near and rushing greatly, the voice of the day of the LORD. The mighty man shall cry bitterly there. <sup>15</sup>That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of waste and ruin, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, <sup>16</sup>a day of the trumpet and alarm against the fortified cities, and against the high towers. <sup>17</sup>And I will bring distress on men, so that they shall walk with the blind, because they have sinned against the LORD. And their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as dung. <sup>18</sup>Their silver nor their gold will not be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of His jealousy. For He shall make even a full, yea, a speedy end of all the dwellers in the land.

<sup>4</sup>For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a ruin. They shall drive out Ashdod at the noonday, and Ekron shall be rooted up. <sup>5</sup>Woe to the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! The word of the LORD is against you: Canaan, the land of the Philistines, I will destroy you, so not will be left an inhabitant. <sup>6</sup>And the sea coast will be pastures, meadows of shepherds, and folds for flocks. <sup>7</sup>And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah; they shall feed on them. In the houses of Ashkelon they shall lie down in the evening, for the LORD their God shall visit them and turn away their captivity.

<sup>8</sup>I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the curses of the sons of Ammon, with which they have cursed My people and have magnified themselves on their border. <sup>9</sup>Therefore, as I live, says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be like Sodom, and the sons of Ammon like Gomorrah; a possession of nettles, and salt pits, and a ruin forever. The remnant of My people shall plunder them, and the remnant of My people shall possess them. <sup>10</sup>They shall have this for their pride, because they have cursed and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts. <sup>11</sup>The LORD will be frightening to them; for He will make all the gods of the earth lean; each man from his place, and all the coasts of the nations shall bow to Him.

<sup>12</sup>You Ethiopians also shall be slain by My sword. <sup>13</sup>And He will stretch out His hand against the north and destroy Assyria, and will make Nineveh a desert and dry like a desert. <sup>14</sup>And flocks shall lie down in her midst, all the beasts of a nation; both the pelican and the bittern shall roost in the capitals of its pillars; a voice shall sing at the window, ruin shall be at the doorsill, for he will bare the cedar-work. <sup>15</sup>This is the rejoicing city, dwelling confidently, who says in her heart, I am, and there is yet no other. How she has become a ruin, a resting-place for animals! Everyone who passes by her shall hiss; he shall wag his hand.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>Woe to her rebelling and becoming defiled, to the oppressing city! <sup>2</sup>She did not obey the voice; she did not receive correction. She trusted not in the LORD; she did not draw near to her God. <sup>3</sup>Her rulers within her are roaring lions; her judges evening wolves. They do not gnaw bones for the morning. <sup>4</sup>Her prophets are proud, men of deceit; her priests have defiled the sanctuary; they have done violence to the law. <sup>5</sup>The just LORD is in her midst; He will not act perversely. Every morning He gives His justice to the light; He fails not; but the perverse knows no shame. <sup>6</sup>I have cut off the nations; their towers are ruined. I made their streets waste, so that none passes by; their cities are laid waste, without a man, there being no inhabitant. <sup>7</sup>I said, Surely you will fear Me; you will receive instruction; then her dwelling shall not be cut off, all that I appointed for her. But they rose early, corrupting all their doings.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore wait for Me, says the LORD, for the day I rise up to the prey; for My judgment is to gather the nations, for Me to gather the kingdoms, to pour on them My fury, all My hot anger. For all the earth shall be burned up with the fire of My jealousy. <sup>9</sup>For then I will give a clear lip to the people, to call all of them by the name of the LORD, to serve Him with one shoulder. <sup>10</sup>From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia, My worshipers, the daughter of My scattered ones, shall bring My food offering. <sup>11</sup>In that day you shall not be ashamed for all your doings in which you have transgressed against Me; for then I will take away those who rejoice in your pride out of your midst, and you shall never again be proud in My holy mountain. <sup>12</sup>I will also leave in your midst a poor and weak people, and they shall trust in the name of the LORD. <sup>13</sup>The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity nor speak lies, and a deceitful tongue shall not be found in their mouth; for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

<sup>14</sup>Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel; be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>The LORD has turned off your judgments; He has cast out your enemy. The king of Israel, the LORD, is in your midst; you shall not fear evil any more. <sup>16</sup>In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem, Fear not! Do not let not your hands droop, Zion. <sup>17</sup>The LORD your God is mighty in your midst; He will save, He will rejoice over you with joy; He is silent in His love; He rejoices over you with joy. <sup>18</sup>I will gather the afflicted ones from the appointed place; they were from you, a lifting up of reproach over her. <sup>19</sup>Behold, at that time I will deal with all those who afflict you. And I will save her who is lame, and gather her who was driven out. And I will give them for a praise and for a name in all the land of their shame. <sup>20</sup>In that time I will bring you, even in the time that I gather you; for I will give you for a name and for a praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before your eyes, says the LORD.

THE BOOK OF HAGGAI

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet unto Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high Priest, saying,

<sup>2</sup>So says the LORD of hosts, saying: This people says, The time has not come, the time that the Jehovah's house should he built. <sup>3</sup>Then came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying, <sup>4</sup>Is it time for you yourselves to dwell in your roofed houses, and shall this House lie waste? <sup>5</sup>And now so says the LORD of hosts: Set your heart on your ways; <sup>6</sup>you have sown much and bring in little; you eat, but you do not have enough; you drink, but you are not filled with drink; you dress, but no one is warm; and he who hires out himself hires himself for a bag full of holes.

<sup>7</sup>So says the LORD of hosts: Set your heart on your ways. <sup>8</sup>Go up the mountain and bring wood, and build this House; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, says the LORD. <sup>9</sup>You looked for much, and behold, little! And when you brought it home, then I blew on it. Why, says the LORD of hosts Because of My House that is waste, and you, each man, run to his own house. <sup>10</sup>Therefore the heavens above you have held back the dew, and the earth is held back from her produce. <sup>11</sup>And I called for a drought in the land, and on the mountains, and on the grain, and on the new wine, and on the oil, and on that which the ground brings forth, and on men, and on cattle, and on all the labor of your hands.

<sup>12</sup>Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him. And the people feared before the LORD. <sup>13</sup>Then Haggai, the LORD's messenger, spoke the message of LORD to the people, saying, I am with you, says the LORD. <sup>14</sup>And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people. And they came and worked on the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, <sup>15</sup>in the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>In the seventh month, in the twenty-first of the month, the word of the LORD came by the prophet Haggai, saying, <sup>2</sup>Now speak to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying, <sup>3</sup>Who is left among you who saw this house in her first glory? And how do you see it now? When compared to it, is it not as nothing in your eyes? <sup>4</sup>Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, says the LORD. And be strong, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest; and be strong all people of the land, says the LORD, and work; for I am with you, says the LORD of hosts. <sup>5</sup>According to the word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, so My Spirit remains among you. Fear not. <sup>6</sup>For so says the LORD of hosts: Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land. <sup>7</sup>And I will shake all the nations; and the desire of all nations shall come; and I will fill this house with glory, says the LORD of hosts. <sup>8</sup>The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine, says the LORD of hosts. <sup>9</sup>The glory of this latter house shall be greater than that of the former, says the LORD of hosts. And in this place I will give peace, says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>10</sup>In the twenty-fourth of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying, <sup>11</sup>So says the LORD of hosts: Now ask the priests the law, saying, <sup>12</sup>If one carries holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and touches his skirt to bread, or boiled food, or wine, or oil, or any food, will it become holy? And the priests answered and said, No. <sup>13</sup>Then Haggai said, If one unclean of body touches these, is it unclean? And the priests answered and said, It is unclean. <sup>14</sup>And Haggai answered and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before Me, says the LORD. And so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean. <sup>15</sup>And now, I ask you, set your heart on it; from this day and onward, before the placing of a stone on a stone in the temple of the LORD; <sup>16</sup>from then onward, one came to a heap of twenty measures, and there were but ten; one came to the wine vat to draw off fifty from the trough, and there were but twenty. <sup>17</sup>I struck you with blight and with mildew, and with hail, in all the labors of your hands; yet you did not turn to Me, says the LORD. <sup>18</sup>Now set your heart on the time from this day and forward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from the day that the LORD's temple was founded. Set your heart: <sup>19</sup>Is the seed still in the barn? Yea, as yet the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree, has not brought forth. From this day I will bless you.

<sup>20</sup>And a second time the word of the LORD came to Haggai in the twenty-fourth of the month, saying, <sup>21</sup>Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth. And I will overthrow the throne of the kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. <sup>22</sup>And I will overthrow the chariots and their riders. And the horses and their riders shall come down, each one by the sword of his brother. <sup>23</sup>In that day, says the LORD of hosts, I will take you, O Zerubbabel, My servant, the son of Shealtiel, says the LORD, and will make you like a signet; for I have chosen you, says the LORD of hosts.

THE BOOK OF ZECHARIAH

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying, <sup>2</sup>The LORD has been very angry with your fathers. <sup>3</sup>And you say to them, So says the LORD of hosts: Turn to Me, says the LORD of hosts, and I will turn to you, says the LORD of hosts. <sup>4</sup>Be not as your fathers, to whom the former prophets have proclaimed to them, saying, So says the LORD of hosts: Turn now from your evil ways and from your evil doings. But they did not hear nor listen to Me, says the LORD. <sup>5</sup>Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever? <sup>6</sup>But My words and My statutes which I commanded My servants the prophets, did they not overtake your fathers? And they returned and said, As the LORD of hosts planned to do to us, according to our ways and according to our doings, so He has done with us.

<sup>7</sup>On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, it is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying, <sup>8</sup>I watched by night. And behold! a Man riding on a red horse, and He stood among the myrtle trees that were in the ravine. And behind Him were red, sorrel and white horses. <sup>9</sup>Then I said, O my lord, what are these? And the angel who talked with me said to me, I will show you what these are. <sup>10</sup>And the Man who stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, These are those whom the LORD has sent to walk to and fro through the earth. <sup>11</sup>And they answered the Angel of the LORD who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and behold, all the earth sits still and is at peace.

<sup>12</sup>Then the Angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, how long will You not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah against which You have cursed these seventy years? <sup>13</sup>And the LORD answered the angel who talked with me with good words, comfortable words. <sup>14</sup>So the angel who talked with me said to me, Cry out, saying, So says the LORD of hosts: I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. <sup>15</sup>And with great anger I am angry at the nations at ease; in that I was but a little angry, and they gave help for evil. <sup>16</sup>Therefore so says the LORD: I have returned to Jerusalem with mercies. My house shall be built in it, says the LORD of hosts. And a line shall be stretched over Jerusalem. <sup>17</sup>Cry out again, saying, So says the LORD of hosts: My cities shall yet be spread abroad through good, and the LORD shall again overflow with goodness, and the LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Jerusalem.

<sup>18</sup>Then I lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, four horns! <sup>19</sup>And I said to the angel who talked with me, What are these? And he answered me, These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel and Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup>And the LORD showed me four craftsmen. <sup>21</sup>And I said, What are these coming to do? And He spoke, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man lifted up his head. But these have come to terrify them, to throw down the horns of the nations who lifted up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>I lifted up my eyes again and looked, and behold! A man with a measuring line in his hand. <sup>2</sup>Then I said, Where are you going? And he said to me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its breadth and what is its length. <sup>3</sup>And behold, the angel who talked with me went out, and another angel went out to meet him.

<sup>4</sup>And he said to him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited, as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle in her midst.

<sup>5</sup>And I, says the LORD, will be to her a wall of fire all around, and will be the glory in her midst.

<sup>6</sup>Ho! Ho! Flee then from the land of the north, says the LORD. For I have scattered you as the four winds of the heavens, says the LORD. <sup>7</sup>Ho, O Zion, escape, you who live with the daughter of Babylon. <sup>8</sup>For so says the LORD of hosts: He has sent me after glory, to the nations who stripped you; for he who touches you touches the pupil of His eye. <sup>9</sup>For behold, I will shake My hand over them, and they shall be a prize for their servants. And you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me.

<sup>10</sup>Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion. For lo, I come, and I will dwell in your midst, says the LORD. <sup>11</sup>And many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, and shall be My people; and I will dwell in your midst, and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. <sup>12</sup>And the LORD shall possess Judah, His portion in the holy land, and shall choose Jerusalem again. <sup>13</sup>Be silent, all flesh, before the LORD; for He has risen out of His holy dwelling place.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And He showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the Angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to accuse him. <sup>2</sup>And the LORD said to Satan, May the LORD rebuke you, Satan! May even the LORD who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Is this not a brand plucked out of the fire? <sup>3</sup>Now Joshua was clothed with filthy clothes, and stood before the Angel. <sup>4</sup>And He answered and spoke to those who stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy clothes from him. And to him He said, Behold, I have caused your iniquity to pass from you, and I will clothe you with ceremonial robes. <sup>5</sup>And I said, Let them set a clean turban on his head. And they set a clean turban on his head and clothed him with garments. And the Angel of the LORD stood by. <sup>6</sup>And the Angel of the LORD charged Joshua, saying, <sup>7</sup>So says the LORD of hosts: If you will walk in My ways, and if you will keep My charge, then you shall also judge My house, and shall also keep My courts, and I will give you places to walk among these who stand by.

<sup>8</sup>Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, you and your fellows who sit before you; for they are men of symbol. For behold! I will bring forth My Servant the Branch. <sup>9</sup>For behold the stone that I have set before Joshua. On one stone are seven eyes. Behold, I will engrave its engraving, says the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. <sup>10</sup>In that day, says the LORD of hosts, you shall call, each man to his neighbor, to sit under the vine and under the fig tree.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>And the angel that talked with me came again and awakened me, as a man that is awakened out of his sleep. <sup>2</sup>And he said to me, What do you see? And I said, I see, and behold, a lampstand all of it gold, and a bowl on its top. And its seven lamps are on it, and seven pipes to the seven lamps on its top; <sup>3</sup>and two olive trees beside it, one on the right of the bowl, and the other on the left of it. <sup>4</sup>And I answered and spoke to the angel who talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord? <sup>5</sup>Then the angel who talked with me answered and said to me, Do you know what these are? And I said, No, my lord. <sup>6</sup>Then he answered and spoke to me, saying, This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit, says the LORD of hosts. <sup>7</sup>Who are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you shall become a plain; and he shall bring forth the top stone with shoutings, Grace! Grace to it!

<sup>8</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>9</sup>The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house. His hands shall also finish it; and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. <sup>10</sup>For who has despised the day of small things? For they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel. These seven are the eyes of the LORD which run to and fro through the whole earth.

<sup>11</sup>And I answered and said to him, What are these two olive trees on the right of the lampstand and on its left? <sup>12</sup>And I answered again and said to him, What are the two olive clusters which are beside the two golden pipes, emptying the golden oil from themselves? <sup>13</sup>And he answered me and said, Do you not know what these are? And I said, No, my lord. <sup>14</sup>And he said, These are the two sons of fresh oil who stand by the LORD of the whole earth.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>And I again lifted up my eyes and looked. And behold! A flying scroll. <sup>2</sup>And he said to me, What do you see? And I answered, I see a flying roll; its length is twenty cubits, and its width ten cubits. <sup>3</sup>And he said to me, This is the curse that goes forth over the face of the whole earth; for from now on everyone who steals shall be cut off according to it; and everyone who swears from now on shall be cut off according to it. <sup>4</sup>I will bring it forth, says the LORD of hosts; and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him who swears falsely by My name. And it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall bring it to an end, and its timber and its stones.

<sup>5</sup>Then the angel who talked with me went forth and said to me, Now lift up your eyes and see what this is that goes forth. <sup>6</sup>And I said, What is it? And he said, This is the ephah that goes forth. And he said, This is their form in all the earth. <sup>7</sup>And behold, a lead cover was lifted up, and a woman was sitting in the middle of the ephah. <sup>8</sup>And he said, This is wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ephah. And he cast the lead stone over its opening. <sup>9</sup>And I lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, two women came out. And the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork. And they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heavens. <sup>10</sup>And I said to the angel who talked with me, Where are they going with the ephah? <sup>11</sup>And he said to me, To build a house for it in the land of Shinar; and it shall be established and set there on its own base.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>And I turned and lifted up my eyes and looked. And behold! Four chariots were coming from between two mountains. And the mountains were mountains of bronze. <sup>2</sup>Red horses were in the first chariot; and in the second chariot black horses; <sup>3</sup>and in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot horses with dappled, strong colors. <sup>4</sup>And I answered and said to the angel who talked with me, What are these, my lord? <sup>5</sup>And the angel answered and said to me, These are the four spirits of the heavens who go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth. <sup>6</sup>The black horses in it go forth into the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the dappled go forth to a south country. <sup>7</sup>And the strong-colored ones went forth and sought to go, so to walk to and fro through the earth. And he said, Go! Walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth. <sup>8</sup>And he cried to me and spoke to me, saying, Behold, these who go toward the north country have caused My Spirit to rest in the north country.

<sup>9</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me saying, <sup>10</sup>Take from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, from the exiles who have come from Babylon; and in that day you go and enter the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah. <sup>11</sup>And take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them on the head of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest. <sup>12</sup>And speak to him, saying, So speaks the LORD of hosts, saying, Behold the Man whose name is The BRANCH! And He shall spring up out of His place, and He shall build the temple of the LORD. <sup>13</sup>Even He shall build the temple of the LORD; and He shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule on His throne. And He shall be a priest on His throne; and the counsel of peace shall be between them both. <sup>14</sup>And the crowns shall be for a memorial in the temple of the LORD to Helem and to Tobijah and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah. <sup>15</sup>And the distant ones shall come and build in the temple of the LORD, and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. And this shall be, if you will carefully obey the voice of the LORD your God.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>And it happened in the fourth year of king Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah in the fourth of the ninth month, in Chisleu. <sup>2</sup>And Sherezer and Regem-melech and his men had been sent to the house of God, to seek the favor of the LORD — <sup>3</sup>to speak to the priests who belong to the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth month, consecrating myself, as I have done these many years? <sup>4</sup>And came the word of the LORD of hosts to me, saying, <sup>5</sup>Speak to all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months, even those seventy years, did you truly fast to Me, even to Me? <sup>6</sup>And when you ate, and when you drank, was it not for those eating and drinking? <sup>7</sup>Are not these the words which the LORD proclaimed by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited, and prosperous, and her cities all around her, and the Negeb and the Shephelah were inhabited?

<sup>8</sup>And the word of the LORD came to Zechariah, saying, <sup>9</sup>So speaks the LORD of hosts, saying, Judge true judgment, and practice kindness and pity, each man to his brother. <sup>10</sup>And do not crush the widow or the orphan, the alien or the poor. And do not devise evil in your heart, of a man against his brother. <sup>11</sup>But they refused to listen, and gave a stubborn shoulder, and made heavy their ears from hearing. <sup>12</sup>And they made their hearts adamant from hearing the law and the words which the LORD of hosts has sent through His Spirit, by the former prophets. And great wrath came from the LORD of hosts. <sup>13</sup>And it will be, as He called, and they did not listen, so they called, and I did not listen, says the LORD of hosts. <sup>14</sup>But I stormed them away on all the nations whom they did not know. And the land has been wasted behind them, from passing and from returning; for they made the land of desire a waste.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>And the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>So says the LORD of hosts: I was jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury. <sup>3</sup>So says the LORD: I have returned to Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called a city of truth, and the mountain of the LORD of hosts, the holy mountain. <sup>4</sup>So says the LORD of hosts: There shall yet be old men and old women living in the streets of Jerusalem, and each man with his staff in his hand because of their many days. <sup>5</sup>And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in its streets. <sup>6</sup>So says the LORD of hosts: If it is marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, will it also be marvelous in My eyes, says the LORD? of hosts. <sup>7</sup>So says the LORD of hosts: Behold, I will save My people from the east country, and from the land of the setting sun. <sup>8</sup>And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. And they shall be My people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

<sup>9</sup>So says the LORD of hosts: Let your hands be strong, you who hear in these days these words by the mouth of the prophets, that in the day the house of the LORD of hosts is laid, the temple is to be built. <sup>10</sup>For before these days there was no wage for man, nor wage for animal; nor for him going, or for him coming, from the adversary. For I sent every man, a man against his neighbor. <sup>11</sup>But now I will not be to the remnant of this people as in the former days, says the LORD of hosts. <sup>12</sup>For the seed shall be blessed; the vine shall give its fruit, and the ground shall give its increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things. <sup>13</sup>And it will be, as you were a curse among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so it will be, I will save you, and you shall be a blessing. Do not fear, but let your hands be strong. <sup>14</sup>For so says the LORD of hosts: As I thought to punish you when your fathers provoked Me to wrath, says the LORD of hosts, and I did not repent; <sup>15</sup>so again I have thought in these days to do well to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Fear not.

<sup>16</sup>These are the things that you shall do. Each man speak the truth to his neighbor. Judge with truth and justice for peace in your gates. <sup>17</sup>And let each devise no evil in your heart against his neighbor; and love no false oath. For all these are things that I hate, says the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>And the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, <sup>19</sup>So says the LORD of hosts: The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah for joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts. Therefore love truth and peace. <sup>20</sup>So says the LORD of hosts: There yet shall be peoples and inhabitants of many cities; <sup>21</sup>and the residents of one shall go to another, saying, Let us go at once to seek favor of the face of the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts; I will go also. <sup>22</sup>And many peoples and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem and to seek the favor of the face of the LORD. <sup>23</sup>So says the LORD of hosts: In those days ten men, out of all languages of the nations, shall take hold, and will seize the skirt of a man, a Jew, saying, We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>The burden of the word of the LORD against the land of Hadrach, and its resting-place, Damascus (when the eye of man, and all the tribes of Israel, shall be toward the LORD); <sup>2</sup>and Hamath also borders on it; Tyre and Sidon, though very wise. <sup>3</sup>And Tyre shall build herself a stronghold, and shall heap up silver like the dust, and gold like the mud of the streets; <sup>4</sup>behold, the Lord will cast her out, and He will strike her wealth in the sea, and she shall be burned up with fire. <sup>5</sup>Ashkelon shall see and fear; Gaza also shall writhe in great pain; and Ekron shall be ashamed for her hope. And the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited. <sup>6</sup>And a bastard shall dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines. <sup>7</sup>And I will take away his bloods out of his mouth, and his idolatries from between his teeth. But the remnant, even he, shall be for our God. And he shall be as a governor in Judah, and Ekron like a Jebusite. <sup>8</sup>And I will camp around My house because of an army, because of him who passed by, and because of him who returns. And no tyrant shall pass through them any more. For now I have seen with My eyes.

<sup>9</sup>Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem; behold, your King comes to you. He is righteous and victorious, meek and riding on an ass, even on a colt, the son of an ass. <sup>10</sup>And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem. And the battle bow shall be cut off, and He shall speak peace to the nations; and His dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth. <sup>11</sup>You also, by the blood of Your covenant I have freed Your prisoners out of the pit in which is no water.

<sup>12</sup>Turn to the stronghold, prisoners of hope; even today I declare that I will return to you double. <sup>13</sup>For I have bent Judah for me as a bow; I filled it with Ephraim, and I will stir up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece, and make you as the sword of a mighty man. <sup>14</sup>And the LORD shall be seen over them, and His arrow shall go forth like the lightning; and the Lord GOD shall blow the trumpet, and shall go out with the windstorms of the south. <sup>15</sup>The LORD of hosts shall defend them; and they shall devour and trample the slingstones. And they shall drink and be boisterous, as through wine. And they shall be filled like a bowl, and like the corners of the altar. <sup>16</sup>And the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flock of His people; for they are as stones of a crown, lifted up as a banner over His land. <sup>17</sup>For how great is its goodness and how great its beauty! Grain shall make the young men flourish, and new wine the virgins.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>Ask rain from the LORD in the time of the latter rain. The LORD shall make storm clouds, and He gives them showers of rain, grass to everyone in the field. <sup>2</sup>For the family idols speak iniquity, and the diviners have seen a lie and have told false dreams. They comfort in vain; therefore they wandered like a flock; they were troubled because there was no shepherd. <sup>3</sup>My anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I will punish the he-goats; for the LORD of hosts has visited His flock the house of Judah, and has made them as His beautiful horse in battle. <sup>4</sup>Out of Him came the cornerstone; out of Him the nail; out of Him the battle bow; out of Him every oppressor together.

<sup>5</sup>And they shall be like mighty ones who trample the mud of the streets in the battle. And they shall fight because the LORD is with them, and they shall make the riders on horses ashamed. <sup>6</sup>And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will return to save them; for I have pity on them. And they shall be as though I had not cast them off; for I am the LORD their God, and I will answer them. <sup>7</sup>And Ephraim shall be like a mighty one, and their heart shall rejoice as by wine. And their sons shall see and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in their heart in the LORD. <sup>8</sup>I will hiss for them and gather them; for I have redeemed them. And they shall be many as they were many. <sup>9</sup>And I will sow them among the peoples, and they shall remember Me in the distances; and they shall live with their sons and return. <sup>10</sup>I will return to save them out of the land of Egypt, and I will gather them out of Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon; for room shall not be found for them. <sup>11</sup>And he shall pass through the sea of distress, and shall strike the waves in the sea; and all the depths of the Nile shall dry up. And the pride of Assyria shall be humbled, and the scepter of Egypt shall move away. <sup>12</sup>And I will strengthen them in the LORD; and they shall walk up and down in His name, says the LORD.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>Open your doors, O Lebanon, so that the fire may devour your cedars. <sup>2</sup>Howl, juniper; for the cedar has fallen; because the majestic trees are devastated. Howl, O oaks of Bashan; for the inaccessible forest has come down.

<sup>3</sup>There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds; for their glory is destroyed. There is a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jordan is destroyed. <sup>4</sup>For so says the LORD my God: Feed the flock of the slaughter, <sup>5</sup>those buying them kill them, and hold themselves not guilty. And those who sell them say, Blessed be the LORD, for I am rich; and their shepherds do not pity them. <sup>6</sup>For I will never again pity the people of the land, says the LORD; but lo, I will make the men come out, each one into his neighbor's hand and into his king's hand. And they shall strike the land, and I will not deliver out of their hand. <sup>7</sup>And I fed the flock of slaughter, even the poor of the flock. And I took two staves for myself; the one I called Kindness, and the other I called Union. And I fed the flock. <sup>8</sup>I also cut off three shepherds in one month; and my soul was impatient with them, and their soul also despised me. <sup>9</sup>And I said, I will not feed you; that which dies, let it die; and that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off. And those left, let them eat, each woman her neighbor's flesh.

<sup>10</sup>And I took my staff Kindness, and broke it apart, to break My covenant which I had made with all the people. <sup>11</sup>And it was broken in that day; and so the poor of the flock who were watching Me knew that it was the word of the LORD. <sup>12</sup>And I said to them, If it is good, give My price; and if not, let it go. So they weighed My price thirty pieces of silver. <sup>13</sup>And the LORD said to me, Throw it to the potter, the magnificent price at which I was valued by them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them to the potter in the house of the LORD. <sup>14</sup>Then I broke My other staff Union apart, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

<sup>15</sup>And the LORD said to me, Take to yourself yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd. <sup>16</sup>For lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land who will not care for those going to ruin, nor will he seek the young, nor will heal that which is broken, nor will he feed that which stands. But he shall eat the flesh of the fat and tear their hooks in pieces. <sup>17</sup>Woe to the worthless shepherd who abandons the flock! The sword shall be on his arm and on his right eye; his arm shall be completely dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>The burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, says the LORD, who stretches forth the heavens, and lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him. <sup>2</sup>Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling to all the peoples all around, and it shall also be against Judah in the siege against Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>And in that day I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all peoples. All who lift it shall be slashed, and all the nations of the earth will be gathered against it. <sup>4</sup>In that day, says the LORD, I will strike every horse with terror, and his rider with madness. And I will open My eyes on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness. <sup>5</sup>And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The people of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

<sup>6</sup>In that day I will make the governors of Judah like a hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire among cut grain. And they shall devour all the peoples all around, on the right hand and on the left hand. And Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her place, in Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup>The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first, so that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the people of Jerusalem may not be magnified above Judah. <sup>8</sup>In that day the LORD shall defend around the people of Jerusalem. And it will be, he who is feeble among them at that day shall be like David; and the house of David shall be like God, like the Angel of the LORD before them.

<sup>9</sup>And it shall be in that day I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>And I will pour on the house of David, and on the people of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of prayers. And they shall look on Me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for Him, as one mourns for his only son, and shall be bitter over Him, as the bitterness over the first-born. <sup>11</sup>In that day shall be a great mourning in Jerusalem, like the mourning of Hadad-rimmon in the valley of Megiddo. <sup>12</sup>And the land shall mourn, each family apart; the family of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart <sup>13</sup>the family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of Shimei apart, and their wives apart; <sup>14</sup>all the families who remain, each family apart and their wives apart.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David, and to the people of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness.

<sup>2</sup>And it shall be in that day, says the LORD of hosts, I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall be remembered no more. And also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land. <sup>3</sup>And it shall be when any shall yet prophesy, his father and his mother who gave birth to him shall say to him then, You shall not live; for you speak lies in the name of the LORD. And his father and his mother who gave him birth shall thrust him through when he prophesies. <sup>4</sup>And it shall be in that day, the prophets shall be ashamed, each one of his vision, when he prophesies. And they shall not wear a hairy garment to deceive. <sup>5</sup>But he shall say, I am no prophet; I am a man, a tiller of the ground; for a man taught me to buy from my youth. <sup>6</sup>And one shall say to him, What are these wounds in your hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of those who love Me.

<sup>7</sup>Awake, O sword, against My Shepherd, and against the Man who is My companion, says the LORD of hosts; strike the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered. And I will turn My hand on the little ones. <sup>8</sup>And it shall be in all the land, says the LORD, two parts in it shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left in it. <sup>9</sup>And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried. They shall call on My name, and I will answer them; I will say, It is My people; and they shall say, The LORD is my God.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>Behold, the day of the LORD comes, and your spoil shall be divided in your midst. <sup>2</sup>For I will gather all nations to battle against Jerusalem; and the city shall be taken, and the houses plundered, and the women raped. And half of the city shall go into exile, and the rest of the people shall not be cut off from the city. <sup>3</sup>And the LORD shall go out and fight against those nations, like the day He fought in the day of battle.

<sup>4</sup>And His feet shall stand in that day on the Mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the Mount of Olives shall divide from its middle, from the east and to the west, a very great valley. And half of the mountain shall move toward the north, and half of it toward the south. <sup>5</sup>And you shall flee to the valley of My mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach to Azal. And you shall flee as you fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. And the LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with you. <sup>6</sup>And it will be in that day, there shall not be light; the glorious ones shall shrink. <sup>7</sup>And it will be one day which shall be known to the LORD, neither day nor night; but it will happen that at evening time it shall be light. <sup>8</sup>And it shall be in that day, living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them shall go toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea. In summer and in winter it shall be.

<sup>9</sup>And the LORD shall be king over all the earth; in that day there shall be one LORD, and His name shall be one. <sup>10</sup>All the land shall be turned as a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem. And it shall rise and dwell in its place, from Benjamin's gate to the place of the First Gate; to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananeel to the king's winepresses. <sup>11</sup>And they shall dwell in it, and there shall never again be a shutting in; but Jerusalem shall dwell safely.

<sup>12</sup>And this shall be the plague with which the LORD will strike all the peoples who have fought against Jerusalem. Their flesh shall rot while they stand on their feet, and their eyes shall rot in their sockets. And their tongue shall rot in their mouth. <sup>13</sup>And it shall be in that day a great panic of the LORD shall be among them. And they shall each one lay hold of his neighbor, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbor. <sup>14</sup>And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the nations all around shall be gathered, gold, and silver, and clothing in great abundance. <sup>15</sup>And so shall be the plague of the horse, the mule, the camel, and the ass, and of all the beasts which shall be in these tents, like this plague.

<sup>16</sup>And it shall be, everyone who is left of all the nations which came up against Jerusalem shall go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the Feast of Tabernacles. <sup>17</sup>And it shall be, whoever will not come up from all the families of the earth to Jerusalem to worship the King, Jehovah of hosts, even on them shall be no rain. <sup>18</sup>And if the family of Egypt does not go up, and nor come in, they shall have no rain, but the plague with which the LORD shall strike the nations who do not come up to keep the Feast of Tabernacles. <sup>19</sup>This shall be Egypt's offense, and the offense of all the nations who do not come up to keep the Feast of Tabernacles.

<sup>20</sup>In that day there shall be on the bells of the horses, HOLY TO THE LORD. And the pots in the LORD's house shall be like the bowls before the altar. <sup>21</sup>Yea, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holy to the LORD of hosts. And all those who sacrifice shall come and take of them, and boil in them. And in that day there shall not be a trader in the house of the LORD of hosts any more.

THE BOOK OF MALACHI

<sup>2</sup>I have loved you, says the LORD. But you say, In what have you loved us? Was not Esau Jacob's brother? says the LORD; yet I loved Jacob, <sup>3</sup>and I hated Esau and laid his mountains and his inheritance waste for the jackals of the wilderness. <sup>4</sup>If Edom says, We are beaten down, but we will return and build the waste places. So says the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them the region of wickedness, and the people with whom the LORD is indignant forever. <sup>5</sup>And your eyes shall see, and you shall say, The LORD will be magnified beyond the border of Israel.

<sup>6</sup>A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If then I am a father, where is My honor? And if I am a master, where is My fear? says the LORD of hosts to you, O priests who despise My name. And you say, In what way have we despised Your name? <sup>7</sup>You offer defiled bread upon My altar; and you say, In what way have we defiled You? In your saying, The table of the LORD, it is a thing to be despised. <sup>8</sup>And if you offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? And if you offer the lame and the sick, is it not evil? Bring it now to your governor. Will he accept you, or lift up your face, says the LORD of hosts? <sup>9</sup>And now entreat the face of God, that He favor us. This has been by your hands, will He lift up your faces, says the LORD of hosts? <sup>10</sup>Who is even among you who will shut the doors, and you not kindle fire on My altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you, says the LORD of hosts. I will not be pleased with an offering from you. <sup>11</sup>For from the rising of the sun even to its going in, My name shall be great among the nations; and everywhere incense shall be offered to My name, and a pure food offering. For My name shall be great among the nations, says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>12</sup>But you are profaning it when you say, The table of the LORD, it is polluted; and its fruit, His food, is to be despised. <sup>13</sup>You also said, Behold, what a weariness it is! And you have puffed at it, says the LORD of hosts. And you bring plunder, and the lame, and the sick, and you bring the food offering. Should I accept it from your hand, says the LORD? <sup>14</sup>But cursed be a deceiver; and there is in his flock a male, yet he vows it, but sacrifices to the LORD a blemished one. For I am a great king, says the LORD of hosts, and My name is feared among the nations.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And now, O priests, this command is for you. <sup>2</sup>If you will not set it on your heart to give glory to My name, says the LORD of hosts, then I will send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings. And indeed I have cursed it, because you do not set it on your heart. <sup>3</sup>Behold, I am rebuking your seed; and I will spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your appointed feasts. And one shall lift you up to it. <sup>4</sup>And you shall know that I have sent this command to you, to be My covenant with Levi, says the LORD of hosts. <sup>5</sup>My covenant with him was life and peace, and I gave them to him for fear; and he feared Me, and he is awed before My name. <sup>6</sup>The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips. He walked with Me in peace and uprightness, and turned away many from iniquity. <sup>7</sup>For the priest's lips should guard knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth; for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts. <sup>8</sup>But you have turned out of the way; you have caused many to stumble at the law. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi, says the LORD of hosts. <sup>9</sup>Therefore I have also made you despised and low before all the people, just as you have not kept My ways but are lifting up faces in the law. <sup>10</sup>Is there not one Father to us all? Has not one God created us? Why do we act deceitfully, each man with his brother, to profane the covenant of our fathers.

<sup>11</sup>Judah has dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem. For Judah has profaned the holy place of the LORD, which He loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. <sup>12</sup>The LORD will cut off from the tents of Jacob the man who does it; stirring and answering; or offering a food offering to the LORD of hosts. <sup>13</sup>And this is a second thing you have done, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping and groaning, yet not facing toward the food offering, and taking it with delight from your hand.

<sup>14</sup>Yet you say, Why? Because the LORD has been witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have dealt treacherously; yet she is your companion and your covenant wife. <sup>15</sup>And did He not make one? Yet the vestige of the Spirit is in him. And what of the one? He was seeking a godly seed. Then guard your spirit, and do not act treacherously with the wife of your youth. <sup>16</sup>The LORD, the God of Israel, says He hates sending away; and to cover with violence on his garment, says the LORD of hosts. Then guard your spirit, and do not act treacherously.

<sup>17</sup>You have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet you say, In what have we wearied Him? When you say, Every evildoer is good in the eyes of the LORD, and He delights in them; or, Where is the God of justice?

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>Behold, I will send My messenger, and he will clear the way before Me. And the LORD, whom you seek, shall suddenly come to His temple, even the Angel of the Covenant, in whom you delight. Behold, He comes, says the LORD of hosts. <sup>2</sup>But who can endure the day of His coming? And who shall stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap. <sup>3</sup>And He shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver. And He shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may be offerers of a food offering in righteousness to the LORD. <sup>4</sup>Then the food offering of Judah and Jerusalem shall be pleasing to the LORD, as in the days of old and as in former years. <sup>5</sup>And I will come near you to judgment. And I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those who extort from the hired laborer's wages, the widow, and the orphan, and the alien, and not fearing Me, says the LORD of hosts. <sup>6</sup>For I am the LORD, I change not. Because of this you sons of Jacob are not destroyed.

<sup>7</sup>From the days of your fathers, you have turned aside from My statutes, and have not kept them. Return to Me, and I will return to you, says the LORD of hosts. But you say, In what way shall we return? <sup>8</sup>Will a man rob God? Yet you have robbed Me. But you say, In what have we robbed You? In the tithe and the offering! <sup>9</sup>You are cursed with a curse; for you are robbing Me, the nation, all of it. <sup>10</sup>Bring all the tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house. And test Me now with this, says the LORD of hosts, to see if I will not open the windows of Heaven for you, and pour out a blessing for you, until there is no sufficiency. <sup>11</sup>And I will rebuke your devourer, and he shall not decay the fruit of your ground against you; nor shall your vine miscarry against you in the field, says the LORD of hosts. <sup>12</sup>And all nations shall call you blessed; for you shall be a delightful land, says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>13</sup>Your words have been strong against Me, says the LORD. Yet you say, What have we spoken against You? <sup>14</sup>You have said, It is vain to serve God; and, What profit is it that we have kept His charge, and that we have walked as mourners before the LORD of hosts? <sup>15</sup>And now we are calling the arrogant blessed. Not only are the doers of wickedness built up, they also test God, and escape.

<sup>16</sup>Then those fearing the LORD spoke together, each man to his neighbor. And the LORD listened and heard. And a book of remembrance was written before Him for those who feared the LORD, and for those esteeming His name. <sup>17</sup>And they shall be Mine, says the LORD of hosts, for the day that I will make up My treasure. And I will pity them as a man has pity on his son who serves him. <sup>18</sup>Then you shall again see the difference between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serves God, and him who does not serve Him.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>For behold, the day is coming, burning like a firepot; and all the proud, and every doer of wickedness, shall be chaff. And the coming day will set them ablaze, says the LORD of hosts, which will not leave root or branches to them.

<sup>2</sup>But to you who fear My name, the Sun of Righteousness shall arise, and healing will be on His wings. And you shall go out and frisk like calves of the stall. <sup>3</sup>And you shall trample the wicked, for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day which I am preparing, says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>4</sup>Remember the law of Moses My servant, which I commanded to him in Horeb for all Israel, the statutes and judgments.

<sup>5</sup>Behold, I am sending you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the sons, and the heart of the sons to their fathers, that I not come and strike the earth with utter destruction.

THE END OF THE OLD TESTAMENT

THE NEW TESTAMENT

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

CHAPTER 1

And David the king fathered Solomon of her who had been wife of Uriah. <sup>7</sup>And Solomon fathered Rehoboam, and Rehoboam fathered Abijah, and Abijah fathered Asa. <sup>8</sup>And Asa fathered Jehoshaphat, and Jehoshaphat fathered Jehoram, and Jehoram fathered Uzziah. <sup>9</sup>And Uzziah fathered Jotham, and Jotham fathered Ahaz, and Ahaz fathered Hezekiah. <sup>10</sup>And Hezekiah fathered Manasseh, and Manasseh fathered Amon, and Amon fathered Josiah. <sup>11</sup>And Josiah fathered Jehoiachin and his brothers, at the time they were carried away to Babylon.

<sup>17</sup>So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations. And from David until the carrying away into Babylon, fourteen generations. And from the carrying away into Babylon until Christ, fourteen generations.

<sup>18</sup>Now the birth of Jesus Christ was this way — for Mary His mother was espoused to Joseph — before they came together, she was found to be with child by the Holy Spirit. <sup>19</sup>But Joseph her betrothed husband being just, and not willing to make her a public example, he purposed to put her away secretly. <sup>20</sup>And as he thought upon these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take to you Mary as your wife. For that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. <sup>21</sup>And she shall bear a son, and you shall call His name JESUS: for He shall save His people from their sins.

<sup>22</sup>Now all this happened so that it might be fulfilled that which was spoken of the LORD by the prophet, saying, <sup>23</sup>“Behold, the virgin shall conceive in her womb, and will bear a son. And they will call His name Emmanuel,” which being interpreted is, God with us.

<sup>24</sup>And Joseph, being roused from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord commanded him and took his wife, <sup>25</sup>and did not know her until she bore her son, the Firstborn. And he called His name JESUS.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men came from the east to Jerusalem, <sup>2</sup>saying, Where is He who is born king of the Jews? For we have seen His star in the east and have come to worship Him. <sup>3</sup>But when Herod the king heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. <sup>4</sup>And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born. <sup>5</sup>And they said to him, In Bethlehem of Judea. For so it is written by the prophet, “And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are not the least among the governors of Judah. For out of you shall come a Governor who shall rule My people Israel.”

<sup>7</sup>Then Herod, when he had secretly called the wise men, inquired of them exactly what time the star appeared. <sup>8</sup>And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child. And when you have found him, bring me word again so that I may come and worship him also. <sup>9</sup>When they had heard the king, they departed. And lo, the star which they saw in the east went before them until it came and stood over where the child was. <sup>10</sup>And seeing the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy. <sup>11</sup>And coming into the house, they saw the child with Mary His mother. And they fell down and worshiped Him. And opening their treasures, they presented gifts to Him, gold and frankincense and myrrh. <sup>12</sup>And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

<sup>13</sup>And when they had departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise and take the young child and His mother and flee into Egypt. And be there until I bring you word, for Herod is about to seek the child to destroy Him.

<sup>14</sup>And he arose and took the young child and his mother by night and departed into Egypt. <sup>15</sup>And he was there until the death of Herod; so that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the LORD through the prophet, “Out of Egypt I have called My Son.”

<sup>16</sup>Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked by the wise men, was greatly enraged. And he sent and killed all the boys in Bethlehem, and in all its districts, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had carefully inquired of the wise men. <sup>17</sup>Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, <sup>18</sup>“A voice was heard in Ramah, wailing and weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.”

<sup>19</sup>But Herod having expired, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, <sup>20</sup>saying, Arise, and take the child and His mother. And go into the land of Israel. For the ones who sought the child’s life are dead. <sup>21</sup>And he arose and took the child and His mother and came into the land of Israel. <sup>22</sup>But when he heard that Archelaus reigned in Judea in his father Herod’s place, he was afraid to go there. And being warned by God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee. <sup>23</sup>And he came and lived in a city called Nazareth, so that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, “He shall be called a Nazarene.”

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>In those days John the Baptist came preaching in the wilderness of Judea, <sup>2</sup>and saying, Repent, for the kingdom of Heaven is at hand. <sup>3</sup>For this is he who was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah, saying, “The voice of one crying in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the Lord, make His path straight.” <sup>4</sup>And the same John had his clothing of camel’s hair and a leather girdle about his loins. And his food was locusts and wild honey. <sup>5</sup>Then Jerusalem and all Judea went out to him, and all the region round about Jordan. <sup>6</sup>And they were baptized by him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

<sup>7</sup>But seeing many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said to them, O generation of vipers, who has warned you to flee from the wrath to come? <sup>8</sup>Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance; <sup>9</sup>and do not think to say within yourselves, We have Abraham as our father. For I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones. <sup>10</sup>And now also, the axe is laid to the root of the trees. Therefore every tree which does not bring forth good fruit is cut down and cast into the fire. <sup>11</sup>I indeed baptize you with water to repentance. But He who comes after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to carry. He shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire; <sup>12</sup>whose fan is in His hand, and He will cleanse His floor and gather His wheat into the storehouse; but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

<sup>13</sup>Then Jesus came from Galilee to Jordan, to John, to be baptized by him. <sup>14</sup>But John forbade Him, saying, I have need to be baptized by You, and do You come to me? <sup>15</sup>And answering Jesus said to him, Allow it now; for so it becomes us to fulfill all righteousness. Then he allowed Him. <sup>16</sup>And Jesus, when He had been baptized, went up immediately out of the water. And lo, the heavens were opened to Him, and He saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and lighting upon Him. <sup>17</sup>And lo, a voice from Heaven, saying, This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>Then Jesus was led by the Spirit up into the wilderness, to be tempted by the Devil. <sup>2</sup>And when He had fasted forty days and forty nights, He was afterwards hungry. <sup>3</sup>And when the tempter came to Him, he said, If You are the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread. <sup>4</sup>But He answered and said, It is written, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God." <sup>5</sup>Then the Devil took Him up into the holy city and set Him upon a pinnacle of the Temple. <sup>6</sup>And he said to Him, If you are the Son of God, cast yourself down. For it is written, "He shall give His angels charge concerning You, and in their hands they shall bear You up, lest at any time You dash Your foot against a stone." <sup>7</sup>Jesus said to him, It is written again, "You shall not tempt the Lord your God." <sup>8</sup>Again, the Devil took Him up into a very high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. <sup>9</sup>And he said to Him, All these things I will give You if You will fall down and worship me. <sup>10</sup>Then Jesus said to him, Get away from here, Satan! For it is written, "You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only you shall serve." <sup>11</sup>Then the Devil left him. And behold, angels came and ministered to Him.

<sup>12</sup>But when Jesus heard that John was thrown into prison, He departed into Galilee. <sup>13</sup>And leaving Nazareth, He came and lived in Capernaum, which is on the seacoast, in the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali — <sup>14</sup>so that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, <sup>15</sup>"The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, by the sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the nations! <sup>16</sup>The people who sat in darkness saw a great Light; and Light has sprung up to those who sat in the region and shadow of death." <sup>17</sup>From that time Jesus began to preach and to say, Repent! For the kingdom of Heaven is at hand.

<sup>18</sup>And walking by the Sea of Galilee, Jesus saw two brothers, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea. For they were fishermen. <sup>19</sup>And He said to them, Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men. <sup>20</sup>And they immediately left their nets and followed him. <sup>21</sup>And going on from there, he saw another two brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets. And He called them; <sup>22</sup>and they immediately left the ship and their father and followed Him.

<sup>23</sup>And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease among the people. <sup>24</sup>And His fame went throughout all Syria. And they brought to Him all sick people who were pressed down by different kinds of diseases and torments, and those who were possessed with demons, and those who were lunatics, and those who had been paralyzed. And He healed them. <sup>25</sup>And great multitudes of people followed Him, from Galilee and Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judea and beyond Jordan.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>And seeing the multitudes, He went up into a mountain. And when He had sat down, His disciples came to Him. <sup>2</sup>And He opened His mouth and taught them, saying, <sup>3</sup>Blessed are the poor in spirit! For theirs is the kingdom of Heaven.

<sup>4</sup>Blessed are they that mourn! For they shall be comforted.

<sup>6</sup>Blessed are they who hunger and thirst after righteousness! For they shall be filled.

<sup>7</sup>Blessed are the merciful! For they shall obtain mercy.

<sup>8</sup>Blessed are the pure in heart! For they shall see God.

<sup>9</sup>Blessed are the peacemakers! For they shall be called the sons of God.

<sup>10</sup>Blessed are they who have been persecuted for righteousness sake! For theirs is the kingdom of Heaven.

<sup>11</sup>Blessed are you when men shall revile you and persecute you, and shall say all kinds of evil against you falsely, for My sake. <sup>12</sup>Rejoice and be exceedingly glad, for your reward in Heaven is great. For so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

<sup>13</sup>You are the salt of the earth — but if the salt loses its savor, with what shall it be salted? It is no longer good for anything, but to be thrown out and to be trodden underfoot by men. <sup>14</sup>You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden. <sup>15</sup>Nor do men light a lamp and put it under the grain-measure, but on a lampstand. And it gives light to all who are in the house. <sup>16</sup>Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father who is in Heaven.

<sup>17</sup>Do not think that I have come to destroy the law or the prophets. I have not come to destroy but to fulfill. <sup>18</sup>For truly I say to you, Till Heaven and earth pass away, not one jot or one tittle shall in any way pass from the law until all is fulfilled.

<sup>19</sup>Therefore whoever shall break one of these commandments, the least, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of Heaven. But whoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of Heaven.

<sup>20</sup>For I say to you that unless your righteousness shall exceed that of the scribes and Pharisees, you shall in no case enter into the kingdom of Heaven.

<sup>21</sup>You have heard that it was said to the ancients, “You shall not kill” — and, “Whoever shall kill shall be liable to the judgment.” <sup>22</sup>But I say to you that whoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be liable to the judgment. And whoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be liable to the sanhedrin; but whoever shall say, Fool! shall be liable to be thrown into the fire of hell.

<sup>23</sup>Therefore if you offer your gift on the altar, and there remember that your brother has anything against you, <sup>24</sup>leave your gift there before the altar and go.

First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. <sup>25</sup>Agree with your adversary quickly, while you are still in the way with him; that the opponent not deliver you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and you be thrown into prison. <sup>26</sup>Truly I say to you, You shall by no means come out from there until you have paid the last penny.

<sup>27</sup>You have heard that it was said to the ancients, "You shall not commit adultery." <sup>28</sup>But I say to you that whoever looks on a woman to lust after her has already committed adultery with her in his heart. <sup>29</sup>And if your right eye offend you, pluck it out and throw it from you. For it is profitable for you that one of your members should perish, and not that your whole body should be thrown into hell.

<sup>30</sup>And if your right hand offend you, cut it off and throw it from you. For it is profitable for you that one of your members should perish, and not that your whole body should be thrown into hell. <sup>31</sup>It was also said, Whoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a bill of divorce. <sup>32</sup>But I say to you that whoever shall put away his wife, except for the cause of fornication, causes her to commit adultery. And whoever shall marry her who is put away commits adultery.

<sup>33</sup>Again, you have heard that it has been said to the ancients, "You shall not swear falsely, but you shall perform your oaths to the Lord." <sup>34</sup>But I say to you, Do not swear at all! Not by Heaven, because it is God's throne; <sup>35</sup>not by the earth, for it is the footstool of His feet; not by Jerusalem, because it is the city of the great King; <sup>36</sup>Nor shall you swear by your head, because you cannot make one hair white or black. <sup>37</sup>But let your word be, Yes, yes; No, no. For whatever is more than these comes from evil.

<sup>38</sup>You have heard that it was said, "An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth." <sup>39</sup>But I say to you, Do not resist evil. But whoever shall strike you on your right cheek, turn the other to him also. <sup>40</sup>And to him desiring to sue you, and to take away your tunic, let him have your coat also. <sup>41</sup>And whoever shall compel you to go a mile, go with him two. <sup>42</sup>Give to him who asks of you, and you shall not turn away from him who would borrow from you.

<sup>43</sup>You have heard that it was said, "You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy." <sup>44</sup>But I say to you, Love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you — <sup>45</sup>so that you may be sons of your Father in Heaven. For He makes His sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. <sup>46</sup>For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax-collectors do the same? <sup>47</sup>And if you greet your brothers only, what do you do more than others? Do not even the tax-collectors do so? <sup>48</sup>Therefore be perfect, even as your Father in Heaven is perfect.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>Take heed that you do not do your alms before men, to be seen by them. Otherwise you have no reward with your Father in Heaven. <sup>2</sup>Therefore when you do your alms, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may have glory from men. Truly I say to you, They have their reward. <sup>3</sup>But when you do alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand does, <sup>4</sup>so that your alms may be in secret. And your Father who sees in secret Himself shall reward you openly.

<sup>5</sup>And when you pray, you shall not be like the hypocrites. For they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, so that they may be seen by men. Truly I say to you, They have their reward. <sup>6</sup>But you, when you pray, enter into your closet. And shutting your door, pray to your Father in secret; and your Father who sees in secret shall reward you openly. <sup>7</sup>But when you pray, do not babble vain words, as the nations. For they think that in their much speaking they shall be heard. <sup>8</sup>Therefore do not be like them, for your Father knows what things you have need of, before you ask Him. <sup>9</sup>Therefore pray in this way:

Our Father, who is in Heaven,
Hallowed be Your name.

<sup>10</sup>Your kingdom come, Your will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.

<sup>11</sup>Give us this day our daily bread;

<sup>12</sup>and forgive us our debts as we also forgive our debtors.

<sup>13</sup>And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For Yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

<sup>14</sup>For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you; <sup>15</sup>but if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

<sup>16</sup>And when you fast, do not be like the hypocrites, of a sad face. For they disfigure their faces so that they may appear to men to fast. Truly I say to you, they have their reward. <sup>17</sup>But you, when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, <sup>18</sup>so that you do not appear to men to fast, but to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret shall reward you openly.

<sup>19</sup>Do not lay up treasures on earth for yourselves, where moth and rust corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal. <sup>20</sup>But lay up treasures in Heaven for yourselves, where neither moth nor rust corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal. <sup>21</sup>For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. <sup>22</sup>The light of the body is the eye. Therefore if your eye is sound, your whole body shall be full of light. <sup>23</sup>But if your eye is evil, your whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is that darkness!

<sup>24</sup>No one can serve two masters. For either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will hold to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon. <sup>25</sup>Therefore I say to you, Do not be anxious for your life, what you shall eat, or what you shall drink; nor yet for your body, what you shall put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? <sup>26</sup>Behold the birds of the air; for they sow not, nor do they reap, nor gather into barns. Yet your heavenly Father feeds them; are you not much better than they are? <sup>27</sup>Which of you by being anxious can add one cubit to his stature? <sup>28</sup>And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow. They do not toil, nor do they spin, <sup>29</sup>and yet I say to you that even Solomon in his glory was not arrayed like one of these. <sup>30</sup>Therefore if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will He not much rather clothe you, little-faiths? <sup>31</sup>Therefore do not be anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, With what shall we be clothed? <sup>32</sup>For the nations seek after all these things. For your heavenly Father knows that you have need of all these things. <sup>33</sup>But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added to you. <sup>34</sup>Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow; for tomorrow shall be anxious for its own things. Sufficient to the day is the evil of it.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>Judge not, that you may not be judged. <sup>2</sup>For with whatever judgment you judge, you shall be judged; and with whatever measure you measure out, it shall be measured to you again. <sup>3</sup>And why do you look on the splinter that is in your brother's eye, but do not consider the beam that is in your own eye? <sup>4</sup>Or how will you say to your brother, Let me pull the splinter out of your eye; and, behold, a beam is in your own eye? <sup>5</sup>Hypocrite! First cast the beam out of your own eye, and then you shall see clearly to cast the splinter out of your brother's eye.

<sup>6</sup>Do not give that which is holy to the dogs; nor cast your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet and turn again and tear you. <sup>7</sup>Ask and it shall be given to you; seek and you shall find; knock and it shall be opened to you. <sup>8</sup>For each one who asks receives; and he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks, it shall be opened. <sup>9</sup>Or what man is there of you, if his son asks a loaf, will he give him a stone? <sup>10</sup>Or if he asks a fish, will he give him a snake? <sup>11</sup>If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more shall your Father in Heaven give good things to those who ask Him? <sup>12</sup>Therefore all things whatever you desire that men should do to you, do even so to them — for this is the Law and the Prophets.

<sup>13</sup>Go in through the narrow gate — for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and many there are who go in through it. <sup>14</sup>Because narrow is the gate and narrow is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it.

<sup>15</sup>Beware of false prophets who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. <sup>16</sup>You shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles? <sup>17</sup>Even so every good tree brings forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree brings forth evil fruit. <sup>18</sup>A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, nor can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. <sup>19</sup>Every tree that does not bring forth good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. <sup>20</sup>Therefore by their fruits you shall know them.

<sup>21</sup>Not everyone who says to Me, Lord! Lord! shall enter the kingdom of Heaven — but he who does the will of My Father in Heaven. <sup>22</sup>Many will say to Me in that day, Lord! Lord! Did we not prophesy in Your name, and through Your name throw out demons, and through Your name do many wonderful works? <sup>23</sup>And then I will say to them I never knew you! Depart from Me, those working lawlessness!

<sup>24</sup>Therefore whoever hears these sayings of Mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man who built his house on a rock. <sup>25</sup>And the rain came down, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house. And it did not fall, for it was founded on a rock. <sup>26</sup>And everyone who hears these sayings of Mine and does not do them shall be likened to a foolish man who built his house on the sand. <sup>27</sup>And the rain came down, and the floods came, and the wind blew and beat on that house. And it fell, and great was its fall.

<sup>28</sup>And it happened, when Jesus had ended these sayings, that the people were astonished at His teaching. <sup>29</sup>For He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>When He had come down from the mountain, great crowds followed him. <sup>2</sup>And behold, a leper came and worshiped him, saying, Lord, if You will, You can make me clean. <sup>3</sup>And Jesus put out His hand and touched him, saying, I will; be clean! And immediately his leprosy was cleansed. <sup>4</sup>And Jesus said to him, See that you tell no one; but go, show yourself to the priest. And offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.

<sup>5</sup>And when Jesus had entered into Capernaum, a centurion came to him, beseeching Him, <sup>6</sup>and saying, Lord, my child lies at home paralyzed and grievously tormented. <sup>7</sup>And Jesus says to him, I will come and heal him. <sup>8</sup>The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that You should come under my roof; but only speak the word, and my child will be healed. <sup>9</sup>For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to this one, Go! And he goes; and to another, Come! And he comes; and to my servant, Do this! And he does it. <sup>10</sup>When Jesus heard, He marvelled and said to those who followed, Truly I say to you, I have not found such great faith, no, not in Israel. <sup>11</sup>And I say to you that many shall come from the east and the west, and shall sit down with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of Heaven. <sup>12</sup>But the sons of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. <sup>13</sup>And Jesus said to the centurion, Go. And as you have believed, so let it be to you. And his child was healed in that hour.

<sup>14</sup>And when Jesus had come into Peter's house, He saw his wife's mother laid out and in a fever. <sup>15</sup>And He touched her hand, and the fever left her. And she arose and served them.

<sup>16</sup>And evening coming on, they brought to Him many possessed with demons. And He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick <sup>17</sup>so that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, "He took on Himself our weaknesses and bore our sicknesses."

<sup>18</sup>And seeing great crowds, Jesus gave orders to depart to the other side. <sup>19</sup>And a certain scribe came and said to him, Master, I will follow You wherever You go. <sup>20</sup>And Jesus said to him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of man has nowhere to lay His head. <sup>21</sup>And another of His disciples said to him, Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father. <sup>22</sup>But Jesus said to him, Follow Me, and let the dead bury their dead.

<sup>23</sup>And He entering into a ship, His disciples followed Him. <sup>24</sup>And behold, a great tempest arose in the sea, so much so that the ship was covered with the waves. But He was asleep. <sup>25</sup>And His disciples came to Him and awakened Him, saying, Lord, save us! We perish! <sup>26</sup>And He said to them, Why are you afraid, little-faiths? Then He arose and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm. <sup>27</sup>But the man marveled, saying, What kind of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

<sup>28</sup>And when He had come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, two demon-possessed ones met Him, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that no man might pass by that way. <sup>29</sup>And behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with You, Jesus, Son of God? Have You come here to torment us before the time? <sup>30</sup>And there was a good way off from them a herd of many swine, feeding. <sup>31</sup>And the demons begged Him, saying, If You cast us out, allow us to go away into the herd of swine. <sup>32</sup>And He said to them, Go! And when they had come out, they went into the herd of swine. And behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea and perished in the waters. <sup>33</sup>And those who kept them fled. And going into the city, they told everything, and what had happened to the ones possessed of demons. <sup>34</sup>And behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus. And when they saw Him, they begged that He would depart out of their borders.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>And He entered into a ship, and passed over, and came to His own city. <sup>2</sup>And behold, they brought to Him a man who was paralyzed, lying on a bed. And Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, Son, be of good cheer. Your sins are forgiven you. <sup>3</sup>And lo, some of the scribes said within themselves, This one blasphemeth. <sup>4</sup>And Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, Why do you think evil in your hearts? <sup>5</sup>For which is easier? To say, Your sins are forgiven you, or to say, Arise and walk! <sup>6</sup>But so that you may know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins, then He said to the paralytic, Arise, take up your bed and go to your house. <sup>7</sup>And he arose and departed to his house. <sup>8</sup>But when the crowds saw, they marveled and glorified God, who had given such authority to men.

<sup>9</sup>And as Jesus passed on from there, He saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax-office. And He said to him, Follow Me! And he arose and followed Him.

<sup>10</sup>And it happened as Jesus reclined in the house, behold, many tax-collectors and sinners came and were reclining with Him and His disciples. <sup>11</sup>And when the Pharisees saw, they said to His disciples, Why does your master eat with tax-collectors and sinners? <sup>12</sup>But when Jesus heard, He said to them, The ones who are whole do not need a physician, but the ones who are sick. <sup>13</sup>But go and learn what this is, I will have mercy and not sacrifice. For I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

<sup>14</sup>Then the disciples of John came to Him saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but Your disciples do not fast? <sup>15</sup>And Jesus said to them, Can the sons of the bridechamber mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then they shall fast. <sup>16</sup>No one puts a piece of new cloth onto an old garment; for that which is put in to fill it up takes from the garment, and the tear is made worse. <sup>17</sup>Nor do men put new wine into old wineskins; else the wineskins burst, and the wine runs out, and the wineskins perish. But they put new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved together.

<sup>18</sup>While He spoke these things to them, behold, a certain ruler came and worshiped Him, saying, My daughter has just now died. But come and lay Your hand on her and she will live. <sup>19</sup>And Jesus arose and followed him. And so did His disciples.

<sup>20</sup>And behold, a woman, who had a flow of blood for twelve years, came up behind Him and touched the hem of His garment. <sup>21</sup>For she said within herself, If only I shall touch His robe, I will be whole. <sup>22</sup>But turning and seeing her, Jesus said, Daughter, be comforted; your faith has saved you. And the woman was saved from that hour.

<sup>23</sup>And when Jesus came into the ruler's house and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise, <sup>24</sup>He said to them, Go back, for the little girl is not dead, but sleeps. And they laughed Him to scorn. <sup>25</sup>But when the people were put out, He went in and took her by the hand, and the little girl arose. <sup>26</sup>And this report went out into all that land.

<sup>27</sup>And when Jesus passed on from there, two blind men followed Him, crying and saying, Son of David, have mercy on us. <sup>28</sup>And when He had come into the house, the blind men came to Him. And Jesus said to them, Do you believe that I am able to do this? They said to Him, Yes, Lord. <sup>29</sup>Then He touched their eyes, saying, According to your faith let it be to you. <sup>30</sup>And their eyes were opened. And Jesus strictly charged them, saying, See, let no one know. <sup>31</sup>But going out, they made Him known in all that land.

<sup>32</sup>As they went out, behold, they brought to Him a dumb man, demon-possessed. <sup>33</sup>And when the demon had been cast out, the dumb one spoke. And multitudes marveled, saying, Never was it seen like this in Israel! <sup>34</sup>But the Pharisees said, He throws out demons by the ruler of the demons.

<sup>35</sup>And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people. <sup>36</sup>But seeing the crowds, He was moved with compassion on them, because they were tired and scattered like sheep having no shepherd. <sup>37</sup>Then He said to His disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few. <sup>38</sup>Therefore pray to the Lord of the harvest that He will send out laborers into His harvest.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>And when He had called to Him His twelve disciples, He gave them power over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease. <sup>2</sup>And the names of the twelve apostles are these: The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother — James the son of Zebedee and John his brother — <sup>3</sup>Philip and Bartholomew — Thomas and Matthew the tax-collector — James the son of Alphaeus, and Lebbeus, whose surname was Thaddeus — <sup>4</sup>Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed Him. <sup>5</sup>Jesus sent out these twelve, commanding them, saying, Do not go into the way of the nations, and do not enter into any city of the Samaritans. <sup>6</sup>But rather go to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. <sup>7</sup>And as you go, proclaim, saying, The kingdom of Heaven is at hand. <sup>8</sup>Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out demons. You have received freely, freely give. <sup>9</sup>Do not provide gold nor silver, nor copper in your purse, <sup>10</sup>nor a bag for the journey, nor two coats, nor sandals, nor staves. For the workman is worthy of his food. <sup>11</sup>And into whatever city or village you enter, inquire who within it is worthy. And there abide until you go away from there. <sup>12</sup>And when you come into a house, greet it. <sup>13</sup>And if the house is worthy, let your peace come on it. But if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. <sup>14</sup>And whoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when you depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet. <sup>15</sup>Truly I say to you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city.

<sup>16</sup>Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves. Therefore be as wise as serpents and as harmless as doves. <sup>17</sup>But beware of men, for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues. <sup>18</sup>And you shall be brought before governors and kings for My sake, for a testimony against them and the nations. <sup>19</sup>But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what you shall speak; for it shall be given you in that same hour what you shall speak. <sup>20</sup>For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks in you. <sup>21</sup>And brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child. And the children shall rise up against their parents and cause them to be put to death. <sup>22</sup>And you will be hated of all men for My name's sake, but the one who endures to the end shall be saved. <sup>23</sup>But when they persecute you in this city, flee into another; for truly I say to you, You shall not have gone over the cities of Israel until the Son of Man comes.

<sup>28</sup>And do not fear those who kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul. But rather fear Him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. <sup>29</sup>Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? And one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father. <sup>30</sup>But even the hairs of your head are all numbered. <sup>31</sup>Therefore do not fear, you are of more value than many sparrows. <sup>32</sup>Then everyone who shall confess Me before men, I will confess him before My Father who is in Heaven.

<sup>33</sup>But whoever shall deny Me before men, I will also deny him before My Father in Heaven.

<sup>34</sup>Do not think that I have come to bring peace on earth. I did not come to send peace, but a sword. <sup>35</sup>For I have come to set a man against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. <sup>36</sup>And a man's foes shall be those of his own household. <sup>37</sup>He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. <sup>38</sup>And he who does not take up his cross and follow Me is not worthy of Me. <sup>39</sup>He who finds his life shall lose it. And he who loses his life for My sake shall find it.

<sup>40</sup>He who receives you receives Me, and he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me. <sup>41</sup>He who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward. And he who receives a just one in the name of a just one will receive a just one's reward. <sup>42</sup>And whoever shall give to one of these little ones a cup of cold water to drink, only in the name of a disciple, truly I say to you, He shall in no way lose his reward.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>And it happened, when Jesus had finished commanding His twelve disciples, He left there to teach and to proclaim in their cities.

<sup>2</sup>But when John heard in the prison of the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples. <sup>3</sup>And they said to Him, Are You he who should come, or do we look for another? <sup>4</sup>Jesus answered and said to them, Go and tell John again those things which you hear and see: <sup>5</sup>the blind receive their sight, and the lame walk; the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear; the dead are raised, and the poor have the gospel proclaimed to them. <sup>6</sup>And blessed is he, whoever shall not be offended in Me. <sup>7</sup>And as they departed, Jesus began to say to the crowds concerning John, What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind? <sup>8</sup>But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft clothing? Behold, they who wear soft clothing are in kings' houses. <sup>9</sup>But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yea, I say to you, and one more excellent than a prophet. <sup>10</sup>For this is the one of whom it is written, "Behold, I send My messenger before Your face, who shall prepare Your way before You." <sup>11</sup>Truly I say to you, Among those who have been born of women there has not risen a greater one than John the Baptist. But the least in the kingdom of Heaven is greater than he. <sup>12</sup>And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of Heaven is taken by violence, and the violent take it by force. <sup>13</sup>For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John. <sup>14</sup>And if you will receive it, this is Elijah who is to come. <sup>15</sup>He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

<sup>16</sup>But to what shall I liken this generation? It is like little children sitting in the markets and calling to their playmates, <sup>17</sup>saying, We played the flute to you, and you did not dance! We mourned to you, but you did not wail! <sup>18</sup>For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He has a demon. <sup>19</sup>The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man who is a glutton and a winebibber, a friend of tax-collectors and sinners. But wisdom was justified by her children.

<sup>20</sup>Then He began to upbraid the cities in which most of His mighty works were done, because they did not repent. <sup>21</sup>Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes! <sup>22</sup>But I say to you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the day of judgment than for you. <sup>23</sup>And you, Capernaum, who are exalted to Heaven, shall be brought down to hell. For if the mighty works which have been done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. <sup>24</sup>But I say to you, it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment than for you.

<sup>25</sup>At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank You, O Father, Lord of Heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the sophisticated and cunning, and revealed them to babes. <sup>26</sup>Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in Your sight. <sup>27</sup>All things are delivered to Me by My Father. No one knows the Son except the Father. Nor does anyone know the Father except the Son, and the one to whom the Son will reveal Him.

<sup>28</sup>Come to Me all you who labor and are heavy-laden, and I will give you rest. <sup>29</sup>Take My yoke on you and learn of Me, for I am meek and lowly in heart, and you shall find rest to your souls. <sup>30</sup>For My yoke is easy, and My burden is light.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>At that time Jesus went through the grain fields on the sabbath day. And His disciples were hungry, and began to pluck the ears of grain and to eat. <sup>2</sup>But when the Pharisees saw, they said to Him, Behold, your disciples do that which it is not lawful to do on the sabbath day. <sup>3</sup>But He said to them, Have you not read what David did when he was hungry, and those who were with him — ‘how he entered into the house of God and ate the showbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, nor for those who were with him, but only for the priests? <sup>4</sup>Or have you not read in the law that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath and are blameless? <sup>5</sup>But I say to you that One greater than the temple is in this place. <sup>6</sup>But if you had known what this is, “I desire mercy and not sacrifice,” you would not have condemned those who are not guilty. <sup>7</sup>For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath.

<sup>8</sup>And when He had departed from there, He went into their synagogue. <sup>9</sup>And behold, a man having a withered hand. And they asked Him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath? This so that they might accuse Him. <sup>10</sup>And He said to them, What man among you will be, who will have one sheep, and if it falls into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it and lift it out? <sup>11</sup>How much better is a man than a sheep? Therefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days. <sup>12</sup>Then He said to the man, Stretch out your hand. And he stretched it out, and it was restored whole like the other.

<sup>13</sup>Then the Pharisees went out and held council against Him, as to how they might destroy Him. <sup>14</sup>But when Jesus knew it, He withdrew Himself from there. And great crowds followed Him, and He healed them all. <sup>15</sup>And He warned them that they not make Him known, <sup>16</sup>so that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, <sup>17</sup>Behold My Child whom I have chosen; My Beloved, in whom My soul is well pleased. I will put My Spirit on Him, and He shall declare judgment to the nations. <sup>18</sup>He shall not strive, nor cry, nor shall any man hear His voice in the streets. <sup>19</sup>He will not break a bruised reed, and He will not quench a smoking wick, until He sends out judgment to victory. <sup>20</sup>And in His name the nations shall trust.”

<sup>21</sup>Then a demon-possessed one was brought to Him, blind and dumb. And He healed him, so much so that the blind and dumb one both spoke and saw. <sup>22</sup>And all the people were amazed and said, Is not this the son of David? <sup>23</sup>But when the Pharisees heard, they said, This one does not cast out demons except by Beelzebub the ruler of the demons. <sup>24</sup>And Jesus knew their thoughts and said to them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation. And every city or house divided against itself shall not stand. <sup>25</sup>And if Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself; how then shall his kingdom stand? <sup>26</sup>But if I cast out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they shall be your judges. <sup>28</sup>But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come to you. <sup>29</sup>Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house and spoil his goods, unless first he binds the strong one, and then he will plunder his house. <sup>30</sup>The one who is not with Me is against Me, and the one who does not gather with Me scatters. <sup>31</sup>Therefore I say to you, All kinds of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven to men, but the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit shall not be forgiven to men. <sup>32</sup>And whoever speaks a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him. But whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, either in this world or in the world to come. <sup>33</sup>Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or else make the tree corrupt and its fruit corrupt; for the tree is known by its fruit. <sup>34</sup>Offspring of vipers, how can you, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. <sup>35</sup>A good man out of the good treasure of the heart brings out good things; and an evil man out of the evil treasure brings out evil things. <sup>36</sup>But I say to you that every idle word which men shall speak, they shall give account of it in the day of judgment. <sup>37</sup>For by your words you shall be justified, and by your words you shall be condemned.

<sup>38</sup>Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we want to see a sign from you. <sup>39</sup>But He answered and said to them, An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign. And there shall be no sign given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. <sup>40</sup>For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the whale's belly, so the Son of man shall be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

<sup>41</sup>The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it, because they that repented at the proclaiming of Jonah, and behold, One greater than Jonah is here. <sup>42</sup>The queen of the south shall rise up in the Judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it, for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, One greater than Solomon is here. <sup>43</sup>When the unclean spirit has gone out of a man, he walks through dry places seeking rest, and finds none. <sup>44</sup>Then he said, I will return into my house from where I came out. And when he has come, he finds it empty, swept, and decorated. <sup>45</sup>Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter in and live there. And the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so it also shall be to this evil generation.

<sup>46</sup>But while He yet talked with the people, behold, His mother and His brothers stood outside, desiring to speak with Him. <sup>47</sup>Then one said to Him, Behold, Your mother and Your brothers stand outside, desiring to speak with You. <sup>48</sup>And He answered and said to him who told Him, Who is My mother? And who are My brothers? <sup>49</sup>And He stretched out His hand toward His disciples and said, Behold My mother and My brothers! <sup>50</sup>For whoever shall do the will of My Father in Heaven, the same is My brother and sister and mother.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>In that day Jesus went out of the house and sat by the seaside. <sup>2</sup>And great crowds were gathered to Him, so that He went into a ship and sat. And all the crowd stood on the shore. <sup>3</sup>And He spoke many things to them in parables, saying,

Behold, the sower went out to sow. <sup>4</sup>And as he sowed, some seeds fell by the wayside, and the birds came and devoured them. <sup>5</sup>Some fell on stony places, where they did not have much earth. And they sprang up immediately, because they had no deepness of earth. <sup>6</sup>And the the sun rising, they were scorched, and because they had no root, they withered away. <sup>7</sup>And some fell among thorns. And the thorns sprang up and choked them. <sup>8</sup>And some fell on the good ground and yielded fruit, indeed one a hundredfold, and one sixty, and one thirty. <sup>9</sup>He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

<sup>10</sup>And the disciples said to Him, Why do You speak to them in parables? <sup>11</sup>He answered and said to them, Because it is given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of Heaven, but it is not given to them. <sup>12</sup>For whoever has, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance. But whoever does not have, from him shall be taken away even that which he has. <sup>13</sup>Therefore I speak to them in parables, because seeing they see not, and hearing they hear not; nor do they understand. <sup>14</sup>And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah which said, "By hearing you shall hear and shall not understand; and seeing you shall see and shall not perceive; <sup>15</sup>for this people's heart has become gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and they have closed their eyes, lest at any time they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them." <sup>16</sup>But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear. <sup>17</sup>For truly I say to you that many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which you see, and have not seen them; and to hear what you hear, and have not heard them.

<sup>18</sup>Therefore hear the parable of the sower. <sup>19</sup>When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, then the wicked one comes and catches away that which was sown in his heart. This is he who receives seed by the wayside. <sup>20</sup>But that which was sown on the stony places is this: he who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy. <sup>21</sup>But he has no root in himself, and is only temporary. For when tribulation or persecution arises on account of the word, he immediately stumbles. <sup>22</sup>And that sown into the thorns is this: he who hears the word; and the anxiety of this world, and the deceit of riches, choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful. <sup>23</sup>But that sown on the good ground is this: "he who hears the word and understands; who also bears fruit and produces" one truly a hundredfold; and one sixty; and one thirty.

<sup>24</sup>He put out another parable to them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field. <sup>25</sup>But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat and went his way. <sup>26</sup>But when the blade had sprung up and had produced fruit, then the tares also appeared. <sup>27</sup>So the servants of the householder came and said to him, Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? Then where have the tares come from? <sup>28</sup>He said to them, An enemy has done this. The servants said to him, Then do you want us to go and gather them up? <sup>29</sup>But he said, No, lest while you gather up the tares you also root up the wheat with them. <sup>30</sup>Let both grow together until the harvest. And in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, First gather together the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my granary.

<sup>31</sup>He put out another parable to them, saying, The kingdom of Heaven is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field — <sup>32</sup>which indeed is the least of all seeds, but when it is grown it is the greatest among herbs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in its branches. <sup>33</sup>He spoke another parable to them: The kingdom of Heaven is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal until the whole was leavened.

<sup>34</sup>Jesus spoke all these things to the crowds in parables, and He did not speak to them without a parable, <sup>35</sup>so that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, "I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world."

<sup>36</sup>Then sending the crowds away, Jesus went into the house. And His disciples came to Him, saying, Explain to us the parable of the tares of the field. <sup>37</sup>He answered and said to them, He who sows the good seed is the Son of man; <sup>38</sup>the field is the world; the good seed are the sons of the kingdom; but the tares are the sons of the evil one. <sup>39</sup>The enemy who sowed them is the Devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels. <sup>40</sup>Therefore as the tares are gathered and burned in the fire, so it shall be in the end of this world. <sup>41</sup>The Son of man shall send out His angels, and they shall gather out of His kingdom all things that offend, and those who do iniquity, <sup>42</sup>and shall cast them into a furnace of fire. There shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. <sup>43</sup>Then the righteous shall shine out like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

<sup>44</sup>Again, the kingdom of Heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which when a man has found it, he hides it, and for the joy of it goes and sells all that he has, and buys that field. <sup>45</sup>Again, the kingdom of Heaven is like a merchant seeking goodly pearls; <sup>46</sup>who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it. <sup>47</sup>Again, the kingdom of Heaven is like a net that was cast into the sea, and gathered some of every kind; <sup>48</sup>which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down and gathered the good into vessels, but threw the bad away. <sup>49</sup>So it shall be at the end of the world. The angels shall come out and separate the wicked from among the just, <sup>50</sup>and shall cast them into the furnace of fire. There shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

<sup>51</sup>Jesus said to them, Have you understood all these things? They said to Him, Yes, Lord. <sup>52</sup>Then He said to them, Therefore every scribe who is instructed to the kingdom of Heaven is like a man who is a householder, who brings out things new and old out of his treasure.

<sup>53</sup>And it happened when Jesus finished these parables, He departed from there. <sup>54</sup>And when He had come into His own country, He taught them in their synagogue, so much so that they were astonished and said, From where does this man have this wisdom and these mighty works? <sup>55</sup>Is not this the carpenter's son? Is not his mother called Mary? And his brothers, James and Joses and Simon and Judas, <sup>56</sup>and his sisters, are they not all with us? Then from where does this man have all these things? <sup>57</sup>And they were offended in Him. But Jesus said to them, A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country and in his own house. <sup>58</sup>And He did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>At that time Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus <sup>2</sup>and said to his servants, This is John the Baptist. He has risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works are shown out in him. <sup>3</sup>For Herod had laid hold on John, and had bound him, and had put him in prison because of Herodias his brother Philip's wife. <sup>4</sup>For John said to him, It is not lawful for you to have her. <sup>5</sup>And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet. <sup>6</sup>But when Herod's birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them and pleased Herod. <sup>7</sup>So he promised with an oath to give her whatever she would ask. <sup>8</sup>And she, being instructed before by her mother, said, Give me John the Baptist's head here on a platter. <sup>9</sup>And the king was sorry. But for the oath's sake, and those reclining with him, he commanded it to be given. <sup>10</sup>And he sent and beheaded John in the prison. <sup>11</sup>And his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl. And she brought it to her mother. <sup>12</sup>And his disciples came and took up the body and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

<sup>13</sup>When Jesus heard, He departed from there by ship into a desert place apart. And hearing, the crowds followed Him on foot out of the cities. <sup>14</sup>And Jesus went out and saw a great crowd, and He was moved with compassion toward them. And He healed their sick. <sup>15</sup>And evening coming on, His disciples came to Him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time has already gone by. Send the crowd away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves. <sup>16</sup>But Jesus said to them, They do not need to leave, give them something to eat. <sup>17</sup>And they said to Him, We have here only five loaves and two fish. <sup>18</sup>He said, Bring them here to Me. <sup>19</sup>And He commanded the crowd to sit down on the grass. And He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to Heaven He blessed and broke, and gave the loaves to His disciples. And the disciples gave to the crowd. <sup>20</sup>And they all ate and were filled. And they took up twelve handbaskets full from the fragments that remained. <sup>21</sup>And they who had eaten were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

<sup>22</sup>And immediately Jesus constrained His disciples to get into a ship and to go before Him to the other side, while He sent the crowds away. <sup>23</sup>And when He had sent the crowds away, He went up into a mountain apart to pray. And when evening had come, He was there alone. <sup>24</sup>But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves; for the wind was against them. <sup>25</sup>And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went to them, walking on the sea. <sup>26</sup>And when the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a phantom! And they cried out for fear. <sup>27</sup>But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, Be of good cheer, I AM! Do not fear. <sup>28</sup>And Peter answered Him and said, If it is You, tell me to come to You on the water. <sup>29</sup>And He said, Come. And when Peter had come down out of the ship, he walked on the water to go to Jesus. <sup>30</sup>But seeing that the wind was strong, he was afraid. And beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me! <sup>31</sup>And immediately Jesus stretched out His hand and caught him; and said to him, Little-faith! Why did you doubt? <sup>32</sup>And when they had come into the ship, the wind ceased. <sup>33</sup>And those in the boat came and worshiped Him, saying, Truly You are the Son of God.

<sup>34</sup>And when they had passed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret. <sup>35</sup>And recognizing Him, the men of that place sent to all that neighborhood, and brought to Him all who were diseased. <sup>36</sup>And they begged Him that they might only touch the hem of His robe. And as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>Then the scribes and Pharisees who were from Jerusalem came to Jesus, saying, <sup>2</sup>Why do your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread. <sup>3</sup>But He answered and said to them, Why do you also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition? <sup>4</sup>For God commanded, saying, "Honor your father and mother"; and, "He who speaks evil of father or mother, let him die by death." <sup>5</sup>But you say, Whoever said to his father or mother, Whatever you would gain from me, It is a gift to God; <sup>6</sup>and in no way he honors his father or his mother. And you voided the commandment of God by your tradition. <sup>7</sup>Hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying, <sup>8</sup>"This people draws near to Me with their mouth, and honors Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me. <sup>9</sup>But in vain they worship Me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men." <sup>10</sup>And He called the crowd and said to them, Hear and understand. <sup>11</sup>Not that which goes into the mouth defiles a man; but that which comes out of the mouth, this defiles a man.

<sup>12</sup>Then His disciples came and said to Him, Do You know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this saying? <sup>13</sup>But He answered and said, Every plant which My heavenly Father has not planted shall be rooted up. <sup>14</sup>Let them alone. They are blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

<sup>15</sup>Then Peter answered and said to Him, Explain this parable to us. <sup>16</sup>And Jesus said, Are you also still without understanding? <sup>17</sup>Do you not yet understand that whatever enters in at the mouth goes into the belly, and is cast out into the wastebowl? <sup>18</sup>But the things which come out of the mouth come from the heart, and they defile the man. <sup>19</sup>For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies; <sup>20</sup>these are the things which defile a man, but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile a man.

<sup>21</sup>And going out from there, Jesus withdrew to the parts of Tyre and Sidon. <sup>22</sup>And behold, a woman of Canaan coming out of these borders cried to Him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David! My daughter is grievously vexed with a demon. <sup>23</sup>But He did not answer her a word. And His disciples came and begged Him, saying, Send her away, for she cries after us. <sup>24</sup>But He answered and said, I am not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. <sup>25</sup>Then she came and worshiped Him, saying, Lord, help me! <sup>26</sup>But He answered and said, It is not good to take the children's bread and to throw it to dogs. <sup>27</sup>And she said, True, O Lord; but even the little dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' tables. <sup>28</sup>Then Jesus answered and said to her, O woman, great is your faith! So be it to you even as you wish. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

<sup>29</sup>And moving from there Jesus came beside the Sea of Galilee. And He went up into a mountain and sat there. <sup>30</sup>And great crowds came to Him, having with them the lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others. And they cast them down at Jesus' feet. And He healed them, <sup>31</sup>so much so that the crowd wondered when they saw the dumb speak, the maimed sound, the lame walk, and the blind see. And they glorified the God of Israel.

<sup>32</sup>Then Jesus called His disciples and said, I have compassion on the crowd because they continue with Me for three days now and have nothing to eat. And I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way. <sup>33</sup>And His disciples said to Him, Where should we get so many loaves in the wilderness, so as to fill so great a crowd? <sup>34</sup>And Jesus said to them, How many loaves do you have? And they said, Seven, and a few little fish. <sup>35</sup>And He commanded the crowd to sit on the ground. <sup>36</sup>And He took the seven loaves and the fish, and gave thanks, and broke, and gave to His disciples. And the disciples gave to the crowd. <sup>37</sup>And they all ate, and were filled; and they took up seven lunchbaskets full of the broken food that was left. <sup>38</sup>And those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children. <sup>39</sup>And sending the crowd away, He went into the boat and came into the borders of Magdala.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>The Pharisees and the Sadducees came to Him, tempting Him. And they asked Him that He would show them a sign from Heaven. <sup>2</sup>He answered and said to them, When it is evening, you say, Fair weather; for the sky is red. <sup>3</sup>And in the morning, Foul weather today; for the sky is red and gloomy. Hypocrites! You can discern the face of the sky, but you cannot see the signs of the times! <sup>4</sup>A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign. And there shall no sign be given to it, except the sign of the prophet Jonah. And He left them and went away.

<sup>5</sup>And when His disciples had come to the other side, they forgot to take loaves. <sup>6</sup>And Jesus said to them, Take heed, and beware the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees. <sup>7</sup>And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no loaves. <sup>8</sup>And knowing Jesus said to them, Why do you reason among yourselves because you took no loaves, little-faiths? <sup>9</sup>Do you not yet understand, nor remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many handbaskets you took up; <sup>10</sup>nor the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many lunchbaskets you took up? <sup>11</sup>How is it that you do not understand that I did not speak to you about loaves, but that you should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees? <sup>12</sup>Then they understood that He did not say to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

<sup>13</sup>And coming into the parts of Caesarea Phillipi, Jesus asked His disciples, saying, Who do men say Me to be, the Son of man? <sup>14</sup>And they said, Some say, John the Baptist; some, Elijah; and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets. <sup>15</sup>He said to them, But who do you say I am? <sup>16</sup>And Simon Peter answered and said, You are the Christ, the Son of the living God. <sup>17</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, You are blessed, Simon, son of Jonah, for flesh and blood did not reveal it to you, but My Father in Heaven. <sup>18</sup>And I also say to you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. <sup>19</sup>And I will give the keys of the kingdom of Heaven to you. And whatever you may bind on earth shall occur, having been bound in Heaven, and whatever you may loose on earth shall occur, having been loosed in Heaven. <sup>20</sup>Then He warned His disciples that they should tell no one that He was Jesus the Christ.

<sup>21</sup>From that time Jesus began to show His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day. <sup>22</sup>Then Peter took Him and began to rebuke Him, saying, God be gracious to You, Lord! This shall never be to You. <sup>23</sup>But He turned and said to Peter, Go, Satan! You are an offense to Me, for you do not savor the things that are of God, but those that are of men.

<sup>24</sup>Then Jesus said to His disciples, If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me. <sup>25</sup>For whoever desires to save his life shall lose it, and whoever desires to lose his life for My sake shall find it. <sup>26</sup>For what is a man profited if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? <sup>27</sup>For the Son of man shall come in the glory of His Father with His angels, and then He shall reward each one according to his works. <sup>28</sup>Truly I say to you, There are some standing here who shall not taste of death until they see the Son of man coming in His kingdom.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>1</sup>And after six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, and brought them up into a high mountain apart. <sup>2</sup>And He was transfigured before them. And His face shone as the sun, and His clothing was white as the light. <sup>3</sup>And behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah talking with Him. <sup>4</sup>And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here. If You will, let us make here three tabernacles; one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. <sup>5</sup>While he yet spoke, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them. And behold a voice out of the cloud which said, This is My beloved Son in whom I am well pleased, hear Him. <sup>6</sup>And when the disciples heard, they fell on their face and were greatly terrified. <sup>7</sup>And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise and do not be terrified. <sup>8</sup>And lifting up their eyes, they saw no one except Jesus alone.

<sup>9</sup>And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, Tell the vision to no one until the Son of man has risen from the dead. <sup>10</sup>And His disciples asked Him, saying, Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first? <sup>11</sup>And answering Jesus said to them, Elijah truly shall come first and restore all things. <sup>12</sup>But I say to you that Elijah has come already, and they did not know him, but have done to him whatever they desired. Likewise also the Son of man shall suffer from them. <sup>13</sup>Then His disciples understood that He spoke to them about John the Baptist.

<sup>14</sup>And when they came to the crowd, a man came to Him, kneeling down to Him and saying, <sup>15</sup>Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is a lunatic and grievously vexed; for oftentimes he falls into the fire, and often into the water. <sup>16</sup>And I brought him to Your disciples, and they could not cure him. <sup>17</sup>Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I suffer you? Bring him here to Me. <sup>18</sup>And Jesus rebuked the demon, and he departed out of him. And the child was cured from that very hour. <sup>19</sup>Then the disciples came to Jesus apart, and said, Why could we not cast him out? <sup>20</sup>And Jesus said to them, Because of your unbelief. For truly I say to you, If you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you shall say to this mountain, Move from here to there. And it shall move. And nothing shall be impossible to you. <sup>21</sup>However, this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting.

<sup>22</sup>And while they stayed in Galilee, Jesus said to them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men. <sup>23</sup>And they will kill Him, and the third day He will be raised again. And they grieved exceedingly.

<sup>24</sup>And when they had come to Capernaum, those who received tribute came to Peter and said, Does your master not pay tribute? <sup>25</sup>He said, Yes. And when he had come into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? From their sons, or from strangers? <sup>26</sup>Peter said to Him, From strangers. Jesus said to him, Then truly the sons are free. <sup>27</sup>But lest we should offend them, go to the sea and cast a hook, and take up the first fish that comes up. And when you have opened its mouth, you shall find a stater; take that, and give it to them for Me and you.

CHAPTER 18

<sup>1</sup>At that hour the disciples came to Jesus, saying, Who is the greater in the kingdom of Heaven? <sup>2</sup>And Jesus called a little child to Him and set him in their midst, <sup>3</sup>and said, Truly I say to you, Unless you are converted and become as little children, you shall not enter into the kingdom of Heaven. <sup>4</sup>Therefore whoever shall humble himself like this little child, this one is the greater in the kingdom of Heaven. <sup>5</sup>And whoever shall receive one such little child in My name receives Me. <sup>6</sup>But whoever shall offend one of these little ones who believes in Me, it would be better for him that an ass's millstone were hung around his neck, and he be sunk in the depth of the sea. <sup>7</sup>Woe to the world because of offenses! For it is necessary that offenses come; but woe to that man by whom the offense comes! <sup>8</sup>And if your hand or your foot causes you to offend, cut them off and throw them from you. It is better for you to enter into life lame or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire. <sup>9</sup>And if your eye offends you, pluck it out and throw it from you. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell of fire. <sup>10</sup>Take heed that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I say to you that in Heaven their angels always behold the face of My Father in Heaven. <sup>11</sup>For the Son of man has come to save that which was lost. <sup>12</sup>What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep and one of them strays, does he not leave the ninety and nine and go into the mountains and seek the straying one? <sup>13</sup>And if it happens that he finds it, truly I say to you, he rejoices more over it than over the ninety and nine which did not stray. <sup>14</sup>Even so it is not the will of your Father in Heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

<sup>15</sup>But if your brother shall trespass against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he hears you, you have gained your brother. <sup>16</sup>But if he will not hear you, take one or two more with you, so that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. <sup>17</sup>And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it to the church. But if he neglects to hear the church, let him be to you as a heathen and a tax-collector. <sup>18</sup>Truly I say to you, Whatever you shall bind on earth shall occur, having been bound in Heaven; and whatever you shall loose on earth shall occur, having been loosed in Heaven. <sup>19</sup>Again I say to you that if two of you shall agree on earth as regarding anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them by My Father in Heaven. <sup>20</sup>For where two or three are gathered together in My name, there I am in their midst.

<sup>21</sup>Then Peter came to Him and said, Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me and I forgive him? Until seven times? <sup>22</sup>Jesus said to him, I do not say to you, Until seven times; but, Until seventy times seven. <sup>23</sup>Therefore the kingdom of Heaven has been likened to a certain king who desired to make an accounting with his servants. <sup>24</sup>And when he had begun to count, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. <sup>25</sup>But as he had nothing to pay, his lord commanded that he, and his wife and children, and all that he had, be sold, and payment be made. <sup>26</sup>Then the servant fell down and worshiped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me and I will pay you all. <sup>27</sup>Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion and released him and forgave him the debt. <sup>28</sup>But the same servant went out and found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii. And he laid hands on him and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me what you owe. <sup>29</sup>And his fellow servant fell down at his feet and begged him, saying, Have patience with me and I will pay you all. <sup>30</sup>And he would not, but went and cast him into prison until he should pay the debt. <sup>31</sup>So when his fellow servants saw what was done, they were very sorry. And they came and told their lord all that was done. <sup>32</sup>Then his lord, after he had called him, said to him, O wicked servant, I forgave you all that debt because you begged me. <sup>33</sup>Should you not also have had compassion on your fellow servant, even as I had pity on you? <sup>34</sup>And his lord was angry, and delivered him to the tormentors until he should pay all that was due to him. <sup>35</sup>So likewise shall My heavenly Father do also to you, unless each one of you from your hearts forgive his brother their offenses.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>1</sup>And it happened, when Jesus had finished these sayings, that He departed from Galilee and came into the borders of Judea beyond Jordan. <sup>2</sup>And great crowds followed Him. And He healed them there. <sup>3</sup>And the Pharisees came to Him, tempting Him and saying to Him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? <sup>4</sup>And He answered and said to them, Have you not read that He who made them at the beginning made them male and female, <sup>5</sup>and said, For this cause a man shall leave father and mother and shall cling to his wife, and the two of them shall be one flesh? <sup>6</sup>Therefore they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let not man put asunder. <sup>7</sup>They said to Him, Why did Moses then command to give a bill of divorce and to put her away? <sup>8</sup>He said to them, Because of your hard-heartedness Moses allowed you to put away your wives; but from the beginning it was not so. <sup>9</sup>And I say to you, Whoever shall put away his wife, except for fornication, and shall marry another, commits adultery; and whoever marries her who is put away commits adultery.

<sup>10</sup>His disciples said to Him, If this is the case of the man with his wife, it is not good to marry. <sup>11</sup>But He said to them, Not all receive this word, except those to whom it is given. <sup>12</sup>For there are some eunuchs who were born so from their mother's womb; and there are some eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men; and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of Heaven's sake. He who is able to receive it, let him receive it.

<sup>13</sup>Then little children were brought to Him, that He should put His hands on them and pray. And the disciples rebuked them. <sup>14</sup>But Jesus said, Allow the little children to come to Me, and do not forbid them; for of such is the kingdom of Heaven. <sup>15</sup>And He laid His hands on them, and departed from there.

<sup>16</sup>And behold, one came and said to Him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do that I may have eternal life? <sup>17</sup>And He said to him, Why do you call Me good? There is none good but one, that is, God. But if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments. <sup>18</sup>He said to Him, Which? Jesus said, You shall not murder, you shall not commit adultery, you shall not steal, you shall not bear false witness, <sup>19</sup>honor your father and mother, and, you shall love your neighbor as yourself. <sup>20</sup>The young man said to Him, I have kept all these things from my youth up; what do I lack yet? <sup>21</sup>Jesus said to him, If you want to be perfect, go, sell what you have and give to the poor, and you shall have treasure in Heaven. And come, follow Me. <sup>22</sup>But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions.

<sup>23</sup>Then Jesus said to His disciples, Truly I say to you that a rich man will with great difficulty enter into the kingdom of Heaven. <sup>24</sup>And again I say to you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. <sup>25</sup>When His disciples heard, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved? <sup>26</sup>But Jesus looked on them and said to them, With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.

<sup>27</sup>Then answering Peter said to Him, Behold, we have forsaken all and have followed You. Therefore what shall we have? <sup>28</sup>And Jesus said to them, Truly I say to you that you who have followed Me; in the regeneration, when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of His glory, you also shall sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>29</sup>And everyone who left houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for My name's sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life. <sup>30</sup>But many who are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>1</sup>For the kingdom of Heaven is like a man, a housemaster, who went out early in the morning to hire laborers into his vineyard. <sup>2</sup>And when he had agreed with the laborers for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard. <sup>3</sup>And he went out about the third hour and saw others standing idle in the marketplace. <sup>4</sup>And he said to them, You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you. And they went their way. <sup>5</sup>And he went out about the sixth and ninth hour and did likewise. <sup>6</sup>And about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing idle, and said to them, Why do you stand here all day idle? <sup>7</sup>They said to him, Because no one has hired us. He said to them, You also go into the vineyard, and you shall receive whatever is right. <sup>8</sup>So when evening had come, the lord of the vineyard said to his steward, Call the laborers and give them their hire, beginning from the last to the first. <sup>9</sup>And when they who were hired about the eleventh hour came, they each one received a denarius. <sup>10</sup>But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they also each one received a denarius. <sup>11</sup>And receiving it they murmured against the master of the house, <sup>12</sup>saying, These last have worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden and heat of the day. <sup>13</sup>But he answered one of them and said, Friend, I do you no wrong. Did you not agree with me for a denarius? <sup>14</sup>Take yours, and go your way; I will give to this last one the same as to you. <sup>15</sup>Is it not lawful for me to do what I want with my own? Is your eye evil because I am good? <sup>16</sup>So the last shall be first, and the first last, for many are called, but few are chosen.

<sup>17</sup>And going up to Jerusalem, Jesus took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said to them, <sup>18</sup>Behold, we go up to Jerusalem. And the Son of man shall be betrayed to the chief priests and to the scribes, and they shall condemn Him to death. <sup>19</sup>And they shall deliver Him to the nations to mock and to scourge and to crucify. And the third day He shall rise again.

<sup>20</sup>Then the mother of Zebedee's children came to Him with her sons, worshipping and desiring a certain thing from Him. <sup>21</sup>And He said to her, What do you desire? She said to Him, Grant that these my two sons may sit in Your kingdom, the one on Your right hand and the other on the left. <sup>22</sup>But Jesus answered and said, You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They said to Him, We are able. <sup>23</sup>And He said to them, You shall indeed drink of My cup and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with; but to sit on My right hand and on My left is not Mine to give, but to those for whom it has been prepared by My Father. <sup>24</sup>And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brothers. <sup>25</sup>But Jesus called them and said, You know that the rulers of the nations exercise dominion over them, and they who are great exercise authority over them. <sup>26</sup>However, it shall not be so among you. But whoever desires to be great among you, let him be your servant. <sup>27</sup>And whoever desires to be chief among you, let him be your servant; <sup>28</sup>even as the Son of man did not come to be served to, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many.

<sup>29</sup>And as they departed from Jericho, a great crowd followed Him. <sup>30</sup>And behold, two blind men were sitting by the wayside. When they heard that Jesus passed by, they cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, Son of David! <sup>31</sup>And the crowd rebuked them, saying that they should be silent. But they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, Son of David! <sup>32</sup>And Jesus stood still and called them, and said, What do you desire that I should do to you? <sup>33</sup>They said to Him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened. <sup>34</sup>So Jesus had compassion on them and touched their eyes. And immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed Him.

CHAPTER 21

<sup>1</sup>And when they drew near Jerusalem, and had come to Bethphage, to the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, <sup>2</sup>saying to them, Go into the village across from you. And immediately you will find an ass tied, and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them to Me. <sup>3</sup>And if anyone says anything to you, you shall say, The Lord has need of them, and immediately He will send them. <sup>4</sup>All this was done so that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, <sup>5</sup>"Tell the daughter of Zion, Behold, your King comes to you, meek, and sitting on an ass, even a colt the foal of an ass." <sup>6</sup>And the disciples went and did as Jesus commanded them. <sup>7</sup>And they brought the ass, even the colt, and put their clothes on them, and He sat on them. <sup>8</sup>And a very great crowd spread their garments in the way. Others cut down branches from the trees and spread them in the way. <sup>9</sup>And the crowds who went before, and those who followed, cried out, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest! <sup>10</sup>And when He had come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this? <sup>11</sup>And the crowd said, This is Jesus the prophet, from Nazareth of Galilee.

<sup>12</sup>And Jesus went into the temple of God and cast out all those who sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of those who sold doves. <sup>13</sup>And He said to them, It is written, "My house shall be called the house of prayer"; but you have made it a den of thieves. <sup>14</sup>And the blind and the lame came to Him in the temple, and He healed them. <sup>15</sup>And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things which He did, and the children crying in the temple and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David, they were angry. <sup>16</sup>And they said to Him, Do you hear what these say? And Jesus said to them, Yes, have you never read, "Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings You have perfected praise?" <sup>17</sup>And leaving them, He went out of the city to Bethany, and spent the night there.

<sup>18</sup>And returning early to the city, He hungered. <sup>19</sup>And seeing a fig tree in the way, He came to it and found nothing on it except leaves. And He said to it, Let no fruit grow on you forever. And immediately the fig tree withered away. <sup>20</sup>And when the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, How quickly the fig tree has withered away! <sup>21</sup>Jesus answered and said to them, Truly I say to you, If you have faith and do not doubt, you shall not only do this miracle of the fig tree, but also; if you shall say to this mountain, Be moved and be thrown into the sea; it shall be done. <sup>22</sup>And all things, whatever you shall ask in prayer, believing, you shall receive.

<sup>23</sup>And when He had come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to Him as He was teaching, and said, By what authority do you do these things? And who gave you this authority? <sup>24</sup>And Jesus answered and said to them, I will also ask you one thing; which if you tell Me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things. <sup>25</sup>The baptism of John, where was it from? From Heaven or from men? And they reasoned within themselves, saying, If we shall say, From Heaven, he will say to us, Why then did you not believe him? <sup>26</sup>But if we shall say From men, we fear the people; for all consider John as a prophet. <sup>27</sup>And they answered Jesus and said, We cannot tell. And He said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

<sup>28</sup>But what do you think? A man had two sons; and he came to the first and said, Son, go work in my vineyard today. <sup>29</sup>He answered and said, I will not. But afterwards he repented and went. <sup>30</sup>And he came to the second and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir; and did not go. <sup>31</sup>Which of the two did the will of his father? They said to Him, The first. Jesus said to them, Truly I say to you that the tax-collectors and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you. <sup>32</sup>For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him. But the tax-collectors and the harlots believed him. And when you had seen it, you did not repent afterwards so that you might believe him.

<sup>33</sup>Hear another parable. There was a certain housemaster who planted a vineyard and hedged it round about, and dug a winepress in it, and built a tower, and rented it to vinedressers, and went into a far country. <sup>34</sup>And when the season of the fruits drew near, he sent his servants to the vinedressers to receive its fruits. <sup>35</sup>And the vinedressers took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another. <sup>36</sup>Again he sent other servants, more than the first, and they did the same to them. <sup>37</sup>But last of all he sent his son to them, saying, They will respect my son. <sup>38</sup>But when the vinedressers saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and get hold of his inheritance. <sup>39</sup>And taking him, they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. <sup>40</sup>Therefore when the lord of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those vinedressers? <sup>41</sup>They said to Him, He will miserably destroy them and will rent out his vineyard to other vinedressers who will give him the fruits in their seasons. <sup>42</sup>Jesus said to them, Did you never read in the Scriptures, “The stone which the builders rejected, this One has become the head of the corner; this is the Lord’s doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes?”<sup>43</sup> Therefore I say to you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you and given to a nation bringing out its fruits.<sup>44</sup> And he who falls on this Stone shall be broken, but on whomever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

<sup>45</sup>And when the chief priests and Pharisees heard His parables, they knew that He spoke of them.<sup>46</sup> But seeking to lay hands on Him, they feared the crowd, because they held Him for a prophet.

CHAPTER 22

<sup>1</sup>And Jesus answered and spoke to them again by parables, and said, <sup>2</sup>The kingdom of Heaven is like a certain king who made a marriage for his son.<sup>3</sup> And he sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding; and they would not come.<sup>4</sup> Again he sent out other servants, saying, Tell those who are invited, Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and fatlings are killed, and all things are ready. Come to the marriage.<sup>5</sup> And they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise.<sup>6</sup> And the rest took his servants and treated them spitefully, and killed them.<sup>7</sup> But when the king heard of it, he was angry. And he sent out his armies and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.<sup>8</sup> Then he said to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they who were invited were not worthy.<sup>9</sup> Therefore go into the highways, and as many as you shall find, invite them to the marriage.<sup>10</sup> So the servants went out into the highways and gathered together as many as they found, both bad and good. And the wedding was filled with reclining guests.

<sup>11</sup>And the king coming in to look over the guests, he saw a man there who did not have on a wedding garment.<sup>12</sup> And he said to him, Friend, how did you come in here without having a wedding garment? And he was speechless.<sup>13</sup> Then the king said to the servants, Bind him hand and foot and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.<sup>14</sup> For many are called, but few chosen.

<sup>15</sup>Then the Pharisees left and took counsel that they might entangle Him in His talk.<sup>16</sup> And they sent their disciples out to Him along with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that you are true, and that you teach the way of God in truth. Nor do you care for anyone, for you do not regard the person of men.<sup>17</sup> Therefore tell us; what do you think? Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar or not? <sup>18</sup>But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why do you tempt Me, hypocrites? <sup>19</sup>Show Me the tribute money. And they brought a denarius to Him.<sup>20</sup> And He said to them, Whose image and inscription is this? <sup>21</sup>They said to Him, Caesar’s. Then He said to them, Therefore render to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things which are God’s.<sup>22</sup> When they heard these words, they marveled, and they left Him and went away.

<sup>23</sup>On that day the Sadducees came to Him, who say that there is no resurrection. And they asked Him, <sup>24</sup>saying, Master, Moses said, If a man dies, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife and raise up seed to his brother.<sup>25</sup> Now there were with us seven brothers. And the first, when he had married a wife, died. And, having no issue, he left his wife to his brother.<sup>26</sup> The second also did likewise, and the third, to the seventh.<sup>27</sup> And last of all the woman also died.<sup>28</sup> Therefore in the resurrection, whose wife shall she be, of the seven? For they all had her.<sup>29</sup> Jesus answered and said to them, You err, not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God.<sup>30</sup> For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in Heaven.<sup>31</sup> But regarding the resurrection of the dead, have you not read that which was spoken to you by God, saying, <sup>32</sup>"I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?" God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. <sup>33</sup>And when the crowd heard this, they were astonished at His doctrine.

<sup>34</sup>But hearing that He had silenced the Sadducees, the Pharisees were gathered together. <sup>35</sup>Then one of them, a lawyer, asked, tempting Him and saying, <sup>36</sup>Master, which is the great commandment in the law? <sup>37</sup>Jesus said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. <sup>38</sup>This is the first and great commandment. <sup>39</sup>And the second is like it, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. <sup>40</sup>On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

<sup>41</sup>While the Pharisees were gathered, Jesus asked them, <sup>42</sup>saying, What do you think of Christ? Whose son is he? They say to Him, David's. <sup>43</sup>He said to them, How then does David by the Spirit call him Lord, saying, <sup>44</sup>"the LORD said to my Lord, Sit on My right until I make Your enemies Your footstool?" <sup>45</sup>If David then calls Him Lord, how is He his son? <sup>46</sup>And no one was able to answer Him a word, nor did anyone dare from that day to question Him any more.

CHAPTER 23

<sup>1</sup>Then Jesus spoke to the crowd and to His disciples, <sup>2</sup>saying, The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat. <sup>3</sup>Therefore whatever they tell you to observe, observe and do. But do not do according to their works; for they say, and do not do. <sup>4</sup>For they bind heavy and hard-to-carry burdens and lay them on men's shoulders. But they will not move them with one of their fingers. <sup>5</sup>But they do all their works in order to be seen of men. They make their phylacteries broad and enlarge the borders of their garments. <sup>6</sup>And they love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues, <sup>7</sup>and greetings in the market-places, and to be called, Rabbi! Rabbi! by men. <sup>8</sup>But you must not be called Rabbi, for One is your teacher, Christ, and you are all brothers. <sup>9</sup>And call no one your father on the earth, for One is your Father in Heaven. <sup>10</sup>Nor be called teachers, for One is your Teacher, even Christ. <sup>11</sup>But he who is greatest among you shall be your servant. <sup>12</sup>And whoever shall exalt himself shall be abased, and he who shall humble himself shall be exalted.

<sup>13</sup>But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut up the kingdom of Heaven against men. For you neither go in, nor do you allow those who are entering to go in. <sup>14</sup>Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you devour widows' houses, and pray at length as a pretense. Therefore you shall receive the greater condemnation. <sup>15</sup>Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you compass sea and the dry land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, you make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves. <sup>16</sup>Woe to you, blind guides, saying, Whoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor. <sup>17</sup>Fools and blind! For which is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifies the gold? <sup>18</sup>And, Whoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gift that is on it, he is a debtor! <sup>19</sup>Fools and blind! For which is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifies the gift? <sup>20</sup>Therefore whoever shall swear by the altar swears by it, and by all things on it. <sup>21</sup>And whoever shall swear by the temple, swears by it and by Him who dwells in it. <sup>22</sup>And he who shall swear by Heaven swears by the throne of God, and by Him who sits on it.

<sup>23</sup>Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you pay tithes of mint and dill and cummin, and you have left undone the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith. You ought to have done these and not to leave the other undone. <sup>24</sup>Blind guides who strain out a gnat and swallow a camel! <sup>25</sup>Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you cleanse the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside they are full of extortion and excess. <sup>26</sup>Blind Pharisee! First cleanse the inside of the cup and of the dish, so that the outside of them may be clean also. <sup>27</sup>Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitened tombs, which indeed appear beautiful outside, but inside they are full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. <sup>28</sup>Even so you also appear righteous to men outwardly, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

<sup>29</sup>Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you build the tombs of the prophets, and decorate the tombs of the righteous, <sup>30</sup>and say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets. <sup>31</sup>Therefore you are witnesses to yourselves, that you are the sons of those who killed the prophets; <sup>32</sup>and you fill up the measure of your fathers. <sup>33</sup>Serpents! Offspring of vipers! How can you escape the condemnation of hell? <sup>34</sup>Therefore, behold, I send prophets and wise men and scribes to you. And you will kill and crucify some of them. And some of them you will scourge in your synagogues and persecute from city to city; <sup>35</sup>so that on you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah the son of Berachiah, whom you killed between the temple and the altar. <sup>36</sup>Truly I say to you, All these things shall come on this generation. <sup>37</sup>O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the one killing the prophets and stoning those who are sent to her, how often would I have gathered your children together, even as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you would not! <sup>38</sup>Behold, your house is left to you desolate. <sup>39</sup>For I say to you, You shall not see Me from now on until you say, "Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord."

CHAPTER 24

<sup>1</sup>And Jesus went out and departed from the temple. And His disciples came to Him to show Him the buildings of the temple. <sup>2</sup>And Jesus said to them, Do you not see all these things? Truly I say to you, There shall not be left here one stone on another that shall not be thrown down.

<sup>3</sup>And as He sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? And what shall be the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the world? <sup>4</sup>And Jesus answered and said to them, Take heed that no man deceive you. <sup>5</sup>For many will come in My name, saying, I am Christ, and will deceive many. <sup>6</sup>And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled, for all these things must occur; but the end is not yet. <sup>7</sup>For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be famines and pestilences and earthquakes in different places. <sup>8</sup>All these are the beginning of sorrows. <sup>9</sup>Then they will deliver you up to be afflicted and will kill you. And you will be hated of all nations for My name's sake. <sup>10</sup>And then many will be offended, and will betray one another, and will hate one another. <sup>11</sup>And many false prophets will rise and deceive many. <sup>12</sup>And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many will become cold. <sup>13</sup>But he who endures to the end, the same shall be saved. <sup>14</sup>And this gospel of the kingdom shall be proclaimed in all the world as a witness to all nations. And then the end shall come.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore when you see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place (whoever reads, let him understand). <sup>16</sup>Then let those in Judea flee into the mountains. <sup>17</sup>Let him on the housetop not come down to take anything out of his house; <sup>18</sup>nor let him in the field turn back to take his clothes. <sup>19</sup>And woe to those who are with child, and to those who give suck in those days! <sup>20</sup>But pray that your flight is not in the winter, nor on the sabbath day; <sup>21</sup>for then shall be great tribulation, such as has not been since the beginning of the world to this time; no, nor ever shall be. <sup>22</sup>And unless those days should be shortened, no flesh would be saved. But for the elect's sake, those days shall be shortened. <sup>23</sup>Then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ! Or, There! Do not believe it. <sup>24</sup>For false Christs and false prophets will arise and show great signs and wonders; so much so that, if it were possible, they would deceive even the elect. <sup>25</sup>Behold, I have told you beforehand. <sup>26</sup>Therefore if they shall say to you, Behold, He is in the desert! Do not go out. Behold, He is in the secret rooms! Do not believe it. <sup>27</sup>For as the lightning comes out of the east and shines even to the west, so also will be the coming of the Son of man. <sup>28</sup>For wherever the carcass is, there the eagles will be gathered.

<sup>29</sup>And immediately after the tribulation of those days, the sun shall be darkened and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from Heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken. <sup>30</sup>And then the sign of the Son of man shall appear in Heaven. And then all the tribes of the earth shall mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of Heaven with power and great glory. <sup>31</sup>And He shall send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather His elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other.

<sup>32</sup>Now learn a parable of the fig tree. When its branch is still tender and puts out leaves, you know that summer is near. <sup>33</sup>So you, likewise, when you see all these things, shall know that it is near, at the very doors. <sup>34</sup>Truly I say to you, This generation shall not pass until all these things are fulfilled. <sup>35</sup>Heaven and earth shall pass away, but My words shall not pass away.

<sup>36</sup>But of that day and hour no one knows, no, not the angels of Heaven, but only My Father. <sup>37</sup>But as the days of Noah were, so shall be the coming of the Son of man. <sup>38</sup>For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day Noah entered into the ark. <sup>39</sup>And they did not know until the flood came and took them all away. So also will be the coming of the Son of man. <sup>40</sup>Then two shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left. <sup>41</sup>Two shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left. <sup>42</sup>Therefore watch; for you do not know what hour your Lord comes. <sup>43</sup>But know this, that if the steward of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched and would not have allowed his house to be dug through. <sup>44</sup>Therefore you also be ready, for in that hour you think not, the Son of man comes. <sup>45</sup>Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his Lord has made ruler over his household, to give them food in due season? <sup>46</sup>Blessed is that servant whom his lord shall find him doing so when he comes. <sup>47</sup>Truly I say to you that he shall make him ruler over all his goods. <sup>48</sup>But if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delays his coming, <sup>49</sup>and shall begin to strike his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken, <sup>50</sup>the lord of that servant shall come in a day when he does not look for him, and in an hour which he does not know. <sup>51</sup>And he shall cut him apart and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

oil, for our lamps have gone out. <sup>9</sup>But the wise answered, saying, No, lest there be not enough for us and you. But rather go to those who sell, and buy for yourselves. <sup>10</sup>And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came. And they who were ready went in with him to the marriage, and the door was shut. <sup>11</sup>Afterwards the other virgins came also, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. <sup>12</sup>But he answered and said, Truly I say to you, I do not know you. <sup>13</sup>Therefore watch, for you do not know either the day or the hour in which the Son of man comes.

<sup>14</sup>For it is as if a man going abroad called his own servants and gave them his goods. <sup>15</sup>And to one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to each according to his ability. And he went abroad at once. <sup>16</sup>And going he who had received the five talents traded with them, and made another five talents. <sup>17</sup>And likewise he who had received two, he also gained another two. <sup>18</sup>But he who had received the one talent went and dug in the earth and hid his lord's silver. <sup>19</sup>After a long time the lord of those servants came and took account with them. <sup>20</sup>And so he who had received five talents came and brought another five talents, saying, Lord, you delivered five talents to me. Behold, I have gained five talents above them. <sup>21</sup>His lord said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful over a few things; I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord. <sup>22</sup>He also who had received two talents came and said, Lord, you delivered two talents to me. Behold, I have gained two other talents above them. <sup>23</sup>His lord said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord. <sup>24</sup>And he who had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew that you were a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter. <sup>25</sup>And I was afraid and went and hid your talent in the earth. Lo, you have yours. <sup>26</sup>His lord answered and said to him, Evil and slothful servant! You knew that I reaped where I did not sow, and gathered where I did not scatter, <sup>27</sup>then you should have put my money to the exchangers, and coming I would have received my own with interest. <sup>28</sup>Therefore take the talent from him and give it to him who has ten talents. <sup>29</sup>For to everyone who has, more shall be given, and he will abound. But from him who has not, even that which he has shall be taken away from him. <sup>30</sup>And throw the unprofitable servant into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

<sup>31</sup>But when the Son of man comes in His glory, and all the holy angels with Him, then He shall sit on the throne of His glory. <sup>32</sup>And all nations shall be gathered before Him. And He shall separate them from one another, as a shepherd divides the sheep from the goats. <sup>33</sup>And He shall set the sheep on His right hand, but the goats off the left. <sup>34</sup>Then the King shall say to those on His right hand, Come, blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. <sup>35</sup>For I was hungry, and you gave me food; I was thirsty, and you gave Me drink; I was a stranger, and you took Me in; <sup>36</sup>I was naked, and you clothed Me; I was sick, and you visited Me; I was in prison, and you came to Me. <sup>37</sup>Then the righteous shall answer Him, saying, Lord, when did we see You hungry, and fed You? Or thirsty, and gave You drink? <sup>38</sup>When did we see You a stranger, and took You in? Or naked, and clothed You? <sup>39</sup>Or when did we see You sick, or in prison, and came to You? <sup>40</sup>And the King shall answer and say to them, Truly I say to you, Inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these My brothers, you have done it to Me.

<sup>41</sup>Then He also shall say to those on the left hand, Depart from Me, you cursed, into everlasting fire prepared for the Devil and his angels. <sup>42</sup>For I was hungry, and you gave Me no food; I was thirsty, and you gave Me no drink; <sup>43</sup>I was a stranger and you did not take Me in; I was naked, and you did not clothe Me; I was sick, and in prison, and you did not visit me. <sup>44</sup>Then they will also answer Him, saying, Lord, when did we see You hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister to You? <sup>45</sup>Then He shall answer them, saying, Truly I say to you, Inasmuch as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to Me. <sup>46</sup>And these shall go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into everlasting life.

CHAPTER 26

<sup>1</sup>And it happened when Jesus finished all these sayings, He said to His disciples, <sup>2</sup>You know that after two days the Passover comes, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified. <sup>3</sup>Then the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, assembled together to the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas. <sup>4</sup>And they consulted so that they might take Jesus by guile and kill Him. <sup>5</sup>But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

<sup>6</sup>And when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, <sup>7</sup>a woman came to Him, having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on His head as He sat at the table. <sup>8</sup>But when His disciples saw it, they were indignant, saying, To what purpose is this waste? <sup>9</sup>For this ointment might have been sold for very much and given to the poor. <sup>10</sup>When Jesus understood it, He said to them, Why do you trouble the woman? For she has done a good work on Me. <sup>11</sup>For you have the poor with you always, but you do not always have Me. <sup>12</sup>For in putting ointment on My body, she did it for My burial. <sup>13</sup>Truly I say to you, Wherever this gospel shall be proclaimed in the whole world, that which this woman has done shall be spoken of also, for a memorial of her.

<sup>14</sup>Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests. <sup>15</sup>And he said to them, What will you give me, and I will betray Him to you? And they appointed to him thirty pieces of silver. <sup>16</sup>And from that time he sought opportunity to betray Him.

<sup>17</sup>And on the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying to Him, Where do You desire that we prepare for You to eat the Passover? <sup>18</sup>And He said, Go into the city to such a man, and say to him, The Master said, My time is at hand. I will keep the Passover at your house with My disciples. <sup>19</sup>And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them. And they made the passover ready. <sup>20</sup>And when evening had come, He sat down with the twelve. <sup>21</sup>And as they ate, He said, Truly I say to you that one of you will betray Me. <sup>22</sup>And grieving sorrowfully, they began to say, each one of them, Lord, not I am the one? <sup>23</sup>And He answered and said, He who dips his hand with Me in the dish, the same shall betray Me. <sup>24</sup>The Son of man goes, as it has been written of Him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had not been born. <sup>25</sup>And answering, the one betraying Him, Judas, said, Master, Not am I the one? He said to him, You said it.

<sup>26</sup>And as they were eating, Jesus took bread and blessed it, and broke it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat, this is My body. <sup>27</sup>And He took the cup and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink all of it. <sup>28</sup>For this is My blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. <sup>29</sup>But I say to you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on, until that day when I drink it new with you in My Father's kingdom.

<sup>30</sup>And singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. <sup>31</sup>Then Jesus said to them, All of you will be offended because of Me this night. For it is written, "I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad." <sup>32</sup>But after I have risen again, I will go before you into Galilee. <sup>33</sup>Peter answered and said to Him, though all shall be offended because of You, yet I will never be offended. <sup>34</sup>Jesus said to him, Truly I say to you that this night, before the cock crows, you shall deny Me three times. <sup>35</sup>Peter said to Him, though I should die with You, yet I will not deny You. All the disciples also said the same.

<sup>36</sup>Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane. And He said to the disciples, Sit here while I go and pray there. <sup>37</sup>And He took Peter and the two sons of Zebedee with Him, and He began to be sorrowful and very heavy. <sup>38</sup>Then He said to them, My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Wait here and watch with Me. <sup>39</sup>And He went a little further and fell on His face, and prayed, saying, O My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me. Yet not as I will, but as You will. <sup>40</sup>And He came to the disciples and found them asleep. And He said to Peter, What! Could you not watch with Me one hour? <sup>41</sup>Watch and pray that you enter not into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. <sup>42</sup>He went away again the second time and prayed, saying, My Father, if this cup may not pass away from Me unless I drink it, Your will be done. <sup>43</sup>And He came and found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy. <sup>44</sup>And He left them and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same things. <sup>45</sup>Then He came to His disciples and said to them, Sleep on now and take your rest. Behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>46</sup>Rise, let us be going; behold, he who is betraying Me is at hand.

<sup>47</sup>And as He was yet speaking, behold, Judas came, one of the Twelve. And with him came a great crowd with swords and clubs, being sent from the chief priests and elders of the people. <sup>48</sup>And he who betrayed Him gave them a sign, saying, Whomever I shall kiss, He is the one, lay hold on Him. <sup>49</sup>And coming up to Jesus immediately, he said, Hail, Master! And he kissed Him. <sup>50</sup>And Jesus said to him, Friend, why are you here? Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and took Him. <sup>51</sup>And, behold, one of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand and drew his sword, and he struck a servant of the high priest and cut off his ear. <sup>52</sup>Then Jesus said to him, put up your sword again into its place; for all who take the sword shall perish with a sword. <sup>53</sup>Do you think that I cannot now pray to My Father, and He shall presently give Me more than twelve legions of angels? <sup>54</sup>But how then shall the Scriptures be fulfilled, that it must be so?

<sup>55</sup>In that hour Jesus said to the crowds, Have you come out in order to take Me with swords and clubs, as against a thief? I sat daily with you, teaching in the temple, and you did not lay hands on Me. <sup>56</sup>But all this happened that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples fled, forsaking Him.

<sup>57</sup>And they who had seized Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders had assembled. <sup>58</sup>But Peter followed Him afar off to the high priest's palace, and he went in and sat with the servants to see the end. <sup>59</sup>And the chief priests and the elders and all the council sought false witness against Jesus, in order to put Him to death. <sup>60</sup>But they found none; yea, though many false witnesses came, they found none. But at last two false witnesses came up <sup>61</sup>and said, This one said, I am able to destroy the temple of God and to build it in three days. <sup>62</sup>And standing up, the high priest said to Him, Do you answer nothing? What is it that these witness against you? <sup>63</sup>But Jesus was silent. And the high priest answered and said to Him, I adjure you by the living God that you tell us whether you are the Christ, the Son of God. <sup>64</sup>Jesus said to him, You said it. I tell you more. From this time you shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming on the clouds of Heaven. <sup>65</sup>Then the high priest tore his clothes, saying, He has spoken blasphemy! What further need do we have of witnesses? Behold, now you have heard his blasphemy. <sup>66</sup>What do you think? They answered and said, He is worthy of death. <sup>67</sup>Then they spat in His face and beat Him with the fist. And others struck Him with the palms of their hands, <sup>68</sup>saying, Prophecy to us, Christ; who is the one who struck you?

<sup>69</sup>And Peter sat outside in the court. And a girl came to him, saying, You also were with Jesus of Galilee. <sup>70</sup>But he denied all before them, saying, I do not know what you say. <sup>71</sup>And when he had gone out into the porch, another saw him and said to those there, This one was also with Jesus of Nazareth. <sup>72</sup>And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man. <sup>73</sup>And after a little while those who stood by came and said to Peter, Surely you also are one of them, for your speech betrays you. <sup>74</sup>Then he began to curse and to swear, I do not know the man. And immediately the cock crowed. <sup>75</sup>And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, Who said to him, Before the cock crows, you shall deny Me three times. And he went out and wept bitterly.

CHAPTER 27

<sup>1</sup>And it becoming early morning, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put Him to death. <sup>2</sup>And when they had bound Him, they led Him away and delivered Him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

<sup>3</sup>Then he who had betrayed Him, seeing that He was condemned, sorrowing, Judas returned the thirty pieces of silver again to the chief priests and elders, <sup>4</sup>saying, I have sinned, betraying innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? You see to that. <sup>5</sup>And he threw the pieces of silver down in the temple and departed. And he went and hanged himself. <sup>6</sup>And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood. <sup>7</sup>And they took counsel and bought the potter's field with them, to bury strangers in. <sup>8</sup>Therefore that field was called, The Field of Blood, to this day. <sup>9</sup>Then that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying, "And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of Him who was valued, whom they of the children of Israel valued, <sup>10</sup>and gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me."

<sup>11</sup>And Jesus stood before the governor. And the governor asked Him, saying, Are you the king of the Jews? And Jesus said to him, You say it. <sup>12</sup>And when He was accused by the chief priests and elders, He answered nothing. <sup>13</sup>Then Pilate said to Him, Do you not hear how many things they witness against you? <sup>14</sup>And He did not answer him a word, so that the governor greatly marveled. <sup>15</sup>Now at that feast the governor was accustomed to release to the people a prisoner, whomever they desired. <sup>16</sup>And they then had a notorious prisoner called Barabbas. <sup>17</sup>Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, Whom do you desire that I release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ? <sup>18</sup>For he knew they had delivered Him because of envy.

<sup>19</sup>But as he was sitting down on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, Have nothing to do with that just man, for today because of Him I have suffered many things in a dream. <sup>20</sup>But the chief priests and elders persuaded the crowd that they should ask for Barabbas and destroy Jesus. <sup>21</sup>The governor answered and said to them, Which of the two do you desire that I release to you? They said, Barabbas. <sup>22</sup>Pilate said to them, What then shall I do with Jesus, who is called Christ? They all said to him, Let Him be crucified. <sup>23</sup>And the governor said, Why? What evil has He done? But they cried out the more, saying, let Him be crucified! <sup>24</sup>But when Pilate saw that it gained nothing, but rather that a tumult was made, he took water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person. You see to it. <sup>25</sup>Then all the people answered and said, Let His blood be on us and on our children. <sup>26</sup>Then he released Barabbas to them. And when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered Him to be crucified.

<sup>32</sup>And going out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name. They forced this one to carry His cross. <sup>33</sup>And coming to a place called Golgotha, which is called, Place of a Skull, <sup>34</sup>they gave Him vinegar mixed with gall to drink. And when He had tasted, He would not drink. <sup>35</sup>And they crucified Him, dividing His garments, casting lots; so that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, "They parted My garments among them, and they cast a lot for My clothing." <sup>36</sup>And sitting down they guarded Him there. <sup>37</sup>And they put up over His head His accusation, written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS. <sup>38</sup>Then two thieves were crucified with Him, one off the right, one off the left.

<sup>39</sup>And those who passed by blasphemed Him, shaking their heads, <sup>40</sup>and saying, You destroying the temple and building it in three days, save yourself. If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross. <sup>41</sup>And in the same way also the chief priests mocked, with the scribes and elders, saying, <sup>42</sup>He saved others, but he cannot save himself. If he is the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him. <sup>43</sup>He trusted in God, let Him deliver him now, if He will have him. (For He said, I am the Son of God.) <sup>44</sup>And also the thieves who were crucified with Him reviled Him, saying the same.

<sup>45</sup>And from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour. <sup>46</sup>And about the ninth hour, Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? That is to say, My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me? <sup>47</sup>Some of those who stood there, when they heard, said, This one calls for Elijah. <sup>48</sup>And immediately one of them ran and took a sponge and filled it with vinegar, and he put it on a reed and gave it to Him to drink. <sup>49</sup>The rest said, Let Him alone, let us see whether Elijah will come to save Him.

<sup>50</sup>And crying again with a loud voice, Jesus released His spirit. <sup>51</sup>And, behold! The veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. And the earth quaked, and the rocks were sheared, <sup>52</sup>and the tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep arose, <sup>53</sup>and coming out of the tomb after His resurrection they went into the holy city and appeared to many. <sup>54</sup>But the centurion and those guarding Jesus, seeing the earthquake, and the things that took place, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this One was the Son of God. <sup>55</sup>And many of the women were there, watching from a distance, those who had followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to Him, watching from a distance; <sup>56</sup>among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's children. <sup>57</sup>When the evening had come, a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, came, who also himself was Jesus' disciple. <sup>58</sup>He went to Pilate and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered. <sup>59</sup>When Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in clean linen, <sup>60</sup>and laid it in his new tomb, which he had cut out of the rock. And he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb and departed. <sup>61</sup>And Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, were sitting there across from the tomb.

<sup>62</sup>And on the next day, which was after the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered to Pilate, <sup>63</sup>saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while He was living, After three days I will rise again. <sup>64</sup>Then command that the tomb be made secure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night and steal him away and say to the people, He has risen from the dead. So the last error will be worse than the first. <sup>65</sup>Pilate said to them, you have a watch. Go and make it as secure as you can. <sup>66</sup>And going they made the tomb secure, sealing the stone along with the guard.

CHAPTER 28

<sup>1</sup>But late in the week, at the dawning into the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb. <sup>2</sup>And behold, a great earthquake occurred! For coming down from Heaven, and coming up, an angel of the Lord rolled back the stone from the door and was sitting on it. <sup>3</sup>His countenance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. <sup>4</sup>And the keepers shook for fear of him and became like dead men. <sup>5</sup>And the angel answered and said to the women, Do not fear, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. <sup>6</sup>He is not here, for He has risen, as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. <sup>7</sup>And go quickly and tell His disciples that He has risen from the dead. And, behold, He goes before you into Galilee. There you shall see Him. Lo, I have told you. <sup>8</sup>And they quickly departed from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring His disciples word.

<sup>9</sup>But as they were going to report to His disciples, behold, Jesus also met them, saying, Hail! And they came and held Him by the feet and worshiped Him. <sup>10</sup>Then Jesus said to them, Do not be afraid; go tell My brothers that they should go into Galilee, and there they will see Me.

<sup>11</sup>And as they were going, behold, some of the guard came into the city and declared all the things that were done to the chief priests. <sup>12</sup>And being assembled with the elders, and taking counsel, they gave enough silver to the soldiers, <sup>13</sup>saying, Say that His disciples came by night and stole Him away while we slept. <sup>14</sup>And if this comes to the governor's ears, we will persuade him and make you free from care. <sup>15</sup>And taking the silver, they did as they were taught. And this saying was spread among the Jews until today.

<sup>16</sup>And the eleven disciples went into Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had appointed them. <sup>17</sup>And when they saw Him, they worshiped Him. But some doubted. <sup>18</sup>And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, All authority is given to Me in Heaven and in earth. <sup>19</sup>Therefore go and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, <sup>20</sup>teaching them to observe all things, whatever I commanded you. And, behold, I am with you all the days until the end of the world.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MARK

CHAPTER 1

<sup>4</sup>John came baptizing in the wilderness and proclaiming the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. <sup>5</sup>And all the land of Judea, and those of Jerusalem, went out to him and were all baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins. <sup>6</sup>And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a leather girdle about his loin. And he ate locusts and wild honey. <sup>7</sup>And he proclaimed, saying, There is One coming after me who is mightier than I, the thong of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down to loosen. <sup>8</sup>I indeed have baptized you with water, but He shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit.

<sup>9</sup>And it happened in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. <sup>10</sup>And immediately coming up out of the water, He saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon Him. <sup>11</sup>And there came a voice from Heaven, saying, You are My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

<sup>12</sup>And immediately the Spirit drove Him into the wilderness. <sup>13</sup>And He was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan. And He was with the wild beasts, and the angels ministered to Him.

<sup>14</sup>And after John was delivered up, Jesus came into Galilee, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom of God, <sup>15</sup>and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God draws near. Repent, and believe the gospel. <sup>16</sup>And walking along beside the sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. <sup>17</sup>And Jesus said to them, Come after Me and I will make you fishers of men. <sup>18</sup>And immediately they left their nets and followed Him. <sup>19</sup>And when He going farther from there a little, He saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the boat mending their nets. <sup>20</sup>And immediately He called them. And they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants and went after Him.

<sup>21</sup>And they went into Capernaum. And immediately on the sabbath day He entered into the synagogue and taught. <sup>22</sup>And they were astonished at His doctrine. For He taught them as one who had authority, and not like the scribes. <sup>23</sup>And in their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit. And he cried out, <sup>24</sup>saying, What is to us and to You, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know You, who You are, the Holy One of God. <sup>25</sup>And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Be quiet, and come out of him. <sup>26</sup>And the unclean spirit, convulsing him, and crying with a loud voice, he came out of him. <sup>27</sup>They all were amazed, so as to question among themselves, saying, What is this? What new doctrine is this? For He even commands the unclean spirits with authority, and they obey Him. <sup>28</sup>And immediately His fame went out into all the Galilean neighborhood.

<sup>29</sup>And immediately after they had come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. <sup>30</sup>But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and at once they told Him about her. <sup>31</sup>And He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up. And instantly the fever left her, and she served them. <sup>32</sup>And at evening, when the sun set, they brought all those who were diseased to Him, and those who were demon-possessed. <sup>33</sup>And all the city had gathered at the door. <sup>34</sup>And He healed many who were sick of different diseases, and cast out many demons. And He did not allow the demons to speak, because they knew Him.

<sup>35</sup>And rising up quite early in the night, He went out into a deserted place, and He was praying there. <sup>36</sup>And Simon, and those with him, searched for Him. <sup>37</sup>And finding Him, they said to Him, All are seeking You. <sup>38</sup>And He said to them, Let us go into the next towns so that I may proclaim there also. For that reason I came forth. <sup>39</sup>And He proclaimed in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out demons. <sup>40</sup>And a leper came to Him, begging Him and kneeling down to Him, and saying to Him, If You will, You can make me clean. <sup>41</sup>And Jesus, moved with compassion, put out His hand and touched him, and said to him, I will; be clean! <sup>42</sup>And He having spoken, the leprosy instantly departed from him and he was cleansed. <sup>43</sup>And He strictly charged him and immediately sent him away, <sup>44</sup>and He said to him, See that you say nothing to anyone. But go and show yourself to the priests, and offer those things which Moses commanded for your cleansing, for a testimony to them. <sup>45</sup>But going out, he began to proclaim it very much, and to spread about the matter, so that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was outside in deserted places. And they came to Him from every quarter.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And again He entered into Capernaum after some days. And it was heard that He was in a house. <sup>2</sup>And immediately many were gathered, so that none any longer had room, even to the door. And He proclaimed the word to them. <sup>3</sup>Then they came to Him, bringing one who was paralyzed, who was carried by four. <sup>4</sup>When they could not come near to Him because of the crowd, they unroofed the roof where He was. And digging through, they let down the cot on which the paralytic was lying. <sup>5</sup>And seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralytic, Child, your sins are forgiven to you. <sup>6</sup>But some of the scribes were sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, <sup>7</sup>Why does this one speak such blasphemies? Who can forgive sins except God only? <sup>8</sup>And instantly knowing in His spirit that they reasoned so within themselves, He said to them, Why do you reason these things in your heart? <sup>9</sup>Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, your sins are forgiven you; or to say, Arise, and take up your bed and walk? <sup>10</sup>But so that you may know that the Son of man has authority upon earth to forgive sins, He said to the paralytic, <sup>11</sup>I say to you, Arise, and take up your cot, and go to your house. <sup>12</sup>And immediately he arose and took up his cot and went out before all. So that all were amazed and glorified God, saying, We never saw it this way.

<sup>13</sup>And He went out again by the seaside. And all the crowd came to Him, and He taught them. <sup>14</sup>And as He passed on, He saw Levi the son of Alpheus sitting at the tax-office. And He said to him, Follow Me. And he arose and followed Him.

<sup>15</sup>And it happened as Jesus reclined in his house, many tax-collectors and sinners also reclined with Jesus and His disciples. For there were many, and they followed Him. <sup>16</sup>And when the scribes and Pharisees saw Him eat with tax-collectors and sinners, they said to His disciples, How is it that He eats and drinks with tax-collectors and sinners? <sup>17</sup>When Jesus heard, He said to them, They who are strong have no need of a physician, but the ones who have illness. I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

<sup>18</sup>The disciples of John and those of the Pharisees were fasting. And they came and said to Him, Why do John's disciples and those of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast? <sup>19</sup>And Jesus said to them, Can the sons of the bridechamber fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them they cannot fast. <sup>20</sup>But the days will come when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then they shall fast in those days. <sup>21</sup>And no one sews a patch of new cloth on an old garment, else it takes away from its fullness, and a worse tear occurs. <sup>22</sup>No one puts new wine into old wineskins, else the new wine bursts the wineskins, and the wine spills, and the wineskins will be ruined. The new wine must be put into new wineskins.

<sup>23</sup>And it happened that He went through the grainfields on the sabbath day. And as they walked His disciples began to pluck the ears of grain. <sup>24</sup>And the Pharisees said to Him, Behold, why do they do that which is not lawful on the sabbath day? <sup>25</sup>And He said to them, Have you never read what David did, when he had need and was hungry, he, and those with him? <sup>26</sup>How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest and ate the showbread, which it is not lawful to eat, except for the priests, and also gave to those with him? <sup>27</sup>And He said to them, The sabbath is made for man, and not man for the sabbath. <sup>28</sup>Therefore the Son of man is also Lord of the sabbath.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And He again entered into the synagogue. And a man was there who had a withered hand. <sup>2</sup>And they watched Him to see if He would heal him on the sabbath day, so that they might accuse Him. <sup>3</sup>And He said to the man who had the withered hand, Arise! Come into the middle. <sup>4</sup>And He said to them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? To save life, or to kill? But they were silent. <sup>5</sup>And looking around on them with anger, being grieved because of the hardness of their hearts, He said to the man, Stretch out your hand! And he stretched it out. And his hand was restored whole, like the other. <sup>6</sup>The Pharisees went out and immediately took counsel with the Herodians against Him, how they might destroy Him.

<sup>7</sup>And Jesus withdrew to the sea with His disciples. And a great crowd from Galilee followed Him, and from Judea, <sup>8</sup>and from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and from beyond Jordan, and those around Tyre and Sidon, a great throng came to him, having heard how much He was doing. <sup>9</sup>And He spoke to His disciples, so that a small boat should stay near to Him, because of the crowd, lest they should press on Him. <sup>10</sup>For He had healed many, so that they pressed on Him in order to touch Him, as many as had plagues. <sup>11</sup>And unclean spirits, when they saw Him, fell down before Him and cried, saying, You are the Son of God! <sup>12</sup>And He strictly charged them that they should not make Him known.

<sup>13</sup>And He went up into a mountain and called near those whom He would. And they came to Him. <sup>14</sup>And He ordained twelve, that they should be with Him, and that He might send them out to proclaim, <sup>15</sup>and to have authority to heal sicknesses, and to cast out demons. <sup>16</sup>And He put on Simon the name Peter. <sup>17</sup>And He put on James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James, the name Boanerges, which is, the Sons of Thunder. <sup>18</sup>And He appointed Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddeus, and Simon the Canaanite, <sup>19</sup>and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him. And they went into a house.

<sup>20</sup>And again a crowd came together, so that they could not even eat bread. <sup>21</sup>And hearing of it, those with Him went out to take hold of Him; for they said, He is insane. <sup>22</sup>And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, He has Beelzebub, and He casts out demons by the ruler of the demons. <sup>23</sup>And He called them and said to them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan? <sup>24</sup>And if a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. <sup>25</sup>And if a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand. <sup>26</sup>And if Satan rises up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but has an end. <sup>27</sup>No one can enter into a strong man's house and plunder his goods, except he first binds the strong man. And then he will plunder his house.

<sup>28</sup>Truly I say to you, all sins shall be forgiven to the sons of men, and blasphemies with which they shall blaspheme. <sup>29</sup>But he who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never shall have forgiveness, but is liable to eternal condemnation. <sup>30</sup>Because they said, He has an unclean spirit.

<sup>31</sup>Then His brothers and His mother came. And standing outside, they sent to Him, calling Him. <sup>32</sup>And the crowd sat about Him, and they said to Him, Behold, Your mother and Your brothers are outside seeking for You. <sup>33</sup>And He answered them, saying, Who is My mother, or My brothers? <sup>34</sup>And He looked around on those who sat about Him, and said, Behold My mother and My brothers! <sup>35</sup>For whoever does the will of God, the same is My brother and My sister and My mother.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>And He began again to teach by the seaside. And there was a great crowd gathered to Him, so that He entered into a boat and sat in the sea. And the whole crowd was on the land by the seaside. <sup>2</sup>And He taught them many things by a parable. And He said to them in His teaching: <sup>3</sup>Listen! Behold, a sower went out to sow. <sup>4</sup>And as he sowed, it happened that some fell by the wayside, and the fowls of the air came and ate it up. <sup>5</sup>And another fell on stony ground, where it did not have much earth. And it sprang up at once, due to not having deepness of earth. <sup>6</sup>And when the sun rose, it was scorched. And because it had no root, it withered away. <sup>7</sup>And another fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. <sup>8</sup>And another fell on good ground and yielded fruit, going up and increasing. And one bore thirty, and one sixty, and one a hundredfold. <sup>9</sup>And He said to them, He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

<sup>10</sup>And when he was alone, they who were about Him, with the twelve, asked Him concerning the parable. <sup>11</sup>And He said to them, To you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God. But to those outside, all these things are given in parables <sup>12</sup>so that seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them. <sup>13</sup>And He said to them, Do you not know this parable? And how then will you know all parables?

<sup>14</sup>The sower sows the word. <sup>15</sup>And these are those by the wayside, where the word is sown. And when they hear, Satan comes immediately and takes away the word that was sown in their hearts. <sup>16</sup>And these are those likewise being sown on stony places; who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with gladness. <sup>17</sup>But they have no root in themselves, but are temporary. Afterward when affliction or persecution arises for the word's sake, they are immediately offended. <sup>18</sup>And these are those being sown among thorns; such as hear the word, <sup>19</sup>and the cares of this world, and the deceit of riches, and the lust about other things entering in, choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. <sup>20</sup>And these are those sown on good ground, who hear the word and welcome it, and bear fruit, one thirty, one sixty, and one a hundredfold.

<sup>21</sup>And He said to them, Does a lamp come to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a lampstand? <sup>22</sup>For there is nothing hidden which shall not be revealed; nor became covered, but that it might come to the light. <sup>23</sup>If any man has ears to hear, let him hear. <sup>24</sup>And He said to them, Take heed what you hear. With that measure which you measure, it shall be measured to you. And to you who hear, more shall be given. <sup>25</sup>For he who has, more shall be given to him; and he who has not, from him shall be taken even that which he has.

<sup>26</sup>And He said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground; <sup>27</sup>and should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knows not how. <sup>28</sup>For the earth brings out fruit of itself, first the blade, then the ear, after that the full grain in the ear. <sup>29</sup>But when the fruit has been brought out, immediately he puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come.

<sup>30</sup>And He said, to what shall we compare the kingdom of God? Or by what parable shall we compare it? <sup>31</sup>It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that are in the earth. <sup>32</sup>But when it has been sown, it grows up and becomes greater than all herbs, and shoots out great branches, so as to enable the birds of the air to roost under its shade.

<sup>33</sup>And with many such parables He spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it. <sup>34</sup>But he did not speak to them without a parable. And when they were alone, He explained all things to His disciples.

<sup>35</sup>And evening having come, He said to them on that day, Let us pass over to the other side. <sup>36</sup>And when they had sent away the crowd, they took Him with them as He was in the boat. And there were also other little boats with Him. <sup>37</sup>And there arose a windstorm, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was now full. <sup>38</sup>And He was in the stern of the boat, asleep on a headrest. And they awakened Him and said to Him, Master, do You not care that we perish? <sup>39</sup>And He arose and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, Peace! Be still! And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. <sup>40</sup>And He said to them, Why are you so fearful? How is it that you have no faith? <sup>41</sup>And they feared exceedingly and said to one another, What kind of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey Him?

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>And they came over to the other side of the sea, to the country of the Gadarenes. <sup>2</sup>And when He had come out of the boat, immediately a man with unclean spirits met Him out of the tombs, <sup>3</sup>who had his dwelling among the tombs. And no one could bind him, no, not with chains <sup>4</sup>because he had often been bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been torn apart by him, and the fetters broken in pieces. Nor could anyone subdue him. <sup>5</sup>And always, night and day, he was in the mountains and in the tombs, crying and cutting himself with stones. <sup>6</sup>And when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshiped Him, <sup>7</sup>and cried with a loud voice, and said, What is to me and to You, Jesus, son of the Most High God? I adjure You by God not to torment me. <sup>8</sup>For He said to him, Come out of the man, unclean spirit! <sup>9</sup>And He asked him, What is your name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion, for we are many. <sup>10</sup>And he begged Him very much that He would not send them outside the country. <sup>11</sup>And a great herd of pigs was feeding near the mountains. <sup>12</sup>And all the demons begged Him, saying, Send us into the pigs, that we may enter into them. <sup>13</sup>And immediately Jesus allowed them. And the unclean spirits went out and entered into the pigs. And the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea (they were about two thousand), and were choked in the sea. <sup>14</sup>And the ones who fed the pigs fled and told it in the city and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done. <sup>15</sup>And they came to Jesus and saw him who was demon-possessed, and had the legion, sitting and clothed and right-minded. And they were afraid. <sup>16</sup>And those who had seen told them how it happened to the demon-possessed one, and about the pigs. <sup>17</sup>And they began to beg Him to leave their borders. <sup>18</sup>And when He had come into the boat, the former demoniac begged Him that he might be with Him.

<sup>19</sup>However Jesus did not allow him, but said to him, Go home to your friends, and tell them what great things the Lord has done for you, and has had compassion on you. <sup>20</sup>And he departed and began to proclaim in Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him. And all marvelled.

<sup>21</sup>And Jesus having crossed again by boat to the other side, a large crowd collected on Him. And He was near the sea. <sup>22</sup>And, behold, one of the synagogue rulers came, Jairus by name. And when he saw Him, he fell at His feet. <sup>23</sup>And he begged Him greatly, saying, My little daughter lies at the point of death. Come, lay Your hands on her, so that she may be healed, and she shall live. <sup>24</sup>And Jesus went with him. And many people followed Him and thronged Him.

<sup>25</sup>And a certain woman who had had an issue of blood twelve years, <sup>26</sup>and had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and had not been bettered any, but rather came to worse, <sup>27</sup>having heard about Jesus, she came in the press behind and touched His garment. <sup>28</sup>For she said, If I may but touch only His clothes, I will be cured. <sup>29</sup>And instantly the fountain of her blood dried up. And she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague. <sup>30</sup>And knowing instantly within Himself that power had gone out of Him, Jesus turned Himself around in the press and said, Who touched My clothes? <sup>31</sup>And His disciples said to Him, You see the crowd pressing on You, and do You say, Who touched Me? <sup>32</sup>And He looked around to see her who had done this thing. <sup>33</sup>But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had been done in her, came and fell down before Him and told Him all the truth. <sup>34</sup>And He said to her, Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be whole from your plague.

<sup>35</sup>While He still spoke, they came from the synagogue ruler's house, saying, Your daughter is dead; why do you still trouble the Teacher? <sup>36</sup>But hearing the word spoken, Jesus said to the synagogue ruler, Do not be afraid, only believe. <sup>37</sup>And He allowed no one to follow Him, except Peter and James and John, the brother of James. <sup>38</sup>And He came to the synagogue ruler's and saw a tumult, and weeping and much wailing. <sup>39</sup>And going in He said to them, Why do you make a tumult and weep? The girl is not dead, but sleeps. <sup>40</sup>And they laughed at Him. But when he had put them all out, He took the father and the mother of the child, and those with Him, and went in where the child was lying. <sup>41</sup>And He took the child's hand and said to her, Talitha koumi; (which interpreted is, Little girl, I say to you, arise! <sup>42</sup>And instantly the little girl arose and walked (for she was twelve years old). And they were astonished with a great astonishment. <sup>43</sup>And He strictly warned them that no one should know this. And He said to give her something to eat.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>And He went out from there and came into His native-place. And His disciples followed Him. <sup>2</sup>And when the sabbath day had come, He began to teach in the synagogue. And many hearing Him, were astonished, saying, Where does this one get these things? And what wisdom is this which is given to him, that even such mighty works are done by his hands? <sup>3</sup>Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at Him. <sup>4</sup>But Jesus said to them, A prophet is not without honor, except in his native-place, and among his own kin, and in his own house. <sup>5</sup>And He could do no work of power there, except that He laid His hands on a few sick ones, He healed them. <sup>6</sup>And He marvelled because of their unbelief.

And He went around the villages, teaching.

<sup>7</sup>And He called the Twelve and began to send them out by two and two. And He gave them authority over unclean spirits, <sup>8</sup>and commanded them that they take nothing in the way, except only a staff; no bag, no bread, no money in the belt, <sup>9</sup>but tying on sandals, and not to put on two tunics. <sup>10</sup>And He said to them, In wherever you enter into a house, abide there until you depart from that place. <sup>11</sup>And whoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when you depart from there, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Truly I say to you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city. <sup>12</sup>And they went out and proclaimed that men should repent. <sup>13</sup>And they cast out many demons, and anointed many who were sick with oil, and healed them.

<sup>14</sup>And king Herod heard of Him (for His name had been spread abroad,) and he said that John the Baptist had been raised from the dead, and therefore mighty works operate in him. <sup>15</sup>Others said that it was Elijah. And others said that it was a prophet, or as one of the prophets. <sup>16</sup>But hearing Herod said, It is John, whom I beheaded. He has risen from the dead! <sup>17</sup>For Herod himself had sent out and laid hold on John and had bound him in prison because of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife. For he had married her, <sup>18</sup>and John had said to Herod, It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife. <sup>19</sup>And Herodias held it against him, and desired to kill him, but she could not. <sup>20</sup>For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just and holy man. And he kept him safe. And when he heard him, he did many things and heard him gladly. <sup>21</sup>And a convenient day came, when Herod made a supper to great men on his birthday, and to the chief captains, and to the first men of Galilee. <sup>22</sup>And when the daughter of Herodias herself came in and danced and pleased Herod, and those who reclined with him, the king said to the girl, Ask whatever you desire from me, and I will give it to you. <sup>23</sup>And he swore to her, Whatever you shall ask from me, I will give it to you, to the half of my kingdom. <sup>24</sup>And she went out and said to her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist. <sup>25</sup>And immediately going in with haste to the king, she asked, saying, I desire that you give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter. <sup>26</sup>And becoming deeply grieved, the king, because of his oath, and those reclining together, he did not wish to reject her. <sup>27</sup>And immediately the king sent an executioner and commanded his head to be brought. And he went and beheaded him in the prison, <sup>28</sup>and brought his head in a platter and gave it to the girl. And the girl gave it to her mother. <sup>29</sup>And when his disciples heard, they came and took up his corpse and laid it in a tomb.

<sup>30</sup>And the apostles gathered themselves to Jesus and told Him all things, both what they had done and what they had taught. <sup>31</sup>And He said to them, Come aside into a desert place and rest a little. For there were many coming and going, and they had no opportunity even to eat. <sup>32</sup>And they departed by boat into a desert place. <sup>33</sup>And the crowds saw them leaving, and many knew Him. And they ran together on foot there, out of the cities. And they went before them and came together to Him. <sup>34</sup>And going out Jesus saw a large crowd. And He was moved with compassion toward them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. And He began to teach them many things. <sup>35</sup>And it now becoming a late hour, His disciples came to Him and said, This is a desert place and it is now a late hour. <sup>36</sup>Send them away so that they may go to the surrounding fields and villages and buy loaves for themselves. For they have nothing to eat. <sup>37</sup>He answered and said to them, You give them food to eat. And they said to Him, Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii of loaves and give them to eat? <sup>38</sup>He said to them, How many loaves do you have? Go and see. And when they knew, they said, Five, and two fish. <sup>39</sup>And He commanded them all to recline, group by group, on the green grass. <sup>40</sup>And they sat group by group, by hundred and by fifties.

<sup>41</sup>And taking the five loaves and the two fish, He looked up to Heaven, He blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to His disciples to set before them. And He divided the two fish among them. <sup>42</sup>And they all ate and were filled. <sup>43</sup>And they took up twelve handbaskets full of fragments, also from the fish. <sup>44</sup>And those eating the loaves were about five thousand men.

<sup>45</sup>And immediately He constrained His disciples to get into the boat and to go before to the other side, to Bethsaida, while He sent away the crowd. <sup>46</sup>And taking leave of them, He went away to the mountain to pray. <sup>47</sup>And when evening had come, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and He was alone on the land. <sup>48</sup>And He saw them toiling in rowing, for the wind was contrary to them. And about the fourth watch of the night He came toward them walking on the sea, and would have passed by them. <sup>49</sup>But when they saw Him walking on the sea, they supposed that it was a phantom, and cried out. <sup>50</sup>For they all saw Him and were troubled. And immediately He talked with them, and said, Be of good cheer. I AM! Do not be afraid. <sup>51</sup>And He went up into the boat to them. And the wind was cut off. And they were very much amazed within themselves beyond measure, and marvelled. <sup>52</sup>For they did not understand the miracle of the loaves, for their hearts were hardened.

<sup>53</sup>And crossing over, they came into the land of Gennesaret and drew to the shore. <sup>54</sup>And when they had come out of the boat, at once knowing Him, <sup>55</sup>they ran all around that neighborhood, and began to carry on cots those who were sick, wherever they heard He was. <sup>56</sup>And wherever He entered, into villages or cities or country, they laid the sick in the streets and begged Him if only they might touch but the fringe of His garment. And as many as touched Him were made whole.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>And the Pharisees and some of the scribes came together to Him, having come from Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>And when they saw some of His disciples eating loaves with unclean hands, that is with unwashed hands, they found fault. <sup>3</sup>For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash their hands with the fist, holding the tradition of the elders. <sup>4</sup>And coming from the market, they do not eat unless they wash. And there are many other things which they have received to hold, the washing of cups and pots, and of bronze vessels, and of tables. <sup>5</sup>Then the Pharisees and scribes asked Him, Why do your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat loaves with unwashed hands? <sup>6</sup>But He answered and said to them, Well has Isaiah prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, "This people honors Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me. <sup>7</sup>However, they worship Me in vain, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men." <sup>8</sup>For laying aside the commandment of God, you hold the tradition of men, the washing of pots and cups. And many other such things you do. <sup>9</sup>And He said to them, Do you do well to set aside the commandment of God, so that you may keep your own tradition? <sup>10</sup>For Moses said, "Honor your father and your mother." And, "Whoever curses father or mother, let him die the death." <sup>11</sup>But you say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, Whatever you may gain by me, Corban! (that is, A gift to God — whatever you may profit by me) <sup>12</sup>and you no longer allow him to do anything toward his father or mother, <sup>13</sup>making the word of God of no effect through your tradition which you have delivered. And you do many such things.

<sup>14</sup>And calling near all the crowd, He said to them, Listen to Me, every one of you, and understand. <sup>15</sup>There is nothing from outside a man which entering into him can defile him. But the things which come out of him, those are the ones that defile the man. <sup>16</sup>If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.

<sup>17</sup>And when He had entered into the house away from the crowd, His disciples asked Him concerning the parable. <sup>18</sup>And He said to them, Are you also without understanding? Do you not perceive that whatever enters into the man from outside cannot defile him, <sup>19</sup>because it does not enter into his heart, but into the belly, and goes out into the wastebowl, purifying all food? <sup>20</sup>And He said, That which comes out of the man is what defiles the man. <sup>21</sup>For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, <sup>22</sup>thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness: <sup>23</sup>All these evil things pass out from inside and defile the man.

<sup>24</sup>And He arose from there and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon. And He entered into a house and desired no one to know it. But He could not be hidden. <sup>25</sup>For a woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of Him and came and fell at His feet. <sup>26</sup>The woman was a Greek, a Syro-phenician by race. And she begged Him that He would cast the demon out of her daughter. <sup>27</sup>But Jesus said to her, Let the children first be filled. For it is not right to take the children's loaves and to throw it to the dogs. <sup>28</sup>And she answered and said to Him, Yes, Lord, yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs. <sup>29</sup>And He said to her, For this saying go, the demon has gone out of your daughter. <sup>30</sup>And when she had come to her house, she found the demon had gone out, and her daughter lay on the couch.

<sup>31</sup>And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, He came to the Sea of Galilee, in the midst of the borders of the Decapolis. <sup>32</sup>And they brought a deaf one to Him, hardly speaking. And they begged Him to put His hand on him. <sup>33</sup>And He took him aside from the crowd and put His fingers into his ears. And He spat and touched his tongue. <sup>34</sup>And looking up to Heaven, He sighed and said to him, Ephphatha! (that is, Be opened!) <sup>35</sup>And instantly his ears were opened and the bond of his tongue was loosened, and he spoke plainly. <sup>36</sup>And He commanded them, that they should tell no one. But the more He commanded them, so much the more they proclaimed it. <sup>37</sup>And they were astonished beyond measure, saying, He has done all things well. He makes both the deaf to hear and the dumb to speak.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>In those days, the crowd being very great and having nothing to eat, Jesus called His disciples and said to them, <sup>2</sup>I have compassion on the crowd because they have now been with Me three days and have nothing to eat. <sup>3</sup>And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint in the way. For many of them come from afar. <sup>4</sup>And His disciples answered Him, From where can a man satisfy these with loaves here in the wilderness? <sup>5</sup>And He asked them, How many loaves do you have? And they said, Seven. <sup>6</sup>And He commanded the people to recline on the ground. And He took the seven loaves and gave thanks, and He broke and gave to His disciples to set before them. And they set them before the people. <sup>7</sup>And they had a few small fish. And He blessed and commanded them to set them also before them. <sup>8</sup>So they ate and were filled. And they took up seven lunchbaskets of fragments. <sup>9</sup>And they who had eaten were about four thousand. And He sent them away.

<sup>10</sup>And immediately He entered into a boat with His disciples and came into the region of Dalmanutha. <sup>11</sup>And the Pharisees came out and began to dispute with Him, seeking a sign from Him, tempting Him. <sup>12</sup>And He sighed deeply in His spirit and said, Why does this generation seek a sign? Truly I say to you, There shall no sign be given to this generation. <sup>13</sup>And He left them. And entering into the boat again, He departed to the other side.

<sup>14</sup>And the disciples had forgotten to take loaves, and they did not have more than one loaf in the boat with them. <sup>15</sup>And He charged them, saying, Take heed! Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the leaven of Herod. <sup>16</sup>And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no loaves. <sup>17</sup>And knowing it, Jesus said to them, Why do you reason that it is because you have no loaves? Do you not yet perceive nor understand? Have you hardened your heart? <sup>18</sup>Do you have eyes and do not see? Do you have ears and do not hear? And do you not remember? <sup>19</sup>When I broke the five loaves among five thousand, how many handbaskets full of fragments did you take up? They said to Him, Twelve. <sup>20</sup>And when the seven among four thousand, how many lunchbaskets full of fragments did you take up? And they said, Seven. <sup>21</sup>And He said to them, How is it that you do not understand?

<sup>22</sup>And He came to Bethsaida. And they brought a blind man to Him and begged Him to touch him. <sup>23</sup>And He took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the town. And when He had spat on his eyes and had put His hands on him, He asked Him if he saw anything. <sup>24</sup>And he looked up and said, I see men as trees, walking. <sup>25</sup>And after that He put His hands again on his eyes and made him look up. And he was restored and saw all clearly. <sup>26</sup>And He sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.

<sup>27</sup>And Jesus and His disciples went out into the towns of Caesarea Philippi. And in the way He asked His disciples, saying to them, Who do men say that I am? <sup>28</sup>And they answered, John the Baptist. But some say Elijah, and others say one of the prophets. <sup>29</sup>And He said to them, But who do you say that I am? And Peter answered and said to Him, You are the Christ. <sup>30</sup>And He charged them that they should tell no one of Him.

<sup>31</sup>And He began to teach them that the Son of man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. <sup>32</sup>And He spoke that saying openly. And Peter took Him and began to rebuke Him. <sup>33</sup>But when He had turned around and looked on His disciples, He rebuked Peter, saying, Go behind Me, Satan! For you do not mind the things of God, but of the things of men.

<sup>34</sup>And calling near the crowd with His disciples, He said to them, Whoever will come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me. <sup>35</sup>For whoever will save his life shall lose it; but whoever shall lose his life for My sake and the gospel's, he shall save it. <sup>36</sup>For what shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul? <sup>37</sup>Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? <sup>38</sup>Therefore whoever shall be ashamed of Me and of My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of man shall also be ashamed of him when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>And He said to them, Truly I say to you that there are some of those who stand here who shall not taste of death until they see the kingdom of God come with power.

<sup>2</sup>And after six days Jesus took Peter and James and John and led them up into a high mountain, apart by themselves. And He was transfigured before them. <sup>3</sup>And His clothing became shining, exceedingly white as snow such as no fuller on earth could whiten them. <sup>4</sup>And Elijah with Moses was seen by them, and they were talking with Jesus. <sup>5</sup>And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. And let us make three tabernacles, one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. <sup>6</sup>For he did not know what to say, for they were very much afraid. <sup>7</sup>And there was a cloud that overshadowed them. And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is My beloved Son. Hear Him. <sup>8</sup>And suddenly, when they had looked around, they did not see anyone any more, except Jesus only, together with themselves. <sup>9</sup>And as they came down from the mountain, He commanded them that they should tell no one the things that they had seen until the Son of man had risen from the dead. <sup>10</sup>And they kept that saying within themselves, debating with one another what the rising from the dead is.

<sup>11</sup>And they asked Him, saying, Why do the scribes say that Elijah must first come? <sup>12</sup>And He answered and told them, Elijah truly does come first and restores all things. And how has it been written of the Son of man that He should suffer many things and be despised? <sup>13</sup>But I say to you that Elijah has indeed come, and they have done to him whatever they desired, as it is written of him.

<sup>14</sup>And coming to His disciples, He saw a great crowd around them, and the scribes arguing with them. <sup>15</sup>And immediately all the crowd, seeing Him, were greatly amazed, and they were running to Him to greet Him. <sup>16</sup>And He asked the scribes, What are you discussing with them? <sup>17</sup>And one of the crowd answered and said, Teacher, I have brought my son who has a dumb spirit to You. <sup>18</sup>And wherever he seizes him, he dashes him. And he foams and gnashes his teeth and pines away. And I spoke to Your disciples that they should cast him out, and they could not. <sup>19</sup>He answered him and said, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him to Me! <sup>20</sup>And they brought him to Him. And when he saw Him, the spirit immediately convulsed him. And he fell on the ground and wallowed, foaming. <sup>21</sup>And He asked his father, How long ago has it been since this came to him? And he said, From a child. <sup>22</sup>And oftentimes it has cast him into the fire and into the waters to destroy him. But if You can do anything, have compassion on us and help us. <sup>23</sup>Jesus said to him, If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes. <sup>24</sup>And immediately the father of the child cried out and said with tears, Lord, I believe. Help my unbelief. <sup>25</sup>And seeing that a crowd is running together, He rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to him, Dumb and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him and enter no more into him! <sup>26</sup>And the spirit cried out, throwing him into convulsions, and came out of him. And he was like one dead, so that many said, He is dead. <sup>27</sup>But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose. <sup>28</sup>And He entering into a house, His disciples asked Him privately, Why could we not cast him out? <sup>29</sup>And He said to them, This kind can come out by nothing except by prayer and fasting.

<sup>30</sup>And going out from there, they passed through Galilee. And He desired that no one should know. <sup>31</sup>For He taught His disciples and said to them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him. And after He is killed, He shall rise the third day. <sup>32</sup>But they did not understand that saying and were afraid to ask Him.

<sup>33</sup>And He came to Capernaum. And being in the house, He asked them, What was it that you disputed among yourselves in the way? <sup>34</sup>But they were silent. For in the way they had disputed among themselves who was the greatest. <sup>35</sup>And He sat down and called the Twelve and said to them, If anyone desires to be first, he shall be last of all and servant of all. <sup>36</sup>And He took a child, and embraced it, and set him in their midst. And He said to them, <sup>37</sup>Whoever shall receive one of such children in My name receives Me. And whoever shall receive Me does not only receive Me, but Him who sent Me.

<sup>38</sup>And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out demons in Your name, and he does not follow us. And we forbade him, because he does not follow us. <sup>39</sup>But Jesus said, Do not forbid him. For there is no one who shall do a work of power in My name who can lightly speak evil of Me. <sup>40</sup>For he who is not against us is for us. <sup>41</sup>For whoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in My name, because you belong to Christ, truly I say to you, he shall not lose his reward. <sup>42</sup>And whoever shall offend one of these little ones who believe in Me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged around his neck and he were cast into the sea. <sup>43</sup>And if your hand offends you, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed than to have two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched <sup>44</sup>where their worm dies not, and the fire is not quenched. <sup>45</sup>And if your foot offends you, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life lame than to have two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched <sup>46</sup>where their worm dies not, and the fire is not quenched. <sup>47</sup>And if your eye offends you, pluck it out. It is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes to be cast into hell fire <sup>48</sup>where their worm dies not, and the fire is not quenched. <sup>49</sup>For every one shall be salted with fire, and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt. <sup>50</sup>Salt is good; but if the salt becomes saltless, with what will you season? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>And He arose from there. And He came into the borders of Judea by the other side of the Jordan. And again a crowd came together to Him again. And as was His custom, He taught them again.

<sup>2</sup>And tempting Him, the Pharisees came to Him and asked Him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? <sup>3</sup>And He answered and said to them, What did Moses command you? <sup>4</sup>And they said, Moses allowed a bill of divorce to be written, and to put her away. <sup>5</sup>And Jesus answered and said to them, He wrote you this precept because of the hardness of your hearts. <sup>6</sup>But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female. <sup>7</sup>For this cause a man shall leave his father and mother and shall cleave to his wife. <sup>8</sup>And the two of them shall be one flesh. So then they are no longer two, but one flesh. <sup>9</sup>Therefore what God has joined together, let not man put apart. <sup>10</sup>And in the house His disciples asked Him again about the same. <sup>11</sup>And He said to them, Whoever shall put away his wife and marry another commits adultery against her. <sup>12</sup>And if a woman shall put away her husband and be married to another, she commits adultery.

<sup>13</sup>And they brought children to Him, so that He should touch them. And His disciples rebuked those who brought them. <sup>14</sup>But when Jesus saw, He was much displeased and said to them, Allow the little children to come to Me and forbid them not. For of such is the kingdom of God. <sup>15</sup>Truly I say to you, Whoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter into it. <sup>16</sup>And taking them up in His arms, He put His hands on them and blessed them.

<sup>17</sup>And when He had gone out into the way, one came running up and kneeled to Him, and asked Him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life? <sup>18</sup>And Jesus said to him, Why do you call Me good? No one is good except one, God. <sup>19</sup>You know the commandments: Do not commit adultery, do not kill, do not steal, do not bear false witness, do not defraud, honor your father and your mother. <sup>20</sup>And he answered and said to Him, Teacher, all these I have observed from my youth. <sup>21</sup>Then Jesus, beholding him, loved him and said to him, One thing you lack. Go, sell whatever you have and give it to the poor, and you shall have treasures in Heaven. And come, take up the cross and follow Me. <sup>22</sup>And he was sad at that saying and went away grieved, for he had great possessions.

<sup>23</sup>And Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, How hardly those having riches will enter into the kingdom of God! <sup>24</sup>And the disciples were astonished at His words. But Jesus answering again said to them, Children, how hard it is for those who trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup>It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. <sup>26</sup>And they were astonished beyond measure, saying to themselves, And who can be saved? <sup>27</sup>And Jesus looking on them said, With men it is impossible, but not with God; for with God all things are possible.

<sup>28</sup>Then Peter began to say to Him, Lo, we have left all and have followed You. <sup>29</sup>And Jesus answered and said, Truly I say to you, There is no man that has left house or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or lands for my sake and the gospel's sake, <sup>30</sup>but he shall receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands with persecutions and in the world to come, eternal life. <sup>31</sup>But many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

<sup>32</sup>And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem. And Jesus went before them. And they were amazed, and as they followed, they were afraid. And he took the Twelve again and began to tell them what would happen to Him, <sup>33</sup>saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem. And the Son of man will be betrayed to the chief priests and to the scribes. And they will condemn Him to death and will deliver Him to the nations. <sup>34</sup>And they will mock Him, and will scourge Him, and will spit on Him, and will kill Him. And the third day He shall rise again.

<sup>35</sup>And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came up to Him, saying, Master, we desire that You should do for us whatever we shall ask. <sup>36</sup>And He said to them, What do you desire that I should do for you? <sup>37</sup>They said to Him, Grant to us that we may sit, one on Your right hand and the other on Your left hand, in Your glory. <sup>38</sup>But Jesus said to them, You do not know what you ask. Can you drink of the cup that I drink of, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? <sup>39</sup>And they said to Him, We can. And Jesus said to them, You shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of, and with the baptism that I am baptized with you shall be baptized. <sup>40</sup>But to sit on My right hand and on My left is not Mine to give, but to those for whom it is prepared. <sup>41</sup>And when the ten heard it, they began to be indignant with James and John. <sup>42</sup>But Jesus called them and said to them, You know that they who are accounted rulers over the nations exercise lordship over them. And their great ones exercise authority on them. <sup>43</sup>But it shall not be so among you. But whoever desires to be great among you, let him be your servant. <sup>44</sup>And whoever of you desires to become first, he shall be servant of all. <sup>45</sup>For even the Son of man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.

<sup>46</sup>And they came to Jericho. And as He with His disciples and a large crowd went out of Jericho, blind Bartimeus, the son of Timeus, was sitting by the side of the highway, begging. <sup>47</sup>And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, Jesus, son of David, have mercy on me! <sup>48</sup>And many warned him that he should be quiet, but he cried a great deal more, Son of David, have mercy on me! <sup>49</sup>And Jesus stood still and commanded him to be called. And they called the blind man, saying to him, Be of good comfort; rise up, He is calling you. <sup>50</sup>And casting away his garment, he rose up and came to Jesus. <sup>51</sup>And answering Jesus said to him, What do you desire that I should do to you? The blind man said to Him, My Lord, that I may see again. <sup>52</sup>And Jesus said to him, Go, your faith has made you whole. And instantly he saw again, and he followed Jesus in the way.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>And when they drew near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, He sent out two of His disciples. <sup>2</sup>And He said to them, Go into the village over across from you. And as soon as you have entered into it, you will find a colt tied, on which no one of men has ever sat. Untie it and bring it. <sup>3</sup>And if anyone says to you, Why do you do this? Say that the Lord has need of him, and immediately he will send him here. <sup>4</sup>And they went, and they found the colt tied by the door outside, in a place where two ways met. And they untied him. <sup>5</sup>And certain of those who stood there said to them, What are you doing, untying the colt? <sup>6</sup>And they said to them even as Jesus had commanded. And they let them go. <sup>7</sup>And they brought the colt to Jesus, and they threw their garments on it. And He sat on it. <sup>8</sup>And many spread their garments in the way, and others cut down branches off the trees and scattered them in the way. <sup>9</sup>And those going before, and those following, cried out, saying, Hosanna! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord! <sup>10</sup>Blessed is the kingdom of our father David, who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest! <sup>11</sup>And Jesus entered into Jerusalem and into the temple. And when He had looked around on all things, the hour already being late, He went out to Bethany with the Twelve.

<sup>12</sup>And on the next day, they going out of Bethany, He was hungry. <sup>13</sup>And seeing a fig-tree with leaves afar off, He went to it, if perhaps He might find anything on it. And when He came to it, He found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season of figs. <sup>14</sup>And Jesus answered and said to it, No one shall eat fruit of you forever. And His disciples heard.

<sup>15</sup>And they came to Jerusalem. And entering into the temple, Jesus began to cast out those who bought and sold in the temple. And He overthrew the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold doves. <sup>16</sup>And He would not allow any to carry a vessel through the temple. <sup>17</sup>And He taught, saying to them, Is it not written, "My house shall be called the house of prayer for all nations?" But you have made it a den of thieves. <sup>18</sup>And the scribes and the chief priests heard. And they sought how they might destroy Him. For they feared Him, because all the people were astonished at His teaching. <sup>19</sup>And when evening came, He went out of the city. <sup>20</sup>And passing on early, they saw the fig-tree dried up from the roots. <sup>21</sup>And Peter, remembering, said to Him, Rabbi, behold, the fig tree which You cursed has withered away. <sup>22</sup>And answering Jesus said to them, Have faith in God. <sup>23</sup>For truly I say to you that whoever shall say to this mountain, Be moved and be cast into the sea, and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he said shall occur, he shall have whatever he said. <sup>24</sup>Therefore I say to you, All things, whatever you ask, praying, believe that you shall receive them, and it will be to you. <sup>25</sup>And when you stand praying, if you have anything against anyone, forgive it so that also your Father in Heaven may forgive you your trespasses. <sup>26</sup>But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father in Heaven forgive your trespasses.

<sup>27</sup>And they came again to Jerusalem. And as He was walking in the temple, the chief priests and the scribes and the elders came to Him <sup>28</sup>and said to Him, By what authority do you do these things? And who gave you this authority to do these things? <sup>29</sup>And Jesus answered and said to them, I will also ask of you one thing, and answer Me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. <sup>30</sup>The baptism of John, was it from Heaven, or from men? Answer Me. <sup>31</sup>And they reasoned within themselves, saying, If we shall say, From Heaven, he will say, Why then did you not believe him? <sup>32</sup>But if we shall say, From men, they feared the people, for all held John to be a prophet indeed. <sup>33</sup>And they answered and said to Jesus, We cannot tell. And answering Jesus said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>And He began to speak to them by parables. A man planted a vineyard, and set a fence about it, and dug a winevat, and built a tower, and he let it out to vinedressers, and went away. <sup>2</sup>And at the season he sent a servant to the vinedressers, so that he might receive from the vinedressers the fruit of the vineyard. <sup>3</sup>And taking him, they beat him and sent him away empty. <sup>4</sup>And again he sent to them another servant. And stoning that one, they struck him in the head, and sent him away, insulting him. <sup>5</sup>And again he sent another. And they killed him, and many others, beating some and killing some. <sup>6</sup>Therefore, still having one son, his own beloved, he also sent him to them last of all, saying, They will respect my son. <sup>7</sup>But those vinedressers said among themselves, This is the heir! Come, let us kill him and the inheritance shall be ours. <sup>8</sup>And they took him and killed him and cast him out of the vineyard. <sup>9</sup>Therefore what will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the vinedressers and will give the vineyard to others.

<sup>10</sup>And have you not read this scripture "The Stone which the builders rejected has become the Head of the corner: <sup>11</sup>this was from the Lord, and it is marvelous in our eyes"? <sup>12</sup>And they sought to seize him, but feared the crowd. For they knew that He spoke the parable against them. And leaving Him, they went away. <sup>13</sup>And they sent certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians to Him, to catch Him in His words. <sup>14</sup>And coming, they said to Him, Teacher, we know that you are true and you care about no one. For you do not look to the face of men, but teach the way of God in truth. Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not? <sup>15</sup>Shall we give, or shall we not give? But knowing their hypocrisy, He said to them, Why do you tempt Me? Bring me a denarius so that I may see. <sup>16</sup>And they brought it. And He said to them, Whose image and inscription is this? And they said to Him, Caesar's. <sup>17</sup>And answering Jesus said to them, Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at Him.

<sup>18</sup>Then the Sadducees came to Him, who say there is no resurrection. And they asked Him, saying, <sup>19</sup>Teacher, Moses wrote to us, If a man's brother die and leaves his wife, and leaves no children, his brother should take his wife and raise up seed to his brother. <sup>20</sup>And there were seven brothers. And the first took a wife, and dying left no seed. <sup>21</sup>And the second took her, and died; neither did he leave any seed. And the third likewise. <sup>22</sup>And the seven had her, and left no seed. Last of all the woman also died. <sup>23</sup>In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife will she be? For the seven had her as a wife. <sup>24</sup>And answering Jesus said to them, Do you not err because of this, not knowing Scriptures, nor the power of God? <sup>25</sup>For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but they are as the angels in Heaven. <sup>26</sup>And as regards the dead, that they rise, have you not read in the book of Moses how God spoke to him in the Bush, saying, "I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob?" <sup>27</sup>He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living. Therefore you greatly err.

<sup>28</sup>And coming up one of the scribes heard them reasoning, knowing that He had answered them well, he asked Him, Which is the first commandment of all? <sup>29</sup>And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, "Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord; <sup>30</sup>and you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength." This is the first commandment. <sup>31</sup>And the second is like this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these.<sup>32</sup> And the scribe said to Him, Right, Teacher, according to truth You have spoken, that God is one, and there is no other besides Him.<sup>33</sup> And to love Him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love the neighbor as himself, is more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices.<sup>34</sup> And seeing that he had answered intelligently, Jesus said to him, You are not far from the kingdom of God. And no one dared to question Him any more.

<sup>35</sup> And answering, teaching in the temple, Jesus said, How do the scribes say that Christ is the Son of David? <sup>36</sup> For David himself said by the Holy Spirit: "The LORD said to my Lord, Sit at My right hand until I place Your enemies as Your footstool."<sup>37</sup> David therefore himself calls Him Lord, and why then is He his son? And the great crowd heard Him gladly.

<sup>38</sup> And He said to them in His teaching, Beware of the scribes, who love to walk about in robes, and love greetings in the markets,<sup>39</sup> and the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost places at feasts<sup>40</sup> who devour widows' houses, and as a pretense make long prayers. These shall receive greater condemnation.

<sup>41</sup> And sitting down opposite the treasury, Jesus watched how the people threw copper coins into the treasury. And many rich ones threw in much.<sup>42</sup> And a certain poor widow came, and she threw in two lepta, which is a kodrantes.<sup>43</sup> And He called His disciples and said to them, Truly I say to you that this poor widow has cast in more than all those who have cast into the treasury.<sup>44</sup> For all cast in from their abundance. But she, out of her poverty, has cast in all that she had, all her livelihood.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup> And as He went out of the temple, one of His disciples said to Him, Master, see! What stones and what buildings! <sup>2</sup> And answering Jesus said to him, Do you see these great buildings? There shall not be one stone left on another that shall not be thrown down.<sup>3</sup> And as He sat on the Mount of Olives, across from the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked Him privately, <sup>4</sup> Tell us, When shall all these things be? And what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled? <sup>5</sup> And Jesus answering them began to say, Beware that no one deceive you. <sup>6</sup> For many shall come in My name, saying, I AM, and shall deceive many. <sup>7</sup> And when you shall hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be troubled. For it must happen, but the end shall not be yet. <sup>8</sup> For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there shall be earthquakes in different places, and there shall be famines and troubles. These things are the beginnings of sorrows.

<sup>9</sup> But take heed to yourselves. For they shall deliver you up to councils, and in the synagogues you shall be beaten. And you shall be brought before rulers and kings for My sake, for a testimony against them. <sup>10</sup> And the gospel must first be proclaimed to all nations. <sup>11</sup> But whenever they lead you away and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what you should speak or think. But speak whatever shall be given to you in that hour. For it is not you who speaks, but the Holy Spirit. <sup>12</sup> And a brother will betray a brother to death, and a father his son. And children will rise up against their parents and will cause them to be put to death. <sup>13</sup> And you will be hated by all for My name's sake, but he enduring to the end, that one will be saved.

<sup>14</sup> But when you see the abomination of desolation, that spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not (let him who reads understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. <sup>15</sup> And let him who is on the housetop not go down into the house, nor enter to take anything out of his house. <sup>16</sup>And let him who is in the field not turn back again in order to take up his garment. <sup>17</sup>But woe to those with babe in womb, and to those who give suck in those days! <sup>18</sup>And pray that your flight is not in the winter. <sup>19</sup>For in those days shall be affliction, such as has not been from the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never shall be. <sup>20</sup>And unless the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh would be saved. But for the elect's sake, whom He has chosen, He has shortened the days. <sup>21</sup>And then if anyone shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ! Or, lo, there! Do not believe him. <sup>22</sup>For false Christs and false prophets will arise and will show signs and wonders in order to seduce, if possible, even the elect. <sup>23</sup>But take heed; behold, I have told you all things beforehand.

<sup>24</sup>But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, <sup>25</sup>and the stars of Heaven shall fall, and the powers in the heavens shall be shaken. <sup>26</sup>And then they will see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory. <sup>27</sup>And then He shall send His angels and shall gather together His elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of Heaven. <sup>28</sup>And learn the parable of the fig-tree: when her branch is still tender and puts out leaves, you know that summer is near. <sup>29</sup>So you also, when you see these things happening, you know that it is near, at the doors. <sup>30</sup>Truly I say to you that this generation shall not pass away until all these things occur. <sup>31</sup>Heaven and earth shall pass away, but My words shall not pass away. <sup>32</sup>But of that day and hour no one knows, no, not the angels in Heaven, nor the Son, but the Father. <sup>33</sup>Take heed, watch and pray, for you do not know when the time is. <sup>34</sup>As a man going away, leaving his house, and giving authority to his servants, and each man's work to him, and commanded the doorkeeper to watch. <sup>35</sup>Then you watch, for you do not know when the lord of the house is coming, at evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or early; <sup>36</sup>lest he come suddenly and find you sleeping. <sup>37</sup>And what I say to you, I say to all. Watch.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>And after two days it was the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread. And the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take Him by craft and kill Him. <sup>2</sup>But they said, Not during the Feast, lest there be an uproar of the people.

<sup>3</sup>And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as He reclined, a woman came with an alabaster vial of pure, costly ointment of spikenard. And she broke the vial and poured it on His head. <sup>4</sup>And some were indignant to themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made? <sup>5</sup>For it might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii, and be given to the poor. And they were incensed with her. <sup>6</sup>And Jesus said, Let her alone! Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work towards Me. <sup>7</sup>For you have the poor with you always, and whenever you desire you may do them good. But you do not have Me always. <sup>8</sup>She has done what she could. She has come beforehand to anoint My body for the burying. <sup>9</sup>Truly I say to you, Wherever this gospel shall be proclaimed in all the world, this also that she has done will be spoken of for a memorial of her.

<sup>10</sup>And Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went to the chief priests in order to betray Him to them. <sup>11</sup>And when they heard, they were glad and promised to give him silver. And he sought how he might conveniently betray Him.

<sup>12</sup>And the first day of unleavened loaves, when they killed the passover, His disciples said to Him, Where do You desire that we go and prepare that You may eat the passover? <sup>13</sup>And He sent out two of His disciples and said to them, Go into the city, and there you shall meet a man bearing a pitcher of water. Follow him. <sup>14</sup>And wherever he may go in, you say to the housemaster, The Teacher says, Where is the guest room where I shall eat the passover with My disciples? <sup>15</sup>And he will show you a large upper room, furnished and prepared. Prepare there for us. <sup>16</sup>And His disciples went out and came into the city and found it as He had said to them. And they made the passover ready.

<sup>17</sup>And in the evening He came with the Twelve. <sup>18</sup>And as they reclined and ate, Jesus said, Truly I say to you, One of you will betray Me, the one eating with Me. <sup>19</sup>And they began to be grieved, and to say to Him one by one, Not at all I, is it? And another said, Not at all I, is it? <sup>20</sup>And answering He said to them, It is one of the Twelve, the one dipping with Me in the dish. <sup>21</sup>The Son of man indeed goes, as it has been written of Him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! It were good for that man if he had never been born.

<sup>22</sup>And as they ate, Jesus took a loaf and blessed and broke it, and He gave to them and said, Take, eat; this is My body. <sup>23</sup>And He took the cup. And when He had given thanks, He gave it to them. And they all drank of it. <sup>24</sup>And He said to them, This is My blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many. <sup>25</sup>Truly I say to you, I will no more drink of the fruit of the vine until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God. <sup>26</sup>And when they had sung a hymn, they went out into the Mount of Olives.

<sup>27</sup>And Jesus said to them, All of you will be offended because of Me this night. For it is written, "I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered." <sup>28</sup>But after I have risen, I will go before you into Galilee. <sup>29</sup>But Peter said to Him, Although all shall be offended, yet I will not. <sup>30</sup>And Jesus said to him, Truly I say to you that today, in this night, before the cock crows twice, you shall deny Me three times. <sup>31</sup>But he spoke the more fervently, If I should die with You, I will not deny You in any way. Also they all said likewise.

<sup>32</sup>And they came to a place named Gethsemane. And He said to His disciples, Sit here while I pray. <sup>33</sup>And He took with Him Peter and James and John. And He began to be greatly amazed, and to be very heavy. <sup>34</sup>And He said to them, My soul is exceedingly sorrowful to death. Stay here and watch. <sup>35</sup>And He went forward a little and fell on the ground. And He prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from Him. <sup>36</sup>And He said, Abba, Father, all things are possible to You. Take away this cup from Me. Yet not what I will, but what You will. <sup>37</sup>And He came and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, Simon, do you sleep? Could you not watch one hour? <sup>38</sup>Watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation. Truly the spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak. <sup>39</sup>And again He went away and prayed and spoke the same words. <sup>40</sup>And when He returned, He found them asleep again (for their eyes were heavy), neither did they know what to answer Him. <sup>41</sup>And He came the third time and said to them, Sleep on now and take your rest. It is enough, the hour has come. Behold, the Son of man has been betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>42</sup>Rise up, let us go. Lo, he who betrays Me is at hand.

<sup>43</sup>And immediately, while He still spoke, Judas, one of the Twelve, came, and with him a great crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders. <sup>44</sup>And he who betrayed Him had given them a sign, saying, Whomever I shall kiss, it is He. Take Him and lead Him away safely.

<sup>45</sup>And coming, at once drawing near to Him, he said, Rabbi, Rabbi! And he ardently kissed Him. <sup>46</sup>And they laid their hands on Him and seized Him. <sup>47</sup>And one of those standing by, drawing a sword, struck a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear. <sup>48</sup>And answering Jesus said to them, Have you come out with swords and clubs, as against a robber, to take Me? <sup>49</sup>I was with you daily in the temple teaching, and you did not seize Me. But the Scriptures must be fulfilled.

<sup>53</sup>And they led Jesus away to the high priest. And with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes. <sup>54</sup>And Peter followed Him from a distance to the inside of the court of the high priest. And he sat with the servants and warmed himself at the fire. <sup>55</sup>And the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jesus, to put Him to death. And they found none. <sup>56</sup>For many bore false witness against Him, but their witness did not agree together. <sup>57</sup>And certain ones rose up and bore false witness against Him, saying, <sup>58</sup>We heard Him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands. <sup>59</sup>But neither did their witness agree together.

<sup>60</sup>And standing up in the middle, the high priest questioned Jesus, saying, Do you answer nothing? What is it which these witness against you? <sup>61</sup>But He was silent and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked Him, saying to Him, Are you the Christ, the son of the Blessed? <sup>62</sup>And Jesus said, I AM! And you will see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power and coming in the clouds of the heavens. <sup>63</sup>Then the high priest tore his clothes and said, What further need do we have of witnesses? <sup>64</sup>You have heard the blasphemy; what do you think? And they all condemned Him to be guilty of death. <sup>65</sup>And some began to spit on Him, and to cover His face and to beat Him, and to say to Him, Prophecy! And the under-officers struck Him with slaps.

<sup>66</sup>And as Peter was below in the palace, one of the maidservants of the high priest came. <sup>67</sup>And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked on him and said, And you also were with Jesus of Nazareth. <sup>68</sup>But he denied, saying, I do not know nor even understand what you are saying. And he went out into the forecourt. And a cock crowed. <sup>69</sup>And a maidservant saw him again and began to say to those who stood by, This is one of them. <sup>70</sup>And he denied it again. And a little after, those who stood by said again to Peter, Surely you are one of them, for you are a Galilean, and your speech agrees. <sup>71</sup>But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I do not know this man of whom you speak. <sup>72</sup>And the second time a cock crowed. And Peter remembered the word that Jesus said to him, Before a cock crows twice, you will deny Me three times. And thinking on it, he wept.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>And immediately in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council. And they bound Jesus and carried Him away and delivered Him to Pilate. <sup>2</sup>And Pilate asked Him, Are you the king of the Jews? And answering He said to him, You say it. <sup>3</sup>And the chief priests accused Him of many things, but He answered nothing. <sup>4</sup>And Pilate asked Him again, saying, Do you answer nothing? Behold how many things they witness against you? <sup>5</sup>But Jesus still answered nothing, so that Pilate marvelled. <sup>6</sup>And at that feast he released to them one prisoner, whomever they desired. <sup>7</sup>And there was one named Barabbas, bound with those who had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection. <sup>8</sup>And the crowd, crying aloud, began to beg him to do as he had always done to them. <sup>9</sup>But Pilate answered them, saying, Do you desire that I release to you the King of the Jews? <sup>10</sup>For he knew that the chief priests had delivered Him because of envy. <sup>11</sup>But the chief priests moved the people that he should rather release Barabbas to them. <sup>12</sup>And Pilate answered and said again to them, What then do you desire that I should do to him whom you call the King of the Jews? <sup>13</sup>And they cried out again, Crucify him!

<sup>14</sup>Then Pilate said to them, Why? What evil has he done? And they much more cried out, Crucify him! <sup>15</sup>And deciding to do the easiest, Pilate released Barabbas to them, and having scourged Him, delivered up Jesus to be crucified.

<sup>16</sup>And the soldiers led Him away inside the court, which is the praetorium. And they called together the whole band. <sup>17</sup>And they clothed Him with purple and plaited a crown of thorns and put it around His head. <sup>18</sup>And they began to salute Him, Hail, King of the Jews! <sup>19</sup>And they struck Him on the head with a reed, and spat on Him, and placing the knees, they bowed to Him. <sup>20</sup>And when they had mocked Him, they took the purple off Him and put His own clothes on Him and led Him out to crucify Him. <sup>21</sup>And they made one who was passing by, Simon a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear His cross. <sup>22</sup>And they brought Him to Golgotha Place (which translated is, Place of a Skull). <sup>23</sup>And they gave Him wine mixed with myrrh to drink. But He did not take it. <sup>24</sup>And when they had crucified Him, they divided His garments, casting lots on them, as, to what each should take. <sup>25</sup>And it was the third hour, and they crucified Him. <sup>26</sup>And the inscription of His accusation was written over Him, THE KING OF THE JEWS. <sup>27</sup>And with Him they crucified two thieves, the one off the right, and one off the left. <sup>28</sup>And the Scripture was fulfilled which said, "And he was numbered with the transgressors." <sup>29</sup>And those who passed by railed on Him, wagging their heads and saying, Aha! You razing the temple and building it in three days, <sup>30</sup>save yourself and come down from the cross! <sup>31</sup>And also the chief priests mocking, with the scribes, said to one another, He saved others but he cannot save himself. <sup>32</sup>Let Christ the King of Israel now come down from the cross, so that we may see and believe. And they who were crucified with Him insulted Him.

<sup>33</sup>And it being the sixth hour, darkness came over all the land until the ninth hour. <sup>34</sup>And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? (which being translated is, My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me? <sup>35</sup>And hearing, some of those standing by said, Behold, he calls Elijah. <sup>36</sup>And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar and put it on a reed and gave it to him to drink. But they said, Let alone, let us see if Elijah comes to take him down. <sup>37</sup>And letting out a loud voice, Jesus expired. <sup>38</sup>And the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. <sup>39</sup>And when the centurion, who stood across from him, saw that He cried out so, and expired, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God. <sup>40</sup>And also women were watching from a distance, among whom also was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less, and of Joses, and Salome, <sup>41</sup>(who also, when He was in Galilee, followed Him and ministered to Him), and many other women who came up with Him to Jerusalem.

<sup>42</sup>And it, becoming evening already, since it was the Preparation, that is, the day before sabbath, <sup>43</sup>Joseph of Arimathea, an honorable councillor, who also waited for the kingdom of God, came and went in boldly to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. <sup>44</sup>And Pilate wondered if He were already dead. And calling the centurion, he asked him whether He had been dead very long. <sup>45</sup>And when he knew it from the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph. <sup>46</sup>And he bought a linen cloth, and took Him down, and wrapped Him in the linen, and laid Him in a tomb which was cut out of a rock, and rolled a stone to the door of the tomb. <sup>47</sup>And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses saw where He was laid.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene and Mary, the mother of James and Salome, had bought sweet spices so that they might come and anoint Him. <sup>2</sup>And very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they came upon the tomb, the sun having risen. <sup>3</sup>And they said among themselves, Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us? <sup>4</sup>And looking up, they saw that the stone had been rolled back, for it was very great. <sup>5</sup>And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right, clothed in a long white garment. And they were frightened. <sup>6</sup>And he said to them, Do not be frightened. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He is risen, He is not here. Behold the place where they laid Him. <sup>7</sup>But go tell His disciples and Peter that He goes before you into Galilee. There you will see Him, as He said to you. <sup>8</sup>And they went out quickly and fled from the tomb. For they trembled and were amazed. Neither did they say anything to anyone, for they were afraid.

<sup>9</sup>And when Jesus had risen early the first day of the week, He appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom He had cast seven demons. <sup>10</sup>She went and told those who had been with Him, as they mourned and wept. <sup>11</sup>And those hearing that He lives, and was seen by her, they did not believe. <sup>12</sup>After that He appeared in another form to two of them, walking and going into the country. <sup>13</sup>And they went and told it to the rest. Neither did they believe those.

<sup>14</sup>Afterward He appeared to the Eleven as they reclined. And He reproached their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who had seen Him after He had risen. <sup>15</sup>And He said to them, Go into all the world, proclaim the gospel to all the creation. <sup>16</sup>He who believes and is baptized will be saved, but he who does not believe will be condemned. <sup>17</sup>And signs will follow to those believing these things: in My name they will cast out demons; they will speak new tongues; <sup>18</sup>they will take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it will not hurt them. They will lay hands on the sick, and they will be well.

<sup>19</sup>Then indeed, after speaking to them, the Lord was taken up into Heaven, and sat on the right hand of God. <sup>20</sup>And going out, they proclaimed everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the word by signs following. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>Since many took in hand to draw up an account concerning the matters which have been borne out among us, <sup>2</sup>even as those who from the beginning delivered to us, becoming eye-witnesses and ministers of the word, <sup>3</sup>it seemed good to me also, having traced out all things accurately from the very first, to write to you in order, most excellent Theophilus, <sup>4</sup>so that you might know the certainty of those things in which you have been instructed.

<sup>5</sup>In the days of Herod, the king of Judea, there was a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abijah. And his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. <sup>6</sup>And they were both righteous before God, walking blameless in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord. <sup>7</sup>And they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren. And both were advanced in their days. <sup>8</sup>And it happened in his serving in the order of his course, before God, <sup>9</sup>according to the custom of the priests, it was his lot to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord. <sup>10</sup>And all the multitude of the people were praying outside at the time of incense. <sup>11</sup>And an angel of the Lord appeared to him as he was standing on the right of the altar of incense. <sup>12</sup>And seeing this, Zacharias was troubled, and fear fell on him. <sup>13</sup>But the angel said to him, Do not fear, Zacharias. For your prayer is heard, and your wife Elizabeth shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name John. <sup>14</sup>And you shall have joy and gladness, and many shall rejoice at his birth. <sup>15</sup>For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall neither drink wine nor strong drink. And he shall be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. <sup>16</sup>And he shall turn many of the sons of Israel to the Lord their God. <sup>17</sup>And he shall go before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord. <sup>18</sup>And Zacharias said to the angel, By what shall I know this? For I am an old man, and my wife is advanced in her days.

<sup>19</sup>And answering, the angel said to him, I am Gabriel, who stands before God. And I am sent to speak to you and to show you these glad tidings. <sup>20</sup>And behold, you shall be silent and not able to speak until the day that these things shall be performed, because you did not believe my words which shall be fulfilled in their time.

<sup>21</sup>And the people waited for Zacharias and marvelled that he stayed so long in the temple. <sup>22</sup>And when he came out, he could not speak to them. And they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple. And he was making signs to them, and remained speechless. <sup>23</sup>And as soon as the days of his service were accomplished, he departed to his own house. <sup>24</sup>And after those days his wife Elizabeth conceived and hid herself five months, saying, <sup>25</sup>So the Lord has dealt with me in the days in which He looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

<sup>26</sup>And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God into a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, <sup>27</sup>to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. And the virgin's name was Mary. <sup>28</sup>And the angel came in to her and said, Hail, one receiving grace, the Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women. <sup>29</sup>And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and considered what kind of greeting this might be. <sup>30</sup>And the angel said to her, Do not fear, Mary, for you have found favor with God. <sup>31</sup>And behold! You shall conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall call His name JESUS. <sup>32</sup>He shall be great and shall be called the Son of the Highest. And the Lord God shall give Him the throne of His father David.<sup>33</sup> And He shall reign over the house of David forever, and of His kingdom there shall be no end.<sup>34</sup> Then Mary said to the angel, How shall this be, since I do not know a man? <sup>35</sup> And the angel answered and said to her, The Holy Spirit shall come on you, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow you. Therefore also that Holy One which will be born of you shall be called the Son of God. <sup>36</sup> And behold, your cousin Elizabeth also conceived a son in her old age. And this is the sixth month with her who was called barren. <sup>37</sup> For with God nothing shall be impossible. <sup>38</sup> And Mary said, Behold the servant of the Lord. Let it be to me according to your word. And the angel departed from her.

<sup>39</sup> And Mary arose in those days and went into the hill country with haste, to a city of Judah. <sup>40</sup> And she entered into the house of Zacharias and greeted Elizabeth. <sup>41</sup> And it happened as Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit, <sup>42</sup> and cried out with a loud voice and said, Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. <sup>43</sup> And from where is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? <sup>44</sup> For lo, as the voice of your greeting sounded in my ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy. <sup>45</sup> And blessed is she who believes, for there shall be a perfecting of those things which were told her from the Lord.

<sup>46</sup> And Mary said, My soul magnifies the Lord, <sup>47</sup> and my spirit has rejoiced in God my Saviour. <sup>48</sup> For He looked on the humiliation of His bonds slave. For, behold, from now on all generations shall count me blessed. <sup>49</sup> For the Mighty One has done great things for me; and holy is His name. <sup>50</sup> And His mercy is on those who fear Him from generation to generation. <sup>51</sup> He has worked power with His arm, He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their heart. <sup>52</sup> He has put down rulers from their seats and exalted the lowly, <sup>53</sup> He has filled the hungry with good things, and He has sent away the rich empty. <sup>54</sup> He has helped His servant Israel, in remembrance of His mercy, <sup>55</sup> as He spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and to his seed forever. <sup>56</sup> And Mary stayed with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

<sup>57</sup> And the time was fulfilled to Elizabeth for her to bear. And she bore a son. <sup>58</sup> And her neighbors and her kinfolk heard how the Lord had shown great mercy on her, and they rejoiced with her. <sup>59</sup> And it happened that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and were calling it Zacharias, after his father's name. <sup>60</sup> And his mother answered and said, No, but he shall be called John. <sup>61</sup> And they said to her, There is none of your kindred that is called by this name. <sup>62</sup> And they made signs to his father as to how he would have him called. <sup>63</sup> And he asked for a writing tablet and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they all marvelled. <sup>64</sup> And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosened. And he spoke and praised God. <sup>65</sup> And fear came on all who lived all around them. And all these things were talked about throughout all the hill country of Judea. <sup>66</sup> And all those who heard laid them up in their hearts, saying, What kind of child shall this be! And the hand of the Lord was with him.

<sup>67</sup> And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying, <sup>68</sup> Blessed is the Lord, the God of Israel, for He has visited and redeemed His people <sup>69</sup> and has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of His servant David, <sup>70</sup> as He spoke by the mouth of His holy prophets from eternity; <sup>71</sup> that we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us, <sup>72</sup> to perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember His holy covenant — <sup>73</sup> the oath which He swore to our father Abraham, <sup>74</sup> that He would grant to us, that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, might serve Him without fear <sup>75</sup>in holiness and righteousness before Him all the days of our life. <sup>76</sup>And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Highest, for you shall go before the face of the Lord to prepare His ways, <sup>77</sup>to give knowledge of salvation to His people by the remission of their sins, <sup>78</sup>through the tender mercy of our God; by which the Dayspring from on high has visited us, <sup>79</sup>to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

<sup>80</sup>And the child grew and became strong in spirit and was in the deserts until the day of his showing to Israel.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And it happened in those days that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be taxed. <sup>2</sup>(This taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.) <sup>3</sup>And all went to be registered, each to his own city. <sup>4</sup>And Joseph also went up from Galilee to be taxed (out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to the city of David which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family line of David). <sup>5</sup>And he took Mary his betrothed wife, being with child. <sup>6</sup>And while they were there, the days for her deliverance were fulfilled. <sup>7</sup>And she brought forth her son, the Firstborn, and wrapped Him, and laid Him in a manger — because there was no room for them in the inn.

<sup>8</sup>And in the same country there were shepherds living in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. <sup>9</sup>And lo, the angel of the Lord came on them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them. And they were grievously afraid. <sup>10</sup>And the angel said to them, Do not fear. For behold, I give to you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. <sup>11</sup>For to you is born today, in the city of David, a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord. <sup>12</sup>And this is a sign to you. You will find the babe wrapped, lying in a manger. <sup>13</sup>And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, <sup>14</sup>Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

<sup>15</sup>And it happened as the angels departed from them into Heaven, the shepherds said to one another, Indeed, let us go to Bethlehem and see this thing which has happened, which the Lord made known to us. <sup>16</sup>And hurrying they came and sought out both Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in the manger. <sup>17</sup>And seeing, they publicly told about the word spoken to them concerning this Child. <sup>18</sup>And all those who heard marvelled about the things spoken to them by the shepherds. <sup>19</sup>But Mary kept all these sayings, meditating in her heart. <sup>20</sup>And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as was spoken to them.

<sup>21</sup>And when eight days were fulfilled to circumcise the child, His name was called JESUS, the name called by the angel before He was conceived in the womb.

<sup>22</sup>And when the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were fulfilled, they brought Him to Jerusalem, to present Him to the Lord <sup>23</sup>(as it is written in the Law of the Lord, Every male that opens the womb shall be called holy to the Lord) <sup>24</sup>and to offer a sacrifice according to that said in the Law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons.

<sup>25</sup>And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. And this man was just and devout, waiting for the Consolation of Israel. And the Holy Spirit was on him. <sup>26</sup>And it happened to him, being instructed by the Holy Spirit, he was not to see death before he would see the Christ of the Lord. <sup>27</sup>And he came by the Spirit into the temple. And as the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do according to the custom of the law concerning Him, <sup>28</sup>even he received Him in his arms and blessed God, and said, <sup>29</sup>Lord, now You will let Your servant depart in peace, according to Your word. <sup>30</sup>For my eyes have seen Your Salvation <sup>31</sup>which

You have prepared before the face of all the peoples, <sup>32</sup>a light for revelation to the nations, and the glory of Your people Israel.

<sup>33</sup>And Joseph and His mother marvelled at those things which were spoken by him. <sup>34</sup>And Simeon blessed them and said to Mary His mother, Behold, this One is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel, and for a sign which shall be spoken against <sup>35</sup>(yea, a sword shall pierce through your own soul also), so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

<sup>36</sup>And there was a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was advanced in many days, and had lived with a husband seven years from her virginity. <sup>37</sup>And she was a widow eighty-four years, who did not depart from the temple, serving God with fastings and prayers night and day. <sup>38</sup>And she coming in at that instant gave thanks to the Lord and spoke of Him to all those in Jerusalem eagerly expecting redemption. <sup>39</sup>And when they had finished all things according to the Law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth. <sup>40</sup>And the Child grew and became strong in spirit, filled with wisdom. And the grace of God was on Him.

<sup>41</sup>And His parents went to Jerusalem every year at the Feast of the Passover. <sup>42</sup>And when He was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the Feast. <sup>43</sup>And fulfilling the days, as they returned, the boy Jesus stayed in Jerusalem. And Joseph and His mother did not know. <sup>44</sup>But they, supposing Him to have been in the company, went a day's journey. And they looked for Him among the kinsfolk and acquaintances. <sup>45</sup>And when they did not find Him, they turned back to Jerusalem, seeking Him.

<sup>46</sup>And it happened that after three days they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both hearing them and questioning them. <sup>47</sup>And all who heard Him were astonished at His understanding and answers. <sup>48</sup>And seeing Him, they were amazed. And His mother said to Him, Child, why have you done so to us? Behold, your father and I have looked for you, greatly distressed. <sup>49</sup>And He said to them, Why did you look for Me? Do you not know that I must be about My Father's business? <sup>50</sup>And they did not understand the word which He spoke to them. <sup>51</sup>And He went with them and came to Nazareth, and He was subject to them. But His mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

<sup>52</sup>And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And in the fifteenth year of the government of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and the Trachonitus country, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene — <sup>2</sup>Annas and Caiaphas being the high priests — the word of God came to John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness. <sup>3</sup>And he came into all the country around Jordan, proclaiming the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins, <sup>4</sup>as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying, "The voice of one crying in the wilderness, prepare the way of the Lord, make His paths straight. <sup>5</sup>Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low, and the crooked shall be straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth. <sup>6</sup>And all flesh shall see the salvation of God."

<sup>7</sup>Then he said to the crowd that came forth to be baptized by him, O generation of vipers! Who has warned you to flee from the wrath to come? <sup>8</sup>Therefore bring forth fruits worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say within yourselves, We have Abraham for our father. For I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones. <sup>9</sup>And now also the axe is laid to the root of the trees. Therefore every tree which does not bring forth good fruit is cut down and cast into the fire. <sup>10</sup>And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then? <sup>11</sup>He answered and said to them, He who has two coats, let him give to him who has none. And he who has food, let him do likewise.

<sup>12</sup>And tax-collectors also came to be baptized and said to him, Teacher, what shall we do? <sup>13</sup>And he said to them, Continue to do no more than that commanded to you. <sup>14</sup>And the soldiers also asked of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said to them, Do not oppress anyone, nor accuse any falsely. And be content with your wages.

<sup>15</sup>And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts concerning John, lest perhaps he was the Christ or not, <sup>16</sup>John answered all, saying, I indeed baptize you with water, but He who is mightier than I comes, the thong of whose sandals I am not worthy to loose. He shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire, <sup>17</sup>whose fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly purge His floor and will gather the wheat into His storehouse. But He will burn the chaff with unquenchable fire.

<sup>18</sup>And then indeed exhorting many things, he proclaimed the gospel to the people. <sup>19</sup>But Herod the tetrarch (being reproved by him on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done) <sup>20</sup>added still this above all, that he even shut John up in prison.

<sup>21</sup>And it happened in the baptizing of all the people, Jesus also being baptized, and praying, and the heaven was opened. <sup>22</sup>And the Holy Spirit came down in a bodily shape, like a dove on Him. And a voice came from Heaven, which said, You are My Son, the Beloved; I am delighted in You.

<sup>23</sup>And Jesus Himself was beginning to be about thirty years of age, being (as was supposed) the son of Joseph, the son of Heli, <sup>24</sup>the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Janna, the son of Joseph, <sup>25</sup>the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai, <sup>26</sup>the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semei, the son of Joseph, the son of Juda, <sup>27</sup>the son of Joanna, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri, <sup>28</sup>the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmodam, the son of Er, <sup>29</sup>the son of Joses, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorum, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, <sup>30</sup>the son of Simeon, the son of Juda, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonan, the son of Eliakim, <sup>31</sup>the son of Melea, the son of Menan, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David, <sup>32</sup>the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salma, the son of Nahshon, <sup>33</sup>the son of Amminadab, the son of Ram, the son of Hezron, the son of Pharez, the son of Judah, <sup>34</sup>the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Terah, the son of Nahor, <sup>35</sup>the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Shelah, <sup>36</sup>the son of Cainan, the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech, <sup>37</sup>the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalaleel, the son of Cainan, <sup>38</sup>the son of Enos, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>And Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness <sup>2</sup>forty days, being tempted by the Devil. And in those days He ate nothing. And they being ended, He afterward was hungry. <sup>3</sup>And the Devil said to Him, If you are the Son of God, speak to this stone that it might become bread. <sup>4</sup>And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written that "man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God." <sup>5</sup>And the Devil, leading Him up into a high mountain, showed Him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. <sup>6</sup>And the Devil said to Him, All this power I will give you, and the glory of them; for it has been delivered to me. And I give it to whomever I will. <sup>7</sup>Therefore if you will worship me, all shall be yours. <sup>8</sup>And Jesus answered and said to him, Get behind me, Satan! For it is written, "You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only shall you serve."

<sup>9</sup>And he brought Him to Jerusalem and sat Him on a pinnacle of the temple and said to Him, If you are the Son of God, cast yourself down from here. <sup>10</sup>For it is written, "He shall give His angels charge over You, to keep You; <sup>11</sup>and in their hands they shall bear You up, lest at any time You dash Your foot against a stone." <sup>12</sup>And Jesus answering said to him, It has been said, "You shall not tempt the Lord your God." <sup>13</sup>And when the Devil had ended every temptation, he departed from Him for a time.

<sup>14</sup>And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee. And a report went out throughout all the neighborhood concerning Him. <sup>15</sup>And He taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

<sup>16</sup>And He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up. And, as His custom was, He went in to the synagogue on the Sabbath day and stood up to read. <sup>17</sup>And the book of the prophet Isaiah was handed to Him. And unrolling the book, He found the place where it was written, <sup>18</sup>"The Spirit of the Lord is on Me, because He has anointed Me to proclaim the Gospel to the poor. He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim deliverance to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are bruised, <sup>19</sup>to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord." <sup>20</sup>And rolling up the book, returning it to the attendant, He sat down. And the eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on Him. <sup>21</sup>And He began to say to them, Today this Scripture is fulfilled in your ears. <sup>22</sup>And all bore witness to Him and wondered at the gracious words which came out of His mouth. And they said, Is this not Joseph's son?

<sup>23</sup>And He said to them, You will surely say this proverb to Me, Physician, heal yourself. Whatever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in your native-place. <sup>24</sup>And He said, Truly I say to you, No prophet is accepted in his native-place. <sup>25</sup>But I tell you truly, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land. <sup>26</sup>But Elijah was not sent to any of them, except to Sarepta, a city of Sidon, to a woman, a widow. <sup>27</sup>And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, and none of them was cleansed except Naaman the Syrian.

<sup>28</sup>And hearing these things in the synagogue, all were filled with wrath. <sup>29</sup>And they rose up and thrust Him outside city, and led Him up to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, in order to throw Him down. <sup>30</sup>But passing through the midst of them, He went away.

<sup>31</sup>And He came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath days. <sup>32</sup>And they were astonished at His teaching, for His word was with authority. <sup>33</sup>And in the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon and cried out with a loud voice, <sup>34</sup>saying, Let us alone! What is to us and to You, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know You, who You are, the Holy One of God. <sup>35</sup>And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Be quiet and come out of him! And when the demon had thrown him into the midst, he came out of him, not harming him. <sup>36</sup>And they were all amazed and spoke among themselves, saying, What a word is this! For with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come out. <sup>37</sup>And a report about Him went out into every place of the neighborhood.

<sup>38</sup>And rising up from the synagogue, He entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was being seized with a great fever. And they asked Him for her. <sup>39</sup>And standing over her, He rebuked the fever. And it left her. And immediately she arose and served them.

<sup>40</sup>And the sun sinking, all, as many as had sick ones with different kinds of diseases brought them to Him. And laying hands on each of them, He healed them. <sup>41</sup>And also demons came out of many, crying out and saying, You are the Christ, the Son of God! And rebuking them, He did not allow them to speak; for they knew Him to be the Christ.

<sup>42</sup>And day coming on, going out, He went into a desert place. And the crowds looked for Him and came to Him, and held Him fast, not to pass away from them.

<sup>43</sup>And He said to them, I must proclaim the gospel, the kingdom of God, to other cities, because I was sent on this mission, <sup>44</sup>And He proclaimed in the synagogues of Galilee.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that the crowd pressed on Him to hear the word of God, He stood by the lake of Gennesaret. <sup>2</sup>And He saw two boats standing by the lake. But the fishermen had left them and were washing their nets. <sup>3</sup>And He entered into one of the boats, which was Simon's, He asked him to thrust out a little from the land. And He sat down and taught the people out of the boat. <sup>4</sup>And as He stopped speaking, He said to Simon, Launch out into the deep and let your nets down for a haul. <sup>5</sup>And answering, Simon said to Him, Master, we have toiled all the night and have taken nothing. Yet at Your word I will let down the net. <sup>6</sup>And doing this, they enclosed a great multitude of fish. And their net was being torn. <sup>7</sup>And they signaled the partners, those in the other boat, that they should come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they were sinking. <sup>8</sup>And seeing, Simon Peter fell at the knees of Jesus, saying, Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, Lord. <sup>9</sup>For he and all who were with him were astonished at the haul of fish which they had taken, <sup>10</sup>and so also were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, Do not fear, from now on you will be taking men. <sup>11</sup>And bringing their boats onto land, forsaking all things, they followed Him.

<sup>12</sup>And it happened, as He was in a certain city, behold, a man full of leprosy! And seeing Jesus, he fell on his face and begged Him, saying, Lord, if You will, You can cleanse me. <sup>13</sup>And stretching out the hand, He touched him, saying, I will! Be clean! And immediately the leprosy departed from him. <sup>14</sup>And He commanded Him, Tell no one, but go and show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing, as Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.

<sup>15</sup>But the word about Him spread even more. And great crowds were coming to hear, and to be healed from their infirmities by Him. <sup>16</sup>But He was drawing back in the wilderness, and praying.

<sup>17</sup>And it happened on one of the days, even He was teaching. And Pharisees and teachers of the Law were sitting by, who had come out of every village of Galilee and Judea and Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was there, for the curing of them. <sup>18</sup>And behold, men carrying, on a cot, a man who was paralyzed. And they sought to bring him in and to lay him before Him. <sup>19</sup>And not finding a way by which they might bring him in through the crowd, going up on the housetop, they let him down through the tiles with his cot into the midst, before Jesus. <sup>20</sup>And seeing their faith, He said to him, Man, your sins are forgiven you. <sup>21</sup>And the scribes and Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, except God alone? <sup>22</sup>But knowing their thoughts, answering, Jesus said to them, Why do you reason in your hearts? <sup>23</sup>Which is easier, to say, Your sins are forgiven you; or to say, Rise up and walk?

<sup>24</sup>But so that you may know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins, He said to the paralytic, I say to you, Arise, and take up your cot and go to your house. <sup>25</sup>And immediately he rose up before them and took up that on which he lay. And he departed to his own house, glorifying God. <sup>26</sup>And they were all amazed, and they glorified God and were filled with fear, saying, We saw wonderful things today.

<sup>27</sup>And after these things He went out and saw a tax-collector named Levi, sitting at the tax-office. And He said to him, Follow Me. <sup>28</sup>And leaving all, he rose up and followed Him. <sup>29</sup>And Levi made a great feast in his own house for Him. And there was a great company of tax-collectors and of others who were reclining with them. <sup>30</sup>But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against His disciples, saying, Why do you eat and drink with tax-collectors and sinners? <sup>31</sup>And Jesus answered and said to them, Those who are sound do not need a physician, but those who are sick. <sup>32</sup>I did not come to call the righteous to repentance, but sinners.

<sup>33</sup>And they said to Him, Why do John's disciples fast often and make prayers, and also the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink? <sup>34</sup>But He said to them, Can you make the sons of the bridechamber fast while the bridegroom is with them? <sup>35</sup>But the days will come when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then they shall fast in those days.

<sup>36</sup>And He also spoke a parable to them: No one puts a piece of a new garment on an old garment. Otherwise, both the new will tear, and the old does not match the piece from the new. <sup>37</sup>And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. Else the new wine will burst the wineskins and be spilled, and the wineskin will perish. <sup>38</sup>But new wine must be put into new wineskins, and both are preserved together. <sup>39</sup>Also no one having drunk old wine immediately desires new, for he says, The old is better.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>And it happened on the second chief sabbath, He went through the grain fields. And His disciples plucked the ears of grain and ate, rubbing them in their hands. <sup>2</sup>And certain of the Pharisees said to them, Why do you do that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days? <sup>3</sup>And answering, Jesus said to them, Have you not read this, what David did when he was hungry, and those who were with him; <sup>4</sup>how he went into the house of God and took the showbread, and ate (and also gave to those who were with him) which it is not lawful to eat, except for the priests alone? <sup>5</sup>And He said to them, The Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

<sup>6</sup>And it happened, also on another sabbath, that He entered into the synagogue and taught. And there was a man whose right hand was withered. <sup>7</sup>And the scribes and Pharisees watched him to see if He would heal on the sabbath day, so that they might find an accusation against Him. <sup>8</sup>But He knew their thoughts and said to the man who had the withered hand, Rise up and stand in the middle. And he arose and stood. <sup>9</sup>Then Jesus said to them, I will ask you one thing: Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil, to save life, or to destroy it? <sup>10</sup>And looking around on them all, He said to the man, Stretch out your hand! And he did so. And his hand was restored whole like the other. <sup>11</sup>And they were filled with madness, and talked with one another as to what they might do to Jesus.

<sup>12</sup>And it happened in those days that He went out into a mountain to pray, and He was spending the night in prayer to God. <sup>13</sup>And when it was day, He called His disciples. And He chose twelve of them, whom He also named apostles: <sup>14</sup>Simon, whom He also named Peter, and Andrew his brother; James and John; Philip and Bartholomew; <sup>15</sup>Matthew and Thomas; James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon who was called Zelotes; <sup>16</sup>Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, who also became the betrayer.

<sup>17</sup>And coming down with them, He stood on a level place. And a crowd of His disciples, and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon (who came to hear Him and to be healed of their diseases) were there; <sup>18</sup>also those tormented by unclean spirits; and they were healed. <sup>19</sup>And all the crowd sought to touch Him, for power went out of Him and healed them all.

<sup>20</sup>And lifting up His eyes to His disciples, He said, Blessed are the poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.

<sup>21</sup>Blessed are you who hunger now, for you shall be filled.

Blessed are you who weep now, for you shall laugh.

<sup>22</sup>Blessed are you when men shall hate you, and when they shall cut you off, and when they shall reproach you and shall cast out your name as evil, for the sake of the Son of man. <sup>23</sup>Rejoice in that day and leap for joy. For behold, your reward is great in Heaven. For so their fathers did to the prophets.

<sup>24</sup>But woe to you who are rich! For you have received your consolation. <sup>25</sup>Woe to you who are full! For you shall hunger. Woe to you who laugh now! For you shall mourn and weep. <sup>26</sup>Woe to you when all men shall speak well of you! For so their fathers did to the false prophets.

<sup>27</sup>But I say to you who hear: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, <sup>28</sup>bless those who curse you, and pray for those who despitefully use you. <sup>29</sup>And to him who strikes you on the one cheek, also offer the other. And to him who takes away your garment, do not forbid your tunic also. <sup>30</sup>Give to everyone who asks of you, and from him who takes away your goods, do not ask them again. <sup>31</sup>And as you desire that men should do to you, you do also to them likewise. <sup>32</sup>For if you love those who love you, what thanks do you have? For sinners also love those who love them. <sup>33</sup>And if you do good to those who do good to you, what thanks do you have? For sinners also do the same. <sup>34</sup>And if you lend to those of whom you hope to receive, what thanks do you have? For sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again. <sup>35</sup>But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing in return. And your reward shall be great, and you shall be the sons of the Highest. For He is kind to the unthankful and to the evil. <sup>36</sup>Therefore be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. <sup>37</sup>Judge not, and you shall not be judged. Condemn not, and you shall not be condemned. Forgive, and you shall be forgiven. <sup>38</sup>Give, and it shall be given to you, good measure pressed down and shaken together and running over, they shall give into your bosom. For with the same measure that you measure, it shall be measured to you again.

<sup>39</sup>And He spoke a parable to them: Can the blind lead the blind? Shall they not both fall into the ditch? <sup>40</sup>The disciple is not above his master, but everyone who is perfect shall be like his master. <sup>41</sup>And why do you look at the splinter that is in your brother's eye, but do not see the beam that is in your own eye? <sup>42</sup>Or how can you say to your brother, Brother, let me pull out the splinter in your eye, when you yourself do not see the beam that is in your own eye? Hypocrite! First cast out the beam out of your own eye, and then you shall see clearly to pull out the splinter that is in your brother's eye. <sup>43</sup>For a good tree does not bring forth corrupt fruit, neither does a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. <sup>44</sup>For every tree is known by its own fruit. For men do not gather figs from thorns, nor do they gather grapes from a bramble bush. <sup>45</sup>A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth that which is good. And an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart brings forth that which is evil. For out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.

<sup>46</sup>And why do you call Me Lord, Lord, and do not do the things which I say? <sup>47</sup>Whosoever comes to Me and hears My words, and does them, I will show you to whom he is like. <sup>48</sup>He is like a man who built a house and dug deep and laid the foundation on a rock; and a flood occurring, the stream burst against that house and could not shake it; for it was founded on a rock. <sup>49</sup>But he who hears and does not perform, is like a man who built a house on the earth without a foundation, on which the stream burst, and immediately it fell. And the ruin of that house was great.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>And when He had ended all His words in the ears of the people, He entered into Capernaum.

<sup>2</sup>And a certain servant of a centurion who was dear to him, was sick and ready to die. <sup>3</sup>And when he heard of Jesus, he sent the elders of the Jews to Him, begging Him that He would come and heal his servant. <sup>4</sup>And coming to Jesus, they begged Him earnestly, saying that he was worthy, he for whom He should do this; <sup>5</sup>for, they said, He loves our nation, and he has built us a synagogue. <sup>6</sup>Then Jesus went with them. But He being yet not far off from the house, the centurion sent friends to Him, saying to Him, Lord, do not trouble Yourself. For I am not worthy that You should enter under my roof. <sup>7</sup>Therefore neither did I think myself worthy to come to You; but say a word, and my servant will be healed. <sup>8</sup>For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers. And I say to one, Go, and he goes; and to another, Come, and he comes; and to my servant, Do this, and he does it. <sup>9</sup>And hearing these things, Jesus marvelled at him. And turning to the crowd following Him, He said, I say to you, I have not found such faith, no, not in Israel. <sup>10</sup>And they who were sent, returning to the house, found the servant well who had been sick. <sup>11</sup>And it happened on the next day, He went into a city called Nain. And many of His disciples and a great crowd went with Him. <sup>12</sup>And drawing near the gate of the city, even behold, one having died was being carried out, an only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a considerable crowd of the city was with her. <sup>13</sup>And when the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her and said to her, Do not weep. <sup>14</sup>And He came and touched the bier. And the ones who bore him stood still. And He said, Young man, I say to you, Arise! <sup>15</sup>And the one who was dead sat up and began to speak. And He delivered him to his mother. <sup>16</sup>And fear came on all. And they glorified God, saying, A great prophet has risen up among us; and, God has visited His people. <sup>17</sup>And this report of Him went out in all Judea, and in all the neighborhood.

<sup>18</sup>And his disciples reported all these things to John. <sup>19</sup>And John, calling near a certain two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, Are You He that should come, or do we look for another? <sup>20</sup>And coming to Him, the men said, John the Baptist has sent us to You, saying, Are You He who should come, or do we look for another? <sup>21</sup>And in the same hour He cured many of infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits. And He gave sight to many who were blind. <sup>22</sup>And answering, Jesus said to them, Go and tell John what you have seen and heard; that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the gospel is proclaimed to the poor. <sup>23</sup>And blessed is he who shall not be offended in Me.

<sup>24</sup>And when the messengers of John had departed, He began to speak to the people concerning John. What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind? <sup>25</sup>But what did you go out to see? A man clothed with soft clothing? Behold, those in splendid clothing and being in luxury are in kings' palaces. <sup>26</sup>But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and much more than a prophet. <sup>27</sup>This is he of whom it is written, "Behold, I send My messenger before Your face, who shall prepare Your way before You." <sup>28</sup>For I say to you, Among those who are born of woman there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist. But he who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he. <sup>29</sup>And all the people and the tax-collectors who heard Him justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John. <sup>30</sup>But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, not being baptized by him. <sup>31</sup>And the Lord said, To what then shall I liken the men of this generation? And to what are they like? <sup>32</sup>They are like children sitting in a market and calling to one another, and saying, We have piped to you, and you have not danced; we have mourned to you, and you did not weep. <sup>33</sup>For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, He has a demon. <sup>34</sup>The Son of man has come eating and drinking, and you say, Behold a gluttonous man and a winebibber, a friend of tax-collectors and sinners! <sup>35</sup>But wisdom has been justified by all her children.

<sup>36</sup>And one of the Pharisees asked Him to eat with him. And going into the Pharisee's house, He reclined. <sup>37</sup>And behold, a woman, a sinner in the city, knowing that He reclined in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster vial of ointment. <sup>38</sup>And she stood behind Him, weeping at His feet, and she began to wash His feet with tears and wipe them with the hair of her head. And she ardently kissed His feet and anointed them with the ointment. <sup>39</sup>But seeing this, the Pharisee who had invited Him, spoke within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what kind of woman this is who touches him, for she is a sinner. <sup>40</sup>And answering, Jesus said to him, Simon, I have something to say to you. And he said, Teacher, speak.

<sup>41</sup>There was a certain creditor who had two debtors. The one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. <sup>42</sup>And they having nothing to pay, he freely forgave both. Then which of them do you say will love him most? <sup>43</sup>And answering, Simon said, I suppose that one to whom he forgave most. And He said to him, You have judged rightly. <sup>44</sup>And He turned to the woman and said to Simon, Do you see this woman? I entered into your house, yet you gave Me no water for My feet. But she has washed My feet with tears, and has wiped them with the hair of her head. <sup>45</sup>You gave Me no kiss, but this woman, since the time I came in, has not ceased to kiss My feet. <sup>46</sup>You did not anoint My head with oil, but this woman has anointed My feet with ointment. <sup>47</sup>Therefore I say to you, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, he loves little. <sup>48</sup>And He said to her, Your sins are forgiven. <sup>49</sup>And those reclining with Him began to say within themselves, Who is this who even forgives sins? <sup>50</sup>And He said to the woman, Your faith has saved you, go in peace.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>And it happened afterwards, He traveled in every city and village, proclaiming and announcing the gospel of the kingdom of God. And the Twelve were with Him, <sup>2</sup>and also certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities; Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven demons, <sup>3</sup>and Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, who ministered to Him of their possessions.

<sup>4</sup>And a great crowd coming together, and those in each city coming to Him, He spoke by a parable:

<sup>5</sup>A sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, the one fell by the roadside and was trampled; and the birds of the air devoured it. <sup>6</sup>And other fell on a rock, and sprouting, it withered away, because it lacked moisture. <sup>7</sup>And other fell amidst thorns, and springing up with the thorns, they choked it. <sup>8</sup>And other fell on good ground and sprang up, and bore fruit a hundredfold. And when He had said these things, He cried, He who has ears to hear, let him hear. <sup>9</sup>And His disciples asked Him, saying, What might this parable be? <sup>10</sup>And He said, To you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God. But to others I speak in parables, so that seeing they might not see and hearing they might not understand. <sup>11</sup>And the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. <sup>12</sup>Those by the roadside are the ones who hear; then the Devil comes and takes the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. <sup>13</sup>Those on the rock are the ones who, when they hear, receive the word with joy. And these have no root, who for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. <sup>14</sup>And those which fell among thorns are the ones who, when they have heard, go forth and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of life, and do not bear to maturity. <sup>15</sup>But those on the good ground are the ones who, in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it and bring forth fruit with patience.

<sup>16</sup>And no one lighting a lamp covers it with a vessel or puts it under a bed; but he sets it on a lampstand so that those who enter in may see the light. <sup>17</sup>For nothing is secret that shall not be revealed; nor secret which shall not be known and come to be revealed. <sup>18</sup>Therefore be careful how you hear. For whoever has, to him shall be given; and whoever has not, from him shall be taken even that which he seems to have.

<sup>19</sup>And His mother and His brothers came to Him. And they could not come near Him because of the crowd. <sup>20</sup>And it was told to Him by some, who said, Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside desiring to see You. <sup>21</sup>And He answered and said to them, My mother and My brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it.

<sup>22</sup>And it happened on a certain day that He went into a boat with His disciples. And He said to them, Let us go over to the other side of the lake. And they put out to sea. <sup>23</sup>But as they sailed, He fell asleep. And a storm of wind came onto the lake. And they were filled with water and were in jeopardy. <sup>24</sup>And they came to Him and awakened Him, saying, Master, Master, we are perishing! Then He rose up and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water. And they ceased, and there was a calm. <sup>25</sup>And He said to them, Where is your faith? And being afraid, they marveled, saying to one another, What kind of man is this! For He commands even the winds and water, and they obey Him!

<sup>26</sup>And they sailed down to the country of the Gadarenes, which is across from Galilee. <sup>27</sup>And He going out onto land, He met a certain man out of the city, who had had demons a long time, and put on no clothes, nor stayed in a house, but among the tombs. <sup>28</sup>And seeing Jesus, he cried out and fell down before Him and said with a loud voice, What is to me and to You, Jesus, Son of God the Most High? I beseech You, Do not torment me! <sup>29</sup>(For He had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had seized him. And he had been kept bound in chains and in fetters, and he broke the bands and was driven into the wilderness by the demons.) <sup>30</sup>And Jesus asked him, saying, What is your name? And he said, Legion; because many demons had entered into him. <sup>31</sup>And they begged Him that He would not command them to go out into the abyss. <sup>32</sup>And there was there a herd of many pigs feeding on the mountain. And they begged Him that He would allow them to enter into them. And He allowed them. <sup>33</sup>And coming out of the man, the demons entered into the pigs. And the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake and were choked. <sup>34</sup>And those feeding the pigs, and seeing the thing, fled. And leaving, they reported to the city and to the farms. <sup>35</sup>And they went out to see what had been done. And they came to Jesus and found the man from whom the demons had departed sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. <sup>36</sup>Also those who saw it told them how the demon-possessed one was healed.

<sup>37</sup>And all the multitude of the neighborhood were seized with a great fear, and asked Him to depart from them. And entering into the boat, He returned. <sup>38</sup>And the man out of whom the demons had gone out begged Him, desiring to be with Him. But Jesus sent him away, saying, <sup>39</sup>Return to your own house and declare what great things God has done to you. And he went his way and proclaimed throughout all the city what great things Jesus had done to him.

<sup>40</sup>And when Jesus had returned, the people received Him. For they were all waiting for Him. <sup>41</sup>And behold, a man named Jairus came, and he was a synagogue-ruler. And he fell down at Jesus' feet and begged Him that He would come into his house. <sup>42</sup>For he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay dying. But as He went, the people thronged Him. <sup>43</sup>And a woman who had an issue of blood twelve years (who had spent all her living on physicians, and could not be healed by any) <sup>44</sup>came behind Him and touched the border of His garment. And instantly her issue of blood was stanch'd. <sup>45</sup>And Jesus said, Who touched Me? And all having denied, Peter and those with Him said, Master, the crowd presses and jostles You, and You say, Who touched Me? <sup>46</sup>And Jesus said, Someone has touched Me, for I know that power has gone out of Me. <sup>47</sup>And seeing that she was not hidden, the woman came trembling. And falling down before Him, she declared to Him before all the people why she had touched Him, and how she was instantly healed. <sup>48</sup>And He said to her, Daughter, be of good comfort. Your faith has saved you; go in peace.

<sup>49</sup>He was still speaking when someone came from the synagogue-ruler, saying to him, Your daughter is dead, do not trouble the Teacher. <sup>50</sup>But when Jesus heard it, He answered Him, saying, Do not fear, only believe and she shall be healed. <sup>51</sup>And coming into the house, He allowed no one to go in, except Peter and James and John, and the father and the mother of the girl. <sup>52</sup>And all were weeping and bewailing her. But He said, Do not weep; she has not died, but sleeps. <sup>53</sup>And they ridiculed, knowing that she was dead. <sup>54</sup>And He put them all out. And He took her by the hand and called, saying, Little girl, arise! <sup>55</sup>And her spirit came again, and she arose immediately. And He commanded that food be given her. <sup>56</sup>And her parents were astonished. But He charged them that they should tell no one the thing that happened.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>And He called His twelve disciples together and gave them power and authority over all demons and to cure diseases. <sup>2</sup>And He sent them to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal the sick. <sup>3</sup>And He said to them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staffs, nor a bag, nor bread, nor money, nor each to have two coats. <sup>4</sup>And whatever house you enter into, abide there and depart from there. <sup>5</sup>And whoever will not receive you, when you go out of that city shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them. <sup>6</sup>And they departed and went through the towns, proclaiming the gospel and healing everywhere.

<sup>7</sup>And Herod the tetrarch heard of all the things happening by Him. And he was perplexed, because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead; <sup>8</sup>and by some, that Elijah had appeared; and by others, that one of the old prophets had risen again. <sup>9</sup>And Herod said, John I have beheaded, but who is this of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see Him.

<sup>10</sup>And returning, the apostles told Him all that they had done. And He took them and went aside privately into a desert place of a city called Bethsaida. <sup>11</sup>But knowing this, the crowds followed Him. And He received them and spoke to them of the kingdom of God, and He healed those who had need of healing. <sup>12</sup>But the day began to wear away, and coming up the Twelve said to Him, Send the crowd away so that they may go into the villages and farms all around, and lodge, and get food. For we are here in a desert place. <sup>13</sup>But He said to them, You give them something to eat. And they said, We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we go and buy food for all these people. <sup>14</sup>(For they were about five thousand men.) And He said to His disciples, Make them recline by fifties in a company. <sup>15</sup>And they did so, and made them all recline. <sup>16</sup>And He took the five loaves and the two fish. And looking up to Heaven, He blessed them and broke, and He gave to the disciples to set before the crowd. <sup>17</sup>And they ate and were all filled. And there was taken up twelve handbaskets full of fragments of that left over to them.

<sup>18</sup>And it happened as He was alone praying, the disciples were with Him. And He asked them, saying, Whom do the crowds say that I am? <sup>19</sup>Answering, they said, John the Baptist; but some say, Elijah, and others say that one of the old prophets has risen again. <sup>20</sup>He said to them, But who do you say that I am? Answering, Peter said, The Christ of God. <sup>21</sup>And He strictly charged them and commanded to tell no one this, <sup>22</sup>saying, The Son of man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day. <sup>23</sup>And He said to all, If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow Me. <sup>24</sup>For whoever will save his life shall lose it, but whoever will lose his life for My sake, he shall save it. <sup>25</sup>For what is a man profited if he gains the whole world and loses himself, or is cast away? <sup>26</sup>For whoever shall be ashamed of Me and of My words, the Son of man shall be ashamed of him when He shall come in His own and in His Father's glory, and that of the holy angels. <sup>27</sup>But I tell you truly, there are some standing here who shall not taste of death until they see the kingdom of God.

<sup>28</sup>And about eight days after these sayings, He took Peter and John and James and went up into a mountain to pray. <sup>29</sup>And as He prayed, the fashion of His countenance was altered, and His clothing was dazzling white. <sup>30</sup>And behold, two men talked with Him, who were Moses and Elijah, <sup>31</sup>who appeared in glory and spoke of His exodus, which He was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. <sup>32</sup>But Peter and those with him were heavy with sleep. But fully awakening, they saw His glory, and the two men who stood with Him. <sup>33</sup>And in their parting from Him, it happened that Peter said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here. And let us make three tabernacles, one for You and one for Moses and one for Elijah; not knowing what he said. <sup>34</sup>And as he was saying these things, a cloud came and overshadowed them. And they feared as they entered into the cloud. <sup>35</sup>And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is My Son, the Beloved, hear Him. <sup>36</sup>And when the voice occurred, Jesus was found alone. And they were silent, and told no one in those days anything which they had seen.

<sup>37</sup>And it happened on the next day, they coming down from the mountain, a huge crowd met Him. <sup>38</sup>And behold, a man cried aloud from the crowd, saying, Teacher, I beseech You, look on my son, for he is my only-born son. <sup>39</sup>And lo, a spirit takes him, and he suddenly cries out. And it throws him into convulsions, with foaming, and with pain departs from him, bruising him. <sup>40</sup>And I begged Your disciples to cast him out, and they could not. <sup>41</sup>And answering, Jesus said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here. <sup>42</sup>And as he was still coming, the demon violently convulsed and tore him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit and healed the child and delivered him again to his father. <sup>43</sup>And they were all amazed at the majesty of God. But as all were marveling at all things which Jesus did, He said to His disciples, <sup>44</sup>Let these words sink down into your ears. For the Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men. <sup>45</sup>But they did not understand this thing, and it was hidden from them so that they did not perceive it. And they feared to ask Him of this word.

<sup>46</sup>And an argument came in among them, who might be the greater of them. <sup>47</sup>And seeing the argument of their heart, Jesus took a child and set him beside Him. <sup>48</sup>And He said to them, Whoever shall receive this child in My name receives Me. And whoever shall receive Me receives Him who sent Me. For he who is least among you all, he shall be great. <sup>49</sup>And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out demons in Your name. And we forbade him, because he does not follow us. <sup>50</sup>And Jesus said to him, Do not forbid him, for he who is not against us is for us.

<sup>51</sup>And it happened in the fulfilling of the days of His taking up, He steadfastly set His face to go to Jerusalem. <sup>52</sup>And He sent messengers before His face. And they went and entered into a village of the Samaritans to make ready for Him. <sup>53</sup>And they did not receive Him, because His face was going toward Jerusalem. <sup>54</sup>And seeing, His disciples James and John said, Lord, do You desire that we command fire to come down from Heaven and consume them, even as Elijah did? <sup>55</sup>But He turned and rebuked them and said, You do not know what kind of spirit you are of. <sup>56</sup>For the Son of man has not come to destroy men's lives, but to save. And they went to another village.

<sup>57</sup>And it happened as they were going in the way, one said to Him, Lord, I will follow You wherever You go. <sup>58</sup>And Jesus said to him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of man has nowhere to lay His head. <sup>59</sup>And He said to another, Follow Me! But he said, Lord, first allow me to go and bury my father. <sup>60</sup>Jesus said to him, Let the dead bury their dead, but you go and proclaim the kingdom of God. <sup>61</sup>And another also said, Lord, I will follow You, but first allow me to take leave of those in my house. <sup>62</sup>And Jesus said to him, No one, having put his hand to the plow and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>And after these things the Lord appointed seventy others, And He sent them two and two before His face into every city and place where He was about to come. <sup>2</sup>Then He said to them, The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray to the Lord of the harvest that He may send forth laborers into His harvest. <sup>3</sup>Go! Behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves. <sup>4</sup>Carry neither purse nor bag nor shoes. And greet no one by the way. <sup>5</sup>And into whatever house you enter, first say, Peace to this house. <sup>6</sup>And if a son of peace is there, your peace shall rest on it. If not, it shall return to you, <sup>7</sup>And remain in the same house, eating and drinking the things shared by them; for the laborer is worthy of his hire. Do not move from house to house. <sup>8</sup>And into whatever city you enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you. <sup>9</sup>And heal the sick that are in it, and say to them, The kingdom of God has come near you! <sup>10</sup>And into whatever city you enter, and they do not receive you, going out into the streets say, <sup>11</sup>Even the dust of your city which clings to us, we wipe off against you. Yet be sure of this, that the kingdom of God has come near you. <sup>12</sup>But I say to you that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom than for that city. <sup>13</sup>Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works which have been done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented a long while ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>14</sup>But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the Judgment than for you. <sup>15</sup>And you, Capernaum, which has been lifted up to Heaven, you shall be thrust down into hell. <sup>16</sup>The one hearing you hears Me, and he who despises you despises Me; he who rejects you also rejects Him who sent Me.

<sup>17</sup>And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the demons are subject to us through Your name. <sup>18</sup>And He said to them, I saw Satan fall from Heaven like lightning. <sup>19</sup>Behold, I give to you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the authority of the enemy. And nothing shall by any means hurt you. <sup>20</sup>Yet do not rejoice in this, that the evil spirits are subject to you, rather rejoice because your names are written in Heaven.

<sup>21</sup>In that hour Jesus rejoiced in Spirit and said, I thank You, Father, Lord of Heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the sophisticated and cunning, and have revealed them to babes. Yes, Father, for so it was pleasing before You. <sup>22</sup>All things are delivered to Me by My Father; and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal Him. <sup>23</sup>And He turned to His disciples and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that you see. <sup>24</sup>For I tell you that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which you see, and have not seen them, and to hear those things which you hear, and have not heard them.

<sup>25</sup>And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tempted Him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? <sup>26</sup>He said to him, What is written in the law? How do you read it? <sup>27</sup>And answering, he said, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself. <sup>28</sup>And He said to him, You have answered right, do this and you shall live. <sup>29</sup>But he, willing to justify himself, said to Jesus, And who is my neighbor? <sup>30</sup>And answering, Jesus said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell among robbers, who stripped him of his clothing and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead. <sup>31</sup>And by coincidence a certain priest came down that way and seeing him, he passed by on the opposite side. <sup>32</sup>And in the same way a Levite, also being at the place, coming and seeing him, he passed on the opposite side. <sup>33</sup>But a certain traveling Samaritan came upon him, and seeing him, he was filled with pity. <sup>34</sup>And coming near, he bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine, and set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. <sup>35</sup>And going on the next day, he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, and said to him, Take care of him. And whatever more you spend, when I come again I will repay you. <sup>36</sup>Then which of these three, do you think, was neighbor to him who fell among the robbers? <sup>37</sup>And he said, The one doing the deed of mercy to him. And Jesus said to him, Go and do likewise.

<sup>38</sup>And as they went, it happened that He entered into a certain village. And a certain woman named Martha received Him into her house. <sup>39</sup>And she had a sister called Mary, who also sat at Jesus' feet and heard His word. <sup>40</sup>But Martha was encumbered with much serving. And she came to Him and said, Lord, do You not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Therefore tell her to help me. <sup>41</sup>And Jesus answered and said to her, Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things. <sup>42</sup>But one thing is needful, and Mary has chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>And it happened as He was praying in a certain place, when He ceased, one of His disciples said to Him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught His disciples. <sup>2</sup>And He said to them, When you pray, say:

Our Father, who is in Heaven, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come, Your will be done, as in Heaven, so also on the earth. <sup>3</sup>Give us day by day our daily bread, <sup>4</sup>and forgive us our sins, for we ourselves also forgive everyone who is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

<sup>5</sup>And He said to them, which of you shall have a friend and shall go to him at midnight and say to him, Friend, lend me three loaves, <sup>6</sup>for a friend of mine has come from a journey, and I have nothing to set before him? <sup>7</sup>And he answering from inside say, Do not trouble me. The door is now shut and my children are in bed with me. I cannot rise and give to you. <sup>8</sup>I say to you, though he will not rise and give to him because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will arise and give him as many as he needs.

<sup>9</sup>And I say to you, Ask and it shall be given you. Seek and you shall find. Knock and it shall be opened to you. <sup>10</sup>For everyone who asks receives. And he who seeks finds. And to him who knocks it shall be opened. If a son shall ask for bread of any of you who is a father, will he give him a stone? <sup>11</sup>Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a snake for a fish? <sup>12</sup>Or if he shall ask for an egg, will he give him a scorpion? <sup>13</sup>If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him?

<sup>14</sup>And He was casting out a demon, and it was dumb. And it happened as the demon was going out, the dumb one spoke. And the people marvelled. <sup>15</sup>But some of them said, He casts out demons through Beelzebub the chief of the demons. <sup>16</sup>And others, tempting Him, sought a sign from Heaven from him. <sup>17</sup>But knowing their thoughts, He said to them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation. And a house divided against a house falls. <sup>18</sup>If Satan also is divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? — because you say that I cast out demons through Beelzebub. <sup>19</sup>And if I cast out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they shall be your judges. <sup>20</sup>But if I cast out demons with the finger of God, no doubt the kingdom of God has come on you.

<sup>21</sup>When the strong man, fully armed, guards his dwelling, his goods are in peace. <sup>22</sup>But when one stronger than he comes, he overcomes him. He takes from him all his armor in which he trusted, and he distributes his arms. <sup>23</sup>He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters. <sup>24</sup>When the unclean spirit has gone out of a man, he walks through dry places seeking rest. And finding none, he says, I will return to my house from which I came out. <sup>25</sup>And when he comes, he finds it swept and decorated. <sup>26</sup>And he goes and takes seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and entering in, they dwell there. And the last state of that man is worse than the first.

<sup>27</sup>And it happened as He spoke these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice and said to Him, Blessed is the womb that bore You, and the breasts which You have sucked. <sup>28</sup>But He said, No; rather, blessed are they who hear the word of God and keep it.

<sup>29</sup>But the crowds pressing on Him, He began to say, This is an evil generation. It seeks a sign, and no sign will be given to it, except the sign of Jonah the prophet.

<sup>30</sup>For as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites, so also shall the Son of man be to this generation. <sup>31</sup>The queen of the south shall rise up in the Judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them. For she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon. And behold, One greater than Solomon is here.

<sup>32</sup>The men of Nineveh shall rise up in the Judgment with this generation and shall condemn it. For they repented at the preaching of Jonah. And behold, One greater than Jonah is here.

<sup>33</sup>No one, when he has lighted a lamp, puts it in a secret place, or under a bushel, but on a lampstand, so that they who come in may see the light. <sup>34</sup>The light of the body is the eye. Therefore when your eye is sound, your whole body also is full of light. But when your eye is evil, your body also is full of darkness. <sup>35</sup>Therefore take heed that the light which is in you is not darkness. <sup>36</sup>Therefore if your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a lamp enlightens you.

<sup>37</sup>And as He spoke, a certain Pharisee asked Him to dine with him. And He went in and reclined. <sup>38</sup>And when the Pharisee saw it, he was amazed that He had not first washed before dinner. <sup>39</sup>And the Lord said to him, Now you Pharisees make the outside of the cup and the platter clean, but your inward part is full of plunder and wickedness. <sup>40</sup>Fools! Did not He who made the outside also make the inside? <sup>41</sup>But give alms of such things as you have, and behold, all things are clean to you. <sup>42</sup>But woe to you, Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and every herb, and pass over judgment and the love of God. You ought to have done these, and not to leave the other undone. <sup>43</sup>Woe to you, Pharisees! For you love the uppermost seats in the synagogues and greetings in the markets. <sup>44</sup>Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like unseen tombs and the men walking above are not aware of them.

<sup>45</sup>And one of the lawyers answered and said to Him, Master, you reproach us also when you say this. <sup>46</sup>And He said, Woe to you also, lawyers! For you load men with burdens grievous to be carried, and you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers. <sup>47</sup>Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. <sup>48</sup>Truly you bear witness that you consent to the deeds of your fathers. For they indeed killed them, and you build their tombs. <sup>49</sup>Therefore the wisdom of God also said, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute, <sup>50</sup>so that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; <sup>51</sup>from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the temple. Truly I say to you, It shall be required of this generation. <sup>52</sup>Woe to you, lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge. You did not enter in yourselves, and you have hindered those who were entering in. <sup>53</sup>And as He said these things to them, the scribes and Pharisees began to be terribly angry, and to draw Him out concerning many things, <sup>54</sup>lying in ambush for Him, and seeking to catch something out of His mouth, so that they might accuse Him.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>In the meantime, when there had gathered together an innumerable crowd of people, so as to trample on one another, He began to say to His disciples first, Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. <sup>2</sup>For there is nothing covered that shall not be revealed, nor anything hidden that shall not be known. <sup>3</sup>Therefore whatever you have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light. And that which you have spoken in the ear in secret rooms shall be proclaimed on the housetops. <sup>4</sup>And I say to you, My friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. <sup>5</sup>But I will warn you of whom you shall fear: Fear Him who, after He has killed, has authority to cast into hell. Yea, I say to you, fear Him.

<sup>6</sup>Are not five sparrows sold for two assaria? And not one of them is forgotten before God. <sup>7</sup>But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Therefore do not fear, you are of more value than many sparrows. <sup>8</sup>Also I say to you, Whoever shall confess Me before men, the Son of man also shall confess him before the angels of God. <sup>9</sup>But he who denies Me before men shall be denied before the angels of God. <sup>10</sup>And whoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him. But to him who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven. <sup>11</sup>And when they bring you into the synagogues, and to magistrates and authorities, take no thought as to how or what thing you shall answer, or what you shall say. <sup>12</sup>For the Holy Spirit shall teach you in the same hour what you ought to say.

<sup>13</sup>And one of the company said to Him, Master, speak to my brother that he should divide the inheritance with me. <sup>14</sup>And He said to him, Man, who made Me a judge or a divider over you? <sup>15</sup>And He said to them, Watch and keep yourselves from covetousness. For a man's life is not in the abundance of the things which he possesses. <sup>16</sup>And He spoke a parable to them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully. <sup>17</sup>And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room in which to store my fruits? <sup>18</sup>And he said, I will do this. I will pull down my barns and build bigger ones, and I will store all my fruits and my goods there. <sup>19</sup>And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years. Take your ease, eat drink and be merry. <sup>20</sup>But God said to him, Fool! This night your soul shall be required of you, then whose shall be those things which you have prepared? <sup>21</sup>So is he who lays up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God.

<sup>22</sup>And He said to His disciples, Therefore I say to you, Be not anxious as to your life, what you shall eat; nor for the body, what you shall put on. <sup>23</sup>Life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing. <sup>24</sup>Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap, having neither storehouse nor barn, and God feeds them. How much more are you better than the birds? <sup>25</sup>And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit to his stature? <sup>26</sup>If then you are not able to do that thing which is least, why are you anxious about the rest? <sup>27</sup>Consider the lilies, how they grow; they do not toil, they do not spin. And yet I say to you that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. <sup>28</sup>If then God so clothes the grass (which today is in the field, and tomorrow is cast into the oven) how much more will He clothe you, O little-faiths? <sup>29</sup>And do not seek what you shall eat, nor what you shall drink, and stop being in anxiety. <sup>30</sup>For all these things the nations of the world seek after, and your Father knows that you have need of these things. <sup>31</sup>But rather seek the kingdom of God, and all these things shall be added to you. <sup>32</sup>Do not fear, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. <sup>33</sup>Sell what you have and give alms. Make for yourselves purses which do not become old, an unfailing treasure in Heaven, where no thief comes nor moth corrupts. <sup>34</sup>For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

<sup>35</sup>Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning. <sup>36</sup>And you yourselves be like men who wait for their lord, whenever he shall return from the wedding, so that when he comes and knocks, they may open to him immediately. <sup>37</sup>Blessed are those servants whom the lord will find watching when he comes. Truly I say to you that he shall gird himself and make them recline; and coming up he will serve them. <sup>38</sup>And if he comes in the second watch, or comes in the third watch, and find it so, blessed are those servants. <sup>39</sup>And know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched and would not have allowed his house to be dug through. <sup>40</sup>Therefore be ready also, for the Son of man comes at an hour when you think not.

<sup>41</sup>And Peter said to Him, Lord, do You speak this parable to us or also to all?

<sup>42</sup>And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward whom his lord shall set over his houseservants, to give them their portion of food in due season?

<sup>43</sup>Blessed is that servant when his lord comes and finds him so doing. <sup>44</sup>Truly I say to you that he will set him over all that he has.<sup>45</sup> But if that servant says in his heart, My lord delays his coming, and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidservants, and to eat and drink and to be drunken,<sup>46</sup> the lord of that servant will come in a day when he does not expect, and at an hour when he does not know. And he will cut him apart, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.<sup>47</sup> And that servant who knew his lord's will and did not prepare, nor did according to His will, shall be beaten with many stripes.<sup>48</sup> But he not knowing, and doing things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For to whomever much is given, of him much shall be required. And to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

<sup>49</sup>I have come to send fire on the earth. And what will I do if it is already kindled? <sup>50</sup>But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how I am pressed down until it is accomplished! <sup>51</sup>Do you suppose that I have come to give peace on earth? I tell you, no, but rather division. <sup>52</sup>For from now on, there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three. <sup>53</sup>The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

<sup>54</sup>And He also said to the crowd, When you see a cloud rise out of the west, immediately you say, There is a shower coming. And so it is. <sup>55</sup>And when you see the south wind blow, you say, There will be heat; and it occurs. <sup>56</sup>Hypocrites! You know to discern the face of the heaven and the earth, but how is it that you do not discern this time? <sup>57</sup>And why, even of yourselves, do you not judge what is right?

<sup>58</sup>For as you go with your adversary to the judge, give pains in the way to be set free from him, lest he drag you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer cast you into the prison. <sup>59</sup>I tell you, you shall not depart from there until you have paid the very last lepton.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>And some were present at the same time reporting to Him of the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. <sup>2</sup>And answering, Jesus said to them, Do you suppose that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans because they suffered such things? <sup>3</sup>I tell you, No. But unless you repent, you will all likewise perish. <sup>4</sup>Or those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them, do you think that they were sinners above all men who lived in Jerusalem? <sup>5</sup>I tell you, No. But unless you repent, you will all likewise perish.

<sup>6</sup>He also spoke this parable: A certain man had a fig-tree planted in his vineyard. And he came and sought fruit on it, and found none. <sup>7</sup>And he said to the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig-tree, and find none. Cut it down, why does it encumber the ground? <sup>8</sup>And answering, he said to him, Lord, let it alone this year also, until I dig around it and throw manure. <sup>9</sup>And if it bears fruit, well; and if not, then after that you shall cut it down.

<sup>10</sup>And He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. <sup>11</sup>And behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and she was bowed together and could in no way lift herself up. <sup>12</sup>And when Jesus saw her, He called and said to her, Woman, you are delivered from your infirmity. <sup>13</sup>And He laid His hands on her. And instantly she was made erect, and she glorified God. <sup>14</sup>And answering, the synagogue ruler, being angry because Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, said to the crowd, There are six days in which it is right to work. Therefore in them come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day. <sup>15</sup>And the Lord answered him and said, Hypocrite! Does not each one of you on the sabbath loosen his ox or ass from the stall and lead it away, to give it drink? <sup>16</sup>And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham whom Satan has bound, lo these eighteen years, be loosened from this bond on the Sabbath day? <sup>17</sup>And when He had said these things, all His adversaries were ashamed. And all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by Him.

<sup>18</sup>And He said, What is the kingdom of God like? And to what shall I compare it? <sup>19</sup>It is like a grain of mustard seed which a man took and threw into his garden. And it grew and became a great tree, and the birds of the air lodged in its branches. <sup>20</sup>And again He said, To what shall I compare the kingdom of God? <sup>21</sup>It is like leaven which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, until the whole was leavened.

<sup>22</sup>And He went through the cities and villages, teaching and progressing toward Jerusalem. <sup>23</sup>And one said to Him, Lord, are the ones being saved few? And He said to them, <sup>24</sup>Strive to enter in at the narrow gate. For I say to you, many will seek to enter in and shall not be able. <sup>25</sup>And once the master of the house has risen up and has shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us, and He shall answer and say to you, I do not know you; from where are you; <sup>26</sup>then you shall begin to say, We ate and drank in Your presence, and You have taught in our streets. <sup>27</sup>But He shall say, I tell you, I do not know you; from where are you? Depart from Me, all workers of unrighteousness! <sup>28</sup>There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth when you will see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and yourselves being thrust out. <sup>29</sup>And they will come from the east and the west, and from the north and the south, and will sit down in the kingdom of God. <sup>30</sup>And behold, there are last ones which will be first, and there are first ones which will be last.

<sup>31</sup>The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying to Him, Go out and depart from here, for Herod will kill you. <sup>32</sup>And He said to them, You go and tell that fox, Behold, today and tomorrow, I cast out demons and I complete cures, and the third day I will be finished. <sup>33</sup>Yet I must walk today and tomorrow and the day following. For it cannot be that a prophet perish outside of Jerusalem. <sup>34</sup>Jerusalem! Jerusalem! the one killing the prophets, and stoning those having been sent to her; how often I desired to gather your children in the way a hen gathers her brood under the wings, and you did not desire it. <sup>35</sup>Behold, your house is left to you desolate. And truly I say to you, You will not see Me until it come when you say, Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>And as He went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath day, it happened that they watched Him. <sup>2</sup>And behold, a certain man was dropsical before Him. <sup>3</sup>And answering, Jesus spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day? <sup>4</sup>And they were silent. And taking him, He healed him and let him go. <sup>5</sup>And He answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fall into a pit and will not immediately pull him out on the sabbath day? <sup>6</sup>And they could not answer Him again as to these things.

<sup>7</sup>And He put forth a parable to those who were invited, when He noted how they chose out the chief places, saying to them, <sup>8</sup>When you are invited by anyone to a wedding, do not recline in the highest place, lest a more honorable man than you may be invited by him. <sup>9</sup>And he who invited you and him shall come and say to you, Give place to this man; and you shall begin with shame to take the lowest place. <sup>10</sup>But when you are invited, go and sit down in the lowest place, so that when he who invited you comes, he may say to you, Friend, go up higher. Then glory shall be to you before those reclining with you. <sup>11</sup>For whoever exalts himself shall be abased, and he who humbles himself shall be exalted.

<sup>12</sup>And He also said to him who invited Him, When you make a dinner or a supper, do not call your friends or your brothers, or your kinsmen, or your rich neighbors; lest they also invite you again, and a recompense be made to you. <sup>13</sup>But when you make a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind, <sup>14</sup>and you shall be blessed, for they cannot repay you; for you shall be repaid at the resurrection of the just.

<sup>15</sup>And one of those who reclined with Him heard these things, and he said to Him, Blessed are those eating bread in the kingdom of God. <sup>16</sup>And He said to him, A certain man made a great supper and invited many. <sup>17</sup>And he sent his servant at supper time to say to those who were invited, Come, for all things are now ready. <sup>18</sup>And all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said to him, I have bought a piece of ground, I must go and see it. I beg you, have me excused. <sup>19</sup>And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to test them. I beg you, have me excused. <sup>20</sup>And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. <sup>21</sup>So that servant came and declared these things to his lord. And the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city and bring in here the poor and the maimed, and the lame and the blind. <sup>22</sup>And the servant said, Lord, it is done as you have commanded, and still there is room. <sup>23</sup>And the lord said to the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges and compel them to come in, so that my house may be filled. <sup>24</sup>For I say to you that none of these men who were invited shall taste of my supper.

<sup>25</sup>And great crowds went with Him. And He turned and said to them, <sup>26</sup>If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he cannot be My disciple. <sup>27</sup>And whoever does not bear his cross and come after Me, he cannot be My disciple. <sup>28</sup>For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not sit down first and count the cost, whether he may have enough to finish it; <sup>29</sup>lest perhaps, after he has laid the foundation and is not able to finish it, all who see it shall begin to mock him, <sup>30</sup>saying, This man began to build and was not able to finish. <sup>31</sup>Or what king, going to make war against another king, does not first sit down and consult whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? <sup>32</sup>Or else, while the other is still a great way off, he sends a delegation and asks conditions of peace. <sup>33</sup>So then, everyone of you who does not forsake all his possessions, he cannot be My disciple. <sup>34</sup>Salt is good, but if the salt has lost its taste, with what shall it be seasoned? <sup>35</sup>It is not fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill, but men throw it out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>3</sup>And He spoke this parable to them, saying, <sup>4</sup>What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he loses one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after that which is lost until he finds it? <sup>5</sup>And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing. <sup>6</sup>And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost. <sup>7</sup>I say to you that likewise joy shall be in Heaven over one sinner who repents, more than over ninety-nine just persons who need no repentance. <sup>8</sup>Or what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she loses one piece, does not light a candle and sweep the house, and seek carefully until she finds it? <sup>9</sup>And when she has found it, she calls her friends and her neighbors together, saying, Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I had lost. <sup>10</sup>Likewise I say to you, there is joy in the presence of God over one sinner who repents.

<sup>11</sup>And He said, A certain man had two sons. <sup>12</sup>And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that is coming to me. And he divided his living to them. <sup>13</sup>And not many days afterward, the younger son gathered all together and took his journey into a far country. And there he wasted his substance with riotous living. <sup>14</sup>And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land. And he began to be in want. <sup>15</sup>And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country. And he sent him into his fields to feed pigs. <sup>16</sup>And he was longing to fill his belly with the husks that the pigs ate, and no one gave to him. <sup>17</sup>And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father have loaves enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! <sup>18</sup>I will arise and go to my father, and will say to him, Father, I have sinned against Heaven and before you <sup>19</sup>and am no more worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired servants. <sup>20</sup>And he arose and came to his father.

But when he was still a great way off, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and fell on his neck and kissed him. <sup>21</sup>And the son said to him, Father, I have sinned against Heaven and before you, and am no more worthy to be called your son. <sup>22</sup>But the father said to his servants, Bring the best robe and put it on him. And put a ring on his hand and shoes on his feet. <sup>23</sup>And bring the fattened calf here and kill it. And let us eat and be merry, <sup>24</sup>for this my son was dead and is alive again, he was lost and is found. And they began to be merry. <sup>25</sup>And his elder son was in the field. And as he came and drew near the house, he heard music and dancing. <sup>26</sup>And he called one of the servants and asked what these things meant. <sup>27</sup>And he said to him, Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has received him safe and sound. <sup>28</sup>And he was angry and would not go in. Therefore his father came out and entreated him. <sup>29</sup>And answering he said to his father, Lo, these many years I have served you, neither did I transgress your commandment at any time. And yet you never gave me a kid so that I might make merry with my friends. <sup>30</sup>But when this son of yours came, who has devoured your living with harlots, you have killed for him the fattened calf. <sup>31</sup>And he said to him, Son, you are always with me, and all that I have is yours. <sup>32</sup>It was right that we should make merry and be glad, for this your brother was dead and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>And He also said to His disciples, There was a certain rich man who had a steward. And he was accused to him, that he had wasted his goods. <sup>2</sup>And he called him and said to him, How is it that I hear this of you? Give an account of your stewardship, for you may no longer be steward. <sup>3</sup>And the steward said within himself, What shall I do? For my lord is taking the stewardship away from me. I cannot dig, I am ashamed to beg. <sup>4</sup>I know what I will do, so that when I am put out of the stewardship they may receive me into their houses. <sup>5</sup>So he called every one of his lord's debtors and said; to the first, How much do you owe my lord? <sup>6</sup>And he said, A hundred measures of oil. And he said to him, Take your bill and sit down quickly and write fifty. <sup>7</sup>And he said to another, And how much do you owe? And he said, A hundred measures of wheat. And he said to him, Take your bill and write eighty. <sup>8</sup>And the unjust steward's lord commended him because he had done wisely. For the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light. <sup>9</sup>And I say to you, Make friends by the mammon of unrighteousness for yourselves, so that when you fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations. <sup>10</sup>He who is faithful in that which is least is also faithful in much. And he who is unjust in the least is also unjust in much. <sup>11</sup>Therefore if you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit the true riches to your trust? <sup>12</sup>And if you have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own? <sup>13</sup>No servant can serve two masters. For either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will hold to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon.

<sup>14</sup>And being money-lovers, all the Pharisees also heard all these things. And they derided Him. <sup>15</sup>And He said to them, You are those who justify yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts. For that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God. <sup>16</sup>The law and the prophets were until John. Since that time the kingdom of God is proclaimed, and everyone is pressing into it. <sup>17</sup>And it is easier for the heaven and earth to pass than for one tittle of the law to fail.

<sup>18</sup>Everyone putting away his wife and marrying another commits adultery; and everyone marrying her who is put away from her husband commits adultery.

<sup>19</sup>There was a certain rich man who was clothed in purple and fine linen and making merry in luxury every day. <sup>20</sup>And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, who was laid at his gate, full of sores <sup>21</sup>and desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table. But even the dogs came and licked his sores. <sup>22</sup>And it happened that the beggar died and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died and was buried. <sup>23</sup>And in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and saw Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. <sup>24</sup>And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me and send Lazarus so that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am tormented in this flame. <sup>25</sup>But Abraham said, Son, remember that you in your lifetime received your good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things. But now he is comforted and you are tormented. <sup>26</sup>And besides all this, there is a great chasm fixed between you and us; so that they desiring to pass from here to you cannot, nor can they pass over to us who desire to come from there. <sup>27</sup>And he said, I beg you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father's house, <sup>28</sup>for I have five brothers, so that he may testify to them, lest they also come into this place of torment. <sup>29</sup>Abraham says to him, They have Moses and the prophets, let them hear them. <sup>30</sup>And he said, No, father Abraham, but if one should go to them from the dead, they would repent. <sup>31</sup>And he said to him, If they do not hear Moses and the prophets, they will not be persuaded, even though one rose from the dead.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>1</sup>And He said to the disciples, It is impossible but that offenses will come. But woe to him through whom they come! <sup>2</sup>It were better for him that a millstone were hanged around his neck and he were cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

<sup>3</sup>Take heed to yourselves. If your brother trespasses against you, rebuke him. And if he repents, forgive him. <sup>4</sup>And if he trespasses against you seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turns again to you, saying, I repent, you shall forgive him. <sup>5</sup>And the apostles said to the Lord, Give us more faith. <sup>6</sup>And the Lord said, If you had faith as a grain of mustard seed, you might say to this sycamine tree, Be plucked up by the roots and be planted in the sea! And it would obey you. <sup>7</sup>But which of you who has a servant plowing or feeding will say to him immediately after he has come from the field, Come, recline? <sup>8</sup>Will you not rather say to him, Make ready that which I may eat, and gird yourself and serve me until I eat and drink. And afterward you shall eat and drink. <sup>9</sup>Does he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I think not. <sup>10</sup>So likewise you, when you shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants, for we have done that which was our duty to do.

<sup>11</sup>And as He went to Jerusalem, it happened that he went through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. <sup>12</sup>And as He entered into a certain village, ten leprous men met Him, who stood afar off. <sup>13</sup>And they lifted up their voice and said, Jesus, Master, pity us! <sup>14</sup>And seeing them, He said to them, Go show yourselves to the priests. And it happened, as they went, that they were cleansed. <sup>15</sup>And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back and glorified God with a loud voice. <sup>16</sup>And he fell down on his face at His feet, thanking Him. And he was a Samaritan. <sup>17</sup>And answering, Jesus said, Were there not ten cleansed? But where are the nine? <sup>18</sup>Were none found who returned to give glory to God except this foreigner? <sup>19</sup>And He said to him, Rise and go, your faith has cured you.

<sup>20</sup>And being asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, He answered and said, The kingdom of God does not come with observation. <sup>21</sup>Nor shall they say, Lo here! or, behold, there! For behold, the kingdom of God is in your midst.

<sup>22</sup>And He said to the disciples, The days will come when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and you shall not see it. <sup>23</sup>And they shall say to you, Lo, here! or, behold, there! Do not go away, nor follow. <sup>24</sup>For as the lightning which lights up, flashing from the one part under heaven, shines to the other part under heaven, so also shall the Son of man be in His day. <sup>25</sup>But first He must suffer many things and be rejected of this generation. <sup>26</sup>And as it was in the days of Noah, so it also shall be in the days of the Son of man. <sup>27</sup>They ate, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark; and the flood came and destroyed them all. <sup>28</sup>So also as it was in the days of Lot: they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built; <sup>29</sup>but the same day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from Heaven and destroyed them all. <sup>30</sup>Even so it shall be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.

<sup>31</sup>In that day he who shall be on the housetop, and his goods in the house, let him not come down to take them away. And in the same way, he who is in the field, let him not return to the things behind. <sup>32</sup>Remember Lot's wife. <sup>33</sup>Whoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it, and whoever shall lose his life shall preserve it. <sup>34</sup>I tell you, in that night there shall be two in one bed, the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left. <sup>35</sup>Two shall be grinding together, one will be taken, and the other left. <sup>36</sup>Two shall be in the field, one will be taken, and the other left. <sup>37</sup>And they answered and said to Him, Where, Lord? And He said to them, Wherever the body is, there the eagles will be gathered together.

CHAPTER 18

<sup>1</sup>And He also spoke a parable to them to teach it is always right to pray, and not to faint, <sup>2</sup>saying, A certain judge was in a certain city, not fearing God, nor respecting man. <sup>3</sup>And a widow was in that city. And she came to Him, saying, Avenge me of my adversary. <sup>4</sup>And he would not do so for a time. But afterward he said within himself, Though I do not fear God nor regard man, <sup>5</sup>yet because this widow troubles me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me. <sup>6</sup>And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge says. <sup>7</sup>And shall not God avenge His own elect who cry day and night to Him, though He is patient over them? <sup>8</sup>I say to you that He will avenge them speedily. Yet when the Son of man comes, shall He find faith on the earth?

<sup>9</sup>And He spoke this parable to certain ones who trusted in themselves, that they were righteous, and despised others:

<sup>10</sup>Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a tax-collector. <sup>11</sup>The Pharisee stood and prayed within himself in this way: God, I thank You that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax-collector. <sup>12</sup>I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess. <sup>13</sup>And standing afar off, the tax-collector would not even lift up his eyes to Heaven, but struck on his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner! <sup>14</sup>I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself shall be abased, and he who humbles himself shall be exalted.

<sup>15</sup>And they also brought infants to Him, that He might touch them. But when the disciples saw it, they, rebuked them. <sup>16</sup>But Jesus called them and said, Allow the little children to come to Me, and forbid them not. For of such is the kingdom of God. <sup>17</sup>Truly I say to you, Whoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no way enter into it.

<sup>18</sup>And a certain ruler asked Him, saying, Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? <sup>19</sup>And Jesus said to him, Why do you call Me good? None is good except One, God. <sup>20</sup>You know the commandments: Do not commit adultery, do not kill, do not steal, do not bear false witness, honor your father and your mother. <sup>21</sup>And he said, I have kept all these from my youth up. <sup>22</sup>And when Jesus heard these things, He said to him, Yet you lack one thing. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you shall have treasure in Heaven. And come, follow Me. <sup>23</sup>And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful, for he was very rich. <sup>24</sup>And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, He said, How hardly those having riches shall enter into the kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup>For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. <sup>26</sup>And the ones who heard it said, And who can be saved? <sup>27</sup>And He said, The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.

<sup>28</sup>And Peter said, Lo, we have left all and have followed You. <sup>29</sup>And He said to them, Truly I say to you, There is no one who has left house, or parents, or brothers, or wife, or children for the sake of the kingdom of God, <sup>30</sup>who shall not receive many times more in this present time, and in the world to come everlasting life.

<sup>31</sup>And He took the Twelve and said to them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man will be accomplished. <sup>32</sup>For He will be delivered to the nations and will be mocked and spit on. <sup>33</sup>And they will scourge Him and put Him to death, and the third day He will rise again. <sup>34</sup>And they did not understand any of these things. And this saying was hidden from them, nor did they know the things which were spoken.

<sup>35</sup>And as He came near Jericho, it happened that a certain blind man sat by the roadside begging. <sup>36</sup>And hearing the crowd pass by, he asked what it meant. <sup>37</sup>And they told him that Jesus of Nazareth passed by. <sup>38</sup>And he cried, saying, Jesus, Son of David! Have mercy on me. <sup>39</sup>And they who were in front rebuked him that he should be quiet. But he cried so much the more, Son of David! Have mercy on me. <sup>40</sup>And Jesus stood and commanded him to be brought to Him. And when he had come near, He asked him, <sup>41</sup>saying, What do you desire that I should do to you? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight. <sup>42</sup>And Jesus said to him, Receive your sight! Your faith has saved you. <sup>43</sup>And immediately he received his sight and followed him, glorifying God. And when they saw it, all the people gave praise to God.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>1</sup>And going in, He passed through Jericho. <sup>2</sup>And behold, there was a man named Zaccheus, who was a chief tax-collector. And he was rich. <sup>3</sup>And he sought to see Jesus, to see who He was. And he could not because of the press, because he was little in stature. <sup>4</sup>And he ran in front and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Him. For He was to pass through that way. <sup>5</sup>And when Jesus came to the place, He looked up and saw him. And He said to him, Zaccheus! Hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house. <sup>6</sup>And hurrying he came down, and received Him joyfully. <sup>7</sup>And seeing, they all murmured, saying, He has gone in to stay with a sinful man. <sup>8</sup>And Zaccheus stood and said to the Lord, Behold, Lord, I give half of my goods to the poor. And if I have taken anything from any man by false accusation, I restore it fourfold. <sup>9</sup>And Jesus said to him, This day salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham. <sup>10</sup>For the Son of man has come to seek and to save that which was lost.

<sup>11</sup>And as they heard these things, He added and spoke a parable, because He was near Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God was about to appear immediately. <sup>12</sup>Therefore He said, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive a kingdom for himself, and to return. <sup>13</sup>And He called his ten servants and delivered ten minas, and said to them, Trade until I come back. <sup>14</sup>But his citizens hated him. And they sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this one to reign over us. <sup>15</sup>And when he had received his kingdom and had returned, then it happened that he commanded these servants to be called to him; the ones to whom he had given the money; so that he might know how much every man had gained by trading. <sup>16</sup>And came the first, saying, Lord, your mina has gained ten minas. <sup>17</sup>And he said to him, Well done, good servant, because you have been faithful in a very little, have authority over ten cities. <sup>18</sup>And the second came, saying, Lord, your mina has made five minas. <sup>19</sup>And he said the same to him, You be over five cities. <sup>20</sup>And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is your mina, which I have kept in a napkin. <sup>21</sup>For I feared you, because you are a harsh man. You take up what you did not lay down, and you reap what you did not sow. <sup>22</sup>And he said to him, I will judge you out of your own mouth, wicked servant! You knew that I was a harsh man, taking up what I had not laid down and reaping what I did not sow. <sup>23</sup>And why did you not give my money on the bank table, and coming I might have exacted it with interest? <sup>24</sup>And he said to those who stood by, Take the mina from him and give it to him who has ten minas. <sup>25</sup>And they said to him, Lord, he has ten minas. <sup>26</sup>For I say to you that to everyone who has, more will be given. And from him who has not, even that which he has will be taken from him. <sup>27</sup>But those who are my enemies, who did not desire that I should reign over them, bring them here and slay them before me.

<sup>28</sup>And saying these things, He went in front, going up to Jerusalem.

<sup>29</sup>And it happened as He drew near Bethphage and Bethany, toward the mount called Mount of Olives, He sent two of His disciples, <sup>30</sup>saying, Go into the village across from you, and having entered, you will find a colt tied up, on which no one of men has yet sat. Untie him and bring him here. <sup>31</sup>And if anyone asks you, Why are you untying him? You will say this to him, Because the Lord has need of him. <sup>32</sup>And going, those who were sent found as He had said to them. <sup>33</sup>And as they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, Why are you untying the colt? <sup>34</sup>And they said, The Lord has need of him. <sup>35</sup>And they brought him to Jesus. And they threw their garments on the colt. And they set Jesus on it. <sup>36</sup>And as He went, they spread their clothes in the way.<sup>37</sup> And when He had come near, even now at the descent of the Mount of Olives, all the multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works which they had seen,<sup>38</sup> saying, Blessed is the King coming in the name of the Lord! Peace in Heaven and glory in the highest!<sup>39</sup> And some of the Pharisees from the crowd said to Him, Teacher, rebuke your disciples.<sup>40</sup> And He answered and said to them, I tell you that if these should be silent, the stones would immediately cry out.

<sup>41</sup>And as He drew near, He beheld the city and wept over it,<sup>42</sup> saying, If you had known, even you, even at least in this day of yours, the things which are for your peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes.<sup>43</sup> For the days will come on you that your enemies will raise up a rampart to you, and will surround you, and will keep you in on every side.<sup>44</sup> And they will tear you down, and your children within you, and will not leave a stone on a stone because you did not know the time of your visitation.

<sup>45</sup>And entering into the temple, He began to cast out those selling and buying in it,<sup>46</sup> saying to them, It is written, "My house is a house of prayer," but you have made it a den of thieves.<sup>47</sup> And He taught in the temple daily. But the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy Him.<sup>48</sup> And they could not find what they might do, for all the people were hanging on Him, listening.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>1</sup>And on one of those days, as He taught the people in the temple and proclaimed the gospel, it happened that the chief priests and the scribes along with the elders came on Him.<sup>2</sup> And they spoke to Him, saying, Tell us, by what authority do you do these things? Or who is he who gave you this authority?<sup>3</sup> And He answered and said to them, I will also ask you one thing, and you answer me:<sup>4</sup> The baptism of John, was it from Heaven or from men?<sup>5</sup> And they reasoned within themselves, saying, If we shall say, From Heaven, he will say, Why then did you not believe him?<sup>6</sup> But if we say, From men, then all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that John was a prophet.<sup>7</sup> And they answered that they could not tell from where it was.<sup>8</sup> And Jesus said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

<sup>9</sup>And He began to speak to the people this parable: A certain man planted a vineyard and let it out to vinedressers. And he went into a far country for a long time.<sup>10</sup> And in season he sent a servant to the vinedressers, so that they should give him his part of the fruit of the vineyard. But the vinedressers beat him and sent him away empty.<sup>11</sup> And again he sent another servant. And they also beat him and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.<sup>12</sup> And again he sent a third. And they also wounded him and cast him out.<sup>13</sup> And the lord of the vineyard said, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. It may be that they will respect him when they see him.<sup>14</sup> But when the vinedressers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir! Come, let us kill him so that the inheritance may be ours.<sup>15</sup> So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. What then shall the lord of the vineyard do to them?<sup>16</sup> He shall come and destroy these vinedressers and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard this, they said, Let it not be!<sup>17</sup> And He looked at them and said, What then is this which is written, "The Stone which the builders rejected, the same has become the Head of the corner?"<sup>18</sup> Whoever shall fall on that Stone shall be broken, but on whomever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder."

<sup>19</sup>And the chief priests and the scribes sought to lay hands on Him the same hour. And they feared the people, for they perceived that He had spoken this parable against them. <sup>20</sup>And they watched and sent forth spies, pretending themselves to be righteous men, so that they might seize upon a word of His, that they might deliver Him in this way to the power and authority of the governor. <sup>21</sup>And they asked Him, saying, Teacher, we know that you say and teach rightly, and do not accept the person of anyone, but truly teach the way of God. <sup>22</sup>Is it lawful for us to give tribute to Caesar or not? <sup>23</sup>But He perceived their craftiness and said to them, Why do you tempt Me? <sup>24</sup>Show Me a coin. Whose image and inscription does it have? They answered and said, Caesar's. <sup>25</sup>And He said to them, Therefore render to Caesar the things which are Caesar's, and to God the things which are God's. <sup>26</sup>And they could not take hold of His words before the people. And they marvelled at His answer and were silent.

<sup>27</sup>And certain of the Sadducees came, those speaking against a resurrection, that it was not to be. And they asked Him, <sup>28</sup>saying, Teacher, Moses wrote to us, If anyone's brother dies, having a wife, and if he dies without children, his brother should take his wife and raise up seed to his brother. <sup>29</sup>Therefore there were seven brothers. And the first took a wife and died without children. <sup>30</sup>And the second took her as a wife, and he died childless. <sup>31</sup>And the third took her. And in the same way the seven also took her. And they left no children and died. <sup>32</sup>Last of all the woman also died. <sup>33</sup>Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be? For the seven had her as a wife. <sup>34</sup>And answering, Jesus said to them, The sons of this world marry and are given in marriage, <sup>35</sup>but they who shall be counted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage. <sup>36</sup>Nor can they die any more, for they are equal to the angels, and are the sons of God, being the sons of the resurrection. <sup>37</sup>And that the dead are raised, even Moses pointed out at the Bush, when he called the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. <sup>38</sup>For He is not a God of the dead, but of the living. For all live to Him. <sup>39</sup>And answering, certain of the scribes said, Teacher, you have spoken well. <sup>40</sup>And after that they did not dare ask Him anything.

<sup>41</sup>And He said to them, How do they say that Christ is the Son of David? <sup>42</sup>Even David himself says in the Book of Psalms, "The LORD said to my Lord, Sit at My right hand" <sup>43</sup>until I place Your enemies as Your footstool." <sup>44</sup>David then calls Him Lord; how then is He his son?

<sup>45</sup>And as all the people were listening, He said to the disciples, <sup>46</sup>Beware of the scribes who desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the first seats in the synagogues, and the chief places at the feasts; <sup>47</sup>who devour widows' houses, and make long prayers for a show; the same shall receive a more severe condemnation.

CHAPTER 21

<sup>1</sup>And looking up, He saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury. <sup>2</sup>And He also saw a certain poor widow casting two lepta in there. <sup>3</sup>And He said, Truly I say to you that this poor widow has cast in more than all of them. <sup>4</sup>For all these have cast in to the offerings of God from their abundance, but out of her poverty she has cast in all the living she had.

<sup>5</sup>And as some spoke of the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts, He said, <sup>6</sup>As to these things which you see, the day will come in which there shall not be left a stone on a stone, which shall not be thrown down.

<sup>7</sup>And they asked Him, saying, Teacher, but when shall these things be? And what shall be the sign when these things are about to take place? <sup>8</sup>And He said, Take heed that you are not deceived, for many shall come in My name, saying, I AM! Also, The time has come! Do not go after them. <sup>9</sup>But when you hear of wars and disturbances, do not be terrified, for all these things must first occur, but the end is not at once. <sup>10</sup>And He said to them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. <sup>11</sup>And great earthquakes shall be in different places, and famines and plagues. And there shall be terrors and great signs from Heaven. <sup>12</sup>But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for My name's sake. <sup>13</sup>And it shall return to you for a testimony. <sup>14</sup>Therefore settle it in your hearts not to meditate beforehand what you shall answer. <sup>15</sup>For I will give you a mouth and wisdom which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist. <sup>16</sup>And you shall be betrayed also by parents and brothers and kinsmen and friends. And they will cause some of you to be put to death. <sup>17</sup>And you shall be hated by all for My name's sake. <sup>18</sup>But there shall not a hair of your head perish. <sup>19</sup>By your patience you will gain your souls.

<sup>20</sup>And when you see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that its destruction has come. <sup>21</sup>And let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. And those who are in its midst, let them go out. And those in the open spaces, let them not go into her. <sup>22</sup>For these are the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. <sup>23</sup>But woe to those who are with child, and to those who give suck in those days! For there shall be great distress in the land and wrath on this people. <sup>24</sup>And they shall fall by the sword's edge. And shall be led away captive into all nations. And Jerusalem shall be trodden down by the nations until the times of the nations is fulfilled. <sup>25</sup>And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars. And on the earth will be anxiety of nations with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; <sup>26</sup>men fainting at heart from fear, and expecting those things which have come on the earth. For the powers of the heavens shall be shaken. <sup>27</sup>And then they shall see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. <sup>28</sup>And when these things begin to happen, then look up and lift up your heads, for your redemption draws near.

<sup>29</sup>And He spoke a parable to them: Behold the fig-tree and all the trees. <sup>30</sup>Now when they sprout leaves, seeing it you will know that summer is now near. <sup>31</sup>So also, when you see these things happening, know that the kingdom of God is near. <sup>32</sup>Truly I say to you, This generation shall not pass away until all is fulfilled. <sup>33</sup>Heaven and earth shall pass away, but My words shall not pass away.

<sup>34</sup>And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts are weighed down with headaches and drinking and anxieties of this life; and that day should suddenly come on you; <sup>35</sup>for it shall come as a snare on all those sitting on the face of the whole earth. <sup>36</sup>Watch therefore, praying in every season that you may be counted worthy to escape all these things which shall occur, and to stand before the Son of man.

<sup>37</sup>And in the days He was teaching in the temple. And in the nights He went out, and lodged in the mount that is called the Mount of Olives. <sup>38</sup>And all the people came early in the morning to Him in the temple, in order to hear Him.

CHAPTER 22

<sup>2</sup>And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill Him, for they feared the people.

<sup>3</sup>And Satan entered into Judas, surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the Twelve. <sup>4</sup>And going, he talked with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray Him to them. <sup>5</sup>And they were glad and they agreed to give him silver. <sup>6</sup>And he fully consented, and he sought opportunity to betray Him to them, away from the crowd.

<sup>7</sup>And the day of the Unleavened Bread came, when the passover must be killed. <sup>8</sup>And He sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare the passover for us, so that we may eat. <sup>9</sup>And they said to Him, Where do You desire that we prepare? <sup>10</sup>And He said to them, Behold, when you have entered into the city, you will meet a man bearing a pitcher of water. Follow him into the house where he enters. <sup>11</sup>And you shall say to the master of the house, The Teacher says to you, Where is the guest room where I shall eat the passover with My disciples? <sup>12</sup>And he shall show you a large, furnished upper room. Prepare there. <sup>13</sup>And they went and found it as He had said to them. And they prepared the passover.

<sup>14</sup>And when the hour came, He and the twelve apostles with Him reclined. <sup>15</sup>And He said to them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer. <sup>16</sup>For I say to you, I will not any more eat of it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God. <sup>17</sup>And He took the cup and gave thanks and said, Take this and divide it among yourselves. <sup>18</sup>For I say to you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God shall come. <sup>19</sup>And He took bread and gave thanks, and He broke it and gave it to them, saying, This is My body which is given for you, this do in remembrance of Me. <sup>20</sup>In the same way also the cup, after supper, saying, This cup is the new covenant in My blood, which is poured out for you. <sup>21</sup>But, behold, the hand of My betrayer is with Me on the table. <sup>22</sup>And truly the Son of man goes, as it has been determined, but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed! <sup>23</sup>And they began to inquire among themselves which of them it was that should do this thing.

<sup>24</sup>And there was also a dispute among them as to which of them seems to be greater. <sup>25</sup>And He said to them, The kings of the nations exercise lordship over them. And they who exercise authority on them are called benefactors. <sup>26</sup>But you shall not be so: but the greater among you, let him be as the lesser, and he who governs, as one who serves. <sup>27</sup>For which is the greater; he who reclines, or he who serves? Is it not he who reclines? But I am among you as He who serves. <sup>28</sup>You are those who have continued with Me in My trials. <sup>29</sup>And I appoint a kingdom to you, as My Father has appointed to Me, <sup>30</sup>that you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

<sup>31</sup>And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan has desired you, that he may sift you as wheat. <sup>32</sup>But I have prayed for you, that your faith fail not. And when you are converted, strengthen your brothers. <sup>33</sup>And he said to Him, Lord, I am ready to go with You, both into prison and into death. <sup>34</sup>And He said, I say to you, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day before you shall deny knowing Me three times.

<sup>35</sup>And He said to them, When I sent you without purse and wallet and sandals, did you lack anything? And they said, Nothing. <sup>36</sup>And He said to them, But now, he who has a purse, let him take it, and likewise his wallet. And he who has no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one. <sup>37</sup>For I say to you that this which is written must yet be accomplished in Me, "And he was reckoned among the transgressors"; for the things concerning Me have an end. <sup>38</sup>And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And He said to them, It is enough.

<sup>39</sup>And going out, according to His custom, He went to the Mount of Olives. And His disciples also followed Him. <sup>40</sup>And when He was at the place, He said to them, Pray that you do not enter into temptation. <sup>41</sup>And He was withdrawn from them about a stone's throw. And He kneeled down and prayed, <sup>42</sup>saying, Father, if You are willing, remove this cup from Me. Yet not My will, but Yours be done. <sup>43</sup>And an angel appeared to Him from Heaven, strengthening Him. <sup>44</sup>And being in an agony He prayed more earnestly. And His sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground. <sup>45</sup>And when He rose up from prayer and had come to His disciples, He found them sleeping because of sorrow. <sup>46</sup>And He said to them, Why do you sleep? Rise and pray lest you enter into temptation.

<sup>47</sup>And as He was yet speaking, behold a crowd! And he who was called Judas, one of the Twelve, went before them. And he drew near Jesus to kiss Him. <sup>48</sup>But Jesus said to him, Judas, do you betray the Son of man with a kiss? <sup>49</sup>And those around Him seeing what was about to occur, they said to him, Lord, shall we strike with the sword? <sup>50</sup>And one of them struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear. <sup>51</sup>And Jesus answered and said, Let it go until now. And touching his ear, He healed him.

<sup>52</sup>And Jesus said to the chief priests, and the captains of the temple, and the elders, who had come to Him, Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and staves? <sup>53</sup>When I was with you in the temple daily, you did not stretch out your hand on Me. But this is your hour, and the authority of the darkness.

<sup>54</sup>And laying hold on Him, they led Him away and brought Him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off. <sup>55</sup>And lighting a fire in the middle of the court, and they sitting down, Peter sat in their midst. <sup>56</sup>But a certain girl saw him as he sat by the fire and earnestly looked on him and said, This man was with him also. <sup>57</sup>And he denied Him, saying, Woman, I do not know Him. <sup>58</sup>And after a little while another saw him and said, You also are of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not! <sup>59</sup>And about an hour afterward, another confidently affirmed, saying, Truly this one was also with him, for he is a Galilean. <sup>60</sup>And Peter said, Man, I do not know what you say. And immediately, while he still spoke, the cock crowed. <sup>61</sup>And the Lord turned and looked on Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had said to him, Before the cock crows, you shall deny Me three times. <sup>62</sup>And Peter went out and wept bitterly.

<sup>63</sup>And the men who held Jesus mocked Him, beating Him. <sup>64</sup>And blindfolding Him, they struck Him on His face. And they asked Him, saying, Prophesy! Who is it who struck you? <sup>65</sup>And they spoke many other things blasphemously against Him.

<sup>66</sup>And when day came, the body of elders of the people, and the chief priests and the scribes, came together. And they led Him into their council, saying, <sup>67</sup>Are you the Christ? Tell us. And He said to them, If I tell you, you will not believe. <sup>68</sup>Also if I ask you, you will not answer Me nor let Me go. <sup>69</sup>From now on the Son of man shall sit at the right hand of the power of God. <sup>70</sup>And they all said, Are you then the Son of God? And He said to them, You say it, because I AM! <sup>71</sup>And they said, What need do we have for any further witness? For we ourselves have heard it from his own mouth.

CHAPTER 23

<sup>1</sup>And rising up, all the multitude of them led Him before Pilate. <sup>2</sup>And they began to accuse Him, saying, We have found this one perverting the nation and forbidding them to give tribute to Caesar, saying himself to be a king, Christ. <sup>3</sup>And Pilate asked Him, saying, Are you the king of the Jews? And He answered him and said, You say it. <sup>4</sup>And Pilate said to the chief priests and to the people, I find no fault in this man. <sup>5</sup>And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee to this place. <sup>6</sup>And hearing Galilee, Pilate asked if the man is a Galilean. <sup>7</sup>And knowing that He belonged to Herod's jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, who himself was also at Jerusalem at that time.

<sup>8</sup>And seeing Jesus, Herod greatly rejoiced, for he had desired to see Him for a long time, because he had heard many things about Him. And he hoped to see some miracle done by Him. <sup>9</sup>And he questioned Him in many words, but He answered him nothing. <sup>10</sup>And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused Him. <sup>11</sup>And humiliating Him with his guardsmen, and mocking Him by putting luxurious clothing around Him, Herod sent Him again to Pilate. <sup>12</sup>And that same day Pilate and Herod became friends with one another, for before they were at enmity between themselves.

<sup>13</sup>And when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, <sup>14</sup>Pilate said to them, You have brought this man to me as perverting the people. And behold, having examined Him before you, I have found no fault in this Man regarding those things of which you accuse Him; <sup>15</sup>no, nor even Herod, for I sent you to him, and lo, nothing worthy of death has been done by Him. <sup>16</sup>Therefore I will chastise Him and release Him. <sup>17</sup>(For it was necessary for him to release one to them at the feast.) <sup>18</sup>And they all cried out at once, saying, Away with this One! And release to us Barabbas <sup>19</sup>(who was thrown into prison because of a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder). <sup>20</sup>And Pilate, willing to release Jesus, spoke again to them. <sup>21</sup>But they cried, saying, Crucify! Crucify Him! <sup>22</sup>And he said to them the third time, Why? What evil has He done? I have found no cause of death in Him, therefore I will chastise Him and let Him go. <sup>23</sup>But they were urgent with loud voices, requesting that He might be crucified. And their voices and those of the chief priests prevailed.

<sup>24</sup>And Pilate gave judgment that their request should be granted. <sup>25</sup>And he released to them the one who had been thrown into prison for sedition and murder, for whom they had asked. But he delivered up Jesus to their will. <sup>26</sup>And as they led Him away, they laid hold on one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country. And they laid the cross on him, that he might carry it after Jesus.

<sup>27</sup>And a great multitude of people were following Him, and of women who also were bewailing and lamenting Him. <sup>28</sup>But turning to them, Jesus said, Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. <sup>29</sup>For behold, the days are coming in which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts which never gave suck. <sup>30</sup>And they shall begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us! And to the hills, Cover us! <sup>31</sup>For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

<sup>32</sup>And two others, two criminals, were led with Him to be put to death. <sup>33</sup>And when they came to the place which is called Calvary, they crucified Him and the criminals there, one on the right, and one on the left. <sup>34</sup>And Jesus said, Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they do. And parting His clothing, they cast lots. <sup>35</sup>And the people stood watching. And also the rulers with them, scoffing, saying, He saved others, let Him save Himself, if He is the Christ, the chosen of God. <sup>36</sup>And the soldiers also mocked Him, and offering Him vinegar, <sup>37</sup>and saying, If You are the king of the Jews, save Yourself. <sup>38</sup>And an inscription also was written over Him in letters of Greek and Latin and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

<sup>39</sup>And one of the hanged criminals blasphemed Him, saying, If you are Christ, save Yourself and us. <sup>40</sup>But answering, the other rebuked him, saying, Do you not fear God, since you are in the same condemnation? <sup>41</sup>And we indeed justly so, for we receive the due reward of our deeds, but this Man has done nothing amiss? <sup>42</sup>And he said to Jesus, Lord, remember me when You come into Your kingdom. <sup>43</sup>And Jesus said to him, Truly I say to you, Today you shall be with Me in Paradise.

<sup>44</sup>And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour. <sup>45</sup>And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was torn in the middle. <sup>46</sup>And crying with a loud voice, Jesus said, Father, into Your hands I commend My spirit. And when He had said this, He gave up the spirit.

<sup>47</sup>And when the centurion saw what had been done, he glorified God, saying, Truly this Man was righteous. <sup>48</sup>And all the crowd arriving together at this sight, beholding the things happening, struck their breasts and returned. <sup>49</sup>And all those known to Him stood at a distance; and the women, those accompanying Him from Galilee, were seeing these things.

<sup>50</sup>And behold, a man named Joseph, a councillor, a good man and a just one, <sup>51</sup>this one was not assenting to their counsel and deed. He was from Arimathea, a city of the Jews; and he also himself waited for the kingdom of God. <sup>52</sup>This man went to Pilate and begged the body of Jesus. <sup>53</sup>And he took it down and wrapped it in linen. And he laid it in a tomb that had been cut in the stone, in which no man had before been laid. <sup>54</sup>And that day was the Preparation, and the sabbath drew on. <sup>55</sup>And also women were following, who were accompanying Him out of Galilee, who watched the tomb, and how His body was placed. <sup>56</sup>And they returned and they prepared spices and ointment. And they rested on the sabbath day according to the commandment.

CHAPTER 24

<sup>1</sup>And on the first day of the week, while still very early, they came to the tomb bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them. <sup>2</sup>And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb. <sup>3</sup>And going in, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. <sup>4</sup>And as they were much perplexed about it, it happened that, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments. <sup>5</sup>And as they were afraid, and bowed their faces down to the earth, they said to them, Why do you seek the living among the dead? <sup>6</sup>He is not here, but has risen. Remember how He spoke to you when He was still in Galilee, <sup>7</sup>saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be crucified, and the third day rise again? <sup>8</sup>And they remembered His words <sup>9</sup>and returned from the tomb and told all these things to the Eleven and to the rest. <sup>10</sup>It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and the rest with them, who told these things to the apostles. <sup>11</sup>And their words seemed to them like foolishness, and they did not believe them. <sup>12</sup>And Peter arose and ran to the tomb, and stooping down he saw the linen lying alone. And he went away wondering to himself at what had happened.

<sup>13</sup>And behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, it being about sixty furlongs from Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>And they talked to each other of all these things which had happened. <sup>15</sup>And while they talked and reasoned, it happened that Jesus Himself drew near and went with them. <sup>16</sup>But their eyes were held so that they could not know Him. <sup>17</sup>And He said to them, What words are these that you have with one another as you walk, and are so sad. <sup>18</sup>And one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered and said to Him, Are you only a stranger in Jerusalem and have not known the things which have occurred there in these days? <sup>19</sup>And He said to them, What things? And they said to Him, The things concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, <sup>20</sup>and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered Him to be condemned to death, and have crucified Him. <sup>21</sup>But we had trusted that He was the One who was about to redeem Israel. And besides all this, today is the third day since these things were done. <sup>22</sup>Yes, and also some of our women astounded us, having been early at the tomb; <sup>23</sup>and when they did not find His body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that He was alive. <sup>24</sup>And some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it even as the women had said. But they did not see Him.

<sup>25</sup>And He said to them, O fools and slow of heart to believe all things that the prophets spoke! <sup>26</sup>Was it not necessary for the Christ to suffer these things and to enter into His glory? <sup>27</sup>And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, He expounded to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself.

<sup>28</sup>And they drew near the village where they were going. And He appeared to be going further. <sup>29</sup>But they constrained Him, saying, Stay with us, for it is toward evening and the day is far spent. And He went in to stay with them. <sup>30</sup>And it happened as He reclined with them, taking the loaf, He blessed it, and breaking it, He gave to them. <sup>31</sup>And their eyes were opened, and they knew Him. And He became invisible to them.

<sup>32</sup>And they said to one another, Did not our heart burn within us while He talked with us by the way and while He opened the Scriptures to us? <sup>33</sup>And they rose up the same hour and returned to Jerusalem and found assembled the Eleven and those with them. <sup>34</sup>And they said, the Lord has indeed risen, and has appeared to Simon. <sup>35</sup>And they told what things had happened in the way, and how He had been known by them in breaking of the loaf.

<sup>36</sup>And as they spoke this, Jesus Himself stood in their midst, and said to them, Peace to you! <sup>37</sup>But they were terrified and filled with fear, for they thought they saw a spirit. <sup>38</sup>And He said to them, Why are you troubled, and why do thoughts arise in your hearts? <sup>39</sup>Behold My hands and My feet, that I am He! Handle Me and see, for a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see Me have. <sup>40</sup>And when He had spoken this, He showed them His hands and feet. <sup>41</sup>And while they still did not believe for joy, and wondered, He said to them, Have you any food here? <sup>42</sup>And they handed to Him a piece of a broiled fish and of a honeycomb. <sup>43</sup>And He took it and ate before them. <sup>44</sup>And He said to them, These are the words which I spoke to you while I was still with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the law of Moses and in the Prophets and in the Psalms about Me. <sup>45</sup>And He opened their mind to understand the Scriptures. <sup>46</sup>And He said to them, So it is written, and so it behoved Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day, <sup>47</sup>and that repentance and remission of sins should be proclaimed in His name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. <sup>48</sup>And you are witnesses of these things. <sup>49</sup>And behold, I send the promise of My father on you. But you sit in the city of Jerusalem until you are clothed with power from on high.

<sup>50</sup>And He led them out as far as Bethany. And lifting up His hands, He blessed them. <sup>51</sup>And it happened as He blessed them, He withdrew from them and was carried up into Heaven. <sup>52</sup>And worshiping Him, they returned to Jerusalem with great joy. <sup>53</sup>And they were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. <sup>2</sup>He was in the beginning with God. <sup>3</sup>All things came into being through Him, and without Him not even one thing came into being. <sup>4</sup>In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. <sup>5</sup>And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overtake it.

<sup>6</sup>There was a man sent from God; his name was John. <sup>7</sup>This one came as a witness, to bear witness concerning the Light, so that all might believe through him. <sup>8</sup>He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light. <sup>9</sup>He was the true Light; He enlightens every man coming into the world. <sup>10</sup>He was in the world, and the world came into being through Him, and the world did not know Him. <sup>11</sup>He came to His own, and His own received Him not. <sup>12</sup>But as many as received Him, He gave to them authority to become the children of God, to those who believe on His name — <sup>13</sup>who were born, not of bloods, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but were born of God.

<sup>14</sup>And the Word became flesh, and tabernacled among us. And we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and of truth. <sup>15</sup>John bore witness of Him and cried out, saying, This was He of whom I spoke: He who comes after me has been before me, for He was preceding me. <sup>16</sup>And out of His fullness we all have received, and grace for grace. <sup>17</sup>For the law came through by Moses, but grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. <sup>18</sup>No one has seen God at any time; the Only-begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, He has declared Him.

<sup>19</sup>And this is the witness of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who are you? <sup>20</sup>And he confessed and did not deny, but confessed, I am not the Christ. <sup>21</sup>And they asked him, What then? Are you Elijah? And he says, I am not. Are you that prophet? And he answered, No. <sup>22</sup>Then they said to him, Who are you so that we may give an answer to those who sent us? What do you say of yourself? <sup>23</sup>He said, I am “the voice of one crying in the wilderness: Make straight the way of the Lord,” as the prophet Isaiah said. <sup>24</sup>And they who were sent were from the Pharisees. <sup>25</sup>And they asked him and said, Why then do you baptize, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor that Prophet? <sup>26</sup>John answered them, saying, I baptize with water, but One stands among you whom you do not know — <sup>27</sup>He it is who, coming after me, who has been before me — of whom I am not worthy to loosen the latchet of His sandal. <sup>28</sup>These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

<sup>29</sup>The next day John sees Jesus coming to him and says, Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! <sup>30</sup>This is He of whom I said, After me comes a Man who has been before me, for He preceded me. <sup>31</sup>And I did not know him, but that He be revealed to Israel, therefore I have come baptizing with water. <sup>32</sup>And John bore record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from Heaven like a dove, and it abode on Him. <sup>33</sup>And I did not know Him, but He who sent me to baptize with water, that One said to me, Upon whom you shall see the Spirit descending, and remaining upon Him, He is the One who baptizes with the Holy Spirit. <sup>34</sup>And I saw and bore record that this is the Son of God.

<sup>35</sup>Again, the next day afterward, John stood with two of his disciples. <sup>36</sup>And looking upon Jesus as He walked, he says, Behold the Lamb of God! <sup>37</sup>And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus. <sup>38</sup>Then Jesus turned and saw them following and said to them, What do you seek? They said to Him, Rabbi

(which is called, being translated Teacher), where do you live? <sup>39</sup>He says to them, Come and see. They came and saw where He lived, and stayed with Him that day, for it was about the tenth hour. <sup>40</sup>One of the two who heard John and followed Him was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. <sup>41</sup>He first found his own brother Simon and said to him, We have found the Messiah (which is, being translated, the Christ). <sup>42</sup>And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus saw him, He said, You are Simon the son of Jonah — you shall be called Cephas (which translated is, A stone).

<sup>43</sup>The day after, Jesus desired to go forth into Galilee. And He found Philip and said to him, Follow Me. <sup>44</sup>Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. <sup>45</sup>Philip found Nathanael and said to him, We have found Him of whom Moses wrote in the law and the prophets, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph. <sup>46</sup>And Nathanael said to him, Can there be any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip said to him, Come and see. <sup>47</sup>Jesus saw Nathanael coming to Him and said of him, Behold an Israelite indeed in whom is no guile! <sup>48</sup>Nathanael said to Him, From where do You know me? Jesus answered and said to him, Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you. <sup>49</sup>Nathanael answered and said to Him, Rabbi, You are the King of Israel! <sup>50</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, Because I said to you, I saw you under the fig tree, do you believe? You shall see greater things than these. <sup>51</sup>And He said to him, Truly, truly, I say to you, Hereafter you shall see Heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee. And the mother of Jesus was there. <sup>2</sup>And Jesus and His disciples were both invited to the marriage. <sup>3</sup>And when they lacked wine, the mother of Jesus said to Him, They have no wine. <sup>4</sup>Jesus said to her, Woman, what do I have to do with you? My hour has not yet come. <sup>5</sup>His mother said to the servants, Whatever He says to you, do it. <sup>6</sup>And there were six stone waterpots there, according to the purification of the Jews, each containing two or three measures each. <sup>7</sup>Jesus said to them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. <sup>8</sup>And He said to them, Now draw out and carry it to the governor of the feast. And they carried it.

<sup>9</sup>When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water which was made wine (and did not know where it was from, but the servants who drew the water knew), the governor of the feast called the bridegroom. <sup>10</sup>And he said to him, Every man at the beginning sets forth good wine, and when men have drunk well, then that which is worse. You have kept the good wine until now. <sup>11</sup>This beginning of miracles Jesus did in Cana of Galilee. And it revealed His glory. And His disciples believed on Him.

<sup>12</sup>After this He went down to Capernaum, He and His mother and His brothers and His disciples. And they did not stay there many days. <sup>13</sup>And the Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>And He found in the temple those who sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the money-changers sitting there. <sup>15</sup>And when He had made a scourge of small cords, He drove them all out of the temple, also the sheep and the oxen. And He poured out the money-changers' money and overthrew the tables. <sup>16</sup>And He said to those who sold doves, Take these things away from here. Do not make My Father's house a house of merchandise. <sup>17</sup>And His disciples remembered that it was written, "The zeal of Your house has eaten Me up."

<sup>18</sup>Then the Jews answered and said to Him, What sign do you show us, since you do these things? <sup>19</sup>Jesus answered and said to them, Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up. <sup>20</sup>Then the Jews said, This temple was forty-six years building, and will you rear it up in three days? <sup>21</sup>But He spoke of the temple of His body. <sup>22</sup>Therefore when He had risen from the dead, His disciples remembered that He had said this to them, and they believed the Scripture and the word which Jesus had said.

<sup>23</sup>And as He was in Jerusalem at the Passover, at the feast, many believed in His name when they saw the miracles which He did. <sup>24</sup>But Jesus did not commit Himself to them, because He knew all men <sup>25</sup>and did not need that anyone should testify of man. For He knew what was in man.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. <sup>2</sup>He came to Jesus by night and said to Him, Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God — for no man can do these miracles which you do unless God is with him. <sup>3</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, Truly, truly, I say to you, Unless a man is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. <sup>4</sup>Nicodemus said to Him, How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter the second time into his mother's womb and be born? <sup>5</sup>Jesus answered, Truly, truly, I say to you, Unless a man is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. <sup>6</sup>That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. <sup>7</sup>Do not marvel that I said to you, You must be born again. <sup>8</sup>The Spirit breathes where He desires, and you hear His voice, but you do not know from where He comes, and where He goes — so is everyone who is born of the Spirit. <sup>9</sup>Nicodemus answered and said to Him, How can these things be? <sup>10</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, Are you the teacher of Israel and do not know these things? <sup>11</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, We speak what we know and testify what we have seen. And you do not receive our witness. <sup>12</sup>If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how shall you believe if I tell you heavenly things? <sup>13</sup>And no one has ascended up to Heaven except He who came down from Heaven, the Son of man who is in Heaven. <sup>14</sup>But even as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up, <sup>15</sup>so that whosoever believes in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

<sup>16</sup>For God so loved the world that He gave His only-begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. <sup>17</sup>For God did not send His son into the world to condemn the world, but so that the world might be saved through Him. <sup>18</sup>He who believes on Him is not condemned, but he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only-begotten Son of God. <sup>19</sup>And this is the condemnation, that the Light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than the Light, because their deeds were evil. <sup>20</sup>For everyone who does evil hates the Light, and does not come to the Light, lest his deeds should be exposed. <sup>21</sup>But he who practices truth comes to the Light so that his deeds may be made known, that they have been worked in God.

<sup>22</sup>After these things Jesus and His disciples came into the land of Judea. And He stayed there with them and baptized. <sup>23</sup>And John was also baptizing in Enon near Salim, because there was much water there. And they came and were baptized. <sup>24</sup>For John had not yet been cast into prison. <sup>25</sup>Then a question from John's disciples arose with the Jews about purifying. <sup>26</sup>And they came to John and said to him, Rabbi, He who was with you beyond Jordan, to whom you bore witness, behold, He baptizes, and all come to Him! <sup>27</sup>And John answered and said, A man can receive nothing unless it is given to him from Heaven. <sup>28</sup>You yourselves bear witness to me that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before Him. <sup>29</sup>He who has the bride is the bridegroom, but the friend of the bridegroom who stands and hears him rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. Then my joy is fulfilled. <sup>30</sup>He must increase, but I must decrease. <sup>31</sup>He who comes from above is above all; he who is from the earth is earthly and speaks from the earth. He who comes from Heaven is above all, <sup>32</sup>and what He has seen and heard, that He testifies, and no one receives His testimony. <sup>33</sup>He who has received His testimony has set his seal to this, that God is true. <sup>34</sup>For He whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God does not give the Spirit by measure. <sup>35</sup>The Father loves the Son and has given all things into His hand. <sup>36</sup>He who believes on the Son has everlasting life, and he who does not believe the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abides upon him.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>7</sup>A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, Give me to drink. <sup>8</sup>(For His disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.) <sup>9</sup>Then the woman of Samaria said to Him, How do you, being a Jew, ask a drink of me, who am a woman of Samaria? For the Jews do not associate with Samaritans. <sup>10</sup>Jesus answered and said to her, If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that says to you, Give Me to drink, you would have asked of Him, and He would have given you living water. <sup>11</sup>The woman said to Him, Sir, you have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. From where then do you have that living water? <sup>12</sup>Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank of it himself, and his children and his cattle? <sup>13</sup>Jesus answered and said to her, Whoever drinks of this water shall thirst again, <sup>14</sup>but whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst — but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life. <sup>15</sup>The woman said to Him, Sir, give me this water, so that I may not thirst nor come here to draw. <sup>16</sup>Jesus said to her, Go, call your husband and come here. <sup>17</sup>The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said to her, You have well said, I have no husband <sup>18</sup>for you have had five husbands, and he whom you now have is not your husband. In that you spoke truly. <sup>19</sup>The woman said to Him, Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet. <sup>20</sup>Our fathers worshiped in this mountain, and you say that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship. <sup>21</sup>Jesus said to her, Woman, believe Me, the hour is coming when you shall neither worship the Father in this mountain nor yet at Jerusalem. <sup>22</sup>You worship what you do not know, we know what we worship, for salvation is of the Jews. <sup>23</sup>But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in spirit and truth — for the Father seeks such to worship Him. <sup>24</sup>God is a spirit, and they who worship Him must worship in spirit and in truth. <sup>25</sup>The woman said to Him, I know that Messiah is coming, who is called Christ. When He has come, He will tell us all things. <sup>26</sup>Jesus said to her, I AM, He speaking to you.

<sup>27</sup>And upon this His disciples came and marveled that He talked with the woman. However, no one said, What do You seek, or why do You talk with her?

<sup>28</sup>The woman then left her waterpot and went into the city and said to the men, <sup>29</sup>Come see a man who told me all things that I ever did. Could this be the Christ?

<sup>30</sup>And they went out of the city and came to Him.

<sup>31</sup>In the meantime His disciples were asking Him, saying, Master, eat. <sup>32</sup>But He said to them, I have food to eat which you do not know. <sup>33</sup>Therefore the disciples said to one another, No one brought Him anything to eat? <sup>34</sup>Jesus said to them, My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me and to finish His work. <sup>35</sup>Do you not say, There are still four months and then the harvest comes? Behold, I say to you, Lift up your eyes and look on the fields, for they are white to harvest already. <sup>36</sup>And he who reaps receives wages and gathers fruit to life eternal, so that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. <sup>37</sup>And in this is the saying true, One sows and another reaps. <sup>38</sup>I sent you to reap that on which you bestowed no labor. Other men labored, and you have entered into their labor.

<sup>39</sup>And many of the Samaritans of that city believed upon Him because of the saying of the woman, who testified, He told me all that I ever did. <sup>40</sup>Then as the Samaritans had come to Him, they begged Him that He would stay with them. And He stayed there two days. <sup>41</sup>And many more believed because of His own word. <sup>42</sup>And they said to the woman, Now we believe, not because of your saying, for we have heard Him ourselves and know that this is truly the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

<sup>43</sup>And after two days He departed from there and went into Galilee. <sup>44</sup>For Jesus Himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own native-place. <sup>45</sup>Then when He had come into Galilee, the Galileans received Him, having seen all the things that He did at Jerusalem at the feast — for they also went to the feast.

<sup>46</sup>Then Jesus came again to Cana of Galilee, where He made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum. <sup>47</sup>When He heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to Him and begged Him that He would come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death. <sup>48</sup>Then Jesus said to him, Unless you see signs and wonders you will not believe. <sup>49</sup>The nobleman said to Him, Sir, come down before my child dies. <sup>50</sup>Jesus said to him, Go, your son lives. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken to him, and he went away. <sup>51</sup>And as he was now going down, his servants met him and told him, saying, Your son lives. <sup>52</sup>Then he asked of them the hour when he began to get better. And they said to him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. <sup>53</sup>So the father knew that it was at the same hour in which Jesus said to him, Your son lives. And he himself believed, and his whole house. <sup>54</sup>This is the second miracle Jesus did, when He had come out of Judea into Galilee.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>After this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Now there is a pool at the Sheep Gate at Jerusalem, which is called in Hebrew Bethesda, having five porches. <sup>3</sup>In these lay a great multitude of those who were sick, of blind, lame, withered, waiting for the moving of the water. <sup>4</sup>For an angel went down at a certain time into the pool and troubled the water. Then whoever first stepped in after the troubling of the water was made whole of whatever disease he had.

<sup>5</sup>And a certain man was there, who had an infirmity thirty-eight years. <sup>6</sup>When Jesus saw him lying, and knowing that he had spent much time, He said to him, Do you desire to be made whole? <sup>7</sup>The infirm man answered Him, Sir, when the water is troubled, I have no one to put me into the pool. But while I am coming, another steps down before me. <sup>8</sup>Jesus says to him, Rise, take up your bed and walk. <sup>9</sup>And immediately the man was made whole and took up his bed and walked. And it was a sabbath on that day. <sup>10</sup>Therefore the Jews said to him who had been healed, It is not lawful for you to take up the bed. <sup>11</sup>He answered them, He who made me whole said to me, Take up your bed and walk. <sup>12</sup>Then they asked him, Who is the man who said to you, Take up your bed and walk?<sup>13</sup> And he did not know Him who had cured him, for Jesus had moved away, a crowd being in the place.

<sup>14</sup>Afterward Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, Behold, you are made whole. Sin no more lest a worse thing come to you. <sup>15</sup>The man departed and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him whole. <sup>16</sup>And therefore the Jews persecuted Jesus and sought to kill Him, because He had done these things on the sabbath day. <sup>17</sup>But Jesus answered them, My Father works until now, and I work. <sup>18</sup>Then, because of this, the Jews sought the more to kill Him, because He not only had broken the sabbath, but also said that God was His father, making Himself equal with God. <sup>19</sup>Then Jesus answered and said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of Himself but what He sees the Father do. For whatever things He does, these also the Son does likewise. <sup>20</sup>For the Father loves the Son and shows Him all the things that He Himself does. And He will show Him greater works than these, so that you may marvel. <sup>21</sup>For as the Father raises the dead and makes alive, even so the Son of man makes alive to whomever He will. <sup>22</sup>For the Father judges no man, but has committed all judgment to the Son, <sup>23</sup>so that all should honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. He who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him. <sup>24</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, he who hears My word and believes on Him who sent Me has everlasting life and shall not come into condemnation, but has passed from death to life. <sup>25</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, the hour is coming and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God, and they who hear shall live. <sup>26</sup>For as the Father has life in Himself, so He has given to the Son to have life within Himself, <sup>27</sup>and has given Him authority to execute judgment also, because He is the Son of man. <sup>28</sup>Do not marvel at this, for the hour is coming in which all who are in the graves shall hear His voice, <sup>29</sup>and shall come forth — those who have done good to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil to the resurrection of condemnation.

<sup>30</sup>I can do nothing of My own self. As I hear, I judge, and My judgment is just, because I do not seek My own will, but the will of the Father who has sent Me. <sup>31</sup>If I bear witness of Myself, My witness is not true. <sup>32</sup>There is another who bears witness of Me, and I know that the witness which He witnesses of Me is true. <sup>33</sup>You sent to John, and he bore witness to the truth. <sup>34</sup>But I do not receive testimony from man, but these things I say so that you might be saved. <sup>35</sup>He was a burning and shining light, and you were willing for a time to rejoice in his light. <sup>36</sup>But I have greater witness than that of John, for the works which the Father has given Me that I should finish them, the works which I do themselves witness of Me, that the Father has sent Me. <sup>37</sup>And He sending Me, the Father Himself, has borne witness of Me. Neither have you heard His voice at any time nor seen His shape. <sup>38</sup>And you do not have His word abiding in you, for you do not believe Him whom He has sent. <sup>39</sup>You search the Scriptures, for in them you think you have eternal life. And they are the ones witnessing of Me, <sup>40</sup>and you will not come to Me that you might have life. <sup>41</sup>I do not receive honor from men. <sup>42</sup>But I know you, that you do not have the love of God in you. <sup>43</sup>I have come in My Father's name, and you do not receive Me. If another shall come in his own name, him you will receive. <sup>44</sup>How can you believe, you who receive honor from one another and do not seek the honor that comes from God only? <sup>45</sup>Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father, there is one who accuses you, Moses, in whom you trust. <sup>46</sup>For if you had believed Moses, you would have believed Me, for he wrote of Me. <sup>47</sup>But if you do not believe his writings, how shall you believe My words?

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>After these things Jesus went over the Sea of Galilee, the Sea of Tiberias. <sup>2</sup>And a great multitude followed Him, because they saw His miracles which He did on the sick ones. <sup>3</sup>And Jesus went up into a mountain and sat there with His disciples. <sup>4</sup>And the Passover was near, a feast of the Jews.

<sup>5</sup>Then Jesus lifted up His eyes and saw a great crowd come to Him. He said to Philip, Where shall we buy loaves so that these may eat? <sup>6</sup>And He said this to test him, for He Himself knew what He would do. <sup>7</sup>Philip answered Him, Loaves for two hundred denarii are not enough for them, that every one may take a little. <sup>8</sup>One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to Him, <sup>9</sup>There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two small fish, but what are these among so many? <sup>10</sup>And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. And there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, about five thousand in number. <sup>11</sup>And Jesus took the loaves, and when He had given thanks, He distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to those who had sat down; and likewise of the fish, as much as they wanted.

<sup>12</sup>And when they were filled, He said to His disciples, Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing is lost. <sup>13</sup>Therefore they gathered and filled twelve hand-baskets with fragments of the five barley loaves which were left over to those who had eaten.

<sup>14</sup>Then seeing the miracle that Jesus did, those men said, This is truly the Prophet, the One coming into the world. <sup>15</sup>Therefore when Jesus perceived that they would come and take Him by force, that they might make Him a king, Jesus withdrew again to the mountain alone by Himself.

<sup>16</sup>And when evening had come, the disciples went down to the sea <sup>17</sup>and entered into a boat, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus had not come to them. <sup>18</sup>And the sea rose up because of a great wind that blew. <sup>19</sup>Then having rowed about twenty-five or thirty furlongs, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and drawing near the ship. And they were afraid. <sup>20</sup>But He said to them, I AM! Do not be afraid. <sup>21</sup>Then they willingly received Him into the boat. And immediately the ship was at the land where they were going.

<sup>22</sup>The following day, the crowd standing on the other side of the sea had seen that there was no other little boat there except that one into which His disciples had entered, and when they saw that Jesus did not go with His disciples into the little boat, but that His disciples had gone away alone — <sup>23</sup>(however, other boats from Tiberias came near the place where they ate the bread, the Lord having given thanks) — <sup>24</sup>therefore, when the crowd saw that Jesus was not there, nor His disciples, they themselves also entered into the boats and came to Capernaum seeking Jesus. <sup>25</sup>And when they had found Him on the other side of the sea, they said to Him, Rabbi, when did you come here? <sup>26</sup>Jesus answered them and said, Truly, truly, I say to you, You seek Me not because you saw the miracles, but because you ate the loaves and were filled. <sup>27</sup>Do not labor for the food that perishes, but for that food which endures to everlasting life, which the Son of man will give you. For God the Father sealed Him. <sup>28</sup>Then they said to Him, What shall we do that we might work the works of God?

<sup>29</sup>Jesus answered and said to them, This is the work of God, that you believe on Him whom He has sent. <sup>30</sup>Therefore they said to Him, What sign do you show then, so that we may see and believe you? What do you work? <sup>31</sup>Our fathers ate the manna in the desert, as it is written, "He gave them bread from Heaven to eat." <sup>32</sup>Then Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, Moses did not give you that bread from Heaven, but My Father gives you the true bread from Heaven.

<sup>33</sup>For the bread of God is He who comes down from Heaven and gives life to the world. <sup>34</sup>Then they said to him, Lord, evermore give us this bread. <sup>35</sup>And Jesus said to them, I am the bread of life. He who comes to Me shall never hunger, and he who believes on Me shall never thirst. <sup>36</sup>But I said to you that you also have seen Me and do not believe. <sup>37</sup>All that the Father gives Me shall come to Me, and him who comes to Me I will in no way cast out. <sup>38</sup>For I came down from Heaven, not to do My own will but the will of Him who sent Me. <sup>39</sup>And this is the will of the Father who sent Me, that of all which He has given Me I should lose nothing but should raise it up again at the last day. <sup>40</sup>And this is the will of Him who sent Me, that everyone who sees the Son and believes on Him should have everlasting life. And I will raise him up at the last day.

<sup>41</sup>Then the Jews murmured about Him, because He said, I am the bread which came down from Heaven. <sup>42</sup>And they said, Is this not Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How now does this One say, I have come down from Heaven? <sup>43</sup>Jesus therefore answered and said to them, Do not murmur with one another. <sup>44</sup>No one can come to Me unless the Father who has sent Me draw him, and I will raise him up at the last day. <sup>45</sup>It is written in the prophets, "And they shall all be taught of God." Therefore everyone who hears and learns from the Father comes to Me. <sup>46</sup>Not that anyone has seen the Father, except He who is from God — He has seen the Father. <sup>47</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes on Me has everlasting life. <sup>48</sup>I am the Bread of life. <sup>49</sup>Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and died. <sup>50</sup>This is the Bread which comes down from Heaven, so that a man may eat of it and not die. <sup>51</sup>I am the Living Bread which came down from Heaven. If anyone eats of this Bread, he shall live forever. And truly the bread that I will give is My flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

<sup>52</sup>Then the Jews argued with one another, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat? <sup>53</sup>Then Jesus says to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink His blood, you do not have life in yourselves. <sup>54</sup>Whoever partakes of My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. <sup>55</sup>For My flesh is food indeed, and My blood is drink indeed. <sup>56</sup>He who partakes of My flesh and drinks My blood dwells in Me, and I in him. <sup>57</sup>As the living Father has sent Me, and I live through the Father, so he who partakes of Me, even he shall live by Me. <sup>58</sup>This is the Bread which came down from Heaven — not as your fathers ate the manna, and died; he who partakes of this Bread shall live forever.

<sup>59</sup>He said these things in the synagogue as He taught in Capernaum. <sup>60</sup>Then when they had heard, many of His disciples said, This is a hard saying, who can hear it? <sup>61</sup>But knowing in Himself that His disciples murmured about it, Jesus said to them, Does this offend you? <sup>62</sup>Then what if you should see the Son of man going up where He was before? <sup>63</sup>It is the Spirit that makes alive, the flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit and are life. <sup>64</sup>But there are some of you who do not believe. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who was to betray Him. <sup>65</sup>And He said, Because of this I said to you that no one can come to Me unless it was given to him from My Father.

<sup>66</sup>From this time many of His disciples went back and walked no more with Him. <sup>67</sup>Then Jesus said to the Twelve, Will you also go away? <sup>68</sup>Then Simon Peter answered Him, Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. <sup>69</sup>And we have believed and have known that You are the Christ, the Son of the living God. <sup>70</sup>Jesus answered them, Have I not chosen you, the Twelve? And one of you is a devil? <sup>71</sup>He spoke of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon — for it was he who was about to betray Him, being one of the Twelve.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>After these things Jesus walked in Galilee, for He did not desire to walk in Judea, because the Jews sought to kill Him. <sup>2</sup>And the Jewish Feast of Tabernacles was near. <sup>3</sup>Therefore His brothers said to Him, Move away from here and go into Judea, so that Your disciples also may see the works that You do. <sup>4</sup>For no one does anything in secret, while he himself seeks to be in public. If you do these things, reveal yourself to the world. <sup>5</sup>For His brothers did not believe in Him. <sup>6</sup>Then Jesus said to them, My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready. <sup>7</sup>The world cannot hate you, but it hates Me because I testify of it, that its works are evil. <sup>8</sup>You go up to this feast, I am not yet going up to this feast, for My time is not yet fulfilled. <sup>9</sup>And saying He these things to them, He remained in Galilee. <sup>10</sup>But when His brothers had gone up, then He also went up to the feast, not openly, but as in secret. <sup>11</sup>Then the Jews sought Him at the feast and said, Where is He? <sup>12</sup>And there was much murmuring among the crowd concerning Him, for some said, He is a good man; others said, No, but he deceives the crowd. <sup>13</sup>However, no one spoke openly of Him, because of the fear of the Jews.

<sup>14</sup>Now about the middle of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple and taught. <sup>15</sup>And the Jews marveled, saying, How does this man know letters, not being taught? <sup>16</sup>Jesus answered them and said, My doctrine is not Mine, but His who sent Me. <sup>17</sup>If anyone desires to do His will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it is of God, or I speak from Myself. <sup>18</sup>He who speaks of himself seeks his own glory, but he who seeks the glory of Him who sent Him is true, and no unrighteousness is in Him. <sup>19</sup>Did not Moses give you the law? And yet not one of you keeps the law! Why do you seek to kill Me? <sup>20</sup>The crowd answered and said, You have a demon! Who seeks to kill you? <sup>21</sup>Jesus answered and said to them, I have done one work, and you all marvel. <sup>22</sup>Because of this Moses gave you circumcision (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers,) and you circumcise a man on the sabbath day. <sup>23</sup>If a man receives circumcision on the sabbath day so that the law of Moses should not be broken, are you angry at Me because I have made a man entirely sound on the sabbath day? <sup>24</sup>Do not judge according to sight, but judge righteous judgment.

<sup>25</sup>Then some of those from Jerusalem said, Is this not the one they seek to kill? <sup>26</sup>But lo, he speaks publicly, and they say nothing to him. Perhaps the rulers truly know that this is the Christ indeed? <sup>27</sup>However, we know this one, from where he is, but when Christ comes, no one knows from where He is.

<sup>28</sup>Then Jesus cried in the temple as He taught, saying, You both know Me, and you know from where I come. And I have not come of Myself, but He who sent Me is true, whom you do not know. <sup>29</sup>But I know Him, for I am from Him, and He has sent Me. <sup>30</sup>Then they sought to seize Him, but no one laid hands on Him, because His hour had not yet come. <sup>31</sup>And many of the crowd believed on Him, and said, When the Christ comes, will He do more miracles than these which this One has done?

<sup>32</sup>The Pharisees heard that the crowd murmured such things concerning Him. And the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to seize Him. <sup>33</sup>Then Jesus said to them, Yet a little while I am with you, and then I go to Him who sent Me. <sup>34</sup>You shall seek Me and shall not find Me. And where I am, you cannot come. <sup>35</sup>Then the Jews said among themselves, Where is he about to go that we shall not find him? Is he about to go to the Dispersion of the Greeks, and to teach the Greeks? <sup>36</sup>What saying is this that He said, You shall seek Me and shall not find Me — and where I am, you cannot come?

<sup>37</sup>And in the last day of the great feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink. <sup>38</sup>He who believes on Me, as the Scripture has said, "Out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water." <sup>39</sup>(But He spoke this about the Spirit, which they who believed on Him should receive — for the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.) <sup>40</sup>Then when they heard the Word, many of the people said, Truly this is the Prophet. <sup>41</sup>Others said, This is the Christ. But others said, Does the Christ come out of Galilee? <sup>42</sup>Has the Scripture not said that Christ comes from the seed of David and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was? <sup>43</sup>So a division occurred in the crowd because of Him. <sup>44</sup>And some of them desired to seize Him, but no man laid hands on Him.

<sup>45</sup>Then the officers came to the chief priests and Pharisees. And they said to them, Why have you not brought him? <sup>46</sup>The officers answered, Never did any man speak as does this Man. <sup>47</sup>Then the Pharisees answered them, Are you also deceived? <sup>48</sup>Not any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him? <sup>49</sup>But this crowd, not knowing the law, is cursed. <sup>50</sup>Nicodemus said to them, (he who came to Jesus by night, being one of them), <sup>51</sup>Does our law judge the Man before it hears Him and knows what He does? <sup>52</sup>They answered and said to him, Are you also from Galilee? Search the scriptures and see that a prophet has not been raised out of Galilee.

<sup>53</sup>And they each went to his own house.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. <sup>2</sup>And early in the morning He came again into the temple, and all the people came to Him. And He sat down and taught them. <sup>3</sup>And the scribes and Pharisees brought to Him a woman taken in adultery. And standing her in the midst, <sup>4</sup>they said to Him, Teacher, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. <sup>5</sup>Now Moses in the law commanded us that such should be stoned. You, then, what do you say? <sup>6</sup>They said this, tempting Him so that they might have reason to accuse Him. But bending down, Jesus wrote on the ground with His finger, not appearing to hear. <sup>7</sup>But as they continued to ask Him, He lifted Himself up and said to them, He who is without sin among you, let him cast the first stone at her. <sup>8</sup>And again bending down, He wrote on the ground. <sup>9</sup>And hearing, and being convicted by conscience, they went out one by one, beginning at the oldest, until the last. And Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

<sup>10</sup>And bending back up, and seeing no one but the woman, Jesus said to her, Woman, where are the ones who accused you? Did not one give judgment against you? <sup>11</sup>And she said, No one, Lord. And Jesus said to her, Neither do I give judgment. Go, and sin no more.

<sup>12</sup>Then Jesus spoke again to them, saying, I am the Light of the world. He who follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. <sup>13</sup>Therefore the Pharisees said to Him, You bear record concerning yourself, your witness is not true. <sup>14</sup>Jesus answered and said to them, Though I bear record concerning Myself, My witness is true. For I know from where I came, and where I go. But you do not know from where I came, and where I go. <sup>15</sup>You judge after the flesh, I judge no one. <sup>16</sup>And yet if I do judge, My judgment is true; for I am not alone, but I and the Father who sent Me. <sup>17</sup>It is also written in your law that the testimony of two men is true. <sup>18</sup>I am one who bears witness of Myself, and the Father who sent Me bears witness concerning Me. <sup>19</sup>Then they said to Him, Where is your father? Jesus said to them, You neither know Me nor My Father. If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also. <sup>20</sup>Jesus spoke these words in the treasury, as He taught in the Temple. And no man laid hands upon Him, for His hour had not yet come.

<sup>21</sup>Then Jesus said again to them, I go away, and you shall seek Me and shall die in your sins. Where I go, you cannot come. <sup>22</sup>Then the Jews said, Will he kill himself? Because he says, Where I go you cannot come. <sup>23</sup>And He said to them, You are from beneath, I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world. <sup>24</sup>Therefore I said to you that you shall die in your sins, for if you do not believe that I AM, you shall die in your sins. <sup>25</sup>Then they said to Him, Who are you? And Jesus said to them, Even the same which I also say to you. <sup>26</sup>I have many things to say and to judge of you, but He who sent Me is true, and I speak to the world those things what I heard of Him. <sup>27</sup>They did not understand that He spoke to them of the Father. <sup>28</sup>Then Jesus said to them, When you have lifted up the Son of man, then you shall know that I am He and that I do nothing of Myself — but as My Father has taught Me, I speak these things. <sup>29</sup>And He who sent Me is with Me. The Father has not left Me alone, for I always do those things which please Him. <sup>30</sup>As He spoke these words, many believed upon Him.

<sup>31</sup>Then Jesus said to the Jews who believed on Him, If you continue in My word, you are My disciples indeed. <sup>32</sup>And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. <sup>33</sup>They answered Him, We are Abraham's seed and were never in bondage to anyone. How do you say, You will be made free? <sup>34</sup>Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, Whoever practices sin is the slave of sin. <sup>35</sup>And the slave does not abide in the house forever, but the Son abides forever. <sup>36</sup>Therefore if the Son shall make you free, you shall be free indeed. <sup>37</sup>I know that you are Abraham's seed, but you seek to kill Me because My word has no place in you. <sup>38</sup>I speak what I have seen with My Father, and you, then, do what you have seen with your father. <sup>39</sup>They answered and said to Him, Abraham is our father. Jesus answered them, If you were Abraham's children, you would do the works of Abraham. <sup>40</sup>But now you seek to kill Me, a man who has told you the truth which I have heard of God — this Abraham did not do. <sup>41</sup>You do the deeds of your father. Then they said to Him, We are not born of fornication; we have one father — God. <sup>42</sup>Jesus said to them, If God were your father, you would love Me, for I went forth and came from God — for I did not come of Myself, but He sent Me. <sup>43</sup>Why do you not understand My words? Because you cannot hear My word. <sup>44</sup>You are of the Devil as father, and the lusts of your father you will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and did not abide in the truth because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks of his own, for he is a liar and the father of it. <sup>45</sup>And because I tell you the truth, you do not believe Me. <sup>46</sup>Which of you convicts Me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do you not believe Me? <sup>47</sup>He who is of God hears God's words. Therefore you do not hear them because you are not of God. <sup>48</sup>Then the Jews answered and said to Him, Do we not say well that you are a Samaritan and have a demon? <sup>49</sup>Jesus answered, I do not have a demon, but I honor My Father, and you dishonor Me. <sup>50</sup>And I do not seek My own glory, but there is One who seeks and judges. <sup>51</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, If a man keeps My saying, he shall never see death.

<sup>52</sup>Then the Jews said to Him, Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham and the prophets are dead, and you say, If a man keeps my saying, he shall never taste of death. <sup>53</sup>Are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? And the prophets are dead — whom do you make yourself? <sup>54</sup>Jesus answered, If I glorify Myself, My glory is nothing, it is My Father who glorifies Me, of whom you say that He is your God. <sup>55</sup>Yet you have not known Him, but I know Him. And if I should say I do not know Him, I would be a liar like you. But I know Him and I keep His word. <sup>56</sup>Your father Abraham rejoiced to see My day, and He saw and was glad. <sup>57</sup>Then the Jews said to Him, You are not fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham? <sup>58</sup>Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, Before Abraham came into being, I AM!

<sup>59</sup>Then they took up stones to throw at Him. But Jesus hid Himself and went forth out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and passed on by.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>And passing by, He saw a man who was blind from birth. <sup>2</sup>And His disciples asked Him, saying, Master, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind? <sup>3</sup>Jesus answered, Neither has this man nor his parents sinned, but that the works of God might be revealed in him. <sup>4</sup>I must work the works of Him who sent Me, while it is day. Night comes when no man can work. <sup>5</sup>As long as I am in the world, I am the Light of the world. <sup>6</sup>And when He had spoken this, He spat on the ground and made clay from the spittle. And He anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay. <sup>7</sup>And He said to him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam (which translated is Sent). Therefore he went away and washed and came away seeing. <sup>8</sup>Then the neighbors and those who had seen him before, that he was blind, said, Is this not he who was sitting and begging? <sup>9</sup>Some said, This is he. Others said, He is like him. He said, I am he. <sup>10</sup>Then they said to him, How were your eyes opened? <sup>11</sup>He answered and said, A man called Jesus made clay and anointed my eyes and said to me, Go to the pool of Siloam and wash. And going and washing, I received sight. <sup>12</sup>Then they said to him, Where is he? He said, I do not know.

<sup>13</sup>They brought him who once was blind to the Pharisees. <sup>14</sup>And it was a sabbath when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes. <sup>15</sup>Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said to them, He put clay upon my eyes, and I washed, and I see. <sup>16</sup>Therefore some of the Pharisees said, This man is not from God, because he does not keep the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man, a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them. <sup>17</sup>They said to the blind man again, What do you say about him, for he has opened your eyes? He said, He is a prophet. <sup>18</sup>But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind and had received his sight, until they called the parents. <sup>19</sup>And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, whom you say was born blind? How then does he now see? <sup>20</sup>His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind. <sup>21</sup>But by what means he now sees, we do not know. Or who has opened his eyes, we do not know. He is of age, ask him. He will speak for himself. <sup>22</sup>His parents spoke these things because they feared the Jews, for the Jews had already agreed that if anyone confessed that He was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue. <sup>23</sup>Therefore his parents said, He is of age, ask him.

<sup>24</sup>Then a second time they called the man who was blind and said to him, Give glory to God. We know that this man is a sinner. <sup>25</sup>He answered and said, Whether He is a sinner or not, I do not know; one thing I do know, that being blind, now I see. <sup>26</sup>Then they said to him again, What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes? <sup>27</sup>He answered them, I have told you already, and you did not hear. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also desire to be His disciples? <sup>28</sup>Then they reviled him and said, You are his disciple, but we are Moses' disciples. <sup>29</sup>We know that God spoke to Moses, but we do not know from where this man is. <sup>30</sup>The man answered and said to them, Why, this is a marvelous thing, that you do not know from where He is, and He has opened my eyes. <sup>31</sup>But we know that God does not hear sinners, but if anyone is God-fearing and does His will, He hears him. <sup>32</sup>From everlasting it was not heard that anyone opened the eyes of one who was born blind. <sup>33</sup>If this One were not of God, He could do nothing. <sup>34</sup>They answered and said to him, You were altogether born in sins, and do you teach us? And they cast him out.

<sup>35</sup>Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and finding him, He said to him, Do you believe on the Son of God? <sup>36</sup>And he answered and said, Who is He, Lord, that I might believe on Him? <sup>37</sup>And Jesus said to him, You have both seen Him, and it is He who is speaking with you. <sup>38</sup>And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshiped Him. <sup>39</sup>And Jesus said, I have come into this world for judgment, that they who do not see might see, and that they who see might be made blind. <sup>40</sup>And those of the Pharisees who were with Him heard these words, and said to Him, Are we also blind? <sup>41</sup>Jesus said to them, If you were blind, you would have no sin. But now you say, We see. Therefore your sin remains.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, he who does not enter into the sheepfold by the door, but going up by another way, that one is a thief and a robber. <sup>2</sup>But he who enters in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. <sup>3</sup>The doorkeeper opens to him, and the sheep hear his voice, and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. <sup>4</sup>And when he puts forth his own sheep, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him. For they know his voice. <sup>5</sup>And they will not follow a stranger, but will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers. <sup>6</sup>Jesus spoke this parable to them, but they did not understand what it was which He spoke to them.

<sup>7</sup>Then Jesus said to them again, Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. <sup>8</sup>All who came before Me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not hear them. <sup>9</sup>I am the door. If anyone enters in by Me, he shall be saved and shall go in and out and find pasture. <sup>10</sup>The thief does not come except to steal and to kill and to destroy. I have come so that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. <sup>11</sup>I am the Good Shepherd. The Good Shepherd lays down His life for the sheep. <sup>12</sup>But he who is a hireling and not the shepherd, who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away. And the wolf catches them and scatters the sheep. <sup>13</sup>The hireling flees, because he is a hireling and does not care for the sheep. <sup>14</sup>I am the Good Shepherd, and I know those that are Mine, and I am known by those who are Mine. <sup>15</sup>Even as the Father knows Me, I also know the Father. And I lay down My life for the sheep. <sup>16</sup>And I have other sheep who are not of this fold. I must also lead those, and they shall hear My voice, and there shall be one flock, one Shepherd. <sup>17</sup>Therefore My Father loves Me, because I lay down My life so that I might take it again. <sup>18</sup>No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down from Myself. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it again. I have received this commandment from My Father.

<sup>19</sup>Then a division occurred again among the Jews because of these words. <sup>20</sup>And many of them said, He has a demon and is insane. Why do you hear him? <sup>21</sup>Others said, These are not words of one who has been possessed by a demon. A demon is not able to open the eyes of blind ones.

<sup>22</sup>And the Feast of Dedication took place at Jerusalem, and it was winter. <sup>23</sup>And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch. <sup>24</sup>Then the Jews encircled Him and said to Him, How long do you make us doubt? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly. <sup>25</sup>Jesus answered them, I told you and you did not believe. The works that I do in My Father's name, they bear witness of Me. <sup>26</sup>But you did not believe because you are not of My sheep. As I said to you, <sup>27</sup>My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me. <sup>28</sup>And I give to them eternal life, and they shall never perish, and not anyone shall pluck them out of My hand. <sup>29</sup>My Father who gave them to me is greater than all, and no one is able to pluck them out of My Father's hand. <sup>30</sup>I and the Father are one!

<sup>31</sup>Then the Jews took up stones again to stone Him. <sup>32</sup>Jesus answered them, I have shown you many good works from My Father — for which of these do you stone Me? <sup>33</sup>The Jews answered Him, We do not stone you for a good work, but for blasphemy, and because you, being a man, make yourself God. <sup>34</sup>Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, "I said, You are gods?" <sup>35</sup>If He called those gods with whom the word of God was — and the Scripture cannot be broken — <sup>36</sup>do you say of Him whom the Father has sanctified and sent into the world, You blaspheme, because I said, I am the Son of God? <sup>37</sup>If I do not do the works of My Father, do not believe Me. <sup>38</sup>But if I do, though you do not believe Me, believe the works so that you may know and believe that the Father is in Me, and I in Him. <sup>39</sup>Then they again sought to seize Him, but He went forth out of their hand.

<sup>40</sup>And He went away again beyond Jordan into the place where John baptized at the first, and He stayed there. <sup>41</sup>And many came to Him and said, John indeed did no miracle, but all things that John said concerning this One were true. <sup>42</sup>And many believed on Him there.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>And there was a certain sick one, Lazarus of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha. <sup>2</sup>(And it was that Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment and wiped His feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.) <sup>3</sup>Then his sisters sent to Him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom You love is sick. <sup>4</sup>When Jesus heard, He said, This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, so that the Son of God might be glorified by it. <sup>5</sup>And Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. <sup>6</sup>Therefore, when He had heard that he was sick, then indeed He remained two days in the place where He was. <sup>7</sup>Then after that He said to the disciples, Let us go into Judea again. <sup>8</sup>The disciples said to Him, Rabbi, the Jews lately have sought to stone You, and do You go there again? <sup>9</sup>Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble because he sees the light of the world. <sup>10</sup>But if anyone walks in the night, he stumbles because there is no light in him. <sup>11</sup>He said these things; and after that He said to them, Our friend Lazarus sleeps. But I go so that I may awaken him out of sleep. <sup>12</sup>Then His disciples said, Lord, if he sleeps, he will get well. <sup>13</sup>But Jesus spoke of his death, but they thought that He had spoken of taking rest in sleep. <sup>14</sup>Then Jesus said to them plainly, Lazarus is dead. <sup>15</sup>And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, in order that you may believe. But let us go to him. <sup>16</sup>Then Thomas (he being called Twin) said to his fellow disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with Him.

<sup>17</sup>Then when Jesus came, He found him already being held in the tomb four days. <sup>18</sup>And Bethany was near Jerusalem, fifteen furlongs away. <sup>19</sup>And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary in order to comfort them concerning their brother. <sup>20</sup>Then when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she met Him. But Mary sat in the house. <sup>21</sup>Then Martha said to Jesus, Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died. <sup>22</sup>But I know that even now, whatever You will ask of God, God will give You. <sup>23</sup>Jesus said to her, Your brother shall rise again. <sup>24</sup>Martha said Him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. <sup>25</sup>Jesus said to her, I am the Resurrection and the Life! He who believes in Me, though he die, yet he shall live. <sup>26</sup>And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die. Do you believe this? <sup>27</sup>She said to Him, Yes, Lord, I believe that You are the Christ, the Son of God, who should come into the world.

<sup>28</sup>And saying these things, she went away and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Teacher has come and calls you. <sup>29</sup>As soon as she heard, she arose quickly and came to him. <sup>30</sup>Now Jesus had not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met Him. <sup>31</sup>Then the Jews who were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw that Mary rose up hastily and went out, they followed her, saying, She is going to the tomb to weep there. <sup>32</sup>Then when Mary had come where Jesus was, seeing Him, Mary fell down at His feet, saying to Him, Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died. <sup>33</sup>Then when He saw her weeping, and also the Jews who came with her weeping, Jesus groaned in the spirit and was troubled. <sup>34</sup>And He said, Where have you laid him? They said to Him, Lord, come and see. <sup>35</sup>Jesus wept. <sup>36</sup>Then the Jews said, Behold how He loved him! <sup>37</sup>And some of them said, Was not this Man who opened the eyes of the blind able also to cause that even this one should not have died?

<sup>38</sup>Then Jesus, groaning in Himself again, came to the tomb. And it was a cave, and a stone lay upon it. <sup>39</sup>Jesus said, Take away the stone. Martha, the sister of him who died, said to Him, Lord, by this time he stinks. For it is the fourth day. <sup>40</sup>Jesus answered her, Did I not say to you that if you would believe you would see the glory of God? <sup>41</sup>Then they took away the stone where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up His eyes and said, Father, I thank You that You have heard Me. <sup>42</sup>And I know that You hear Me always, but because of the people who stand by I said it, so that they may believe that You have sent Me. <sup>43</sup>And saying these things, He cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, Here! Outside! <sup>44</sup>And he who had died came out, bound hand and foot with sheets, and his face was bound with a cloth. Jesus said to them, Untie him and let him go! <sup>45</sup>Then many of the Jews who came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on Him. <sup>46</sup>But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done.

<sup>47</sup>Then the chief priests and Pharisees gathered a sanhedrin, and said, What can we do? For this man does many miracles. <sup>48</sup>If we let him alone this way, all men will believe on him. And the Romans will come and take away both our place and nation. <sup>49</sup>And one of them, Caiaphas, being the high priest of that year, said to them, You do not know anything at all, <sup>50</sup>nor do you consider that it is expedient for us that one man should die for the people, and not that the whole nation perish. <sup>51</sup>And he did not speak this of himself, but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for the nation; <sup>52</sup>and not for that nation only, but also that He should gather together in one the children of God who were scattered abroad. <sup>53</sup>Then from that day they took counsel together that they might kill Him. <sup>54</sup>Therefore Jesus walked no more openly among the Jews; but He went away from there to a country near the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and continued there with His disciples.

<sup>55</sup>And the Jews' Passover was near. And many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the Passover in order to purify themselves. <sup>56</sup>Then they sought Jesus, and spoke with one another as they stood in the temple, What does it seem to you, that He will not at all come to the feast? <sup>57</sup>And all the chief priests and the Pharisees had given commands, that if anyone knew where He was, he should make it known so that they might seize Him.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>Then, six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was (who had died, whom He raised from the dead). <sup>2</sup>Then they made a supper there for Him. And Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those reclining with Him. <sup>3</sup>Then Mary took a pound of ointment of pure spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped His feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the odor of the ointment. <sup>4</sup>Then said one of His disciples (Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, who was to betray Him) <sup>5</sup>Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred pieces of silver and given to the poor. <sup>6</sup>He said this, not that he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief and held the moneybag and carried the things put in. <sup>7</sup>Then Jesus said, Let her alone. She has kept this for the day of My burial. <sup>8</sup>For you have the poor with you always; but you do not always have Me.

<sup>9</sup>Then a great crowd of the Jews learned that He was there. And they did not come for Jesus' sake only, but also that they might see Lazarus, whom He had raised from the dead. <sup>10</sup>But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus to death also, <sup>11</sup>because many of the Jews went away and believed on Jesus because of him.

<sup>12</sup>On the next day, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, a great crowd who had come to the Feast <sup>13</sup>took branches of palm trees and went out to meet Him. And they cried, Hosanna! "Blessed is the King of Israel who comes in the name of the Lord!" <sup>14</sup>And finding an ass colt, Jesus sat on it — as it is written, <sup>15</sup>"Fear not, daughter of Zion; behold, your King comes sitting on the foal of an ass." <sup>16</sup>But His disciples did not know these things at the first. But when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written of Him, and that they had done these things to Him. <sup>17</sup>Then the crowd witnessed, those who were with Him when He called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead. <sup>18</sup>Because of this the crowd also met Him, because they heard that He had done this miracle. <sup>19</sup>Then the Pharisees said among themselves, Do you see how you gain nothing? Behold, the world has gone after Him.

<sup>20</sup>And there were certain Greeks among those who came up to worship at the Feast. <sup>21</sup>Then these came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, Sir, we want to see Jesus. <sup>22</sup>Philip came and told Andrew. And again Andrew and Philip told Jesus. <sup>23</sup>And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour has come that the Son of man should be glorified. <sup>24</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, Unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it abides alone; but if it dies, it brings forth much fruit. <sup>25</sup>He who loves his life shall lose it. And he who hates his life in this world shall keep it to life eternal. <sup>26</sup>If anyone serves Me, let him follow Me; and where I am, there also My servant shall be. If anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him.

<sup>27</sup>And My soul is troubled, and what shall I say? Father, save Me from this hour? But for this cause I came to this hour. <sup>28</sup>Father, glorify Your name! Then there came a voice from Heaven: I have both glorified it and will glorify it again. <sup>29</sup>Then the crowd who stood by and heard said that it thundered. Others said, An angel spoke to Him. <sup>30</sup>Jesus answered and said, This voice did not come because of Me, but for your sakes. <sup>31</sup>Now is the judgment of this world. Now shall the prince of this world be cast out. <sup>32</sup>And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all to Myself. <sup>33</sup>But He said this, signifying what kind of death He was about to die. <sup>34</sup>The crowd answered Him, We have heard out of the law that Christ lives forever. How do you say, The Son of man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of man? <sup>35</sup>Then Jesus said to them, Yet a little while the Light is with you. Walk while you have the Light, lest darkness come upon you. For he who walks in darkness does not know where he goes. <sup>36</sup>While you have the Light, believe in the Light so that you may become sons of light.

Jesus spoke these things and departed and was hidden from them.

<sup>37</sup>But though He had done so many miracles before them, yet they did not believe on Him, <sup>38</sup>so that the saying of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke, "Lord, who has believed our report? And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?" <sup>39</sup>Therefore they could not believe, because Isaiah said again, <sup>40</sup>"He has blinded their eyes and hardened their heart, so that they should not see with their eyes nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them." <sup>41</sup>Isaiah said these things when he saw His glory and spoke of Him. <sup>42</sup>Still, however, even out of the rulers, many did believe on Him. But because of the Pharisees they did not confess, lest they should be put out of the synagogue — <sup>43</sup>for they loved the glory of men more than the glory of God.

<sup>44</sup>But Jesus cried out and said, He who believes on Me does not believe on Me but on Him who sent Me. <sup>45</sup>And he who sees Me sees Him who sent Me. <sup>46</sup>I have come as a Light into the world, so that whoever believes on Me should not remain in darkness. <sup>47</sup>And if any man hears My words and does not believe, I do not judge him, for I do not come to judge the world, but to save the world. <sup>48</sup>He who rejects Me and does not receive My words has one who judges him — the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. <sup>49</sup>For I have not spoken of Myself, but the Father who sent Me gave Me a command, what I should say, and what I should speak. <sup>50</sup>And I know that His command is life everlasting. Therefore whatever I speak, even as the Father said to Me, so I speak.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>And before the feast of the Passover, when Jesus knew that His hour had come when He should depart out of this world to the Father, having loved His own in the world, He loved them to the end. <sup>2</sup>And when supper had ended, the Devil now having put into the heart of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon to betray Him — <sup>3</sup>Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He had come from God and went to God, <sup>4</sup>He rose up from supper and laid aside His garments. And He took a towel and girded Himself. <sup>5</sup>After that He poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel with which He was girded. <sup>6</sup>Then He came to Simon Peter. And Peter said to Him, Lord, do You wash my feet? <sup>7</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, You do not know what I do now, but you shall know hereafter. <sup>8</sup>Peter said to Him, You shall never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, Unless I wash you, you have no part with Me. <sup>9</sup>Simon Peter said to Him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and head. <sup>10</sup>Jesus said to him, He who is bathed has no need except to wash his feet, but is clean every whit. And you are clean, but not all. <sup>11</sup>For He knew who would betray Him. Therefore He said, You are not all clean.

<sup>12</sup>So after He had washed their feet and had taken His garments and had sat down again, He said to them, Do you know what I have done to you? <sup>13</sup>You call Me the Teacher, and Lord, and you say well, for I am. <sup>14</sup>If then I, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. <sup>15</sup>For I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done to you. <sup>16</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, A servant is not greater than his master, neither is he who is sent greater than he who sent him. <sup>17</sup>If you know these things, happy are you if you do them. <sup>18</sup>I do not speak of you all; I know whom I have chosen; but that the Scripture might be fulfilled, "He who eats bread with me has lifted up his heel against me." <sup>19</sup>From now I tell you before it comes, so that when it happens you may believe that I AM. <sup>20</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, He who receives whomever I send receives Me. And he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me.

<sup>21</sup>When Jesus had said this, He was troubled in spirit, and testified and said, Truly, truly, I say to you that one of you shall betray Me. <sup>22</sup>Then the disciples looked upon one another, wondering of whom He spoke. <sup>23</sup>But there was one of His disciples leaning upon Jesus' bosom, the one whom Jesus loved. <sup>24</sup>Simon Peter therefore signaled to him to ask whom it might be of whom He spoke. <sup>25</sup>And lying on Jesus' breast, he said to him, Lord, who is it? <sup>26</sup>Jesus answered, It is he to whom I shall give the morsel when I have dipped it. And dipping the morsel, He gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. <sup>27</sup>And after the morsel, then Satan entered into him. Then Jesus said to him, What you do, do quickly. <sup>28</sup>But no one reclining knew for what reason He spoke this to him. <sup>29</sup>For some thought, because Judas had the moneybag, that Jesus had said to him, Buy what we have need of for the feast; or that he should give something to the poor. <sup>30</sup>He then, having received the morsel, went out immediately. And it was night.

<sup>31</sup>Then when he had left, Jesus said, Now the Son of man is glorified, and God is glorified in him. <sup>32</sup>If God is glorified in Him, God shall also glorify Him in Himself, and shall immediately glorify Him. <sup>33</sup>Little children, I am with you yet a little while. You shall seek Me; and as I said to the Jews, Where I go, you cannot come, so I now say to you. <sup>34</sup>I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. As I have loved you, you should also love one another. <sup>35</sup>By this all men shall know that you are My disciples, if you have love toward one another.

<sup>36</sup>Simon Peter said to Him, Lord, where do You go? Jesus answered him, Where I go you cannot now follow Me, but you shall follow Me afterward. <sup>37</sup>Peter said to Him, Lord, why cannot I follow You now? I will lay down my life for Your sake. <sup>38</sup>Jesus answered him, Will you lay down your life for My sake? Truly, truly, I say to you, The cock shall not crow until you have denied Me three times.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>Let not your heart be troubled. You believe in God, believe also in Me. <sup>2</sup>In My Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. <sup>3</sup>And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself, so that where I am, you may be also. <sup>4</sup>And where I go you know, and the way you know. <sup>5</sup>Thomas said to Him, Lord, we do not know where You go, and how can we know the way? <sup>6</sup>Jesus said to him, I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life — no one comes to the Father but by Me. <sup>7</sup>If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also. And from now on you know Him and have seen Him.

<sup>8</sup>Philip said to Him, Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us. <sup>9</sup>Jesus said to him, Have I been with you such a long time and yet you have not known Me, Philip? He who has seen Me has seen the Father. And how do you say, Show us the Father? <sup>10</sup>Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father in Me? The words that I speak to you I do not speak of Myself, but the Father who dwells in Me, He does the works. <sup>11</sup>Believe Me that I am in the Father and the Father in Me, or else believe Me for the very works themselves. <sup>12</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, He who believes on Me, the works that I do he shall do also — and greater works than these he shall do, because I go to My Father. <sup>13</sup>And whatever you may ask in My name, that I will do, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. <sup>14</sup>If you ask anything in My name, I will do it. <sup>15</sup>If you love Me, keep My commandments. <sup>16</sup>And I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, so that He may be with you forever — <sup>17</sup>the Spirit of Truth, whom the world cannot receive because it does not see Him nor know Him. But you know Him, for He dwells with you and shall be in you.

<sup>18</sup>I will not leave you without comfort. I will come to you. <sup>19</sup>Yet a little while and the world does not see Me any more. But you see Me. Because I live, you shall live also. <sup>20</sup>At that day you shall know that I am in My Father, and you in Me, and I in you. <sup>21</sup>He who has My commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves Me. And he who loves Me shall be loved by My Father, and I will love him and will reveal Myself to him.

<sup>22</sup>Judas (not Iscariot) said to Him, Lord, how is it that You will reveal Yourself to us and not to the world? <sup>23</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, If a man loves Me, he will keep My word. And My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our abode with him. <sup>24</sup>He who does not love Me does not keep My words, and the word which you hear is not Mine, but the Father's who sent Me. <sup>25</sup>I have spoken these things to you, being present with you. <sup>26</sup>But the Comforter, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in My name, He shall teach you all things and bring all things to your remembrance, whatever I have said to you. <sup>27</sup>Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. <sup>28</sup>You have heard how I said to you, I go away and I am coming to you again. If you loved Me, you would rejoice because I said, I go to the Father, for My Father is greater than I. <sup>29</sup>And now I have told you before it happens, so that when it happens you might believe. <sup>30</sup>I shall no longer speak many things with you, for the ruler of this world comes, and he has nothing in Me. <sup>31</sup>But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father has given Me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go away from here.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>I am the True Vine, and My Father is the Vinedresser. <sup>2</sup>Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit, He takes away. And every one that bears fruit, He prunes it so that it may bring forth more fruit. <sup>3</sup>Now you are clean through the word which I have spoken to you. <sup>4</sup>Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself unless it remains in the vine, so neither can you unless you abide in Me. <sup>5</sup>I am the Vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, the same brings forth much fruit; for without Me you can do nothing. <sup>6</sup>If anyone does not abide in Me, he is cast out as a branch and is withered. And they gather and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. <sup>7</sup>If you abide in Me, and My words abide in you, you shall ask what you will, and it shall be done to you. <sup>8</sup>In this My Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit, so you shall be My disciples. <sup>9</sup>As the Father has loved Me, so I have loved you; continue in My love. <sup>10</sup>If you keep My commandments, you shall abide in My love, even as I have kept My Father's commandments and abide in His love. <sup>11</sup>I have spoken these things to you so that My joy might remain in you and your joy might be full. <sup>12</sup>This is My commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. <sup>13</sup>No one has greater love than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. <sup>14</sup>You are My friends if you do whatever I command you. <sup>15</sup>No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master does. But I have called you friends, for all things that I have heard from My Father I have made known to you. <sup>16</sup>You have not chosen Me, but I have chosen you and ordained you that you should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain — that whatever you shall ask of the Father in My name, He may give it to you. <sup>17</sup>These things I command you, that you love one another. <sup>18</sup>If the world hates you, you know that it hated Me before it hated you. <sup>19</sup>If you were of the world, the world would love its own. But because you are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. <sup>20</sup>Remember the word that I said to you, The servant is not greater than his master. If they have persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. If they have kept My saying, they will also keep yours. <sup>21</sup>But all these things they will do to you for My name's sake, because they do not know Him who sent Me. <sup>22</sup>If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have had sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin. <sup>23</sup>He who hates Me hates My Father also. <sup>24</sup>If I had not done among them the works which no other did, they would not have had sin. But now they have both seen and hated Me and My Father. <sup>25</sup>But that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, "They hated Me without a cause."

<sup>26</sup>And when the Comforter has come, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, He shall testify of Me. <sup>27</sup>And you also shall bear witness, because you have been with Me from the beginning.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>I have spoken these things to you so that you should not be offended. <sup>2</sup>They shall put you out of the synagogue. But an hour is coming that everyone who kills you will think that he bears God service. <sup>3</sup>And they will do these things to you because they have not known the Father nor Me. <sup>4</sup>But I have told you these things so that when the hour shall come you may remember that I told you of them. And I did not say these things to you at the beginning because I was with you. <sup>5</sup>But now I go to Him who sent Me, and none of you asks Me, Where do You go? <sup>6</sup>But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart. <sup>7</sup>But I tell you the truth, it is expedient for you that I go away; for if I do not go away, the Comforter will not come to you. But if I depart, I will send Him to you. <sup>8</sup>And when that One comes, He will convict the world concerning sin, and concerning righteousness, and concerning judgment. <sup>9</sup>Concerning sin, because they do not believe on Me; <sup>10</sup>concerning righteousness, because I go to My Father and you see Me no more; <sup>11</sup>concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged. <sup>12</sup>I have yet many things to say to you, but you cannot hear them now. <sup>13</sup>However, when He, the Spirit of Truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth. For He shall not speak of Himself, but whatever He hears, He shall speak. And He will announce to you things to come. <sup>14</sup>He will glorify Me, for He will receive of Mine and will announce it to you. <sup>15</sup>All things that the Father has are Mine. Therefore I said that He will take of Mine and will announce it to you. <sup>16</sup>A little while and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me, because I go to the Father.

<sup>17</sup>Then His disciples said to one another, What is this that He says to us, A little while and you will not see Me, and again a little and you will see Me? And, Because I go to the Father? <sup>18</sup>Therefore they said, What is this that He says, A little while? We do not know what He is saying. <sup>19</sup>Then Jesus knew that they desired to ask Him, and said to them, Do you seek answers with one another concerning this, because I said, A little while and you shall not see Me; and again a little while, and you shall see Me? <sup>20</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice. And you will be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. <sup>21</sup>The woman has grief when she bears, because her hour has come. But when she brings forth the child, she no longer remembers the anguish, because of the joy that a man is born into the world. <sup>22</sup>And therefore you now have sorrow. But I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy from you. <sup>23</sup>And in that day you shall ask Me nothing. Truly, truly, I say to you, Whatever you shall ask the Father in My name, He will give you. <sup>24</sup>Before now you have asked nothing in My name; ask and you shall receive, that your joy may be full.

<sup>25</sup>I have spoken these things to you in parables, but the time is coming when I shall no more speak to you in parables, but I will show you plainly of the Father. <sup>26</sup>At that day you will ask in My name; and I do not say to you that I will pray to the Father for you, <sup>27</sup>for the Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me and have believed that I came out from God. <sup>28</sup>I came forth from the Father, and have come into the world. Again I leave the world and go to the Father.

<sup>29</sup>The disciples said to Him, Lo, now You speak plainly and speak no parable. <sup>30</sup>Now we know that You know all things and do not need that anyone should ask You. By this we believe that You have come forth from God. <sup>31</sup>Jesus answered them, Do you now believe? <sup>32</sup>Behold, the hour comes, yea, has now come, that you will be scattered, each man to his own things, and you will leave Me alone. And yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me. <sup>33</sup>I have spoken these things to you so that you might have peace in Me. In the world you shall have tribulation, but be of good cheer. I have overcome the world.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>1</sup>Jesus spoke these words and lifted up His eyes to Heaven and said, Father, the hour has come. Glorify Your Son so that Your Son also may glorify Thee, <sup>2</sup>even as You have given Him authority over all flesh so that He should give eternal life to all You have given Him. <sup>3</sup>And this is life eternal, that they might know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent. <sup>4</sup>I have glorified You upon the earth. I have finished the work which You have given Me to do. <sup>5</sup>And now Father, glorify Me with Yourself with the glory which I had with You before the world was. <sup>6</sup>I have revealed Your name to the men whom You gave to Me out of the world. They were Yours, and You gave them to Me, and they have kept Your word. <sup>7</sup>Now they have known that all things, whatever You have given Me, are from You. <sup>8</sup>For I have given to them the words which You gave Me, and they have received them and have known surely that I came out from You. And they have believed that You sent Me.

<sup>9</sup>I pray for them. I do not pray for the world, but for those whom You have given Me, for they are Yours. <sup>10</sup>And all Mine are Yours, and Yours are Mine; and I am glorified in them. <sup>11</sup>And now I am in the world no longer, but these are in the world, and I come to You, Holy Father. Keep them in Your name, those whom You have given Me, so that they may be one as We are.

<sup>12</sup>While I was with them in the world, I kept them in Your name. Those that You have given Me I have kept, and none of them is lost, except the son of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled. <sup>13</sup>And now I come to You, and these things I speak in the world that they might have My joy fulfilled in them. <sup>14</sup>I have given them Your word, and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. <sup>15</sup>I do not pray for You to take them out of the world, but for You to keep them from the evil. <sup>16</sup>They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. <sup>17</sup>Sanctify them through Your truth. Your Word is truth. <sup>18</sup>As You have sent Me into the world, even so I have sent them into the world. <sup>19</sup>And I sanctify Myself for their sakes, so that they also might be sanctified in truth. <sup>20</sup>And I do not pray for these alone, but for those also who shall believe on Me through their word — <sup>21</sup>that they all may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You, that they also may be one in Us, so that the world may believe that You have sent Me. <sup>22</sup>And I have given them the glory which You have given Me, that they may be one, even as We are one — <sup>23</sup>I in them, and You in Me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that You have sent Me and have loved them as You have loved Me. <sup>24</sup>Father, I desire that those whom You have given Me, that they may be with Me where I am, that they may behold My glory which You have given Me, for You have loved Me before the foundation of the world. <sup>25</sup>O righteous Father, indeed the world has not known You; but I have known You, and these have known that You have sent me. <sup>26</sup>And I made known to them Your name, and will make it known, so that the love with which You have loved Me may be in them, and I in them.

CHAPTER 18

<sup>1</sup>Having spoken these words, Jesus went out with His disciples over the brook Kidron, where there was a garden. He and His disciples entered into it. <sup>2</sup>And Judas who betrayed Him also knew the place. For Jesus oftentimes went there with His disciples. <sup>3</sup>Then Judas, having received a band and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, came there with lanterns and torches and weapons. <sup>4</sup>Then Jesus, knowing all things that were coming upon Him, went out and said to them, Whom do you seek? <sup>5</sup>They answered Him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus said to them, I AM! And Judas who betrayed Him also stood with them. <sup>6</sup>Then as soon as He had said to them, I AM, they went backward and fell to the ground. <sup>7</sup>Then He asked them again, Whom do you seek? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth. <sup>8</sup>Jesus answered, I have told you that I AM. Therefore if you seek Me, let these go away — <sup>9</sup>(that the word might be fulfilled which He spoke, “Of those whom You have given Me, I have lost not one of them”). <sup>10</sup>Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and struck the high priest’s servant and cut off his right ear. And the servant’s name was Malchus. <sup>11</sup>Then Jesus said to Peter, Put up your sword into the sheath. The cup which My Father has given Me, shall I not drink it?

<sup>12</sup>Then the band, and the captain, and under-officers of the Jews together seized Jesus and bound Him. <sup>13</sup>And they led Him away to Annas first, for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was the high priest that year. <sup>14</sup>And Caiaphas was he who gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

<sup>15</sup>And Simon Peter and another disciple followed Jesus. That disciple was known to the high priest, and he went in with Jesus into the court of the high priest. <sup>16</sup>But Peter stood at the door outside. Then the other disciple went out, the one who was known to the high priest, and spoke to her who kept the door and brought Peter in. <sup>17</sup>Then the girl who kept the door said to Peter, Are you not also one of this man’s disciples? He said, I am not. <sup>18</sup>And the servants and officers who had made a fire of coals stood there, for it was cold. And they warmed themselves. And Peter stood with them and warmed himself.

<sup>19</sup>Then the high priest asked Jesus of His disciples and of His teaching. <sup>20</sup>Jesus answered him, I spoke openly to the world. I always taught in the synagogue and in the temple, where the Jews always resort, and I have said nothing in secret. <sup>21</sup>Why do you ask Me? Ask those who heard me what I have said to them. Behold, they know what I said. <sup>22</sup>And when He had spoken this way, one of the officers who stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Do you answer the high priest so? <sup>23</sup>Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil; but if well, why do you strike Me? <sup>24</sup>Then Annas had sent Him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.

<sup>25</sup>And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. Then they said to him, Are you not also one of his disciples? He denied and said, I am not. <sup>26</sup>One of the servants of the high priest, being kinsman to him whose ear Peter cut off, said, Did I not see you in the garden with him? <sup>27</sup>Peter then denied again. And immediately a cock crowed.

<sup>28</sup>Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas into the praetorium. And it was early. And they did not go into the praetorium, that they should not be defiled, and that they might eat the Passover. <sup>29</sup>Then Pilate went out to them and said, What charge do you bring against this man? <sup>30</sup>They answered and said to him, If he were not an evildoer, then we would not have delivered him up to you. <sup>31</sup>Then Pilate said to them, You take him and judge him according to your law. Then the Jews said to him, It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death — <sup>32</sup>that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which He spoke signifying what death He was about to die.

<sup>33</sup>Then Pilate entered into the praetorium again and called Jesus and said to him, Are you the king of the Jews? <sup>34</sup>Jesus answered him, Do you say this thing of yourself, or did others say it to you about Me? <sup>35</sup>Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests have delivered you to me. What have you done? <sup>36</sup>Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, then My servants would fight so that I might not be delivered to the Jews. But now My kingdom is not from here. <sup>37</sup>Pilate then said to Him, Are you a king then? Jesus answered, You say it that I am a king. To this end I was born, and for this cause I came into the world, that I should bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice. <sup>38</sup>Pilate said to Him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again to the Jews and said to them, I find no fault at all in him. <sup>39</sup>But you have a custom that I should release one to you at the Passover. Then do you desire that I release to you the king of the Jews? <sup>40</sup>Then they all cried again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas! But Barabbas was a robber.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>1</sup>Then Pilate therefore took Jesus and flogged Him. <sup>2</sup>And the soldiers plaited a crown of thorns and put it on His head. And they put a purple robe on Him, <sup>3</sup>and said, Hail, King of the Jews! And they struck Him with their hands. <sup>4</sup>Then Pilate went out again and said to them, Behold, I bring him out to you so that you may know that I find no fault in him. <sup>5</sup>Then Jesus came out wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And he said to them, Behold the man! <sup>6</sup>Then when the chief priests and under-officers saw Him, they cried out, saying, Crucify, crucify Him! Pilate said to them, You take Him and crucify Him, for I find no fault in him. <sup>7</sup>The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God. <sup>8</sup>Then when Pilate heard that saying, he was the more afraid. <sup>9</sup>And he went again into the praetorium and said to Jesus, Where are you from? But Jesus gave him no answer. <sup>10</sup>Then Pilate said to him, Do you not speak to me? Do you not know that I have authority to crucify you, and I have authority to release you? <sup>11</sup>Jesus answered, You could have no authority against Me unless it were given to you from above. Therefore he who delivered Me to you has the greater sin.

<sup>12</sup>From this time, Pilate sought to release Him. But the Jews cried out, saying, If you let this man go, you are not Caesar's friend. Whoever makes himself a king speaks against Caesar. <sup>13</sup>Then when Pilate heard that saying, he brought Jesus out and sat down in the judgment seat at a place called the Pavement (but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha). <sup>14</sup>And it was the preparation of the Passover, and about the sixth hour. And he said to the Jews, Behold your king! <sup>15</sup>But they cried out, Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him! Pilate said to them, Shall I crucify your king? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar. <sup>16</sup>Then he delivered Him up to them that He might be crucified. And they took Jesus and led Him away.

<sup>17</sup>And bearing His cross, He went out to a place called, The Place of a Skull (which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha) <sup>18</sup>where they crucified Him, and two others with Him — one on either side, and Jesus in the middle. <sup>19</sup>And Pilate wrote a title and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS. <sup>20</sup>Then many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and it was written in Hebrew, Greek, and Latin. <sup>21</sup>Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, Do not write, the king of the Jews, but that he said, I am king of the Jews. <sup>22</sup>Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

<sup>23</sup>Then when they had crucified Jesus, the soldiers took His garments and made four parts, one part to each soldier — and also His tunic. And the tunic was without seam, woven from the top throughout. <sup>24</sup>Therefore they said among themselves, Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to find whose it shall be (that the Scripture might be fulfilled which says, “They parted my garments among them, and for my garment they cast lots”). Therefore the soldiers did these things.

<sup>25</sup>And His mother stood by the cross of Jesus, and His mother’s sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. <sup>26</sup>Then when Jesus saw His mother and the disciple whom He loved standing by, He said to His mother, Woman, behold your son! <sup>27</sup>Then He said to the disciple, Behold your mother! And from that hour that disciple took her into his own home.

<sup>28</sup>After this, knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, Jesus said, I thirst. <sup>29</sup>Then a vessel full of vinegar was set. And they filled a sponge with vinegar and put it upon hyssop, and put it to His mouth. <sup>30</sup>Then when Jesus had received the vinegar, He said, It is finished! And He bowed His head and gave up the spirit.

<sup>31</sup>Then the Jews, because it was Preparation, begged Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away, so that the bodies should not remain on the cross on the sabbath. For that sabbath was a high day. <sup>32</sup>Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with Him. <sup>33</sup>But when they came to Jesus and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs. <sup>34</sup>But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a lance, and instantly there came out blood and water. <sup>35</sup>And he who saw bore record, and his record is true. And he knows that he speaks true, so that you might believe. <sup>36</sup>For these things were done so that the Scripture might be fulfilled, “Not a bone of Him shall be broken.” <sup>37</sup>And again another Scripture says, “They shall look upon Him whom they pierced.”

<sup>38</sup>And after these things, Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus (but secretly for fear of the Jews) begged of Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus. And Pilate gave permission. Then he came and took the body of Jesus. <sup>39</sup>And Nicodemus also came, who at the first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds. <sup>40</sup>Then they took the body of Jesus and wound it with linen clothes with the spices, as is the custom of the Jews to bury. <sup>41</sup>And in the place where He was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one yet had been placed. <sup>42</sup>There, then, because of the Preparation of the Jews, because the tomb was near, they laid Jesus there.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>1</sup>The first day of the week Mary Magdalene came early to the tomb, darkness still being on it, and she saw the stone taken away from the tomb. <sup>2</sup>Then she ran and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and said to them, They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him. <sup>3</sup>Therefore Peter and that other disciple went forth and came to the tomb. <sup>4</sup>So they both ran together. And the other disciple outran Peter and came first to the tomb. <sup>5</sup>And stooping down he saw the linen clothes lying, yet he did not go in. <sup>6</sup>Then Simon Peter came following him and went into the tomb. And he saw the linen clothes lying there. <sup>7</sup>And the grave-cloth that was on His head was not lying with the linens, but was wrapped up in one place by itself. <sup>8</sup>Therefore, then, that other disciple also went in, the one who came first to the tomb. And he saw and believed. <sup>9</sup>For as yet they did not know the Scripture that He must rise again from the dead. <sup>10</sup>Then the disciples went away again to themselves.

<sup>11</sup>But Mary stood outside of the tomb, weeping. And as she wept, she stooped down into the tomb. <sup>12</sup>And she saw two angels in white sitting there, the one at the head and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. <sup>13</sup>And they said to her, Woman, why do you weep? She said to them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him. <sup>14</sup>And when she had said this, she turned backward and saw Jesus standing, but she did not know that it was Jesus. <sup>15</sup>Jesus said to her, Woman, why do you weep? Whom do you seek? Supposing Him to be the gardener, she said to Him, Sir, if you have carried Him away from here, tell me where you have laid Him and I will take Him away. <sup>16</sup>Jesus said to her, Mary! She turned herself and said to Him, Rabboni! (which is to say, Master!) <sup>17</sup>Jesus said to her, Do not touch Me, for I have not yet ascended to My Father. But go to My brothers and say to them, I ascend to My Father and Your Father, and to My God and your God. <sup>18</sup>Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord and that He had spoken these things to her.

<sup>19</sup>Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them, Peace to you! <sup>20</sup>And when He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. <sup>21</sup>Then Jesus said to them again, Peace to you. As My Father has sent Me, even so I send you. <sup>22</sup>And when He had said this, He breathed on them and said to them, Receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>23</sup>Of whomever sins you remit, they are remitted to them. Of whomever sins you retain, they are retained.

<sup>24</sup>But Thomas, one of the twelve, called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. <sup>25</sup>The other disciples therefore said to him, We have seen the Lord. But he said to them, Unless I shall see the print of the nails in His hands, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into His side, I will not believe. <sup>26</sup>And after eight days the disciples were inside again, and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst and said, Peace to you! <sup>27</sup>Then He said to Thomas, Reach your finger here and behold My hands; and reach your hand here and thrust it into My side; and do not be unbelieving, but believing. <sup>28</sup>And Thomas answered and said to Him, My Lord and my God! <sup>29</sup>Jesus said to him, Thomas, because you have seen Me you have believed. Blessed are they who have not seen and have believed.

<sup>30</sup>And truly Jesus did many other signs in the presence of His disciples, which are not written in this book. <sup>31</sup>But these are written so that you might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you might have life in His name.

CHAPTER 21

<sup>1</sup>After these things Jesus revealed Himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. And He revealed Himself this way: <sup>2</sup>Simon Peter, and Thomas called the Twin, and Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two others of His disciples were together. <sup>3</sup>Simon Peter said to them, I am going out to fish. They said to him, We will go with you also. They went out and entered into a boat immediately. And that night they caught nothing. <sup>4</sup>But when the morning had come, Jesus stood on the shore. But the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. <sup>5</sup>Then Jesus said to them, Children, Do you have anything to eat? They answered Him, No. <sup>6</sup>And He said to them, Cast the net on the right side of the boat and you will find. Therefore they cast, and now they no longer had the strength to draw, from the multitude of fish. <sup>7</sup>Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loves said to Peter, It is the Lord! Then hearing that it is the Lord, Simon Peter girded on his coat (for he was naked), and cast himself into the sea. <sup>8</sup>And the other disciples came in a little boat (for they were not far from land, only about two hundred cubits), dragging the net of fish.

<sup>9</sup>Then when they went up on the land, they saw a fire of coals there, and a fish lying on it, and bread. <sup>10</sup>And Jesus said to them, Bring from the fish which you have now caught. <sup>11</sup>Simon Peter went up and drew the net to land, full of big fish, a hundred and fifty-three. And though there were so many, the net was not torn. <sup>12</sup>Jesus said to them, Come, break fast. And none of the disciples dared to ask Him, Who are You? knowing that it was the Lord. <sup>13</sup>Then Jesus came and took the bread and gave to them, and in the same way the little fish. <sup>14</sup>This is now the three times Jesus was revealed to His disciples, He being risen from the dead.

<sup>15</sup>Then when they broke fast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonah, do you love Me more than these? He said to Him, Yes, Lord, You know that I love You. He said to him, Feed My lambs. <sup>16</sup>He said to him the second time, Simon, son of Jonah, do you love Me? He said to Him, Yes, Lord, You know that I love You. He said to him, Feed My sheep. <sup>17</sup>He said to him the third time, Simon, son of Jonah, do you love Me? Peter was grieved because He said to him a third time, Do you love Me? And he said to Him, Lord, You know all things, You know that I love You. Jesus said to him, Feed My sheep. <sup>18</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, When you were young, you girded yourself and walked where you wished. But when you grow old, you shall stretch forth your hands and another shall gird you and carry you where you do not wish. <sup>19</sup>He spoke this signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when He had spoken this, He said to him, Follow Me. <sup>20</sup>Then Peter, turning around, saw the disciple whom Jesus loved, following (the one who also leaned on His breast at supper, and said, Lord, who is he who betrays You?) <sup>21</sup>Seeing him, Peter said to Jesus, Lord, and what of this one? <sup>22</sup>Jesus said to him, If I desire that he remain until I come, what is that to you? Follow Me. <sup>23</sup>Then this saying went abroad among the brothers, that that disciple should not die. Yet Jesus did not say to him, He shall not die, but, If I desire that he remain until I come, what is that to you?

<sup>24</sup>This is the disciple who testifies of these things and wrote these things. And we know that his testimony is true. <sup>25</sup>And there are also many things, whatever Jesus did, which, if they should be written singly, I suppose the world itself could not contain the books that would be written. Amen.

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>Truly, O Theophilus, I made the first report as to all things that Jesus began both to do and teach <sup>2</sup>until the day He was taken up, having given directions to the apostles whom He chose, through the Holy Spirit; — <sup>3</sup>to whom He also presented Himself living after His suffering by many infallible proofs, being seen by them through forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God. <sup>4</sup>And being gathered together with them, He commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to await for the promise of the Father which you heard from Me. <sup>5</sup>For John truly baptized with water, but you shall be baptized in the Holy Spirit not many days from now. <sup>6</sup>Then, indeed, these coming together, they asked Him, saying, Lord, do You at this time again restore the kingdom to Israel? <sup>7</sup>And He said to them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father has put in His own authority. <sup>8</sup>But you shall receive power after the Holy Spirit has come upon you. And you shall be witnesses to Me both in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and to the end the earth.

<sup>9</sup>And saying these things, as they watched, He was taken up. And a cloud received Him out of their sight. <sup>10</sup>And while they were looking intently into the heaven, He having gone, even behold, two men in white clothing stood beside them, <sup>11</sup>who also said, Men of Galilee, why do you stand gazing up into the heaven? This same Jesus who is taken up from you into Heaven, will come in the way you have seen Him going into Heaven.

<sup>12</sup>Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount Of Olive Grove, which is a sabbath day's journey from Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>And when they had come in, they went up into an upper room, where Peter and James, and John and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alpheus and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James; <sup>14</sup>these all were continuing with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His brothers.

<sup>15</sup>And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples and said, (the number of names together was about a hundred and twenty,) <sup>16</sup>Men and brothers, this Scripture must have been fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit by the mouth of David spoke before concerning Judas, who became guide to those who seized Jesus. <sup>17</sup>For he was numbered with us and had obtained part of this ministry. <sup>18</sup>Indeed, then, this one purchased a field with the reward of unrighteousness. And falling headlong, he burst apart in the middle, and all his bowels gushed out. <sup>19</sup>And it was known to all the dwellers at Jerusalem, so much so that that field is called in their proper tongue, Akeldama, that is to say, Field of Blood. <sup>20</sup>For it is written in the Book of Psalms, "Let his estate become forsaken, and he not living in it." And, "Let another take his office." <sup>21</sup>Therefore, it is right that one of these men who have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went came in and went out among us, <sup>22</sup>beginning from the baptism of John to that same day that He was taken up from us, to become a witness with us of His resurrection.

<sup>23</sup>And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. <sup>24</sup>And they prayed and said, You, Lord, knower of all hearts, show which one You chose from these two, <sup>25</sup>to take the share of this ministry and apostleship from which Judas fell, to go to his own place. <sup>26</sup>And they gave forth their lots. And the lot fell upon Matthias. And he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And in the fulfilling of the day of Pentecost, they were all with one accord in one place. <sup>2</sup>And suddenly a sound came out of the heaven as borne along by the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. <sup>3</sup>And tongues as of fire appeared to them, being distributed; and it sat upon each of them. <sup>4</sup>And they were all filled of the Holy Spirit, and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

<sup>5</sup>And dwelling at Jerusalem there were Jews, devout men out of every nation under heaven. <sup>6</sup>But this sound occurring, the multitude came together and were confounded, because they each heard them speaking in his own dialect. <sup>7</sup>And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying to one another, Behold, are these not all Galileans who speak? <sup>8</sup>And how do we each hear in our own dialect in which we were born? <sup>9</sup>Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia, <sup>10</sup>Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya around Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, <sup>11</sup>Cretans and Arabians, we hear them speaking the great things of God in our own languages.. <sup>12</sup>And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying to one another, What does this mean? <sup>13</sup>But others mocking said, These men are full of sweet wine.

<sup>14</sup>But Peter, standing up with the Eleven, lifted up his voice and said to them, Men of Judea, and all who dwell at Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to my words. <sup>15</sup>For these are not drunk as you suppose, for it is the third hour of the day. <sup>16</sup>But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel: <sup>17</sup>“And it shall be in the last days, says God, I will pour out of My Spirit upon all flesh. And your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. <sup>18</sup>And in those days I will pour out My Spirit upon My menservants and My maidservants, and they shall prophesy. <sup>19</sup>And I will give wonders in the heaven above, and miracles on the earth below, — blood and fire and vapor of smoke. <sup>20</sup>The sun shall be turned into darkness and the moon into blood, before that great and notable Day of the Lord. <sup>21</sup>And it shall be that everyone who shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

<sup>22</sup>Men, Israelites, hear these words. Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by powerful works, and wonders and miracles, which God did through Him in your midst, as you yourselves also know — <sup>23</sup>this One given to you by the before-determined counsel and foreknowledge of God, you have taken and by lawless hands, crucifying Him, you put Him to death; <sup>24</sup>whom God raised up, having loosed the pains of death, because it was not possible that He should be held by it. <sup>25</sup>For David speaks concerning Him, “I foresaw the Lord always before me, because He is at my right hand, that I should not be moved. <sup>26</sup>Therefore my heart rejoiced and my tongue was glad; and also My flesh shall rest in hope, <sup>27</sup>because You will not leave My soul in hell, nor will You allow Your holy One to see corruption. <sup>28</sup>You revealed to Me the ways of life. You will fill Me with joy with Your countenance.”

<sup>29</sup>Men and brothers, it is permitted to say to you with plainness as to the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. <sup>30</sup>Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that of the seed of his loins, according to the flesh, He would raise up Christ to sit upon his throne — <sup>31</sup>seeing this beforehand, he spoke of the resurrection of Christ, that His soul was not left in hell, nor would His flesh see corruption, <sup>32</sup>God raised up this Jesus, of which we all are witnesses. <sup>33</sup>Therefore being exalted to the right of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, He has poured out this which you now see and hear. <sup>34</sup>For David has not ascended into the heavens — but he says himself, “The LORD said to my Lord, Sit at My right hand <sup>35</sup>until I place Your enemies Your footstool.” <sup>36</sup>Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly that God made this same Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ.

<sup>37</sup>And hearing this, they were stabbed in the heart, and said to Peter and to the other apostles, Men and brothers, what shall we do? <sup>38</sup>Then Peter said to them, Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ to remission of sins, and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. <sup>39</sup>For the promise is to you and to your children, and to all those who are afar off, as many as the Lord our God shall call. <sup>40</sup>And with many other words he earnestly testified and exhorted, saying, Be saved from this perverse generation. <sup>41</sup>Then those who gladly received his word were baptized. And the same day there were added about three thousand souls. <sup>42</sup>And they were continuing steadfastly in the apostles’ doctrine, and in fellowship and in the breaking of the loaves, and in prayers.

<sup>43</sup>And fear came on every soul. And many wonders and miracles took place through the apostles. <sup>44</sup>And all who believed were together and had all things common. <sup>45</sup>And they sold their possessions and goods and distributed them to all, according as anyone had need. <sup>46</sup>And continuing with one accord in the Temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they shared food with gladness and simplicity of heart, <sup>47</sup>praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily those who were being saved.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And on the same day Peter and John went up into the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour. <sup>2</sup>And a certain man, who was lame from his mother’s womb, was being carried. And they laid him daily at that temple gate which is called Beautiful, to ask alms from those who entered into the temple. <sup>3</sup>Seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked to receive alms. <sup>4</sup>And fastening his eyes on him, Peter with John said, Look on us! <sup>5</sup>And he paid heed to them, expecting to receive something from them. <sup>6</sup>But Peter said, Silver and gold have I none, but such as I have I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk! <sup>7</sup>And taking him by the right hand, he lifted him up. And immediately his feet and ankle-bones received strength. <sup>8</sup>And leaping up, he stood and walked and entered with them into the temple, walking and leaping and praising God.

<sup>9</sup>And all the people saw him walking and praising God. <sup>10</sup>And they recognized him, that it was him who sat for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple. And they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him. <sup>11</sup>And as the lame one who was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Solomon’s, greatly wondering. <sup>12</sup>And seeing this, Peter answered the people, Men, Israelites, why do you marvel at this? Or why do you stare at us, as though we had made this man to walk by our own power or holiness? <sup>13</sup>The God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified His son Jesus, whom you delivered up, denying Him in the presence of Pilate, when he had decided to let Him go. <sup>14</sup>But you denied the holy and just One and desired a murderer to be given to you. <sup>15</sup>And you killed the Prince of Life, whom God has raised from the dead, of which we are witnesses. <sup>16</sup>And His name, through faith in His name, has made this man strong, this one whom you see and know, His name made firm. And the faith which came through by Him has given him this perfect soundness before you. <sup>17</sup>And now, brothers, I know that you did it through ignorance, as also your rulers did. <sup>18</sup>But those things which God before had shown by the mouth of all His prophets, that Christ should suffer, He fulfilled in this manner.

<sup>19</sup>Therefore repent and be converted, so that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord. <sup>20</sup>And He shall send Jesus Christ, who before was proclaimed to you, <sup>21</sup>whom the Heaven must receive until the times of restoring of all things, which God has spoken by the mouth of His holy prophets since the world began. <sup>22</sup>For Moses truly said to the fathers, "The Lord your God shall raise up a Prophet to you from your brothers, One like me. You shall hear Him in all things, whatever He may say to you. <sup>23</sup>And it shall be that every soul who will not hear that Prophet shall be destroyed from among the people." <sup>24</sup>And also all the prophets from Samuel and those following after, as many as spoke, have likewise foretold of these days. <sup>25</sup>You are the sons of the prophets and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, "And in your Seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed." <sup>26</sup>Having raised up His son Jesus, God sent Him to you first, to bless you in turning every one of you away from his iniquities.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>And as they spoke to the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees came on them, <sup>2</sup>being grieved that they taught the people, even to announce through Jesus the resurrection from the dead. <sup>3</sup>And they laid hands on them and put them under guard until the next day, for it was already evening. <sup>4</sup>But many of those who heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

<sup>5</sup>And it happened on the next day that their rulers and elders and scribes, <sup>6</sup>and Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup>And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name have you done this? <sup>8</sup>Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, Rulers of the people and elders of Israel, <sup>9</sup>if we are examined today on a good work for an infirm man, by what this one has been healed, <sup>10</sup>be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, in this name does this man stand here before you whole. <sup>11</sup>This is the Stone which you builders have counted worthless, and He has become the head of the corner. <sup>12</sup>And there is salvation in no other one; for there is no other name under Heaven given among men by which we must be saved.

<sup>13</sup>But seeing the boldness of Peter and John, and perceiving that they were unlearned and uneducated men, they marvelled. And they recognized them, that they had been with Jesus. <sup>14</sup>And beholding the man who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. <sup>15</sup>And when they had commanded them to go aside out of the sanhedrin, they conferred among themselves, <sup>16</sup>saying, What shall we do to these men? For that indeed a notable miracle has been done by them is plain to all those dwelling in Jerusalem. And we cannot deny it. <sup>17</sup>But, so that it spread no further among the people, let us strictly threaten them, that they speak to no man in this name from now on.

<sup>18</sup>And they called them and commanded them not to speak at all, nor to teach in the name of Jesus. <sup>19</sup>But Peter and John answered and said to them, Whether it is right before God to listen to you more than to God, you judge. <sup>20</sup>For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard. <sup>21</sup>So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way as to how they might punish them, because of the people. For all glorified God for that which was done. <sup>22</sup>For the man on whom this miracle of healing occurred was more than forty years old.

<sup>23</sup>And being let go, they went to their own company and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them. <sup>24</sup>And having heard, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord and said, Lord, You are the God who made the heaven and earth, and the sea, and all that is in them; <sup>25</sup>who by the mouth of Your servant David has said, <sup>26</sup>“Why did the nations rage and the people imagine vain things? The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord and against His Christ.” <sup>27</sup>For truly, against Your holy child Jesus, whom You have anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the nations, and the people of Israel, were gathered together <sup>28</sup>in order to do whatever Your hand and Your counsel determined before to be done. <sup>29</sup>And now, Lord, behold their threatenings, and grant to Your servants that with all boldness they may speak Your word, <sup>30</sup>by stretching forth of Your hand for healing, and miracles, and wonders may be done by the name of Your holy child Jesus.

<sup>31</sup>And when they had prayed, the place where they were assembled together was shaken. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness. <sup>32</sup>And the multitude of those who believed were of one heart and one soul. And not one said that any of the things which he possessed was his own. But they had all things common. <sup>33</sup>And the apostles gave witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus with great power. And great grace was on them all. <sup>34</sup>For neither was anyone needy among them, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them and brought the prices of the things that were sold, <sup>35</sup>and they laid them down at the apostles’ feet. And distribution was made to every man according as he had need. <sup>36</sup>And Joses, who was surnamed Barnabas by the apostles (which is, being translated, The son of consolation), a Levite, a Cypriot by race, <sup>37</sup>a field being his, selling it, he bore the proceeds and placed them at the apostles’ feet.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>And a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession. <sup>2</sup>And he kept back part of the price, his wife also knowing, and brought a certain part and laid it at the apostles’ feet. <sup>3</sup>But Peter said, Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back part of the price of the land? <sup>4</sup>While it remained, was it not your own? And after it was sold, was it not in your own authority? Why have you conceived this thing in your heart? You have not lied to men, but to God. <sup>5</sup>And hearing these words, Ananias fell down and expired. And great fear came on all those who heard these things. <sup>6</sup>And the younger ones arose, wound him up, and carrying him out, they buried him. <sup>7</sup>And it was about the space of three hours afterward, when his wife (not knowing what was done) came in. <sup>8</sup>And Peter answered her, Tell me whether you sold the land for so much? And she said, Yes, for so much. <sup>9</sup>Then Peter said to her, How is it that you have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door and shall carry you out. <sup>10</sup>Then at once she fell down at his feet and expired. And the younger ones found her dead, and, carrying her out, buried her beside her husband. <sup>11</sup>And great fear came on all the church and on as many as heard these things.

<sup>12</sup>And many miracles and wonders were done among the people by the hands of the apostles; and they were all with one accord in Solomon’s porch. <sup>13</sup>And of the rest no one dared to join himself to them, but the people magnified them; <sup>14</sup>and more believing ones were added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women; <sup>15</sup>So as to carry out the sick into the streets and place them on cots and mattresses, so that at least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them. <sup>16</sup>And also a multitude came from the cities round about to Jerusalem, bringing sick ones, and those being tormented by unclean spirits, who were all healed.

<sup>17</sup>And rising up, the high priest, and all those who were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees) were filled with anger, <sup>18</sup>And laid their hands on the apostles and put them in the public custody. <sup>19</sup>But the angel of the Lord opened the prison doors by night and brought them out, and said, <sup>20</sup>Go! Stand and speak all the words of this Life to the people in the temple. <sup>21</sup>And hearing, they went into the temple about dawn, and taught. But the high priest came, and those with him. And they called the sanhedrin together, and all the elderhood of the sons of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. <sup>22</sup>But having come near, the officers did not find them in the prison. And returning, reported, <sup>23</sup>saying, We indeed found the prison shut with all safety, and the keepers standing outside in front of the doors. But having opened it, we found no one inside. <sup>24</sup>And when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they were bewildered about them, what might have become of them. <sup>25</sup>But one came, reporting to them, saying, Behold, the men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people. <sup>26</sup>Then the captain went with the officers and brought them, not with force, for they feared the people, lest they should be stoned.

<sup>27</sup>And bringing them, they stood in the sanhedrin. And the high priest asked them, <sup>28</sup>saying, Did we not strictly command you that you not teach in this name? And behold, you have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine and intend to bring this man's blood on us. <sup>29</sup>And Peter and the apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men. <sup>30</sup>The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you killed and hanged on a tree. <sup>31</sup>This One God has exalted as a Ruler and Savior to His right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, in order to give repentance and forgiveness of sins to Israel. <sup>32</sup>And we are His witnesses of these things. And so also is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey Him.

<sup>33</sup>But those hearing were cut, and they took counsel to kill them. <sup>34</sup>Then there stood up one in the sanhedrin, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law who was honored among all the people. And he commanded the apostles to be put outside a little space. <sup>35</sup>And he said to them, Men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what you intend to do regarding these men. <sup>36</sup>For before these days Theudas rose up, boasting himself to be somebody; a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves to him; who was slain. And all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered and brought to nothing. <sup>37</sup>After this one, Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of the Registration, and drew away considerable people after him. Yet that one perished; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered. <sup>38</sup>And now I say to you, withdraw from these men and let them alone. For if this counsel or this work is of men, it will come to nothing. <sup>39</sup>But if it is of God, you cannot overthrow it, lest perhaps you be found even to fight against God. <sup>40</sup>And they obeyed him. And calling the apostles, beating them, they commanded not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. <sup>41</sup>Then indeed they departed from the presence of the sanhedrin, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to be shamed for His name. <sup>42</sup>And they did not cease teaching and preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ daily in the temple and house to house.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>And in those days, the disciples having multiplied, a murmuring of the Hellenists against the Hebrews occurred, because their widows were overlooked in the daily serving. <sup>2</sup>And the Twelve called near the multitude of the disciples and said, It is not pleasing to us, leaving the word of God, to serve tables. <sup>3</sup>Therefore, brothers, look out among you seven men being witnessed to, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this duty. <sup>4</sup>But we will give ourselves continually to prayer and to the ministry of the Word.

<sup>5</sup>And the saying pleased all the multitude. And they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicholas, a proselyte of Antioch. <sup>6</sup>They set these before the apostles. And having prayed, they laid hands on them. <sup>7</sup>And the word of God was increasing. And the number of the disciples in Jerusalem was multiplying exceedingly; even a great crowd of the priests obeyed the faith.

<sup>8</sup>And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people. <sup>9</sup>Then there arose certain of the synagogue which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of those from Cilicia and from Asia, disputing with Stephen. <sup>10</sup>And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spoke. <sup>11</sup>And they induced men to be saying, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God. <sup>12</sup>And they stirred up the people and the elders and the scribes. And coming on, they seized him and brought him to the sanhedrin. <sup>13</sup>And they set up false witnesses, who said, This man does not cease speaking blasphemous words against this holy place and the law. <sup>14</sup>For we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered to us. <sup>15</sup>And looking intently at him, all those sitting in the sanhedrin saw his face as if it were the face of an angel.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>Then the high priest said, Are these things so? <sup>2</sup>And he said, Men, brothers, and fathers, listen: The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran. <sup>3</sup>And He said to him, "Go out from your land and from your kindred, and come into a land which I shall show you." <sup>4</sup>Then he came out of the land of the Chaldeans and lived in Haran. And from there, when his father was dead, he moved into this land in which you now dwell. <sup>5</sup>And He gave him no inheritance in it, no, not even a foot-breadth. And He promised that He would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, there being no child to him. <sup>6</sup>And God spoke in this way, that his seed would be a tenant in another land, and that they would enslave it and oppress it four hundred years. <sup>7</sup>And God said, "I will judge the nation to whom they shall be in bondage," and "after these things they will come out and will serve Me in this place." <sup>8</sup>And He gave him the covenant of circumcision. And so he fathered Isaac and circumcised him the eighth day. And Isaac fathered Jacob, and Jacob the twelve patriarchs. <sup>9</sup>And being jealous of Joseph, the patriarchs sold Joseph into Egypt. But God was with him <sup>10</sup>and plucked him out from all his afflictions, and He gave him favor and wisdom over against Pharaoh king of Egypt. And he appointed him governor over Egypt and all his household. <sup>11</sup>But a famine came over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and a great affliction. And our fathers found no food. <sup>12</sup>But hearing grain was in Egypt, Jacob sent out our fathers first. <sup>13</sup>And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brothers, and Joseph's race was made known to Pharaoh. <sup>14</sup>And seeing, Joseph called his father Jacob, and all his kindred, seventy-five souls. <sup>15</sup>And Jacob went down into Egypt and died, he and our fathers, <sup>16</sup>and were carried over into Shechem. And they were laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a sum of money from the sons of Emmor the father of Shechem.

<sup>17</sup>But as the time was drawing near, of the promise which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, <sup>18</sup>until another king arose who did not know Joseph. <sup>19</sup>Dealing subtly with our race, this one oppressed our fathers, causing their infants to be exposed, so as not to be left alive. <sup>20</sup>In this time Moses was born, and was beautiful to God, who was brought up three months in his father's house. <sup>21</sup>And he being cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up and reared him for a son to her. <sup>22</sup>And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians and was mighty in words and in deeds. <sup>23</sup>And when a period of forty years was fulfilled to him, it arose in his heart to look upon his brothers, the sons of Israel. <sup>24</sup>And seeing one being wronged, he defended him. and avenged him who was oppressed and struck the Egyptian. <sup>25</sup>For he thought his brothers would understand that God would give them deliverance by his hand. But they did not understand. <sup>26</sup>And the next day he appeared to them while fighting. And he urged them to peace, saying, Men, you are brothers, why do you wrong one another? <sup>27</sup>But he who wronged his neighbor thrust him away, saying, Who made you a ruler and a judge over us? <sup>28</sup>Will you not kill me as you did the Egyptian yesterday? <sup>29</sup>And Moses fled at this word, and became a temporary resident in the land of Midian, where he fathered two sons.

<sup>30</sup>And forty years being fulfilled to him, the Angel of the Lord appeared to him in the desert of Mount Sinai in a flame of fire in a bush. <sup>31</sup>And seeing it, Moses marveled at the sight. And as he drew near to see, the voice of the Lord came to him: <sup>32</sup>"I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." But Moses trembled and dared not look. <sup>33</sup>Then the Lord said to him, "Loosen the sandal on your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground." <sup>34</sup>"I have seen, the affliction of My people in Egypt, and I have heard their groan; and I came down to pluck them out. And now come, I will send you into Egypt."

<sup>35</sup>This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made you a ruler and a judge? God has sent this one to be a ruler and a redeemer by the hand of the Angel who appeared to him in the Bush. <sup>36</sup>He brought them out after he had worked wonders and miracles in the land of Egypt and in the Red Sea and in the wilderness forty years. <sup>37</sup>This is that Moses who said to the sons of Israel, "The Lord your God shall raise up a Prophet to you from your brothers, One like me, you shall hear Him." <sup>38</sup>This is he who was in the congregation in the wilderness with the Angel who spoke to him in Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, who received the living words to give to us, <sup>39</sup>to whom our fathers would not be obedient. But they thrust him away from them and turned back again to Egypt in their hearts, <sup>40</sup>saying to Aaron, "Make us gods to go before us, for as for this Moses who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him." <sup>41</sup>And they made a calf in those days and offered sacrifice to the idol and rejoiced in the work of their own hands. <sup>42</sup>Then God turned and gave them over to serve the host of the heavens, as it is written in the book of the prophets: "O house of Israel, have you offered to Me slain beasts and sacrifices forty years in the wilderness?" <sup>43</sup>Yea, you took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, images which you made in order to worship them; and I will carry you away beyond Babylon." <sup>44</sup>The tabernacle of witness was among our fathers in the wilderness, as commanded by God, speaking to Moses to make it according to the pattern that he had seen. <sup>45</sup>Which also having received it by inheritance with Joshua, our fathers, with Joshua, brought it into the possession of the nations whom God drove out before the face of our fathers until the days of David, <sup>46</sup>who found favor with God and desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob; <sup>47</sup>but Solomon built Him a house.

<sup>48</sup>But, the Most High does not dwell in temples made with hands, as the prophet says, <sup>49</sup>“Heaven is My throne and earth is My footstool. What house will you build Me, says the Lord, or what is the place of My rest? <sup>50</sup>Has not My hand made all these things?”

<sup>51</sup>O stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit. As your fathers did, so you do. <sup>52</sup>Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they killed those who foretold the coming of the Just One, of whom you have now been the betrayers and murderers; <sup>53</sup>who received the law through disposition of angels, and did not keep it.

<sup>54</sup>And hearing these things, they were cut to their hearts. And they gnashed on him with their teeth. <sup>55</sup>But being full of the Holy Spirit, looking up intently into Heaven, he saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. <sup>56</sup>And he said, Behold, I see Heaven opened and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. <sup>57</sup>And crying out with a loud voice, they stopped their ears and ran on him with one accord. <sup>58</sup>And throwing him outside the city, they stoned him. And the witnesses laid their clothes down at the feet of a young man named Saul. <sup>59</sup>And they stoned Stephen, who was calling on God and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. <sup>60</sup>And kneeling down, he cried with a loud voice, Lord, do not lay this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>And Saul was consenting to his death. And in that day there was a great persecution on the church at Jerusalem, and all were scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles. <sup>2</sup>And devout men buried Stephen and made a great mourning over him. <sup>3</sup>But Saul ravaged the church, entering into every house. And dragging men and women, he delivered them up to prison.

<sup>4</sup>Then, indeed, the ones who had been scattered passed through, preaching the gospel. <sup>5</sup>And Philip went down to the city of Samaria and proclaimed Christ to them. <sup>6</sup>And the people with one accord gave heed to those things which Philip spoke, hearing and seeing the many miracles which he did. <sup>7</sup>For out of those having unclean spirits, many came out, crying with loud voice. And many who had been paralyzed and lame were healed. <sup>8</sup>And there was great joy in that city. <sup>9</sup>But a certain man called Simon had long been conjuring in the city, and amazing the nation of Samaria, claiming himself to be some great one. <sup>10</sup>All gave heed to him, from the least to the greatest, saying, This one is the great power of God. <sup>11</sup>And they were paying attention to him, because for a long time he had amazed them with conjuring. <sup>12</sup>But when they believed Philip preaching the gospel, the things concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. <sup>13</sup>Then Simon himself believed also, and being baptized, he continued with Philip. And seeing miracles and mighty works happening, he was amazed.

<sup>14</sup>And the apostles in Jerusalem hearing that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them; <sup>15</sup>who when they had come down, prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>16</sup>For as yet He had not fallen on any of them, they were baptized only in the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>17</sup>Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

<sup>18</sup>And when Simon saw that the Holy Spirit was given through laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money, <sup>19</sup>saying, Give me this power also, that on whomever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>20</sup>But Peter said to him, May your money perish with you, because you have thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money. <sup>21</sup>You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not right in the sight of God. <sup>22</sup>Therefore repent of this wickedness of yours, and pray God if perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven you. <sup>23</sup>For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and in the bond of iniquity. <sup>24</sup>And answering Simon said, You pray to the Lord for me that none of these things which you have spoken may come on me.

<sup>25</sup>Then, indeed, having testified and preached the gospel of the Lord, and having preached the gospel to many villages of the Samaritans, they returned to Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup>And the angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, Arise and go toward the south, on the way that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza, which is desert. <sup>27</sup>And he arose and went. And behold, a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had charge of all her treasure and had come to Jerusalem to worship, <sup>28</sup>was returning. And sitting in his chariot he read Isaiah the prophet. <sup>29</sup>Then the Spirit said to Philip, Go near and join yourself to this chariot. <sup>30</sup>And Philip ran there to him and heard him read the prophet Isaiah, and said, Do you understand what you are reading? <sup>31</sup>And he said, How can I unless some man should guide me? And he asked Philip to come up and sit with him. <sup>32</sup>And the content of the Scripture which he read was this: "He was led as a sheep to the slaughter, and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so He opened not His mouth. <sup>33</sup>In His humiliation His judgment was taken away, and who shall declare His generation? For His life is taken from the earth." <sup>34</sup>And the eunuch answered Philip and said, I beg you, of whom does the prophet speak this? Of himself or of some other man? <sup>35</sup>Then Philip opened his mouth and began at the same Scripture and preached the gospel of Jesus to him.

<sup>36</sup>And as they passed along they came on some water. And the eunuch said, See, here is water, what hinders me from being baptized? <sup>37</sup>Philip said, If you believe with all your heart, you may. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. <sup>38</sup>And he commanded the chariot to stand still. And they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch. And he baptized him. <sup>39</sup>And when they had come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, so that the eunuch saw him no more. And he went on his way rejoicing. <sup>40</sup>But Philip was found at Azotus. And passing through, he preached the gospel in all the cities until he came to Caesarea.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>And Saul, still breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest <sup>2</sup>and asked letters from him to Damascus to the synagogues; so that if he found any of the Way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>But in going, it happened as he drew near to Damascus, even suddenly a light from Heaven shone around him. <sup>4</sup>And he fell to the earth and heard a voice saying to him, Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me? <sup>5</sup>And he said, Who are you, lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom you persecute. It is hard for you to kick against the goads. <sup>6</sup>And trembling and astonished, he said, Lord, what will You have me to do? And the Lord said to him, Arise and go into the city, and you shall be told what you must do. <sup>7</sup>And the men who journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice but seeing no one. <sup>8</sup>And Saul was lifted up from the earth, his eyes were opened, but he saw no one. But they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. <sup>9</sup>And he was three days not seeing, and did not eat or drink.

<sup>10</sup>And there was a certain disciple in Damascus named Ananias. And the Lord said to him in a vision, Ananias! And he said, Behold me, Lord. <sup>11</sup>And the Lord said to him, Arise and go into the street which is called Straight and inquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul of Tarsus. For behold, he is praying, <sup>12</sup>and has seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in and putting his hand on him so that he might receive his sight. <sup>13</sup>And Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard from many of this man, how many evil things he has done to Your saints at Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on Your Name. <sup>15</sup>But the Lord said to him, Go! For this one is a chosen vessel to Me, to bear My name before nations and kings and the sons of Israel. <sup>16</sup>For I will show him what great things he must suffer for My name's sake. <sup>17</sup>And Ananias went and entered into the house. And putting his hands on him, he said, Brother Saul, the Lord, Jesus, who appeared to you in the way in which you came, has sent me to you in order that you might receive your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit. <sup>18</sup>And instantly scales as it were fell from his eyes, and he instantly saw again. And rising up, he was baptized. <sup>19</sup>And taking food, he was strengthened. And Saul was certain days with the disciples in Damascus. <sup>20</sup>And immediately he proclaimed Christ in the synagogues, that He is the Son of God. <sup>21</sup>But all who heard him were amazed and said, Is this not he who destroyed those who called on this name in Jerusalem and came here for that reason, that he might bring them bound to the chief priests? <sup>22</sup>But Saul increased the more in strength and confounded the Jews who lived at Damascus, proving that this One is the Christ.

<sup>23</sup>And after many days had been fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him. <sup>24</sup>But their plot was known to Saul. And they watched the gates day and night in order to kill him. <sup>25</sup>Then the disciples took him by night and let him down through the wall in a basket. <sup>26</sup>And arriving in Jerusalem, Saul attempted to join himself to the disciples. But they were all afraid of him, and did not believe that he was a disciple. <sup>27</sup>But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles and told them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that He had spoken to him, and how he had spoken boldly in Damascus in the name of Jesus. <sup>28</sup>And he was with them, coming in and going out in Jerusalem. <sup>29</sup>And he spoke boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and argued with the Hellenists. But they seized him in order to kill him. <sup>30</sup>But knowing, the brothers brought him down to Caesrea and sent him forth to Tarsus. <sup>31</sup>Then, indeed, the churches had rest throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria, and were built up. And walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, they were multiplied.

<sup>32</sup>And it happened, passing through all, Peter also came down to the saints who lived at Lydda. <sup>33</sup>And there he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had lain eight years on a mattress, paralyzed. <sup>34</sup>And Peter said to him, Aeneas, Jesus the Christ heals you; rise up and spread for yourself! And he arose immediately. <sup>35</sup>And all who lived at Lydda and Sharon saw him and turned to the Lord.

<sup>36</sup>And in Joppa was a certain disciple named Tabitha (which translated is called Dorcas). This woman was full of good works and kind deeds which she did. <sup>37</sup>And it happened in those days, becoming sick, she died. And washing her, they laid her in an upper room. <sup>38</sup>And, because Lydda was near Joppa, hearing that Peter is in it, the disciples sent two men to him, begging him not to delay to come to them. <sup>39</sup>And rising up, Peter went with them. When he had come, they brought him into the upper room. And all the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas made while she was with them. <sup>40</sup>And putting them all out, Peter knelt down and prayed. And turning to the body he said, Tabitha, arise! And she opened her eyes. And when she saw Peter, she sat up. <sup>41</sup>And he gave her his hand and lifted her up. And when he had called the saints and widows, he presented her alive. <sup>42</sup>And it was known throughout all Joppa. And many believed in the Lord. <sup>43</sup>And it was many days that he remained in Joppa, with one Simon, a tanner.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>And a certain man named Cornelius was in Caesarea, a centurion of the Italian cohort, <sup>2</sup>one devout and fearing God, with all his household, both doing many alms to the people, and praying continually to God. <sup>3</sup>About the ninth hour of the day he saw plainly in a vision an angel of God coming to him and saying to him, Cornelius! <sup>4</sup>And he was gazing at him, and becoming terrified, he said, What is it, lord? And he said to him, Your prayers and your alms have come up for a memorial before God. <sup>5</sup>And now send men to Joppa and call for Simon, whose last name is Peter. <sup>6</sup>He is staying with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the seaside. He will tell you what you must do. <sup>7</sup>And when the angel who spoke to Cornelius departed, he called two of his servants and a devout soldier from those who waited on him continually. <sup>8</sup>And explaining all things to them, he sent them to Joppa.

<sup>9</sup>On the next day, as these went on the road, and drawing near the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray, about the sixth hour. <sup>10</sup>And he became very hungry and desired to eat. But while they made ready, an ecstasy fell on him. <sup>11</sup>And he saw the heaven opened and a certain vessel like a sheet coming down to him, being bound at the four corners and let down to the earth; <sup>12</sup>in which were all the four-footed animals of the earth, and the wild beasts, and the reptiles, and the birds of the heaven. <sup>13</sup>And a voice came to him, saying, Rise, Peter! Kill and eat! <sup>14</sup>But Peter said, Not so, Lord, for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean. <sup>15</sup>And the voice spoke to him again the second time, What God has made clean, you do not call common. <sup>16</sup>This happened three times, and the vessel was received up again into the heaven. <sup>17</sup>And while Peter doubted within himself what the vision which he had seen might be, behold, the men who were sent from Cornelius had asked for Simon's house and stood on the porch. <sup>18</sup>And they called and asked if Simon whose last name is Peter was staying there. <sup>19</sup>And while Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said to him, Behold, three men are looking for you. <sup>20</sup>Therefore arise and go down and go with them without doubting, for I have sent them. <sup>21</sup>And going down to the men, those sent to him from Cornelius, Peter said, Behold, I am the one you are seeking. For what reason have you come? <sup>22</sup>And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man and one who fears God, and one of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by a holy angel to send for you to come to his house and to hear words from you. <sup>23</sup>Then he called them in and lodged them. And on the next day Peter went away with them, and certain brothers from Joppa went with him.

<sup>24</sup>And the next day they entered into Caesarea. And Cornelius was waiting for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends. <sup>25</sup>And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him and fell down at his feet and worshiped. <sup>26</sup>But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up! I also am a man myself. <sup>27</sup>And as he talked with him, he went in and found many who had come together. <sup>28</sup>And he said to them, You know that it is an unlawful thing for a man who is a Jew to keep company with or to come near to one of another nation. But God has shown me that I should not call any man common or unclean. <sup>29</sup>Therefore I came without complaint, being sent for. I ask, then, for what reason have you sent for me. <sup>30</sup>And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour. And at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing. <sup>31</sup>And he said, Cornelius, your prayer is heard, and your alms have been remembered before God. <sup>32</sup>Therefore send to Joppa and call here Simon whose last name is Peter, he is staying in the house of Simon a tanner by the seaside; who, when he comes, shall speak to you. <sup>33</sup>Therefore I immediately sent to you, and you have done well to come. Now therefore we are all here present before God to hear all things that are commanded you by God.

<sup>34</sup>Then Peter opened his mouth and said, Truly I see that God is no respecter of persons; <sup>35</sup>but in every nation he who fears Him and works righteousness is accepted with Him. <sup>36</sup>You know the word which God sent to the sons of Israel, preaching the gospel of peace by Jesus Christ (He is Lord of all!); <sup>37</sup>that word which was published throughout all Judea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John proclaimed; <sup>38</sup>how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, and He went about doing good, and healing all those who were oppressed by the Devil, for God was with Him. <sup>39</sup>And we are witnesses of all things which He did, both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They killed Him and hanged Him on a tree; <sup>40</sup>but God raised Him up the third day and showed Him openly, <sup>41</sup>not to all the people, but to witnesses hand-picked before by God, even to us who ate and drank with Him after He rose from the dead. <sup>42</sup>And He commanded us to preach to the people, and to testify that it is He who was ordained of God to be the Judge of the living and the dead. <sup>43</sup>All the prophets give witness to Him, that through His name whoever believes in Him shall receive remission of sins. <sup>44</sup>While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those hearing the word. <sup>45</sup>And those of the circumcision, who believed (as many as came with Peter), were astonished because the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out on the nations. <sup>46</sup>For they heard them speak with tongues and magnify God. Then Peter answered, <sup>47</sup>Can any man forbid water that these, who have received the Holy Ghost as well as we, should not be baptized? <sup>48</sup>And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then they begged him to stay certain days.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>And the apostles and brothers who were in Judea heard that the nations had also received the word of God. <sup>2</sup>And when Peter had come up to Jerusalem, those of the circumcision contended with him, <sup>3</sup>saying, You went in to men who were uncircumcised and ate with them. <sup>4</sup>But Peter related the matter from the beginning and explained it by order to them, saying, <sup>5</sup>I was in the city of Joppa praying. And in an ecstasy I saw a vision, a certain vessel like a sheet coming down, let down from the sky by four corners. And it came even to me. <sup>6</sup>When I had fastened my eyes on it, I looked and saw four-footed animals of the earth, and wild beasts, and reptiles, and birds of the heaven. <sup>7</sup>And I heard a voice saying to me, Arise, Peter! Kill and eat! <sup>8</sup>But I said, Not so, Lord, for nothing common or unclean has at any time entered into my mouth. <sup>9</sup>But the voice answered me again from Heaven, What God has made clean, you do not call common. <sup>10</sup>And this was done three times, and all were drawn up again into the sky. <sup>11</sup>And behold, immediately three men stood at house in which I was, sent from Caesarea to me. <sup>12</sup>And the Spirit told me to go with them, not discriminating. And these six brothers went with me, and we entered the man's house. <sup>13</sup>And he declared to us how he had seen an angel in his house, who stood and said to him, Send men to Joppa and call for Simon whose last name is Peter, <sup>14</sup>who will tell you words by which you and all your house shall be saved. <sup>15</sup>And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, as on us at the beginning. <sup>16</sup>And I remembered the word of the Lord, how He said, John indeed baptized with water, but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit. <sup>17</sup>Therefore because God gave them the same gift as He gave to us who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could withstand God? <sup>18</sup>When they heard these things, they were silent and glorified God, saying, Then God has also granted repentance to life to the nations.

<sup>19</sup>Then, indeed, they who were scattered abroad by the persecution that rose about Stephen traveled as far as Phenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, preaching the word to no one except the Jews. <sup>20</sup>And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene; who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists, preaching the gospel of the Lord Jesus. <sup>21</sup>And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and turned to the Lord. <sup>22</sup>And the word was heard in the ears of the church in Jerusalem. And they sent out Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch; <sup>23</sup>who was glad when he had come and had seen the grace of God. And he exhorted them all that with purpose of heart they should cling to the Lord. <sup>24</sup>For he was a good man and full of the Holy Spirit and faith. And many people were added to the Lord. <sup>25</sup>And Barnabas went out to Tarsus to seek Saul. <sup>26</sup>And when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. And it happened that many of them were gathered to them in the church a whole year. And they taught a considerable crowd. And the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch. <sup>27</sup>And in these days prophets from Jerusalem came to Antioch. <sup>28</sup>And one of them named Agabus stood up and signified by the Spirit that there should be great famine over the world (which also happened in in the days of Claudius Caesar. <sup>29</sup>And according as any were prospered, each of the disciples determined to send relief to the brothers who lived in Judea; <sup>30</sup>which they also did, sending to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>And at that time Herod the king threw on his hands to oppress some of the church. <sup>2</sup>And he killed James the brother of John with the sword. <sup>3</sup>And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to seize Peter also. (And they were days of unleavened bread.) <sup>4</sup>And capturing him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four sets of four soldiers to keep him; intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover. <sup>5</sup>Then, indeed, Peter was kept in prison. But prayer was made without ceasing to God for him by the church. <sup>6</sup>And when Herod was about to bring him out, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains. Also guards were keeping the prison. <sup>7</sup>And behold, an angel of the Lord stood by, and a light shone in the prison. And striking Peter's side, he raised him up, saying, Rise up quickly! And his chains fell off his hands. <sup>8</sup>And the angel said to him, Gird yourself and put on your sandals. And he did so. And he says to him, Throw your robe around you and follow me. <sup>9</sup>And he went out and followed him. And he did not know that which was done by the angel was true, but thought he saw a vision. <sup>10</sup>When they were past the first and second guard, they came to the iron gate that leads to the city, which opened to them of its own accord. And they went out and passed on through one street. And immediately the angel departed from him.

<sup>11</sup>And having come, to himself, Peter said, Now I know surely that the Lord has sent His angel and has delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews. <sup>12</sup>And thinking about it, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose last name was Mark; where many had gathered together to pray. <sup>13</sup>And as Peter knocked at the door of the porch, a girl named Rhoda came to listen. <sup>14</sup>And when she knew Peter's voice, she did not open the gate because of gladness, but running in she reported Peter was standing before the porch. <sup>15</sup>And they said to her, You are mad. But she kept on saying that it was so. And they said, It is his angel. <sup>16</sup>But Peter continued knocking, and when they had opened and saw him, they were amazed.

<sup>17</sup>But, waving to them with his hand to be quiet, he declared to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go tell these things to James and to the brothers. And he departed and went into another place. <sup>18</sup>And day coming, there was not a little stir among the soldiers, saying, What, then, became of Peter. <sup>19</sup>And searching for him, and not finding him, examining the guards, Herod commanded them to be led away to death. And he went down from Judea to Caesarea and stayed.

<sup>20</sup>And Herod was in bitter hostility with the men of Tyre and Sidon. But they came to him with one accord and, having made Blastus (who had charge of the king's bedroom) their friend, desired peace, because their country was fed by the king's country. <sup>21</sup>And on a certain day, Herod sat on his throne, dressed in royal clothing, and made a speech to them. <sup>22</sup>And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god and not of a man! <sup>23</sup>And immediately the angel of the Lord struck him, because he did not give God the glory. And he was eaten by worms and gave up the spirit.

<sup>24</sup>But the word of God grew and increased. <sup>25</sup>And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem when they had fulfilled the ministry. And they took with them John, whose last name was Mark.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>And in Antioch some among the existing church were prophets and teachers. (such as Barnabas, and Simeon who was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, the foster-brother of Herod the tetrarch) and Saul. <sup>2</sup>As they ministered to the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, So, then, separate Barnabas and Saul to Me for the work to which I have called them. <sup>3</sup>Then having fasted and prayed and laid hands on them, they let them go.

<sup>4</sup>Then these indeed sent out by the Holy Spirit went down to Seleucia. And from there they sailed to Cyprus. <sup>5</sup>And when they were at Salamis, they announced the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they also had John as an assistant. <sup>6</sup>And when they had gone through the island to Paphos, they found a certain conjurer, a false prophet, a Jew whose name was Barjesus; <sup>7</sup>who was with the proconsul of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man. He called for Barnabas and Saul and asked to hear the word of God. <sup>8</sup>But Elymas the conjurer (for so his name is, if translated) withstood them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith. <sup>9</sup>Then Saul (who is also called Paul), filled with the Holy Spirit, set his eyes on him <sup>10</sup>and said, O son of the Devil, full of all deceit and craftiness, enemy of all righteousness, will you not stop perverting the right ways of the Lord? <sup>11</sup>And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is on you. And you shall be blind, not seeing the sun for a while. And immediately a mist and a darkness fell on him, and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand. <sup>12</sup>Then, seeing the thing happening, the proconsul believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

<sup>13</sup>Paul and his company sailed from Paphos and came to Perga of Pamphylia. And John left them and returned to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>But going through from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day and sat down. <sup>15</sup>And after the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, Men, brothers, if you have any word of comfort for the people, speak. <sup>16</sup>And rising up and signaling with his hand, Paul said, Men, Israelites, and those fearing fear God, listen. <sup>17</sup>The God of this people Israel chose our fathers and exalted the people when they lived as strangers in the land of Egypt, and He brought them out of it with a high arm. <sup>18</sup>And about the time of forty years He endured their manners in the wilderness. <sup>19</sup>And when He had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he divided their land to them by lot. <sup>20</sup>And after that He gave them judges for about four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet. <sup>21</sup>And afterward they asked for a king. And God gave them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years. <sup>22</sup>And when He had removed him, He raised up David to them to be their king; to whom He also gave testimony and said, I have found David the son of Jesse a man after My own heart, who shall fulfill all My will. <sup>23</sup>Of this man's seed God has raised to Israel, according to His promise, a Saviour, Jesus; <sup>24</sup>John having before proclaimed the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel, before His coming. <sup>25</sup>And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Who do you think that I am? I am not He. But behold, One comes after me, the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to loose.

<sup>26</sup>Men, brothers, sons of the race of Abraham, and whoever among you fears God, the word of this salvation is sent to you. <sup>27</sup>For those living in Jerusalem, and their rulers, not having known this One, and the voices of the prophets being read throughout every sabbath, judging Him, they fulfilled the Scriptures. <sup>28</sup>And finding not one cause of death in Him, they begged Pilate to do away with Him. <sup>29</sup>And when they had fulfilled all that was written concerning Him, taking Him down from the tree, they laid Him in a tomb. <sup>30</sup>But God raised Him from the dead, <sup>31</sup>who appeared for many days by those who came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are His witnesses to the people.

<sup>32</sup>And we preach the gospel to you, <sup>33</sup>the promise made to the fathers, this God has fulfilled to us their children, raising up Jesus, as also it is written in the second Psalm, "You are My Son, this day I have begotten You." <sup>34</sup>And that He raised Him up from the dead, no more to return to corruption, He spoke in this way: "I will give you the holy promises of David." <sup>35</sup>Therefore he also says in another psalm, "You shall not allow Your Holy One to see corruption." <sup>36</sup>For after he had served his own generation by the will of God, David fell asleep and was added to his fathers and saw corruption. <sup>37</sup>But He whom God raised again saw no corruption. <sup>38</sup>Therefore be it known to you, men, brothers, that through this One the forgiveness of sins is announced to you. <sup>39</sup>And by Him all who believe are justified from all things, from which you could not be justified by the law of Moses. <sup>40</sup>Therefore beware lest that come on you which is spoken of in the prophets: <sup>41</sup>"Behold, you despisers, and marvel, and perish; for I work a work in your days, a work which you shall in no way believe, though a man declare it to you." <sup>42</sup>And the Jews having gone out of the synagogue, the nations begged that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath. <sup>43</sup>And the synagogue being broken up, many of the Jews and of the devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.

<sup>44</sup>And on the coming sabbath day almost all the city came together to hear the word of God. <sup>45</sup>But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy and spoke against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming. <sup>46</sup>But speaking boldly, Paul and Barnabas said, It was necessary for the word of God to be spoken to you first. But since indeed you put it far from you and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the nations. <sup>47</sup>For so the Lord has commanded us, saying, "I have set You to be a light of the nations, that You might be for salvation to the ends of the earth."

<sup>48</sup>And hearing, the nations rejoiced and glorified the word of the Lord. And as many as were ordained to eternal life believed. <sup>49</sup>And the word of the Lord was carried throughout all the country. <sup>50</sup>But the Jews stirred up the devout and honorable women, and the chief ones of the city, and raised a persecution against Paul and Barnabas. And they threw them out of their borders. <sup>51</sup>But shaking the dust of their feet off on them, they came into Iconium. <sup>52</sup>And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>And it happened in Iconium, they both went together into the synagogue of the Jews, and spoke so as a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed. <sup>2</sup>But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the nations and made them evil-hearted against the brothers. <sup>3</sup>Therefore they stayed a long time, speaking boldly in the Lord, who bore witness to the word of His grace, giving miracles and wonders to be done by their hands. <sup>4</sup>But the multitude of the city was divided. And part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles. <sup>5</sup>And when there was an assault made by both the nations and the Jews, with their rulers, in order to insult and to stone them, <sup>6</sup>they were aware of it and fled to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and to the country around them. <sup>7</sup>And there they were preaching the gospel.

<sup>8</sup>And a certain man was sitting in Lystra, without strength in the feet, being lame from his mother's womb, who never had walked. <sup>9</sup>This one heard Paul speaking; and Paul, looking intently at him, and seeing that he had faith to be healed, <sup>10</sup>said with a loud voice, Stand up on your feet! And he leaped and walked. <sup>11</sup>And seeing what Paul did, the crowd lifted up their voice, saying in Lycaonian, The gods have come down to us, becoming like men. <sup>12</sup>And they called Barnabas Jupiter, and Paul Mercury, because he was the chief speaker. <sup>13</sup>And the priest of Jupiter, being before their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, wishing to sacrifice with the crowds. <sup>14</sup>But hearing this, the apostles Barnabas and Paul tore their clothes and ran in among the people, crying out <sup>15</sup>and saying, Men, why do you do these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preaching the gospel to you that you should turn from these vanities to the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all things that are in them; <sup>16</sup>who in past generations allowed all nations to walk in their own ways. <sup>17</sup>And yet He did not leave Himself without witness, doing good, giving rain and fruitful season to us from Heaven, filling our hearts with food and gladness. <sup>18</sup>And saying these things, they scarcely stopped the people from sacrificing to them.

<sup>19</sup>And Jews from Antioch and Iconium came there, who, having persuaded the people, and having stoned Paul, they drew him out of the city, supposing him to have died. <sup>20</sup>But the disciples surrounding him, he rose up and came into the city. And the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe. <sup>21</sup>And preaching the gospel to that city, and having made many disciples, they returned to Lystra and Iconium and Antioch, <sup>22</sup>confirming the souls of the disciples, calling on them to continue in the faith and that through much tribulation we must enter into the kingdom of God. <sup>23</sup>And when they had chosen elders for them in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord into whom they believed.

<sup>24</sup>And passing through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia. <sup>25</sup>And speaking the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia. <sup>26</sup>And from there they sailed to Antioch, from where they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled. <sup>27</sup>And having arrived, and gathering the church they related all that God had done with them, and how He had opened the door of faith to the nations. <sup>28</sup>And they stayed there not a little time with the disciples.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>And certain ones who came down from Judea taught the brothers, saying, Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved. <sup>2</sup>Therefore dissension and not a little disputation occurring by Paul and Barnabas, they appointed Paul and Barnabas and certain others of them to go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question. <sup>3</sup>And indeed being set forward by the church, they passed through Phoenicia and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the nations. And they caused great joy to all the brothers. <sup>4</sup>And arriving in Jerusalem, they were received by the church, and by the apostles and elders. And they declared all things that God had done with them. <sup>5</sup>But some of those from the sect of the Pharisees, having believed, rose up, saying, It was necessary to circumcise them and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

<sup>6</sup>And the apostles and elders were assembled to see about this matter. <sup>7</sup>And after much disputing, Peter rose up and said to them, Men and brothers, you recognize that from ancient days God chose among us that through my mouth the nations should hear the word of the gospel, and believe. <sup>8</sup>And God, who knows the hearts, bore them witness, giving them the Holy Spirit even as to us. <sup>9</sup>And He put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith. <sup>10</sup>Now therefore why do you tempt God by putting a yoke on the neck of the disciples, a yoke which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? <sup>11</sup>But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, according to which manner they also believed.

<sup>12</sup>And all the multitude kept silent and listened to Barnabas and Paul declaring what miracles and wonders God had worked among the nations through them. <sup>13</sup>And after they were silent, James answered, saying, Men, brothers, listen to me. <sup>14</sup>Even as Simon has declared how God at the first visited the nations to take out of them a people for His name. <sup>15</sup>And the words of the prophets agree to this; as it is written, <sup>16</sup>“After this I will return and will build again the tabernacle of David which has fallen down; and I will build again its ruins, and I will set it up, <sup>17</sup>so those men who are left might seek after the Lord, and all the nations on whom My name has been called, says the Lord, who does all these things.” <sup>18</sup>All His works are known to God from the beginning of the world. <sup>19</sup>Therefore my judgment is that we do not trouble those who have turned to God from among the nations, <sup>20</sup>but that we write to them that they should abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood. <sup>21</sup>For Moses from ages past has those in every city proclaiming him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day. <sup>22</sup>Then it pleased the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men from their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; Judas, whose last name was Barsabas; and Silas, chief men among the brothers. <sup>23</sup>And they wrote letters by them in this way: The apostles and elders and brothers send greeting to the brothers who are of the nations in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia. <sup>24</sup>Because we have heard that certain ones who went out from us have troubled you with words, upsetting your souls, saying, Be circumcised and keep the law! (to whom we gave no such command); <sup>25</sup>it seemed good to us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, <sup>26</sup>men who have given up their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>27</sup>Therefore we have sent Judas and Silas, who will also announce to you the same things by word. <sup>28</sup>For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to lay on you no greater burden than these necessary things: <sup>29</sup>that you abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication; from which, if you keep yourselves, you shall do well. Be prospered. <sup>30</sup>Then indeed they being let go, they came to Antioch. And gathering the multitude, they delivered the letter. <sup>31</sup>And when they had read it, they rejoiced at the comfort. <sup>32</sup>And Judas and Silas, also being prophets themselves, exhorted the brothers with many words and confirmed them. <sup>33</sup>And remaining for a time, they were let go in peace from the brothers to the apostles. <sup>34</sup>But it pleased Silas to remain there. <sup>35</sup>Also Paul and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the gospel of the Lord, with many others also.

<sup>36</sup>And some days afterward, Paul said to Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brothers in every city where we have announced the word of the Lord, how they are doing. <sup>37</sup>And Barnabas determined to take with them John, he being called Mark. <sup>38</sup>But Paul thought it well not to take that one with them, he having withdrawn form them from Pamphylia, and did not go with them to the work. <sup>39</sup>Then there was sharp feeling, as as to separate them from each other. And taking Mark, Barnabas sailed to Cyprus. <sup>40</sup>But choosing Silas, Paul went out, being commended by the brothers to the grace of God, <sup>41</sup>passing through Syria and Cilicia, making the churches strong.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>And he came to Derbe and Lystra. And behold, a certain disciple named Timothy was there, the son of a woman who was a Jewess and who believed. But his father was a Greek. <sup>2</sup>He was well reported of by the brothers at Lystra and Iconium. <sup>3</sup>Paul wanted him to go with him, and taking him he circumcised him, because of the Jews who were in those places; for they all knew that his father was a Greek. <sup>4</sup>And as they passed through the cities, they delivered to them the commandments to keep, the ones that were ordained by the apostles and elders who were in Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>Then indeed the churches were established in the faith and increased in number daily. <sup>6</sup>And coming through the Phrygian and the Galatian region; and by the Holy Spirit being forbidden to speak the word in Asia; <sup>7</sup>having come to Mysia, they attempted to go into Bithynia. But the Spirit did not allow them. <sup>8</sup>Then passing by Mysia, they came down into Troas. <sup>9</sup>And a vision appeared to Paul in the night. A certain man of Macedonia had stood, begging him, saying, Come over into Macedonia and help us! <sup>10</sup>And after he saw the vision, we immediately tried to go into Macedonia, gathering that the Lord had called us in order to preach the gospel to them.

<sup>11</sup>Then having set sail from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis; <sup>12</sup>and from there to Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, a colony. And we continued spending time in that city some days. <sup>13</sup>And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was usually made. And we sat down and spoke to the women who came together there. <sup>14</sup>And a certain woman named Lydia heard us, a seller of purple of the city of Thyatira, who worshiped God; whose heart the Lord opened, so that she attended to the things which were spoken by Paul. <sup>15</sup>And when she was baptized, she and her household, she begged us, saying, If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house and stay. And she constrained us.

<sup>16</sup>And as we went to prayer, it happened that a certain girl possessed with a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much gain by divining. <sup>17</sup>The same followed Paul and us and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the Most High God, who are announcing to us the way of salvation. <sup>18</sup>And she did this many days. But being distressed, and turning to the evil spirit, Paul said, I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her! And he came out in that hour. <sup>19</sup>And when her masters saw that the hope of their gain went out, having seized Paul and Silas, they dragged them to the market before the rulers. <sup>20</sup>And bring them near to the judges, they said, These men, being Jews, are exceedingly troubling our city. <sup>21</sup>And they teach customs which are not lawful for us to receive nor to do, being Romans. <sup>22</sup>And the crowd rose up against them. And tearing off their clothes, the judges order them to be flogged. <sup>23</sup>And after laying on them many stripes, they threw them into prison, commanding the jailor to keep them safely; <sup>24</sup>who, having received such a command, thrust them into the inner prison and made their feet fast in the stocks.

<sup>25</sup>And toward midnight Paul and Silas prayed and praised to God in a hymn. And the prisoners listened to them. <sup>26</sup>And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken. And immediately all the doors were opened and all the bonds were loosened. <sup>27</sup>And being awakened, and seeing the doors of the prison being open, drawing a sword, the jailer was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. <sup>28</sup>But Paul called out with a loud voice, saying, Do yourself no harm, for we are all here. <sup>29</sup>Then asking for a light he rushed in and fell trembling before Paul and Silas. <sup>30</sup>And leading them outside, he said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? <sup>31</sup>And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and you shall be saved, and your household. <sup>32</sup>And they spoke the word of the Lord to him, and to all who were in his household. <sup>33</sup>And taking them in that hour of the night, he washed from their stripes. And he was baptized, he and all his, immediately. <sup>34</sup>And bringing them up to the house, he set a table before them and rejoiced, believing in God with all his household.

<sup>35</sup>And day coming, the judges sent the officers, saying, Let those men go. <sup>36</sup>And the jailer spoke these words to Paul: The judges have sent to let you go. Now therefore depart, and go in peace. <sup>37</sup>But Paul said to them, Having beaten us publicly, men who are Romans and uncondemned, they threw us into prison. And now do they put us out secretly? No indeed! But coming themselves, let them bring us out. <sup>38</sup>And the floggers reported these words to the judges. And hearing that they were Romans, they were afraid. <sup>39</sup>And coming they begged them. And bringing them out, they asked them to depart out of the city. <sup>40</sup>And going out from the prison, they entered into the house of Lydia. And seeing the brothers, they comforted them and departed.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>1</sup>And traveling through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews. <sup>2</sup>And according to Paul's custom, he went in to them and reasoned with them out of the Scriptures on three sabbaths, <sup>3</sup>opening and setting forth that Christ must have suffered, and to have risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus whom I preach to you is Christ. <sup>4</sup>And some of them believed and joined themselves to Paul and Silas, both a great multitude of the worshipping Greeks, and not a few of the chief women. <sup>5</sup>But the disobeying Jews becoming jealous, and having taken aside some wicked men of the market-loafers, and gathering a crowd, they set all the city in an uproar. And coming on the house of Jason, they sought to bring them out to the mob. <sup>6</sup>And not finding them, they drew Jason and certain brothers before the city judges, crying, These who have turned the world upside down have come here too, <sup>7</sup>whom Jason has received. And these all act contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, Jesus. <sup>8</sup>And hearing these things, they troubled the crowd and the city judge. <sup>9</sup>And taking security from Jason and from the rest, they let them go.

<sup>10</sup>And the brothers immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea. They, when they arrived, went into the synagogue of the Jews. <sup>11</sup>These were more noble than those of Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind and searched the Scriptures daily to see if those things were so. <sup>12</sup>Therefore many of them believed, and quite a few of honorable Greek women and men. <sup>13</sup>But when the Jews from Thessalonica knew that the word of God was preached by Paul at Berea, they came there also and stirred up the people. <sup>14</sup>And then immediately the brothers sent Paul away to go towards the sea, but both Silas and Timothy stayed there. <sup>15</sup>And those conducting Paul brought him to Athens. And receiving a command to Silas and Timothy to come to him with all speed, they departed.

<sup>16</sup>But awaiting them in Athens, Paul's spirit was pained within him, seeing city full of idols. <sup>17</sup>Then indeed he addressed the Jews in the synagogue, and those worshiping, and daily in the market, to those happening to be there. <sup>18</sup>And certain philosophers from the Epicureans and from the Stoics met him. And some said, What will this babblers say? Others said, He seems to be an announcer of foreign demons (because he preached Jesus and the resurrection to them). <sup>19</sup>And taking hold of him, they led him to the Areopagus, saying, Are we able to know what is this new doctrine of which you speak? <sup>20</sup>For you bring certain strange things to our ears, therefore we are minded to know what these things mean. <sup>21</sup>(For all the Athenians and strangers who were there spent their time in nothing else except to tell or to hear something newer.)

<sup>22</sup>And standing in the middle of the Areopagus, Paul said, Men, Athenians, I see that you are fearful of gods in everything. <sup>23</sup>For as I passed by and saw the things you worship, I found an altar with this inscription: TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Not knowing then whom you worship, I make Him known to you. <sup>24</sup>The God who made the world and all things in it, since He is Lord of Heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands. <sup>25</sup>Nor is served with men's hands, as though He needed anything, since He gives life and breath and all things to all. <sup>26</sup>And He has made all nations of men of one blood to dwell on all the face of the earth, ordaining fore-appointed seasons and boundaries of their dwelling, <sup>27</sup>to seek the Lord, if perhaps they might feel after Him and find Him, though indeed He is not far from each one of us. <sup>28</sup>For in Him we live and move and have our being, as also certain of your own poets have said, For we are also His offspring. <sup>29</sup>Then being offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like gold or silver or stone, engraved by art and man's imagination. <sup>30</sup>Truly, then, God overlooking the times of ignorance, now He strictly commands all men everywhere to repent, <sup>31</sup>because He has appointed a day in which He is going to judge the world in righteousness by a Man whom He appointed, having given proof to all by raising Him from the dead.

<sup>32</sup>And hearing of a resurrection of the dead, some indeed mocked; and others said, We will hear you again concerning this. <sup>33</sup>And so Paul departed from among them. <sup>34</sup>But certain men joined themselves to him and believed; among whom were Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

CHAPTER 18

<sup>1</sup>And after these things Paul departed from Athens and came to Corinth. <sup>2</sup>And finding a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy with his wife Priscilla (because Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome) Paul came to them. <sup>3</sup>And because he was of the same trade, he stayed and worked with them; for they were tentmakers by occupation. <sup>4</sup>And he reasoned in the synagogue on every sabbath, persuading both Jews and Greeks.

<sup>5</sup>And when Silas and Timothy had come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the spirit and testified to the Jews that Jesus is the Christ. <sup>6</sup>And they resisting and blaspheming, shaking his garment, he said to them, Your blood is on your own heads. I am pure from it. From now on I will go to the nations. <sup>7</sup>And he departed from there and entered into the house of one named Justus, one worshiping God, whose house was next to the synagogue. <sup>8</sup>And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house. And hearing this, many of the Corinthians believed and were baptized. <sup>9</sup>And the Lord spoke to Paul in the night by a vision, Do not be afraid, but speak, and be not silent. <sup>10</sup>For I am with you, and no one shall set on you to hurt you, for I have many people in this city. <sup>11</sup>And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

<sup>12</sup>But Gallio being pro-consul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rushed against Paul and brought him to the judgment seat, <sup>13</sup>saying, This one persuades men to worship God contrary to the law. <sup>14</sup>And Paul being about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, If indeed it was anything wrong or wicked criminality, O Jews, according to reason I would endure you. <sup>15</sup>But if it is a question of words and names and of your law, you look to it. For I do not wish to be a judge of such things. <sup>16</sup>And he drove them from the judgment seat. <sup>17</sup>And all the Greeks seized Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gallio did not care for any of these things.

<sup>18</sup>And Paul having remained many days more, taking leave of the brothers, he sailed from there into Syria. And Priscilla and Aquila were with him. And Paul had shorn his head in Cenchrea, for he had a vow. <sup>19</sup>And he came to Ephesus and left them there. But he himself entered into the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews. <sup>20</sup>And they asking him to stay a longer time with them, he did not consent <sup>21</sup>but took leave of them, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that is coming in Jerusalem, but I will return again to you, God willing. And he sailed from Ephesus. <sup>22</sup>And when he had landed at Caesarea and had gone up to greet the church, he went down to Antioch. <sup>23</sup>And after he had spent some time there, he departed and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.

<sup>24</sup>And a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by birth, an eloquent man mighty in the Scriptures, came to Ephesus. <sup>25</sup>This man was instructed in the way of the Lord. And being fervent in the spirit, he spoke and taught the things of the Lord diligently, knowing only the baptism of John. <sup>26</sup>And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. And Aquila and Priscilla heard him, and they took him and expounded to him the way of God more perfectly. <sup>27</sup>And intending to pass into Achaia, being encouraged the brothers wrote to the disciples to welcome him; who, having arrived, very much helped those who had believed through grace. <sup>28</sup>For he mightily confuted the Jews publicly, proving by the Scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>1</sup>And it happened in the time Apollos was at Corinth, Paul was passing through the higher parts to Ephesus. And finding certain disciples, <sup>2</sup>he said to them, Have you received the Holy Spirit since you believed? And they said to him, We did not so much as hear whether the Holy Spirit is. <sup>3</sup>And he said to them, Then what were you baptized to? And they said, To John's baptism. <sup>4</sup>And Paul said, John truly baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe into Him coming after him, that is, into Jesus Christ. <sup>5</sup>And hearing, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>6</sup>And as Paul laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they spoke with tongues and prophesied. <sup>7</sup>And all of the men were about twelve. <sup>8</sup>And going into the synagogue, he spoke boldly for three months, reasoning and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God. <sup>9</sup>But when some were hardened and did not believe, speaking evil of the Way before the multitude, he departed from them and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of one Tyrannus. <sup>10</sup>And this happened over two years, so that all those living in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks. <sup>11</sup>And God did works of power through the hands of Paul, <sup>12</sup>so that even handkerchiefs or aprons from his skin being brought onto the sick, the diseases were released, and the evil spirits went out of them.

<sup>13</sup>And certain from the strolling Jews, exorcists, undertook to name the name of the Lord Jesus over those having evil spirits, saying, We exorcise you by Jesus whom Paul preaches. <sup>14</sup>And there were seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, who did so. <sup>15</sup>But answering the evil spirit said, Jesus I know, and I comprehend Paul, but who are you? <sup>16</sup>And the man in whom the evil spirit resided leaped on them, and overcoming them he was strong against them, so that they fled out of the house naked and wounded. <sup>17</sup>And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks who lived at Ephesus, and fear fell on all of them, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. <sup>18</sup>And many who believed came and confessed and showed their deeds. <sup>19</sup>Also many of those practicing the curious arts, bringing together the books, burned them before all. And they counted the prices of them and found it to be fifty thousand pieces of silver. <sup>20</sup>So the word of God grew mightily and prevailed.

<sup>21</sup>After these things were ended, passing through Macedonia and Achaia, Paul purposed in the spirit to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have come there, I must also see Rome. <sup>22</sup>And sending into Macedonia two who ministered to him, Timothy and Erastus, he stayed in Asia for a time. <sup>23</sup>And about that time there was no little a stir about the Way. <sup>24</sup>For a certain silversmith named Demetrius was making silver temples of Artemis, providing little trade for the craftsmen. <sup>25</sup>And assembling the workmen about such things, he said, Men, you know that from this trade is our wealth. <sup>26</sup>And you see and hear that, not only at Ephesus, but almost all Asia, this Paul having persuaded, he has perverted a huge crowd, saying that those which are made with hands are no gods. <sup>27</sup>And not only is this dangerous to us, our share coming into dispute, but also the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be counted for nothing, and her magnificence is also about to be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worships.

<sup>28</sup>And hearing, and becoming full of anger, they cried out, saying, Great is Artemis of the Ephesians. <sup>29</sup>And all the city was filled with confusion. And they rushed with one accord to the theater, keeping a firm grip on Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians, traveling companions of Paul. <sup>30</sup>And Paul intending to go in to the mob, the disciples did not allow him. <sup>31</sup>And some of the chief men of Asia, being his friends, sent to him, begging him not to give himself into the theater. <sup>32</sup>Then indeed others cried out, some other different things; for the assembly was confused, and most of them did not know why they had come together. <sup>33</sup>And they dragged Alexander forward out of the crowd, the Jews pushing him forward. And waving his hand Alexander desired to defend himself to the mob. <sup>34</sup>But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice cried out for two hours' time, Great is Artemis of the Ephesians! <sup>35</sup>And quieting the crowd, the town clerk said, Men, Ephesians! What one of you does not know that the city of the Ephesians is a worshiper of the great goddess Artemis, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter? <sup>36</sup>Since these things cannot be spoken against, you ought to be quiet and to do nothing rashly. <sup>37</sup>For you have brought these men here, who are neither robbers of churches nor blasphemers of your goddess. <sup>38</sup>Therefore if Demetrius and those craftsmen with him have a matter against anyone, the court days are kept, and there are proconsuls. Let them plead against one another. <sup>39</sup>But if you ask anything concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly. <sup>40</sup>For we are in danger to accused of revolt concerning today; there being no cause by which we may give an account of this crowding together. <sup>41</sup>And saying these things, he dismissed the assembly.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>1</sup>And after the uproar had ceased, calling the disciples and greeting them, Paul left to go into Macedonia. <sup>2</sup>And passing through those parts, and exhorting them with much speech, he came into Greece. <sup>3</sup>And spending three months there, there being a plot against him by the Jews, being about to sail into Syria, he proposed to return through Macedonia. <sup>4</sup>And Sopater of Berea accompanied him into Asia, and Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy, and Tychicus and Trophimus from Asia. <sup>5</sup>Going before, these waited for us at Troas. <sup>6</sup>And after the days of unleavened bread, we sailed away from Philippi and came to them at Troas in five days, where we stayed seven days.

<sup>7</sup>And on the first of the week, the disciples having been assembled to break bread, being about to depart on the morrow, Paul reasoned to them. And he continued his speech until midnight. <sup>8</sup>And there were many lights in the upper room where they were assembled. <sup>9</sup>And a certain young man named Eutychus was sitting on the window sill, Paul reasoning for a longer time, being overcome by sleep, he fell down from the third floor, and was taken up dead. <sup>10</sup>And Paul went down and fell on him, and embracing him said, Do not be terrified, for his soul is in him. <sup>11</sup>And going up, and breaking bread, and tasting, and conversing over a long time, until daybreak, he went out thus. <sup>12</sup>And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

<sup>13</sup>And going ahead onto the ship, we sailed to Assos, there intending to take in Paul; for so he had appointed, intending himself to go on foot. <sup>14</sup>And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in and came to Mitylene. <sup>15</sup>And we sailed from there and came the next day across from Chios. And the next day we arrived at Samos, and we stayed at Trogyllium. And the next day we came to Miletus. <sup>16</sup>For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, so that he might not lose time in Asia; for, if it were possible for him, he hastened to be at Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost. <sup>17</sup>And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus and called the elders of the church. <sup>18</sup>And when they had come to him, he said to them, You know how I was with you at all times, from the first day I arrived in Asia, <sup>19</sup>servicing the Lord with all humility of mind, and many tears and temptations happening to me through the plots of the Jews; <sup>20</sup>and how I kept back nothing that was profitable, but have shown you and have taught you publicly, and from house to house, <sup>21</sup>testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>22</sup>And now, behold, I am going bound in the spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall happen to me there, <sup>23</sup>except that the Holy Spirit witnesses in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions await me. <sup>24</sup>But none of these things move me, neither do I count my life dear to myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus Christ, to testify fully the gospel of the grace of God. <sup>25</sup>And now, behold, I know that you all will see my face no more, among whom I went proclaiming the kingdom of God. <sup>26</sup>Therefore I testify to you on this day that I am pure from the blood of all. <sup>27</sup>For I did not keep back from declaring to you all the counsel of God.

<sup>28</sup>Therefore take heed to yourselves, and to all the flock over which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to feed the church of God which He has purchased with His own blood. <sup>29</sup>For I know this, that after my departure grievous wolves shall enter in among you, not sparing the flock. <sup>30</sup>Also men shall arise from your own selves, speaking perverse things in order to draw disciples away after them. <sup>31</sup>Therefore watch and remember that for the time of three years I did not cease to warn everyone night and day with tears. <sup>32</sup>And now, brothers, I commend you to God, and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up and to give you an inheritance among all those who are sanctified. <sup>33</sup>I have coveted no man's silver or gold or apparel. <sup>34</sup>Yea, you yourselves know that these hands have ministered to my needs, and to those who were with me. <sup>35</sup>I have shown you all things, that working in this way we ought to help the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that He Himself said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. <sup>36</sup>And saying these things, kneeling, he prayed with them all. <sup>37</sup>And there was much weeping of all, and falling on the neck of Paul, they ardently kissed him, <sup>38</sup>grieving most of all because of the words which he had spoken, that they should see his face no more. And they went with him to the ship.

CHAPTER 21

<sup>1</sup>And it happened when it was time to sail, we having been torn away from them, running direct we came to Cos; and on the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. <sup>2</sup>And finding a ship sailing over to Phenicia, going on board, we set sail. <sup>3</sup>And sighting Cyprus, and leaving it on the left, we sailed into Syria, and came down to Tyre. For the ship was to unload its cargo there. <sup>4</sup>And finding disciples, we stayed there seven days; who said to Paul through the Spirit that he should not go up to Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>But when it was time to finish the days, going out, we traveled on. And they with all the women and children went with us as far as outside the city. And we kneeled down on the shore and prayed. <sup>6</sup>And giving parting greetings to one another, we went up into the ship; and they returned to their own things. <sup>7</sup>And finishing the voyage from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais. And greeting the brothers, we stayed with them one day. <sup>8</sup>And the next day those around him going out, Paul came to Caesarea. And entering the house of Philip the evangelist, he being of the seven, we stayed with him. <sup>9</sup>And there were four virgin daughters to this one, who prophesied. <sup>10</sup>And as we stayed more days, a certain prophet from Judea named Agabus came down. <sup>11</sup>And coming to us, and taking Paul's belt, and binding his hands and feet, he said, The Holy Spirit says these things: So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man whose belt this is, and will deliver him into the hands of the nations. <sup>12</sup>And when we heard these things, both we and those of the place begged him not to go up to Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>Then Paul answered, What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>14</sup>And he not being persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

<sup>15</sup>And after those days, making ready, we went up to Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup>Also some of the disciples from Caesarea went with us, bringing Mnason, a certain Cypriot, an old disciple with whom we were to lodge. <sup>17</sup>And we being in Jerusalem, the brothers received us gladly. <sup>18</sup>And on the next day Paul went with us to James. And all the elders were present. <sup>19</sup>And having greeted them, he related one by one what things God had done among the nations by his ministry. <sup>20</sup>And hearing, they glorified the Lord, and said to him, You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are who believe, and they are all zealous of the law. <sup>21</sup>And they are informed concerning you, that you teach all the Jews who are among the nations to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, nor to walk after the customs. <sup>22</sup>What is it therefore? At all events a multitude will come together, for they will hear that you have come. <sup>23</sup>Therefore do this, what we say to you: We have four men who have a vow on themselves; <sup>24</sup>taking them, be purified with them, and be at expense for them, so that they may shave their heads. And all may know that what they have been told about you is nothing, but you yourself also walk orderly and keep the law. <sup>25</sup>And as to the nations who believe, we joined in writing, judging them to observe no such things, except only that they keep themselves from both idol sacrifice, and blood, and things strangled, and fornication. <sup>26</sup>Then taking the men on the next day, being purified with them, Paul went into the temple, declaring the fulfillment of the days of the purification, until an offering should be offered for each of them.

<sup>27</sup>And when the seven days were about to be completed, the Jews who were from Asia, having seen him in the temple, stirred up all the crowd and laid hands on him, <sup>28</sup>crying out, Men, Israelites, help! This is the man who teaches all everywhere against the people and the law and this place. And even he brought Greeks into the temple and has polluted this holy place. <sup>29</sup>(For they had seen Trophimus the Ephesian with him in the city before, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.) <sup>30</sup>And all the city was moved, and the people ran together. And laying hands on Paul, they drew him outside of the temple. And immediately the doors were shut. <sup>31</sup>And as they were seeking to kill him, the news came to the chiliarch of the cohort, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. <sup>32</sup>He immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. And seeing the chiliarch and the soldiers, they quit beating Paul. <sup>33</sup>Then going near, the chiliarch laid hold on him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains. And he demanded who he was and what he had done. <sup>34</sup>And others cried something else in the crowd, and not being able to know the certainty on account of the uproar, he commanded him to be carried into the fortress. <sup>35</sup>And when he came on the stairs, it happened that he was carried by the soldiers, because of the violence of the crowd. <sup>36</sup>For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him!

<sup>37</sup>And as Paul was about to be led into the fortress, he said to the chiliarch, Is it lawful for me to say a thing to you? And he said, Do you know Greek? <sup>38</sup>Then are you not the Egyptian who before these days caused a riot, and led four thousand men of the assassins out into the wilderness? <sup>39</sup>But Paul said, I am a man, a Jew of Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no small city. And I beseech you, allow me to speak to the people. <sup>40</sup>And he allowing him, standing on the stairs, Paul signaled with his hand to the people. And much silence taking place, he spoke in the Hebrew dialect, saying:

CHAPTER 22

<sup>1</sup>Men, brothers and fathers! Hear my defense now to you. <sup>2</sup>And hearing that he spoke to them in the Hebrew dialect, they all the more kept silence. And he said, <sup>3</sup>I am truly a Jew born in Tarsus in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, taught according to the exactness of the law of the fathers, being a zealous one of God, as you all are today. <sup>4</sup>I persecuted this Way as far as death, binding and delivering both men and women into prisons; <sup>5</sup>as also the high priest bears witness to me, and all the elderhood. And receiving letters from them to the brothers, I traveled into Damascus indeed to lead those being bound to Jerusalem, in order that they might be punished. <sup>6</sup>And it happened to me, traveling and drawing near to Damascus: suddenly, about midday, a great light out of the heaven shone around me. <sup>7</sup>And I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me? <sup>8</sup>And I answered, Who are you, lord? And he said to me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you persecute. <sup>9</sup>And they who were with me indeed saw the light and were afraid. But they did not hear the voice of Him who spoke to me. <sup>10</sup>And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said to me, Arise and go into Damascus. And there it shall be told you all things which are appointed for you to do. <sup>11</sup>And I did not see, because of the glory of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Damascus.

<sup>12</sup>And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, testified to by all the Jews who lived there, <sup>13</sup>coming to me and standing by, he said to me, Brother Saul, look up! And the same hour I looked up on him. <sup>14</sup>And he said, The God of our fathers has chosen you to know His will and see the Just One, and to hear a voice of His mouth. <sup>15</sup>For you shall be His witness to all men of what you have seen and heard. <sup>16</sup>And now what do you intend? Arise and be baptized and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord. <sup>17</sup>And it happened to me, I returning to Jerusalem and praying in the temple, I became in an ecstasy. <sup>18</sup>And I saw Him say to me, Hurry and go quickly out of Jerusalem, for they will not receive your testimony concerning Me. <sup>19</sup>And I said, Lord, they know that I was imprisoning and beating those who believed on You throughout the synagogues. <sup>20</sup>And when the blood of Your martyr Stephen was poured out, I also was standing by and consenting to his death, and holding the garments of those who killed him. <sup>21</sup>And He said to me, Go, for I will send you far away to the nations.

<sup>22</sup>And they listened to him until this word, and then they lifted up their voice, saying, Take such a one from the earth! For it is not fitting that he should live. <sup>23</sup>And as they shouted and tore their garments, and threw dust into the air, <sup>24</sup>the chiliarch commanded him to be brought into the fortress, saying for him to be examined by scourging, so that he might know why they cried out so against him.

<sup>25</sup>And as they stretched him with thongs, Paul said to the centurion who stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman and uncondemned? <sup>26</sup>And hearing, coming near the centurion reported to the chiliarch, saying, Watch what you are about to do, for this man is a Roman. <sup>27</sup>And coming up the chiliarch said to him, Tell me, are you a Roman? And He said, Yes. <sup>28</sup>And the chiliarch answered, With a great sum I bought this citizenship. And Paul said, But I was even born free. <sup>29</sup>Then immediately, those being about to examine him stood away from him. And the chiliarch also was afraid, fully knowing that he was a Roman, and that he had bound him. <sup>30</sup>On the next day, he desiring to know with certainty why he was accused by the Jews, he freed him from his bonds, and commanded the chief priests and all their sanhedrin to appear. And bringing Paul down, he set him among them.

CHAPTER 23

<sup>1</sup>And looking earnestly on the sanhedrin, Paul said, Men, brothers, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day. <sup>2</sup>And the high priest Ananias commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth. <sup>3</sup>Then Paul said to him, God shall strike you, whitened wall! For do you sit judging me according to the law, and against law command me to be stricken? <sup>4</sup>And they who stood by him said, Do you revile God's high priest? <sup>5</sup>Then Paul said, I did not know, brothers, that he was the high priest; for it is written, "You shall not speak evil of the ruler of your people." <sup>6</sup>But when Paul saw that the one part were Sadducees and the other part Pharisees, he cried out in the sanhedrin, Men! Brothers! I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee! I am called in question because of the hope and resurrection of the dead. <sup>7</sup>And when he had said this, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees; and the multitude was divided. <sup>8</sup>For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess both. <sup>9</sup>And there arose a great cry. And the scribes who were on the Pharisees' side arose and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man. But if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him, let us not fight against God. <sup>10</sup>And when there arose a great dissension, the chiliarch, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and to take him from among them by force, and to bring him into the fortress. <sup>11</sup>And the following night the Lord stood by him and said, Be of good cheer, Paul, for as you have testified of Me in Jerusalem, so you also must bear witness at Rome.

<sup>12</sup>And when it became day, some of the Jews banded together and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul. <sup>13</sup>And they who made this conspiracy were more than forty. <sup>14</sup>And they came to the chief priests and elders and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse that we will eat nothing until we have killed Paul. <sup>15</sup>Now therefore you, with the sanhedrin, make known to the chiliarch that he bring him down to you tomorrow, as though you would inquire something more perfectly regarding him. And we are ready to put him to death before he comes near. <sup>16</sup>And hearing of the ambush, Paul's sister's son, having come near, and entering into the fortress, he reported to Paul. <sup>17</sup>And calling one of the centurions, Paul said, Bring this young man to the chiliarch, for he has a certain thing to tell him. <sup>18</sup>So he took him and brought him to the chiliarch and said, Paul the prisoner called me and asked me to bring this young man to you, who has something to say to you. <sup>19</sup>And laying hold of his hand, and drawing aside privately, the chiliarch asked him, What is it that you have to tell me? <sup>20</sup>And he said, The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the sanhedrin tomorrow, as though they would inquire something more exactly about him. <sup>21</sup>But do not yield to them, for there are more than forty men of them lying in wait for him, who have bound themselves with an oath that they will neither eat nor drink until they have killed him. And now they are ready, looking for a promise from you.

<sup>22</sup>So the chiliarch sent away the young man commanding, Tell no one that you have shown these things to me. <sup>23</sup>And he called two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, and seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen, at the third hour of the night. <sup>24</sup>And provide animals, so that they may set Paul on them and bring him safe to Felix the governor. <sup>25</sup>And he wrote a letter in this way: <sup>26</sup>Claudius Lysias, to the most excellent governor Felix, greetings. <sup>27</sup>This man was taken by the Jews and would have been killed by them. Then I came with an army and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman. <sup>28</sup>And being minded to know the charge for which they accused him, I brought him down to their sanhedrin; <sup>29</sup>whom I found be accused of questions of their law, and having no charge worthy of death or of bonds. <sup>30</sup>And it being revealed to me that a plot against the man was about to be executed by the Jews, I immediately sent him to you, commanding his accusers also to say before you what they had against him. Farewell.

<sup>31</sup>Then, indeed, taking up Paul, as it was commanded them, the soldiers brought him by night to Antipatris. <sup>32</sup>And on the next day they left the horsemen to go with him and returned to the fortress. <sup>33</sup>And when they had come to Caesarea and had delivered the letter to the governor, they presented Paul before him also. <sup>34</sup>And when the governor had read the letter, he asked what province he was from. And when he understood that he was from Cilicia, <sup>35</sup>he said, I will hear you when your accusers have also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's Praetorium.

CHAPTER 24

<sup>1</sup>And after five days Ananias the high priest descended with the elders and with a certain orator, Tertullus, who made a statement to the governor against Paul. <sup>2</sup>And being called, Tertullus began to accuse, saying, Since we enjoy great quietness by you, and very worthy deeds are done to this nation due to your forethought, <sup>3</sup>in everything and everywhere, most noble Felix, we accept with all thankfulness. <sup>4</sup>But that I not hinder you further, I beseech you to hear us briefly in your fairness. <sup>5</sup>For we have found this man pestilent, and moving rebellion among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes, <sup>6</sup>who also attempted to profane the temple, whom we took and would have judged according to our law. <sup>7</sup>But the chiliarch Lysias came with much force, taking him away out of our hands, <sup>8</sup>commanding his accusers to come to you. By examining him, you yourself may know about all these things of which we accuse him. <sup>9</sup>And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

<sup>10</sup>But the governor motioning to him to speak, Paul answered;

Understanding you as being a judge of this nation many years, I cheerfully defend myself as to the things concerning myself. <sup>11</sup>You can know that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship. <sup>12</sup>And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, nor making a gathering of a crowd; not even in the synagogues, nor throughout the city. <sup>13</sup>Nor can they prove the things of which they now accuse me. <sup>14</sup>But I confess this to you, that after the Way which they call heresy, so I worship the God of my fathers, believing all things that are written in the law and in the prophets. <sup>15</sup>And I have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust. <sup>16</sup>And in this I exercise myself, always to have a blameless conscience toward God and men. <sup>17</sup>And after many years I came to bring alms and offerings to my nation. <sup>18</sup>Among which certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, not with a crowd nor with tumult. <sup>19</sup>These ought to be present before you and to accuse me, if they have anything against me. <sup>20</sup>Or else let these themselves say if they have found anything unjust in me while I stood before the sanhedrin, <sup>21</sup>unless it may be for this one voice that I cried out standing among them, that concerning a resurrection of the dead I am being judged by you today.

<sup>22</sup>And having heard these things, Felix put them off, knowing more accurately of the Way, saying, When Lysias the chiliarch has come down, I will examine the things concerning you. <sup>23</sup>And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul and to let him have liberty, and not to forbid anyone of his own to minister or come to him.

<sup>24</sup>Then after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess, he sent for Paul and heard him concerning the faith in Christ. <sup>25</sup>And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and the Judgment to come, Felix trembled and answered, Go for this time, but taking time later, I will call for you. <sup>26</sup>He also hoped that silver would be given him by Paul, that he might free him. Therefore he also frequently sent for him and talked with him. <sup>27</sup>But after two years Felix welcomed a successor, Porcius Festus. And wishing to show a favor to the Jews, Felix left Paul bound.

CHAPTER 25

<sup>1</sup>Then entering the province, after three days Festus went from Caesarea to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>And the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and they begged him <sup>3</sup>asking a favor against him that he would send for him to Jerusalem, making a plot to kill him on way. <sup>4</sup>Then indeed Festus answered that Paul should be kept at Caesarea; he himself would depart shortly. <sup>5</sup>Then he said, those having power among may go down with me. If there is a thing amiss in this man, let them accuse him. <sup>6</sup>And staying among them more than ten days, going down to Caesarea, on the next day sitting on the judgment seat, he commanded Paul to be brought. <sup>7</sup>And he having come, the Jews who came down from Jerusalem stood around and brought many charges against Paul, which they could not prove. <sup>8</sup>Defending himself, Paul said, Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar have I offended in anything.

<sup>9</sup>But Festus, wanting to please the Jews, answered Paul and said, Will you go up to Jerusalem and be judged there before me about these things? <sup>10</sup>But Paul said, I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you very well know. <sup>11</sup>For if I am an offender or have committed anything worthy of death, I do not refuse to die. But if there is nothing of which these accuse me, no one can deliver me to them. I appeal to Caesar. <sup>12</sup>Then conferring with the sanhedrin, Festus answered, You have appealed to Caesar? To Caesar you shall go.

<sup>13</sup>And after some days king Agrippa and Bernice came to Caesarea to greet Festus. <sup>14</sup>And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause to the king, saying, A certain man has been left in bonds by Felix, <sup>15</sup>about whom, when I was in Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring judgment against him. <sup>16</sup>To them I answered, It is not the custom of the Romans to deliver any man to destruction before he being accused may have the accusers face to face, and have had freedom to answer for himself concerning the accusation. <sup>17</sup>Therefore, when they had come here, without any delay I sat on the judgment seat the next day and commanded the man to be brought, <sup>18</sup>about whom, standing up, the accusers brought against him no charge of which I suspected, <sup>19</sup>but they had certain questions about their own demon-worship, and about a certain Jesus dying, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. <sup>20</sup>And because I was perplexed about this question, I asked whether he would go to Jerusalem and be judged there about these matters. <sup>21</sup>But Paul having appealed to be reserved to the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be held until I might send him to Caesar.

<sup>22</sup>And Agrippa said to Festus, I also would like to hear the man myself. And he said, Tomorrow you shall hear him. <sup>23</sup>And on the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp and had entered into the place of hearing with both the chiliarchs and principal men of the city, also Festus commanding, Paul was brought out. <sup>24</sup>And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all those men present with us, you see this one about whom all the multitude of the Jews pleaded with me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying that he ought not to live any longer. <sup>25</sup>But I had perceived nothing he had committed worthy of death, and that he himself has appealed to Augustus, I determined to send him, <sup>26</sup>about whom I have no certain thing to write of him to my lord. Therefore I brought him before you, and especially before you, O king Agrippa, so that, after examination is made, I might have something to write. <sup>27</sup>For it seems to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not to signify the charges against him.

CHAPTER 26

<sup>1</sup>And Agrippa said to Paul, You are permitted to speak for yourself. Then stretching out his hand, Paul made a defense:

<sup>2</sup>Concerning all of which I am accused by Jews, king Agrippa, I think myself happy being about to make defense before you today, <sup>3</sup>you being especially expert in all customs and questions among the Jews. Therefore I beseech you to hear me patiently. <sup>4</sup>Truly, then, all the Jews know my manner of life from my youth, which was at first among my own nation at Jerusalem, <sup>5</sup>who knew me from the first, if they would testify, that according to the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. <sup>6</sup>And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made to our fathers by God, <sup>7</sup>to which promise our twelve tribes hope to attain, serving God fervently night and day. For the sake of this hope, king Agrippa, I am accused by the Jews. <sup>8</sup>Why is it thought a thing incredible with you that God raises the dead?

<sup>9</sup>I truly thought within myself that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth, <sup>10</sup>which I also did in Jerusalem. And I shut up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests. And they being put to death, I cast a vote. <sup>11</sup>And I punished them often in every synagogue; I compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly furious against them, I persecuted them even to the outside cities.

<sup>12</sup>In which pursuit also traveling to Damascus with authority and a decision-power from the chief priests, <sup>13</sup>at midday, along the highway, O king, I and those with me saw a light from Heaven, brighter than the sun; shining around me. <sup>14</sup>And all of us falling to the ground, I heard a voice speaking to me and saying in the Hebrew dialect, Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads. <sup>15</sup>And I said, Who are you, lord? And He said, I am Jesus whom you persecute. <sup>16</sup>But rise and stand on your feet, for I have appeared to you for this purpose, to make you a minister and a witness both of what you saw, and in what I shall appear to you; <sup>17</sup>delivering you from the people and the nations, to whom I now send you <sup>18</sup>in order to open their eyes so that they may turn from darkness to light, and from the authority of Satan to God, so that they may receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith in Me.

<sup>19</sup>After this, king Agrippa, I did not disobey the heavenly vision. <sup>20</sup>But to those first in Damascus, and Jerusalem, and to all the country of Judea, and to the nations, I made known the command to repent and to turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance <sup>21</sup>Because of these things, having caught me in the temple, The Jews tried to kill me. <sup>22</sup>Then having obtained help from God, I stand until this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying no other things than those which the prophets and Moses said was going to happen; <sup>23</sup>that Christ should suffer, that by a resurrection of the dead, He would be the first, going to proclaim light to the people and to the nations.

<sup>24</sup>And he defending himself with these things, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, you rave! Your many letters turn you to insanity. <sup>25</sup>But he said, Not to insanity, most noble Festus, but I speak words of truth and sanity. <sup>26</sup>For the king understands about these things, to whom I speak, even being bold of speech. For I am persuaded that not any of these things are hidden from him, nothing. For the doing of this was not in a corner. <sup>27</sup>King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe. <sup>28</sup>And Agrippa said to Paul, Do you persuade me to be a Christian in but a little? <sup>29</sup>And Paul said, I would pray to God, both in a little and in much, that not only you, but also all hearing me today to become as I also am, except for these bonds.

<sup>30</sup>And he having spoken this, the king and the governor and Bernice and those who sat with them rose up. <sup>31</sup>And withdrawing, they spoke with one another, saying, This man does nothing worthy of death or of bonds. <sup>32</sup>And Agrippa said to Festus, This man might have been set at liberty if he had not appealed to Caesar.

CHAPTER 27

<sup>1</sup>And when it was determined that we should sail to Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' cohort. <sup>2</sup>And boarding a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail alongside Asian places, we set sail, Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica, being with us. <sup>3</sup>And on the next day we were landed at Sidon. And Julius treated Paul courteously and gave him liberty to go to his friends to receive care. <sup>4</sup>And setting sail from there, we sailed close to Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. <sup>5</sup>And sailing over the sea against Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra of Lycia. <sup>6</sup>And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing to Italy, and he put us on it. <sup>7</sup>And sailing slowly many days and with difficulty, coming abreast of Cnidus; the wind not allowing us; we sailed close to Crete, across from Salmone. <sup>8</sup>And coasting along with difficulty, we came to a place named Fair Havens, near which was a city, Lasea. <sup>9</sup>And much time having been used up, and the voyage already being dangerous, because the Fast was now already past, Paul warned them, <sup>10</sup>saying, Men, I perceive that this voyage is about to be with much harm and loss, and not only much cargo and of the ship, but also of our souls. <sup>11</sup>But the centurion was rather persuaded by the helmsman and the shipmaster, than by the things spoken by Paul. <sup>12</sup>And the port not being fit to winter in, the most of them advised to set sail from there, if by any means they might be able to get to Phoenix to winter; which is a port of Crete, looking toward the southwest and northwest. <sup>13</sup>And a south wind blowing softly, thinking to have obtained their purpose, lifting anchor, they sailed along close beside Crete.

<sup>14</sup>But not long after, a stormy wind called Euroclydon beat down on it. <sup>15</sup>And the ship being seized, and not being able to beat against the wind, giving way we were borne along. <sup>16</sup>And running under an islet being called Claudia, we hardly were able to become masters of the boat; <sup>17</sup>which taking, they used helps, undergirding the ship. And fearing lest they should fall into the sandbanks of Syrtis, lowering the tackle, so they were borne along. <sup>18</sup>And being exceedingly storm-tossed with a tempest, they made a casting on the next day; <sup>19</sup>And on the third day we threw out the ship's tackle with our hands. <sup>20</sup>And neither sun nor stars appearing in many days, and no small tempest pressing hard, now all hope that we would be saved was taken away. <sup>21</sup>But there being much fasting, then standing up in their midst, Paul said, O men, being obedient to me you ought not to have set sail from Crete, and to have come by this harm and loss. <sup>22</sup>And now I exhort you to be of good cheer, for there will be no casting away of life among you, only of the ship. <sup>23</sup>For tonight an angel of God stood beside me, whose I am and whom I serve, <sup>24</sup>saying, Fear not, Paul! You must stand before Caesar. And behold! God has given you all those who sail with you. <sup>25</sup>Therefore, men, be of good cheer, for I believe God, that it will be so, according to the way it was told me. <sup>26</sup>But we must fall on a certain island.

<sup>27</sup>But when the fourteenth night came, we being carried about in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors thought that they drew near some country. <sup>28</sup>And sounding they found it twenty fathoms; and moving little further, and sounding again, they found it fifteen fathoms. <sup>29</sup>And fearing that we would fall on rocks, and casting four anchors out of the stern, they wished day to come. <sup>30</sup>But the sailors seeking to flee out of the ship, and lowering the boat into the sea, pretending to be about to cast out anchors from the prow, <sup>31</sup>Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Unless these remain in the ship, you cannot be saved. <sup>32</sup>Then the soldiers cut the ropes of the boat, and let her fall.

<sup>33</sup>And until day was about to come, Paul begged all to take food, saying, This is the fourteenth day that you continued waiting without food, having taken nothing. <sup>34</sup>Therefore I beg you to take some food, for this is for your deliverance. For not a hair fall from the head of any one of you. <sup>35</sup>And saying these things, and taking bread, he gave thanks to God before all, and breaking, he began to eat.

<sup>36</sup>And all becoming cheered, they also took food. <sup>37</sup>And we were, all the souls in the ship, two hundred and seventy-six. <sup>38</sup>And being filled with food, they lightened the ship, throwing the wheat into the sea. <sup>39</sup>And when day came, they did not recognize the land. But they discovered a certain bay with a beach, into which they were minded, if they were able, to drive the ship. <sup>40</sup>And casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea; at the same time they loosened the rudder bands and hoisted up the foresail to the wind and held to the shore. <sup>41</sup>And coming on a place between two seas, they drove the vessel. And indeed the prow sticking fast, it remained unmovable. But the stern was broken with the violence of the waves. <sup>42</sup>And the mind of the soldiers was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out and escape. <sup>43</sup>But the centurion, desiring to save Paul, kept them from their purpose and commanded those who could swim, to throw themselves overboard, to go out on the land. <sup>44</sup>And the rest went, some on boards and others on some of the things from the ship. And so it happened that all were saved on the land.

CHAPTER 28

<sup>1</sup>And being saved, then they knew that the island was called Melita. <sup>2</sup>And the foreigners showed us not the common kindness. For they kindled a fire and welcomed all of us, because of the rain coming on, and because of the cold. <sup>3</sup>And Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laying them on the fire, a viper came out of the heat and fastened on his hand. <sup>4</sup>And when the foreigners saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, being saved from the sea, Justice has not allowed to live. <sup>5</sup>Then indeed he shook off the creature into the fire, suffering no harm. <sup>6</sup>But they expected him to be about to become inflamed, or to fall down dead suddenly, But over much time expecting and seeing nothing amiss happening to him, they changed their minds and said that he was a god.

<sup>7</sup>In the quarters about that place were lands to the chief of the island, whose name was Publius. Welcoming us, he lodged us courteously three days. <sup>8</sup>And it happened the father of Publius was lying down, suffering fevers and dysentery; to whom Paul entered in, and praying and laying on his hands, he healed him. <sup>9</sup>Then this taking place, the rest who were having infirmities in the island also came, and were healed. <sup>10</sup>They also honored us with many honors. And on our setting sail, they lay on us with such things as were necessary.

<sup>11</sup>And after three months we sailed in a ship of Alexandria which had wintered in the island, an Alexandrian with an ensign, The Twin Brothers. <sup>12</sup>And landing at Syracuse, we stayed three days. <sup>13</sup>Going around from there we arrived at Rhegium. And after one day a south wind coming on, we came to Puteoli on the second, <sup>14</sup>where finding brothers, we were asked to stay seven days. And so we went toward Rome. <sup>15</sup>And the brothers from there hearing of us, they came to meet us as far as the market-place of Appius, and Three Taverns. Seeing them, thanking God, Paul took courage. <sup>16</sup>And when we came into Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the camp commander. But Paul was allowed to dwell by himself, with a soldier guarding him.

<sup>17</sup>And after three days it happened that Paul called together those being chief of the Jews. And they coming together, he said to them, Men, brothers, I did nothing against the people or customs of our fathers. I was delivered a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans <sup>18</sup>who, examining me, were of a mind to let me go because there was no cause of death in me. <sup>19</sup>But the Jews speaking against it, I was constrained to appeal to Caesar; not as having anything to accuse my nation. <sup>20</sup>For this cause, then, I called for you, to see and to speak with you. For I have this chain around me for the hope of Israel. <sup>21</sup>And they said to him, We neither received letters out of Judea concerning you, nor have any of the brothers who came declared or spoke anything evil of you. <sup>22</sup>But we think it right to hear from you what you think. For truly as concerning this sect, it is known to us that it is spoken against everywhere. <sup>23</sup>And they having appointed him a day, many came to him in his lodging; to whom he expounded, testifying the kingdom of God, and persuading them the things concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses and out of the prophets, from morning until evening. <sup>24</sup>And some indeed believed the things that were said, others did not believe. <sup>25</sup>And disagreeing with one another, they were let go, Paul saying one word: Well did the Holy Spirit speak through Isaiah the prophet to our fathers, <sup>26</sup>saying, "Go to this people and say: Hearing you shall hear and shall not understand; and seeing you shall see and not perceive. <sup>27</sup>For the heart of this people was fattened, and they have heard with their ears dully; and they closed their eyes; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them." <sup>28</sup>Therefore be it known to you that the salvation of God is sent to the nations, and they will hear. <sup>29</sup>And he having said these words, the Jews departed, having much discussion amongst themselves.

<sup>30</sup>And Paul remained two years in his own hired house. And he welcomed all who came in to him, <sup>31</sup>proclaiming the kingdom of God, and teaching those things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ, with all freedom, and without hindrance.

THE LETTER TO THE ROMANS

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, a called apostle, separated to the gospel of God — <sup>2</sup>(which He had promised beforehand through His prophets in the Holy Scriptures), the gospel <sup>3</sup>about His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who was made of the seed of David according to the flesh, <sup>4</sup>who was marked out the Son of God in power, according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead; <sup>5</sup>by whom we have received grace and apostleship, to obedience to the faith among all nations, for His name — <sup>6</sup>among whom you also are the called-out ones of Jesus Christ: <sup>7</sup>to all those who are in Rome, beloved of God, called-out saints. Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>8</sup>First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. <sup>9</sup>For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of His Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers — <sup>10</sup>making request if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come to you. <sup>11</sup>For I long to see you, so that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, to you for the establishing of you. <sup>12</sup>And this is, that to be comforted together with you by our mutual faith, both yours and mine.

<sup>13</sup>But I would not have you ignorant, brothers, that oftentimes I purposed to come to you, and was kept back until the present; that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other nations. <sup>14</sup>I am debtor both to the Greeks and to the foreigners, both to the wise and to the unwise. <sup>15</sup>So, as much as is in me lies, I am ready to preach the gospel to you who are at Rome also. <sup>16</sup>For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. <sup>17</sup>For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith — as it is written, “The just shall live by faith.”

<sup>18</sup>For the wrath of God is revealed from Heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness, <sup>19</sup>because the thing which may be known of God is clearly revealed within them, for God revealed it to them. <sup>20</sup>For the unseen things of Him from the creation of the world being realized by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead; for them to be without excuse. <sup>21</sup>Because, knowing God, they did not glorify Him as God, neither were thankful. But they became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. <sup>22</sup>Professing to be wise, they became fools <sup>23</sup>and changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like corruptible man, and birds, and four-footed animals, and creeping things. <sup>24</sup>Therefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of own hearts, to dishonor their own bodies between themselves. <sup>25</sup>For they changed the truth of God into a lie, and they worshiped and served the created thing more than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

<sup>26</sup>For this cause, God gave them up to dishonorable affections. For even their women changed the natural use into that which is against nature. <sup>27</sup>And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust toward one another; males with males working out shameful, and receiving in themselves the recompense which was fitting for their error. <sup>28</sup>And even as they did not think fit to have God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do the things not right, <sup>29</sup>being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; being full of envy, murder, quarrels, deceit, evil habits, becoming whisperers, <sup>30</sup>backbiters, haters of God, insolent, proud, braggarts, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, <sup>31</sup>without discernment, covenant-breakers, without natural affection, unforgiving, unmerciful; <sup>32</sup>who, knowing the righteous order of God, that those practicing such things are worthy of death, not only do them, but have pleasure in those practicing them.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>Therefore you are without excuse, O man, everyone who judges; for in that in which you judge another, you condemn yourself, for you who judge do the same things. <sup>2</sup>But know that the judgment of God is according to truth on those who practice such things. <sup>3</sup>And, O man, the one judging those who do such things, and practice them, do you think this, that you shall escape the judgment of God? <sup>4</sup>Or do you despise the riches of His kindness, and the forbearance and longsuffering, not knowing that the kindness of God leads you to repentance? <sup>5</sup>But according to your hardness and your impenitent heart, do you treasure up wrath for yourself in a day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God, <sup>6</sup>who will render to each according to his works; <sup>7</sup>indeed to those who with patience in good work are seeking for glory, and honor, and incorruptibility, everlasting life. <sup>8</sup>But to those who even disobey out of self-interest, but obey unrighteousness, it will be anger and wrath, <sup>9</sup>tribulation and anguish upon every soul of man who has worked out evil; of the Jew first, and also of the Greek. <sup>10</sup>But He will give glory, honor and peace to every man who works good, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. <sup>11</sup>For there is no respect of persons with God. <sup>12</sup>For as many as sinned without Law will also perish without Law. And as many as have sinned within Law shall be judged through Law. <sup>13</sup>For it is not the hearers of the Law who are just before God, but the doers of the Law will be justified. <sup>14</sup>For when the nations, who do not have the Law, do by nature the things of the Law, these, not having the Law, are a law unto themselves; <sup>15</sup>who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and the thoughts between one another accusing or else excusing one another, <sup>16</sup>in a day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel.

<sup>17</sup>Behold, you are called a Jew, and rest in the Law, and boast in God; <sup>18</sup>and know His will and approve the things excelling, being instructed out of the Law; <sup>19</sup>and persuading yourselves to be a guide of the blind, a light to those in darkness; <sup>20</sup>an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, who have the form of knowledge and of the truth in the Law. <sup>21</sup>Therefore the one teaching another, do you not teach yourself? The one preaching not to steal, do you steal? <sup>22</sup>The one saying not to commit adultery, do you commit adultery? The one detesting idols, do you rob temples? <sup>23</sup>You who boast in Law, do you dishonor God through breaking the Law? <sup>24</sup>For the name of God is blasphemed among the nations because of you, as it is written. <sup>25</sup>For circumcision truly profits if you keep the Law, but if you are a transgressor of the Law, circumcision becomes uncircumcision. <sup>26</sup>If then the uncircumcision keeps the ordinances of the Law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision? <sup>27</sup>And the uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfills the Law, shall it not judge you, who through letter and circumcision become transgressors of the Law? <sup>28</sup>For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly, nor is circumcision that which is one outwardly in flesh; <sup>29</sup>but he is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is of the heart; in spirit and not in letter; whose praise is not from men, but from God.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>Then what is the superiority of the Jew? Or what is the profit of circumcision?
<sup>2</sup>Much, by every way! Chiefly, indeed, because they were entrusted with the oracles of God. <sup>3</sup>For what? If some did not believe, will not their unbelief nullify the faith of God? <sup>4</sup>Let it not be! But let God be true, and every man a liar; as it is written, "That You might be justified in Your sayings, and will overcome when You are judged." <sup>5</sup>But if our unrighteousness commends the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who lays on wrath? (I speak as a man.) <sup>6</sup>Let it not be! For then how shall God judge the world? <sup>7</sup>For if in my lie the truth has more abounded to His glory why am I still judged as a sinner? <sup>8</sup>And not rather, (as we are wrongly accused, and as some affirm that we say), Let us do bad things that good may come? — whose condemnation is just.

<sup>9</sup>What then? Do we excel? No, in no way; for we have before charged both Jews and Greeks all with being under sin, <sup>10</sup>as it is written: "There is none righteous, no not one; <sup>11</sup>there is none that understands, there is none that seeks after God." <sup>12</sup>"They are all gone out of the way, they have together become unprofitable, there is none that does good, no, not one." <sup>13</sup>"Their throat is an open grave, with their tongues they have used deceit, the poison of asps in under their lips; <sup>14</sup>whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness;" <sup>15</sup>"their feet are swift to shed blood; <sup>16</sup>destruction and misery are in their way, <sup>17</sup>and the way of peace they did not know." <sup>18</sup>"There is no fear of God before their eyes."

<sup>19</sup>But we know that whatever things the Law says, it says to those who are under the Law; so that every mouth may be stopped and all the world may be under judgment before God, <sup>20</sup>because by the works of the Law none of all flesh will be justified in His sight; for through the Law is the knowledge of sin. <sup>21</sup>But now a righteousness of God has been revealed from the Law, being witnessed by the Law and the Prophets; <sup>22</sup>even the righteousness of God through the faith of Jesus Christ, toward all and upon all those who believe. For there is no difference, <sup>23</sup>for all have sinned and come short of the glory of God, <sup>24</sup>being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus; <sup>25</sup>whom God has set forth to be a propitiation through faith in His blood, to declare His righteousness through the passing by of the sins that had taken place before, in the forbearance of God; <sup>26</sup>to declare His righteousness at this time, that He might be just and the Justifier of him is of the faith of Jesus. <sup>27</sup>Then where is the boasting? It is excluded. Through what law? Of works? No, but through the law of faith. <sup>28</sup>Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the works of the law. <sup>29</sup>Or is He the God of the Jews only, and not also of the nations? Yes, of the nations also, <sup>30</sup>since it is one God who will justify circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith. <sup>31</sup>Do we then make the Law void through faith? Let it not be! But we establish the Law.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>What then shall we say that our father Abraham has found, according to flesh?
<sup>2</sup>For if Abraham was justified by works, he has a boast; but not before God. <sup>3</sup>For what does the Scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness." <sup>4</sup>But to him working, the reward is not reckoned according to grace, but according to debt. <sup>5</sup>But to him not working, but believing on Him justifying the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. <sup>6</sup>Even as David also says of the blessedness of the man to whom God imputes righteousness without works, <sup>7</sup>saying, "Blessed are those whose lawlessnesses are forgiven, and whose sins are covered; <sup>8</sup>blessed is the man to whom the Lord will in no way impute sin." <sup>9</sup>Is this blessedness then on the circumcision only, or on the uncircumcision also?

For we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness. <sup>10</sup>How then was it reckoned? Being in circumcision or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. <sup>11</sup>And he received a sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while still uncircumcised; so that he might be the father of all those who believe though circumcision, for righteousness to be imputed to them also; <sup>12</sup>and a father of circumcision to those not of the circumcision only, but also to those walking by the steps of the faith of our father Abraham during uncircumcision.

<sup>13</sup>For the promise that he should be the heir of the world was not to Abraham or to his seed through the Law, but through the righteousness of faith. <sup>14</sup>For if they who are of the Law are heirs, faith is made void and the promise is made of no effect; <sup>15</sup>because the Law works out wrath, for where no law is, there is no transgression. <sup>16</sup>Therefore it is of faith so that it be according to grace; for the promise to be made sure to all the seed, not only to that which is of the Law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all <sup>17</sup>(as it is written, "I have made you a father of many nations") – before God, whom he believed, who makes the dead live, and calls thee things which are not as though they were. <sup>18</sup>For in hope he believed against hope that he would become the father of many nations (according to that which was spoken, "So your seed shall be"). <sup>19</sup>And not being weak in faith, he did not consider his own body already dead (being about a hundred years old) or the deadening of Sarah's womb. <sup>20</sup>He did not stagger at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strong in faith, giving glory to God, <sup>21</sup>and being fully persuaded that what God had promised, He was also able to perform. <sup>22</sup>And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness. <sup>23</sup>Now it was not written for him alone that it was imputed to him, <sup>24</sup>but for us also to whom it is to be imputed, to the ones believing on Him who has raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead; <sup>25</sup>who was delivered for our offenses and was raised for our justification.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>2</sup>Through Him we also have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice on the hope of the glory of God. <sup>3</sup>And not only this, but we glory in afflictions also, knowing that afflictions work out patience, <sup>4</sup>and patience works out experience, and experience works out hope. <sup>5</sup>And hope does not make us ashamed, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts through the Holy Spirit given to us. <sup>6</sup>For we yet being without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. <sup>7</sup>For one will with difficulty die for a righteous man, yet perhaps one would even dare to die for a good man. <sup>8</sup>But God commends His love toward us in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us. <sup>9</sup>Much more then, being now justified by His blood, we shall be saved from wrath through Him. <sup>10</sup>For if when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by His life. <sup>11</sup>And not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the reconciliation.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, even as through one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin, and so death passed on all men inasmuch as all sinned: <sup>13</sup>for until the Law sin was in the world, but sin is not imputed when there is no law. <sup>14</sup>But death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who had not sinned in the likeness of the transgression of Adam, who is the type of Him who was to come; <sup>15</sup>but the free gift shall not be also like the offense. For if by the offense of the one many died, much more the grace of God, and the gift in grace; which is of the one Man,

Jesus Christ, abounded to many. <sup>16</sup>And the free gift shall not be as by one having sinned; (for indeed the judgment was of one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offenses to justification. <sup>17</sup>For if by one man's offense death reigned by one, much more they who receive abundance of grace and the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by One, Jesus Christ.) <sup>18</sup>Therefore as by one offense sentence came on all men to condemnation, even so by the righteousness of One the free gift came to all men to justification of life. <sup>19</sup>For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of One shall many be made righteous. <sup>20</sup>But the Law entered so that the offense might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound, <sup>21</sup>so that as sin has reigned to death, even so grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin so that grace may abound? <sup>2</sup>Let it not be! How shall we who died to sin live any longer in it? <sup>3</sup>Do you not know that as many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into His death? <sup>4</sup>Therefore we were buried with Him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father; even so we also should walk in newness of life. <sup>5</sup>For if we have been joined together in the likeness of His death, we shall also be in the likeness of His resurrection; <sup>6</sup>knowing this, that our old man is crucified with Him in order that the body of sin might be destroyed, that from now on we should not serve sin. <sup>7</sup>For he who died has been justified from sin.

<sup>8</sup>But if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him, <sup>9</sup>knowing that when Christ was raised from the dead, He dies no more; death does not have any more dominion over Him. <sup>10</sup>For in that He died, He died to sin once; but in that He lives, He lives to God. <sup>11</sup>Likewise count yourselves also to be truly dead to sin, but alive to God through Jesus Christ our Lord. <sup>12</sup>Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts. <sup>13</sup>Do not yield your members as instruments of unrighteousness to sin, but yield yourselves to God, as those who are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. <sup>14</sup>For sin shall not have dominion over you, for you are not under Law, but under grace.

<sup>15</sup>What then? Shall we sin because we are not under Law, but under grace? Let it not be! <sup>16</sup>Do you not know that to whom you yield yourselves as slaves for obedience, you are slaves to him whom you obey; whether it is of sin to death, or of obedience to righteousness. <sup>17</sup>But thanks be to our God that you were the slaves of sin, but you have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine to which you were delivered. <sup>18</sup>Then being made free from sin, you became the slaves of righteousness. <sup>19</sup>I speak in the manner of men because of the weakness of your flesh; for as you have yielded your members as slaves to uncleanness, and to lawless act unto lawless act, even so now yield your members as slaves to righteousness unto holiness. <sup>20</sup>For when you were the slaves of sin, you were free from righteousness. <sup>21</sup>What fruit did you have then in those things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death. <sup>22</sup>But now, being made free from sin, and having become slaves to God, you have your fruit to holiness, and the end everlasting life. <sup>23</sup>For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>Or are you ignorant, brothers; for I speak to those who know the Law; that the Law has dominion over a man as long as he lives? <sup>2</sup>For the married woman was bound by law to the living husband for as long as he lives. But if the husband is dead, she is set free from the law of her husband. <sup>3</sup>So then if, while her husband lives, she is married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress. But if the husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress by becoming another man's wife. <sup>4</sup>So, my brothers, you also have become dead to the Law by the body of Christ so that you should be married to Another, even to Him raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit to God. <sup>5</sup>For when we were in the flesh, the passions of sin worked in our members through the Law to bring forth fruit to death. <sup>6</sup>But now we having been set free from the Law, having died to that in which we were held, so that we serve in newness of spirit and not in oldness of the letter.

<sup>7</sup>What shall we say then? Is the Law sin? Let it not be said! But I did not know sin except through the Law. For also I did not know lust except the Law said, You shall not lust. <sup>8</sup>But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, worked in me all kinds of lust. For apart from law sin was dead. <sup>9</sup>For I was alive without the Law once. But when the commandment came, sin revived and I died. <sup>10</sup>And the commandment, which was to life, was found to be death to me. <sup>11</sup>For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it killed me. <sup>12</sup>So indeed the Law is holy, and the commandment is holy and just and good. <sup>13</sup>Then has that which is good become death to me? Let it not be! But sin, that it might appear to be sin, working death in me by that which is good; in order that sin might become exceedingly sinful by the commandment.

<sup>14</sup>For we know that the Law is spiritual, but I am carnal, sold under sin. <sup>15</sup>For that which I do, I know not. For what I desire, that I do not do; but what I hate, that I do. <sup>16</sup>If then I do that which I do not desire, I consent to the Law that it is good. <sup>17</sup>But now it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwells in me. <sup>18</sup>For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) dwells no good thing. For to will is present with me, but how to perform that which is good I do not find. <sup>19</sup>For I do not do the good that I desire; but the evil which I do not will, that I do. <sup>20</sup>But if I do what I do not desire, it is no more I working it out, but sin dwelling in me. <sup>21</sup>I find then a law: when I will to do the right, evil is present with me. <sup>22</sup>For I delight in the law of God according to the inward man; <sup>23</sup>but I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin being in my members. <sup>24</sup>O wretched man that I am! Who shall deliver me from the body of this death? <sup>25</sup>I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God, but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. <sup>2</sup>But the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death. <sup>3</sup>For what the Law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh; <sup>4</sup>so that the righteousness of the Law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. <sup>5</sup>For they who are according to the flesh mind the things of flesh, but they who are according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. <sup>6</sup>For to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace <sup>7</sup>because the carnal mind is enmity against God, for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can it be. <sup>8</sup>So then they who are in the flesh cannot please God.

<sup>9</sup>But you are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if the Spirit of God dwells in you. But if anyone has not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of His. <sup>10</sup>And if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. <sup>11</sup>But if the Spirit of the One who raised up Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the One who raised up Christ from the dead shall also make your mortal bodies alive by His Spirit who dwells in you. <sup>12</sup>Therefore, brothers, we are not debtors to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. <sup>13</sup>For if you live according to the flesh, you shall die. But if you through the Spirit mortify the deeds of the body, you shall live. <sup>14</sup>For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. <sup>15</sup>For you have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption by which we cry, Abba, Father! <sup>16</sup>The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are the children of God. <sup>17</sup>And if we are children, then we are heirs; heirs of God and joint-heirs with Christ; so that if we suffer with Him, we may also be glorified together.

<sup>18</sup>For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to be revealed in us. <sup>19</sup>For the earnest expectation of the creation waits for the manifestation of the sons of God. <sup>20</sup>For the creation was not willingly subjected to vanity, but because of Him who subjected it on hope <sup>21</sup>that the creation itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. <sup>22</sup>And we know that the whole creation groans and travails in pain together until now. <sup>23</sup>And not only so, but ourselves also, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, awaiting adoption, the redemption of our body. <sup>24</sup>For we are saved by hope. But hope that is seen is not hope; for what a man sees, why does he still hope for it? <sup>25</sup>But if we hope for that which we do not see, then we wait for it with patience. <sup>26</sup>Likewise the Spirit also helps our infirmities. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit Himself makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. <sup>27</sup>And He searching the hearts knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God. <sup>28</sup>And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose. <sup>29</sup>For whom He foreknew, He also predestinated to be conformed to the image of His Son, for Him to be the First-born among many brothers. <sup>30</sup>whom He predestinated, these He also called; and whom He called, those He also justified. And whom He justified, these He also glorified.

<sup>31</sup>What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? <sup>32</sup>Truly He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things? <sup>33</sup>Who shall lay anything to the charge of God's elect? It is God who justifies. <sup>34</sup>Who is he condemning? It is Christ who has died, but also who is raised, who is also at the right hand of God, who also intercedes for us. <sup>35</sup>Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? <sup>36</sup>As it is written, "For Your sake we are killed all the day long. We are counted as sheep of slaughter." <sup>37</sup>But in all these things we more than conquer through Him who loved us. <sup>38</sup>For I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, <sup>39</sup>nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>I tell the truth in Christ, I do not lie, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Spirit, <sup>2</sup>that I have great heaviness and continual pain in my heart. <sup>3</sup>For I myself was wishing to be accursed from Christ for my brothers, my kinsmen according to the flesh, <sup>4</sup>who are Israelites; to whom belong the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises; <sup>5</sup>whose are the fathers, and of whom is the Christ according to flesh, He being God over all, blessed forever. Amen. <sup>6</sup>Not however that the word of God has failed, for not all those of Israel are Israel; <sup>7</sup>nor because they are the seed of Abraham are they all children. But, "In Isaac shall your Seed be called." <sup>8</sup>That is, not the children of the flesh are children of God; but the children of the promise are counted for a seed. <sup>9</sup>For this is the word of promise: "At this time I will come and Sarah shall have a son." <sup>10</sup>And not only this, but when Rebekah also had conceived by one, by our father Isaac <sup>11</sup>(for the children had not yet been born, neither had done any good or evil; but that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works but of Him who called,) <sup>12</sup>it was said to her, The elder shall serve the younger. <sup>13</sup>As it is written, "Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated."

<sup>14</sup>What shall we say then? Is there not unrighteousness with God? Let it not be!

<sup>15</sup>For He said to Moses, "I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion." <sup>16</sup>So then it is not of the one willing, nor of the one running, but of God, the One showing mercy. <sup>17</sup>For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "Even for this same purpose I have raised you up, that I might show My power in you, and that My name might be declared throughout all the earth." <sup>18</sup>Therefore He has mercy on whom He will have mercy, and whom He will, He hardens.

<sup>19</sup>You will then say to me, Why does He yet find fault? For who has resisted His will? <sup>20</sup>No, but, O man, who are you who replies against God? Shall the thing formed say to Him who formed it, Why have you made me this way? <sup>21</sup>Does not the potter power over the clay, from the same lump to make one vessel to honor and another to dishonor? <sup>22</sup>What if God, willing to show His wrath and to make His power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction; <sup>23</sup>and that He might make known the riches of His glory on the vessels of mercy which He had before prepared to glory; <sup>24</sup>whom He also called, not only us, of Jews, but also of the nations? <sup>25</sup>As He also says in Hosea, "I will call those not My people, My people; and those not beloved, Beloved." <sup>26</sup>And it shall be, in the place where it was said to them. "You are not My people; there they shall be called sons of the living God." <sup>27</sup>Isaiah also cries concerning Israel, "Though the number of the sons of Israel is as the sands of the sea, a remnant shall be saved. <sup>28</sup>For He is bringing the matter to an end, and cutting short in righteousness, because the Lord will make a short work on the earth." <sup>29</sup>And as Isaiah said before, "Unless the Lord of hosts had left us a seed, we would have been as Sodom, and would have been like Gomorrah."

<sup>30</sup>What shall we say then? That the nations, who did not follow after righteousness have taken on righteousness, but a righteousness of faith. <sup>31</sup>But Israel, who followed after a law of righteousness did not arrive at a law of righteousness. <sup>32</sup>Why? Because it was not of faith, but as it were by the works of the Law. For they stumbled at that Stumbling-stone; <sup>33</sup>as it is written, "Behold, I lay in Zion a Stumbling-stone and a Rock-of-offense, and everyone believing on Him shall not be put to shame."

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>Brothers, truly my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is for it to be saved. <sup>2</sup>For I bear record to them that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge. <sup>3</sup>For they, being ignorant of God's righteousness and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves to the righteousness of God. <sup>4</sup>For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness for everyone who believes. <sup>5</sup>For Moses writes of the righteousness which is of the Law, <sup>6</sup>“The man who does those things shall live by them.” <sup>6</sup>But the righteousness of faith says this: “Do not say in your heart, Who shall ascend into Heaven?”; that is, to bring Christ down; <sup>7</sup>or “Who shall descend into the deep?”; that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead. <sup>8</sup>But what does it say? “The word is near you, even in your mouth and in your heart”; that is, the word of faith which we proclaim; <sup>9</sup>Because if you confess the Lord Jesus, and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you shall be saved. <sup>10</sup>For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth one confesses unto salvation. <sup>11</sup>For the Scripture says, “Everyone believing on Him shall not be put to shame. <sup>12</sup>For there is no difference both of Jew and of Greek, for the same Lord over all is rich to all who call on Him. <sup>13</sup>For everyone, whoever shall call on the name of the Lord will be saved.” <sup>14</sup>How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without preaching? <sup>15</sup>And how shall they preach unless they are sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace and bring glad tidings of good things!”

<sup>16</sup>But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, “Lord, who has believed our report?” <sup>17</sup>Then faith is of hearing, and hearing by the word of God. <sup>18</sup>But I say, Have they not heard? Yes indeed, their voice went out into all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. <sup>19</sup>But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses says, “I will provoke you to jealousy by those who are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.” <sup>20</sup>But Isaiah is very bold and says, “I was found by those who did not seek Me, I became known to those who did not ask after Me.” <sup>21</sup>But to Israel He says, “All day long I have stretched forth My hands to a disobeying and gainsaying people.”

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>I say then, Did not God put away His people? Let it not be said! For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>2</sup>God did not thrust out His people whom He foreknew. Or do you not know what the Scripture said in Elijah, how he pleaded with God against Israel, saying, <sup>3</sup>“Lord, they killed Your prophets and dug down Your altars, and I am left alone, and they seek my life.” <sup>4</sup>But what does the Divine answer say to him? “I have reserved to Myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal.” <sup>5</sup>Even so then, also in this present time a remnant according to the election of grace has come into being. <sup>6</sup>But if by grace, then it is no more of works; otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it is of works, then it is no more of grace; otherwise work is no more work. <sup>7</sup>What then? Israel has not obtained that which it seeks, but the election obtained it, and the rest were hardened <sup>8</sup>even as it is written, “God gave to them a spirit of slumber, eyes not seeing, and ears not hearing” until this day. <sup>9</sup>And David said, “Let their table become for a snare and a trap and a stumbling-block and a recompense to them. <sup>10</sup>Let their eyes be darkened so that they may not see, and their back always bowing.”

<sup>11</sup>I say then, Did they not stumble that they fall? Let it not be! But by their slipping away came salvation to the nations, to provoke them to jealousy. <sup>12</sup>But if their slipping away is the riches of the world, and their default is the riches of the nations, how much more their fullness? <sup>13</sup>For I speak to you, the nations; since I am the apostle of the nations, I glorify my ministry; <sup>14</sup>if by any means I may provoke those who are my flesh to jealousy, and might save some of them. <sup>15</sup>For if their casting away is the reconciling of the world, what is the reception except life from the dead? <sup>16</sup>For if the first-fruit is holy, the lump is also holy; and if the root is holy, also the branches. <sup>17</sup>And if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive tree, were grafted in among them, and became a sharer of the root and the fatness of the olive tree with them, <sup>18</sup>do not boast against the branches. But if you boast, it is not you that bears the root, but the root bears you. <sup>19</sup>You will say then, The branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in. <sup>20</sup>Well, because of unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by faith. Do not be high-minded, but fear. <sup>21</sup>For if God did not spare the natural branches, lest He also may not spare you either! <sup>22</sup>Behold then the kindness, and the severity of God; on those having fallen, severity; but on you, kindness, if you continue in the kindness. Otherwise you also will be cut off. <sup>23</sup>And those also, if they do not continue in unbelief, will be grafted in. For God is able to graft them in again. <sup>24</sup>For if you were cut out of the natural wild olive tree, and were grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree; how much more these being according to nature will be grafted into their own olive-tree?

<sup>25</sup>For I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers, lest you should be wise within yourselves; that blindness in part has happened to Israel, until the fullness of the nations has come in. <sup>26</sup>And so all Israel shall be saved; as it is written, "There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer, and He will turn away ungodliness from Jacob." <sup>27</sup>For this is My covenant with them, when I have taken away their sins." <sup>28</sup>Indeed as regards the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes. But as regards the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes. <sup>29</sup>For the free gifts and calling of God are without repentance. <sup>30</sup>For as you also then disbelieved God, but now have been shown mercy through their disbelief, <sup>31</sup>even so these also have not believed now, so that through your mercy they may also obtain mercy. <sup>32</sup>For God has shut up all in unbelief, so that He might show mercy to all.

<sup>33</sup>O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments, and His ways past finding out! <sup>34</sup>For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who became His counselor? <sup>35</sup>Or who first gave to Him, and it will be repaid to him? <sup>36</sup>For of Him and through Him and to Him are all things; to Him be glory forever! Amen.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>I beseech you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, pleasing to God, which is your reasonable service. <sup>2</sup>And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, in order to prove by you what is that good and pleasing and perfect will of God. <sup>3</sup>For I say, through the grace given to me, to every man who is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think. But set your mind to be right-minded, even as God has dealt to every man the measure of faith. <sup>4</sup>For even as we have many members in one body, and all members do not have the same function, <sup>5</sup>so we the many are one body in Christ, and each one members of one another. <sup>6</sup>Then having gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, if prophecy, according to the proportion of faith; <sup>7</sup>or ministry, in the ministry; or he who teaches, in the teaching; <sup>8</sup>or he who exhorts, in the encouragement; or he who shares, in simplicity; or he who takes the lead, in diligence; or he who shows mercy, in cheerfulness.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>Let every soul be subject to the higher authorities. For there is no authority but of God; the authorities that exist are ordained by God. <sup>2</sup>So that the one resisting the authority resists the ordinance of God; and the ones who resist will receive judgment to themselves. <sup>3</sup>For the rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the bad. And do you desire to be not afraid of the authority? Do the good, and you shall have praise from it. <sup>4</sup>For it is a servant of God to you for good. For if you practice evil, be afraid, for it does not bear the sword in vain; for it is a servant of God, a revenger for wrath on him who does evil. <sup>5</sup>Therefore you must be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience' sake. <sup>6</sup>For because of this you also pay taxes. For they are God's servants, always giving attention to this very thing. <sup>7</sup>Therefore give to all their dues; to the one due tax, the tax; tribute to whom tribute is due, fear to whom fear is due, and honor to whom honor is due.

<sup>8</sup>Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for he who loves another has fulfilled the law. <sup>9</sup>For: "Do not commit adultery; do not murder; do not steal; do not bear false witness; do not lust;" and if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in this word, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." <sup>10</sup>Love works no ill to its neighbor, therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. <sup>11</sup>This also, knowing the time, that it is already time to awake out of sleep; for now our salvation is nearer than when we believed. <sup>12</sup>The night is far spent, the day is at hand; therefore let us cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. <sup>13</sup>Let us walk becomingly, as in the day; not in carousings and drinking; not in co-habitation and lustful acts; not in strife and envy. <sup>14</sup>But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not take thought beforehand for the lusts of the flesh.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>And receive him who is weak in the faith, but not to judgments of your thoughts. <sup>2</sup>For indeed one believes to eat all things; but being weak, another eats vegetables. <sup>3</sup>Do not let him who eats despise him who does not eat; and do not let him who does not eat judge him who eats, for God has received him. <sup>4</sup>Who are you that judges another's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. But he will stand, for God is able to make him stand. <sup>5</sup>One indeed esteems a day above another day; and another esteems every day alike. Let each one be fully assured in his own mind. <sup>6</sup>He who regards the day regards it to the Lord; and he not regarding the day, does not regard it to the Lord. He who eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives God thanks; and he who does not eat, does not eat to the Lord, and gives God thanks. <sup>7</sup>For none of us lives to himself, and no one dies to himself. <sup>8</sup>For both if we live, we live to the Lord; and if we die, we die to the Lord. Therefore both if we live, and if we die, we are the Lord's. <sup>9</sup>For this Christ both died and rose and lived again, that He might be Lord both of the dead and living.

<sup>10</sup>But why do you judge your brother? Or why do you despise your brother? For all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. <sup>11</sup>For it is written, "As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to Me, and every tongue shall confess to God."

<sup>12</sup>So then each one of us will give account concerning himself to God. <sup>13</sup>Then let us not judge one another any more, but rather judge this, not to put a stumbling-block or an offense toward his brother. <sup>14</sup>I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing by itself is common; except to him who esteems anything to be common, it is common. <sup>15</sup>But if your brother is grieved with your food, you no longer walk according to love. Do not with your food destroy him for whom Christ died. <sup>16</sup>Then do not let your good be spoken evil of, <sup>17</sup>for the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. <sup>18</sup>For he who serves Christ in these things is well-pleasing to God, and approved by men. <sup>19</sup>So then let us pursue the things of peace, and the things for building up one another. <sup>20</sup>Do not undo the work of God for food. Truly, all things indeed are clean, but it is bad to the man eating because of a stumbling-block. <sup>21</sup>It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor anything by which your brother stumbles, or is offended, or is made weak. <sup>22</sup>Do you have faith? Have it to yourself before God. Blessed is he who does not condemn himself in what he approves. <sup>23</sup>But, the one doubting, if he eats, he has been condemned, because it is not of faith; and all that is not of faith is sin.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>Then we who are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. <sup>2</sup>Let every one of us please his neighbor for his good, to building up. <sup>3</sup>For even Christ did not please Himself; but as it is written, "The reproaches of those who reproached You fell on Me." <sup>4</sup>For whatever things were written before were written for our learning, so that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. <sup>5</sup>And may the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like minded toward one another according to Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup>so that with one mind and one mouth you may glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>7</sup>Therefore receive one another as Christ also received us to the glory of God.

<sup>8</sup>And I say, Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made to the fathers, <sup>9</sup>and that the nations might glorify God for His mercy, as it is written, "For this cause I will confess to You in the nations, and I will praise Your name." <sup>10</sup>And again He says, "Rejoice, O nations, with His people." <sup>11</sup>And again, "Praise the Lord, all the nations, and praise Him, all the peoples." <sup>12</sup>And again Isaiah says, "There shall be a root of Jesse, and He who shall rise to reign over the nations, in Him shall the nations trust." <sup>13</sup>And may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope through the power of the Holy Spirit. <sup>14</sup>And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brothers, that you also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another. <sup>15</sup>But, brothers, I wrote to you boldly, as reminding you in part, because of the grace that is given to me by God, <sup>16</sup>that I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the nations, ministering the gospel of God, so that the offering up of the nations might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. <sup>17</sup>Therefore I have something of which I may glory through Jesus Christ in those things which pertain to God.

<sup>18</sup>For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ did not work out by me for the obedience of the nations in word and deed, <sup>19</sup>in power of miracles and wonders, in power of the Spirit of God, so that from Jerusalem, and all around to Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ. <sup>20</sup>Yea, so I have been eager to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build on another man's foundation; <sup>21</sup>but as it is written, "To whom nothing was said about Him, they shall see. And they who have not heard shall understand."

<sup>22</sup>For this cause I also have been greatly hindered from coming to you. <sup>23</sup>But now, having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come to you, <sup>24</sup>whenever I may go into Spain, I will come to you. For in traveling through I hope to see you, and to be set forward there by you, if first I may be filled of you in part. <sup>25</sup>But now I am going to Jerusalem to minister to the saints. <sup>26</sup>For it has pleased those of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints who are at Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup>Truly it has pleased them, and they are their debtors. For if the nations have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister to them in carnal things. <sup>28</sup>Therefore when I have performed this, and have sealed this fruit to them, I will come by you into Spain. <sup>29</sup>And I am sure that when I come to you, I shall come in the fullness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

<sup>30</sup>But I exhort you, brothers, for the sake of the Lord Jesus Christ and for the love of the Spirit, that you strive together with me in your prayers to God for me, <sup>31</sup>that I may be delivered from those disbelieving in Judea, and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted by the saints; <sup>32</sup>so that I may come to you with joy by the will of God, and may be refreshed with you. <sup>33</sup>Now may the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>I commend to you Phoebe our sister, who is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea, <sup>2</sup>that you receive her in the Lord, as becomes saints, and that you may assist her in whatever business she has need of you. For she has been a helper of many, and of myself also. <sup>3</sup>Greet Priscilla and Aquila, my helpers in Christ Jesus, <sup>4</sup>who have laid down their own necks for my life; to whom not only I give thanks, but also the churches of the nations. <sup>5</sup>Likewise greet the church that is in their house. Greet my beloved Epenetus, who is the first-fruits of Achaia to Christ. <sup>6</sup>Greet Mary, who bestowed much labor on us. <sup>7</sup>Greet Andronicus and Junias, my kinsmen and my fellow prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me. <sup>8</sup>Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord. <sup>9</sup>Greet Urbanus, our helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloved. <sup>10</sup>Greet Apelles, approved in Christ. Greet those who are of Aristobulus' household. <sup>11</sup>Greet Herodion my kinsman. Greet those who are of the household of Narcissus, who are in the Lord. <sup>12</sup>Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labor in the Lord. Greet the beloved Persis, who labored much in the Lord. <sup>13</sup>Greet Rufus, chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine. <sup>14</sup>Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brothers who are with them. <sup>15</sup>Greet Philologus and Julius, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them. <sup>16</sup>Greet one another with a holy kiss. The churches of Christ greet you.

<sup>17</sup>And I exhort you, brothers, to watch those making divisions and offenses contrary to the doctrine which you have learned, and avoid them. <sup>18</sup>For they who are such do not serve our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches they deceive the hearts of the simple. <sup>19</sup>For your obedience reached to all. Therefore I am glad on your behalf, But I would have you truly wise as to good, and simple toward evil. <sup>20</sup>And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

<sup>21</sup>Timothy my fellow worker, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater my kinsmen, greet you. <sup>22</sup>I, Tertius, who wrote this epistle, greet you in the Lord. <sup>23</sup>Gaius my host, and the host of the whole church, greets you. Erastus the steward of the city greets you, and Quartus a brother. <sup>24</sup>May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

<sup>25</sup>Now to Him who is able to establish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ according to the revelation of the mystery, having been unvoiced during eternal times; <sup>26</sup>but now has been made plain, and by the prophetic Scriptures, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith; <sup>27</sup>to God only wise be glory through Jesus Christ forever. Amen.

THE FIRST LETTER TO THE CORINTHIANS

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, a called apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother, <sup>2</sup>to the church of God which is in Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called-out saints, with all those in every place who call on the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours. <sup>3</sup>Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup>I thank my God always on your behalf for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ, <sup>5</sup>that in everything you are enriched by Him, in all speech and in all knowledge; <sup>6</sup>even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you; <sup>7</sup>so that you come behind in no gift, waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>8</sup>He shall also confirm you to the end, that you may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup>God is faithful, by whom you were called to the fellowship of His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

<sup>10</sup>But I exhort you, brother, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing and that there be no divisions among you; but that you be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. <sup>11</sup>For it has been declared to me concerning you, my brothers, by those of Chloe, that there are contentions among you. <sup>12</sup>But I say this, that every one of you says, I am of Paul, and I of Apollos, and I of Cephas, and I of Christ. <sup>13</sup>Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you, or were you baptized in the name of Paul? <sup>14</sup>I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, <sup>15</sup>lest any should say that I had baptized in my own name. <sup>16</sup>And I also baptized the household of Stephanas. Besides these, I do not know if I baptized any other.

<sup>17</sup>For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel; not in wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of no effect. <sup>18</sup>For the preaching of the cross is foolishness to those being lost, but to us being saved, it is the power of God. <sup>19</sup>For it is written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and I will set aside the understanding of the the perceiving ones."

<sup>20</sup>Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the lawyer of this world? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? <sup>21</sup>For since, in the wisdom of God, the world by wisdom did not know God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save those who believe. <sup>22</sup>For the Jews ask for a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom; <sup>23</sup>but we preach Christ crucified, to the Jews a stumbling block, and to the Greeks foolishness. <sup>24</sup>But to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God. <sup>25</sup>Because the foolish thing of God is wiser than men, and the weak thing of God is stronger than men. <sup>26</sup>For you see your calling, brothers, that not many wise men according to the flesh are called, not many mighty, not many noble. <sup>27</sup>But God has chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God has chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; <sup>28</sup>and God has chosen the base things of the world, and things which are despised, and things which are not, in order to bring to nothing things that are; <sup>29</sup>so that no flesh should glory in His presence.

<sup>30</sup>But of Him you are in Christ Jesus, who of God is made to us wisdom and righteousness and sanctification and redemption; <sup>31</sup>so that, according as it is written, "He who glories, let him glory in the Lord."

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And I, brothers, when I came to you, did not come with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring to you the testimony of God. <sup>2</sup>For I determined not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ and Him crucified. <sup>3</sup>And I was with you in weakness and in fear, and in much trembling. <sup>4</sup>And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of men's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, <sup>5</sup>so that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

<sup>6</sup>But, we speak wisdom among those who are perfect; yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the rulers of this world, that come to nothing. <sup>7</sup>But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, which God has hidden, predetermining it before the world for our glory; <sup>8</sup>which none of the rulers of this world knew (for if they had known, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory). <sup>9</sup>But as it is written, "Eye has not seen, nor ear heard," nor has it entered into the heart of man, "the things which God has prepared for those who love Him." <sup>10</sup>But God has revealed them to us by His Spirit; for the Spirit searches all things, yea, the deep things of God. <sup>11</sup>For who among men knows the things of a man except the spirit of man within him? So also no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God.

<sup>12</sup>But we have not received the spirit of the world, but the Spirit from God, so that we might know the things that are freely given to us by God. <sup>13</sup>These things we also speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches, but which the Holy Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual. <sup>14</sup>But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. <sup>15</sup>But he who is spiritual judges all things, yet he himself is judged by no man. <sup>16</sup>For who has known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct Him? But we have the mind of Christ.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And I, brothers, could not speak to you as to spiritual ones, but as to carnal, as to babes in Christ. <sup>2</sup>I have fed you with milk and not with solid food, for you were not yet able to bear it; nor are you able even now. <sup>3</sup>For you are yet carnal. For in that there is among you envyings and strife and divisions, are you not carnal, and do you not walk according to men? <sup>4</sup>For while one says, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are you not carnal? <sup>5</sup>Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom you believed, even to each the Lord gave? <sup>6</sup>I have planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase. <sup>7</sup>So then neither is he who plants anything, nor he who waters, but God who gives the increase. <sup>8</sup>So he planting, and he watering, are one, and each one shall receive his own reward according to his own labor. <sup>9</sup>For we are fellow-workers of God, a field of God, and you are a building of God. <sup>10</sup>According to the grace of God which is given to me, as a wise master builder, I have laid the foundation, and another builds on it. But let every man be careful how he builds on it. <sup>11</sup>For any other foundation can no one lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. <sup>12</sup>And if anyone builds on this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble, <sup>13</sup>each one's work shall be revealed. For the Day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try each one's work as to what kind it is. <sup>14</sup>If anyone's work which he built remains, he shall receive a reward. <sup>15</sup>If anyone's work shall be burned up, he shall suffer loss. But he shall be saved, yet so as by fire.

<sup>16</sup>Do you not know that you are a temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? <sup>17</sup>If anyone defiles the temple of God, God shall destroy him. For the temple of God is holy, which you are. <sup>18</sup>Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you seems to be wise in this world, let him become a fool so that he may be wise. <sup>19</sup>For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God; for it is written, "He takes the wise in their own craftiness." <sup>20</sup>And again, "The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain." <sup>21</sup>Therefore let no one glory in men. For all things are yours, <sup>22</sup>whether it is Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours, <sup>23</sup>and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>So let a man think of us as ministers of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. <sup>2</sup>And the rest, it is sought among stewards that a one be found faithful. <sup>3</sup>But to me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by a man's day; yea, I do not judge my own self, <sup>4</sup>for I know nothing by myself. Yet I am not justified by this, but He who judges me is the Lord. <sup>5</sup>Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and will make manifest the counsels of the heart. And then shall each one have praise of God.

<sup>6</sup>And these things, brothers, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes, so that you might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, so that no one of you may be puffed up against one another. <sup>7</sup>For who makes you to differ from another? And what do you have that you did not receive? And if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it? <sup>8</sup>You are full! You are rich! You have reigned as kings without us! And I would to God that you did reign, that we also might reign with you. <sup>9</sup>For I think that God has set forth us last, the apostles, as it were appointed to death; for we have been made a spectacle to the world and to angels and to men. <sup>10</sup>We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are honorable, but we are despised. <sup>11</sup>Even until this present hour we both hunger and thirst and are naked and are buffeted and have no certain dwelling place. <sup>12</sup>And we labor, working with our own hands. Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it; <sup>13</sup>being defamed, we entreat. We are made as the filth of the world, the offscouring of all things to this day. <sup>14</sup>I do not write these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you. <sup>15</sup>For though you have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet you do not have many fathers; for I have begotten you in Christ Jesus through the gospel. <sup>16</sup>Therefore I beseech you, be imitators of me.

<sup>17</sup>For this cause I have sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved son and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which are in Christ, as I teach everywhere in every church. <sup>18</sup>As to my not coming to you now, some are puffed up. <sup>19</sup>But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord wills. And I will not know the speech of those who are puffed up, but the power. <sup>20</sup>For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power. <sup>21</sup>What do you desire? Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and the spirit of meekness?

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>Everywhere it is reported that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not named among the nations, so as one to have his father's wife. <sup>2</sup>And you are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, so that he who has done this deed may be taken from your midst. <sup>3</sup>For as absent in body but present in spirit, I indeed have judged already (as though I were present) concerning him who worked out this thing; <sup>4</sup>in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when you are gathered together, and my spirit with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ; <sup>5</sup>to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. <sup>6</sup>Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump? <sup>7</sup>Therefore purge out the old leaven so that you may be a new lump, as you are unleavened. For also Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us. <sup>8</sup>Therefore let us keep the feast; not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

<sup>9</sup>I wrote to you in the letter not to associate intimately with fornicators; <sup>10</sup>yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then you must go out of the world. <sup>11</sup>But now I have written to you not to associate intimately, if any man called a brother is a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one not to eat. <sup>12</sup>For what is it to me to also judge those who are outside? Do you not judge those who are inside? <sup>13</sup>But God judges those who are outside. Therefore put out from you the evil one.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>Do any of you dare, when you have a matter against another, to go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints? <sup>2</sup>Do you not know that the saints shall judge the world? And if the world shall be judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters? <sup>3</sup>Do you not know that we shall judge angels? How much more things that pertain to this life? <sup>4</sup>If then you have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set those who are least esteemed in the church to judge. <sup>5</sup>I speak to your shame. Is it so that there is not a wise one among you, not even one who shall be able to judge between his brothers? <sup>6</sup>But brother goes to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers. <sup>7</sup>Indeed then there is already a failure with you all, that you have lawsuits with yourselves. Why not instead be wronged? Why not instead be defrauded? <sup>8</sup>But you do wrong and defraud, and these things to brothers.

<sup>9</sup>Do you not know that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor abusers, nor homosexuals, <sup>10</sup>nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. <sup>11</sup>And such were some of you. But you are washed, but you are sanctified, but you are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

<sup>12</sup>All things are lawful to me, but not all things profit. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any. <sup>13</sup>Meats for the belly and the belly for meats, but God shall destroy both it and them. But the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord is for the body. <sup>14</sup>And God has both raised up the Lord, and also will raise us up by His own power. <sup>15</sup>Do you not know that your bodies are the members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and make them the members of a harlot? Let it not be! <sup>16</sup>Or do you not know that he being joined to a harlot is one body? For He says, The two shall be one flesh. <sup>17</sup>But he being joined to the Lord is one spirit. <sup>18</sup>Flee fornication. Every sin that a man does is outside the body, but he who commits fornication sins against his own body. <sup>19</sup>Or do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit in you, whom you have of God? And you are not your own, <sup>20</sup>for you are bought with a price. Therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>Now concerning what you wrote to me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman. <sup>2</sup>But, to avoid fornication, let each have his own wife, and let each have her own husband. <sup>3</sup>Let the husband give to the wife proper kindness, and likewise the wife also to the husband. <sup>4</sup>The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband. And likewise also the husband does not have power over his own body, but the wife. <sup>5</sup>Do not deprive one another, unless it is with consent for a time, so that you may give yourselves to fasting and prayer. And come together again so that Satan does not tempt you for your incontinence. <sup>6</sup>But I speak this by permission, not of commandment. <sup>7</sup>For I would that all men were even as I myself am. But each has his proper gift from God, one according to this manner and another according to that.

<sup>8</sup>I say therefore to the unmarried and the widows, It is good for them if they remain even as I. <sup>9</sup>But if they do not have self-control, let them marry; for it is better to marry than to burn. <sup>10</sup>And to the married I command (not I, but the Lord), a woman not to be separated from her husband. <sup>11</sup>But if she is indeed separated, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband. And a husband is not to leave his wife. <sup>12</sup>But to the rest I speak, not the Lord, If any brother has a wife who does not believe, and she is pleased to dwell with him, do not let him put her away. <sup>13</sup>And the woman who has a husband who does not believe, if he is pleased to dwell with her, do not let her leave him. <sup>14</sup>For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband; else your children would be unclean, but now they are holy. <sup>15</sup>But if the unbelieving one separates, let them be separated. A brother or a sister is not in bondage in such cases, but God has called us in peace. <sup>16</sup>For what do you know, O wife, whether you shall save your husband? Or what do you know, O man, whether you shall save your wife? <sup>17</sup>But as God has distributed to each one, as the Lord has called each one, so let him walk. And so I ordain in all churches.

<sup>18</sup>Was any called having been circumcised? Do not be uncircumcised. Was anyone called in uncircumcision? Do not be circumcised. <sup>19</sup>Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God. <sup>20</sup>Let each one remain in the calling in which he was called. <sup>21</sup>Were you called as a slave? It does not matter to you, but if you are able to become free, use it rather. <sup>22</sup>For he who is called a slave in the Lord is a freed man of the Lord. And likewise, he who is called a free man is a slave of Christ. <sup>23</sup>You are bought with a price, do not be the slaves of men. <sup>24</sup>Each in whatever way he was called, brothers, in this remain with God.

<sup>25</sup>But concerning virgins, I have no commandment from the Lord. Yet I give my judgment, as one who has obtained mercy from the Lord to be faithful. <sup>26</sup>Then I think this is good, because of the present necessity; that it is good for a man to be so. <sup>27</sup>Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be free. Are you freed from a wife? Do not seek a wife. <sup>28</sup>But if you do marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. But such shall have trouble in the flesh, but I spare you. <sup>29</sup>But this I say, brothers, The time is short. It remains that both those who have wives should be as not having one. <sup>30</sup>And they who weep are as though they did not weep. And they who rejoice are as though they did not rejoice. And they who buy are as though they did not possess. <sup>31</sup>And they who use this world are as not abusing it, for the fashion of this world is passing away.

<sup>32</sup>But I desire you to be without anxiety. He who is unmarried cares for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord. <sup>33</sup>But he who is married cares for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife. <sup>34</sup>The wife and the virgin are different. The unmarried woman cares for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But she who is married cares for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. <sup>35</sup>And this I speak for your own profit, not that I may cast a snare on you, but for that which is right, and that you may attend on the Lord without distraction.

<sup>36</sup>But if anyone thinks it behaving himself indecently toward his virginity (if he is past his prime, and so it ought to be) let him do what he will; he does not sin; let them marry. <sup>37</sup>But he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but who has authority over his own will (and has so judged in his heart that he will keep his virginity) he does well. <sup>38</sup>So then he who gives in marriage does well. But he who does not give in marriage does better.

<sup>39</sup>The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband lives, but if her husband is dead, she is at liberty to be remarried to whom she will, only in the Lord. <sup>40</sup>But she is happier if she so remains, according to my judgment. And I also think that I have the Spirit of God.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>But concerning the sacrifices to idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love edifies. <sup>2</sup>And if any man thinks that he knows anything, he knows nothing yet as he ought to know. <sup>3</sup>But if any man loves God, he has been known of him. <sup>4</sup>Then concerning the eating of the things sacrificed to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no other God except one. <sup>5</sup>For though there are those who are called gods, whether in Heaven or in earth (as there are many gods and many lords), <sup>6</sup>there is to us only one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in Him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we by Him. <sup>7</sup>But this knowledge is not in all. But some being aware of the idol eat as an idolatrous sacrifice until now, and their conscience being weak is defiled. <sup>8</sup>But food does not commend us to God. For neither if we eat are we the better, nor if we do not eat are we the worse. <sup>9</sup>But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours becomes a stumbling block to those who are weak. <sup>10</sup>For if anyone sees you who have knowledge sitting in an idol temple, will not the weak one's conscience be lifted up so as to eat things sacrificed to idols? <sup>11</sup>And on your knowledge the weak brother will fall, he for whom Christ died. <sup>12</sup>And sinning in this way against your brothers, and wounding their conscience, being weak, you sin against God. <sup>13</sup>Therefore, if food offends my brother, I will eat no flesh while the world stands, that I do not offend my brother.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>Am I not an apostle? Am I not free? Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord? <sup>2</sup>If I am not an apostle to others, yet doubtless I am to you, for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord. <sup>3</sup>My answer to those who examine me is this: <sup>4</sup>Do we not have authority to eat and to drink? <sup>5</sup>Do we not have authority to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brothers of the Lord do, and Cephas? <sup>6</sup>Or is it only Barnabas and I who have no authority to cease working? <sup>7</sup>Who serves as a soldier at his own wages at any time? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat of its fruit? Or who feeds a flock and does not partake of the milk of the flock? <sup>8</sup>Do I say these things according to man? Or does not the Law say the same also? <sup>9</sup>For it is written in the law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle the mouth of the ox treading out grain." Does God take care for oxen? <sup>10</sup>Or does He say it altogether for our sakes? It was written for us, so that he who plows should plow in hope, and so that he who threshes in hope should be partaker of his hope. <sup>11</sup>If we have sown to you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things? <sup>12</sup>If others have a share of this authority over you, rather should not we? But we have not used this authority, but we endured all things lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ. <sup>13</sup>Do you not know that those who minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? And those attending the altar are partakers with the altar.

<sup>14</sup>Even so the Lord has ordained that those who preach the gospel to live of the gospel. <sup>15</sup>But I have used none of these things, nor have I written these things that it should be done so to me; for it is good for me rather to die than that anyone nullify my glorying. <sup>16</sup>For though I preach the gospel, no glory is to me. For necessity is laid on me; yea, woe is to me if I do not preach the gospel! <sup>17</sup>For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward; but if against my will, I am entrusted with a stewardship. <sup>18</sup>What then is my reward? That when I preach the gospel I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I may not abuse my authority in the gospel. <sup>19</sup>For though I am free from all, yet I have made myself servant to all, so that I might gain the more. <sup>20</sup>And to the Jews I became as a Jew, so that I might gain the Jews. To those who are under the Law, I became as under the Law, so that I might gain those who are under the Law. <sup>21</sup>To those who are outside Law, I became as outside Law (not being outside law to God, but under the law to Christ), so that I might gain those who are outside Law. <sup>22</sup>To the weak I became as the weak, so that I might gain the weak. I am made all things to all men, so that I might by all means save some. <sup>23</sup>And this I do for the sake of the gospel, so that I might be partaker of it with you.

<sup>24</sup>Do you not know that those running in a race all run, but one receives the prize? So run, that you may obtain. <sup>25</sup>And everyone who strives for the mastery is temperate in all things. Then those truly that they may receive a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible. <sup>26</sup>So then I run, not as if I were uncertain. And so I fight, not as one who beats the air. <sup>27</sup>But I buffet my body, and lead it captive, lest proclaiming to others I myself might be rejected.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>And, brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea. <sup>2</sup>And all were baptized to Moses in the cloud and in the sea, <sup>3</sup>and all ate the same spiritual food, <sup>4</sup>and all drank the same spiritual drink; for they drank of the spiritual Rock that followed them, and that Rock was Christ. <sup>5</sup>But with many of them God was not well pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. <sup>6</sup>And these things were our examples, that we should not lust after evil, as they also lusted. <sup>7</sup>Nor should we be idolaters, even as some of them, as it is written: "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play." <sup>8</sup>Nor let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and twenty-three thousand fell in one day. <sup>9</sup>Nor let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted Him and were destroyed by serpents. <sup>10</sup>Nor murmur as some of them also murmured and were destroyed by the destroyer. <sup>11</sup>And all these things happened to them as examples; and it is written for our warning on whom the ends of the world have come.

<sup>12</sup>So let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall. <sup>13</sup>No temptation has taken you but what is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted above what you are able, but with the temptation also will make a way to escape, so that you may be able to bear it. <sup>14</sup>Therefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry. <sup>15</sup>I speak as to wise men, you judge what I say.

<sup>16</sup>The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? <sup>17</sup>For we, the many, are one bread and one body; for we are all partakers of that one bread. <sup>18</sup>Behold Israel after the flesh. Are not those who eat of the sacrifices also partakers of the altar? <sup>19</sup>What then do I say? That the idol is anything, or that an idolatrous sacrifice is anything? <sup>20</sup>But I say that the things which the nations sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons and not to God. And I do not desire that you should have fellowship with demons. <sup>21</sup>You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons; you cannot be partakers of the Lord's table and of the table of demons. <sup>22</sup>Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than He? <sup>23</sup>All things are lawful to me, but not all things profit. All things are lawful to me, but not all things build up. <sup>24</sup>Let no one seek his own, but each one another's. <sup>25</sup>Eat whatever is sold in the meat market, asking no question for conscience' sake; <sup>26</sup>for the earth is the Lord's, and the fullness of it." <sup>27</sup>If any of those who do not believe invite you to a feast, and if you are disposed to go, eat whatever is set before you, asking no questions for conscience' sake. <sup>28</sup>But if anyone says to you, This is slain in sacrifice to idols, do not eat for the sake of him who showed it, and for conscience' sake; "for the earth is the Lord's, and the fullness of it"; <sup>29</sup>conscience, I say, not your own, but the other's. For why is my liberty judged by another's conscience? <sup>30</sup>For if I by grace am a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks? <sup>31</sup>Therefore whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. <sup>32</sup>Give no offense, either to the Jews, or to the Greeks or to the church of God; <sup>33</sup>even as I please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of many, so that they may be saved.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>Be imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ. <sup>2</sup>But I praise you, brothers, that you remember me in all things, and you keep the ordinances as I delivered them to you. <sup>3</sup>But I would have you know that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God. <sup>4</sup>Every man praying or prophesying with his head covered dishonors his Head. <sup>5</sup>But every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head; for that is even the same as if she were shaved. <sup>6</sup>For if the woman is not covered, let her also be shorn. But if it is a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered. <sup>7</sup>For a man indeed ought not to have his head covered, because he is the image and glory of God. But the woman is the glory of the man. <sup>8</sup>For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man. <sup>9</sup>Nor was the man created for the woman, but the woman for the man. <sup>10</sup>For this reason the woman ought to have authority on her head because of the angels.

<sup>11</sup>But neither is the man without the woman, nor the woman without the man, in the Lord. <sup>12</sup>For as the woman is of the man, even so the man is also by the woman; but all things of God. <sup>13</sup>Judge among yourselves: is it right that a woman pray to God uncovered? <sup>14</sup>Does not even nature itself teach you that if man wears his hair long, it is a shame to him? <sup>15</sup>But if a woman wears her hair long, it is a glory to her; for her hair is given to her for a covering. <sup>16</sup>But if any man seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, nor the churches of God.

<sup>17</sup>But in enjoining this, I do not praise you, because you come together not for the better, but for the worse. <sup>18</sup>For first of all, when you come together in the church, I hear that there are divisions among you, and I partly believe it. <sup>19</sup>For there must also be heresies among you, that the approved ones may be revealed among you. <sup>20</sup>Therefore when you come together into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper. <sup>21</sup>For in eating each one takes his own supper first; and one is hungry, and another drunken. <sup>22</sup>For Do you not have houses in which to eat and drink? Or do you despise the church of God, and shame those who do not have? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you for this? I do not praise you!

<sup>23</sup>For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus in the night in which he was betrayed took bread; <sup>24</sup>And giving thanks, He broke it and said, "Take, eat; this is My body, which is broken for you; this do in remembrance of Me." <sup>25</sup>In the same way He took the cup also, after supping, saying, "This cup is the New Covenant in My blood; as often as you drink it, do this in remembrance of Me." <sup>26</sup>For "as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you show" the Lord's death until He shall come. <sup>27</sup>So that whoever shall eat this bread and drink this cup of the Lord unworthily, he will be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. <sup>28</sup>But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread and drink of that cup. <sup>29</sup>For he who eats and drinks unworthily eats and drinks condemnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body. <sup>30</sup>For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and many sleep. <sup>31</sup>For if we would judge ourselves, we would not be judged. <sup>32</sup>But when we are judged, we are chastened by the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world. <sup>33</sup>So that, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for one another. <sup>34</sup>But if anyone hungers, let him eat at home, so that you do not come together to condemnation. And the rest I will set in order when I come.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers, I would not have you ignorant. <sup>2</sup>You know that being led away you nations were led to dumb idols. <sup>3</sup>Therefore I make known to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God says Jesus is a curse, and that no one can say that Jesus is Lord, but by the Holy Spirit. <sup>4</sup>But there are differences of gifts, but the same Spirit. <sup>5</sup>And there are differences of ministries, but the same Lord. <sup>6</sup>And there are differences of workings, but it is the same God working all things in all. <sup>7</sup>But to each one is given the showing forth of the Spirit to our profit. <sup>8</sup>For through the Spirit is given to one a word of wisdom; and to another a word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit; <sup>9</sup>and to another faith by the same Spirit; and to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; <sup>10</sup>and to another workings of powers, to another prophecy; and to another discerning of spirits; and to another kinds of tongues; and to another the interpretation of tongues. <sup>11</sup>But the one and the same Spirit works all these things, distributing separately to each one as He desires.

<sup>12</sup>For as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ. <sup>13</sup>For also by one Spirit we are all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free, even all were made to drink into one Spirit. <sup>14</sup>For the body is not one member, but many. <sup>15</sup>If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? <sup>16</sup>And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? <sup>17</sup>If all the body were an eye, where would be the hearing? If all hearing, where would be the smelling? <sup>18</sup>But now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body as it has pleased Him. <sup>19</sup>And if they were all one member, where would be the body? <sup>20</sup>But now indeed many are the members, yet only one body. <sup>21</sup>And the eye cannot say to the hand, I have no need of you; nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. <sup>22</sup>But much rather the members of the body seeming to be weaker are necessary. <sup>23</sup>And those members of the body which we think to be less honorable, on these we put more abundant honor around them. And our unrepresentable members have more abundant propriety. <sup>24</sup>For our representable members have no need, but God tempered the body together, giving more abundant honor to the member having need; <sup>25</sup>that there not be division in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another. <sup>26</sup>And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; if one member is glorified, all the members rejoice with it.

<sup>27</sup>And you are the body of Christ, and members in part. <sup>28</sup>And God set some in the church, firstly, apostles; secondly, prophets; thirdly, teachers; then gifts of healings, helps, governments, kinds of languages. <sup>29</sup>Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all workers of power? <sup>30</sup>Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak languages? Do all interpret? <sup>31</sup>But zealously strive after the better gifts. And yet I show to you a more excellent way.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I have become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal. <sup>2</sup>And though I have prophecies, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, and do not have charity, I am nothing. <sup>3</sup>And though I give out all my goods to feed the poor, and though I deliver my body to be burned, and have not charity, I am profited nothing. <sup>4</sup>Charity has patience, is kind; charity is not envious, is not vain, is not puffed up; <sup>5</sup>does not indecently, does not seek her own, is not easily provoked, thinks no evil. <sup>6</sup>Charity does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices in the truth, <sup>7</sup>quietly covers all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. <sup>8</sup>Charity never fails. But if there are prophecies, they will be abolished; if tongues, they shall cease; if knowledge, it will be abolished. <sup>9</sup>For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. <sup>10</sup>But when the perfect thing comes, then that which is in part will be caused to cease. <sup>11</sup>When I was an infant, I spoke as an infant, I thought as an infant. But when I became a man, I did away with the things of an infant. <sup>12</sup>For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall fully know even as I also am fully known. <sup>13</sup>And now faith, hope, charity, these three remain; but the greatest of these is charity.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>Follow after love and desire spiritual things, but rather that you may prophesy. <sup>2</sup>For he who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God. For no one hears, but in spirit he speaks mysteries. <sup>3</sup>But he who prophesies speaks to men for building up, and exhortation, and comfort. <sup>4</sup>The one speaking in a tongue builds himself up, but he prophesying builds up a church. <sup>5</sup>I wish all of you to speak in languages, but rather that you may prophesy; for greater is he prophesying than he speaking in tongues, unless he interpret so that the church may receive building up. <sup>6</sup>But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking in tongues, what will I profit you, except I speak to you either in revelation, or in knowledge, or in prophecy, or in teaching? <sup>7</sup>Yet lifeless things giving a sound, whether pipe or harp, if they do not give a distinction in the sound, how will it be known what is being piped or harped? <sup>8</sup>For also if a trumpet gives an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself for the battle?

<sup>9</sup>So also you, if you do not give a clear word through the language, how will it be known what is being said? For you will be speaking into the air. <sup>10</sup>So it may be many kinds of sounds are in the world, and not one is without a distinct sound. <sup>11</sup>Therefore if I do not know the power of the sound, I will be a foreigner to him speaking, and he speaking will be a foreigner to me. <sup>12</sup>Even so you, since you are zealots of spiritual things, seek to build up the church, in order that you may abound. <sup>13</sup>So then he speaking in a language, let him pray that he may interpret. <sup>14</sup>For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful.

<sup>15</sup>What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will also pray with the mind; I will sing with the spirit, and I will also sing with the mind. <sup>16</sup>Else, if you bless in the spirit, he occupying the place of the unlearned, how will he say the amen at your giving of thanks, since he does not know what you say? <sup>17</sup>For you truly give thanks well, but the other is not built up. <sup>18</sup>I thank my God that I speak more languages than all of you; <sup>18</sup>yet in a church I desire to speak five words with my mind, so that I might also teach others, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

<sup>20</sup>Brothers, do not be children in your minds, but in malice be like infants, and in your minds be mature. <sup>21</sup>In the law it is written, "By other tongues and other lips I will speak to this people, and even so they will not hear Me, says the Lord."

<sup>22</sup>So that tongues are not a sign to those who believe, but to those who do not believe. But prophesying is not to those who do not believe, but to those who believe. <sup>23</sup>Therefore if the whole church has come together, and all speak in languages, and if uninstructed ones or unbelievers come in, will they not say that you rave? <sup>24</sup>But if all prophesy, and some unbeliever or one not instructed comes, he is convicted by all, he is judged by all. <sup>25</sup>And so the secrets of his heart become revealed. And so, falling down on his face, he will worship God and report that God is truly among you.

<sup>26</sup>Then how is it, brothers? When you come together, each one of you has a psalm, has a teaching, has a tongue, has a revelation, has an interpretation. Let all things be for building up. <sup>27</sup>If one speaks in a language, let it be by two, or at the most three, and in succession. And let one interpret. <sup>28</sup>But if there is no interpreter, let him be silent in a church; and let him speak to himself and to God. <sup>29</sup>And if there are two or three prophets, let them speak, and let the others judge. <sup>30</sup>If a revelation occurs to another sitting by, let the first be silent. <sup>31</sup>For you may all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn and all may be comforted. <sup>32</sup>And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets. <sup>33</sup>For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

<sup>34</sup>Let your women be silent in the churches; for it is not permitted to them to speak, but to be in subjection, as the Law also says. <sup>35</sup>And if they desire to learn anything, let them ask their husbands at home; for it is a shame for a woman to speak in a church. <sup>36</sup>Or did the word of God go out from you? Or did it reach only to you?

<sup>37</sup>If anyone thinks to be a prophet, or a spiritual one, let him acknowledge what I write to you, that they are a commandment of the Lord. <sup>38</sup>But if any is ignorant, let him be ignorant.

<sup>39</sup>So then, brothers, seek to prophesy, and do not forbid to speak in languages. <sup>40</sup>Let all things be done decently and in order.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>And, brothers, I declare to you the gospel which I preached to you, which also you have received, and in which you stand; <sup>2</sup>by which you also are being saved, if you hold fast the word which I preached to you, unless you believed in vain. <sup>3</sup>For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received, that Christ died for our sins, according to the Scriptures, <sup>4</sup>and that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day according to the Scriptures; <sup>5</sup>and that He was seen by Cephas, then by the Twelve. <sup>6</sup>Afterward He was seen by over five hundred brothers at once, of whom the greater part remain until this present day, but some fell asleep. <sup>7</sup>Afterward He was seen by James, then by all the apostles. <sup>8</sup>And last of all He was seen by me also, as one born out of time. <sup>9</sup>For I am the least of the apostles and am not sufficient to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. <sup>10</sup>But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace which was toward me has not been without fruit, but I labored more abundantly than all of them; yet not I, but the grace of God with me. <sup>11</sup>Therefore whether it was I or they, so we preach, and so you believed.

<sup>12</sup>But if Christ is proclaimed, that He was raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? <sup>13</sup>But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither has Christ been raised. <sup>14</sup>And if Christ has not been raised, then our proclamation is worthless, and your faith is also worthless. <sup>15</sup>And we are also found to be false witnesses of God, because we testified of God that He raised Christ; whom He did not raise if the dead are not raised. <sup>16</sup>For if the dead are not raised, then Christ is not raised. <sup>17</sup>And if Christ is not raised, your faith is foolish; you are yet in your sins. <sup>18</sup>Then also those that fell asleep in Christ were lost. <sup>19</sup>If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

<sup>20</sup>But now Christ has risen from the dead, and has become the first fruit of those who slept. <sup>21</sup>For since death is through man, the resurrection of the dead also is through a Man. <sup>22</sup>For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ all will be made alive. <sup>23</sup>But each in his own order: Christ the first-fruit, and afterward they who are Christ's at His coming; <sup>24</sup>then is the end — when He delivers the king to God, even the Father; when He makes to cease all rule and all authority and power — <sup>25</sup>for it is right for Him to reign until He has put all the enemies under His feet. <sup>26</sup>The last enemy made to cease is death. <sup>27</sup>For He put all things under His feet. But when He says that all things have been put under His feet, it is plain that it excepts Him who has put all things under Him. <sup>28</sup>But when all things are subjected to Him, then the Son Himself also will be subject to Him who has subjected things to Him, so that God may be all things in all.

<sup>29</sup>Otherwise, what will they do, those being baptized on behalf of the dead? If the dead are not at all raised, why indeed are they baptized on behalf of the dead? <sup>30</sup>And why are we also in danger every hour? <sup>31</sup>Day by day I die, by your rejoicing, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord. <sup>32</sup>If according to the man I fought with beasts in Ephesus, what advantage is to me if the dead are not raised? "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!" <sup>33</sup>Do not be deceived, evil companionships corrupt good habits. <sup>34</sup>Be righteously awake, and sin not; for some have ignorance of God. I speak this to your shame.

<sup>35</sup>But someone will say, How are the dead raised up, and with what body do they come? <sup>36</sup>Foolish one! What you sow is not made alive unless it dies. <sup>37</sup>And what you sow, you do not sow the body that is going to be, but a bare grain (perhaps of wheat or of some of the rest). <sup>38</sup>And God gives it a body as it has pleased Him, and to each of the seeds its own body. <sup>39</sup>All flesh is not the same flesh; but one kind of flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another of fish, and another of birds. <sup>40</sup>There are also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies. But the glory of the heavenly is truly different, and that of the earthly different; <sup>41</sup>one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory. <sup>42</sup>So also the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption; <sup>43</sup>it is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power; <sup>44</sup>it is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. <sup>45</sup>And so it is written, "The first man, Adam, was made a living soul," the last Adam was a life-giving Spirit. <sup>46</sup>But not the spiritual first, but the natural; afterward the spiritual. <sup>47</sup>The first man was out of earth, earthy; the second Man was the Lord from Heaven. <sup>48</sup>Such the earthy man, such also the earthy ones. And such the heavenly Man, such also the heavenly ones. <sup>49</sup>And according as we bore the image of the earthy man, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly Man.

<sup>50</sup>And I say this, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does corruption inherit incorruption. <sup>51</sup>Behold, I speak a mystery to you; we shall not all fall asleep, but we shall all be changed; <sup>52</sup>in a moment, in a glance of an eye, at the last trumpet. For a trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall all be changed. <sup>53</sup>For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. <sup>54</sup>But when this corruptible shall put on incorruption, and when this mortal shall put on immortality, then will take place the word that is written, "Death is swallowed up in victory. <sup>55</sup>O death, where is your sting? O grave, where is your victory?" <sup>56</sup>The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law. <sup>57</sup>But thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>58</sup>So that, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not without fruit in the Lord.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>And concerning the collection for the saints, as I charged the churches of Galatia, so also you do. <sup>2</sup>On the first day of the week let each of you put by himself, storing up what ever he is prospered, so that there may be no collections when I come. <sup>3</sup>And when I come, whomever you shall approve by your letters, I will send them to bring your gift to Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>And if it is suitable for me to go also, they shall go with me. <sup>5</sup>But I will come to you when I pass through Macedonia; for I am going through Macedonia. <sup>6</sup>And it may be that I will stay with you, and even spend the winter with you, so that you may set me forward wherever I go. <sup>7</sup>For I do not desire to see you now in passage, but I am hoping to stay some time with you, if the Lord permits. <sup>8</sup>But I will stay in Ephesus until Pentecost. <sup>9</sup>For a great and effective door opened to me, and many are opposing.

<sup>10</sup>But if Timothy comes, see that he is with you without fear, for he works the work of the Lord, even as I do. <sup>11</sup>Therefore let not any despise him, but set him forward in peace, so that he may come to me; for I am waiting for him with the brothers. <sup>12</sup>As regards our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come to you with the brothers, but it was not altogether his that he come now. But he will come when he has opportunity.

<sup>15</sup>But I exhort you, brothers. You know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first-fruit of Achaia, and they appointed themselves to ministry to the saints. <sup>16</sup>See that you also submit to such ones, and to everyone working and laboring with me. <sup>17</sup>I am glad at the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus; for these supplied your lack. <sup>18</sup>For they have refreshed my spirit and yours; then acknowledge such ones.

<sup>19</sup>The churches of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house. <sup>20</sup>All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

<sup>21</sup>The salutation of Paul with my own hand. <sup>22</sup>If anyone does not love the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be accursed. The Lord comes! <sup>23</sup>May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you. <sup>24</sup>Let my love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

THE SECOND LETTER TO THE CORINTHIANS

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in all Achaia. <sup>2</sup>Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>3</sup>Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort, <sup>4</sup>He comforting us in all our trouble, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in every trouble, through the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. <sup>5</sup>For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also abounds by Christ. <sup>6</sup>And if we are troubled, it is for your consolation and salvation, being worked out in the endurance of the same sufferings which we also suffer. Or if we are comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation. <sup>7</sup>And our hope of you is certain, knowing that as you are partakers of the sufferings, so also of the consolation.

<sup>8</sup>For, brothers, we would not have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength; so much so that we despaired even of life. <sup>9</sup>But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, so that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead; <sup>10</sup>who delivered us from so great a death, and still does deliver; in whom we trust that He will yet deliver us, <sup>11</sup>with you also helping together by prayer for us, so that thanks may be given by many on our behalf, <sup>12</sup>for the gift bestowed upon us by many persons.

For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity; not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God; we have had our conduct in the world, and more abundantly toward you. <sup>13</sup>For we write no other things to you than what you read or recognize, and I trust you shall recognize them even to the end, <sup>14</sup>even as you have recognized us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as you also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus. <sup>15</sup>And in this confidence I intended to come to you before, so that you might have a second benefit, <sup>16</sup>and to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia to you, and to be brought on my way toward Judea by you. <sup>17</sup>Then purposing this, did I indeed use lightness? Or the things that I purpose, do I purpose them according to the flesh, so that with me there should be yes, yes, and no, no? <sup>18</sup>But as God is true, our word toward you was not yes and no. <sup>19</sup>For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us; by me and Silas and Timothy; was not yes and no, but in Him was, yes! <sup>20</sup>For all the promises of God in Him are yes, and in Him Amen, to the glory of God by us.

<sup>21</sup>But He confirming us and anointing us with you in Christ is God. <sup>22</sup>And He has sealed us and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts. <sup>23</sup>And I call God as witness to my soul that in order to spare you I have not yet come to Corinth. <sup>24</sup>Not that we have dominion over your faith, but we are helpers of your joy; for by faith you stand.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>But I determined this within myself, that I would not come to you again in grief. <sup>2</sup>For if I make you sorry, who then is he who makes me glad, but the same who has been made sorry by me? <sup>3</sup>And I wrote this to you, lest when I came I should have sorrow from the ones of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all. <sup>4</sup>For out of much trouble and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears, not that you should be grieved, but that you might know the love which I have more abundantly to you. <sup>5</sup>But if anyone has caused grief, he has not grieved me, except in part; so that I not overbear all of you. <sup>6</sup>This punishment which was put upon him by many of you is enough to such a one; <sup>7</sup>so that, on the contrary, you should rather forgive and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overwhelming sorrow. <sup>8</sup>So I beseech you that you would confirm your love toward him. <sup>9</sup>For to this end I also wrote, that I might know the proof of you, whether you are obedient in all things. <sup>10</sup>But to whom you forgive anything, I also forgive. For if I forgave anything, for your sakes I forgave it to him in the person of Christ; <sup>11</sup>so that we should not be overreached by Satan, for we are not ignorant of his devices. <sup>12</sup>And, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened to me by the Lord, <sup>13</sup>I had no rest in my spirit because I did not find Titus my brother. But taking my leave of them, I went from there into Macedonia. <sup>14</sup>Now thanks be to God, who always causes us to triumph in Christ, and He revealing through us the odor of the knowledge of Him in every place. <sup>15</sup>For we are to God a sweet savor of Christ, in those being saved, and in those being lost; <sup>16</sup>to the one we are the savor of death to death, and to the other we are the savor of life to life. And who is sufficient for these things? <sup>17</sup>For we are not as many, hawking the word of God; but as of sincerity, but as of God. We speak in Christ in the sight of God.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>Do we begin again to commend ourselves? Or do we need, like some, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you? <sup>2</sup>You are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read by all men, <sup>3</sup>it having been made plain that you are the epistle of Christ, ministered by us, not having been written with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not on tablets of stone, but in fleshly tablets of the heart. <sup>4</sup>And we have such trust through Christ toward God, <sup>5</sup>not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think anything as of ourselves, but our sufficiency is of God; <sup>6</sup>who also has made us able ministers of the new covenant; not of the letter, but of the spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. <sup>7</sup>But if the ministry of death, having been engraved in letters in stone was with glory (so that the sons of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses because of the glory of his countenance), which ministry was to be done away; <sup>8</sup>shall not the ministry of the Spirit be with more glory? <sup>9</sup>For if the ministry of condemnation is glorious, much more does the ministry of righteousness exceed in glory. <sup>10</sup>For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, because of the glory that excels. <sup>11</sup>For if that which has been done away was glorious, much more that which remains is glorious.

<sup>12</sup>Then since we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech. <sup>13</sup>And we are not like Moses, who put a veil over his face so that the sons of Israel could not steadfastly look to the end of the thing being done away. <sup>14</sup>(But their thoughts were blinded; for until the present the same veil remains on the reading of the old covenant, not taken away.) But this veil has been done away in Christ. <sup>15</sup>But even until this day, when Moses is read, the veil is on their heart. <sup>16</sup>But whenever it turns to the Lord, the veil shall be taken away.

<sup>17</sup>And the Lord is that Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. <sup>18</sup>But we all, with our face having been unveiled, having beheld the glory of the Lord as in a mirror, are being changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Lord Spirit.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>Therefore since we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we do not faint. <sup>2</sup>But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness nor handling the word of God deceitfully, but by the revelation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. <sup>3</sup>But also if our gospel is hidden, it is hidden to those who are lost, <sup>4</sup>in whom the god of this world has blinded the minds of those who do not believe, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ (who is the image of God) should not dawn on them. <sup>5</sup>For we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake. <sup>6</sup>For it is God who said, "Out of darkness Light shall shine;" who shone in our hearts to give the brightness of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup>But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, so that the excellence of the power may be of God and not of us. <sup>8</sup>We are troubled on every side, yet being hemmed in; being perplexed, but utterly at a loss; <sup>9</sup>being persecuted, but not forsaken; being thrown down, but not destroyed; <sup>10</sup>always bearing about the dying of the Lord Jesus in the body, so that the life of Jesus also might be revealed in our body. <sup>11</sup>For we who live are always being delivered to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus might also be revealed in our body. <sup>12</sup>So then death works in us, but life in you.

<sup>13</sup>For we, having the same spirit of faith (according as it is written, "I believed, and therefore I have spoken"); we also believed and therefore speak, <sup>14</sup>knowing that He who raised up the Lord Jesus shall also raise us up by Jesus, and shall present us with you. <sup>15</sup>For all things are for your sakes, so that the superabounding grace might be made to abound through the thanksgiving of the greater number, to the glory of God.

<sup>16</sup>For this cause we do not faint; but though our outward man perishes, yet the inward man is being renewed day by day. <sup>17</sup>For the lightness of our present affliction works out for us a far more excellent eternal weight of glory, <sup>18</sup>we not considering the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are not lasting, but the things which are not seen are everlasting.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. <sup>2</sup>For indeed in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed with our dwelling-place out of Heaven; <sup>3</sup>if indeed in being clothed, we shall not be found naked. <sup>4</sup>For we who are in this tabernacle groan, being burdened; inasmuch as we do not wish to be unclothed, but to be clothed, so that the mortal might be swallowed up by the life. <sup>5</sup>And He who has worked in us for this same thing is God, who also is giving to us the earnest of the Spirit. <sup>6</sup>Then being always confident, knowing that while we are at home in the body, we are away from home from the Lord; <sup>7</sup>for we walk by faith, not by sight. <sup>8</sup>Then we are confident and we are pleased rather to go away from home out of the body, and to come home to the Lord. <sup>9</sup>Therefore we are also laboring to be well-pleasing to Him, whether at home or away from home. <sup>10</sup>For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive the things done in his body, according to that which he has done, whether good or bad. <sup>11</sup>Therefore, knowing the terror of the Lord, we persuade men. But we are revealed to God, and I trust also that we are revealed in your consciences. <sup>12</sup>For we do not commend ourselves again to you, but are giving you occasion to glory on our behalf, so that you may have it to answer those boasting in appearance, and not in heart. <sup>13</sup>For if we are out of our mind, it is to God; or if we are in our senses, it is for you. <sup>14</sup>For the love of Christ constrains us, judging this, that if one died for all, then all died; <sup>15</sup>and He died for all, that the living ones may live no more to themselves, but to Him who died for them having been raised. <sup>16</sup>So as we now know no one according to flesh, but even if we have known Christ according to flesh, yet now we no longer know Him so. <sup>17</sup>So that if any one is in Christ, that one is a new creature; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new. <sup>18</sup>And all things are of God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given to us the ministry of reconciliation; <sup>19</sup>whereas God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not imputing their trespasses to them; and putting the word of reconciliation in us. <sup>20</sup>Then we are ambassadors on behalf of Christ, as God exhorting through us, we beseech you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. <sup>21</sup>For He has made Him who knew no sin, to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>But working together, we also call on you not to receive the grace of God in vain. <sup>2</sup>(For He says, "In an acceptable time I heard you, and in a day of salvation, I helped you;" Behold, now is the accepted time. Behold, now is the day of salvation.) <sup>3</sup>In nothing, we give no cause of stumbling, not any, so that the ministry may not be blamed, <sup>4</sup>but in everything setting ourselves out as God's servants, in much patience, in troubles, in emergencies, in distresses, <sup>5</sup>in stripes, in imprisonments, in riots, in labors, in watchings, in fastings; <sup>6</sup>in pureness, in knowledge, in long-suffering, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in love unfeigned, <sup>7</sup>in the word of truth, in the power of God, through the weapons of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, <sup>8</sup>through glory and dishonor, through evil report and good report; as deceivers and yet true; <sup>9</sup>as unknown and yet well-known; as dying and, behold, we live; as chastened and not killed; <sup>10</sup>as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, yet possessing all things.

<sup>11</sup>O Corinthians, our mouth is opened to you, our heart has been enlarged. <sup>12</sup>You are not restrained in us, but you are restrained in your own affections. <sup>13</sup>But for the same reward, (I speak as to children), you also be enlarged.

<sup>14</sup>Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers; for what fellowship does righteousness have with lawlessness? And what partnership does light have with darkness? <sup>15</sup>And what agreement does Christ have with Belial? Or what part does a believer have with an unbeliever? <sup>16</sup>And what agreement does a temple of God have with idols? For you are the temple of the living God, as God has said, "I will dwell in them and walk among them; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people." <sup>17</sup>Therefore come out from among them and be separated, says the Lord, and do not touch the unclean thing. And I will receive you <sup>18</sup>and I will be a Father to you, and you shall be My sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>Then having these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilements of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. <sup>2</sup>Make room for us. We wronged no one, we corrupted no one, we overreached no one. <sup>3</sup>I do not speak this to condemn you, for I have said before that you are in our hearts for us to die together, and to live together. <sup>4</sup>My boldness of speech is great toward you; my glorying on your behalf is much. I have been filled with comfort, I am overflowing with joy on all our trouble.

<sup>5</sup>For, indeed, coming into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but being troubled in every way, with fightings on the outside, and fears on the inside. <sup>6</sup>But He who comforts the lowly comforted us by the coming of Titus. <sup>7</sup>And not only by his coming, but by the comfort with which he was comforted over you, telling us your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced the more. <sup>8</sup>For even if I grieved you in the letter, I do not regret; if indeed I did regret; for I see that that letter grieved you for an hour. <sup>9</sup>Now I rejoice, not that you were grieved, but that you grieved to repentance. For you were grieved according to God, so that you might suffer loss by nothing in us. <sup>10</sup>For the grief according to God works repentance to salvation, not to be regretted, but the grief of the world works out death. <sup>11</sup>For behold this same thing (you being grieved according to God); how much it worked out earnestness in you; but also defense; but also indignation; but also fear; but also desire; but also zeal; but also vengeance! In everything you approved yourselves to be clear in the matter.

<sup>12</sup>Then, though I wrote to you, it was not on account of the one who did wrong, nor on account of the one who suffered wrong, but for the sake of revealing our earnestness on your behalf, for you before God. <sup>13</sup>Therefore we have been comforted in your comfort, and we rather rejoiced more abundantly over the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all. <sup>14</sup>For if I have boasted anything about you to him, I was not ashamed. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, even so our boasting as to Titus became truth. <sup>15</sup>And his tender feelings are more abundant toward you, remembering the obedience of you all, as you received him with fear and trembling. <sup>16</sup>Therefore I rejoice that I have confidence in you in everything.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>And, brothers, we make known to you the grace of God which has been given among the churches of Macedonia; <sup>2</sup>that in much testing of trouble, the overflowing of their joy, and the depth of their poverty, abounded to the riches of their generosity. <sup>3</sup>For I testify that according to their ability, and beyond their ability; they gave willingly; <sup>4</sup>with much beseeching, begging us that they might receive of us the fellowship of the ministry to the saints. <sup>5</sup>And not as we hoped, but first they gave themselves to the Lord, and to us through the will of God, <sup>6</sup>for us to call on Titus, that even as he began before, so he would also complete this grace to you also. <sup>7</sup>But even as you abound in everything — in faith, and in word, and in knowledge, and in all earnestness, and in your love to us — you should abound in this grace also. <sup>8</sup>I do not speak according to command, but through the eagerness of others, and testing the trueness of your love.

<sup>9</sup>For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, in order that you might be made rich through His poverty. <sup>10</sup>And in this I give my judgment; for this is profitable for you, who began before, not only to do, but also to be willing a year ago. <sup>11</sup>But now also finish the doing of it, so that, as there was a readiness to will, so also the finishing, giving out of what you have. <sup>12</sup>For if the eagerness is present, it is acceptable according to what one has, and not according to what one does not have. <sup>13</sup>For it is not that others may have ease, but you trouble; <sup>14</sup>but by equality in the present time; your abundance for their need, that their abundance also may be for your need; so that there may be equality; <sup>15</sup>as it is written, “He gathering much, he had nothing left over; and he gathering little did not have less.”

<sup>16</sup>But thanks be to God, who put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you. <sup>17</sup>For indeed he accepted the entreaty. But being more earnest, of his own accord he went to you. <sup>18</sup>And we have sent with him the brothers whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches; <sup>19</sup>and not only so, but also he having been chosen by the churches to travel with us with this gift, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and as a witness of your ready mind; <sup>20</sup>avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us; <sup>21</sup>providing for honest things, not only before the Lord, but also before men. <sup>22</sup>And we have sent with them our brother whom we have often proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest by the great confidence which I have in you. <sup>23</sup>If anyone inquires of Titus, he is my partner and fellow-worker for you, or of our brothers, they are the messengers of the churches, the glory of Christ. <sup>24</sup>Therefore show them a proof of your love and of our boasting toward you in the presence of the churches.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>For indeed regarding the ministry to the saints, it is not necessary for me to write to you. <sup>2</sup>For I know your eagerness, of which I boast to Macedonia on your behalf, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal has aroused the greater number. <sup>3</sup>Yet I sent the brothers, lest our boasting (which is on your behalf) should not be in vain, that, as I said, you may be ready. <sup>4</sup>I say this lest perhaps Macedonians should come with me and find you unprepared. We (not to say you) would then be put to shame in this same confident boasting. <sup>5</sup>Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brothers that they would go forward to you, and make up beforehand your blessing, it having been promised that this would be ready, thus as a matter of blessing, and not as of covetousness. <sup>6</sup>But I say this, He who sows sparingly shall also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully shall also reap bountifully. <sup>7</sup>Each one, as he purposes in his heart, let him give; not of grief, or of necessity, for God loves a cheerful giver. <sup>8</sup>And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that in everything, always having all self-sufficiency, you may abound to every good work; <sup>9</sup>As it is written, "He scattered; he has given to the poor; his righteousness remains forever."

<sup>10</sup>Now He who supplies seed to the sower, and bread for eating, may He supply and multiply your seed, and increase the fruits of your righteousness <sup>11</sup>you being enriched in everything to all generosity, which works out thanksgiving to God through us.

<sup>12</sup>For the ministry of this service not only supplies the things lacking of the saints, but also multiplying through many thanksgivings to God, <sup>13</sup>through the proof of this ministry they glorify God for your freely expressed submission to the gospel of Christ, and the generosity of the fellowship toward them and toward all, <sup>14</sup>and in their prayer for you, who long after you, because of the exceeding grace of God on you. <sup>15</sup>Thanks be to God for His unspeakable free gift.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>And I myself, Paul, beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ; I, who indeed to look upon am lowly among you, but being absent am bold toward you. <sup>2</sup>But I ask, not being present, that I may be bold with the confidence which I think to be daring against some, who thought of us walking according to flesh. <sup>3</sup>For though walking about in flesh, we do not war according to flesh. <sup>4</sup>For the weapons of our warfare are not fleshly, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds, <sup>5</sup>pulling down imaginations and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought into the obedience of Christ; <sup>6</sup>and having readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

<sup>7</sup>Do you look at things according to appearance? If anyone has persuaded himself that he is Christ's, let him think this again as to himself, that as he is Christ's, even so we are Christ's. <sup>8</sup>For even if I should boast somewhat more fully of our authority (which the Lord has given us for building up, and not for pulling you down) I will not be put to shame; <sup>9</sup>so that I might not seem to terrify you by letters. <sup>10</sup>For indeed they say, the letters are weighty and powerful, but the bodily presence is weak, and his speech is contemptible. <sup>11</sup>Let such a one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters, being absent, such we will be also in deed when we are present. <sup>12</sup>For we do not dare to rank or compare ourselves some of the ones commending themselves. But they, measuring themselves among themselves, and comparing themselves to themselves, are not perceptive. <sup>13</sup>But we will not boast beyond measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God distributed to us, to reach even to you. <sup>14</sup>For we do not overstretch ourselves as though not reaching to you. For we also came to you in the gospel of Christ; <sup>15</sup>not boasting beyond measure in the labors of others, but having hope that the growing faith among you will be increased according to our rule, to overflowing; <sup>16</sup>to preach the gospel in that beyond you, and not to boast in another's rule in things made ready. <sup>17</sup>But he who glories, let him glory in the Lord. <sup>18</sup>For not he who commends himself is approved, but he whom the Lord commends.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>I would that you were bearing with me a little in foolishness; but indeed bear with me. <sup>2</sup>For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy. For I have espoused you to one Man, to present you as a pure virgin to Christ. <sup>3</sup>But I fear lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve in his craftiness, so your thoughts should be corrupted from the simplicity due to Christ. <sup>4</sup>For if, indeed, the one coming proclaims another Jesus, whom we have not proclaimed, or if you receive another spirit, which you did not receive, or another gospel, which you never accepted, you might well endure these. <sup>5</sup>For I judge myself to have come behind the highest apostles in nothing. <sup>6</sup>But even if I am unskilled in speech, yet not in knowledge; but in every way I have been clearly revealed to you in all things. <sup>7</sup>Or did I commit sin in humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I preached the gospel of God to you without charge? <sup>8</sup>I stripped other churches, taking wages for the serving of you. <sup>9</sup>And being present with you, and in need, I was not a burden to anyone. For the brothers from Macedonia made up completely my need. And in every way I have kept myself from being burdensome to you, and I will keep myself.

<sup>10</sup>The truth of Christ is in me that this boasting shall not be silenced in me in the regions of Achaia. <sup>11</sup>Why? Because I do not love you? God knows. <sup>12</sup>But what I do, that I will do, so that I may cut off occasion from those who desire occasion; so that in the thing in which they boast, they may be found even as we. <sup>13</sup>For such ones are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. <sup>14</sup>Did not even Satan marvelously transform himself into an angel of light? <sup>15</sup>Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also transform themselves as ministers of righteousness, whose end shall be according to their works.

<sup>16</sup>Again I say, Let no one think me foolish. If otherwise, yet receive me as foolish, so that I may also boast a little. <sup>17</sup>What I speak, I do not speak according to the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this boldness of boasting. <sup>18</sup>Since many glory according to the flesh, I also will boast. <sup>19</sup>For you gladly bear with fools, you being wise. <sup>20</sup>For you endure if anyone enslaves you, if anyone devours, if anyone takes from you, if anyone exalts himself, if anyone strikes you in the face. <sup>21</sup>I speak according to dishonor, as though we have been weak. But in whatever anyone dares (I speak foolishly), I also dare. <sup>22</sup>Are they Hebrews? I also! Are they Israelites? I also! Are they the seed of Abraham? I also! <sup>23</sup>Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as beside myself,) I am more! I have been in labors more abundantly, in stripes above measure, in prisons more, in deaths many times.

<sup>24</sup>Five times from the Jews I received forty stripes minus one. <sup>25</sup>Three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, three times I was shipwrecked. I have spent a night and a day in the deep. <sup>26</sup>I have been in travels often; in danger from waters; in danger from robbers; in danger from my race; in danger from the heathen; perils in the city; in dangers in the wilderness; in dangers on the sea; in dangers among false brothers. <sup>27</sup>I have been in hardship and toil; often in watchings; in hunger and thirst; often in fastings; in cold and nakedness; and <sup>28</sup>besides the things outside conspiring against me daily, the care of all the churches. <sup>29</sup>Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is caused to stumble, and I do not burn? <sup>30</sup>If I might glory, I will glory in the things of my infirmity. <sup>31</sup>The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is blessed forever, knows that I do not lie. <sup>32</sup>In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king guarded the city of the Damascenes, desiring to lay hold of me. <sup>33</sup>And I was let down in a basket through a window through the wall, and escaped their hands.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>Indeed, it is not profitable for me to boast. For I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. <sup>2</sup>I knew a man in Christ more than fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I do not know; or out of the body, I do not know; God knows) such a one was caught up to the third Heaven. <sup>3</sup>And I know such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I do not know; God knows) <sup>4</sup>that he was caught up into Paradise and heard unspeakable words, which it is not allowed for a man to utter. <sup>5</sup>I will glory of such a one, yet I will not boast on my behalf, except in my weaknesses. <sup>6</sup>For if I desire to boast, I shall not be foolish. For I will speak the truth. But I spare, lest anyone should think of me as being beyond what he sees me, or hears of me; and by the surpassing revelations, <sup>7</sup>lest I not be made haughty, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, a messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I be made haughty. <sup>8</sup>For this thing I besought the Lord three times, that it might depart from me. <sup>9</sup>And He said to me, My grace is sufficient for you, for My power is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore I will rather glory in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may overshadow me. <sup>10</sup>Therefore I am pleased in weaknesses, in insults, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake; for when I am weak, then I am powerful.

<sup>11</sup>I have become foolish boasting. You compelled me. For I ought to be commended by you. For I lacked nothing of the highest apostles, though I am nothing. <sup>12</sup>Truly the signs of the apostles were worked out among you in all patience, in miracles and in wonders, and by works of power. <sup>13</sup>For what is it in which you were inferior to the rest of the churches, except that I myself did not burden you? Forgive me this wrong.

<sup>14</sup>Behold, a third time I am ready to come to you. And I will not burden you, for I do not seek your things, but you. For the children ought not to lay up treasure for the parents, but the parents for the children. <sup>15</sup>And I will very gladly spend and be spent for your souls, even if loving you more and more, I am loved the less. <sup>16</sup>But let it be so, I did not burden you. But being crafty, I caught you with bait. <sup>17</sup>By any whom I have sent to you, did I overreach you by him? <sup>18</sup>I begged Titus and sent with him the brother. Did Titus overreach you? Did we not walk in the same spirit? Did we not walk in the same steps?

<sup>19</sup>Again, do you think we are defending to you? We speak before God in Christ, but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your building up. <sup>20</sup>For I fear, lest somehow coming I might not find you as I wish, and that I shall be found by you such as you might not wish; lest somehow there be strifes, envyings, angers, contentions, backbitings, whisperings, proud thoughts, tumults; <sup>21</sup>lest in my coming again my God will humble me with you; and I shall mourn many who have already sinned, and not repenting over the uncleanness, and fornication, and lustfulness which they have practiced.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>I am coming to you this third time. In the mouth of two or three witnesses every word shall be established. <sup>2</sup>I told you before, and I say beforehand, as being present the second time and being absent now. I write to those who sinned before, and to all the rest, that if I come again, I will not spare. <sup>3</sup>Since you seek a proof of Christ speaking in me (who is not weak toward you, but is powerful in you; <sup>4</sup>for even if He was crucified through weakness, yet He lives by the power of God; for indeed we also are weak in Him, but we shall live with Him by the power of God toward you), <sup>5</sup>examine yourselves, whether you are in the faith, prove your own selves. Do you not know your own selves, that Jesus Christ is in you, unless you are reprobates? <sup>6</sup>But I trust that you will know that we are not reprobates. <sup>7</sup>But I pray to God for you not to do evil, none. And not that we may appear approved, but that you should do the good things, though we are deemed to be reprobates. <sup>8</sup>For we have no power against the truth, but for the truth. <sup>9</sup>For we are glad when we are weak, and you are powerful. But we pray also for this, your perfection. <sup>10</sup>Therefore I write these things while absent, lest being present I may not deal sharply with you according to the authority which the Lord gave me for building up, and not for pulling down.

<sup>11</sup>Finally, brothers, rejoice. Perfect yourselves; encourage yourselves; mind the same thing; be at peace. And the God of love and peace will be with you. <sup>12</sup>Greet one another with a holy kiss. <sup>13</sup>All the saints greet you.

<sup>14</sup>May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all. Amen.

THE LETTER TO THE GALATIANS

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle (not from men, nor through man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised Him from the dead), <sup>2</sup>and all the brothers with me, to the churches of Galatia. <sup>3</sup>Grace be to you, and peace from God the Father and from our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>4</sup>who gave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us from this present evil world according to the will of God and our Father — <sup>5</sup>to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>6</sup>I marvel that you so soon are being moved away from Him who called you into the grace of Christ, to another gospel — <sup>7</sup>which is not another, but some are troubling you, and desiring to pervert the gospel of Christ. <sup>8</sup>But even if we or an angel from Heaven preach a gospel to you beside what we preached to you, let him be accursed. <sup>9</sup>As we said before, and now I say again, If anyone preaches a gospel to you beside what you have received, let him be accursed.

<sup>10</sup>For now do I persuade men, or God? Or do I seek to please men? For if I yet pleased men, I would not have been a servant of Christ. <sup>11</sup>And, brothers, I make known to you the gospel which was preached by me, that it is not according to man. <sup>12</sup>For I did not receive it from man, nor was I taught it except by a revelation of Jesus Christ. <sup>13</sup>For you heard my manner of life when I was in Judaism, that I persecuted the church of God with surpassing zeal, and ravaged it. <sup>14</sup>And I progressed in Judaism beyond many contemporaries in my race, being much more a zealot of the traditions of my fathers. <sup>15</sup>But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and having called me by His grace, <sup>16</sup>to reveal His Son in me so that I might preach Him among the nations, immediately I did not confer with flesh and blood; <sup>17</sup>Nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those apostles before me, but I went into Arabia and returned again to Damascus. <sup>18</sup>Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and stayed with him fifteen days. <sup>19</sup>But I saw no other of the apostles, except James the Lord's brother. <sup>20</sup>And what I write to you, behold, before God, I do not lie. <sup>21</sup>Then I went into the regions of Syria and of Cilicia, <sup>22</sup>and was unknown by face to the churches of Judea in Christ. <sup>23</sup>But only they were hearing that he who then persecuted us, now preaches the faith which he once ravaged. <sup>24</sup>And they glorified God in me.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>Then through fourteen years, I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also. <sup>2</sup>And I went up by revelation. And I put before them the gospel which I proclaim in the nations, but privately to those seeming to be pillars, lest I run, or I ran, into vanity. <sup>3</sup>(But not even Titus, the one with me, a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised.) <sup>4</sup>But because of those false brothers stealing in, who stole in to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus; they desiring to enslave us; — <sup>5</sup>to whom not even for an hour did we yield in subjection, that the truth of the gospel might continue with you. <sup>6</sup>But from those who seemed to be something (what kind they were then does not matter to me; God does not accept the face of man), for those seeming important conferred nothing to me. <sup>7</sup>But on the contrary, seeing that I have been entrusted with the gospel of the uncircumcision, as Peter to the circumcision; <sup>8</sup>for He working in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision also worked in me to the nations. <sup>9</sup>And knowing the grace given to me, James, and Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, gave right hands of fellowship to Barnabas and me, that we go to the nations, but they to the circumcision. <sup>10</sup>Only they asked that we remember the poor, which very thing I was eager to do.

<sup>11</sup>But when Peter came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he was to be blamed. <sup>12</sup>For before some came from James, he ate with the nations. But when they came, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing those of the circumcision. <sup>13</sup>And the rest of the Jews also dissembled with him, so as even Barnabas was led away with their dissembling. <sup>14</sup>But when I saw that they did not walk uprightly with the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter before all, If you, being a Jew, live as a Gentile, and not as the Jews, why do you compel the nations to judaize? <sup>15</sup>We Jews by nature, and not sinners of the nations, <sup>16</sup>knowing that a man is not justified by works of the Law, but through faith in Jesus Christ — even we believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith in Christ, and not by works of the Law. For all flesh will not be justified by works of law. <sup>17</sup>But if, while we seek to be justified in Christ, we also were found to be sinners, is Christ therefore a minister of sin? Let it not be said! <sup>18</sup>For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I confirm myself as a transgressor. <sup>19</sup>For through the Law I died to the Law, that I might live to God. <sup>20</sup>I have been crucified with Christ, and I live; yet no longer I, but Christ lives in me. And that life I now live in the flesh, I live by faith toward the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself on my behalf. <sup>21</sup>I do not set aside the grace of God, for if righteousness is through Law, then Christ died without cause.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>O foolish Galatians, who bewitched you not to obey the truth, to whom before your eyes Jesus Christ was written among you crucified? <sup>2</sup>This only I would learn from you: Did you receive the Spirit by works of the Law, or by hearing of faith? <sup>3</sup>Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, do you now perfect yourself in the flesh? <sup>4</sup>Did you suffer so many things in vain? — if indeed it is even in vain. <sup>5</sup>Then He supplying the Spirit to you and working powerful works in you, is it by works of the Law, or by hearing of faith? <sup>6</sup>Even as Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness. <sup>7</sup>Therefore know that those of faith, these are the sons of Abraham. <sup>8</sup>And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the nations through faith, preached the gospel before to Abraham, saying, “In you shall all nations be blessed.” <sup>9</sup>So then those of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

<sup>10</sup>For as many as are out of works of the Law, these are under a curse — for it is written, “Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things which are written in the Book of the Law, to do them.” <sup>11</sup>But that no one is justified by the Law in the sight of God is clear, for, “The just shall live by faith.” <sup>12</sup>But the Law is not of faith; but, “The man who does these things shall live in them.” <sup>13</sup>Christ redeemed us from the curse of the Law, being made a curse for us (for it is written, “Cursed is everyone having been hanged on a tree”); <sup>14</sup>so that the blessing of Abraham might be to the nations in Jesus Christ, and that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

<sup>15</sup>Brothers, I speak according to man, a covenant having been ratified, even among mankind, no one sets aside or adds to it. <sup>16</sup>And to Abraham and to his Seed the promises were spoken. It does not say, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, “And to your Seed,” which is Christ. <sup>17</sup>And I say this, A covenant having been ratified to Christ by God in Christ, the Law (coming into being four hundred and thirty years after) does not annul the promise, so as to abolish it. <sup>18</sup>For if the inheritance is of Law, it is no more of promise; but God gave it to Abraham by way of promise. <sup>19</sup>Why then the Law? It was added because of transgressions, until the Seed should come to those to whom it had been promised, being ordained through angels in the Mediator's hand. <sup>20</sup>But the mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one.

<sup>21</sup>Is the Law then against the promises of God? Let it not be said! For if a law had been given which could have given life, indeed righteousness would have been out of Law. <sup>22</sup>But the Scripture shut up all under sin, so that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. <sup>23</sup>But before faith came, we were kept under Law, having been shut up to the faith about to be revealed.

<sup>24</sup>So that the Law has become a trainer of us until Christ, that we might be justified by faith. <sup>25</sup>But faith coming, we are no longer under a trainer. <sup>26</sup>For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>27</sup>For as many as were baptized into Christ, you put on Christ. <sup>28</sup>There cannot be Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is no male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus. <sup>29</sup>And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's seed and heirs according to the promise.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>But I say, Over so long a time the heir is an infant, he does not differ from a slave, though being lord of all; <sup>2</sup>but he is under guardians and housemasters until the term appointed before by the father. <sup>3</sup>Even so we, when we were infants, were in bondage under the elements of the world. <sup>4</sup>But when the fullness of the time came, God sent forth His Son, coming into being out of a woman, having come under Law, <sup>5</sup>that He might redeem those under Law, so that we might receive the adoption of sons. <sup>6</sup>And because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. <sup>7</sup>So that you are no longer a slave, but a son; and if a son, also an heir of God through Christ.

<sup>8</sup>But then, indeed, not knowing God, you served as slaves to those not by nature being gods. <sup>9</sup>But now, knowing God, but rather are known by God, how do you turn again to the weak and beggarly elements to which you desire to slave anew? <sup>10</sup>You observe days and months and times and years. <sup>11</sup>I fear for you, lest somehow I have labored among you in vain.

<sup>12</sup>Brothers, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as you. You have not injured me at all. <sup>13</sup>But you know that through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel to you before, <sup>14</sup>and you did not despise my temptation in my flesh, nor did you spurn it. But you received me as an angel of God, as Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup>What then was your blessedness? For I bear you record that, if you were able, plucking out your eyes, you would have given them to me. <sup>16</sup>So then did I become your enemy speaking to you the truth? <sup>17</sup>They are zealous for you, but not well. But they only desire to shut you out, that you be zealous to them. <sup>18</sup>But it is good to be zealous always in a good thing, and not only in my being present with you. <sup>19</sup>My children, for whom I again travail until Christ should be formed in you, <sup>20</sup>even now I desired to be present with you, and to change my voice; for I am in doubt as to you.

<sup>21</sup>Tell me, those desiring to be under Law, do you not hear the Law? <sup>22</sup>For it is written: Abraham had two sons, the one out of the slave-woman, and one out of the free woman. <sup>23</sup>But, indeed, he out of the slave-woman has been born according to flesh, and he out of the free woman through the promise; <sup>24</sup>which things are being allegorized; for these are the two covenants — one indeed from Mount Sinai bringing forth to slavery, which is Hagar. <sup>25</sup>For Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and answers to Jerusalem which now is, and is in slavery with her children. <sup>26</sup>But the Jerusalem from above is free, who is the mother of us all. <sup>27</sup>For it is written, "Rejoice, barren one not bearing; break forth and shout, you not travailing; for more are the children of the desolate than she having the husband."

<sup>28</sup>But brothers, we, like Isaac, are children of promise. <sup>29</sup>But then even as he born according to flesh persecuted him born according to the Spirit, so also now. <sup>30</sup>But what does the Scripture say? "Cast out the slave-woman and her son; for in no way shall the son of the slave-woman inherit with the son of the free woman." <sup>31</sup>Then, brothers, we are not children of a slave-woman, but of the free woman.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>Stand fast therefore in the liberty with which Christ has made us free, and do not again be held with the yoke of bondage. <sup>2</sup>Behold, I, Paul, say to you that if you are circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. <sup>3</sup>For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do all the Law, <sup>4</sup>you who are justified by Law are deprived of all effect from Christ — you fell from grace. <sup>5</sup>For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness out of faith. <sup>6</sup>For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision has any strength, but faith working through love. <sup>7</sup>You were running well. Who hindered you that you do not obey the truth? <sup>8</sup>This persuasion is not from Him who calls you. <sup>9</sup>A little leaven leavens all the lump. <sup>10</sup>I have confidence in you in the Lord, that you will think nothing else, but that he troubling you shall bear the judgement, whoever he may be.

<sup>11</sup>And I, brothers, if I yet proclaim circumcision, why am I still persecuted? Then the offense of the cross has ceased. <sup>12</sup>I wish that those causing you to doubt will cut themselves off. <sup>13</sup>For, brothers, you were called to liberty. Only do not use the liberty for gain to the flesh, but by love serve one another. <sup>14</sup>For all the Law is fulfilled in one word, even in this, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." <sup>15</sup>But if you bite and devour one another, take heed that you are not consumed by one another.

<sup>16</sup>I say, then, Walk in the Spirit and you shall not fulfill the lusts of the flesh. <sup>17</sup>For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh. And these are contrary to one another; lest whatever you may will, these things you do. <sup>18</sup>But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under Law. <sup>19</sup>Now the works of the flesh are clearly revealed, which are: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lustfulness, <sup>20</sup>idolatry, sorcery, hatreds, fightings, jealousies, angers, rivalries, divisions, heresies, <sup>21</sup>envyings, murders, drunkennesses, revelings, and things like these — of which I tell you before, as I also said before, that they who do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

<sup>22</sup>But the fruit of the Spirit is: love, joy, peace, long-suffering, kindness, goodness, faith, <sup>23</sup>meekness, self-control — against such things there is no law. <sup>24</sup>But those belonging to Christ's have crucified the flesh with its passions and lusts. <sup>25</sup>If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. <sup>26</sup>Let us not become glory-seeking, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>Brothers, if a man is overtaken in a fault, you the spiritual ones restore such a one in the spirit of meekness, considering yourself, lest you also be tempted. <sup>2</sup>Bear one another's burdens, and so you will fulfill the law of Christ. <sup>3</sup>For if anyone thinks himself to be something, being nothing, he deceives himself. <sup>4</sup>But let each one prove his own work, and then he alone will have a boast in himself, and not in another. <sup>5</sup>For each one will bear his own load.

<sup>6</sup>But let him who is taught in the word share with him in all good things. <sup>7</sup>Do not be deceived, God is not mocked. For whatever a man sows, that he also will reap. <sup>8</sup>For he sowing to his flesh will reap corruption from the flesh. But he sowing to the Spirit will reap life everlasting from the Spirit. <sup>9</sup>But we should not lose heart in well-doing, for in due season we shall reap, if we do not faint. <sup>10</sup>So then as we have time, let us work good toward all, especially toward those of the household of faith.

<sup>11</sup>See in what large letters I write to you with my hand. <sup>12</sup>As many as desire to look well in the flesh, these compel you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ. <sup>13</sup>For they themselves, having been circumcised, do not even keep the Law, but they desire you to be circumcised so that they may boast in your flesh. <sup>14</sup>But may it never be for me to boast, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. <sup>15</sup>For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision has any strength, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation. <sup>16</sup>And as many as walk according to this rule, peace and mercy be upon them and upon the Israel of God.

<sup>17</sup>For the rest, let no one give troubles to me, for I bear in my body the brands of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>18</sup>Brothers, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

THE LETTER TO THE EPHESIANS

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints which are in Ephesus, and faithful in Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup>Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenlies in Christ; <sup>4</sup>according as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love, <sup>5</sup>having predestined us to the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the good pleasure of His will, <sup>6</sup>to the praise of the glory of His grace, in which He has made us accepted in the Beloved.

<sup>7</sup>In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace, <sup>8</sup>which He caused to abound toward us in all wisdom and understanding; <sup>9</sup>having made known to us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure which He purposed in Himself, <sup>10</sup>for an administration of the fullness of times, to head up all things in Christ, both the things in Heaven, and the things on earth — even in Him, <sup>11</sup>in whom also we have been chosen to an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of Him who works all things according to the counsel of His own will — <sup>12</sup>for us to be to the praise of His glory, who first trusted in Christ; <sup>13</sup>in whom also you, hearing the word of truth, the gospel of our salvation, in whom also believing, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, <sup>14</sup>who is the earnest of our inheritance, to the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of His glory.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore I also, hearing of your faith in the Lord Jesus and love to all the saints, <sup>16</sup>do not cease giving thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers — <sup>17</sup>that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him, <sup>18</sup>the eyes of your understanding being enlightened, that you may know what is the hope of His calling, and what is the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, <sup>19</sup>and what is the surpassing greatness of His power toward us, the ones believing according to the working of His mighty strength <sup>20</sup>which He worked in Christ in raising Him from the dead, and He seated Him at His right hand in the heavenlies, <sup>21</sup>far above all principality and authority and power and dominion, and every name being named, not only in this world, but also in the coming age. <sup>22</sup>And He has put all things under His feet and gave Him to be Head over all things to the church, <sup>23</sup>which is His body, the fullness of Him who fills all in all.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And He has made you alive, who were once dead in trespasses and sins — <sup>2</sup>in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now works in the children of disobedience — <sup>3</sup>among whom we also had our way of life in times past, in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. <sup>4</sup>But God, who is rich in mercy, for His great love with which He loved us <sup>5</sup>(even when we were dead in sins) has made us alive together with Christ (by grace you are saved), <sup>6</sup>and has raised us up together and made us sit together in the heavenlies in Christ Jesus — so that in the ages to come <sup>7</sup>He might show the exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.

<sup>8</sup>For by grace you are saved through faith, and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God — <sup>9</sup>not of works, lest any man should boast. <sup>10</sup>For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to good works, which God has before ordained that we should walk in them.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore remember that you in time past were Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands; <sup>12</sup>and that at that time you were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world. <sup>13</sup>But now in Christ Jesus you who were once afar off are made near by the blood of Christ. <sup>14</sup>For He is our peace, He making us both one, and He has broken down the middle wall of partition between us, <sup>15</sup>having abolished in His flesh the enmity (the Law of commandments contained in ordinances) so that in Himself He might make the two into one new man, making peace between them — <sup>16</sup>and so that He might reconcile both to God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity by it.

<sup>17</sup>And He came and preached peace to you who were afar off, and to those who were near. <sup>18</sup>For through Him we both have access by one Spirit to the Father. <sup>19</sup>Now therefore you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints, and of the household of God, <sup>20</sup>and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone — <sup>21</sup>in whom all the building, fitly framed together, grows to a holy temple in the Lord — <sup>22</sup>in whom you also are built together for a dwelling place of God through the Spirit.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>For this cause, I, Paul, am the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles, <sup>2</sup>if you have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given to me toward you — <sup>3</sup>that by revelation He made known to me the mystery (as I wrote before in few words, <sup>4</sup>by which, when you read, you may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ) <sup>5</sup>which in other ages was not made known to the sons of men, as it is now revealed to His holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit — <sup>6</sup>that the Gentiles should be fellow heirs, and of the same body, and partake of His promise in Christ through the gospel. <sup>7</sup>Of this gospel I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given to me by the effectual working of His power.

<sup>8</sup>This grace is given to me (who am less than the least of all saints) to preach the gospel of the unsearchable riches of Christ among the Gentiles — <sup>9</sup>and to make all see what is the fellowship of the mystery which from the beginning of the world has been hidden in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ — <sup>10</sup>so that now to the rulers and powers in the heavenlies might be known by the church the manifold wisdom, of God, <sup>11</sup>according to the eternal purpose which He purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord — <sup>12</sup>in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through His faith.

<sup>13</sup>For this reason I desire that you faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory. <sup>14</sup>For this cause I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>15</sup>of whom the whole family in Heaven and earth is named, <sup>16</sup>that He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might by His Spirit in the inner man — <sup>17</sup>that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith — that you, being rooted and grounded in love, <sup>18</sup>may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth and length and depth and height, <sup>19</sup>and to know the love of Christ which passes knowledge, that you might be filled with all the fullness of God.

<sup>20</sup>Now to Him who is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, <sup>21</sup>to Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beseech you that you walk worthy of the calling with which you are called, <sup>2</sup>with all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love — <sup>3</sup>endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. <sup>4</sup>There is one body and one Spirit, even as you are called in one hope of your calling — <sup>5</sup>one Lord, one faith, one baptism, <sup>6</sup>one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in you all. <sup>7</sup>But to every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. <sup>8</sup>Therefore He says, “When He ascended up on high, He led captivity captive and gave gifts to men.” <sup>9</sup>(Now that He ascended, what is it but that He also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? <sup>10</sup>He who descended is the same also as He who ascended up far above all heavens, that He might fill all things.) <sup>11</sup>And He gave some to be apostles, and some to be prophets, and some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers — <sup>12</sup>for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ. <sup>13</sup>And this until we all come into the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ — <sup>14</sup>so that we no longer may be infants, tossed to and fro and carried about by every wind of doctrine, in the dishonesty of men, in cunning craftiness, suited to the wiles of deceit. <sup>15</sup>But that you, speaking the truth in love, may in all things grow up to Him who is the Head, even Christ — <sup>16</sup>from whom the whole body, fitted together and compacted by that which every joint supplies, according to the effectual working in the measure of each part, producing the growth of the body to the edifying of itself in love.

<sup>17</sup>This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you should not walk from now on as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind, <sup>18</sup>having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart. <sup>19</sup>For they, being past feeling, have given themselves up to lust, to work all uncleanness with greediness. <sup>20</sup>But you have not so learned Christ — <sup>21</sup>if indeed you have heard Him and were taught by Him, as the truth is in Jesus. <sup>22</sup>For you ought to put off the old man (according to your way of living before) who is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts, <sup>23</sup>and be renewed in the spirit of your mind. <sup>24</sup>And you should put on the new man, who according to God was created in righteousness and true holiness.

<sup>25</sup>Therefore putting away lying, let each man speak truth with his neighbor, for we are members of one another. <sup>26</sup>Be angry, and do not sin. Do not let the sun go down upon your wrath, <sup>27</sup>neither give place to the devil. <sup>28</sup>Let him who stole steal no more, but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing which is good, so that he may have something to give to him who needs. <sup>29</sup>Let no filthy communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace to the hearers. <sup>30</sup>And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you are sealed until the day of redemption. <sup>31</sup>Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and tumult and evil speaking be put away from you, with all malice. <sup>32</sup>And be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake has forgiven you.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>Therefore be followers of God, as dear children. <sup>2</sup>And walk in love, as Christ also has loved us, and has given Himself for us as an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet smelling savor.

<sup>3</sup>For let fornication and all uncleanness or covetousness not be once named among you, as becomes saints — <sup>4</sup>neither filthiness, foolish talking, jesting, which are not becoming — but rather giving of thanks. <sup>5</sup>For you know this, that no fornicator, or unclean person, or covetous man (who is an idolater), has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. <sup>6</sup>Let no man deceive you with vain words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the children of disobedience. <sup>7</sup>Therefore do not be partakers with them. <sup>8</sup>For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord; walk as children of light <sup>9</sup>(for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth), <sup>10</sup>proving what is acceptable to the Lord.

<sup>11</sup>And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. <sup>12</sup>For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret. <sup>13</sup>But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light, for whatever makes manifest is light. <sup>14</sup>Therefore he says, "Awake, you sleeper! And arise from the dead, and Christ shall give you light." <sup>15</sup>See then that you walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, <sup>16</sup>redeeming the time, because the days are evil. <sup>17</sup>Therefore do not be unwise, but understand what the will of the Lord is. <sup>18</sup>And do not be drunk with wine, in which is excess, but be filled with the Spirit, <sup>19</sup>speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord — <sup>20</sup>always giving thanks for all things to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>21</sup>submitting yourselves to one another in the fear of God.

<sup>22</sup>Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as to the Lord. <sup>23</sup>For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church — and He is the Saviour of the body. <sup>24</sup>Therefore as the church is subject to Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in everything.

<sup>25</sup>Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church and gave Himself for it, <sup>26</sup>that He might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, <sup>27</sup>that He might present it to Himself as the glorious church, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, but that it should be holy and without blemish. <sup>28</sup>So men ought to love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. <sup>29</sup>For no man ever yet hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, even as the Lord loves the church. <sup>30</sup>For we are members of His body, of His flesh, and of His bones. <sup>31</sup>For this cause a man shall leave his father and mother and shall be joined to his wife, and the two of them shall be one flesh. <sup>32</sup>This is a great mystery, but I speak concerning Christ and the church. <sup>33</sup>Nevertheless let everyone of you in particular so love his wife even as himself, and the wife to reverence her husband.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. <sup>2</sup>Honor your father and mother (which is the first commandment with a promise), <sup>3</sup>so that it may be well with you, and that you may live long on the earth. <sup>4</sup>And fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

<sup>5</sup>Slaves, be obedient to those who are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as to Christ — <sup>6</sup>not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart — <sup>7</sup>with good will doing service as to the Lord and not to men <sup>8</sup>(knowing that whatever good thing any man does, he shall receive the same from the Lord, whether he is a slave or a freeman). <sup>9</sup>And masters, do the same things to them, forbearing threatening, knowing that your Master also is in Heaven. There is no respect of persons with Him.

<sup>10</sup>Finally, my brothers, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. <sup>11</sup>Put on the whole armor of God so that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. <sup>12</sup>For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. <sup>13</sup>Therefore take to yourselves the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. <sup>14</sup>Therefore stand, having your loins girded about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness <sup>15</sup>and your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace. <sup>16</sup>Above all, take the shield of faith, with which you shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. <sup>17</sup>And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God — <sup>18</sup>praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching to this very thing with all perseverance and supplication for all saints. <sup>19</sup>And pray for me, that utterance may be given to me, that I may open my mouth boldly to make known the mystery of the gospel, <sup>20</sup>for which I am an ambassador in bonds — so that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

<sup>21</sup>But, so that you also may know my affairs and how I do, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things — <sup>22</sup>whom I have sent to you for the same purpose, that you might know our affairs and that he might comfort your hearts.

<sup>23</sup>Peace to the brothers, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>24</sup>Grace be with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

THE LETTER TO THE PHILIPPIANS

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul and Timothy, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons. <sup>2</sup>Grace to you, and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, <sup>4</sup>always in every prayer of mine making my request for you all with joy <sup>5</sup>for your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now — <sup>6</sup>being confident of this very thing, that He who has begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ, <sup>7</sup>even as it is righteous for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart — inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel, you are all partakers of my grace. <sup>8</sup>For God is my witness how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

<sup>9</sup>And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in full knowledge and in all judgment; <sup>10</sup>that you may approve things that are excellent, that you may be sincere and without offense until the day of Jesus Christ — <sup>11</sup>being filled with the fruits of righteousness which are by Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

<sup>12</sup>But I desire that you should understand, brothers, that the things which happened to me have fallen out rather to the furtherance of the gospel — <sup>13</sup>so that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places. <sup>14</sup>And many of the brothers in the Lord, becoming confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear. <sup>15</sup>Some indeed even preach Christ because of envy and strife, and some also of good will. <sup>16</sup>Those, indeed, preach Christ out of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds. <sup>17</sup>But these others preach in love, knowing that I am set for the defense of the gospel.

<sup>18</sup>What then? Nevertheless, in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is preached. And I rejoice in this. Yes, and I will rejoice. <sup>19</sup>For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, <sup>20</sup>according to my earnest expectation and hope that I shall be ashamed in nothing, but as always now Christ shall be magnified in my body with all boldness, whether it is by life or by death.

<sup>21</sup>For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. <sup>22</sup>But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labor. Yet I do not know what I shall choose. <sup>23</sup>For I am pressed together by the two: having a desire to depart and to be with Christ, which is far better. <sup>24</sup>But to remain in the flesh is more needful for you. <sup>25</sup>And having this confidence, I know that I shall remain and continue with you all, for your advancement and joy of faith, <sup>26</sup>so that your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.

<sup>27</sup>Only let your conduct be as becomes the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you, or else am absent, I may hear of your affairs, that you stand fast in one spirit, striving together with one mind for the faith of the gospel, <sup>28</sup>and terrified in nothing by your adversaries. For this is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God. <sup>29</sup>For to you it is given on behalf of Christ not only to believe on Him, but also to suffer for His sake, <sup>30</sup>having the same conflict which you saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>If there is therefore any encouragement in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any tendernesses and mercies, <sup>2</sup>then fulfill my joy, that you may be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord and of one mind. <sup>3</sup>Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than themselves. <sup>4</sup>Do not let each man look upon his own things, but each man also on the things of others. <sup>5</sup>Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup>who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God, <sup>7</sup>but made Himself of no reputation, and took upon Himself the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men — <sup>8</sup>And being found in fashion as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. <sup>9</sup>Therefore God has highly exalted Him, and has given Him a name which is above every name — <sup>10</sup>that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and those in earth, and those under the earth — <sup>11</sup>and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. <sup>13</sup>For it is God who works in you both to will and to do of His good pleasure.

<sup>14</sup>Do all things without murmurings and disputings, <sup>15</sup>so that you may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation. Among these you shine as lights in the world, <sup>16</sup>holding forth the word of life, so that I may rejoice with you in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain nor labored in vain. <sup>17</sup>Yes, and if I am offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy and rejoice with you all. <sup>18</sup>You also joy and rejoice with me. <sup>18</sup>And you also rejoice in the same, and rejoice with me.

<sup>19</sup>But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy shortly to you, so that I also may be of good comfort when I know your state. <sup>20</sup>For I have no one who is like-minded, who will naturally care for your state. <sup>21</sup>For all seek their own, not the things which are of Jesus Christ. <sup>22</sup>But you know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he has served with me in the gospel. <sup>23</sup>Therefore I hope to send him presently, as soon as I shall see how it will go with me. <sup>24</sup>But I trust in the Lord that I myself shall also come shortly. <sup>25</sup>Yet I thought it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother and fellow-worker, and fellow-soldier, but your messenger and he who ministered to my wants. <sup>26</sup>For he longed after you all and was full of heaviness, because you had heard that he had been sick. <sup>27</sup>For indeed he was sick, even near death, but God had mercy on him — and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow. <sup>28</sup>Therefore I sent him the more carefully, so that you may rejoice when you see him again, and that I may be the less sorrowful. <sup>29</sup>Therefore receive him in the Lord with all gladness, and hold such in honor, <sup>30</sup>because for the work of Christ he was near death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you is indeed not grievous to me, but for you it is safe. <sup>2</sup>Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision party. <sup>3</sup>For we are the circumcision who worship God in the spirit and rejoice in Christ Jesus and have no confidence in the flesh — <sup>4</sup>though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinks that he has reason to trust in the flesh, I more. <sup>5</sup>I was circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews. As regards the Law, I was a Pharisee; <sup>6</sup>concerning zeal, persecuting the church; regarding the righteousness which is in the Law, blameless. <sup>7</sup>But whatever things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. <sup>8</sup>But no, rather, I also count all things to be loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord — for whose sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them to be dung, so that I may win Christ <sup>9</sup>and be found in Him; not having my own righteousness, which is of the Law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith — <sup>10</sup>that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being made conformable to His death; <sup>11</sup>if by any means I might attain to the resurrection of the dead. <sup>12</sup>Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect, but I am pressing on, if I may lay hold of that for which I also was taken hold of by Christ Jesus. <sup>13</sup>My brothers, I do not count myself to have taken possession, but one thing I do, forgetting the things behind and reaching forward to the things before, <sup>14</sup>I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup>Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, be of this mind. And if in anything you are otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this to you.

<sup>16</sup>Yet, as to that to which we have already attained, let us walk in the same rule, let us mind the same thing. <sup>17</sup>Brothers, be imitators together of me, and mark those who walk this way, for you have us for a pattern. <sup>18</sup>(For many are walking, of whom I have told you often and now tell you even weeping, as the enemies of the cross of Christ; <sup>19</sup>whose end is destruction, whose god is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, those who mind earthly things.) <sup>20</sup>For our citizenship is in Heaven, from which also we are looking for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>21</sup>who shall change our body of humiliation so that it may be fashioned like His glorious body, according to the working of His power, even to subdue all things to Himself.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, my brothers, ones loved and longed for, my joy and crown, stand fast in this way in the Lord, beloved ones. <sup>2</sup>I beg Euodia and Syntyche that they be of the same mind in the Lord. <sup>3</sup>And I also beg you, true yoke-fellow, help those women who labored in the gospel with me and with Clement, and others of my fellow-laborers, whose names are in the Book of Life.

<sup>4</sup>Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I say, Rejoice! <sup>5</sup>Let your moderation be known to all men. The Lord is at hand. <sup>6</sup>Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God. <sup>7</sup>And the peace of God which passes all understanding shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

<sup>8</sup>Finally, my brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things are honest, whatever things are right, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report — if there is any virtue and if there is any praise, think on these things. <sup>9</sup>Do those things which you have also learned and received and heard and seen in me. And the God of peace shall be with you.

<sup>10</sup>But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me has flourished again. Although you indeed did think, but you lacked opportunity. <sup>11</sup>Not that I speak according to need, for I have learned to be content in whatever state I am. <sup>12</sup>I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound. Everywhere and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. <sup>13</sup>I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. <sup>14</sup>Yet you did well in sharing my troubles.

<sup>15</sup>Now you Philippians know also that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as regards giving and receiving, except you alone. <sup>16</sup>For even in Thessalonica you sent once and again to my necessity. <sup>17</sup>I do not say this because I desire a gift, but I desire fruit that may abound to your account. <sup>18</sup>But I have all, and abound. I have been filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things which you sent, an odor of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable and well-pleasing to God.

<sup>19</sup>But my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. <sup>20</sup>Now unto God and our Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>21</sup>Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me greet you. <sup>22</sup>All the saints greet you, most of all those who are of Caesar's household. <sup>23</sup>May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

THE LETTER TO THE COLOSSIANS

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, <sup>2</sup>to the saints and faithful brothers in Christ who are at Colosse. Grace to you, and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, <sup>4</sup>since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which you have to all the saints, <sup>5</sup>for the hope which is laid up for you in Heaven, of which you heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel, <sup>6</sup>which has come to you as it has also in all the world, and it is bearing fruit, even also among you, since the day you heard and fully knew the grace of God in truth — <sup>7</sup>even as you learned from Epaphras our beloved fellow-servant, who is a faithful minister of Christ for you, <sup>8</sup>he also having shown your love in the Spirit to us.

<sup>9</sup>For this cause we also, since the day we heard, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that you might be filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding — <sup>10</sup>that you might walk worthy of the Lord to all pleasing, being fruitful in every work and increasing in the knowledge of God, <sup>11</sup>being empowered with all power, according to the might of His glory, to all patience and long suffering with joyfulness, <sup>12</sup>giving thanks to the Father, who has made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light. <sup>13</sup>For He has delivered us from the power of darkness and has translated us into the kingdom of His dear Son — <sup>14</sup>in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins. <sup>15</sup>who is the image of the invisible God, the Firstborn of all creation. <sup>16</sup>For all things were created by Him, the things in the heavens, and the things on the earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers — all things were created through Him and for Him.

<sup>17</sup>And He is before all things, and by Him all things consist. <sup>18</sup>And He is the head of the body, the church — who is the Beginning, the First-born from the dead — that He may be pre-eminent in all things. <sup>19</sup>For it pleased the Father that in Him all fullness should dwell. <sup>20</sup>And, having made peace through the blood of His cross, it pleased the Father to reconcile all things to Himself through Him, whether the things on earth or the things in Heaven.

<sup>21</sup>And you, who were once alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now He has reconciled <sup>22</sup>in the body of His flesh through death, to present you holy and without blame, and without charge in His sight, <sup>23</sup>if indeed you continue in the faith grounded and settled, and are not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which you have heard and which was proclaimed in all the creation under Heaven — of which I, Paul, became a minister.

<sup>24</sup>Now I rejoice in my sufferings for you, and I fill up the things lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh, for the sake of His body, which is the church — <sup>25</sup>of which I became a minister, according to the administration of God given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God — <sup>26</sup>the mystery which has been hidden from ages and from generations, but now has been revealed to His saints. <sup>27</sup>For to them God would make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the nations, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory, <sup>28</sup>whom we preach, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, so that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus. <sup>29</sup>For which I also labor, striving according to the working of Him who works in me in power.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>For I want you to know what a great conflict I have for you and those at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh — <sup>2</sup>that their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and to all riches of the full assurance of the understanding, to the knowledge of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ — <sup>3</sup>in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. <sup>4</sup>And I say this that not anyone should beguile you with enticing words. <sup>5</sup>For though I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in the spirit, rejoicing and beholding your order and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ. <sup>6</sup>Therefore as you have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, <sup>7</sup>rooted and built up in Him, and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving.

<sup>8</sup>Beware lest anyone rob you through philosophy and vain deceit, according to the tradition of men, according to the elements of the world, and not according to Christ. <sup>9</sup>For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily. <sup>10</sup>And you are complete in Him, who is the Head of all principality and power, <sup>11</sup>in whom also you are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ — <sup>12</sup>buried with Him in baptism, in whom also you were raised through the faith of the working of God, raising Him from the dead. <sup>13</sup>And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He has made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all trespasses, <sup>14</sup>blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and has taken it out of the way, nailing it to the cross. <sup>15</sup>Having stripped rulers and authorities, He made a show of them publicly, triumphing over them in it.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore let no man judge you in food or in drink, or in respect of a holy day, or of the new moon, or of the sabbaths. <sup>17</sup>For these are a shadow of things to come, but the body is of Christ. <sup>18</sup>Let no one defraud you, willing in humility and worship of the angels, intruding into things which he has not seen, without a cause being vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, <sup>19</sup>and not holding the Head, from whom all the body, having been supplied with the joints and bands, and having been joined together, will grow with the growth of God.

<sup>20</sup>If then you died with Christ from the elements of the world, why, as though living in the world, are you subject to its ordinances: <sup>21</sup>touch not, taste not, handle not — <sup>22</sup>which things are all for corruption in the using, according to the commands and doctrines of men? <sup>23</sup>These things indeed have a reputation of wisdom in will-worship and humility, and neglecting of the body, not in any honor for the satisfying of the flesh.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>If then you were raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ is sitting at the right hand of God. <sup>2</sup>Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. <sup>3</sup>For you died, and your life has been hidden with Christ in God. <sup>4</sup>When Christ our Life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with Him in glory.

<sup>5</sup>Therefore put to death your members which are on the earth: fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness (which is idolatry) — <sup>6</sup>for which things' sake the wrath of God is coming on the sons of disobedience. <sup>7</sup>Among whom you also once walked, when you lived in these. <sup>8</sup>But now also put off all these things: anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

<sup>9</sup>Do not lie to one another, having put off the old man with his deeds <sup>10</sup>and having put on the new, having been renewed in knowledge according to the image of Him who created him — <sup>11</sup>where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, foreigner, Scythian, slave or freeman — but Christ is all things in all.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, put on tender feelings of mercy, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering — <sup>13</sup>forbearing one another and forgiving one another, if anyone has a complaint against any. As Christ forgave you, so also you do. <sup>14</sup>And above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfectness. <sup>15</sup>And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which you also are called in one body, and be thankful.

<sup>16</sup>Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. <sup>17</sup>And everything, whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by Him.

<sup>18</sup>Wives, be subject to your own husbands, as is becoming in the Lord. <sup>19</sup>Husbands, love your wives, and do not be bitter against them. <sup>20</sup>Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well-pleasing to the Lord. <sup>21</sup>Fathers, do not provoke your children, lest they be discouraged. <sup>22</sup>Slaves, obey your masters according to the flesh in all things; not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing God. <sup>23</sup>And whatever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord and not to men; <sup>24</sup>knowing that from the Lord you shall receive the reward of the inheritance. For you serve the Lord Christ. <sup>25</sup>But he who does wrong shall receive justice for the wrong which he did, and there is no respect of persons.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>Masters, give to your slaves that which is just and equal, knowing that you also have a Master in Heaven. <sup>2</sup>Continue in prayer and watch in it with thanksgiving, <sup>3</sup>praying together about us also, that God may open to us a door of the word, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I also have been bound — <sup>4</sup>that I may make it clear, as I ought to speak. <sup>5</sup>Walk in wisdom toward those on the outside, redeeming the time. <sup>6</sup>Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how you ought to answer each one.

<sup>7</sup>Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful minister and fellow-servant in the Lord, will make known to you all things about me. <sup>8</sup>I sent him to you for this very purpose, that he might know the things about you, and that he might comfort your hearts, <sup>9</sup>along with Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known to you all things which are done here.

<sup>10</sup>Aristarchus my fellow prisoner greets you, and Mark, the cousin of Barnabas (regarding whom you received commandments; if he comes to you, receive him), <sup>11</sup>and Jesus, who is called Justus, those being of the circumcision. These alone are my fellow-workers for the kingdom of God, who became a comfort to me.

<sup>12</sup>Epaphras greets you, he being of you, a servant of Christ, always laboring fervently for you in prayers, that you may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God. <sup>13</sup>For I bear him record that he has a great zeal for you and for those who are in Laodicea and those in Hierapolis. <sup>14</sup>Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas, greet you. <sup>15</sup>Greet the brothers who are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the church in his house.

<sup>16</sup>And when this letter is read before you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans, and that you also read the letter of Laodicea. <sup>17</sup>And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which you have received in the Lord, that you fulfill it.

<sup>18</sup>The salutation of Paul, by my own hand. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

THE FIRST LETTER TO THE THESSALONIANS

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul and Silvanus and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians, which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ. Grace to you, and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>2</sup>We give thanks to God for you always, making mention of you in our prayers, <sup>3</sup>remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labor of love and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father — <sup>4</sup>knowing, beloved brothers, your election of God. <sup>5</sup>For our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit, and in much assurance — as you know what kind of men we were among you for your sake. <sup>6</sup>And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, welcoming the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit — <sup>7</sup>so that you were examples to all who believe in Macedonia and Achaia. <sup>8</sup>For from you the word of the Lord sounded out, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God has gone out, so that we do not need to speak anything. <sup>9</sup>For they themselves witness what kind of entrance we had to you, even how you turned from idols to God in order to serve the living and true God, <sup>10</sup>and to wait for His Son from Heaven (whom He raised from the dead), Jesus, who delivered us from the wrath to come.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>For, my brothers, you yourselves know our coming in to you, that it was not in vain. <sup>2</sup>But also suffering before, being insulted in Philippi, as you know, we were bold in our God to speak to you the gospel of God in much agony. <sup>3</sup>For our exhortation to you was not of error, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile, <sup>4</sup>but as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, even so we speak — not as pleasing men, but God, who tries our hearts. <sup>5</sup>For neither at any time did we use flattering words, as you know, nor with pretense of covetousness — God is witness — <sup>6</sup>nor did we seek glory from men, neither from you nor from others, being able to be so with heaviness, as apostles of Christ. <sup>7</sup>But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse warmly cherishes her children. <sup>8</sup>So affectionately longing for you, we were willing to have imparted to you, not only the gospel of God, but also our own souls, because you have become beloved to us.

<sup>9</sup>For, my brothers, you remember our labor and toil. For laboring night and day in order not to put a burden on any one of you, we preached the gospel of God to you. <sup>10</sup>You and God are witnesses how holily and justly and blamelessly we were to you who believe — <sup>11</sup>even as you know how we exhorted and comforted and testified to each one of you, as a father to his children, <sup>12</sup>that you should walk worthy of God, who has called you to His kingdom and glory.

<sup>13</sup>And for this cause we thank God without ceasing, that when you received the word of God which you heard from us, you welcomed it as the word of God, not as a word of men, but as it is, truly the word of God, which also effectually works in you who believe. <sup>14</sup>For you, my brothers, became imitators of the churches of God which are in Judea in Christ Jesus. For you also have suffered these things by your own countrymen, even as they also by the Jews — <sup>15</sup>who both killed the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, also driving us out and they do not please God and are contrary to all men, <sup>16</sup>forbidding us to speak to the nations that they might be saved, to fill up their sins always — but the wrath has come upon them to the uttermost.

<sup>17</sup>But, my brothers, when we were taken away from you for an hour's time (in presence, not in heart), we were much more eager with much desire to see your face. <sup>18</sup>Therefore we desired to come to you, truly I, Paul, both once and twice; but Satan hindered us. <sup>19</sup>For what is our hope or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are you not even to be in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at His coming? <sup>20</sup>For you are our glory and joy.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>Therefore when we could no longer endure, we were pleased to be left at Athens alone. <sup>2</sup>And we sent Timothy, our brother and minister of God, and our fellow laborer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you and to comfort you concerning your faith, <sup>3</sup>so that no one should be moved by these afflictions. For you yourselves know that we are appointed to them. <sup>4</sup>For truly, when we were with you, we told you before that we were going to suffer affliction — as it also happened, even you know.

<sup>5</sup>For this cause, when I could no longer endure, I also sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter may have tempted you and our labor may have been in vain. <sup>6</sup>But now when Timothy came from you to us and brought us good news of your faith and love, and that you have good remembrance of us always, desiring to see us (as we also you), <sup>7</sup>then, my brothers, we were comforted over you, through your faith, even in all our affliction and needs — <sup>8</sup>for now we live, if you stand fast in the Lord. <sup>9</sup>For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sakes before our God — <sup>10</sup>night and day praying exceedingly for me to see your face and to perfect the things lacking in your faith? <sup>11</sup>And may God Himself and our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ direct our way to you. <sup>12</sup>And may the Lord make you to increase and abound in love toward one another and toward all, even as we do toward you — <sup>13</sup>in order to establish your hearts blameless in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His saints.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>For the rest, then, my brothers, we beseech you and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that, as you have received from us how you ought to walk and to please God, so you would abound more and more. <sup>2</sup>For we know what commands we gave you by the Lord Jesus. <sup>3</sup>For this is the will of God, your sanctification, for you to abstain from fornication, <sup>4</sup>each one of you to know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honor <sup>5</sup>(not in the passion of lust, even as the nations who do not know God), <sup>6</sup>not to go beyond and defraud his brother in this matter (because the Lord is the avenger concerning all these, as we also have forewarned you and testified). <sup>7</sup>For God has not called us to uncleanness, but in sanctification. <sup>8</sup>Therefore he who despises does not despise man, but God, who also has given us His Holy Spirit.

<sup>9</sup>But regarding brotherly love, you do not need that I write to you, for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another. <sup>10</sup>And indeed you do it toward all the brothers who are in all Macedonia. But we beseech you, brothers, that you grow more and more, <sup>11</sup>and that you try earnestly to be quiet and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you — <sup>12</sup>so that you may walk becomingly toward those outside, and that you may lack nothing.

<sup>13</sup>But I would not have you ignorant, brothers, concerning those who are asleep, that you be not grieved, even as others who have no hope. <sup>14</sup>For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will also bring with Him all those who have fallen asleep through Jesus. <sup>15</sup>For we say this to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord shall not go before those who are asleep. <sup>16</sup>For the Lord Himself shall descend from Heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ shall rise first. <sup>17</sup>Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air. And so we shall ever be with the Lord. <sup>18</sup>Therefore comfort one another with these words.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>But of the times and the seasons, my brothers, you have no need that I write to you. <sup>2</sup>For you yourselves know accurately that the day of the Lord comes like a thief in the night. <sup>3</sup>For when they shall say, Peace and safety! Then sudden destruction comes on them, as travail upon a woman with child. And they shall not escape. <sup>4</sup>But you, brothers, are not in darkness, that the Day should overtake you like a thief. <sup>5</sup>You are all the sons of light and the sons of the day. We are not of the night, or of darkness. <sup>6</sup>Therefore let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us watch and be calm. <sup>7</sup>For those sleeping sleep in the night, and those being drunken are drunken in the night. <sup>8</sup>But let us, who are of the day, be calm, having put on the breastplate of faith and love and the hope of salvation for a helmet. <sup>9</sup>For God has not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>10</sup>who died for us, so that whether we watch or sleep we should live together with Him. <sup>11</sup>Therefore comfort one another, and edify one another, even as you also do.

<sup>12</sup>And, my brothers, we beseech you to know those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and who admonish you — <sup>13</sup>and to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. Be at peace among yourselves. <sup>14</sup>Now we exhort you, brothers, warn those who are unruly, comfort the fainthearted, support the weak, be patient toward all men. <sup>15</sup>See that none gives evil for evil to anyone, but always pursue the good, both towards one another and towards all. <sup>16</sup>Rejoice evermore. <sup>17</sup>Pray without ceasing. <sup>18</sup>In everything give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. <sup>19</sup>Do not quench the Spirit. <sup>20</sup>Do not despise prophesying. <sup>21</sup>Prove all things, hold fast to the good. <sup>22</sup>Abstain from every appearance of evil.

<sup>23</sup>And may the God of peace Himself sanctify you, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>24</sup>Faithful is He who called you, who also will do it.

<sup>25</sup>Brothers, pray for us. <sup>26</sup>Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss. <sup>27</sup>I charge you by the Lord that this letter be read to all the holy brothers. <sup>28</sup>May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

THE SECOND LETTER TO THE THESSALONIANS

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul and Silvanus and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>2</sup>Grace to you, and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>We are bound to thank God always for you, my brothers, as it is right, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of each one of you abounds toward one another — <sup>4</sup>so much so that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God, for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations which you endure. <sup>5</sup>For this is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God for which you also suffer — <sup>6</sup>since it is a righteous thing with God to repay tribulation to those who trouble you, <sup>7</sup>and to give rest with us to you who are troubled, at the revealing of the Lord Jesus from Heaven with the angels of His power — <sup>8</sup>in flaming fire taking vengeance on those who do not know God and who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ — <sup>9</sup>who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power, <sup>10</sup>when He shall come to be glorified in His saints and to be admired in all those who believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that Day. <sup>11</sup>Therefore we also pray always for you that our God would count you worthy of this calling and fulfill all the good pleasure of His goodness and the work of faith with power, <sup>12</sup>that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and you in Him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>Now we beseech you, my brothers, with regard to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering together to Him, <sup>2</sup>that you should not be soon shaken in mind or troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word or letter, as through us, as if the day of Christ is at hand. <sup>3</sup>Let not anyone deceive you by any means. For that Day shall not come unless there first comes a falling away, and the man of sin shall be revealed, the son of perdition — <sup>4</sup>who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called god, or that is worshiped, so that he sits as God in the temple of God, setting himself forth, that he is God. <sup>5</sup>Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you? <sup>6</sup>And now you know what holds him back, to the end that he might be revealed in his own time. <sup>7</sup>For the mystery of lawlessness is already working, until he who is now holding back is taken out of the midst. <sup>8</sup>And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the breath of His mouth and shall destroy with the brightness of His coming — <sup>9</sup>whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, <sup>10</sup>and with all deceit of unrighteousness in those who perish — because they did not receive the love of the truth, so that they might be saved. <sup>11</sup>And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie, <sup>12</sup>so that all those who do not believe the truth, but delight in unrighteousness, might be condemned.

<sup>13</sup>But we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brothers beloved of the Lord, because God has from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth — <sup>14</sup>to which He called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>15</sup>Therefore, my brothers, stand fast and hold the teachings which you have been taught, whether by word or by our letter.

<sup>16</sup>Now may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself, and God, even our Father, who has loved us and has given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, <sup>17</sup>comfort your hearts and establish you in every good word and work.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>Finally, my brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified, even as it is with you. <sup>2</sup>And pray that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men — for all men do not have faith. <sup>3</sup>But the Lord is faithful, who shall establish you and keep you from evil. <sup>4</sup>And we have confidence in the Lord regarding you, that you both do and will do the things which we command you. <sup>5</sup>And may the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patience of Christ.

<sup>6</sup>Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw yourselves from every brother who walks disorderly, and not after the teaching which he received from us. <sup>7</sup>For you yourselves know how you ought to follow us. For we did not behave ourselves disorderly among you, <sup>8</sup>neither did we eat any man's bread for nothing, but we worked with labor and travail night and day, so that we might not be chargeable to any of you <sup>9</sup>(not because we do not have power, but to make ourselves an example to you, to follow us). <sup>10</sup>For even when we were with you, we commanded you this, that if any man would not work, neither should he eat. <sup>11</sup>For we hear that there are some who walk disorderly among you, not working at all, but being busybodies. <sup>12</sup>Now we command and exhort those who are such, by our Lord Jesus Christ, that they work with quietness and eat their own bread. <sup>13</sup>But you, brothers, do not be weary in well-doing. <sup>14</sup>And if any man does not obey our word by this letter, mark that man and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed. <sup>15</sup>Yet do not count him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

<sup>16</sup>And may the Lord of peace Himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord bless you all. <sup>17</sup>The greeting of Paul by my own hand which is the sign in every letter, so I write. <sup>18</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

THE FIRST LETTER TO TIMOTHY

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ according to the command of God our Saviour, and of the Lord Jesus Christ, our hope, <sup>2</sup>to Timothy, my own son in the faith. Grace, mercy and peace from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

<sup>3</sup>Even as I begged you to remain at Ephesus, when I was going to Macedonia, that you might charge some that they teach no other doctrine, <sup>4</sup>nor to give heed to fables and endless genealogies (which provide doubts rather than a stewardship of God in faith). <sup>5</sup>But the end of the commandment is love out of a pure heart, and a good conscience, and faith unfeigned — <sup>6</sup>from which some, having swerved, have turned aside to foolish talking, <sup>7</sup>desiring to be teachers of the Law, yet neither understanding what they say nor that which they affirm. <sup>8</sup>But we know that the law is good if a man uses it lawfully — <sup>9</sup>knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous one, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, <sup>10</sup>for fornicators, for homosexuals, for slave-traders, for liars, for perjurers, and anything else that is contrary to sound doctrine — <sup>11</sup>according to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

<sup>12</sup>And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who strengthened me, because He counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry — <sup>13</sup>me, who before was a blasphemer and a persecutor and insolent. But I obtained mercy, because being ignorant, I did it in unbelief. <sup>14</sup>And the grace of our Lord was exceedingly abundant, with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup>This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief. <sup>16</sup>But for this cause I was shown mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show forth all longsuffering, as a pattern to those being about to believe on Him to life everlasting. <sup>17</sup>Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>18</sup>This charge I commit to you, my son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before about you — in order that you might war a good warfare by them, <sup>19</sup>holding faith and a good conscience, which some have put away and made shipwreck as to faith. <sup>20</sup>Among these are Hymeneus and Alexander, whom I have delivered to Satan so that they may learn not to blaspheme.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>First of all, then, I exhort that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men — <sup>2</sup>for kings and all who are in authority, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and reverence. <sup>3</sup>For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, <sup>4</sup>who will have all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. <sup>5</sup>For God is one, and there is one Mediator between God and man, the Man Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup>who gave Himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time. <sup>7</sup>To this I am ordained a preacher and an apostle (I speak the truth in Christ and do not lie), a teacher of the nations, in faith and truth.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore, I desire that men pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting. <sup>9</sup>In the same way also, I desire that women adorn themselves in decent clothing, with modesty and sensibleness, not adorned with braiding, or gold, or pearls, or costly clothing, <sup>10</sup>but with good works, which becomes women professing godliness.

<sup>11</sup>Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. <sup>12</sup>But I do not allow a woman to teach, or to exercise authority over a man, but to be in silence. <sup>13</sup>For Adam was first formed, then Eve. <sup>14</sup>And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression. <sup>15</sup>But she shall be saved through childbearing, if they continue in faith and love and holiness with sensibleness.

<sup>1</sup>Faithful is the word: If anyone reaches out to overseership, he desires a good work. <sup>2</sup>Then the overseer must be blameless, husband of one wife, temperate, sensible, modest, hospitable, apt to teach — <sup>3</sup>not a drinker, not quarrelsome, not greedy of ill gain, but gentle, not quarrelsome, not covetous — <sup>4</sup>ruling his own house well, having children in subjection with all honor. <sup>5</sup>(For if a man does not know how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?) — <sup>6</sup>not a novice, lest being puffed up he may fall into the condemnation of the Devil. <sup>7</sup>But he must also have a good report from those who are on the outside, lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the Devil.

<sup>8</sup>In the same way the deacons are to be reverent, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of ill gain, <sup>9</sup>having the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. <sup>10</sup>And let these also first be tested, then let them use the office of a deacon, being blameless. <sup>11</sup>Even so their wives are to be reverent, not slanderers, temperate, faithful in all things. <sup>12</sup>Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and households well. <sup>13</sup>For they having served well gain a good grade for themselves, and much boldness in the faith, those in Christ Jesus.

<sup>14</sup>I write these things to you, hoping to come to you shortly. <sup>15</sup>But if I should delay, that you may know how you ought to behave in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth. <sup>16</sup>And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen by angels, preached to the nations, believed on in the world, and received up into glory.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>The Spirit expressly says that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and teachings of demons, <sup>2</sup>speaking lies in hypocrisy, being seared in their own conscience, <sup>3</sup>forbidding to marry, saying to abstain from foods which God has created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. <sup>4</sup>For every creation of God is good, and nothing to be refused if it is received with thanksgiving. <sup>5</sup>For it is sanctified through the word of God and prayer.

<sup>6</sup>Having suggested these things to the brothers, you shall be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and by the good doctrine which you have followed. <sup>7</sup>But refuse profane and old-womanish tales, and exercise yourself to godliness. <sup>8</sup>For bodily exercise profits a little, but godliness is profitable to all things, having promise of the present life, and of that which is to come. <sup>9</sup>Faithful is the word, and worthy of all acceptance. <sup>10</sup>For to this we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the preserver of all men, especially of those who believe.

<sup>11</sup>Command and teach these things. <sup>12</sup>Let no one despise your youth, but be an example of the believers, in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity. <sup>13</sup>Until I come, attend to reading, to exhortation, to teaching. <sup>14</sup>Do not neglect the gift in you, which was given you by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the body of elders. <sup>15</sup>Meditate on these things; be in these things in order that your improvement may appear to all. <sup>16</sup>Hold on to yourself and to the doctrine; continue in them, for doing this you shall both save yourself and those who hear you.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>Do not sharply rebuke an elder, but exhort as a father, and the younger ones as brothers, <sup>2</sup>older women as mothers, the younger as sisters in all purity. <sup>3</sup>Honor widows who are widows indeed. <sup>4</sup>But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them first learn to be godly to their own house, and give back to their forebears what is due them — for that is good and pleasing before God. <sup>5</sup>But she being really a widow, and having been left alone, trusts on God and continues in supplications and prayers night and day. <sup>6</sup>But she who lives in self-pleasure has died while living.

<sup>7</sup>And command these things so that they may be blameless. <sup>8</sup>But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially his family, he has denied the faith and is worse than an infidel. <sup>9</sup>Do not let a widow be enrolled under sixty years old, the wife of one man, <sup>10</sup>well reported of for good works — if she brought up children, if she lodged strangers, if she washed the feet of the saints, if she relieved the afflicted, if she followed after every good work.

<sup>11</sup>But refuse younger widows, for whenever they grow lustful against Christ, they desire to marry; <sup>12</sup>having guilt because they have cast off the first faith. <sup>13</sup>And with it all they also learn to be idle, going around the houses — and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things they ought not. <sup>14</sup>Therefore I want the younger ones to marry, bear children, guide the house, giving no occasion to the adversary because of reproach. <sup>15</sup>For some have already turned aside after Satan. <sup>16</sup>If any believing man or believing woman has widows, let them relieve them, and do not let the church be charged, so that it may relieve those who are widows indeed.

<sup>17</sup>Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in word and teaching. <sup>18</sup>For the Scripture says, “You shall not muzzle the ox treading out grain,” and, “The laborer is worthy of his reward.”

<sup>19</sup>Do not receive an accusation against an elder except before two or three witnesses. <sup>20</sup>Those who sin, rebuke before all, so that the rest also may fear. <sup>21</sup>I charge you before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that you guard these things without prejudice, doing nothing by partiality.

<sup>22</sup>Do not lay hands quickly on anyone, neither be partaker of the sins of others. Keep yourself pure. <sup>23</sup>Drink water no longer, but use a little wine for your stomach’s sake, and for your many infirmities. <sup>24</sup>Some men’s sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment. And some follow after. <sup>25</sup>Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand, and those otherwise cannot be hidden.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>Let as many slaves as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, so that the name and teaching of God may not be blasphemed. <sup>2</sup>And those who have believing masters, let them not despise them because they are brothers. But rather let them serve, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit should “in return.” Teach and exhort these things.

<sup>3</sup>If anyone teaches otherwise, and does not consent to wholesome words (those of our Lord Jesus Christ), and to the doctrine according to godliness, <sup>4</sup>he is proud, knowing nothing. He is sick concerning doubts and arguments, from which comes envy, strife, evil speakings, evil suspicions, <sup>5</sup>meddling of men whose minds have been corrupted and deprived of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness.

Withdraw from such. <sup>6</sup>But godliness with contentment is great gain. <sup>7</sup>For we brought nothing into the world, and it is certain that we can carry nothing out. <sup>8</sup>But having food and clothing, we will be content. <sup>9</sup>But they who will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts which plunge men into death and destruction. <sup>10</sup>For the love of money is a root of all evils, of which some having lusted after, they were seduced from the faith and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

<sup>11</sup>But you, O man of God, flee these things and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, and meekness. <sup>12</sup>Fight the good fight of faith. Lay hold on eternal life, to which you are also called and have professed a good profession before many witnesses. <sup>13</sup>I charge you before God (who makes all things alive) and in the sight of Christ Jesus (who witnessed the good confession before Pontius Pilate), <sup>14</sup>that you keep the commandment without spot and without blame until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>15</sup>For He in His own time will reveal who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings and Lord of lords — <sup>16</sup>who alone has immortality, dwelling in light which cannot be approached, whom no one of men have seen, nor can see — to whom be honor and power everlasting. Amen.

<sup>17</sup>Charge the rich in this world that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, He offering to us richly all things to enjoy — <sup>18</sup>that they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to share, to be generous, — <sup>19</sup>laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

<sup>20</sup>O Timothy, guard the Deposit, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and opposing the theories of falsely-named science, <sup>21</sup>which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with you. Amen.

THE SECOND LETTER TO TIMOTHY

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus, <sup>2</sup>to Timothy, my dearly beloved child. Grace, mercy, peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>3</sup>I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I remember you in my prayers night and day, <sup>4</sup>greatly desiring to see you, being mindful of your tears, so that I may be filled with joy, — <sup>5</sup>taking recollection of the unfeigned faith that is in you, which first dwelt in your grandmother Lois, and in your mother Eunice. And I am persuaded that it is in you also. <sup>6</sup>Therefore I remind you to inflame anew the gift of God, which is in you by the putting on of my hands. <sup>7</sup>For God has not given us the spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me His prisoner. But be partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God, <sup>9</sup>who has saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace which was given us in Christ Jesus before the eternal times. <sup>10</sup>But it is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who has made death of no effect, bringing life and immortality to light through the gospel — <sup>11</sup>to which I am appointed a preacher and an apostle and a teacher of the nations.

<sup>12</sup>For this cause I also suffer these things; but I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed to Him against that Day. <sup>13</sup>Hold fast the pattern of sound words which you have heard from me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. <sup>14</sup>Guard the good deposit given through the Holy Spirit indwelling in us.

<sup>15</sup>This you know, that all those in Asia have turned away from me, of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes. <sup>16</sup>May the Lord give mercy to the house of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chain. <sup>17</sup>But when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently and found me. <sup>18</sup>May the Lord grant to him that he may find mercy from the Lord in that Day. And in how many things he ministered to me at Ephesus, you know very well.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup>And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit the same to faithful men who will be able to teach others also. <sup>3</sup>Therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup>No one who wars tangles with the affairs of this life, that he may please him who chose him to be a soldier. <sup>5</sup>And also if anyone competes, he is not crowned unless he competes lawfully. <sup>6</sup>It is right that the laboring farmer partake first of the fruits. <sup>7</sup>Consider what I say, and the Lord will give you understanding in all things.

<sup>8</sup>Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel — <sup>9</sup>in which I suffer ill as an evildoer, even to bonds. But the word of God is not chained. <sup>10</sup>Therefore I endure all things for the sake of the elect, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. <sup>11</sup>Faithful is the word, for if we are dead with Him, we shall also live with Him. <sup>12</sup>If we suffer, we shall also reign with Him. If we deny Him, He also will deny us. <sup>13</sup>If we do not believe Him, yet He remains faithful — He cannot deny Himself.

<sup>14</sup>Put them in memory of these things, charging them before the Lord not to dispute about words to no profit, to the subverting of the hearers. <sup>15</sup>Study earnestly to show yourself approved to God, a workman that does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth. <sup>16</sup>But shun profane, vain babblings, for they will increase to more ungodliness. <sup>17</sup>And their word will eat like a gangrene — among whom is Hymeneus and Philetus, <sup>18</sup>who have erred concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection is already past, and who overthrow the faith of some. <sup>19</sup>Nevertheless the foundation of God stands sure, having this seal: “The Lord knew those who are His.” And, “Let everyone who names the name of Christ depart from iniquity!”

<sup>20</sup>But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth — and some to honor, and some to dishonor. <sup>21</sup>Therefore if anyone purges himself from these, he shall be a vessel to honor, sanctified and useful to the Master, prepared for every good work. <sup>22</sup>But flee youthful lusts, and follow righteousness, faith, love, peace, with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart. <sup>23</sup>But avoid foolish and unlearned questions, knowing that they give birth to strifes. <sup>24</sup>But the servant of the Lord must not strive, but to be gentle to all, apt to teach, patient — <sup>25</sup>in meekness instructing those who opposing, if perhaps God will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth, <sup>26</sup>and that they awake out of the snare of the devil, so as to do the will of that one.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>Know this also, that in the last days grievous times will be. <sup>2</sup>For men will be self-lovers, money-lovers, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, <sup>3</sup>without natural affection, unyielding, false accusers, without self-control, savage, despisers of good, <sup>4</sup>traitors, reckless, puffed up, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God — <sup>5</sup>having a form of godliness, but denying the power of it; even turn away from these. <sup>6</sup>For of these are those who creep into houses and lead captive silly women loaded with sins, led away with different kinds of lusts, <sup>7</sup>ever learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. <sup>8</sup>But as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so these also resist the truth — men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith. <sup>9</sup>But they shall proceed no further. For their foolishness shall be plain to all, as theirs also became.

<sup>10</sup>But you have fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, love, patience, <sup>11</sup>persecutions, afflictions, such as happened to me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra. What persecutions I endured! But the Lord delivered me out of all. <sup>12</sup>Yea, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. <sup>13</sup>But evil men and seducers will go forward to worse, deceiving and being deceived. <sup>14</sup>But continue in the things that you have learned and have been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them, <sup>15</sup>and that from a babe you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise to salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>16</sup>All Scripture is given by inspiration of God and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, <sup>17</sup>that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished to every good work.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>Therefore I solemnly witness before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the living and the dead according to His appearance and His kingdom — <sup>2</sup>preach the word, be instant in season and out of season, reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine. <sup>3</sup>For the time will be when they will not endure sound doctrine, but they will heap up teachers to themselves according to their own lusts, tickling the ear. <sup>4</sup>And they will turn away their ears from the truth and will be turned to myths.

<sup>5</sup>But you watch in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, “fully carry out your ministry.” <sup>6</sup>For I am already being poured out, and the time of my release is here. <sup>7</sup>I have fought a good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith. <sup>8</sup>Now there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day – and not to me only, but also to all those who love His appearing.

<sup>9</sup>Make haste to come to me quickly. <sup>10</sup>For Demas has forsaken me, having loved this present world, and he has departed to Thessalonica. Crescens went to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. <sup>11</sup>Only Luke is with me. Take Mark and bring him with you, for he is profitable to me for the ministry. <sup>12</sup>And I sent Tychicus to Ephesus. <sup>13</sup>When you come, bring the cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus, and the books, especially the parchments. <sup>14</sup>Alexander the coppersmith showed many evil things to me. The Lord will give to him according to his works. <sup>15</sup>You also should beware of him, for he has greatly withstood our words.

<sup>16</sup>At my first answer no one was beside me, but all deserted me. May it not be laid to their charge. <sup>17</sup>But the Lord stood with me and strengthened me, that through me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the nations might hear. And I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. <sup>18</sup>And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work and will preserve me for His heavenly kingdom – to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

THE LETTER TO TITUS

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ (according to the faith of God's elect, in the acknowledging of the truth which is according to godliness — <sup>2</sup>on hope of eternal life, which God, who cannot lie, promised before the eternal times, <sup>3</sup>but revealed in its own times in a proclamation of His word, with which I was entrusted by the command of God our Saviour, <sup>4</sup>to Titus, a true child according to our common faith. Grace mercy and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

<sup>5</sup>For this cause I left you in Crete, that you should set in order the things that are lacking and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed you <sup>6</sup>if anyone is blameless, husband of one wife, having believing children, not accused of loose behavior, or unruly. <sup>7</sup>For an overseer must be blameless, as a steward of God — not self-willed, not full of passion, not given to wine, not quarrelsome, not greedy for ill gain; <sup>8</sup>but hospitable, a lover of good, discreet, just, holy, temperate <sup>9</sup>holding fast the faithful word according to the doctrine, that he may be able, by sound doctrine, both to exhort and to convict the gainsayers.

<sup>10</sup>For there are indeed many unruly men, vain talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, <sup>11</sup>whose mouth you must stop, who subvert whole houses, teaching things not right for the sake of ill gain. <sup>12</sup>One of them, a prophet of their own, said, Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons. <sup>13</sup>This witness is true; for which cause convict them sharply, so that they may be sound in the faith — <sup>14</sup>not giving heed to Jewish myths and commandments of men, turning away from the truth. <sup>15</sup>To the pure all things are pure. But to those who are defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure, but even their mind and conscience is defiled. <sup>16</sup>They profess that they know God, but in their works they deny Him, being abominable and disobedient and reprobate to every good work.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>But you speak the things which become sound doctrine: <sup>2</sup>aged men to be temperate, sensible, discreet, sound in faith, in love, in patience. <sup>3</sup>Let the aged women likewise be in reverent behavior, not slanderers, not enslaved by much wine, teachers of good; <sup>4</sup>that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, <sup>5</sup>to be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, subject to their own husbands, that the word of God may not be blasphemed. <sup>6</sup>Likewise exhort the young men to be discreet; <sup>7</sup>In all things having shown yourself a pattern of good works: in doctrine, purity, sensibleness, without corruption; <sup>8</sup>in sound speech that cannot be condemned, that he who is opposed may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

<sup>9</sup>Slaves are to be obedient to their masters, to please them well in all things, not talking back, <sup>10</sup>not stealing, but showing all good faith, so that they may adorn the teaching of God our Saviour in all things. <sup>11</sup>For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men, <sup>12</sup>teaching us that having denied ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live discreetly, righteously and godly, in this present world — <sup>13</sup>looking for the blessed hope, and the glorious appearance of our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ — <sup>14</sup>who gave Himself for us that He might redeem us from all iniquity and purify to Himself a special people, zealous of good works. <sup>15</sup>Speak these things, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no one despise you.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>Put them in mind to be subject to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready to every good work, <sup>2</sup>to speak evil of no one, not being quarrelsome, but forbearing, showing all meekness to all men. <sup>3</sup>For we ourselves also were once foolish, disobedient, deceived, slaving for various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, hating one another. <sup>4</sup>But when the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, <sup>5</sup>not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, <sup>6</sup>which He poured out on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour, <sup>7</sup>that being justified by His grace, we should become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

<sup>8</sup>Faithful is the word, and as to these things, I desire that you strongly affirm that those believing God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men. <sup>9</sup>But avoid foolish questions and genealogies and contentions, and strivings about the Law, for they are unprofitable and vain. <sup>10</sup>After the first and second warning, reject a man of heresy, <sup>11</sup>knowing that he who is such has been perverted, and sins, being self-condemned.

<sup>12</sup>When I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, hasten to come to me at Nicopolis — for I have determined to winter there. <sup>13</sup>Diligently set forward Zenas the lawyer, and Apollos, that nothing may be lacking to them. <sup>14</sup>And let ours also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, so that they may not be unfruitful.

<sup>15</sup>All those with me greet you. Greet those who love us in the faith. May grace be with you all. Amen.

THE LETTER TO PHILEMON

<sup>1</sup>Paul, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon the beloved and fellow-laborer, <sup>2</sup>and to Apphia the beloved, and to Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to the church in your house. <sup>3</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup>I thank my God, making mention of you always in my prayers, <sup>5</sup>hearing of your love and faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus and toward all saints, <sup>6</sup>that the fellowship of your faith may operate in a full knowledge of every good thing in you in Christ Jesus. <sup>7</sup>For we have great joy and consolation over your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed by you, brother.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore, having much boldness in Christ to enjoin you to do the fitting thing — <sup>9</sup>rather through love I entreat, being such a one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ — <sup>10</sup>I entreat you for my child Onesimus, whom I have fathered in my bonds, <sup>11</sup>he once worthless to you, but now useful to you and to me; whom I sent back to you. <sup>12</sup>Even receive him, that is, my own heart, <sup>13</sup>whom I resolved to retain with me, so that for you he might have ministered to me in the bonds of the gospel. <sup>14</sup>But without your consent I was willing to do nothing, that your good should not be of necessity, but willingly. <sup>15</sup>For perhaps because of this he was separated from you for an hour, that you should receive him eternally — <sup>16</sup>not now as a slave, but beyond a slave, a beloved brother, especially to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

<sup>17</sup>If then you have me as a partner, receive him as me. <sup>18</sup>If he has wronged you or owes you in anything, put that on my account. <sup>19</sup>I, Paul, wrote it with my own hand; I will repay — that I do not say to you that you owe even yourself to me also. <sup>20</sup>Yes, brother, that I may have your help in the Lord, refresh my heart in the Lord. <sup>21</sup>Trusting to your obedience, I wrote to you, knowing that you will do even beyond what I say. <sup>22</sup>But at once prepare lodging for me, for I hope that through your prayers I shall be given to you.

<sup>23</sup>Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you, <sup>24</sup>and also Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, Luke, my fellow-laborers. <sup>25</sup>May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

THE LETTER TO THE HEBREWS

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>God, who at many times and in many ways spoke in time past to the fathers by the prophets, <sup>2</sup>has in these last days spoken to us by His Son, whom He has appointed heir of all things, by whom also He made the worlds — <sup>3</sup>who being the shining splendor of His glory, and the express image of His essence, and upholding all things by the word of His power, having made purification of our sins, He sat down on the right of the Majesty on high — <sup>4</sup>being made so much better than the angels, as He has by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

<sup>5</sup>For to which of the angels did He say at any time, “You are My Son, this day I have begotten Thee?” And again, “I will be to Him a Father, and He shall be to Me a Son?” <sup>6</sup>And again, when He brings in the First-born into the world, He says, “And let all the angels of God worship Him.” <sup>7</sup>And of the angels He says, “Who makes His angels spirits and His ministers a flame of fire.” <sup>8</sup>But to the Son He says, “Your throne, O God, is forever and ever. A scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Your kingdom. <sup>9</sup>You have loved righteousness and hated iniquity, therefore God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of gladness above Your fellows.” <sup>10</sup>And, “You, Lord, have laid the foundation of the earth in the beginning, and the heavens are the works of Your hands. <sup>11</sup>They shall perish, but You will remain. And they shall all become old as a garment, <sup>12</sup>and as a covering You shall fold them up, and they shall be changed. But You are the same, and Your years shall not fail.” <sup>13</sup>But to which of the angels, did He say at any time, “Sit on My right hand until I make Your enemies Your footstool?” <sup>14</sup>Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for those who shall be heirs of salvation?

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip. <sup>2</sup>For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and if every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward, <sup>3</sup>how shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation — which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by those who heard Him — <sup>4</sup>God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with different kinds of miracles and gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to His own will?

<sup>5</sup>For He has not put the world to come, of which we speak, in subjection to the angels. <sup>6</sup>But one testified in a certain place, saying, “What is man, that You are mindful of him? or the son of man, that You visit him?” <sup>7</sup>You have made him a little lower than the angels. You crowned him with glory and honor and set him over the works of Your hands. <sup>8</sup>You have put all things in subjection under his feet.” For in that He put all in subjection under him, He left nothing that is not put under him. But now we do not see all things put under him. <sup>9</sup>But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honor, that He by the grace of God should taste death for every son. <sup>10</sup>For it became Him, for whom are all things and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons into glory, to make the Captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings. <sup>11</sup>For both He who sanctifies and they who are sanctified are all of One — for which cause He is not ashamed to call them brothers, <sup>12</sup>saying, “I will declare Your name to My brothers; in the midst of the church I will sing praise to Thee.”<sup>13</sup> And again, “I will put My trust in Him.” And again, “Behold Me and the children whom God has given Me.”

<sup>14</sup>Since then the children have partaken of flesh and blood, He also Himself likewise partook of the same — that through death He might destroy him who had the power of death (that is, the devil),<sup>15</sup> and deliver those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.<sup>16</sup> For truly He did not take the nature of angels, but He took hold of the seed of Abraham.<sup>17</sup> Therefore in all things it behoved him to be made like His brothers, that He might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of His people.<sup>18</sup> For in that He Himself has suffered, being tempted, He is able to rescue those who are being tempted.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, holy brothers, called to be partakers of the heavenly, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus,<sup>2</sup> who was faithful to Him who appointed Him, as Moses also was faithful in all his house.<sup>3</sup> For He was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, because he who has built the house has more honor than the house.<sup>4</sup> For every house is built by someone, but He who built all things is God.<sup>5</sup> And Moses truly was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken afterward.<sup>6</sup> But Christ was faithful as a Son over his own house — whose house we are, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm to the end.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says, “Today if you will hear His voice,<sup>8</sup> do not harden your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness,<sup>9</sup> when your fathers tempted Me, proved Me, and saw My works forty years.<sup>10</sup> Therefore I was grieved with that generation and said, They always err in their heart, and they have not known My ways.<sup>11</sup> So I swore in My wrath, They shall not enter into My rest.”

<sup>12</sup>Take heed, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.<sup>13</sup> But exhort one another daily, while it is called today, lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.<sup>14</sup> For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast to the end,<sup>15</sup> while it is said, “Today if you will hear His voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.”<sup>16</sup> For some, when they had heard, did provoke — however, not all who came out of Egypt by Moses.<sup>17</sup> But with whom was He grieved forty years? Was it not with those who had sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness?<sup>18</sup> And to whom did He swear that they should not enter into His rest, but to those who did not believe?<sup>19</sup> So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, a promise being left to enter into His rest, let us fear lest any of you should seem to come short of it.<sup>2</sup> For the gospel was preached to us, as well as to them. But the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard it.<sup>3</sup> For we who have believed do enter into the rest, as He said, “I have sworn in My wrath that they should not enter into My rest” — although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.<sup>4</sup> For He spoke in a certain place of the seventh day in this way: “And God rested the seventh day from all His works.”<sup>5</sup> And in this place again, “They shall not enter into My rest.”

<sup>6</sup>Since then it remains that some must enter into it, and since they to whom it was first preached did not enter in because of unbelief,<sup>7</sup> He again marks out a certain day, saying in David, “Today,” (after so long a time). Even as it is said,

“Today, if you will hear His voice, harden not your hearts.” <sup>8</sup>For if Joshua had given them rest, then He would not afterward have spoken of another day. <sup>9</sup>So then there remains a rest to the people of God. <sup>10</sup>For he who has entered into his rest, he also has ceased from his own works, as God did from His.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore let us labor to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief. <sup>12</sup>For the word of God is living and powerful and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing apart of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. <sup>13</sup>Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in His sight, but all things are naked and opened to the eyes of Him with whom we have to do. <sup>14</sup>Since then we have a great High Priest who has passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. <sup>15</sup>For we do not have a high priest who cannot be touched with the feelings of our infirmities, but was in all points tempted just as we are, yet without sin. <sup>16</sup>Therefore let us come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in the things pertaining to God, so that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins — <sup>2</sup>who can have compassion on the ignorant and on those who are out of the way. For he himself also is compassed with infirmity. <sup>3</sup>And because of this he should, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins. <sup>4</sup>And no man takes this honor to himself, but he who is called of God, as Aaron was. <sup>5</sup>So also Christ did not glorify Himself to be made a high priest, but He who said to Him, “You are My Son, today I have begotten Thee.” <sup>6</sup>As he says also in another place, “You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.”

<sup>7</sup>For Jesus, in the days of His flesh, when He had offered up prayers and supplications with strong cryings and tears to Him who was able to save Him from death, and was heard in that He feared — <sup>8</sup>though being a Son, yet He learned obedience by the things which He suffered. <sup>9</sup>And being made perfect, He became the Author of eternal salvation to all those who obey Him, <sup>10</sup>being called by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek — <sup>11</sup>of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be explained since you are dull of hearing.

<sup>12</sup>For indeed because of the time, you ought to be teachers, you have need that one teach you again what are the first principles of the oracles of God. And you have become in need of milk, and not of solid food. <sup>13</sup>For everyone who uses milk is unskillful in the word of righteousness, for he is an infant. <sup>14</sup>But solid food belongs to those who are of full age, even those who because of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, leaving the discourse of the beginning of Christ, let us go on to full growth — not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, <sup>2</sup>of the baptisms, of teaching, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. <sup>3</sup>And this we will do, if God permits.

<sup>4</sup>For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit, <sup>5</sup>and have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the world to come, <sup>6</sup>and who have fallen away — it is impossible, I say, to renew them again to repentance, since they crucify the Son of God afresh to themselves and put Him to an open shame. <sup>7</sup>(For the earth which drinks in the rain that comes often upon it, and brings forth plants fit for those by whom it is dressed, receives blessing from God. <sup>8</sup>But that which bears thorns and briers is rejected and is near cursing, whose end is to be burned.) <sup>9</sup>But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you and things that accompany salvation, though we speak in this way. <sup>10</sup>For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labor of love which you have shown toward His name, in that you have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

<sup>11</sup>And we desire that every one of you show the same diligence to the full assurance of hope to the end — <sup>12</sup>that you be not slothful, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

<sup>13</sup>For when God made promise to Abraham, because He could swear by no greater, He swore by Himself, <sup>14</sup>saying, Surely in blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply you. <sup>15</sup>And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise. <sup>16</sup>For men truly swear by the greater, and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife. <sup>17</sup>In this way God, willing more abundantly to show to the heirs of promise the immutability of His counsel, confirmed it by an oath — <sup>18</sup>so that by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us — <sup>19</sup>which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which enters into that within the veil, <sup>20</sup>where the Forerunner has entered for us, even Jesus, having become a high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>For this Melchizedek, who was king of Salem and priest of the most high God, met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him. <sup>2</sup>To him Abraham also gave a tenth part of all. He was first by interpretation king of righteousness, and after that also king of Salem, which is king of peace — <sup>3</sup>without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God, he remains a priest continually.

<sup>4</sup>Now consider how great this man was, to whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils. <sup>5</sup>And truly they who are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priest, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the Law — that is, from their brothers, though they come out of the loins of Abraham. <sup>6</sup>But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes from Abraham and blessed him who had the promises. <sup>7</sup>And without all contradiction the lesser is blessed by the better. <sup>8</sup>And here men who die receive tithes; but there he receives them, of whom it is witnessed that he lives. <sup>9</sup>And if I may say so, Levi, also, who receives tithes, paid tithes in Abraham. <sup>10</sup>For he was still in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met him.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore if perfection were by the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the Law), what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchizedek, and not be called after the order of Aaron? <sup>12</sup>For the priesthood being changed, there is of necessity a change made in the law also. <sup>13</sup>For He of whom these things are spoken belongs to another tribe, from which no man gave attendance at the altar. <sup>14</sup>For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Judah, of which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood. <sup>15</sup>And it is still far more evident, since there arises a different priest after the likeness of Melchizedek, <sup>16</sup>who is made, not according to the law of a fleshly commandment, but according to the power of an endless life. <sup>17</sup>For He testifies, “You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.”

<sup>18</sup>For truly there is a putting away of the commandment which went before, because of the weakness and unprofitableness of it. <sup>19</sup>For the Law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did — by which we draw near to God. <sup>20</sup>And inasmuch as He was not made priest without an oath <sup>21</sup>for those priests were made without an oath, but this one was made with an oath by Him who said to Him, “The Lord swore and will not repent, You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek” — <sup>22</sup>by so much was Jesus made a surety of a better covenant. <sup>23</sup>And they truly were many priests, because they were not allowed to continue because of death — <sup>24</sup>but this One, because He continues forever, has an unchangeable priesthood. <sup>25</sup>Therefore He is able also to save to the uttermost those who come unto God by Him, since He ever lives to make intercession for them. <sup>26</sup>For such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners and made higher than the heavens — <sup>27</sup>who does not need, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice daily, first for his own sins and then for the people’s sins. For He did this once for all, when He offered up Himself. <sup>28</sup>For the Law makes men high priests who have infirmity, but the word of the swearing of an oath, after the Law, has consecrated the Son forever, having been perfected.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>Now the sum of the things which we have spoken is this: We have such a High Priest, who has sat down on the right of the throne of the Majesty in Heaven, <sup>2</sup>a Minister of the sanctuary and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

<sup>3</sup>For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices. Therefore it is necessary that this One have something to offer also. <sup>4</sup>For if He were on earth, He would not be a priest, since there are priests who offer gifts according to the Law, <sup>5</sup>who serve the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was warned of God when he was about to make the tabernacle. For, He says “See that you make all things according to the pattern shown to you in the mountain.”

<sup>6</sup>But now He has obtained a more excellent ministry, by so much He is also the Mediator of a better covenant, which was built upon better promises. <sup>7</sup>For if that first covenant had been without fault, then no place would have been sought for the second. <sup>8</sup>For finding fault with them, He said to them, “Behold, days are coming, says the Lord, and I will make an end on the house of Israel and on the house of Judah — a new covenant shall be, <sup>9</sup>not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day I took hold of their hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt,” because they did not continue in My covenant, and I did not regard of them, says the Lord. <sup>10</sup>“For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord — I will put My laws into their mind and write them in their hearts, and I will be their God, and they shall be My people. <sup>11</sup>And they shall not each man teach his neighbor, and each man his brother, saying, Know the Lord — for all shall know Me, from the least to the greatest. <sup>12</sup>For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities I will remember no more.”

<sup>13</sup>In that He says, A “new” covenant, He has made the first one old. Now that which decays and becomes old is ready to vanish away.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>Then truly the first tabernacle had also ordinances of divine service and an earthly sanctuary. <sup>2</sup>For the first tabernacle was prepared, in which was both the lampstand, and the table, and the setting out of the loaves, which is called holy. <sup>3</sup>And after the second veil was a tabernacle which is called the Holy of Holies, <sup>4</sup>having a golden altar of incense, and the ark of the covenant overlaid all around with gold, in which was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron’s rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant. <sup>5</sup>And over it were the cherubs of glory overshadowing the mercy-seat — about which we cannot now speak piece by piece. <sup>6</sup>Now when these things were ordained in this way, the priests always went into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God. <sup>7</sup>But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself and for the errors of the people — <sup>8</sup>the Holy Spirit signifying by this that the way into the Holiest of all was not yet made manifest while the first tabernacle was still standing. <sup>9</sup>For it was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices that could not make him who did the service perfect as regards the conscience <sup>10</sup>which stood only in meats and drinks, and different kinds of washings and fleshly ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

<sup>11</sup>But when Christ had become a high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building <sup>12</sup>not by the blood of goats and calves, but by His own blood He entered once for all into the Holy of Holies, having obtained eternal redemption for us. <sup>13</sup>For if the blood of bulls and of goats and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean sanctifies to the purifying of the flesh, <sup>14</sup>how much more shall the blood of Christ (who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself unto God) purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

<sup>15</sup>And for this cause He is the Mediator of the new covenant, so that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first covenant, those who are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

<sup>16</sup>For where a covenant is, the death of him covenanting must be offered. <sup>17</sup>For a covenant is affirmed over those dead, since it never has force when the covenanting one is living. <sup>18</sup>From which we see that neither was the first covenant dedicated without blood. <sup>19</sup>For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the Law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, <sup>20</sup>saying, “This is the blood of the testament which God has enjoined to you.”

<sup>21</sup>Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry. <sup>22</sup>And almost all things are by the law purged with blood, and without shedding of blood is no remission. <sup>23</sup>Therefore it was necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these, but the heavenly things themselves were purified with better sacrifices than these.

<sup>24</sup>For Christ has not entered into the Holy of Holies made with hands, which are the figures of the true — but into Heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us. <sup>25</sup>Nor yet that He should offer Himself often, as the high priest enters into the holy place every year with the blood of others <sup>26</sup>(for then He must have suffered often since the foundation of the world), but now once in the end of the world He has appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself. <sup>27</sup>And as it is appointed to men once to die, but after this the judgment, <sup>28</sup>so Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many. And to those who look for Him He shall appear the second time without sin to salvation.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>For the Law which has a shadow of good things to come, not the very image of the things, appearing year by year with the same sacrifices, which they offer continually, they are never able to perfect those drawing near. <sup>2</sup>For then would they not have ceased to be offered? Because the worshippers, when they had been once for all purged, would have had no more conscience of sin. <sup>3</sup>But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again of sins every year. <sup>4</sup>For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

<sup>5</sup>Therefore when He comes into the world, He says, "Sacrifice and offering You did not desire, but You have prepared a body for Me. <sup>6</sup>In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin You have had no pleasure. <sup>7</sup>Then I said, Lo, I come (in the volume of the Book it is written of Me) to do Your will, O God."

<sup>8</sup>Above, when He said, "Sacrifice and offering, and burnt offerings and offering for sin You did not desire, neither did You have pleasure in them" (which are offered by the Law), <sup>9</sup>then He said, "Lo, I come to do Your will, O God." He takes away the first so that He may establish the second. <sup>10</sup>By this will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

<sup>11</sup>And every priest stands daily ministering and offering often the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. <sup>12</sup>But this Man, after He had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down on the right of God, <sup>13</sup>from then on expecting until His enemies are made His footstool. <sup>14</sup>For by one offering He has perfected forever those who are sanctified. <sup>15</sup>The Holy Spirit also is a witness to us; for after He had said before, <sup>16</sup>"This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord; I will put My laws into their hearts, and in their minds I will write them," <sup>17</sup>and, "their sins and their iniquities I will remember no more." <sup>18</sup>Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

<sup>19</sup>Therefore, my brothers, having boldness to enter into the Holiest by the blood of Jesus, <sup>20</sup>by a new and living way which He has consecrated for us through the veil, that is to say, His flesh — <sup>21</sup>and having a High Priest over the house of God — <sup>22</sup>let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. <sup>23</sup>Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering (for He is faithful who promised), <sup>24</sup>and let us consider one another to provoke to love and to good works — <sup>25</sup>not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching.

<sup>26</sup>For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more sacrifice for sins, <sup>27</sup>but a certain fearful looking for judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries. <sup>28</sup>He who despised Moses' law died without mercy on the word of two or three witnesses. <sup>29</sup>Of how much worse punishment, do you suppose, shall he be thought worthy who has trodden underfoot the Son of God, and who has counted the blood of the covenant, with which he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and has insulted the Spirit of grace? <sup>30</sup>For we know Him who has said, "Vengeance belongs to Me, I will repay, says the Lord." And again, "The Lord shall judge His people." <sup>31</sup>It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

<sup>32</sup>But call to memory the former days, in which (after you were illuminated) you endured a great fight of afflictions — <sup>33</sup>partly being exposed both by reproaches and afflictions, and partly while you became companions of those who were so used. <sup>34</sup>For you both sympathized with my bonds and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that you have in Heaven a better and an enduring substance. <sup>35</sup>Therefore do not cast away your confidence, which has great recompense of reward. <sup>36</sup>For you have need of patience, so that after you have done the will of God you might receive the promise. <sup>37</sup>For yet a little while, and He who shall come will come and will not delay. <sup>38</sup>Now, "the Just shall live by faith. But if he draws back, My soul shall have no pleasure in him." <sup>39</sup>But we are not of those who draw back to destruction, but of those who believe to the saving of the soul.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. <sup>2</sup>For by it the elders obtained a good report. <sup>3</sup>Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by a word of God, so that the things seen should not have come into being out of the things that appear.

<sup>4</sup>By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts. And by it he, being dead, yet speaks. <sup>5</sup>By faith Enoch was translated so as not to see death, and he was not found, because God had translated him — for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God. <sup>6</sup>But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.

<sup>7</sup>By faith Noah, being warned by God of things not yet seen, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house, by which he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith. <sup>8</sup>By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out into a place which he was afterward going to receive for an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he went. <sup>9</sup>By faith he lived in the land of promise as in a strange country, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs of the same promise with him. <sup>10</sup>For he looked for a city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

<sup>11</sup>Through faith also Sarah herself received strength to conceive seed and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged Him who had promised to be faithful. <sup>12</sup>Therefore there sprang even from one, and him as good as dead, as many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as innumerable as the sand which is by the seashore.

<sup>13</sup>These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off. And they were persuaded of them and embraced them and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. <sup>14</sup>For they who say such things declare plainly that they seek a fatherland. <sup>15</sup>And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from which they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned. <sup>16</sup>But now they stretch forth to a better fatherland, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them.

<sup>17</sup>By faith Abraham, being tested, offered up Isaac. And he who had received the promises offered up his only-begotten son, <sup>18</sup>of whom it was said that in Isaac your seed shall be called — <sup>19</sup>concluding that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead — from where he even received him, in a figure. <sup>20</sup>By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come. <sup>21</sup>By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff. <sup>22</sup>By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel and gave commandment concerning his bones.

<sup>23</sup>By faith Moses, having been born, was hidden three months by his parents, because they saw he was a beautiful child. And they were not afraid of the king's commandments. <sup>24</sup>By faith Moses, when he had come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter — <sup>25</sup>choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a time — <sup>26</sup>esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt, for he was looking to the reward. <sup>27</sup>By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king, for he endured as seeing Him who is invisible. <sup>28</sup>Through faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, lest He who destroyed the first-born should touch them. <sup>29</sup>By faith they passed through the Red Sea as by dry land — which the Egyptians attempting to do were drowned. <sup>30</sup>By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they had been compassed seven days. <sup>31</sup>By faith the harlot Rahab did not perish with those who did not believe, when she had received the spies with peace.

<sup>32</sup>And what more shall I say? For the time would fail me to tell of Gideon and Barak and Samson and Jephtha — David also, and Samuel and the prophets — <sup>33</sup>who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, <sup>34</sup>quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, became valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the strangers. <sup>35</sup>Women received their dead raised to life again, and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection. <sup>36</sup>And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yes, moreover, of bonds and imprisonments. <sup>37</sup>They were stoned, they were sawed in two, were tempted, were slain with the sword — they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented. <sup>38</sup>The world was not worthy of them. They wandered in deserts and mountains and dens and caves of the earth. <sup>39</sup>And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, did not receive the promise, <sup>40</sup>for God had provided some better thing for us, that they should not be made perfect without us.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>Therefore since we also are surrounded with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight and the sin which so easily besets us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us — <sup>2</sup>looking to Jesus the Author and Finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and sat down at the right of the throne of God.

<sup>3</sup>For consider Him who endured such contradiction of sinners against Himself, lest you be weary and faint in your minds. <sup>4</sup>You have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin. <sup>5</sup>And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as to children, “My son, despise not the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when you are rebuked by Him; <sup>6</sup>for whom the Lord loves He chastens, and He scourges every son whom He receives.” <sup>7</sup>If you endure chastening, God deals with you as with sons — for what son is he whom the father does not chasten? <sup>8</sup>But if you are without chastisement, of which all are partakers, then you are bastards and not sons.

<sup>9</sup>Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh who corrected us, and we gave them reverence. Shall we not much rather be in subjection to the Father of spirits and live? <sup>10</sup>For truly they chastened us for a few days according to their own pleasure, but He for our profit, that we might be partakers of His holiness. <sup>11</sup>Now chastening for the present does not seem to be joyous, but grievous. Nevertheless afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who are exercised by it.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore lift up the hands which hang down and the enfeebled knees. <sup>13</sup>And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

<sup>14</sup>Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no one shall see the Lord; <sup>15</sup>looking diligently lest any fail of the grace of God, or lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and by it many are defiled <sup>16</sup>(lest there be any fornicator, or profane person like Esau, who for one morsel of food sold his birthright. <sup>17</sup>For you know that afterward, when he desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected — for he did not find any place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears).

<sup>18</sup>For you have not come to the mountain that might be touched and that burned with fire, nor to blackness and darkness and tempest, <sup>19</sup>and the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words (which voice they who heard begged that the word should not be spoken to them any more, <sup>20</sup>for they could not endure that which was commanded, "And if so much as a beast should touch the mountain, it shall be stoned or thrust through with a dart," <sup>21</sup>and so fearful was the sight that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake); <sup>22</sup>but you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels — <sup>23</sup>to the general assembly and church of the first-born who are written in Heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, <sup>24</sup>and to Jesus the Mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaks better things than the blood of Abel.

<sup>25</sup>See that you do not refuse Him who speaks. For if they did not escape, those who refused him that spoke on earth, much more we shall not escape if we turn away from Him who speaks from Heaven — <sup>26</sup>whose voice then shook the earth; but now He has promised, saying, "Yet once more I will not only shake the earth, but also the heavens." <sup>27</sup>And this word, "Yet once more," signifies the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that have been made, so that the things which cannot be shaken may remain. <sup>28</sup>Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us have grace, by which we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear — <sup>29</sup>for also, "Our God is a consuming fire."

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>Let brotherly love continue. <sup>2</sup>Do not be forgetful to entertain strangers, for by this some have entertained angels without knowing it. <sup>3</sup>Remember those who are in bonds, as bound with them, and those who suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body. <sup>4</sup>Marriage is honorable in every way, and the bed undefiled — but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. <sup>5</sup>Let your way of life be without the love of money, and be content with such things as you have — for He has said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you" <sup>6</sup>so that we may boldly say, "The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do to me."

<sup>7</sup>Remember your leaders, who have spoken to you the word of God. Follow their faith, considering the end of their conduct: <sup>8</sup>Jesus Christ the same yesterday and today and forever. <sup>9</sup>Do not be carried about with different and strange doctrines, for it is good for the heart to be established with grace, not with foods, in which those who have walked in them were not helped.

<sup>10</sup>We have an altar of which they have no right to eat, those who serve the tabernacle. <sup>11</sup>For the bodies of those animals, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned outside the camp. <sup>12</sup>Therefore Jesus also, so that He might sanctify the people with His own blood, suffered outside the gate. <sup>13</sup>Therefore let us go forth to Him outside the camp, bearing His reproach. <sup>14</sup>For here we have no continuing city, but we seek one to come. <sup>15</sup>By Him, then, let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to His name. <sup>16</sup>But do not forget to do good and to share, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

<sup>17</sup>Obey your leaders, and be submissive, for they watch for your souls, as those who must give account, that they may do it with joy and not with grief — for that is unprofitable for you. <sup>18</sup>Pray for us; for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly. <sup>19</sup>But I beseech you the rather to do this, so that I may be more quickly restored to you.

<sup>20</sup>Now may the God of peace (who brought again our Lord Jesus from the dead, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant) <sup>21</sup>make you perfect in every good work to do His will, working in you that which is well pleasing in His sight through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>22</sup>And I beseech you, brothers, allow the word of exhortation. For I have written a letter to you in few words. <sup>23</sup>Know that our brother Timothy has been set at liberty – with whom, if he comes shortly, I will see you. <sup>24</sup>Greet all those who have the rule over you, and all the saints. Those from Italy greet you. <sup>25</sup>Grace be with you all. Amen.

THE LETTER FROM JAMES

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes in the Dispersion, greeting: <sup>2</sup>My brothers, count it all joy when you fall into different kinds of temptations, <sup>3</sup>knowing that the trying of your faith works patience. <sup>4</sup>But let patience have its perfect work, so that you may be perfect and entire, lacking nothing. <sup>5</sup>But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and with no reproach, and it shall be given to him. <sup>6</sup>But let him ask in faith, doubting nothing. For he who doubts is like a wave of the sea, driven by the wind and tossed. <sup>7</sup>For do not let that man think that he shall receive anything from the Lord; <sup>8</sup>he is a double-minded man, not dependable in all his ways. <sup>9</sup>But let the humble brother rejoice in his exaltation; <sup>10</sup>and the rich one rejoice in his humiliation, because he shall pass away as the flower of the grass. <sup>11</sup>For the sun rose with the hot wind and dried up the grass, and its flower fell out, and the beauty of its appearance perished — so also the rich one will fade away in his ways.

<sup>12</sup>Blessed is the man who endures temptation, because having been approved, he will receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love Him. <sup>13</sup>Let no one being tempted say, I am tempted from God. For God is not tempted by evils, and He tempts no one. <sup>14</sup>But each one is tempted by his lusts, being drawn away and seduced by them. <sup>15</sup>Then when lust has conceived, it brings forth sin. And sin, when it is fully formed, brings forth death.

<sup>16</sup>Do not err, my beloved brothers. <sup>17</sup>Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness nor shadow of turning. <sup>18</sup>Of His own will He brought us forth with the word of truth, for us to be a certain first-fruit of His creatures. <sup>19</sup>Therefore, my beloved brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath. <sup>20</sup>For the wrath of man does not work out the righteousness of God. <sup>21</sup>Therefore putting aside all filthiness and overflowing of evil, receive in meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. <sup>22</sup>But become doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. <sup>23</sup>For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man studying his natural face in a mirror. <sup>24</sup>For he studied himself and went his way, and immediately he forgot what he was like. <sup>25</sup>But whoever looks into the perfect law of liberty and continues in it, he is not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work. This one shall be blessed in his doing. <sup>26</sup>If anyone thinks to be religious among you, yet does not bridle his tongue, but deceives his own heart, this man's religion is vain. <sup>27</sup>Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, to visit orphans and widows in their afflictions, and to keep oneself unspotted from the world.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>My brothers, do not have the faith of our Lord Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons. <sup>2</sup>For if there comes a man with a gold-fingered ring and fancy clothes into your assembly, and if there also comes in a poor man in shabby clothing — <sup>3</sup>and if you have respect to him who has the fancy clothing and say to him, You sit here in a good place, and say to the poor, You stand there, or sit here under my footstool; <sup>4</sup>Did you not make a difference among yourselves and became judges with evil thoughts? <sup>5</sup>Listen, my beloved brothers, has not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom which He has promised to those who love Him? <sup>6</sup>But you dishonored the poor one. Do not rich men oppress you and draw you before the judgment seats? <sup>7</sup>Do they not blaspheme that worthy name by which you are called? <sup>8</sup>If you fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you do well. <sup>9</sup>But if you have respect to persons, you commit sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors.

<sup>10</sup>For whoever shall keep the whole law and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. <sup>11</sup>For He who said, "Do not commit adultery," also said, "Do not murder." But if you do not commit adultery, yet if you murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. <sup>12</sup>So speak and do as those who shall be judged by the law of liberty. <sup>13</sup>For he who has shown no mercy shall have judgment without mercy, and mercy rejoices against judgment.

<sup>14</sup>My brothers, what profit is it if a man says he has faith and does not have works? Can faith save him? <sup>15</sup>If a brother or sister is naked and destitute of daily food, <sup>16</sup>and if one of you says to them, Go in peace, be warmed and filled — but you do not give them those things which are needful to the body — what good is it? <sup>17</sup>Even so, if it does not have works, faith is dead, being by itself. <sup>18</sup>But someone will say, You have faith, and I have works. Show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works. <sup>19</sup>You believe that there is one God, you do well — even the demons believe and tremble. <sup>20</sup>But will you know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? <sup>21</sup>Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? <sup>22</sup>Do you see how faith worked with his works, and by the works faith was made complete? <sup>23</sup>And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "Abraham believed God, and it was imputed to him for righteousness, and he was called the friend of God." <sup>24</sup>You see then how a man is justified by works, and not by faith only. <sup>25</sup>And in the same way, was not Rahab the harlot also justified by works when she had received the messengers and had sent them out another way? <sup>26</sup>For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>My brothers, do not be many teachers, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation. <sup>2</sup>For in many things we all offend. If anyone does not offend in word, the same is a full-grown man, able also to bridle the whole body. <sup>3</sup>Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, so that they may obey us, and we turn about their whole body. <sup>4</sup>Behold also the ships, which, though so great and driven by fierce winds, yet they are turned about with a very small rudder, where the impulse of him steering desires. <sup>5</sup>Even so the tongue is a little member and boasts great things.

Behold how little a fire kindles how large a forest! <sup>6</sup>And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity — so is the tongue set among our members, spotting all the body and inflaming the course of nature, and being inflamed by hell. <sup>7</sup>For every kind of animals, and of birds, and of creeping things, and of sea-animals, is tamed, and has been tamed by mankind. <sup>8</sup>But no one can tame the tongue, it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison. <sup>9</sup>By this we bless God, even the Father. And by this we curse men, who have come into being according to the image of God. <sup>10</sup>Out of the same mouth proceeds blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not to be so. <sup>11</sup>Does a fountain send forth at the same hole the sweet and the bitter? <sup>12</sup>Can the fig tree, my brothers, bear olive berries; or a vine, figs? So no fountain can yield both salt water and fresh.

<sup>13</sup>Who is wise and knowing among you? <sup>14</sup>Let him show his works by his good conduct with meekness of wisdom. <sup>14</sup>But if you have bitter jealousy and strife in your hearts, do not glory and lie against the truth. <sup>15</sup>This is not the wisdom coming down from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish. <sup>16</sup>For where envying and strife are, there is confusion and every foul deed. <sup>17</sup>But the wisdom that is from above is first truly pure, then peaceable, gentle, easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy. <sup>18</sup>And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>From where do wars and fightings among you come? Is it from this, from your lusts which war in your members? <sup>2</sup>You desire, and do not have. You murder, and are jealous, and cannot obtain. You fight and war, yet you have not because you ask not. <sup>3</sup>You ask and receive not, because you ask amiss, that you may spend it upon your lusts.

<sup>4</sup>Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever desires to be a friend of the world is the enemy of God. <sup>5</sup>Do you think that the Scripture says in vain, The spirit that dwells in us yearns to envy? <sup>6</sup>But He gives more grace. Therefore He says, God resists the proud, but He gives grace to the humble. <sup>7</sup>Therefore submit yourselves to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. <sup>8</sup>Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, sinners; and purify your hearts, double-minded ones. <sup>9</sup>Be afflicted, and mourn and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to heaviness. <sup>10</sup>Be humbled before the Lord, and He will lift you up.

<sup>11</sup>Do not speak against one another, brothers. He who speaks against his brother, and who judges his brother, speaks against the Law and judges the Law. But if you judge the Law, you are not a doer of the Law, but a judge. <sup>12</sup>There is one Lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy. Who are you who judge another?

<sup>13</sup>Come now, those saying, Today or tomorrow we will go into such a city and spend a year there, and we will trade and will make a profit, <sup>14</sup>who do not know of the morrow. For what is your life? It is a vapor, which appears for a little time, and then disappears. <sup>15</sup>Instead of you saying, If the Lord wills, we shall live and do this or that. <sup>16</sup>But now you boast in your presumptions. All such boastings are evil. <sup>17</sup>Therefore to him who knows to do good, and does not do it, to him it is sin.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>Come now, rich ones, weep and howl for your hardships coming on. <sup>2</sup>Your riches have rotted, and your clothes have become moth-eaten. <sup>3</sup>Your gold and silver have corroded, and their poison will be a witness against you, and will eat your flesh as fire. You heaped treasure in the last days. <sup>4</sup>Behold, the hire of the laborers reaping your fields cry out, being kept back by you. And the cries of those who have reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of hosts. <sup>5</sup>You have lived luxuriously on the earth, and lived wantonly. You have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter. <sup>6</sup>You have condemned and murdered the just; he does not resist you.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore be patient, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth and has long patience for it, until he receives the early and the latter rain. <sup>8</sup>You also be patient, establish your hearts, for the coming of your Lord draws near. <sup>9</sup>Do not grudge against one another, brothers, lest you be condemned. Behold, the Judge stands before the door. <sup>10</sup>My brothers, take the prophets who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering ill, and of patience. <sup>11</sup>Behold, we count blessed those who endure. You have heard of the patience of Job, and you have seen the end of the Lord — that the Lord is full of pity and of tender mercy. <sup>12</sup>But before all things, my brothers, do not swear; neither by Heaven nor by the earth, nor any other oath. But let your yes be yes, and your no, no, lest you fall into condemnation.

<sup>13</sup>Is any among you afflicted? Let him pray. Is any cheerful? Let him sing psalms. <sup>14</sup>Is any sick among you? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. <sup>15</sup>And the prayer of faith will cure the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up. And if he has committed sins, it will be forgiven him.

<sup>16</sup>Confess faults to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous one avails much. <sup>17</sup>Elijah was a man of like passion as we are. And he prayed earnestly that it might not rain, and it did not rain on the earth for the time of three years and six months. <sup>18</sup>And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth caused its fruit to sprout.

<sup>19</sup>Brothers, if anyone among you err from the truth, and if anyone turns him back, <sup>20</sup>know that he who turns back the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.

THE FIRST LETTER OF PETER

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the elect sojourners of the Dispersion of Pontus, of Galatia, of Cappadocia, of Asia, and of Bithynia, <sup>2</sup>according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, to obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. May grace and peace be multiplied to you.

<sup>3</sup>Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His great mercy has regenerated us again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, <sup>4</sup>to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, and unfading, reserved in Heaven for you <sup>5</sup>by the power of God, having been kept through faith to a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time; <sup>6</sup>in which you greatly rejoice, yet a little while, if need be, grieving in manifold temptations — <sup>7</sup>so that the trial of your faith (being much more precious than that of gold that perishes, but being proven through fire) might be found to praise and honor and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ — <sup>8</sup>whom having not seen, you love; in whom not yet seeing, but believing in Him you exult with unspeakable joy, and have glorified Him, <sup>9</sup>obtaining the end of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

<sup>10</sup>About which salvation the prophets sought out and searched out prophesying concerning the grace for you; <sup>11</sup>searching for what, or what manner of time, the Spirit of Christ made clear within them, testifying beforehand of the sufferings of Christ, and the glories that should follow. <sup>12</sup>To them it was revealed that not to themselves, but to us, they ministered the things which are now reported to you by those who have preached the gospel to you in the Holy Spirit sent from Heaven — which things the angels desire to look into.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore girding up the loins of your mind, being sober, perfectly hope for the grace being brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ, <sup>14</sup>as obedient children — not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance, <sup>15</sup>but according to the Holy One who has called you, you also become holy in all conduct, <sup>16</sup>because it is written, “Be holy, for I am holy.” <sup>17</sup>And if you call on the Father, who without respect of persons judges according to the work of each one, pass the time of your sojourning in fear — <sup>18</sup>knowing that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, silver or gold, from your vain manner of life handed down from your fathers, <sup>19</sup>but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot; <sup>20</sup>having been foreknown before the foundation of the world, but revealed in the last times for you, <sup>21</sup>those believing in God through Him, He who raised Him up from the dead and gave Him glory, so that your faith and hope might be in God. <sup>22</sup>Purifying your souls in the obedience of the truth through the Spirit to unfeigned love of the brothers, love one another fervently out of a pure heart, <sup>23</sup>having been born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, through the living word of God, and abiding forever. <sup>24</sup>For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of men as the flower of the grass. The grass withers, and its flower falls out, <sup>25</sup>but the word of the Lord endures forever. And this is the word preached as gospel to you.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>Therefore laying aside all malice and all guile and hypocrisies and envyings, and all evil speakings, <sup>2</sup>desire the sincere milk of the word, as newborn babes, so that you may grow by it; <sup>3</sup>if truly you have tasted that the Lord is gracious. <sup>4</sup>For having been drawn to Him, a living Stone, indeed rejected by men, but elect, precious with God; <sup>5</sup>you also as living stones are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. <sup>6</sup>Therefore also it is contained in the Scripture: "Behold, I lay in Zion a chief corner Stone, elect, precious, and he who believes on Him shall never be ashamed." <sup>7</sup>Therefore to you who believe is the honor. But to those who are disobedient, He is the Stone which the builders rejected — this One became the Head of the corner, <sup>8</sup>and a Stone-of-stumbling and a Rock-of-offense to those disobeying, who stumble at the word, to which they also were appointed. <sup>9</sup>But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for possession, so that you might speak of the praises of Him who has called you out of darkness into His marvelous light — <sup>10</sup>you who then were not a people, but now the people of God, those not pitied then, but now pitied.

<sup>11</sup>Dearly beloved, I exhort you as strangers and aliens to abstain from fleshly lusts which war against the soul, <sup>12</sup>having your conduct honest among the nations, in that which they speak against you as evildoers, they may glorify God in a day of His visitation, seeing your good works. <sup>13</sup>Then be in obedience to every ordinance of men, because of the Lord — whether to a king as supreme, <sup>14</sup>or to governors as sent by Him for vengeance on evildoers, but for praise on well-doers. <sup>15</sup>For such is the will of God, doing good to silence the ignorance of foolish men; <sup>16</sup>as free, and not having freedom as a cover of evil, but as servants of God.

<sup>17</sup>Honor all. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king. <sup>18</sup>Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear, not only to those good and forbearing, but also to the perverse ones. <sup>19</sup>For this is a grace, if for conscience toward God anyone endures grief, suffering wrongfully. <sup>20</sup>For what glory is it if you patiently endure while sinning and being buffeted? But if you suffer while doing good, and patiently endure, this is a grace from God. <sup>21</sup>For were you not called to this? For Christ also suffered on our behalf, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps — <sup>22</sup>He who did no sin, nor was guile found in His mouth, <sup>23</sup>who when He was reviled did not revile in return. When He suffered, He did not threaten, but gave Himself up to Him who judges righteously. <sup>24</sup>He Himself bore our sins in His own body on the tree, that dying to sins, we might live to righteousness; by whose stripes you were healed. <sup>25</sup>For you were as sheep going astray, but now you are turned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>Likewise, wives, be in subjection to your own husbands — so that if any do not obey the word, they may also be won without the word by the conduct of the wives, <sup>2</sup>having witnessed your chaste behavior in fear. <sup>3</sup>Of whom let not be the adorning of garments, or outward braiding of hair and wearing of gold, or of putting on clothing, <sup>4</sup>but the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, the meek and quiet spirit, which is of great price in the sight of God. <sup>5</sup>For so once indeed the holy women hoping in God adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands; <sup>6</sup>as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord — whose children you became, doing good and fearing no terror. <sup>7</sup>Likewise, husbands, living together according to knowledge, giving honor to the wife as to the weaker vessel, as truly being heirs together of the grace of life, not cutting off your prayers.

<sup>8</sup>And finally, all be of one mind, having compassion on one another, loving the brothers, tender-hearted, friendly. <sup>9</sup>Never give back evil for evil, or reviling for reviling, but on the contrary, give blessing, knowing that you are called to this so that you might inherit blessing. <sup>10</sup>For he that wants to love life and to see good days, let him restrain his tongue from evil, and his lips from speaking guile. <sup>11</sup>Let him turn aside from evil and do good. Let him seek peace and pursue it. <sup>12</sup>For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and His ears open to their prayers. But the Lord's face is against those who do evil.

<sup>13</sup>And who is he who will harm you if you become imitators of the good? <sup>14</sup>But if you also suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. And do not fear their fear, nor be troubled, <sup>15</sup>but sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and be ready always to give an answer to everyone who asks you a reason of the hope in you, with meekness and fear; <sup>16</sup>having a good conscience, that while they speak against you as evildoers they may be shamed, those falsely accusing your good behavior in Christ. <sup>17</sup>For it is better, if the will of God wills it, to suffer for well-doing than for evil-doing. <sup>18</sup>For Christ also once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God, indeed being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the Spirit; <sup>19</sup>in which also He went and preached to the spirits in prison, <sup>20</sup>to disobeying ones, when once the long-suffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared (in which a few, that is, eight souls were saved through water) — <sup>21</sup>which figure now also saves us, baptism — not a putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God, by the resurrection of Jesus Christ; <sup>22</sup>who going into Heaven is at the right hand of God, where the angels and authorities and powers are being subjected to Him.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>Since, then, Christ has suffered for us in the flesh; also you arm yourselves with the same thought, that he suffering in the flesh has ceased from sin, <sup>2</sup>for him no longer to live the remaining time in the flesh in the lusts of men, but in the will of God. <sup>3</sup>For the time of life which is past is enough for us to have worked out the will of the nations, having gone on in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, parties, carousings, and abominable idolatries. <sup>4</sup>In these things they are surprised, that you are not running with them into the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you. <sup>5</sup>But they shall give account to Him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. <sup>6</sup>For to this end the gospel was preached also to the dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the Spirit.

<sup>7</sup>But the end of all things has drawn near. Therefore be of sound mind, and be sensible to prayers. <sup>8</sup>And above all things have fervent love to yourselves, for love will cover a multitude of sins. <sup>9</sup>Be hospitable to one another, without grudging; <sup>10</sup>each one as he received a gift, ministering it to yourselves as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. <sup>11</sup>If anyone speaks, let it be as the words of God. If anyone ministers, let him do it as of the ability which God gives, so that God may be glorified in all things through Jesus Christ, to whom is the glory, and the might forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>12</sup>Beloved, do not be astonished at the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you — <sup>13</sup>but rejoice according as you are partakers of Christ's suffering, so that when His glory shall be revealed, you may be glad also with exceeding joy. <sup>14</sup>If you are reviled for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of God and of glory rests on you. Truly according to them, He is blasphemed, but according to you He is glorified. <sup>15</sup>But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evildoer, or a meddler in the affairs of others. <sup>16</sup>But if one suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God because of this. <sup>17</sup>For the time has come for the judgment to begin from the house of God. And if it first begins from us, what will be the end of those disobeying the gospel of God? <sup>18</sup>And if the righteous one is scarcely saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear? <sup>19</sup>Therefore let those who suffer according to the will of God commit their souls in well-doing, as to a faithful creator.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>I exhort the elders who are among you, I being also an elder and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed. <sup>2</sup>Feed the flock of God among you, taking the oversight, not by compulsion, but willingly; nor for base gain, but readily; <sup>3</sup>nor as lording it over those allotted to you, but becoming examples to the flock. <sup>4</sup>And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, you shall receive a never-fading crown of glory.

<sup>5</sup>Likewise, younger ones, be subject to older ones, and all being subject to one another. Put on humility. For God resists proud ones, but He gives grace to the humble. <sup>6</sup>Therefore be humbled under the mighty hand of God, so that He may exalt you in due time, <sup>7</sup>casting all your anxiety onto Him, for He cares for you. <sup>8</sup>Be sensible and vigilant, because your adversary the Devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking someone he may devour; <sup>9</sup>whom firmly resist in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions in the world are being completed in your brotherhood. <sup>10</sup>But the God of all grace, He calling us to His eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a little, He will perfect, confirm, strengthen, and establish you. <sup>11</sup>To Him be the glory and the might forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>12</sup>I wrote to you through a few words, by Silvanus, a faithful brother to you, as I suppose, exhorting and testifying this to be the true grace of God in which you stand. <sup>13</sup>The fellow-elected in Babylon greet you; also Mark my son. <sup>14</sup>Greet one another with a kiss of holy love. Peace be to you, all those in Christ Jesus. Amen.

THE SECOND LETTER OF PETER

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ, <sup>2</sup>Grace and peace be multiplied to you through the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, <sup>3</sup>according as His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who has called us to glory and virtue — <sup>4</sup>through which He has given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, so that by these you might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

<sup>5</sup>But also in this very thing, bringing in all diligence, filling out your faith with virtue, and with virtue, knowledge; <sup>6</sup>and with knowledge self-control, and with self-control patience, and with patience godliness, <sup>7</sup>and with godliness brotherly kindness, and with brotherly kindness love. <sup>8</sup>For if these things are in you and abound, you shall not be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup>But he in whom these things are not present is blind and cannot see afar off and has forgotten that he was purged from his sins in times past.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore, brothers, rather be diligent to make your calling and election sure, for if you do these things, you shall never fall. <sup>11</sup>For so an entrance shall be ministered to you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore I will not neglect to put you always in remembrance of these things, though you know them and are established in the present truth. <sup>13</sup>But I think it right, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by a reminder, <sup>14</sup>knowing that the putting off of my tabernacle is soon, as indeed our Lord Jesus Christ made clear to me. <sup>15</sup>And I will also be diligent to cause you to always have memory of these things.

<sup>16</sup>For not following cunningly devised fables, but becoming eyewitnesses of the majesty of Jesus Christ, we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord. <sup>17</sup>For He received honor and glory from God the Father, when was borne to Him a voice from the excellent glory, “This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.” <sup>18</sup>And we heard this voice being borne from Heaven, being with Him in the holy mountain. <sup>19</sup>We also have a more sure word of prophecy, to which you do well to take heed, as to a light that shines in a dark place, until the day dawns and the Daystar arises in your hearts — <sup>20</sup>knowing this first, that no prophecy of the Scripture came into being of its own private interpretation. <sup>21</sup>For prophecy was not borne at any time by the will of man, but holy men of God spoke being borne along by the Holy Spirit.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>But there were also false prophets among the people, even as there will be false teachers among you, who secretly will bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Master who bought them, bringing on themselves swift destruction. <sup>2</sup>And many will follow their pernicious ways, and because of them the way of truth will be evil spoken of. <sup>3</sup>And through covetousness they will use you for gain with well-turned words; for whom judgment from of old does not linger, and their destruction does not sleep.

<sup>4</sup>For God did not spare the angels who sinned, but thrust them down into Tartarus, and delivered them into chains of darkness, being reserved to judgment. <sup>5</sup>And He did not spare the old world, but saved Noah the eighth one, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly. <sup>6</sup>And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, He condemned them with an overthrow, setting an example to men intending to live ungodly. <sup>7</sup>And He delivered righteous Lot, oppressed with the lustful behavior of the lawless. <sup>8</sup>For that righteous one living among them, in seeing and hearing, his righteous soul was tormented from day to day with their unlawful deeds.

<sup>9</sup>The Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptation, and to reserve the unjust for a day of judgment, to be punished — <sup>10</sup>and especially those who walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise dominion. They are darers, self-satisfied; not trembling at glories, speaking evil. <sup>11</sup>Where angels, who are greater in power and might, do not bring a reproaching accusation against them before the Lord. <sup>12</sup>But these, as unreasoning natural brute animals, having been born for capture and corruption, speak evil of the things that they do not understand. And they will utterly perish in their own corruption, <sup>13</sup>being about to receive the wages of unrighteousness, counting it pleasure to riot in the daytime. They revel in spots and blemishes, feasting along with you in their deceits, <sup>14</sup>having eyes full of adultery and never ceasing from sin, alluring unstable souls, having a heart exercised with covetousness. They are cursed children <sup>15</sup>who have forsaken the right way and have gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness, <sup>16</sup>but had proof of his iniquity — the dumb ass, speaking with a man's voice, held back the madness of the prophet. <sup>17</sup>These are wells without water, clouds driven with a tempest, for whom the blackness of darkness is reserved forever. <sup>18</sup>For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they lure through the lusts of the flesh, by unbridled lust, the ones who were escaping from those who live in error; <sup>19</sup>promising them liberty, they themselves are the slaves of corruption. For by whom anyone has been overcome, even to this one he has been enslaved. <sup>20</sup>For if they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus, and are again entangled, they have been overcome by these, their last things are worse than the first. <sup>21</sup>For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than knowing it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them. <sup>22</sup>But the word of the true proverb has happened to them: The dog turning to his own vomit; and, The washed sow to wallowing in the mire.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>Beloved, I now write this second letter to you, in which I stir up your pure mind to remember <sup>2</sup>the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of the Lord and Saviour by us, the apostles. <sup>3</sup>First, knowing this, that there will come in the last days scoffers walking according to their own lusts <sup>4</sup>and saying, Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation. <sup>5</sup>For this is hidden from them by their willing it, that the heavens were of old, and the earth out of the water, and through water, being held together by the word of God, <sup>6</sup>through which the world that then was, being flooded by water, perished. <sup>7</sup>But the present heavens and the earth being kept in store by the same word, are being kept for fire until the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

<sup>8</sup>But, beloved, let not this one thing be hidden from you, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. <sup>9</sup>The Lord is not slow concerning His promise, as some men count slowness, but is long-suffering toward us, not willing that any of us should perish, but that all of us should come to repentance. <sup>10</sup>But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a rushing noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat. And the earth and the works in it will be burned up. <sup>11</sup>Then, all these things being about to be dissolved, what sort ought you to be in holy behavior and godliness, <sup>12</sup>looking for and rushing the coming of the day of God, on account of which the heavens, being on fire, will melt away, and the elements will melt, burning with heat? <sup>13</sup>But according to His promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, beloved, looking for these things, be diligent, spotless, and without blemish, to be found by Him in peace. <sup>15</sup>And think of the long-suffering of our Lord as salvation — as our beloved brother Paul also has written to you according to the wisdom given to him <sup>16</sup>(as also in all his letters, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which the unlearned and unstable pervert, as also they do the rest of the Scriptures, to their own destruction).

<sup>17</sup>Therefore, beloved, you knowing beforehand, beware lest being led away with the error of the lawless, you fall from your own steadfastness. <sup>18</sup>But grow in grace and in knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory, both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

THE FIRST LETTER OF JOHN

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, concerning the Word of life, <sup>2</sup>(for the Life was revealed, and we have seen it and bear witness, and show to you the everlasting Life, who was with the Father and was revealed to us), <sup>3</sup>that which we have seen and heard we declare unto you, so that you also may have fellowship with us. And truly our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup>And we write these things to you so that your joy may be full.

<sup>5</sup>And this is the message which we have from Him and declare to you, that God is light, and in Him is no darkness at all. <sup>6</sup>If we say that we have fellowship with Him and walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. <sup>7</sup>But if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin. <sup>8</sup>If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. <sup>9</sup>If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. <sup>10</sup>If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>My little children, I write these things to you so that you do not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. <sup>2</sup>And He is the propitiation concerning our sins, and not concerning ours only, but also concerning the sins of all the world. <sup>3</sup>And by this we know that we have known Him, if we keep His commandments. <sup>4</sup>He who says, I have known Him, and does not keep His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. <sup>5</sup>But whoever keeps His word, truly in this one the love of God is perfected. By this we know that we are in Him. <sup>6</sup>He who says he abides in Him ought himself also to walk even as He walked.

<sup>7</sup>Brothers, I do not write a new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you have heard from the beginning. <sup>8</sup>Again, I write a new commandment to you, which thing is true in Him and in you, because the darkness is passing away, and the true Light now shines. <sup>9</sup>He who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in darkness until now. <sup>10</sup>He who loves his brother rests in the light, and there is no offense in him. <sup>11</sup>But he who hates his brother is in darkness, and walks in darkness, and does not know where he is going, because darkness has blinded his eyes.

<sup>12</sup>I write to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for His name's sake. <sup>13</sup>I write to you, fathers, because you have known Him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I write to you, little children, because you have known the Father. <sup>14</sup>I have written to you, fathers, because you have known Him who is from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the evil one. <sup>15</sup>Do not love the world, nor the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him, <sup>16</sup>because all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. <sup>17</sup>And the world passes away, and the lust of it, but he who does the will of God abides forever.

<sup>18</sup>Little children, it is the last time. And just as you have heard that anti-christ is coming, even now many anti-christs have risen up, from which we know that it is the last hour. <sup>19</sup>They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they were of us, they would have continued with us. But they went out, so that it might be revealed that they were not all of us. <sup>20</sup>But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you know all things. <sup>21</sup>I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and know that no lie is of the truth. <sup>22</sup>Who is a liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? He who denies the Father and the Son is antichrist. <sup>23</sup>Everyone who denies the Son neither has the Father. <sup>24</sup>Therefore what you heard from the beginning, let it abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning remains in you, you will abide in both the Son and in the Father. <sup>25</sup>And this is the promise that He has promised us: everlasting life. <sup>26</sup>These things I have written to you concerning those leading you astray. <sup>27</sup>But the anointing which you received from Him abides in you, and you do not need anyone to teach you. But as His anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true and no lie, and as He has taught you, abide in Him. <sup>28</sup>And now, little children, abide in Him, so that when He is revealed, we may have confidence and not be ashamed before Him in His coming. <sup>29</sup>If you know that He is righteous, you know that everyone who does righteousness has been born of Him.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>Behold what manner of love the Father has bestowed upon us, that we should be called children of God. Therefore the world does not know us, because it did not know Him. <sup>2</sup>Beloved, now we are the children of God, and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be. But we know that when He shall be revealed, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is. <sup>3</sup>And everyone who has this hope in himself purifies himself, even as He is pure.

<sup>4</sup>Everyone who practices sin also practices lawlessness, for sin is lawlessness. <sup>5</sup>And you know that He was revealed that He might bear our sins, and in Him is no sin. <sup>6</sup>Everyone who abides in Him does not sin. Everyone who sins has not seen Him nor known Him. <sup>7</sup>Little children, let no one deceive you. He who does righteousness is righteous, even as He is righteous. <sup>8</sup>He who practices sin is of the Devil, for the Devil sins from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was revealed, that He might undo the works of the Devil. <sup>9</sup>Everyone who has been born of God does not commit sin, because His seed remains in him, and he cannot sin, because he has been born of God. <sup>10</sup>In this the children of God are revealed, and the children of the Devil: everyone not practicing righteousness is not of God, also he who does not love his brother. <sup>11</sup>For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another — <sup>12</sup>not as Cain was of the evil one, and killed his brother. And for what did he kill him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's things were righteous.

<sup>13</sup>Do not marvel, my brothers, if the world hates you. <sup>14</sup>We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brothers. He who does not love his brother abides in death. <sup>15</sup>Everyone hating his brother is a murderer. And you know that no murderer has everlasting life abiding in him.

<sup>16</sup>By this we have known the love of God, because He laid down His life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. <sup>17</sup>But whoever has this world's goods and sees his brother having need, and shuts up his bowels from him, how does the love of God dwell in him?

<sup>18</sup>My children, let us not love in word or in tongue, but in deed and in truth. <sup>19</sup>And in this we shall know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before Him, <sup>20</sup>that if our heart accuses us, God is greater than our heart and knows all things. <sup>21</sup>Beloved, if our heart does not accuse us, we have confidence toward God. <sup>22</sup>And whatever we ask, we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments and do those things that are pleasing in His sight. <sup>23</sup>And this is His commandment, that we should believe on the name of His Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as He gave us commandment. <sup>24</sup>And he who keeps His commandment dwells in Him, and He in him. And by this we know that He abides in us, by the Spirit which He gave to us.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but try the spirits to see if they are of God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. <sup>2</sup>By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God; <sup>3</sup>and every spirit that does not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God. And this is the antichrist you heard is coming, and even now it is already in the world. <sup>4</sup>You are of God, little children, and you have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. <sup>5</sup>They are of the world, therefore they speak of the world, and the world hears them. <sup>6</sup>We are of God. He who knows God hears us. The one who is not of God does not hear us. From this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

<sup>7</sup>Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God, and everyone who loves has been born of God, and knows God. <sup>8</sup>The one who does not love has not known God. For God is love. <sup>9</sup>In this the love of God was revealed in us, because God sent His only begotten Son into the world that we might live through Him. <sup>10</sup>In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation concerning our sins. <sup>11</sup>Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

<sup>12</sup>No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwells in us, and His love is perfected in us. <sup>13</sup>By this we know that we dwell in Him, and He in us, because He has given us of His Spirit. <sup>14</sup>And we have seen and testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. <sup>15</sup>Whoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwells in him and he in God. <sup>16</sup>And we have known and believed the love that God has in us. God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God in him. <sup>17</sup>In this is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment, that as He is, so also we are in this world. <sup>18</sup>There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has torment. He who fears has not been perfected in love. <sup>19</sup>We love Him because He first loved us. <sup>20</sup>If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar. For if he does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen? <sup>21</sup>And we have this commandment from Him, that he who loves God should love his brother also.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God. And everyone who loves Him who begets also loves him who has been born of Him. <sup>2</sup>By this we know that we love the children of God, whenever we love God and keep His commandments. <sup>3</sup>For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments, and His commandments are not burdensome. <sup>4</sup>For everything that has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that overcomes the world, our faith. <sup>5</sup>Who is he who overcomes the world, but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? <sup>6</sup>This is He who came through water and blood, Jesus Christ — not by water only, but by the water and blood. And the Spirit is He who bears witness, because the Spirit is the truth. For there are three that bear record in Heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit, and these three are one. <sup>8</sup>And there are three that bear witness in the earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood; and the three are to the one.

<sup>9</sup>If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater. For this is the witness of God which He has testified about His Son. <sup>10</sup>He who believes on the Son of God has the witness in himself. He who does not believe God has made Him a liar, because he does not believe the record that God gave of His Son. <sup>11</sup>And this is the record, that God has given to us everlasting life, and this life is in His Son. <sup>12</sup>He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life.

<sup>13</sup>I have written these things to you who believe on the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have everlasting life, and that you may believe on the name of the Son of God. <sup>14</sup>And this is the confidence that we have toward Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. <sup>15</sup>And if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of Him. <sup>16</sup>If anyone sees his brother sin a sin not to death, he shall ask, and He shall give him life for those that do not sin to death. There is a sin to death, I do not say that he shall pray for it. <sup>17</sup>All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sin to death. <sup>18</sup>We know that everyone who has been born of God does not sin, but the one born of God guards himself, and the evil one does not touch him. <sup>19</sup>We know that we are of God, and all the world lies in evil. <sup>20</sup>And we know that the Son of God has come, and He has given us an understanding so that we may know Him who is true. And we are in Him that is true, in His Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and the everlasting life.

<sup>21</sup>Little children, guard yourselves from idols. Amen.

THE SECOND LETTER OF JOHN

<sup>1</sup>The elder to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth and not only I, but also all those who have known the truth — <sup>2</sup>for the sake of the truth which dwells in us, and shall be with us forever. <sup>3</sup>Grace be with you, mercy and peace from God the Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

<sup>4</sup>I rejoiced greatly that I found your children walking in truth, as we have received command from the Father. <sup>5</sup>And now I beseech you, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment to you, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another. <sup>6</sup>And this is love, that we walk according to His commandments. This is the commandment, as you heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it. <sup>7</sup>For many deceivers have entered into the world, who do not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the antichrist.

<sup>8</sup>Look to yourselves, so that we may not lose those things which we worked out, but that we may receive a full reward. <sup>9</sup>Everyone transgressing and not abiding in the teaching of Christ does not have God. He who abides in the teaching of Christ, he has both the Father and the Son. <sup>10</sup>If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house, nor speak a greeting to him. <sup>11</sup>For he who speaks a greeting to him is partaker of his evil deeds.

<sup>12</sup>Having many things to write to you, I do not want to write with paper and ink. But I trust to come to you and speak face to face, so that our joy may be full.

<sup>13</sup>The children of your elect sister greet you. Amen.

THE THIRD LETTER OF JOHN

<sup>1</sup>The elder to Gaius the beloved, whom I love in the truth. <sup>2</sup>Beloved, above all things I wish that you may prosper and be in health, even as your soul prospers. <sup>3</sup>For I rejoiced greatly when the brothers came and testified of the truth that is in you, even as you walk in the truth. <sup>4</sup>I have no greater joy than these things, to hear that my children walk in the truth.

<sup>5</sup>Beloved, you do faithfully whatever you work for the brothers and for strangers, <sup>6</sup>who in love bore witness of you before the church, whom you will do well to send forward worthily of God; <sup>7</sup>because they went forth for His name's sake, taking nothing from the nations. <sup>8</sup>Therefore we ought to entertain such, so that we might be co-workers in the truth.

<sup>9</sup>I wrote to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to have the preeminence among them, did not receive us. <sup>10</sup>Therefore if I come, I will remember his deeds which he does, ranting against us with evil words. And not content with these, neither does he himself receive the brothers. And he forbids those who would, and casts them out of the church.

<sup>11</sup>Beloved, do not imitate the bad, but the good. He who does good is from God, but he who does evil has not seen God.

<sup>12</sup>Demetrius has good report by all men, and of the truth itself. And we also bear witness, and you know that our witness is true.

<sup>13</sup>I had many things to write, but I will not write to you with pen and ink, <sup>14</sup>but I trust I shall shortly see you, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JUDE

<sup>1</sup>Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to those called in God the Father, having been set apart, and having been kept by Jesus Christ: <sup>2</sup>Mercy and peace and love be multiplied to you.

<sup>3</sup>Having made all diligence to write to you about the common salvation, beloved, I had need to write to you to exhort you to contend earnestly for the faith once delivered to the saints. <sup>4</sup>For certain men crept in secretly, those having been of old previously written into this condemnation, ungodly ones perverting the grace of our God for unbridled lust, and denying the only Master, God, even our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>5</sup>But I intend to remind you, you once knowing these things, that the Lord having delivered a people out of the land of Egypt, in the second place destroyed the ones not believing. <sup>6</sup>And those angels not having kept their first place, but having deserted their dwelling-place, He has kept in everlasting chains under darkness for the judgment of a great Day; <sup>7</sup>as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them, in like manner to these, committing fornication, and going away after other flesh, laid down an example before-times, undergoing vengeance of everlasting fire. <sup>8</sup>Likewise, indeed, also those dreaming ones even defile flesh, and despise rulership, and speak evil of glories. <sup>9</sup>But Michael, the archangel, when contending with the Devil, he argued about the body of Moses — he dared not bring a judgment of blasphemy, but said, Let the Lord rebuke you! <sup>10</sup>But what things they do not know, they speak evil of these. And what things they understand naturally, like the animals without reason, they are corrupted by these.

<sup>11</sup>Woe to them! For they went the way of Cain, and gave themselves up to the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Korah. <sup>12</sup>These are sunken rocks in your love feasts, feasting together with you; feeding themselves without fear; waterless clouds being carried about by winds; fruitless autumn trees, having died twice, having been plucked up by the roots; <sup>13</sup>wild waves of the sea foaming up their shames; wandering stars for whom blackness of darkness has been kept forever.

<sup>14</sup>And Enoch, the seventh from Adam, also prophesied to these, saying, Behold, the Lord came with myriads of His saints, <sup>15</sup>to do judgment against all, and to rebuke all the ungodly of them concerning all their ungodly works which they ungodly did, and concerning all the hard things ungodly sinners spoke against Him. <sup>16</sup>These are murmurers, complainers, leading lives according to their lusts. And their mouth speaks proud things, admiring faces for the sake of gain. <sup>17</sup>But you, beloved, remember the words spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>18</sup>because they told you that at the last time there will be mockers according to their lusts, leading ungodly lives. <sup>19</sup>These are those setting themselves apart, animal-like ones, not having the Spirit.

<sup>20</sup>But you, beloved, building yourselves up by your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, <sup>21</sup>keep yourselves in the love of God, eagerly awaiting the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to everlasting life. <sup>22</sup>But pity some, making distinction. <sup>23</sup>But save others with fear, snatching them out of the fire; hating even the garment having been stained from the flesh.

<sup>24</sup>Now to Him being able to keep you without stumbling, and to set you before His glory without blemish, with unspeakable joy; <sup>25</sup>to the only wise God, our Savior, be glory and majesty and might and authority, even now and forever. Amen.

THE HOLY REVELATION OF JOHN

THE DIVINE

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>A Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave to Him to declare to His servants things which must shortly come to pass. And He signified it by sending His angel to His servant John, <sup>2</sup>who bore record of the Word of God and of the testimony of Jesus Christ and of all the things that he saw. <sup>3</sup>Blessed is he who reads and hears the words of this prophecy, and who keep the things written in it, for the time is near.

Grace to you and peace from Him who is and who was and who is coming; and from the seven spirits which are before His throne; <sup>5</sup>even from Jesus Christ the faithful Witness, the First-born from the dead and the Ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood, <sup>6</sup>and made us kings and priests to God and His Father, to Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>7</sup>Behold, He comes with the clouds, and every eye will see Him, and those who pierced Him will see Him, and all the kindreds of the earth will wail because of Him. Even so, Amen. <sup>8</sup>I am Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the Ending, says the Lord, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.

<sup>9</sup>I, John, who also am your brother and companion in the affliction, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the island that is called Patmos, for the word of God and for the testimony of Jesus Christ. <sup>10</sup>I came to be in the Spirit in the Lord's day and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, <sup>11</sup>saying, I am the Alpha and Omega, the First and the Last — and, What you see, write in a book and send it to the seven churches which are in Asia: to Ephesus, and to Smyrna, and to Pergamos, and to Thyatira, and to Sardis, and to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea. <sup>12</sup>And I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. And having turned, I saw seven golden lampstands. <sup>13</sup>And in the midst of the seven lampstands I saw One like the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the feet, and tied around the breast with a golden band. <sup>14</sup>His head and hair were white like wool, as white as snow. And His eyes were like a flame of fire. <sup>15</sup>And His feet were like burnished metal having been fired in a furnace. And His voice was like the sound of many waters. <sup>16</sup>And He had seven stars in His right hand, and out of His mouth went a sharp two-edged sword. And His face was like the sun shining in its strength. <sup>17</sup>And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as dead. And He laid His right hand upon me, saying to me, Do not fear, I am the First and the Last, <sup>18</sup>and the living One, and I became dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore, Amen. And I have the keys of hell and of death. <sup>19</sup>Write the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be after this — <sup>20</sup>the mystery of the seven stars which you saw in My right hand and the seven golden lampstands. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands which you saw are the seven churches.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>To the angel of the Church of Ephesus write: He who holds the seven stars in His right hand, who walks in the midst of the seven golden lampstands, says these things. <sup>2</sup>I know your works and your labor and your patience, and how you cannot bear those who are evil. And you tried those pretending to be apostles, and are not, and have found them liars. <sup>3</sup>And you have borne, and have patience, and for

My name's sake you have labored and have not fainted. <sup>4</sup>But I have against you that you left your first love. <sup>5</sup>Therefore remember from where you have fallen, and repent, and do the first works, or else I will come to you quickly and will remove your lampstand out of its place unless you repent. <sup>6</sup>But you have this, that you hate the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. <sup>7</sup>He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will give him to eat of the Tree of Life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

<sup>8</sup>And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write: The First and the Last, who became dead and lived, says these things: <sup>9</sup>I know your works and tribulation and poverty (but you are rich), and I know the blasphemy of those saying themselves to be Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan. <sup>10</sup>Do not at all fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the Devil will cast some of you into prison, so that you may be tried. And you will have tribulation ten days. Be faithful to death, and I will give you the crown of life. <sup>11</sup>He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes will not be hurt by the second death.

<sup>12</sup>And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write: He who has the sharp sword with two edges says these things. <sup>13</sup>I know your works, and where you live, even where Satan's seat is. And you hold fast My name and have not denied My faith, even in those days in which Antipas was My faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwells. <sup>14</sup>But I have a few things against you, because you have there those who hold the teachings of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumbling-block before the sons of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols and to commit fornication. <sup>15</sup>So you also have those who hold the teaching of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate. <sup>16</sup>Repent! But if not I will come to you quickly, and will fight with them by the sword of My mouth. <sup>17</sup>He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give to him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knows except he who receives it.

<sup>18</sup>And to the angel of the church at Thyatira write: The Son of God, He who has His eyes like a flame of fire and His feet like burnished metal, says these things: <sup>19</sup>I know your works and love and service and faith and your patience, and your works — and the last to be more than the first. <sup>20</sup>But I have a few things against you because you allow that woman Jezebel, she saying herself to be a prophetess, and to cause My servants to go astray, and to commit fornication, and to eat idol-sacrifices. <sup>21</sup>And I gave her time that she might repent of her fornication, and she did not repent. <sup>22</sup>Behold, I am throwing her into a bed, and those who commit adultery with her into great affliction, unless they repent of their deeds. <sup>23</sup>And I will kill her children with death. And all the churches will know that I am He who searches the reins and hearts, and I will give to every one of you according to your works. <sup>24</sup>But to you I say, and to the rest in Thyatira, as many as do not have this doctrine, and who have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak — I will put on you no other burden. <sup>25</sup>But that which you have, hold fast until I come. <sup>26</sup>And he who overcomes and keeps My works to the end, to him I will give power over the nations. <sup>27</sup>And he will rule them with a rod of iron, as the vessels of a potter they will be broken to pieces, even as I received from My Father. <sup>28</sup>And I will give him the Morning Star. <sup>29</sup>He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And to the angel of the church in Sardis write: He who has the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars says these things. I know your works, that you have a name that you live, and are dead. <sup>2</sup>Be watchful and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die. For I have not found your works being fulfilled before God. <sup>3</sup>Remember then how you have received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. Therefore if you will not watch, I will come upon you as a thief, and you will not know what hour I will come upon you. <sup>4</sup>You have a few names even in Sardis who have not defiled their garments. And they will walk with Me in white, for they are worthy. <sup>5</sup>The one who overcomes, that one will be clothed in white clothing. And I will not blot out his name out of the Book of Life, but I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels. <sup>6</sup>He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

<sup>7</sup>And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write: He who is holy, He who is true, He who has the key of David, He who opens and no one shuts; and shuts and no one opens, says these things: <sup>8</sup>I know your works. Behold, I have given before you an open door, and no one can shut it. For you have a little strength and have kept My word and have not denied My name. <sup>9</sup>Behold, I will give out of those of the synagogue of Satan, those saying themselves to be Jews and are not, but lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you. <sup>10</sup>Because you have kept the word of My patience, I also will keep you from the hour of temptation which will come upon all the world, to try those who dwell upon the earth. <sup>11</sup>Behold, I come quickly. Hold fast to that which you have, so that no one may take your crown. <sup>12</sup>Him who overcomes I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God, and he will go out no more. And I will write upon him the name of My God, and the name of the city of My God — New Jerusalem, which comes down out of Heaven from My God, and My new name. <sup>13</sup>He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

<sup>14</sup>And to the angel of the church of the Laodicea write: The Amen, the faithful and true Witness, the Head of the creation of God, says these things: <sup>15</sup>I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I would that you were cold or hot. <sup>16</sup>So because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spew you out of My mouth. <sup>17</sup>Because you say, I am rich and increased with goods and have need of nothing — and do not know that you are wretched and miserable and poor and blind and naked — <sup>18</sup>I counsel you to buy from Me gold tried in the fire, so that you may be rich; and white clothing, so that you may be clothed, and so that the shame of your nakedness does not appear. And anoint your eyes with eye salve, so that you may see. <sup>19</sup>As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten; therefore be zealous and repent. <sup>20</sup>Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and will sup with him and he with Me. <sup>21</sup>To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with Me in My throne, even as I also overcame and have sat down with My Father in His throne. <sup>22</sup>He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>After these things I looked, and behold, a door was opened in Heaven. And the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me, saying, Come up here, and I will show you what must occur after these things. <sup>2</sup>And immediately I became in spirit. And behold, a throne was set in Heaven, and One sat upon the throne. <sup>3</sup>And He who sat there looked like a jasper stone and a sardius. And a rainbow was around the throne, looking like an emerald. <sup>4</sup>And around the throne I saw twenty-four thrones. And on the thrones I saw twenty-four elders sitting, clothed in white clothing. And they had crowns of gold on their heads. <sup>5</sup>And out of the throne came lightnings and thunderings and voices. And seven lamps of fire were burning in front of the throne, which are the seven spirits of God. <sup>6</sup>And a sea of glass was in front of the throne, like crystal. And in the midst of the throne, and around the throne, were four living creatures, full of eyes in front and behind.

<sup>7</sup>And the first living creature was like a lion, and the second living creature like a calf, and the third living creature had the face of a man, and the fourth living creature like a flying eagle. <sup>8</sup>And each one of the four living creatures had six wings about him, and within being full of eyes. And they had no rest day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God, the Almighty, who was and is and is to come.

<sup>9</sup>And when the living creatures gave glory and honor and thanks to Him who sat on the throne, who lives forever and ever, <sup>10</sup>the twenty-four elders fell down before the One sitting on the throne. And they worshiped Him who lives forever and ever, and threw their crowns before the throne, saying, <sup>11</sup>O Lord, You are worthy to receive glory and honor and power, because You created all things, and for Your will they are and were created.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>And I saw a book on the right of Him sitting on the throne, written inside and on the back, sealed with seven seals. <sup>2</sup>And I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book and to loosen its seals? <sup>3</sup>And no one in Heaven or in earth, or under the earth, was able to open the book or to look at it. <sup>4</sup>And I wept very much, because no one was found worthy to open and to read the book, nor to look at it. <sup>5</sup>And one of the elders said to me, Do not weep. Behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has prevailed to open the book and to loose the seven seals of it.

<sup>6</sup>And I looked, and lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, amidst the elders, a Lamb stood, as if it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth. <sup>7</sup>And He came and took the book out of the right hand of Him sitting on the throne. <sup>8</sup>And when He had taken the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one having harps and golden vials full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. <sup>9</sup>And they sang a new song, saying, You are worthy to take the book and to open its seals, for You were slain and have redeemed us to God by Your blood out of every kindred and tongue and people and nation. <sup>10</sup>And You made us kings and priests to our God, and we will reign over the earth.

<sup>11</sup>And I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne, and the living creatures and the elders. And the number of them was myriads and myriads, and thousands of thousands, <sup>12</sup>saying with a great voice, Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and riches and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing. <sup>13</sup>And I heard every creature which is in the Heaven and on the earth, and under the earth, and those that are in the sea, and all who are in them, saying, Blessing and honor and glory and power be to Him sitting on the throne, and to the Lamb forever and ever. <sup>14</sup>And the four living creatures said, Amen. And the twenty-four elders fell down and worshiped the Living One forever and ever.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures like a sound of thunder, saying, Come and see. <sup>2</sup>And I saw. And behold a white horse! And he sitting on it had a bow. And a crown was given to him, and he went forth conquering and to conquer.

<sup>3</sup>And when He had opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, Come and see. <sup>4</sup>And another, a red horse, went out. And power was given to him sitting on it, to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another. And there was given to him a great sword.

<sup>5</sup>And when He had opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, Come and see. And I looked, and lo, a black horse. And he sitting on it had a balance in his hand. <sup>6</sup>And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures say, A choenix of wheat for a denarius, and three choenixes of barley for a denarius. And do not hurt the oil and the wine.

<sup>7</sup>And when He had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, Come and see. <sup>8</sup>And I looked, and behold, a pale horse. And the name of him sitting on it was Death, and Hell followed with him. And authority was given to them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with the sword and with hunger and with death and by the beasts of the earth.

<sup>9</sup>And when He had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held. <sup>10</sup>And they cried with a loud voice, saying, Until when, Master, holy and true, do You not judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth? <sup>11</sup>And white robes were given to each one of them. And it was said to them that they should rest yet for a little time, until both their fellow servants and their brothers (those about to be killed as they were) should have their number made complete.

<sup>12</sup>And when He had opened the sixth seal, I looked, and behold, there was a great earthquake. And the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became like blood. <sup>13</sup>And the stars of heaven fell to the earth, even as a fig tree casts her untimely figs when she is shaken by a mighty wind. <sup>14</sup>And the heaven departed like a scroll when it is rolled together. And every mountain and island were moved out of their places. <sup>15</sup>And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every freeman, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains. <sup>16</sup>And they said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him sitting on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb; <sup>17</sup>for the great day of His wrath has come, and who will be able to stand?

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth so that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree. <sup>2</sup>And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God. And he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, <sup>3</sup>saying, Do not hurt the earth or the sea or the trees until we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads. <sup>4</sup>And I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred and forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the sons of Israel.

<sup>5</sup>Out of the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand were sealed. Out of the tribe of Reuben, twelve thousand were sealed. Out of the tribe of Gad, twelve thousand were sealed. <sup>6</sup>Out of the tribe of Asher, twelve thousand were sealed. Out of the tribe of Naphtali, twelve thousand were sealed. Out of the tribe of Manasseh, twelve thousand were sealed. <sup>7</sup>Out of the tribe of Simeon, twelve thousand were sealed. Out of the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand were sealed. Out of the tribe of Issachar, twelve thousand were sealed. <sup>8</sup>Out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve thousand were sealed. Out of the tribe of Joseph, twelve thousand were sealed. Out of the tribe of Benjamin, twelve thousand were sealed.

<sup>9</sup>After these things I looked, and lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, out of all nations and kindreds and people and tongues, stood before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, with palms in their hands. <sup>10</sup>And they cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God sitting on the throne, and to the Lamb. <sup>11</sup>And all the angels stood around the throne, and the elders, and the four living creatures, and they fell before the throne on their faces and worshiped God, <sup>12</sup>saying, Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>13</sup>And one of the elders answered, saying to me, Who are these who are arrayed in white robes, and from where do they come? <sup>14</sup>And I said to him, Sir, you know. And he said to me, These are the ones who came out of great tribulation and have washed their robes, and have whitened them in the blood of the Lamb. <sup>15</sup>Therefore they are before the throne of God, and they serve Him day and night in His temple. And He sitting on the throne will dwell among them. <sup>16</sup>They will not hunger any more, nor thirst any more, nor will the sun light on them, nor any heat. <sup>17</sup>For the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne will feed them and will lead them to the fountains of living waters. And God will wipe away all tears from their eyes.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>And when He opened the seventh seal, there was silence in Heaven for about half an hour. <sup>2</sup>And I saw the seven angels who stood before God, and seven trumpets were given to them. <sup>3</sup>And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer. And many incenses were given to him, so that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints on the golden altar before the throne. <sup>4</sup>And the smoke of the incense which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God from the angel's hand. <sup>5</sup>And the angel took the censer and filled it with fire from the altar, and cast it into the earth. And voices and thunderings and lightnings and an earthquake occurred.

<sup>6</sup>And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound. <sup>7</sup>The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mixed with blood, and they were cast on the earth. And the third part of trees was burned up, and all green grass was burned up. <sup>8</sup>And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea. And the third part of the sea became blood. <sup>9</sup>And the third part of the creatures having life died in the sea; and the third part of the ships was destroyed. <sup>10</sup>And the third angel sounded, and a great star burning like a lamp fell from the heaven, and it fell on the third part of the rivers and on the fountains of waters. <sup>11</sup>And the name of the star is called Wormwood, and a third part of the waters became wormwood. And many men died from the waters, because they were made bitter. <sup>12</sup>And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was stricken, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars, so that the third part of them was darkened, and the day did not appear for a third part of it, and the night also. <sup>13</sup>And I saw and I heard one angel flying in mid-heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe! Woe! Woe to the inhabitants of the earth, from the rest of the voices of the trumpet of the three angels being about to sound!

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>And the fifth angel sounded. And I saw a star fall from the heaven to the earth, and it was given the key to the bottomless pit. <sup>2</sup>And it opened the bottomless pit. And there arose a smoke out of the pit, like the smoke of a great furnace. And the sun and air were darkened because of the smoke of the pit. <sup>3</sup>And out of the smoke came forth locusts onto the earth. And authority was given to them, as the scorpions of the earth have authority. <sup>4</sup>And they were commanded not to hurt the grass of the earth, or any green thing, or any tree, but only those men who do not have the seal of God in their foreheads. <sup>5</sup>And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months. And their torment was like a scorpion's torment when he stings a man. <sup>6</sup>And in those days men will seek death and will not find it. And they will long to die, and death will flee from them.

<sup>7</sup>And the shapes of the locusts were like horses prepared for battle. And on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were like the faces of men. <sup>8</sup>And they had hairs like the hairs of women, and their teeth were like the teeth of lions. <sup>9</sup>And they had breastplates like breastplates of iron. And the sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle. <sup>10</sup>And they had tails like scorpions, and there were stings in their tails. And their authority was to hurt men five months. <sup>11</sup>And they had a king over them, the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in Greek his name is Apollyon.

<sup>13</sup>And the sixth angel sounded his trumpet. And I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar before God, <sup>14</sup>saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, Loose the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates. <sup>15</sup>And the four angels were loosed, who were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, in order to slay the third part of men. <sup>16</sup>And the number of the armies of the horsemen was two myriads of myriads. And I heard their number. <sup>17</sup>And so I saw the horses in the vision, and those sitting on them, having breastplates of fire, even dusky red and brimstone. And the heads of the horses were like the heads of lion. And out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone. <sup>18</sup>By these three the third part of men was killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone which issued out of their mouths. <sup>19</sup>For their authority is in their mouth and in their tails. For their tails were like serpents with heads, and with them they do harm. <sup>20</sup>And the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues still did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and golden, and silver, and bronze, and stone, and wooden idols (which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk). <sup>21</sup>And they did not repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>And I saw another mighty angel coming down out of the heavens, clothed with a cloud. And a rainbow was on his head, and his face was as the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire. <sup>2</sup>And he had a little book open in his hand. And he set his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the earth. <sup>3</sup>And he cried with a loud voice, like a lion roaring. And when he had cried, seven thunders spoke their sounds. <sup>4</sup>And when the seven thunders spoke their sounds, I was about to write. And I heard a voice from Heaven saying to me, Seal up what things the seven thunders spoke, and do not write these things. <sup>5</sup>And the angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the earth lifted his hand to the heaven, <sup>6</sup>and swore by Him who lives forever and ever, who created the heaven and the things in it, and the earth and the things in it, and the sea and the things in it, that there should no longer be time. <sup>7</sup>But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he will begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as He has declared to His servants the prophets.

<sup>8</sup>And the voice which I heard from Heaven spoke to me again, and said, Go, take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the earth. <sup>9</sup>And I went to the angel and said to him, Give me the little book. And he said to me, Take it and eat it up, and it will make your belly bitter, but it will be sweet as honey in your mouth. <sup>10</sup>And I took the little book out of the angel's hand and ate it up. And it was sweet as honey in my mouth, and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter. <sup>11</sup>And he said to me, You must prophesy again before many peoples and nations and tongues and kings.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>And a reed like a rod was given to me. And the angel stood, saying, Rise up and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and those who worship in it. <sup>2</sup>But leave out the court which is outside the temple, and do not measure it, for it was given to the nations. And they will trample the holy city forty-two months. <sup>3</sup>And I will give power to My two witnesses, and they will prophesy a thousand, two hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth. <sup>4</sup>These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands standing before the God of the earth. <sup>5</sup>And if anyone will hurt them, fire proceeds out of their mouth and devours their enemies. And if anyone will hurt them, so it is right for him to be killed. <sup>6</sup>These have authority to shut up the heaven, that it may not rain in the days of their prophecy. And they have authority over waters to turn them to blood, and to strike the earth with every plague, as often as they desire. <sup>7</sup>And when they complete their testimony, the beast coming up out of the abyss war against them and will overcome them and kill them. <sup>8</sup>And their bodies will lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified. <sup>9</sup>And many of the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations will see their dead bodies three days and a half, and they will not allow their dead bodies to be put in tombs. <sup>10</sup>And the ones who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them, and will make merry, and will send one another gifts, because these two prophets tormented those living on the earth.

<sup>11</sup>And after three days and a half, a spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood on their feet. And great fear fell on those seeing them. <sup>12</sup>And they heard a great voice from Heaven saying to them, Come up here. And they went up to Heaven in a cloud, and their enemies watched them. <sup>13</sup>And in that hour a great earthquake occurred, and the tenth part of the city fell. And seven thousand names of men were slain in the earthquake. And the rest were frightened and gave glory to the God of Heaven.

<sup>14</sup>The second woe passed away. Behold, the third woe comes quickly.

<sup>15</sup>And the seventh angel sounded. And there were great voices in Heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of His Christ. And He will reign forever and ever. <sup>16</sup>And the twenty-four elders sitting before God on their thrones, fell on their faces and worshiped God, <sup>17</sup>saying, We thank You, O Lord God Almighty, who are, and who was, and who is coming, because You took Your great power and reigned. <sup>18</sup>And the nations were full of wrath, and Your wrath came, and the time of the judging of the dead, and to give the reward to Your servants the prophets, and to the saints, and to the ones fearing Your name, to the small and to the great, and to destroy those destroying the earth. <sup>19</sup>And the temple of God was opened in Heaven, and there was seen in His temple the ark of His covenant, and occurred lightnings and voices, and thunders and an earthquake, and a great hail.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>And there appeared a great sign in the heavens, a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon was under her feet, and a crown of twelve stars on her head. <sup>2</sup>And she having a babe in womb, she cries, travailing in birth and pained to bear.

<sup>3</sup>And another sign was seen in the heaven. And behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns and seven crowns on his heads! <sup>4</sup>And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and cast them onto the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman being about to bear, so that when she bears he might devour the child. <sup>5</sup>And she bore a son, a male, who is going to rule all nations with a rod of iron. And her child was caught up to God and to His throne. <sup>6</sup>And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she had a place prepared by God, so that they might nourish her there a thousand, two hundred and sixty days.

<sup>7</sup>And there was war in Heaven. Michael and his angels warring against the dragon. And the dragon and his angels warred, <sup>8</sup>but did not prevail. Nor was place found for them in Heaven any more. <sup>9</sup>And the great dragon was cast out, the old serpent called Devil, and Satan, who deceives the whole world. He was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. <sup>10</sup>And I heard a great voice saying in Heaven, Now has come the salvation and power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of His Christ. For the accuser of our brothers is cast down, who accused them before our God day and night. <sup>11</sup>And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb, and because of the word of their testimony. And they did not love their soul to the death. <sup>12</sup>Therefore rejoice, O heavens, and those tabernacling in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and in the sea! For the Devil came down to you, having great wrath, knowing that he has but a little time.

<sup>13</sup>And when the dragon saw that he was cast to the earth, he persecuted the woman who bore the man-child. <sup>14</sup>And two wings of a great eagle were given to the woman, so that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time and times and half a time, from the serpent's face. <sup>15</sup>And the serpent cast out of his mouth water like a flood after the woman, so that he might cause her to be carried away by the river. <sup>16</sup>And the earth helped the woman. And the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river which the dragon cast out of his mouth. <sup>17</sup>And the dragon was enraged over the woman, and went to make war with the rest of her seed, who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>And I stood on the sand of the sea, and I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns. And on its horns were ten crowns, and on its heads was the name of blasphemy. <sup>2</sup>And the beast which I saw was like a leopard, and its feet like those of a bear, and its mouth like the mouth of a lion. And the dragon gave him its power and its seat and great authority. <sup>3</sup>And I saw one of its heads as having been slain to death, and its deadly wound was healed. And all the earth marveled after the beast. <sup>4</sup>And they worshiped the dragon who gave authority to the beast. And they worshiped the beast, saying, Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with it? <sup>5</sup>And a mouth speaking great things was given to it, and blasphemies. And authority was given to it to continue forty-two months. <sup>6</sup>And it opened its mouth in blasphemy toward God, to blaspheme His name and His tabernacle, and those dwelling in Heaven. <sup>7</sup>And it was given to it to war with the saints and to overcome them. And authority was given to it over every tribe and tongues and nation. <sup>8</sup>And all dwelling on the earth will worship it, those whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb slain, from the foundation of the world. <sup>9</sup>If any man has an ear, let him hear. <sup>10</sup>He who leads into captivity will go into captivity. If anyone will kill with the sword, he must be killed by a sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

<sup>11</sup>And I saw another beast coming up out of the earth. And it had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke like a dragon. <sup>12</sup>And it exercises all the authority of the first beast before him, and causes the earth and those dwelling in it to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. <sup>13</sup>And it does great wonders, so that it makes fire come down from the heaven onto the earth in the sight of men. <sup>14</sup>And it deceives those dwelling on the earth, because of the miracles which were given to it to do before the beast, saying to those dwelling on the earth that they should make an image to the beast who had the wound by a sword and lived. <sup>15</sup>And there was given to it to give a spirit to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast might both speak, and might cause as many as would not worship the image of the beast to be killed. <sup>16</sup>And it causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark on their right hand, or in their foreheads, <sup>17</sup>even that not any might buy or sell except those having the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of its name. <sup>18</sup>Here is wisdom. Let him having reason count the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man. And its number is six hundred and sixty-six.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>And I looked, and lo, the Lamb stood on Mount Zion. And with Him were a hundred and forty-four thousands, having His Father's name written in their foreheads. <sup>2</sup>And I heard a voice from Heaven, like the voice of many waters and like the voice of a great thunder. And I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps. <sup>3</sup>And they sang as it were a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders. And no one could learn that song except the hundred and forty-four thousands who were redeemed from the earth. <sup>4</sup>These are those who were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are those who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These were redeemed from among men, the first-fruits to God and to the Lamb. <sup>5</sup>And in their mouth was found no guile, for they were without blemish before the throne of God.

<sup>6</sup>And I saw another angel flying in mid-heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach to those dwelling on the earth, even to every nation and kindred and tongue and people, <sup>7</sup>saying with a great voice, Fear God and give glory to Him! For the hour of His judgment has come. And worship Him who made the heaven and the earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters. <sup>8</sup>And another angel followed, saying, The great city, Babylon, has fallen, has fallen; because of the wine of the anger of her fornication; she has made all nations to drink.

<sup>9</sup>And a third angel followed them, saying with a great voice, If anyone worships the beast and its image, and receives a mark in his forehead or in his hand, <sup>10</sup>he also will drink of the wine of the anger of God, having been mixed undiluted in the cup of His wrath. And he will be tormented by fire and brimstone before the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb. <sup>11</sup>And the smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever. And they have no rest day or night, those who worship the beast and its image, and whoever receives the mark of its name. <sup>12</sup>Here is the patience of the saints. Here are the ones who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus.

<sup>13</sup>And I heard a voice from Heaven saying to me, Write, Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on. Yes, says the Spirit, they shall rest from their labors, and their works follow them. <sup>14</sup>And I looked, and behold, a white cloud. And on the cloud sat one like the Son of man, having a golden crown on His head, and a sharp sickle in His hand. <sup>15</sup>And another angel came out of the temple, crying in a great voice to Him sitting on the cloud, Thrust in Your sickle and reap, for the time has come for You to reap, for the harvest of the earth was dried. <sup>16</sup>And He sitting on the cloud thrust in His sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

<sup>17</sup>And another angel came out of the temple in Heaven, also having a sharp sickle. <sup>18</sup>And another angel came out from the altar, who had authority over fire. And he spoke with a great cry to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in your sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe. <sup>19</sup>And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the anger of God. <sup>20</sup>And the winepress was trodden outside the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even to the bridles of the horses, for the space of a thousand, six hundred stadia.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>And I saw another sign in Heaven, great and marvelous: seven angels with the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of God. <sup>2</sup>And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire. And those who had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God. <sup>3</sup>And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvelous are Your works, Lord God Almighty, just and true are Your ways, O King of saints. <sup>4</sup>Who shall not fear You, O Lord, and glorify Your name? For You only are holy. For all nations shall come and worship before You, for Your righteousnesses were made known.

<sup>5</sup>And after these things I looked, and behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony was opened in Heaven. <sup>6</sup>And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and were tied at the breasts with golden bands. <sup>7</sup>And one of the four beasts gave to the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever. <sup>8</sup>And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from His authority. And no one was able to enter into the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go and pour out the vials of the anger of God on the earth. <sup>2</sup>And the first went and poured out his vial on the earth. And a bad and grievous sore fell on the men who had the mark of the beast, and on those who worshiped his image. <sup>3</sup>And the second angel poured out his vial on the sea. And it became like the blood of a dead man, and every living soul died in the sea. <sup>4</sup>And the third angel poured out his vial on the rivers and fountains of waters, and they became blood. <sup>5</sup>And I heard the angel of the waters say, Righteous is the Lord, who is, and was, and who will be, because You have judged these things, <sup>6</sup>since they have poured out the blood of the saints and prophets; and You gave them blood to drink, for they were deserving. <sup>7</sup>And I heard another out of the altar saying, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are Your judgments.

<sup>8</sup>And the fourth angel poured out his vial onto the sun. And it was given to him to burn men with fire. <sup>9</sup>And men were burned with great heat. And they blasphemed the name of God, He having authority over these plagues. And they did not repent in order to give Him glory.

<sup>10</sup>And the fifth angel poured out his vial on the throne of the beast, and its kingdom became darkened. And they gnawed their tongues from the pain. <sup>11</sup>And they blasphemed the God of Heaven because of their pains and their sores. And they did not repent of their deeds.

<sup>12</sup>And the sixth angel poured out his vial on the great river Euphrates. And its water was dried up, so that the way of the kings from the rising of the sun might be prepared.

<sup>13</sup>And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. <sup>14</sup>For they are spirits of demons, working miracles, which go forth to the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that day, the great day of God Almighty. <sup>15</sup>Behold, I am coming as a thief. Blessed is he who watches and keeps his garments, lest he walk naked and they see his shame. <sup>16</sup>And he gathered them into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.

<sup>17</sup>And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air. And a great voice came out of the temple of Heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done! <sup>18</sup>And voices and thunders and lightnings occurred. And there was a great earthquake, such as has not been since men were on the earth, so mighty and so great an earthquake. <sup>19</sup>And the great city came to be into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. And great Babylon was remembered before God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the anger of His wrath. <sup>20</sup>And every island fled away, and mountains were not found. <sup>21</sup>And a great hail, as the size of a talent, came down out of the heaven on men. And men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague of it was exceedingly great.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>1</sup>And one of the seven angels who had the seven vials came and talked with me, saying to me, Come here, I will show you the judgment of the great harlot who sits on many waters, <sup>2</sup>with whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication. <sup>3</sup>So he carried me away into a desert, by the Spirit. And I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet-colored beast, filled with names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. <sup>4</sup>And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet. And she was gilded with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication. <sup>5</sup>And on her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. <sup>6</sup>And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I marveled with a great marveling. <sup>7</sup>And the angel said to me, Why did you marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, that has the seven heads and ten horns. <sup>8</sup>The beast that you saw was, and is not, and is about to ascend out of the abyss and go into perdition. And those dwelling on the earth will marvel, those whose names were not written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is. <sup>9</sup>And here is the mind which has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sits. <sup>10</sup>And there are seven kings; five have fallen, and one is, and the other has not yet come. And when he comes, he must continue a short time. <sup>11</sup>And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goes into perdition. <sup>12</sup>And the ten horns which you saw are ten kings, who have received no kingdom yet, but will receive authority as kings one hour with the beast. <sup>13</sup>These have one mind, and they will give their power and authority to the beast. <sup>14</sup>These will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them. For He is Lord of lords and King of kings. And those with Him are the called and elect and faithful ones. <sup>15</sup>And he says to me, The waters which you saw, where the harlot sits, and peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues, <sup>16</sup>and the ten horns which you saw on the beast, these will hate the harlot and will make her desolate and naked. And they will eat her flesh and burn her with fire. <sup>17</sup>For God gave into their hearts to do His mind, and to act with one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast until the words of God will be fulfilled. <sup>18</sup>And the woman whom you saw is the great city which has a kingdom over the kings of the earth.

CHAPTER 18

<sup>1</sup>And after these things I saw another angel come down from Heaven, having great authority. And the earth was lighted up from his glory. <sup>2</sup>And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great has fallen, has fallen! And it has become the dwelling-place of demons, and a prison of every unclean spirit, and a cage of every unclean bird which has been hated, <sup>3</sup>because of the wine of the anger of her fornication which all the nations have drunk. And the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her. And the merchants of the earth became rich from the power of her luxury.

<sup>4</sup>And I heard another voice from Heaven, saying, Come out of her, My people, that you may not be partakers of her sins, and that you may not receive of her plagues. <sup>5</sup>For her sins joined together, even up to Heaven, and God has remembered her unjust deeds. <sup>6</sup>Reward her as she has rewarded you, and double to her double, according to her works. In the cup which she mixed, mix double to her. <sup>7</sup>As much as she has glorified herself and has lived in luxury, so much torment and sorrow give her. For she says in her heart, I sit as a queen, and I am not a widow; and I do not see mourning at all. <sup>8</sup>Therefore her plagues will come in one day, death and mourning and famine. And she will be consumed with fire, for the Lord God who judges her is strong. <sup>9</sup>And the kings of the earth who have committed fornication and lived in luxury with her will weep for her, and will wail over her when they see the smoke of her burning; <sup>10</sup>standing afar off for fear of her torment, saying, Woe! Woe to the great city, Babylon, that strong city! For in one hour your judgment came. <sup>11</sup>And the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their cargo any more; <sup>12</sup>the cargo of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and every ivory vessel, and every vessel of very precious wood, and of bronze, and of iron, and of marble, <sup>13</sup>and cinnamon, and incenses, and ointment, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men. <sup>14</sup>And the fruits that your soul lusted after have departed from you, and all the fat things and the bright things departed from you, and you will find them no more, not at all. <sup>15</sup>The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, will stand afar off because of the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning <sup>16</sup>and saying, Woe! Woe to the great city which was clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls! <sup>17</sup>For in one hour such great riches was desolated. And every ship-pilot, and all the company on the ships, and sailors, and as many as work the sea, stood afar off. <sup>18</sup>And they cried out, seeing the smoke of her burning, saying, What is like the great city? <sup>19</sup>And they threw dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, Woe! Woe to the great city, by which all who had ships in the sea were rich because of her costliness! For in one hour she was ruined. <sup>20</sup>Rejoice over her, Heaven, and the holy apostles, and the prophets, since God judged your judgment on her. <sup>21</sup>And one strong angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, So on an impulse the great city, Babylon, will be thrown down and will not be found any more at all. <sup>22</sup>And the voice of harpers, and of musicians, and flutists, and of trumpeters will be heard no more at all in you. And every craftsman of any craft will not be found any more in you. And the sound of a mill will never more be heard at all in you. <sup>23</sup>And the light of a lamp will never more shine at all in you. And the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride will never more be heard at all in you. For your merchants were the great ones of the earth; for by your sorceries all nations were deceived. <sup>24</sup>And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all those who were slain on the earth.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>1</sup>And after these things I heard a great sound of a numerous crowd in Heaven, saying, Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and honor and the power of the Lord our God! <sup>2</sup>For true and righteous are His judgments. For He has judged the great harlot who defiled the earth with her fornication, and He has avenged the blood of His servants out of her hand. <sup>3</sup>And secondly they said, Hallelujah! And her smoke rose up forever and ever. <sup>4</sup>And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God sitting on the throne, saying, Amen! Hallelujah! <sup>5</sup>And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all His servants, and the ones fearing Him, the small and great.

<sup>6</sup>And I heard as the sound of a great multitude, and as the sound of many waters, and as the sound of strong thunders, saying, Hallelujah! For the Lord God omnipotent reigns! <sup>7</sup>Let us be glad and rejoice and we will give glory to Him. For the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has prepared herself. <sup>8</sup>And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in white linen, clean and white. For the fine linen is the righteousness of the saints.

<sup>9</sup>And he said to me, Write, Blessed are those who have been called to the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he said to me, These are the true sayings of God. <sup>10</sup>And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said to me, Stop! I am your fellow servant, and of your brothers who have the testimony of Jesus. Worship God, for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

<sup>11</sup>And I saw Heaven opened. And behold, a white horse! And He sitting on him was called Faithful and True. And in righteousness He judges and makes war. <sup>12</sup>His eyes were like a flame of fire, and on His head many crowns. And He had a name written, one that no one knew except Himself. <sup>13</sup>And He had been clothed in a garment dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word of God. <sup>14</sup>And the armies in Heaven followed Him on white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. <sup>15</sup>And out of His mouth goes a sharp sword, so that with it He should strike the nations. And He will shepherd them with a rod of iron. And He treads the winepress of the wine of the anger and of the wrath of Almighty God. <sup>16</sup>And He has on His garment, and on His thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

<sup>17</sup>And I saw one angel standing in the sun. And he cried with a great voice, saying to all the birds that fly in mid-heaven, Come and gather together to the supper of the great God, <sup>18</sup>so that you may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of strong ones, and the flesh of horses, and those sitting on them, and the flesh of all, both free and slave, both small and great. <sup>19</sup>And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth and their armies, being gathered to make war against Him who sat on the horse, and against His army. <sup>20</sup>And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet doing signs before it, (by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast), and those who had worshiped his image. The two were thrown alive into the Lake of Fire burning with brimstone. <sup>21</sup>And the rest were slain by the sword of Him who sat on the horse, it proceeding out of His mouth. And all the birds were filled from their flesh.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>1</sup>And I saw an angel come down from Heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand. <sup>2</sup>And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him a thousand years. <sup>3</sup>And he cast him into the abyss and shut him up and set a seal on him, that he should deceive the nations no more until the thousand years should be fulfilled. And after that he must be loosed a little time.

<sup>4</sup>And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the witness of Jesus and for the word of God, and who had not worshiped the beast nor his image, nor had received his mark on their foreheads, nor in their hands. And they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. <sup>5</sup>But the rest of the dead did not live again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. <sup>6</sup>Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. The second death has no authority over these, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with Him a thousand years.

<sup>7</sup>And when the thousand years have expired, Satan will be loosed out of his prison. <sup>8</sup>And he will go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth — Gog and Magog — to gather them together to battle. The number of them is as the sand of the sea. <sup>9</sup>And they went up over the breadth of the earth and circled around the camp of the saints, and the beloved city. And fire came down from God out of Heaven and devoured them. <sup>10</sup>And the Devil who deceived them was cast into the Lake of Fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet were. And he will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

<sup>11</sup>And I saw a great white throne, and Him sitting on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away. And a place was not found for them. <sup>12</sup>And I saw the dead, the small and the great, stand before God. And the books were opened, and another book was opened, which is the Book of Life. And the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. <sup>13</sup>And the sea gave up the dead in it. And death and hell delivered up the dead in them. And each one of them was judged according to their works. <sup>14</sup>And death and hell were cast into the Lake of Fire. This is the second death. <sup>15</sup>And if anyone was not found having been written in the Book of Life, he was cast into the Lake of Fire.

CHAPTER 21

<sup>1</sup>And I saw a new heaven and a new earth. For the first heaven and the first earth had passed away. And the sea no longer is. <sup>2</sup>And I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down from God out of Heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. <sup>3</sup>And I heard a great voice out of Heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they will be His people, and God Himself will be with them and be their God. <sup>4</sup>And God will wipe away all tears from their eyes. And there will be no more death, nor mourning, nor crying out, nor will there be any more pain — for the first things passed away.

<sup>5</sup>And He sitting on the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And He said to me, Write, for these words are true and faithful. <sup>6</sup>And He said to me, It is done. I am the Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the End. To him who thirsts I will give of the fountain of the water of life freely. <sup>7</sup>He who overcomes will inherit all things, and I will be his God, and he will be My son. <sup>8</sup>But the fearful, and the unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, will have their part in the Lake burning with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.

<sup>9</sup>And one of the seven angels who had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues came to me and talked with me, saying, Come here, I will show you the bride, the Lamb's wife. <sup>10</sup>And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain and showed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of Heaven from God, <sup>11</sup>having the glory of God. And its light was like a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal. <sup>12</sup>And it had a great and high wall, with twelve gates. And at the gates were twelve angels, and names inscribed, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel: <sup>13</sup>From the east three gates, from the north three gates, from the south three gates, and from the west three gates. <sup>14</sup>And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them were the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. <sup>15</sup>And he who talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city and its gates and its wall. <sup>16</sup>And the city lies four-square, and the length is as large as the breadth. And he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand stadia. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal. <sup>17</sup>And he measured its wall, a hundred and forty-four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of an angel.

<sup>18</sup>And the foundation of its wall was jasper; and the city was pure gold, like clear glass. <sup>19</sup>And the foundations of the wall of the city had been adorned with every precious stone. The first foundation, jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald; <sup>20</sup>the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprasus; the eleventh, hyacinth; the twelfth, amethyst. <sup>21</sup>And the twelve gates were twelve pearls. Respectively, each one of the gates was one pearl. And the street of the city was pure gold, as transparent glass. <sup>22</sup>And I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God Almighty is its temple, even the Lamb. <sup>23</sup>And the city had no need of the sun, nor of the moon, that they might shine in it, for the glory of God illuminated it, and its lamp is the Lamb. <sup>24</sup>And the nations of those who are saved will walk in the light of it; and the kings of the earth bring their glory and honor into it. <sup>25</sup>And its gates may not be shut at all by day, for there shall be no night there. <sup>26</sup>And they shall bring the glory and honor of the nations into it. <sup>27</sup>And there shall in no way enter into it anything that defiles, or any making an abomination or a lie; but only those who are written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

CHAPTER 22

<sup>1</sup>And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. <sup>2</sup>In the midst of its street, and of the river, from here and from there, was the Tree of Life, which bore twelve fruits, each yielding its fruit according to one month. And the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. <sup>3</sup>And every curse will no longer be; but the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and His servants will serve Him. <sup>4</sup>And they will see His face, and His name will be in their foreheads. <sup>5</sup>And there will be no night there. And they need no lamp, or light of the sun; for the Lord God gives them light. And they will reign forever and ever.

<sup>6</sup>And he said to me, These sayings are faithful and true. And the Lord God of the holy prophets sent His angel to show to His servants the things which must shortly be done. <sup>7</sup>Behold, I come quickly. Blessed is he who keeps the sayings of the prophecy of this book. <sup>8</sup>And I, John, saw and heard these things. And when I heard and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel showing me these things. <sup>9</sup>Then he said to me, Behold! Stop! For I am your fellow-servant, and of your brothers the prophets, and of those who keep the sayings of this Book. Do worship to God.

<sup>10</sup>And he said to me, Do not seal the words of the prophecy of this Book; for the time is at hand. <sup>11</sup>He acting unjustly, let him still act unjustly. And the filthy, let him be filthy still. And the righteous, let him be righteous still. And the holy, let him be holy still. <sup>12</sup>And behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to give to each according as his work is. <sup>13</sup>I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last. <sup>14</sup>Blessed are they who do His commandments, that their authority will be over the Tree of Life, and may enter in by the gates into the city. <sup>15</sup>But outside are the dogs, and the sorcerers, and the fornicators, and the murderers, and the idolaters, and everyone who loves and makes a lie.

<sup>16</sup>I, Jesus, have sent My angel to testify these things to you over the churches. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, the bright and Morning Star. <sup>17</sup>And the Spirit and the bride say, Come! And let him who hears say, Come. And let him who is thirsty come. And he willing, let him take of the water of life freely.

<sup>18</sup>For I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this Book: If anyone adds to these things, God will add on him the plagues that have been written in this Book. <sup>19</sup>And if anyone takes away from the words of the Book of this prophecy, God will take away his part out of the Book of Life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which have been written in this Book.

<sup>20</sup>He who testifies these things says, Yes, I am coming quickly, Amen. Yes, come, Lord Jesus.

<sup>21</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with all of you. Amen.
